Countryside Holding's business in the United States will be subject to tax on its taxable income at rates generally applicable to corporations in the United States. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, Countryside Holding will report on its U.S. federal income tax returns its share of the income from Ripon Power and Ripon. In computing its income for U.S. federal income tax purposes, Countryside Holding intends to claim interest deductions with respect to the Countryside Holding Note that will be held after the closing of the Offering by Countryside Canada. See "Risk Factors — United States Tax-Related Risks".

Interest and dividends from U.S. sources, such as the contemplated payments of interest and dividends from Countryside Holding to Countryside Canada, are generally subject to withholding at a rate of 30%. However, under the current provisions of the income tax treaty between the United States and Canada, payments of interest and dividends by Countryside Holding to Countryside Canada will be subject to withholding at the reduced rates of 10% and 5%, respectively.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement dated October 27, 2005 among the Fund, Countryside Canada and the Underwriters, the Fund has agreed to issue and sell an aggregate of 4,720,000 Units to the Underwriters offered hereby at a price of $9.35 for total gross proceeds of $44,132,000 and Countryside Canada has agreed to issue and sell US$55,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Debentures to the Underwriters offered hereby, and the Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase from the Issuer, as principals, such Securities on November 14, 2005, or on such other date as may be agreed upon among the parties to the Underwriting Agreement, but in any event not later than November 25, 2005. Delivery of the Securities is conditional upon payment in cash on closing by the Underwriters to the Issuer of $9.35 per Unit for total consideration of $44,132,000 and US$1,000 per Debenture for total consideration of US$55,000,000. The offering price of the Securities was determined by negotiation between the Issuer and the Underwriters. The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Issuer will pay or cause to be paid to the Underwriters a fee of $2,206,600 ($0.4675 per Unit) and a fee of US$2,200,000 (US$40 per US$1,000 principal amount of Debenture) in consideration of services in connection with the Offering. The full amount of the Underwriters' fee is payable at the closing of the Offering.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement are several (and not joint or joint and several) and may be terminated at their discretion upon the occurrence of certain stated events. If an Underwriter fails to purchase the Securities which it has agreed to purchase, the other Underwriters may, but are not obligated to, purchase any Securities. The Underwriters, however, are obligated to take up and pay for all Securities if any securities are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement. The Underwriting Agreement also provides that the Issuer will indemnify the Underwriters and their respective directors, officers, agents and employees against certain liabilities and expenses.

The Underwriters propose to offer the Securities initially at the public offering price on the cover page of this short form prospectus. After the Underwriters have made a reasonable effort to sell all the Securities offered by this short form prospectus at the price specified herein, the offering price may be decreased, and further changed from time to time to an amount not greater than the offering price specified herein and the compensation realized by the Underwriters will be decreased by the amount that the aggregate price paid by the purchasers for the Securities is less than the gross proceeds paid by the Underwriters to the Issuer. The Issuer has been advised by the Underwriters that, in connection with the Offering, the Underwriters may effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of Units which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

Pursuant to policy statements of the Ontario Securities Commission and the L'Autorité des Marchés Financiers, the Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution, bid for or purchase Securities or Units. The foregoing restriction is subject to exceptions, on the condition that the bid or purchase is not engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in, or raising the price of, the Securities. These exceptions include bids or purchases permitted under the Universal Market Integrity Rules for Canadian Marketplaces of Market Regulation Services Inc. of the TSX relating to market stabilization and passive market making activities and bids or purchases made for and on behalf of a customer where the order was not solicited during the period of distribution. Under the first-mentioned exception, in connection with the Offering, the Underwriters may effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Securities at levels other than those which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Those transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

The Securities have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act, or any state securities laws, and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act) except in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act. The Underwriters have agreed pursuant to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement that they will not offer or sell the Securities within the United States except to Qualified Institutional Buyers (as such term is defined in Rule 144A of the U.S. Securities Act) in the United States, provided such re-offers and resales are made in accordance with Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act. In addition, until 40 days after the closing date, an offer or sale of Securities within the United States by a dealer (whether or not participating in the Offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act if that offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A. All sales of Securities in the United States will be made by U.S. registered broker/dealers. The Underwriting Agreement provides further that the Underwriters will not take any actions that would make the safe harbour provided under Regulation S of the United States federal securities laws unavailable in connection with the Offering; such regulation provides an exemption from registration requirements under such laws in connection with the initial offer and sale of such shares outside the United States.

The Units are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") under the trading symbol "COU.UN". There is currently no market through which the Debentures may be sold and purchasers may not be able to resell the Debentures. The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Units, the Debentures and the Units issuable upon exchange of the Debentures. Listing will be subject to Countryside fulfilling all of the listing requirements of the TSX. On October 24, 2005, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the terms of the Offering, the closing price of the Units on the TSX was $9.74.

CIBC World Markets Corp., an affiliate of CIBC World Markets Inc., acted as financial advisor to Lightyear Rockland Partners LLC and was paid a fee upon the completion of the Acquisition. The Canadian chartered banks to which CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc. and TD Securities Inc. are affiliates are indirect lenders to the Fund under the Amended Credit Facility. Accordingly, under applicable securities laws, the Fund may be considered a "connected issuer" of such Underwriters. The decision to issue the Units and Debentures and the determination of the terms of the distribution were made through negotiation between the Fund and the Underwriters. The Canadian chartered banks of which CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc. and TD Securities Inc. are affiliates did not have any involvement in such decision or determination. Other than as described above, none of the Underwriters or their affiliates will receive any benefit from the Offering except for the Underwriters' respective portions of the underwriting commissions payable by the Fund.

The Issuer has agreed that, subject to certain exceptions, it will not offer or issue, or enter into an agreement to offer or issue, Units or any securities exchangeable for Units for a period of 90 days subsequent to the closing of the Offering without the consent of CIBC World Markets Inc., which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

INTEREST OF EXPERTS

Certain legal matters relating to the Offering will be passed upon by Goodmans LLP, Toronto, Ontario, on behalf of the Fund and by Torys LLP, Toronto, Ontario, on behalf of the Underwriters. No person or company whose profession or business gives authority to a statement made by such person or company and who is named in this short-form prospectus or in a document that is specifically incorporated by reference into this short-form prospectus as having prepared or certified a part of this short-form prospectus has received or shall receive a direct or indirect interest in the property of the Fund or of any associate or affiliate of the Issuer. As at the date hereof, the partners and associates of both of the foregoing firms beneficially own, directly or indirectly, less than one percent of the securities of the Issuer and any associates and affiliates of the Issuer.

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Goodmans LLP, counsel to the Issuer, and Torys LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, (together, "Tax Counsel"), the following summary describes, as of the date of this short form prospectus, the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations pursuant to the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder generally applicable to a prospective purchaser of Securities pursuant to this short form prospectus who, for the purposes of the Tax Act, is resident in Canada, holds the Securities as capital property and deals at arm's length with the Issuer and is not affiliated with the Issuer. Generally, Securities will be considered to be capital property to an investor provided the investor does not hold the Securities in the course of carrying on a business and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure in the nature of trade. Certain investors who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Securities as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act.

This summary is not applicable to an investor that is a "financial institution" for purposes of the mark-to-market rules, to an investor an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" or to an investor that is a "specified financial institution", all within the meaning of the Tax Act.

This summary is based upon the facts set out in the short form prospectus, the current provisions of the Tax Act and the Regulations thereunder (the "Regulations"), Tax Counsel's understanding of the current published administrative and assessing practices of the CRA and the specific proposals to amend the Tax Act or the Regulations announced by the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the "Proposed Amendments") and certificates of the Issuer and the Underwriters as to certain factual matters. This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal income tax consequences and, except for the Proposed Amendments, does not take into account or anticipate any changes in the law or in the administrative or assessing policies of the CRA, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial action, nor does it take into account provincial, territorial or foreign tax considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed herein. No assurance can be given that the Proposed Amendments will be enacted as currently proposed or at all.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal tax considerations applicable to an investment in the Securities. Moreover, the income and other tax consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of the Securities will vary depending on the investor's particular circumstances, including the province or provinces in which the investor resides or carries on business. Accordingly, this summary is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any prospective purchaser of Securities. Consequently, prospective purchasers of Securities should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences to them of an investment in Securities based on their particular circumstances.

Status of the Fund

Mutual Fund Trust

This summary is based on the assumption that the Fund will qualify as a "mutual fund trust" as defined in the Tax Act at all material times. If the Fund were not to so qualify as a mutual fund trust, the income tax considerations described below would, in some respects, be materially different.

Qualified Investment

So long as the Fund is a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the Units will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, deferred profit sharing plans and registered education savings plans, each as defined in the Tax Act (collectively, the "Plans"), subject to the specific provisions of any particular Plan. The Debentures, if issued on the date of this short form prospectus, will be qualified investments for trusts governed by the Plans (other than trusts governed by deferred profit sharing plans to which contributions are made by Countryside Canada or a person with whom Countryside Canada does not deal at arm's length within the meaning of the Tax Act), provided that the Units are listed on the TSX.

Common shares of Countryside Canada and Countryside Canada Notes received as a result of a redemption of Units may not be qualified investments for a Plan which could give rise to adverse consequences to the Plan or the annuitant under the Plan. Accordingly, Plans that own Units should consult their own tax advisors before deciding to exercise the redemption rights attached to the Units.

Foreign Property

The foreign property limitation contained in Part XI of the Tax Act has been repealed.

Debentures

For purposes of the Tax Act, all amounts relevant in computing a holder's liability under the Tax Act must be computed in Canadian dollars. Amounts denominated in United States dollars including adjusted cost base, proceeds of disposition and interest in respect of the Debentures must be converted into Canadian dollars based on the prevailing exchange rate at the relevant time.

Taxation of Interest on Debentures

If a holder of Debentures is a corporation, partnership, unit trust or a trust of which a corporation or a partnership is a beneficiary, the holder will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year all interest on the Debentures that accrues to the holder to the end of that taxation year or that becomes receivable by or is received by the holder before the end of that year, including on the exchange, redemption or repayment at Maturity, except to the extent that the holder included that interest in computing its income for a preceding taxation year.

If a holder is an individual or is otherwise not included in the previous paragraph, the holder will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year all interest on the Debentures that is received or receivable by the holder in that year (depending upon the method regularly followed by the holder in computing income), including on the exchange, redemption or repayment at Maturity, except to the extent that the holder included that interest in income for a preceding taxation year. In addition, if at any time a Debenture should become an "investment contract", as defined in the Tax Act, in relation to a holder, such holder will be required to include in computing income for a taxation year any interest that accrues to the holder on the Debenture up to any "anniversary day", as defined in the Tax Act, in that year to the extent such interest was not otherwise included in the holder's income for that year or a preceding year.

In the event of an exchange of a Debenture into Units pursuant to a holder's right of exchange, any interest accrued on the Debenture from the date of the last interest payment to the date of exchange and paid to the holder will be included in the holder's income as described above. If accrued interest is not paid to a holder on the exchange of a Debenture into Units pursuant to a holder's right of exchange, the holder may deduct in computing income for the year of the exchange the amount, if any, by which the aggregate amount of interest on the Debenture that was included in the holder's income for the year of exchange and all previous years exceeds total interest actually received thereon.

Exercise of the Exchange Privilege

A holder of a Debenture who exchanges the Debenture for Units pursuant to the exchange privilege will be considered to have disposed of the Debenture for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate of the fair market value of the Units so acquired at the time of the exchange and the amount of any cash received in lieu of fractional Units. The holder may realize a capital gain or capital loss computed as described below under "Other Dispositions of Debentures". The cost to the holder of the Units so acquired will also be equal to the fair market value thereof at the time of the exchange, and must be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all other Units held as capital property by the holder for the purpose of calculating the adjusted cost base of the Units acquired on the exchange.

Redemption or Repayment of Debentures

If Countryside Canada redeems a Debenture prior to Maturity or repays a Debenture upon Maturity and the holder does not exercise the exchange privilege prior to such redemption or repayment, the holder will be considered to have disposed of the Debenture for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount received by the holder (other than the amount received or deemed to be received as interest) on such redemption or repayment. If the holder receives Units on redemption or repayment, the holder will be considered to receive proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value of the Units at that time and the amount of any cash received in lieu of fractional Units. The holder may realize a capital gain or capital loss computed as described below under "Other Dispositions of Debentures". The cost to the holder of the Units so acquired will also be equal to the fair market value thereof at the time of the redemption or repayment, and must be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all other units held as capital property by the holder for the purpose of calculating the adjusted cost base of such Units.

Other Dispositions of Debentures

A disposition or deemed disposition by a holder of a Debenture will generally result in the holder realizing a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the proceeds of disposition, net of accrued interest, are greater (or less) than the aggregate of the holder's adjusted cost base thereof immediately before the disposition or deemed disposition and any reasonable costs of disposition. Upon such a disposition or deemed disposition of a Debenture (including an exchange or a redemption or repayment at Maturity), interest accrued thereon to the date of disposition and not yet due will be included in computing the holder's income, except to the extent such amount was otherwise included in the holder's income for the year or a preceding taxation year, and will be excluded in computing the holder's proceeds of disposition of the Debenture.

One-half of any capital gain realized by a holder generally must be included in the holder's income for the taxation year of the disposition, and one-half of any capital loss realized in a taxation year may be deducted against taxable capital gains realized in the year of disposition, and in the three preceding taxation years or any subsequent taxation year, to the extent and under the circumstances described in the Tax Act. A capital gain realized by a holder who is an individual or trust (other than certain trusts) may give rise to a liability for alternative minimum tax. A holder that is a "Canadian-controlled private corporation", as defined in the Tax Act, may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6⅔% on some types of income, including interest and taxable capital gains.

Taxation of the Fund

The taxation year of the Fund is the calendar year. In each taxation year, the Fund will be subject to tax under Part I of the Tax Act on its income for the year, including net realized taxable capital gains, less the portion thereof that it deducts in respect of the amounts paid or payable in the year to Unitholders. An amount will be considered to be payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year if it is paid to the Unitholder in the year by the Fund (whether in cash, additional Units or otherwise) or if the Unitholder is entitled in that year to enforce payment of the amount.

The Fund will include in its income for each taxation year any dividends received (or deemed to be received) by it in such year on the common shares of Countryside Canada and all interest on the Countryside Canada Notes that accrues to the Fund to the end of the year, or that becomes receivable or is received by it before the end of the year, except to the extent that interest was included in computing its income for a preceding taxation year. Any amount paid to the Fund in respect of the common shares of Countryside Canada (other than an amount that is a return of capital for purposes of the Tax Act) will generally constitute a dividend to the Fund. Any amount paid to the Fund on a repurchase of the common shares of Countryside Canada that is in excess of the paid-up capital of those shares will also be deemed to be a dividend to the Fund. The Fund will not be subject to tax on any amount received as a payment of principal in respect of the Countryside Canada Notes or any amount received as a return of capital on the common shares of Countryside Canada (provided that the capital returned, if any, does not exceed the adjusted cost base of the common shares of Countryside Canada held by the Fund immediately prior to the payment).

A distribution by the Fund of its property upon a redemption of Units will be treated as a disposition by the Fund of the property so distributed for proceeds of disposition equal to its fair market value (less, in the case of Countryside Canada Notes, the acquired interest, if any, on the Countryside Canada Notes so disposed of). The Fund will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds from the disposition exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of the relevant property and any reasonable costs of disposition.

In computing its income, the Fund may deduct reasonable administrative costs, interest and other expenses incurred by it for the purpose of earning income. The Fund may also deduct from its income for the year a portion of the reasonable expenses incurred by the Fund to issue Units in connection with this Offering. The portion of those issue expenses deductible by the Fund in a taxation year is 20% of those issue expenses (pro-rated where the Fund's taxation year is less than 365 days).

Under the Declaration of Trust, an amount equal to all of the income (including taxable capital gains) of the Fund (determined without reference to paragraph 82(1)(b) and subsection 104(6) of the Tax Act), together with the non-taxable portion of any net capital gain realized by the Fund, but excluding income or capital gains arising on a distribution in specie on a redemption of Units which are designated by the Fund to redeeming Unitholders, and capital gains, the tax on which may be offset by capital losses carried forward from prior years or is recoverable by the Fund will be payable in the year to the holders of the Units by way of cash distributions, subject to the exceptions described below. Income of the Fund which is applied to fund redemptions of Units for cash or is otherwise unavailable for cash distributions will be distributed to Unitholders in the form of additional Units. Income of the Fund payable to Unitholders, whether in cash, additional Units or otherwise, will generally be deductible by the Fund in computing its taxable income.

The Fund will be entitled for each taxation year to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized taxable capital gains by an amount determined under the Tax Act based on the redemption of Units during the year (the "capital gains refund"). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset the Fund's tax liability for that taxation year arising as a result of the distribution of its property on the redemption of Units. The Declaration of Trust provides that the income or taxable portion of any capital gain realized by the Fund as a result of that redemption may, at the discretion of the Trustees, be treated as income paid to, and designated as income or a taxable capital gain of, the redeeming Unitholders, and will be deductible by the Fund.

Counsel has been advised that the Fund intends to make sufficient distributions in each year of its net income for tax purposes and net realized capital gains so that the Fund will generally not be liable in that year for income tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Counsel can provide no opinion in this regard.

Taxation of Countryside Canada

Countryside Canada will be taxable on its income determined under the Tax Act for each taxation year, which will include all interest on the USEB Loans and the Countryside Holding Note that accrues to it to the end of the year, or that becomes receivable or is received by it before the end of the year, except to the extent that interest was included in computing its income for a preceding taxation year. Countryside Canada will also include in computing its income for the year the amount of all Royalties that become payable to it in the year. If Countryside Canada receives proceeds under the Royalty Interest as a result of a Capital Event or receives shares of USEB upon the exchange of the USEB Royalty Interest, Countryside Canada will be required to include an amount in income based upon the value of such proceeds or shares. Although the matter is not free from doubt, the USEB Royalty Interest should not be, as of the date of this short form prospectus, a participating interest in a "foreign investment entity" or a "tracking entity" so as to cause the proposed foreign investment entity rules to apply. However, even if such rules were to apply so that income would be imputed to Countryside Canada in respect of the USEB Royalty Interest, deductions would be available to Countryside Canada under the foreign investment entity rules for Royalties payable to it and otherwise included in its income. Based on the current prescribed rate, the cost to Countryside Canada of the USEB Royalty Interest and the amount of Royalties expected to be paid in any particular year, it is not expected that any material tax liability should arise under the foreign investment entity rules. The amount of any dividend received on the shares of Countryside Acquisition will be included in Countryside Canada's income, but Countryside Canada will be entitled to an offsetting deduction in computing its taxable income.

Countryside Holding will be a "foreign affiliate" and a "controlled foreign affiliate" of Countryside Canada for Canadian income tax purposes. Dividends paid by Countryside Holding will be included in computing the income of Countryside Canada. However, to the extent that such dividends are considered to have been paid out of the "exempt surplus" of Countryside Holding with respect to Countryside Canada, the amount of such dividends will be deductible in computing the taxable income of Countryside Canada. Dividends that are not paid out of "exempt surplus" will generally be considered to have been paid out of the "pre-acquisition surplus" of Countryside Holding with respect to Countryside Canada. The amount of such dividends will also be deductible in computing the taxable income of Countryside Canada. The adjusted cost base to Countryside Canada of the shares of Countryside Holding will be reduced to the extent that dividends paid by Countryside Holding are considered to be paid out of the "preacquisition surplus" of Countryside Holding with respect to Countryside Canada. If the adjusted cost base to Countryside Canada of the shares in Countryside Holding becomes a negative amount, Countryside Canada will be deemed to realize a capital gain equal to such amount for that year. To the extent that Countryside Holding or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary thereof earns income that qualifies as "foreign accrual property income" ("FAPI"), the FAPI allocable to Countryside Canada must be included in computing its income, subject to a deduction for grossed-up "foreign accrual tax" as computed in accordance with the Tax Act, whether or not Countryside Canada actually receives a distribution of FAPI. Any amount so included will increase the adjusted cost base to Countryside Canada of its shares in Countryside Holding. At such time as Countryside Canada receives a dividend of this type of income that was previously treated as FAPI, that dividend will effectively not be taxable to Countryside Canada and there will be a corresponding reduction in the adjusted cost base to Countryside Canada of its shares in Countryside Holding.

Countryside Canada will be entitled to deduct the interest paid by it on the Countryside Canada Notes and the Debentures in computing its income to the extent that the amount of the interest is reasonable and is incurred to earn income from its business or investments. To the extent that the deduction for such interest creates a loss in a taxation year of Countryside Canada, that loss will be a non-capital loss which may be carried back for three taxation years and forward for ten taxation years and applied against the income of Countryside Canada (including capital gains) for such years, subject to the detailed rules in the Tax Act in that regard.

Taxation of Unitholders

Fund Distributions

A Unitholder generally will be required to include in income for a particular taxation year the portion of the net income of the Fund, including any net realized taxable capital gains, that is paid or payable to the Unitholder in the year that the Fund deducts in computing its income for tax purposes, whether such amount is received in cash, additional Units or otherwise. Provided that appropriate designations are made by the Fund and the Trust, that portion of their net taxable capital gains, taxable dividends from taxable Canadian corporations and foreign source income as are paid or payable to a Unitholder will effectively retain its character and be treated as such in the hands of the Unitholder for purposes of the Tax Act. To the extent that amounts are designated as taxable dividends from taxable Canadian corporations, the normal gross-up and dividend tax credit provisions will apply in respect of Unitholders who are individuals, the refundable tax under Part IV of the Tax Act will be payable by Unitholders that are private corporations and certain other corporations controlled directly or indirectly by or for the benefit of an individual or a related group of individuals and the deduction in computing taxable income will be available to Unitholders that are corporations. An additional refundable 6⅔% tax will be payable by Unitholders that are Canadian-controlled private corporations in certain circumstances.

The non-taxable portion of any net realized capital gains of the Fund that is paid or payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year will not be included in computing the Unitholder's income for the year. Any other amount in excess of the income of the Fund that is paid or payable to a Unitholder in that year will not generally be included in the Unitholder's income for the year. However, where such an amount is paid or payable to a Unitholder (other than as proceeds in respect of the redemption of Units), the Unitholder will be required to reduce the adjusted cost base of the Units by that amount. To the extent that the adjusted cost base of a Unit would otherwise be a negative amount, the negative amount will be deemed to be a capital gain and the adjusted cost base of the Unit to the Unitholder will then be nil. The taxation of capital gains is described below.

The cost to a Unitholder of additional Units received in lieu of a cash distribution of income will be the amount of income distributed by the issue of those Units. For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of Units, when a Unit is acquired, the cost of the newly-acquired Unit will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Units owned by Unitholder as capital property immediately before that acquisition.

Disposition of Units

On the disposition or deemed disposition of a Unit whether on a redemption or otherwise, the Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the Unitholder's proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Unit and any reasonable costs of disposition. Proceeds of disposition will not include an amount payable by the Fund that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder's income, including any capital gain realized by the Fund in connection with a redemption which has been designated by the Fund to the redeeming Unitholder. The taxation of capital gains and capital losses is described below.

Where Units are redeemed by the distribution of common shares of Countryside Canada, Countryside Canada Notes or any other property of the Fund to the redeeming Unitholder, the proceeds of disposition to the Unitholders will be equal to the fair market value of such property so distributed less any income or capital gain realized by the Fund as a result of the redemption of those Units which has been designated by the Fund to the Unitholder. Where income or a capital gain realized by the Fund as a result of the distribution of common shares of Countryside Canada, Countryside Canada Notes or other such property on the redemption of Units has been designated by the Fund to a redeeming Unitholder, the Unitholder will be required to include in income, the income or taxable portion of the capital gain so designated. The cost of any property distributed by the Fund to a Unitholder upon a redemption of Units will be equal to the fair market value of that property at the time of the distribution less, in the case of a note, any accrued interest on the Countryside Canada Note. The Unitholder will thereafter be required to include in income interest on any Countryside Canada Note so distributed in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act.

A consolidation of Units of the Fund will not be considered to result in a disposition of Units by Unitholders. The aggregate adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of all of the Unitholder's Units of the Fund will not change as a result of a consolidation of Units; however, the adjusted cost base per Unit will increase.

Capital Gains and Capital Losses

One-half of any capital gain realized by a Unitholder and the amount of any net taxable capital gains designated by the Fund in respect of a Unitholder will be included in the Unitholder's income as a taxable capital gain and one-half of any capital loss realized by a Unitholder may generally be deducted only from taxable capital gains in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. Where a Unitholder that is a corporation or trust (other than a mutual fund trust) disposes of a Unit, the Unitholder's capital loss from the disposition will generally be reduced by the amount of dividends from Countryside Canada previously designated by the Fund to the Unitholder except to the extent that a loss on a previous disposition of a Unit has been reduced by those dividends. Analogous rules apply where a corporation or trust (other than a mutual fund trust) is a member of a partnership that disposes of Units.

Alternative Minimum Tax

In general terms, net income of the Fund paid or payable to a Unitholder who is an individual that is designated as taxable dividends or as net realized capital gains and capital gains realized on the disposition of Units may increase the Unitholder's liability for alternative minimum tax.

2004 Budget Proposals

On March 23, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) proposed amendments to the Tax Act to restrict direct and indirect holdings in certain "business income trusts" (as defined in the proposals) by certain tax-exempt investors including trusts governed by registered pension plans and pension corporations (the "2004 Budget Proposals").

On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the 2004 Budget Proposals will be suspended to allow consultation with representatives of the pension fund industry, the investment industry, provincial governments and other interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in a press release dated September 16, 2004.

Under the 2004 Budget Proposals, a "designated taxpayer" would be subject to a penalty tax in respect of each month where, at the end of that month, the designated taxpayer were to hold "restricted investment property" and, in general terms, the cost amount to the designated taxpayer of all such property exceeds 1% of the cost amount of all the designated taxpayer's properties. The monthly tax would be 1% of such excess. For this purpose, restricted investment property would include units and debt of a "business income trust" (other than an "exempt trust") and interests in (or debts of) partnerships, trusts, mutual fund corporations, investment corporations or mortgage investment corporations (each as defined in the Tax Act) where the cost amount to such entity of all of its restricted investment property exceeds 1% of the cost amount of all the entity's properties.

The 2004 Budget Proposals also proposed to subject a designated taxpayer to a penalty tax in respect of each month where, in general terms, at the end of that month the designated taxpayer, and entities with which it does not deal at arm's length, holds units of any class of a business income trust with a fair market value in excess of 5% of the fair market value of all units of such class. The monthly tax payable by a particular designated taxpayer would be 1% of its share (as determined under the 2004 Budget Proposals) of the excess holding of units by the designated taxpayer and such non-arm's length entities.

For the purposes of the 2004 Budget Proposals, the Fund would be a "business income trust" other than an "exempt trust" and the Units would constitute "restricted investment property". A "designated taxpayer" would include trusts governed by registered pension plans and pension corporations (but does not include trusts governed by a Plan).

Prospective purchasers of Units who could be treated as "designated taxpayers", or an entity an interest in which (or debt of which) may become "restricted investment property" as a result of holding Units should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential application of the 2004 Budget Proposals as a result of an acquisition of Units.

On September 8, 2005, the Department of Finance (Canada) released a consultation paper on tax and other issues related to publicly listed flow-through entities ("FTEs") such as income trusts and limited partnerships and invited interested parties to make submissions prior to December 31, 2005.

The stated focus of the consultation paper is to assess the tax and economic efficiency implications of FTEs to determine if the current tax system is appropriate or should be modified. Although the consultation paper does not propose any particular legislative or administrative changes, it identifies possible policy approaches, including limiting the deduction of interest expenses by operating entities, taxing FTEs in a manner similar to corporations or better integrating the personal and corporate income tax systems to make the tax system more neutral between forms of business organizations. On September 19, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that he had requested that CRA postpone providing advance income tax rulings respecting FTE structures pending these consultations, that the Department of Finance (Canada) is closely monitoring developments in the FTE market with a view to proposing measures in response to the consultations and that consideration would be given to what, if any, transitional measures were appropriate. Further initiatives in this area, if any, including the possible initiatives referred to in the consultation paper, may be taken following the completion of such consultations. Accordingly, legislative changes in this area are possible, and such changes could result in the income tax considerations described herein being materially different in certain respects.

RISK FACTORS

The following are certain factors relating to the Fund, Countryside Canada and the Acquired Business which prospective investors should carefully consider before deciding whether to purchase Units or Debentures. The following information is a summary of only certain risk factors and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and must be read in conjunction with, the detailed information appearing elsewhere in this prospectus and incorporated herein by reference. These risks and uncertainties are not the only ones facing the Fund, Countryside Canada and the Acquired Business. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to the Fund, Countryside Canada or Ripon, or that the Fund, Countryside Canada or Ripon currently deem immaterial, may also impair the operations of the Fund, Countryside Canada or the Acquired Business. If any such risks actually materialize, the business and financial condition, liquidity and results of operation of the Fund, Countryside Canada and Ripon could be materially adversely affected and the ability of the Fund to make distributions on the Units or Countryside Canada to make interest payments on the Debentures could be adversely affected.

There are also risks associated with the business and operations of the District Energy Systems and the Biogas Project that a potential investor in Units or Debentures should consider and which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus. See "Risk Factors — Risks Related to the Business" in the Fund's AIF. As well, there are risks associated with the structure of the Fund that should be considered. See "Risk Factors — Risks Related to the Structure of the Fund" in the Fund's AIF.

Risks Related to the Acquired Business

Dependence Upon Key Customers

Electricity generated from the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities has historically been purchased by PG&E and SCE, two local electric utilities, under long-term PPAs. Steam generated from the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities has historically been sold to two nearby paper mills. If for any reason such customers are unable or unwilling to fulfill their contractual obligations under the relevant PPAs and Steam Agreements, the financial condition of Ripon could decline and reduce Ripon's ability to generate distributable cash. Additionally, if the paper mills fail to meet their contractual obligations, the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities' status as QF's could be endangered with the consequences described below (the "Qualifying Facility Status").

Steam Host Termination for Convenience

Both Fox River and Blue Heron are permitted to terminate their respective steam sales agreements for convenience under certain circumstances. Each steam sales agreement provides that, in such event, the steam customer must make a specified monetary payment to Ripon to cover Ripon's cost of obtaining a replacement steam host. Blue Heron's obligation to make such payment terminates after the expiration of the initial 12 years of the agreement. Blue Heron may also discharge its obligation by obtaining a replacement steam host. It is possible that either steam host may exercise such termination right but fail to comply with its obligations to obtain or fund the cost to obtain a replacement steam host due to lack of resources or for other reasons. In such event Ripon may not have an adequate remedy against the steam host and be required to obtain a replacement steam host at its own expense or risk losing its QF status. Loss of QF Status would have a material adverse effect on Ripon. See "Risk Factors — Qualifying Facility Status".

Competition

In markets in which Ripon operates, there is competition from companies who are involved in power generation. Some of these companies have access to greater financial resources and have a greater ability to attract and retain personnel than Ripon or the Fund. Additionally, in recent years, such competition has contributed to a reduction in electricity prices in certain markets.

Seasonality

The Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities are expected to generate the majority of their gross revenues in the period from May to August because the PPAs provide higher levels of payments during these periods. To the extent that equipment at either the Ripon Facility or the San Gabriel Facility requires maintenance and repair, or suffers disruptions of power generation for other reasons during the period from May to August, Ripon's ability to make distributions to Ripon Power and adequately meet its obligations under the Ripon Loan may be negatively impacted.

Energy Pricing Risk

On or about July 14, 2001, Ripon and PG&E entered into a 5 year amendment of the Ripon PPA which substituted PG&E's SRAC with a primarily fixed energy rate (subject to adjustment for time of use factors). When this amendment expires in July 2006, it is expected that Ripon will again receive energy payments under the Ripon PPA based on PG&E's SRAC prices. The San Gabriel Facility currently receives a monthly energy payment for energy delivered to SCE in an amount calculated by reference to SCE's SRAC pursuant to an agreement which terminates no later than July 1, 2006, at which time Ripon will receive energy payments under the San Gabriel PPA based on SCE's SRAC prices. Currently, the SRAC energy prices are based on the Transition Formula, which is determined separately with respect to each utility on a monthly basis. The authority to modify the elements of the SRAC energy price formula rests with the CPUC, subject to certain statutory requirements imposed by the Electric Utility Industry Restructuring Act (Assembly Bill 1890). There is an open proceeding in which the CPUC has indicated it will review the Transition Formula for SRAC pricing for possible prospective changes. There can be no assurance that any change in the SRAC price methodology will not adversely affect the operating margins derived from the Ripon PPA and San Gabriel PPA. Any adverse change in energy margins may negatively impact Ripon's cash flow which in turn could reduce distributable cash.

Expiry of the PPA

Ripon's PPAs terminate in 2016 and 2018. There can be no assurance that, upon the expiry of such PPAs, Ripon will be able to enter into new PPAs or otherwise sell its power into the market at prices at or above projected levels. Future prices and rates cannot be predicted with certainty and will inevitably deviate from such forecasts and such deviation may be material. Significant declines in prices and rates would be expected to have a material adverse impact on Ripon upon expiry of the PPAs.

Capacity Payments

The Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities are dependent on capacity payments due from PG&E and SCE, as the case may be. Under the PPAs, each Facility's ongoing ability to receive the full firm capacity payment is conditioned upon the delivery of the contract capacity during on-peak hours during the summer peak months (June through August for PG&E and June through September for SCE), although both facilities receive the benefit of a twenty percent monthly forced outage allowance during the summer peak months. If either Facility fails to meet the performance criteria, the purchasing utility has the right to declare a probationary period of up to fifteen months after which, if the performance criteria is not met, the Facility may be de-rated, the capacity payment reduced and the Facility subjected to a refund obligation based on the difference between original capacity and reduced capacity plus interest thereon. Finally, the capacity payment may be reduced by PG&E and suspended by SCE if the Ripon Facility or the San Gabriel Facility, respectively, is unable to meet its performance obligations as a result of a force majeure-type event that continues for longer than ninety days. Any adverse change in capacity and/or capacity bonus payments payments may negatively impact Ripon's cash flow which in turn may negatively impact Countryside Canada's cash available to pay interest on the Debentures and the Fund's distributable cash.

Insurance

There can be no assurance that insurance obtained in respect of the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities' operations, including business interruption insurance and earthquake insurance, among others, will be sufficient and will continue to be offered on commercially reasonable terms or that events that could give rise to a loss or liability are insured. A significant event which is not fully insured could have a material adverse effect.

Operating Risks

The operation of the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities involves many risks, including the breakdown or failure of equipment or processes, and performance below expected levels of output or efficiency. If operations are interrupted at these facilities due to mechanical failures or for other reasons, it could have a negative effect on distributable cash.

Reliance on Third Party Operator

Ripon has entered into operation and maintenance agreements with NAES for the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities. As a result, Ripon is and will be dependent on these third party operators for the successful operation of these projects. To the extent NAES does not fulfill its obligations under these agreements, the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities' operations at these projects could be adversely affected.

Force Majeure Events

It is possible that force majeure events may disrupt operations at or cause substantial damage to the Ripon Facilities. As the plants are located in California, such force majeure events may include earthquakes. While Ripon has obtained insurance, including earthquake insurance, to mitigate any financial costs arising from such force majeure events, there is no assurance such insurance will fully cover such risks and costs or will continue to be available to Ripon on terms which are commercially reasonable.

Qualifying Facility Status

Loss of QF status could trigger defaults under covenants to maintain QF status under the PPAs and the Ripon Loan and result in PPA termination, penalties or acceleration of indebtedness under plus interest. Further, under PURPA, a regulated utility could refuse to purchase electricity from the Ripon Facility and/or the San Gabriel Facility at such utility's Avoided Cost if QF status were lost and might be entitled to certain remedies for breach of an existing PPA including the right to terminate the PPA. In addition, the FERC has asserted jurisdiction over the rates charged by QFs during periods when a facility does not operate in compliance with the applicable QF criteria and has indicated its willingness to order the refund of payments previously made under PPAs in some cases. Further, loss of QF status could expose either Facility to regulation by FERC under the Federal Power Act, by the CPUC and, until February 8, 2006, by the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, or after February 8, 2006, by the FERC under EPA 2005.

Any of these consequences would result in substantial regulatory burdens, potentially lower revenues from power sales and potentially insurmountable impediments to affected entities with regard to conducting business in the manner currently contemplated. Accordingly, the ability of the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities to generate distributable cash is dependent on their maintaining QF status. A facility may lose its QF status either temporarily or permanently.

Congress from time to time has considered legislation to repeal and amend certain provisions of PURPA, most recently with the enactment of EPA 2005. Such legislation has typically included "grand-fathering" protection to ensure that any change in law would apply only prospectively and would not affect the obligation of electric utilities to purchase from QFs under their existing PPAs. However, there is no guarantee that any future legislation would contain "grand-fathering" protection.

Pursuant to EPA 2005, on October 11, 2005 the FERC promulgated its proposed regulations implementing additional criteria to be applied to new generation facilities. Additionally under FERC's authority granted by Section 210 of PURPA FERC announced its intention to reconsider which of its other regulations, including but not limited to exemptions from regulation, are no longer required to "encourage cogeneration and small power production." In that light, FERC has proposed rules that would change the exemptions applicable to QFs. These changes would, among other things, subject QFs generally to the rate provisions of the Federal Power Act with respect to electricity sales not made at avoided cost rates established by a state regulatory authority. Moreover, FERC has invited comment on the proposed rules and on whether changes should be made to the exemptions and rights currently enjoyed by QF's under FERC's regulations, from interested parties, some of whom may argue against the encouragement of cogeneration and small power production. At this time, it is not possible to determine what rules applicable to QFs may be changed, or how they may be changed, as a result of this rulemaking and the case-by-case application of the rules that will further define their impact. Accordingly, this rulemaking may result in regulations that reduce the benefits of QF status. Nevertheless, it is believed that changes made to FERC's regulations as the result of the FERC rulemaking described above will not affect the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities for so long as each project continues to operate in compliance with PURPA and their PPA's remain in effect. If either Facility should lose QF Status and if it should be determined that the purchasing utility has the right to terminate its PPA as a result thereof, the provisions of the new regulations would apply to any new PPA that either the Ripon or San Gabriel Facility would seek to enter into under PURPA.

Regulatory Approvals

The construction and operation of energy projects requires numerous permits from governmental agencies, as well as compliance with environmental laws and other regulations. While management believes that the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities are in substantial compliance with all applicable regulations and that each of the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities have the requisite permits, regulators and reviewing courts may disagree. There can be no assurance that new laws, regulations or orders or amendments to or new, more stringent interpretations or enforcement policies with respect to existing laws, regulations or orders which would have a material adverse effect on the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities will not be adopted or that completed projects will comply with all applicable permit conditions, statutes and regulations. If either Ripon Project fails to obtain or maintain any required permit or fails to comply with any applicable law, regulators may take enforcement actions which could have a material adverse effect on the applicable project.

Enforcement of Indemnities Against the Vendors under the Purchase and Sale Agreement

Pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement, the vendors agreed to indemnify Countryside Holding in respect of breaches of any representations and/or warranties contained in such agreement. The vendors, however, will not be liable to pay any amounts under the indemnity provisions until the aggregate amount of all claims or losses exceeds US$1.05 million, subject to a maximum liability of US$7 million and a deductible of US$350,000, with the exception of indemnities relating to breaches of representations and/or warranties concerning certain fundamental corporate matters, tax matters and environmental matters, for which the maximum liability is limited to the cash purchase price paid by Countryside Holding under the Purchase and Sale Agreement. Further, it is not certain that the vendors will have sufficient assets to satisfy any claims for indemnification at the time an indemnification claim is made or a judgment respecting such a claim is entered. As a result, there can be no assurance that Countryside Holding will be able to obtain from the vendors under the Purchase and Sale Agreement the full amount of any damages suffered by it in respect of any breaches of representations and/or warranties by such vendors.

Environmental Health and Safety Risks

The Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities are regulated by numerous and significant laws, regulations, by-laws, guidelines, policies, directives and other requirements relating to environmental health and safety matters ("EHS Requirements").

Management believes that material environmental permits that are required for the operation of the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities have been obtained (or renewals timely applied for). Although management believes that the operations of the facilities are currently in material compliance with applicable EHS Requirements and permit requirements, there is no guarantee that more stringent laws will not be imposed, that there will not be more stringent enforcement of applicable laws or that environmental control systems may not fail, which may result in material expenditures. Failure by Ripon to comply with any EHS Requirements, or increases in the cost of such compliance, including as a result of unanticipated liabilities (whether as a result of newly discovered issues or known issues that have not been quantified) or expenditures for investigation, assessment, remediation or monitoring, could result in additional expense, capital expenditures, restrictions or delays in the projects' and systems' activities, the extent of which cannot be predicted and which may be material.

Natural Gas Fuel Availability and Price

The Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities use natural gas for fuel. The Ripon Facility currently purchases natural gas under fixed cost contracts that expire in 2006. There can be no assurance that Ripon will enter into new long-term gas contracts or otherwise purchase natural gas in the market at the same price as it receives today. Ripon has also entered into gas transportation contracts under which the natural gas is transported from the gas supplier's delivery point to the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities. The pricing under such contracts is governed by tariffs filed with the CPUC. The contracts currently expire in 2007. Upon expiry there can be no assurance that Ripon will be able to renew the gas transportation contracts at the same rates as it receives today, and therefore Ripon's fuel transportation costs may decrease or increase the distributable cash generated by Ripon.

Lack of Correlation Between Energy Prices and Fuel Costs

The energy prices charged by each of the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities are currently governed by PPA amendments that will expire not later than June 30, 2006. After such date, the energy pricing at each facility will be based on the SRAC of the applicable utility. The CPUC is currently considering the future methodology for computing SRAC for each utility in an open proceeding. Although the outcome of such proceeding is uncertain, management believes that the CPUC will likely implement an SRAC methodology that indexes energy prices, in part, to an index of natural gas prices. However it is unknown what specific index the CPUC will choose for each utility and how energy prices will correlate to such index. At the same time, the Gas Contract will expire on June 30, 2006. Management is seeking to negotiate new gas contracts that will correlate gas prices with the same gas indices to be employed in the future applicable SRAC formulas and in that way ensure that energy prices received by Ripon adjust with movements in gas prices. However it is unclear that management will be successful given that both the conclusion of the CPUC proceeding and management's negotiations are unknown. In the event that management is unable to negotiate gas contracts with pricing that correlates with SRAC and gas prices increase without compensating adjustments in energy prices received by Ripon, operating margins at the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities may be reduced, in turn reducing Ripon's distributable cash.

Potential Refund Liability

A proceeding is currently pending before the CPUC in Docket No. R 99-11-022 in which the CPUC is considering whether to apply retroactively for the period December, 2000 through March, 2001 a March, 2001 decision (D. 01-03-067) which, among other things, modified the methodology used in calculating SRAC and thereby decreased SRAC levels for the period commencing March 27, 2001. SCE and several other parties sought judicial review of D. 01-03-067 and two related CPUC decisions. In September, 2002, the California Court of Appeals found that the CPUC had violated PURPA for failing to consider SCE's argument that the CPUC should retroactively apply the modified SRAC formula. Southern Cal. Edison vs. Public Utilities Comm'n., 101 Cal. App. 4th 982 (2002). The Court of Appeals directed the CPUC to consider SCE's request. In 2003 and 2004, comments on the issue were submitted to the CPUC by various parties and the matter was deemed submitted in November, 2004. In February, 2005, a Draft Decision was issued by the assigned Commissioner who found that "evidence shows SRAC prices were correct between December 2000 and March 2001, and retroactive application of the modified SRAC formula is not warranted." Various parties have submitted comments on the Draft Decision, including PG&E, SCE, a ratepayer organization and the CPUC's Office of Ratepayer Advocates, objecting to the Draft Decision. The CPUC has not yet issued a final decision in the matter and is free to accept the Draft Decision as written, modify it or reject it in its entirety. The outcome of this proceeding cannot be predicted. Even in the event of an adverse CPUC decision, management has been advised by counsel that Ripon would have several meritorious legal defenses that would be available to protect Ripon from any material adverse impact. However, there is no assurance that Ripon would prevail on such defenses if called upon to assert them. If the CPUC ultimately adopts a final order imposing a retroactive modification to the SRAC formula, and a remedy based thereon is ordered or authorized, and if such final order and remedy is not reversed on appeal, QFs including the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities could be required to make refunds and/or accept reduced payments (by way of offset of past overpayment against future payments for power delivered) under their respective PPAs. Such refunds or reduced payments could be material for Ripon or San Gabriel, and could materially affect their ability to generate distributable cash.

Labour Relations

While management believes labour relations at the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities have been stable to date and there have not been any disruptions in operations as a result of labour disputes with employees, the maintenance of a productive and efficient labour environment cannot be assured. In the event of a labour disruption such as a strike or lockout, the ability of the Ripon and San Gabriel Facilities to generate income, and consequently the ability of the Fund to generate cash distributions, may be impaired.

Risks Related to the Structure of the Fund

Dependence on Ripon

The Fund is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose trust which is dependent on the management, operations and assets of Ripon as well as its other investments and on the management of Ripon through the indirect ownership of all of its outstanding membership interests. Although the Fund intends to distribute all cash generated by the Fund less administrative expenses, tax liabilities and other obligations of the Fund and amounts, if any, paid by the Fund in connection with the redemption of Units, there can be no assurance regarding the amounts of income to be generated from Ripon and paid to the Fund which will depend upon numerous factors, some of which will be beyond the control of management. Variations in the amounts of income generated from Ripon and paid to the Fund can be material.

Illinois Rate Incentive Program

Under the Illinois rate incentive program, USEB's Illinois-based biogas projects receive the gross contract rate for their power generated and sold under each project's PPA, which is equal to the average amount per kWh paid by the local government entities in each project's respective jurisdiction. The gross contract rate is subject to upward or downward adjustment and is set on a retroactive basis after the end of each contract year under the applicable PPA. During 2005, the gross contract rate for the prior contract year at four of USEB's ten Illinois-based biogas projects was reduced retroactively pursuant to the state retail rate program. As a result, USEB's revenue and operating cash flow from such biogas projects for the current year have fallen because (i) the current year's payments that are being made by the applicable power purchaser are based on the lower gross contract rate established retroactively for the prior year, and (ii) the applicable power purchaser has been off-setting from current year payments overpayments made during the prior year. While USEB is currently in compliance with the terms of the USEB Loans and has made all payments of principal and interest on the USEB Loans, it has not had sufficient cash flow from operations to fully fund reserves under the USEB Loans, declare and pay dividends to its shareholders or make payments to Countryside Canada under the USEB Royalty Interest. If the gross contract rates remain at current levels, USEB may not be able to fully fund reserves under the USEB Loans and/or may not be able to pay royalties under the USEB Royalty Interest. If gross contract rates fall further, USEB may not be able to meet its obligations under the USEB Loans.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

Pursuant to the Management Agreement and the Administration Agreement, the Fund and its subsidiaries rely substantially on the Manager and the Administrator for management, administration and project development functions. See "Modified Management Arrangements — Management Agreement" and "Modified Management Arrangements — Administration Agreement".

There may be circumstances in which the interests of the Manager, its affiliates or entities managed by such parties may conflict with those of the Fund, Countryside Canada, its subsidiaries and the Unitholders. Although the Executives are required to devote a significant majority of their time for the benefit of Countryside Canada, Countryside Holding and its subsidiaries and to the development of projects reasonably expected to be within the acquisition criteria of the Fund, the Manager's personnel are not required to devote their time exclusively to these activities. Further, while the Manager is prohibited from providing management and administrative services to third parties other than the Fund, the Manager may develop and own energy and utility infrastructure projects for its own account or jointly with third parties, subject to its obligation to provide the Fund with a first opportunity to invest in such projects as described below. Thus, subject to the constraints described above, the Manager and its executives may engage in activities similar to the current activities of the Fund, Countryside Canada and its subsidiaries.

The Manager and its affiliates will provide Countryside Canada and its subsidiaries with the first opportunity to invest in any entity or asset that meets the investment criteria of the Fund and Countryside Canada that the Manager or its affiliates develop, own or control. The Manager shall only be free to offer such investment opportunities to third parties or to pursue them for its own account if Countryside Canada or its subsidiaries decline or are unable to pursue such opportunities.

Further provisions in the Declaration of Trust, which are similar to those contained in the Canada Business Corporations Act, provide certain procedures to be followed in the event of such conflicts of interests, and certain remedies may be available to the Fund where such procedures are not followed.

Reliance on Third Parties

The Fund maintains no employees of its own and is reliant upon the Administrator and the Manager for the administration and management of its operating subsidiaries.

There is no provision for Countryside Holding and Countryside Canada to terminate the Manager within the first five years of the term of the Management Agreement except in limited circumstances enumerated in the Management Agreement. After the first five years of the term of the Management Agreement, termination for reasons other than those enumerated will require payment of specified fees. See "Modified Management Arrangements — Management Agreement — Term and Termination".

Amended Credit Facility

The Amended Credit Facility contains numerous affirmative, reporting and restrictive covenants that limit the discretion of Countryside Acquisition's management with respect to certain business matters and impose burdens and potential financial risk. A failure to comply with the obligations in the Amended Credit Facility could result in a default which, if not cured or waived, could result in a termination of distributions by Countryside Acquisition and permit acceleration of the relevant indebtedness, including the Countryside Canada Notes. Further, financial or operational non-performance of USEB may impact Countryside Acquisition's compliance with certain covenants under the Amended Credit Facility and thereby limit the Fund's ability to receive dividends from Countryside Acquisition. If the indebtedness under the Amended Credit Facility, including any possible hedge contracts with the lenders, were to be accelerated, there can be no assurance that the assets of Countryside Acquisition would be sufficient to repay in full that indebtedness. Upon maturity of the Amended Credit Facility, Countryside Acquisition intends to renew or refinance the Amended Credit Facility at then-current market rates. If Countryside Acquisition is unable to refinance or renew the Amended Credit Facility on comparable or better terms, there may be an adverse effect on cash distributions to Unitholders.

United States Tax-Related Risks

There can be no assurance that U.S. federal income tax laws and the IRS administrative policies respecting the U.S. tax consequences described herein will not be changed in a manner that adversely affects Unitholders. The Fund has obtained advice from U.S. tax counsel on certain U.S. federal income tax matters; however, the Fund has not sought or received a formal tax opinion from U.S. tax counsel.

Countryside Holding Note

The following discussion describes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences that could result in a reduction in the amount of distributions that Countryside Canada would otherwise receive from Countryside Holding and could consequently result in a reduction in the cash flow of the Fund that would otherwise be available for distribution to Unitholders. Countryside Holding intends to treat the Countryside Holding Note as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes and (subject to the discussion below regarding the earnings stripping rules) to claim deductions for all of the interest on the Countryside Holding Note in computing its income for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Fund believes that the interest rate being charged on the Countryside Holding Note has been determined in an arm's length manner under the relevant facts and circumstances. While it is possible that the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") could take a contrary position, the Fund believes, based on advice of U.S. tax counsel, that Countryside Holding's position that the Countryside Holding Note is properly treated as debt, rather than equity, for U.S. federal income tax purposes is supported by existing legal authority as applied to the relevant facts and circumstances reviewed by U.S. tax counsel relating to the Countryside Holding Note. If the IRS successfully challenged Countryside Holding's treatment of the Countryside Holding Note as debt for such purposes, then otherwise deductible interest would be treated as non-deductible distributions and the disallowance of these interest deductions could increase Countryside Holding's U.S. federal income tax liability. If the IRS successfully challenged the interest rate as excessive on the Countryside Holding Note, Countryside Holding would not be able to fully deduct interest paid on such note and the disallowance of these interest deductions could increase Countryside Holding's U.S. federal income tax liability. Any such increase in Countryside Holding's U.S. federal income tax liability could adversely affect its ability to make interest and principal payments on the Countryside Holding Note and could also reduce the amount of the distributions which Countryside Canada would otherwise receive from Countryside Holding, and this could reduce the cash flow of the Fund that would otherwise be available for distribution to Unitholders.

The earnings stripping rules under Section 163(j) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), may limit the ability of Countryside Holding to deduct all or a portion of the interest paid on the Countryside Holding Note. Generally, under these rules, the ability of Countryside Holding to deduct interest paid on the Countryside Holding Note will be limited if (1) the debt to equity ratio of Countryside Holding exceeds 1.5 to 1 and (2) its net interest expense (the interest paid by Countryside Holding on all debt, including the Countryside Holding Note, less its interest income) exceeds 50% of its adjusted taxable income (generally, U.S. federal taxable income before net interest expense, depreciation, amortization and taxes). The amount of the disallowed deduction would be the interest expense exceeding the 50% threshold. If all or a portion of the deduction for interest on the Countryside Holding Note for a taxable year is disallowed by Code Section 163(j), the amount disallowed will be carried forward and treated as interest paid or accrued in the succeeding taxable year. Such interest, together with all other interest paid or accrued by Countryside Holding on all of its debt in the succeeding taxable year, would then be tested under Code Section 163(j) in such succeeding taxable year. In addition, there can be no assurance that future changes to the Code and the regulations thereunder will not otherwise restrict or eliminate the ability of Countryside Holding to claim a deduction for U.S. federal income tax purposes for interest paid on the Countryside Holding Note. An additional restriction on or elimination of the ability of Countryside Holding to claim deductions for interest payments on the Countryside Holding Note could increase the U.S. federal income tax liability of Countryside Canada. Any such increase in U.S. federal income tax liability could reduce the amount of the distributions which Countryside Canada would otherwise receive from Countryside Holding and this could reduce the cash flow of the Fund that would otherwise be available for distribution to Unitholders. The debt to equity ratio of Countryside Holding currently is less than 1.5 to 1, and thus the limitations of Code Section 163(j) are not expected to currently apply. Because the tests of Code Section 163(j) are applied for each taxable year, no assurance can be given that the limitations of Code Section 163(j) would not apply in the future.

Recent Developments Relating to USEB's Code Section 29 Tax Credits

In addition, USEB currently receives income from the sale of Code Section 29 tax credits which will expire on December 31, 2007 unless the law is extended. Through December 31, 2007, Code Section 29 has a phase out provision that is triggered when the "Market Wellhead Price" of domestic crude oil reaches certain "Phase-out Prices" as determined by the IRS. The phase-out is proportional. The Market Wellhead Price is the IRS' estimate of the calendar year average wellhead price per barrel for all domestic crude oil, the price of which is not subject to regulation. Phase out Prices are adjusted each year for inflation. The IRS will not publish the Phase-out Prices for calendar year 2005 until May 2006. Historically, the Market Wellhead Prices oil prices have been substantially below "Phase-out Prices" and therefore the possibility of a phase-out has been considered remote. However, due to the recent spike in oil prices, Market Wellhead Prices in 2005 have, on occasion, exceeded the price at which the Phase out would be triggered. Nevertheless, based on average Market Wellhead Prices for the first seven months of 2005 and estimates of 2005 Phase-out Prices, management believes that the Phase-out will not be triggered in 2005 unless oil prices during the remainder of 2005 increase significantly from current levels. However, there can be no assurance that future oil prices will remain under future phase out levels in 2006 and 2007. If a phase out is triggered during such years or in 2005, USEB's income from Code Section 29 tax credits may be reduced or eliminated, thus reducing cash available for servicing debt service on the USEB Loan and for payments of the royalty.

Canadian Tax-Related Risks

There can be no assurance that Canadian federal income tax laws and administrative policies respecting the treatment of mutual fund trusts will not be changed in a manner that adversely affects the holders of Units. If the Fund ceases to qualify as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act, the income tax considerations described herein under the heading "Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" would be materially and adversely different in certain respects, including that the Securities may cease to be qualified investments for Plans. The Tax Act imposes penalties for the acquisition or holding of non-qualified investments.

The 2004 Budget Proposals included proposed amendments to the Tax Act to restrict direct and indirect holdings in certain "business income trusts" (as defined in the 2004 Budget Proposals) by certain tax-exempt entities. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the application of the 2004 Budget Proposals was suspended to allow further consultation with interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. As part of the release of the 2005 Federal Budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) issued further statements in respect of the 2004 Budget Proposals, advising that the Department of Finance will continue to consult shareholders on tax issues related to business income trusts and other flow-through entities. On September 8, 2005, the Department of Finance (Canada) released a consultation paper on tax and other issues related to publicly listed FTEs such as income trusts and limited partnerships and invited interested parties to make submissions prior to December 31, 2005. The stated focus of the consultation paper is to assess the tax and economic efficiency implications of FTEs to determine if the current tax system is appropriate or should be modified. Although the consultation paper does not propose any particular legislative or administrative changes, it identifies possible policy approaches, including limiting the deduction of interest expenses by operating entities, taxing FTEs in a manner similar to corporations or better integrating the personal and corporate income tax systems to make the tax system more neutral between forms of business organizations. On September 19, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that he had requested that CRA postpone providing advance income tax rulings respecting FTE structures pending these consultations, that the Department of Finance (Canada) is closely monitoring developments in the FTE market with a view to proposing measures in response to the consultations and that consideration would be given to what, if any, transitional measures were appropriate. Further initiatives in this area, if any, including the possible initiatives referred to in the consultation paper, may be taken following the completion of such consultations. Accordingly, legislative changes in this area are possible, and such changes could result in the income tax considerations described under the heading "Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" being materially different in certain respects.

Currently, a trust will not be considered to be a mutual fund trust if it is established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non residents unless all or substantially all of its property is property other than taxable Canadian property as defined in the Tax Act. On September 16, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) released draft amendments to the Tax Act. Under the draft amendments, a trust would lose its status as a mutual fund trust if the aggregate fair market value of all units issued by the trust held by one or more non-resident persons or partnerships that are not Canadian partnerships is more than 50% of the aggregate fair market value of all the units issued by the trust where more than 10% (based on fair market value) of the trust's property is taxable Canadian property or certain other types of property. If the draft amendments are enacted as proposed, and if, at any time, more than 50% of the aggregate fair market value of units of the Fund were held by non-residents and partnerships other than Canadian partnerships, the Fund would thereafter cease to be a mutual fund trust. The draft amendments do not currently provide any means of rectifying a loss of mutual fund trust status. On December 6, 2004, the Department of Finance tabled a Notice of Ways and Means Motion which did not include these proposed changes. The Department of Finance indicated that the implementation of the proposed changes would be suspended pending further consultation with interested parties.

Income fund structures generally involve significant amounts of inter company or similar debt, generating substantial interest expense, which serves to reduce earnings and therefore income tax payable. There can be no assurance that taxation authorities will not seek to challenge the amount of interest expense deducted. If such a challenge were to succeed against Countryside Canada, it could materially adversely affect the amount of cash available to the Fund for distribution to Unitholders or available to Countryside Canada to make interest payments on the Debentures. Management of the Fund believes that the interest expense inherent in the structure of the Fund is supportable and reasonable in light of the terms of the Countryside Canada Notes and the Debentures. On October 31, 2003 the Department of Finance released, for public comment, proposed amendments to the Tax Act that relate to the deductibility of interest and other expenses for income tax purposes for taxation years commencing after 2004. In general, the proposed amendments may deny the realization of losses in respect of a business if there is no reasonable expectation that the business will produce a cumulative profit over the period that the business can reasonably be expected to be carried on. The Fund has advised counsel that it does not believe that the proposed amendments will have a material effect on the tax position of the Fund or Countryside Canada. As part of the 2005 Federal Budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that an alternative proposal to replace the proposed amendment would be released at an early opportunity.

Exchange Rate Fluctuations

A substantial portion of the Fund's distributable cash in 2004 was derived from U.S. dollar-based investments, whereas a majority of the Fund's costs and its financial obligations to its lenders and unitholders are denominated in Canadian dollars. After accounting for the acquisition of Ripon, the percentage of the Fund's distributable cash from U.S. dollar-based investments is expected to increase. Ripon's revenues derive from PPAs and steam sale agreements denominated in U.S. dollars and currently distributable cash from Ripon is unhedged currency transaction risk into Canadian dollars. Management intends to implement a hedging strategy for its unhedged currency transaction risk once it completes the offering.

Risks Related Specifically to the Debentures

Trading Market for Debentures

The Debentures constitute an initial public offering of securities of Countryside Canada for which there is currently no public market. If the Debentures are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount from their initial public offering price depending on prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, the performance of Countryside Canada and other factors. No assurance can be given as to whether an active trading market will develop or be maintained for the Debentures. To the extent that an active trading market for the Debentures does not develop, the liquidity and trading prices for the Debentures may be adversely affected.

Prior Ranking Indebtedness

The Debentures will be subordinate to all Senior Secured Indebtedness. The Debentures will also be effectively subordinate to claims of trade creditors of Countryside Canada's direct or indirect subsidiaries except to the extent Countryside Canada is a creditor of such subsidiaries ranking at least pari passu with such other creditors. See "Description of the Debentures — Subordination".

Absence of Covenant Protection

The Indenture will not restrict Countryside Canada or any of its subsidiaries from incurring additional indebtedness or from mortgaging, pledging or charging its assets to secure any indebtedness. The Indenture will not contain any provisions specifically intended to protect holders of the Debentures in the event of a future leveraged transaction involving Countryside Canada or any of its subsidiaries.

Redemption Prior to Maturity

The Debentures may be redeemed, at the option of Countryside Canada, on and after October 31, 2008 and prior to the Maturity Date in whole or in part, at the redemption prices set forth in this short form prospectus, together with any accrued and unpaid interest. Holders of Debentures should assume that this redemption option will be exercised if Countryside Canada is able to refinance at a lower interest rate or it is otherwise in the interest of Countryside Canada to redeem the Debentures.

Inability of Fund to Purchase Debentures

Countryside Canada will be required to offer to purchase all outstanding Debentures upon the occurrence of a Change of Control. However, it is possible that following a Change of Control, Countryside Canada will not have sufficient funds at that time to make the required purchase of outstanding Debentures or that restrictions contained in other indebtedness will restrict those purchases. See "Description of Debentures — Put Right Upon a Change of Control".

Exchange Right Following Certain Transactions

In the event of certain transactions, pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, each Debenture will become exchangeable for securities, cash or property receivable by a holder of Units in the kind and amount of securities, cash or property into which the Debenture was exchangeable immediately prior to the transaction. This change could substantially lessen or eliminate the value of the exchange privilege associated with the Debentures in the future.

ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

In the opinion of Goodmans LLP, counsel to the Issuer and of Torys LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, the Units, if issued on the date hereof, would be qualified investments under the Tax Act for the Plans on that date. The Debentures, if issued, on the date of this short form prospectus, would be qualified investments for trusts governed by the Plans (other than trusts governed by deferred profit sharing plans to which contributions are made by Countryside Canada or a person with whom Countryside Canada does not deal at arm's length within the meaning of the Tax Act) provided that the Units are listed on the TSX. If the Fund ceases to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the Securities will cease to be qualified investments for the Plans.

Common shares of Countryside Canada and Countryside Canada Notes received as a result of a redemption of Units may not be qualified investments for a Plan which could give rise to adverse consequences to the Plan or the annuitant under the Plan. Accordingly, Plans that own Units should consult their own tax advisors before deciding to exercise the redemption rights attached to the Units. The foreign property limitation contained in Part XI of the Tax Act has been repealed.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The material contracts and other instruments entered into by, to be entered into by, or to become binding upon, the Fund or its subsidiary entities in connection with the Offering and the Acquisition are as follows:

Copies of each of the foregoing agreements may be inspected during regular business hours at the offices of the Fund, at 495 Richmond Street, Suite 920, London, Ontario, Canada N6A 5A9.

AUDITORS, TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The auditors of the Fund are Ernst & Young LLP, Chartered Accountants, Ernst & Young Tower, 222 Bay Street, Toronto-Dominion Centre, Toronto, Ontario.

The registrar and transfer agent for the Units is CIBC Mellon Trust Company at its principal transfer office in Toronto, Ontario. See "Plan of Distribution".

STATUTORY AND CONTRACTUAL RIGHTS OF RESCISSION AND STATUTORY RIGHTS OF WITHDRAWAL

Securities legislation in certain of the provinces and territories of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment. In several of the provinces and territories, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the province or territory in which the purchaser resides for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

January 1, 2004 to January 26, 2004" and found the amounts in the column captioned "Countryside (Pro Forma)" to be arithmetically correct.

10. A pro forma financial statement is based on management assumptions and adjustments, which are inherently subjective. The foregoing procedures are substantially less than either an audit or a review, the objective of which is the expression of assurance with respect to management's assumptions, the pro forma adjustments, and the application of the adjustments to the historical financial information. Accordingly, we express no such assurance. The foregoing procedures would not necessarily reveal matters of significance to the pro forma consolidated financial statements, and we therefore make no representation about the sufficiency of the procedures for the purposes of a reader of such statements.

NOTE TO PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(In thousands of Canadian dollars, except per trust unit amounts and unless otherwise indicated)
As at and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004

(Unaudited — See Compilation Report)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Countryside Power Income Fund (the "Fund") is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose trust established under the laws of the Province of Ontario on February 16, 2004. The initial public offering (the "Initial Offering") of Trust Units of the Fund was completed on April 8, 2004. The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet as at June 30, 2005 and the pro forma consolidated statements of income for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and the year ended December 31, 2004 (the "Pro Forma Financial Statements") have been prepared by management ("Management") of Countryside Canada Power Inc. ("Countryside Canada"), in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, to give effect to:

(a) The public offering of 4,720,000 units of the Fund ("Units") at a price of $9.35 per unit and the issuance of US$55,000,000, 6.25% exchangeable unsecured subordinated debentures ("exchangeable debentures") due October 31, 2012 for proceeds, net of $6,903 in offering costs, of $104,626.

(b) The acquisition of USE Canada Holdings Corp. as if it occurred on January 1, 2004.

(c) The completion of the acquisition of Lightyear Rockland Partners LLC ("LRPLLC"), whose name was subsequently changed to Ripon Power LLC ("Ripon Power"), as if it occurred on January 1, 2004. Ripon's principal assets consist of two gas-fired cogeneration plants in California: the Ripon Cogeneration Facility ("Ripon Facility") and the San Gabriel Cogeneration Facility ("San Gabriel Facility") (collectively the "Ripon Facilities").

(d) The repayment of project debt at a subsidiary of Ripon Power of $72,911, plus early repayment fees of $3,350.

(e) The repayment of $32,000 outstanding under the Fund's revolving credit facility.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of the Fund as at June 30, 2005 has been prepared using the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Fund as at June 30, 2005, which incorporates the Ripon Power acquisition that occurred on June 29, 2005. U.S. dollar denominated pro forma adjustments included in the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of the Fund as at June 30, 2005 have been translated into Canadian dollars at a rate of $1.2254/U.S. dollar.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2004 has been prepared using the audited consolidated statement of income and deficit of the Fund for the period from February 16, 2004 to December 31, 2004, the unaudited consolidated statement of income and retained earnings of Countryside District Energy Holdings Corp. (formerly USE Canada Holdings Corp.) for the period from January 1, 2004 to March 31, 2004, the audited consolidated statement of income and retained earnings of Ripon Power for the period from January 27, 2004 to December 31, 2004, an unaudited schedule of the results of operations of Ripon for the period from January 1, 2004 to January 26, 2004, and an unaudited schedule of the results of operations of Countryside District Energy Holdings Corp. as described in note 2(x).

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the six months ended June 30, 2005, has been prepared using the unaudited interim consolidated statement of income and deficit of the Fund for the six months ended June 30, 2005, and the unaudited interim consolidated statement of income and retained earnings of Ripon Power for the period from January 1, 2005 to June 29, 2005.

The audited consolidated statement of income of Ripon Power for the period from January 27, 2004 to December 31, 2004 and the unaudited consolidated statement of income of Ripon Power for the period from January 1, 2005 to June 29, 2005, reported in U.S. dollars, are included elsewhere in the prospectus of the Fund dated October 27, 2005 (the "Prospectus") and have been translated into Canadian dollars at rates of $1.2964/U.S. dollar and $1.2322/U.S. dollar, respectively. The unaudited schedule of the results of operations of Ripon for the period from January 1, 2004 to January 26, 2004 reported in U.S. dollars has been translated into Canadian dollars at a rate of $1.3094/U.S. dollar.

The pro forma adjustments are based on available financial information and certain estimates and assumptions. The actual adjustments to the consolidated financial statements of the Fund will depend on a number of factors. Therefore, the actual adjustments will differ from the pro forma adjustments. Management believes that such assumptions provide a reasonable basis for presenting all of the significant effects of the transactions contemplated and that the pro forma adjustments give appropriate effect to those assumptions and are properly applied in the pro forma consolidated financial information.

These unaudited Pro Forma Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. These unaudited Pro Forma Financial Statements incorporate the principal accounting policies used to prepare the consolidated financial statements of Ripon Power, other than the following:

(a) Ripon Power's accounting policy was to depreciate all property plant and equipment over the useful life of the plant as a whole and to expense all maintenance related costs in the period as incurred. The Fund's policy for depreciating property, plant and equipment is to amortize individual components of property plant and equipment over their individual useful lives and to capitalize all maintenance costs that represent a betterment (notes 2 (g) and 2 (m)).

(b) Ripon Power's accounting policy was to amortize deferred financing fees based on the effective interest rate method and treat this amortization as interest expense. These unaudited Pro Forma Financial Statements have been adjusted to reflect the Fund's accounting policy of amortizing deferred financing fees on the straight line basis, over the term of the loan, and to treat these amounts as depreciation and amortization expense (note 2 (q)).

(c) The historical financial statements for Ripon Power do not reflect any income tax expense.

Under the terms of the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Fund is not subject to income taxes to the extent that its taxable income in a year is paid or payable to a unitholder. The Fund intends to make sufficient distributions in each year of its net income and net realized taxable capital gains for tax purposes so that the Fund will generally not be liable in that year for income tax. Accordingly, no provision for current income taxes for the Fund has been reflected in the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income.

The Fund's corporate subsidiaries are subject to income tax and follow the liability method of tax allocation, whereby future tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the substantially enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

Historically, U.S. income taxes were not levied at the Ripon Power level. Taxes attributable to this entity will be incurred at the Fund's subsidiary level. Accordingly, an estimate of current taxes payable has been included in the preparation of the unaudited pro forma consolidated income statements.

These Pro Forma Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements of the Fund, USE Canada Holdings Corp. (included in the prospectus of the Fund dated March 29, 2004) and Ripon Power (included in this Prospectus), including the related notes thereto.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements are not intended to reflect the results of operations which would have actually resulted had the acquisitions and other pro forma adjustments been effected on the dates indicated. Further, the Pro Forma Financial Statements are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations that may be obtained by the Fund in the future.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements have been presented assuming that the following transactions had been completed and adjustments had been effected as described in note 1, as of January 1, 2004.

(ee) The basic earnings per unit calculations are based on the assumption that 19,625,000 Units were issued and outstanding for the periods presented. The diluted earnings and loss per unit is based on the assumption that an additional 6,022,000 Units from the exchangeable debenture issue were exchanged during the periods presented.

3. INCOME TAXES

The Fund and the underwriters of the Initial Offering received opinions from U.S. tax counsel on certain tax matters related to its investments in U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. ("USEB"). The pro forma consolidated financial statements of the Fund reflect these opinions: specifically, that the USEB Loans should be respected as debt and the interest on the USEB Loans should be deductible by USEB for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and that interest should not be subject to any U.S. federal income tax withholding.

The Fund has also made a loan to its U.S. subsidiary. The Fund believes that interest on these loans should be deductible by the U.S. subsidiary for U.S. federal income tax purposes, subject to limitations imposed by Section 163(j) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and that the interest should be subject to U.S. federal income tax withholding.

There can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") will not challenge various tax filing positions taken by the Fund. Management believes it is unlikely that the IRS would be successful; however, the effect on the income of the Fund and the net cash received by the Fund of a successful challenge by the IRS would be limited in the near term due to the tax position of USEB. In the longer term, a successful challenge by the IRS could negatively impact cash received by the Fund through its investments in USEB.

In addition to the foregoing, and in common with other complex international business structures, the Fund is subject to various additional uncertainties concerning the interpretation and application of Canadian and U.S. tax laws. If tax authorities disagreed with the Fund's application of tax laws, the Fund's profitability and cash flows could be adversely affected.

4. CONTINGENCIES

A proceeding is currently pending before the California Public Utility Commission ("CPUC"), in which the CPUC is considering whether to apply a March 2001 ruling which decreased "Short Run Avoided Cost" or "SRAC" levels retroactively to the period December 2000 to March 2001. Such a ruling could, in theory, apply to many Qualifying Facilities ("QF's") in California including the Ripon Facilities and may lead utilities to seek refunds or offsets from the QF's which sold the utilities' power during such 4 month period. While management believes that such a result is unlikely, the outcome of such a regulatory proceeding cannot be predicted with certainty. Even in the event of an adverse result, management believes Ripon would have several meritorious legal defenses that would be available to protect Ripon from any material adverse impact. However, there is no assurance that Ripon would prevail on such defenses if called upon to assert them.

(thousands of U.S. dollars)

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of Ripon Power LLC ("Ripon Power"), formerly, Lightyear Rockland Partners LLC, have been prepared by management using United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") applicable to interim consolidated financial statements, which are in all material respects in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. These unaudited notes to the consolidated financial statements do not include all disclosures required in the annual consolidated financial statements and should be read in conjunction with Ripon Power's audited consolidated financial statements and notes for the period ended December 31, 2004.

The preparation of the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and these accompanying notes. In the opinion of management, these unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been properly prepared within reasonable limits of materiality and within the framework of the accounting policies. Actual results could differ from those estimates, and the operating results for the interim period presented are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for the full year. These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a basis consistent with the accounting policies disclosed in the audited consolidated financial statements for the period ended December 31, 2004.

These financial statement* comparatives are for the period from January 27, 2004, the date of Ripon Power's acquisition of Ripon LLC, through June 30, 2004.

The acquisition of Ripon LLC was accounted for using the purchase method. The purchase price was satisfied through net cash consideration of approximately $73,500, plus approximately $3,000 of transaction costs.

5. TERM LOAN

On January 27, 2004, Ripon LLC borrowed $65,700 in the form of a term loan maturing on January 15, 2011 from Credit Suisse First Boston ("CSFB"), acting through its Cayman Islands Branch, as Administrative Agent. As of December 31, 2004, the term loan bore interest at LIBOR plus 5.75%. Ripon LLC incurred financing costs of $2,405 related to this financing arrangement. These costs were capitalized and amortized using the effective interest rate method over the original term of the loan. With the exception of the $3,000 fuel credit support account and the incidental operating account, the CSFB term loan was secured by all of Ripon LLC's fixed assets, contracts, permits, and any other assets or investments Ripon LLC may own or acquire.

Refinancing

Ripon LLC refinanced its CSFB credit facility as of March 24, 2005 among a syndicate of U.S. Banks, including Union Bank of California, N.A. ("UBOC"), in its capacity as administrative agent, collateral agent and issuing bank on behalf of the lenders ("Ripon Credit Facility"). The Ripon Credit Facility includes a US$59,500 term loan facility maturing on April 25, 2018 ("Term Loan"), a US$5,000 debt service reserve letter of credit expiring on March 24, 2015 ("DSR LOC"), a US$3,000 letter of credit issued for benefit of a fuel supplier with an expiration of July 10, 2006 ("BP LOC"), and a US$2,000 working capital revolver maturing on March 24, 2008 ("W/C Revolver").

Proceeds from the UBOC refinancing were used to repay the CSFB term loan in full including a 2% prepayment premium. The remaining unamortized balance of the deferred financing costs of $1,991 associated with the CSFB term loan were written off during the six month period ended June 29, 2005.

The UBOC Term Loan is available to be drawn in U.S. dollars, and the interest rate will be based either on the U.S. prime, or LIBOR rate, plus an applicable margin which escalates throughout the loan term. For U.S. prime rate loans the applicable margin increases from 0.50% to 1.00% and for LIBOR loans from 1.50% to 2.00%. The W/C Revolver is subject to the same interest rate schedule as outlined for the Term Loan, and to a commitment fee of 0.375% on any undrawn commitment amount. As of June 29, 2005, the W/C Revolver was undrawn. The DSR LOC and the BP LOC are subject to fees on the drawn amount, equal to the then applicable margin of the Term Loan. As of June 29, 2005, no amounts were outstanding under either DSR LOC or the BP LOC. As of June 29, 2005, the Term Loan was fully drawn under LIBOR loans at a rate of 3.10% plus an applicable margin of 1.5%. The Ripon Credit Facility is non-recourse to Ripon Power and is secured by all of Ripon LLC's fixed assets, contracts, permits, and any other assets or investments Ripon LLC may own or acquire. The Term Loan contains a financial covenant requiring Ripon LLC to maintain a debt service coverage ratio no less than 1.2 to 1.0 as well as other customary affirmative and negative covenants for a non-recourse project financing. As at June 29, 2005, the debt service coverage ratio was at 1.34:1. If the financial covenant is not satisfied at each quarterly reporting period, then all excess cash flow from Ripon LLC after payment of all debt service and operating expenses will be restricted, including a restriction on dividend payments. If the debt service coverage ratio is not restored to a level above the required covenant within four quarters, the Term Loan shall be prepaid with accumulated cash.

Principal maturities of the Term Loan commence repayment on July 15, 2005 and are payable during the next five years as follows:

2005 (for the six months ending December 31, 2005)	US$ 2,605
2006	3,951
2007	4,112
2008	4,177
2009	4,334
Thereafter	40,321
	US$59,500

As of March 30, 2005, Ripon LLC entered into an interest rate swap agreement with UBOC to fix the floating LIBOR rate paid on the fully drawn balance of the Term Loan at 4.939% per annum. The effective rate of interest when adding the applicable margin is 6.439%. The swap maturity coincides with the maturity of the Ripon Credit Facility on April 25, 2018. The notional amount of the swap of $59,500, amortizes on the same schedule as the Term Loan and payments are due every three months.

As at June 29, 2005 the fair value of the swap agreement was US$2,542 unfavourable which has been recorded as an other liability on the consolidated balance sheets.

Ripon LLC incurred financing costs of $1,737 related to this financing arrangement. These costs are being capitalized and amortized over the life of the loan, using the effective interest rate method.

At June 29, 2005, the fair value of the amount drawn on the Ripon Credit Facility approximated its carrying value.

6. MEMBERS' EQUITY

Allocation of distributions

Pursuant to Section 9 of the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement (the "Agreement") distributions of Net Cash Flow (as defined in the Agreement) included a semi-annual distribution to the members holding Series A preferred shares in proportion and to the extent of their Series A Priority Return, which approximates 6% (semi-annually) of the Base Amount (of $17,480 at June 30, 2005), as described in the Agreement). At June 30, 2005, the liquidation preference of the Series A Priority Returns totaled $17,968 (including an undistributed Series A Priority Return of $488 as at June 20, 2005).

7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Ripon Power pays a management fee quarterly in arrears for services to Lightyear Capital LLC, Rockland Capital Energy Investments LLC, and D. Milne & Associates (the "Managers"). For the period ended June 30, 2004 and June 29, 2005, Ripon Power incurred management fees and late interest of $279 and $2 and $325 and $3, respectively. Management fees payable at June 30, 2004 and June 29, 2005 totaled $279 and $163 respectively.

8. SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTION

On June 29, 2005, 100% of the membership interests in Lightyear Rockland Partners LLC were sold to an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Countryside Power Income Fund for $35,800 in cash.

RIPON POWER LLC
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(thousands of dollars)

NOTE 1 — ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS

Ripon Power LLC ("Ripon Power"), formerly Lightyear Rockland Partners LLC, is a Delaware Limited Liability Company organized to own Ripon Cogeneration, LLC ("Ripon LLC"), collectively referred to as the Company. Ripon Power is owned by The Lightyear Co-Invest Partnership LP, The Lightyear Fund AIV LP, Rockland Capital Energy Investments, LLC and D. Milne & Associates.

Ripon LLC is a Delaware Limited Liability Company organized to construct, own, and operate the two projects in California; Ripon and San Gabriel. These facilities are Qualifying Facilities under the Public Utility Regulatory Policy Act of 1978. The Ripon plant sells steam to the Fox River Paper Company and sells power to Pacific Gas & Electric under a power purchase agreement that expires in 2018. The San Gabriel plant sells steam to the Smurfit Newsprint Paper Mill and sells power to Southern California Edison Company under a power purchase agreement that expires in 2016.

On January 27, 2004, Lightrock LLC ("Lightrock"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Ripon Power, acquired 100% of the interest in Ripon LLC, originally Ripon Cogeneration Inc., from Tractebel Power, Inc for $76,502. Immediately following the acquisition, Lightrock was merged into Ripon LLC and the merged company assumed the name of Ripon Cogeneration LLC. These financial statements are for the period January 27, 2004, the date of Ripon Power's acquisition of Ripon LLC, through December 31, 2004.

NOTE 2 — SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Consolidation — The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Ripon Power LLC and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation.

Basis of Accounting — These consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles which are, in all material respects, in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Cash Flows — Ripon Power presents cash flows using the indirect method and considers all highly liquid investments purchased with original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Restricted Cash — Under the Credit Suisse First Boston ("CSFB") credit agreement, Ripon LLC is required to maintain a debt service reserve account. The restricted cash represents the cash held in the CSFB debt service reserve account.

Escrow Deposits — Under the Ripon facility's fixed price gas agreement with BP Energy Company ("BP"), Ripon LLC is required to maintain $3,000 of credit support for the benefit of BP.

Property, Plant and Equipment — Property, plant and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated remaining useful lives of the assets.

Intangible Assets — Intangible assets consisting of power purchase agreements are carried at cost less accumulated amortization. The power purchase agreements are amortized over the term of each respective agreement.

Deferred Financing Costs — Deferred financing costs consist of costs associated with the issuance of the long-term debt. These costs have been deferred, and are being amortized to interest expense using the effective interest method over the term of the related debt. Deferred financing costs are reported net of amortization on the balance sheet.

Revenue Recognition — Sales of steam and electricity are recorded based upon output delivered and capacity provided as specified under contract terms.

Income Taxes — Ripon Power is organized as a limited liability company and, as such, its income and deductions are passed through to the Ripon Power members. The Ripon Power members are responsible for their share of such items in the income tax return. Accordingly, no provision has been made for income taxes.

Long-Lived Assets — Ripon Power follows the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 144, Accounting for Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. Ripon Power evaluates its long-lived assets, including its long-lived intangible assets, for impairment as events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of these assets may not be fully recoverable. Ripon Power evaluates recoverability of long-lived assets to be held and used by estimating the undiscounted future cash flows associated with the expected uses and eventual disposition of those assets and compares that amount to the carrying value of those assets. When these comparisons indicate that the carrying value of those assets is greater than the respective undiscounted cash flows, Ripon Power recognizes an impairment loss for the amount that the carrying value exceeds the fair value. Ripon Power evaluates the recoverability of long-lived assets to be disposed of, whether by sale or abandonments, by comparing the carrying value of those assets to their estimated fair value less costs to sell. If the carrying value of assets to be disposed of exceeds the respective fair value less cost to sell, Ripon Power recognizes an impairment loss for the amount of the excess. No indications of impairment existed during the period ended December 31, 2004.

Use of Estimates — The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts as well as certain disclosures. Ripon Power's financial statements include amounts that are based on management's best estimates and judgments. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Financial Instruments — Ripon Power's financial instruments primarily consist of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, escrow deposits, accounts receivable and accounts payable. The book values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and payable are representative of their respective fair values due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Repair and Maintenance Costs — Ripon Power expenses major repair maintenance costs when they are incurred.

Major Customers and Concentration of Credit Risk — Each facility has one primary utility customer under long-term contract, as well as one industrial customer to which it provides steam under long-term contracts. Ripon Power's credit risk exposure in the event of non-performance by its customers is limited to the face value of the receivables. No collateral is required on these receivables.

NOTE 3 — ACQUISITION OF RIPON LLC

The acquisition of Ripon LLC was accounted for using the purchase method. The purchase price was satisfied through net cash consideration of approximately $73,500, plus approximately $3,000 of transaction costs.

