Independent Auditor's Report

To Board of Directors
Becker, Burke Associates, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Becker, Burke Associates, Inc. as of December 31, 2004. This financial statement is the responsibility of Becker, Burke Associates, Inc's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with United States of America generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Becker, Burke Associates, Inc. at December 31, 2004, in conformity with United States of America generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2004

1. General Information and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

General Becker, Burke Associates, Inc. (the Company) is a registered broker and dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company provides portfolio performance analysis to customers on a cash or directed brokerage basis. The Company carries no margin accounts and does not otherwise hold funds or securities for or owe money or securities to customers. Accordingly, the Company meets the exemptive provisions of the customer protection rule (Rule 15c3-3).

Cash and Cash Equivalents For purposes of the cash flow, cash and cash equivalents are defined as highly liquid investments. Cash and cash equivalents include various money market accounts totaling $417,586 at December 31, 2004.

Income Taxes The Company has filed an election to be treated as an S-corporation under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Under this election, the liability for payment of federal and state income taxes on the Company's earnings will be the liability of the stockholders, rather than that of the Company.

Estimates The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States of America generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Operating Leases The Company leases office space under a noncancellable operating lease. Rent expense was $80,288 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Future minimum payments are as follows:

Year
2005	$ 65,793
2006	43,862
<hr/>
Total future minimum lease payments	$ 109,655

3. Retirement Plan

The Company has a 401(k) profit sharing retirement plan covering all of its employees.

Under the 401(k) profit sharing retirement plan, eligible employees may elect to defer a portion of their salary under the plan. Eligible employees will receive a voluntary Company contribution equal to 5.7% of compensation and compensation over the social security base for the current year, limited to $200,000. The Company, at its sole discretion, may provide an additional contribution and/or a matching contribution to the 401(k) profit sharing retirement plan. Company contributions and discretionary contributions made by the Company to this plan for the year ended December 31, 2004 were $81,523 and $7,243, respectively, and are included in salaries and employee benefits expense.

4. Regulatory Net
Capital Requirement

Pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), the Company is required to maintain minimum net capital and an allowance ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital as defined under this rule. The Company operates under the basic method that required minimum net capital, as defined of $250,000. At December 31, 2004 the Company had net capital of $415,866, which was $165,866 in excess of its required minimum net capital. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital at December 31, 2004 is 0.55 to 1.
