INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
KRK Limited
Palatine, IL 60067

We have audited the balance sheets of KRK Limited as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the related statements of income, retained earnings and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We have conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of KRK Limited as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

1. Nature of Business:

KRK Limited the "Company" acts as agent for customers with respect to the purchase, sale and redemption of redeemable shares of registered investment companies and limited partnership offerings, and introduces and forwards other securities transactions and accounts on a fully disclosed basis.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies:

Income recognition:

Commissions earned on sales of shares of registered investment companies and limited partnership offerings are recognized of the transaction date, whereas commissions earned on other securities transactions are recognized on settlement date, which is usually one week after transaction date.

Estimated:

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing these financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenue and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Property and equipment:

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated lives of the assets, which are generally three to five years.

Income taxes:

Income taxes are provided for the effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related to timing differences between financial and income tax reporting. The deferred taxes represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

2. Summary of significant accounting policies: (continued)

Cash equivalents:

The company considers all highly liquid investments with maturity of three (3) months or less when purchased as cash equivalents.

3. Net Capital Requirement:

Pursuant to the net capital provision of Rule-15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital which may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2005 the required minimum net capital was $5,000. On December 31, 2004 the Company's net capital was $11,631. In addition, the Company was in compliance with its paragraph K(2) (a) - (b) exemptions from SEC Rule 15c-3-3 requiring customer reserves during the past year.

4. SEC Rule 15c3-3:

The Company claims an exemption to 15c3-3 (Customer Protection Rule) under subparagraph K(2) (b) of the rule. Nothing came to our attention (the auditor) during the course of our examination that would indicate the Company was not complying with the requirement of that examination.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS' SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT
OF INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

To the Board of Directors
KRK LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of KRK Limited, (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2005 and have issued our report thereon dated February 18, 2005. As part of our audit, we made a study and evaluation of the Company's internal control structure to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by generally accepted auditing standards and Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Commission. This study and evaluation included the accounting system, the procedures for safeguarding securities, and the practices and procedures followed by the Company (i) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3 (a) (11); (ii) in complying with the requirement for prompt payment for securities of Section 48 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Rule 17a-5 states that the scope of the study and evaluation should be sufficient to provide reasonable assurance that any material weaknesses existing at the date of my examination would be disclosed. The purpose of our study and evaluation were to determine the nature, timing and extent of the auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the Company's financial statements, to provide a basis for reporting material weaknesses in internal accounting control under Rule 17a-5, and with respect to Rule 15c3-3 to provide reasonable assurance of compliance, in all material respects, with the possession and control requirements of the Rule. Our study and evaluation was more limited than would be necessary to express an opinion on the internal control structure taken as a whole.

As part of the study and evaluation required by Rule 17a-5, we reviewed the descriptions of the procedures required to be maintained by KRK Limited for obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers to determine if those procedures would provide reasonable assurance of compliance in all material respects with the possession of control requirement of Rule 15c3-3.

The Management of KRK Limited is responsible for establishing and maintaining the internal control structure. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control procedures. The objective of a system is to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurances that assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Because of inherent limitation in any system of internal accounting control, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of the system of internal accounting control to future periods is subject to the risk that procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the procedures may deteriorate.

Our study and evaluation made for the purpose described in the first paragraph above would not necessarily disclose all material weaknesses in the system. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of KRK Limited taken as a whole. Our study and evaluation disclosed no condition that we believe to be a material weakness.

Our review of the description of the procedures required to be maintained for obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers for the year ended December 31, 2004 was made for the purpose set forth in the second paragraph above. Based on our review, the procedures appear to provide reasonable assurance of compliance in all material respects with the possession or control requirement of Rule 15c3-3.

This report is intended solely for the use of management and the Securities and Exchange Commission and should not be used for any other purpose.
