Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
Buttonwood Partners, Inc.
Madison, Wisconsin

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Buttonwood Partners, Inc. as of September 30, 2005, that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Corporation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Buttonwood Partners, Inc. as of September 30, 2005, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business: Buttonwood Partners, Inc. (the Corporation) is a Wisconsin corporation formed on March 7, 1990, for the purpose of conducting business as a broker/dealer in securities. The Corporation has an office in Madison, Wisconsin and serves primarily individual customers in the Midwest.

The Corporation operates under the provisions of Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission and, accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of rule 15c3-3. Essentially, the requirements of paragraph (k)(2)(ii) provide that the Corporation clear all transactions on behalf of customers on a fully-disclosed basis with a clearing broker/dealer and promptly transmit all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers and maintains and preserves all related books and records as are customarily kept by a clearing broker/dealer.

A summary of the Corporation's significant accounting policies follows:

Use of estimates: The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents: Cash and cash equivalents include interest-bearing demand deposits with banks and money market instruments. The Corporation maintains deposits with high quality financial institutions in amounts in excess of federally insured limits; however, the Corporation does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk.

Revenue recognition: Commission revenue and related expenses arising from securities transactions are recorded on a settlement-date basis. While generally accepted accounting principles require the use of trade date accounting, it has been determined that the difference created by using settlement date is not material to the financial statements.

Furniture and equipment: Furniture and equipment is stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed principally by the straight-line method over the useful lives of the assets.

Income taxes: Deferred income taxes reflect the impact of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases and are stated at enacted tax rates expected to be in effect when taxes are actually paid or recovered.

Recent accounting pronouncement: The FASB has issued Statement No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of Both Liabilities and Equity. Statement No. 150 requires that certain freestanding financial instruments be reported as liabilities in the statement of financial condition. Depending on the type of financial instrument, it will be accounted for at either fair value or the present value of future cash flows determined at each statement of financial condition date with the change in that value reported as interest expense in the statement of operations. Prior to the application of Statement No. 150, either those financial instruments were not required to be recognized or, if recognized, were reported in the statement of financial condition as equity and changes in the value of those instruments were normally not recognized in net income. This Statement is currently effective for public companies and non-public companies required to file financial statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). The Company's management has reviewed this matter and determined that it has no impact on its financial position, results of operations, and regulatory net capital.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 2. Deposit with Clearing Broker/Dealer

At September 30, 2005, the Corporation had a deposit in the amount of $50,000 with its clearing broker, National Financial Services, LLC (NFS). The Corporation is dependent on NFS for the everyday processing of customer transactions as required under the provisions of paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Note 3. Furniture and Equipment

Furniture and equipment consisted of the following at September 30, 2005:

Furniture and fixtures	$ 30,597
Office equipment	348,101
Artwork	9,118
	<hr/>
	387,816
Less accumulated depreciation	286,657
	<hr/>
	$ 101,159

Note 4. Net Capital Requirements

The Corporation is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission uniform net capital rule (rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of a minimum amount of net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. The Corporation had net capital, net capital requirements, and a net capital ratio of the following at September 30, 2005:

Net capital	$ 135,079
Net capital requirements	50,000
Net capital ratio	0.81 to 1

Note 5. Commitments

The Corporation leases its Madison, Wisconsin office space under an operating lease that expires May 14, 2006. The future minimum lease payments are as follows:

Years Ending September 30,
2006	$ 110,000
2007	111,375
2008	114,716
2009	68,074
	<hr/>
	$ 404,165
	<hr/>

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 6. Off-Balance-Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

The Corporation's customers' securities transactions are introduced on a fully-disclosed basis to its clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers of the Corporation and is responsible for execution, collection and payment of funds and receipt and delivery of securities relative to customer transactions. Off-balance-sheet risk exists with respect to these transactions due to the possibility that customers may be unable to fulfill their contractual commitments wherein the clearing broker/dealer may charge any losses it incurs to the Corporation. The Corporation seeks to minimize this risk through procedures designed to monitor the credit worthiness of its customers and that customer transactions are executed properly by the clearing broker/dealer.

Note 7. Employee Benefit Plan

The Corporation provides a Simplified Employee Pension Plan (the Plan) with a salary reduction option for its employees. Under the Plan, employees must be at least 21 years of age and have worked for the Corporation for at least one year to be eligible to participate. Each eligible employee may defer 100% of their compensation, not to exceed the annual exclusion limit. The Corporation makes a nondiscretionary contribution of 6% of each eligible employee's compensation.

Note 8. Income Taxes

At September 30, 2005, the net deferred income tax liability in the amount of $9,000 relates primarily to temporary differences from depreciation of furniture and equipment.
