Radio 2KY and Sport 927 form historic partnership to share broadcasts

Sydney radio station 2KY and Melbourne's Sport 927 begin sharing race broadcasts next month to ensure listeners get to hear the best racing action from New South Wales and Victoria.

The two stations announced today they had formalised an agreement to share race broadcasts across both stations, starting Thursday 18 May 2006.

Under the agreement, 2KY will continue to produce programs from its Sydney studios including the Big Sports Breakfast, Greg Radley's Race Day program, Football Fever and Hi-Tide. Sport 927 will continue producing programs from its Melbourne studios and provide shared racing radio services and midnight to dawn programming.

Sky Racing Network Chief Operating Officer Peter Caillard said the agreement was a fantastic outcome for the two radio stations, race enthusiasts and the Australian racing industry.

"We are excited about working more closely with the Victorian racing industry's Sport 927 to enhance our premier race broadcasting service," Mr Caillard said.

"2KY and Sport 927 are recognised as leaders in race broadcasting. This partnership ensures listeners from both stations will hear the very best of Victorian and NSW race coverage and news as it breaks," he said.

"The pooled programming arrangements create synergies for the two stations, maximises wagering revenue and provides a great platform for the future of Australia's vibrant racing industry."

Sport 927 General Manager Noel Crowe said: "This is a very exciting development for both 2KY and Sport 927. Listeners throughout New South Wales and Victoria will benefit from the two stations sharing the very best racing expertise and talent available."