The purchase price has been allocated, as follows:

Current assets, including cash of $2,938	$ 9,313
Capital assets	21,750
Power purchase agreements	49,028
Current liabilities	(3,589)
	$76,502

NOTE 4 — PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

In its allocation of the purchase price between property, plant & equipment ("PP&E") and intangible assets, Ripon Power attributed a value of $250 per kilowatt ("kW") to PP&E with the remainder of the purchase price allocated to the plants' power purchase agreements. The PP&E value of $250 per kW was arrived at through an assessment of market values for similar properties with particular consideration paid to the age of the facilities, their relative efficiency to other power projects, and their location near major load centers within the capacity constrained California market. Management believes this to be the best estimate of the fair value of the PP&E and intangible assets.

Property, plant and equipment consisted of the following at December 31, 2004:

	December 31, 2004	Useful Life
Plant — Ripon	$11,346	14 years
Plant — San Gabriel	7,186	12 years
Machinery and equipment	1,570	7 years
Land	2,202
	22,304
Accumulated depreciation	(1,469)
Total	$20,835

Intangible assets consisted of the following at December 31, 2004:

	December 31, 2004	Useful Life
Intangible assets — Ripon	$33,802	14 years
Intangible assets — San Gabriel	15,226	12 years
	49,028
Accumulated amortization	(3,333)
Total	$45,695

The estimated annual amount of amortization expense to be recorded in connection with the power purchase agreements in each of the five succeeding fiscal years is $3,636.

NOTE 5 — TERM LOAN

On January 27, 2004, Ripon LLC borrowed $65,700 in the form of a term loan maturing on January 15, 2011 from CSFB, acting through its Cayman Islands Branch, as Administrative Agent. As of December 31, 2004, the term loan bears interest at LIBOR plus 5.75%. Ripon LLC incurred financing costs of $2,405. These costs were capitalized and amortized through the term of the loan. With the exception of the $3,000 fuel credit support account and the incidental operating account, the CSFB term loan is secured by all of Ripon LLC's fixed assets, contracts, permits, and any other assets or investments Ripon LLC may own or acquire. The term loan contains financial covenants requiring Ripon LLC to maintain a leverage ratio no greater than 7.0 to 1.0 and a debt service coverage ratio no less than 1.0 to 1.0 as well as a variety of other standard affirmative and negative covenants. The term loan is non-recourse to Ripon Power.

During 2004, Ripon LLC repaid $1,827 of the principal amount outstanding. Ripon LLC incurred $5,043 in interest during 2004, of which $3,901 was paid and $1,142 is payable at December 31, 2004.

Principal maturities during the next five years are as follows:

2006	4,950
2007	3,543
2008	3,912
2009	4,087
Thereafter	44,554
Total	$63,873

NOTE 6 — COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

a) Commitments

(i) Ripon LLC has two gas turbine lease agreements with a third party, one for each plant, to have turbines available for their use during the year. For the period ended December 31, 2004, Ripon LLC recorded $148 and $148 of rental expense in connection with San Gabriel's lease and Ripon's lease, respectively. San Gabriel's lease expires in July 2007 and Ripon's lease expires in August 2006. Both leases are subject to an annual escalation amount based upon on an inflation factor.

(ii) Under the plants' fuel purchase agreements with BP, each plant is required to purchase 10,000 Million British Thermal Units ("MMBtu's") of natural gas each day. This purchase commitment is effective for both plants through the life of agreements, which expire on June 30, 2006. The price of fuel for Ripon is fixed at $5.305 per MMBtu under its fuel purchase agreement. Accordingly, Ripon's minimum future fuel commitments are as follows: $19,363 for 2005 and $9,602 for 2006. The Ripon fuel purchase agreement is considered under relevant accounting literature to be a derivative contract, however as the contract was entered into to fulfill normal business needs, it is not required to be accounted for at fair value. The price of fuel for San Gabriel resets monthly at current market prices. As such, the fair value of the plant's minimum future fuel commitments through June 30, 2006 is not reasonably determinable. San Gabriel's effective price of fuel was $6.4654 per MMBtu at December 31, 2004.

b) Contingencies

(i) A proceeding is currently pending before the California Public Utility Commission ("CPUC"), in which the CPUC is considering whether to apply a March 2001 ruling which decreased "Short Run Avoided Cost" or "SRAC" levels retroactively to the period December 2000 to March 2001. Such a ruling could, in theory, apply to many Qualifying Facilities ("QF's") in California including the Ripon Facilities and may lead utilities to seek refunds or offsets from the QF's which sold the utilities' power during such 4 month period. While management believes that such a result is unlikely, the outcome of such a regulatory proceeding cannot be predicted with certainty. Even in the event of an adverse result, management believes Ripon would have several meritorious legal defenses that would be available to protect Ripon from any material adverse impact. However, there is no assurance that Ripon would prevail on such defenses if called upon to assert them.

NOTE 7 — MEMBERS' EQUITY

Allocation of distributions

Pursuant to Section 9 of the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Operating Agreement (the "Agreement") distributions of Net Cash Flow (as defined in the Agreement) will be as follows in order:

a. Quarterly, the Tax Distribution Amount (as defined in the Agreement) to the members in proportion to the amount of net taxable income pursuant to Section 8 of the Agreement (2004 — nil);

b. Semi-annually, to the members holding Series A preferred shares in proportion and to the extent of their Series A Priority Return, which approximates 6% (semi-annually) of the Base Amount (of $17,480 at December 31, 2004, as described in the Agreement). At December 31, 2004, the undistributed Series A Priority Return totaled $443;

c. Semi-annually, to the members holding Series A preferred shares in the amounts deemed distributed to the members pursuant to certain terms in the Agreement;

d. Upon the occurrence of an optional or mandatory redemption to the members holding Series A preferred shares in proportion to and to the extent of the amounts necessary to redeem such shares in accordance with certain terms in the Agreement; and

e. At the discretion of the Board of Directors, to the members holding Class A and Class B Common Shares, in proportion to their common percentage interest, provided however, that from and after such time as the Series A Preferred Shares have been fully redeemed, all Net Cash Flow remaining after the application of paragraph a. above will be distributed to the members holding Class A and Class B common Shares, in proportion to their common percentage interests.

Allocation of profit and loss

Pursuant to Section 8(a) of the Agreement, profits and losses for any year should be allocated among the members so as to reduce, proportionately, the difference between their respective Partially Adjusted Capital Accounts ("PACA") and their Target Capital Accounts ("TCA") (as defined in the Agreement). Specifically, if there are profits for any calendar year, each member whose PACA is greater than their TCA for the year will be allocated items of expense or loss for the year equal to the difference between their TCA and PACA. If in any year there are losses, each member whose TCA is greater then their PACA for the year will be allocated items of income or gain for the year equal to the difference between their TCA and PACA. The remaining profit or loss is allocated to the remaining members in proportion to their contributions.

Dissolution

Pursuant to Section 25 of the Agreement, subject to the rights and preferences of the holder of the Series A preferred shares to receive the Base Amount (as defined in the Agreement — $17,480 at December 31, 2004) and any accrued unpaid Series A priority returns in respect of the Series A preferred shares, prior to any distribution in respect of the common shares, upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or wind up of the affairs of the Company, the holders of the common shares are entitled to receive all assets of the Company available for distribution to its members. At December 31, 2005, the liquidation preference totaled $17,923 (including the undistributed Series A Priority Return of $443).

NOTE 8 — RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Ripon Power pays a management fee quarterly in arrears for services to Lightyear Capital LLC, Rockland Capital Energy Investments LLC, and D. Milne & Associates (the "Managers"). For the period ended December 31, 2004, Ripon Power incurred management fees and late interest of $604 and $10, respectively. Management fees payable at December 31, 2004 totaled $163.

NOTE 9 — SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Refinancing

On March 24, 2005, the CSFB term loan was refinanced through Union Bank of California ("UBOC"). Proceeds from the UBOC refinancing were used to repay the CSFB term loan in full including a 2% prepayment premium. The UBOC refinancing includes a $59,500 term loan facility maturing on April 25, 2018, a $5,000 Debt Service Reserve Letter of Credit, $3,000 BP Letter of Credit, and a $2,000 working capital revolver. The UBOC refinancing extends the term of the CSFB term loan, reduces and fixes the interest rate, and releases restricted cash held in connection with the CSFB credit agreement. Payments under the UBOC term loan are made quarterly on January 15th, April 15th, July 15th, and October 15th of each year. The interest rate is tied to LIBOR plus a margin. The following table contains the interest rate margin for the relevant periods:

Period	Margin
Closing date through July 14, 2006	1.500%
July 15, 2006 through July 14, 2010	1.750%
July 15, 2010 through July 14, 2014	1.875%
July 15, 2014 through final maturity date	2.000%

At the closing of the UBOC refinancing Ripon LLC executed an interest rate swap, the notional amount of which is $59,500, fixing LIBOR at 4.939%.

Sale of Ripon Power

On June 29, 2005, 100% of the membership interests in Lightyear Rockland Partners LLC were sold to an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Countryside Power Income Fund for $35,800 in cash.

RIPON COGENERATION, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
Years Ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

1. THE COMPANY

Ripon Cogeneration, Inc. (the "Company") is a wholly owned subsidiary of Tractebel Power, Inc. The Company was formerly Mediafin USA Incorporated, but changed its name shortly after purchasing a 42-megawatt, natural gas-fueled cogeneration plant from Simpson Paper Company ("Simpson") located in Ripon, California, on October 2, 1996 ("Ripon"). The Company also purchased Simpson's power purchase agreement with Pacific Gas and Electric and its steam agreement and ancillary services agreement with Fox River Paper Company. On November 4, 1997, the Company purchased, for cash, a second plant from Simpson located in Pomona, California, as well as Simpson's power purchase agreement with Southern California Edison and steam agreement with Smurfit Packaging Corporation. In addition, the Company executed an agreement for the San Gabriel facility to sell steam to Simpson. In 1998 Pomona Paper Company, Inc. ("Pomona"), purchased Simpson and the Company executed a new agreement with Pomona. In 2002 Pomona Paper Company notified Ripon Cogeneration, Inc. that it had elected to close and sell the facility.

The Company's energy agreements are subject to the Public Utilities Regulatory Policy Act of 1978 ("PURPA"). Proposed legislation in the U.S. congress has called for either a repeal of PURPA or a complete restructuring of the regulations governing the electric industry, including PURPA, in order to promote open competition in the industry. These federal initiatives are generally not yet effective, but many states are implementing or considering regulatory initiatives designed to increase competition in the domestic power generation industry. The California Public Utility Commission has issued an electric industry restructuring decision, which commenced deregulation and implementation of customer choice of electricity supplier in early 1998. Both Ripon and San Gabriel are qualifying facilities ("QFs"), which each have one utility customer. Ripon sells its electricity output to Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E"), and San Gabriel sells its electricity output to Southern California Edison Company ("SOCAL"), under long-term Power Purchase Agreements ("PPAs") subject to rate orders effective in California for QFs.

In January 2001 both customers, PG&E and SOCAL, announced that they would not be able to meet all of their financial obligations as they became due. As a result, SOCAL petitioned to have rates paid to the QFs lowered or capped. In June 2001 SOCAL signed an agreement amending its PPA and agreeing on terms for repayment of amounts owed to San Gabriel plus interest. In August 2001 PG&E reached an agreement on terms of repayment with Ripon plus interest, revising the rate received for electricity to an average rate of $53.70 per megawatt hour for five years before returning to the original PPA rate. In December 2001 an agreement was approved by the California bankruptcy court requiring PG&E to begin payments on the outstanding receivables plus accrued interest at 5%. Interest income of $0 and $580,613 related to these receivables had been recognized as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. During 2002, SOCAL and PG&E fulfilled their obligations under these agreements and paid the full amount of outstanding receivables and interest.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition — Sales of steam and electricity are recorded based upon output delivered and capacity provided as specified under contract terms.

Property, Plant and Equipment — Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated remaining useful lives of the assets (plants 20 and 22 years and machinery and equipment 3 to 7 years).

Income Taxes — Income taxes are accounted for using the liability method. Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. The Company is a member of the Tractebel, Inc. consolidated group for tax reporting to federal and state authorities. The provision for income taxes represents the income taxes that would be provided by the Company on a separate return basis.

Cash Flows — The Company presents cash flows using the indirect method and considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Financial Instruments — The Company's financial instruments not considered derivatives consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable. The book values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and payable are representative of their respective fair values due to the short-term nature of these instruments.

Repair and Maintenance Costs — Prior to 2002, a major repair and maintenance reserve was recorded based upon the Company's scheduled periodic major maintenance plans for the plants. Other repair and maintenance costs are charged to expense as incurred. Effective January 1, 2002, the Company changed its method of accounting for major maintenance to expense these amounts when they are incurred. The Company believes this method is preferable and the change resulted in the reversal of the existing reserves at January 1, 2002, which was reflected as a cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle in the accompanying statement of operations.

Long-Lived Assets — In 2002 the Company adopted the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. The Company evaluates its long-lived assets for impairment as events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of these assets may not be fully recoverable. The Company evaluates recoverability of long-lived assets to be held and used by estimating the undiscounted future cash flows associated with the expected uses and eventual disposition of those assets and compares that amount to the carrying value of those assets. When these comparisons indicate that the carrying value of those assets is greater than the respective undiscounted cash flows, the Company recognizes an impairment loss for the amount that the carrying value exceeds the fair value. The Company evaluates the recoverability of long-lived assets to be disposed of, whether by sale or abandonment, by comparing the carrying value of those assets to their estimated fair value less costs to sell. If the carrying value of assets to be disposed of exceeds the respective fair value less costs to sell, the Company recognizes an impairment loss for the amounts of the excess. Under SFAS No. 144, assets held for sale will be included in discontinued operations if the operations and cash flows will be, or have been, eliminated from the ongoing operations of the entity and the entity will not have any significant continuing involvement in the related operations. No impairment of tangible assets has been indicated since adoption of this standard.

Use of Estimates — The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts as well as certain disclosures. The Company's financial statements include amounts that are based on management's best estimates and judgments. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Major Customers and Concentration of Credit Risk — Each facility has one primary utility customer under long-term contract, as well as one to two industrial customers to which it provides steam under long-term contracts. The Company's credit risk exposure in the event of nonperformance by its customers is limited to the face value of the receivables. No collateral is required on these receivables.

Derivative Instruments and Risk Management Activities — In the normal course of business, the Company employs a variety of physical instruments to manage its exposure to fluctuations in energy-related commodities prices.

The Company accounts for these derivative instruments in accordance with the requirements of SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, amended by SFAS No. 137 and SFAS No. 138. SFAS No. 133, as amended, requires the Company to record all derivatives on the balance sheet at fair value. Changes in the fair value of nonhedge derivatives will be immediately recognized in earnings. Changes in fair values of derivatives accounted for as hedges will either be recognized in earnings as offsets to the changes in fair value of related hedged assets, liabilities and firm commitments or, for forecasted transactions, deferred and recorded as a component of other accumulated comprehensive income ("OCI") until the hedged transactions occur and are recognized in earnings. The ineffective portion of a hedging derivative's change in fair value will be immediately recognized in earnings. The Company also formally assesses both at inception and at least quarterly thereafter, whether the derivatives that are used in hedging transactions are highly effective in offsetting the changes in either the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item. When it is determined that a derivative ceases to be a highly effective hedge, the Company discontinues hedge accounting. This standard results in additional volatility in reported earnings, other comprehensive income and accumulated other comprehensive income.

Energy and Energy-Related Commodities — The Company has price risk exposure due to changes in its fuel cost for running its power facilities. Commodity swap contracts are used by the Company to hedge the price risk exposure related to natural gas purchases for the power facilities. The Company documents these contracts as cash flow hedges when the contracts are highly effective in reducing the related price risk. Under the swaps, the Company pays a fixed price and receives a floating price, which effectively fixes the price to be paid for the natural gas. Realized gains and losses on the commodity swap contracts that qualify as cash flow hedges are recognized when the related commodities are purchased. The fair value of these instruments is reflected as a derivative liability.

The effects on OCI of these cash flow hedges were as follows in 2003 and 2002:

	December 31
	2003	2002
Balance — January 1	$(1,095,692)	$(9,541,603)
Income statement effect of settled transactions	(1,532,910)	3,598,590
Net market value gains on commodity hedges	6,186,081	4,847,321
Balance — December 31	$ 3,557,479	$(1,095,692)

As of December 31, 2002, the Company had $1,095,692 of unrecognized losses (net of tax of $753,578) in OCI related to commodity contracts designated as cash flow hedges. As these hedged fuel purchase transactions occurred, income of $1,532,910 (net of tax of $1,021,940) was recognized into earnings out of OCI during 2003. The remaining change in OCI relates to market value changes of commodity hedges during 2003, net of tax.

As of December 31, 2003, the Company had $3,557,479 of unrecognized gains (net of tax of $2,446,705) remaining in OCI related to commodity contracts designated as cash flow hedges and estimates that $2,061,233 of this amount (net of tax of $1,414,708) will be realized into earnings during the next twelve months as the hedged fuel purchase transactions take place. These agreements run through June 2006, and are transacted through a related party. During 2003 and 2002, these hedges did not have any ineffectiveness to be recorded to earnings.

Recent Accounting Standards — SFAS No. 143, Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations, is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2002, with early adoption permitted. SFAS No. 143 establishes standards associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. The adoption of SFAS No. 143, which occurred on January 1, 2003, did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In June 2002 the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities, which establishes financial accounting and reporting standards for restructuring costs including involuntary severance payments, contract termination and other exit costs and relocation costs. SFAS No. 146 supersedes Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (Including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). This statement is effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002, and the Company had no such activities in 2003.

In November 2002 the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others ("FIN 45"). FIN 45 requires that guarantors recognize, at the inception of the guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the guarantee. In addition, FIN 45 clarifies the disclosures required of guarantors for certain guarantees that it has issued. The recognition and measurement criteria of this interpretation are to be applied prospectively to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. The Company adopted the disclosure requirements of FIN 45 in 2002. The adoption of the recognition and measurement criteria on January 1, 2003 did not have a significant effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

3. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Property, plant and equipment consisted of the following:

	December 31
	2003	2002
Plant — Ripon	$ 61,254,212	$ 61,177,431
Plant — San Gabriel	34,549,836	36,071,877
Land	403,345	403,346
Machinery and equipment	316,570	324,919
	96,523,963	97,977,573
Accumulated depreciation	(31,488,711)	(25,817,194)
Total	$ 65,035,252	$ 72,160,379

4. INCOME TAXES

The net deferred tax liabilities consists primarily of the tax effects of differences for financial reporting and tax purposes of depreciation methods, recognition of changes in value of derivative instruments and deductibility of accruals and reserves. Current year changes to the net deferred tax liability which were not recorded through the statement of operations of $3,200,283 was primarily related to the derivative instrument adjustment to OCI.

ARTICLE 2
DECLARATION OF TRUST

2.1 Establishment of the Trust

The Trustees hereby declare and agree to hold the Trust Assets in trust for the use and benefit of the Trust Unitholders, their successors, permitted assigns and personal representatives and, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter declared and set forth, such trust to constitute the Trust hereunder.

2.2 Initial Contribution

The Initial Unitholder paid the Initial Contribution to the Trustees for the purpose of settling the Trust and the Initial Unitholder was issued one Trust Unit of the Trust.

2.3 Name of Trust

(a) The Trust shall be known and designated as the "COUNTRYSIDE POWER INCOME FUND" and, whenever practicable, lawful and convenient, the property of the Trust shall be held and the affairs of the Trust shall be conducted and transacted under that name.

(b) If the Trustees determine that the use of such name is not practicable, legal or convenient, the Trust may use such other designation or may adopt such other name as the Trustees deem appropriate, and the Trust may hold property and conduct and transact its affairs under such other designation or name.

2.4 Head Office

The head office of the Trust shall be located at 246 Waterloo Street, London, Ontario N6B 2N4 or such other place or places in Canada as the Trustees may from time to time designate.

2.5 Nature of the Trust

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose trust, established for the purposes specified in Section 4.1. The Trust is not, shall not be deemed to be and shall not be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, syndicate, association, joint venture, company, corporation or joint stock company, nor shall the Trustees or any individual Trustee or the Trust Unitholders or any of them or any person be, or be deemed to be, treated in any way whatsoever as liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The Trustees are not and shall not be, or be deemed to be, agents of the Trust Unitholders. The relationship of the Trust Unitholders to the Trustees shall be solely that of beneficiaries of the Trust and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by this Declaration of Trust.

2.6 Rights of Trust Unitholders

The rights of each Trust Unitholder to call for a distribution or division of assets, monies, funds, income and capital gains held, received or realized by the Trustees are limited to those contained herein and, except as provided herein, no Trust Unitholder shall be entitled to call for any partition or division of the Trust Assets or for a distribution of any particular asset forming part of the Trust Assets or of any particular monies or funds received by the Trustees. The legal ownership of the Trust Assets and the right to conduct the activities of the Trust are vested exclusively in the Trustees and no Trust Unitholder has or is deemed to have any right of ownership in any of the Trust Assets, except as specifically provided herein. Except as specifically provided herein, no Trust Unitholder or Trust Unitholders shall be entitled to interfere with or give any direction to the Trustees with respect to the affairs of the Trust or in connection with the exercise of any powers or authorities conferred upon the Trustees under this Declaration of Trust. The Trust Units shall be personal property and shall confer upon the holders thereof only the interest and rights specifically set forth in this Declaration of Trust.

2.7 Liability of Trust Unitholders

(a) No Trust Unitholder, in its capacity as such, shall incur or be subject to any liability, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, in contract or in tort or of any other kind to any person in connection with: (i) the Trust Assets or the ownership, use, operation, acquisition or disposition thereof or exercise or enjoyment of the rights, privileges, conditions or benefits attached thereto, associated therewith or derived therefrom; (ii) the obligations or the activities or affairs of the Trust; (iii) any actual or alleged act or omission of the Trustees or by any other person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); (iv) any act or omission of the Trustees or by any other person in the performance or exercise, or purported or attempted performance or exercise, of any obligation, power, discretion or authority conferred upon the Trustees or such other person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); (v) any transaction entered into by the Trustees or by any other person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); or (vi) except as provided in Section 5.8, any taxes, levies, imposts or charges or fines, penalties or interest in respect thereof payable by the Trust or by the Trustees or by any other person (except the Trust Unitholder to the extent required by applicable tax laws) on behalf of or in connection with the activities or affairs of the Trust (collectively, "Trust Liabilities").

(b) No Trust Unitholder in its capacity as a Trust Unitholder shall be liable to indemnify the Trustees or any other person with respect to any Trust Liabilities.

(c) To the extent that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 2.7, any Trust Unitholder, in its capacity as such, may be determined by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to be subject to or liable in respect of any Trust Liabilities, such Trust Unitholder is entitled to be reimbursed out of the Trust Assets for any payment of Trust Liabilities made by such Trust Unitholder.

(d) If any Trust Asset should be distributed or declared to be distributable to Trust Unitholders contrary to the subordination provisions of the Note Indenture or the provisions of any subordination agreement (each a "Subordination Agreement") between the Trust and the persons entitled to enforce any of the indebtedness of the Company or contrary to the subordination provisions of the Note Indenture under which the same are issued, then the persons entitled to enforce such Subordination Agreements or subordination provisions shall be entitled to pursue whatever remedies may be available to them to enforce such Subordination Agreements or provisions and the limitations in Subsection 2.7(c) shall not apply to any judgment in respect of (and to the extent only based on) such contrary distribution and no Trust Unitholder shall have the right to enforce any distribution contrary to such Subordination Agreements or provisions.

ISSUE AND SALE OF TRUST UNITS

3.1 Nature of Trust Units

(a) The beneficial interests in the Trust shall be divided into interests of one class, described and designated as "Trust Units", which shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the limitations, restrictions and conditions set out herein, each Trust Unit shall vest indefeasibly in the holder thereof and the interest of each Trust

Unitholder shall be determined by the number of Trust Units registered in the name of the Trust Unitholder.

(b) Each Trust Unit represents an equal undivided beneficial interest in any distribution from the Trust (whether of Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains or other amounts) and in any net Trust Assets in the event of termination or winding-up of the Trust. All Trust Units outstanding from time to time shall be entitled to equal shares in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination or winding-up of the Trust, in the Trust Assets. All Trust Units shall rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority, except as provided in Section 5.8.

(c) The issued and outstanding Trust Units may be subdivided or consolidated from time to time by the Trustees without notice to or approval of the Trust Unitholder.

(d) Each Trust Unit shall entitle the holder of record thereof to one vote at all meetings of Trust Unitholders.

3.2 Authorized Number of Trust Units

The aggregate number of Trust Units which is authorized and may be issued hereunder is unlimited.

3.3 Issue of Trust Units

(a) Subject to Subsection 4.1(c), Trust Units may be issued by the Trust at the times, to the persons, for the consideration and on the terms and conditions that the Trustees determine and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustees may authorize the Trust to pay a reasonable commission to any person in consideration of such person purchasing or agreeing to purchase Trust Units from the Trust or from any other person or procuring or agreeing to procure purchasers for Trust Units. Without limitation of the foregoing, the Trustees may create and issue rights, warrants (including so-called "special warrants" which may be exercisable for no additional consideration) or options to subscribe for Trust Units or debt securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for Trust Units which rights, warrants, options or convertible debt securities may be exercisable at such subscription price or prices and at such time or times as the Trustees may determine. The rights, warrants, options or convertible debt securities so created may be issued for such consideration or for no consideration, all as the Trustees may determine. A right, warrant, option or convertible debt security shall not be a Trust Unit and the holder thereof shall not be a Trust Unitholder.

(b) Trust Units are only to be issued as fully paid in money, property (including an obligation to pay consideration in instalments), or past services, and are not to be subject to future calls or assessments, except that Trust Units to be issued under an offering may be issued for consideration payable in instalments and the Trust may take a security interest over such Trust Units for unpaid instalments. In determining whether property or past services are the fair equivalent of monetary consideration, the Trustees may take into account reasonable charges and expenses of organization and reorganization and payments for property and past services reasonably expected to benefit the Trust, and the resolution of the Trustees allotting and issuing such Trust Units shall express the fair equivalent in money of the other consideration received.

3.4 No Fractional Trust Units

Fractions of Trust Units shall not be issued, except pursuant to distributions of additional Trust Units to all Trust Unitholders pursuant to Section 5.7 or as a consequence of a consolidation pursuant to Section 3.6.

3.5 Re-Purchase of Initial Trust Unit by the Trust

Immediately after the Closing, the Trust will purchase the initial Trust Unit from the Initial Unitholder, and the Initial Unitholder shall sell the initial Trust Unit to the Trust, for a purchase price of $10.00 and, upon the completion of such purchase and sale, the initial Trust Unit shall be cancelled and shall no longer be outstanding for any of the purposes of this Declaration of Trust.

3.6 Consolidation of Trust Units

Unless the Trustees determine otherwise, immediately after any pro rata distribution of additional Trust Units to all Trust Unitholders pursuant to Section 5.7, the number of the outstanding Trust Units will automatically be consolidated such that each Trust Unitholder will hold after the consolidation the same number of Trust Units as the Trust Unitholder held before the distribution of additional Trust Units. In this case, each Trust Unit Certificate representing a number of Trust Units prior to the distribution of additional Trust Units is deemed to represent the same number of Trust Units after the non-cash distribution of additional Trust Units and the consolidation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, where tax is required to be withheld from a Trust Unitholder's share of the distribution, the consolidation will result in such Trust Unitholder holding that number of Trust Units equal to (i) the number of Trust Units held by such Trust Unitholder prior to the distribution plus the number of Trust Units received by such Trust Unitholder in connection with the distribution (net of the number of whole and part Trust Units withheld on account of withholding taxes) multiplied by (ii) the fraction obtained by dividing the aggregate number of Trust Units outstanding prior to the distribution by the aggregate number of Trust Units that would be outstanding following the distribution and before the consolidation if no withholding were required in respect of any part of the distribution payable to any Trust Unitholder. Such Unitholder will be required to surrender the Trust Unit certificates, if any, representing such Trust Unitholder's original Trust Units, in exchange for a Trust Unit certificate representing such Trust Unitholder's post consolidation Trust Units.

3.7 No Pre-Emptive Rights

No person shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to subscribe for or purchase any Trust Unit.

ARTICLE 4
INVESTMENTS OF TRUST

4.1 Purpose of the Trust

The Trust is an unincorporated, open-ended, limited purpose trust and its operations and activities shall be restricted to:

(f) disposing of any part of the Trust Assets;

(g) issuing or redeeming rights and Trust Units pursuant to any Trust Unitholder rights plan adopted by the Trust;

(h) repurchasing securities issued by the Trust, including Trust Units, subject to the provisions of this Declaration of Trust and applicable law;

(j) undertaking all other usual and customary actions for the conduct of the activities of the Trust in the ordinary course as are approved by the Trustees from time to time, or as are contemplated by this Declaration of Trust, provided that the Trust shall not undertake any activity, take any action or make or retain any investment which would result (or fail to take any action where such failure would result) in: (i) the Trust not being considered a "unit trust" or a "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Tax Act; or (ii) the Trust Units being treated as "foreign property" for purposes of Part XI of the Tax Act.

4.2 Investment of Proceeds of Offering

At and immediately after the Time of Closing, the Trust shall use the proceeds from the sale of Trust Units issued in the Offering to subscribe for and acquire Company Shares and Company Notes.

4.3 Other Investments

To the extent that any monies or other property received by the Trust or the Trustees are not to be immediately used by the Trustees for the purpose of making distributions under Article 5 hereof, the Trustees are hereby authorized and, where prudent to do so, shall invest such monies in: (i) short-term debt obligations of or guaranteed by the Government of Canada or a province of Canada; (ii) short-term commercial paper obligations of a corporation whose short-term commercial paper is rated R-1 or higher by Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited or A-1 or higher by Standard & Poor's Ratings Services; (iii) short-term interest-bearing accounts and short-term certificates of deposit issued or guaranteed by one of the six largest (in terms of total assets) Canadian chartered banks; or (iv) any combination thereof. The Trustees shall not purchase or authorize the purchase of any investment which is "foreign property" for purposes of the Tax Act if such purchase would result in the Trust exceeding the foreign property limitations contained in the Tax Act.

DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Computation of Distributable Cash Flow of the Trust

(a) The Cash Flow of the Trust, for, or in respect of, any Distribution Period, shall be determined pursuant to the following provisions:

(i) the following amounts shall be included in the calculation:

(A) all amounts which are received by the Trust for and in respect of the Distribution Period, including, without limitation, distributions on the Company Shares, interest on the Company Notes, dividends, proceeds from the disposition of securities, returns of capital and repayments of indebtedness; and

(B) all amounts received by the Trust in any prior Distribution Period to the extent not previously distributed;

(ii) the following amounts shall be deducted in the calculation:

(A) all costs and expenses of the Trust which, in the opinion of the Trustees, may reasonably be considered to have accrued and become owing in respect of, or which relate to, such Distribution Period or a prior Distribution Period if not accrued or deducted in determining the Cash Flow of the Trust in such prior period;

(B) all amounts which relate to the redemption of Trust Units and which have been paid or become payable in cash by the Trust in such Distribution Period;

(C) interest expense, if any, incurred by the Trust between distributions and any principal amounts paid or payable by the Trust in such Distribution Period; and

(D) any amount that the Trustees may reasonably consider to be necessary to provide for the payment of any costs that have been or are reasonably expected to be incurred by the Trust, including any tax liabilities of the Trust;

(iii) the net proceeds of the Offering or any other issuance of Trust Units or other securities, including debt securities, of the Trust and any associated expenses shall not be included in the calculations of Cash Flow of the Trust in respect of any Distribution Period.

(b) The Distributable Cash Flow for, or in respect of, a Distribution Period shall be the Cash Flow of the Trust for such Distribution Period less any amount which the Trustees may reasonably consider to be necessary to provide for the payment of any costs which have been or will be incurred in the activities and operations of the Trust (e.g., administrative expenses and other obligations of the Trust) and to provide for the payments of any tax liability of the Trust (but excluding such amounts previously deducted in Subsection 5.1(a)(ii).

5.2 Computation of Income and Net Realized Capital Gains

(a) The Income of the Trust for any taxation year of the Trust shall be the net income for the year determined pursuant to the provisions of the Tax Act having regard to the provisions thereof which relate to the calculation of taxable income of a trust, and taking into account such adjustments thereto as are determined by the Trustees in respect of dividends received or deemed to be received from taxable Canadian corporations, amounts paid or payable by the Trust to Trust Unitholders and such other amounts as may be determined in the discretion of the Trustees; provided, however, that capital gains and capital losses shall be excluded from the computation of net income.

(b) The Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for any taxation year of the Trust shall be determined as the amount, if any, by which the aggregate of the capital gains of the Trust calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act in the year exceeds the aggregate of (i) the aggregate of the capital losses of the Trust calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act in the year, (ii) the amount determined by the Trustees in respect of any net capital losses for prior taxation years which the Trust is permitted by the Tax Act to deduct in computing the taxable income of the Trust for the year; and (iii) any amount in respect of which the Trust is entitled to a capital gains refund under the Tax Act, as determined by the Trustees; provided that at the discretion of the Trustees, the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for a year may be calculated without subtracting the full amount of the net capital losses for the year and/or without subtracting the full amount of the net capital losses of the Trust carried forward from previous years.

5.3 Distributions of Distributable Cash Flow

The Trustees shall, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable to the Trust Unitholders on such Distribution Record Date, all of the Distributable Cash Flow for the Distribution Period which includes such Distribution Record Date. The proportionate share of each Trust Unit of the amount of such Distributable Cash Flow shall be determined by dividing such amount by the number of issued and outstanding Trust Units on such Distribution Record Date. Each Trust Unitholder's share of such Distributable Cash Flow shall be an amount equal to the proportionate share of each Trust Unit of such Distributable Cash Flow multiplied by the number of Trust Units owned of record by each such Trust Unitholder on such Distribution Record Date. Subject to Section 5.7, Distributable Cash Flow which has been declared to be payable to Trust Unitholders in respect of a Distribution Period shall be paid in cash no later than on the Distribution Payment Date in respect of such Distribution Period.

5.4 Other Distributions

(a) In addition to the distributions which are made payable to Trust Unitholders pursuant to Section 5.3, the Trustees may declare to be payable and make distributions, from time to time, out of Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains, the capital of the Trust or otherwise, in any year, in such amount or amounts and on such dates as the Trustees may determine to persons who are Trust Unitholders at the record date for such distribution.

(b) Having regard to the present intention of the Trustees to allocate, distribute and make payable to Trust Unitholders all of the Income of the Trust, Net Realized

Capital Gains and any other applicable amounts so that the Trust will not have any liability for tax under Part I of the Tax Act in any taxation year, the following amounts shall, without any further actions on the part of the Trustees, be due and payable on December 31 in each such year to Trust Unitholders of record on December 31 of such year:

(i) an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the Income of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of the portions, if any, of each distribution paid or payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 5.3 and Subsection 5.4(a) and (d) which have been determined by the Trustees, pursuant to Section 5.5, to have been payable by the Trust out of Income of the Trust for such year; and

(ii) an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of the portions, if any, of each distribution paid or payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 5.3 and Subsection 5.4(a) and (d) which have been determined by the Trustees, pursuant to Section 5.5, to have been payable by the Trust out of Net Realized Capital Gains for such year.

(c) The proportionate share of each Trust Unit of the amount of any distribution made pursuant to either or both of Subsections 5.4(a) and 5.4(b) shall be determined by dividing such amount by the number of issued and outstanding Trust Units on the applicable record date in respect of a distribution pursuant to Subsection 5.4(a) and on December 31 in respect of a distribution pursuant to Subsection 5.4(a). Each Trust Unitholder's share of the amount of any such distribution shall be an amount equal to the proportionate share of each Trust Unit of such amount multiplied by the number of Trust Units owned of record by each such Trust Unitholder on such applicable record date or December 31 in the year of such distribution, as the case may be. Subject to Section 5.7, amounts which have been declared to be payable to Trust Unitholders pursuant to either Subsection 5.4(a) or 5.4(b) shall be paid in cash no later than on the Distribution Payment Date which immediately follows the applicable record date in respect of a distribution pursuant to Subsection 5.4(b) and, in respect of a distribution pursuant to Subsection 5.4(a) such amount shall be payable on December 31 and shall be paid forthwith, and in no event later than January 30 of the following year, subject to Section 5.6.

(d) In addition to the distributions which are made payable to Trust Unitholders, the Trustees may designate any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in a year as a result of the redemption of Trust Units pursuant to Section 6.5 to the redeeming Trust Unitholder or Trust Unitholders in accordance with this Article 5 and, more specifically, such income or capital gain may be treated as having been paid in the year by the Trust to the redeeming Trust Unitholder or Trust Unitholders out of the Income of the Trust or Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust, as applicable.

5.5 Character of Distributions and Designations

In accordance with and to the extent permitted by the Tax Act and analogous provisions of any applicable provincial legislation, the Trustees in each year shall make designations and elections in respect of the amounts payable to Trust Unitholders for such amounts that the Trustees consider to be reasonable in all of the circumstances, including, without limitation, designations relating to taxable dividends received or deemed to be received by the Trust in the year on shares of taxable Canadian corporations, net taxable capital gains realized by the Trust in the year and foreign source income of and the foreign income tax paid by the Trust for the year, as well as designations under subsections 104(13.1) and/or (13.2) of the Tax Act for income to be taxed to the Trust, rather than to the Trust Unitholders. Distributions payable to Trust Unitholders pursuant to this Article 5 shall be deemed to be distributions of Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains, trust capital or other items in such amounts as the Trustees shall, in their absolute discretion, determine. For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that any distribution of Net Realized Capital Gains shall include the non-taxable portion of the capital gains of the Trust which are encompassed in such distribution.

5.6 Enforceability of Right to Receive Distributions

For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that, subject to Subsection 2.7(d), each Trust Unitholder shall have the legal right to enforce payment of any amount payable to such Trust Unitholder as a result of any distribution which is declared or made payable to such Trust Unitholder pursuant to this Article as of the date on which such amount becomes payable.

5.7 Method of Payment of Distributions

(a) Where the Trustees determine that the Trust does not have available cash in an amount sufficient to make payment of the full amount of any distribution which has been declared to be payable pursuant to this Article on the due date for such payment or if any cash distribution should be contrary to any Subordination Agreement, the payment may, at the option of the Trustees, include the pro rata issuance of additional Trust Units, or fractions of Trust Units, if necessary, having a value equal to the difference between the amount of such distribution and the amount of cash which has been determined by the Trustees to be available for the payment of such distribution, subject to all necessary regulatory approvals.

(b) The value of each Trust Unit which is issued pursuant to Subsection 5.7(a) shall be the market price (as defined in Section 6.3) of the Trust Units on the applicable Distribution Record Date in respect of a distribution pursuant to Section 5.3, on the applicable Distribution Record Date in respect of a distribution under Subsection 5.4(a) or December 31 in respect of a distribution under Subsection 5.4(b), provided that if the particular date is not a Business Day then the market price (as defined in Section 6.3) shall be determined on the last Business Day which precedes such particular date.

5.8 Withholding Taxes

The Trustees may deduct or withhold from distributions payable to any Trust Unitholder all amounts required by law to be withheld from such distributions, whether such distributions are in the form of cash, additional Trust Units or otherwise. In the event of a distribution in the form of additional Trust Units, the Trustees may sell Trust Units of such Trust Unitholder to pay such withholding taxes and to pay all of the Trustees' reasonable expenses with regard thereto and the Trustees shall have the power of attorney of such Trust Unitholder to do so. Any such sale shall be made on any stock exchange on which the Trust Units are then listed and upon such sale, the affected Trust Unitholder shall cease to be the holder of such Trust Units.

5.9 Tax Act Definitions

Unless otherwise specified or the context otherwise requires, any term in this Article which is defined in the Tax Act shall have for the purposes of this Article the meaning that it has in the Tax Act.

5.10 Payments to Trust Unitholders

Any cash payment required hereunder to be made to a Trust Unitholder shall be paid in Canadian dollars by cheque or bank draft to the order of the registered Trust Unitholder and may be mailed by ordinary mail to the last address appearing on the books of the Trust but may also be paid in such other manner as the Trust Unitholder has designated to the Trustees and the Trustees have accepted. In the case of joint registered Trust Unitholders, any cash payment required hereunder to be made to a Trust Unitholders shall be deemed to be required to be made to such Trust Unitholders jointly and shall be paid by cheque or bank draft but may also be paid in such other manner as the joint registered Trust Unitholders or any one of the joint registered Trust Unitholder has designated the Trustees and the Trustees have accepted. For greater certainty, a Trust Unitholder or any one of the joint Trust Unitholders may designate and the Trustees may accept that any payment required to be made hereunder shall be made by deposit to an account of such Trust Unitholder or to a joint account of such Trust Unitholder and any other person or in the case of joint registered Trust Unitholders to an account of joint registered Trust Unitholders or to an account of any one of the joint registered Trust Unitholders. A cheque or bank draft shall, unless the joint registered Trust Unitholders otherwise direct, be made payable to the order of all of the said joint registered Trust Unitholders, and if more than one address appears on the books of the Trust in respect of such joint unitholding, the cheque or bank draft or payment in other acceptable manner as aforesaid shall satisfy and discharge all liability of the Trustees or the Trust for the amount so required to be paid unless the cheque or bank draft is not paid at par on presentation at Toronto, Ontario, or at any other place where it is by its terms payable. In the event of non-receipt of any such cheque or bank draft by the person to whom it was mailed, the Trustees on proof of the non-receipt and upon satisfactory indemnity being given to it and to the Trust, shall issue to the person a replacement cheque or bank draft for a like amount.

The receipt of any payment not mailed or paid in another acceptable manner in accordance with this Section 5.10 by the registered Trust Unitholder shall be a valid and binding discharge to the Trust and to the Trustees for any payment made in respect of the registered Trust Units and if several persons are registered as joint registered Trust Unitholders or, in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of a Trust Unitholder, one or several persons are entitled so to be registered in accordance with this Declaration of Trust respectively, receipt of payment by any one of them shall be a valid and binding discharge to the Trust and to the Trustees for any such payment.

5.11 Distribution Reinvestment and Trust Unit Purchase Plan

Subject to any required regulatory approvals (and any Trust Unitholder approval imposed by regulatory requirements), the Trustees may, acting in their sole discretion, establish one or more Trust Unitholder rights plans, distribution reinvestment plans, distribution reinvestment and Trust Unit purchase plans, Trust Unit option plans or other compensation plans at any time and from time to time.

REDEMPTION OF TRUST UNITS

6.1 Right of Redemption

Each Trust Unitholder shall be entitled to require the Trust to redeem at any time or from time to time at the demand of the Trust Unitholder all or any part of the Trust Units registered in the name of the Trust Unitholder at the prices determined and payable in accordance with the conditions hereinafter provided. The Trustees shall be entitled in their discretion to determine and designate whether any payments made in respect of any redemption are on account of income or capital.

6.2 Exercise of Redemption Right

(a) To exercise a Trust Unitholder's right to require redemption under this Article 6, a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring the Trust to redeem Trust Units, in a form approved by the Trustees, shall be sent to the Trust at the head office of the Trust or as the Trustees may otherwise direct. No form or manner of completion or execution shall be sufficient unless the same is in all respects satisfactory to the Trustees and is accompanied by any further evidence that the Trustees may reasonably require with respect to the identity, capacity or authority of the person giving such notice.

(b) Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Trust Units, the Trust Unitholder shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to the Trust Units tendered for redemption (other than to receive the redemption payment therefor unless the redemption payment is not made as provided for herein), including the right to receive any distributions thereon which are declared payable to the Trust Unitholders of record on a date which is subsequent to the day of receipt by the Trust of such notice. Trust Units shall be considered to be tendered for redemption on the date that the Trust has, to the satisfaction of the Trustees, received the notice and other required documents or evidence as aforesaid.

6.3 Cash Redemption

(a) Upon receipt by or on behalf of the Trust of a notice to redeem Trust Units in accordance with Section 6.2, the holder of the Trust Units tendered for redemption shall be entitled to receive a price per Trust Unit (hereinafter called the "Redemption Price") equal to the lesser of:

(i) 90% of the "market price" of the Trust Units on the principal market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading during the 10-trading day period ending on the date on which the Units were surrendered for redemption (the "Redemption Date"); and

(ii) 100% of the "closing market price" on the principal market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading on the Redemption Date.

For the purposes of this calculation, the "market price" will be an amount equal to the weighted average of the closing price of the Trust Units for each of the trading days on which there was a closing price, provided that:

(i) if the applicable exchange or market does not provide a closing price, but only provides the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units traded on a particular day, the "market price" will be an amount equal to the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices for each of the trading days on which there was a trade; and

(ii) if there as trading on the applicable exchange or market for fewer than five of the 10 trading days, the "market price" will be the weighted average of the following prices established for each of the 10 trading days:

(A) the weighted average of the last bid and the last asking prices of the Trust Units for each day there was no trading;

(B) the closing price of the Trust Units for each day that there was trading if the exchange or market provides a closing price; and

(C) the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units for each day that there was trading if the market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Trust Units traded on a particular day.

The "closing market price" for the purpose of the foregoing calculations will be:

(i) an amount equal to the closing price of the Trust Units if there was a trade on the date and the exchange or market provides a closing price;

(ii) an amount equal to the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units if there was trading and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Trust Units traded on a particular day; or

(iii) the weighted average of the last bid and last asking prices of the Trust Units if there was no trading on that date.

(b) Subject to Sections 6.4 and 6.5, the Redemption Price payable in respect of the Trust Units surrendered for redemption during any calendar month shall be satisfied by way of cash payment no later than the last day of the calendar month following the month in which the Trust Units were tendered for redemption. Payments made by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of a cheque in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the redeeming Trust Unitholder unless such cheque is not honoured upon presentment. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the redeeming Trust Unitholder in respect of the Trust Units so redeemed.

6.4 No Cash Redemption in Certain Circumstances

Subsection 6.3(b) shall not be applicable to Trust Units tendered for redemption by a Trust Unitholder, if:

(a) the total amount payable by the Trust in respect of those Trust Units and all other Trust Units tendered for redemption in the same calendar month exceeds $50,000, provided that the Trustees may, in their sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of all Trust Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month;

(b) at the time the Trust Units are tendered for redemption, the outstanding Trust Units are not listed for trading on a stock exchange or traded or quoted on another market which the Trustees consider, in their sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Trust Units; or

(c) the normal trading of Trust Units is suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Trust Units are listed (or, if not so listed on a stock exchange, on any market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading) on the Redemption Date or for more than five trading days during the 10-day trading period commencing immediately after the Redemption Date.

6.5 In Specie Redemption

If, pursuant to Section 6.4, Subsection 6.3(b) is not applicable to Trust Units tendered for redemption by a Trust Unitholder, the Redemption Price per Trust Unit specified in Section 6.3 to which the Trust Unitholder would otherwise be entitled shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals (which the Trust shall use reasonable commercial efforts to obtain forthwith), be paid and satisfied by way of a distribution in specie to such Trust Unitholder of a pro rata number of Company Shares and Company Notes held by the Trust and a pro rata share of any other Trust Assets (less a pro rata share of Trust Liabilities). The pro rata number of Company Shares and the pro rata number of Company Notes to be distributed to the Trust Unitholder in such circumstances shall be equal to: (i) the number of Trust Units tendered for redemption by the Trust Unitholder divided by the total number of Trust Units outstanding on the Redemption Date, multiplied by (ii) the number of Company Shares and the number of Company Notes, respectively, held by the Trust on the Redemption Date.

The Redemption Price payable pursuant to this Section 6.5 in respect of Trust Units tendered for redemption during any month shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid by the transfer, to or to the order of the holder of Trust Units who exercised the right of redemption, on the last day (the "Transfer Date") of the calendar month following the month in which the Trust Units were tendered for redemption, of the number of Company Shares and Company Notes, determined as aforesaid. The Trust shall be entitled to all interest paid or accrued and unpaid on the Company Notes and the distributions paid on the Company Shares being transferred to and including the Transfer Date. Payments by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of the certificates representing the securities of the Company, and a cheque or bank draft representing the Unitholder's share of cash pursuant to Section 6.3(b), by registered mail in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the redeeming Trust Unitholder. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the redeeming Trust Unitholder. Where the Trust makes a distribution in specie pursuant to this subsection, the Trustees shall be entitled, in their sole discretion, to designate to the redeeming Trust Unitholder or Trust Unitholders any income or capital gain realized by the Trust in a year as a result of the distribution of such property to the Trust Unitholder on the redemption of Trust Units. In the event that necessary regulatory approvals are not obtained on or before the end of the month following the month in which the Trust Units are tendered for redemption, the Redemption Price per Trust Unit shall be paid in cash on the Transfer Date.

6.6 Cancellation of all Redeemed Trust Units

All Trust Units which are redeemed under this Article 6 shall be cancelled and such Trust Units shall no longer be outstanding and shall not be reissued.

TRUSTEES

7.1 Number and Residence of Trustees

The Trustees shall consist of a minimum of three and no more than five Trustees, with the number of Trustees from time to time within such range being fixed by resolution of the Trustees; provided that until otherwise so determined by resolution, the number of Trustees following completion of the Offering shall be three. All Trustees shall be Canadian Residents.

7.2 Calling and Notice of Meetings

Meetings of the Trustees shall be called and held at such time and at such place in Canada as the Trustees, the Chairperson of the Trustees or any two Trustees may determine, and any one Trustee or officer of the Trust may give notice of meetings when directed or authorized by such persons. Notice of each meeting of the Trustees shall be given to each Trustee not less than 48 hours before the time when the meeting is to be held, provided that if a quorum of Trustees is present, the Trustees may without notice hold a meeting immediately following an annual meeting of Trust Unitholders. A Trustee may waive this notice and the presence of such Trustee at such a meeting will be deemed to be a waiver of this notice requirement except where such Trustee attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened. Notice of a meeting of the Trustees may be given verbally, in writing or by telephone, fax or other means of communication. A notice of a meeting of Trustees need not specify the purpose of or the business to be transacted at the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees may by resolution from time to time fix a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings of the Trustees at a place and hour to be named, in which case, provided that a copy of such resolution is sent to each Trustee forthwith after being passed and forthwith after each Trustee's appointment, no other notice shall be required for any such regular meeting.

7.3 Place of Meetings

Meetings of the Trustees may be held at any place in Canada. A Trustee who attends a meeting of Trustees, in person or by telephone, is deemed to have consented to the location of the meeting except when the Trustee attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully held.

7.4 Meetings by Telephone

A Trustee may participate in a meeting of the Trustees or of a committee of the Trustees by means of telephone or other communication facilities that permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A Trustee participating in such a meeting in such manner shall be considered present at the meeting and at the place of the meeting.

7.5 Quorum

The quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Trustees shall consist of a majority of the number of Trustees then holding office and, notwithstanding any vacancy among the number of Trustees, a quorum of Trustees may exercise all of the powers of the Trustees.

7.6 Chairperson

The Chairperson of the Trustees shall be chosen by the Trustees from amongst themselves. The chairperson of any meeting of the Trustees shall be the Trustee present at the meeting who holds the office of Chairperson of the Trustees or if such person is not present, the Trustees present shall choose one of their number to be Chairperson.

7.7 Action by the Trustees

At all meetings of the Trustees every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In the case of equality of votes, the chairperson of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote. The powers of the Trustees may be exercised by resolution passed at a meeting at which a quorum is present or by resolution in writing signed by all Trustees who would be entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the Trustees. Resolutions in writing may be signed in counterparts, including by facsimile, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all originals together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

7.8 Adjourned Meeting

Any meeting of the Trustees may be adjourned from time to time by the chairperson of the meeting with the consent of the Trustees present at the meeting to a fixed time and place. Further notice of the adjourned meeting need not be given. The adjourned meeting shall be duly constituted if a quorum is present and if it is held in accordance with the terms of the adjournment. If there is not a quorum present at the adjourned meeting, the original meeting shall be deemed to have terminated upon its adjournment.

7.9 Remuneration and Expenses

The Trustees shall be paid such reasonable remuneration for their services as the Trustees may from time to time determine. Until otherwise determined, such compensation shall be $20,000 per year and $1,000 per board meeting and $500 per committee meeting up to a maximum of $2,000 per day. In addition, the Trustee who holds the office of Chairperson of the Trustees shall receive an additional $10,000 per year. The Trustees shall also be entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable traveling and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending meetings of the Trustees or any committee thereof or in connection with their services as Trustees. Nothing herein contained shall preclude any Trustee from serving the Trust in any other capacity and receiving remuneration therefor.

7.10 Officers

The Trustees from time to time may appoint one or more officers of the Trust, including without limitation a Chairperson of the Trustees, and, without prejudice to rights under any employment contract, may remove any officer of the Trust. The powers and duties of each officer of the Trust shall be those determined from time to time by the Trustees and, in the absence of such determination, shall be those usually applicable to the office held.

ARTICLE 8
APPOINTMENT, RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL OF THE TRUSTEES

8.1 Qualification of Trustees

The following persons are disqualified from being a Trustee of the Trust:

(a) anyone who is less than 18 years of age;

(b) anyone who is of unsound mind and has been so found by a court in Canada or elsewhere;

(c) a person who is not an individual;

(d) a person who has the status of bankrupt; and

(e) a person who is non-resident in Canada for purposes of the Tax Act.

8.2 Appointment of Trustees

The Trustees set out in the party of the first party of this Declaration of Trust have been appointed as the Trustees of the Trust and their term of office shall, subject to Section 8.3, expire (subject to further appointment) at the close of the first annual meeting of Trust Unitholders. Except as otherwise provided herein, Trustees shall be appointed (including the reappointment of incumbent Trustees) at each annual meeting of Trust Unitholders and may be appointed at a special meeting of Trust Unitholders, in each case, subject to Section 8.5, for a term expiring at the close of the next annual meeting of Trust Unitholders following such an appointment. Any such appointment shall be made either by a resolution approved by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of Trust Unitholders or shall be made by resolution in writing in the manner set out in Section 12.10. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(a) if no Trustees are appointed at the annual meeting of Trust Unitholders held immediately before the term of office of the existing Trustees expires, such existing Trustees shall continue to hold the office of Trustees under this Declaration of Trust until successors have been appointed or they cease to hold office; and

(b) the Trustees may, between annual meetings of the Trust Unitholders, appoint one or more additional Trustees for a term to expire (subject to further appointment) at the close of the next annual meeting of Trust Unitholders, but the number of additional Trustees so appointed shall not at any time exceed one-third of the number of Trustees who held office at the expiration of the immediately preceding annual meeting of Trust Unitholders.

8.3 Consent to Act

(a) A person who is appointed a Trustee hereunder, other than the Trustees whose consent to act is given by his signature hereto, shall not become a Trustee until the person has, either before or after such appointment, executed and delivered to the Trust a consent substantially as follows:

"To: COUNTRYSIDE POWER INCOME FUND (the "Trust")

And to: THE TRUSTEES THEREOF

The undersigned hereby consents to act as a Trustee of the Trust and hereby agrees, upon the later of the date of this consent and the date of the undersigned's appointment as a Trustee of the Trust, to thereby become a party, as a Trustee, to the Declaration of Trust dated the 16th day of February, 2004, as amended from time to time, constituting the Trust.

(b) Upon the later of a person being appointed a Trustee hereunder and executing and delivering to the Trust a consent substantially as set forth in Subsection 8.3(a), such person shall become a Trustee hereunder and shall be deemed to be a party (as a Trustee) to this Declaration of Trust, as amended from time to time.

8.4 Failure to Elect Minimum Number of Trustees

If at a meeting of Trust Unitholders the Trust Unitholders fail to elect the minimum number of Trustees required by this Declaration of Trust by reason of the disqualification or death of any nominee, the Trustees elected at the meeting may, subject to Section 7.5, exercise all of the powers of the Trustees if the number of Trustees so elected constitutes a quorum.

8.5 Ceasing to Hold Office

A Trustee ceases to hold office when:

(a) he or she dies or resigns;

(b) he or she is removed in accordance with Section 8.6; or

(c) he or she ceases to be duly qualified to act as a Trustee as provided under Section 8.1.

A resignation of a Trustee becomes effective 30 days from the time a written resignation is sent to the Trust, or at the time specified in the resignation, whichever is later, provided that if, upon the resignation becoming effective, the number of remaining Trustees would be less than the number necessary to constitute a quorum for a meeting of Trustees, the resignation is not effective until the resigning Trustee's successor is duly appointed as a Trustee.

Upon a Trustee ceasing to hold office as such hereunder, such Trustee shall cease to be a party (as a Trustee) to this Declaration of Trust; provided, however, that such Trustee shall continue to be entitled to be paid any amounts owing by the Trust to the Trustee and to the benefits of the indemnity provided in Section 9.9. Upon the resignation or removal of any Trustee, or upon a Trustee otherwise ceasing to be a Trustee, the Trustee shall cease to have the rights, privileges and powers of a Trustee hereunder, shall execute and deliver such documents as the remaining Trustees shall require for the conveyance of any Trust property held in that Trustee's name, shall account to the remaining Trustees as they may require for all property which that Trustee holds as Trustee, shall resign from all representative or other positions held by such Trustee on behalf of the Trust, including as a director or officer of any person in which the Trust owns any securities (directly or indirectly) and shall thereupon be discharged as Trustee. Upon the incapacity or death of any Trustee, his or her legal representative shall execute and deliver on his or her behalf such documents as the remaining Trustees may require as provided in this Section 8.5. In the event that a Trustee or his or her legal representatives, as applicable, are unable or unwilling to execute and deliver such required documents, each of the remaining Trustees is hereby appointed as the attorney of such Trustee for the purposes of executing and delivering such required documents. This power of attorney granted to each of the remaining Trustees is not intended to be a continuing power of attorney within the meaning of the Substitute Decisions Act, 1992 (Ontario), exercisable during a Trustee's incapacity to manage property, or any similar power of attorney under equivalent legislation in any of the provinces or territories of Canada (a "CPOA"). The execution of this power of attorney will not terminate any CPOA granted by the Trustee previously and will not be terminated by the execution by the Trustee in the future of a CPOA, and the Trustee hereby agrees not to take any action in future which results in the termination of this power of attorney.

8.6 Removal of Trustees

The Trust Unitholders may remove any Trustee or Trustees from office by resolution approved by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of Trust Unitholders called for that purpose. A vacancy created by such removal of a Trustee may be filled at the meeting of Trust Unitholders at which the Trustee is removed or, if not so filled, may be filled as set forth in Section 8.7.

8.7 Filling Vacancies

Subject to Subsection 8.2(b), a vacancy among the Trustees may be filled by votes of the number of Trustees required to constitute a quorum, except a vacancy resulting from a failure to elect at a meeting of Trust Unitholders the number of Trustees fixed by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust. If there is not a quorum of Trustees, or if there has been a failure to elect at a meeting of Trust Unitholders the number of Trustees required by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust, the Trustees then in office shall forthwith call a special meeting of Trust Unitholders to fill such vacancy and, if they fail to call a meeting or if there are no Trustees then in office, the meeting may be called by any Trust Unitholder. A Trustee appointed to fill a vacancy holds office, subject to Section 8.5, until the close of the next annual meeting of the Trust Unitholders. The rights of the Trustees to control and exclusively administer the Trust and to have the title to the Trust Assets drawn up in their names or in the name of any other successor and all other rights of the Trustees at law shall vest automatically in any person who may hereafter become a Trustee upon such person's due appointment and qualification without any further act and such person shall thereupon have all the rights, privileges, powers, authorities, obligations and immunities of a Trustee hereunder whether or not conveyancing documents have been executed and delivered pursuant to Section 8.5 or otherwise.

8.8 Validity of Acts

Any act of a Trustee is valid, notwithstanding any irregularity in the appointment of the Trustees or any one of them or a defect in the qualifications of the Trustees or any one of them.

9.1 Powers of the Trustees

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Declaration of Trust, the Trustees may exercise from time to time in respect of the Trust Assets and the investments and affairs of the Trust any and all rights, powers and privileges that could be exercised by the legal and beneficial owner thereof.

Subject to the specific limitations contained in this Declaration of Trust, the Trustees shall have, without further or other action or consent, and free from any power or control on the part of the Trust Unitholders, full, absolute and exclusive power, control and authority over the Trust Assets and over the affairs of the Trust to the same extent as if the Trustees were the sole and absolute beneficial owners of the Trust Assets in their own right, to do all such acts and things as in their sole judgment and discretion are necessary or incidental to, or desirable for, carrying out the trust created hereunder. In construing the provisions of this Declaration of Trust, the presumption shall be in favour of the granted powers and authority to the Trustees. The enumeration of any specific power or authority herein (including pursuant to Section 9.2) shall not be construed as limiting the general powers or authority or any other specified power or authority conferred herein on the Trustees. To the maximum extent permitted by law the Trustees shall, in carrying out investment activities, not be in any way restricted by the provisions of the laws of any jurisdiction limiting or purporting to limit investments which may be made by trustees. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, but subject to Sections 4.1, 9.4 and any other express limitations contained in this Declaration of Trust, the Trustees may make any investments without being required to adhere to all of or any particular portion of the investment criteria or diversification requirements set forth in the Trustee Act (Ontario), as amended from time to time and to delegate management and authority to discretionary managers of investment funds as the Trustees in their discretion determine appropriate.

9.2 Specific Powers and Authorities

Subject only to the express limitations contained in this Declaration of Trust and in addition to any other powers and authorities conferred by this Declaration of Trust or which the Trustees may have by virtue of any present or future statute or rule of law, the Trustees, without any action or consent by the Trust Unitholders, shall have and may exercise at any time and from time to time the following powers and authorities, which may or may not be exercised by the Trustees in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as they may from time to time determine proper;

(a) to supervise the activities and manage the investments and affairs of the Trust;

(b) to maintain records and provide reports to Trust Unitholders;

(c) to collect, sue for and receive all sums of money due to the Trust;

(d) to open, operate and close accounts and other similar credit, deposit and banking arrangements and to negotiate and sign banking and financing contracts and agreements;

(e) to determine conclusively the allocation to capital, income or other appropriate accounts of all receipts, expenses and disbursements;

(f) to make or cause to be made application for the listing or quotation on any stock exchange or market of any Trust Units, and to do all things which in the opinion of the Trustees may be necessary or desirable to effect or maintain such listing or listings or quotation;

(g) to determine conclusively the value of any or all of the Trust Assets from time to time and, in determining such value, to consider such information and advice as the Trustees in their sole judgment, may deem material and reliable;

(h) to enter into any agreement or instrument to create or provide for the issue of Trust Units (including any firm or best efforts underwriting agreement), to cause such Trust Units to be issued for such consideration as the Trustees, in their sole discretion, may deem appropriate and to do such things and prepare and sign such documents, including the Prospectus and any registration rights agreement, to qualify such Trust Units for sale in whatever jurisdictions they will be sold or offered for sale;

(i) to effect payment of distributions to the Trust Unitholders as provided in Article 5, but not contrary to any provisions of any Subordination Agreement or the terms of the Company Notes or the subordination provisions of the Note Indenture;

(j) to invest funds of the Trust as provided in Article 4;

(k) if the Trustees become aware by written notice that (i) the beneficial owners of more than 49% of the Trust Units (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis) then outstanding are, or may be, Non-residents, (ii) more than 100 U.S. persons beneficially own Trust Units, or (iii) that either such situation is imminent, the Trustees shall ensure that the limitations on ownership by Non-residents and U.S. persons as provided in Section 13.5 are met;

(l) to possess and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges pertaining to the ownership of Company Shares and the Company Notes subject to the Note Indenture, to the same extent that an individual might, unless otherwise limited herein, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to vote or give any consent, request or notice, or waive any notice, either in person or by proxy or power of attorney, with or without power of substitution, to one or more persons, which proxies and powers of attorney may be for meetings or actions generally or for any particular meeting or action and may include the exercise of discretionary power;

(m) where reasonably required, to engage or employ on behalf of the Trust any persons as agents, representatives, employees, independent contractors or administrators (including, without limitation, investment advisors, registrars, underwriters, accountants, lawyers, appraisers, brokers or otherwise) in one or more capacities;

(n) except as prohibited by law, to delegate any of the powers and duties of the Trustees to any one or more agents, representatives, officers, employees, independent contractors, administrators or other persons without liability to the Trustees, except as provided in this Declaration of Trust;

(o) to engage in, intervene in, prosecute, join, defend, compromise, abandon or adjust, by arbitration or otherwise, any actions, suits, disputes, claims, demands or other litigation or proceedings, regulatory or judicial, relating to the Trust, the Trust Assets or the Trust's affairs, to enter into agreements therefor, whether or not any suit or proceeding is commenced or claim asserted and, in advance of any controversy, to enter into agreements regarding the arbitration, adjudication or settlement thereof;

(p) to arrange for insurance contracts and policies insuring the Trust, Trust Assets, the Company and its affiliates and/or any or all of the Trustees or the Trust Unitholders, including against any and all claims and liabilities of any nature asserted by any person arising by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted by the Trust or by the Trustees or Trust Unitholders;

(q) to cause legal title to any of the Trust Assets to be held by and/or in the name of one or more Trustees or, except as prohibited by law, by and/or in the name of the Trust or any other custodian or person, on such terms, in such manner, with such powers and in such person as the Trustees may determine and with or without disclosure that the Trust or the Trustee is interested therein; provided, however, that should legal title to any of the Trust Assets be held by and/or in the name of any person or persons other than a Trustee or the Trust, the Trustees shall require such person or persons to execute a trust agreement acknowledging that legal title to such assets is held in trust for the benefit of the Trust;

(r) to issue Trust Units and other securities of the Trust including securities convertible or exchangeable for Trust Units or other securities of the Trust or other rights, warrants or options convertible into or exchangeable for Trust Units (including debt securities, debt securities convertible into, or exchangeable for, Trust Units or other securities of the Trust), for such consideration as the Trustees may deem appropriate in their sole discretion, such issuance to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Declaration of Trust;

(s) to enter into agreements in respect of the Offering or perform the obligations of the Trust thereunder and to enter into any amendment to such agreements except as otherwise provided herein;

(t) to approve the adoption of a Trust Unitholders rights plan, if the Trustees determine in good faith that such action is appropriate, including to issue rights in connection with such a plan;

(u) the Trustees shall use their best efforts to ensure that (i) the Trust qualifies at all times as a "unit trust" and as a "mutual fund trust" pursuant to paragraph 108(2)(a) and subsection 132(6) of the Tax Act, respectively; and (ii) the Trust Units will not be "foreign property" within the meaning of Part XI of the Tax Act;

(v) in addition to the mandatory indemnification provided for in Section 9.9, to the extent permitted by law to indemnify, or enter into agreements with respect to the indemnification of, any person with whom the Trust has dealings, including, without limitation, the Trustees, the Depository, registrar and transfer agent or escrow agent, to such extent as the Trustees shall determine;

(w) with the approval or confirmation of Trust Unitholders, enact and from time to time amend or repeal by-laws not inconsistent with this Declaration of Trust containing provisions relating to the Trust, the Trust Assets and the conduct of the affairs of the Trust, but not in conflict with any provision of this Declaration of Trust;

(x) to pay all taxes or assessments, of whatever kind or nature, whether within or outside Canada, imposed upon or against the Trustees in connection with the Trust Assets, undertaking or income of the Trust, or imposed upon or against the Trust Assets, undertaking or income of the Trust, or any part thereof and to settle or compromise disputed tax liabilities and for the foregoing purposes to make such returns, take such deductions, and make such designations, elections and determinations in respect of Income of the Trust or Net Realized Capital Gains distributed to Trust Unitholders in the year and any other matter as shall be permitted under the Tax Act (provided that, to the extent necessary, the Trustees will seek the advice of Counsel or the Auditor), and do all such other acts and things as may be deemed by the Trustees in their sole discretion to be necessary, desirable or convenient;

(y) guaranteeing (as guarantor, surety or co-principal obligor) the payment of any indebtedness, liability or obligation of the Company or its affiliates and mortgaging, pledging, charging, granting a security interest in or otherwise encumbering all or any part of the Trust Assets; and

(z) to do all such other acts and things as are incidental to the foregoing and to exercise all powers which are necessary or useful to carry on the purpose and activities of the Trust, to promote any of the purposes for which the Trust is formed and to carry out the provisions of this Declaration of Trust.

The Trustees shall, except as may be prohibited by law, have the right to delegate authority for the above-referenced matters to a manager or administrator where the Trustees determine in their sole discretion that such delegation is desirable to effect the administration of the duties of the Trustees under the Declaration of Trust. The Trustees may also delegate to officers of the Company or its affiliates certain powers for management of the day-to-day affairs of the Trust provided such delegation is not inconsistent with this Declaration of Trust.

9.3 Company Shares and Company Notes Held by the Trust

Subject to the provisions hereof, the Company Shares and the Company Notes held from time to time by the Trustees as part of the Trust Assets may be voted by the Trustees at any and all meetings of shareholders or noteholders of the Company, as the case may be, at which the holders of such Company Shares or Company Notes are entitled to vote.

9.4 Restrictions on Trustees' Powers

(a) Notwithstanding Section 9.3, the Trustees may not under any circumstances whatsoever vote the Company Shares held by the Trust or, where applicable, the Company Notes held by the Trust, nor permit (to the extent it is within the Trust's power as a shareholder of the Company) the Company to vote its securities of its affiliates, to authorize any transaction which is adverse to the Trust Unitholders including among other things:

(i) any sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or its affiliates, except in conjunction with an internal reorganization of the Company or its affiliates;

(ii) any amalgamation, arrangement or other merger of the Company or its affiliates with any other entity, except in conjunction with an internal reorganization of the Company or its affiliates;

(iii) any material amendment to the Note Indenture other than in contemplation of a future issuance of Company Notes to the Trust that are identical in all material respects to the Company Notes issued in conjunction with the Offering or in conjunction with an internal reorganization of the Company or its affiliates;

(iv) the winding-up or dissolution of the Company or its affiliates prior to the end of the term of the Trust; or

(v) any material amendment to the constating documents of the Company or its affiliates to change the authorized shares, units or partnership interests of those entities in a manner which may be prejudicial to the Trust, without the approval of the Trust Unitholders by Special Resolution at a meeting of Trust Unitholders called for that purpose.

(b) The Trustees shall have no power to sell or otherwise dispose of any Company Shares or Company Notes held by the Trust (except pursuant to an in specie redemption under Section 6.5) or to sell all or substantially all of the Trust Assets or cause the Company or any of its affiliates to sell all or substantially all of its assets, except with the approval of the Trust Unitholders by Special Resolution at a meeting of Trust Unitholders called for that purpose, or in connection with an internal reorganization of the Company or its affiliates or a permitted charge, pledge or lien. In no case shall the Trustees have the power to reinvest the proceeds of such a disposition, except as provided in Section 4.3.

(c) The Trustees shall only vote the Company Shares and exercise the rights under the Company Notes in the manner provided for herein or permitted under the Company Note Indenture, as the case may be, on the conditions contained therein.

9.5 Banking

The banking activities of the Trust, or any part thereof, including, but without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the operation of the Trust's accounts; the making, signing, drawing, accepting, endorsing, negotiation, lodging, depositing or transferring of any cheques, promissory notes, drafts, acceptances, bills of exchange and orders for the payment of money; the giving of receipts for orders relating to any Trust Assets; the execution of any agreement relating to any Trust Assets; the execution of any agreement relating to any such banking activities and defining the rights and powers of the parties thereto; and the authorizing of any officer of such banker to do any act or thing on the Trust's behalf to facilitate such banking activities, shall be transacted with such bank, trust company, or other firm or corporation carrying on a banking business as the Trustees may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time and shall be transacted on the Trust's behalf by one or more officers of the Trust, the Company or its affiliates, as the Trustees may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time.

9.6 Standard of Care and Duties

The Trustees shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust Unitholders and in connection therewith shall exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. The Trustees shall not be liable in carrying out their duties under this Declaration of Trust except in cases where the Trustees fail (a) to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust Unitholders, or (b) to exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. The duties and standard of care of the Trustees provided as aforesaid are intended to be similar to, and not to be any greater than, those imposed on a director of a corporation governed by the Business Corporations Act (Ontario). Unless otherwise required by law, the Trustees shall not be required to give bond, surety or security in any jurisdiction for the performance of any duties or obligations hereunder. The Trustees shall not be required to devote their entire time to the investments or business or affairs of the Trust.

9.7 Fees and Expenses

As part of the expenses of the Trust, the Trustees may pay or cause to be paid out of the Trust Assets, reasonable fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the administration and management of the Trust, including (without limitation) fees of auditors, accountants, lawyers, appraisers and other agents, consultants and professional advisors employed by or on behalf of the Trust and the cost of reporting or giving notices to Trust Unitholders. All costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the Trustees on behalf of the Trust shall be payable out of the Trust Assets.

9.8 Limitations on Liability of Trustees

(a) Subject to Section 9.6, none of the Trustees nor the officers or any agent of the Trust shall be liable to any Trust Unitholder for any action taken in good faith in reliance on any documents that are, prima facie, properly executed; for any depreciation of, or loss to, the Trust incurred by reason of the sale of any security; for the loss or disposition of monies or securities; or for any other action or failure to act, including, without limitation, the failure to compel in any way any former Trustee to redress any breach of trust or any failure by the Company to perform obligations or pay monies owed to the Trust, except for a breach of the standard of care, diligence and skill as set out in Section 9.6 or a breach of Section 9.4. If the Trustees have retained an appropriate expert or advisor with respect to any matter connected with their duties under this Declaration of Trust, the Trustees may act or refuse to act based on the advice of such expert or advisor and, notwithstanding any provision of this Declaration of Trust, including, without limitation, the standard of care, diligence and skill set out in Section 9.6 hereof, the Trustees shall not be liable for any action or refusal to act based on the advice of any such expert or advisor which it is reasonable to conclude is within the expertise of such expert or advisor to give.

(b) Subject to Section 9.6, none of the Trustees nor any officer or agent thereof shall be subject to any liability whatsoever in tort, contract or otherwise, in connection with the Trust Assets or the affairs of the Trust, including, without limitation, in respect of any loss or diminution in value of any Trust Assets, to the Trust or to the Trust Unitholders or to any other person for anything done or permitted to be done by the Trustees. The Trustees shall not be subject to any personal liability for any debts, liabilities, obligations, claims, demands, judgments, costs, charges or expenses against or with respect to the Trust arising out of anything done or permitted or omitted to be done in respect of the execution of the duties of the office of Trustee for or in respect to the affairs of the Trust. No property or assets of the Trustees, owned in their personal capacity or otherwise, will be subject to any levy, execution or other enforcement procedure with regard to any obligations under this Declaration of Trust or under any other related agreements. No recourse may be had or taken, directly or indirectly, against the Trustees in their personal capacity or against any incorporator shareholder, director, officer, employee or agent of the Trustees or any successor of the Trustees. The Trust shall be solely liable therefor and resort shall be had solely to the Trust Assets for payment or performance thereof.

9.9 Indemnification of Trustees

Each Trustee, each former Trustee, each officer of the Trust and each former officer of the Trust shall be entitled to be and shall be indemnified and reimbursed out of the Trust Assets in respect of any and all taxes, penalties or interest in respect of unpaid taxes or other governmental charges imposed upon the Trustee or officer in consequence of its performance of its duties hereunder and in respect of any and all costs, charges and expenses, including amounts paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which the Trustee, former Trustee, officer or former officer is made a party or against whom any such claim, action or proceeding is commenced or proposed by reason of being or having been a Trustee or officer of the Trust or, at the request of the Trust, a director, officer or trustee of the Company or any of its affiliates; provided that a Trustee, former Trustee, officer or former officer shall not be indemnified out of the Trust Assets in respect of unpaid taxes or other governmental charges or in respect of such costs, charges and expenses that arise out of or as a result or in the course of his or her failure to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust Unitholders (or, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, where the Trustees did not have reasonable grounds for believing that their conduct was lawful). A Trustee, former Trustee, officer or former officer shall not be entitled to satisfy any right of indemnity or reimbursement granted herein, or otherwise existing under law, except out of the Trust Assets, and no Trust Unitholder or other Trustee or officer shall be personally liable to any person with respect to any claim for such indemnity or reimbursement as aforesaid.

9.10 Contractual Obligations of Trust

In respect of any obligations or liabilities being incurred by the Trust or the Trustees on behalf of the Trust, the Trustees and the Trust shall make all reasonable efforts to include as a specific term of such obligations or liabilities a contractual provision to the effect that neither the Trust Unitholders nor the Trustees shall have any personal liability or obligations in respect thereof. The omission of such statement from any such document or instrument shall not render the Trustees or the Trust Unitholders liable to any person, nor shall the Trustees or the Trust Unitholders be liable for such omission nor shall it invalidate such document or instrument. If, notwithstanding this provision, the Trustees or any Trust Unitholder shall be held liable to any person by reason of the omission of such statement from any such agreement, undertaking or obligation, such Trustee or Trust Unitholder shall be entitled to indemnity and reimbursement out of the Trust Assets to the full extent of such liability.

9.11 Conflicts of Interest

(a) If a Trustee or an officer of the Trust is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Trustee, or is a director or officer or employee of, or has a material interest in, any person who is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Trust, such Trustee or officer of the Trust, as the case may be, shall disclose in writing to the Trustees or request to have entered in the minutes of meetings of Trustees the nature and extent of such interest.

(b) The disclosure required pursuant to Subsection 9.11(a) in the case of a Trustee or officer shall be made:

(i) at the meeting of Trustees at which a proposed contract or transaction is first considered;

(ii) if the Trustee or officer was not at the time of the meeting referred to in Subsection 9.11(a) interested in a proposed contract or transaction, at the first such meeting after he or she becomes so interested;

(iii) if the Trustee or officer becomes interested after a contract is made or a transaction is entered into, at the first meeting after he or she becomes so interested; or

(iv) if an individual who is interested in a contract or transaction later becomes a Trustee or officer, at the first such meeting of Trustees after he or she assumes that capacity.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection 9.11(a) where this Section applies to any individual in respect of a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction that, in the ordinary course of the business of the Fund, would not require approval by the Trustees or the Unitholders, such individual shall disclose in writing to the Trustees or request to have entered in the minutes of meetings of Trustees the nature and extent of his or her interest forthwith after that individual becomes aware of the contract or transaction or proposed contract or transaction.

(d) A Trustee required to make disclosure under Subsection 9.11(a) shall not vote on any resolution to approve the contract or transaction unless the contract or transaction is:

(i) one relating primarily to his or her remuneration as a Trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Fund or the Company;

(ii) one for indemnity under Section 9.9 hereof or for the purchase of liability insurance; or

(e) For the purposes of this Section 9.11, a general notice to the Trustees by a Trustee or an officer of the Fund disclosing that he or she is a director, officer or employee of or has a material interest in a person and is to be regarded as interested in any contract made or any transaction entered into with that person, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to any contract so made or transaction so entered into.

(f) Where a contract is made or a transaction is entered into between the Trust and any one or more of its Trustees or officers, or between the Trust and another person of which a Trustee or officer of the Trust is a director or officer or in which he or she has a material interest:

(i) the Trustee or officer, as applicable, is not accountable to the Trust or to the Unitholders for any profit or gain realized from the contract or transaction; and

(ii) the contract or transaction is not invalid, void or voidable by reason only of that relationship or by reason only that the Trustee is present at or is counted to determine the presence of a quorum at the meeting of Trustees or committee of Trustees that authorized the contract or transaction, if the Trustee disclosed his or her interest in accordance with this Section 9.11, the Trustees approved such contract or transaction and the contract or transaction was reasonable and fair to the Trust at the time it was so approved.

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Section, but without limiting the effect of Subsection 9.11(f), a Trustee or officer of the Trust, acting honestly and in good faith, is not accountable to the Trust or to the Unitholders for any profit or gain realized from any contract or transaction for which disclosure is required under Subsection 9.11(a) and the contract or transaction is not invalid, void, or voidable by reason only of holding the office of Trustee or officer, or of the Trustee's or officer's interest where:

(i) the contract or transaction is confirmed or approved by a Special Resolution at a meeting of Unitholders duly called for that purpose;

(ii) the nature and extent of the Trustee's or officer's interest in the contract or transaction is disclosed in reasonable detail in the notice calling the meeting or in any information circular required to be provided by this Declaration of Trust; and

(iii) the contract or transaction was reasonable and fair to the Trust when it was approved or confirmed.

(h) Subject to Subsections 9.11(f) and 9.11(g), where any Trustee or officer of the Trust fails to disclose his or her interest in a material contract or transaction in accordance with this Declaration of Trust or otherwise fails to comply with this Section, the Trustees or any Unitholder, in addition to exercising any other rights or remedies in connection with such failure exercisable at law or in equity, may apply to a court for an order setting aside the contract or transaction or directing that the Trustee or officer account to the Trust for any profit or gain realized in respect thereof or do both those things.

(i) Subject to Subsection 9.11(a), each Trustee, in his or her personal capacity or any other capacity, may buy, sell, lend upon and deal in securities of the Trust and generally may contract and enter into any transactions with the Trust without being liable to account for any profit made thereby and such contract or transaction shall be neither void nor voidable.

9.12 Conditions Precedent

The obligation of the Trustees to commence or continue any act, action, suit or proceeding or to represent the Trust in any action, suit or proceeding shall be conditional upon sufficient funds being available to the Trustees from the Trust Assets to commence or continue such act, action, suit or proceeding or to represent the Trust in any action, suit or proceeding and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustees to protect and hold harmless the Trustees against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred therein and any loss and damage it may suffer by reason thereof. None of the provisions contained in this Declaration of Trust shall require the Trustees to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of their duties or in the exercise of any of their rights or powers unless they are given an indemnity and funding satisfactory to the Trustees, acting reasonably.

9.13 Reliance Upon Trustees and Officers

Any person dealing with the Trust in respect of any matters pertaining to the Trust Assets and any right, title or interest therein or to the Trust or to securities of the Trust shall be entitled to rely on a certificate, statutory declaration or resolution executed or certified by the Trustees or any officer of the Trust appointed by the Trustees as to the capacity, power and authority of the Trustees or any other person to act for and on behalf and in the name of the Trust. No person dealing with the Trustees or officers of the Trust shall be bound to see the application of any funds or property passing into the hands or control of the Trustees or officers of the Trust. The receipt of the Trustees or officers of the Trust for monies or other consideration shall be binding upon the Trust.

COMMITTEES OF TRUSTEES

10.1 General

Except as prohibited by law, the Trustees may appoint from among their number a committee of Trustees and may delegate to such committee any of the powers of the Trustees. The Trustees shall have the power to appoint, employ or contract with any person for any matter relating to the Trust or its assets or affairs. For greater certainty, the Trustees may delegate to any person (including, without limitation any one or more officers of the Trust) the power to execute any document or enter into any agreement on behalf of the Trust or exercise any discretion or make any amendment in relation thereto. The Trustees may grant or delegate such authority to an advisor or to a committee of Trustees as the Trustees may in their sole discretion deem necessary or desirable without regard to whether such authority is normally granted or delegated by trustees. The Trustees shall have the power to determine the term and compensation of an advisor or any other person whom they may employ or with whom they may contract. The Trustees shall have the power to grant powers of attorney as required.

10.2 Audit Committee

The Trustees shall appoint an audit committee (the "Audit Committee") to consist of at least three Trustees, all of whom shall be financially literate. The Audit Committee shall:

(i) review the Trust's accounting and financial reporting practices and procedures;

(ii) review the Trust's internal accounting controls and procedures;

(iii) review the quality and integrity of its financial standards; and

(iv) be responsible for the selection of potential independent auditors to be appointed by vote of the Unitholders.

The Auditors are entitled to receive notice of every meeting of the Audit Committee and, at the expense of the Trust, to attend and be heard thereat and, if so requested by a member of the Audit Committee, shall attend any meeting of the Audit Committee held during the term of office of the Auditors. Questions arising at any meeting of the Audit Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. Decisions may be taken by written consent signed by all of the members of the Audit Committee. The Auditors or a member of the Audit Committee may call a meeting of the Audit Committee on not less than 48 hours' notice.

