CELEBRATE ALBERTA'S 100th BIRTHDAY WITH ATCO IN CALGARY Spectacular "Places in Time" Exhibit at Spruce Meadows this Week

CALGARY, Alberta – ATCO's spectacular "Places in Time" Centennial exhibit arrives in Calgary today for four days of family fun, supported by original theatre performances about Alberta's history and the Lord Strathcona's Mounted Troup, who have delighted crowds across southern Alberta the last three weeks.

The showcase of ATCO's Pioneers of Alberta Spirit Centennial program, "Places in Time" is travelling the province this summer, bringing Alberta history to life through unique exhibits in a specially built three-unit display centre. After an inaugural tour across southern Alberta, the exhibit, showcasing ATCO's and Alberta's shared history, is at Spruce Meadows today through Sunday.

Theatre performances – especially commissioned and written to take the whole family on a delightful journey through Alberta's history – will be staged throughout each day. Games, street performers, refreshments and opportunities to win prizes will also be offered and all events are free.

"Over the past three weeks, more than 4,000 visitors throughout communities in southern Alberta gathered to celebrate Alberta's Centennial and learn more about our province and our company," said Nancy Southern, President and Chief Executive Officer, ATCO Group.

The exhibit is open to the public Thursday from 12 noon to 9 p.m.; Friday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Performances by the ATCO Centennial actors are scheduled on Thursday and Friday at 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00 p.m. and on Friday and Saturday at 12:00 noon, 2:00 and 3:30 p.m.

All visitors will also take home an ATCO Centennial Passport, a commemorative keepsake that encourages everyone to travel around the province collecting stamps along the way. Great prizes, including a spectacular rail trip through the Canadian Rockies, are available to be won by ATCO Centennial Passport users.
