Independent Auditors' Report

Board of Directors of Brauvin Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Brauvin Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Brauvin Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2005

Note 1 Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations—Brauvin Securities, Inc. (the "Company") is an Illinois corporation formed on December 3, 1983. The Company is a securities broker-dealer registered with the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD").

Use of Estimates—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2 Transactions with Affiliates

The Company is provided office space and other services by an affiliate. The affiliate has agreed to reimburse the Company for all expenses incurred by the Company.

As a result of a lawsuit that was settled during 1997 in favor of the Company, the Company was required to pay expenses of $15,540. On May 30, 1997, the Company entered into a loan agreement with a shareholder to pay the required expenses, which the NASD subsequently approved as a satisfactory subordinated loan agreement, as defined by the NASD, effective July 24, 1997. In accordance with the subordinated loan agreement, accrued interest was considered additional subordinated capital for the purposes of computing net capital as described in Note 4. On August 29, 2000, the NASD approved a new subordinated loan agreement with the same shareholder for $20,000, replacing the initial loan, which was simultaneously paid upon approval by the NASD in the amount of $15,540. The subordinated loan agreement was to mature on August 30, 2005 and accrues interest at a rate of 1.12 percent per annum. During 2004, NASD approved an extension of the maturity date until August 30, 2010.

Note 3 Income Taxes

The Company has available for use in the future approximately $16,000 in net operating losses incurred for income tax purposes. Such losses expire in 2012.

Note 4 Net Capital Requirements

The Company, as a registered broker-dealer, is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) and is required to maintain minimum net capital. As defined under the rule, "minimum net capital" shall include the outstanding principal amount of the satisfactory subordinated loan agreement. Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain "minimum net capital" equivalent to the greater of $5,000 or 6-2/3 percent of "aggregate indebtedness," as these terms are defined. At December 31, 2005, the Company had net capital, as defined, of $7,030, which was $2,030 in excess of its required net capital. The net capital requirements may effectively restrict the payment of cash dividends and the repayment of liabilities subordinated to the claims of general creditors.
