INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of Tennenbaum Securities, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Tennenbaum Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2004, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tennenbaum Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. Nature of business

Tennenbaum Securities, LLC (the Company), a Delaware limited liability company, is a registered broker/dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD).

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Cash Equivalent

The Company considers its investment in a short-term money market fund to be a cash equivalent.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts disclosed in the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a partnership for federal and state tax purposes whereby taxable income (loss) is reported by the Company's members.

3. Net capital requirement

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, maintenance of the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, not to exceed 15 to 1, and compliance with restrictions on withdrawal of equity capital or cash dividends if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2004, the Company's net capital is $14,732, which is $9,732 in excess of its minimum net capital requirement of $5,000.

4. Related party transactions

Tennenbaum & Co., LLC (the Parent) owns 98% of the Company. The Company reimburses Tennenbaum Capital Partners, LLC (an affiliate of the Parent) for its share of consulting and other office expenses. The total of such expenses equals $2,537 for the year ended December 31, 2004.
