INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors

REARDEN SECURITIES, LLC.

We have audited the statements of financial condition of Rearden Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the related statements of operations, changes in members' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly in all material respects, the financial position of Rearden Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

REARDEN SECURITIES, LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(1) Nature of business and significant accounting policies

Nature of business - Rearden Securities, LLC (the Company) arranges private financing of $5 million to $50 million for both public and private companies. The Company provides investment banking and advisory services to corporate clients regarding strategic financial and general business matters.

A summary of the Company's significant accounting policies follows:

Cash and cash equivalents - For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Company includes all cash accounts and all highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less, other than securities held for sale in the normal course of business, as cash and cash equivalents on the accompanying statement of financial condition. At times cash balances may be in excess of FDIC insurance limits.

Revenue recognition - Investment banking fee income is recognized when earned, typically upon closing of the transaction. Income from consulting is recognized monthly upon completion of the services provided. Reimbursements for expenses advanced on clients' behalf are recognized as the expenses are incurred.

Income taxes - The Company is a limited liability company, and as such, is taxed as a partnership. As a result, its member's separately account for their prorata share of the entity's items of income, deduction, losses, and credits. Therefore, the financial statements do not include an accrual for corporate income taxes.

Concentration of credit risk - As a broker and dealer, the Company is engaged in various securities activities, principally involving investment banking services to obtain debt and or equity capital for both private and public companies. The Company's investment banking activities are performed on a "best efforts" basis. The Company is exposed to credit risk associated with the nonperformance of these customers in fulfilling their contractual obligations pursuant to these services.

Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(2) Net capital requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. In addition, restrictions may be imposed to prohibit equity withdrawals or cash dividends if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2005, the Company had net capital as defined by Rule 15c3-1 of $17,589, which exceeds its required net capital of $5,000 by $12,589. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .41 to 1 at December 31, 2005.

REARDEN SECURITIES, LLC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

( 3 ) Exemption

The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Therefore, the Company is not required to make the periodic computation of reserve requirements for the exclusive benefit of customers.

( 4 ) Related party transaction

The Company shared office space in Eagan, Minnesota with a company in which the president has a financial interest. The Company paid rent to the affiliate in the amount of $9,300 and $12,700 under a month-to-month lease arrangement during 2005 and 2004, respectively.

In addition to rent, the Company paid $1,800 and $2,800 during 2005 and 2004 to reimburse the affiliated company for telephone and other office services and supplies.

The affiliated company paid the Company $83,000 and $63,000 in 2005 and 2004, respectively for financial consulting services.

( 5 ) Member's equity

During the period ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, the sole member made additional capital contributions of $36,200 and $25,000.

A company in which the president of Rearden has a financial interest contributed the value of rent and phone services for the period September through March 2004. The $3,750 value of these services was recorded as contributed capital in 2004.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

To the Board of Directors

REARDEN SECURITIES, LLC

We have audited the financial statements of Rearden Securities, LLC as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005, and have issued our report thereon dated January 24, 2006. As part of our audit, we made a study and evaluation of the Company's system of internal accounting control (which includes the procedures for safeguarding securities) to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. The purpose of our study and evaluation, which included obtaining an understanding of the accounting system, was to determine the nature, timing, and extent of the auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements.

We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3 (a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13; or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities of Section 4(c) of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. The objectives of a system and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

To the Board of Directors

Because of inherent limitations in any internal accounting control procedures or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with them may deteriorate.

Our study and evaluation made for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph would not necessarily disclose all material weaknesses in the system. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of Rearden Securities LLC taken as a whole. Our study and evaluation disclosed no condition that we believed to be a material weakness, and no facts came to our attention to cause us to believe that the Company was not in compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of members, and should not be used for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

To the Board of Directors

REARDEN SECURITIES, LLC

We have audited the financial statements of Rearden Securities, LLC as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005. Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements.

The information contained in Schedules I, II, III, and IV are presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is additional information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements.
