INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members
Millennium Wave Securities, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Millennium Wave Securities, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2004, and the related statements of operations, changes in members' capital, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Millennium Wave Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained on pages 8 and 9 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. General Description of the Company

Millennium Wave Securities, LLC (the Company) is a Texas limited liability company which was formed on September 10, 1999 and commenced operations July 18, 2002. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Managing Member of the Company is John F. Mauldin.

B. Method of Reporting

The Company's financial statements are presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which require the use of certain estimates made by the Company's management.

C. Cash and Equivalents

Cash and equivalents include all cash and short term certificates of deposit held at a banking institution. At times, these balances may be in excess of federally insured limits.

D. Income Taxes

As a limited liability company, the Company prepares calendar year U.S. and applicable state information tax returns and reports to its members their allocable shares of the Company's taxable income.

Note 2. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company shares office facilities with an affiliate, Mauldin Management Company (MMC). MMC bears the administrative expenses (as defined in the Service Agreement) of the Company and provides certain services to the Company including providing office space and utilities, and personnel to the Company. The Company paid $286,027 to MMC during 2004 for the use of these facilities and for the reimbursement of other shared office expenses.

Note 3. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain minimum net capital and is required to maintain a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital (both as defined under such provisions), not to exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2004, the Company had net capital of $25,299, which was $20,299 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 28.16%.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONTINUED)

Note 4. COMMISSIONS

Commissions are earned on a percentage of sales compensation received from an unaffiliated broker dealer to whom the Company refers investors. Such amounts are recognized as income when earned.

Note 5. GUARANTEES

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into contracts and agreements that contain a variety of representations and warranties and which provide general indemnifications. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Company that have not yet occurred. The Company expects the risk of any future obligation under these indemnifications to be remote.

MILLENNIUM WAVE SECURITIES, LLC
COMPUTATION OF RESERVE REQUIREMENTS UNDER RULE 15c3-3
AND INFORMATION RELATING TO POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS
UNDER RULE 15c3-3
December 31, 2004

The Company does not file information in accordance with Rule 15c3-3 as it is a broker-dealer which carries no margin accounts, promptly transmits all customer funds received in connection with its activities, and does not hold funds or securities for, or owe money to, customers. Therefore, Millennium Wave Securities, LLC claims the k(2)(i) exemption in relation to Rule 15c3-3.

MILLENNIUM WAVE SECURITIES, LLC
INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

Supplementary Report to Financial Statements and Supplementary Information
(Form X-17a-5)

For the Year Ended December 31, 2004

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Members
Millennium Wave Securities, LLC

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplementary information of Millennium Wave Securities, LLC (the Company), for the year ended December 31, 2004, we considered its internal control in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the Company's internal control nor for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the Company's internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in the Company's internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the Company's internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that the practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2004, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the members, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
