Friends Provident plc to raise Tier 1 hybrid debt capital

Friends Provident plc has appointed Merrill Lynch International (Structuring Advisor) and HSBC as joint Lead Managers and Bookrunners for a forthcoming Tier 1 hybrid debt capital transaction. The transaction will be of a benchmark size, targeted at institutional investors in the Sterling and Euro markets and will be launched following a roadshow, subject to market conditions. The obligations of Friends Provident plc will be guaranteed on a subordinated basis by its principal subsidiary, Friends Provident Life and Pensions Limited. Co-Managers for the offering will be Barclays Capital and UBS.

Philip Moore, group finance director of Friends Provident plc, said:

"The offering will raise cost effective core debt capital for the Group. The proceeds will be used to pre-fund redemption of the £215 million hybrid debt issue callable in 2006, support future growth and further enhance Friends Provident's capital position."
