INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholders and
Board of Directors
Penn Center Investments, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Penn Center Investments, Inc. as of December 31, 2005, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Penn Center Investments, Inc. at December 31, 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

PENN CENTER INVESTMENTS, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2005

1. ORGANIZATION

Penn Center Investments, Inc. ("The Company") is a registered broker dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD"). The Company is also registered as an investment advisor with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Company, like other broker dealers and investment advisors, is directly affected by general economics and market conditions, including fluctuations in volume and price level of securities, changes in interest rates and securities brokerage services, all of which have an impact on the Company's liquidity.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue - Securities transactions (and related commission revenue and expense, if applicable) are recorded on a trade date basis.

Property and Depreciation - Furniture and equipment are stated at cost and are depreciated on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives. At December 31, 2005, furniture and equipment of $52,846 had been fully depreciated but remained in service. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2005 was $3,345.

Fair Value of Securities - Securities owned and sold, but not yet purchased, are valued at market value and the resulting difference between cost and market is included in income.

Substantially all of the Company's financial assets and liabilities are carried at market value or at amounts which because of short-term nature of the financial instruments, approximate current fair value.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates and assumptions.

Cash and cash equivalents - The Company includes as cash and cash equivalents amounts invested in money market funds.

3. INCOME TAXES

The Company, with the consent of its shareholders, has elected under the Internal Revenue Code to be an S Corporation. In lieu of corporation income taxes, the shareholders of an S Corporation are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Therefore, no provision of liability for federal income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

PENN CENTER INVESTMENTS, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements (Continued)

4. DEPOSIT WITH CLEARING BROKER

The Company maintains a clearing agreement with First Clearing, LLC. Under the agreement the Company maintains a minimum clearing deposit of $15,000.

5. COMPUTATION FOR DETERMINATION OF RESERVE REQUIREMENTS

The Company will operate in accordance with the exemptive provisions of paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of SEC Rule 15c3-3. All customer transactions are cleared through First Clearing, LLC.

6. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of the SEC, the Company is required to maintain net capital as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2005 the Company had net capital and capital requirements of $90,888 and $50,000 (minimum), respectively. The Company's net capital ratio was .08 to 1.

7. LEASE COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company leases office space through a lease that has been extended from February 2004 through February 2006. The lease has been jointly signed by an unrelated party and the Company has an additional agreement with this party that covers the allocation of rent, additional rent, utility charges and all other charges and expenses related to the shared use and occupancy by the companies of the leased premises. The future minimum lease payments required under the aforementioned lease and agreement for the years ended December 31 are as follows:

2006	$ 3,998
------	----------

Rent expense was $20,740 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

PENN CENTER INVESTMENTS, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements (Continued)
December 31, 2005

8. SIMPLE RETIREMENT PLAN

The Company maintains a Simple (savings incentive match plan for employees) retirement plan under which contributions are made to individual retirement accounts (IRA) of eligible employees. Contributions under this Simple IRA plan are from each eligible employee who has earned at least $5,000 in compensation over each of the past three calendar years. The Company may, at its discretion, contribute up to 3% of each eligible employee's compensation to a maximum contribution of $10,000, per employee for 2005. Company contributions for the year ended December 31, 2005 were $13,649.

9. CESSATION OF OPERATIONS

The Company has ceased its brokerage operations subsequent to December 31, 2005 and has withdrawn its active member registration status from all jurisdictions except for the SEC, NASD and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as of December 31, 2005. The Company will be in a non-operating status during 2006 while it is attempting to negotiate a transaction to sell its broker/dealer license and if it is unsuccessful in this effort it is the intention of the Company to withdraw its registration with the SEC, NASD and Pennsylvania at June 30, 2006.

Board of Directors
Penn Center Investments, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Penn Center Investments, Inc. ("the Company") for the year ended December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1) Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
- 2) Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
- 3) Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including procedures for safeguarding securities, which we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the NASD, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
