BAA airports handle record number of passengers in 2004

BAA's UK airports handled 140.1 million passengers during the calendar year 2004, an increase of 6.9% on 2003. It is the first time BAA's 7 UK airports have handled in excess of 140 million passengers during a calendar year.

Traffic also performed strongly during the calendar month, increasing 4.6% to 10.5 million passengers in December 2004. The tragic events arising from the south Asian tsunami occurred late in the month and had a negligible impact on traffic.

Calendar year

Among individual airports strong performance was recorded for the full calendar year 2004 compared with 2003. Heathrow recorded a 6.2% increase to 67.1 million passengers, Gatwick a 5.0% increase to 31.4 million, Stansted a 11.7% increase to 20.9 million and Southampton a 25.7% increase to 1.5 million.

At BAA Scotland, Glasgow passenger numbers rose 5.5% to 8.6 million, Edinburgh added 7.0% to 8 million passengers and Aberdeen increased 5.0% to 2.6 million.

During the calendar year air traffic movements increased 3.8% to 1.21 million while cargo increased 7.7% to 1.8 million tonnes.

Potential joint venture of non-core aeronautical property interests

BAA has a long term strategic intent to develop its aviation related property interests. BAA is also constantly looking to increase shareholder value from its success in this activity.

Discussions are underway and due diligence has commenced with a view to forming a 50:50 joint venture with an external investor to hold certain of BAA's non-core aeronautical properties. The actual properties to be included in the joint venture are still being considered.

The transaction, if concluded, will raise cash for BAA.

A further announcement will be made in due course as appropriate.
