To the Board of Directors
Preferred Partnership Services, Inc.
d/b/a Investor Services

We have examined management's assertion that "As of December 31, 2004, Preferred Partnership Services, Inc.'s system of internal control, including the appropriate segregation of responsibilities and duties, over the transfer agent and registrar functions meets the objectives set forth in Rule 17 Ad-13(a)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and that no material inadequacies as defined by that rule existed as of that date."

Our examination was made in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included a study and evaluation of the system of internal control over the transfer agent and registrar functions, using the objectives set forth in Rule 17 Ad-13(a)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Those objectives are to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that securities and funds are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transfer agent activities are performed promptly and accurately. We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Because of inherent limitations in any system of internal control, errors, irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of a system of internal control to future periods are subject to the risk that the system may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, management's assertion that as of December 31, 2004, Preferred Partnership Services, Inc.'s system of internal control, including the appropriate segregation of responsibilities and duties, over the transfer agent and registrar functions meets the objectives set forth in Rule 17 Ad-13(a)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and that no material inadequacies as defined by that rule existed as of that date is fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the criteria established by that rule.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors and management of Preferred Partnership Services, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission and should not be used for any other purpose.
