Press Release

T-Online supervisory board decides to appeal in the release proceedings

T-Online/Darmstadt, December 9, 2005 – In its meeting yesterday, the supervisory board of T-Online International AG passed a resolution to follow the management board's proposal and to file an immediate appeal with the Frankfurt am Main Higher Regional Court in the release proceedings. "Today we will file an appeal with the Frankfurt Higher Regional Court against the decision of the Darmstadt Regional Court", says Rainer Beaujean, CEO of T-Online International AG.

Already in its written reasons for the decision, the District Court specifically regarded the actions for avoidance as largely unfounded and only weighed up a few factors against the interests of T-Online and Deutsche Telekom. The appeal will state that all objections are unfounded and that significant economic interests of the company and its shareholders, which go beyond the cost synergies taken into account by the Darmstadt District Court, are at stake.
