Independent Auditors' Report

Board of Directors
Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC (the Company), a subsidiary of Wachovia Corporation, as of December 31, 2005, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Regulation 1.10 under the Commodity Exchange Act. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC as of December 31, 2005, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization

Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC (the Company) is organized as a Limited Liability Company. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Everen Capital Corporation (Everen). Everen is a wholly owned subsidiary of Wachovia Corporation (the Holding Company). The Holding Company is registered with the Federal Reserve Board as a financial holding company in accordance with the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 (GLBA).

The Company is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Company engages in a wide variety of securities activities in accordance with its status as an affiliate of a financial holding company under the provisions of the GLBA. In general, securities sold by the Company are not bank deposits and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The Company clears some of its customers' transactions through First Clearing, LLC (FCLLC) on a fully disclosed basis. FCLLC is a part of a joint venture owned 38% by Prudential Financial Inc. and 62% owned by the Holding Company.

The Company self clears the remainder of its institutional and proprietary transactions except options and futures, which are carried and cleared by unaffiliated broker-dealers.

(b) Securities Purchased/Sold Under Agreements to Resell/Repurchase

Transactions involving purchases of securities under agreements to resell (reverse repurchase agreements) or sales of securities under agreements to repurchase (repurchase agreements) are treated as collateralized financing transactions and are recorded at their contracted resale or repurchase amounts. The carrying value of repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements approximates their fair value. These transactions are primarily repurchase agreements of United States Government and agency securities and corporate bonds. The Company's exposure to credit risk associated with the nonperformance of customers in fulfilling these contractual obligations can be directly affected by volatile trading markets, which may impair the customers' ability to satisfy their obligations to the Company.

It is the Company's policy to obtain possession of securities purchased under agreements to resell. The Company manages the credit risk associated with these transactions by monitoring the market value of the collateral obtained, including accrued interest, and by requesting additional collateral when deemed appropriate.

(c) Securities Transactions

Customers' securities transactions are recorded on a settlement date basis.

Securities owned and securities sold, not yet purchased are carried at market value on a trade date basis.

(d) Securities Lending Activity

Securities borrowed and securities loaned are generally reported as collateralized financing transactions. Securities borrowed transactions require the Company to deposit cash or other collateral with the lender. Securities loaned are recorded at the amount of collateral received. The Company receives collateral in the form of cash in an amount generally in excess of the market value of securities loaned. The Company monitors the market value of securities borrowed and loaned on a daily basis, with additional collateral obtained or refunded as necessary.

(e) Futures, Forwards, Option Contracts, and Other Financial Instruments

Derivative financial instruments are used for trading purposes, including economic hedges of trading instruments, and are recorded at fair value. Fair values for exchange-traded derivatives, principally futures and certain options, are based on quoted market prices. Fair values for over-the-counter derivative financial instruments, principally interest rate, credit default or total return swaps, forwards, and options, are based on quoted market prices for similar instruments, pricing models and discounted cash flow analyses.

(f) Benefit Plans

Substantially all employees with one year of service are eligible for participation in the noncontributory defined benefit pension plan and the matched savings plan of the Holding Company. In addition, the Holding Company provides postretirement benefits, principally healthcare, to employees and their beneficiaries and dependents. The Holding Company allocates expense to the Company for the defined benefit pension plan, matching savings plan, and postretirement benefits based on employee compensation of the Company and the total cost incurred with respect to the plans on a consolidated basis. The actuarial and plan asset information pertaining to the employees of the Company is not segregated in the Holding Company's retirement and postretirement plan calculations and is therefore not available.

(g) Income Taxes

The Company is a single-member Limited Liability Company (SMLLC) and is treated as a disregarded entity pursuant to Treasury Regulation 301.7701-3 for federal income tax purposes. Generally, disregarded entities are not subject to entity-level federal or state income taxation and, as such, the Company is not required to provide for income taxes under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. The Company's taxable income is primarily reported in the tax return of its member, Everen. Certain state jurisdictions, however, will subject the Company to entity-level taxation as a SMLLC; therefore, state taxes will be incurred on a small portion of the company's taxable income.

(h) Property, Equipment, and Leasehold Improvements

Property, equipment, and leasehold improvements are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2005

(i) Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Identified intangible assets acquired in a purchase business combination must be separately valued and recognized on the statement of financial condition if they meet certain requirements.

Goodwill and identified intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are not subject to amortization but are subject to impairment testing on an annual basis, or more often if events or circumstances indicate possible impairment. The Company's impairment evaluations for the year ended December 31, 2005, indicated that none of the Company's goodwill is impaired.

(j) Other

The Company's financial instruments are either carried at fair value or are considered to be stated at fair value due to their short-term nature.

Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The net estimated fair value of the swaps at December 31, 2005, is $2,461,000 and $39,617,000 respectively, which is included in other liabilities in the accompanying statement of financial condition.