10.3 Governance Committee

The Trustees shall appoint a governance committee (the "Governance Committee") to consist of at least three Trustees. The duties of the Governance Committee will be to develop the Trust's approach to governance issues, filling vacancies among the Trustees (when necessary) and periodically reviewing the composition and effectiveness of the Trustees. In addition, the duties of the Governance Committee will be to:

(i) articulate the legal obligations of the Trust, its affiliates and their respective Trustees, directors, managers, officers and employees with respect to confidential corporate information;

(ii) identify spokespersons of the Trust who are the only persons authorized to communicate with third parties such as analysts, media and investors;

(iii) provide guidelines on the disclosure of forward looking information;

(iv) require advance review by senior management of any disclosure of financial information; and

(v) establish "black-out" periods immediately prior to and following the disclosure of quarterly and annual financial results and immediately prior to the disclosure of certain material changes during which the Trust, its affiliates and their respective Trustees, managers, directors, officers, employees and consultants may not purchase or sell Units.

Any member of the Governance Committee may call a meeting of the Governance Committee upon not less than 48 hours' notice. Where for any reason a member of the Governance Committee is disqualified from voting on or participating in a decision, any other independent and disinterested Trustee not already a member of the Governance Committee may be designated by the Trustees to act as an alternative. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Governance Committee, the Trustees may consider and approve any matter that the Governance Committee has the authority to consider or approve.

AMENDMENT

11.1 Amendment

The provisions of this Declaration of Trust, except where specifically provided otherwise, may only be amended by the Trustees with the consent of the Trust Unitholders by Special Resolution; provided that the provisions of this Declaration of Trust may be amended by the Trustees at any time and from time to time without the consent, approval or ratification of the Trust Unitholders or any other person:

(a) prior to the Closing of the Offering; and

(b) at any time for the purpose of:

(i) ensuring continuing compliance with applicable laws (including the Tax Act), regulations, requirements or policies of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Trustees or the Trust (including ensuring that the Trust continues to qualify as a "mutual fund trust" and the Trust Units do not constitute "foreign property", each within the meaning of the Tax Act);

(ii) making amendments which, in the opinion of Counsel, provide additional protection or added benefits for Trust Unitholders;

(iii) removing any conflicts or inconsistencies in this Declaration of Trust or making minor changes or corrections, including the correction or rectification of any ambiguities, defective provisions, errors, mistakes or omissions, which are, in the opinion of the Trustees, necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Trust Unitholders; or

(iv) making amendments which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are necessary or desirable as a result of changes in taxation laws or policies of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Trustees or the Trust, but, notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment shall be adopted which causes (A) the Trust to fail to qualify as a "unit trust" or as a "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Tax Act or (B) the Trust Units to constitute "foreign property" for purposes of the Tax Act, and no such amendment shall modify the right to one vote per Trust Unit or reduce the fractional undivided interest in the Trust Assets represented by any Trust Unit without the consent of the holder of such Trust Unit and no amendment shall reduce the percentage of votes required to be cast at a meeting of the Trust Unitholders for the purpose of this Section 11.1, without the consent of the holders of all of the Trust Units then outstanding.

11.2 Notification of Amendment

As soon as shall be practicable after the making of any amendment pursuant to this Article 11, the Trustees shall furnish written notification of the substance of such amendment to each Trust Unitholder.

ARTICLE 12
MEETINGS OF TRUST UNITHOLDERS

12.1 Annual and Special Meetings of Trust Unitholders

Annual meetings of the Trust Unitholders shall be called, commencing no later than June 30, 2005, on a day on or before June 30 in each year, at a time and at a place in Canada set by the Trustees. The business transacted at such meetings shall include the presentation of the audited financial statements of the Trust for the immediately preceding fiscal year, the appointment of the Trustees for the ensuing year to be elected by Trust Unitholders in accordance with Article 8, the appointment of Auditors and the transaction of such other business as Trust Unitholders may be entitled to vote upon as hereinafter provided in this Article 12 or as the Trustees may determine. Special meetings of the Trust Unitholders may be called at any time by the Trustees and shall be called by the Trustees upon a written request of Trust Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 5% of the Trust Units then outstanding, such request specifying in reasonable detail the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting. The chairperson of any annual or special meeting shall be the Chairperson of the Trustees or any other Trustee specified by resolutions of the Trustees or, in the absence of any Trustee, any person appointed as chairperson of the meeting by the Trust Unitholders present. The Trustees, the officers of the Trust, the Auditors and any other person approved by the Trustees, the chairperson of the meeting or by resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast by Trust Unitholders represented at the meeting may attend meetings of the Trust Unitholders.

12.2 Notice of Meetings

Notice of all meetings of Trust Unitholders shall be given by unregistered mail, postage prepaid, addressed to each Trust Unitholder at his or her last address on the books of the Trust, mailed at least 21 days and not more than 50 days before the meeting. Such notice shall specify the time when, and the place where, such meeting is to be held and shall specify the nature of the business to be transacted at such meeting in sufficient detail to permit a Trust Unitholder to form a reasoned judgment thereon, together with the text of any proposed resolution, at the time of mailing of the notice, proposed to be passed. Any adjourned meeting, other than a meeting adjourned for lack of a quorum under Subsection 12.6(b), may be held as adjourned without further notice. The accidental omission to give notice or the non-receipt of such notice by a Trust Unitholder shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a meeting of Trust Unitholders may be held at any time without notice if all the Trust Unitholders are present or represented thereat or those not so present or represented have waived notice. Any Trust Unitholder (or a duly appointed proxy of a Trust Unitholder) may waive any notice required to be given under the provisions of this section, and such waiver, whether given before or after the meeting, shall cure any default in the giving of such notice to such Trust Unitholder.

12.3 Quorum

At any meeting of the Trust Unitholders, subject as hereinafter provided, a quorum shall consist of two or more individuals present in person either holding personally or representing as proxies not less in aggregate than 10% of the votes attached to all outstanding Trust Units. In the event of such quorum not being present at the appointed place on the date for which the meeting is called within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the holding of such meeting, the meeting, if called by request of Trust Unitholders, shall be terminated and, if otherwise called, shall stand adjourned to such day being not less than 14 days later and to such place and time as may be appointed by the chairperson of the meeting. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present, the Trust Unitholders present either personally or by proxy shall form a quorum and any business may be brought before, or dealt with at, such an adjourned meeting which might have been brought before, or dealt with at, the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same.

12.4 Voting Rights of Trust Unitholders

Only Trust Unitholders of record shall be entitled to vote and each Trust Unit shall entitle the holder or holders of that Trust Unit to one vote on a poll vote at any meeting of Trust Unitholders. Every question submitted to a meeting, other than a Special Resolution, shall, unless a poll vote is demanded, be decided by a show of hands vote, on which every person present and entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote. At any meeting of Trust Unitholders, any holder of Trust Units entitled to vote thereat may vote by proxy and a proxy need not be a Trust Unitholder, provided that no proxy shall be voted at any meeting unless it shall have been received by the Transfer Agent for verification at least 48 hours prior to the commencement of such meeting. When any Trust Unit is held jointly by several persons, any one of them may vote at any meeting in person or by proxy in respect of such Trust Unit, but if more than one of them shall be present at such meeting in person or by proxy and such joint owners or their proxies so present disagree as to any vote to be cast, such vote purporting to be executed by or on behalf of a Trust Unitholder shall be deemed valid unless challenged at or prior to its exercise and the burden of proving invalidity shall rest on the challenger.

12.5 Resolutions Binding the Trustees

Trust Unitholders shall be entitled to pass resolutions that will bind the Trustees only with respect to the following matters:

(a) the election or removal of one or more Trustees of the Trust (except as provided in Article 8);

(b) the election or removal of nominees of the Trust to serve as directors of the Company (except for filling casual vacancies and except as provided in Article 8);

(c) the appointment or removal of the Auditors of the Trust as provided in Article 8;

(d) the appointment of an inspector to investigate the performance by the Trustees in respect of their respective responsibilities and duties in respect of the Trust;

(e) the approval of amendments of this Declaration of Trust as provided in Article 8;

(f) the termination of the Trust;

(g) the sale of all or substantially all of the Trust Assets;

(h) the exercise of certain voting rights attached to the securities of the Company;

(i) the termination of the Book-Entry System;

(j) the dissolution of the Trust prior to the end of its term; and

(k) any other matters required by securities law, stock exchange rules or other laws or regulations to be submitted to Trust Unitholders for their approval.

Except with respect to the above matters set out in this Section 12.5, no action taken by the Trust Unitholders or any resolution of the Trust Unitholders at any meeting shall in any way bind the Trustees. Any action taken or resolution passed in respect of any matter at a meeting of Trust Unitholders shall be by Special Resolution, unless the contrary is otherwise expressly provided under any specific provision of this Declaration of Trust and except for the matters set out in Subsections 12.5(a), 12.5(b), 12.5(c), 12.5(h) and, if applicable, 12.5(k) above which matters may be dealt with by a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast by Trust Unitholders represented at the meeting.

12.6 Meaning of "Special Resolution"

(a) The expression "Special Resolution" when used in this Declaration of Trust means a resolution proposed to be passed as a special resolution at a meeting of Trust Unitholders (including an adjourned meeting) duly convened for that purpose and held in accordance with the provisions of this Article at which two or more individuals present in person either holding personally or representing as proxies not less in aggregate than 10% of the number of votes attached to Trust Units then outstanding and passed by the affirmative votes of the holders of more than 66 2/3% of the Trust Units represented at the meeting and voted on a poll upon such resolution.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 12.3, if at any meeting at which a Special Resolution is proposed to be passed the holders of 10% of the aggregate number of votes attached to Trust Units outstanding are not present in person or by proxy within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, then the meeting, if convened by or on the requisition of Trust Unitholders, shall be dissolved; but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such date, being not less than 21 nor more than 60 days later and to such place and time as may be appointed by the chairperson of the meeting. Not less than 10 days prior notice shall be given of the time and place of such adjourned meeting in the manner provided in Section 12.2. Such notice shall state that at the adjourned meeting the Trust Unitholders present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum, but it shall not be necessary to set forth the purposes for which the meeting was originally called or any other particulars. At the adjourned meeting, the Trust Unitholders present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution proposed at such adjourned meeting and passed by the requisite vote as provided in Subsection 12.6(a) shall be a Special Resolution within the meaning of this Declaration of Trust, notwithstanding that the holders of less than 10% of the aggregate number of votes attached to Trust Units then outstanding are present in person or by proxy at such adjourned meeting.

(c) Votes on a Special Resolution shall always be given on a poll and no demand for a poll on a Special Resolution shall be necessary.

12.7 Meaning of "Outstanding"

Every Trust Unit issued, certified and delivered hereunder shall be deemed to be outstanding until it shall be cancelled or delivered to the Trustees or Transfer Agent for cancellation, provided that:

(a) when a new certificate has been issued in substitution for a Trust Unit Certificate which has been lost, stolen, mutilated or destroyed, only one of such Trust Unit Certificates shall be counted for the purposes of determining the number of Trust Units outstanding;

(b) for the purpose of any provision of this Declaration of Trust entitling holders of outstanding Trust Units to vote, sign consents, requisitions or other instruments or take any action under this Declaration of Trust, Trust Units owned directly or indirectly, legally or equitably, by the Trust, the Company or any of its affiliates shall be disregarded, except that:

(i) for the purpose of determining whether the Trustees shall be protected in relying on any such vote, consent, requisition or other instrument or action, only the Trust Units which the Trustees know are so owned shall be so disregarded; and

(ii) Trust Units so owned which have been pledged in good faith other than to the Trust, the Company or any of its affiliates shall not be so disregarded if the pledgee shall establish to the satisfaction of the Trustees the pledgee's right to vote such Trust Units in his or her discretion free from the control of the Trust, the Company or any of its affiliates; and

(c) for the purposes of Subsection 12.7(b), the Transfer Agent shall provide a certificate which will state the number of Trust Units and the certificate numbers of certificates, if certificates are issued, held by the Trust, the Company or any of its affiliates. The Trustees shall be entitled to rely on such certificate in order to disregard the votes of any of the parties mentioned above.

12.8 Record Date for Voting

For the purpose of determining the Trust Unitholders who are entitled to receive notice of and to vote or act at any meeting or any adjournment thereof, the Trustees may fix a date not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the date of any meeting of Trust Unitholders as a record date for the determination of Trust Unitholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof and any Trust Unitholder who was a Trust Unitholder at the time so fixed shall be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof even though the Trust Unitholder has since that time disposed of his or her Trust Units. No Trust Unitholder becoming such after that time shall be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. In the event that the Trustees do not fix a record date for any meeting of Trust Unitholders, the record date for such meeting shall be the date upon which notice of the meeting is given as provided under Section 12.2.

12.9 Appointment of Inspector

The Trustees shall call a meeting of Trust Unitholders upon the written request of Trust Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 5% of the votes attached to the Trust Units then outstanding for the purpose of considering the appointment of an inspector to investigate the performance by the Trustees of their responsibilities and duties in respect of the Trust. If the Trustees do not call for a meeting within 21 days after receiving this written request, any Trust Unitholder who signed the request may call such meeting. An inspector may be appointed for such purpose, at the expense of the Trust, at such meeting by a resolution approved by a majority of the votes cast at the meeting. The inspector shall have such powers not inconsistent herewith as may be conferred upon him or her at the meeting when he or she is appointed, but in all events shall not have any powers to act in any capacity as the Trustees hereunder or in place or in stead of the Trustees in any manner hereunder.

12.10 Resolutions in Writing

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Declaration of Trust, a resolution in writing executed by Trust Unitholders holding more than 66 2/3% of the votes attached to the outstanding Trust Units at any time shall be as valid and binding for all purposes of this Declaration of Trust as if such Trust Unitholders had exercised at that time all of the voting rights to which they were then entitled under Section 12.5 or 12.6 in favour of such resolution at a meeting of Trust Unitholders duly called for the purpose.

ARTICLE 13
CERTIFICATES, REGISTRATION AND TRANSFER OF TRUST UNITS

13.1 Nature of Trust Units

(a) The provisions of this Article 13 shall not in any way alter the nature of Trust Units or the relationships of a Trust Unitholder to the Trustees and of one Trust Unitholder to another but are intended only to facilitate the issuance of certificates evidencing the ownership of Trust Units if desirable to issue them to Trust Unitholders and the recording of all transactions in respect of Trust Units and Trust Unit Certificates whether by the Trust, securities dealers, stock exchanges, transfer agents, registrars or other persons. The Trust Units shall be issued in the form of the Trust Unit Certificate. At the option of the Trustees, a global Trust Unit Certificate (a "Global Trust Unit Certificate") may be issued in the name of and deposited by the Transfer Agent with, or on behalf of, CDS or a successor (collectively, the "Depository"), as custodian of such Global Trust Unit Certificate and registered by the Transfer Agent in the name of the Depository or its nominee. No purchaser of Trust Units represented in part by a Global Trust Unit Certificate will be entitled to a certificate or other instrument from the Trust or the Depository evidencing that purchaser's ownership thereof except in the circumstances where the Depository resigns or is removed from its responsibilities as depository and the Trust is unable or does not wish to locate a qualified successor. Beneficial interests in a Global Trust Unit Certificate will be represented only through the Book-Entry System. Transfers of Trust Units between CDS Participants shall occur in accordance with the Depository's rules and procedures.

(b) All references herein to actions by, notices given or payments made to Trust Unitholders shall, where such Trust Units are held through the Depository, refer to actions taken by, or notices given or payments made to, the Depository upon instruction from the CDS Participants in accordance with the Depository's rules and procedures. For the purposes of any provision hereof requiring or permitting actions with the consent of or at the direction of Trust Unitholders evidencing a specified percentage of the aggregate Trust Units outstanding, such direction or consent may be given by Trust Unitholders acting through the Depository and the CDS Participants owning Trust Units evidencing the requisite percentage of the Trust Units. The rights of a Trust Unitholder whose Trust Units are held through the Depository shall be exercised only through the Depository and the CDS Participants and shall be limited to those established by law and agreements between such Trust Unitholders and the Depository and/or the CDS Participants or upon instruction from the CDS Participants. Each of the Transfer Agent and the Trustees may deal with the Depository for all purposes (including the making of payments) as the authorized representative of the respective Trust Unitholders and such dealing with the Depository shall constitute satisfaction or performance, as applicable, towards their respective obligations hereunder.

(c) For so long as Trust Units are held through the Depository, if any notice or other communication is required to be given to Trust Unitholders, the Trustees and the Transfer Agent will give all such notices and communications to the Depository.

(d) If the Depository resigns or is removed from its responsibilities as depository and the Trustees are unable or do not wish to locate a qualified successor, the Depository shall surrender the Global Trust Unit Certificate to the Transfer Agent with instructions from the Depository for registration of Trust Units in the name and in the amounts specified by the Depository and the Trust shall issue and the Trustees and Transfer Agent shall execute and deliver the aggregate number of Trust Units then outstanding in the form of definitive Trust Unit Certificates representing such Trust Units.

13.2 Trust Unit Certificates

(a) Trust Unit Certificates shall, subject to the provisions hereof, be in such form as is authorized from time to time by the Trustees.

(b) If issued, Trust Unit Certificates are issuable only in fully registered form.

(c) The definitive form of the Trust Unit Certificates shall:

(i) be in the English language;

(ii) be dated as of the date of issue thereof;

(iii) contain the CUSIP number (if any) for the Trust Units; and

(iv) contain such distinguishing letters and numbers as the Trustees shall prescribe.

(d) In the event that the Trust Unit Certificate is translated into the French language and any provision of the Trust Unit Certificates in the French language shall be susceptible of an interpretation different from the equivalent provision in the English language, the interpretation of such provision in the English language shall be determinative.

(e) Each Trust Unit Certificate shall be signed on behalf of the Trustees and the Transfer Agent of such Trust Unit. The signature of the Trustees required to appear on such certificate may be printed, lithographed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and, in such event, certificates so signed are as valid as if they had been signed manually. Any Trust Unit Certificate which has one manual signature as hereinbefore provided shall be valid notwithstanding that one or more of the persons whose signature is printed, lithographed or mechanically reproduced no longer holds office at the date of issuance of such certificate.

13.3 Contents of Trust Unit Certificates

(a) Until otherwise determined by the Trustees, each Trust Unit Certificate shall legibly set forth on the face thereof, inter alia, the following:

(i) the name of the Trust and the words "A trust created under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada, pursuant to a declaration of trust dated as of February 16, 2004. as the same may be amended and restated from time to time" or words of like effect;

(ii) the name of the person to whom the Trust Unit Certificate is issued as Trust Unitholder;

(iii) the number, class and, if any, series of Trust Units represented thereby and whether or not the Trust Units represented thereby are fully paid;

(iv) that the Trust Units represented thereby are transferable;

(v) the words "The Trust Units represented by this certificate are issued upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Declaration of Trust, which Declaration of Trust is binding upon all holders of Trust Units and, by acceptance of this certificate, the holder assents to the terms and conditions of the Declaration of Trust. A copy of the Declaration of Trust pursuant to which this certificate and the Trust Units represented thereby are issued may be obtained by a Trust Unitholder on demand and without fee from the head office of the Trust" or words of like effect; and

(vi) the words "For information as to personal liability of a Trust Unitholder, see the reverse side of this certificate" or words of like effect.

(b) Until otherwise determined by the Trustees, each such certificate shall legibly set forth on the face or the reverse side thereof, inter alia, the following:

(i) "The Declaration of Trust provides that no Trust Unitholder shall be subject to any personal liability whatsoever, in tort, contract or otherwise, to any person in connection with the assets of the Trust or the obligations or the affairs of the Trust and all such persons shall look solely to the assets of the Trust for satisfaction of claims of any nature arising out of or in connection therewith and the assets of the Trust only shall be subject to levy or execution", or words of like effect; and

(ii) appropriate forms of notice of exercise of the right of redemption and of powers of attorney for transferring Trust Units.

The Trust Unit Certificates may be engraved, printed or lithographed, or partly in one form and partly in another, as the Trustees may determine.

13.4 Register of Trust Unitholders

A register may be kept at the principal stock transfer office in Toronto, Ontario, of the Transfer Agent, which register, if maintained, shall contain the names and addresses of the Trust Unitholders, the respective numbers of Trust Units held by them, the certificate numbers of certificates representing such Trust Units and a record of all transfers and redemptions thereof. Branch transfer registers shall be maintained at such other offices of the Transfer Agent as the Trustees may from time to time designate. Only Trust Unitholders whose certificates are so recorded shall be entitled to receive distributions or to exercise or enjoy the rights of Trust Unitholders hereunder. The Trustees shall have the right to treat the person registered as a Trust Unitholder on the register of the Trust as the owner of such Trust Units for all purposes, including, without limitation, payment of any distribution, giving notice to Trust Unitholders and determining the right to attend and vote at meetings of Trust Unitholders.

13.5 Limitation of Ownership by Non-Residents

(a) At no time may more than 49% of the Trust Units (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis) be held for the benefit of Non-residents (the "non-resident limitation").

(b) At no time may more than 100 U.S. persons (using the principles for counting set forth in Section 3(c)(1) of the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act")) be the beneficial owners of Trust Units, nor may any U.S. person be the beneficial owner of more than 10% of the Trust Units (the "U.S. persons limitation").

(c) If the Trustees become aware that either limitation on ownership set forth in Subsection 13.5(a) or 13.5(b) is, or may be, contravened or that such a situation is imminent, the Transfer Agent or registrar shall make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Trust Units from, or issue or register a transfer of Trust Units to, a person unless the person provides a declaration in form and content satisfactory to the Trustees that the person is not a Non-resident or a U.S. person, as applicable, and does not hold such Trust Units for the benefit of Non-residents or U.S. persons, as applicable. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees determine that: (i) more than 49% of the Trust Units (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis) are held for the benefit of Non-residents; or (ii) that more than 100 U.S. persons are beneficial owners of Trust Units; then the Trustees may send a notice to Non-residents or U.S. holders, as applicable, and holders of Trust Units for the benefit of Non-residents or U.S. holders, as applicable, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustees may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Trust Units or a portion thereof within a specified period not to exceed 60 days. If the Trust Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Trust Units or provided the Trustees with satisfactory evidence within such period that they are not Non-residents or U.S. persons, as applicable, and do not hold such Trust Units for the benefit of Non-residents or U.S. persons, as applicable, the Trustees may on behalf of such Trust Unitholders sell such Trust Units and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Trust Units (other than the right to receive proceeds from the sale). Upon such sale, the affected holders shall cease to be holders of Trust Units and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates representing such Trust Units.

(d) Subject to Section 9.6, unless and until the Trustees shall have been required to do so under the terms hereof, the Trustees shall not be bound to do or take any proceeding or action with respect to this Section 13.5 by virtue of the powers conferred on it hereby. The Trustees may require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of Trust Units are resident or declarations from holders of Trust Units as to whether such Trust Units are held for the benefit of Non-residents or U.S. persons. The Trustees shall have the sole right and authority to make any determination required or contemplated under this Section 13.5. The Trustees shall make all determinations necessary for the administration of the provisions of this Section 13.5 and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the Trustees consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a contravention of the non-resident or U.S. persons limitation has occurred or will occur, the Trustees shall make a determination with respect to the matter. Any such determination shall be conclusive, final and binding except to the extent modified by any subsequent determination by the Trustees. In any situation where it is unclear whether Trust Units are held for the benefit of Non-Residents or U.S. persons, the Trustees may exercise their discretion in determining whether such Trust Units are or are not so held, and any such exercise by them of their discretion shall be binding for the purposes of this Section 13.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees may delegate, in whole or in part, their power to make a determination in this respect to any officer of the Trust.

13.6 Restriction on Ownership by ERISA Plans

(a) Definitions. The following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

"Beneficial Ownership," when used with respect to ownership of Trust Units by any ERISA Plan, shall mean all Trust Units that are owned by such ERISA Plan. "Beneficially Own," "Beneficially Owned," and "Beneficially Owning" shall have the respective, corresponding meanings.

"Correction Trust" shall mean a trust established pursuant to Subsection 13.6(e)(iv).

"Correction Trustee" shall mean the trustee of a Correction Trust.

"ERISA Plan" shall mean any employee benefit plan that is subject to the fiduciary and prohibited transaction provisions of Part 4 of Subtitle B of Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended and/or any plan that is subject to Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, any trust holding assets of such a plan, and any entity that is deemed to hold the assets of such a plan pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.3-101.

"Non-Transfer Event" shall mean an event, other than a purported Transfer, that would cause any ERISA Plan to Beneficially Own any Trust Units.

"Prohibited Owner" shall mean, with respect to any purported Transfer or Non-Transfer Event, any Person who is prevented from becoming or remaining the owner of record title to Trust Units by the provisions of Subsection 13.6(b).

"Transfer" (as a noun) shall mean any sale, transfer, gift, assignment, devise or other disposition of shares (or of Beneficial Ownership of shares) of Trust Units, whether voluntary or involuntary, whether of record, constructively or beneficially, and whether by operation of law or otherwise. "Transfer" (as a verb) shall have the correlative meaning.

(b) Restriction on Ownership and Transfer. No ERISA Plan shall Beneficially Own any Trust Units. Any purported Transfer (whether or not the result of a transaction entered into through the facilities of the Toronto Stock Exchange or any other national securities exchange or automated quotation system) that, if effective, would result in any ERISA Plan Beneficially Owning any Trust Units shall be void ab initio, and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such Trust Units. Each transferee of a Transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Trust Units shall be deemed to represent to the Fund that such transferee is not an ERISA Plan.

(c) Owners Required to Provide Information. Each Person who is a Beneficial Owner of Trust Units and each Person (including the Trust Unitholder of record) who is holding Trust Units for a Beneficial Owner shall, within 30 days of receiving a written request from the Fund therefor, provide to the Fund a written statement or affidavit stating such information as the Fund may request in order to determine whether such Person is an ERISA Plan or not.

(d) Stock Exchange Transactions. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Declaration of Trust to the contrary, nothing in this Declaration of Trust shall preclude the settlement of any transaction entered into through the facilities of the Toronto Stock Exchange or any other national securities exchange or any other automated quotation system.

(e) Sale of Trust Units Held by ERISA Plans.

(i) If, notwithstanding Subsection 13.2(b), there is a purported Transfer or Non-Transfer Event such that any ERISA Plan would Beneficially Own any Trust Units, then (i) the purported transferee shall be deemed to be a Prohibited Owner and shall acquire no right or interest (or, in the case of a Non-Transfer Event, the Person holding record title to the Trust Units Beneficially Owned by such Beneficial Owner shall cease to own any right or interest) in the Trust Units, (ii) such Trust Units shall automatically be transferred to a Correction Trust in accordance with paragraph e(iv), (iii) the Prohibited Owner shall submit the certificates representing such Trust Units to the Fund, accompanied by all requisite and duly executed assignments of transfer thereof, for registration in the name of the Correction Trustee of the Correction Trust (and such Prohibited Owner shall take any and all actions reasonably requested by the Fund to complete transfer such Trust Units to the Correction Trust), and (iv) such Trust Units shall be sold by the Correction Trustee in accordance with paragraph e(v) below. Such transfer to a Correction Trust shall be effective as of the close of trading on the Trading Day prior to the date of the purported Transfer or Non-Transfer Event, as the case may be.

(ii) Remedies for Breach. If the Fund, or its designees, shall at any time determine in good faith that a Transfer has taken place in violation of Subsection 13.6(b) or that a ERISA Plan intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire Beneficial Ownership of any Trust Units, the Fund shall take such action as it deems advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer or acquisition, including, but not limited to, refusing to give effect to such Transfer on the transfer books of the Fund or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer or acquisition, but the failure to take any such action shall not affect the transfer to a Correction Trust in accordance with paragraph (e)(i) above.

(iii) Notice of Restricted Transfer. Any ERISA Plan who acquires or attempts to acquire Trust Units in violation of Subsection 13.6(b), or any ERISA Plan who owns Trust Units that were transferred to a Correction Trust pursuant to paragraph (e)(i), shall immediately give written notice to the Fund of such event and shall provide to the Fund such other information as the Fund may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Transfer or Non-Transfer Event, as the case may be, on the Fund.

(iv) Creation of Correction Trust. Upon any purported Transfer or Non-Transfer Event in violation of Subsection 13.6(b), (i) the Company shall create, or cause to be created, a Correction Trust, and shall designate a Correction Trustee of such Correction Trust and a beneficiary of such Correction Trust (which beneficiary shall be the Company, and (ii) the Trust Units purported to be Transferred to an ERISA Plan (or held by an ERISA Plan as a result of a Non-Transfer Event) shall be automatically transferred to such Correction Trust to be held for the benefit of the Company. Any transfer to a Correction Trust shall be effective as of the close of trading on the trading day prior to the date of the purported Transfer or Non-Transfer Event that results in the transfer to the Correction Trust. The sole obligation of the Correction Trust and the Correction Trustee to the ERISA Plan that purported to be the Beneficial Owner of the Trust Units that are transferred to the Correction Trust shall be to pay to such ERISA Plan the net proceeds of the sale of such Trust Units, as described in paragraph (e)(v). In particular, such ERISA Plan shall not be deemed to be a beneficiary of the Correction Trust and the Correction Trustee shall no fiduciary duties with respect to such ERISA Plan (or its participants or beneficiaries), it being understood that the Correction Trustee is to act solely in the interest of the Company to correct a purported Transfer or non-Transfer Event that has occurred in violation of Subsection 13.6(b). The Correction Trustee shall be appointed by the Company, and the Company shall use reasonable efforts not to appoint as Correction Trustee a Person who is a "party in interest" with respect to such ERISA Plan, within the meaning of Section 3(14) of ERISA, based on such information (if any) as may be provided to the Fund or the Company by such ERISA Plan.

(v) Sale. Upon the transfer to the Correction Trust of the Trust Units, the Correction Trustee shall sell such Trust Units on whatever stock exchange the Trust Units are then traded (or, if the Trust Units are not so traded, in any commercially reasonable sale) and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Trust Units. The ERISA Plan's sole right with respect to the Trust Units and the Correction Trust shall be to receive the net proceeds of sale following surrender of the certificates representing such Trust Units.

13.7 Transfer of Trust Units

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Article 8, the Trust Units shall be fully transferable without charge as between persons, but no transfer of Trust Units shall be effective as against the Trustees or shall be in any way binding upon the Trustees until the transfer has been recorded on the register or one of the branch transfer registers maintained by the Trustees, the Trust or the Transfer Agent. No transfer of a Trust Unit shall be recognized unless such transfer is of a whole Trust Unit.

(b) Subject to the provisions of this Article 8, Trust Units shall be transferable on the register or one of the branch transfer registers only by the Trust Unitholders of record thereof or their executors, administrators or other legal representatives or by their agents or attorneys duly authorized in writing, and only upon delivery to the Trust or to the Transfer Agent of the certificate therefor, properly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of transfer or power of attorney and accompanied by all necessary transfer or other taxes imposed by law, together with such evidence of the genuineness of such endorsement, execution and authorization and other matters that may reasonably be required by the Trustees or the Transfer Agent. Upon such delivery, the transfer shall be recorded on the register or branch transfer registers and a new certificate for the Trust Units shall be issued to the transferee and a new certificate for the balance of Trust Units not transferred shall be issued to the transferor.

(c) Any person becoming entitled to any Trust Units as a consequence of the death, bankruptcy or mental incompetence of any Trust Unitholder, or otherwise by operation of law, shall be recorded as the holder of such Trust Units and shall receive a new certificate therefor only upon production of evidence satisfactory to the Trustees or the Transfer Agent and delivery of the existing certificate to the Trustees or the Transfer Agent, but until such record is made the Trust Unitholder of record shall continue to be and be deemed to be the holder of such Trust Units for all purposes whether or not the Trustees or the Transfer Agent shall have actual or other notice of such death or other event.

(d) Trust Unit Certificates representing any number of Trust Units may be exchanged without charge for Trust Unit Certificates representing an equivalent number of Trust Units in the aggregate. Any exchange of Trust Unit Certificates may be made at the offices of the Trust or the Transfer Agent where registers are maintained for Trust Unit Certificates pursuant to the provisions of this Article 8. Any Trust Unit Certificates tendered for exchange shall be surrendered to the Trustees or appropriate Transfer Agent and then shall be cancelled.

13.8 Trust Units Held Jointly or in a Fiduciary Capacity

Except as herein provided, the Trustees may treat two or more persons holding any Trust Units as joint owners of the entire interest therein unless their ownership is expressly otherwise recorded on the register of the Trust, but no entry shall be made in the register or on any certificate that any person is in any other manner entitled to any future, limited or contingent interest in any Trust Units; provided, however, that any person recorded as a Trust Unitholder may, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, be described in the register or on any certificate as a fiduciary of any kind and any customary words may be added to the description of the holder to identify the nature of such fiduciary relationship.

13.9 Performance of Trust

The Trustees, Transfer Agent or any other agent of the Trust shall not be bound to be responsible for or otherwise inquire into or ensure the performance of any trust, express, implied or constructive, or of any pledge or equity to which any of the Trust Units or any interest therein are or may be subject, or to ascertain or enquire whether any transfer of any such Trust Units or interests therein by any such Trust Unitholder or by his or her personal representatives is authorized by such trust, pledge, or equity, or to recognize any person as having any interest therein except for the person recorded as Trust Unitholder.

13.10 Lost Certificates

In the event that any certificate for Trust Units is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated, the Trustees may authorize the issuance of a new certificate for the same number of Trust Units in lieu thereof. The Trustees may in their sole discretion, before the issuance of such new certificate, require the owner of the lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, or the legal representative of the owner, to make an affidavit or statutory declaration setting forth such facts as to the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation as the Trustees may deem necessary, to surrender any mutilated certificate and shall require the applicant to supply to the Trust a "lost certificate bond" or a similar bond in such reasonable sum as the Trustees or the Transfer Agent may direct indemnifying the Trust for so doing.

13.11 Death of a Trust Unitholder

The death of a Trust Unitholder during the continuance of the Trust shall not terminate the Trust or any of the mutual or respective rights and obligations created by or arising under this Declaration of Trust nor give such Trust Unitholder's personal representatives a right to an accounting or to take any action in court or otherwise against other Trust Unitholders or the Trustees or the Trust Assets, but shall merely entitle the personal representatives of the deceased Trust Unitholder to demand and receive, pursuant to the provisions hereof, a new certificate for Trust Units in place of the certificate held by the deceased Trust Unitholder, if any, and upon the acceptance thereof such personal representatives shall succeed to all rights of the deceased Trust Unitholder under this Declaration of Trust.

13.12 Unclaimed Distribution

In the event that the Trustees shall hold any distributable amount which is unclaimed or which cannot be paid for any reason, the Trustees shall be under no obligation to invest or reinvest the same but shall only be obliged to hold the same in a current interest bearing account pending payment to the person or persons entitled thereto. The Trustees may not invest any such distributable amount except as described in Section 4.3. The Trustees shall, as and when required by law, and may at any time prior to such required time, pay all or part of such distributable amount so held to the Public Guardian and Trustee of Ontario (or other appropriate government official or agency) whose receipt shall be a good discharge and release of the Trustees.

13.13 Offer for Trust Units

(a) In this Section 13.13:

(i) "Dissenting Unitholder" means a Trust Unitholder who does not accept an Offer referred to in Subsection 13.13(c) and includes any assignee of the Trust Unit of a Trust Unitholder to whom such an Offer is made, whether or not such assignee is recognized under this Declaration of Trust;

(ii) "Offer" means an offer to acquire outstanding Trust Units where, as of the date of the offer to acquire, the Trust Units that are subject to the offer to acquire, together with the Offeror's Trust Units, constitute in the aggregate 20% or more of all outstanding Trust Units at the date of the offer to acquire;

(iii) "offer to acquire" includes an acceptance of an offer to sell;

(iv) "Offeror" means a person, or two or more persons acting jointly or in concert, who make an Offer;

(v) "Offeror's Notice" means the notice described in Subsection 13.13(c); and

(vi) "Offeror's Trust Units" means Trust Units beneficially owned, or over which control or direction is exercised, on the date of an Offer by the Offeror, any affiliate or associate of the Offeror or any person or company acting jointly or in concert with the Offeror.

(b) If an Offer for all of the outstanding Trust Units (other than Trust Units held by or on behalf of the Offeror or an affiliate or associate of the Offeror) is made and, by such Offer, the Offeror agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 13.13, and:

(i) within the time provided in the Offer for its acceptance or within 45 days after the date the Offer is made, whichever period is the shorter, the Offer is accepted by Trust Unitholders representing at least 90% of the outstanding Trust Units;

(ii) the Offeror is bound to take up and pay for, or has taken up and paid for, the Trust Units of those Trust Unitholders who accepted the Offer; and the Offeror is entitled to acquire, and the Dissenting Unitholders are required to sell to the Offeror, the Trust Units held by the Dissenting Unitholders for the same consideration per Trust Unit payable or paid, as the case may be, under the Offer.

(c) Where an Offeror is entitled to acquire Trust Units held by a Dissenting Unitholder pursuant to Subsection 13.13(c) and the Offeror wishes to exercise that right, the Offeror shall send by registered mail within 30 days after the date of termination of the Offer a notice (the "Offeror's Notice") to each Dissenting Unitholder stating that:

(i) Trust Unitholders holding at least 90% of the Trust Units of all Trust Unitholders to which the bid relates (other than Trust Units held by or on behalf of the Offeror or an affiliate or associate of the Offeror) have accepted the Offer;

(ii) the Offeror is bound to take up and pay for, or has taken up and paid for, the Trust Units of the Trust Unitholders who accepted the Offer;

(iii) Dissenting Unitholders must transfer their respective Trust Units to the Offeror on the terms on which the Offeror acquired the Trust Units of the Trust Unitholders who accepted the Offer within 21 days after the date of the sending of the Offeror's Notice; and

(iv) Dissenting Unitholders must send their respective Trust Unit Certificate(s) to the Trustees within 21 days after the date of the sending of the Offeror's Notice.

(d) A Dissenting Unitholder to whom an Offeror's Notice is sent pursuant to Subsection 13.13(c) shall, within 21 days after the sending of the Offeror's Notice, send his or her Trust Unit Certificate(s) to the Trust, duly endorsed for transfer, if a Trust Unit Certificate or such other certificate has been provided.

(e) Within 21 days after the Offeror sends an Offeror's Notice pursuant to Subsection 13.13(c), the Offeror shall pay or transfer to the Trustees, or to such other person as the Trustees may direct, the cash or other consideration that is payable to Dissenting Unitholders pursuant to Subsection 13.13(c).

(f) The Trustees, or the person directed by the Trustees, shall hold in trust for the Dissenting Unitholders the cash or other consideration it receives under Subsection 13.13(c), but such cash or other consideration shall not form any part of the Trust Assets. The Trustees, or such persons as are directed by the Trustees, shall deposit cash in a separate account in a Canadian chartered bank and shall place other consideration in the custody of a Canadian chartered bank or similar institution for safekeeping.

(g) Within 30 days after the date of the sending of an Offeror's Notice pursuant to Subsection 13.13(c), the Trustees, if the Offeror has complied with Subsection 13.13(c), shall:

(i) do all acts and things and execute and cause to be executed all instruments as in the Trustees' opinion may be necessary or desirable to cause the transfer of the Trust Units of the Dissenting Unitholders to the Offeror;

(ii) send to each Dissenting Unitholder who has complied with Subsection 13.13(c) the consideration to which such Dissenting Unitholder is entitled under this Section 13.13; and

(iii) send to each Dissenting Unitholder who has not complied with Subsection 13.13(c) a notice stating that:

(A) his or her Trust Units have been transferred to the Offeror;

(B) the Trustees or some other person designated in such notice are holding in trust the consideration for such Trust Units; and

(C) the Trustees, or such other person, will send the consideration to such Dissenting Unitholder as soon as practicable after receiving such Dissenting Unitholder's Trust Unit Certificate(s) or such other documents as the Trustees or such other person may require in lieu thereof, and the Trustees are hereby appointed the agent and attorney of the Dissenting Unitholders for the purposes of giving effect to the foregoing provisions.

(h) Subject to applicable law, an Offeror cannot make an Offer for Trust Units unless, concurrent with the communication of the Offer to any Trust Unitholder, a copy of the Offer is provided to the Trust.

ARTICLE 14
TERMINATION

14.1 Term of Trust

Subject to the other provisions of this Declaration of Trust, the Trust shall continue for a term ending 21 years after the date of death of the last surviving issue of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, alive on February 16, 2004. For the purpose of terminating the Trust by such date, the Trustees shall commence to wind-up the affairs of the Trust on such date as may be determined by the Trustees, being not more than two years prior to the end of the term of the Trust.

14.2 Termination with the Approval of Trust Unitholders

The Trust Unitholders may vote by Special Resolution to terminate the Trust at any meeting of Trust Unitholders duly called by the Trustees for the purpose of considering termination of the Trust, following which the Trustees shall commence to wind-up the affairs of the Trust. Such Special Resolution may contain such directions to the Trustees as the Trust Unitholders determine, including a direction to distribute the Company Shares and the Company Notes, in specie to holders of Trust Units.

14.3 Procedure Upon Termination

Forthwith upon being required to commence to wind-up the affairs of the Trust, the Trustees shall give notice thereof to the Trust Unitholders, which notice shall designate the time or times at which Trust Unitholders may surrender their Trust Units for cancellation and the date at which the registers of Trust Units shall be closed.

14.4 Powers of the Trustees Upon Termination

After the date on which the Trustees are required to commence to wind-up the affairs of the Trust, the Trustees shall undertake no activities except for the purpose of winding-up the affairs of the Trust as hereinafter provided and, for this purpose, the Trustees shall continue to be vested with and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon the Trustees under this Declaration of Trust.

14.5 Sale of Investments

After the date referred to in Section 14.3, the Trustees shall proceed to wind-up the affairs of the Trust as soon as may be reasonably practicable and for such purpose shall, subject to any direction to the contrary in respect of a termination authorized under Section 14.2, sell and convert into money the Company Shares, the Company Notes and all other assets comprising the Trust Assets in one transaction or in a series of transactions at public or private sales and do all other acts appropriate to liquidate the Trust Assets, and shall in all respects act in accordance with the directions, if any, of the Trust Unitholders (in respect of a termination authorized under Section 14.2). If the Trustees are unable to sell all or any of the Company Shares or the Company Notes or other assets which comprise part of the Trust Assets by the date set for termination, the Trustees may, subject to obtaining all necessary regulatory approvals, distribute the remaining the Company Shares or the Company Notes or other assets directly to the Trust Unitholders in accordance with their pro rata interests.

14.6 Distribution of Proceeds or Assets

After paying, retiring or discharging or making provision for the payment, retirement or discharge of all known liabilities and obligations of the Trust and providing for indemnity against any other outstanding liabilities and obligations, the Trustees shall, subject to obtaining all necessary regulatory approvals, distribute the remaining part of the proceeds of the sale of the Company Shares, the Company Notes and other assets together with any cash forming part of the Trust Assets among the Trust Unitholders in accordance with their pro rata interests.

14.7 Further Notice to Trust Unitholders

DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") made as of April 8, 2004, by and among U.S. Energy Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("USE"), Cinergy Solutions, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CSI") and a wholly-owned Subsidiary of Cinergy Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Cinergy") and Countryside U.S. Power, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Countryside U.S.") and an indirectly wholly-owned Subsidiary of Countryside Power Income Fund (the "Fund"). (USE, CSI and Countryside U.S. are referred to herein collectively as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party").

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the Fund has been established as an unincorporated, open-ended limited purpose trust formed under the laws of the Province of Ontario to invest indirectly in energy projects consisting of biogas-to-energy and district energy systems;

WHEREAS, the Parties seek to jointly acquire, develop, improve and operate energy projects that meet the Parties' investment and growth objectives in North America;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to set forth their understandings regarding their respective rights, obligations and interests with respect to their joint development efforts.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

Section 1.1 General.

(a) The purpose and scope of the Parties' joint development efforts as set forth in this Agreement is for USE, CSI and Countryside U.S. to jointly develop, acquire, operate, maintain and own electric and thermal projects (such as independent power production, renewable generation, district energy and cogeneration facilities) and end-user energy facilities serving industrial, commercial, institutional, retail, wholesale and utility customers (collectively, the "Projects") throughout North America, and such other purposes as the Parties may legally undertake. The Parties intend to pursue Projects involving large retail users, such as industrial facilities, and niche markets serving wholesale customers under long-term contracts, provided that such Projects initially, or after further development or improvement, meet each Party's acquisition and investment guidelines.

(b) USE and Countryside U.S. will each be obligated to present all leads they identify for potential Projects to the Parties for joint development under this Agreement, so long as there is joint management between USE and Countryside U.S. Joint management between USE and Countryside U.S. shall mean at least one common employee in management positions for both entities. In the event there is no longer joint management, either party shall have the right, but not the obligation, to present potential Projects under this Agreement. In addition, CSI shall have the right, but not the obligation, to put forth potential Projects for consideration by USE and Countryside U.S. for joint development under this Agreement.

(c) USE and CSI will contribute such assets, capital and other resources as are required to acquire, develop or improve the Projects that they choose to pursue under this Agreement. The Fund will be provided with an opportunity to acquire or invest in the Projects on terms that recognize the Fund's objectives to increase, when prudent, cash distributions per trust unit of the Fund ("Unit") while adhering to the Fund's acquisition and investment guidelines.

(d) Countryside U.S. will provide investment analysis and evaluation services on behalf of all Parties to the Development Agreement. In consideration for these services, Countryside U.S. will receive an annual fee of US$430,000 from USE and CSI, payable in monthly installments of US$35,833, with sixty-seven percent (67%) payable by USE and thirty-three percent (33%) payable by CSI. Such annual fee will change each year, on the anniversary date of this Agreement, based on the increase or decrease in the Consumer's Price Index for the preceding year, as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor.

(e) USE will provide office location, telecommunications and computer equipment, office supplies, equipment and secretarial and administrative support services at its existing offices to Countryside U.S. at no cost, to support the investment and evaluation efforts conducted by Countryside U.S.

(f) A committee will oversee the acquisition, development or improvement of the Projects as further described in Section 2.1 below.

(g) No Party shall be obligated to (i) participate in any Project or opportunity or (ii) finance the acquisition, development or improvement of an identified Project or (iii) acquire or invest in a Project, unless such Party has accepted such Project in accordance with this Agreement. A decision by the Fund not to invest in or any Party not to participate in a Project shall not limit any of the other Parties' rights to proceed with such Project pursuant to this Agreement.

(h) In the event Countryside U.S. elects not to participate in a potential Project, Countryside U.S. shall be afforded the rights set forth in Section 3.1(b) hereof with respect to such Project developed hereunder should USE and/or CSI divest of the Project subsequent to its acquisition, development or improvement pursuant to this Agreement.

(i) Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary herein no investment pursuant to this Agreement will involve any Investment in US Energy Biogas Corp. or its direct or indirect subsidiaries. The execution and delivery of this Agreement does not give rise to any right of any Party, as of the date hereof, to acquire any voting shares of US Energy Biogas Corp. or its Affiliates (as defined below).

Section 1.2 Project Process.

(a) Projects which are identified by one Party or its "Affiliates" (as defined below) as candidates for joint development by the Parties hereunder shall be presented to the other Parties for acceptance. Any Project presented by a Party hereunder shall be described in reasonable detail as to customer identity, location, conceptual, technical and financial scope, and "Material Approvals" (as defined below) which may be required. Within fifteen (15) days (or such shorter time as circumstances may reasonably require) of the initial disclosure by the presenting Party of a proposed Project, each other Party shall advise the presenting Party in writing as to whether or not such other Party desires to pursue the Project pursuant to this Agreement. Failure of any other Party to advise the presenting Party of acceptance of the opportunity within the applicable time period shall be deemed a rejection. Upon acceptance of a Project presented hereunder by at least two (2) Parties hereunder, such Project shall be developed in accordance with this Agreement by such accepting Parties. Upon a Party's acceptance of a Project hereunder, that Party will be deemed a "Participating Party" with respect to such Project. If no Parties accept a Project presented hereunder, then the presenting Party shall be free to develop the Project on its own, with no further obligation to the other Parties hereunder. For purposes of this Agreement, (i) "Affiliate" of a Person means a Person that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, Controls, is Controlled by, or is under common Control with, the first mentioned Person, (ii) "Person" means any individual, corporation, limited liability company, association, partnership (general or limited), joint venture, trust, joint-stock company, estate, unincorporated organization or other legal entity or organization, (iii) "Control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or to cause the direction of the management policies of a Person, whether through ownership of stock, by contract or credit arrangement or otherwise and (iv) "Material Approvals" shall mean all material governmental or regulatory consents, licenses, approvals or other authorizations necessary to permit the establishment, ownership and operation of the Project Company on the terms contemplated herein, including, without limitation, any requisite approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") under the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978, as amended ("PURPA").

(b) It is understood and agreed that if a Party declines to pursue a Project in connection with this Agreement, which Project was brought to such Party by another Party hereunder, then, except as provided in Section 1.2(c), the declining Party shall not pursue such Project on its own for a period of three (3) years from the date such Party declined to pursue such Project, and the Party who initially presented the Project to the declining Party shall have the exclusive right to pursue such Project on its own accord. The declining Party may, however, at any time request to be allowed to participate in such Project and, if permitted to so participate by the other Party or Parties, shall pay such development and other costs of the Project incurred prior to the date of its participation as shall be acceptable to the other Party or Parties.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the following Projects shall not be subject to the terms of Section 1.2(b) even if presented by one Party to the others pursuant to this Agreement:

(i) any Project which the non-presenting Party can demonstrate it or any Affiliate was aware of prior to being presented by the other Party;

(ii) any Project involving a customer with which the non-presenting Party can demonstrate it or any Affiliate had a relationship with at the specific Project location prior to such Project being presented by the other Party; or

(iii) any Project which is the subject of auction or RFP process generally known to the public.

(d) All profits related to a specific Project shall be shared pro rata as between the Participating Parties based upon their respective equity interests in the "Project Company" (as defined in Section 2.2) which owns the Project, unless otherwise agreed by the "Joint Development Committee" (as defined in Section 2.1(a)).

Section 1.3 Good Faith Efforts. Each Party shall make a good faith effort to identify opportunities that it desires to pursue with the other Parties pursuant to this Agreement. Any Party presenting a Project to the other Parties hereunder shall have a good faith intention to pursue such Project with the other Parties.

ARTICLE II

PROJECTS AND PROJECT COMPANIES

Section 2.1 Development of Projects; Joint Development Committee.

(a) Each Project shall be initially developed under the direction and supervision of a joint development committee created for such Project, consisting of one (1) representative from each Participating Party (the "Joint Development Committee"). The initial individuals who will represent its respective Party on any Joint Development Committee are identified on Appendix A. Actions shall be taken only upon unanimous consent of the Joint Development Committee. Each Participating Party may appoint or replace its representative on the Joint Development Committee in its sole discretion, on written notice to the other Parties. The number of representatives from each Party on the Joint Development Committee may be changed by a unanimous vote of the Joint Development Committee. At the appropriate time prior to the execution of a binding Project contract with a customer or power purchaser, the Project shall be conducted by a Project Company to be owned by the Participating Parties as determined by the Joint Development Committee. The Parties contemplate that each Project Company shall establish an operating committee consisting of one (1) representative from each Participating Party, which will have responsibility for overseeing the management and operation of the Project (the "Operating Committee").

(b) Upon acceptance of a Project by at least two (2) Parties pursuant to Article I, the Participating Parties agree to provide sufficient resources to jointly develop such Project. The financial pro-forma and development responsibilities of each Participating Party with respect to an approved Project will be determined by the Joint Development Committee on a project-by-project basis. The Participating Parties will charge their respective services in connection with the development of a specific Project at their full cost, without profit, pursuant to a budget developed and approved by the Joint Development Committee. In-house personnel services provided by each Participating Party will be charged at the rate of the employee's hourly base salary times a factor of 1.8, which factor will be subject to revision by the Joint Development Committee. Closing and incentive bonuses paid by each Participating Party to their employees in connection with a Project shall not be charged to the Project unless approved by the Joint Development Committee. Development services provided by Affiliates which cannot be charged at cost will be competitively bid to establish market cost.

(c) Reimbursement of Project development costs incurred by each Participating Party in accordance with this Agreement will be reimbursed by the respective Project Company. The Parties intend that the Project Company will either reimburse or capitalize such development costs at the time of initial equity or debt financing of the Project. Prior to the establishment of the Project Company for a specific Project, each Participating Party will accrue its development expenses with respect to such Project. Such accrued development expenses will be subject to a periodic cash true-up between the Participating Parties, to occur not less than quarterly, as determined by the Joint Development Committee. Such true-ups shall be allocated in accordance with the expected equity ownership interests of each Participating Party as determined by the Joint Development Committee. The Parties understand and agree that Project Companies that have signed Project contracts will reimburse the related development expenses to each Participating Party, unless otherwise agreed by the related Joint Development Committee. The funding of such reimbursement will be in proportion to each Party's ownership interest in the Project Company unless otherwise agreed by the related Joint Development Committee. Where construction and/or permanent debt financing is procured in connection with a Project, the Parties intend that the Project development expenses shall be reimbursed from the initial drawdown of such financing.

(d) For Projects in which CSI is a Participating Party, it is agreed that CSI will be the Party responsible for arranging debt financing for such Project, unless otherwise agreed by CSI. If CSI provides corporate financing for a Project, the applicable financing will be provided at market, based on the Project credit-worthiness, as agreed by the Joint Development Committee. If financing for a Project is based on non-recourse or jointly-owned pool finance arrangements, such financing shall be provided at cost.

(e) It is agreed that each Participating Party shall have the right to use any other Participating Party's marketing materials and resumes for the development and marketing of Projects to be undertaken pursuant to this Agreement, provided that the use of such materials and resumes are subject to the review of the Joint Development Committee.

(f) For any Projects currently under development by a Party (or any of its Affiliates) which another Party agrees to pursue under this Agreement, such presenting Party's prior development costs, to the extent reasonable and quantifiable, shall become part of the Project costs to be reimbursed to the Parties as provided in Section 2.1(c).

(g) It is agreed that each Party shall have the right, on written notice to the other Parties, to decline participation in a Project at any time up until the transfer of the Project to a Project Company, unless otherwise agreed by the Joint Development Committee. In the event a Party declines participation after the Project has been accepted by the Joint Development Committee, but prior to the transfer of the Project to the Project Company, the remaining Parties shall have the right to use any information developed jointly by the Parties or developed by the declining Party with respect to such Project, provided that the declining Party shall not be deemed to be making any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such information and shall have no liability with respect to the use of such information by the remaining Parties. Such declined Project shall be subject to a final true-up pursuant to Section 2.1(c) as of the date of withdrawal, provided that in the event the remaining Parties successfully execute binding contracts with a customer or utility power purchaser with respect to a Project declined by the other Party under this Section 2.1(g), the declining Party shall be reimbursed its development costs up to the final true-up amount, payable at the time of the initial equity or debt financing of the Project, but otherwise shall not have any right to receive any financial benefit with respect to such Project.

Section 2.2 Project Companies and their Ownership. Each separate entity conducting a Project (a "Project Company") shall be of such form as determined by the Joint Development Committee based upon tax, accounting, corporate, financing, regulatory and other considerations.

Section 2.3 PURPA, PUHCA and Other Considerations. The Participating Parties by mutual consent shall modify the ownership or governance structure for a Project Company or for Project assets to accommodate the requirements of PURPA, the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, as amended ("PUHCA"), to obtain any other Material Approvals, or for other reasons in order to implement Projects considered desirable by the Joint Development Committee or to reduce or eliminate any adverse consequences to the Project Company or any Party.

Section 2.4 Dual Service. The same individuals who act as representatives on the Joint Development Committee may serve on the Operating Committee, board of managers, or comparable governing body of the Project Company related to that Project.

Section 2.5 Operation of Project Companies.

(a) The Party who identifies a Project to the other Parties shall have the right to designate the operator of the respective Project Company (the "Project Operator"), which shall be one of the Participating Parties or an Affiliate thereof, unless otherwise agreed by the related Joint Development Committee. The Project Operator shall have primary responsibility for the day-to-day operation and management of the Project, and shall be directly accountable to and supervised by the Operating Committee.

(b) The Participating Parties shall cause each Project Company to enter into a service agreement (the "Project Company Service Agreement") with the Project Operator. The Project Company Service Agreement shall have such terms and pricing structure as approved by the Operating Committee. The Project Operator will charge its services for a Project at fair market price.

The Project Operator's in-house personnel services will be charged at the rate of the employee's hourly base salary times a factor of 1.8, which factor will be subject to revision by the Operating Committee. Operating services not provided at cost will be competitively bid and provided by the Party providing the lowest cost operating service to the Project Company.

Section 2.6 Special Provisions Relating to Project Companies.

(a) The capital structure of each Project Company shall be determined by the Joint Development Committee. Subject to Section 2.6(B)hereof, and any other third party agreements by which such Project Company or its assets are bound, such Project Company's organizational documents will provide its owners with a "pre-emptive right", but not the obligation, to participate in additional capital fundings into such Project Company in proportion to such owners' ownership interest in the Project Company subject to standard terms and conditions respecting such pre-emptive rights for similar project companies.

(b) The capitalization of each Project Company shall be subject to the receipt of any necessary corporate approvals by the Participating Parties and receipt by the Participating Parties of all requisite "Material Approvals", including, to the extent applicable, (i) expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (ii) the approval of the SEC under PUHCA, (iii) any certification of the Project as a "QF" under PURPA by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission if deemed desirable by the Participating Parties, (iv) the approval of any Canadian or provincial securities commission with respect to Countryside U.S. or the Fund or compliance with regulatory requirements, and (v) compliance with all state energy and environmental related laws and regulations.

Section 2.7 Dividends. It is the intent of the Parties that the primary source of their investment return in connection with this Agreement shall be dividends and distributions from the Project Companies. Accordingly, the Participating Parties shall cause the Project Companies to adopt appropriate policies of declaring dividends at the highest level permitted by applicable law, consistent with prudent business practices and having due regard for relevant business, taxation, working capital, banking covenant and operational requirements.

Section 2.8 Intellectual Property Rights. Any intellectual property rights held by a Party or its Affiliates that are made available to the other Parties or to any of the Project Companies in the implementation of this Agreement will be on a non-exclusive and no profit basis, to the extent such Party is legally or contractually able to do so.

Section 2.9 Names and Logos. To further the objectives of this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge and agree that each of the Project Companies shall have the non-exclusive right to use the names and logos of the Participating Parties to the extent such use is reasonable and in connection with the implementation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

TRANSFER OF INTERESTS IN PROJECT COMPANIES

Section 3.1 Transfer of Equity Interests in Project Companies; Proportionate Sales Rights.

(a) The equity interest of any Participating Party or its Affiliates, as the case may be, in any of the Project Companies shall not be transferred, sold, assigned, conveyed, exchanged, pledged, encumbered or otherwise disposed of (a "Transfer") unless: (i) the other Participating Parties are afforded a right of first offer in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3.1(b), (ii) the contemplated Transfer does not adversely affect the QF or other regulatory status of the Project or the QF status or other regulatory status of any other Project, (iii) all requisite approvals and consents of any governmental or regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Project Company or the Transfer have been duly obtained, and (iv) the contemplated Transfer does not result in adverse tax treatment for the Project Company or any of the Participating Parties, except that clause (i) above shall not apply to any Transfer by such Party to an Affiliate or a third party lender.

(b) (i) Right of First Offer Regarding Equity Interests in Project Companies. In the event any Participating Party or its Affiliate desires to sell or otherwise dispose of any equity interest in any Project Company, such selling Party or Affiliate (the "PC Selling Party") shall first deliver a written notice (the "Section 3.1 Notice") to the other Participating Parties (the "PC Second Parties") which notice shall specify the equity interest to be sold (the "PC Offered Interest"). Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Section 3.1 Notice by the PC Second Parties, the PC Second Parties shall have the right to offer to purchase (the "PC First Offer") all, but not less than all, of the PC Offered Interest at a price which price shall be payable only in cash (the "PC First Offer Price"), and on other terms and conditions as shall be set forth in the PC First Offer. If Countryside U.S. is one of the PC Second Parties, Countryside U.S. will have the right to purchase 100% of the PC Offered Interest. If Countryside U.S. is not one of the PC Second Parties and USE and CSI are both Participating Parties, USE and CSI will each have the right to purchase 50% of the PC Offered Interest (provided that USE's allocations will be increased and CSI's allocation will be decreased in order to maintain the QF status of a Project under PURPA), unless either Participating Party waives such right, in which case the remaining Participating Party will have the right to purchase 100% of the PC Offered Interest. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the PC First Offer, the PC Selling Party shall either accept or reject the PC First Offer. If the PC Selling Party accepts the PC First Offer, the PC Selling Party shall sell, and the PC Second Parties shall purchase, the PC Offered Interest at a closing to be held at a time not later than sixty (60) days (or such necessary longer period specified in Section 3.1(b)(ii)) after the PC Selling Party's acceptance of the PC First Offer and at the place as may be mutually agreed upon, at which time the PC Offered Interest shall be delivered free and clear of all liens, claims, charges or other encumbrances which are attributable to the PC Selling Party ("Liens") which may have been imposed on the PC Offered Interest and are not connected with the financing or operation of the Project Company itself against payment of the PC First Offer Price. In order to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, the purchasing Party may designate (A) a third party to purchase any portion of the PC Offered Interest which the purchasing Party is committed to purchase hereunder if the PC Offered Interest constitutes all of Selling Party's equity and debt interest in the Project Company or (B) a third party reasonably acceptable to the PC Selling Party to purchase any portion of the PC Offered Interest which the purchasing Party is committed to purchase hereunder if the PC Offered Interest constitutes less than all of the PC Selling Party's equity and debt interest in the Project Company. If the PC Selling Party rejects or does not timely accept the PC First Offer, then the PC Selling Party shall have one hundred and twenty (120) days (or such necessary longer period specified in Section 3.1(b)(ii)) following such rejection within which to consummate the sale of all of the PC Offered Interest at a price per share in cash equal to or greater than the PC First Offer Price, and in all other respects upon terms and conditions no less favorable than those specified in the PC First Offer. If no such sale occurs within such 120-day period (or longer period as described in Section 3.1(b)(ii)), the PC Offered Interest shall again be subject to all of the restrictions set forth in this Section 3.1(b)(i).

(ii) The foregoing notwithstanding, the time periods specified in Section 3.1(b)(i) may be extended by any Participating Party by providing written notice to the other Participating Parties to the extent reasonably required to accommodate (1) any Material Approvals, shareholder approval or removal of Liens being sought in good faith by appropriate procedures promptly initiated and diligently conducted by the Party requesting the extension, and (2) the procurement of debt or equity funding by any Participating Party or any third party purchaser for the acquisition of the PC Offered Interest, provided such extension under this clause (2) shall not exceed six (6) months from the originally specified date.

(iii) The foregoing notwithstanding, in the event Countryside U.S. is not a Participating Party, the PC Selling Party shall nevertheless deliver a Section 3.1 Notice to Countryside U.S., and Countryside U.S. shall be deemed a PC Second Party pursuant to the terms of Section 3.1(b)(i) with respect to such Project, and the other Parties hereunder agree to afford Countryside U.S. the rights set forth in Sections 3.1(b)(i) and (ii) with respect to such Project.

(c) If the PC Second Parties do not elect to purchase the PC Offered Interest pursuant to Section 3.1(b) above, the PC Second Parties shall have the right, but not the obligation, to sell to the prospective purchaser identified in the PC First Offer the same proportion of the PC Second Parties' interests as the proportion of the PC Selling Party's interest proposed to be sold by the PC Selling Party at the same price and otherwise on the same terms and conditions on which, and at the same time as, the PC Selling Party wishes to sell its interest. The proportionate sale right referred to in this Section 3.1(c) shall be exercisable by written notice given by the PC Second Parties to the PC Selling Party during the same thirty (30) day period the PC Second Parties have to make the PC First Offer referred to in Section 3.1(b). The PC Selling Party shall not sell any of its interest to the prospective purchaser unless such purchaser honors its obligation to purchase the interest from the PC Second Parties as provided herein. Any purported Transfer of interest in any Project Company which is inconsistent with this Section 3.1(c) shall be null and void and of no effect.

Confidential Information shall not include information which has become available as a matter of public record through no act or omission of such Party, or any of its Affiliates, agents or advisors, or to the extent such Confidential Information was in the possession of such Party or its Affiliates prior to its receipt from the other Party or the Project customer or which was received from a third party without breach of confidentiality obligations. Confidential Information shall not be used by the receiving Party for any reason outside of the purpose and scope of this Agreement. The obligations established pursuant to this Section shall survive any termination of this Agreement for a period of three (3) years, except that there shall be no limit on the amount of time trade secrets must be kept confidential.

(b) Each Party shall take reasonable efforts to ensure that the Confidential Information is not disclosed to, or obtained from it or its employees, officers or agents by, any Person other than personnel employed by it or acting on its behalf who require to have access to it in order to facilitate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the conduct of the business of the Project customer or any of the Project Companies in accordance with this Agreement.

(c) The Parties agree that irreparable damage shall occur in the event of a breach of Sections 5.1 (a) or (b) and that the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to equitable relief in the event of any such breach.

Section 5.2 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, each of the Parties hereto agrees to use its respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to implement the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In case at any time after the execution of this Agreement any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, the proper officers and directors of each Party hereto shall take all such necessary action to the extent reasonable.

Section 5.3 No Inconsistent Efforts or Agreements. No Party shall solicit proposals or enter into any agreements or arrangements of any kind with any Person (other than a Party hereto) with respect to the Project Companies on terms inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 5.4 Publicity; Publications. All media contacts and public announcements by any Party or any of its Affiliates regarding the matters covered by this Agreement shall be mutually agreed upon by the Parties. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Participating Parties, media contacts and public announcements relating to any Project, including press releases by any Project Company shall be approved by the Joint Development Committee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Participating Parties and their Affiliates may make such public announcements, reports, filings and disclosures concerning this Agreement and the businesses of the Project customer or any of the Project Companies as may be required by the rules of or any agreement with the SEC, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., NASDAQ, any other U.S. federal or state governmental or regulatory authority, or, with respect to Countryside U.S. or the Fund, any Canadian or provincial securities commission, provided, that, such disclosing Party or Affiliate shall use reasonable efforts to consult with the other Participating Parties regarding the nature and contents of the contemplated disclosure. Unless the Parties otherwise agree, each and every advertisement by or on behalf of the Joint Development Committee or any Project Company shall have the "Cinergy" name on the left side of such advertisement and the "U.S. Energy Systems, Inc." and "Countryside U.S." names on the right side of such advertisement, provided, that, CSI is a Participating Party for that Project.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Subsidiary" or "Subsidiaries" of any Person means any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture or other legal entity of which such Person (either alone or through or together with any other Subsidiary), owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or other equity interests the holders of which are generally entitled to vote for the election of the board of directors or other governing body of such corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture or other legal entity.

Section 5.7 Regulatory Matters. The Parties shall cooperate with each other to ensure that all information (including Confidential Information) necessary for the making of (or responding to any requests for further information consequent upon) any notifications or filings made in respect of this Agreement, or the transactions contemplated hereby, with any governmental agency or authority is supplied to the Party responsible for such notification and filings in order that such filings are properly, accurately and timely made.

Section 5.8 Indemnification.

(b) If any Party shall be entitled to indemnity hereunder (an "Indemnified Party"), such Indemnified Party shall give prompt notice to the Party from which such indemnity is sought (the "Indemnifying Party") of any claim or proceeding pursuant hereto; provided, however, that the delay or failure to so notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any obligation or liability except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party has been prejudiced materially by such delay or failure. The Indemnifying Party shall have the right, exercisable by giving written notice to an Indemnified Party promptly after the receipt of written notice from such Indemnified Party of such claim, to assume, at the Indemnifying Party's expense, the defense of any such claim or proceeding, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party; provided, however, that an Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such claim or proceeding and to participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of such Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party shall not consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such Indemnified Party of a release, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party, from all liability in respect of such claim or litigation for which such Indemnified Party would be entitled to indemnification hereunder.

ARTICLE VI

TERM; TERMINATION; DISSOLUTION

Section 6.1 Term. This Agreement shall be effective on the date first set forth above, and shall continue for a period of five (5) years following such date. The term shall be automatically extended beyond such expiration date for an additional five (5) year period unless any Party hereto provides a notice of termination to the other Parties at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of the initial term.

Section 6.2 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated: (a) by the mutual written consent of the Parties; or (b) by any Party if any court or governmental authority of competent jurisdiction shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making illegal the implementation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable.

Section 6.3 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.2, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability on the part of any Party hereto; provided, however, that the termination of this Agreement shall not affect any existing Project Companies; and further provided, however, that the Parties shall mutually agree on the disposition of any Projects under development by the Joint Development Committee, and any future add-on Projects with existing customers of any Project Company; and further provided, however, that the termination of this Agreement shall not relieve any Party from liability for any breach of this Agreement; and further provided, however, that the following provisions of this Agreement shall survive termination: Sections 3.1(a)(ii)-(iv), 5.1, 5.8, 6.2, 6.3, 7.5, 7.7 and 7.10.

ARTICLE VII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 7.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including all attachments hereto) constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement also supersedes that certain Joint Project Development Agreement between CSI and USE dated as of October 12, 2000, which agreement is hereby void and of no further effect, and CSI and USE hereby confirm that no "Projects" have been undertaken pursuant to that agreement, as such term is defined in that agreement.

Section 7.2 Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned by any Party or by operation of law or otherwise, provided, however, that a merger of the ultimate parent of any Party shall not be deemed to be an assignment by operation of law for the purposes of this Section 7.2, and provided further, that if such a merger has an adverse effect on any Material Approvals, such Party shall pay any costs incurred by a Project Company or the other Parties in order to modify or bring such Material Approvals back into compliance.

Section 7.3 Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing duly executed and delivered on behalf of each of the Parties hereto.

Section 7.4 Extension; Waiver. Each Party may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other Party, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of any other Party contained herein, or (iii) waive compliance by any other Party with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein, provided that such extensions and waivers shall only be effective as to the Party providing the same. Any agreement on the part of any Party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such Party. The failure of any Party hereto to assert any of its rights hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

Section 7.5 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

Section 7.6 Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each Party and its successors and permitted assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any rights, benefits or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 7.7 No Consequential Damages. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, it is agreed that no Party will be responsible to the others for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential loss or damage whatsoever (including lost profits and opportunity costs) arising out of this Agreement, provided that such limitation of liability shall not be construed to limit the indemnification obligations of the Parties set forth in Section 5.8.

Section 7.8 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the other provisions hereof. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any Person or entity or any circumstance, is invalid or unenforceable, (a) a suitable and equitable provision shall be substituted therefor in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of such invalid and unenforceable provision and (b) the remainder of this Agreement and the application of such provision to other Persons, entities or circumstances shall not be affected by such invalidity or unenforceability, nor shall such invalidity or unenforceability affect the validity or enforceability of such provision, or the application thereof, in any other jurisdiction.

Section 7.9 Independent Parties. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed or construed for any purpose to establish, between the Parties, a partnership or joint venture, a principal-agent relationship, or an employer-employee relationship, and no Party shall have the authority to bind the others with respect to any Project other than as may be provided in the operative documents executed by the Parties with respect to any Project Company.

Section 7.10 Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given (and shall be deemed to have been duly given upon receipt) by delivery in person, by reputable overnight delivery service, by facsimile or by registered or certified mail (postage prepaid, return receipt requested), to the other Party as follows:

Where a new Note has been issued in substitution for a Note which has been lost, stolen or destroyed, only one of such Notes shall be counted for all purposes, including, without limitation, the purpose of determining the aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding. Notes owned, directly or indirectly, legally or beneficially by the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer (other than the Fund) shall be disregarded for the purpose of any provision of this Indenture entitling Holders of outstanding Notes to vote, constitute a quorum for the purpose of voting, sign consents, requisitions or other instruments or take any other action under this Indenture, except that (a) for the purpose of determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in relying on any vote, constitution of a quorum, consent, requisition or other action, only those Notes which the Trustee knows are so owned shall be disregarded and (b) Notes so owned which have been pledged in good faith other than to the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer (other than the Fund) shall not be so disregarded if the pledgee shall establish to the satisfaction of the Trustee the pledgee's right to vote such Notes in its discretion, free from the control of the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer (other than the Fund).

THE NOTES

2.1 Issue of Notes

The Notes may be issued as indicated in Section 2.2 below. No additional Notes are authorized to be created or issued hereunder.

2.2 Designation, Terms and Form of Notes

The Notes authorized to be issued under this Indenture shall:

(a) consist of an unlimited aggregate principal amount thereof;

(b) be designated as Notes;

(c) with respect to each such Note, bear the date such Note is issued;

(d) be payable on the Maturity Date which, for purposes of greater certainty, shall be the 20th anniversary of the date of issuance;

(e) bear interest from and including the issue date of each such Note at the rate of 10.95% per annum (after as well as before maturity, with interest on overdue interest at the same rate), payable in monthly instalments in arrears on each Interest Payment Date;

(f) be issuable in denominations of at least $100 and integral multiples of $100 thereafter;

(g) be substantially in the form set out in Schedule "A" hereto with such appropriate insertions, deletions, substitutions and variations as may be required or permitted by the terms of this Indenture, as may be required to comply with any law or the rules of any securities exchange or as may be not inconsistent with the terms hereof and as the Issuer Directors executing any Notes may deem necessary or desirable, in their sole discretion;

(h) bear such distinguishing letters and numbers as the Trustee may approve; and

(i) be redeemable as provided in Article 3.

2.3 Payment at Maturity

On maturity, the Trust will repay the Notes by paying to the Trustee under the Indenture in cash an amount equal to the outstanding principal amount of the outstanding Notes which have then matured, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon. For greater certainty, payment at maturity shall proceed as follows:

(a) The principal amount of each Note will be payable on the Maturity Date of such Note in lawful money of Canada against the surrender of such Note by the Holder thereof at any of the places at which a register (including any branch register) is maintained pursuant to Section 2.10; and

(b) The Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee by way of wire transfer of funds, certified cheque or bank draft, no later than 10 a.m. (Toronto time) on the Maturity Date, such sums as are sufficient to pay the principal amount of each Note on the Maturity Date (less any tax required to be deducted, if any).

2.4 Interest

Each Note issued hereunder shall bear interest from and including the date of issuance thereof and from and including the last Interest Payment Date on which interest shall have been paid or made available for payment on such outstanding Notes, whichever shall be the later, to but excluding the earlier of:

(a) if called for redemption, the Redemption Date; and

(b) the Maturity Date thereof, unless such payment is improperly withheld or refused upon due presentation and surrender thereof for payment on or after the appropriate date and prior to the setting aside of the appropriate amount pursuant to Article 7.

Payment of interest shall be made in accordance with Section 2.14 on each Interest Payment Date.

Wherever in this Indenture the payment of interest is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the payment of interest on amounts in default to the extent that, in such context, such interest is, was or would be payable, and express mention of interest on amounts in default in any provisions hereof shall not be construed as excluding such interest in those provisions hereof where such express mention is not made.

2.5 Prescription

The right of a Noteholder to exercise its rights under this Indenture with respect to a Note shall become void unless the Note is presented for payment within a period of six years from the Maturity Date thereof, after which payment with respect to such Note shall be governed by the provisions of Article 7. The Issuer shall have satisfied its obligations under each Note upon remittance to the Trustee for the account of the Holder of such Note upon redemption or at the Maturity Date thereof of any and all consideration due hereunder in cash with respect to such Note, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture. Such remittance shall for all purposes be deemed a payment to the Noteholder, and consequently such Note shall thereafter not be considered outstanding and the Noteholder shall have no right with respect to such Note, except to receive payment out of the monies so paid and deposited upon surrender of the Note.

2.6 Issuance of Notes

Notes issued from time to time shall be executed by the Issuer and, immediately after such execution, shall be delivered to the Trustee and shall be certified by the Trustee and delivered by the Trustee to or to the order of the Issuer upon receipt by the Trustee of the following:

(a) a Written Order for the certification and delivery of such Notes;

(b) an Officer's Certificate that, so far as is known to the person signing the same, the Issuer is not in default in the performance of any of its covenants herein contained and has complied with the requirements of this Indenture in connection with the issue of the Notes; and

(c) such Officer's Certificate, if any, as may be required by any provision of applicable indenture legislation in connection with the issue, certification and delivery of the Notes.

2.7 Trustee's Reliance

The Trustee shall not be bound to make any enquiry or investigation as to the correctness of the matters set forth in any of the opinions, certificates or other documents required by the provisions hereof. The Trustee may act and rely and shall be protected in acting and relying upon any such opinions, certificates or other documents, but may in its discretion require additional evidence before acting or relying thereon. The Trustee shall have no duty or responsibility with respect to the use or application of any of the Notes so certified and delivered or of the proceeds thereof.

2.8 Execution of Notes

Notes shall be signed by at least one Issuer Director holding office at the time of signing. The signatures of the Issuer Director required on Notes may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and Notes so signed are as valid as if they had been signed manually. If a Note contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a Person, then the Issuer may issue the Note even though the Person has ceased to be an Issuer Director and such Note is as valid as if the Person were an Issuer Director at the date of its issue.

2.9 Certification by the Trustee

No Note shall be issued or, if issued, shall be obligatory or entitle the Holder to the benefit hereof, until it has been certified by or on behalf of the Trustee substantially in the form of the certificate set out in Schedule "A" hereto, or in some other form approved by the Trustee. Such certification by the Trustee upon any Note shall be conclusive evidence that the Note has been duly issued hereunder and is a valid obligation of the Issuer and that the Holder is entitled to the benefit hereof.

The certificate of the Trustee on Notes issued hereunder shall not be construed as a representation or warranty by the Trustee as to the validity of this Indenture or of the Notes or as to the performance of the Issuer as to its obligations hereunder (except the due certification thereof) and the Trustee shall in no respect be liable or answerable for the use made of the Notes or any of them or of the proceeds thereof (other than disbursement of amounts received from the Issuer in respect of the payment of interest or principal or any Redemption Amount pursuant to the terms hereof).

2.10 Registration of Notes

The Issuer shall cause to be kept by and at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee in the City of Toronto, a central Notes register (or by such other registrar or registrars, if any, as the Issuer, with the approval of the Trustee, may designate) and in such other place or places as the Issuer, with the approval of the Trustee, may designate, branch registers, in which shall be entered the names and latest known addresses of the Holders of Notes and the other particulars, prescribed by law, of the Notes held by them respectively and of all transfers of Notes. Such name registration shall be noted on the Notes by the Trustee or other registrar. No transfer of a Note shall be effective as against the Issuer unless made on one of the appropriate registers and made by the Holder or its executors or administrators or other legal representatives or its or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and execution satisfactory to the Trustee, upon compliance with such requirements as the Trustee or other registrar may prescribe, and unless such transfer shall have been duly noted on such Note by the Trustee or other registrar.

The registers referred to in this Section 2.10 shall at all reasonable times be open for inspection by the Issuer, by the Trustee and by any Noteholder.

The Holder of a Note may at any time and from time to time have the registration of such Note transferred from the register in which the registration thereof appears to another register maintained in another place authorized for that purpose under the provisions of this Indenture upon payment of a reasonable fee to be fixed by the Trustee.

Neither the Issuer nor the Trustee nor any registrar shall be required to transfer or exchange any Notes on any Interest Payment Date with respect to such Notes and for a period of 10 days next preceding any such Interest Payment Date.

None of the Trustee or any registrar for any of the Notes or the Issuer shall be charged with notice of or be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied or constructive, in respect of any Note and may transfer any Note on the direction of the Holder thereof, whether named as trustee or otherwise, as though that Person were the beneficial owner thereof.

Except in the case of the central register required to be kept at the City of Toronto, the Issuer shall have the power at any time to close, with the prior approval of the Trustee, any branch register upon which the registration of any Note appears and in that event it shall transfer the records thereof to another existing register or to a new register and thereafter such Note shall be deemed to be registered on such existing or new register, as the case may be.

In the event that the register in any place is closed and the records transferred to a register kept in another place, notice of such change shall be given, in the manner provided in Section 12.1, to the Holders of the Notes registered in the register so closed and in addition the particulars of such change shall be recorded in the central register required to be kept in the City of Toronto.

Every registrar shall, when requested to do so by the Issuer or the Trustee, furnish the Issuer or the Trustee, as the case may be, with a list of the names and addresses of the Holders of Notes showing the principal amounts and serial or similar numbers of such Notes held by each Holder.

2.11 Person Entitled to Payment

The Person in whose name any Notes shall be registered shall be deemed the owner thereof for all purposes of this Indenture and payment of or on account of the principal and accrued interest on such Notes shall be made only to or upon the order in writing of such Holder thereof and such payment shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the Trustee and any registrar and to the Issuer and any paying agent for the amount so paid.

As the pre-maturity interest on the Notes becomes payable (including interest payable at maturity or on redemption), the Issuer, at least three days prior to each Interest Payment Date, shall forward or cause to be forwarded by prepaid ordinary mail (or in the event of mail service interruption by such other means as the Trustee and the Issuer shall determine to be appropriate), to the Holder for the time being of each such Note, at its address appearing on the appropriate register hereinbefore mentioned, or in the case of joint Holders, to the one whose name appears first on such register, a cheque for such interest (less any tax required by law to be deducted) payable to the order of such Holder or Holders and negotiable at par at each of the places at which interest upon such Notes is payable. The forwarding of such cheque shall satisfy and discharge the liability for the interest on the Notes to the extent of the sums represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax deducted as aforesaid), unless such cheque is not paid on presentation; provided that, in the event of the non-receipt of such cheque by the Holder, or the loss or destruction thereof, the Issuer, on being furnished with reasonable evidence of such non-receipt, loss or destruction and indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it, shall issue to such Holder a replacement cheque for the amount of such cheque. The Issuer and any Noteholder may in writing agree as between themselves as to any alternative method of payment (such as by wire transfer of funds or hand delivery of a cheque) of such interest. The Issuer shall be responsible for such payments and shall provide written confirmation of such payment to the Trustee after each payment has been made.

If the Trustee is responsible for payment in respect of interest on any Notes, the Issuer, at least three days prior to each Interest Payment Date, shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the principal office of the Trustee in the City of Toronto certified funds or wire transfer funds (in immediately available funds) for the amount of such payment (less any tax required to be deducted, if any) payable to the order of the Trustee. In such case, the Trustee shall remit payment to the Holder for the time being of each such Note and the provisions of the second paragraph of this Section 2.11 shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

The registered Holder for the time being of any Note shall be entitled to the principal and interest, if any, evidenced by such Note, free from all equities or rights of set-off, compensation or counterclaim between the Issuer and the original or any intermediate Holder thereof and all Persons may act accordingly, and a transferee of a Note shall, after the appropriate form of transfer is lodged with the Trustee or other registrar and upon compliance with all other conditions in such respect required by this Indenture or by any conditions contained in such Note or by law, be entitled to be entered on the appropriate register or on any one of the appropriate registers as the owner of such Note, free from all equities or rights of set-off, compensation or counterclaim between the Issuer and the transferor or any previous Holder thereof, save in respect of equities of which the Issuer is required to take notice by statute or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Where Notes are registered in more than one name, the principal and interest, if any, from time to time payable in respect thereof in accordance with this Section 2.11 may be paid by cheque payable to the order of all such Holders, failing written instructions from them to the contrary, and such payment shall be a valid discharge to the Trustee and any registrar and to the Issuer and any paying agent for the amount so paid.

2.12 Replacement of Notes

If any of the Notes shall become mutilated or defaced, or be lost, destroyed or stolen, and in the absence of notice that such Notes have been acquired by a bona fide purchaser for value, the Issuer shall issue and thereupon the Trustee shall certify and deliver a new Note of like date and tenor as the one mutilated, defaced, lost, destroyed or stolen in exchange for, in place of and upon cancellation of such mutilated or defaced Note or in lieu of and in substitution for such lost, destroyed or stolen Note and the new Note shall be in a form approved by the Trustee. The new Note shall be entitled to the benefit hereof and shall rank equally in accordance with its terms with all other Notes issued hereunder.

