INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
First Empire Securities, Inc.
Hauppauge, New York

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of First Empire Securities, Inc. (an S-Corporation) as of December 31, 2005. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of First Empire Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2005, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2005

Note 1 – Business Description and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business Description

The Company is registered with the National Association of Security Dealers (NASD) as a broker-dealer of securities. All security transactions are cleared through another broker (clearing broker) that settles all transactions and maintains customer accounts. The company maintains a nationwide customer base.

Profit and loss arising from securities entered into for the account and risk of the Company, as well as customers' securities transactions, are reported on a settlement date basis.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Property and Equipment

All property and equipment are recorded at cost and are depreciated over their useful lives using the straight line method of depreciation ranging from five to thirty nine years.

Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its shareholder, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be an S Corporation for Federal and New York State income taxes. In lieu of corporation income taxes, the shareholder of an S Corporation is taxed on the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision or liability for Federal income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Income tax expense included in the financial statements includes surcharges and taxes on other states the Company operates in.

Note 2 - Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents consist of money market funds and investments with original maturities of 90 days or less. Certificates of deposit with original maturities over 90 days and other short-term investments are classified separately.

Cash deposits in bank accounts occasionally exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limit of $100,000. The Company has not experienced any losses to date resulting from this policy.
