REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

To The Board of Directors and Stockholder
Broker/Dealer, Inc.
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Broker/Dealer, Inc. at December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for the opinion expressed above.

The Company, as disclosed in the notes to financial statements, has extensive transactions and relationships with Einhorn Associates, Inc. In addition, the ability of the Company to transact business is dependent upon the Company's affiliation with Einhorn Associates, Inc. Accordingly, it is possible that the terms of these transactions are not the same as those which would result from transactions among wholly unrelated parties.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplementary information schedules on pages 10 and 11 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

BROKER/DEALER, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Nature of Business

Broker/Dealer, Inc. (the "Company") is a registered broker and dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company's principal business activity is the selection, training and supervision of employees of an affiliate involved with private placements of securities.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded at the amount the Company expects to collect on balances outstanding at year end. Management closely monitors outstanding balances and write-offs, as of year end, all balances deemed uncollectible.

Other Investments

Other investments consists of warrants to purchase 300 shares of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. and are stated at cost that does not exceed estimated net realizable value.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes fee income when it is earned. The Company's officers are involved in various transactions with unrelated parties, which result in fee income for the Company, with the amount of the fee being negotiated on each respective transaction. The ability of the Company to enter into these transactions is dependent upon its affiliation with Einhorn Associates, Inc. (see Note 3).

Income Taxes

The stockholder of the Company has elected to be taxed as an S corporation. As an S corporation, the Company's income or loss is reported on the stockholder's individual income tax return and, accordingly, no liability or provision for income taxes is reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 3 - Related Party Transactions

The Company's officers and directors are also owners and officers of Einhorn Associates, Inc., merger and acquisition consultants. The Company pays for all direct expenses related to licensing and training. The Company paid Einhorn Associates, Inc. $62,000 in 2005 and $163,000 in 2004 for expenses associated with management, bookkeeping and certain other services provided to the Company.

Note 4 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission uniform net capital rule (rule 15c3-1) which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Other regulatory requirements provide that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2005 and 2004 the Company had net capital of $15,186 and $24,277, respectively. The Company had a minimum net capital requirement of $5,000 at December 31, 2005. The Company had $62,000 and $0 aggregate indebtedness at December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

To The Board of Directors of Broker/Dealer, Inc.
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Broker/Dealer, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by Broker/Dealer, Inc. that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under 17a-3(a)(11) and reserve required by rule 15c3-3(e). We did not review the practices and procedures followed by Broker/Dealer, Inc. in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13; in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; and in obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by rule 15c3-3, because the Company did not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities in 2005.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure, including procedures for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005 to meet the Commission's objectives.