The applicant for the issue of a new Note shall bear the cost of the issue thereof and in the case of loss, destruction or theft shall, as a condition precedent to the issue thereof, furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee such evidence of ownership and of the loss, destruction or theft of the Note so lost, destroyed or stolen as shall be satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee in their discretion and such applicant may also be required to furnish a surety bond in amount and form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee in their discretion, and shall pay the reasonable charges of the Issuer and the Trustee in connection therewith.

2.13 Exchange of Notes

Notes in any denomination may be exchanged at any time for Notes of the same aggregate principal amount in any other authorized denomination. Notes may be so exchanged at any of the places at which a register (including any branch register) is maintained pursuant to Section 2.10 or other convenient place of delivery by the Issuer and acceptable to the Trustee.

The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall certify all Notes necessary to carry out exchanges pursuant to this Section 2.13. All Notes surrendered for exchange shall be cancelled.

The party requesting any exchange pursuant to this Section 2.13 shall, as a condition precedent to such exchange, reimburse the Trustee for any stamp or other security transfer tax or governmental charge required to be paid in respect of such exchange or the related issue of Notes and in addition a reasonable charge for its services for each Note exchanged or transferred and a reasonable charge for every Note issued upon such exchange or transfer, and payment of the said charges shall be made by the party requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent thereto.

2.14 Payment of Interest and Principal

Except as herein otherwise provided, all sums which may at any time become payable, whether at maturity or otherwise, on account of any Note or any interest thereon, if any, shall be payable at the option of the Holder at any of the places at which the principal and interest, if any, of such Note are payable.

Whenever any payment of principal or interest to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due on a day which is not a Business Day (other than December 31), then the Noteholder shall not be entitled to payment of the amount due until the next succeeding Business Day and will not be entitled to interest or other payment in respect of such delay; provided, if December 31 is not a Business Day, the Noteholder shall be entitled to payment in full of the amount due on December 31 on the preceding Business Day and the Issuer will not be entitled to any payment in respect of such early payment.

2.15 Rank and Subordination

The Notes certified and issued under this Indenture rank pari passu with one another. The payment of the principal and interest, if any, on the Notes is expressly subordinated to the prior payment in full of Senior Indebtedness, as provided in Article 4.

2.16 No Fractional Notes

The Notes are issuable as fully registered Notes in denominations of $100 and integral multiples of $100 only.

2.17 Section 2.21 Tax Withholdings

The Issuer shall make any withholdings or deductions in respect of taxes required by law or by the interpretation or administration thereof and shall remit the full amount withheld or deducted to the relevant taxing authority in accordance with applicable law.

The Trustee shall have no obligation to verify any payments under the Income Tax Act (Canada) or any provision of provincial, state, local or foreign tax law.

ARTICLE 3
REDEMPTION, PURCHASE AND CANCELLATION

3.1 Redemption of Notes; Notice to Trustee

The Issuer shall have the right, at its option, to redeem either in whole at any time or in part from time to time Notes outstanding hereunder, outstanding from time to time, on such date as the Issuer Directors determine, in their sole discretion, before the Maturity Date(s) thereof upon payment in lawful money of Canada in an amount equal to the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed plus all accrued but unpaid interest on such principal amount to the Redemption Date, if any, (the "Redemption Amount"). The election of the Issuer to redeem any Notes shall be evidenced by a resolution of the Issuer Directors adopted no more than 60 days prior to the Redemption Date. In case of any redemption at the election of the Issuer of less than all of the Notes, the Issuer shall, at least 30 days prior to the Redemption Date (unless a shorter notice shall be satisfactory to the Trustee) notify in writing the Trustee of such Redemption Date and of the principal amount of Notes which shall then be redeemed on a pro rata basis.

3.2 Places of Payment

The Redemption Amount will be payable upon presentation and surrender of the Notes called for redemption at any of the places where a register (including any branch register) is maintained pursuant to Section 2.10 and at any other places specified in the notice of redemption.

3.3 Notice of Redemption

Notice of redemption of Notes shall be given to holders of the Notes called for redemption by the Issuer at least 20 days prior to the Redemption Date (the "Redemption Notice") substantially in the form set forth in Schedule "B" hereof for the Notes and in the manner provided in Section 12.1. Such Redemption Notice shall be irrevocable and shall, at the written direction of the Issuer, specify the aggregate principal amount of Notes called for redemption, the Redemption Date, the Redemption Amount, the places of payment and, if less than all outstanding Notes are to be redeemed, the identification (and in the case of partial redemption, the respective principal amounts) of the Notes to be redeemed and shall state that, subject to Section 3.4, interest upon the principal amount of Notes called for redemption shall cease to be payable from and after the Redemption Date.

3.4 Notes Due on Redemption Date

Upon a Redemption Notice being given in accordance with Section 3.3, the Redemption Amount with respect to the Notes so to be redeemed shall be and become due and payable on the Redemption Date specified in such notice and with the same effect as if it were the Maturity Date of such Notes, the provisions hereof or of any such Notes notwithstanding, and, from and after such Redemption Date, interest shall cease, unless payment of the Redemption Amount shall not be made on presentation for surrender of such Notes at any of the places specified in Section 3.2 on or after the Redemption Date and prior to the setting aside of the Redemption Amount pursuant to Article 7.

3.5 Deposit of Redemption Monies

Upon Notes being called for redemption as provided for in Section 3.3 hereof, the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee or any paying agent to the order of the Trustee or for the account of the Trustee, on or prior to the Redemption Date specified in the Redemption Notice, such sums as are sufficient to pay the Redemption Amount of the Notes which are to be redeemed on such Redemption Date (less any tax required to be deducted, if any). The Trustee shall pay or cause to be paid to the Noteholders, upon surrender of the Notes, the Redemption Amount thereof from the sums so deposited.

3.6 Failure to Surrender Notes Called for Redemption

If the holder of any Notes, which are called for redemption in accordance with Section 3.3, should, within 30 days from the Redemption Date, fail to surrender any of such Notes or fail within such time to (a) accept payment of the Redemption Amount payable in respect thereof or (b) give such receipt therefor, if any, as the Trustee may require, such Redemption Amount shall be set aside in trust for such Noteholder, in accordance with Article 7 and Section 11.5, and such setting aside shall for all purposes be deemed a payment to the Noteholder and, to that extent, such Notes shall thereafter not be considered as outstanding hereunder and the Noteholder shall have no right, as of the Redemption Date, except to receive payment out of the monies so paid and, upon surrender of its Notes, without interest thereon.

3.7 Less than all Notes Redeemed

If less than all of the Notes outstanding are to be redeemed, each holder of Notes shall have a proportion of the Notes held by such holder redeemed equal to the proportion which the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be redeemed is to the aggregate principal amount of all Notes outstanding at such time, rounded up to the next whole multiple of $100 of principal amount of Notes held by such Noteholder.

3.8 Purchase of Notes

The Issuer may purchase all or any of the Notes in the open market or by tender or by private contract at a price determined by the Issuer Directors in compliance with applicable laws.

If, upon an invitation for tenders, more Notes than the Issuer is prepared to accept are tendered at the same lowest price, the Notes to be purchased by the Issuer will be selected by the Issuer Directors in such manner as the Issuer Directors may deem equitable, from the Notes tendered by each tendering Noteholder who tendered at such lowest price. For this purpose, the Issuer Directors may make, and from time to time amend, regulations with respect to the manner in which Notes may be so selected, and regulations so made shall be valid and binding upon all Noteholders and notwithstanding the fact that, as a result thereof, one or more of such Notes become subject to purchase in part only.

The holder of any Note of which a part only is purchased, upon surrender of such Note for payment, shall be entitled to receive, without expense to such holder, a new Note for the unpurchased part so surrendered and the Trustee shall certify and deliver such new Note upon receipt of the Note so surrendered and confirmation by the Issuer so tendered.

3.9 Cancellation of Purchased Notes

All Notes redeemed or purchased in whole or in part pursuant to this Article 3 shall be forthwith delivered to and cancelled by the Trustee and may not be reissued or resold and no Notes shall be issued in substitution therefor.

3.10 Cooperation Between Issuer and Trustee

The Issuer agrees that it will take all necessary steps in a joint effort with the Trustee, to properly effect redemption, purchase and/or cancellation of Notes as contemplated under this Article 3.

ARTICLE 4
SUBORDINATION TO SENIOR INDEBTEDNESS

4.1 Agreement to Subordinate

The Issuer agrees, and each Holder by accepting a Note agrees, that the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes (including the principal and interest, if any, on all the Notes and the Redemption Amount with respect to any Notes being called for redemption) is subordinate in right of payment, to the extent and in the manner provided in this Article 4, to the prior payment in full of all Senior Indebtedness. Such subordination is intended for the benefit of, and may be enforced by, each holder of Senior Indebtedness and their Representatives.

4.2 Liquidation; Dissolution; Bankruptcy

In the event of any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, or any receivership, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings relative to the Issuer, or to its property or assets, or in the event of any proceedings for liquidation or termination or other winding-up of the Issuer whether voluntary or involuntary and whether or not involving insolvency or bankruptcy, or in the event of any assignment for the benefit of creditors or any other marshalling of assets and liabilities of the Issuer:

(a) the holders of all Senior Indebtedness will first be entitled to receive payment in full of the principal thereof, premium or penalty (or any other amount payable under such Senior Indebtedness), if any, and interest due thereon, before the Noteholders are entitled to receive any payment or distribution of any kind or character, whether in cash, property or securities by set-off or otherwise, which may be payable or deliverable in respect of any of the Notes.

(b) upon payment or distribution of assets of the Issuer, of any kind or character, including without limitation cash, property or securities, to creditors pursuant to or as a result of any Insolvency or Bankruptcy Proceeding, all Senior Indebtedness shall first be paid in full in cash before either the Holders of the Indebtedness evidenced by the Notes or the Trustee under this Indenture shall be entitled to any such payment or distribution and any assets so paid or distributed to which any Holder of the Notes or the Trustee under this Indenture would be entitled except for the provisions of this Article 4, shall be paid or distributed by the Issuer or by any receiver, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, liquidating trustee, agent or other person making such payment or distribution on behalf of the Issuer, or by any Holder of the Notes or by the Trustee under this Indenture if received by it, directly to the holders of the Senior Indebtedness or to their Representatives, to the extent necessary to pay all Senior Indebtedness in full in cash.

(c) if the Trustee or the Holders of the Notes have failed to file claims or proofs of claim with respect to the Notes in any Insolvency or Bankruptcy Proceeding earlier than five days prior to the deadline for any such filing, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes hereby appoint and empower any Representative for the holders of Senior Indebtedness (the "Senior Indebtedness Agent") to file such claims or proofs of claim; provided that the Senior Indebtedness Agent on behalf of the holders of the Senior Indebtedness shall have no obligation to file any such claims or proofs of claim. Absent any such failure to file, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall have and continue to have full and absolute discretion over the filing of such claims in any manner and in substance as the Trustee or the Holders may determine in their sole discretion.

4.3 Default on Senior Indebtedness

(a) No payment of or in respect of the Notes (including principal and interest and Redemption Amount, if any) shall be made by the Issuer or received by the Trustee or any Holder of Notes, whether in cash, property or securities by set-off or otherwise, if at the time of such payment or immediately after giving effect thereto, there shall exist under any Senior Indebtedness or any agreement or instrument pursuant to which any Senior Indebtedness is outstanding, any event of default or any default, condition, event or act which with notice, lapse of time, or both, would constitute an event of default thereunder (a "Senior Indebtedness Default").

(b) Expect as hereinafter otherwise provided in Section 4.3(c), upon the occurrence of a Senior Indebtedness Default, neither the Trustee nor any Holder of Notes shall be entitled to demand, institute proceedings for the collection of, or receive any payment or benefit (including without limitation by compensation, set-off, combination of accounts or realization of security or otherwise in any manner whatsoever) on account of the indebtedness represented by the Notes or any interest, premium or penalty (i) in a manner inconsistent with the terms (as they exist on the date hereof) of this Indenture or of the Notes, or (ii) at any time when a Senior Indebtedness Default has occurred under any Senior Indebtedness and is continuing and notice of any such Senior Indebtedness Default has been given by or on behalf of the holders of Senior Indebtedness to the Issuer and the Trustee, in each case, unless and until such Senior Indebtedness Default shall have been indefeasibly paid and satisfied in full, or unless and until such Senior Indebtedness Default shall have been cured or waived or shall have ceased to exist in accordance with the provisions of such Senior Indebtedness.

(c) For greater certainty, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Section 4.3 shall not be construed so as to prevent the Trust from receiving and retaining any payment on account of Notes which are made (i) in a manner that is consistent with the terms of this Indenture or of the Notes, and (ii) at any time when no Senior Indebtedness Default has occurred and is continuing and in respect of which notice has not been given by or on behalf of the holders of Senior Indebtedness to the Issuer.

4.4 Acceleration of Notes

If payment of the Notes is accelerated or demanded, the Issuer shall promptly notify holders of Senior Indebtedness or their Representatives of the acceleration or demand.

4.5 When Distribution Must Be Paid Over

If any payment or distribution of any kind, including without limitation, cash, property or securities, is made or received by way of set-off or otherwise to the Holders of the Notes or to the Trustee under this Indenture that, in accordance with this Article 4, should not have been made or received, the recipient of such payment or distribution shall segregate the same from its other assets and property and shall hold it in trust for the benefit of, and shall immediately pay it over to, the holders of Senior Indebtedness or to their Representatives for application in payment of Senior Indebtedness.

4.6 Notice by the Issuer

The Issuer shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing of any facts known to the Issuer that would cause any payment or distribution of any amounts with respect to the Notes to violate this Article 4, but failure to give such notice shall not affect the subordination of the Notes to the Senior Indebtedness as provided in this Article 4.

4.7 Subrogation

Subject to the indefeasible payment in full of all Senior Indebtedness, the rights of the Holders of Notes will be subrogated to the rights of the holders of Senior Indebtedness to receive payments or distributions of assets of the Issuer applicable to the Senior Indebtedness, to the extent of the application thereto of monies or other assets which would have been received by the Holders of Notes but for the provisions of this Article 4, until the Notes have been paid in full and no such subrogation, as between the Issuer, its creditors other than the holders of Senior Indebtedness, and the Holders of Notes, will be deemed to be a payment by the Issuer to or on account of the holders of Senior Indebtedness.

4.8 Relative Rights

This Article 4 defines the relative rights of Holders of Notes and holders of Senior Indebtedness. Nothing in this Article 4 shall:

(a) impair, as between the Issuer and Holders of Notes, the obligation of the Issuer, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay principal of and interest on the Notes in accordance with their terms;

(b) affect the relative rights of Holders of Notes and creditors of the Issuer other than the holders of Senior Indebtedness; or

(c) prevent the Trustee or any Holder of Notes from exercising its available remedies upon an Event of Default, subject to the rights of holders of Senior Indebtedness hereunder including (without limitation) the rights to receive the distributions and payments otherwise payable to Holders of Notes.

If the Issuer fails because of this Article 4 to pay principal of or interest on a Note on the due date or to pay the Redemption Amount when due, the failure is still an Event of Default.

4.9 Subordination Not To Be Impaired

No right of any holder of Senior Indebtedness to enforce the provisions of this Article 4 shall be impaired by any act or failure to act by the Issuer, any person in custody of its property or assets or by any holder of Senior Indebtedness, or by the failure of the Issuer or any Noteholder to comply with this Article 4.

4.10 Distribution or Notice

Whenever a distribution is to be made or a notice given to holders of Senior Indebtedness, the distribution shall be made and the notice given to their Representative.

Upon any payment or distribution of assets of the Issuer referred to in this Article 4, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall be entitled to rely upon any order or decree made by any court of competent jurisdiction or upon any certificate of such Representative or of the liquidating trustee or agent or other Person making any distribution for the purpose of ascertaining the Persons entitled to participate in such distribution, the holders of the Senior Indebtedness and of other Indebtedness of the Issuer, the amount thereof or payable thereon, the amount or amounts paid or distributed thereon and all other facts pertinent thereto or to this Article 4.

4.11 Rights of Trustee and Paying Agent

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article 4 or any other provision of this Indenture, the Trustee shall not be charged with knowledge of the existence of any facts that would prohibit the making of any payment or distribution by the Trustee, and the Trustee may continue to make payments on the Notes, unless the Trustee shall have received at its principal office in the City of Toronto at least two Business Days prior to the date of such payment written notice of facts that would cause the payment of any amounts with respect to the Notes to violate this Article 4. Only the Issuer, a holder of Senior Indebtedness or a Representative may give such notice. Nothing in this Article 4 shall impair the claims of, or payments to, the Trustee under or pursuant to Section 5.2 and Section 11.8(e) hereof.

4.12 Authorization to Effect Subordination

Each Holder of Notes by its acceptance thereof authorizes and directs the Trustee on its behalf to take such action as may be necessary or appropriate to acknowledge and effectuate the subordination of the Notes as provided for in this Article 4 and appoints the Trustee as attorney-in-fact for any and all such purposes. Forthwith upon the written request of any holder of Senior Indebtedness or its Representative, the Trustee shall execute and deliver to the person making such request such confirmations that the holder or holders of any Senior Indebtedness are entitled to all the rights and benefits of this Article 4, or such agreements or instruments reasonably acceptable to the Trustee in favour of the holders of Senior Indebtedness reflecting the terms of the subordination of the Notes provided for in this Article 4 and in a form reasonably acceptable to such holder or Representative and its counsel, as applicable.

4.13 Payments of Notes Permitted

Nothing contained in this Indenture, or any of the Notes, will upon the happening of any event of default, condition, event or act described in Section 4.3, prevent any payment being made by the Issuer or the Trustee in connection with the redemption or repurchase of Notes if: (i) notice of redemption or repurchase, as applicable, has been given pursuant to Article 3 prior to the happening of any such default, condition, event or act described in Section 4.3; (ii) notice of such redemption or repurchase, as applicable, is provided in accordance with Section 12.1 not earlier than 60 days before the date fixed for such redemption or repurchase; and (iii) prior to the time of such mailing the Issuer shall have furnished to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate as to the absence of any such event of default, condition, event or act described in Section 4.3 and to the effect that, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the officer signing such certificate, there is no reason to expect that any such event of default, condition, event or act will exist at the date fixed for such redemption or repurchase, as applicable, or as a result of such redemption or repurchase.

4.14 Trustee Not Fiduciary for Holders of Senior Indebtedness

With respect to the holders of Senior Indebtedness, the Trustee undertakes to perform only such obligations on the part of the Trustee as are specifically set forth in this Article 4, and no implied covenants or obligations with respect to the holders of Senior Indebtedness shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee. The Trustee shall not be deemed to owe any fiduciary duty to the holders of Senior Indebtedness and shall not be liable to any such holders if the Trustee shall in good faith mistakenly pay over or distribute to (i) Holders; (ii) the Issuer; or (iii) any other person cash, property or securities to which any holders of Senior Indebtedness would be entitled by virtue of this Article 4 or otherwise. With respect to the holders of Senior Indebtedness, the Trustee undertakes to perform or to observe only such of its covenants or obligations as are specifically set forth in this Article 4 and no implied covenants or obligations with respect to holders of Senior Indebtedness shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee.

4.15 Trustee May Hold Senior Indebtedness

The Trustee may hold Senior Indebtedness and is entitled to all the rights set forth in this Article 4 with respect to any Senior Indebtedness at the time held by it, to the same extent as any other holder of Senior Indebtedness, and nothing in this Indenture deprives the Trustee of any of its rights as such holder.

4.16 Altering the Senior Indebtedness

The holders of the Senior Indebtedness have the right to extend, renew, modify or amend the terms of the Senior Indebtedness or any security therefor and to release, sell or exchange such security and otherwise to deal freely with the Issuer, all without notice to or consent of the Noteholders or the Trustee and without affecting the liabilities and obligations of the parties to this Indenture or the Noteholders or the Trustee.

4.17 Additional Indebtedness

This Indenture does not restrict the Issuer from incurring additional Indebtedness or granting Liens on its properties to secure any Indebtedness.

4.18 Amendments to Article 4

Each of the Issuer and the Trustee agrees, and each Holder of a Note, by its acceptance thereof, likewise agrees, not to make any changes to this Indenture or the Notes, including this Article 4 and the definition of Senior Indebtedness, which materially prejudice the rights of the holders of Senior Indebtedness under this Article 4 without the consent of each holder of Senior Indebtedness (other than trade creditors), or their Representative. The Trustee may require an opinion of counsel that any amendment made without the consent of each of the holders of Senior Indebtedness (other than trade creditors), or their Representative does not materially prejudice such holders of Senior Indebtedness.

COVENANTS OF THE ISSUER

5.1 General Covenants

The Issuer hereby covenants and agrees with the Trustee that, so long as any Notes remain outstanding, the Issuer will:

(a) subject to Article 4, duly and punctually pay or cause to be paid to every Noteholder, or to the Trustee on behalf of every Noteholder, the principal of and interest, if any, on the Notes held by such Noteholder on the dates, at the places and in the manner provided for in this Indenture and the Notes;

(b) deliver to the Trustee as soon as available and in any event within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Issuer, audited annual consolidated financial statements of the Issuer consisting of a consolidated balance sheet and statements of income, retained earnings and changes in financial position of the Issuer as at the end of such fiscal year, setting forth in each case in comparative form the corresponding consolidated figures (to the extent such figures are available) for the preceding fiscal year;

(c) deliver to the Trustee as soon as available and in any event within 60 days after the end of each fiscal quarter of the Issuer, unaudited financial statements of the Issuer consisting of a balance sheet and statements of income, retained earnings and changes in financial position of the Issuer as at the end of such fiscal quarter for such period and for the year-to-date setting forth in each case in comparative form the corresponding consolidated figures (to the extent such figures are available) for the preceding fiscal year;

(d) do or cause to be done all things necessary to keep in full force and effect the existence of the Issuer as a corporation under the laws of Canada, except pursuant to a transaction to which Article 8 is applicable;

(e) (i) within 120 days of the Issuer's fiscal year end, and, at any other time upon the demand of the Trustee, furnish the Trustee with a certificate as to compliance with requirements contained in this Note Indenture that, if not complied with, would, with the giving of notice, lapse of time or otherwise, constitute an Event of Default; and (ii) forthwith after any failure to comply with any of such requirements give notice to the Trustee, including reasonably detailed particulars thereof;

(f) promptly notify the Trustee in writing upon becoming aware of any Event of Default under this Indenture, or under any Senior Indebtedness and specify what action it is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto; and

(g) not engage in any activity other than the activities permitted by its constating documents.

5.2 Trustee's Remuneration and Expenses

The Issuer will cause to be paid to the Trustee from time to time such reasonable remuneration for its services hereunder as shall be negotiated by the Issuer Directors and the Trustee, and the Issuer will cause reimbursement to be provided to the Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in the execution of its rights, powers, duties and obligations hereunder and in the administration or execution of the trusts hereby created (including the reasonable compensation and the disbursements of its Counsel and all other advisers and assistants not regularly in its employ), both before any default hereunder and thereafter until all duties of the Trustee hereunder shall be finally and fully performed, except any such expense, disbursement or advance as may arise from the negligence or wilful misconduct of the Trustee. Any amount due under this Section 5.2 and unpaid 30 days after a request for such payment shall bear interest at the then current rate charged by the Trustee. After default, all amounts so payable and the interest thereon shall be payable out of any funds coming into the possession of the Trustee in priority to the principal of and interest on, if any, the Notes.

5.3 Trustee to Give Notice of Default

The Trustee shall give to the Issuer and the Noteholders in the manner provided in Section 12.1 as soon as practicable after the Trustee becomes aware of any Event of Default, notice of every such Event of Default.

5.4 Performance of Covenants by Trustee

If the Issuer shall fail to perform any of its covenants contained in this Indenture, the Trustee may itself perform any of such covenants capable of being performed by it, but shall be under no obligation to do so. All sums so expended or advanced by the Trustee shall be repayable as provided in Section 5.2. No such performance or advance by the Trustee shall be deemed to relieve the Issuer of a default hereunder or its continuing obligations hereunder.

DEFAULT AND ENFORCEMENT

6.1 Events of Default

Each of the following events is herein referred to as an "Event of Default":

(a) if default is made in the payment of any principal due on any of the Notes when the same becomes due and payable under any provision hereof or of the Notes as required hereunder;

(b) if default is made in the payment of any interest due on any of the Notes and such default shall have continued for a period of 30 days;

(c) the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities defaults in a payment obligation, or defaults in the performance of any other obligation and demand for payment has been made, or payment has been accelerated under the provisions of any material instrument, indenture or document evidencing indebtedness by the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities for borrowed money having a principal amount outstanding in excess of $10,000,000, provided that if any such default shall be cured by the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities or waived by the holders of the indebtedness concerned and any such acceleration of the maturity thereof shall be rescinded by such holders, then the default hereunder shall be deemed likewise to be cured or waived and any declaration that the Notes are due and payable shall likewise be deemed to be cancelled;

(d) the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities shall admit in writing its inability, or be generally unable, to pay its debts as they become due or cease operations of its present business;

(e) a decree or order of a court having jurisdiction is entered adjudging the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities a bankrupt or insolvent under any bankruptcy, insolvency, debtor's relief or analogous laws, or issuing sequestration or process of execution against, or against any substantial part of the property of, the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities, or appointing a receiver of, or of any substantial part of the property of, the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities or ordering the winding-up or liquidation of its affairs, and any such decree or order continues un-stayed and in effect for a period of 45 days;

(f) the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities shall (i) apply for, consent to or suffer the appointment of, or the taking of possession by, a receiver, custodian, trustee, liquidator or similar fiduciary of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property, (ii) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, (iii) commence a voluntary case or file a petition under any bankruptcy, insolvency, debtor's relief or analogous laws (as now or hereafter in effect), (iv) be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, (v) acquiesce to, or fail to have dismissed, within 45 days, any petition filed against it in any involuntary case under such bankruptcy laws, or (vi) take any action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing;

(g) a resolution is passed for the winding-up or liquidation of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities or if either such Person institutes proceedings to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or consents to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against it under any bankruptcy, insolvency or analogous laws, or consents to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver of or of any substantial part of the property of the Company or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or admits in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due;

(h) the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities shall neglect to observe or perform any other covenant or condition contained on its part to be observed or performed herein and, after notice in writing has been given by the Trustee to the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities, as applicable, specifying such default and requiring to rectify the same (which notice may be given by the Trustee, in its discretion, and shall be given by the Trustee upon receipt of a Noteholders' Request), such Person shall fail to rectify such default within a period of 30 days, unless the

Trustee (having regard to the subject matter of the default) shall have agreed to a longer period, and in such event, within the period agreed to by the Trustee;

(i) an encumbrancer takes possession of the property of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities or any part thereof which, in the opinion of the Trustee relying on the advice of Counsel, is a substantial part thereof, or if any process or execution is levied or enforced upon or against the property of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities or any part thereof and remains unsatisfied for such period as would permit any such property to be sold thereunder, unless such process is in good faith disputed by the Issuer and the enforcement by such encumbrancer is stayed;

(j) the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities shall cease to carry on in the ordinary course its business or a substantial part thereof and the Trustee is made aware of same by notice to it in writing; or

(k) the Issuer or any of its Subsidiary Entities incurring any indebtedness for borrowed money that would cause the debt to equity ratio of the Issuer, on a consolidated basis, to exceed 10 to 1 if such default continues for a period of 30 days.

6.2 Acceleration on Default

In case of any Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion and shall, if so directed by a Special Resolution, subject to the provisions of Section 6.3 and Section 11.2, declare the principal of and interest, if any, on all Notes then outstanding and all other monies payable hereunder to be due and payable and the same shall forthwith become immediately due and payable to the Trustee on written demand, anything therein or herein to the contrary notwithstanding. Subject to Article 4, the Issuer shall in either case forthwith pay to the Trustee for the benefit of the Noteholders the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on such Notes and all other monies payable hereunder, together with subsequent interest thereon at the same rate as such Note bears interest prior to default from the date of such declaration until the date payment is received by the Trustee, such subsequent interest to be payable at the times and places and according to the terms of the Notes. Such payment when made shall be deemed to have been made in discharge of the Issuer's obligations hereunder and any monies so received by the Trustee shall be applied in the manner provided in Section 6.6.

6.3 Waiver of Default or Breach

In case any Event of Default hereunder has occurred:

(a) the Holders by Special Resolution shall have the power (in addition to and subject to the other powers exercisable by Special Resolution) to instruct the Trustee to waive the default and/or to annul any declaration and/or demand made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.2 and the Trustee shall thereupon waive the default and/or annul such declaration and/or demand upon such terms and conditions as such Noteholders may prescribe; and

(b) the Trustee, so long as it has not become bound to institute any proceedings hereunder, shall have power to waive the default if, in the Trustee's opinion, relying on the opinion of Counsel, the same shall have been cured or adequate satisfaction made therefor, and in such event to annul any such declaration and/or demand therefor, made by the Trustee in the exercise of its discretion, upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee may deem advisable, provided, however, that no act or omission of the Trustee or the Noteholders shall extend to or be taken in any manner whatsoever to affect any subsequent default or the rights resulting therefrom. The Trustee may waive or authorize any breach or proposed breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of this Indenture or the Notes if, in the opinion of the Trustee based on the opinion of Counsel, such breach or proposed breach is not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders.

6.4 Proceedings by the Trustee

Whenever any Event of Default hereunder has occurred and is continuing, but subject to the provisions of Article 4 and Section 6.3 and to the provisions of any Special Resolution:

(a) the Trustee, in the exercise of its discretion and without further notice, may proceed to enforce the rights of the Trustee and the Noteholders by any action, suit, remedy or proceeding authorized or permitted by law or by equity and may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and of the Holders lodged in any bankruptcy, termination or other proceedings relative to the Issuer; and

(b) if so directed by a Special Resolution and, upon being funded and indemnified to its satisfaction as provided in Section 11.2, the Trustee shall exercise or take such one or more of such remedies as the Special Resolution may direct or, if such Special Resolution contains no direction, as the Trustee may deem expedient.

No delay or omission of the Trustee or of the Noteholders to exercise any remedy referred to in this paragraph shall impair any such remedy or shall be construed to be a waiver of any default hereunder or acquiescence therein.

The Issuer shall be liable to the Trustee for all costs incurred by the Trustee in connection with the enforcement of rights under this Indenture.

No such remedy for the enforcement of the rights of the Trustee or of the Noteholders shall be exclusive of or dependent on any other such remedy but any one or more of such remedies may from time to time be exercised independently or in combination.

Upon the exercise or taking by the Trustee of any such remedies, whether or not a declaration and demand have been made pursuant to Section 6.2, the principal and interest, if any, on all Notes and other monies payable under Section 6.2 shall forthwith become due and payable to the Trustee as though such a declaration and a demand therefor had actually been made.

All rights of action hereunder may be enforced by the Trustee, without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof on the trial or other proceedings relative thereto.

6.5 Suits by Noteholders

No Holder of any Note shall have the right to institute any action or proceedings or to exercise any other remedy authorized by this Indenture for the purpose of enforcing any right hereunder or under any Note or for the execution of any trust or power hereunder or for the appointment of a liquidator or receiver or for a receiving order under any bankruptcy legislation or to file or prove a claim in any liquidation or bankruptcy proceedings unless a Special Resolution and funding and indemnity referred to in Section 11.2 have been tendered to the Trustee and the Trustee shall have failed to act within a reasonable time thereafter. In such case, but not otherwise, any Noteholder acting on behalf of itself and all other Noteholders shall be entitled to take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction such as the Trustee might have taken under Section 6.4. No one or more Noteholders shall have any right in any manner whatsoever to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights hereby created by its or their action, or to enforce any right hereunder or under any Note, except subject to the conditions and in the manner herein provided, and all powers and trusts hereunder shall be exercised and all proceedings at law shall be instituted, had and maintained by the Trustee, except only as herein provided, and in any event for the equal benefit of all Noteholders.

6.6 Application of Monies Received by Trustee

Except as otherwise herein provided, the monies arising from any enforcement hereof shall be held in trust by the Trustee and by it applied, together with any other monies then or thereafter in the hands of the Trustee available for the purpose, as follows:

(a) first, in payment or reimbursement to the Trustee of the reasonable remuneration, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee earned, incurred or made in the execution of its obligations and responsibilities hereunder and in the administration or execution of any trusts hereunder or otherwise in relation to this Indenture with interest thereon as herein provided;

(b) thereafter in or towards payment rateably and proportionately firstly of the principal of the Notes, secondly of the accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes and thirdly of the other monies payable hereunder, unless the order or priority of payment shall be otherwise directed by Special Resolution and, in that case, in such order or priority as between such principal and interest as may be directed by such Special Resolution; and

(c) lastly, the surplus (if any) of such monies shall be paid to the Issuer or its assigns, unless otherwise required by law.

6.7 Distribution of Proceeds

Payments to Holders pursuant to Section 6.6 shall be made as follows:

(a) at least 10 days' notice of every such payment shall be given in the manner provided in Section 12.1 specifying the time when and the place or places where the Notes are to be presented and the amount of the payment and the application thereof as between principal, interest and any other monies payable hereunder;

(b) payment of any Note shall be made upon presentation thereof at any one of the places specified in such notice, any such Note thereby paid in full shall be surrendered and otherwise such payment shall be recorded by endorsement thereon; but the Trustee may in its discretion dispense with presentation and surrender in any special case upon such surety bond being given as it shall deem sufficient;

(c) from and after the date of payment specified in the notice, interest shall accrue only on the amount owing on each Note after giving credit for the amount of the payment specified in such notice, unless such Note be duly presented on or after the date so specified and payment of such amount be not made; and

(d) the Trustee shall not be required to make any interim payment to Noteholders, unless the monies in its hands, after reserving therefrom such amount as the Trustee may think necessary to provide for the payments mentioned in subsection 6.6(a), exceed 5% of the principal amount of the Notes.

6.8 Immunity of the Issuer Directors, etc.

The Issuer Directors will not be subject to any liability whatsoever, in tort, in contract or otherwise, in connection with the Issuer's property or the Issuer's activities, to the Issuer's beneficiaries or to any other Person, for any action taken or permitted by any such Issuer Director to be taken, or any such Issuer Director's failure to compel in any way any former or acting Issuer Director to redress any breach of trust with respect to the execution of the duties of its office or in respect of the Issuer's property or the Issuer's activities, provided that the foregoing limitation will not apply in respect of action or failure to act arising from or in connection with dishonesty, bad faith, wilful misconduct, gross negligence or reckless disregard of a duty by an Issuer Director. The Issuer Directors, in doing anything or permitting anything to be done in respect of the execution of the duties of their office or in respect of the Issuer's property or the Issuer's activities, are, and will be conclusively deemed to be, acting as trustees of the Issuer and not in any other capacity. Except as to the extent provided in this Section 6.8, the Issuer Directors will not be subject to any liability for any debts, liabilities, obligations, claims, demands, judgments, costs, charges or expenses against or with respect to the Issuer, arising out of anything done or permitted by it to be done or its failure to take any action in respect of the execution of the duties of its office or for or in respect of the Issuer's property or the Issuer's activities and resort will be had solely to the Issuer's property for the payment or performance thereof. No property or assets of the Issuer Directors owned in their personal capacity will be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedure with regard to any obligation under this Indenture and the Notes.

6.9 Remedies Cumulative

Each and every remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee, or upon or to the Noteholders, shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now existing or hereafter to exist by law or by statute.

6.10 Judgment Against the Issuer

The Issuer covenants and agrees with the Trustee that, in case of any proceedings to obtain judgment for the principal of or interest on, if any, the Notes, judgment may be rendered against it in favour of the Noteholders hereunder, or in favour of the Trustee for any amount which may remain due in respect of the Notes and interest thereon and any other monies payable hereunder by the Issuer.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

7.1 Payment of Principal Amount

The principal amount and any interest due upon maturity of any Note outstanding shall be paid by the Issuer to the Trustee on the Maturity Date for payment to the Holder upon presentation and surrender of the Note by the Holder to the Trustee at any principal office of the Trustee in the City of Toronto.

7.2 Cancellation and Destruction

All Notes shall forthwith after full payment thereof be delivered to the Trustee or to a Person appointed by it or by the Issuer with the approval of the Trustee and be cancelled. All Notes cancelled or required to be cancelled under this or any other provision of this Indenture may be destroyed by or under the direction of the Trustee (if the Issuer shall so require) and the Trustee shall prepare and retain an affidavit of destruction and deliver a duplicate thereof to the Issuer.

7.3 Non-Presentation of Notes

In case the Holder of any Note should fail to present the same for payment on the date on which the principal thereon or represented thereby becomes payable at maturity or otherwise or should fail to accept payment on account thereof or give such receipt therefor, as may be required by the Trustee:

(a) the Issuer shall be entitled to pay to the Trustee and direct it to set aside; or

(b) in respect of monies in the hands of the Trustee which may or should be applied to the payment of the Notes, the Issuer shall be entitled to direct the Trustee to set aside, the principal and interest in trust to be paid without interest to the Holder of such Note, upon due presentation or surrender thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture; and thereupon the principal and interest payable on or represented by each Note in respect whereof such monies have been set aside shall be deemed to have been paid and the Holder thereof shall thereafter have no right in respect thereof, except that of receiving payment of the monies so set aside by the Trustee upon due presentation and surrender thereof, subject to the provisions of Section 7.4.

7.4 Repayment of Unclaimed Monies to the Issuer

Any monies in the hands of the Trustee and set aside under Section 7.3 and not claimed by and paid or delivered as provided in Section 7.3 to Holders of Notes within six years after the date of such setting aside shall be repaid to the Issuer by the Trustee on written demand or otherwise as required by the provisions of applicable escheat laws, and thereupon the Trustee shall be released from all further liability with respect to such monies and thereafter the Holders of the Notes in respect of which such monies were so repaid or delivered to the Issuer shall have no rights in respect thereof, except to obtain payment of the monies due thereon from the Issuer.

7.5 Release from Covenants

Upon Written Request and proof being given to the reasonable satisfaction of the Trustee that the principal amount of all the Notes and interest thereon, if any, and other monies payable hereunder have been paid or satisfied, or that all the outstanding Notes having matured, such payments have been duly and effectually provided for by payment to the Trustee or otherwise and upon payment of all costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the Trustee in relation to these payments and all interest thereon and the remuneration of the Trustee, or upon provision satisfactory to the Trustee being made therefor, the Trustee shall, at the request and at the expense of the Issuer, execute and deliver to the Issuer such deeds or other instruments as shall be requisite to release the Issuer from the terms of the Indenture and the Notes, except those terms of the Indenture relating to the indemnification of the Trustee.

ARTICLE 8
CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, CONVEYANCE OR TRANSFER

8.1 Certain Requirements in Respect of Merger, etc.

The Issuer shall not enter into any transaction (whether by way of merger, consolidation, reorganization, lease, sale, conveyance, transfer, or otherwise) whereby all or substantially all of its undertaking or assets would become the property of any other Person as long as any Notes are outstanding or may be issued pursuant to the Issuer Declaration of Trust (other than pursuant to arrangements for the placing of collateral in respect of a debt made in good faith), unless:

(a) such other Person (herein called the "Successor") is a trust, partnership or corporation constituted under the laws of a province of Canada or the laws of Canada;

(b) the Successor executes, prior to the consummation of such transaction, such indenture supplemental hereto and other instruments (if any) as are satisfactory to the Trustee and in the opinion of Counsel necessary or advisable to evidence the assumption by the Successor of the liability for the due and punctual payment of all the Notes and the interest thereon, if any, and all other monies payable hereunder and the covenant of such Successor to pay the same and its agreement to observe and perform all the covenants and obligations of the Issuer under this Indenture and the Notes;

(c) such transaction is to the satisfaction of the Trustee and in the opinion of Counsel upon such terms as substantially to preserve and not to impair any of the rights and powers of the Trustee and of the Noteholders hereunder; and

(d) at the time of or immediately after the consummation of such transaction, no condition or event shall exist which constitutes or which would, after the lapse of time or giving of notice or both, constitute an Event of Default hereunder.

8.2 Vesting of Powers in Successor

Upon satisfaction of the conditions of Section 8.1, the Successor shall succeed to and be substituted for the Issuer with the same effect as if the Successor had been named herein and the Successor shall possess and from time to time may exercise each and every right and power of the Issuer under this Indenture in the name of the Issuer or otherwise and any act or proceeding by any provisions of this Indenture required to be done or performed by any trustees or officers of the Issuer may be done and performed with like force and effect by the like trustees (if any), directors (if any) or officers of such Successor.

8.3 Execution of Supplemental Indenture

Upon being satisfied that the conditions of Section 8.1 have been duly observed and performed, the Trustee shall execute any supplemental indenture required, as provided in Article 10.

MEETINGS OF NOTEHOLDERS

9.1 Right to Convene Meeting

The Trustee shall have power at any time to call meetings of the Noteholders at such time and place as the Trustee may determine. Noteholders or the Issuer Directors may, by Noteholders' Request or Written Request, respectively, upon reasonable funding and indemnity, requisition the Trustee to call a meeting of the Noteholders for the purposes stated in the requisition. The requisition shall state in reasonable detail the business to be transacted at the meeting and shall be sent to the Trustee. Upon receiving the requisition and being funded and indemnified to its satisfaction as provided in Section 11.2, the Trustee shall call a meeting of Noteholders to transact the business referred to in the requisition, unless:

(a) a record date for a meeting of the Noteholders has been fixed;

(b) the Trustee has called a meeting of the Noteholders and has given notice thereof pursuant to Section 9.2; or

(c) in connection with the business as stated in the requisition:

(i) the requisition is not submitted to the Trustee at least 90 days before the date of the next scheduled meeting, if any, of the Noteholders;

(ii) it clearly appears that the matter covered by the requisition is submitted by the Noteholders primarily for the purpose of enforcing a personal claim or redressing a personal grievance against the Issuer, the Trustee, the Issuer Directors, or primarily for the purpose of promoting general economic, political, religious, social or similar causes; or

(iii) the rights conferred by this Section 9.1 are being abused to secure publicity.

If the Trustee does not within 30 days after receiving the requisition call a meeting, any Noteholders who signed the requisition or the Issuer Directors may call the meeting in accordance with the provisions of Sections 9.2 and 9.9, mutatis mutandis. If there shall be no Trustee, the Issuer shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee in the manner provided in Section 11.9.

9.2 Notice of Meeting of Noteholders

Notice of all meetings of the Noteholders shall be mailed or delivered by the Trustee to each Noteholder and each Issuer Director in the manner provided in Section 12.1 not less than 21 days before the meeting but may be waived in writing by any Noteholder either before or after such meeting. The attendance of a Noteholder at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a Noteholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened. Notice of any meeting of the Noteholders shall state the purposes of the meeting.

9.3 Quorum

A quorum for any meeting of Noteholders shall be one or more Persons holding personally or as proxies not less than 50% in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding.

If a quorum of the Noteholders shall not be present within 30 minutes from the time fixed for holding any meeting, the meeting, if convened by the Noteholders on a Noteholders' Request, shall be dissolved; but in any other case the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week (unless such day is not a Business Day, in which case it shall be adjourned to the next following Business Day) at the same time and place. At the adjourned meeting, the Noteholders present in Person or represented by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened, notwithstanding that they may not represent 50% of the principal amount of the Notes then outstanding.

9.4 Chairman

An individual, who need not be a Noteholder, nominated in writing by the Trustee shall be chairman of the meeting and if no individual is so nominated, or if the individual so nominated is not present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for the holding of the meeting, the Noteholders present in Person or by proxy shall choose an individual present to be chairman.

9.5 Power to Adjourn

The chairman of any meeting at which a quorum of the Noteholders is present may with the consent of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of Notes represented thereat and voting thereon adjourn any such meeting and no notice of such adjournment need be given, except such notice (if any) as the meeting may prescribe.

9.6 Show of Hands

Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first place by a majority of the votes given on a show of hands, except that a vote on any Special Resolution shall be given in the manner hereinafter provided. At any such meeting, unless a poll is required or duly demanded as herein provided, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

9.7 Poll

On every Special Resolution, and on any other question submitted to a meeting when demanded, after a vote by a show of hands, by the chairman or by one or more of the Noteholders acting in person or by proxy and holding at least 5% of the principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, a poll shall be taken in such manner as the chairman shall direct. Questions other than Special Resolutions shall be decided by the votes of the Holders of a majority of the principal amount of the Notes represented at the meeting who voted on the poll.

9.8 Voting

Holders may attend and vote at all meetings of the Noteholders either in person or by proxy. On a show of hands every individual who is present and entitled to vote, whether as a Noteholder or as proxy for one or more absent Noteholders, or both, shall have one vote. On a poll, each Noteholder present in person or represented by proxy shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each $100 principal amount of Notes of which it shall be a Holder. The chairman of any such meeting shall not have a second or casting vote.

9.9 Record Dates

For the purpose of determining the Noteholders who are entitled to receive notice of and vote at any meeting or any adjournment thereof, or for the purpose of any other action, the Trustee may from time to time, without notice to Noteholders, close the transfer books for such period, not exceeding 30 days, as the Trustee may determine; or with or without closing the transfer books the Trustee may fix a date not more than 60 days prior to the date of any meeting of the Noteholders or other action as a record date for the determination of Noteholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to be treated as Noteholders of record for purposes of such other action, as the case may be, and any Noteholder who was a Noteholder at the time so fixed shall be entitled to receive notice of and vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, even though it has since that date disposed of its Notes, and no Person who becomes a Noteholder after that date shall be entitled to receive notice of and vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to be treated as a Noteholder of record for purposes of such other action.

9.10 Proxies

Whenever the vote or consent of Noteholders is required or permitted under this Indenture, such vote or consent may be given either directly by the Noteholder or by a proxy in such form as is acceptable to the Trustee, acting reasonably. The Trustee may solicit such proxies from the Noteholders or any of them in any matter requiring or permitting the Noteholders' vote, approval or consent in such manner as may be required by applicable law. The Trustee may adopt, amend or repeal such rules relating to the appointment of proxyholders and the solicitation, execution, validity, revocation and deposit of proxies, as it may determine in its discretion from time to time.

9.11 Resolution in Lieu of Meeting

A resolution signed in writing in one or more counterparts by Noteholders holding a proportion of the principal amount of the aggregate principal amount of all outstanding Notes equal to the proportion of the principal amount of Notes required to vote in favour thereof at a meeting of all Noteholders to approve that resolution is as valid as if it had been passed at a duly called meeting of Noteholders, provided that such resolution is signed by the Fund if at the relevant time the Fund owns in excess of 25% of the said aggregate principal amount.

9.12 The Issuer and Trustee may be Represented

The Issuer Directors and the Trustee, by their respective representatives, and with their respective advisers, may attend any meeting of the Noteholders but shall have no vote as such.

9.13 Powers Exercisable by Special Resolution

In addition to all other powers stated in this Indenture to be exercisable by Special Resolution and all other powers conferred by law, a meeting of the Noteholders shall have the following powers exercisable from time to time by Special Resolution:

(a) power to agree to any modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement of the rights of Noteholders or the Trustee (subject to the approval of the Trustee) against the Issuer whether such rights arise under this Indenture, the Notes or otherwise and to authorize the Trustee to concur in and to execute any deed or instrument supplemental hereto or thereto embodying any such modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement, provided that any such modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement shall have been agreed to by the Issuer;

(b) power to direct or authorize the Trustee to exercise any power, right, remedy or authority given to it by this Indenture or the Notes in any manner specified in such Special Resolution or to refrain from exercising any such power, right, remedy or authority;

(c) power to waive and direct the Trustee to waive any default on the part of the Issuer in complying with any provision of this Indenture or the Notes, or to annul and to direct the Trustee to annul any declaration in respect of such default made by the Trustee pursuant to Section 6.2 either unconditionally or upon any conditions specified in such Special Resolution;

(d) power, with the approval of the Issuer, to sanction the exchange of Notes for any other securities or obligations of the Issuer or any other Person;

(e) power to restrain any Noteholder from taking or instituting any suit, action or proceeding for the purpose of enforcing payment by the Issuer of principal or interest or for the execution of any trust or power under this Indenture or the Notes or for the appointment of a liquidator or a receiver or a trustee in bankruptcy or for any other remedy hereunder or thereunder;

(f) power to direct any Noteholder who, as such, has brought any suit, action or proceeding, to stay or discontinue or otherwise deal with the same upon payment, if the taking of such suit, action or proceeding shall have been permitted by Section 6.5, of the costs, charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by such Noteholder in connection therewith;

(g) power to sanction any scheme for the reconstruction or reorganization of the Issuer or for the consolidation or merger of the Issuer with any other Person or for the sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of the undertaking, property and assets of the Issuer or any part thereof, provided that no such sanction shall be necessary in respect of any such transaction if the provisions of Section 8.1 shall have been complied with;

(h) power to assent to any compromise or arrangement with any creditor or creditors or any class or classes of creditors, whether secured or otherwise, and with holders of any of the Issuer Units or other securities of the Issuer;

(i) power to amend, alter or repeal any Special Resolution previously passed or sanctioned by the Noteholders or Noteholders' Request previously provided by Noteholders;

(j) power to appoint and remove a committee to consult with the Trustee and to delegate to such committee (subject to such limitations, if any, as may be prescribed in such Special Resolution) all or any of the powers which the Noteholders could exercise by Special Resolution under this Section 9.13. The Special Resolution making such appointment may provide for payment of the expenses and disbursements of and compensation to such committee or the Trustee. Such committee shall consist of such number of Persons as shall be prescribed in the Special Resolution appointing it, and the members need not be themselves Noteholders. Subject to the Special Resolution appointing it, every such committee may elect its chairman and may make regulations respecting its quorum, the calling of its meetings, the filling of vacancies occurring in its number, the manner in which it may act and its procedure generally and such regulations may provide that the committee may act at a meeting at which quorum is present or may act by minutes signed by a majority of the members thereof or the number of members thereof necessary to constitute a quorum, whichever is the greater. All acts of any such committee within the authority delegated to it shall be binding upon all Noteholders. Neither such committee nor any member thereof shall be liable for any loss arising from or in connection with any action taken or omitted to be taken in good faith;

(k) power to remove the Trustee and appoint a new Trustee; and

(l) power to authorize the Trustee to grant extensions of time for payment of any principal or interest on the Notes, whether or not the principal or interest, the payment of which is extended, is at the time due or overdue.

Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (l) above, no resolution shall modify, abrogate, alter, compromise, arrange or otherwise affect the rights of the Trustee hereunder without the Trustee's written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.

9.14 Meaning of "Special Resolution"

The expression "Special Resolution" when used in this Indenture means, subject to Section 9.11, a resolution proposed at a meeting of Noteholders duly convened for the purpose of passing a Special Resolution and held in accordance with the provisions in this Article 9 at which, subject as hereinafter provided, the Holders of at least 51% of the principal amount of the Notes then outstanding are present in person or represented by proxy and passed by the favourable votes of the Holders of not less than 66 ⅔% of the principal amount of Notes represented at the meeting and voted on a poll upon such resolution, provided, in each case, that if at the relevant time the Fund owns in excess of 25% of the said aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding the Fund shall have voted in favour of the said Special Resolution.

If, at any such meeting called for the purpose of passing a Special Resolution, the Holders of at least 51% of the principal amount of the Notes are not present in person or represented by proxy within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, then the meeting if convened by Noteholders on a Noteholders' Request, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such date, being not less than 14 nor more than 21 days later, and to such place and time as may be appointed by the chairman. Not less than seven days' notice shall be given of the time and place of such adjourned meeting in the manner provided in Section 12.1. Such notice shall state that at the adjourned meeting the Noteholders present in person, or represented by proxy, shall form a quorum but it shall not be necessary to set forth the purposes for which the meeting was originally called or any other particulars. At the adjourned meeting the Noteholders present in person, or represented by proxy, shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution proposed at such adjourned meeting and passed by the requisite vote as provided in the preceding paragraph shall be a Special Resolution within the meaning of this Indenture, notwithstanding that the Holders of at least 51% of the principal amount of the Notes then outstanding are not present in person or represented by proxy at such adjourned meeting.

9.15 Minutes

Minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at every such meeting as aforesaid shall be made and duly entered in books to be from time to time provided for that purpose by the Trustee at the expense of the Issuer, and any such minutes as aforesaid, if signed by the chairman of the meeting at which such resolutions were passed or proceedings had, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated and, until the contrary is proved, every such meeting, in respect of the proceedings of which minutes shall have been made and signed as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened and all resolutions passed or proceedings had thereat to have been duly passed and had.

9.16 Effect of Resolutions

Every resolution and every Special Resolution passed in accordance with the provisions of this Article 9 at a meeting of Noteholders shall be binding upon all the Noteholders, whether present at or absent from such meeting, and every instrument in writing signed by the Noteholders in accordance with Section 9.11 shall be binding upon all the Noteholders, whether signatories thereto or not, and each and every Noteholder and the Trustee (subject to any provisions for its indemnity herein contained) shall be bound to give effect accordingly to every such resolution, Special Resolution and instrument in writing. Unless the Trustee agrees otherwise, notice of the passing of every resolution and every Special Resolution shall be given to the Noteholders in the manner provided in Section 12.1.

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

10.1 Provision for Supplemental Indentures for Certain Purposes

From time to time the Issuer and the Trustee may, without any further approval or consent of the Noteholders (subject to the provisions of this Indenture), and they shall, when so directed by the provisions hereof, execute and deliver indentures or instruments supplemental hereto, which thereafter shall form part hereof, for any one or more or all of the following purposes:

(a) evidencing the succession of Successors and the covenants of and obligations assumed by such Successors in accordance with the provisions of Article 8;

(b) giving effect to any Special Resolution passed as provided in Article 9;

(c) adding to the provisions hereof such additional covenants, enforcement provisions, release provisions and other provisions as, in the opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable, provided that, in the opinion of the Trustee, relying on the opinion of Counsel, the same are not prejudicial to the legal rights of the Noteholders;

(d) making any modification of any of the provisions of this Indenture or the Notes which is of a formal, minor or technical nature;

(e) making any additions to, deletions from or alterations of the provisions of this Indenture (including any of the terms and conditions of the Notes) which in the opinion of the Trustee are not prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders and which are necessary or advisable in order to incorporate, reflect or comply with any legislation the provisions of which apply to this Indenture;

(f) adding to or altering the provisions hereof in respect of the transfer of Notes, including provision for the transfer of Notes in a book-based system and for the exchange of Notes of different denominations and making any modification in the form of the Notes which does not affect the substance thereof and which, in the opinion of the Trustee, is not prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders;

(g) correcting or rectifying any ambiguities, defective provisions, errors or omissions herein, provided that, in the opinion of the Trustee, the rights of the Trustee and the Noteholders are not materially prejudiced thereby; and

(h) any other purpose not inconsistent with the terms of this Indenture provided that, in the opinion of the Trustee, the rights of the Trustee and of the Noteholders are not materially prejudiced thereby.

The Trustee may require an opinion of Counsel to the effect that the provisions in subsections (c), (e), (f), (g) and/or (h) of this Section have been complied with.

10.2 Binding Effect of Modifications

Every modification, addition, deletion, alteration, correction or rectification to, from or of the provisions hereof shall bind the Noteholders and notice thereof shall be given as soon as practicable in accordance with Section 12.1, unless the Trustee agrees otherwise.

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

11.1 Conditions Precedent to Trustee's Obligation to Act

The Trustee shall not be bound to give any notice or do or take any act, action or proceeding in virtue of the powers conferred on it hereby unless and until it shall have been required so to do under the terms hereof. Nor, subject to any Event of Default which may come to the attention of the Trustee by virtue of the Issuer's compliance with Subsection 5.1(f), shall the Trustee be required to take notice of any Event of Default hereunder, other than in payment of any monies required by any provision hereof to be paid to it, unless and until notified in writing of such default, which notice shall distinctly specify the Event of Default desired to be brought to the attention of the Trustee, and in the absence of any such notice the Trustee may for all purposes of this Indenture conclusively assume that the Issuer is not in default hereunder and that no default has been made with respect to the payment of principal or interest on the Notes or in the observance or performance of any of the covenants, agreements or conditions contained herein. Any such notice or requisition shall in no way limit any discretion herein given to the Trustee to determine whether or not the Trustee shall take action with respect to any Event of Default or take action without any such requisition.

11.2 Requirement for Funds and Indemnity

The obligation of the Trustee to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding for the purpose of enforcing any right of the Trustee or the Noteholders hereunder shall be conditional upon the Noteholders furnishing, when required by notice in writing by the Trustee, sufficient funds to commence or continue such act, action or proceeding and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee to protect and hold harmless the Trustee and its officers directors and employees against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred thereby and any loss and damage it may suffer by reason thereof. None of the provisions contained in this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, unless indemnified as aforesaid.

The Trustee may, before commencing or at any time during the continuance of any such act, action or proceeding, require the Noteholders at whose instance it is acting to deposit with the Trustee the Notes held by them, for which Notes the Trustee shall issue receipts.

11.3 Evidence

Whenever it is provided in this Indenture, with reference to any application to the Trustee for the certification and delivery of Notes or other action hereunder, that the Issuer shall deposit with the Trustee resolutions, certificates, opinions, requests, orders or other documents, it is intended that the truth, accuracy and good faith at the time of the granting of such application (or on the effective date of any such certificate or report, as the case may be) of the facts and opinions stated in all documents so deposited shall, in each and every such case, be conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer to have such application granted. The Trustee may act and rely on and shall be protected in acting and relying upon any such documents deposited with it in purported compliance with any such provision or of any other purpose hereof, but may in its discretion require further evidence before acting or relying thereon.

The Trustee may act and rely on and shall be protected in acting and relying upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, letter, or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by or on behalf of the proper party or parties.

11.4 Experts and Advisers

The Trustee may employ or retain such Counsel, accountants, appraisers or other experts or advisers as it may reasonably require for the purpose of determining and discharging its duties hereunder and may pay reasonable remuneration for all services so performed by any of them, and shall not be responsible for any misconduct on the part of any of them.

The Trustee may act and shall be protected in acting in good faith on the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any Counsel, accountant, appraiser or other expert or adviser, whether retained or employed by the Issuer or by the Trustee, in relation to any matter arising in the administration of the trusts hereunder and the fulfilment of its obligations and the exercise of its rights hereunder.

11.5 Investment of Funds

Upon receipt of a written direction from the Issuer, the Trustee shall invest the funds in its name in accordance with such direction. Any direction from the Issuer to the Trustee shall be in writing and shall be provided to the Trustee no later than 9:00 a.m. on the day on which the investment is to be made. Any such direction received by the Trustee after 9:00 a.m. or received on a non-Business Day, shall be deemed to have been given prior to 9:00 a.m. the next Business Day. For the purpose of this Section, "Business Day" shall not include any day on which banks are not open for business in Toronto, Ontario. For the purpose hereof, "Authorized Investments" means short-term interest bearing or discount debt obligations issued or guaranteed by the Government of Canada or a province or a Canadian chartered bank (which may include an Affiliate or related party of the Trustee) provided that such obligation is rated at least R1 (middle) by DBRS Inc. or an equivalent rating service.

In addition to any written direction to invest cash in an Authorized Investment, the Trustee may hold cash balances constituting part or all of the funds and may, but need not, invest same in its deposit department or the deposit department of one of its Affiliates; but the Trustee and its Affiliates shall not be liable to account for any profit to any parties to this Agreement or to any other person or entity other than at a rate, if any, established from time to time by the Trustee or one of its Affiliates. For the purpose of this Section, "Affiliate" means affiliated companies within the meaning of the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) ("OBCA"); and includes Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company and Mellon Bank, N.A. and each of their affiliates within the meaning of the OBCA. The Trustee shall not be held liable for any losses incurred in the investment of any funds in Authorized Investments.

11.6 Action by Trustee to Protect Interests

The Trustee shall have power to institute and to maintain such actions and proceedings as it may consider necessary or expedient to preserve, protect and enforce its interests and the interests of the Noteholders.

11.7 Trustee not Required to give Security

The Trustee shall not be required to give any bond or security in respect of the execution of the trusts and powers of this Indenture or otherwise in respect of this Indenture.

11.8 Protection of Trustee

By way of supplement to the provisions of any law for the time being relating to trustees:

(a) the Trustee shall not be liable for or by reason of any statements of fact or recitals in this Indenture or in the Notes (except the representation contained in Section 11.10 and in the certificate of the Trustee on the Notes) or required to verify the same, but any such statements or recitals are and shall be deemed to be made by the Issuer;

(b) nothing herein contained shall impose any obligation on the Trustee to see to or require evidence of the registration or filing (or renewal thereof) of this Indenture or any instrument ancillary or supplemental hereto or thereto;

(c) the Trustee shall not be bound to give to any Person notice of the execution hereof;

(d) the Trustee shall not incur any liability or responsibility whatever or be in any way responsible for the consequence of any breach on the part of the Issuer of any of the covenants contained in this Indenture or of any acts of the agents or servants of the Issuer;

(e) the Issuer hereby indemnifies and saves harmless the Trustee and its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and successors from and against any and all liabilities, losses, costs, claims, actions or demands whatsoever which may be brought against the Trustee or which it may suffer or incur as a result or arising out of the performance of its duties and obligations hereunder (including without limitation the fees and disbursements of any advisers and legal counsel it may retain), save only in the event of gross negligence or intentional fault of the Trustee or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and successors. This indemnification shall survive the termination or discharge of this Indenture whether by reason of removal or resignation of the Trustee;

(f) the Trustee will disburse monies according to this Indenture only to the extent that monies have been deposited with it; and

(g) no obligation shall rest with the Trustee to analyze the financial statements required to be delivered to it, or evaluate the performance of the Issuer as indicated therein.

11.9 Replacement of Trustee

The Trustee may resign and be discharged from all further duties and liabilities hereunder by giving to the Issuer not less than 60 days' notice in writing or such shorter notice as the Issuer may accept as sufficient. The Noteholders, by Special Resolution, shall have the power at any time to remove the Trustee and to appoint a new trustee. In the event of the Trustee resigning or being removed as aforesaid or being dissolved, becoming bankrupt, going into liquidation or otherwise becoming incapable of acting hereunder, the Issuer shall forthwith appoint a new trustee unless a new trustee has already been appointed by the Noteholders; failing such appointment by the Issuer, the retiring Trustee or any Noteholder may apply at the Issuer's expense to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, on such notice as the Court may direct, for the appointment of a new trustee; but any new trustee so appointed by the Issuer or by the Court shall be subject to removal as aforesaid by the Noteholders. Any new trustee appointed under these provisions must be a corporation authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in the Province of Ontario. On any new appointment, the new trustee shall be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named herein as Trustee without any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed, but there shall be immediately executed, at the expense of the Issuer, all such conveyances or other instruments as may, in the opinion of Counsel, be necessary or advisable for the purpose of assuring the same to the new trustee. At the request of the Issuer or the new trustee, the retiring Trustee, upon payment of the amounts, if any, due to it pursuant to Section 5.2, shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to the new trustee all property and money held and all records kept by the retiring Trustee hereunder or in connection herewith.

Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated or amalgamated or any corporation resulting from any merger, consolidation or amalgamation to which the Trustee shall be a party, shall be the successor trustee under this Indenture without the execution of any instrument or any further act.

11.10 Conflict of Interest

The Trustee represents to the Issuer that at the time of the execution and delivery hereof no material conflict of interest exists in the Trustee's role as a fiduciary hereunder and agrees that in the event of a material conflict of interest arising hereafter it will, within 90 days after ascertaining that it has such material conflict of interest, either eliminate same or resign its trust hereunder. If any such material conflict of interest exists or hereafter shall exist, the validity and enforceability of this Indenture and the Notes shall not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason thereof.

Subject to the preceding paragraph, the Trustee, in its personal or any other capacity, may buy, lend upon and deal in securities of the Issuer and generally may contract and enter into business transactions with the Issuer or any of its Affiliates without being liable to account for any profit made thereby.

11.11 Delegation of Powers

The Trustee may delegate to any Person the performance of any of the trusts and powers vested in it by this Indenture and any such delegation may be made upon such terms and conditions and subject to such regulations as the Trustee may think to be in the best interests of the Noteholders.

11.12 Acceptance of Trust

The Trustee hereby accepts any and all trusts created or constituted hereby, agrees to perform the same upon the terms and conditions herein set forth. In the exercise of the rights, duties and obligations prescribed or conferred by the terms of this Indenture, the Trustee shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Noteholders and exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent institutional trustee would exercise in comparable circumstances. Subject to the foregoing, the Trustee shall only be liable for its own wilful misconduct and negligence. The Trustee shall not be liable for any act or default on the part of any agent employed by it or a co-trustee, or for having permitted any agent or co-trustee to receive and retain any monies payable to the Trustee hereunder, except as aforesaid. The Trustee shall read and understand and act upon (as required) all of the certificates, opinions and other documents delivered to it under or pursuant to this Indenture.

11.13 Other

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in a Special Resolution, Noteholders' Request or other resolutions, written instrument, request or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to this Indenture, the Trustee shall not be obliged to render any account to the Noteholders, nor return to the Noteholders any amounts which it has received in the performance of its rights, powers, duties, trusts, obligations and responsibilities hereunder, nor pay any interest to the Noteholders on such amounts.

(c) Each of its Subsidiaries identified in Schedule 3.4 is a corporation or other legal entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization, and is duly qualified as a foreign corporation or other legal entity and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which such qualification is required by law, other than those jurisdictions as to which the failure to be so qualified or in good standing could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect. Each such Subsidiary has the corporate or other power and authority to own or hold under lease the properties it purports to own or hold under lease and to transact the business it transacts and proposes to transact.

(d) None of its Subsidiaries is a party to, or otherwise subject to any legal restriction or any agreement (other than this Agreement, the Security Documents and customary limitations imposed by corporate, limited partnership and limited liability company law statutes) restricting the ability of such Subsidiary to pay dividends out of profits or make any other similar distributions of profits to any of the Loan Parties or Subsidiaries that own outstanding shares of capital stock or similar equity interests of such Subsidiary.

3.7. Compliance with Governmental Requirements.

(a) Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries has (i) violated any Governmental Requirements and no such violation has been alleged pursuant to written notification, (ii) failed to file in a timely manner all reports, documents and other materials required to be filed by it with any Governmental Authority (and the information contained in each of such filings is true, correct and complete in all material respects), including without limitation all such reports, documents and other materials required under PURPA or under Section 8-403.1 of the Illinois Revised Statutes and the regulations thereunder, or (iii) failed to retain all records and documents required to be retained by it pursuant to any Governmental Requirement, other than such violation, alleged violation or failure to file or retain which could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

No Project (i) is in violation of any Governmental Requirements and no such violation has been alleged pursuant to written notification, (ii) has failed to file in a timely manner all reports, documents and other materials required to be filed by it with any Governmental Authority (and the information contained in each of such filings is true, correct and complete in all material respects) or (iii) has failed to retain all records and documents required to be retained by it pursuant to any Governmental Requirements, other than the violation, alleged violation, the failure to file or retain that could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

3.8. Permits.

As of the Closing Date, each Applicable Permit has been duly obtained and is in full force and effect, is final, and, based on current regulations, is not subject to appeal or judicial, governmental or other review. A copy of each Applicable Permit has been delivered to the Lender.

3.9. Litigation; No Default.

(a) There is no judgment, action, investigation, claim, complaint, notice of violation, injunction, order, decree, directive, action, suit, arbitration or proceeding or labor disputes pending or, to such Loan Party's Best Knowledge, threatened pursuant to written notification in any court or before or by any Governmental Authority, arbitrator, board or authority (i) against or affecting such Loan Party, any of its Subsidiaries, any Project or any Collateral involving any claim in any amount or (ii) involving the validity, enforceability or priority of any Operative Document at law or in equity.

(b) Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries is in default under any agreement (including, without limitation, any Operative Document), bond, note, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, order or judgment or any ordinance, resolution or decree and to which it is a party or by which it is bound, or any other agreement or other instrument Material to such Loan Party by which it or any of the properties or assets owned by it or used in the conduct of its business is affected.

3.10. Taxes.

Such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries has filed all United States federal and state tax returns and reports and all other tax returns and reports with each appropriate Governmental Authority in all jurisdictions in which such returns and reports are required to be filed, and such returns and reports accurately reflect the taxes, assessments and charges of such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries for the periods covered thereby to the extent Material to such Loan Party. Such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries has paid all taxes, assessments and other charges that have become due to any Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over such Loan Party or Subsidiary or any of its properties, and no tax Liens (other than tax Liens constituting Permitted Liens) have been filed and no claims are being asserted against such Loan Party or Subsidiary or any properties of such Loan Party or Subsidiary. None of the federal or state income tax returns of such Loan Party or Subsidiary is under audit. Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries has any knowledge of any unpaid taxes, assessments or charges that may be due and payable against it or any of its properties, or any basis for any other tax or assessment, which individually or in the aggregate could reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect. The charges, accruals and reserves on the books of each Loan Party and each Subsidiary of a Loan Party in respect of Federal, state or other taxes for all fiscal periods are adequate to the extent Material.

3.11. Title to Collateral; Liens.

(a) Subject to Permitted Liens, such Loan Party is the sole owner of each item of the Collateral it purports to own, including without limitation the Collateral reflected in the most recent Financial Statements of such Loan Party, having good and valid title thereto, free and clear of any and all Liens other than those created by the Security Documents and Permitted Liens.

(b) The Security Documents create a valid security interest in the Collateral therein purported to be pledged or mortgaged, as applicable, by such Loan Party in favor of the Lender, enforceable against third parties, and when the financing statements listed on Schedule 3.11 and the Mortgage Amendments have been filed or recorded, as applicable, in the offices listed in Schedule 3.11, will constitute perfected Liens senior in right to all other creditors and subject to no prior Liens (other than Permitted Liens) and will secure the payment of the Obligations. All action necessary to perfect such Liens and security interests in each item of the Collateral has been duly taken or will be taken in accordance with the Loan Documents prior to the issuance, exchange and purchase of the Notes contemplated hereby. Such Liens and security interests are or shall be, upon the taking of all such actions, entitled to all of the rights, priorities and benefits afforded by the UCC or other relevant law as enacted in any relevant jurisdiction to constitute perfected security interests. No further action will be required to maintain and preserve such Lien and security interests other than the filing of continuation statements required by the UCC, and the taking of all actions required to be taken under the Loan Documents.

(c) The Project Owners own (i) good and marketable title or (ii) valid easements in and to or license rights or leasehold estates in and to the Project Land sufficient to own, operate and maintain the Projects, free and clear of all Liens other than Permitted Liens; and no filing or recording with any Governmental Authority or agency is necessary to establish, protect and perfect such title or any other right, title or interest of (x) such Loan Party, as against any other Person, or (y) the Lender, as against such Loan Party or any other Person, in any jurisdiction, under the Operative Documents, all of which filings and recordations have been made or will have been made on or before the Closing Date. As of the Closing Date, no Person will hold or have any right to acquire an interest (other than a Permitted Lien) in the Project Land that may encumber the Projects or any portion thereof or that would cause a Material Adverse Effect. To such Loan Party's Best Knowledge, the Projects are located entirely on the Project Land, and neither the Projects nor any portion thereof encroaches upon any interest in property to which the Loan Parties do not have rights sufficient to permit the encroachment.

3.12. Intellectual Property.

Except in instances where there would be no Material Adverse Effect:

(a) such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries owns or possesses all licenses, permits, franchises, authorizations, Intellectual Property, or other proprietary rights and technology or rights thereto to construct and operate the Projects and to operate its business as now conducted and as presently proposed to be conducted, without any known conflict with the rights of others;

6.3. Lender's Call

The Notes shall be subject to mandatory prepayment in whole on each Anniversary Date during the period commencing with the tenth Anniversary Date and ending on the fourteenth Anniversary Date (a "Prepayment Anniversary Date"), if the Lender delivers a notice of demand for prepayment to the Loan Parties not more than 360 days and not less than 180 days prior to such Prepayment Anniversary Date. If the Lender exercises its right to require prepayment under this Section, the Issuer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to deliver a notice to the Lender, not less than 30 days prior to the applicable Prepayment Anniversary Date, stating that, in lieu of making the prepayment under this Section, the Issuer or its designee shall purchase all of the Notes and Lender's rights under the Loan Documents on the applicable Prepayment Anniversary Date for a cash purchase price equal to the amount that would have been due to the Lender if the Notes had been prepaid on the Prepayment Anniversary Date in accordance with this Section plus any incremental costs (including, without limitation, taxes) incurred by the Lender arising from the assignment in excess of the costs that would have been incurred in connection with the mandatory prepayment. On or before the applicable Prepayment Anniversary Date, the parties to such purchase transaction shall execute an Assignment Agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit D.

6.4. Optional Prepayments.

Each of the Notes shall be subject to optional prepayment by the Issuer, in whole or in part, (i) from the Closing Date through the Maturity Date in connection with a transaction involving a Change of Control of the Issuer and/or Change of Control of substantially all of the Guarantors, or (ii) commencing on the fifth Anniversary Date through the Maturity Date.

6.5. Application of Prepayments.

(a) Any prepayments made by the Issuer with the Net Cash Proceeds from a Special Event described in Section 6.2(a)(i) or (ii), pursuant to a Special Event described in Section 6.2(a)(iii) that results from a Buyout pursuant to the exercise by any counterparty to any Power Purchase Agreement or landfill gas owner site lease of such counterparty's right under such agreement to terminate such agreement while the applicable Loan Party is not in default under such agreement, or pursuant to a Lender's call under Section 6.3 shall be applied, first, to any past due payments on the applicable Notes, second, to pay accrued and unpaid interest on the applicable Notes, and third, to prepay the Principal Debt on the applicable Notes, and any partial prepayment shall be applied to the outstanding and unpaid principal installments on a pro rata basis between the Series A Notes and the Series B Notes.

(b) Any prepayments made by the Issuer with the Net Cash Proceeds from a Special Event described in Section 6.2(a)(iii) that results from the voluntary action of any Loan Party or a Buyout pursuant to the exercise by any counterparty to any Power Purchase Agreement or landfill gas owner site lease of such counterparty's right under such agreement to terminate such agreement while the applicable Loan Party is in default under such agreement, or as provided in Section 6.2(a)(iv) or 6.4, shall be applied, first, to pay any past due payments on the Notes, second, to pay accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes, and third, to prepay the Principal Debt on the Notes, together with the Make Whole Amount, and any partial prepayment shall be applied to the outstanding and unpaid principal installments in the inverse order of their maturities on a pro rata basis between the Series A Notes and the Series B Notes.

(c) Any partial prepayments of the Notes shall be in an amount equal to $100,000 (or, if less, the unpaid Principal Debt of such Notes) or a greater integral multiple of $100,000.

(d) The Loan Parties and the Lender acknowledge that the Make Whole Amount is (i) intended to compensate the Lender for the amount of the Lender's actual damages or loss, which would be difficult to calculate at the time of prepayment, and (ii) the Make Whole Amount is a reasonable approximation of damages or losses that will be suffered by the Lender in the event of a prepayment and are stipulated by both parties in the interest of avoiding litigation at the time of prepayment.

6.6. Notice of Prepayment.

The Issuer will give to the Lender written notice of any prepayment of the Notes not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days before the date fixed for prepayment, specifying (i) such date, (ii) the section of this Agreement under which the prepayment is to be made, (iii) the Series of Notes that are to be prepaid, and (iv) the amount of principal, interest, and premium with respect to the Notes to be prepaid on such date. In addition, for prepayments to be made pursuant to Section 6.2, such notice shall include the projected Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio after giving effect to the transactions contemplated thereby, which projection must be reasonably acceptable to the Lender. Two Business Days prior to such prepayment, the Issuer shall deliver to the Lender a notice specifying the calculation of such projected Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (which must also be reasonably acceptable to the Lender), as of the specified prepayment date. Any such notice of prepayment will be irrevocable.

6.7. Maturity; Surrender, etc.

In the case of each prepayment of Notes pursuant to this Article, the principal amount of each Note to be prepaid shall mature and become due and payable on the date fixed for such prepayment, together with interest on such principal amount accrued to such date or the applicable premium, if any. From and after such date, unless the Issuer shall fail to pay such principal amount when so due and payable, together with the interest or premium, if any, as aforesaid, interest on such principal amount shall cease to accrue. No Note shall be issued in lieu of any prepaid principal amount of any Note.

6.8. Purchase of Notes.

The Issuer will not, and will not permit any Affiliate, to purchase, redeem, prepay or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, any of the outstanding Notes except upon the payment or prepayment of the Notes in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Notes. The Issuer will promptly cancel all Notes that it or any of its Affiliates acquire pursuant to any payment, prepayment or purchase of Notes pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, and no Notes may be issued in substitution or exchange for any such Notes.

approvals of any Governmental Authority could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect.

7.3. Maintenance and Operation of the Projects.

Such Loan Party will acquire, develop, operate and construct the applicable Projects and the related transmission facilities in material conformity with all Project Documents (including any manufacturer's warranties), Prudent Engineering and Operating Practices, prudent construction practices, and all approvals of any Governmental Authority. Such Loan Party will maintain and preserve the applicable Projects and the related transmission facilities in good working order and condition (including without limitation, inventories, spare parts and system redundancies), ordinary wear and tear excepted. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries may contest any taxes or assessments levied by any Governmental Authority and, so long as such contest is being diligently pursued by appropriate proceedings and does not cause a Material Adverse Effect or constitute a default under or breach of any of the Project Documents, such contest on the part of such Loan Party or Subsidiary shall not be an Event of Default; provided, however, that during the pendency of any such contest involving a disputed amount in excess of $100,000 with respect to such Loan Party or Subsidiary, any applicable Project or any of its Collateral, such Loan Party or Subsidiary shall furnish to the Lender an indemnity bond satisfactory to the Lender or other security acceptable to the Lender in an amount equal to any unpaid amount being contested plus a reasonable additional sum to cover possible costs, interest and penalties, or should such contest not involve a liquidated amount, in an amount reasonably acceptable to the Lender; provided that such Loan Party and each Subsidiary shall pay any amount adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be due, with all costs, interest and penalties thereon, before such becomes a Lien (other than Permitted Lien) on any Project or any Collateral. Such Loan Party shall pay when due all costs and expenses required to be paid by this Agreement, including, without limitation, all fees for filing or recording any Loan Documents including, without limitation, all taxes (except Excluded Taxes) and filing fees in connection with the execution, delivery or recordation of any Lien and the execution, issuance and delivery of the Loan Documents and the Notes.

7.7. Enforcement of Rights.

Such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries shall use commercially reasonable efforts to enforce any rights it has against any third party including, without limitation, any rights the failure of which to enforce could reasonably be expected to cause a Material Adverse Effect. To the extent that any other Person has a right to enforce any rights against any third party as to which the failure to enforce such rights could cause a Material Adverse Effect, such Loan Party or Subsidiary shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Person to enforce such rights.

7.8. Maintenance of Records.

Such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries will keep proper records and books of account, in which full and correct entries shall be made of all financial transactions of such Loan Party, the assets and business of such Loan Party or Subsidiary, and all costs and expenses incurred by such Loan Party or Subsidiary, in accordance with U.S. GAAP and will maintain all records required with respect to compliance with Governmental Requirements.

7.9. Intellectual Property.

Except where a failure to do so would not cause a Material Adverse Effect, such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries will obtain and maintain all licenses, permits, franchises, authorizations, Intellectual Property, or other proprietary rights and technology or rights thereto, that are necessary in connection with the construction, operation and maintenance of the Projects and/or the ownership or leasing of its properties and the conduct of its business as now conducted or as presently proposed to be conducted.

Such Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries will maintain good and valid title in and to all of its real property, including the land, easements, leases, licenses and other rights constituting the Project Land, and good and valid rights to all its other property, subject only to Permitted Liens.

7.12. Indemnification.

(a) Such Loan Party hereby indemnifies and holds harmless the Lender and its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents, successors and assigns from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, fees and disbursements of counsel, amounts paid in settlement and court costs) which may be incurred by or asserted against any such indemnified Person in connection with or arising out of or in any way relating to or resulting from (i) any violation of any Environmental Laws or from any Environmental Claim in connection with the Notes, the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents, any Loan Party or any of the Project Land and (ii) for any violation of any confidentiality provision of any Project Document, and each Loan Party hereby agrees to reimburse each such indemnified Person for any reasonable legal or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating, defending or participating in any action or proceeding out of which any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses may arise. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Loan Party shall be liable or responsible for losses, claims, damages, costs and expenses incurred by any indemnified Person that a court of competent jurisdiction has found resulted primarily from such person's own bad faith, negligence or willful misconduct. If for any reason the indemnification provided for herein is unavailable to any Person or insufficient to hold it harmless as and to the extent contemplated hereby, each Loan Party hereby agrees to contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Person as a result of such loss, claim, damage, liability or expense in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by such Loan Party, on the one hand, and such indemnified Person, on the other hand, and also the respective fault of such Loan Party, on the one hand, and such indemnified Person, on the other hand, as the case may be, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the indemnity provided above is intended to survive the payment or transfer of the Notes, the termination of this Agreement, and the reconveyance, foreclosure or release of the Collateral to the Loan Parties with respect to any and all claims, obligations, liabilities, losses, damages, penalties, actions, suits, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) of whatever kind and nature, whether or not well-founded, meritorious or unmeritorious, demanded, asserted or claimed against any indemnified Person by third parties; provided, however, that to the extent such indemnity survives such reconveyance, foreclosure or release, the obligations thereunder shall be unsecured, and provided, further that no Loan Party shall be required to indemnify against or hold any indemnified Person harmless from any claim, obligation, liability, loss, damage, penalty, action, suit, cost or expense to the extent caused from the bad faith, negligence or willful misconduct of such indemnified Person.

7.13. Illinois Reimbursement Obligations.

If required by law, such Loan Party will file a proposed schedule for payment of the Illinois Reimbursement Obligations for each Illinois Project in which such Loan Party has an ownership interest, which proposed schedule will be approved by the Lender, at such a time as to make it reasonably likely that the ICC will issue its approval of such schedule at least one year prior to the time when the first payment of the Illinois Reimbursement Obligations for such Illinois Project will come due.

7.14. Environmental Matters.

At its sole cost and expense, such Loan Party shall comply with and shall cause all other occupants of the Project Land (including the Gascos), to the extent that such other occupants are under its control, to comply with all Environmental Laws now in effect or hereafter enacted with respect to the Release, generation, removal, transportation, storage and handling of Hazardous Materials. Such Loan Party shall promptly notify the Lender if any Responsible Officer of such Loan Party shall become aware of the release of any Hazardous Materials on or near any Project Land in violation of any Environmental Law and/or if any Responsible Officer of such Loan Party shall become aware that any act or omission of such Loan Party could reasonably be expected to give rise to a claim that any Project Land is in violation of any Environmental Laws, which claim, if enforced by a court of competent jurisdiction, would have a Material Adverse Effect, and/or if any Responsible Officer of such Loan Party shall become aware of any condition on or near the Project Land that could reasonably be expected to have been caused by such Loan Party that shall pose a threat to the health, safety or welfare of humans. To the extent required by contractual arrangements with the lessor or the owners and operators of landfills, such Loan Party shall promptly remove all Hazardous Materials that violate any Environmental Law from any Project Land under its control, such removal and the ultimate disposal of such Hazardous Materials to be performed in accordance with all applicable federal, state and local laws, statutes, rules and regulations. Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall engage in the acquisition of the assets or the ownership interests of any Person other than (i) acquisition of the assets or ownership interests of another Loan Party or Subsidiary of a Loan Party, (ii) acquisitions that do not exceed $3,000,000 on a cumulative aggregate basis or (iii) acquisitions approved by the Lender, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld.

