IT IS SO ORDERED on this _____ day of _____, 2004.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

counsel, Mr. Mitby had agreed to the terms of the stipulation but had not given explicit permission to sign his name.

Mr. Mitby requested that the Agreed Stipulation be immediately withdrawn so that it could be substituted with an Agreed Stipulation that is identical in every respect to the Corrected Stipulation already on file, except that it bears Mr. Mitby's signature written in his own hand. Mr. Mitby has now signed the stipulation, but still insists that the identical stipulation with his name signed "by permission" instead of in his own hand be withdrawn. After the undersigned counsel agreed to this gesture, Mr. Mitby felt the need to send a letter to the undersigned counsel, copied to the Court, again expressing his concerns.

The undersigned Defendants respectfully request that the Court withdraw both the Agreed Stipulation and the Corrected Agreed Stipulation that were filed on September 16, 2004. Another identical stipulation (signed by Mr. Mitby's own hand) is being filed concurrent with this motion. A proposed order granting this motion is attached.

The undersigned apologizes for any inconvenience this causes the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul D. Flack
