PRESS RELEASE

Tech Pacific sale transaction successfully closed

Hagemeyer today announced the completion of the sale of Tech Pacific to Ingram Micro, following regulatory approvals for this transaction.

As a result of the sale of its 31.5% stake in Tech Pacific, Hagemeyer received a net cash consideration of € 83.4 million, which will be used to pay off part of Hagemeyer's senior debt. The financing facilities available to Hagemeyer will be reduced accordingly.

This amount excludes a small part of the final consideration which will be kept in escrow until a later date, as part of contractual obligations.

Based on the current book value of its 31.5% participation in Tech Pacific, Hagemeyer will realise a book gain of approximately € 56.5 million in the current financial year.

Further details on the transaction can be found in the press release announcing the sale of Tech Pacific, dated September 27, 2004.

PERSBERICHT

Verkoop van Tech Pacific succesvol afgerond

Hagemeyer maakt vandaag bekend dat de verkoop van Tech Pacific aan Ingram Micro is afgerond nadat de vereiste formele goedkeuringen zijn verkregen.

Als gevolg van de verkoop van het belang van 31,5% in Tech Pacific heeft Hagemeyer € 83,4 miljoen ontvangen, dat zal worden aangewend om een deel van de senior schuld van Hagemeyer af te lossen. De aan Hagemeyer ter beschikking staande financieringsfaciliteiten zullen dienovereenkomstig worden teruggebracht.

Dit bedrag is exclusief een klein gedeelte van de uiteindelijke netto opbrengst dat onder de contractvoorwaarden nog in "escrow" wordt gehouden.

Op basis van de huidige boekwaarde van het belang van 31,5% in Tech Pacific zal Hagemeyer in het lopende boekjaar een boekwinst van circa € 56,5 miljoen realiseren.

Voor nadere details over de transactie wordt verwezen naar het persbericht van 27 september 2004 waarin de verkoop van Tech Pacific werd aangekondigd.