8.6. Restricted Payments.

(a) The Issuer covenants that, it shall not (i) declare, pay or make any dividend or distribution (in cash, property or obligations) on any shares of any class of capital stock or in respect of the Convertible Royalty Interest (now or hereafter outstanding), or on any warrants, options or other rights with respect to any shares of any class of capital stock or in respect of the Convertible Royalty Interest, or (ii) apply any funds, property or assets to the purchase, redemption, sinking fund or other retirement of, or agree to purchase or redeem, any shares of any class of capital stock (now or hereafter outstanding) or the Convertible Royalty Interest (collectively "Restricted Payments") unless (A) no Default or Event of Default exists on the date of such Restricted Payment, and (B) each Loan Party has deposited its relevant Debt Service Reserve Minimum Amount and Illinois Reimbursement Minimum Amount, as required by Sections 4.02 (a) and (b) of each Amended Security Agreement, as of the date of such Restricted Payment. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if the conditions set forth in (A) and (B) of the foregoing sentence have been fulfilled, then to the extent that the Issuer receives proceeds from a Special Event described in Section 6.2(b), the Issuer may declare, pay or make any dividend or distribution (in cash property or obligations) on shares of any class of capital stock or in respect of the Convertible Royalty Interest if, after giving effect to the removal of the cash flow of the assets subject to such Special Event, the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is at least 1.5:1.00.

(b) The Issuer covenants that, if an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, it shall make no payments with respect to any Subordinated Indebtedness.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section shall not be deemed to supersede the payment provisions of Article IV of any Amended Security Agreement.

8.7. Consolidation; Merger and Change of Control.

(a) Other than as set forth in Section 8.5 or paragraphs (i) and (ii) below, neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall liquidate or dissolve, consolidate or amalgamate with, or merge into or with, any other corporation, or purchase, acquire all or any substantial part of the assets or stock of any Person or otherwise permit a Change of Control respecting such

Loan Party or Subsidiary without the prior written consent of the Lender, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld; provided, however:

(i) any Loan Party may consolidate or amalgamate with, merge into or with, acquire the assets or stock of, or engage in a Change of Control involving, solely another Loan Party or Loan Parties, provided, however, that in any such consolidation, amalgamation or merger involving the Issuer, the Issuer shall be the surviving entity; and

(ii) any Change of Control transaction involving solely the Issuer and its shareholders at the Closing Date (or wholly owned subsidiaries of such shareholders or Persons that own 100% of the ownership interests of such shareholders) shall be permitted without the consent of the Lender.

8.8. Asset Dispositions.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries will sell, transfer, lease, contribute or otherwise convey or dispose of, all or any part of its assets (including accounts receivable and capital stock of such Loan Party's Subsidiaries) to any Person unless:

(a) if such sale, transfer, lease, contribution, conveyance or disposition of assets is voluntarily made by such Loan Party and constitutes a Special Event described in Section 6.2, (x) the mandatory prepayment requirements of Section 6.2(a) are fulfilled (y) the cash proceeds of such Special Event constitute at least 75% of the proceeds of such Special Event and (z) the proceeds of such Special Event equal the fair market value of the subject assets;

(b) such sale, transfer, lease, contribution, conveyance or disposition of assets constitutes an event described in Section 6.2(b);

(c) such sale, transfer, lease, contribution, conveyance or disposition of assets is made in connection with (i) licensing of Intellectual Property in the Ordinary Course of Business or (ii) leases or subleases of real property not materially interfering with the conduct of business of such Loan Party or Subsidiary;

(d) such sale, transfer, lease, contribution, conveyance or disposition of assets is made with respect to issued and outstanding shares of common stock or partnership or membership interests in such Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries and such sale does not constitute a Change in Control;

(e) such sale, transfer, lease, contribution, conveyance or disposition of assets is entered into in connection with the replacement of engines at the Morris Project and the Countryside Project; or

(f) the Net Cash Proceeds of such sale, transfer, lease, contribution, conveyance or disposition of assets (not otherwise permitted under this Section), when calculated on a cumulative, aggregate basis, do not exceed $3,000,000 in value.

8.9. Modification of Certain Agreements.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries will:

(a) consent to any amendment, supplement or other modification of any of the terms or provisions contained in, or applicable to, any Organic Document or Project Document of such Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries, which (i) violates the terms of this Agreement or any other Operative Document, (ii) may reasonably be expected to materially adversely effect the rights, interests or privileges of the Lender or its ability to realize upon, enforce the terms of or assign any such Organic Document or Project Document or (iii) results in the imposition or expansion in any material respect of any restriction or burden on the Loan Parties or any Subsidiary. Such Loan Party and each such Subsidiary will, prior to entering into any amendment, addition or other modification of any of such Organic Document or Project Document, deliver to the Lender reasonably in advance of the execution thereof, any final or execution copy of amendments, supplements, additions or other modifications to such documents, and agrees not to take any such action with respect to any such documents, in contravention of the terms hereof;

(b) enter into any amendment, waiver or release with respect to, terminate, or fail to take any commercially reasonable action to enforce, any Project Document to which such Loan Party is a party unless (i) such new Project Document, amendment, waiver, release, termination or failure to act would not cause a Material Adverse Effect or (ii) such termination by a Third Party is permitted under the terms of such contract. The Issuer shall make any prepayments required under Section 6.2 in connection with any termination permitted under this Section.

8.10. Transactions with Affiliates.

No Loan Party or Subsidiary shall enter into any transaction, including, without limitation, the purchase, sale, transfer, lease or exchange of property or the rendering or purchase of any service to or from any Affiliate of any Loan Party or Subsidiary (for the purposes of this Section 8.10 only, including the Excluded Assets), except in the ordinary course of, and pursuant to the reasonable requirements of, such Loan Party's or Subsidiary's business and on reasonable terms substantially equivalent to terms available in a comparable arm's-length transaction with an unaffiliated Person; provided, however, that Loan Parties and Subsidiaries may enter into non arm's-length transactions with other Loan Parties and with their own Subsidiaries. This Section shall not be construed to prohibit, impair or affect any contract or investment in effect on the Closing Date or otherwise permitted by this Agreement including, without limitation, the contracts and instruments set forth on Schedule 8.10 or renewal or replacement thereof or to limit the right of any Loan Party to enter into operation and maintenance contracts with any other Loan Party, in each case, on terms and conditions substantially comparable to those contained in contracts existing on the Closing Date and provided to the Lender and otherwise in accordance with this Agreement.

8.11. Negative Pledges, Restrictive Agreements.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries will enter into any agreement (excluding any Loan Document as in effect on the date hereof) prohibiting:

(a) the ability of any Loan Party to amend or otherwise modify any Loan Document (except as pursuant to (i) that certain Acknowledgement and Consent, dated as of the date hereof, made by the Issuer in favor of the Eligible Fund Lender and (ii) that certain Acknowledgement and Consent, dated as of the date hereof, by the Lender and the Loan Parties in favor of the Eligible Fund Lender); or

(b) the ability of any Subsidiary to make any payments, directly or indirectly, to any Loan Party by way of dividends, advances, repayments of loans or advances, reimbursements of management and other intercompany charges, expenses and accruals or other returns on investments, or any other agreement or arrangement that restricts the ability of any such Subsidiary to make any payment, directly or indirectly, to any Loan Party.

8.12. Accounting Changes.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall change its Fiscal Year without the prior consent of the Lender. Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall make or permit any change in accounting policies or reporting practices except as required or permitted by U.S. GAAP or, if not permitted by U.S. GAAP, with the prior consent of the Lender.

8.13. Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries will enter into any arrangement with any Person whereby in a substantially contemporaneous transaction such Loan Party or Subsidiary sells all or substantially all of its right, title and interest in an asset and, in connection therewith, acquires or leases back the right to use such asset.

8.14. ERISA.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its ERISA Affiliates shall:

(a) engage in any transaction in connection with which it could be subject to either a material civil penalty assessed pursuant to the provisions of Section 502 of ERISA or a material tax imposed under the provisions of Section 4975 of the Code; or

(b) terminate any Pension Plan in a "distress termination" under Section 4041 of ERISA, or take any other action that could result in a material liability of any Loan Party or Subsidiary or any ERISA Affiliate to the PBGC.

8.15. Changes to Subordinated Debt.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall, without the prior written consent of the Lender, amend or modify (whether by waiver or otherwise), any agreement or instrument related to any Subordinated Indebtedness so as to increase the rate of interest payable with respect to such Subordinated Indebtedness or that otherwise has a Material Adverse Effect, provided, however, that such Loan Party may prepay any principal of or interest on such Subordinated Indebtedness as set forth in Section 8.17.

8.16. Loan Documents.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall take or, to the extent of such Loan Party's or Subsidiary's power, permit any other Person to take, any action (or omit to take any action) which would be in violation of the arrangements provided in the Loan Documents.

8.17. Prepayment of Subordinated Debt.

Such Loan Party shall not be permitted to prepay optionally any Subordinated Indebtedness other than from (i) the proceeds of sales of any common stock or preferred stock of the Issuer that is otherwise permitted hereunder (provided that the terms of any such preferred stock shall be reasonably acceptable to the Lender) or (ii) the proceeds of the issuance of Indebtedness of the Issuer issued to refinance Subordinated Indebtedness (provided that (A) the holder of such Indebtedness shall have become a party to the Subordination Agreement on or prior to the date of issuance of such Indebtedness on substantially the same terms as its predecessor is bound or on such other terms as are satisfactory to the Lender in its sole discretion, (B) the principal amount of such Indebtedness shall not exceed the outstanding principal amount of the Subordinated Indebtedness being so refinanced immediately prior to the date of issuance of such Indebtedness, and (C) the maturity date and the weighted average life to maturity of such Indebtedness shall not be less than the maturity date and weighted average life to maturity of the Subordinated Indebtedness being so refinanced immediately prior to the date of issuance of such Indebtedness).

8.18. Indebtedness of Others.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries will purchase, repurchase or otherwise acquire any Indebtedness of other Persons other than in connection with the AJG IEGP Loan Transaction.

8.19. Qualifying Facility; Regulation.

(a) Such Loan Party shall not take any action or fail to take any action that would cause any of the Projects (other than the Cape May Project, the SPSA II (Transo) Project or the Tucson Project) to fail to be a "qualifying facility" within the meaning of PURPA or Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 292, Subpart B or that would cause any of the Illinois Projects to fail to be a "qualified solid waste energy facility" under Section 8-403.1 of the Illinois Revised Statutes and the rules thereunder, to the extent that such statutes and rules are applicable to the Projects.

(b) Such Loan Party will not take any action (or omit to take any action that it has the authority to take) which could reasonably be expected to result in the representation in Section 3.18 becoming untrue as a result of such action or omission.

8.20. Use of Proceeds.

Such Loan Party shall not apply the cash proceeds of the sale or exchange of the Notes other than as provided in Schedule 3.15 or apply any part of such proceeds directly or indirectly, and whether immediately, incidentally or ultimately, for the purpose of buying or carrying any margin security within the meaning of Regulations T, U and X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, for the purpose of reducing or retiring any indebtedness originally incurred for such purpose, or for any purpose that violates or is inconsistent with the provisions of said Regulations T, U and X.

8.21. New Subsidiaries; Transfers of Interests.

(a) Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall create or suffer to exist any Subsidiary not in existence on the Closing Date, except for any Subsidiary that relates solely to the Excluded Assets or the Improvement Agreement, without the prior consent of the Lender.

(b) Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall sell, transfer, lease, contribute or otherwise convey or dispose of all or any part of any ownership interest it may have in another Loan Party without the prior consent of the Lender, except in accordance with Section 8.7 and 8.8.

8.22. Line of Business.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall cease or change its line of business as set forth in Section 3.29 without the consent of the Lender, which, in the case of cessations of a line of business, shall not be unreasonably withheld.

8.23. Purchase Option.

Such Loan Party will not exercise any purchase or lease option or right to acquire additional assets (other than in the Ordinary Course of Business) under any Project Document or otherwise without first obtaining the consent of the Lender except for the acquisition of assets relating to the Development Projects, Repowering Projects (as defined in the Improvement Agreement), or Gascos or as otherwise expressly permitted under the Loan Documents; provided that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to the exercise by Resources of its option to purchase an interest in IEGP and IEGP II from AJG.

8.24. Settlements.

Neither such Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall enter into, or consent to, one or more settlement agreements or arrangements with respect to any litigation, dispute or regulatory proceeding involving any Loan Party or Subsidiary, if such agreement or agreements hold such Loan Party or any Subsidiary liable for an amount in excess of $2,000,000 (or an amount in excess of $5,000,000, when aggregated with the liability of any Loan Party or any Subsidiary under any other settlement agreements or arrangements occurring after the Closing Date).

8.25. Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio.

The Issuer will not permit the Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio to be less than (i) 1.10:1 as at the end of any Fiscal Quarter ending on or after June 30, 2004 but on or prior to December 31, 2004, (ii) 1.15:1 as at the end of any Fiscal Quarter ending on or after March 31, 2005 but on or prior to December 31, 2005, and (iii) 1.25:1 as at the end of any Fiscal Quarter ending on or after March 31, 2006. The Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio will be tested as at the last day of each full Fiscal Quarter during which any of the Notes are outstanding.

8.26. Speculative Transactions.

No Loan Party will enter into any Swap Agreement or derivative transaction of any kind for speculative purposes; provided, however, that nothing in this Article VIII shall be construed as prohibiting the transactions required by Section 7.17.

9. GUARANTY.

9.1. Guaranty.

(a) In consideration of the indirect benefit received from the Advance and for other good and valuable consideration, each Guarantor hereby absolutely and irrevocably guarantees to the Lender and its successors, endorsees, transferees and assigns the prompt payment (whether at stated maturity, by acceleration or otherwise) and performance of (i) the Notes and the other Obligations, including (A) all principal of and interest (including any interest that accrues after the commencement of any case, proceeding or other action relating to the bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Issuer, whether or not such interest constitutes an allowable claim) on any Note issued pursuant to this Agreement and (B) all other amounts payable and all obligations to be performed by the Issuer under this Agreement or any other Loan Document and (ii) any renewals or extensions of any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Guaranteed Obligations").

(b) Each Guarantor agrees that this is a guaranty of payment and performance and not of collection, and that its obligations hereunder shall be absolute, irrespective of, and unaffected by:

(i) the genuineness, validity, regularity, enforceability or any future amendment of, or change in, the Notes, this Agreement or any other Loan Document or any other agreement, document or instrument to which any Loan Party is or are or may become a party;

(ii) the absence of any action to enforce the Notes, this Agreement or any other Loan Document or the waiver or consent by the Lender with respect to any of the provisions of any Loan Document; or

(iii) any other action or circumstances that might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or guarantor (other than payment in full);

it being agreed by each Guarantor that its obligations hereunder shall not be discharged until the payment and performance, in full, of the Guaranteed Obligations.

(c) Each Guarantor expressly waives all rights it may now or in the future have under any statute, or at common law, or at law or in equity, or otherwise, to compel the Lender to proceed in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations against the Issuer or any other Person before proceeding against, or as a condition to proceeding against, such Guarantor. Each Guarantor further expressly waives and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any defense based upon the failure of the Lender to commence an action in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations against the Issuer, any Guarantor or any other Person. Each Guarantor agrees that any notice or directive given at any time to the Lender by the Issuer, any Guarantor or any other Person that is inconsistent with the waivers in the preceding two sentences shall be null and void and may be ignored by the Lender, and, in addition, may not be pleaded or introduced as evidence in any litigation relating to the obligations of such Guarantor under this Article for the reason that such pleading or introduction would be at variance with the written terms hereof, unless the Lender has specifically agreed otherwise in writing. The foregoing waivers are of the essence of the transaction contemplated by the Loan Documents and, but for this provisions of this Article and such waivers, the Lender would decline to purchase the Notes.

9.2. Demand by the Lender.

In addition to the terms of the guaranty set forth in Section 9.1, and in no manner imposing any limitation on such terms, if the then outstanding principal amount of the Guaranteed Obligations is declared to be immediately due and payable (or automatically becomes immediately due and payable), then the Guarantors are required to pay to the Lender the entire outstanding Guaranteed Obligations due and owing to the Lender, subject to the requirements of section 9.3. Payment by the Issuer shall be credited and applied upon the Guaranteed Obligations and shall be made in immediately available federal funds to an account as set forth in Section 12.2.

9.3. Enforcement of Guaranty.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, in no event shall the Lender have any obligation (although it is entitled, at its option) to proceed against the Issuer, any Guarantor or any other Person or any real or personal property pledged to secure the Guaranteed Obligations before proceeding against any Guarantor, and the Lender may proceed, prior or subsequent to, or simultaneously with, the enforcement of the Lender's rights hereunder, to exercise any right or remedy that it may have against the Issuer or any such other Person or against any property, real or personal, as a result of any lien that it may have as security for all or any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no payments may be required from any Guarantor under this Article unless and until (i) the Lender has provided notice to the Issuer and the Guarantors of an Event of Default and (ii) a period of ten days has elapsed after such notice has been received by the Issuer and the Guarantors (provided, however, that the requirements of this sentence need not be met if an Event of Default described in Section 10.01(h)(ii)-(iv) has occurred).

9.4. Waivers.

In addition to the waivers contained in Section 9.1(c), each Guarantor waives, and agrees that it shall not at any time insist upon, plead or in any manner whatever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any appraisal, valuation, stay, extension, marshalling of assets or redemption laws, or exemption, whether now or at any time hereafter in force, which may delay, prevent or otherwise affect the performance by it of its obligations under, or the enforcement by the Lender of, the provisions of this Article. Each Guarantor further hereby waives diligence (whether for non-payment or protest or of acceptance, maturity, extension of time, change in nature or form of the Guaranteed Obligations, acceptance of the guaranty by the Lender and acceptance of security, release of security, composition or agreement arrived at as to the amount of, or the terms of, the Guaranteed Obligations, notice of adverse change in any Loan Party's financial condition or any other fact that might materially increase the risk to the Guarantors) with respect to any of the Guaranteed Obligations and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waives the benefit of all provisions of law that are or might be in conflict with the terms of this Article. Each Guarantor represents, warrants and agrees that its obligations under this Article are not and shall not be subject to any counterclaims, offsets or defenses of any kind against the Lender, or, until the Guaranteed Obligations have been satisfied in full, the Loan Parties or any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations now existing or that may arise in the future.

9.5. Benefits of Guaranty.

The provisions of this Article are for the benefit of the Lender and its successors, transferees, endorsees and assigns and nothing herein contained shall impair, as among the Loan Parties, the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and the Loan Documents.

9.6. Modification of Notes, etc.

If the Lender shall at any time or from time to time, with or without the consent of, or notice to, each Guarantor:

(a) change or extend the manner, place or terms of payment of, or renew or alter all or any portion of, the Guaranteed Obligations, including, without limitation, the Notes and the other Obligations of the Issuer;

(b) take any action under or in respect of the Notes or the Loan Documents in the exercise of any remedy, power or privilege contained therein or available to it at law, equity or otherwise, or waive or refrain from exercising any such remedies, powers or privileges;

(c) amend or modify, in any manner whatsoever, the Notes or the Loan Documents;

(d) extend or waive the time for any of the Issuer's or other Person's performance of, or compliance with, any term, covenant or agreement on its part to be performed or observed under the Notes or the other Loan Documents, or waive such performance or compliance or consent to a failure of, or departure from, such performance or compliance;

(e) take and hold security or collateral for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations or sell, exchange, release, dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any property pledged, mortgaged or conveyed, or in which the Lender may have been granted a lien, to secure to the Lender any Indebtedness of the Loan Parties or any other guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations;

(f) release anyone who may be liable in any manner for the payment of any amounts owed to the Lender by any Loan Party or other guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations;

(g) modify or terminate the terms of any intercreditor or subordination agreement pursuant to which claims of other creditors of any Loan Party or other guarantor of any of the Guaranteed Obligations are subordinated to the claims of the Lender; or

(h) apply any sums by whomever paid or however realized to any amounts owing to the Lender by any Loan Party or other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations, in such manner as the Lender shall determine in its discretion;

then the Lender shall not incur any liability to any Guarantor as a result thereof, and no such action shall impair or release the obligations of any Guarantor under this Article.

9.7. Reinstatement.

To the extent permitted by law, the provisions of this Article shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be effective in the event any petition is filed by or against any Loan Party for liquidation or reorganization, in the event any Loan Party becomes insolvent or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or in the event a receiver or trustee is appointed for all or any significant part of the assets of any Loan Party, and shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof is, pursuant to applicable law, rescinded or reduced in amount, or must otherwise be restored or returned by the Lender, whether as a "voidable preference", "fraudulent conveyance" or otherwise, all as though such payment or performance had not been made. In the event that any payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any part thereof, is rescinded, reduced, restored or returned, the Guaranteed Obligations or part thereof so rescinded, restored or returned shall be reinstated, and the Guaranteed Obligations shall be deemed reduced only by such amount paid and not so rescinded, reduced, restored or returned.

9.8. Waiver of Subrogation, etc.

Upon the making by any Guarantor of any payment hereunder in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations, such Guarantor shall be subrogated to the rights of the Lender against the Issuer with respect to such payment; provided that such Guarantor shall not enforce any right to receive any payment by way of subrogation, reimbursement, contribution or setoff resulting from such payment until all of the Guaranteed Obligations have been paid in full. If any amount shall be paid to any Guarantor on account of such subrogation, reimbursement, contribution or setoff rights, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Lender and any other holders of the Guaranteed Obligations and shall forthwith be paid to the Lender and all other holders of Guaranteed Obligations to be credited and applied upon the Guaranteed Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Agreement.

9.9. Election of Remedies, etc.

Any election of remedies that results in the denial or impairment of the right of the Lender to seek a deficiency judgment against the Issuer shall not impair any Guarantor's obligations to pay the full amount of the Guaranteed Obligations. In the event the Lender shall bid at any foreclosure or trustee's sale or at any private sale permitted by law or the Loan Documents, the Lender may bid all or less than the amount of the Guaranteed Obligations and the amount of such bid need not be paid by the Lender but shall be credited against the Guaranteed Obligations. The amount of the successful bid at any public auction, whether the Lender or any other party is the successful bidder, shall be conclusively deemed to be the fair market value of the collateral and the difference between such bid amount and the remaining balance of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be conclusively deemed to be the amount of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed under the provisions of this Article, notwithstanding that any present or future law or court decision or ruling may have the effect of reducing the amount of any deficiency claim to which the Lender might otherwise be entitled but for such bidding at any such sale.

9.10. Continuing Guaranty.

Each Guarantor agrees that the provisions of this Article are a continuing guaranty and shall remain in full force and effect until the payment and performance in full of the Guaranteed Obligations.

9.11. Savings Clause.

(a) It is the intent of each Guarantor that its maximum obligations hereunder (the "Guarantor Maximum Obligation") shall be in, but not in excess of:

(i) in a case or proceeding commenced by or against such Guarantor under Title 11 of the United States Code entitled "Bankruptcy", as now and hereafter in effect, or any successor statute (the "Bankruptcy Code") on or within one year from the date on which such Guaranteed Obligations are incurred, the maximum amount that would not otherwise cause such Guaranteed Obligations to be avoidable or unenforceable against the Guarantor under Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code; or

(ii) in a case or proceeding commenced by or against such Guarantor under the Bankruptcy Code subsequent to one year from the date on which the Guaranteed Obligations of such Guarantor are incurred, the maximum amount that would not otherwise cause such Guaranteed Obligations to be avoidable or unenforceable against such Guarantor under any state fraudulent transfer or fraudulent conveyance act or statute applied in any such case or proceeding by virtue of Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code; or

(iii) in a case or proceeding commenced by or against such Guarantor under any law, statute or regulation other than the Bankruptcy Code (including any other bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, dissolution, liquidation or similar debtor relief laws or any state fraudulent transfer or fraudulent conveyance act or statute applied in any such case or proceeding), the maximum amount that would not otherwise cause the Guaranteed Obligations of such Guarantor to be avoidable or unenforceable against such Guarantor under such law, statute or regulation.

The substantive laws under which possible avoidance or unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations shall be determined in any such case or proceeding shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Avoidance Provisions."

(b) To the extent set forth in this subsection, but only to the extent that the Guaranteed Obligations of such Guarantor would otherwise be subject to avoidance under any Avoidance Provisions if such Guarantor is not deemed to have received valuable consideration, fair value or reasonably equivalent value for such Guaranteed Obligations, and if such Guaranteed Obligations would render such Guarantor insolvent, leave such Guarantor with an unreasonably small capital to conduct its business or cause such Guarantor to have incurred debts (or to have intended to have incurred debts) beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature, in each case as of the time any of the Guaranteed Obligations are deemed to have been incurred under the Avoidance Provisions, then the Guarantor Maximum Obligations shall be reduced to that amount that, after giving effect thereto, would not cause the Guaranteed Obligations, as so reduced, to be subject to avoidance under the Avoidance Provisions. This subsection is intended solely to preserve the rights of the Lender under the Notes and the other Loan Documents to the maximum extent that would not cause the Guaranteed Obligations to be subject to avoidance under the Avoidance Provisions, and neither such Guarantor nor any other Person shall have any right or claim under this subsection as against the Lender that would not otherwise be available to such Person under the Avoidance Provisions.

10.1. Events of Default.

(a) The Issuer defaults in the payment of any principal, interest, or premium, if any, on any Note or any fees or other amounts owing under this Agreement or under any other Loan Document when the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity or at a date fixed for prepayment or by declaration or otherwise and such default is not cured within 10 days of the Lender's notice to the Issuer of such default; or

(b) Any Loan Party defaults in the payment of any amount owing by such Loan Party under any Loan Document when the same becomes due and payable, whether at maturity or at a date fixed for prepayment or by declaration or otherwise and such default is not cured within 10 days of the Lender's notice to such Loan Party of such default; or

(c) Any Loan Party defaults in the performance of or compliance with any term contained in Section 5.1(g), 7.1, 7.2, 7.3, 7.5, 8.2, 8.4, 8.7, 8.8, 8.9, 8.10, 8.18, 8.19 or 8.25 of this Agreement or Section 5.01, 5.07, 5.11 or 5.12 of the Amended Security Agreement; or

(d) Any Loan Party defaults in the performance of or compliance with any term contained in the Amended Security Agreement (other than those referred to in subsection (a), (b) or (c) above) or any other Loan Document, and such default is not remedied within 30 days after such Loan Party receives written notice of such default from the Lender; provided, that if such Loan Party provides notice to the Lender that such Loan Party is proceeding diligently to cure such default but that such default cannot reasonably, in such Loan Party's judgment, be cured within 30 days, then such Loan Party may take up to 120 days to cure such default without causing an Event of Default; or

(e) Any representation or warranty made in writing by or on behalf of any Loan Party or by any Responsible Officer of any Loan Party in any Loan Document or in any writing furnished in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby proves to have been false or incorrect in any Material respect on the date as of which such representation or warranty was made; or

(f) A default shall occur in the payment when due (subject to any applicable grace period), whether by acceleration or otherwise, of any Total Debt of any Loan Party in a principal amount, individually or in the aggregate, of $8,000,000 or more, or a default shall occur in the performance or observance of any obligation or condition with respect to secured Total Debt of any Loan Party in a principal amount, individually or in the aggregate, of $4,000,000 or more, if the effect of such default is to accelerate the maturity of any such Total Debt except that this subsection shall not apply to any default under the AGJ IEGP Loan Transaction; or

(g) Any judgment or order for the payment of money in excess of $2,000,000 shall be rendered against any Loan Party or any Subsidiary of any Loan Party, and there shall be any period of 60 consecutive days during which a stay of enforcement of such judgment or order, by reason of a pending appeal, bond, sufficient insurance coverage (acknowledged in writing by the insurer) or otherwise, shall not be in effect; or

(h) Any Loan Party shall:

(i) Generally fail to pay its debts as they become due, or admit in writing its inability to pay debts as they become due;

(ii) Apply for, consent to, or acquiesce in, the appointment of a trustee, receiver, sequestrator, or other custodian for itself or any of its property, or make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors or take any corporate action authorizing, or in furtherance of, the foregoing;

(iii) Consent or acquiesce, permit or suffer to exist the involuntary appointment of a trustee, receiver, sequestrator or other custodian for itself or for a substantial part of its property, and such trustee, receiver, sequestrator or other custodian shall not be discharged within 60 days, or take any corporate action authorizing, or in furtherance of, the foregoing; or

(iv) Permit or suffer to exist the involuntary commencement of, or voluntarily commence, any bankruptcy, reorganization, debt arrangement, or other case or proceeding under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws, or permit or suffer to exist the involuntary commencement of, or voluntarily commence, any dissolution, winding up or liquidation proceeding, in each case, by or against it; provided, that if not commenced by it such proceeding shall be consented to or acquiesced in by it, or shall result in the entry of an order for relief or shall remain for 60 days undismissed; or

(i) Without the consent of the Lender, any Loan Document or any Lien granted thereunder shall (except in accordance with the terms of such Loan Document), in whole or in part, terminate, cease to be effective or cease to be the legally valid, binding and enforceable obligation of each Loan Party party thereto, or any security interest in the Collateral purported to be pledged thereunder shall, in whole or in part, cease to be a perfected first priority security interest in favor of the Lender subject (in the case of non-possessory security interests only) to Permitted Liens; or

(j) Any of the following events shall occur:

(i) Any Loan Party or any Subsidiary of any Loan Party shall be in default (after giving effect to any applicable grace periods) under any Project Document to which it is a party and such default would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(ii) Any Project Document shall at any time be canceled or terminated by any Project Owner party thereto (except following performance or payment in full of the obligations under, or expiration at the end of the term of, or a termination as of right in accordance with the terms and conditions of such Project Document or the replacement of such Project Document in accordance with the proviso of Section 7.7(d), or otherwise with the consent of the Lender) and (i) such termination or cancellation is not being contested in good faith by such Project Owner or the applicable Subsidiary of such Project Owner, and (ii) such acts, events, or circumstances have resulted, or would reasonably be expected to result, in a Material Adverse Effect.

(iii) The loss, suspension or revocation of, or failure to renew, any Applicable Permit now held or hereafter acquired by any Project, if such loss, suspension, modification, revocation or failure to renew (together with all other such losses, suspensions, modifications, revocations and failures) would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(k) Any Project, other than the Cape May Project, the SPSA II (Transco) Project or the Tucson Project, shall cease to be a "qualifying facility" under PURPA or any Illinois Project shall cease to be a Qualified Solid Waste Energy Facility under Section 8-403.1 of the Illinois Revised Statutes and the regulations thereunder, and such event results in a Material Adverse Effect.

10.2. Acceleration.

(a) If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then the Lender may, upon written notice to the Loan Parties, declare the Obligations immediately due and payable.

(b) If any Event of Default described in Section 10.1(h)(ii) through (iv) shall have occurred and be continuing, then the Notes then outstanding shall automatically become immediately due and payable without the taking of any action on the part of the Lender or the giving of any notice with respect thereto.

(c) Upon the occurrence of any event described in Section 10.1(a) or (c) above, the Notes will forthwith mature and the entire unpaid principal amount of such Notes plus (if applicable) the premium described in Section 6.2 determined in respect of such principal amount (to the full extent permitted by applicable law), shall all be immediately due and payable, in each and every case without presentment, demand, protest or further notice, all of which are hereby waived. Each Loan Party acknowledges, and the parties hereto agree, that the Lender has the right to maintain its investment in the Notes free from prepayment by the Issuer (except as herein specifically provided for) and that the provision for payment of a premium by the Issuer in the event that the Notes are prepaid or accelerated as a result of an Event of Default, is intended to provide compensation for the deprivation of such right under such circumstances.

10.3. Default Remedies.

(a) If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender may, in addition to any other rights or remedies it may have as a Lender under the laws of the State of New York, the UCC or other applicable law, and in addition to the rights and remedies provided in Section 10.2, take any one or more of the following remedial steps, subject to the provisions of applicable law:

(i) realize upon and take possession of any Collateral, and, if and to the extent any of the Collateral shall not be in the possession or under the control of the Lender, the Lender may require the Loan Parties to assemble or package the Collateral and make it available to the Lender at a place to be designated by the Lender; or

(ii) sell, assign, lease or otherwise dispose of the Collateral in whole or in part at public or private sale upon terms and conditions established by the Lender; or

(iii) notify any and all parties to any of the contracts and agreements that constitute Collateral that the Lender has exercised its rights hereunder and that (to the extent not already done so) all payments then or thereafter owing to any Loan Party are to be made directly to the Lender.

(b) In addition to the remedies set forth above, the Lender may exercise its rights under the Security Documents.

(c) No remedy conferred upon or reserved to the Lender hereunder is or shall be deemed to be exclusive of any other available remedy or remedies. Each such remedy shall be distinct, separate and cumulative, shall not be deemed to be inconsistent with or in exclusion of any other available remedy, may be exercised in the discretion of the Lender at any time, in any manner, and in any order, and shall be in addition to and separate and distinct from every other remedy given the Lender under the Security Documents or in connection with any other security interest given to the Lender by the Loan Parties with respect to the Collateral now or hereafter existing in favor of the Lender at law or in equity or by statute. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Lender shall have the right to exercise any available remedy to recover any amount due and payable hereunder without regard to whether any other amount is due and payable.

10.4. Specific Performance.

If any Loan Party defaults in the performance of any provision of this Agreement, the Notes or the Security Documents, which default is not cured within the applicable cure period, if any, the Lender shall have the right and remedy, without posting bond or other security, and in addition to the rights and remedies provided in the Loan Documents, to have the provisions of any of the Loan Documents specifically enforced by any court having equity jurisdiction.

10.5. Application of Proceeds.

All amounts received by the Lender with respect to this Agreement, the Notes and the Security Documents (subject, in the case of proceeds of Collateral pledged pursuant to the BMC Group Security Agreement, to the provisions of the Intercreditor and Subordination Agreement, dated as of April 8, 2004, by and among the Lender, as the holder of the Series B Note, Yankee Energy Services Company, as holder of the YESCO Note, and the Lender, as holder of the Series A Notes) during the existence of an Event of Default shall be applied as follows:

(a) FIRST, to the payment of all fees, costs, indemnities and expenses, with interest thereon, then owed to the Lender pursuant to the Security Documents or this Agreement;

(b) SECOND, to the payment in full of all principal, interest or premium then due and owing with respect to the Notes;

(c) THIRD, to the payment in full of all other amounts then owed with respect to the Obligations; and

(d) FOURTH, to the balance, if any, to or at the written direction of the Loan Parties.

11. REGISTRATION; EXCHANGE; SUBSTITUTION OF NOTES.

11.1. Registration of Notes.

(a) The Issuer shall keep at its principal executive office a register for the registration and registration of transfers of Notes. The name and address of each holder of one or more Notes, each transfer of any Note and the name and address of each transferee of one or more Notes shall be registered in such register. Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer, the Person in whose name any Note shall be registered shall be deemed and treated as the owner and holder thereof for all purposes hereof, and the Loan Parties shall not be affected by any notice or knowledge to the contrary. The Issuer shall give to any holder of a Note that is an Institutional Investor promptly upon request therefor, a complete and correct copy of the names and addresses of all registered holders of Notes.

(b) No transfer shall be effective unless the requirements of this Section 11.1 and Section 11.2 are fulfilled. The requirements of this Section 11.1 and Section 11.2 are intended to result in the Notes being in "registered form" within the meaning of United States Treasury Regulations sections 1.871-14(c) and 5f.103-1(c) and sections 163(f), 871(h) and 881(c) of the Code and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent therewith.

11.2. Transfer and Exchange of Notes.

Upon surrender of any Note at the principal executive office of the Issuer for registration of transfer or exchange (and in the case of a surrender for registration of transfer, duly endorsed or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer duly executed by the registered holder of such Note or his attorney duly authorized in writing and accompanied by the address for notices of each transferee of such Note or part thereof), the Issuer shall execute and deliver, at its expense (except as provided below), one or more new Notes (as requested by the holder thereof) in exchange therefor, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the unpaid principal amount of the surrendered Note. Each such new Note shall be payable to such Person as such holder may request and shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit A. Each such new Note shall be dated and bear interest from the date to which interest shall have been paid on the surrendered Note or dated the date of the surrendered Note if no interest shall have been paid thereon. The Issuer may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp tax or governmental charge imposed in respect of any such transfer of Notes. Notes shall not be transferred in denominations of less than $100,000, provided that if necessary to enable the registration of transfer by a holder of its entire holding of Notes, one Note may be in a denomination of less than $100,000. Any transferee, by its acceptance of a Note registered in its name (or the name of its nominee), shall be deemed to have made the representations set forth in Section 4.

11.3. Replacement of Notes.

Upon receipt by the Issuer of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the ownership, of and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of, any Note (which evidence shall be, in the case of an Institutional Investor, notice from such Institutional Investor of such ownership and such loss, theft, destruction or mutilation), and

(a) in the case of loss, theft or destruction, the receipt of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it (provided that if the holder of such Note is, or is a nominee for, the Lender and has a minimum net worth of at least $75,000,000, such Person's own unsecured agreement of indemnity shall be deemed to be satisfactory), or

(b) in the case of mutilation, upon surrender and cancellation thereof, the Issuer at its own expense shall execute and deliver, in lieu thereof, a new Note, dated and bearing interest from the date to which interest shall have been paid on such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated Note or dated the date of such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated Note if no interest shall have been paid thereon.

12. PAYMENTS ON NOTES.

12.1. Place of Payment.

Subject to Section 12.2, payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest becoming due and payable on the Notes shall be made in the principal office of the Issuer. The Issuer may at any time, by notice to the Lender, change the place of payment of the Notes so long as such place of payment shall be either the principal office of the Issuer in the United States or the principal office of a bank or trust company in the United States.

12.2. Home Office Payment.

Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 12.1 or in such Note to the contrary, the Issuer will pay all sums becoming due on such Note for principal, premium, if any, and interest by wire transfer to the Lender at The Toronto-Dominion Bank, 55 King St. W. & Bay St., Toronto, Ontario M5K 1A2, Transit # 10202-004, Swift Code TDOMCATTTOR (for payments in U.S. Dollars: account number 7359730, ABA Number 026009593) (for payments in Canadian Dollars: account number 5245862), or by such other method or at such other address as the Lender shall have from time to time specified to the Issuer in writing for such purpose, without the presentation or surrender of such Note or the making of any notation thereon, except that upon written request of the Issuer made concurrently with or reasonably promptly after payment or prepayment in full of any Note, the Lender shall surrender such Note for cancellation, reasonably promptly after any such request, to the Issuer at its principal executive office or at the place of payment most recently designated by the Issuer pursuant to Section 12.1. Prior to any sale or other disposition of any Note held by the Lender or its nominee the Lender will, at its election, either endorse thereon the amount of principal paid thereon and the last date to which interest has been paid thereon or surrender such Note to the Issuer in exchange for a new Note or Notes pursuant to Section 11.2. The Loan Parties will afford the benefits of this Section to any Institutional Investor that is the direct or indirect transferee of any Note purchased by the Lender under this Agreement and that has made the same agreement relating to such Note as the Lender have made in this Section.

13. EXPENSES, ETC.

13.1. Transaction Expenses.

Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Issuer will pay all actual incurred costs and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of a special counsel, local or other counsel and other consultants) incurred by the Lender in connection with such transactions and with the Loan Parties prior authorization in connection with any amendments, waivers or consents under or in respect of this Agreement or the Notes (whether or not such amendment, waiver or consent becomes effective), including, without limitation, (i) the costs and expenses incurred in enforcing or defending (or determining whether or how to enforce or defend) any rights under this Agreement or the Notes or in responding to any subpoena or other legal process or informal investigative demand issued in connection with this Agreement or the Notes, or by reason of being a holder of any Note, (ii) the costs and expenses, including financial advisors' fees, incurred in connection with the insolvency or bankruptcy of any Loan Party or Subsidiary or in connection with any work-out or restructuring of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the Notes, and (iii) the costs and expenses incurred in retaining a consultant to review projections in connection with a prepayment of the Notes. The Issuer will pay, and will save the Lender harmless from, all claims in respect of any fees, costs or expenses if any, of brokers and finders (other than those retained by the Lender).

13.2. Issue Taxes.

The Issuer will pay all amounts payable as or on account of taxes arising in the United States or Canada, including any obligation imposed on the Lender to withhold and remit taxes on behalf of the Loan Parties (together with any penalties or interest relating thereto) ("Taxes") (except for Taxes computed by reference to the Lender's net income (and any penalties or interest relating thereto) ("Excluded Taxes")) arising to the Lender or the Loan Parties in connection with (i) the purchase or holding by the Lender of the Existing Loans, (ii) the issuance of the Notes (including any Advance or additional advances thereunder), (iii) any amendment or modification to the Notes, (iv) any exchange or sale of the Notes related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or (v) the payment or accrual of any amounts due under the Notes, and the Issuer will indemnify the Lender and save the Lender harmless against any and all liabilities relating to such Taxes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for greater certainty, if any amount due under the Notes becomes subject to withholding tax, the Issuer will pay such additional amount as may be necessary so that the net amount received by the Lender after such withholding (and after deducting any withholding tax on such additional amount) will not be less than the amount that the Lender would have received if such withholding tax had not be withheld or deducted. In addition, if the Lender is required to withhold or remit amounts in respect of which the Loan Parties are required to indemnify the Lender under this Section, the Loan Parties will promptly provide the Lender with sufficient funds to make such withholding or remittance (such funds to be reimbursed to the Loan Parties only to the extent the Lender receives a refund in respect of such withholding or remittance) and the parties hereby declare their intention that the Lender shall be fully indemnified, on an after-tax basis, in respect of such withholding or remittance obligation. If any Loan Party becomes subject to withholding taxes, the Lender will, at the request and at the expense of such Loan Party, take whatever action is reasonably required and practicable for the Lender for such withholding taxes not to apply; provided that the Lender shall not be required to take any action that would decrease any amounts that would otherwise be due to it hereunder. The Lender agrees to cooperate with the Loan Parties and to file or provide to the Loan Parties such forms, returns or other documentation (including but not limited to a valid U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN) as may be required or appropriate to minimize the U.S. withholding tax applicable to any payment made or due under the Notes or any other transaction contemplated hereunder.

13.3. Survival

The obligations of the Loan Parties under this Article will survive the payment or transfer of any Note, the enforcement, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or the Notes, and the termination of this Agreement.

14. AUTHORITY OF RESOURCES.

Each Guarantor (other than Resources) authorizes Resources to act on its behalf under this Agreement, including with respect to giving and receiving notices and granting consents or waivers.

15. EXCLUDED ASSETS.

Except as expressly stated in Section 8.10, none of the representations, warranties, covenants (financial or other), reporting requirements or calculations in this Agreement or any other Loan Document includes, makes reference to or in any way contemplates the Excluded

Assets. For purposes of the Loan Documents, the Loan Parties' connection with the Excluded Assets is disregarded in its entirety.

16. SURVIVAL OF REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

All representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Notes, the purchase or transfer by the Lender of any Note or portion thereof or interest therein and the payment of any Note, and may be relied upon by any subsequent holder of a Note, regardless of any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of the Lender or any other holder of a Note. All statements contained in any certificate or other instrument delivered by or on behalf of any Loan Party pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed representations and warranties of such Loan Party under this Agreement. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement and the Loan Documents embody the entire agreement and understanding between the parties hereto and supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof.

17. AMENDMENT AND WAIVER.

17.1. Requirements.

The Loan Documents may be amended, and the observance of any term of the Loan Documents may be waived (either retroactively or prospectively), with (and only with) the written consent of each of the parties hereto.

17.2. Binding Effect, etc.

No amendment or waiver consented to as provided in this Article will extend to or affect any obligation, covenant, agreement, Default or Event of Default not expressly amended or waived or impair any right consequent thereon. No course of dealing between the Loan Parties or any of them and the Lender nor any delay in exercising any rights hereunder or under any Note shall operate as a waiver of any rights of the Lender. As used herein, the term "this Agreement" and references thereto shall mean this Agreement as it may from time to time be amended or supplemented.

This Agreement and all documents relating thereto, including, without limitation, (i) consents, waivers and modifications that may hereafter be executed, (ii) documents received by the Lender at the Closing (except the Notes themselves), and (iii) financial statements, certificates and other information previously or hereafter furnished to the Lender, may be reproduced by the Lender by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, miniature photographic or other similar process and the Lender may destroy any original document so reproduced. Each Loan Party agrees and stipulates that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made by the Lender in the regular course of business) and any enlargement, facsimile or further reproduction of such reproduction shall likewise be admissible in evidence. This Article shall not prohibit any party hereto from contesting any such reproduction to the same extent that it could contest the original, or from introducing evidence to demonstrate the inaccuracy of any such reproduction.

20. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

For the purposes of this Article, "Confidential Information" means written information delivered to the Lender by or on behalf of any Loan Party or Subsidiary in connection with the transactions contemplated by or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement that is proprietary in nature and that was clearly marked or labeled or otherwise adequately identified when received by the Lender as being confidential information of such Loan Party or such Subsidiary, provided that such term does not include information that (i) was publicly known or otherwise known to the Lender prior to the time of such disclosure, (ii) subsequently becomes publicly known through no act or omission by the Lender or any person acting on behalf or at the direction of the Lender, (iii) otherwise becomes known to the Lender other than through disclosure by such Loan Party or such Subsidiary or (iv) constitutes financial statements delivered to the Lender under Section 5.1 that are otherwise publicly available. 21. LIABILITY AND WAIVER.

21.1. No Liability of Lender.

The Lender shall not (i) have any liability, obligation or responsibility whatsoever to any Loan Party with respect to the ownership, operation or maintenance of any Project, (ii) have any obligation to inspect any Project, (iii) be liable for the performance or default by any Loan Party, any Subsidiary of any Loan Party, any Project, any contractor or any other Person, or for the failure to protect or insure any Project, or for the payment of costs of labor, materials or services supplied for the operation of any Project, or for the performance of any obligation of any Loan Party or Subsidiary whatsoever.

21.2. No Liability of the Fund.

The parties hereto acknowledge that the Lender is a Subsidiary of the Fund and the obligations of the Lender hereunder shall not be personally binding upon any trustee or manager of the Fund, any of the unitholders of the Fund or any annuitant or beneficiary under a registered retirement savings plan or deferred profit sharing plan or any other plan of which a unitholder is trustee or carrier (an "Annuitant") and that any recourse against the Lender, the Fund, any trustee, manager or any unitholder or Annuitant in any manner in respect of any obligation or liability of the Lender arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this Agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortuous behavior, shall be limited to and satisfied only out of the Lender's property.

21.3. Non-Recourse.

(a) No Person (or any officer, employee, servant, controlling Person, executive, director, agent, authorized representative or affiliate of such Person), other than the Loan Parties, shall be personally liable for payments due hereunder or under the Notes or the other Loan Documents by the Loan Parties or for the performance by the Loan Parties of any obligation hereunder or thereunder, or for the breach of any representation or warranty made by the Loan Parties.

(b) The sole recourse of the Lender for satisfaction of the Obligations shall be against the Loan Parties and their assets (except for Excluded Assets) and to the liens, security interest and remedies provided under the Loan Documents. In the event that an Event of Default occurs, no action shall be brought against any Person other than the Loan Parties (except as provided below). In the event of foreclosure or other sale or disposition of properties, no judgment for any deficiency upon the obligations hereunder or under the Notes or the other Loan Documents shall be obtainable by the Lender against any Person other than the Loan Parties or against any of the Excluded Assets; provided that recourse against a Person other than the Loan Parties shall be available for such Person's fraud or intentional misrepresentation.

22.1. Successors and Assigns.

(a) This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Loan Parties, the Lender and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

(b) No Loan Party may assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under any Loan Document without the prior written consent of the Lender.

(c) Except to the extent expressly restricted by this Section, the Lender may freely assign, assign as collateral, or transfer its rights and obligations under, this Agreement. Each party hereto shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to assist and cooperate with the other parties hereto in any manner reasonably requested to effect the assignment, collateral assignment or transfer of rights and obligations under, this Agreement, subject to the provisions of this Section. In the case of a permitted assignment hereunder (other than a permitted collateral assignment), the assignee shall have, to the extent of such assignment, the same rights, benefits and obligations as would assignor hereunder. In the case of any collateral assignment permitted under this Agreement, assignor's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged and assignor shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations, and the other parties may continue to deal directly with assignor. No partial assignment, assignment as collateral, or transfer of the Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement shall be permitted hereunder in any event.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Loan Parties, no assignment, assignment as collateral, or transfer (including participations) shall be permitted to any person or entity that is engaged or that has affiliates engaged in the business of developing, owning or operating landfill gas recovery systems or power generating or thermal energy production facilities fueled by landfill gas, or in the business of developing, owning or operating district thermal energy systems.

(e) The Notes and the rights associated with the Notes, this Agreement, and the other Loan Documents may be transferred by the Lender only in accordance with (i) this Section and (ii) upon surrender of the Notes to the Issuer for reissuance along with appropriate transfer instructions. The Issuer shall not be required to recognize a new owner of the Notes as the new registered payee of the Notes, nor to make any payment of principal or interest to such a new owner except upon receipt of the Notes together with such transfer instructions. Any new payee of the Notes shall receive a new note issued in replacement of the Notes registered to and in the name of the new payee, and otherwise containing identical terms and conditions to those of the Notes.

22.2. Payments Due on Non-Business Days.

Anything in this Agreement or the Notes to the contrary notwithstanding, any payment of principal of or premium or interest on any Note that is due on a date other than a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day without including the additional days elapsed in the computation of the interest payable on such next succeeding Business Day.

22.3. Severability.

Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall (to the full extent permitted by law) not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

22.4. Construction.

(a) Each covenant contained herein shall be construed (absent express provision to the contrary) as being independent of each other covenant contained herein, so that compliance with any one covenant shall not (absent such an express contrary provision) be deemed to excuse compliance with any other covenant. Where any provision herein refers to action to be taken by any Person, or which such Person is prohibited from taking, such provision shall be applicable whether such action is taken directly or indirectly by such Person.

(b) Defined terms in this Agreement shall include in the singular number the plural and in the plural number the singular, and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and vice versa and references to "including" mean including without limiting the generality of any description preceding that word.

(c) The words the "thereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall, unless otherwise expressly specified, refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement, and all references to Sections shall be references to Sections of this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly specified.

22.5. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a number of copies hereof, each signed by less than all, but together signed by all, of the parties hereto.

22.6. Governing Law.

THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER AND THEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS

22.8. Cooperation with Public Offering.

The Loan Parties acknowledge that the Lender has purchased the Existing Loans and plans to make the Advance by utilizing the proceeds of a public offering by the Fund (the parent of the Lender) of Trust Units, in all of the provinces of Canada. The Loan Parties agree with the Lender, a subsidiary of the Fund, that it will provide the Fund and its advisers and the underwriters of such public offering (the "Underwriters") and their counsel with access to its officers and employees and to its books and records and otherwise to provide assistance in order for them to be able to provide full, true and plain disclosure about the Loan Parties and certain of their affiliates in the prospectus regarding the offering of the Trust Units (the "Prospectus") and to fulfill their obligations to perform a "due diligence" investigation. The Loan Parties agree to authorize and direct its auditors, Kostin Ruffkess & Co. (i) to provide its report on the audited financial statements of the Issuer and/or the Loan Parties to be included in the Prospectus, (ii) to consent to the inclusion of its report in the Prospectus (iii) to review the unaudited financial statements of the Issuer and/or the Loan Parties to be included in the Prospectus, (iv) to provide a comfort letter to the provincial securities regulatory authorities regarding such review, (v) to provide a "long form" comfort letter to the Underwriters and the Board of Trustees of the Fund on such financial information included in the Prospectus as they may reasonably request, (vi) to translate such financial statements into French and provide to the Fund and the Underwriters an opinion as to the accuracy of such translation, (vii) to co-operate with Ernst & Young, the auditors of the Fund, in preparing pro forma financial statements to be included in the Prospectus, and (viii) otherwise to co-operate with the Fund in completing the public offering.

The parties hereto acknowledge that those financial statements that are prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP will have to be accompanied by a note that explains and quantifies the effect of material differences between Canadian GAAP and U.S. GAAP and that the auditor's report on financial statements audited in accordance with United States generally accepted auditing standards will have to be accompanied by a statement of the auditor disclosing any material differences in the form and content of the foreign auditor's report as compared to a Canadian auditor's report and confirming that United States auditing standards are substantially equivalent to Canadian generally accepted auditing standards.

22.9. No Third-Party Beneficiaries.

The agreement of the Lender to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement is solely for the benefit of the Loan Parties, and no other Person (including any other obligor, contractor, subcontractor, supplier or materialman furnishing supplies, goods or services to or for the benefit of the Projects) shall have any rights hereunder, as against the Lender, or under any other Loan Documents with respect to the Loan or the proceeds thereof.

22.10. Currency Conversion and Indemnity.

(a) If, in connection with any action or proceeding brought in connection with the Loan Documents or any judgment or order obtained as a result thereof, it becomes necessary to convert any amount due hereunder in one currency (the "First Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), then the conversion shall be made at the Conversion Rate on the first Business Day prior to the day on which payment is received.

(b) If the conversion is not able to be made in the manner contemplated by the preceding paragraph in the jurisdiction in which the action or proceeding is brought, then the conversion shall be made at the Conversion Rate on the day on which the judgment is given.

(c) If the Conversion Rate on the date of payment is different from the Conversion Rate on such first Business Day or on the date of judgment, as the case may be, the Loan Parties shall pay such additional amount (if any) in the Second Currency as may be necessary to ensure that the amount paid on such payment date is the aggregate amount in the Second Currency that, when converted at the Conversion Rate on the date of payment, is the amount due in the First Currency, together with all costs, charges and expenses of conversion. Any additional amount owing by the Loan Parties to the Lender pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be due as a separate debt and shall give rise to a separate cause of action and shall not be affected by or merged into any judgment obtained for any other amounts due under or in respect of the Loan Documents."

2. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT.

If at Closing the Loan Parties shall fail to tender such Notes to the Lender as provided in this Section, or any of the conditions specified for the Closing in this Section shall not have been fulfilled to the Lender's satisfaction, the Lender shall, at its election, be relieved of all further obligations under this Agreement, without thereby waiving any rights it may have by reason of such failure or such nonfulfillment.

assign, assign as collateral, or Transfer less than all of Holder's rights and obligations under this Agreement.

c. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, without the prior written consent of USEB, U.S. Energy Systems, Inc. and Cinergy Energy Solutions Inc., no assignment, assignment as collateral, or Transfer (including participations), shall be permitted to any person or entity that is engaged or that has affiliates engaged in the business of developing, owning or operating landfill gas recovery systems or power generating or thermal energy production facilities fueled by landfill gas, or in the business of developing, owning or operating district thermal energy systems.

d. Except with respect to collateral assignments of Holder's rights and obligations under this Agreement which are not absolute assignments, the Royalty Interest shall not be sold, transferred, donated, given, assigned, or otherwise disposed of, whether voluntarily, by operation of law or otherwise (any of the foregoing acts with respect to rights and obligations under this Agreement including without limitation the Royalty Interest being referred to in this Section 10 as a "Transfer"), except subject to and conditioned upon full compliance by the transferor and transferee of such Royalty Interest with each of the following conditions:

(i) Each transferee shall have executed an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to USEB, by which such transferee shall have agreed to become a party to and bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(ii) No Transfer shall be made: (A) to a person or other entity who, in accordance with applicable law, lacks the capacity to own, or otherwise is prohibited from owning, such Royalty Interest by reason of minority, incompetence or otherwise; or (B) to a person or entity otherwise prohibited by applicable law from entering into such transaction or holding such Royalty Interest; or (C) which violates any other provision of this Agreement.

(iii) The transferor and transferee shall have delivered to USEB such other agreements, instruments and other documents (including opinions of counsel reasonably satisfactory to USEB) as USEB shall request in order to demonstrate compliance of any such Transfer with the provisions of this Agreement and applicable law.

(iv) The Transfer will not result in USEB being subject to the registration and reporting requirements of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(v) The Transfer shall not cause USEB to become a "holding company" or a "public utility company" or an "affiliate" of a "public utility company" as such terms are defined by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

(vi) The Transfer will not result in USEB or any USEB Shareholder being subject to any additional material regulatory burdens or adverse tax treatment.

(vii) The Transfer shall not cause USEB or its subsidiaries to become subject to the Federal Power Act or Natural Gas Act or regulation as a "public utility", a "local distribution company", an "electrical load serving entity" or a similar entity under the law of any state except to the extent that, at the time of the Transfer, USEB or any subsidiary thereof is already subject to regulation thereunder.

(viii) The Transfer shall not cause any "Qualifying Facility" within the meaning of the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978 and 18 C.F.R. Part 292 in which USEB or its subsidiaries hold an equity interest to lose its status as such or have any material adverse effect on the federal, state or local regulatory status of any project owned or operated by USEB or its subsidiaries.

(iii) The execution and delivery by each of them of this Agreement and the performance of its respective obligations hereunder have been or will be, as the case may be, duly authorized and constitute or will constitute, as the case may be, valid obligations legally binding upon it and enforceable in accordance with the terms hereof, except as enforcement may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally or by equitable principles relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally. This Agreement has been executed and delivered by each of them.

(iv) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by each of them and the performance of its respective obligations hereunder do not, and will not, require any approval that has not been obtained, or the approval of any trustee or holder of any obligation or indebtedness of that has not been obtained, and do not, and will not, contravene any law, statute, rule or regulation, any governmental approval or authorization or its respective corporate governing documents, or constitute a default under any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan, purchase or credit agreement, lease or any other agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it or its properties may be bound or affected, or result in the creation of any lien upon any of its property.

b. Holder represents and warrants that:

(ii) Holder has the corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

This Agreement has been executed and delivered by Holder.

(iv) The execution and delivery by Holder of this Agreement and the performance by Holder of its obligations hereunder do not, and will not, require any approval that has not been obtained, or the approval of any trustee or holder of any obligation or indebtedness of Holder that has not been obtained, and do not, and will not, contravene any law, statute, rule or regulation, any governmental approval or authorization, or Holder's corporate governing documents, or constitute a default under any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, loan, purchase or credit agreement, lease or any other agreement or instrument to which Holder is a party or by which Holder or its properties may be bound or affected.

(v) In connection with the execution of this Agreement, Holder is delivering to USEB a complete and valid Form W-8BEN.

c. Covenants.

(3) The transferor and transferee shall have delivered to Holder such other agreements, instruments and other documents (including opinions of counsel reasonably satisfactory to Holder) as Holder shall request in order to demonstrate compliance of any such Transfer with the provisions of this Agreement and applicable law.

(v) USEB shall not directly or indirectly solicit any proposals or enter into any agreements or arrangements of any kind with any person or entity, which proposals, agreements or arrangements, if given effect, would be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement or would frustrate its intent.

(vi) USEB will not authorize or issue any stock which is nonvoting and limited and preferred as to dividends, and will not issue any stock to a person if, in the hands of such person, such stock would be "excluded stock" within the meaning of Code Section 1563(c).

True and complete copies of (i) the audited consolidated balance sheet of Ripon and the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 2004 and the audited consolidated statements of income and cash flows of Ripon and the unaudited consolidated statements of income and cash flows of the Company for the period then ended and (ii) the unaudited consolidated balance sheets of Ripon and the Company as of March 31, 2005 (the "Balance Sheets") and the unaudited consolidated statements of income and cash flow of Ripon and the Company for the period then ended ((i) and (ii) collectively, the "Financial Statements") are attached in Section 4.2(d) of the Disclosure Schedule. The Financial Statements were prepared on the basis of books and records of Ripon and the Company, as applicable, and fairly present in all material respects the financial position of the Company and Ripon as of the respective dates thereof and their respective results of operations and changes in cash flows for each of the periods then ended, in each case, in accordance with GAAP consistently applied, subject, in the case of unaudited balance sheets, to normal year-end adjustment. With respect to periods after the Tractebel Closing Date, the books and records of the Company and Ripon are true and correct in all material respects and have been maintained in accordance with good business practices. Neither the Company nor Ripon has any liabilities required by GAAP to be reflected on its balance sheet other than (i) liabilities reflected on the Balance Sheets, (ii) liabilities which have arisen since March 31, 2005 in the ordinary course of business, (iii) liabilities described in Section 4.2(d) of the Disclosure Schedule or (iv) liabilities that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(r) Intercompany Arrangements. All Intercompany Arrangements in effect (prior to giving effect to the cancellation and termination thereof pursuant to Section 7.6(b)) are listed on Schedule 1.1(a) to this Agreement.

(s) Intellectual Property. Each of the Company and Ripon owns, or is licensed or otherwise possesses sufficient legally enforceable rights to use, all patents, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, technology, know-how, computer software programs and applications, databases and tangible or intangible proprietary information or materials that are currently used in the operation of the Facilities. To Sellers' Knowledge, none of the Company, Ripon, the Facilities, or the Business are operated in a manner that infringes upon any patents, copyrights, trademarks, or similar intellectual property rights of any third parties.

(t) Regulatory Matters. Each Facility is, and to Sellers' Knowledge has since it first commenced the production of electricity been, an electric generating plant which is a "qualifying cogeneration facility" as such term as defined by PURPA, including the FERC implementing regulations. FERC issued an order granting the application for the Ripon Facility to be a Qualifying Cogeneration Facility in 1988 (Docket No. QF88-110-000), a Notice of Self-Recertification was filed in 1998 (Docket No. QF88-110-001), and a Notice of Self-Recertification was filed in 2004 (Docket No. QF88-110-003). FERC issued an order granting the application for the San Gabriel Facility to be a Qualifying Cogeneration Facility in 1985 (Docket No. QF85-93-000), a Notice of Self-Recertification was filed in 1998 (Docket No. QF85-93-001), and a Notice of Self-Recertification was filed in 2004 (Docket No. QF85-93-003). There has been no change in these determinations that the Facilities remain Qualifying Cogeneration Facilities and each Facility continues to be owned and operated as described in the most recently filed Notice of Self-Recertification for such Facility. To Sellers' Knowledge, no fact or circumstance exists that could reasonably be expected to result in the loss of such status for either Facility. Neither the Company nor Ripon is subject to regulation as a "steam utility," "steam corporation," "steam company," "public utility," or "public service corporation," or otherwise subject to regulation relating to any such type of entity or similar entity under any existing state law, rule, regulation, order or interpretation (other than any state law of the United States relating solely to taxation of the Partnership) except to the extent that such regulation is consistent with 18 C.F.R. § 292.602(c)(2). To Sellers' Knowledge, all such insurance policies are in full force and effect, all premiums with respect thereto have been paid to the extent due and, except as set forth in Section 4.2(v) of the Disclosure Statement, no claim is currently pending under any such insurance policy, and no event has occurred that could reasonably be expected to give rise to such a claim, in each case involving an amount in excess of the applicable deductible, but in any case not in excess of US$500,000. Except as set forth on Section 4.2(v) of the Disclosure Schedule, neither the Company nor Ripon has received any notice from the insurer under any insurance policies held by the Company or Ripon for the period of time commencing three (3) years prior to the date of this Agreement disclaiming coverage, reserving rights with respect to a particular claim or such policy in general, canceling or materially amending any such policy or evidencing the insurer's intent not to renew coverage or increase premiums.

(w) PX Pricing. To Sellers' Knowledge, since January 1, 2000, neither Facility has sold power based on PX prices as set forth by the former California Power Exchange.

(x) Brokerage Fees and Commissions. Except as set forth in Section 7.4(b), neither Seller nor any Affiliate of Seller has incurred any obligation or entered into any agreement for any investment banking, brokerage or finders' fee or commission in respect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement for which either the Buyer, the Company or Ripon shall incur any liability.

Section 4.3. Representations and Warranties of Buyer. Buyer represents and warrants to Sellers as follows:

(d) No Violation or Breach. Neither the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will (i) result in a violation or breach of any provision of the certificate of incorporation, bylaws or other similar governing documents of Buyer or any material agreement, indenture or other instrument under which Buyer is bound or (ii) subject to making the filings and notifications described in Section 4.3(e) below, violate any Law applicable to Buyer or the assets of Buyer.

(e) Consents. No consent, approval, authorization, or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any Person is required for or in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Buyer or for or in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby by Buyer, except for consents, approvals, authorizations, permits, filings, or notices that have been obtained or, if not obtained or made, would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Buyer's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and except for filings or notifications required by (i) FERC, (ii) applicable securities Laws and stock exchange listing rules or (iii) the International Investment in and Trade in Services Survey Act of 1976 and related regulations.

Neither Buyer nor any Affiliate of Buyer has incurred any obligation or entered into any agreement for any investment banking, brokerage, or finder's fee or commission in respect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement for which either Sellers or the Company shall incur any liability.

(h) Characteristics of Buyer; No Distribution. Buyer is an experienced and knowledgeable investor in the U.S. power generation business. Prior to entering into this Agreement, Buyer was advised by its counsel, accountants, financial advisors, and such other Persons it has deemed appropriate concerning this Agreement and has relied solely on Sellers' representations and warranties expressly contained herein and an independent investigation and evaluation of, and appraisal and judgment with respect to, the Company, Ripon, each of the Facilities, and the revenue, price, and expense assumptions applicable thereto. (i) Solvency. As of the Closing and immediately after consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Buyer will not (i) be insolvent (either because its financial condition is such that the sum of its debts is greater than the fair value of its assets or because the present fair salable value of its assets will be less than the amount required to pay its probably liability on its debts as they become absolute and matured), (ii) have unreasonably small capital with which to engage in its business, including the Business, or (iii) have incurred or plan to incur debts beyond its ability to repay such debts as they become absolute and matured.

Buyer acknowledges that (i) the Disclosure Schedule may include items or information that Sellers are not required to disclose under this Agreement, (ii) disclosure of such items or information shall not affect, directly or indirectly, the scope of the disclosure obligation of Sellers under this Agreement and (iii) inclusion of information in the Disclosure Schedule shall not be construed as an admission that such information is material to Sellers. Similarly, in such matters where a representation or warranty is given or other information is provided, the disclosure of any matter in the Disclosure Schedule shall not imply that any other undisclosed matter having a greater value or other significance is material. Headings have been inserted on Sections of the Disclosure Schedule for the convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Disclosure Schedule.

ARTICLE V

The obligation to keep such information confidential shall continue for a period of three years from the Closing Date and shall not apply to any information which (i) is in the public domain, (ii) is published or otherwise becomes part of the public domain through no fault of a Seller, any of its Affiliates or any of their representatives or (iii) becomes available to a Seller, any of its Affiliates or any of their representatives on a non-confidential basis from a source that did not acquire such information (directly or indirectly) from a Seller, the Company, Ripon or Buyer or any of their respective Affiliates or representatives on a confidential basis. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Seller may make any disclosure required by Law; provided, that such Seller, to the extent practicable, shall provide Buyer with prompt notice thereof so that Buyer may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy or waive compliance with the provisions of this Section 5.1(b). In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained or Buyer waives compliance with the provisions of this Section 5.1(b), each Seller shall or shall cause the Person required to disclose such information to furnish only that portion of the information that it is legally required to disclose, and, to the extent practicable, such Seller shall exercise its commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment is accorded to the information so furnished.

Buyer shall not file an amended Tax Return for any period ending on or prior to the Closing Date without the consent of Sellers, which may be withheld in Sellers' reasonable discretion. The following provisions shall govern the allocation of responsibility as between Buyer and Sellers for certain Tax matters following the Closing Date:

(i) Tax Periods Ending on or Before the Closing Date. Sellers, at their expense, shall timely prepare or cause to be timely prepared and timely file or cause to be timely filed all Tax Returns required to be filed by the Company and Ripon for all periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date regardless of when they are to be filed. Sellers shall cause the Company and Ripon to pay the Taxes of the Company and Ripon that are due and payable prior to the Closing Date. To the extent that they have not prior to the date hereof been filed, Sellers shall permit Buyer to review any Tax Returns required to be filed by the Company or Ripon for the year ended December 31, 2004. (iii) Apportionment of Taxes. Except as provided in Section 6.3, Taxes of the Company and Ripon for a taxable period beginning on or before and ending after the Closing Date shall be computed as if a taxable year ended as of the close of business on the Closing Date, provided, that real, personal and intangible property taxes, and similar periodic ad valorem Taxes for such a taxable period shall be apportioned to the portion of such a taxable period that ends on the Closing Date based on the ratio of the number of days in such portion of the taxable period to the number of days in the entire taxable period.

governing body approving the transactions contemplated hereby and (iii) incumbency of such Seller's officers or other representatives.

(j) Good Standing. Buyer shall have received (i) a Delaware certificate of good standing as to each of Sellers, (ii) a Delaware certificate of good standing for each of the Company and Ripon, and (iii) a California certificate of foreign qualification for Ripon, in each case in the original or facsimile and dated no more than 3 business days prior to the Closing Date.

ARTICLE IX
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 9.1. Indemnification By Sellers. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Article IX, Sellers, jointly but not severally, shall indemnify Buyer and its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and Affiliates (the "Buyer Indemnified Parties") against and hold them harmless from any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) but excluding indirect, special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages, or lost profits or diminutions in value, other than such damages payable to third parties that are actually imposed or otherwise incurred or suffered (collectively, "Losses"), but net of the amount, if any, equal to (x) any insurance amounts recovered or tax benefits actually received by the Buyer Indemnified Parties because of such Losses, less (y) in each case, the costs and expenses incurred by the Buyer Indemnified Parties in obtaining such insurance amounts or receiving such tax benefits, to the extent arising from any of the following:

(a) any breach of any representation or warranty of Sellers contained in this Agreement or any certificate delivered at Closing by any Seller;

(b) any breach of any covenant of Sellers contained in this Agreement; and

(c) any fees, expenses or other payments incurred or owed by any Seller to any agent, broker, investment banker or other firm retained or employed by it in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 9.2. Indemnification by Buyer. Buyer shall, and shall cause the Company and Ripon to, indemnify Sellers and their officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and Affiliates (the "Seller Indemnified Parties") against and hold them harmless from any Losses, but net of the amount, if any, equal to (x) any insurance amounts recovered or tax benefits actually received by the Seller Indemnified Parties because of such Losses, less (y) in each case, the costs and expenses incurred by the Seller Indemnified Parties in obtaining such insurance amounts or receiving such tax benefits, to the extent arising from any of the following:

(a) any breach of any representation or warranty of Buyer contained in this Agreement or any certificate delivered at Closing by Buyer;

(b) any breach of any covenant of Buyer contained in this Agreement;

(c) any fees, expenses or other payments incurred or owed by Buyer to any agent, broker, investment banker or other firm or person retained or employed by it in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(d) the acts or omissions of the Indemnifying Parties in connection with Buyer's inspection of the Facilities and other assets and records of Sellers, Ripon or the Company; and

(e) any Company Liabilities except for Company Liabilities to the extent arising from, resulting from or relating to or constituting (i) any breach by a Seller Indemnified Party of a representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement or a certificate delivered by a Seller Indemnified Party at Closing or (ii) any act or omission by a Seller Indemnified Party involving gross negligence or willful misconduct or (iii) any liability for which Buyer is entitled to indemnification from Sellers under this Agreement or (iv) Intercompany Arrangements.

Section 9.3. Indemnification Procedures.

(a) If any party (the "Indemnified Party") receives written notice of the commencement of any action or proceeding or the assertion of any claim by a third party or the imposition of any penalty or assessment for which indemnity may be sought under this Article IX (a "Third Party Claim") and such Indemnified Party intends to seek indemnity pursuant to this Article IX, the Indemnified Party shall promptly provide the other party (the "Indemnifying Party") with written notice of such Third Party Claim, stating the nature, basis and the amount thereof, to the extent known, along with copies of the relevant documents evidencing such Third Party Claim and the basis for indemnification sought. Failure of the Indemnified Party to give such notice will not relieve the Indemnifying Party from its indemnification obligations hereunder, except if and to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced in a material respect thereby. The Indemnifying Party will have 30 days from receipt of any such notice of a Third Party Claim to give notice to assume the defense, appeal or settlement proceedings thereof. If notice to the effect set forth in the immediately preceding sentence is given by the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnifying Party will have the right to assume and control the defense, appeal or settlement proceedings of the Indemnified Party against the Third Party Claim with counsel of the Indemnifying Party's choice. Should the Indemnifying Party so elect to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Party for legal expenses subsequently incurred by the Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof. In any case, the Indemnifying Party shall have the right to participate in such defense, appeal or settlement proceedings. So long as the Indemnifying Party has assumed the defense, appeal or settlement proceedings of the Third Party Claim in accordance herewith, (i) the Indemnified Party may retain separate co-counsel at its sole cost and expense and participate in the defense, appeal or settlement of the Third Party Claim, (ii) the Indemnified Party will not file any papers or consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and (iii) the Indemnifying Party will not (A) admit to any wrongdoing by the Indemnified Party or (B) consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the Third Party Claim to the extent such judgment or settlement provides for equitable relief against the Indemnified Party, in each case, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). The parties will use their commercially reasonable efforts to minimize Losses from Third Party Claims and will act in good faith in responding to, defending against, settling or otherwise dealing with such claims. The parties will also cooperate in any such defense, appeal or settlement proceedings and give each other reasonable access to all information relevant thereto. Whether or not the Indemnifying Party has assumed the defense, appeal or settlement proceedings, such Indemnifying Party will not be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party hereunder for any settlement entered into or any judgment that was consented to without the Indemnifying Party's prior written consent.

(b) The Indemnified Party will notify the Indemnifying Party in writing promptly of its discovery of any matter that does not involve a Third Party Claim being asserted against or sought to be collected from the Indemnified Party giving rise to the claim of indemnity pursuant hereto. The failure by any Indemnified Party so to notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any liability that it may have to such Indemnified Party under Sections 9.1 or 9.2, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is actually materially prejudiced thereby. The Indemnifying Party will have 30 days from receipt of any such notice to give notice of dispute of the claim to the Indemnified Party. The Indemnified Party will reasonably cooperate and assist the Indemnifying Party in determining the validity of any claim for indemnity by the Indemnified Party and in otherwise resolving such matters. Such assistance and cooperation will include providing reasonable access to and copies of information, records and documents relating to such matters, furnishing employees to assist in the investigation, defense and resolution of such matters and providing legal and business assistance with respect to such matters.

Section 9.4. Limitations on Indemnification.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) no Party shall be responsible, pursuant to Sections 9.1(a), 9.1(b), 9.2(a) or 9.2(b) for any indemnifiable Losses suffered by the Buyer Indemnified Parties or the Seller Indemnified Parties, as applicable, to the extent arising out of any breach of any representation or warranty or covenant or agreement of such party herein unless a claim therefor is asserted with specificity and in writing by the Indemnified Party within the survival periods set forth in Section 9.5 hereof, failing which such claim shall be waived and extinguished, (ii) no party shall be responsible for any indemnifiable Loss suffered by an Indemnified Party to the extent arising from (A) a change in accounting or taxation law, policy or practice made after Closing, other than a change required to comply with any law, policy or practice in effect at the date hereof, or (B) any legislation not in force at Closing or any change of law or administrative practice after Closing, and (iii) no party shall be obligated to indemnify an Indemnified Party for a Loss unless and until such Loss becomes an actual liability of the Indemnified Party that is due and payable, so long as the indemnification claim with respect to such Loss was timely submitted pursuant to Section 9.5. The waiver of any condition to Closing based on the accuracy of any representation or warranty or on the performance of or compliance with any covenant or agreement shall be deemed a waiver of the right to indemnification under this Article IX with respect to such representation or warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation.

(b) Buyer acknowledges and agrees that, other than the representations and warranties of Sellers specifically contained in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 and in any certificate delivered pursuant to this Agreement, there are no representations or warranties of Sellers or any other person either expressed or implied with respect to Sellers, the Business, the transactions contemplated hereby or the Company and Ripon, individually or collectively. Without limiting the foregoing, Buyer acknowledges that Buyer, together with its advisors, has made its own investigation of the Company and Ripon and is not relying on any implied warranties or upon any representation or warranty whatsoever as to the prospects (financial or otherwise), or the viability or likelihood of success, of the Company, Ripon, the Facilities or the Business, except as expressly provided in this Agreement. Buyer acknowledges that it and its representatives have received or been afforded the opportunity to review prior to the date hereof all written materials that Sellers were required to deliver or make available, as the case may be, to Buyer pursuant to this Agreement on or prior to the date hereof. Except as expressly set forth in any representation or warranty in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 or any certificate delivered by Sellers under this Agreement, Buyer acknowledges and agrees that it shall have no claim or right to indemnification pursuant to this Article IX (or otherwise) with respect to any information, documents or materials furnished to or for Buyer by Sellers, any of their Affiliates, or any of their officers, directors, employees, agents or advisors, including any information, documents or material made available to Buyer in any "data room" (including, any electronic or virtual data room), management presentation or any other form in expectation of the transactions contemplated hereby. Such information, documents and materials were collected from the ordinary business files and records of Sellers, the Company and Ripon and were provided for Buyer's information only. Sellers make no representation or warranty of any kind regarding the accuracy or completeness of such information, documents or materials except as expressly provided herein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including, without limitation, the preceding sentences in this Section 9.4(b), the right to indemnification, payment of damages or other remedy hereunder shall be unaffected by (and shall not be deemed waived by) any investigation, audit, appraisal or inspection (actual or constructive) at any time made by or on behalf of (a) Buyer in the case of a Sellers' indemnification of Buyer, and (b) a Seller, in the case of the Buyer's indemnification of such Seller.

(c) Each of Buyer and Sellers further acknowledges and agrees that, should the Closing occur, its sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any and all claims for damages relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (other than claims of, or causes of action arising from, fraud) shall be pursuant to the indemnification provisions set forth in this Article IX; provided, that this exclusive remedy for damages does not preclude a party from bringing an action for specific performance or other available remedy (at law or in equity) for a breach of or a failure or refusal to perform in any material respect a covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement or any other document or instrument relating hereto.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, for any Loss in respect of which insurance proceeds are reasonably expected to be recoverable by an Indemnified Party (or its Affiliates) under insurance policies of such Indemnified Party (or its Affiliates) or for which indemnification may be available to an Indemnified Party pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, prior to making a claim for indemnification for such Loss pursuant to this Article IX, such Indemnified Party (or its Affiliates) shall first use commercially reasonable efforts to pursue such insurance proceeds or such indemnification claims pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, as applicable, in each case for the lesser of 90 days or until the insurer or Tractebel, as applicable, notifies the Indemnified Party (or its Affiliates) in writing that it does or intends to reject or dispute the Indemnified Party's claim (or any portion thereof) (such period, as applicable, the "Claim Period"); provided, that the survival period provided in Section 9.5 with respect to such indemnification rights shall be extended for a period of time equal to the Claim Period plus 20 days; and provided further, if the Indemnified Party proceeds against the Indemnifying Party under this Article IX with respect to a Loss that is subject to this Section 9.4(d) and the Indemnifying Party has satisfied its obligations under this Article IX, the Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated to the rights and claims of the Indemnified Party with respect to such Loss against the insurer or Tractebel, as applicable, and the Indemnified Party will reasonably cooperate and assist the Indemnifying Party in determining the validity of any claim for indemnity by the Indemnified Party and in otherwise resolving such matters, and such assistance and cooperation will include providing reasonable access to and copies of information, records and documents relating to such matters, furnishing employees to assist in the investigation, defense and resolution of such matters and providing legal and business assistance with respect to such matters.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (i) with respect to breaches of representations and warranties set forth in Section 4.1, each Seller shall be responsible for indemnification only with respect to breaches by such Seller, and such Seller shall then be responsible for the full amount of indemnification payable in respect thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Article IX, and (ii) with respect to indemnification in other circumstances, each Seller shall be responsible to any Buyer Indemnified Party only for that portion of the indemnification payable that corresponds to the portion of the Purchase Price allocable to such Seller.

Section 9.5. Survival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants. The representations and warranties of Buyer and Sellers contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing and such representations and warranties shall terminate at the close of business on the date that is 12 months after the Closing Date, except that (a) the representations and warranties set forth in Section 4.2(j), shall survive until the close of business on the date that is three (3) years after the Closing Date and (b) the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.2(b), 4.2(c), 4.2(k), 4.3(a), 4.3(b), 4.3(c) and 4.3(f) shall survive until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations plus 60 days; provided that, to the extent the breach or alleged breach of a representation or warranty relates to a Loss which is subject to Section 9.4(d), the applicable survival period shall be extended by a period of time equal to the Claim Period plus 20 days. Neither Sellers nor Buyer shall have any liability under this Article IX with respect to any such representations or warranties unless a claim is made hereunder or an action of law or in equity is commenced prior to expiration of the survival period for such representation or warranty. The obligations of the Parties to be performed at the Closing shall survive until they are performed or discharged in full. Covenants which by their terms contemplate performance after the Closing shall survive the Closing in accordance with their terms.

Section 9.6. Caps and Baskets.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the maximum aggregate amount for which Sellers on the one hand or Buyer on the other may be liable for breaches of representations, warranties or covenants pursuant to Sections 9.1(a), 9.1(b), 9.2(a), 9.2(b) and 9.2(e) of this Agreement shall not exceed the amount of $7,000,000, except that such maximum amount shall be the aggregate Purchase Price in the case of breaches of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.2(b), 4.2(c), 4.2(j), 4.2(k), 4.3(a), 4.3(b), 4.3(c) and 4.3(f) or the covenants set forth in Section 2.1, 3.3, 9.7 and 9.8 or Article VI (the "Cap") hereof.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, no indemnification shall be payable under 9.1 or 9.2 in respect of breaches of representations and warranties until the aggregate amount of the Losses incurred by all Buyer Indemnified Parties or all Seller Indemnified Parties, as applicable, in respect of breaches of representations and warranties exceed the amount of $1,050,000; provided, that if such threshold is exceeded, the Indemnification Party shall be liable for Losses starting from the first dollar of such Losses that exceed the amount of $350,000 (the "Basket") (without giving effect to such threshold), except in respect of claims made regarding breach of representations and warranties as set forth in Section 4.1, 4.2(a), 4.2(b), 4.2(c), 4.2(j), 4.2(k), 4.3(a), 4.3(b), 4.3(c) or 4.3(f) or claims for breach of the covenants set forth in Section 2.1 or 3.3, Article VI and Section 9.7 and 9.8, in which case the Buyer Indemnified Parties shall be entitled to receive the amount of all Losses (without regard to the Basket) up to the maximum aggregate amount of the Purchase Price.

Section 9.7. Tax Indemnity. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement (including Section 9.4), Sections 9.7 and 9.8 shall apply to indemnifications for, and shall be the sole remedy in respect of, Taxes. Sellers agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer Indemnified Parties from and against any Taxes (other than Excluded Taxes) attributable to the Company or Ripon with respect to any taxable period or portion thereof ending on or before the Closing Date (or for any taxable period beginning before and ending after the Closing Date to the extent allocable (determined in a manner consistent with Section 6.1) to the portion of such period beginning before and ending on the Closing Date). No right to such indemnity shall exist to the extent that liability for such Taxes is the result of (i) actions of Buyer or any of its Affiliates or any transferee thereof (other than any such action that is either required by applicable Law or that is expressly permitted by this Agreement) or (ii) a violation of the terms and conditions imposed upon Buyer and its Affiliates under Article VI.

