Executive Summary

-  2004. Net Income (EUR 221 MM) represents some 10% more than in 2003.
-  Substantial Growth in the past. With these results, Gamesa has achieved a CAGR of 49% from 2000 to 2004.
-  Wind Farm Stock Reduction. During 2003 and 2004 the company has reduced the stock of windfarms generating around EUR 30 MM non recurrent results each year.
-  Weakness in Aeronautics. Despite of the weak performance of Aeronautics, the group expects to grow in the range of 10% in terms of Net Income.
-  Consolidating Growth. After consolidating the group's Net Income Growth in 2005, Gamesa expects double digit growth in the 2006 – 2008 period.

Despite of the weakness in aeronautics, Gamesa has closed 2004 with EUR 221 MM Net Income, 10% more than in 2003.

NOTE ON ACCOUNTING

-  Work In Progress. In 2004, Gamesa Energía and Gamesa Aeronáutica started applying work in progress accounting following IFRS procedures.
-  Comparability with 2003. This procedure was not applied in 2003 reported accounts. In case of having applied this rule in 2003 Gamesa should have booked 44MM as work in progress increasing Revenues, EBITDA and Net Income in 2003.
-  Adjustment in 2004 Reported Accounts. Official Accounts following Spanish GAAP reconcile EUR 44 MM corresponding to work in progress 2003 as an extraordinary result. As these results are based on ordinary activities, in this presentation, they have been booked in 2004 as Revenues and EBITDA (without any changes in Net Income).
-  Cash Flow unchanged. In any case, all the above has no effect in terms of cash flow in 2003 or 2004.

WTG MANUFACTURING. Margins

- Stable EBITDA margin. Despite of higher raw material costs, vertical integration, operating leverage and higher prices per MW have allowed for a stable EBITDA margin.
- Lower Net Income on Sales. Larger Depreciation (due to investments in new capacity) and higher provisions (required to cover longer guarantees outside of Spain) have pushed Net Income on Sales down.

MARGINS	2003	2004
EBITDA / Sales	18.3%	18.2%
Net Income / Sales	9.6%	8.4%

Growth and vertical integration allow for stable operating margins, while net margins fall slightly.

ADVANCED SERVICES. Main Issues

Increased Wind related activity. Gamesa Servicios has experimented substantial growth in 2004 mainly due to the higher exposure to the wind activity (warranties of WTG expiring).

Good Prospects for Solar. Gamesa Solar will have a small contribution to P&L in 2004 and 2005 but is growing strongly.

AERONAUTICS. Fall in 2004

-  Q4 2004 Unhedged to USD exposure. Gamesa Aeronáutica entered a forward sale of USD with a Knock Out structure at 1.25 $/€. The knock out was hit in October 2004, leaving the remaining of the year unhedged.
-  Assets (Receivables and Inventories) booked at 1.36$/€. Assets booked in USD were translated to EUR at the closing rate, while purchases were translated into EUR at the hedged rate of mid 2004. As a consequence, 2004 results are too penalised. This effect will be reversed in 2005.

The unhedged position plus the effects on receivables and stocks have pushed the profits of 2004 down by EUR 17 MM.

AERONAUTICS. Current Situation

Strong reduction in ERJ 135-145 deliveries. The changes in the industry have accelerated the maturity of the 30-50 seater aircrafts with 650 units expected to be delivered in the next 10 years.
Improved performance of the EMB 170 / 190. The change in trend has accelerated the deliveries of the EMB 170 / 190 where learning curve is still very low (little margin contribution).
Start of substantial level of deliveries of S 92. The helicopter should be supplied at 20 – 30 units per year from 2005 onwards.
Weak USD. The current USD exchange rate represent a big hurdle in the company's profitability (more than 90% of sales in USD and only 30% of costs in USD). 2005 is hedged at 1,30 $/€ with 50% of the hedge at a k.o. level at 1.37 $/€.

Gamesa Aeronáutica faces a bad short term situation that needs to be managed.

Conclusion

Please refer to page 52 for Forward Looking Statement

CONCLUSION

-  +10% Net Income 2004. Substantial growth in renewable energies (windfarms, windturbines and services) and weakness in Aeronautics.
-  Internationalisation. Both Gamesa Eólica and Gamesa Energía have proven their international presence with substantial contribution in 2004 while keeping very active in the domestic market.
-  Diversified Client Portfolio. New clients in windfarms (Babcock & Brown) and a broad customer base in WTG represent a solid base for future evolution.

2004 closes a growth path started in 2000 and opens the international growth phase that will consolidate in 2005.
