INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc.
Davie, Florida

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc. (an S Corporation) as of December 31, 2005 and the related statements of income/(loss), changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States Of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in pages eight through twelve in the accompanying schedules is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005

Note 1 - Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc. is a registered general securities broker-dealer who acts as a non-clearing introducing broker. The Company does not hold funds or securities for customers and does not carry accounts of, or for, customers.

Income is derived from trades introduced to the clearing broker, who completes the transaction with the customer and subsequently remits a commission to the introducing broker. Income from securities transactions and related expenses are recorded on the settlement date, generally the third business day following the transaction date; however, all transactions are reviewed and adjusted to a trade date basis for significant transactions.

The Company has entered into a clearing agreement with Legent Clearing LLC (hereafter referred to as "Legent Clearing") whereby Legent Clearing clears transactions on a fully disclosed basis for the customers of Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc. In accordance with this agreement, the Company is required to maintain a minimum deposit of $15,000 with Legent Clearing. The Company considers their clearing deposit balance with Legent Clearing to be a cash equivalent in the "Statement Of Cash Flows."

Office equipment is recorded at cost. The Company provides for depreciation using the straight line method over their estimated useful lives of five years. Depreciation expense amounted to $ 443 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although actual results could differ from those estimates, management believes that any differences would be immaterial to the financial statements as a whole.

BELOYAN INVESTMENT SECURITIES, INC.
FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2005

Note 1 - Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies -
Continued

The Company made loans to its President and sole shareholder amounting to $6,138 during the year. This loan is a demand note payable for which no interest is due. The balance of the shareholder loan amounted to $16,376 at December 31, 2005.

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the uniform net capital requirements of the SEC under Rule 15c3-1, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital as defined under such rule. At December 31, 2005 the Company had net capital of $27,515 or an excess of $22,515 over the minimum required net capital of $5,000. In addition, the aggregate indebtedness as defined cannot exceed 800% of net capital. At December 31, 2005 the Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .029 to 1.

Note 3 - Income Taxes

The Company, with the consent of its shareholder, has elected under the Internal Revenue Service to be an S Corporation effective January 8, 1992 (the date of inception). In lieu of corporation income taxes, the shareholder(s) of an S Corporation are taxed individually on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income or loss. Therefore, no provision for federal income taxes has been included in these financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

Board of Directors
Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc.
Davie, Florida

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control structure in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements and to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practice and procedures) followed by Beloyan Investment Securities, Inc. that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g), (1) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3; and (2) in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Securities and Exchange Commission's objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute Of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure that we consider to be a material weakness as defined above. In addition, the Company was in compliance with the conditions of the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3 at December 31, 2005 and, further, no fact came to our attention indicating that the Company was not in compliance with such conditions during the year ended December 31, 2005.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Securities and Exchange Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005 to meet the Securities and Exchange Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management and the Securities and Exchange Commission and applicable self-regulatory organizations and should not be used for any other purpose.