Section 9.8. Tax Indemnity Claims. The provisions of this Section 9.8 shall apply only to the indemnification provided for under Section 9.7. If a claim for Taxes is made against a Buyer Indemnified Party and if the Buyer Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnity with respect thereto under Section 9.7, the Buyer Indemnified Party shall promptly furnish written notice to Seller Representative of such claim. Except when such failure is attributable to Sellers, failure of the Buyer Indemnified Party to so notify Seller Representative within thirty (30) days of the claim being made against the Buyer Indemnified Party shall terminate all rights of the Buyer Indemnified Party to indemnity by Sellers as to such claim, but only to the extent that such failure to notify Sellers actually and materially prejudices the Sellers. In respect of claims for Taxes not attributable to a Straddle Period and for which Sellers would be required to make a payment pursuant to the indemnification provided in Section 9.7, Seller Representative shall have thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice to undertake, conduct, and control (through counsel of its own choosing and at Sellers' own expense) the settlement or defense thereof, and Buyer shall cooperate with it in connection therewith. Sellers shall permit Buyer to participate in such settlement or defense through counsel chosen by Buyer (but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be paid by Buyer). So long as the Seller Representative, at Sellers' cost and expense, (i) has undertaken the defense of, and assumed full responsibility for all indemnified Taxes with respect to, such claim, (ii) is reasonably contesting such claim in good faith, by appropriate proceedings, and (iii) has taken such action (including the posting of a bond, deposit, or other security) as may be necessary to prevent any action to foreclose a lien against or attachment of the property of Buyer, Ripon and the Company for payment of such claim, the Buyer Indemnified Party shall not pay or settle any such claim. Notwithstanding compliance by Seller Representative with the preceding sentence, the Buyer Indemnified Party shall have the right to pay or settle any such claim, but in such event and subject to Sellers' compliance with the provisions of Article VI, the Buyer Indemnified Parties shall thereby waive any right to indemnity by Sellers for such claim. If within thirty (30) days after the receipt of the Buyer Indemnified Party's notice of a claim of indemnity hereunder, Seller Representative does not notify the Buyer Indemnified Party that it elects (at Sellers' cost and expense) to undertake the defense thereof and assume full responsibility for all indemnified Taxes with respect thereto, or gives such notice and thereafter fails to contest such claim in good faith or to prevent action to foreclose a lien against or attachment of the Buyer Indemnified Party's property, as contemplated above, the Buyer Indemnified Party shall have the right to contest, settle, or compromise such claim, at Sellers' sole cost and expense, and the Buyer Indemnified Party shall not thereby waive any right to indemnity for such claim under this Agreement.

(ii) In respect of claims for Taxes of a Buyer Indemnified Party attributable to a Straddle Period, the Buyer Indemnified Party shall promptly furnish written notice to Seller Representative of such claim. Seller Representative shall be entitled to participate fully (at Sellers' expense) in the settlement or defense of such claim, and Buyer shall consult with the Seller Representative before taking any substantive action in connection with any portion of such Tax claim for which Sellers may be required to indemnify the Buyer Indemnified Parties.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 9.8, a claim for Taxes shall include any audit, examination, assessment, proposed adjustment, notice of deficiency, or other proceeding by any taxing authority.

Section 11.3. Damages. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY CONTAINED HEREIN, SUBJECT 9.1 AND 9.2 HEREOF, NO PARTY HERETO SHALL BE LIABLE TO ANY OTHER PARTY HERETO (INCLUDING ITS RESPECTIVE HEIRS, LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES, SUCCESSORS OR ASSIGNS, AS THE CASE MAY BE, HEREUNDER) FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY TRANSACTION CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, WHETHER FOR BREACH OF REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OR COVENANT OR OTHER AGREEMENT OR ANY OBLIGATION ARISING THEREFROM OR OTHERWISE, WHETHER LIABILITY IS ASSERTED IN CONTRACT OR TORT (INCLUDING GROSS NEGLIGENCE, NEGLIGENCE AND STRICT PRODUCT LIABILITY) AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF ANY SUCH LOSS OR DAMAGE. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES ANY CLAIMS THAT THESE EXCLUSIONS DEPRIVE SUCH PARTY OF AN ADEQUATE REMEDY.

All notices by telecopier shall be confirmed promptly after transmission in writing by certified mail or overnight delivery.

Section 11.5. Successors and Assigns. The rights and obligations of the Parties shall not be assigned or delegated by either Party without the written consent of the other Party, which may be withheld in such Party's sole discretion except that the Buyer's rights and interests under this Agreement may be assigned, without relieving Buyer of any liability hereunder, in whole or in part (i) to any Affiliate of the Buyer, (ii) in connection with one or more sales or subsequent sales of all or substantially all of the assets of, or merger, consolidation or similar transaction involving, the Buyer, the Company or Ripon or (iii) as collateral security to any financial institution which has extended credit to Buyer or its Affiliates. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their successors and assigns.

Section 11.6. Amendments and Waivers. This Agreement may not be modified or amended except by an instrument or instruments in writing signed by the Party against whom enforcement of any such modification or amendment is sought. Any Party may, only by an instrument in writing, waive compliance by the other Party with any term or provision of this Agreement on the part of such other Party to be complied with. The waiver by a Party of a breach of any term or provision of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach.

Section 11.7. Agreement for the Parties' Benefit Only. Except as specified in Section 7.8 and Article IX, which are also intended to benefit and to be enforceable by the Indemnified Parties, this Agreement is not intended to confer upon any Person not a party hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, and no Person, other than the Parties or the Indemnified Parties, is entitled to rely on any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement contained herein.

Section 11.8. Severability. If any terms or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced by any Law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any adverse manner to a Party. Upon such determination that any terms or other provision is invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

Section 11.9. Governing Law. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be governed by, enforced, and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflicts of laws rules that require or permit the applications of the laws of another jurisdiction.

Section 11.10. Arbitration. Any claim, counterclaim, demand, cause of action, dispute, and controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement (or any agreement delivered in connection with this Agreement) or in any way relating to the subject matter of this Agreement involving the Parties or their representatives (each a "Dispute"), even if such Disputes allegedly are extra-contractual in nature, sound in contract, tort or otherwise, or arise under state or federal law, shall be resolved by final and binding arbitration. Arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act and, to the extent an issue is not governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, by the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The validity, construction and interpretation of this Agreement to arbitrate, and all other procedural aspects of the arbitration conducted pursuant hereto shall be decided by the arbitrators. In deciding the substance of the Parties' Dispute, the arbitrators shall apply the law of the State of New York. The arbitrators shall have no authority to award treble, consequential, exemplary, or punitive damages of any type under any circumstances whether or not such damages may be available under state or federal Law, or under the Federal Arbitration Act, or under the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, the Parties hereby waiving their right, if any, to recover any such damages. Each Party agrees that any arbitration award against it may be enforced in any jurisdiction in which such Party holds or keeps assets and that judgment on any arbitration award maybe entered by any court having jurisdiction. The arbitration proceeding shall be conducted in New York, New York. Within thirty (30) days after the notice of the initiation of the arbitration procedure, each Party shall select one arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days after the date on which the second arbitrator is selected. The third arbitrator shall be a person who has over eight (8) years professional experience in power generation transactions and is not an Affiliate of and who has not previously been employed by either Party and does not have a direct or indirect interest in either Party or in any Person having an ownership interest in either Party or the subject matter of the arbitration. While the third arbitrator shall be neutral, the two Party appointed arbitrators are not required to be neutral, and it shall not be grounds for removal of either of the two Party appointed arbitrators or for vacating the arbitrators' award that either of such arbitrators has past or present relationships with the Party that appointed such arbitrator. To the maximum extent practicable, the arbitrators and the Parties shall conclude the arbitration proceeding within 180 days after the appointment of the third arbitrator. To the fullest extent permitted by Law, any arbitration proceeding and the arbitrators award shall be maintained in confidence by the Parties.

Re: Purchase and Sale Agreement by and among The Lightyear Fund AIV, L.P., Lightyear Co-Invest Partnership, L.P., Rockland Capital Energy Investments, LLC, D. Milne Associates, LLC and Countryside US Holding Corp.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special New York counsel to Countryside US Holding Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the Purchase and Sale Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the "Purchase Agreement") by and among The Lightyear Fund AIV, L.P., Lightyear Co-Invest Partnership, L.P., Rockland Capital Energy Investments, LLC, D. Milne Associates, LLC (collectively, the "Sellers") and the Company, the Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated as of the date hereof (the "Assignment Agreement" and, together with the Purchase Agreement, collectively, the "Agreements") by and among the Sellers and the Company, and related transactions. This opinion is being delivered to you pursuant to Section 8.1(d) of the Purchase Agreement at the request of the Company. All capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

We have examined the originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of the Company and such resolutions of the board of directors of the Company, such other records and such certificates and proceedings as we have deemed necessary or appropriate in order to render the opinion expressed herein. In our examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity with the originals (and the authenticity of such originals) of all documents submitted to us as copies, the due authorization, execution and delivery of the Agreements by the Sellers and the Company and that the Agreements and the other documents relating thereto constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Sellers enforceable in accordance with their terms. In addition, to the extent that matters of fact are involved in the conclusions expressed in the following opinion, such opinion, to the extent we have deemed proper, is based upon certificates of public officials and of officers and employees of the Company, and inquiries of officers and employees of the Company.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and the further qualifications contained herein, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Agreements are enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms.

2. Neither the execution and delivery of the Agreements by the Company, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby in accordance with their terms, violates, to our knowledge, any New York or United States federal statute applicable to the Company.

3. No consents, approvals or authorizations of, or filings with, any governmental agency of the State of New York or the United States of America are required for execution and delivery by the Company of the Agreements or the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated thereby, except for such consents, approvals, authorizations or filings as have been obtained on or prior to the date hereof and are in effect on the date hereof and except as disclosed in the Purchase Agreement or the schedules thereto.

Our opinion as to enforceability is limited by (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization and other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights or remedies generally, (ii) principles governing the availability of specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies, (iii) applicable laws and court decisions which may limit, delay or render unenforceable certain terms and provisions contained therein, but which in our opinion do not substantially interfere with the practical realization of the benefits thereof, except for the economic consequences of any procedural delay which may be imposed by, relate to or result from such laws and court decisions, and (iv) general principles of equity, including (without limitation) concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

We undertake no responsibility to advise you of any change in the law or the facts after the date hereof that would alter the scope or substance of the opinion expressed herein.

We have made no independent investigation as to the accuracy or completeness of any representation, warranty, data or other information, written or oral, made in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Agreements. For the purposes of the foregoing opinion, we assume that none of such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits any material facts necessary to make the statements made therein not misleading.

As used in this opinion, the expression "to our knowledge" means the conscious awareness of facts or other information, without investigation or verification, by the lawyers currently with the New York office of this firm who have given substantive attention to the legal representation of the Company in connection with matters relating directly to the transactions contemplated by the Agreements.

In rendering the foregoing opinion we advise you that we are qualified to practice law in the State of New York and the opinions contained herein are expressly limited to, and we do not express any opinion herein concerning any laws of any jurisdiction other than, the laws of the State of New York, the Delaware General Corporation Law and the federal laws of the United States, in each case, which in our experience are normally applicable to unregulated business corporations and to transactions of the type contemplated by the Agreements.

This opinion has been issued in connection with the transactions contemplated under the Agreements and solely for the benefit of the Sellers, and, except in each instance with our prior written consent, may not be used or relied upon for any other purpose whatsoever or used or relied upon by any other person or entity.

Very truly yours,

Torys LLP

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special New York counsel to The Lightyear Fund AIV, L.P. ("Lightyear Fund"), Lightyear Co-Invest Partnership, L.P. ("Lightyear Co-Invest"), Rockland Capital Energy Investments, LLC ("Rockland"), and D. Milne Associates, LLC ("DMA") (collectively, "Sellers") in connection with:

(i) the Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Purchase and Sale Agreement"), dated as of even date herewith, by and among Sellers and Countryside US Holding Corp. ("Countryside"), as Buyer, for the Sale of the Membership Interests of Lightyear Rockland Partners LLC (the "Company"); and

(ii) the Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the "Assignment and Assumption"), dated as of even date herewith, by and among Sellers and Countryside, executed and delivered pursuant to Section 3.3(b) of the Purchase and Sale Agreement.

The Purchase and Sale Agreement and the Assignment and Assumption are referred to collectively herein as the "Transaction Documents." Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms used herein have the respective meanings provided in the Purchase and Sale Agreement.

We have reviewed the Transaction Documents and such corporate records, certificates and other documents, and such questions of law, as we have deemed necessary or appropriate for the purposes of this opinion. We have relied as to certain matters on information and certificates obtained from public officials, officers of each of Sellers, the general partners of Sellers (as applicable), the Company and Ripon Cogeneration, LLC ("Ripon") and other sources believed by us to be responsible.

We have assumed that all signatures are genuine, that all documents submitted to us as originals are authentic and that all copies of documents submitted to us conform to the originals. We have assumed further that each of the parties to the Transaction Documents has duly authorized, executed and delivered the Transaction Documents to which it is a party and that each of the Transaction Documents is the valid and binding obligation of each party (other than Sellers), enforceable against such party (other than Sellers) in accordance with its terms. We have assumed further the accuracy as to factual matters of the representations and warranties set forth in the Transaction Documents.

Based upon the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications set forth below, we are of the opinion that, insofar as the law of the State of New York, the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act (the "DLLCA"), and the Federal law of the United States of America are concerned:

1. The Transaction Documents are enforceable against Sellers in accordance with their terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and other laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights, to general equity principles.

2. No consent, approval, authorization or other action by or filing with or notice to any governmental agency or instrumentality of the State of New York or the United States of America is required or necessary on the part of Sellers for the execution and delivery by Sellers of the Transaction Documents or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby.

3. The execution and delivery by Sellers of the Transaction Documents, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby in accordance with their respective terms, do not violate any New York or Federal statute or law or any regulation under any such statute or law known to us, having applicability to Sellers.

4. Each of the Company and Ripon is a limited liability company validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware. Based solely on our review of the Certificates of Good Standing - Foreign Limited Liability Company with respect to Ripon dated June 28, 2005, as of June 28, 2005, Ripon was entitled to transact intrastate business in the State of California subject, however, to licensing requirements otherwise imposed by the laws of the State of California.

5. All of the issued and outstanding membership interests of the Company as set forth in Annex A have been validly issued by the Company, and the liability of the holders with respect to obligations of the Company is limited in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the DLLCA and the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of the Company. All of the issued and outstanding membership interests of Ripon have been validly issued and are owned by the Company, and the liability of the Company with respect to the obligations of Ripon is limited in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the DLLCA and the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of Ripon.

6. Neither the Company nor Ripon is an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

7. Each of the Facilities is, as of immediately prior to the Closing, a "qualifying cogeneration facility" as that term is defined in Section 3(18)(B) of the Federal Power Act, as amended ("FPA"), which meets the operating and efficiency standards and ownership criteria specified in the regulations of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (the "Commission") at 18 C.F.R. §§292.203(b), 292.205 and 292.206 ("Qualifying Facility").

8. Neither the Company nor Ripon is, as of immediately prior to the Closing, (a) an "electric utility company" or a "holding company" as defined in the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, as amended ("PUHCA"), (b) subject to the FPA, other than as contemplated by 18 C.F.R. 292.601(c), or (c) subject to any state law or regulation providing for the regulation of electric utilities or public utilities, other than as contemplated by 18 C.F.R. 292.602(c).

The foregoing opinion is subject to the following qualifications:

(a) We express no opinion as to (i) waivers of defenses, subrogation and related rights, rights to trial by jury, rights to object to venue, or other rights or benefits bestowed by operation of law, (ii) arbitration provisions, (iii) time-is-of-the-essence provisions, (iv) releases or waivers of unmatured claims or rights, (v) indemnification, contribution, exculpation or arbitration provisions, or provisions for the non-survival of representations, to the extent they purport to indemnify any party against, or release or limit any party's liability for, its own breach or failure to comply with statutory obligations, or to the extent such provisions are contrary to public policy, (vi) restrictions upon transfers, pledges or assignments of a party's rights under the Transaction Documents, (vii) provisions purporting to supersede equitable principles, including without limitation provisions requiring amendments and waivers to be in writing and provisions making notices effective even if not actually received, or (viii) grants of powers of attorney or proxies. Further, any opinion expressed herein with respect to the validity or enforceability of any term or provision of any Transaction Document is limited solely to such term or provision of such Transaction Document, and is not an opinion with respect to, and we express no opinion with respect to, any other agreement or instrument that may be referred to in a Transaction Document if such other agreement or instrument is not itself a Transaction Document.

(b) We express no opinion as to (i) any legal requirements or restrictions applicable to any Person other than Sellers, the Company or Ripon, or (ii) any tax laws or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

(c) Our opinions in paragraphs 2 and 3 above are limited to laws and regulations normally applicable to transactions of the type contemplated by the Transaction Documents and do not extend to laws or regulations relating to, or to licenses, permits, approvals and filings necessary for, the conduct of the business of the Companies. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except as set forth in paragraphs 6 through 8 we express no opinion under the FPA, the Powerplant and Industrial Fuel Use Act, as amended, the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act, as amended, PUHCA, and the regulations promulgated and decisions and orders issued under any of such Acts by the Commission or the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(d) We have relied for the purpose of paragraph 7 on representations by the Sellers that no electric utility or electric utility holding company, and no wholly or partially owned subsidiary of an electric utility or an electric utility holding company, and no combination of electric utilities, electric utility holding companies, and subsidiaries of electric utilities and electric utility holding companies, as those terms are used for purposes of Part 292 of the Commission's regulations, holds more than 50% of the capital stock in the Company or Ripon. We have also assumed, without undertaking any independent investigation, that the statements concerning the physical characteristics of the Facilities contained in the notices of self-recertification of the Facilities as Qualifying Facilities filed January 15, 2004, are accurate, and that, to the extent that those notices of self-recertification incorporate by reference prior notices of self-recertification, there have been no changes in such characteristics that would affect either Facility's Qualifying Facility status.

We are members of the bar of the State of New York. We do not express any opinion on any laws other than the law of the State of New York, the DLLCA and the Federal law of the United States of America.

This opinion is given solely for your benefit and may not be disclosed to or relied upon by any other person (other than in connection with an assignment of rights under the Transaction Documents as collateral security to financial institutions having extended credit to Buyer or its Affiliates) without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

Compton & Bailey

LIGHTYEAR CAPITAL SELLS RIPON COGENERATION LLC FOR US $96 MILLION

NEW YORK, New York – (June 29, 2005) – Lightyear Capital, LLC, a private equity firm that manages more than $2 billion in assets, today announced it has sold its controlling interest in Ripon Cogeneration LLC ("Ripon") to Countryside Power Income Fund in a transaction valued at US$96 million.

Lightyear Capital, along with its management partners acquired Ripon from Tractebel Power, Inc, a subsidiary of Suez SA (NYSE: SZE) in January 2004. Ripon is an owner and operator of two gas-fired cogeneration plants in California powered by General Electric combustion turbines.

- The Ripon Cogeneration Facility, located near San Francisco in Ripon, California, has been in operation since 1988 and has a generation capacity of 51 megawatts. It has a power purchase agreement to 2018 with Pacific Gas & Electric Company, the principal utility operating subsidiary of PG&E Corp (PCG:NYSE), the largest electric utility in California.

- The San Gabriel Cogeneration Facility, located near Los Angeles in Pomona, California, has been in operation since 1986 and has a generation capacity of 44 megawatts. It has a power purchase agreement to 2016 with Southern California Edison Company, the principal utility operating subsidiary of Edison International (EIX:NYSE), the second-largest electric utility in California.

"Ripon represented an attractive financial arbitrage opportunity. With long-term contracts to purchase gas on the one hand and to sell energy on the other, Ripon's cash flows were predictable and long-term," said Donald B. Marron, chairman and chief executive officer of Lightyear Capital, LLC. "Lightyear purchased Ripon in early 2004 after identifying some trends in the industry causing power companies to explore divestiture options."

ROCKLAND CAPITAL SELLS INTERESTS IN RIPON COGENERATION

(New York, NY – June 29, 2005) – Rockland Capital Energy Investments, LLC ("Rockland") announced today that it, along with its partners, Lightyear Capital and D. Milne Associates, has sold its interests in Ripon Cogeneration, LLC to Countryside Power Income Fund (TSX:COU.UN).

Ripon Cogeneration, LLC owns and operates the 51 MW Ripon cogeneration facility located 70 miles south of Sacramento, California, and the 44 MW San Gabriel cogeneration facility, located in Pomona, California. Both facilities are fueled with natural gas and hold long-term agreements to serve regulated utilities in their respective service areas. The transaction was structured as a sale of 100% of the interests of Ripon Cogeneration's holding company, Lightyear Rockland Partners, LLC.

Rockland continues to own and operate Prime Energy, LP a New Jersey cogeneration project and remains active in project acquisition, management, restructuring and development for the U.S. and international power markets.

"The divestiture of the Ripon projects is consistent with our business philosophy to continually evaluate our assets in light of market opportunities," said Scott Harlan, Chief Operating Officer and Managing Director of Rockland. "In our short period of ownership we were able to create value from both an operational and contractual standpoint. In addition, Rockland benefited from its willingness to invest in the California market prior to its full recovery."

Rockland is a private energy investment firm managed by Scott Harlan and David Yeager in Houston. Rockland is active in the European markets through its affiliate in London managed by Martin Pickard. The firm was created in 2003 to capitalize on the substantial business opportunities in the deregulated power industry in North America and Europe.

1. Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas), the local gas distribution company for the San Gabriel project, considered us as a new customer as a result of our change in name from Ripon Cogeneration, Inc. to Ripon Cogeneration, LLC. As a new customer, tariff regulations required us to deposit 2 months' credit support for gas deliveries into SoCalGas' system. Historical usage at the time resulted in a required deposit of $196,079.49. SoCalGas has informed Ripon that this deposit will be refunded after a 12 month payment history is established and the receipt of Ripon's 2004 audited financial statements. SoCalGas is currently awaiting the receipt of the 2004 audit following which they will release the deposit.

1.04 Accounting Principles

Where the character or amount of any asset or liability or item of revenue or expense is required to be determined, or any consolidation or other accounting computation is required to be made for the purpose of this Agreement or any Credit Document, such determination or calculation will, to the extent applicable and except as otherwise specified herein or as otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, be made in accordance with Applicable GAAP.

1.05 Accounting Practices

All calculations for the purposes of determining compliance with the financial ratios and financial covenants contained in this Agreement will be made on a basis consistent with Applicable GAAP in existence as at the date of this Agreement applied on a Modified Consolidated Basis, or on a consolidated basis, as applicable, in accordance with Applicable GAAP. In the event of a change in Applicable GAAP which in any material respect changes or results in a change in the method of calculation of, or has an adverse impact on, financial covenants, standards or terms applicable to an Obligor under any of the Credit Documents as determined by the Lenders, acting reasonably, the Borrower and the Agent (with the approval of the Majority Lenders) will negotiate in good faith to revise (if appropriate) such ratios and covenants to reflect Applicable GAAP as then in effect, in which case all calculations thereafter made for the purpose of determining compliance with the financial ratios and financial covenants contained in this Agreement will be made on a basis consistent with Applicable GAAP in existence as at the date of such revisions.

In particular, if any act or omission of a Restricted Party is expressly permitted under this Agreement but is expressly prohibited under another Credit Document, such act or omission will be permitted. If any act or omission is expressly prohibited under a Credit Document (other than this Agreement), but this Agreement does not expressly permit such act or omission, or if any act is expressly required to be performed under such Credit Document but this Agreement does not expressly relieve the applicable Restricted Party from such performance, such circumstance will not constitute a conflict in or between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of such Credit Document.

Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, whenever any action to be taken is stated or scheduled to be required to be taken on, or (except with respect to the calculation of interest or fees) any period of time is stated or scheduled to commence or terminate on, a day other than a Business Day, the action will be taken or the period of time will commence or terminate, as the case may be, on the immediately following Business Day.

1.11 Interest Payments and Calculations

(1) All interest payments to be made under this Agreement will be paid without allowance or deduction for deemed re-investment or otherwise, both before and after maturity and before and after default and/or judgment, if any, until payment of the amount on which such interest is accruing, and interest will accrue on overdue interest, if any.

(2) Unless otherwise stated, wherever in this Agreement reference is made to a rate of interest or rate of fees "per annum" or a similar expression is used, such interest or fees will be calculated on the basis of a calendar year of 365 days and using the nominal rate method of calculation, and will not be calculated using the effective rate method of calculation or on any other basis that gives effect to the principle of deemed re-investment of interest.

(3) For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada) and disclosure under such act, whenever interest to be paid under this Agreement is to be calculated on the basis of a year of 365 days or 360 days or any other period of time that is less than a calendar year, the yearly rate of interest to which the rate determined pursuant to such calculation is equivalent is the rate so determined multiplied by the actual number of days in the calendar year in which the same is to be ascertained and divided by either 365, 360 or such other period of time, as the case may be.

(4) In calculating interest or fees payable under this Agreement for any period, unless otherwise specifically stated, the first day but not the last day of such period will be included.

(5) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event will any interest rate or rates referred to herein (together with other fees payable hereunder which are construed by a court of competent jurisdiction to be interest or in the nature of interest) exceed the maximum interest rate permitted by Applicable Law. If such maximum interest rate would be exceeded by the terms hereof, the rates of interest payable hereunder will be reduced to the extent necessary so that such rates (together with other fees which are construed by a court of competent jurisdiction to be interest or in the nature of interest) equal the maximum interest rate permitted by Applicable Law, and any overpayment of interest received by the Agent or the Lenders theretofore will be applied, forthwith after determination of such overpayment, to pay all then outstanding interest, and thereafter to pay outstanding principal, as if the same were a prepayment of principal and treated accordingly hereunder.

ARTICLE 2
THE CREDIT FACILITIES

2.01 Credit Facility

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement the Lenders establish (on a several and not joint or joint and several basis) in favour of the Borrower a revolving term credit facility (the "Revolving Facility") in an amount not to exceed the Revolving Facility Commitment.

2.02 Swingline Facility

(1) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Swingline Lender establishes in favour of the Borrower a revolving credit facility (the "Swingline Facility") in an amount not to exceed the Swingline Commitment.

(2) At any time that the Borrower would be entitled to obtain Prime Rate Advances and US Base Rate Advances under the Revolving Facility, the Borrower will be entitled to draw cheques on its Cdn. Dollar chequing account and US Dollar chequing account, as the case may be, maintained from time to time with the Swingline Lender at the main branch of the Swingline Lender in Toronto, Ontario (or in such other accounts with the Swingline Lender at such other branch of the Swingline Lender as may be agreed upon by the Swingline Lender and the Borrower from time to time). The debit balance from time to time in any such Cdn. Dollar account will be deemed to be a Prime Rate Advance, outstanding to the Borrower from the Swingline Lender under the Swingline Facility. The debit balance from time to time in any such US Dollar account will be deemed to be a US Base Rate Advance outstanding to the Borrower from the Swingline Lender under the Swingline Facility. If at any time the Borrower is a party to a cash concentration arrangement with the Swingline Lender, the amount of any overdraft from time to time in the Cdn. Dollar or US Dollar concentration account, as the case may be, of the Borrower established pursuant to such arrangement (which for greater certainty may include one of the Cdn. Dollar or US Dollar accounts identified above) will also be deemed to be a Prime Rate Advance or US Base Rate Advance, as the case may be, outstanding to the Borrower from the Swingline Lender under the Swingline Facility. A Prime Rate Advance or a US Base Rate Advance from the Swingline Lender as contemplated by this Section, prior to such time as such Advance is repaid as contemplated by Sections 2.02(3)or (4), or purchased as contemplated by Section 2.02(5), is referred to as a "Swingline Loan".

(3) It is the intention of the parties that Swingline Loans are to be available to the Borrower on a short-term basis pending the obtaining of Drawdowns from the Lenders. Accordingly, if any Swingline Loans have been outstanding for more than five Business Days, the Swingline Lender may require the Borrower to obtain a Drawdown, (subject to minimum Advances of Bankers' Acceptances, BA Equivalent Notes and LIBOR Advances), from the Lenders in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate amount of Swingline Loans then outstanding; the proceeds of such Drawdown will be applied in repayment of all outstanding Swingline Loans at such time.

(4) If the Borrower does not repay Swingline Loans as required by Section 2.02(3) the Swingline Lender may (but will not be obliged to) deliver a written notice to the Agent (which will thereupon deliver a similar notice to each of the Lenders) and to the Borrower, whereby the Borrower will be deemed to have requested at such time a Drawdown from the Lenders (in the case of Canadian Dollar Obligations of Prime Rate Advances and in the case of US Dollar Obligations of US Base Rate Advances) in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate amount of Swingline Loans then outstanding. The Lenders will thereupon make such Advances (whether or not the conditions specified in Section 3.02 will then have been satisfied), in its Proportionate Share and the Agent will pay the proceeds thereof to the Swingline Lender to be applied in repayment of such Swingline Loans. The Agent will promptly notify the Borrower of any such Advances made, and the Borrower agrees to accept each such Advance and hereby authorizes and directs the Agent to apply the proceeds thereof as aforesaid.

(5) Each of the Lenders agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Swingline Lender according to its Proportionate Share against all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses, payments or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against the Swingline Lender in any way related to or arising out of any Swingline Loan made by the Swingline Lender under the Swingline Facility (except for any such liabilities to the extent that they result from the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Swingline Lender).

(6) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default the Swingline Lender may, by notice to the Agent, convert all of its Commitment under the Swingline Facility into a Commitment under the Revolving Facility and thereafter may, on behalf of the Borrower, (which hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the Swingline Lender to act on its behalf), give a Drawdown Notice to the Agent requesting the Lenders to make Prime Rate Advances and/or U.S. Base Rate Advances, as applicable, in amounts equal to the unpaid principal amount of all Swingline Loans. Such Advances shall be made by the Lenders directly to the Swingline Lender in such amounts and in such proportions as are necessary to ensure that following such Advances the Proportionate Share of all Advances under the Revolving Facility equals the Proportionate Share of all Commitments under the Revolving Facility, following conversion of the Swingline Lender's Commitment under the Swingline Facility into a Commitment under the Revolving Facility as provided above. Notwithstanding to foregoing, upon the Agent demanding repayment of the Obligations pursuant to Section 12.02, the conversion of the Swingline Lenders' Commitment into a Commitment under the Revolving Facility shall be deemed to have occurred and the Lenders will make the Advances required hereunder upon receipt of notice from the Agent without the need for any Drawdown Notice being issued on behalf of the Borrower.

(7) If for any reason any Lender cannot or does not make any Advance under the Revolving Facility required by Section 2.02(6), then such Lender shall forthwith purchase an undivided participating interest in all outstanding Swingline Loans in an amount equal to its Proportionate Share of all Commitments under the Revolving Facility (effective following the conversion of the Swingline Lender's Commitment under the Swingline Facility into a Commitment under the Revolving Facility provided for in Section 2.02(6)). On the date or such required purchase, each Lender shall promptly transfer, in immediately available funds, the amount of its participating interest to the Agent for the account of the Swingline Lender.

2.03 Purpose of Credit Facilities

(1) Advances under the Revolving Facility will only be used by the Borrower (i) to make Permitted Acquisitions in the United States and Canada; and (ii) for working capital and general corporate purposes of the Borrower (subject to the terms hereof).

(2) Advances under the Swingline Facility will only be used by the Borrower (i) to make advances to Countryside Canada for the purposes of the Ripon Acquisition; and (ii) for working capital and general corporate purposes of the Borrower (subject to the terms hereof).

2.04 Manner of Borrowing

(1) The Borrower may, subject to the terms hereof, make Drawdowns, Conversions and Rollovers as applicable under the Revolving Facility (i) in Canadian Dollars, by way of Prime Rate Advances and Bankers' Acceptances (and BA Equivalent Notes), and (ii) in United States Dollars, by way of US Base Rate Advances and LIBOR Advances. The Borrower will have the option, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, to determine which types of Advances will be drawn down and in which combinations or proportions.

(2) The Borrower may make Drawdowns under the Swingline Facility in Canadian Dollars by way of Prime Rate Advances and in US Dollars by way of US Base Rate Advances.

2.05 Nature of the Credit Facilities

Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Credit Facilities are revolving credit facilities and, accordingly, the Borrower may increase or decrease Advances under either such facility by making Drawdowns, repayments and further Drawdowns of the amount of Advances that have been repaid. For avoidance of doubt, any Advances that are repaid from the proceeds of Future Intercompany Debt or Future Intercompany Equity advanced to the Borrower and representing proceeds of the Convertible Debenture Financing may be re-borrowed by way of further Drawdowns.

2.06 Drawdowns, Conversions and Rollovers

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Borrower may (i) make Drawdowns hereunder; (ii) convert the whole or any part of any type of Advance into any other type of Advance; or (iii) may rollover any Bankers' Acceptances, BA Equivalent Note or LIBOR Advance on the last day of the applicable Interest Period therefor, by giving the Agent a Drawdown Notice, Conversion Notice or Rollover Notice, as the case may be.

(2) The Borrower may at any time make a Drawdown, Conversion or Rollover under the Revolving Facility by delivering a Drawdown Notice, Conversion Notice or Rollover Notice, as the case may be, to the Agent not later, except in the case of the first Drawdown, than:

(i) 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) three Business Days prior to the proposed Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, as the case may be, for LIBOR Advances;

(ii) 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) the Business Day prior to the proposed Drawdown Date or Conversion Date, as the case may be, for Prime Rate Advances, US Base Rate Advances; and

(iii) 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) two Business Days prior to the proposed Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, as the case may be, for Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Notes.

(3) Each Drawdown, Conversion or Rollover under the Revolving Facility will (i) in the case of Prime Rate Advances, be in a minimum principal amount of $1,000,000 and in whole multiples of $100,000; and (ii) in the case of Bankers' Acceptances, be in a minimum face amount of $1,000,000 and in whole multiples of $100,000 for terms of one, two, three or six months, subject to availability; (iii) in the case of US Base Rate Advances, be in a minimum principal amount of US$1,000,000 and in whole multiples of US$100,000; (iv) and in the case of LIBOR Advances, be in a minimum principal amount of US$1,000,000 and in whole multiples of US$100,000 for terms of 30, 60, 90 or 180 days, subject to availability.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of Section 2.06(1), 2.06(2) and 2.06(3) do not apply to Swingline Loans.

2.07 Agent's Obligations with Respect to Advances

Upon receipt of a Drawdown Notice, Conversion Notice or Rollover Notice, as the case may be, the Agent will forthwith notify the Lenders of the proposed Drawdown Date, of each Lender's Proportionate Share of such Advance and, if applicable, the account of the Agent to which each Lender's Proportionate Share is to be credited.

2.08 Lenders' and Agent's Obligations with Respect to Advances

With respect to Advances under the Revolving Facility, each Lender will, prior to 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the Drawdown Date, Conversion Date or Rollover Date, as the case may be, specified by the Borrower in a Drawdown Notice, Conversion Notice or Rollover Notice, as the case may be, credit the Agent's account specified in the Agent's notice given under Section 2.07 with such Lender's Proportionate Share of such Advance and by 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the same date the Agent will make available the full amount of the amounts so credited to the Borrower.

2.09 Irrevocability

A Drawdown Notice, Conversion Notice or Rollover Notice, as the case may be, given by the Borrower hereunder will be irrevocable and will oblige the Borrower to take the action contemplated on the date specified therein.

2.10 Termination of LIBOR Advances

(1) If at any time a Lender determines, acting reasonably, (which determination will be conclusive and binding on the Borrower) that:

(a) the LIBO Rate does not adequately reflect the effective cost to the Lender of making or maintaining a LIBOR Advance; or

(b) it cannot readily obtain or retain funds in the London interbank market in order to fund or maintain any LIBOR Advance for a LIBOR Interest Period selected by the Borrower or cannot otherwise perform its obligations hereunder with respect to any LIBOR Advance for any such period;

then the Lender will inform the Agent and upon at least four Business Days written notice by the Agent to the Borrower, and

(c) the right of the Borrower to request LIBOR Advances for such period from that Lender will be and remain suspended until the Agent notifies the Borrower that any condition causing such determination no longer exists; and

(d) if the Lender is prevented from maintaining a LIBOR Advance, the Borrower will, at its option, either repay the LIBOR Advance to that Lender or convert the LIBOR Advance into other forms of Advance which are permitted by this Agreement, and the Borrower will be responsible for any loss or expense that the Lender incurs as a result, including Breakage Costs, if the Lender is prevented from maintaining a LIBOR Advance.

(2) If at any time the Agent determines that the LIBO Rate is not determinable pursuant to clause (a) or (b) in the definition of "LIBO Rate", the Agent will so notify the Borrower, and the right of the Borrower to request LIBOR Advances for such period will be and remain suspended until the Agent notifies the Borrower that any condition causing such determination no longer exists.

(b) the representations and warranties deemed to be repeated pursuant to Section 9.02 continue to be true and correct as if made on and as of the Drawdown Date except to the extent that such representations and warranties relate specifically to an earlier date and the Borrower will have provided a certificate to such effect;

(c) no Event of Default or Pending Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the Drawdown Date, or would result from making the Advance; and

(d) all other conditions precedent in this Agreement that have not been waived upon which the Borrower may obtain an Advance, to the extent applicable to such Advance, have been fulfilled.

3.03 Waiver

The conditions set forth in Sections 3.01 and 3.02 are inserted for the sole benefit of the Agent and Lenders and may be waived by the Agent and Lenders in accordance with the terms of Section 14.09, in whole or in part (with or without terms or conditions), in respect of any Drawdown without prejudicing the right of the Agent and Lenders at any time to assert such conditions in respect of any subsequent Drawdown.

4.01 Account of Record

The Agent will open and maintain books of account evidencing all Advances and all other amounts owing by the Borrower to the Lenders hereunder. The Agent will enter in the foregoing accounts details of all amounts from time to time owing, paid or repaid by the Borrower hereunder. The information entered in the foregoing accounts will, absent manifest error, constitute prima facie evidence of the obligations of the Borrower to the Lenders hereunder with respect to all Advances and all other amounts owing by the Borrower to the Lenders hereunder. After a request by the Borrower, the Agent will promptly advise the Borrower of such entries made in the Agent's books of account.

ARTICLE 5
PAYMENTS OF INTEREST AND STANDBY FEES

5.01 Interest on Prime Rate Advances

The Borrower will pay interest on each Prime Rate Advance during each Interest Period applicable thereto in Canadian Dollars at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the Prime Rate in effect from time to time during such Interest Period plus (ii) the Prime Rate Margin. Each determination by the Agent of the Prime Rate and the Prime Rate Margin applicable from time to time during an Interest Period will, in the absence of manifest error, be binding upon the Borrower. Such interest will be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Advance for the period from and including the Drawdown Date or the preceding Conversion Date or Interest Payment Date, as the case may be, for such Advance to and including the day preceding such Interest Payment Date and will be calculated on the principal amount of the Prime Rate Advance outstanding during such period and on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 365 days. Changes in the Prime Rate will cause an immediate adjustment of the interest rate applicable to such Advance without the necessity of any notice to the Borrower.

5.02 Interest on US Base Rate Advances

The Borrower will pay interest on each US Base Rate Advance during each Interest Period applicable thereto in United States Dollars at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the US Base Rate, in effect from time to time during such Interest Period plus (ii) the US Base Rate Margin. Each determination by the Agent of the US Base Rate and the US Base Rate Margin, applicable from time to time during an Interest Period will, in the absence of manifest error, be binding upon the Borrower. Such interest will be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Advance for the period from and including the Drawdown Date or the preceding Conversion Date or Interest Payment Date, as the case may be, for such Advance to and including the day preceding such Interest Payment Date and will be calculated on the principal amount of the US Base Rate Advance outstanding during such period and on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed divided by 365. Changes in the US Base Rate will cause an immediate adjustment of the interest rate applicable to such Advance without the necessity of any notice to the Borrower.

5.03 Interest on LIBOR Advances

The Borrower will pay interest on each LIBOR Advance during each Interest Period applicable thereto in United States Dollars at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (i) the LIBO Rate in effect from time to time during such Interest Period plus (ii) the LIBO Rate Margin. Each determination by the Agent of the LIBO Rate and the LIBO Rate Margin applicable from time to time during an Interest Period will, in the absence of manifest error, be binding upon the Borrower. Such interest will be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Advance for the period from and including the Drawdown Date or the preceding Conversion Date or Interest Payment Date, as the case may be, for such Advance to and including the day preceding such Interest Payment Date and will be calculated on the principal amount of the LIBOR Advance outstanding during such period and on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed divided by 360.

5.04 No Set-Off, Deduction etc.

All payments (whether interest or otherwise) to be made by the Borrower or any other party pursuant to this Agreement are to be made in freely transferable, immediately available funds and without set-off or deduction of any kind whatsoever (whether for deemed re-investment or otherwise) except to the extent required by Applicable Law, and if any such set-off or deduction is so required and is made, the Borrower or any other party will, as a separate and independent obligation to each Lender, be obligated to immediately pay to each Lender all such additional amounts as may be required to fully indemnify and save harmless such Lender from such set-off or deduction and will result in the effective receipt by such Lender of all the amounts otherwise payable to it in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. For greater certainty, the Borrower will not be required to make any payment under this Section 5.04 in duplication of any payment required to be made under Section 15.04 or to the extent expressly excluded in Section 15.04.

5.05 Standby Fees

The Borrower will pay to the Agent for the account of the Lenders in accordance with their Proportionate Share a standby fee in Canadian Dollars calculated at the rate per annum specified as the applicable "Standby Fee Rate" in the table contained in the definition of "Applicable Margin" on the amount by which the daily average of the aggregate of all Advances outstanding under each Credit Facility (other than Advances under the Swingline Facility) during such Fiscal Quarter is less than the Commitment in respect of such Credit Facility. The standby fee will be determined daily beginning on the Original Closing Date and will be calculated on the basis of a calendar year of 365 days and will be payable by the Borrower quarterly in arrears on the first Business Day of each Fiscal Quarter. Standby fees in connection with the increased Commitments hereunder pursuant to this Second Amendment and Restatement will begin to accrue on June 27, 2005.

5.06 Standby Fees – Swingline Facility

The Borrower will pay to the Swingline Lender a standby fee in Canadian Dollars calculated at the rate per annum specified as the applicable "Standby Fee Rate" in the table contained in the definition of "Applicable Margin" on the amount by which the daily average of the aggregate of all Advances outstanding under the Swingline Facility during such Fiscal Quarter is less than the Swingline Commitment. The standby fee will be determined by the Swingline Lender daily beginning on the date hereof and will be calculated on the basis of a calendar year of 365 days and will be payable by the Borrower quarterly in arrears on the first Business Day of each Fiscal Quarter.

5.07 Agency and Other Fees

In consideration of the Agent arranging the Credit Facilities and acting as agent under the Credit Documents, the Borrower will pay to the Agent an agency fee and the other fees expressed to be for the account of TD in the amounts, and on the terms and conditions, set out in (i) the agency fee agreement dated as of April 8, 2004 entered into by the Agent and the Borrower, (ii) the fee letter dated as of June 3, 2005 entered into by TD and the Borrower, or (iii) as otherwise agreed to in writing from time to time by the Agent and the Borrower. For greater certainty, such fee letters and any other written arrangements between the Agent and the Borrower respecting fees will constitute Credit Documents will survive the execution of this Agreement and will in all respects remain operative and binding on the Borrower.

5.08 Late Payment

If any payment required to be made by the Borrower hereunder or any other Credit Document (including, without limitation, any payment of principal, interest or fees), is not made on the due date thereof, the Borrower will pay interest (including interest on overdue interest) on the amount of such required payment at the Late Payment Rate until payment in full of such required payment has been made.

ARTICLE 6
BANKERS' ACCEPTANCES

6.01 Bankers' Acceptances

(1) To facilitate the procedures contemplated in this Agreement, the Borrower irrevocably appoints each Lender from time to time as the attorney-in-fact of the Borrower to execute, endorse and deliver on behalf of the Borrower drafts in the forms prescribed by such Lender (if such Lender is a BA Lender) for bankers' acceptances denominated in Cdn. Dollars (each such executed draft which has not yet been accepted by a Lender being referred to as a "Draft") or non interest-bearing promissory notes of the Borrower in favour of such Lender (if such Lender is a Non BA Lender) (each such promissory note being referred to as a "BA Equivalent Note"). Each Bankers' Acceptance and BA Equivalent Note executed and delivered by a Lender on behalf of the Borrower as provided for in this Section will be as binding upon the Borrower as if it had been executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer of the Borrower.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 6.01(1), the Borrower will from time to time as required by the applicable Lender provide to the Lenders an appropriate number of Drafts drawn by the Borrower upon each BA Lender and either payable to a clearing service (if such BA Lender is a member thereof) or payable to the Borrower and endorsed in blank by the Borrower (if such BA Lender is not a member of such clearing service) and an appropriate number of BA Equivalent Notes in favour of each Non BA Lender. The dates, the maturity dates and the principal amounts of all Drafts and BA Equivalent Notes delivered by the Borrower will be left blank, to be completed by the Lenders as required by this Agreement. All such Drafts or BA Equivalent Notes will be held by each Lender subject to the same degree of care as if they were such Lender's own property kept at the place at which the Drafts or BA Equivalent Notes are ordinarily kept by such Lender. Each Lender, upon written request of the Borrower, will promptly advise the Borrower of the number and designation, if any, of the Drafts and BA Equivalent Notes then held by it. No Lender will be liable for its failure to accept a Draft or purchase a BA Equivalent Note as required by this Agreement if the cause of such failure is, in whole or in part, due to the failure of the Borrower to provide on a timely basis appropriate Drafts or BA Equivalent Notes to the applicable Lender as may be requested by such Lender on a timely basis from time to time.

(3) The Agent, promptly following receipt of a Drawdown Notice requesting Bankers' Acceptances, will (i) advise each BA Lender of the face amount and the term of the Draft to be accepted by it, and (ii) advise each applicable Non BA Lender of the face amount and term of the BA Equivalent Note to be purchased by it. All Drafts to be accepted from time to time by each BA Lender that is a member of a clearing service will be payable to such clearing service. The term of all Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Notes issued pursuant to any Drawdown Notice will be identical. Each Bankers' Acceptance and BA Equivalent Note will be dated the Drawdown Date on which it is issued and will be for a term of one, two, three or six months provided that in no event will the term of a Bankers' Acceptance or a BA Equivalent Note extend beyond the Maturity Date. The face amount of the Draft (or the aggregate face amount of the Drafts) to be accepted at any time by each Lender which is a BA Lender, and the face amount of the BA Equivalent Notes to be purchased at any time by each Lender which is a Non BA Lender, will be determined by the Agent based upon the amounts of their respective Commitments under the Revolving Facility. In determining a Lender's Proportionate Share of a request for Bankers' Acceptances, the Agent, in its sole discretion, will be entitled to increase or decrease the face amount of any Draft, or BA Equivalent Note to the nearest $1,000.

(4) Each BA Lender will complete and accept on the applicable Drawdown Date a Draft having a face amount (or Drafts having the face amounts) and term advised by the Agent pursuant to Section 6.01(3). Each applicable BA Lender will purchase on the applicable Drawdown Date the Bankers' Acceptance or Bankers' Acceptances accepted by it, for an aggregate price equal to the BA Discount Proceeds of such Bankers' Acceptance (or Bankers' Acceptances). The Borrower will ensure that there is delivered to each applicable BA Lender that is a member of a clearing service, and such BA Lender is hereby authorized to release the Bankers' Acceptance accepted by it to such clearing house upon receipt of confirmation that such clearing house holds such Bankers' Acceptance for the account of such BA Lender.

(5) Each Non BA Lender, in lieu of accepting Drafts or purchasing Bankers' Acceptances on any Drawdown Date, will complete and purchase from the Borrower on such Drawdown Date a BA Equivalent Note in a face amount and for a term identical to the face amount and term of the Draft or Drafts which such Non BA Lender would have been required to accept on such Drawdown Date if it were a BA Lender, for a price equal to the BA Discount Proceeds of such BA Equivalent Note. Each Non BA Lender will be entitled without charge to exchange any BA Equivalent Note held by it for two or more BA Equivalent Notes of identical date and aggregate face amount, and the Borrower will execute and deliver to such Non BA Lender such replacement BA Equivalent Notes such Non BA Lender will return the original BA Equivalent Note to the Borrower for cancellation.

(6) The Borrower will pay to each BA Lender in respect of each Draft tendered by the Borrower to and accepted by such BA Lender, and to each Non BA Lender in respect of each BA Equivalent Note tendered to and purchased by such Non BA Lender, as a condition of such acceptance or purchase, the BA Stamping Fee.

(7) Upon acceptance of each Draft or purchase of each BA Equivalent Note, the Borrower will pay to the applicable Lender the related fee specified in Section 6.01(6), and to facilitate payment such Lender will be entitled to deduct and retain for its own account the amount of such fee from the amount to be transferred by such Lender to the Agent for the account of the Borrower pursuant to this Agreement in respect of the sale of the related Bankers' Acceptance or of such BA Equivalent Note.

(8) If the Agent determines in good faith, which determination will be final, conclusive and binding upon the Borrower, and so notifies the Borrower, that there does not exist at the applicable time a normal market in Canada for the purchase and sale of bankers' acceptances, any right of the Borrower to require the Lenders to purchase Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Notes under this Agreement will be suspended until the Agent determines that such market does exist and gives notice thereof to the Borrower and any Drawdown Notice, Conversion Notice or Rollover Notice requesting Bankers' Acceptances will be deemed to be a Drawdown Notice or Conversion Notice requesting a Prime Rate Advance in a similar aggregate principal amount.

(9) On the date of maturity of each Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, the Borrower will pay to the Agent, for the account of the holder of such Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, in Canadian Dollars an amount equal to the face amount of such Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, as the case may be. In the case of a Rollover of a Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, in order to satisfy the continuing liability of the Borrower to a Lender for the face amount of the maturing Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, the Lender will determine and retain the BA Discount Proceeds of the new Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, and the Borrower will, on the maturity date of the maturing Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, pay to the Agent for the account of the relevant Lender (i) the difference between the principal amount of the maturing Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note and the BA Discount Proceeds from the new Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, and (ii) the BA Stamping Fee in respect of the new Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note. The obligation of the Borrower to make such payment will not be prejudiced by the fact that the holder of such Bankers' Acceptance is the Lender that accepted such Bankers' Acceptances. No days of grace will be claimed by the Borrower for the payment at maturity of any Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note. If the Borrower does not make such payment, from the proceeds of an Advance obtained under this Agreement or otherwise, the amount of such required payment will be deemed to be a Prime Rate Advance to the Borrower from the Lender that accepted such Bankers' Acceptance or purchased such BA Equivalent Note.

(10) The signature of any duly authorized officer of the Borrower on a Draft or a BA Equivalent Note may be mechanically reproduced in facsimile, and all Drafts and BA Equivalent Notes bearing such facsimile signature will be as binding upon the Borrower as if they had been manually signed by such officer, notwithstanding that such Person whose manual or facsimile signature appears on such Draft or BA Equivalent Note may no longer hold office at the date of such Draft or BA Equivalent Note or at the date of acceptance of such Draft by a BA Lender or at any time thereafter.

REPAYMENT

7.01 Mandatory Repayment of Principal

Subject to the terms hereof, the Borrower will repay all Obligations in connection with the Credit Facilities, including the outstanding principal amount of all Advances thereunder (which, for greater certainty, will include all amounts payable by the Borrower to the Agent under Section 6.01(9) with respect to any Bankers' Acceptances and BA Equivalent Notes outstanding on the Maturity Date) together with all accrued interest, fees and other amounts then unpaid by it with respect to such Advances, in full on the Maturity Date and the Credit Facilities and the Commitments thereunder will be automatically terminated on the Maturity Date.

7.02 Voluntary Repayments and Reductions

Subject to the Agent receiving a Repayment Notice which will be given not less than one Business Day prior to the proposed repayment date and which will be irrevocable, the Borrower may from time to time repay or prepay Advances outstanding under the Revolving Facilities from the proceeds of Future Intercompany Debt or Future Intercompany Equity and representing proceeds of the Convertible Debenture Financing or otherwise, without premium, penalty or bonus provided that each such repayment or prepayment will be in a minimum aggregate amount of $1,000,000 and in whole multiples of $100,000 for Advances denominated in Canadian Dollars and in a minimum aggregate amount of US$1,000,000 and in whole multiples of US$100,000 for Advances denominated in United States Dollars. For the avoidance of doubt, the minimum repayment amounts referenced herein will not apply to repayment of Advances under the Swingline Facility.

7.03 Cancellation or Reduction of Credit Facility or Swingline Facility

The Borrower may, at any time, upon giving at least three Business Days prior notice to the Agent, cancel in full or, from time to time, reduce in part, either or both of the Revolving Facility or the Swingline Facility and, if reduced, the Commitments of each of the Lenders (or the Swingline Lender) will be reduced pro rata in the same proportion that the amount of the reduction in either or both of the Revolving Facility or the Swingline Facility bears to the amount of either or both of the Revolving Facility or the Swingline Facility in effect immediately prior to the reduction; provided, however, that any reduction will be in a minimum amount of Cdn.$1,000,000 in integral multiples of Cdn.$100,000. The Borrower will not cancel all or any portion of the Commitments if as a result thereof it would be required to repay Bankers' Acceptances with a maturity date falling subsequent to the date of such cancellation. In addition, if, the Borrower cancels all or any portion of the Commitments and as a result thereof it would be required to repay LIBOR Advances, Section 7.10 shall apply to such repayment.

7.04 Mandatory Repayment on Dispositions

(1) The Borrower will forthwith repay the Obligations under the Revolving Facility with Net Disposition Proceeds of Approved Asset Dispositions in such an amount so as to ensure that following the closing of such Approved Asset Disposition, the Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio is or will be less than 2.75:1. The Borrower will forthwith repay the Obligations under the Revolving Facility with Net Disposition Proceeds of Ripon Dispositions in such an amount so as to ensure that following the closing of such Ripon Disposition, the Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio is or will be less than 2.75:1. Forthwith upon closing of any Approved Asset Disposition or Ripon Disposition, as applicable, the Borrower will deliver to the Agent a certificate calculating (i) the Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio as at the date of such closing, and (ii) the pro forma Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio calculated by deducting EBITDA applicable to the assets the subject of such Approved Asset Disposition or Ripon Disposition, as applicable, from any such calculation. For greater certainty, the foregoing repayment obligation shall apply if any of the Net Disposition Proceeds are not received by the Borrower directly but are instead received by any Restricted Party or any Ripon Entity.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 7.04(1), if it is the intention of the Borrower to replace the assets subject of any Approved Asset Disposition or Ripon Disposition, as applicable, with other like assets useful in the Business, the Borrower may retain all or that portion of the Net Disposition Proceeds that it intends to use for application towards the purchase of such other assets; provided that within 180 days following any such Approved Asset Disposition or Ripon Disposition, as applicable, the Borrower has entered into a bona fide Arm's Length contract for the purchase of such like replacement assets and within 180 days of the date of such purchase contract (or such longer period as agreed by the Majority Lenders acting reasonably) the Borrower has consummated such acquisition and applied all of such retained Net Disposition Proceeds in respect thereof. If following the first such 180 day period the Borrower has not entered into such a contract or following the second such 180 day period (as may have been extended by agreement of the Majority Lenders) the Borrower has not consummated such acquisition, all such retained Net Disposition Proceeds will be paid by the Borrower (irrespective as to which Restricted Party or Ripon Entity retained any such proceeds) to the Agent and will be applied in permanent repayment of outstanding Advances under the Revolving Facility.

7.05 Mandatory Repayments from Proceeds of Insurance

(1) If the Restricted Parties receive proceeds of insurance (other than business interruption insurance) in an aggregate amount up to $100,000 in any Fiscal Year, the Restricted Parties may retain such proceeds.

(2) If the Restricted Parties receive proceeds of insurance in excess of $100,000 in the aggregate in any Fiscal Year (other than business interruption insurance), the Restricted Parties may retain all such insurance proceeds in any Fiscal Year aggregating up to $2,000,000 provided that an Obligor enters into a bona fide contract to replace, repair or rebuild the asset to which such proceeds relate within 180 days and such replacement, repair or rebuilding has been completed within 180 days (or such longer period as agreed by the Majority Lenders acting reasonably) following the entering of such contract. If following the first such 180 day period no Obligor has entered into any such contract or following the second such 180 day period, such assets have not been replaced, repaired or rebuilt, such proceeds will be immediately paid by the Borrower, (irrespective as to which Restricted Party received such insurance proceeds), to the Agent and will be applied by the Agent in permanent repayment of outstanding Advances under the Revolving Facility.

(3) If the Restricted Parties cumulatively receive proceeds of insurance (other than business interruption insurance) in the aggregate in a Fiscal Year in excess of $2,000,000, the Majority Lenders will, in their sole discretion, acting reasonably, determine whether to direct the Borrower (irrespective as to which Restricted Party received such insurance proceeds) to pay the proceeds to the Agent for application against outstanding Obligations under the Revolving Facility or to direct such Restricted Party to use such proceeds to replace, repair or rebuild assets within the time period prescribed by the Lenders.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, a Restricted Party will pay all proceeds of insurance (including, without limitation, business interruption insurance) to the Agent for application against outstanding Obligations under the Revolving Facility if there exists a Pending Event of Default (for application only if such Pending Event of Default becomes an Event of Default) or an Event of Default. All proceeds of business interruption insurance will be paid over to the Borrower provided there then exists no Event of Default.

(5) The Borrower will forthwith repay the Obligations under the Revolving Facility with the proceeds of insurance received from any of the Ripon Entities (other than business interruption insurance and subject to the prior right of payment of the Lenders under the Ripson Credit Agreement) in such an amount so as to ensure that following application of such insurance proceeds the Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio is less than 2.75:1.

7.06 Mandatory Repayments from Make Whole Amounts

If any Restricted Party receives any amount by way of "make-whole", "liquidated damages" or other lump sum amount in excess of $1,000,000 payable upon termination or default under a Material Contract, and the Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio last calculated hereunder was greater than 1.75:1, such amounts will be immediately paid by the Borrower (irrespective as to which Restricted Party received such payment) to the Agent to be applied by the Agent in permanent repayment of outstanding Advances under the Revolving Facility.

7.07 Mandatory Prepayments under USEB Loan Agreement

If Countryside Canada receives any amount by way of mandatory prepayment of principal owing under Section 6.2 or 6.4 of the USEB Loan Agreement, such amount will be immediately paid by the Borrower (irrespective of the fact that such amount was received by Countryside Canada) to the Agent to be applied by the Agent in permanent repayment of outstanding Advances under the Revolving Facility.

7.08 Excess Over the Maximum Amounts

If the Agent determines that on any day as a result of currency fluctuations the aggregate of (a) Advances in Canadian Dollars then outstanding under either Credit Facility, and (b) the Equivalent Amount in Canadian Dollars of Advances in US Dollars then outstanding under such Credit Facility on such day exceeds the aggregate of Commitments then in effect in respect of such Credit Facility, the Agent will notify the Borrower that such an event has occurred, and the Borrower will within three Business Days following receipt of such notice, (i) repay Advances under such Credit Facility in an amount equal to such excess, or (ii) deposit with the Agent cash or Cash Equivalents in an amount of such excess, provided that if it is determined on any subsequent day that the amount of the deposited amounts exceeds the amount of such excess, the Borrower may withdraw the amount by which such excess has been reduced.

7.09 Extension of Maturity Date

(1) The Borrower may request, once only, by written request given to the Agent (the "Extension Request") no earlier than one year from the Effective Date nor later than two years from the Effective Date that this Agreement be amended (the "Extension Amendment") to extend the Maturity Date for a further period of 365 days. Each Lender may accept or reject the request made by the Borrower for an Extension Amendment, in its sole and absolute discretion. Each Lender will notify the Agent as to whether or not it consents to the Extension Amendment within 30 days of receipt by the Agent of the Extension Request. If any Lender does not provide such notice within such period, such Lender will be deemed not to have consented to the Extension Amendment. As soon as practicable, following 30 days of receipt by the Agent of the Extension Request, the Agent will give written notice to the Borrower and the Lenders advising as to those Lenders who have consented to the Extension Amendment (collectively, the "Consenting Lenders" and, individually, a "Consenting Lender") and those Lenders who have not consented or who have been deemed not to have consented to the Extension Amendment (collectively the "Dissenting Lenders" and, individually, a "Dissenting Lender").

(2) A Consenting Lender, at its option, may acquire all or a rateable portion of the Commitments of the Dissenting Lenders under the Revolving Facility (and, if applicable, all but not less than all of the Commitment of the Swingline Lender under the Swingline Facility) by giving written notice to the Agent of the rateable portion of the Commitments of the Dissenting Lenders under the Revolving Facility which such Consenting Lender is prepared to acquire or, if applicable, written notice that it is prepared to acquire the entire Commitment of the Swingline Lender under the Swingline Facility. Such notice will be given within the time period specified by the Agent following receipt of the notice from the Agent advising as to the Consenting Lenders and the Dissenting Lenders pursuant to Section 7.09(1).

(3) If one or more of the Consenting Lenders (collectively, the "Acquiring Lenders" and, individually, an "Acquiring Lender") has given notice to the Agent that it wishes to acquire all or a rateable portion of the Commitments of the Dissenting Lenders under the Revolving Facility or all of the Commitment of the Swingline Lender under the Swingline Commitment then each Acquiring Lender will acquire a rateable portion of such Commitments under the Revolving Facility and the Commitments of the Acquiring Lenders under this Agreement will be increased by their respective rateable portions of such Commitments as of the then current Maturity Date (such date hereafter referred to as the "Commitment Extension Date"); provided that the acquired Commitments will be allocated to the Acquiring Lenders by the Agent rateably based on their individual Commitments immediately prior to such acquisition and if more than one Acquiring Lender has offered to acquire all of the Commitments of the Swingline Lender the Borrower shall determine the Swingline Lender. Five Business Days prior to the Commitment Extension Date, the Agent will give notice to each of the Acquiring Lenders and the Borrower setting out the amount of the Commitments under the Credit Facilities to be acquired by each of the Acquiring Lenders and the amount of the Advances of the Dissenting Lenders to be acquired by each of the Acquiring Lenders together with all interest accrued thereon, and all other amounts owing to the Dissenting Lenders hereunder and each of the Acquiring Lenders will deposit, on the Commitment Extension Date, with the Agent an amount equal to its respective rateable portion of such amount, and the Agent, on the Commitment Extension Date, will pay the amounts so deposited to the Dissenting Lenders, and upon such payment, each of the Dissenting Lenders will cease to be a "Lender" for purposes of the Credit Facilities and, in each case, will no longer have any obligations under the Credit Facilities. Upon the assumption of the Commitments in respect of the Credit Facilities of each of the Dissenting Lenders by one or more Acquiring Lenders, Schedule A hereto will be deemed to be amended to increase the Commitment in respect of the Credit Facilities of the Acquiring Lenders by the amount of such assumption.

(4) If the Borrower has requested an Extension Amendment and such Extension Amendment has not been consented to by all Lenders but has been consented to by the Majority Lenders and if the Acquiring Lenders have not acquired all of the Commitments under the Credit Facilities of the Dissenting Lenders, then the Borrower may locate one or more other Persons ("Substitute Lenders"), satisfactory to the Majority Lenders (excluding any Dissenting Lenders) to become Lenders and to acquire all or a rateable portion of the Commitments under the Revolving Facility of the Dissenting Lenders hereunder and/or acquire all of the Commitment of the Swingline Lender in respect of the Swingline Facility in accordance with Section 7.09(3), which have not been acquired by the Acquiring Lenders. Upon the acquisition by any Substitute Lender of all or a portion of the Commitments under the Credit Facilities of one or more Dissenting Lenders such Substitute Lender will deliver to the Agent, the Lenders and the Borrower an Assignment Agreement to be effective as of the Commitment Extension Date. If the Extension Amendment has been consented to by the Majority Lenders but not all of the Commitments of all of the Dissenting Lenders have been acquired by Acquiring Lenders or Substitute Lenders or both on or before the Commitment Extension Date, the Borrower may, with the unanimous consent of all Lenders (excluding the Dissenting Lenders) maintain the Credit Facilities by prepaying on the Commitment Extension Date all of the unsubscribed shortfall and permanently reduce the Credit Facilities by the entire amount of such unsubscribed shortfall. If the Borrower makes such repayments and permanent reductions on the Commitment Extension Date, the Maturity Date will be extended in accordance with the Extension Request. For the avoidance of doubt, only one Lender may act as Swingline Lender hereunder.

(5) If the Borrower has requested an Extension Amendment and either (a) such Extension Amendment has not been consented to by the Majority Lenders, or (b)(i) such Extension Amendment has been consented to by the Majority Lenders but not all of the Commitments of all of the Dissenting Lenders have been acquired by the Acquiring Lenders or Substitute Lenders or both on or before the Commitment Extension Date, and (ii) the Borrower has not prepaid on the Commitment Extension Date any unsubscribed shortfall and permanently reduced the Credit Facilities by the amount of such unsubscribed shortfall, the Maturity Date will not be extended.

7.10 Payment of Breakage Costs etc.

In connection with each repayment or prepayment hereunder whether voluntary or mandatory (i) in connection with LIBOR Advances which are repaid prior to the end of the applicable LIBOR Interest Period (a) the Borrower will pay to the Agent (for the account of each applicable Lender) all Breakage Costs, or (b) the Borrower will deposit with the Agent cash or Cash Equivalents in an amount equal to the amount due in respect to such LIBOR Advance at the end of the applicable LIBOR Interest Period, and (ii) in connection with Bankers' Acceptances and, BA Equivalent Notes which are be repaid prior to their respective maturity or expiry dates, the Borrower will deposit cash or Cash Equivalents with the Agent (for the benefit of the applicable Lenders) equal to the full face amount at maturity of such Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note, as applicable, and will concurrently deliver to the Agent a cash collateral agreement, supporting resolutions, certificates and opinions to the extent requested by the Agent in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent.

ARTICLE 8
PLACE AND APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS

8.01 Place of Payment of Principal, Interest and Fees

(1)

(a) The Borrower undertakes at all times that any Advance under the Revolving Facility is outstanding to it or any other amount is owed by it under any Credit Document to maintain an account in Cdn. Dollars and an account in US Dollars with the Agent, which the Agent will be entitled to debit with such amounts as are from time to time required to be paid by the Borrower under the Credit Documents with respect to the Revolving Facility, as and when such amounts are due, and that each such account will contain sufficient funds for such purpose. Without in any way limiting the rights of the Agent pursuant to the foregoing, unless otherwise specifically agreed between the Borrower and the Agent, the Borrower hereby directs the Agent to debit the aforesaid accounts with such amounts as are from time to time required to be paid by the Borrower under the Revolving Facility pursuant to Article 5, Article 6 and Article 7 of this Agreement. For greater certainty, prior to acceleration of repayment pursuant to Section 12.02, this Section 8.02 will not permit any Lender to exercise a right of set-off, combination or similar right against any amount which the Borrower may have on deposit with such Lender in respect of any amount to which netting is to apply pursuant to this Section 8.02, but will apply only to determine the net amount to be payable by the Lenders or one of them to the Borrower, or by the Borrower to the Lenders or one of them.

12.02 Acceleration and Termination of Rights

If any Event of Default will occur, all Obligations will, upon demand made by the Agent, at the option of the Agent or upon the request of the Majority Lenders, become immediately due and payable at the rate or rates determined as herein provided, to the date of actual payment thereof, all without notice, presentment, protest, additional demand, notice of dishonour or any other demand or notice whatsoever, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrower; provided, if any Event of Default described in Section 12.01(n) through (p) with respect to the Borrower will occur, the Commitments (if not theretofore terminated) will automatically terminate and the outstanding principal amount of all Advances and all other Obligations will automatically be and become immediately due and payable. In such event either the Lenders or the Agent on their behalf may, in their discretion, exercise any right or recourse and/or proceed by any action, suit, remedy or proceeding against any Restricted Party authorized or permitted by law for the recovery of all the Obligations of the Borrower to the Lenders and proceed to exercise any and all rights hereunder and under the Security and no such remedy for the enforcement of the rights of the Lenders will be exclusive of or dependent on any other remedy but any one or more of such remedies may from time to time be exercised independently or in combination. In connection with its exercise of remedies the Agent may be subject to intercreditor arrangements between Countryside Canada and Yankee Energy Services Company.

12.03 Payment of Bankers' Acceptances

The Borrower will pay to the Agent for the account of the Lenders the principal amount of any unmatured Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note if demand is made pursuant to Section 12.02. Failing such payment the Agent on behalf of the Lenders will have the option at any time without notice to the Borrower to give notice to the Lenders to make an Advance to the Borrower equal to the principal amount of all unmatured Bankers' Acceptances. The proceeds of such Advance will be held by the Agent in a non-interest bearing cash collateral account for the benefit of the Borrower and will be applied in payment of such Bankers' Acceptances as they mature if payment is required thereunder or otherwise as the Agent may require. The Borrower will execute and deliver as security for such Advance all such security as the Lenders may deem necessary or advisable in connection therewith including, without limitation, an assignment of credit balance in respect of such cash collateral account.

12.04 Remedies Cumulative and Waivers

For greater certainty, it is expressly understood and agreed that the respective rights and remedies of the Lenders and the Agent hereunder or under any other Credit Document or instrument executed pursuant to this Agreement are cumulative and are in addition to and not in substitution for any rights or remedies provided by law or by equity; and any single or partial exercise by the Lenders or by the Agent of any right or remedy for a default or breach of any term, covenant, condition or agreement contained in this Agreement or other document or instrument executed pursuant to this Agreement will not be deemed to be a waiver of or to alter, affect or prejudice any other right or remedy or other rights or remedies to which any one or more of the Lenders and the Agent may be lawfully entitled for such default or breach. Any waiver by the Lenders or the Agent of the strict observance, performance or compliance with any term, covenant, condition or other matter contained herein and any indulgence granted, either expressly or by course of conduct, by the Lenders or the Agent will be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which it was given and will be deemed not to be a waiver of any rights and remedies of the Lenders or the Agent under this Agreement or any other Credit Document or instrument executed pursuant to this Agreement as a result of any other default or breach hereunder or thereunder.

12.05 Termination of Lenders' Obligations

The occurrence of an Event of Default will relieve the Lenders of all obligations to provide any further Advances hereunder whether by Rollover, Conversion or otherwise, by way of Bankers' Acceptances (and BA Equivalent Notes) or LIBOR Advances; provided that the foregoing will not prevent the Lenders from disbursing money hereunder in reduction of then outstanding Bankers' Acceptances. For greater certainty any such Advances will be at the sole discretion of the Lenders. The Agent may reallocate all Advances pro rata among the Lenders in such manner as the Agent determines is equitable.

12.06 Saving

The Lenders will not be under any obligation to the Borrower or any other Person to realize any collateral or enforce the Security or any part thereof or to allow any of the collateral to be sold, dealt with or otherwise disposed of. The Lenders will not be responsible or liable to the Restricted Parties or any other Person for any loss or damage upon the realization or enforcement of, the failure to realize or enforce the collateral or any part thereof or the failure to allow any of the collateral to be sold, dealt with or otherwise disposed of or for any act or omission on their respective parts or on the part of any director, officer, agent, servant or adviser in connection with any of the foregoing, except that a Lender may be responsible or liable for any loss or damage arising from the wilful misconduct or negligence of that Lender.

12.07 Perform Obligations

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and if the Borrower has failed to perform any of its covenants or agreements in the Credit Documents, the Majority Lenders, may, but will be under no obligation to, instruct the Agent on behalf of the Lenders to perform any such covenants or agreements in any manner deemed fit by the Majority Lenders without thereby waiving any rights to enforce the Credit Documents. The reasonable expenses (including any legal costs) paid by the Agent and the Lenders in respect of the foregoing will be an Obligation and will be secured by the Security.

12.08 Third Parties

No Person dealing with the Lenders or any agent of the Lenders will be concerned to inquire whether the Security has become enforceable, or whether the powers which the Lenders or the Agent are purporting to exercise have been exercisable, or whether any Obligations remain outstanding upon the security thereof, or as to the necessity or expediency of the stipulations and conditions subject to which any sale will be made, or otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any sale or other disposition or any other dealing with the collateral charged by such Security or any part thereof.

12.09 Set-Off or Compensation

In addition to and not in limitation of any rights now or hereafter granted under Applicable Law, if repayment is accelerated pursuant to Section 12.02, the Lenders, or any of them, may at any time and from time to time without notice to the Borrower or any other Person, any notice being expressly waived by the Borrower, set-off and compensate and apply any and all deposits, general or special, time or demand, provisional or final, matured or unmatured, and any other indebtedness at any time owing by the Lenders, or any of them, to or for the credit of or the account of the Borrower (including without limitation amounts held in the Holdback Account and any Future Reserve Accounts), against and on account of the Obligations notwithstanding that any of them are contingent or unmatured.

12.10 Realization of Security

Each of the Lenders acknowledges that the Agent holds the Security to secure all of the Obligations and upon the event of the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Agent will act on the written instructions of the Majority Lenders as provided in this Agreement and will distribute the net sale proceeds of realization of the Security to the Lenders in accordance with their Proportionate Share of the Obligations and in accordance with Section 12.11.

12.11 Application of Payments

If any Event of Default will occur and be continuing upon the direction of the Majority Lenders and in all cases following acceleration pursuant to Section 12.02, all payments made by the Borrower hereunder or received from proceeds of realization of any Security, will be applied to amounts due under the Obligations.

12.12 Consultant

The Borrower agrees that, at any time after the occurrence of and during the continuance of an Event of Default and upon written request delivered by the Agent, it will appoint a financial consultant (hereinafter referred to as the "Consultant") for the purposes of reviewing the operations of the Restricted Parties from time to time thereafter. The terms of the Consultant's scope of duties will be settled by the Borrower with the consent of the Agent and the Lenders, provided that such terms may be settled by the Agent and the Lenders if agreement with the Borrower is not reached within five days of the date of the Agent's request on behalf of the Lenders. The Borrower consents, and will cause each Restricted Party to consent, at all times to a free exchange of information or the particulars of any such information exchanged at any time.

ARTICLE 13
COSTS, EXPENSES AND INDEMNIFICATION

13.01 Costs and Expenses

The Borrower will pay promptly upon notice from the Agent all reasonable costs and expenses of the Agent in connection with preparation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the other documents to be delivered hereunder, whether or not any Drawdown has been made hereunder, including without limitation, the reasonable fees and out-of-pocket expenses of Lenders' Counsel with respect thereto and with respect to advising the Agent or the Lenders as to its or their rights and responsibilities under this Agreement and the other Credit Documents to be delivered hereunder. Other than as specifically dealt with in Section 10.04(19)(b), the Borrower further agrees to pay all reasonable costs and expenses of the Agent (and, in case of (iv) and (v) below, the Lenders) in connection with (i) the preparation or review of waivers, consents and amendments requested by the Borrower, (ii) questions of interpretation of this Agreement, (iii) the establishment of the validity and enforceability of this Agreement, (iv) the preservation or enforcement of rights of the Agent and the Lenders under this Agreement and other Credit Documents to be delivered hereunder, and (v) the exercise of any right or remedy of any nature or kind contained herein or in any Credit Document, including, without limitation, all reasonable costs and expenses sustained by each Lender or the Agent as a result of any failure by the Borrower to perform or observe any of its obligations hereunder, together with interest at the Prime Rate plus 2% per annum for amounts outstanding in Canadian Dollars and at US Base Rate plus 2% per annum for amounts outstanding in United States Dollars from and after the tenth Business Day if such payment is not made by such Business Day. Such costs and expenses will be payable whether or not an Advance is made under this Agreement.

13.02 Indemnification by the Borrower

In addition to any liability of the Borrower to any Lender or the Agent under any other provision hereof, except for liability arising from the negligence or wilful misconduct of a Lender or the Agent, the Borrower will indemnify each Lender and the Agent (and each of their directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents and representatives) and hold each Lender and the Agent (and each of their directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents and representatives) harmless against any reasonable loss or expense incurred by such Lender or the Agent (and each of their directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents and representatives) as a result of:

(a) any failure by the Borrower to fulfil any of its Obligations including, without limitation, any cost or expense incurred by reason of the liquidation or re-employment in whole or in part of deposits or other funds required by any Lender to fund any Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note or to fund or maintain its Proportionate Share of any Advance as a result of the Borrower's failure to complete a Drawdown or to make any payment, repayment or prepayment on the date required hereunder or specified by it in any notice given hereunder;

(b) the Borrower's failure to provide for the payment to the Agent, for the account of each of the Lenders, of the full principal or face amount of each Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note on its maturity date;

(c) the Borrower's failure to pay any other amount, including without limitation, any interest or fee, due hereunder on its due date; the repayment or prepayment of a LIBOR Advance otherwise than on the last day of its LIBOR Interest Period;

(d) the provision of funds for any outstanding Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note before the maturity date of such Bankers' Acceptance or BA Equivalent Note;

(e) the Borrower's failure to give any notice required to be given by it to the Agent or Lenders hereunder;

(f) the failure of the Borrower to make any other payment when due hereunder;

(g) any liability, obligations, loss (other than lost profits) or expense, (including Breakage Costs), that may be suffered by or asserted against any of them as a result of the conduct of any Restricted Party in the performance of any of the Credit Documents, or by reason of the Agent or the Lenders agreeing to enter into this Agreement; or

(h) any liability, obligations, loss (other than lost profits) or expense, that may be suffered by or asserted against any of them as a result of the Ripon Acquisition or the conduct of any Ripon Entity.

A certificate of a Lender or the Agent as to the amount of any such loss or expense will be prima facie evidence as to the amount thereof, in the absence of manifest error. The agreements in this Section will survive the termination of this Agreement and repayment of the Obligations.

13.03 Specific Environmental Indemnification

The Borrower will defend and indemnify each Lender and the Agent (and each of their directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents and representatives) and hold each harmless at all times from and against any and all costs, losses, damages, expenses, judgments, suits, claims, awards, fines, sanctions and liabilities whatsoever (including any costs or expenses for preparing any necessary environmental assessment report or other such other reports) by a third party against any Lender or the Agent (and each of their directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents and representatives) or any of them related to or as a result of (i) any release, deposit, discharge, or disposal of any hazardous or toxic materials, contaminants, wastes or other substance in connection with the property or business of the Restricted Parties or the Ripon Entities; and (ii) the remedial actions (if any) taken by the Agent on behalf of the Lenders, in respect of such release, deposit, discharge or disposal; or (iii) a failure to comply with Requirements of Environmental Law. The Borrower will have the sole right, at its expense, to control any such legal action or claim and to settle on terms and conditions approved by the Borrower and approved by the party named in such legal action or claim whether it be the Lenders or the Agent, or any of them acting reasonably provided that if, in the reasonable opinion of the Lenders or the Agent, or any of them as the case may be, the interests of the Lenders or the Agent or any of them are different from those of the Borrower in connection with such legal action or claim, the Lenders or the Agent or any of them will have the sole right, at the Borrower's expense, to defend their own interests provided that any settlement of such legal action or claim will be on terms and conditions approved by the Borrower, acting reasonably. If the Borrower does not defend the legal action or claim, the Agent and the Lenders will have the right to do so on their own behalf and on behalf of the Borrower, as the case may be, at the expense of the Borrower. The defence and indemnity obligations contained throughout this Agreement will survive the termination of this Agreement and repayment of the Obligations.

THE AGENT AND THE LENDERS

14.01 Appointment

The Lenders hereby appoint TD to act as their agent as herein specified and, except as may be specifically provided to the contrary herein, each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorizes TD, as the agent of such Lender, to take such action on its behalf under or in connection with the Credit Documents and to exercise such powers thereunder as are delegated to the Agent by the terms thereof and such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto which it may be necessary for the Agent to exercise in order that the provisions of the Credit Documents are carried out. The Lenders hereby acknowledge and agree that the Agent is the holder of an irrevocable power of attorney from the Lenders for the purpose of holding any of the Security or any other security granted by any Person with respect to the liabilities of the Borrower under the Credit Documents, and the Agent hereby agrees to act in such capacity. The Agent may perform any of its duties under the Credit Documents by or through its agents and may delegate its duties to an Affiliate or a Subsidiary. The Borrower will not be concerned to inquire whether the powers which the Agent is purporting to exercise have become exercisable or otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any other action on the part of the Agent, and accordingly insofar as the Borrower are concerned the Agent will for all purposes hereof be deemed to have authority from the Lenders to exercise the powers and take the actions which are in fact exercised and taken by it.

14.02 Indemnity from Lenders

The Lenders agree, based on their Proportionate Share, to indemnify the Agent (to the extent that the Agent is not promptly reimbursed by the Borrower on demand) from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any nature or kind whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Agent in its capacity as agent hereunder which in any way relate to or arise out of the Credit Documents or any action taken or omitted by the Agent under the Credit Documents; provided that no Lender will be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements which result from the Agent's gross negligence or wilful misconduct. Without limitation, each Lender agrees to reimburse the Agent promptly upon demand for its Proportionate Share of out-of-pocket expenses (including the fees and disbursements of counsel) incurred by the Agent in connection with the preparation of the Credit Documents and the determination or preservation of any rights of the Agent or the Lenders under, or the enforcement of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under, the Credit Documents, to the extent that the Agent is not promptly reimbursed for such expenses by the Borrower on demand.

14.03 Exculpation

The Agent will have no duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in the Credit Documents. Neither the Agent (in its capacity as Agent and not as a Lender) nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents will be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken under or in connection with the Credit Documents, unless such act or omission constitutes gross negligence or wilful misconduct. The duties of the Agent will be mechanical and administrative in nature; the Agent will not have by reason of the Credit Documents a fiduciary relationship with any Lender and nothing in the Credit Documents, express or implied, is intended to or will be construed as to impose upon the Agent any obligation except as expressly set forth therein. None of the Lenders will have any duties or responsibilities to any of the other Lenders except as expressly set forth in the Credit Documents. The Agent will not be responsible for any recitals, statements, representations or warranties in any of the Credit Documents or which may be contained in any other document subsequently received by the Agent or the Lenders from or on behalf of any Obligor or for the authorization, execution, effectiveness, genuineness, validity or enforceability of any of the Credit Documents, and will not be required to make any inquiry concerning the performance or observance by any Obligor of any of the terms, provisions or conditions of any of the Credit Documents. Each of the Lenders severally represents and warrants to the Agent that it has made and will continue to make such independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs of the Restricted Parties or the Ripon Entities as such Lender deems appropriate in connection with its entering into of any of the Credit Documents and the making and continuance of any Advance hereunder, that such Lender has and will continue to make its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of the Restricted Parties or the Ripon Entities and that such Lender in connection with such investigation and appraisal has not relied upon any information provided to such Lender by the Agent.

14.04 Reliance on Information

The Agent will be entitled to rely upon any writing, notice, statement, certificate, facsimile, telex or other document or communication believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper Person or Persons, and, with respect to all legal matters pertaining to the Credit Documents and its duties thereunder, upon the advice of counsel selected by it.

14.05 Knowledge and Required Action

The Agent will not be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Event of Default or Pending Event of Default (other than the non-payment of any principal, interest or other amount to the extent the same is required to be paid to the Agent for the account of the Lenders) unless the Agent has received notice from a Lender or the Borrower specifying such Event of Default or Pending Event of Default and stating that such notice is given pursuant to this Section. In the event that the Agent receives such a notice, it will give prompt notice thereof to the Lenders, and will also give prompt notice to the Lenders of each non-payment of any amount required to be paid to the Agent for the account of the Lenders. The Agent will, subject to Section 14.06 take such action with respect to such Event of Default or Pending Event of Default as will be directed by the Lenders in accordance with this Article 14 provided that, unless and until the Agent will have received such direction the Agent may, but will not be obliged to, take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Event of Default or Pending Event of Default as it will deem advisable in the best interest of the Lenders; and provided further that the Agent in any case will not be required to take any such action which it determines to be contrary to the Credit Documents or to any Applicable Law.

14.06 Request for Instructions

The Agent may at any time request instructions from the Lenders with respect to any actions or approvals which, by the terms of any of the Credit Documents, the Agent is permitted or required to take or to grant, and the Agent will be absolutely entitled to refrain from taking any such action or to withhold any such approval and will not be under any liability whatsoever as a result thereof until it will have received such instructions from the Lenders. No Lender will have any right of action whatsoever against the Agent as a result of the Agent acting or refraining from acting under the Credit Documents in accordance with instructions from the Lenders. The Agent will in all cases be fully justified in failing or refusing to take or continue any action under the Credit Documents unless it will have received further assurances to its satisfaction from the Lenders of their indemnification obligations under Section 14.02 against any and all liability and expense which may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take such action, and unless it will be secured in respect thereof as it may deem appropriate.