(11) Derivatives, Guarantees, Commitments, and Contingent Liabilities

The Company is a party to derivative financial instruments and commitments in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of customers, conduct trading activities, and manage market risks. These derivative financial instruments include futures, options, swaps, swaptions, forward commitments to purchase and sell securities, securities purchased and sold on a when-issued basis (when-issued securities), and firm underwriting commitments. These instruments and commitments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and market risk. Credit risk is the possibility that a loss may occur because a party to a transaction fails to perform according to the terms of the contract. Market risk is the possibility that a change in interest rates will cause an unfavorable change in the value of a financial instrument.

(A Subsidiary Of Wachovia Corporation)

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2005

The Company controls the credit risk arising from these instruments and commitments through its credit approval process and through the use of risk control limits and monitoring procedures. It evaluates each customer's or other broker-dealer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. If collateral is deemed necessary to reduce credit risk, the amount and nature of the collateral obtained is based on management's credit evaluation of the other party. Based on the Company's assessment of each of its counterparties, collateral was not required by the Company at December 31, 2005.

The notional principal or contractual amounts of derivative financial instruments exceed the probable loss that could arise from counterparty default or changes in interest rates. The fair value of derivative financial instruments represents principally the estimated unrealized gain (asset) or loss (liability) and is recorded in other assets or other liabilities in the statement of financial condition or, in the case of listed options, in securities owned or securities sold, not yet purchased. The market risk associated with trading financial instruments, including derivatives, the prices of which are constantly fluctuating, is managed by imposing limits as to the type, amounts, and degree of risk that traders may undertake. These limits are approved by senior management, and the risk positions of traders are reviewed on a daily basis to monitor compliance with the limits. As of December 31, 2005, derivative financial instruments and their related fair values are as follows:

	Estimated net fair value asset (liability)	Net contract or notional amount
	(In thousands)
Forward and futures contracts	$ (352)	(3,541,733)
Interest rate swaps	(2,461)	(3,997,715)
Credit default swaps	(39,617)	(1,057,175)
Purchased options	408,393	23,191,453
Written options	(384,292)	(28,458,000)

Forward and futures contracts are contracts for delayed delivery of securities or money market instruments in which the seller agrees to make delivery at a specified future date of a specified instrument, at a specified price or yield. Options are contracts that allow the holder of the option to purchase or sell a financial instrument at a specified price and within a specified period of time from the seller or writer of the option. As a writer of options, the Company receives a premium at the outset and then bears the risk of an unfavorable change in the price of the financial instrument underlying the option.

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into debt and equity underwriting commitments. Transactions relating to such underwriting commitments that were open at December 31, 2005, and were subsequently settled had no material impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company securitized approximately $7,229,657,000 of debt securities. The Company did not retain any interests in these securitizations, and has no continuing involvement with these securitized assets.

WACHOVIA CAPITAL MARKETS, LLC
(A Subsidiary Of Wachovia Corporation)

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2005

The Company introduces certain of its customer transactions to an affiliated clearing broker, FCLLC, with whom it has a correspondent relationship for clearance and depository services in accordance with the terms of the clearance agreement. In connection therewith, the Company has agreed to indemnify FCLLC for losses that FCLLC may sustain as a result of the failure of the Company's customers to satisfy their obligations in connection with their securities transactions. As of December 31, 2005, substantially all customer obligations were collateralized by securities with a market value in excess of the obligations.

The Company has been named as a defendant in various legal actions arising from its normal business activities in which damages in various amounts are claimed. Although the amount of any ultimate liability with respect to such matters cannot be determined, in the opinion of management, based on the opinions of counsel, any such liability will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position.

The Company leases office space related to its branch offices under operating leases expiring at various dates through 2011. Minimum future rental payments required under such leases, that have initial or remaining noncancelable lease terms in excess of one year at December 31, 2005 are as follows:

	Operating leases
	(In thousands)
Years ending December 31:
2006	8,941
2007	8,937
2008	9,025
2009	9,124
After 2010	13,838

Minimum future rental commitments do not include operating leases entered into by the Holding Company for which the Company shares office space.

Some contracts that the Company enters into in the normal course of business include indemnification provisions that obligate the Company to make payments to the counterparty or others in the event certain events occur. The contingencies generally relate to the changes in the value of underlying assets, liabilities, or equity securities or upon the occurrence of events, such as an adverse litigation judgment or an adverse interpretation of the tax law. The indemnification clauses are often standard contractual terms and were entered into in the normal course of business based on an assessment that the risk of loss would be remote. Since there are no stated or notional amounts included in the indemnification clauses and the contingencies triggering the obligation to indemnify have not occurred and are not expected to occur, the Company is not able to estimate the maximum potential amount of future payments under these indemnification clauses. There are no amounts reflected on the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2005, related to these indemnifications.

(12) Net Capital

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital. The Company has elected to use the alternative method, permitted by the rule, which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, or 2% of combined aggregate debit balances arising from customer transactions. At December 31, 2005, the Company had net capital of $1,464,528,000, which was 1533% of aggregate debit balances and $1,462,325,000 in excess of required net capital.
