SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
RECEIVED

FEB 24 2006

DIVISION OF MARKET REGULATION

To the Board of Directors
Todd & Company, Inc.

I have examined the accompanying statement of financial condition of Todd & Company, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 and the related statements of income (loss), cash flow, changes in financial condition, changes in stockholder's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims to creditors, computation of net capital and the computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on the report based on my audit.

I conducted an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and the audit requirements prescribed by the Securities & Exchange Commission. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit included examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects the financial position of Todd & Company, Inc. and the results of their operations, cash flows, changes in financial condition, changes in stockholder's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims to creditors, computation of net capital and the computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

DIVISION OF MARKET REGULATION

I have examined the Focus Report (Form X-17A-5) of Todd & Company, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 have issued my report thereon date February 23, 2006. As part of my examination, I have reviewed and tested the Company's accounting system, internal control system, procedures for safeguarding securities procedures and practices for resolving securities and money differences and computing capital and reserve requirements, to the extent that I considered necessary to evaluate the system a required by generally accepted auditing standards and the audit requirements as set forth in Form X-17A-5. Under these standards the purpose of such an evaluation is to establish a basis for reliance there in determining the nature, timing and extent of such other auditing procedures that are necessary for expressing an opinion on the financial statements.

The objective of internal control is to provide a reasonable, but not absolute assurance as to the safeguarding of assets against loss form unauthorized use or disposition, the reliability of the financial records for preparing financial statements and maintaining the accountability for assets. The concept of reasonable assurance recognizes the cost of a system on internal control should not exceed the benefits derives and also recognizes that the evaluation of those factors requires estimates and judgement by management.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognizes in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of internal control. in the performance of most control procedures. error can result for misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes in judgement, carelessness, or other personal factors. Control procedures whose effectiveness depends on the segregation of duties can be circumvented by collusion. Similarly, control procedures can be circumvented by management. Further, projection of any internal control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions and the degree of compliance may deteriorate.

My study of the Company's system of internal control for the year ended December 31, 2005, made for the purpose stated in the first paragraph, revealed the following:

A. Comments with Respect to Compliance with Rule 17A-13.

- a. The accounting system is adequate to maintain records of firm accounts. Todd & Company does not maintain any customer accounts, Customer accounts are maintained with an independent clearing broker.