14.07 The Agent Individually

With respect to its Commitments, the Advances made available by it and the Credit Documents to which it is a party and its acting as a Lender and Swingline Lender, TD will have the same rights and powers hereunder as any other Lender and may exercise such rights and powers as though it were not the Agent, and the term "Lenders" will, unless the context clearly otherwise indicates, include TD in its individual capacity. It is understood and agreed by all of the Lenders that TD, either directly or through its Affiliates, from time to time accepts deposits from, lends money to, provides underwriting, consulting and advisory services to, and generally engages in banking, securities, advisory and other related and ancillary businesses with the Restricted Parties or the Ripon Entities and their respective Affiliates otherwise than as a Lender under the Credit Documents and may continue to do so as if it were not the Agent under the Credit Documents and will have no duty to account to any of the Lenders with respect to any such dealings.

14.08 Resignation and Termination

If at any time (i) the Agent will deem it advisable, in its sole discretion, it may deliver to each of the Lenders and the Borrower written notification of its resignation insofar as it acts on behalf of the Lenders pursuant to this Article, or (ii) the Agent is in default of any of its obligations hereunder and the Lenders will deem it advisable, in their sole discretion, they may deliver to the Agent and the Borrower written notification of the termination of the Agent's authority to act on behalf of the Lenders pursuant to this Article, such resignation or termination to be effective upon the date of the appointment by the Lenders of a successor which will assume all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the Agent hereunder, which appointment will be promptly made from among the remaining Lenders and written notice thereof will be given to the Borrower concurrently with such appointment. If in the case of resignation by the Agent no appointment of a successor Agent has been made by the Lenders and approved by the Borrower within 30 days, the resigning Agent may make such appointment from among the remaining Lenders on behalf of the Lenders, and will forthwith give notice of such appointment to the Lenders and the Borrower.

14.09 Actions by Lenders

(1) Any consent, approval (including without limitation any approval of or authorization for any amendment to any of the Credit Documents), instruction or other expression of the Lenders under any of the Credit Documents may be obtained by an instrument in writing signed in one or more counterparts by the Majority Lenders, or where required by Section 14.09(3) all of the Lenders (which instrument in writing, for greater certainty, may be delivered by facsimile).

(2) Any consent, approval (including without limitation any approval of or authorization for any amendment to any of the Credit Documents), instruction or other expression of the Lenders hereunder may also be included in a resolution that is submitted to a meeting or adjourned meeting of the Lenders duly called and held for the purpose of considering the same as hereinafter provided and will be deemed to have been obtained if such resolution is passed by the affirmative vote of not less than 66⅔% of the votes given on a poll of the Lenders with respect to such resolution; provided that if at any time there are only two Lenders hereunder, the affirmative votes of both such Lenders shall be necessary. A meeting of Lenders may be called by the Agent and will be called by the Agent upon the request of any two Lenders. Every such meeting will be held in the City of Toronto or at such other reasonable place as the Agent may approve. At least seven days notice of the time and place of any such meeting will be given to the Lenders and will include or be accompanied by a draft of the resolutions to be submitted to such meeting, but the notice may state that such draft is subject to amendment at the meeting or any adjournment thereof. The Lenders who are present in person or by proxy at the time and place specified in the notice will constitute a quorum. A person nominated in writing by the Agent will be chairman of the meeting. Lenders representing no less than 60% of the outstanding Advances must be present at a meeting or adjourned meeting. Upon every poll taken at any such meeting every Lender who is present in person or represented by a proxy duly appointed in writing (who need not be a Lender) will be entitled to one vote in respect of each $1 of its Commitment. In respect of all matters concerning the convening, holding and adjourning of Lenders' meetings, the form, execution and deposit of instruments appointing proxies and all other relevant matters, the Agent may from time to time make such reasonable regulations not inconsistent with this Section 14.09(2) as it will deem expedient and any regulations so made by the Agent will be binding upon the Borrower, the Agent and the Lenders.

(3) Notwithstanding Sections 14.09(1) and (2), without the consent of all the Lenders the Agent may not take the following actions:

(a) amend, modify, discharge, terminate or waive any of the terms of this Agreement if such amendment, modification, discharge, termination or waiver would increase the amount of the Credit Facilities, reduce the fees payable, interest rates or Applicable Margins with respect to the Credit Facilities, extend any date fixed for payment of principal or interest relating to the Credit Facilities, extend the repayment dates of the Credit Facilities or change the definition of Majority Lenders;

(b) discharge, terminate or waive any of the Security, or amend any of the Security in a manner that would have that effect;

(c) amend this Section 14.09(3); and

(d) amend Article 7

(4) An instrument in writing from the Majority Lenders or, where applicable, all of the Lenders as provided for in Section 14.09(3) and a resolution passed pursuant to Section 14.09(2) (any such instrument in writing or resolution being an "Approval Instrument") will be binding upon all of the Lenders, and the Agent (subject to the provisions for its indemnity contained in this Agreement) will be bound to give effect thereto accordingly. For greater certainty, to the extent so authorized in the Approval Instrument, the Agent will be entitled (but not obligated) to execute and deliver on behalf of the Agent and all of the Lenders, without the requirement for the execution by any other Lender or Lenders, any consents, waivers, documents or instruments (including without limitation any amendment to any of the Credit Documents) necessary or advisable in the opinion of the Agent to give effect to the matters approved by the Majority Lenders or all of the Lenders, as the case may be, in any Approval Instrument.

(5) Notwithstanding Section 14.09(1), (2), (3) and (4), no amendment, modification, discharge, termination or waiver of the terms of this Agreement shall affect the rights, duties or obligations of the Agent without the written consent of the Agent or the Swingline Lender without the written consent of the Swingline Lender.

14.10 Provisions for Benefit of Lenders Only

The provisions of this Article 14, other than Sections 14.09 and 14.10 and the last sentence of Section 14.01 relating to the rights and obligations of the Lenders and the Agent inter se will be operative as between the Lenders and the Agent only, and the Restricted Parties will not have any rights under or be entitled to rely for any purposes upon such provisions.

14.11 Failure of Lender to Fund

(1) Unless the Agent has actual knowledge that a Lender has not made or will not make available to the Agent for value on a Drawdown Date the applicable amount required from such Lender, the Agent will be entitled to assume that such amount has been or will be received from such Lender when so due and the Agent may (but will not be obliged to), in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrower a corresponding amount. If such amount is not in fact received by the Agent from such Lender on such Drawdown Date and the Agent has made available a corresponding amount to the Borrower on such Drawdown Date as aforesaid, such Lender will pay to the Agent on demand an amount equal to the product of (i) the Interbank Reference Rate per annum multiplied by (ii) the amount that should have been paid to the Agent by such Lender on such Drawdown Date and was not, multiplied by (iii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days that have elapsed from and including such Drawdown Date to but excluding the date on which the amount is received by the Agent from such Lender and the denominator of which is 365. A certificate of the Agent containing details of the amount owing by a Lender under this Section will be binding and conclusive in the absence of manifest error. If any such amount is not in fact received by the Agent from such Lender on such Drawdown Date, the Agent will be entitled to recover from the Borrower, on demand, the related amount made available by the Agent to the Borrower as aforesaid together with interest thereon at the applicable rate per annum payable by the Borrower hereunder.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 14.11(1), if any Lender fails to make available to the Agent its Proportionate Share of any Advance, which for greater certainty includes a deemed Advance, (such Lender being herein called the "Defaulting Lender") the Agent will forthwith give notice of such failure by the Defaulting Lender to the Borrower (except where such failure relates to a deemed Advance) and the other Lenders. The Agent will then forthwith give notice to the Lenders that any Lender may make available to the Agent all or any portion of the Defaulting Lender's Proportionate Share of such Advance (but in no way will any Lender be obliged to do so) in the place of the Defaulting Lender. If more than one Lender gives notice that it is prepared to make funds available in the place of a Defaulting Lender in such circumstances and the aggregate of the funds which such Lenders (herein collectively called the "Contributing Lenders" and individually called the "Contributing Lender") are prepared to make available exceeds the amount of the Advance which the Defaulting Lender failed to make, then each Contributing Lender will be deemed to have given notice that it is prepared to make available its Proportionate Share of such Advance based on the Contributing Lenders' relative commitments to advance in such circumstances. If any Contributing Lender makes funds available in the place of a Defaulting Lender in such circumstances, then the Defaulting Lender will pay to any Contributing Lender making the funds available in its place, forthwith on demand, any amount advanced on its behalf together with interest thereon at the rate applicable to such Advance from the date of advance to the date of payment, against payment by the Contributing Lender making the funds available of all interest received in respect of the Advance from the Borrower. The failure of any Lender to make available to the Agent its Proportionate Share of any Advance as required herein will not relieve any other Lender of its obligations to make available to the Agent its Proportionate Share of any Advance as required herein.

14.12 Payments by Agent

(1) For greater certainty, the following provisions will apply to any and all payments made by the Agent to the Lenders hereunder:

(a) the Agent will be under no obligation to make any payment (whether in respect of principal, interest, fees or otherwise) to any Lender until an amount in respect of such payment has been received by the Agent from the Borrower;

(b) if the Agent receives less than the full amount of any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amount owing by the Borrower under this Agreement, then subject to Section 8.02 the Agent will have no obligation to remit to each Lender any amount other than such Lender's Proportionate Share of that amount which is the amount actually received by the Agent;

(c) if any Lender advances more or less than its Proportionate Share of a Credit Facility, such Lender's entitlement to such payment will be increased or reduced, as the case may be, in proportion to the amount actually advanced by such Lender;

(d) the Agent acting reasonably and in good faith will, after consultation with the Lenders in the case of any dispute, determine in all cases the amount of all payments to which each Lender is entitled and such determination will, in the absence of manifest error, be binding and conclusive;

(e) upon request, the Agent will deliver a statement detailing any of the payments to the Lenders referred to herein; and

(f) all payments by the Agent to a Lender hereunder will be made to such Lender at its address set forth in the signature pages on this Agreement or on the applicable Assignment Agreement unless notice to the contrary is received by the Agent from such Lender.

(2) Unless the Agent has actual knowledge that the Borrower has not made or will not make a payment to the Agent for value on the date in respect of which the Borrower has notified the Agent that the payment will be made and except to the extent that the Agent has received notice under Section 8.02, the Agent will be entitled to assume that such payment has been or will be received from the Borrower when due and the Agent may (but will not be obliged to), in reliance upon such assumption, pay the Lenders corresponding amounts. If the payment by the Borrower is in fact not received by the Agent on the required date and the Agent has made available corresponding amounts to the Lenders, the Borrower will, without limiting its other obligations under this Agreement, indemnify the Agent against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses (other than loss of profit), damages, penalties, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be imposed on or incurred by the Agent as a result. A certificate of the Agent with respect to any amount owing by the Borrower under this Section will be prima facie evidence of the amount owing in the absence of manifest error.

14.13 Direct Payments

The Lenders agree among themselves that, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement and except as necessary to adjust for Advances that are not in each Lender's Proportionate Share under a Credit Facility, all sums received by a Lender relating to this Agreement or by virtue of the Security, whether received by voluntary payment, by the exercise of the right of set-off or compensation (pursuant to Section 8.02 or otherwise) or by counterclaim, cross-action or as proceeds of realization of any Security or otherwise, will be shared by each Lender in its Proportionate Share and each Lender undertakes to do all such things as may be reasonably required to give full effect to this Section, including without limitation, the purchase from other Lenders of a portion thereof by the Lender who has received an amount in excess of its Proportionate Share as will be necessary to cause such purchasing Lender to share the excess amount rateably in its Proportionate Share with the other Lenders. If any sum which is so shared is later recovered from the Lenders who originally received it, the Lender will restore its Proportionate Share of such sum to such Lenders, without interest. If any Lender (a "Receiving Lender") will obtain any payment of moneys due under this Agreement as referred to above, the Receiving Lender will forthwith remit such payment to the Agent and, upon receipt, the Agent will distribute such payment in accordance with the provisions hereof.

14.14 Acknowledgements, Representations and Covenants of Lenders

(1) It is acknowledged and agreed by each Lender that it has itself been, and will continue to be, solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal of and investigations into the financial condition, creditworthiness, Property, affairs, status and nature of the Restricted Parties or the Ripon Entities. Accordingly, each Lender confirms to the Agent that it has not relied, and will not hereafter rely, on the Agent (a) to check or inquire on its behalf into the adequacy or completeness of any information provided by the Restricted Parties or the Ripon Entities under or in connection with this Agreement or the transactions herein contemplated (whether or not such information has been or is hereafter distributed to such Lender by the Agent) or (b) to assess or keep under review on its behalf the financial condition, creditworthiness, Property, affairs, status or nature of the Restricted Parties or the Ripon Entities.

(2) Each Lender represents and warrants that it has the legal capacity to enter into this Agreement pursuant to its charter and any applicable legislation and has not violated its charter, constating documents or any applicable legislation by so doing.

(3) Each Lender agrees to indemnify the Agent (to the extent not reimbursed by the Borrower), rateably according to its Proportionate Share of a Credit Facility from and against any and all liabilities and obligations (whether direct or indirect, contingent or otherwise), losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature whatsoever which may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against the Agent in any way relating to or arising out of the Credit Documents or the transactions therein contemplated, provided that no Lender will be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Agent's negligence or wilful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Lender agrees to reimburse the Agent promptly upon demand rateably according to its Proportionate Share of a Credit Facility for any out-of-pocket expenses (including counsel fees) incurred by the Agent in connection with the preservation of any rights of the Agent or the Lenders under, or the enforcement of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under this Agreement, to the extent that the Agent is not reimbursed for such expenses by the Borrower. The obligation of the Lenders to indemnify the Agent will survive the termination of this Agreement.

(4) Each of the Lenders acknowledges and confirms that in the event that the Agent does not receive payment in accordance with this Agreement, it will not be the obligation of the Agent to maintain any Credit Facility in good standing nor will any Lender have recourse to the Agent in respect of any amounts owing to such Lender under this Agreement.

(5) Each Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to advance its Proportionate Share of Advances in accordance with the terms of this Agreement is independent and in no way related to the obligation of any other Lender hereunder.

(6) Each Lender hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Agreement and acknowledges that it is satisfied with the form and content of such documents.

(7) Except to the extent recovered by the Agent from the Borrower, promptly following demand therefor, each Lender will pay to the Agent an amount equal to such Lender's Proportionate Share of any and all reasonable costs, expenses, claims, losses and liabilities incurred by the Agent in connection with this Agreement except for those incurred by reason of the Agent's negligence or wilful misconduct.

(8) Each Lender will respond promptly to each request by the Agent for the consent of such Lender required hereunder.

14.15 Rights of Agent

(1) In administering the Credit Facilities, the Agent may retain, at the expense of the Lenders if such expenses are not recoverable from the Borrower, such solicitors, counsel, auditors and other experts and agents as the Agent may select, in its sole discretion, acting reasonably and in good faith after consultation with the Lenders.

(2) The Agent will be entitled to rely on any communication, instrument or document believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed by the proper individual or individuals, and will be entitled to rely and will be protected in relying as to legal matters upon opinions of independent legal advisors selected by it. The Agent may also assume that any representation made by the Borrower is true and that no Event of Default or Pending Event of Default has occurred unless the officers or employees of the Lender acting as Agent, active in their capacity as officers or employees responsible for the Borrower's account, have actual knowledge to the contrary or have received notice to the contrary from any other party to this Agreement.

(3) Except in its own right as a Lender, the Agent will not be required to advance its own funds for any purpose, and in particular, will not be required to pay with its own funds insurance premiums, taxes or public utility charges or the cost of repairs or maintenance with respect to the assets which are the subject matter of the Security, nor will it be required to pay with its own funds the fees of solicitors, counsel, auditors, experts or agents engaged by it as permitted hereby.

(4) The Agent may round an individual Lender's Proportionate Share of any Advance to the nearest $1,000 in Canadian Dollars or United States Dollars, as the case may be.

14.16 Collective Action of the Lenders

Each of the Lenders hereby acknowledges that to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the remedies provided under the Credit Documents to the Lenders are for the benefit of the Lenders collectively and acting together and not severally and further acknowledges that its rights hereunder are to be exercised not severally, but by the Agent upon the decision of the Majority Lenders or all of the Lenders as required by this Agreement. Accordingly, notwithstanding any of the provisions contained herein, each of the Lenders hereby covenants and agrees that it will not be entitled to take any action hereunder or thereunder including, without limitation, any declaration of default hereunder or thereunder but that any such action will be taken only by the Agent with the prior written agreement of the Majority Lenders or all of the Lenders, as required. Each of the Lenders hereby further covenants and agrees that upon any such written agreement being given by the Majority Lenders or all of the Lenders, as required, it will co-operate fully with the Agent to the extent requested by the Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the absence of the instructions from the Lenders and where in the sole opinion of the Agent, acting reasonably and in good faith, the exigencies of the situation warrant such action, the Agent may without notice to or consent of the Lenders take such action on behalf of the Lenders as it deems appropriate or desirable in the interest of the Lenders.

TAXES, CHANGE OF CIRCUMSTANCES

15.01 Change in Law

In the event of any change after the Original Closing Date in any Applicable Law or in the interpretation or application thereof by any court or by any governmental agency, central bank or other authority or entity charged with the administration thereof which now or hereafter (a) subjects any Lender to any Tax or changes the basis of taxation, or increases any existing Tax, on payments of principal, interest, fees or other amounts payable by any Obligor to such Lender under any Credit Document (except for Taxes on the overall net income or net capital of such Lender); (b) imposes, modifies or deems applicable any reserve, special deposit or similar requirements against assets held by, or deposits in or for the account of or loans by or any other acquisition of funds by, an office of any Lender; or (c) imposes on any Lender or requires there to be maintained by any Lender any capital adequacy or additional capital requirements in respect of any Advances or Lender's Commitments hereunder or any other condition with respect to any Credit Document, and the result of any of the foregoing will be to increase the cost to, or reduce the amount of principal, interest or other amount received or receivable by such Lender hereunder or its effective return hereunder in respect of making, maintaining or funding its participation in such Advance under a Credit Facility, such Lender will determine that amount of money which will compensate such Lender for such increase in cost or reduction in income (herein referred to as "Additional Compensation"). Upon a Lender having determined that it is entitled to Additional Compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Section 15.01 the Lender will promptly so notify the applicable Obligor and the Agent. The Lender will provide to the applicable Obligor and the Agent a photocopy of the relevant law, rule, guideline, regulation, treaty or official directive and a certificate of a duly authorized officer of such Lender setting forth the Additional Compensation and the basis of calculation therefor, which will be conclusive evidence of such Additional Compensation in the absence of manifest error. The applicable Obligor will pay to the Lender within ten Business Days of the giving of such notice such Lender's Additional Compensation calculated to the date of such notification. Each of the Lenders will be entitled to be paid such Additional Compensation from time to time to the extent that the provisions of this Section 15.01 are then applicable notwithstanding that any Lender has previously been paid any Additional Compensation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower will not be liable to compensate a Lender for any such increase in costs or reduction in income if such compensation is not being claimed as a general practice from customers of such Lender who by agreement are liable to pay such or similar compensation.

15.02 Prepayment of Rateable Portion

Notwithstanding the provisions hereof, if a Lender gives the notice provided for in Section 15.01 with respect to any Advance (an "Affected Loan"), the Borrower may, upon ten Business Days notice to that effect given to such Lender and to the Agent (which notice will be irrevocable), prepay in full without penalty such Lender's Proportionate Share of the Affected Loan outstanding together with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount so prepaid up to the date of such prepayment and such Additional Compensation as may be applicable to the date of such payment and all costs, losses and expenses incurred by the Lenders by reason of the liquidation or re-employment of deposits or other funds or for any other reason whatsoever resulting from the repayment of such Affected Loan or any part thereof on other than the last day of the applicable Interest Period, and upon such payment being made that Lender's obligations to make such Affected Loans to the Borrower under this Agreement will terminate.

15.03 Illegality

If after the Original Closing Date the adoption of any Applicable Law or any change therein or in the interpretation or application thereof by any court or by any governmental or other authority or central bank or comparable agency or any other entity charged with the interpretation or administration thereof or compliance by a Lender with any request or direction (whether or not having the force of law) of any such authority, central bank or comparable agency or entity, now or hereafter makes it unlawful or impossible for any Lender to make, fund or maintain an Advance under a Credit Facility or to give effect to its obligations in respect of such an Advance, such Lender may, by written notice thereof to the Borrower and to the Agent declare its obligations under this Agreement (or its obligations with respect to such Advance, if applicable) to be terminated whereupon the same will forthwith terminate, and the Borrower will prepay within the time required by such law (or at the end of such longer period as such Lender at its discretion has agreed) the principal of such Advance together with accrued interest, such Additional Compensation as may be applicable to the date of such payment and all costs, losses and expenses incurred by the Lenders by reason of the liquidation or re-employment of deposits or other funds or for any other reason whatsoever resulting from the repayment of such Advance or any part thereof on other than the last day of the applicable Interest Period. If any such change will only affect a portion of such Lender's obligations under this Agreement which is, in the opinion of such Lender and the Agent, severable from the remainder of this Agreement so that the remainder of this Agreement may be continued in full force and effect without otherwise affecting any of the obligations of the Agent, the other Lenders or the Obligors hereunder, such Lender will only declare its obligations under that portion so terminated.

15.04 Taxes

All payments to be made to the Agent or the Lenders pursuant to the Credit Documents will be made free and clear of, and without reduction for or on account of, any present or future Taxes; provided, however, if any Taxes are required by Applicable Law to be withheld from any interest or other amount payable to the Agent or any Lender under any Credit

Document (except Taxes imposed on the net income or capital of such person or taxes payable under the laws of Canada resulting from such person having, selecting or changing its residency or that of its lending office in or to a jurisdiction outside of Canada for tax purposes), the amount so payable to the Agent or such Lender will be increased to the extent necessary to yield to the Agent or such Lender, on a net basis after payment of all Taxes (including all Taxes imposed on any additional amounts payable under this Section), interest or any such other amount payable under such Credit Document at the rate or in the amount specified in such Credit Document. The Obligors will be fully liable and responsible for and will, promptly following receipt of a request from the Agent, pay to the Agent any and all Taxes in the nature of sales, use, goods and services, Taxes payable under the laws of Canada or any Province of Canada or any other country or jurisdiction with respect to any and all goods and services made available under the Credit Documents to any Obligor by the Agent and the Lenders but not including any Taxes on the overall net income or net capital of the Agent and the Lenders or taxes payable under the laws of Canada resulting from such person having, selecting or changing its residency or that of its lending office in or to a jurisdiction outside of Canada for tax purposes. Whenever any Taxes are payable by an Obligor, as promptly as possible thereafter it will send to the Agent, for the account of the Agent and each affected lender, a certified copy of an original official receipt showing payment of such Taxes. If an Obligor fails to pay any Taxes when due or if an Obligor fails to remit to the Agent the required documentary evidence of such payment, the Obligors will indemnify and save harmless the Agent and the Lenders form any incremental Taxes, interest, penalties or other liabilities that may become payable by the Agent or by any Lender or to which the Agent or any Lender may be subjected as a result of any such failure. A certificate of the Agent or any Lender as to the amount of any such Taxes, interest or penalties and containing reasonable details of the calculation of such Taxes, interest or penalties will be, absent manifest error, prima facie evidence of the amount of such Taxes, interest or penalties, as the case may be. If the Borrower has paid over or remitted an amount on account of Taxes pursuant to the foregoing provision and the amount so paid over or remitted is subsequently refunded to such Lender, in whole or in part, such Lender will remit, provided there is then no Pending Event of Default or Event of Default and subject to the set off rights of the Lenders, such amount refunded to the Borrower.

SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS AND ADDITIONAL LENDERS

16.01 Successors and Assigns

(1) The Credit Documents will be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the Agent, each Lender, the Obligors and their successors and assigns, except that the Obligors will not assign any rights or obligations with respect to this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents without the prior written consent of all of the Lenders and none of the Lenders will assign any of their rights and obligations under this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents except in accordance with this Agreement.

(2) Any Lender may assign its rights and obligations hereunder in accordance with the provisions of Section 16.02 and the other terms of this Agreement. The Borrower hereby consents to the disclosure of any Information to any potential Lender or participant provided that the potential Lender or participant agrees in writing to keep the Information confidential as required pursuant to Section 17.01 hereof and to return such Information if it does not become a Lender or a participant.

(3) Each assignment by a Lender will be of a uniform, and not a varying, percentage of all rights and obligations of the assignor(s). The determination of the Commitments of a Lender under this Section 16.01(3) will be made as of the effective date of the Assignment Agreement relating to any assignment.

(4) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, each Lender agrees that it will not assign all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement including, without limitation, any portion of its Commitment without ten Business Days prior notice to the Agent.

(5) A participation by a Lender of its interest (or a part thereof) hereunder or a payment by a participant to a Lender as a result of the participation will not constitute a payment hereunder to the Lender or an Advance to the Borrower.

16.02 Assignments

(1) Subject to Section 16.01 and the other terms of this Agreement, (x) the Lenders (other than the Swingline Lender) collectively or individually may assign to one or more assignees all or a portion of their respective rights and obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all or a portion of their respective Commitments) and (y) the Swingline Lender may assign to one assignee all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all of its Commitments), provided that, prior to the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, (i) an assignee of all or part of a Commitment related to a Credit Facility will not be a non-resident of Canada within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada), and (ii) each assignment shall be in a minimum amount of $1,000,000 in the case of the Revolving Facility and for the entire amount of the Swingline Lender's Commitment in the case of the Swingline Facility. There will be no restrictions on assignments following the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default. The parties to each such assignment will execute and deliver an Assignment Agreement to the Agent and the Agent will deliver such Assignment Agreement to the Borrower. In addition, the Borrower will execute such other documentation as a Lender may request for the purpose of any assignment or participation The assignor will pay a processing and recording fee of $3,500 to the Agent. Five Business Days after such execution, delivery, acknowledgement and recording (i) the assignee thereunder will be a party to this Agreement and, to the extent that rights and obligations hereunder have been assigned to it, have the rights and obligations of a Lender hereunder, and (ii) the assigning Lender thereunder will, to the extent that rights and obligations hereunder have been assigned by it pursuant to such Assignment Agreement, relinquish its rights and be released from its obligations under this Agreement, other than obligations in respect of which it is then in default, and, in the case of an Assignment Agreement covering all or the remaining portion of an assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender will cease to be a party hereto.

(2) The agreements of an assignee contained in an Assignment Agreement will benefit the assigning Lender thereunder, the other Lenders and the Agent in accordance with the terms of the Assignment Agreement.

(3) The Agent will maintain at its address referred to herein a copy of each Assignment Agreement delivered to and acknowledged by it and a register for recording the names and addresses of the Lenders and the Commitment under each Credit Facility of each Lender from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register will be conclusive and binding for all purposes, absent manifest error. The Borrower, the Agent and each of the Lenders may treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, and need not recognize any Person as a Lender unless it is recorded in the Register as a Lender. The Register will be available for inspection by the Borrower or any Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(4) Upon its receipt of an Assignment Agreement executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee and approved by the Borrower, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, (other than during the continuance of an Event of Default when no such approval will be necessary), the Agent will, if the Assignment Agreement has been completed and is in the required form with such immaterial changes as are acceptable to the Agent:

(a) acknowledge the Assignment Agreement;

(b) record the information contained therein in the Register; and

(c) give prompt notice thereof to the Borrower and the other Lenders, and provide them with an updated version of Schedule A.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, any Lender may (without requesting the consent of the Borrower or the Agent) pledge its Advances to the Bank of Canada in support of borrowings made by such Lender from the Bank of Canada.

16.03 Participations

Each Lender may (subject to the provisions of Section 16.01) sell participations to one or more banks, financial institutions or other Persons in or to all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, all or a portion of its Commitment), but the participant will not become a Lender and:

(a) the Lender's obligations under this Agreement (including, without limitation, its Commitment) will remain unchanged;

(b) the Lender will remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations;

(c) the Borrower, the Agent and the other Lenders will continue to deal solely and directly with the Lender in connection with the Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement; and

(d) no participant will have any right to approve any amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, or any consent to any departure by any Person therefrom.

ARTICLE 17

(2) Each of the Agent and the Lenders acknowledge the confidential nature of the financial, operational and other information and data provided and to be provided to them by the Borrower pursuant hereto (the "Information") and agree to use all reasonable efforts to prevent the disclosure thereof and any such disclosure in any prospectus or otherwise must be consented to by the Agent in writing, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, provided, however, that:

(a) they may disclose all or any part of the Information if, in the opinion of a reputable law firm engaged by them, such disclosure is required in connection with any actual or threatened judicial, administrative or governmental proceeding; and

(b) they will incur no liability in respect of any disclosure of Information to any, or pursuant to the requirements of any, judicial authority, law enforcement agency or taxation authority.

(3) The Agent will endeavour to provide notice to the Borrower, unless prohibited by law from doing so, of any requirement that it deliver information pursuant to Section 17.01(2). The Agent will have no liability whatsoever to the Borrower in respect to its failure to provide such notice.

17.02 Nature of Obligations under this Agreement

(1) The obligations of each Lender and of the Agent under this Agreement are several and not joint and several. The failure of any Lender to carry out its obligations hereunder will not relieve the other Lenders, the Agent or the Borrower of any of their respective obligations hereunder.

(2) Neither the Agent nor any Lender will be responsible for the obligations of any other Lender hereunder.

17.03 Notice

Any notice or communication to be given under this Agreement (other than telephone notice as specifically provided in this Agreement) may be effectively given by delivering (whether by courier or personal delivery) the same at the addresses set out on the signature pages of this Agreement (or with respect to any assignee pursuant to Section 16.02, to the address provided by such assignee to the Borrower and the Agent in connection with the applicable transfer or assignment to such assignee) or by sending the same by prepaid registered mail to the parties at such addresses or by facsimile to the parties at the facsimile numbers set out on the signature pages of this Agreement (or with respect to any assignee pursuant to Section 16.02, to the facsimile number provided by such assignee to the Borrower and the Agent in connection with the applicable transfer or assignment to such assignee). Any notice so mailed will be deemed to have been received on the fifth Business Day next following the registered mailing of such notice, provided that postal service is in normal operation during such time. Any facsimile notice will be deemed to have been received on transmission (and receipt of confirmation of transmission) if sent by any party to this Agreement before 4:00 p.m. Toronto time on a Business Day and, if not, on the next Business Day following transmission. Any party may from time to time notify the other parties, in accordance with the provisions of this Section, of any change of its address or facsimile number which after such notification, until changed by like notice, will be the address or facsimile number, as the case may be, of such party for all purposes of this Agreement.

17.04 Governing Law

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein, without prejudice to or limitation of any other rights or remedies available under the laws of any jurisdiction where Property or assets of the Borrower may be found.

17.05 Judgment Currency

(1) If for the purpose of obtaining or enforcing judgment against any Borrower in any court in any jurisdiction, it becomes necessary to convert into any other currency (such other currency being hereinafter in this Section 17.05 referred to as the "Judgment Currency") an amount due in Canadian Dollars or United States Dollars under this Agreement, the conversion will be made at the rate of exchange prevailing on the Business Day immediately preceding:

(a) the date of actual payment of the amount due, in the case of any proceeding in the courts of the Province of Ontario or in the courts of any other jurisdiction that will give effect to such conversion being made on such date; or

(b) the date on which the judgment is given, in the case of any proceeding in the courts of any other jurisdiction (the date as of which such conversion is made pursuant to this Section 17.05(1)(b) being hereinafter in this Section 17.05 referred to as the "Judgment Conversion Date").

(2) If, in the case of any proceeding in the court of any jurisdiction referred to in Section 17.05(1)(b) there is a change in the rate of exchange prevailing between the Judgment

Conversion Date and the date of actual payment of the amount due, the Borrower will pay such additional amount (if any, but in any event not a lesser amount) as may be necessary to ensure that the amount paid in the Judgment Currency, when converted at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of payment, will produce the amount of Canadian Dollars or United States Dollars, as the case may be, which could have been purchased with the amount of Judgment Currency stipulated in the judgment or judicial order at the rate of exchange prevailing on the Judgment Conversion Date.

(3) Any amount due from the Borrower under the provisions of Section 17.05(2) will be due as a separate debt and will not be affected by judgment being obtained for any other amounts due under or in respect of this Agreement.

(4) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 17.05 means the noon rate of exchange based on Canadian interbank transactions in Canadian Dollars or United States Dollars, as the case may be, in the Judgment Currency published or quoted by the Bank of Canada for the day in question, or if such rate is not so published or quoted by the Bank of Canada, such term will mean the Equivalent Amount of the Judgment Currency.

17.06 Benefit of the Agreement

This Agreement will enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Borrower, the Lenders, the Agent and their respective permitted successors and permitted assigns.

17.07 Severability

Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction will not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

17.08 Whole Agreement

From the Effective Date, this Agreement is and shall for all purposes be deemed to be an amendment and restatement of the provisions of the Existing Credit Agreement and shall, from the Effective Date (along with the agency fee agreement and fee letter described in Section 5.07 and the commitment letter dated as of June 3, 2005 between TD and the Borrower), supersede all prior agreements, undertakings, declarations, commitments, representations, written or oral, in respect thereof. This Agreement does not constitute a novation of the Existing Credit Agreement. Prior to the Effective Date, or if the Effective Date never occurs, the Existing Credit Agreement shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

17.09 Obligations under Existing Credit Agreement

The Borrower and each Lender agree that any Advance (as that term is defined in the Existing Credit Agreement) unpaid on the Effective Date, including without limitation, Bankers' Acceptances issued under the Existing Credit Agreement and outstanding on the date hereof shall be an Advance under the Revolving Facility or the Swingline Facility, as applicable, in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in this Agreement.

17.10 Non-Merger

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the covenants, representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement and the other Credit Documents shall not merge on and shall survive the Effective Date and the making of any Advance, and notwithstanding the occurrence of the Effective Date or any Advance, or any investigation made by or on behalf of any party, shall continue in full force and effect. Neither the occurrence of the Effective Date nor the making of any Advance shall prejudice any right of one party against any other party in respect of anything done or omitted hereunder or under any of the Credit Documents or in respect of any right to damages or other remedies.

17.11 Further Assurances

The Borrower, each Lender and the Agent will promptly cure any default by it in the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Credit Documents or of any the agreements provided for hereunder to which it is a party. The Borrower, at its expense, will promptly execute and deliver to the Agent, upon request by the Agent, all such other and further documents, agreements, opinions, certificates and instruments in compliance with, or accomplishment of the covenants and agreements of the Borrower hereunder or more fully to state the obligations of the Borrower as set forth herein or to make any recording, file any notice or obtain any consent, all as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate in connection therewith.

17.12 Waiver of Jury Trial

THE BORROWER HEREBY KNOWINGLY VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION BASED ON, OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER, OR IN CONNECTION WITH, THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT, OR ANY COURSE OF CONDUCT, COURSE OF DEALING, STATEMENTS (WHETHER ORAL OR WRITTEN) OR ACTIONS OF ANY AGENT, ANY LENDER OR THE BORROWER. THE BORROWER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION (AND EACH OTHER PROVISION OF EACH OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT TO WHICH IT IS A PARTY) AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE LENDERS ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND EACH OTHER CREDIT DOCUMENT.

17.13 Consent to Jurisdiction

(1) The Borrower irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario and hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such court. The Borrower hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so, the defence of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding.

(2) The Borrower hereby irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in such action or proceeding by the delivery of such process to the Borrower at its address provided in accordance with Section 17.03.

The By-law was subsequently amended to be enforceable by Trigen-London District Energy Corporation, a predecessor corporation of the Operator, and further expanded to include the supply of chilled water to supply cooling and additionally for the supply of electricity. ARTICLE 3 – FEES AND PAYMENT OF EXPENSES

3.01 Expense Reimbursement

(a) The Manager shall be entitled to reimbursement from Countryside US and, to the extent Manager provides services to Countryside Canada at its request, Countryside Canada, of all costs and expenses reasonably related to the Business incurred by the Manager and its Affiliates in carrying out the services described hereunder so long as such costs and expenses are incurred in accordance with the Annual Budget or as long as such reimbursements are permitted or required under Section 3.01(b) (such costs and expenses collectively termed the "Expenses").

Such Expenses will be allocated to Countryside US and Countryside Canada on a reasonable basis based on the relative benefits of the services provided by the Manager to each Party and will be reimbursed by such Party on a cost recovery basis such that the Manager and its Affiliates do not receive financial gain nor suffer financial loss for providing such services. Charges for services of Affiliates of the Manager, or personnel of such Persons, are subject to approval by the directors of Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, that are independent of the Manager and its Affiliates either by Annual Budget approval, by specific authorization or as provided herein. (b) The payments will be made by Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, monthly in advance based on the Annual Budget. Within 30 days after the completion of any month, the actual costs incurred by the Manager in such month (and allocations thereof) will be determined and the advanced payment will be adjusted to reimburse the actual costs incurred. In the event of a Material Budget Deviation, the reimbursement of such amount shall be subject to the approval of the directors of Countryside US and, if applicable, the directors of Countryside Canada, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.08(a)(i) such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Manager, at its option, will be relieved of the specific activity for which the associated costs are not approved and reimbursed by Countryside and shall be deemed not to be in breach of any obligation or responsibility under this Agreement for not undertaking such activities.

Upon the full execution and delivery of this Agreement, Countryside US shall make an initial reimbursement payment to Manager equal to (i) the amount Countryside US would have been obligated to reimburse Manager, in accordance with the prior sentence, for annual base wage compensation and all associated costs, including wage burden, if this Agreement had been effective for the period July 1, 2005 to the Effective Date less (ii) the amount of payments actually made and to be made by Countryside US Power, Inc. for salaries and all associated costs, including wage burden, for the Current Executive Officers for such period (the "Initial Base Compensation Reimbursement"). The Base Salary will be subject to annual review and periodic adjustment as negotiated and agreed to in good faith by the directors of Countryside US, Countryside Canada and the Manager from time to time to account for changes in the cost of living and the growth of the Fund based on recommendations of a qualified, independent compensation expert, such expert to be approved by the Parties such approval not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Countryside US, and if applicable, Countryside Canada will reimburse Manager an amount in respect of the STIP equal to 50% of the Base Salary plus the wage burden associated therewith ("STIP Pool"), provided that payments will be made based on: (i) meeting certain objectives relating to managing Countryside that are recommended annually by the Manager and subject to the approval of the directors of Countryside US and, if applicable, the compensation committee of Countryside Canada in their discretion (the "Operating Objectives"); and (ii) successfully sourcing and consummating an acquisition or investment on behalf of Countryside (the "Acquisition Objective"). In each year, 25% of the STIP Pool will be available to reimburse the Manager for payments made for achieving the Operating Objectives and 75% of the STIP Pool will be available to reimburse the Manager for payments made for meeting the Acquisition Objective; provided that, the payment to reimburse the Manager for meeting the Acquisition Objective shall not be less than US$291,000 plus the wage burden associated therewith. The directors of Countryside US or, if applicable, the compensation committee of Countryside Canada, will determine annually whether or not the Operating Objective for any year has been achieved by the Manager. The Acquisition Objective in any year will be achieved upon the actual financial closing of the first direct or indirect acquisition or investment by Countryside US or Countryside Canada or an Affiliate of Countryside US or Countryside Canada in such Fiscal Year that is originated, structured or developed by the Manager or an Affiliate of the Manager and reimbursement in full of the STIP Pool amount allocated to achieving the Acquisition Objective will occur on closing of the first acquisition or investment in each Fiscal Year. The acquisition of Ripon Power LLC on June 29, 2005 will satisfy the Acquisition Objective for the 2005 Fiscal Year provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein (including Section 1.01(cc)), the STIP Pool payment in respect of such acquisition shall be made on the date of the consummation of a refinancing transaction with respect to such transaction. In the event that, in any year, the directors of Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, fail to determine the amount of the STIP Pool or the Operating Objectives, the STIP Pool and Operating Objectives from the preceding Fiscal Year shall continue to apply for such Fiscal Year. The STIP Pool is non-cumulative from year to year. Sixty percent of the amount reimbursed to the Manager for meeting the Operating Objectives will be paid by Countryside US and/or Countryside Canada (as allocated in accordance with Section 3.01(a) hereof) in the form of freely tradable treasury Units until an aggregate of CDN$500,000 of reimbursement amounts have been paid in Units (valued based on the Current Market Price of the Units on the date of payment of the reimbursement) and 40% will be paid in cash to provide for associated cash taxes payable, which for greater certainty and notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, shall be the responsibility of the Manager. All other amounts reimbursed to the Manager for payments made by the Manager under the STIP will be paid in cash. STIP reimbursements arising from satisfying the Acquisition Objective will be made by Countryside US. The Executives will be required to hold Units received under the STIP until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement or the termination of their involvement in Manager.

Reimbursements relating to Development Assets located in the United States will be made by Countryside US and reimbursements relating to Development Assets located in Canada will be made by Countryside Canada. Reimbursement for the time of the Executives spent on any transaction will not be reimbursed by Countryside but the Manager or an Affiliate will be entitled to be reimbursed an amount equal to the STIP Pool Allocation for the applicable Fiscal Year for meeting the Acquisition Objective. The Manager will not be reimbursed for costs and expenses incurred in connection with the origination, structuring and development of assets or projects that Countryside does not commit to invest in or acquire under Section 5.03 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Countryside does commit to invest in or acquire an asset or project and, for whatever reason, such investment or acquisition is not completed, the Manager and Countryside shall share equally in the expenses incurred until the date of commitment.

The directors of Countryside US or Countryside Canada (as applicable) will approve the Base Level Distribution at the time of the approval of the acquisition of a Development Asset or the associated financing, subject to adjustment based on the actual pricing achieved at closing of the acquisition of the Development Asset or the associated financing transaction.

(c) The Manager or its applicable Affiliate will be entitled to a distribution from the Development Asset of operating cash flow equal to 25% of the cash distributions made by the Development Asset in excess of the Base Level Distribution. Payments to the Manager will be made at the same time as the distribution is made to Countryside US or Countryside Canada or their Affiliate (as applicable). In the event that a Development Asset owned by Countryside US, Countryside Canada or their Affiliate (as applicable) makes a distribution of proceeds from capital transactions such as asset sales or recapitalizations, the Manager will be entitled to a 25% share of the capital distribution in excess of an amount required to be paid to Countryside US or Countryside Canada or their subsidiary to repay its equity and debt investment in the Development Asset.

(b) The Manager will have an Exchange Option to convert all or part of an LTIP Interest in any Development Asset on the basis set out in paragraph (a) above unless there is a Change of Control in which case the Manager may exercise the Exchange Option at the Current Market Price within 12 months of such Change of Control.

(c) In the event that Countryside decides to engage in a transaction respecting any Development Asset that would constitute a Change of Control as to such Development Asset or the entity owning such Development Asset and in which the Manager retains an LTIP Interest, Countryside US (for Development Assets located in the United States) or Countryside Canada (for Development Assets located in Canada) will have the option of acquiring such interest in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.03(a) (notwithstanding that such sale may occur within the first two years of the date of acquisition of the Development Asset) and the Manager will have the option of exchanging such interest in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.03(b) (notwithstanding that such sale may occur within the first two years of the date of acquisition of the Development Asset).

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which the Manager or the Manager Indemnitees may be entitled as a matter of law or equity or which may be lawfully granted to such person.

7.02 Indemnification of Countryside

Subject to limitations on liability of the Manager contained in this Agreement, Countryside US and Countryside Canada and any Person who is serving or shall have served as a director, officer or employee of Countryside US or Countryside Canada (the "Countryside Indemnitees") shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the Manager from and against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, obligations, costs and expenses (including judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, counsel and accountants' fees) of whatsoever kind or nature (collectively, "Countryside Claims") incurred by, borne by or asserted against any of such indemnified parties which arise principally and directly from the fraud, wilful default or gross negligence of the Manager or its Affiliates or any Service Provider in the performance of its obligations hereunder, unless such Countryside Claims arise from the fraud, wilful default or gross negligence on the part of a Countryside Indemnitee.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which the Countryside Indemnitees may be entitled as a matter of law or equity or which may be lawfully granted to such Person.

7.03 Method of Asserting Claims

(a) If a Party entitled to indemnification pursuant to the terms hereof (the "Indemnified Party") intends to seek indemnification under this Article 7 from the other Party (the "Indemnifying Party"), the Indemnified Party shall give the Indemnifying Party notice of such claim for indemnification promptly following the receipt or determination by the Indemnified Party of actual knowledge or information as to the factual and legal basis of any claim which is subject to indemnification and, where such claim results from the commencement of any claim or action by a third party, promptly following receipt of written notice of such third party claim or action. The failure of or delay by an Indemnified Party to so notify the Indemnifying Party (as set forth above) shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligations hereunder to the Indemnified Party, however the liability which the Indemnifying Party has to the Indemnified Party pursuant to the terms of this Article 7 (and for which the Indemnifying Party will be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party in respect of) shall be reduced to the extent that any such delay in or failure to give notice as herein required prejudices in a substantial manner the defence of any such action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim, or otherwise results in any increase in the liability which the Indemnifying Party has under its indemnity provided for herein.

(b) The Indemnifying Party, at its sole cost and expense, shall have the right to assume the defence of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation brought against the Indemnified Party with counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party and reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party; provided that the Indemnifying Party will not, without the Indemnified Party's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), settle, compromise, consent to the entry of any judgment in or otherwise seek to terminate any action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim in respect of which indemnification may be sought hereunder (whether or not the Indemnified Party is a party thereto) unless such settlement, compromise, consent or termination does not impose an injunction or other equitable relief, does not include an admission which is prejudicial to the Indemnified party and includes a release of the Indemnified Party from all liabilities arising out of such action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) if the defendants in any such action, suit, proceeding or investigation include both the Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnified Party is reasonably advised by counsel that there are legal defences available to the Indemnified Party that are additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party and that in such circumstances representation by the same counsel would be inappropriate; or

(ii) if the Indemnified Party shall have reasonably concluded that the Indemnifying Party is not taking or has not taken, all necessary steps to diligently defend such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, the Indemnified Party has provided written notice of same to the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnifying Party has not rectified the situation within a reasonable period of time;

then the Indemnified Party shall have the right to retain separate counsel, the reasonable costs of which shall be at the Indemnifying Party's expense, to represent the Indemnified Party and to otherwise participate in the defence of such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation on behalf of such Indemnified Party.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein contained, an Indemnified Party shall have the right, at its sole cost and expense, to retain counsel to separately represent it in connection with the negotiation, settlement or defence of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation brought by a third party provided, for further certainty, that such counsel shall not, unless agreed by the Indemnifying Party, assume control of the negotiation, settlement or defence.

(e) Except to the extent expressly provided herein, no Indemnified Party shall settle any claim or action with respect to which it has sought or intends to seek indemnification pursuant to this Article 7 without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

7.04 Net Amount

In the event that an Indemnifying Party is obligated to indemnify and hold any Indemnified Party harmless under this Article 7, the amount owing to the Indemnified Party shall be the amount of such Indemnified Party's actual out-of-pocket loss, net of any insurance proceeds or other amount recovered from any other Person.

7.05 Third Party Beneficiaries

Each of the Parties hereby acknowledges and agrees that the rights of indemnification provided for in this Article 7 shall not only be enforceable by the Parties hereto but shall be enforceable directly by each of the Manager Indemnitees and the Countryside Indemnitees, and in this respect it is further acknowledged and agreed that:

(a) the Manager is acting as agent and trustee for the Manager Indemnitees as regards the covenants of Countryside, pursuant to Section 7.01, with respect to indemnification of the Manager Indemnitees; and

(b) Countryside is acting as agent and trustee for the Countryside Indemnitees as regards the covenants of the Manager, pursuant to Section 7.02, with respect to indemnification of the Countryside Indemnitees.

ARTICLE 8 – TERM

8.01 Term

Except as otherwise provided herein with respect to specific provisions, this Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date and, subject to Section 8.02, shall continue in full force and effect until September 1, 2025 (the "Initial Term") and may only be terminated in the circumstances described in Article 9.

8.02 Renewal

This Agreement shall be automatically renewed upon expiry of the Initial Term for additional five-year terms (each a "Renewal Term") unless, at least six months prior to the expiration of the then current term, a majority of the directors of each of Countryside US and Countryside Canada who are independent of the Manager determine not to renew this Agreement and Countryside US and Countryside Canada provide the Manager with written notice indicating that the Agreement shall not be renewed at the expiration of the then current term.

8.03 Survival

Any obligation of the Parties pursuant to the terms hereof that accrued prior to the termination of the Agreement shall survive the termination of the Agreement, including, for further certainty, under the long term incentive plan and any other payment obligations of Countryside US or, if applicable, Countryside Canada, in respect of amounts accrued to and in favour of the Manager hereunder together with all indemnification obligations. On termination of the Agreement, any LTIP Interest outstanding at that time shall continue for a period expiring on the date that is 20 years from the date of acquisition of the Development Asset for which the LTIP Interest was made. Termination of the Agreement by Countryside will not affect the Exchange Options. Termination of the Agreement by the Manager will not affect the Exchange Options except that in the case of a termination by the Manager due to a Countryside Event of Default, the Exchange Option in favour of Countryside will terminate, and in the case of a termination by the Manager under Section 9.02(c), the Exchange Option in favour of the Manager shall terminate.

ARTICLE 9 – TERMINATION

9.01 Events of Default

(a) Upon the occurrence of any of the following events, Countryside shall be deemed to be in default of this Agreement, each of which shall be deemed to be an event of default (each, a "Countryside Event of Default"):

(i) the bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership of Countryside US or Countryside Canada; or

(ii) a default by Countryside US or Countryside Canada in the performance of a material obligation under this Agreement (other than as a result of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event) which is not cured within 60 days of written notice being given by the Manager to Countryside US or Countryside Canada of the default (provided their shall be no cure period for a default under Section 5.06 hereunder), or if such default is not reasonably capable of being cured within 60 days, Countryside US or Countryside Canada, as applicable, has not taken all reasonable steps to cure such default as soon as possible thereafter but in any event within 128 days.

(b) Upon the occurrence of any of the following events, the Manager shall be deemed to be in default of this Agreement, each of which shall be deemed to be an event of default (each, a "Manager Event of Default"):

(i) the bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership of the Manager;

(ii) fraud, wilful default or gross negligence committed by the Manager; or

(iii) default by the Manager in the performance of a material obligation under this Agreement (other than as a result of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event) which is not cured within 60 days of written notice being given by Countryside to the Manager of the default, or if such default is not reasonably capable of being cured within 60 days, the Manager has not taken all reasonable steps to cure such default as soon as possible thereafter but in any event within 128 days.

9.02 Termination Rights

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Countryside Event of Default, without recourse to legal process and without limiting any other rights or remedies which the Manager may have at law or otherwise, the Manager may immediately terminate this Agreement by delivery of a written notice of termination to Countryside US and Countryside Canada.

(b) Upon the occurrence of a Manager Event of Default, without recourse to legal process and without limiting any other rights or remedies which Countryside may have at law or otherwise, Countryside may immediately terminate this Agreement by prior written notice of such termination delivered to the Manager.

(c) The Manager may terminate this Agreement (i) at any time after the first five years of the term of the Agreement or (ii) at any time within one year of a Change of Control upon 180 days' written notice to Countryside US and Countryside Canada. In the case of a termination in accordance with Section 9.02(c)(ii), Countryside US and Countryside Canada will reimburse Manager for actual reasonable costs associated with such termination. In the context of such a termination, the Manager will co-operate with Countryside and use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the transition to the new manager is undertaken in an orderly manner that ensures no material adverse impact to Countryside.

(d) Countryside US and Countryside Canada will have the right to jointly terminate this Agreement at any time after the first five years with the payment to the Manager of a fee equal to (i) its actual costs associated with the termination plus an amount equal to two times the previous year's compensation paid to the Executives by the Manager and reimbursed by Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, for the Base Salary and under the STIP for achieving the Operating Objectives plus the wage burden associated therewith or, (ii) if such termination occurs within 12 months of a Change of Control, 2.9 times the previous year's compensation paid to the Executives by the Manager and reimbursed by Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, for the Base Salary and under the STIP for achieving the Operating Objectives plus the wage burden associated therewith.

(e) In the event of a Change of Control prior to the fifth anniversary of this Agreement, Countryside US and Countryside Canada will have the right to jointly terminate this Agreement at any time with the payment to the Manager of a fee equal to the greater of (i) its actual costs associated with the termination plus an amount equal to 2.9 times the previous year's compensation paid to the Executives by the Manager and reimbursed by Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, for the Base Salary and under the STIP for achieving the Operating Objectives plus the wage burden associated therewith and (ii) its actual costs associated with the termination plus an amount equal to (A) the previous year's compensation paid to the Executives by the Manager and reimbursed by Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, for the Base Salary and under the STIP for achieving the Operating Objectives times (B) five less the number of years and fractions thereof since the date of this Agreement (such that, for example, if this Agreement were terminated one year and three months after the date of this Agreement, such amount would be five less 1.25, being 3.75) plus the wage burden associated therewith.

9.03 Dispute as to the Occurrence of an Event of Default

Should a Party dispute in good faith that a Countryside Event of Default or a Manager Event of Default, as the case may be, has occurred under this Article 9, such dispute shall be submitted to arbitration by the disputing Party (in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 hereof) no later than 20 Business Days following the occurrence of the event of default or, in the case of an event of default under Section 9.01(b)(ii), 20 Business Days from Manager's receipt of notice from Countryside that it purports to have exercised its termination right, or in the case of a default under Sections 9.01(a)(ii) or 9.01(b)(iii), the expiry of the applicable cure period.

9.04 Post Termination Arrangements

In the event of a termination of this Agreement under Section 9.02:

(a) the Manager shall deliver to Countryside all books, records, accounts, documents, plans, systems, manuals and all copies thereof relating to the Business of Countryside, which it developed and maintained in connection with the performance of its obligations and duties associated with the provision of services pursuant to this Agreement except that Manager may retain one copy for archival purposes; and

(b) the Parties shall take all steps as may be reasonably required to complete any final accounting of amounts owing between them and to provide, if applicable, for the completion of any other matter contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10 – FORCE MAJEURE

10.01 Consequences of Force Majeure

During the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure, the obligations of the Party affected by such event of Force Majeure, to the extent that such obligations cannot be reasonably performed as a result of such event of Force Majeure, shall be suspended, and such Party shall not be considered to be in breach or default hereunder, for the period of such occurrence, except that:

(a) the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure affecting Countryside US or Countryside Canada but not affecting the performance of the Manager's obligations hereunder shall not relieve Countryside US or Countryside Canada, if applicable, from its obligations to make payments in respect of expenses incurred by the Manager for which it is obligated to reimburse the Manager hereunder; and

(b) upon the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure affecting the Manager, and during the continuance thereof (i) Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, shall continue to be obligated to make payment of all Expenses, whether incurred before or after the event of Force Majeure, and (ii) Countryside US and, if applicable, Countryside Canada and their Affiliates shall continue to be obligated to make payment of all fees earned or accrued to the Manager (including distributions under the LTIP Interests), including for the months in respect of which the event of Force Majeure occurred, as well as for the two months immediately following such months.

The suspension of performance shall be of no greater scope and of no longer duration than is required by the event of Force Majeure.

10.02 Notice

The Party seeking to invoke the benefit of Section 10.01 shall (a) give the other Party prompt written notice of the particulars of the event of Force Majeure and, if reasonably ascertainable, its expected duration, and (b) use its commercially reasonable efforts to remedy its inability to perform.

ARTICLE 11 – RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES AND ARBITRATION

11.01 Disputes

Where so provided in this Agreement, and in any other instance where agreed to in writing by the Parties, a dispute or disagreement of any kind or nature between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (a "Dispute") will be resolved in accordance with this Article 11 to the extent permitted by law.

11.02 Arbitration

(a) Any Dispute required to be submitted to arbitration hereunder or which the Parties agree in writing to submit to arbitration hereunder, shall be presided over by three arbitrators, one chosen by Countryside, one chosen by the Manager and one chosen by the Countryside appointee and Manager appointee, pursuant to the procedure set forth in this Section 11.02 and pursuant to the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1991 (Ontario) (the "Arbitration"). If the provisions of this Section 11.02 are inconsistent with the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1991 (Ontario) and to the extent of such inconsistency, the provisions of this Section 11.02 shall prevail.

(b) Either Party may commence a proceeding for arbitration of a Dispute by making a demand for arbitration of a Dispute by sending a notice (the "Arbitration Notice") in writing to the other Party, setting forth the nature of the Dispute, the amount involved and the name of the arbitrator such initiating Party chooses as its nominee.

(c) Within 10 days after deemed receipt of the Arbitration Notice by the Party to whom it is sent, the other Party shall provide the name of the arbitrator such party chooses as its nominee and within a further five day period, the two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator.

(d) Arbitration hearings shall be held in Toronto, Ontario, and shall commence no later than 30 days after the appointment of the third arbitrator in accordance with Section 11.02(c). The decision of the arbitrators shall be final, without appeal, and binding upon the Parties.

(e) Countryside shall bear the costs and expenses of arbitrators, lawyers, consultants, advisors, witnesses and employees retained in any Arbitration provided that the Manager's legal expenses shall only be paid by Countryside so long as Manager's legal position is taken in good faith.

11.03 Continued Performance

Notwithstanding Article 9, during the period in which a Party may initiate the Dispute Resolution Procedures pursuant to Section 9.03 and during the conduct of Dispute resolution procedures pursuant to this Article 11, the Parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under this Agreement and neither Party shall exercise any other remedies to resolve such Dispute.

ARTICLE 12 – GENERAL MATTERS

The Parties are not and shall not be deemed to be partners or joint venturers with one another and nothing herein shall be construed so as to impose any liability as such on any of them. The Parties agree that the Manager shall perform its duties and obligations under this Agreement as an independent contractor (with its duties and obligations as expressly provided herein) for and on behalf of Countryside US, and if services are being provided to Countryside Canada at the request of Countryside Canada, Countryside Canada, and it is acknowledged and agreed that only where the Manager undertakes execution of contracts or other instruments for and on behalf of Countryside US or Countryside Canada, if applicable, may the Manager then be acting as an agent of Countryside US or Countryside Canada, if applicable, or their direct or indirect subsidiaries. 12.04 Severability

The provisions of this Agreement are severable. In the event of the unenforceability or invalidity of any one or more of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Agreement under applicable law, such unenforceability or invalidity shall not render any of the other terms, covenants, conditions or provisions hereof unenforceable or invalid; and the Parties agree that this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable or invalid term, covenant or condition was never contained herein.

The Administrator will provide the services of a person to fulfil the role of secretary of the Fund and a vice-president of Countryside Canada. In carrying out their duties on behalf of the Administrator under this Agreement, the officers and directors of the Administrator will act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of Countryside and will exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

2.04 Parties' Acknowledgement Regarding Management and Administration Services

Where the Business of Countryside consists of an ownership interest (whether direct or indirect) in a Project or other asset, the Parties acknowledge that nothing in this Agreement will obligate the Administrator to provide, or create an expectation that the Administrator will provide, operational services or operations management services directly to or on behalf of a Project or asset, except as may be necessary in order to properly manage the Business as provided for hereunder and as is otherwise permitted pursuant to contractual or other rights granted in favour of Countryside or its Affiliates which are attributable to or associated with Countryside's ownership interest in such Project or asset.

The Administrator covenants and agrees that in the performance of its services under this Agreement it shall:

The Trustees shall provide the Administrator with such information regarding the residence status of Unitholders or their status as U.S. persons and the order of acquisition or registration thereof as the Administrator may reasonably request, from time to time, that the Trustees may have in their possession in order to assist the Administrator in fulfilling its obligations under this Section 2.07.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Administrator, its shareholders, Affiliates, associates and any Person who is serving or shall have served as a director, officer, employee, secondee or agent of the Administrator (collectively, the "Service Providers"), shall not, either directly or indirectly, be liable, answerable or accountable to Countryside, for:

(b) any loss or damage resulting from, incidental to or relating to the performance or non-performance of services hereunder by any of the Service Providers (irrespective of whether such services have been provided before the Effective Date), where such loss or damage is attributable to acting in accordance with the instructions provided by the directors of Countryside;

Each of the Parties hereby acknowledges and agrees that the limits of liability provided for in this Section 5.04 shall not only be enforceable by the Administrator but shall also be enforceable directly by each of the other Service Providers and it is agreed that the Administrator shall hold in trust and enforce (to the extent necessary), for the benefit of such Service Providers, the limitations of liability conferred by this Section 5.04.

5.05 Confidentiality

The Administrator hereby agrees that, unless the prior written consent of the Fund or Countryside Canada is obtained, the Administrator will not at any time use, or disclose or make available to any Person, any information (herein "Confidential Information") concerning the Business relating to Countryside acquired in connection with the performance of the services by the Administrator hereunder, provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to Applicable Law:

(a) the Administrator may make use of, reveal or disclose Confidential Information:

(i) as may be expressly permitted by, or necessary for the performance of, the Administrator's obligations under this Agreement;

(ii) where it is already in the public domain when disclosed to the Administrator or becomes, after having been disclosed to the Administrator, generally available to the public through publication or otherwise unless the publication or other disclosure was made directly or indirectly by the Administrator in breach of this Agreement;

(iii) as required in order to comply with Applicable Laws, the orders or directions of any Governmental Authority, the requirements of any stock exchange or clearing house, or the requirements of any other regulatory authority having jurisdiction, including compliance with the disclosure obligations of the Administrator provided that the Administrator will provide immediate notice to Countryside of the request for Confidential Information in order to allow Countryside to take all necessary steps to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy;

(iv) where it was made available to the Administrator on a non-confidential basis from a third party source that the Administrator knows is not bound by any confidentiality obligation, or where such information can be demonstrated by the Administrator to have come into its possession independently of anything done by the Administrator under or pursuant to this Agreement;

(v) to Affiliates of the Administrator, and to the directors, officers, employees, agents or other representatives (including consultants, financial institutions and other advisors) of the Administrator, provided such Persons have agreed or are under a legal obligation to maintain such Confidential Information in confidence on terms substantially similar to those in this Section 5.05; and

(vi) as necessary in connection with any dispute resolution or any litigation commenced in respect of this Agreement.

(b) the Parties agree that the obligations under this Section 5.05 shall expire and be at an end on the second anniversary of the termination of the Administrator's appointment hereunder.

ARTICLE 6 – SUCCESSION AND DELEGATION

6.01 Assignment

The Administrator may not sell or assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement to a third party without the prior written consent of the Fund and Countryside Canada. The Fund and Countryside Canada may jointly assign their rights and obligations under this Agreement, in their sole discretion, (i) to a bona fide lender as security, including as security for any guarantee granted by Countryside in respect of the obligations of its Affiliates to any third party or parties providing bona fide financing to such Affiliates, or (ii) any purchaser of all, or substantially all, of the assets of Countryside Canada and Countryside US. Upon any assignment by the Fund and Countryside Canada or the Administrator in accordance with this Section 6.01, the Fund, Countryside Canada, the Administrator and the applicable assignee shall execute and deliver such documents as are necessary to give effect to such assignment on the terms herein and as otherwise agreed between such parties.

6.02 Assistance with Administrator's Obligations

Subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions herein contained, the Administrator may engage other Persons to assist it in the performance of any of its duties and obligations under this Agreement, including any Affiliate of the Administrator provided that such engagement shall not relieve the Administrator of the responsibility for ensuring the performance of its duties and obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 – INDEMNIFICATION

7.01 Indemnification of Administrator

The Administrator, any Person who is serving or shall have served as a director, officer or employee of Administrator and its Affiliates and any Service Provider (collectively, the "Administrator Indemnitees") shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the Fund and Countryside Canada from and against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, obligations, costs and expenses (including judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, counsel and accountants' fees) of whatsoever kind or nature (collectively, "Claims") incurred by, borne by or asserted against any of such indemnified parties in any way arising from or related to the performance by the Administrator of its obligations under this Agreement, unless such Claims arise principally and directly from the fraud, wilful misconduct, dishonesty, bad faith or gross negligence of any of the Administrator Indemnitees.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which the Administrator or the Administrator Indemnitees may be entitled as a matter of law or equity or which may be lawfully granted to such person.

7.02 Indemnification of Countryside

Subject to limitations on liability of the Administrator contained in this Agreement, the Fund and Countryside Canada and any Person who is serving or shall have served as a director, officer or employee of the Fund or Countryside Canada (the "Countryside Indemnitees") shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the Administrator from and against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, obligations, costs and expenses (including judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement, counsel and accountants' fees) of whatsoever kind or nature (collectively, "Countryside Claims") incurred by, borne by or asserted against any of such indemnified parties which arise principally and directly from the fraud, wilful default or gross negligence of the Administrator or its Affiliates or any Service Provider in the performance of its obligations hereunder, unless such Countryside Claims arise from the fraud, wilful default or gross negligence on the part of a Countryside Indemnitee.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which the Countryside Indemnitees may be entitled as a matter of law or equity or which may be lawfully granted to such Person.

7.03 Method of Asserting Claims

(a) If a Party entitled to indemnification pursuant to the terms hereof (the "Indemnified Party") intends to seek indemnification under this Article 7 from the other Party (the "Indemnifying Party"), the Indemnified Party shall give the Indemnifying Party notice of such claim for indemnification promptly following the receipt or determination by the Indemnified Party of actual knowledge or information as to the factual and legal basis of any claim which is subject to indemnification and, where such claim results from the commencement of any claim or action by a third party, promptly following receipt of written notice of such third party claim or action. The failure of or delay by an Indemnified Party to so notify the Indemnifying Party (as set forth above) shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligations hereunder to the Indemnified Party, however the liability which the Indemnifying Party has to the Indemnified Party pursuant to the terms of this Article 7 (and for which the Indemnifying Party will be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party in respect of) shall be reduced to the extent that any such delay in or failure to give notice as herein required prejudices in a substantial manner the defence of any such action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim, or otherwise results in any increase in the liability which the Indemnifying Party has under its indemnity provided for herein.

(b) The Indemnifying Party, at its sole cost and expense, shall have the right to assume the defence of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation brought against the Indemnified Party with counsel designated by the Indemnifying Party and reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party; provided that the Indemnifying Party will not, without the Indemnified Party's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), settle, compromise, consent to the entry of any judgment in or otherwise seek to terminate any action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim in respect of which indemnification may be sought hereunder (whether or not the Indemnified Party is a party thereto) unless such settlement, compromise, consent or termination does not impose an injunction or other equitable relief, does not include an admission which is prejudicial to the Indemnified party and includes a release of the Indemnified Party from all liabilities arising out of such action, suit, proceeding, investigation or claim.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) if the defendants in any such action, suit, proceeding or investigation include both the Indemnified Party and the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnified Party is reasonably advised by counsel that there are legal defences available to the Indemnified Party that are additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party and that in such circumstances representation by the same counsel would be inappropriate; or

(ii) if the Indemnified Party shall have reasonably concluded that the Indemnifying Party is not taking or has not taken, all necessary steps to diligently defend such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, the Indemnified Party has provided written notice of same to the Indemnifying Party, and the Indemnifying Party has not rectified the situation within a reasonable period of time;

then the Indemnified Party shall have the right to retain separate counsel, the reasonable costs of which shall be at the Indemnifying Party's expense, to represent the Indemnified Party and to otherwise participate in the defence of such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation on behalf of such Indemnified Party.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein contained, an Indemnified Party shall have the right, at its sole cost and expense, to retain counsel to separately represent it in connection with the negotiation, settlement or defence of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation brought by a third party provided, for further certainty, that such counsel shall not, unless agreed by the Indemnifying Party, assume control of the negotiation, settlement or defence.

(e) Except to the extent expressly provided herein, no Indemnified Party shall settle any claim or action with respect to which it has sought or intends to seek indemnification pursuant to this Article 7 without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

7.04 Net Amount

In the event that an Indemnifying Party is obligated to indemnify and hold any Indemnified Party harmless under this Article 7, the amount owing to the Indemnified Party shall be the amount of such Indemnified Party's actual out-of-pocket loss, net of any insurance proceeds or other amount recovered from any other Person.

7.05 Third Party Beneficiaries

Each of the Parties hereby acknowledges and agrees that the rights of indemnification provided for in this Article 7 shall not only be enforceable by the Parties hereto but shall be enforceable directly by each of the Administrator Indemnitees and the Countryside Indemnitees, and in this respect it is further acknowledged and agreed that:

(a) the Administrator is acting as agent and trustee for the Administrator Indemnitees as regards the covenants of Countryside, pursuant to Section 7.01, with respect to indemnification of the Administrator Indemnitees; and

(b) Countryside is acting as agent and trustee for the Countryside Indemnitees as regards the covenants of the Administrator, pursuant to Section 7.02, with respect to indemnification of the Countryside Indemnitees.

ARTICLE 8 – TERM

8.01 Term

Subject to the provisions of Article 9, this Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue in full force and effect for so long as the Management Agreement remains in effect. Upon the termination of this Agreement pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 or the termination or non-renewal of the Management Agreement, this Agreement shall terminate.

8.02 Survival

Any obligation of the Parties pursuant to the terms hereof that accrued prior to the termination of the Agreement shall survive the termination of the Agreement, including, for further certainty, any payment obligations of the Fund or Countryside Canada in respect of amounts accrued to and in favour of the Administrator hereunder together with all indemnification obligations.

ARTICLE 9 – TERMINATION

9.01 Events of Default

(a) Upon the occurrence of any of the following events, Countryside shall be deemed to be in default of this Agreement, each of which shall be deemed to be an event of default (each, a "Countryside Event of Default"):

(i) the bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership of the Fund or Countryside Canada; or

(ii) a default by the Fund or Countryside Canada in the performance of a material obligation under this Agreement (other than as a result of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event) which is not cured within 60 days of written notice being given by the Administrator to the Fund or Countryside Canada of the default, or if such default is not reasonably capable of being cured within 60 days, the Fund or Countryside Canada, as applicable, has not taken all reasonable steps to cure such default as soon as possible thereafter but in any event within 128 days.

(b) Upon the occurrence of any of the following events, the Administrator shall be deemed to be in default of this Agreement, each of which shall be deemed to be an event of default (each, a "Administrator Event of Default"):

(i) the bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership of the Administrator;

(ii) fraud, wilful default or gross negligence committed by the Administrator; or

(iii) default by the Administrator in the performance of a material obligation under this Agreement (other than as a result of the occurrence of a Force Majeure event) which is not cured within 60 days of written notice being given by Countryside to the Administrator of the default, or if such default is not reasonably capable of being cured within 60 days, the Administrator has not taken all reasonable steps to cure such default as soon as possible thereafter but in any event within 128 days.

9.02 Termination Rights

(a) Upon the occurrence of an Countryside Event of Default, without recourse to legal process and without limiting any other rights or remedies which the Administrator may have at law or otherwise, the Administrator may immediately terminate this Agreement by delivery of a written notice of termination to the Fund and Countryside Canada.

(b) Upon the occurrence of a Administrator Event of Default, without recourse to legal process and without limiting any other rights or remedies which Countryside may have at law or otherwise, Countryside Canada and the Fund may immediately terminate this Agreement by prior written notice of such termination delivered to the Administrator.

(c) In addition to any other termination rights granted pursuant to this Section, any Party may terminate this Agreement concurrently with any termination of the Management Agreement. In the event that the Management Agreement is terminated and the Manager is entitled to be reimbursed its actual reasonable costs associated with such termination, the Administrator shall also be entitled to be reimbursed its actual reasonable costs associated with the termination of this Agreement.

9.03 Dispute as to the Occurrence of an Event of Default

Should a Party dispute in good faith that a Countryside Event of Default or a Administrator Event of Default, as the case may be, has occurred under this Article 9, such dispute shall be submitted to arbitration by the disputing Party (in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 hereof) no later than 20 Business Days following the event of default, or, in the case of an event of default under Section 9.01(b)(ii), 20 Business Days from Administrator's receipt of notice from Countryside that it purports to have exercised its termination right, or in the case of a default under Section 9.01(a)(ii) or 9.01(b)(iii), the expiry of the applicable cure period.

9.04 Post Termination Arrangements

In the event of a termination of this Agreement under Section 9.02:

(a) the Administrator shall deliver to Countryside all books, records, accounts, documents, plans, systems, manuals and all copies thereof relating to the Business of Countryside, which it developed and maintained in connection with the performance of its obligations and duties associated with the provision of services pursuant to this Agreement except that the Administrator may retain one copy for archival purposes; and

(b) the Parties shall take all steps as may be reasonably required to complete any final accounting of amounts owing between them and to provide, if applicable, for the completion of any other matter contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10 – FORCE MAJEURE

10.01 Consequences of Force Majeure

During the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure, the obligations of the Party affected by such event of Force Majeure, to the extent that such obligations cannot be reasonably performed as a result of such event of Force Majeure, shall be suspended, and such Party shall not be considered to be in breach or default hereunder, for the period of such occurrence, except that:

(a) the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure affecting the Fund or Countryside Canada but not affecting the performance of the Administrator's obligations hereunder shall not relieve the Fund or Countryside Canada, if applicable, from its obligations to make payments in respect of expenses incurred by the Administrator for which it is obligated to reimburse the Administrator hereunder; and

(b) upon the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure affecting the Administrator, and during the continuance thereof (i) the Fund and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, shall continue to be obligated to make payment of all Expenses, whether incurred before or after the event of Force Majeure, and (ii) the Fund and, if applicable, Countryside Canada and their Affiliates shall continue to be obligated to make payment of all fees earned or accrued to the Administrator (including distributions under the LTIP Interests), including for the months in respect of which the event of Force Majeure occurred, as well as for the two months immediately following such months.

The suspension of performance shall be of no greater scope and of no longer duration than is required by the event of Force Majeure.

10.02 Notice

The Party seeking to invoke the benefit of Section 10.01 shall (a) give the other Party prompt written notice of the particulars of the event of Force Majeure and, if reasonably ascertainable, its expected duration, and (b) use its commercially reasonable efforts to remedy its inability to perform.

ARTICLE 11 – RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES AND ARBITRATION

11.01 Disputes

Where so provided in this Agreement, and in any other instance where agreed to in writing by the Parties, a dispute or disagreement of any kind or nature between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (a "Dispute") will be resolved in accordance with this Article 11 to the extent permitted by law. If a Dispute occurs and, at the same time a dispute or disagreement under the Management Agreement arises involving the same or similar matters, one arbitration proceeding will be held to resolve the dispute under both Agreements and in such case, the Administrator and Countryside Ventures, LLC shall agree on a single arbitrator as their representative on the arbitration panel.

11.02 Arbitration

(a) Any Dispute required to be submitted to arbitration hereunder or which the Parties agree in writing to submit to arbitration hereunder, shall be presided over by three arbitrators, one chosen by Countryside, one chosen by the Administrator and one chosen by the Countryside appointee and Administrator appointee, pursuant to the procedure set forth in this Section 11.02 and pursuant to the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1991 (Ontario) (the "Arbitration"). If the provisions of this Section 11.02 are inconsistent with the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1991 (Ontario) and to the extent of such inconsistency, the provisions of this Section 11.02 shall prevail.

(b) Either Party may commence a proceeding for arbitration of a Dispute by making a demand for arbitration of a Dispute by sending a notice (the "Arbitration Notice") in writing to the other Party, setting forth the nature of the Dispute, the amount involved and the name of the arbitrator such initiating Party chooses as its nominee.

(c) Within 10 days after deemed receipt of the Arbitration Notice by the Party to whom it is sent, the other Party shall provide the name of the arbitrator such party chooses as its nominee and within a further five day period, the two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator.

(d) Arbitration hearings shall be held in Toronto, Ontario, and shall commence no later than 30 days after the appointment of the third arbitrator in accordance with Section 11.02(c). The decision of the arbitrators shall be final, without appeal, and binding upon the Parties.

(e) Countryside Canada shall bear the costs and expenses of arbitrators, lawyers, consultants, advisors, witnesses and employees retained in any Arbitration provided that the Administrator's legal expenses shall only be paid by Countryside Canada so long as the Administrator's legal position is taken in good faith.

11.03 Continued Performance

Notwithstanding Article 9, during the period in which a Party may initiate the Dispute Resolution Procedures pursuant to Section 9.03 and during the conduct of Dispute resolution procedures pursuant to this Article 11, the Parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under this Agreement and neither Party shall exercise any other remedies to resolve such Dispute.

ARTICLE 12 – GENERAL MATTERS

12.01 No Partnership, Joint Venture or Trust

The Parties are not and shall not be deemed to be partners or joint venturers with one another and nothing herein shall be construed so as to impose any liability as such on any of them. The Parties agree that the Administrator shall perform its duties and obligations under this Agreement as an independent contractor (with its duties and obligations as expressly provided herein) for and on behalf of the Fund, and if services are being provided to Countryside Canada at the request of Countryside Canada, Countryside Canada, and it is acknowledged and agreed that only where the Administrator undertakes execution of contracts or other instruments for and on behalf of the Fund or Countryside Canada, if applicable, may the Administrator then be acting as an agent of the Fund or Countryside Canada, if applicable, or their direct or indirect subsidiaries. In no circumstances shall the Administrator (or the Executives) be, or be deemed to be, a fiduciary or trustee for any Person, whether or not a Party, in connection with the discharge by the Administrator of such duties and obligations.

Countryside hereby grants to the Administrator a licence to use the primary name of its publicly traded Affiliate, (currently "Countryside" and generally the "Primary Name") in its corporate name and grants a licence to conduct business using the Primary Name for so long as it remains the administrator of Countryside. In the event that the Administrator ceases to be the administrator of Countryside or its Affiliates and this Agreement terminates, this licence shall terminate. Within 30 days of the termination of this Agreement, the Administrator is required to change its name to remove the Primary Name from it and following the termination of this Agreement, the Administrator shall cease to conduct business under the Primary Name.

12.03 Amendments

This Agreement shall not be amended or varied in its terms by oral agreement or by representations or otherwise except by instrument in writing executed by the duly authorized representatives of the Parties hereto or their respective successors or assigns and, in the case of Countryside, approved by a majority of the directors who are independent of the Administrator.

12.04 Severability

The provisions of this Agreement are severable. In the event of the unenforceability or invalidity of any one or more of the terms, covenants, conditions or provisions of this Agreement under applicable law, such unenforceability or invalidity shall not render any of the other terms, covenants, conditions or provisions hereof unenforceable or invalid; and the Parties agree that this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable or invalid term, covenant or condition was never contained herein.

The Debenture Trustee shall not be required to ensure compliance with any law or with any rules or regulations pursuant thereto or with any rules or regulations of any securities exchange or securities regulatory authority or to conform to general usage in connection with the issue, transfer or exchange of the Debentures. The responsibility for compliance with the foregoing shall be that of Countryside Canada or the holder, as applicable.

2.4 Form and Terms of Initial Debentures

(a) The first series of Debentures (the "Initial Debentures") authorized for issue immediately is limited to an aggregate principal amount of US$55,000,000 and shall be designated as "6.25% Exchangeable Unsecured Subordinated Debentures".

(b) The Initial Debentures shall be dated as of the date of closing of the Offering, shall mature on October 31, 2012 and shall bear interest from the date of issue at the rate of 6.25% per annum, payable in equal semi-annual payments in arrears on April 30 and October 31 in each year, the first such payment to fall due, subject as hereinafter provided, on April 30, 2006 and the last such payment (representing interest payable from and including the last Interest Payment Date to, but excluding, the Maturity Date or the earlier date of redemption of the Initial Debentures), subject as hereinafter provided, to fall due on the Maturity Date or the earlier date of redemption, payable after as well as before maturity and after as well as before default, with interest on amounts in default at the same rate, compounded semi-annually. For certainty, the first interest payment will include interest accrued from and including November 14, 2005 to, but excluding, April 30, 2006, which will be equal to $28.60 for each US$1,000 principal amount of the Initial Debentures.

(c) The Initial Debentures will be redeemable at the option of Countryside Canada in accordance with the terms of Article 5, provided that the Initial Debentures will not be redeemable on or prior to October 31, 2008, except in the event of the satisfaction of certain conditions after a Change of Control has occurred as outlined herein. After October 31, 2008 and prior to October 31, 2010, the Initial Debentures may be redeemed in whole or in part from time to time at the option of Countryside Canada on notice as provided for in Section 5.3, provided that the Current Market Price on the day preceding the date on which such notice of redemption is given is at least 125% of the Exchange Price and Countryside Canada shall have provided to the Debenture Trustee a Certificate of the Manager confirming such Current Market Price. In such circumstances, the Initial Debentures will be redeemable at a price equal to their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest. On and after October 31, 2010, the Debentures will be redeemable prior to the Maturity Date in whole or in part from time to time at the option of Countryside Canada on notice as provided in Section 5.3, and irrespective of the Current Market Price, at a price equal to the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest to but excluding the Redemption Date. The Redemption Notice for the Initial Debentures shall be substantially in the form of Schedule B.

(d) The Initial Debentures will be subordinated to the Senior Secured Indebtedness in accordance with the provisions of Article 6. Countryside Canada and the Fund covenant and agree that the Initial Debentures will be senior to all existing and future Subordinated Intercompany Debt and any debt issued by Countryside Canada or any of its Subsidiaries to holders of the Units, such that no payment of principal on any such debt shall be made nor shall any trustee or holders thereof be entitled to demand, accelerate, institute Proceedings, or receive any payment or benefit (including without limitation by set-off, combination of accounts or otherwise in any manner whatsoever) on account of payment of principal until such time as: (i) the obligations under the Initial Debentures shall have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash; or (ii) all of the Initial Debentures have been exchanged in accordance with Article 7.

(e) Upon and subject to the provisions and conditions of Article 7, the holder of each Initial Debenture shall have the right, at such holder's option, at any time prior to the earlier of the close of business on the Maturity Date and the last Business Day immediately preceding the Redemption Date specified by Countryside Canada for redemption of the Initial Debentures by notice to the holders of Initial Debentures in accordance with Sections 2.4(c) and 5.3 (the earlier of which will be the "Time of Expiry" for the purposes of Article 7 in respect of the Initial Debentures), to exchange the whole or, in the case of a Debenture of a denomination in excess of $1,000, any part which is US$1,000 or an integral multiple thereof, of the principal amount of such Debenture into Units at the Exchange Price in effect on the Date of Exchange (as defined in Section 7.4(b)).

The Exchange Price in effect on the date hereof for each Unit to be issued upon the exchange of Initial Debentures shall be equal to C$10.75 per Unit being an exchange ratio of 109.4884 Units for each US$1,000 principal amount of Initial Debentures so exchanged. No adjustment will be made for dividends or distributions on Units issuable upon exchange or for interest accrued or accruing on Initial Debentures surrendered for exchange. Holders exchanging their Initial Debentures will receive interest which has accrued but not been paid from the most recently completed Interest Payment Date to, but not including, the Date of Exchange. The Exchange Price applicable to, and the Units, securities or other property receivable on the exchange of, the Initial Debentures is subject to adjustment pursuant to the provisions of Section 7.5.

(f) On redemption or on maturity of the Initial Debentures, Countryside Canada may, at its option and subject to the provisions of Section 5.6 and Section 5.10 as applicable, and subject to regulatory approval, if required, elect to satisfy its obligation to pay the principal amount of the Initial Debentures, in whole or in part, by delivering to the holders of Initial Debentures, Freely Tradeable Units. If Countryside Canada elects to exercise such option, it shall deliver a Redemption Notice or a maturity notice (the "Maturity Notice"), as the case may be, to the holders of the Initial Debentures in the form of Schedule B or Schedule C, as applicable.

(g) The Initial Debentures shall be issued in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 and the Debenture Trustee is hereby appointed as registrar and transfer agent for the Initial Debentures. Each Initial Debenture and the certificate of the Debenture Trustee endorsed thereon shall be issued in substantially the form set out in Schedule A, with such insertions, omissions, substitutions or other variations as shall be required or permitted by this Indenture, and may have imprinted or otherwise reproduced thereon such legend or legends or endorsements, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture, as may be required to comply with any law or with any rules or regulations pursuant thereto or with any rules or regulations of any securities exchange or securities regulatory authority or to conform with general usage, all as may be determined by the Directors or an officer of the Manager of executing such Initial Debenture in accordance with Section 2.7 hereof, as conclusively evidenced by his or her execution of an Initial Debenture. Each Initial Debenture shall additionally bear such distinguishing letters and numbers as the Debenture Trustee shall approve. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an Initial Debenture may be in such other form or forms as may, from time to time, be, approved by a resolution of the Directors or as specified in a Certificate of the Manager. The Initial Debentures may be engraved, lithographed, printed, mimeographed or typewritten or partly in one form and partly in another.

