Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors of
Sovereign Securities Corporation, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Sovereign Securities Corporation, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2005. This statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at December 31, 2005, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Sovereign Securities Corporation, LLC

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2005

1. Organization

Sovereign Securities Corporation, LLC (the "Company"), is a registered broker and dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sovereign Bank (the "Parent"), which in turn is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sovereign Bancorp, Inc. ("SBI"), a multi-billion dollar thrift holding company headquartered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Company is located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and has additional sales offices in Boston and Hyannis, Massachusetts and Iselin, New Jersey.

The Company primarily provides transaction arrangement services. Transaction arrangement services are primarily provided to professional portfolio managers at institutional clients, including broker-dealers, banks, depository institutions, insurance companies, money managers, and retirement funds. The Company also provides underwriting services for government agency and municipal security offerings. Additionally, the Company enters into agent transactions by acting as the intermediary between parties for various investment and derivative transactions, whereby it earns arrangement fees. The Company also acts as principal in certain investment transaction services.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Securities Transactions

Transactions in issued securities are recorded at fair value on a trade date basis, as if they had settled. Securities are valued based on prices obtained from third-party pricing sources and third-party valuation models.

Amounts receivable and payable for issued securities transactions that have not reached their contractual settlement date are recorded gross on the statement of financial condition.

Contractual securities commitments represent firm commitments to purchase and sell securities when issued. These commitments are stated at fair value beginning on their trade date, and are included in other assets on the statement of financial condition.

Revenue Recognition

Arrangement fees for agent transactions are recorded on a trade date basis.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all cash balances and highly liquid investments, including government money market funds, with a maturity date of three months or less. The carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial condition approximates its fair value.

Derivative Financial Instruments

Derivative financial instruments used for trading purposes, including economic hedges of trading instruments, are carried at market value or, if market prices are not readily available, fair value. Market values for exchange-traded derivatives, principally futures, and certain options, are based on quoted market prices. At December 31, 2005, there were no derivatives for which a quoted market price was not available.

Derivatives used for economic hedging purposes may include swaps, forwards, futures, and options. Unrealized gains or losses on these derivative contracts are included in receivable from or payable to broker-dealers on the statement of financial condition. The Company applies FASB Statement No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, and, as such, all financial instruments are marked to market with changes in fair values reflected in earnings. The disclosures required in paragraphs 44 and 45 of the Statement are generally not applicable with respect to these financial instruments.

Depreciation

Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives of five to ten years.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. Under this pronouncement, deferred taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates that will apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized as income or expense in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company is included in the consolidated federal income tax return filed by SBI. Federal income taxes are calculated as if the Company filed on a separate return basis, and the amount of current tax or benefit calculated is either remitted to or received from SBI. At December 31, 2005, the Company had deferred tax liabilities of $109,224, due primarily from the vesting of stock incentive plans.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the statement of financial condition in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the statement of financial condition and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Receivables from Broker-Dealers

Amounts receivable from broker-dealers at December 31, 2005 consist of the following:

	Receivables
Forward securities transactions sold	$ 23,545,864
Fees receivable on underwriting transactions	45,200
Equity margin on futures positions	21,360
	$ 23,612,424

4. Receivables from and Payables to Customers

Amounts receivable from and payable to customers at December 31, 2005 consist of the following:

	Receivables	Payables
Forward securities transactions purchased	$ -	$ 23,539,596
Other	24,540	-
	$ 24,540	$ 23,539,596

5. Securities Owned

Securities owned consist of trading securities with fair values at December 31, 2005 as follows:

U.S. government obligations	$ 2,003,734
State and municipal obligations	48,497,478
Asset backed securities	2,873,489
	$ 53,374,701

Included in securities owned at December 31, 2005 are U.S. government obligations with a market value of $2,003,734 on deposit and pledged as collateral at clearing organizations and depositories.

6. Income Taxes

The results of the Company's operations are included in the Parent's consolidated U.S. federal income tax returns. The Company is not subject to state income taxes. In accordance with the Parent's Intercompany Tax Sharing Agreement, the Company reimburses the Parent for all taxes generated by the Company that are paid by the Parent. During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Parent overpaid the Company its tax benefit, resulting in the Company owing $137,082 to the Parent. This amount is included in the net due to affiliate on the statement of financial condition. The Company's effective tax rate differs from the statutory rate due primarily from income earned on tax-exempt investments.

7. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. In addition, the Company may not allow advances to affiliates, the withdrawal of equity capital or payment of dividends if such payment would result in aggregate indebtedness greater than 10 times net capital or if net capital would fail to be at least 120 percent of the minimum required net capital.

At December 31, 2005, the Company had net capital of $52,119,840, which was $50,436,119 in excess of its required net capital of $1,683,721. The Company's aggregated indebtedness to net capital ratio was .48 to 1.

8. Special Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers

Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 of the SEC, the Company may be required to deposit cash or acceptable equivalents in a special bank account for the exclusive benefit of its customers. At December 31, 2005, the Company segregated and secured $780,000 in this account.

9. Financial Instruments and Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments recorded at fair value on the Company's statement of financial condition include securities owned. Other financial instruments are recorded by the Company at contract amounts and include receivables from and payables to broker-dealers, receivables from and payables to affiliates and customers, and bank loans from affiliates. Financial instruments carried at contract amounts either have short-term maturities, are repriced frequently, or bear market interest rates and, accordingly, are carried at amounts approximating fair value.

In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution, settlement, and financing of various customer securities transactions. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer or other broker is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and the Company has to purchase or sell the financial instrument underlying the contract at a loss.

9. Financial Instruments and Concentrations of Credit Risk (continued)

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review and monitor, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty as well as the exposure to each counterparty.

The Company periodically uses derivatives as financial instruments, which primarily include futures contracts, whose value is based upon an underlying asset, index or reference rate. The Company records its derivative activities at fair value and unrealized gains and losses are in receivable from or payable to broker-dealers on the statement of financial condition. These derivative financial instruments are used to economically hedge other positions or transactions and are subject to varying degrees of market and credit risk.

Additionally, in the normal course of business the Company enters into transactions for securities purchased and sold on a when-issued basis (when-issued securities), which are recorded on the statement of financial condition as other assets.

As of December 31, 2005, the gross contractual or notional amounts of derivative financial instruments used for trading purposes was $15,400,000, and was comprised of forward and exchange-traded futures contracts. The gross unrealized gain associated with these contracts was $21,360 at December 31, 2005, and is included in receivable from broker-dealers.

10. Related Party Transactions

The Company periodically enters into securities transactions with affiliates.

The Company entered into a Management and Expense agreement (the Agreement) with its Parent. Under the Agreement, the Parent provides various administrative services to the Company including payroll, accounting, procurement, payment processing, and facilities. In return, the Company reimburses the Parent for amounts due under the Agreement on a monthly basis. As of December 31, 2005, the Company owed the Parent $595,980 for these services. This amount is included in due to affiliate on the statement of financial condition.

10. Related Party Transactions (continued)

On August 27, 2002, the Company entered into a $200,000,000 line of credit agreement with its Parent. The line of credit has an interest rate equal to the fed funds rate, is payable on demand, has no stated maturity, and is adjustable if mutually agreed upon by the Company and the Parent. On December 31, 2005, the Company let expire an undrawn $25,000,000 revolving subordinated loan agreement with its Parent. At December 31, 2005, no amount was outstanding under the line of credit agreement.

Employees of the Company participate in 401(k) and other benefit programs of the Parent. The Company reimburses its Parent for its proportionate share of the cost of such plans on a monthly basis.

Additionally, certain key employees of the Company participate in various restricted stock and other equity based plans offered by the Parent. Participants are determined annually at the discretion of the Parent, and stock awards vest over a period ranging from 3 to 5 years, depending on the award, provided the employee meets certain conditions. The Company reimburses its Parent for its share of equity-based expense on a monthly basis.

The financial condition of the Company could be materially different in the absence of its relationship with its Parent.

11. Commitments

The Company early terminated a lease commitment for office space in 2005.

The Company is committed to pay technology and vendor expenses under non-cancelable leases with minimum rental payments.

The future minimum lease commitments of the Company are as follows:

2006	$ 981,251
2007	503,681
2008	132,667
	$ 1,617,599

At December 31, 2005, the Company had no commitments to purchase and sell debt securities at a future issue date.

Sovereign Securities Corporation, LLC

12. Sarasota Closing

In August, 2005 the Company closed its sales office located in Sarasota, Florida ("Sarasota"). The Company recorded $719,000 of severance, lease termination, disposal of fixed assets, and other expenses, of which $74,987 remains as an accrued liability at December 31, 2005, in connection with closing Sarasota.