The Initial Debentures shall be issued as Global Debentures and the Global Debentures will be registered in the name of the Depository (or any nominee of the Depository). No beneficial holder will receive definitive certificates representing their interest in Debentures except as provided in Section 4.2. A Global Debenture may be exchanged for Debentures in registered form that are not Global Debentures, or transferred to and registered in the name of a Person other than the Depository for such Global Debentures or a nominee thereof as provided in Section 4.2.

(h) Upon and subject to the provisions and conditions of Article 11, Countryside Canada may elect, from time to time, to raise funds to satisfy all or part of an Interest Obligation on the Initial Debentures on any Interest Payment Date by delivering Units to the Debenture Trustee for sale through the facilities of a registered broker/dealer.

(i) Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control and subject to the provisions and conditions of this Section 2.4(i) and Article 6, Debentureholders have a right to require Countryside Canada to purchase their Initial Debentures. The terms and conditions of such right are set forth below.

(i) Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, each holder of Initial Debentures shall have the right (the "Put Right") to require Countryside Canada to purchase, on the date (the "Put Date") which is 30 days following the date upon which the Debenture Trustee delivers a Change of Control

Notice (as defined below) to the holders of Initial Debentures, all or any part of such holder's Initial Debentures at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof (the "Put Price") plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on such Initial Debenture up to, but excluding, the Put Date (collectively, the "Total Put Price").

(ii) Countryside Canada will, as soon as practicable, and in any event no later than two Business Days after the occurrence of a Change of Control, give written notice to the Debenture Trustee of the Change of Control. Such written notice of Countryside Canada shall state whether the Total Put Price will be payable in cash or satisfied, in whole or in part, by the issuance of Units as contemplated in Subsection 2.4(i)(xi). The Debenture Trustee will, as soon as practicable thereafter, and in any event no later than four Business Days after receiving notice from Countryside Canada of the Change of Control, provide written notice to the holders of Initial Debentures of the Change of Control (a "Change of Control Notice"). The Change of Control Notice shall include a description of the Change of Control, details of the Debentureholders' Put Right under the terms of the Indenture, details regarding whether the Total Put Price is to be paid in cash or, in whole or in part, in Units, a statement that each holder will be entitled to withdraw his election to require Countryside Canada to purchase if the Debenture Trustee receives, no later than the close of business on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Put Date, a facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of such holder, the principal amount of the Initial Debentures tendered for purchase and a statement that such holder is withdrawing his election to have the Initial Debentures purchased and a description of the rights of Countryside Canada to redeem untendered Initial Debentures in accordance with Section 2.4(i)(iv) hereof.

(iii) To exercise the Put Right, the Debentureholder, must deliver to the Debenture Trustee, not less than five Business Days prior to the Put Date, written notice of the holder's exercise of such right in the form attached as Schedule F.

(iv) If 90% or more in aggregate principal amount of Initial Debentures outstanding on the date Countryside Canada provides notice of a Change of Control to the Debenture Trustee have been tendered for purchase pursuant to the Put Right on the Put Date, Countryside Canada shall have the right upon written notice provided to the Debenture Trustee prior to the Put Date, to redeem all the remaining outstanding Initial Debentures on the Put Date at the Total Put Price (the "90% Redemption Right").

(v) Upon receipt of notice that Countryside Canada shall exercise the 90% Redemption Right and acquire the remaining Initial Debentures, the Debenture Trustee shall as soon as reasonably practicable provide written notice to all Debentureholders that did not previously exercise the Put Right that:

(A) Countryside Canada has exercised the 90% Redemption Right and will purchase all outstanding Initial Debentures on the Put Date at the Total Put Price, including a calculation of such holder's Total Put Price;

(B) they must transfer their Initial Debentures to the Debenture Trustee on the same terms as those holders that exercised the Put Right and the Depository shall make notations on the Global Debenture of the principal amount thereof so transferred; and

(C) the rights of such holder under the terms of the Initial Debentures shall cease as of the Put Date provided Countryside Canada has paid the Total Put Price to, or to the order of, the Debenture Trustee and thereafter the Initial Debentures shall not be considered to be outstanding and the holder shall not have any right except to receive the Total Put Price upon surrender and delivery of such holder's Initial Debentures in accordance with the Indenture.

(vi) subject to Section 2.4(i)(xi), Countryside Canada shall, on or before 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the Business Day immediately prior to the Put Date, deposit with the Debenture Trustee or any paying agent to the order of the Debenture Trustee, by electronic transfer of funds, such sums of money, as may be sufficient to pay the Total Put Price of the Initial Debentures to be purchased or redeemed by Countryside Canada on the Put Date, provided Countryside Canada may elect to satisfy this requirement by providing the Debenture Trustee with a certified cheque for such amounts required under this Section 2.4(i)(vi). Countryside Canada shall also deposit with the Debenture Trustee a sum of money sufficient to pay any charges or expenses that may be incurred by the Debenture Trustee in connection with such purchase and/or redemption, as the case may be. Every such deposit shall be irrevocable. From the sums so deposited, the Debenture Trustee shall pay or cause to be paid to the holders of such Initial Debentures, the Total Put Price to which they are entitled on Countryside Canada's purchase or redemption.

(vii) In the event that one or more of such Initial Debentures being purchased in accordance with this Section 2.4(i) becomes subject to purchase in part only, upon surrender of such Initial Debentures for payment of the Total Put Price, the Depository shall make notations on the Global Debenture of the principal amount thereof so purchased.

(viii) Initial Debentures for which holders have exercised the Put Right and Initial Debentures which Countryside Canada has elected to redeem in accordance with the 90% Redemption Right shall become due and payable at the Total Put Price on the Put Date, in the same manner and with the same effect as if it were the date of maturity specified in such Initial Debentures, anything therein or herein to the contrary notwithstanding, and from and after such Put Date, if the money necessary to purchase or redeem the Initial Debentures shall have been deposited as provided in this Section 2.4(i) and affidavits or other proofs satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee as to the publication and/or mailing of such notices shall have been lodged with it, interest on the Initial Debentures shall cease. If any question shall arise to whether any notice has been given as above provided and such deposit made, such question shall be decided by the Debenture Trustee whose decision shall be final and binding upon all parties in interest.

(ix) In case the holder of any Initial Debenture to be purchased or redeemed in accordance with this Section 2.4(i) shall fail on or before the Put Date so to surrender such holder's Initial Debenture or shall not within such time accept payment of the money payable, or take delivery of certificates representing any Units issuable in respect thereof; or give such receipt therefor, if any, as the Debenture Trustee may require, such monies may be set aside in trust, either in the deposit department of the Debenture Trustee or in a chartered bank, and such setting aside shall for all purposes be deemed a payment to the Debentureholder of the sum so set aside and, to that extent, the Initial Debenture shall thereafter not be considered as outstanding hereunder and the Debentureholder shall have no other right except to receive payment of the monies so paid and deposited, or take delivery of the certificates so deposited, upon surrender and delivery up of such holder's Initial Debenture, of the Total Put Price. In the event that any money, or certificates, required to be deposited hereunder with the Debenture Trustee or any depository or paying agent on account of the Total Put Price shall remain so deposited for a period of ten years from the Put Date, then such monies or certificates shall at the end of such period be paid over or delivered over by the Debenture Trustee or such depository or paying agent to Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee shall not be responsible to Debentureholders for any amounts owing to them.

(x) Subject to the provisions above related to Initial Debentures purchased in part, all Initial Debentures redeemed and paid under this Section 2.4(i) shall forthwith be delivered to the Debenture Trustee and cancelled and no Initial Debentures shall be issued in substitution therefor.

(xi) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, Countryside Canada shall be entitled at its option, subject to regulatory approval, to deposit with the Debenture Trustee or any paying agent to the order of the Debenture Trustee, in lieu of all or any portion of the cash which would otherwise be required to be deposited with the Debenture Trustee hereunder in payment of the Put Price, Freely Tradeable Units for purposes of making payment of all or any portion of the Put Price. If Countryside Canada elects to pay the Put Price in Freely Tradeable Units, the number of such Freely Tradeable Units will be determined by dividing the Put Price by 95% of the Current Market Price in effect on the Put Date, and then multiplying the quotient by the fraction of the Put Price to be satisfied by Freely Tradeable Units. No fractional Units shall be delivered as payment of the Put Price but in lieu thereof Countryside Canada shall satisfy fractional interests by a cash payment equal to the relevant fraction of the fractional interest in a Unit multiplied by the Current Market Price of the Units in effect on the Put Date. In all other respects, in paying the Put Price Countryside Canada shall be subject to the requirements of Subsection 2.4(i)(vi) and the Debenture Trustee shall, in making payment to holders of such Initial Debentures pursuant to Subsection 2.4(i)(vi) of the Put Price, make payment using such Freely Tradeable Units. Solely for purposes of this Subsection 2.4(i)(xi), the term "Current Market Price" as set forth in Section 1.1 shall be modified to provide that if the Units are not at the relevant time listed on any stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market, the Current Market Price shall be the fair market value of the Units as determined by Countryside Canada or the Manager acting reasonably. If Countryside Canada exercises its right pursuant to this Subsection 2.4(i)(xi) to deliver Freely Tradeable Units, the provisions of paragraphs (c) to (i) inclusive of Section 5.10 shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

(j) The Debenture Trustee shall be provided with the documents and instruments referred to in Sections 2.5(b), (c) and (d) with respect to the Initial Debentures prior to the issuance of the Initial Debentures.

2.5 Certification and Delivery of Additional Debentures

Countryside Canada may from time to time request the Debenture Trustee to certify and deliver Additional Debentures of any series by delivering to the Debenture Trustee the documents referred to below in this Section 2.5 whereupon the Debenture Trustee shall certify such Additional Debentures and cause the same to be delivered in accordance with the Written Direction of the Manager referred to below or pursuant to such procedures acceptable to the Debenture Trustee as may be specified from time to time by a Written Direction of the Manager. The maturity date, issue date, interest rate (if any) and any other terms of the Additional Debentures of such series shall be set forth in a supplemental indenture or determined by or pursuant to such Written Direction of the Manager and procedures. In certifying such Additional Debentures, the Debenture Trustee shall be entitled to receive and shall be fully protected in relying upon, unless and until such documents have been superseded or revoked:

(a) a Certificate of the Manager and/or executed supplemental indenture by or pursuant to which the form and terms of such Additional Debentures are established;

(b) a Written Direction of the Manager, addressed to the Debenture Trustee, requesting certification and delivery of such Additional Debentures and setting forth delivery instructions, provided that, with respect to Additional Debentures of a series subject to a Periodic Offering:

(i) such Written Direction of the Manager may be delivered by Countryside Canada to the Debenture Trustee prior to the delivery to the Debenture Trustee of such Additional Debentures of such series for certification and delivery;

(ii) the Debenture Trustee shall certify and deliver Additional Debentures of such series for original issue from time to time, in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding the aggregate principal amount, if any, established for such series, pursuant to a Written Direction of the Manager or pursuant to procedures acceptable to the Debenture Trustee as may be specified from time to time by a Written Direction of the Manager; and

(iii) the maturity date or dates, issue date or dates, interest rate or rates (if any) and any other terms of Additional Debentures of such series shall be determined by an executed supplemental indenture or by Written Direction of the Manager or pursuant to such procedures;

(c) an opinion of Counsel that all requirements imposed by this Indenture or by law in connection with the proposed issue of Additional Debentures have been complied with, subject to the delivery of certain documents or instruments specified in such opinion; and

(d) a Certificate of the Manager, addressed to Debenture Trustee, certifying that Countryside Canada is not in default under this Indenture, that the terms and conditions for the certification and delivery of Additional Debentures (including those set forth in Section 16.5), have been complied with subject to the delivery of any documents or instruments specified in such Certificate of the Manager and that no Event of Default exists or will exist upon such certification and delivery.

2.6 Issue of Global Debentures

(a) Countryside Canada may specify that the Debentures of a series are to be issued in whole or in part as one or more Global Debentures registered in the name of a Depository, or its nominee, designated by Countryside Canada in the Written Direction of the Manager delivered to the Debenture Trustee at the time of issue of such Debentures, and in such event the Manager shall execute and the Debenture Trustee shall certify and deliver one or more Global Debentures that shall:

(i) represent an aggregate amount equal to the principal amount of the outstanding Debentures of such series to be represented by one or more Global Debentures;

(ii) be delivered to such Depository or pursuant to such Depository's instructions; and

(iii) bear a legend substantially to the following effect:

> "This Debenture is a Global Debenture within the meaning of the Indenture hereinafter referred to and is registered in the name of a Depository or a nominee thereof. This Debenture may not be transferred to or exchanged for Debentures registered in the name of any person other than the Depository or a nominee thereof and no such transfer may be registered except in the limited circumstances described in the Indenture. Every Debenture authenticated and delivered upon registration of, transfer of, or in exchange for, or in lieu of, this Debenture shall be a Global Debenture subject to the foregoing, except in such limited circumstances described in the Indenture."

(b) Each Depository designated for a Global Debenture must, at the time of its designation and at all times while it serves as such Depository, be a clearing agency registered or designated under the securities legislation of the jurisdiction where the Depository has its principal offices.

2.7 Execution of Debentures

All Debentures shall be signed (either manually or by facsimile signature) by any one Director of Countryside Canada or authorized officer or director of the Manager holding office at the time of signing. A facsimile signature upon a Debenture shall for all purposes of this Indenture be deemed to be the signature of the person whose signature it purports to be. Notwithstanding that any person whose signature, either manual or in facsimile, appears on a Debenture as a Director of Countryside Canada or authorized officer or director of the Manager may no longer hold such office at the date of the Debenture or at the date of the certification and delivery thereof, such Debenture shall be valid and binding upon Countryside Canada and entitled to the benefits of this Indenture.

2.8 Certification

No Debenture shall be issued or, if issued, shall be obligatory or shall entitle the holder to the benefits of this Indenture, until it has been manually certified by or on behalf of the Debenture Trustee substantially in the form set out in this Indenture, in the relevant supplemental indenture, or in some other form approved by the Debenture Trustee. Such certification on any Debenture shall be conclusive evidence that such Debenture is duly issued, is a valid obligation of Countryside Canada and the holder is entitled to the benefits hereof.

The certificate of the Debenture Trustee signed on the Debentures, or interim Debentures hereinafter mentioned, shall not be construed as a representation or warranty by the Debenture Trustee as to the validity of this Indenture or of the Debentures or interim Debentures or as to the issuance of the Debentures or interim Debentures and the Debenture Trustee shall in no respect be liable or answerable for the use made of the Debentures or interim Debentures or any of them or the proceeds thereof. The certificate of the Debenture Trustee signed on the Debentures or interim Debentures shall, however, be a representation and warranty by the Debenture Trustee that the Debentures or interim Debentures have been duly certified by or on behalf of the Debenture Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture.

2.9 Interim Debentures or Certificates

Pending the delivery of definitive Debentures of any series to the Debenture Trustee, Countryside Canada may issue and the Debenture Trustee may certify in lieu thereof interim Debentures in such forms and in such denominations and signed in such manner as provided herein, entitling the holders thereof to definitive Debentures of the series when the same are ready for delivery; or Countryside Canada may execute and the Debenture Trustee may certify a temporary Debenture for the whole principal amount of Debentures of the series then authorized to be issued hereunder and Countryside Canada may deliver the same to the Debenture Trustee and thereupon the Debenture Trustee may issue its own interim certificates in such form and in such amounts, not exceeding in the aggregate the principal amount of the temporary Debenture so delivered to it, as Countryside Canada, and the Debenture Trustee may approve entitling the holders thereof to definitive Debentures of the series when the same are ready for delivery; and, when so issued and certified, such interim or temporary Debentures or interim certificates shall, for all purposes but without duplication, rank in respect of this Indenture equally with Debentures duly issued hereunder and, pending the exchange thereof for definitive Debentures, the holders of the interim or temporary Debentures or interim certificates shall be deemed without duplication to be Debentureholders and entitled to the benefit of this Indenture to the same extent and in the same manner as though the said exchange had actually been made. Forthwith after Countryside Canada shall have delivered the definitive Debentures to the Debenture Trustee, the Debenture Trustee shall cancel such temporary Debentures, if any, and shall call in for exchange all interim Debentures or certificates that shall have been issued and forthwith after such exchange shall cancel the same. No charge shall be made by Countryside Canada or the Debenture Trustee to the holders of such interim or temporary Debentures or interim certificates for the exchange thereof. All interest paid upon interim or temporary Debentures or interim certificates shall be noted thereon as a condition precedent to such payment unless paid by cheque to the registered holders thereof.

2.10 Mutilation, Loss, Theft or Destruction

In case any of the Debentures issued hereunder shall become mutilated or be lost, stolen or destroyed and in the absence of Countryside Canada's receipt of any notice that such Debenture has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, Countryside Canada, in its discretion, may issue, and thereupon the Debenture Trustee shall certify and deliver, a new Debenture upon surrender and cancellation of the mutilated Debenture, or in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed Debenture, in lieu of and in substitution for the same, and the substituted Debenture shall be in a form approved by the Debenture Trustee and shall be entitled to the benefits of this Indenture and rank equally in accordance with its terms with all other Debentures issued or to be issued hereunder. The new or substituted Debenture may have endorsed upon it the fact that it is in replacement of a previous Debenture. In case of loss, theft or destruction the applicant for a substituted Debenture shall furnish to Countryside Canada and to the Debenture Trustee such evidence of the loss, theft or destruction of the Debenture and such other documents as shall be satisfactory to them in their discretion and shall also furnish an indemnity and surety bond satisfactory to them in their discretion. The applicant shall pay all reasonable expenses incidental to the issuance of any substituted Debenture.

2.11 Concerning Interest

(a) Subject to Section 2.4(b) with respect to the calculation of interest in respect of the initial interest payment to be paid on the Initial Debentures, all Debentures issued hereunder, whether originally or upon exchange or in substitution for previously issued Debentures which are interest bearing, shall bear interest (i) from their issue date, or (ii) from and including the last Interest Payment Date in respect of which interest shall have been paid or made available for payment on the outstanding Debentures of that series, whichever shall be the later, or, in respect of Debentures subject to a Periodic Offering, from their issue date or from and including the last Interest Payment Date in respect of which interest shall have been paid or made available for payment on such Debentures, in all cases, to but excluding the next Interest Payment Date. All interest shall accrue from day to day and shall be payable in arrears for the actual number of days lapsed in the relevant interest period. Interest payable in a calendar year shall be payable in equal semi-annual payments in arrears on April 30 and October 31 in each year. Interest on all Debentures issued hereunder shall cease to accrue on, but not including, the Maturity Date for such Debentures, unless, upon due presentation, payment of principal or delivery of amounts payable or deliverable hereunder and payment of any accrued and unpaid interest or other amounts payable hereunder is improperly withheld or refused; provided that, in respect of the first interest payment after the original issuance thereof, each Debenture of a series shall bear interest from the later of the issue date of such Debenture and the last Interest Payment Date preceding the issuance of such Debenture.

(b) Unless otherwise specifically provided in the terms of the Debentures of any series, interest for any period of less than six months shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days. Subject to Section 2.4(b) in respect of the method for calculating the amount of interest to be paid on the Initial Debentures on the first Interest Payment Date in respect thereof, with respect to any series of Debentures, whenever interest is computed on a basis of a year (the "deemed year") which contains fewer days than the actual number of days in the calendar year of calculation, such rate of interest shall be expressed as a yearly rate for purposes of the Interest Act (Canada) by multiplying such rate of interest by the actual number of days in the calendar year of calculation and dividing it by the number of days in the deemed year.

2.12 Debentures to Rank Pari Passu

The Debentures will be direct unsecured obligations of Countryside Canada. Each Debenture of the same series of Debentures will rank pari passu with each other Debenture of the same series (regardless of their actual date or terms of issue) and senior to all Subordinated Intercompany Debt. The payment of the principal of, and interest on, the Debentures shall, as provided in Article 6, be subordinated and postponed in right of payment to all Senior Secured Indebtedness (including all payments thereunder).

2.13 Payments of Amounts Due on Maturity

Except as may otherwise be provided in this Indenture or any supplemental indenture in respect of any series of Debentures, payments of amounts due upon maturity of the Debentures will be made in the following manner. Countryside Canada will establish and maintain with the Debenture Trustee a Maturity Account for each series of Debentures. Each such Maturity Account shall be maintained by and be subject to the control of the Debenture Trustee for the purposes of this Indenture. On or before 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the Business Day immediately prior to each Maturity Date for Debentures outstanding from time to time under this Indenture, Countryside Canada will deposit in the applicable Maturity Account an amount sufficient to pay the cash amount payable in respect of such Debentures (including the principal amount and premium (if any), together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon less any tax required by law to be deducted), provided Countryside Canada may elect to satisfy this requirement by providing the Debenture Trustee with one or more certified cheques, or with funds by electronic transfer, for such amounts required under this Section 2.13. The Debenture Trustee, on behalf of Countryside Canada, will pay to each holder entitled to receive payment the principal amount of and premium (if any) and accrued and unpaid interest on the Debenture (less applicable withholding taxes, if any), upon surrender of the Debenture at any branch of the Debenture Trustee designated for such purpose from time to time by Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee. The deposit or the making available of such amounts to the applicable Maturity Account will satisfy and discharge the liability of Countryside Canada for the Debentures to which the deposit or making available of funds relates to the extent of the amount deposited or made available (plus the amount of any tax deducted as aforesaid) and such Debentures will thereafter to that extent not be considered as outstanding under this Indenture and such holder will have no other right in regard thereto other than to receive out of the money so deposited or made available the amount to which such holder is entitled.

2.14 U.S. 1933 Act Legend on the Debentures

(a) The Debentures and the Units issuable pursuant to the terms thereof have not been and will not be registered under the 1933 Act. All Debentures and the Units deliverable pursuant to the terms thereof issued and sold in the United States in reliance on Rule 144A under the 1933 Act, as well as all Debentures and the Units deliverable pursuant to the terms thereof issued in exchange for or in substitution of the foregoing securities, shall bear the following legend (the "U.S. 1933 Act Legend"):

"THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "1933 ACT"), OR ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS. THE HOLDER HEREOF, BY PURCHASING THESE SECURITIES, AGREES FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE ISSUER THAT THESE SECURITIES MAY BE OFFERED, SOLD, PLEADED, ASSIGNED, ENCUMBERED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED ONLY (A) TO THE ISSUER, (B) OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE 1933 ACT AND IN COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE CANADIAN LOCAL LAWS AND REGULATIONS, (C) WITHIN THE UNITED STATES IN ACCORDANCE WITH (1) RULE 144A UNDER THE 1933 ACT OR (2) RULE 144 UNDER THE 1933 ACT, IF AVAILABLE, AND IN EACH CASE IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY APPLICABLE LOCAL LAWS AND REGULATIONS OR (D) IN ANOTHER TRANSACTION THAT DOES NOT REQUIRE REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, PROVIDED THAT IN THE CASE OF TRANSFERS PURSUANT TO (C)(2) OR (D) (AND IF REQUESTED, (B)) ABOVE, A LEGAL OPINION SATISFACTORY TO THE ISSUER MUST FIRST BE PROVIDED. THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE LISTED ON THE TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE; HOWEVER DELIVERY OF THIS CERTIFICATE IS NOT "GOOD DELIVERY" IN SETTLEMENT OF TRANSACTIONS ON THE TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE. A NEW CERTIFICATE NOT BEARING THIS LEGEND, DELIVERY OF WHICH WILL CONSTITUTE "GOOD DELIVERY", MAY BE OBTAINED FROM CIBC MELLON TRUST COMPANY UPON DELIVERY OF THIS CERTIFICATE, AN OPINION OF COUNSEL IF REQUESTED AND A DULY EXECUTED DECLARATION, IN A FORM SATISFACTORY TO CIBC MELLON TRUST COMPANY AND THE ISSUER, TO THE EFFECT THAT THE SALE OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY IS BEING MADE IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE 1933 ACT."

provided, that if the Debentures (or any such Units) are being sold under clause (B) above, and if Countryside Canada or the Fund, as applicable, is a "Foreign Issuer" within the meaning of Regulation S the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by providing a declaration to the Debenture Trustee (and an opinion of Counsel, if requested), in its capacity as the trustee hereunder, as set forth in Schedule E hereto (or as the Debenture Trustee, Countryside Canada or the Fund may prescribe from time to time); and provided, further, that, if any such securities are being sold under clause (C)(2) above, the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by delivery to the Debenture Trustee, in its capacity as the trustee hereunder, of an opinion of counsel of recognized standing, reasonably satisfactory to Countryside Canada or the Fund, as applicable, to the effect that the U.S. 1933 Act Legend is no longer required under applicable requirements of the 1933 Act or any applicable local laws or regulations.

Provided that the Debenture Trustee obtains confirmation from the Fund that such counsel is satisfactory to it, the Debenture Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such opinion of counsel without further inquiry.

(b) Prior to the issuance of the Debentures, Countryside Canada shall notify the Debenture Trustee, in writing, concerning which Debentures are to bear the U.S. 1933 Act Legend, the Debenture Trustee will thereafter maintain a list of all registered holders from time to time of Legended Debentures.

(c) The Debenture Trustee shall be entitled to act and rely on the address provided on the form of transfer of a Debenture in determining the residency of the transferee thereof for purposes of determining the applicability of the legend in Section 2.14(a).

2.15 Payment of Interest

The following provisions shall apply to Debentures, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.4(b) or permitted by Article 11 or specified in a resolution of the Directors, a Certificate of the Manager or a supplemental indenture relating to a particular series of Additional Debentures:

(a) As interest becomes due on each Debenture (except at maturity, on redemption or exchange, when interest may at the option of Countryside Canada be paid upon surrender of such Debenture) Countryside Canada, either directly or through the Debenture Trustee or any agent of the Debenture Trustee, shall send or forward by prepaid ordinary mail, electronic transfer of funds or such other means as may be agreed to by the Debenture Trustee, payment of such interest (less any tax required to be withheld therefrom) to the order of the registered holder of such Debenture appearing on the registers maintained by the Debenture Trustee at the close of business on the fifth Business Day prior to the applicable Interest Payment Date and addressed to the holder at the holder's last address appearing on the register, unless such holder otherwise directs. If payment is made by cheque, such cheque shall be forwarded at least three days prior to each date on which interest becomes due and if payment is made by other means (such as electronic transfer of funds), such payment shall be made in a manner whereby the holder receives credit for such payment on the date such interest on such Debenture becomes due. The mailing of such cheque or the making of such payment by other means shall, to the extent of the sum represented thereby, plus the amount of any tax withheld as aforesaid, satisfy and discharge all liability for interest on such Debenture, unless in the case of payment by cheque, such cheque is not paid at par on presentation. In the event of non-receipt of any cheque for or other payment of interest by the person to whom it is so sent as aforesaid, Countryside Canada or the Debenture Trustee will issue to such person a replacement cheque or other payment for a like amount upon being furnished with such evidence of non-receipt as it shall reasonably require and upon being indemnified to its satisfaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Countryside Canada is prevented by circumstances beyond its control (including, without limitation, any interruption in mail service) from making payment of any interest due on each Debenture in the manner provided above, Countryside Canada may make payment of such interest or make such interest available for payment in any other manner acceptable to the Debenture Trustee with the same effect as though payment had been made in the manner provided above.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 2.15(a), if a series of Debentures is represented by a Global Debenture, then all payments of interest on the Global Debenture shall be made by electronic funds transfer or cheque made payable to the Depository or its nominee for subsequent payment (less applicable withholding taxes, if any) to Beneficial Holders of interests in that Global Debenture, unless Countryside Canada and the Depository otherwise agree. None of Countryside Canada, the Debenture Trustee or any agent of the Debenture Trustee for any Debenture issued as a Global Debenture will be liable or responsible to any person for any aspect of the records related to or payments made on account of beneficial interests in any Global Debenture or for maintaining, reviewing, or supervising any records relating to such beneficial interests.

LIMITATIONS ON OWNERSHIP

3.1 Limitations on Ownership

At no time may non-residents of Canada be the beneficial owners of more than 49% of the Units (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis) whether by way of exchange of Debentures to Units, repayment of Debentures by issuance of Units or otherwise, and the Trustees have informed the Directors, the Debenture Trustee and the transfer agent and registrar of the Units of this restriction. The Debenture Trustee shall have no duty to monitor this residency limitation. Countryside Canada may, upon receipt of Written Direction of the Manager or the Administrator, require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of Debentures are resident, which will be delivered to Countryside Canada. If Countryside Canada becomes aware as a result of such declarations as to beneficial ownership or otherwise, that the beneficial owners of 49% or more of the Units then outstanding, (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis) are, or may be, non-residents or that such a situation is imminent, the directors of Countryside Canada will make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Debentures from or issue or register a transfer of Debentures to a person unless the person provides a declaration that the person is not a non-resident of Canada. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, Countryside Canada becomes aware that more than 49% of the Units are held by non-residents (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis), that more than 100 U.S. persons are beneficial owners of Units (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis), or than any U.S. person is the beneficial owner of more than 10% of the Units (on either a non-diluted or fully-diluted basis), or such could be the case upon an exchange, Countryside Canada may send a notice to non-resident or U.S. holders of Debentures, as applicable, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration of the Debentures or in such manner as Countryside Canada may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Debentures or a portion thereof within a specified period of not less than 60 days. If the Debentureholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Debentures or provided Countryside Canada with satisfactory evidence that they are not non-residents within such period, Countryside Canada may, on behalf of such Debentureholders sell such Debentures and, in the interim, will suspend the rights attached to such Debentures (including the voting and interest rights), as the case may be, and such Debentureholders shall cease to be holders of Debentures and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of the sale upon surrender of the certificates representing such Debentures.

3.2 Prohibition Against Ownership by Certain U.S. Retirement Plans

U.S. Retirement Plans are prohibited from purchasing or otherwise acquiring or holding, directly or indirectly, beneficial ownership of any Debentures at any time, and each purchaser or other acquirer of any Debentures (including any subsequent purchaser or other acquirer), by its purchasing or acquiring Debentures, shall be deemed to have represented to Countryside Canada, the Manager and any underwriters of such Debentures that (a) it is not investing assets of a U.S. Retirement Plan in order to acquire or hold the Debentures and will not otherwise hold the Debentures as U.S. Plan Assets and (b) prior to any transfer of the Debentures, it will inform any transferee thereof (other than a transferee in a transaction consummated on the TSX) of the foregoing prohibitions and the representations which such transferee will be deemed to make by purchasing or acquiring the Debentures. The foregoing prohibition and deemed representations are hereinafter referred to as the "U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition". Each purchaser or other acquirer of any Debentures at any time (including any subsequent purchaser or other acquirer) shall also be deemed to have agreed to indemnify Countryside Canada, the Manager, any underwriters of such Debentures, their Affiliates and their respective trustees, directors and employees (including their respective successors and assigns) against any loss, cost or damage caused by any breach by such Person of the U.S. Plan Prohibition (a "Deemed Indemnity").

The Manager may require any purchaser or other acquirer of Debentures to file a declaration to the effect that it has not violated the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition. If the Manager determines, as a result of any such declaration or otherwise, that a violation of the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition has occurred or that, after giving effect to any proposed subscription, issue or transfer of Debentures to any Person, a violation of the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition would occur, the Manager may instruct the Debenture Trustee not to accept any subscription for any Debentures from such Person, issue any Debentures to such Person or register or otherwise recognize the transfer of any Debentures to such Person, unless such Person shall provide a declaration that it has not violated the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Manager determines that one or more Debentures were acquired or are being held in violation of the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition, the Manager may instruct the Debenture Trustee to send a written notice prepared by the Manager (a "U.S. Retirement Plan Notice") to the appropriate holder of record to be delivered to the applicable beneficial owner of the Debentures (a "U.S. Retirement Plan Holder"). The U.S. Retirement Plan Notice shall require such U.S. Retirement Plan Holder to sell all of its Debentures (collectively, "U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures") to a Person whose ownership does not violate the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition within the period stipulated in the U.S. Retirement Plan Notice. The U.S. Retirement Plan Notice shall be given by registered prepaid mail to the holder of record for such U.S. Retirement Plan Holder and shall specify a date, which shall not be less than 10 days, within which the U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures must be sold to a Person whose ownership does not violate the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition. The U.S. Retirement Plan Notice shall also require the U.S. Retirement Plan Holder to notify the Manager forthwith after the required sale has been completed.

If the U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures have not been sold by the U.S. Retirement Plan Holder on or before the date stipulated in the U.S. Retirement Plan Notice and the U.S. Retirement Plan Holder has not provided evidence satisfactory to the Manager to the effect that U.S. Retirement Plan Holder's ownership does not violate the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition before such date, the Manager may instruct the Debenture Trustee, without further notice, to effect the transfer of the U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures on behalf of the U.S. Retirement Plan Holder on and subject to the terms herein contained and, in the interim, to suspend the rights of such U.S.

Retirement Plan Holder to receive interest payments or receive distributions in respect of the U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures, to exercise the voting rights of the U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures or to convert the U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures to Trust Units. The provisions of Section 8.1 shall be applicable mutatis mutandis with respect to any such transfer by the Debenture Trustee, except that such U.S. Retirement Plan Holder shall only have the right to receive the net proceeds of such sale and shall have no right to receive any unpaid interest or distributions in respect of such U.S. Retirement Plan Debentures. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding two sentences, the Debenture Trustee will have no obligation to carry out any actions contemplated in the immediately preceding two sentences unless it is satisfied (relying on the opinion of Counsel), acting reasonably, that taking such actions will not expose the Debenture Trustee to any liability.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Manager makes a public announcement that the Manager has determined that the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition and the Deemed Indemnity are not then in the best interests of Countryside Canada, the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition and the Deemed Indemnity shall thereafter be immediately suspended until such time as the Manager reinstates the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition and the Deemed Indemnity by issuing a public announcement of such reinstatement. Unless otherwise determined by the Manager, certificates, representing the Debentures, and any certificates issued in exchange therefor or in substitution thereof, shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the U.S. Retirement Plan Prohibition and the Deemed Indemnity, provided that any such legend may be removed at such time as the Manager shall determine.

REGISTRATION, TRANSFER, EXCHANGE AND OWNERSHIP

4.1 Fully Registered Debentures

(a) With respect to each series of Debentures issuable as Fully Registered Debentures, Countryside Canada shall cause to be kept by and at the principal offices of the Debenture Trustee in Toronto and by the Debenture Trustee or such other registrar as Countryside Canada, with the approval of the Debenture Trustee, may appoint at such other place or places, if any, as may be specified in the Debentures of such series or as Countryside Canada may designate with the approval of the Debenture Trustee, a register in which shall be entered the names and last known addresses of the holders of Fully Registered Debentures and particulars of the Debentures held by them respectively and of all transfers of Fully Registered Debentures. Such registration shall be noted on the Debentures by the Debenture Trustee or other registrar unless a new Debenture shall be issued upon such transfer.

(b) No transfer of a Fully Registered Debenture shall be valid unless made on such register referred to in Section 4.1(a) by the registered holder or such holder's executors, administrators or other legal representatives or an attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and execution satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee or other registrar upon surrender of the Debentures together with a duly executed form of transfer acceptable to the Debenture Trustee and upon compliance with such other reasonable requirements as the Debenture Trustee or other registrar may prescribe, nor unless the name of the transferee shall have been noted on the Debenture by the Debenture Trustee or other registrar.

4.2 Global Debentures

(a) With respect to each series of Debentures issuable in whole or in part as one or more Global Debentures, Countryside Canada shall cause to be kept by and at the principal offices of the Debenture Trustee in Toronto and by the Debenture Trustee or such other registrar as Countryside Canada, with the approval of the Debenture Trustee, may appoint at such other place or places, if any, as Countryside Canada may designate with the approval of the Debenture Trustee, a register in which shall be entered the name and address of the holder of each such Global Debenture (being the Depository, or its nominee, for such Global Debenture) as holder thereof and particulars of the Global Debenture held by it, and of all transfers thereof. If any Debentures of such series are at any time not Global Debentures, the provisions of Section 4.1 shall govern with respect to registrations and transfers of such Debentures.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, a Global Debenture may not be transferred by the registered holder thereof and accordingly, no definitive certificates shall be issued to Beneficial Holders of Debentures, except in the following circumstances or as otherwise specified in a resolution of the Directors, Certificate of the Manager or supplemental indenture relating to a particular series of Additional Debentures:

(i) Global Debentures may be transferred by a Depository to a nominee of such Depository or by a nominee of a Depository to such Depository or to another nominee of such Depository or by a Depository or its nominee to a successor Depository or its nominee;

(ii) Global Debentures may be transferred at any time after the Depository for such Global Debentures (i) has notified Countryside Canada that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depository for such Global Debentures, or (ii) ceases to be eligible to be a Depository under Section 2.6(b), provided that at the time of such transfer Countryside Canada has not appointed a successor Depository for such Global Debentures;

(iii) Global Debentures may be transferred at any time after Countryside Canada has determined, in its sole discretion, to terminate the book-entry only registration system in respect of such Global Debentures and has communicated such determination to the Debenture Trustee in writing;

(iv) Global Debentures may be transferred at any time after the Debenture Trustee has determined that an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing with respect to the Debentures of the series issued as a Global Debenture, provided that Beneficial Holders of the Debentures representing, in the aggregate, not less than 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures of such series advise the Depository in writing, through the Depository Participants, that the continuation of the book-entry only registration system for such series of Debentures is no longer in their best interest and also provided that at the time of such transfer the Debenture Trustee has not waived the Event of Default pursuant to Section 9.3;

(v) Global Debentures may be transferred if required by applicable law; and

(vi) Global Debentures may be transferred if the book-entry only registration system ceases to exist.

(c) With respect to the Global Debentures, unless and until definitive certificates have been issued to Beneficial Holders pursuant to subsection 4.2(b):

(i) Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee may deal with the Depository for all purposes (including paying interest on the Debentures) as the sole holder of such series of Debentures and the authorized representative of the Beneficial Holders;

(ii) the rights of the Beneficial Holders shall be exercised only through the Depository and shall be limited to those established by law and agreements between such Beneficial Holders and the Depository or the Depository Participants;

(iii) the Depository will make book entry transfers among the Depository Participants; and

(iv) whenever this Trust Indenture requires or permits actions to be taken based upon instruction or directions of Debentureholders evidencing a specified percentage of the outstanding Debentures, the Depository shall be deemed to be counted in that percentage only to the extent that it has received instructions to such effect from the Beneficial Holders or the Depository Participant, and has delivered such instructions to the Debenture Trustee.

(d) Whenever a notice or other communication is required to be provided to Debentureholders, unless and until definitive certificate(s) have been issued to Beneficial Holders pursuant to this Section 4.2, the Debenture Trustee shall provide all such notices and communications to the Depository and the Depository shall deliver such notices and communications to such Beneficial Holders in accordance with Applicable Securities Legislation. Upon the termination of the book-entry only registration system on the occurrence of one of the conditions specified in Section 4.2(b) with respect to a series of Debentures issued hereunder, the Debenture Trustee shall notify all applicable Beneficial Holders, through the Depository, of the availability of definitive Debenture certificates. Upon surrender by the Depository of the certificate(s) representing the Global Debentures and receipt of new registration instructions from the Depository, the Debenture Trustee shall deliver the definitive Debenture certificates for such Debentures to the holders thereof in accordance with the new registration instructions and thereafter, the registration and transfer of such Debentures will be governed by Section 4.1 and the remaining Sections of this Article 4.

4.3 Transferee Entitled to Registration

The transferee of a Debenture shall be entitled, after the appropriate form of transfer is lodged with the Debenture Trustee or other registrar and upon compliance with all other conditions in that behalf required by this Indenture or by law, to be entered on the register as the owner of such Debenture free from all equities or rights of set-off or counterclaim between Countryside Canada and the transferor or any previous holder of such Debenture, save in respect of equities of which Countryside Canada is required to take notice by statute or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

4.4 No Notice of Trusts

Neither Countryside Canada, the Debenture Trustee nor any registrar shall be bound to take notice of or see to the execution of any trust (other than that created by this Indenture) whether express, implied or constructive, in respect of any Debenture, and may transfer the same on the direction of the person registered as the holder thereof, whether named as trustee or otherwise, as though that person were the beneficial owner thereof.

4.5 Registers Open for Inspection

The registers referred to in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 shall, during regular business hours of the Debenture Trustee, be open for inspection by Countryside Canada, the Debenture Trustee or any Debentureholder, subject to applicable laws. Every registrar, including the Debenture Trustee, shall from time to time when requested so to do by Countryside Canada or by the Debenture Trustee, in writing, furnish Countryside Canada or the Debenture Trustee, as the case may be, with a list of names and addresses of holders of registered Debentures entered on the register kept by them and showing the principal amount and serial numbers of the Debentures held by each such holder, provided the Debenture Trustee shall be entitled to charge a reasonable fee to provide such a list.

4.6 Exchanges of Debentures

(a) Subject to Section 4.7, Debentures in any authorized form or denomination, other than Global Debentures, may be exchanged for Debentures in any other authorized form or denomination, of the same series and date of maturity, bearing the same interest rate and of the same aggregate principal amount as the Debentures so exchanged.

(b) In respect of exchanges of Debentures permitted by Section 4.6(a), Debentures of any series may be exchanged only at the principal offices of the Debenture Trustee in Toronto or at such other place or places, if any, as may be specified in the Debentures of such series and at such other place or places as may from time to time be designated by Countryside Canada with the approval of the Debenture Trustee. Any Debentures tendered for exchange shall be surrendered to the Debenture Trustee. Countryside Canada shall execute and the Debenture Trustee shall certify all Debentures necessary to carry out exchanges as aforesaid. All Debentures surrendered for exchange shall be cancelled.

(c) Debentures issued in exchange for Debentures which at the time of such issue have been selected or called for redemption at a later date shall be deemed to have been selected or called for redemption in the same manner and shall have noted thereon a statement to that effect.

4.7 Closing of Registers

(a) Neither Countryside Canada nor the Debenture Trustee nor any registrar shall be required to:

(i) make transfers or exchanges of Fully Registered Debentures on any Interest Payment Date for such Debentures or during the five preceding Business Days;

(ii) make transfers or exchanges of any Debentures on the day of any selection by the Debenture Trustee of Debentures to be redeemed or during the five preceding Business Days; or

(iii) make exchanges of any Debentures which will have been selected or called for redemption unless upon due presentation thereof for redemption such Debentures shall not be redeemed.

(b) Subject to any restriction herein provided, Countryside Canada with the approval of the Debenture Trustee may at any time close any register for any series of Debentures, other than those kept at the principal offices of the Debenture Trustee in Toronto, and transfer the registration of any Debentures registered thereon to another register (which may be an existing register) and thereafter such Debentures shall be deemed to be registered on such other register. Notice of such transfer shall be given to the holders of such Debentures.

4.8 Charges for Registration, Transfer and Exchange

For each Debenture exchanged, registered, transferred or discharged from registration, the Debenture Trustee or other registrar, except as otherwise herein provided, may make a reasonable charge for its services and in addition may charge a reasonable sum for each new Debenture issued (such amounts as agreed upon by the Debenture Trustee and Countryside Canada from time to time), and payment of such charges and reimbursement of the Debenture Trustee or other registrar for any stamp taxes or governmental or other charges required to be paid shall be made by the party requesting such exchange, registration, transfer or discharge from registration as a condition precedent thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, no charge shall be made to a Debentureholder hereunder:

(a) for any exchange, registration, transfer or discharge from registration of any Debenture applied for within a period of two months from the date of the first delivery of Debentures of that series or, with respect to Debentures subject to a Periodic Offering, within a period of two months from the date of delivery of any such Debenture;

(e) for any exchange of any Debenture resulting from a partial exchange under Section 7.4(d); or

(f) for any exchange of any Debenture resulting from a partial purchase under Section 2.4(i).

4.9 Ownership of Debentures

(a) Unless otherwise required by law, the person in whose name any registered Debenture is registered shall for all the purposes of this Indenture be and be deemed to be the owner thereof and payment of or on account of the principal of and premium, if any, on such Debenture and, in the case of a Fully Registered Debenture, interest thereon, shall be made to such registered holder.

(b) Neither the Fund, Countryside Canada, the Underwriters nor the Debenture Trustee shall have any liability for:

(i) any aspect of the records relating to the beneficial ownership of the Debentures held by a Depository or of the payments relating thereto; or

(ii) maintaining, supervising or reviewing any such records relating to the Debentures.

The rules governing Depositories provide that they act as the agent and depository for Depository Participants. As a result, such Depository Participants must look solely to the Depository and Beneficial Holders of Debentures must look solely to the Depository Participants for the payment of principal and interest on the Debentures paid by or on behalf of Countryside Canada to the Depository.

(c) Beneficial Holders of Debentures:

(i) may not have Debenture certificates registered in their name;

(ii) may not have physical certificates representing their interest in the Debentures;

(iii) may not be able to sell the Debentures to institutions required by law to hold certificates for securities they own; and

(iv) may be unable to pledge Debentures as security.

(d) The registered holder for the time being of any registered Debenture shall be entitled to the principal, premium, if any, and/or interest evidenced by such instruments, respectively, free from all equities or rights of set-off or counterclaim between Countryside Canada and the original or any intermediate holder thereof and all Persons may act accordingly and the receipt of any such registered holder for any such principal, premium or interest shall be a good discharge to Countryside Canada and/or the Debenture Trustee for the same and neither Countryside Canada nor the Debenture Trustee shall be bound to inquire into the title of any such registered holder.

(e) Where Debentures are registered in more than one name, the principal, premium, if any, and interest (in the case of Fully Registered Debentures) from time to time payable in respect thereof may be paid to the order of all such holders, failing written instructions from them to the contrary, and the receipt of any one of such holders therefor shall be a valid discharge, to the Debenture Trustee, any registrar and to Countryside Canada.

(f) In the case of the death of one or more joint holders of any Debenture the principal, premium, if any, and interest from time to time payable thereon may be paid to the order of the survivor or survivors of such registered holders and the receipt of any such survivor or survivors therefor shall be a valid discharge to the Debenture Trustee and any registrar and to Countryside Canada.

REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE OF DEBENTURES

5.1 Applicability of Article

Subject to regulatory approval, Countryside Canada shall have the right at its option to redeem, either in whole or in part before maturity, either by payment of money, by issuance of Freely Tradeable Units as provided in Section 5.6 or by any combination thereof, any Debentures issued hereunder of any series which by their terms are made so redeemable (subject, however, to any applicable restriction on the redemption of Debentures of such series) at such rate or rates of premium, if any, and on such date or dates and in accordance with such other provisions as shall have been determined at the time of issue of such Debentures and as shall have been expressed in this Indenture, in the Debentures, in a Certificate of the Manager, or in a supplemental indenture authorizing or providing for the issue thereof, or in the case of Additional Debentures issued pursuant to a Periodic Offering, in the Written Direction of the Manager requesting the certification and delivery thereof.

Subject to regulatory approval, Countryside Canada shall also have the right at its option to repay, either in whole or in part, on maturity, by payment of money in accordance with Section 2.13, any Debentures issued hereunder of any series which by their terms are made so repayable on maturity (subject however, to any applicable restriction on the repayment of the principal amount of the Debentures of such series, such as those contained in Section 2.4(c)) at such rate or rates of premium, if any, and on such date or dates and in accordance with such other provisions as shall have been determined at the time of issue of such Debenture and shall have been expressed in this Indenture, in the Debentures, in a Certificate of the Manager, or in a supplemental indenture authorizing or providing for the issue thereof, or in the case of Additional Debentures issued pursuant to a Periodic Offering, in the Written Direction of the Manager requesting the certification and delivery thereof.

5.2 Partial Redemption

If less than all the Debentures of any series for the time being outstanding are at any time to be redeemed, the Debentures to be so redeemed shall be selected by the Debenture Trustee on a pro rata basis to the nearest multiple of $1,000 in accordance with the principal amount of the Debentures registered in the name of each holder, or in such other manner as the Debenture Trustee deems equitable, subject to the approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange, as confirmed in a certificate of the Manager as required. Unless otherwise specifically provided in the terms of any series of Debentures, no Debenture shall be redeemed in part unless the principal amount redeemed is $1,000 or a multiple thereof. For this purpose, the Debenture Trustee may make, and from time to time vary, regulations with respect to the manner in which such Debentures may be drawn for redemption and regulations so made shall be valid and binding upon all holders of such Debentures notwithstanding the fact that as a result thereof one or more of such Debentures may become subject to redemption in part only. In the event that one or more of such Debentures becomes subject to redemption in part only, upon surrender of any such Debentures for payment of the Redemption Price, together with interest accrued to but excluding the Redemption Date, Countryside Canada shall execute and the Debenture Trustee shall certify and deliver without charge to the holder thereof or upon the holder's order one or more new Debentures for the unredeemed part of the principal amount of the Debenture or Debentures so surrendered or, with respect to a Global Debenture, the Depository shall make notations on the Global Debenture of the principal amount thereof so redeemed. Unless the context otherwise requires, the terms "Debenture" or "Debentures" as used in this Article 5 shall be deemed to mean or include any part of the principal amount of any Debenture which in accordance with the foregoing provisions has become subject to redemption.

5.3 Notice of Redemption

Notice of redemption (the "Redemption Notice") of any series of Debentures shall be given to the holders of the Debentures so to be redeemed not more than 60 days nor less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption (the "Redemption Date") in the manner provided in Section 15.2. Every such notice shall specify the aggregate principal amount of Debentures called for redemption, the Redemption Date, the Redemption Price, together with accrued and unpaid interest to but excluding the Redemption Date, and the places of payment and shall state that interest upon the principal amount of Debentures called for redemption shall cease to accrue and be payable from and after the Redemption Date. In addition, unless all the outstanding Debentures are to be redeemed, the Redemption Notice shall specify:

(a) the distinguishing letters and numbers of the registered Debentures which are to be redeemed (or of such thereof as are registered in the name of such Debentureholder);

(b) in the case of a published notice, the distinguishing letters and numbers of the Debentures which are to be redeemed or, if such Debentures are selected pro rata or by other similar system, such particulars as may be sufficient to identify the Debentures so selected; and

(c) in all cases, the principal amounts of such Debentures or, if any such Debenture is to be redeemed in part only, the principal amount of such part.

In the event that all Debentures to be redeemed are registered Debentures, publication shall not be required.

5.4 Debentures Due on Redemption Dates

Notice having been given as aforesaid, all the Debentures so called for redemption shall thereupon be and become due and payable at the Redemption Price, together with accrued and unpaid interest to but excluding the Redemption Date (less any taxes required to be deducted or withheld), on the Redemption Date specified in such notice, in the same manner and with the same effect as if it were the date of maturity specified in such Debentures, anything therein or herein to the contrary notwithstanding, and from and after such Redemption Date, if the monies necessary to redeem, or the Units to be issued to redeem, such Debentures shall have been deposited as provided in Section 5.5 and affidavits or other proof satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee as to the publication and/or mailing of such notices shall have been lodged with it, interest upon the Debentures shall cease. If any question shall arise as to whether any notice has been given as above provided and such deposit made, such question shall be decided by the Debenture Trustee whose decision shall be final and binding upon all parties in interest.

5.5 Deposit of Redemption Monies or Units

Redemption of Debentures shall be provided for by Countryside Canada depositing with the Debenture Trustee or any paying agent to the order of the Debenture Trustee, on or before 11:00 a.m. (Toronto) time on the Business Day immediately prior to the Redemption Date specified in such notice, such sums of money, or certificates representing such Units, as the case may be, as may be sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of the Debentures so called for redemption, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon up to but excluding the Redemption Date, provided Countryside Canada may elect to satisfy this requirement by providing the Debenture Trustee with one or more certified cheques for such amounts required under this Section 5.5 post-dated to the Redemption Date, or by providing the Debenture Trustee with such funds through electronic transfer of funds on the Business Day immediately prior to the Redemption Date. Countryside Canada shall also deposit with the Debenture Trustee a sum of money sufficient to pay any charges or expenses that may be incurred by the Debenture Trustee in connection with such redemption. Every such deposit shall be irrevocable. From the sums or certificates representing Units, so deposited, the Debenture Trustee shall pay or cause to be paid, or issue or cause to be issued, to the holders of such Debentures so called for redemption, upon surrender of such Debentures, the principal, premium (if any) and interest (if any) to which they are respectively entitled on redemption, less applicable withholding taxes, if any. Countryside Canada may pay the interest hereunder in accordance with Article 11. In the event that Countryside Canada intends to deposit certificates representing Units with the Debenture Trustee in accordance with this Section 5.5, such certificates shall be deposited with the Debenture Trustee five Business Days prior to the Redemption Date.

5.6 Right to Pay Redemption Price in Units

(a) Subject to the other provisions of this Section 5.6, Countryside Canada may, at its option, elect to satisfy its obligation to pay the Redemption Price in whole or in part by delivering to holders on the Redemption Date that number of Freely Tradeable Units obtained by dividing the aggregate principal amount of Debentures being redeemed by 95% of the then Current Market Price of the Units on the Redemption Date (the "Unit Redemption Right").

(b) Countryside Canada shall exercise the Unit Redemption Right by so specifying in the Redemption Notice, which shall be delivered to the Debenture Trustee and the holders of Debentures not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the Redemption Date.

(c) Countryside Canada's right to exercise the Unit Redemption Right shall be conditional upon the following conditions being met on the Business Day preceding the Redemption Date and on the Redemption Date:

(i) the qualification of the Units to be delivered on exercise of the Unit Redemption Right as Freely Tradeable under Applicable Securities Legislation where the distribution of such Units occurs;

(ii) the listing of such additional Units on each stock exchange on which the Units are then listed;

(iii) the Fund being a reporting issuer (or its equivalent) under Applicable Securities Legislation where the distribution of such Units occurs;

(iv) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(v) the receipt by the Debenture Trustee of a Certificate of the Manager stating that conditions (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above have been satisfied and setting forth the number of Units to be delivered for each $1,000 principal amount of Debentures and the Current Market Price of the Units on the Redemption Date; and

(vi) the receipt by the Debenture Trustee of an opinion of Counsel to the effect that such Units have been duly authorized and, when issued and delivered pursuant to the terms of this Indenture in payment of the Redemption Price, will be validly issued as fully paid and non-assessable, that conditions (i) and (ii) above have been satisfied and that, relying exclusively on certificates issued by the relevant securities authorities, condition (iii) above is satisfied, except that the opinion in respect of condition (iii) need not be expressed with respect to those provinces or territories where certificates are not issued.

If the foregoing conditions are not satisfied at or prior to the close of business on the Business Day preceding the Redemption Date and on the Redemption Date, Countryside Canada shall pay in cash the Redemption Price that would otherwise have been satisfied in Units in accordance with Section 5.5 unless the Debentureholder, in a form satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee, waives by notice in writing to the Debenture Trustee and Countryside Canada the conditions which are not satisfied.

(d) If Countryside Canada duly exercises its Unit Redemption Right, upon tender or presentation and surrender of the Debentures for payment on the Redemption Date, at any place where a register is maintained pursuant to Article 4 or any other place specified in the Redemption Notice, Countryside Canada shall on the Business Day prior to the Redemption Date make the delivery to the Debenture Trustee for delivery to and on account of the holders, of certificates representing the number of whole Freely Tradeable Units and the funds representing accrued and unpaid interest (net of withholding tax) to which such holders are entitled which shall constitute payment thereof for the purposes of Article 10.

(e) No fractional Freely Tradeable Units shall be delivered upon the exercise of the Unit Redemption Right but, in lieu thereof, Countryside Canada shall pay to the Debenture Trustee for the account of the holders, at the time contemplated in Section 5.6(d), the cash equivalent thereof determined on the basis of the Current Market Price of the Units on the Redemption Date.

(f) A holder shall be treated as the Unitholder of record of the Units delivered on due exercise by Countryside Canada of its Unit Redemption Right effective immediately after the close of business on the Redemption Date, and shall be entitled to all substitutions therefor, all income earned thereon or accretions thereto and all dividends or distributions (including unit distributions and dividends or distributions in kind) thereon and arising thereafter.

(g) Countryside Canada shall deliver to Debentureholders to whom Freely Tradeable Units will be issued pursuant to exercise of the Unit Redemption Right, such number of Freely Tradeable Units as shall be deliverable in such event. All Freely Tradeable Units which shall be so deliverable shall be duly and validly issued as fully paid and non-assessable Units of the Fund.

(h) Countryside Canada shall comply with all Applicable Securities Legislation regulating the issue and delivery of Freely Tradeable Units upon exercise of the Unit Redemption Right and shall cause to be listed and posted for trading such Units on each stock exchange on which the Units are then listed.

(i) Countryside Canada shall from time to time promptly pay, or make provision satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee for the payment of, all taxes and charges which may be imposed by the laws of Canada or any province or territory thereof (except income tax, withholding tax or security transfer tax, if any) which shall be payable with respect to the issuance or delivery of Freely Tradeable Units to holders upon exercise of the Unit Redemption Right pursuant to the terms of the Debentures and of this Indenture.

(j) If Countryside Canada elects to satisfy its obligation to pay the Redemption Price by delivering Freely Tradeable Units in accordance with this Section 5.6 and if the Redemption Price (or any portion thereof) to which a holder is entitled is subject to withholding taxes, the Debenture Trustee, on the Written Direction of the Manager but for the account of the holder, shall sell, through the investment banks, brokers or dealers selected by Countryside Canada, out of the Freely Tradeable Units issued by Countryside Canada for this purpose, such number of Freely Tradeable Units that is sufficient to yield net proceeds (after payment of all costs) to cover the amount of taxes required to be withheld, and shall remit same on behalf of Countryside Canada to the proper tax authorities, as directed in writing by Countryside Canada, within the period of time prescribed for this purpose under applicable laws. If the Debenture Trustee sells such Freely Tradeable Units pursuant to this subsection 5.6(j), the procedures set forth in Article 11 of this Indenture shall apply mutatis mutandis to such sale.

(k) Each certificate representing Freely Tradeable Units issued in payment of the Redemption Price of Debentures bearing the U.S. 1933 Act Legend set forth in Section 2.14, as well as all certificates issued in exchange for or in substitution of the foregoing Units, shall bear the U.S. 1933 Act Legend set forth in Section 2.14; provided that if the Units are being sold outside the United States in accordance with Rule 904 of Regulation 5, the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by providing a declaration to the Debenture Trustee, in its capacity as the trustee hereunder and as the transfer agent for the Units, as set forth in Schedule E hereto (or as Countryside Canada or the Debenture Trustee may prescribe from time to time); and provided further that, if any such securities are being sold within the United States in accordance with Rule 144 under the 1933 Act, the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by delivery to the Debenture Trustee, in its capacity as the trustee hereunder and as the transfer agent for the Units, of an opinion of counsel of recognized standing, reasonably satisfactory to Countryside Canada, to the effect that the U.S. 1933 Act Legend is no longer required under applicable requirements of the 1933 Act or any applicable local laws or regulations. Provided that the Debenture Trustee obtains confirmation from Countryside Canada that such counsel is satisfactory to it, it shall be entitled to rely on such opinion of counsel without further inquiry.

(l) The Fund shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized Units (if the number thereof becomes limited) solely for the purpose of issue and delivery upon the exercise of the Unit Redemption Right as provided herein, and Countryside Canada shall deliver to Debentureholders to whom the Units will be delivered pursuant to exercise of the Unit Redemption Right, such number of Units as shall be issuable and deliverable in such event.

5.7 Failure to Surrender Debentures Called for Redemption

In case the holder of any Debenture so called for redemption shall fail on or before the Redemption Date to so surrender such holder's Debenture, or shall not within such time accept payment of the redemption Price payable, or take delivery of certificates representing any Units issuable in respect thereof, or give such receipt therefor, if any, as the Debenture Trustee may require, such redemption monies may be set aside in trust, without interest, or such certificates may be held in trust, either in the deposit department of the Debenture Trustee or in a chartered bank, and such setting aside shall for all purposes be deemed a payment to the Debentureholder of the sum so set aside and, to that extent, the Debenture shall thereafter not be considered as outstanding hereunder and the Debentureholder shall have no other right except to receive payment out of the monies so paid and deposited, or to take delivery of the certificates so deposited, upon surrender and delivery up of such holder's Debenture of the Redemption Price plus accrued interest and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date and subsequent distributions, on such Units, if any, as the case may be, of such Debenture. In the event that any money required to be deposited hereunder with the Debenture Trustee or any depository or paying agent on account of principal, premium, if any, or interest, if any, on Debentures issued hereunder shall remain so deposited for a period of ten years from the Redemption Date, then such monies shall at the end of such period be paid over or delivered over by the Debenture Trustee or such depository or paying agent to Countryside Canada on its demand, and thereupon the Debenture Trustee shall not be responsible to Debentureholders for any amounts owing to them and subject to applicable law, thereafter the holder of a Debenture in respect of which such money was so repaid to Countryside Canada shall have no rights in respect thereof except to obtain payment of the money or certificates due from Countryside Canada, subject to any limitation period provided by the laws of the Province of Ontario.

5.8 Cancellation of Debentures Redeemed

Subject to the provisions of Sections 5.2 and 5.9 as to Debentures redeemed or purchased in part, all Debentures redeemed and paid whose obligations have been satisfied under this Article 5 shall forthwith be delivered to the Debenture Trustee and cancelled and no Debentures shall be issued in substitution therefor.

5.9 Purchase of Debentures by Countryside Canada

Unless otherwise specifically provided with respect to a particular series of Debentures, Countryside Canada or an Affiliate may, if Countryside Canada is not at the time in default hereunder, at any time and from time to time, purchase Debentures in the market (which shall include purchases from or through an investment dealer or a firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by tender or by private contract, at any price. All Debentures so purchased may, at the option of Countryside Canada, be delivered to the Debenture Trustee and shall be cancelled and no Debentures shall be issued in substitution therefor.

If, upon an invitation for tenders, more Debentures than Countryside Canada or an Affiliate is prepared to accept are tendered at the same lowest price, the Debentures to be purchased by Countryside Canada or such Affiliate shall be selected by the Debenture Trustee, in such manner (which may include selection by lot, selection on a pro rata basis, random selection by computer or any other method) consented to by the TSX, as required, which the Debenture Trustee considers appropriate, from the Debentures tendered by each tendering Debentureholder who tendered at such lowest price. For this purpose the Debenture Trustee may make, and from time to time amend, regulations with respect to the manner in which Debentures may be so selected, and regulations so made shall be valid and binding upon all Debentureholders, notwithstanding the fact that as a result thereof one or more of such Debentures become subject to purchase in part only. The holder of a Debenture of which a part only is purchased, upon surrender of such Debenture for payment, shall be entitled to receive, without expense to such holder, one or more new Debentures for the unpurchased part so surrendered, and the Debenture Trustee shall certify and deliver such new Debenture or Debentures upon receipt of the Debenture so surrendered or, with respect to a Global Debenture, the Depository shall make notations on the Global Debenture of the principal amount thereof so purchased.

5.10 Right to Repay Principal Amount in Units at Maturity

(a) Subject to the other provisions of this Section 5.10, Countryside Canada may, at its option, elect to satisfy its obligation to repay the principal amount of the Debentures outstanding, in whole or in part, by delivering to holders on the maturity of such Debentures (the "Maturity Date") that number of Freely Tradeable Units obtained by dividing the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures in respect of which such election is made by 95% of the Current Market Price of the Units on the Maturity Date (the "Unit Repayment Right").

(b) Countryside Canada shall exercise the Unit Repayment Right by so specifying in the Maturity Notice set forth in Schedule "C", which shall be delivered to the Debenture Trustee and the holders of Debentures not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the Maturity Date.

(c) Countryside Canada's right to exercise the Unit Repayment Right shall be conditional upon the following conditions being met on the Business Day preceding the Maturity Date and on the Maturity Date:

(i) the qualification of the Units to be issued on exercise of the Unit Repayment Right as Freely Tradeable;

(ii) the listing of such additional Units on each stock exchange on which the Units are then listed;

(iii) the Fund being a reporting issuer (or its equivalent) under Applicable Securities Legislation where the distribution of such Units occurs;

(iv) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(v) the receipt by the Debenture Trustee of a Certificate of the Manager stating that conditions (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above have been satisfied and setting forth the number of Units to be delivered for each US$1,000 principal amount of Debentures and the Current Market Price of the Units on the Maturity Date; and

(vi) the receipt by the Debenture Trustee of an opinion of Counsel to the effect that such Units have been duly authorized and, when issued and delivered pursuant to the terms of this Indenture in payment, in whole or in part, of the principal amount of the Debentures outstanding will be validly issued as fully paid and non-assessable, that conditions (i) and (ii) above have been satisfied and that, relying exclusively on certificates issued by the relevant securities authorities, condition (iii) above is satisfied, except that the opinion in respect of condition (iii) need not be expressed with respect to those provinces or territories where certificates are not issued.

If the foregoing conditions are not satisfied at or prior to the close of business on the Business Day preceding the Maturity Date and on the Maturity Date, Countryside Canada shall pay in cash 100% of the principal amount of the Debentures that would otherwise have been payable in accordance with Section 5.5, unless the Debentureholder waives by written notice to the Debenture Trustee and Countryside Canada, in a form satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee, the conditions which are not satisfied.

(d) If that Countryside Canada duly exercises its Unit Repayment Right, upon presentation and surrender of the Debentures for payment on the Maturity Date, at any place where a register is maintained pursuant to Article 4 or any other place specified in the Maturity Notice, Countryside Canada shall on the Maturity Date make the delivery to the Debenture Trustee for delivery to and on account of the holders of certificates representing the Freely Tradeable Units and the funds representing accrued and unpaid interest (net of withholding tax) to which such holders are entitled which shall constitute payment thereof for purposes of Section 10.1.

(e) No fractional Freely Tradeable Units shall be delivered upon the exercise of the Unit Repayment Right but, in lieu thereof, Countryside Canada shall pay to the Debenture Trustee for the account of the holders, at the time contemplated in Section 5.10(d), the cash equivalent thereof determined on the basis of the Current Market Price of the Units on the Maturity Date.

(f) A holder shall be treated as the Unitholder of record of the Freely Tradeable Units delivered on due exercise by Countryside Canada of its Unit Repayment Right effective immediately after the close of business on the Maturity Date, and shall be entitled to all substitutions therefor, all income earned thereon or accretions thereto and all dividends or distributions (including unit distributions and dividends or distributions in kind) thereon and arising thereafter, and if the Debenture Trustee receives the same, it shall hold the same in trust for the benefit of such holder.

(g) Countryside Canada shall deliver to Debentureholders to whom Freely Tradeable Units will be delivered pursuant to exercise of the Unit Repayment Right, such number of Freely Tradeable Units as shall be deliverable in such event. All Freely Tradeable Units which shall be so deliverable shall be duly and validly issued as frilly paid and non-assessable Units of the Fund.

(h) The Fund and Countryside Canada shall comply with all Applicable Securities Legislation regulating the issue and delivery of Freely Tradeable Units upon exercise of the Unit Repayment Right and shall cause to be listed and posted for trading such Units on each stock exchange on which the Units are then listed.

(i) Countryside Canada shall from time to time promptly pay, or make provision satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee for the payment of, all taxes and charges which may be imposed by the laws of Canada or any province or territory thereof (except income tax, withholding tax or security transfer tax, if any) which shall be payable with respect to the issuance or delivery of Freely Tradeable Units to holders upon exercise of the Unit Repayment Right pursuant to the terms of the Debentures and of this Indenture.

(j) If Countryside Canada elects to satisfy its obligation, in whole or in part, to pay the principal amount on maturity by delivering Freely Tradeable Units in accordance with this Section 5.10, and if the principal amount (or any portion thereof) to which a holder is entitled is subject to withholding taxes, the Debenture Trustee, on the Written Direction of the Manager but for the account of the holder, shall sell, through the investment banks, brokers or dealers selected by Countryside Canada, out of the Freely Tradeable Units issued by the Fund and delivered by Countryside Canada for this purpose, such number of Freely Tradeable Units that is sufficient to yield net proceeds (after payment of all costs) to cover the amount of taxes required to be withheld, and shall remit same on behalf of Countryside Canada to the proper tax authorities within the period of time prescribed for this purpose under applicable laws. If the Debenture Trustee sells such Freely Tradeable Units pursuant to this Subsection 5.10(j), the procedures set forth in Article 11 of this Indenture shall apply mutatis mutandis to such sale.

(k) Each certificate representing Freely Tradeable Units issued in payment of the principal amount of Debentures bearing the U.S. 1933 Act Legend set forth in Section 2.14, as well as all certificates issued in exchange for or in substitution of the foregoing Units, shall bear the U.S. 1933 Act Legend set forth in Section 2.14; provided that if the Units are being sold outside the United States in accordance with Rule 904 of Regulation 5, the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by providing a declaration to the Debenture Trustee, in its capacity as the trustee hereunder and as transfer agent for the Units, as set forth in Schedule E hereto (or as Countryside Canada or the Debenture Trustee may prescribe from time to time); and provided, further that, if any such securities are being sold within the United States in accordance with Rule 144 under the 1933 Act, the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by delivery to the Debenture Trustee, in its capacity as the trustee hereunder and as transfer agent for the Units, of an opinion of counsel of recognized standing, reasonably satisfactory to Countryside Canada, that the U.S. 1933 Act Legend is no longer required under applicable requirements of the 1933 Act or any applicable local laws and regulations. Provided that the Debenture Trustee obtains confirmation from Countryside Canada that such counsel is satisfactory to it, it shall be entitled to rely on such opinion of counsel without further inquiry.

(l) The Fund shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized Units (if the number thereof becomes limited) solely for the purpose of issue and delivery upon the exercise of the Unit Repayment Right as provided herein, and Countryside Canada shall deliver to Debentureholders to whom the Units will be issued and delivered pursuant to exercise of the Unit Repayment Right, such number of Units as shall be deliverable in such event.

5.11 Right to Pay all Amounts in Units

Notwithstanding any other provision in the Indenture, for greater certainty Countryside Canada shall have the right, at its option, but subject to the prior approval of the TSX, as confirmed by a Certificate of the Manager, to elect to: (i) repay the principal amount of the Debentures outstanding, in whole or in part, whether as a result of a redemption, maturity of the Debentures or otherwise, by delivering to Debentureholders Freely Tradeable Units in accordance with the terms of this Indenture, (ii) make a Unit Interest Payment Election in accordance with Article 11, and (iii) deliver to the Debenture Trustee Freely Tradeable Units for sale through the facilities of a registered broker/dealer in accordance with the terms of this Indenture to raise funds to be used to satisfy Countryside Canada's Interest Obligations under the Debentures.

5.12 Deposit of Maturity Monies

Payment on maturity of Debentures shall be provided for by Countryside Canada depositing with the Debenture Trustee or any paying agent to the order of the Debenture Trustee, on or before 11:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the Business Day immediately prior to the Maturity Date such sums of money as may be sufficient to pay the principal amount of the Debentures, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon up to but excluding the Maturity Date, provided Countryside Canada may elect to satisfy this requirement by providing the Indenture Trustee with one or more certified cheques or with funds by electronic transfer, for such amounts required under this Section 5.12. Countryside Canada shall also deposit with the Debenture Trustee a sum of money sufficient to pay any charges or expenses which may be incurred by the Debenture Trustee in connection therewith. Every such deposit shall be irrevocable. From the sums so deposited, the Debenture Trustee shall pay or cause to be paid to the holders of such Debentures, upon surrender of such Debentures, the principal, premium (if any) and interest (if any) to which they are respectively entitled on maturity.

SUBORDINATION OF DEBENTURES

6.1 Applicability of Article

The indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of Countryside Canada under any Debentures issued hereunder of any series, which by their terms are subordinate, including on account of principal, interest or otherwise, but excluding the issuance of Units upon any exchange pursuant to Article 7 or other securities in accordance with Article 7, any redemption pursuant to Article 5, or at maturity pursuant to Article 5 (collectively the "Debenture Liabilities"), shall be subordinated and postponed and subject in right of payment, to the extent and in the manner hereinafter set forth in the following sections of this Article 6, to the prior indefeasible payment in full in cash of all Senior Secured Indebtedness and each holder of any such Debenture by his acceptance thereof agrees to and shall be bound by the provisions of this Article 6.

6.2 Order of Payment

Upon the distribution of the assets of Countryside Canada upon any dissolution, winding-up, liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, creditor enforcement or realization or other similar proceedings relating to Countryside Canada or any of its property (whether voluntary or involuntary, partial or complete) or any other marshalling of the assets and liabilities of Countryside Canada or any sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Countryside Canada:

(a) all Senior Secured Indebtedness shall first be paid indefeasibly in full in cash before any payment is made on account of Debenture Liabilities;

(b) any payment or distribution of assets of Countryside Canada, whether in cash, property or securities, to which the holders of the Debentures or the Debenture Trustee on behalf of such holders would be entitled except for the provisions of this Article 6, shall be paid or delivered by the trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, assignee for the benefit of creditors, or other liquidating agent making such payment or distribution, directly to the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness or their representative or representatives, or to the trustee or trustees under any indenture pursuant to which any instruments evidencing any of such Senior Secured Indebtedness may have been issued, to the extent necessary to pay all Senior Secured Indebtedness in full after giving effect to any concurrent payment or distribution, or provision therefor, to the holders of such Senior Secured Indebtedness; and

(c) the Senior Creditors or a receiver or a receiver-manager of Countryside Canada or of all or part of its assets or any other enforcement agent may sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of Countryside Canada assets in whole or in part, free and clear of all Debenture Liabilities and without the approval of the Debentureholders or the Debenture Trustee, but subject to the requirement to account to the Debenture Trustee or the Debentureholders for any surplus from any such disposition.

The rights and priority of the Senior Secured Indebtedness and the subordination pursuant hereto shall not be affected by:

(a) the time, sequence or order of creating, granting, executing, delivering of, or registering, perfecting or failing to register or perfect any security notice, caveat, financing statement or other notice in respect of the Senior Security;

(b) the time or order of the attachment, perfection or crystallization of any security constituted by the Senior Security;

(c) the taking of any collection, enforcement or realization proceedings pursuant to the Senior Security or any release of any Senior Security;

(d) the date of obtaining of any judgment or order of any bankruptcy court or any court administering bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceedings as to the entitlement of the Senior Creditors, or any of them or the Debentureholders or any of them to any money or property of Countryside Canada;

(e) the failure to exercise any power or remedy reserved to the Senior Creditors under the Senior Security or to insist upon a strict compliance with any terms thereof;

(f) whether any Senior Security is now perfected, hereafter ceases to be perfected, is avoidable by any trustee in bankruptcy or like official or is otherwise set aside, invalidated or lapses;

(g) the date of giving or failing to give notice to or making demand upon Countryside Canada; or

(h) any amendment, modification, renewal, replacement of any Senior Secured Indebtedness or Senior Security.

6.3 Subrogation to Rights of Holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness

Subject to the prior payment in full of all Senior Secured Indebtedness, the holders of the Debentures, by their acceptance thereof, authorize and direct the Debenture Trustee on their behalf to take such action as may be necessary or appropriate to subrogate their rights to the rights of the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness to receive payments or distributions of assets of Countryside Canada to the extent of the application thereto of such payments or other assets which would have been received by the holders of the Debentures but for the provisions hereof until the principal of and interest on the Senior Secured Indebtedness shall be paid in full, and no such payments or distributions to the holders of the Senior Secured Indebtedness of cash, property or securities, which otherwise would be payable or distributable to the holders of the Debentures, shall, as between Countryside Canada, its creditors other than the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness, and the holders of Debentures, be deemed to be a payment by Countryside Canada to the holders of the Senior Secured Indebtedness or on account of the Senior Secured Indebtedness, it being understood that the provisions of this Article 6 are and are intended solely for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the holders of the Debentures, on the one hand, and the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness, on the other hand.

The Debenture Trustee, on behalf of each of the Debentureholders, hereby waives any and all rights to require a Senior Creditor to pursue or exhaust any rights or remedies with respect to Countryside Canada or any property and assets subject to the Senior Security or in any other manner to require the marshalling of property, assets or security in connection with the exercise by the Senior Creditors of any rights, remedies or recourses available to them.

6.4 Obligation to Pay Not Impaired

Subject at all times to the terms and provisions of this Article 6, nothing contained in this Indenture or in the Debentures is intended to or shall impair, as between Countryside Canada, its creditors other than the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness, and the holders of the Debentures, the obligation of Countryside Canada, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay to the holders of the Debentures the principal of and interest on the Debentures, as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with their terms, or affect the relative rights of the holders of the Debentures and creditors of Countryside Canada other than the holders of the Senior Secured Indebtedness, nor, subject to the terms and provisions of this Article 6, shall anything herein or therein prevent the Debenture Trustee or the holder of any Debenture from exercising all remedies otherwise permitted by applicable law upon default under this Indenture, subject to the rights, if any, under this Article 6 of the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness in respect of cash, property or securities of the Fund received upon the exercise of any such remedy.

6.5 Prohibited Payments

Upon the maturity of any Senior Secured Indebtedness by lapse of time, acceleration or otherwise, then, except as provided in Section 6.8 to the extent relevant to Senior Secured Indebtedness, other than the Amended Credit Facility, all obligations in respect of such Senior Secured Indebtedness shall first be paid in full, or shall first have been duly provided for, before any payment is made on account of the Debenture Liabilities or otherwise in respect of the Debentures.

In case of default with respect to any Senior Secured Indebtedness permitting a Senior Creditor to accelerate the maturity thereof, unless and until such default shall have been cured or waived or shall have ceased to exist, no payment (by purchase of Debentures or otherwise) shall be made by Countryside Canada with respect to any and all of the Debenture Liabilities and neither the Debenture Trustee nor the holders of Debentures shall be entitled to demand, accelerate, institute Proceedings, or receive any payment or benefit (including without limitation by set-off, combination of accounts or otherwise in any manner whatsoever) on account of the Debentures after the happening of such a default (except as provided in Section 6.8 to the extent relevant to Senior Secured Indebtedness, other than the Amended Credit Facility.

In the event that, after the happening of such a default and notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, any payment on account of the Debenture Liabilities shall be made and be received by the Debenture Trustee or the holders of Debentures before all Senior Secured Indebtedness is paid in full (other than any payment by issuance of Units upon any exchange pursuant to Article 7 or other securities in accordance with Article 7, unless and until such default shall have been cured or waived or shall have ceased to exist, such payment shall be held in trust for the benefit of, and, if and when such Senior Secured Indebtedness shall have become due and payable, shall be paid over to, the holders of such Senior Secured Indebtedness or their representative(s), or to the trustee(s) under any indenture under which any instruments evidencing any of such Senior Secured Indebtedness may have been issued, as their respective interests may appear, for application to the payment of all Senior Secured Indebtedness remaining unpaid until all such Senior Secured Indebtedness shall have been paid in full after giving effect to any concurrent payment or distribution to the holders of such Senior Secured Indebtedness in respect thereof; provided, however, that the foregoing shall in no way prohibit, restrict or prevent the Debenture Trustee from taking such actions as may be necessary to preserve claims of the Debenture Trustee and/or the holders of the Debentures under this Trust Indenture in any bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency proceeding (including, without limitation, the filing of proofs of claim in any such bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency proceedings by or against Countryside Canada or its Subsidiaries and exercising its rights to vote as an unsecured creditor under any such bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency proceedings commenced by or against Countryside Canada or its Subsidiaries).

The fact that any payment hereunder is prohibited by this Section 6.5 shall not prevent the failure to make such payment from being an Event of Default hereunder.

6.6 Payment on Debentures Permitted

Nothing contained in this Article 6 or elsewhere in this Indenture, or in any of the Debentures, shall affect the obligation of Countryside Canada to make, or prevent Countryside Canada from making, at any time except during the pendency of any dissolution, winding up or liquidation of Countryside Canada or reorganization proceeding specified in Section 6.2 affecting the affairs of Countryside Canada or except as provided by Section 6.5, any payment of principal of or interest on the Debentures. The fact that any payment in respect of the Debentures is prohibited by this Article 6 or under any instrument relating to Senior Secured Indebtedness shall not prevent the failure to make such payment from being an Event of Default hereunder. Nothing contained in this Article 6 or elsewhere in this Indenture, or in any of the Debentures, shall prevent the exchange of the Debentures or, except as prohibited by Section 6.5, the application by the Debenture Trustee of any monies deposited with the Debenture Trustee hereunder for the purpose, to the payment of or on account of the Debenture Liabilities.

6.7 Confirmation of Subordination

Each holder of Debentures by his acceptance thereof authorizes and directs the Debenture Trustee on his behalf to take such action as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the subordination as provided in this Article 6 and appoints the Debenture Trustee his attorney-in-fact for any and all such purposes. This power of attorney, being coupled with an interest and rights, shall, with the advice of Counsel, be irrevocable. Upon request of Countryside Canada, and upon being furnished a Certificate of the Manager stating that one or more named persons are Senior Creditors and specifying the amount and nature of the Senior Secured Indebtedness of such Senior Creditor, the Debenture Trustee shall enter into a written agreement or agreements with Countryside Canada and the person or persons named in such Certificate of the Manager providing that such person or persons are entitled to all the rights and benefits of this Article 6 as a Senior Creditor. Such agreement shall be conclusive evidence that the indebtedness specified therein is Senior Secured Indebtedness. However, nothing herein shall impair the rights of any Senior Creditor who has not entered into such an agreement.

6.8 Knowledge of Debenture Trustee

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article 6 or any provision in this Indenture or in the Debentures, the Debenture Trustee will not be charged with knowledge of any Senior Secured Indebtedness or of any default in the payment thereof or any other default or event of default, or of the existence of any other fact that would prohibit the making of any payment of monies to or by the Debenture Trustee, or the taking of any other action by the Debenture Trustee, unless and until the Debenture Trustee has received written notice thereof from Countryside Canada, any Debentureholder, any Senior Creditor or a trustee on behalf of anyone or more Senior Creditors, and such notice to the Debenture Trustee shall be deemed to be notice to holders of the Debentures. It is acknowledged that any Event of Default hereunder constitutes a default under the Amended Credit Facility. The Debenture Trustee will notify holders of Debentures as soon as reasonably practical of such notice.

6.9 Debenture Trustee May Hold Senior Secured Indebtedness

The Debenture Trustee is entitled to all the rights set forth in this Article 6 with respect to any Senior Secured Indebtedness at the time held by it, to the same extent as any other holder of Senior Secured Indebtedness, and nothing in this Indenture deprives the Debenture Trustee of any of its rights as such holder.

6.10 Rights of Holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness Not Impaired

No right of any present or future holder of any Senior Secured Indebtedness to enforce the subordination herein will at any time or in any way be prejudiced or impaired by any act or failure to act on the part of Countryside Canada or by any non-compliance by Countryside Canada with the terms, provisions and covenants of this Indenture, regardless of any knowledge thereof which any such holder may have or be otherwise charged with.

6.11 Altering the Senior Secured Indebtedness

The holders of the Senior Secured Indebtedness have the right to extend, renew, modify or amend the terms of the Senior Secured Indebtedness (including increasing the principal amount of the Senior Secured Indebtedness) or the Senior Security and to release, sell or exchange the Senior Security and otherwise to deal freely with Countryside Canada and its Subsidiaries, all without notice to or consent of the Debentureholders or the Debenture Trustee and without affecting the liabilities and obligations of the parties to this Indenture or the Debentureholders or the Debenture Trustee.

6.12 Additional Indebtedness

This Indenture does not restrict Countryside Canada from incurring additional indebtedness for borrowed money or otherwise or mortgaging, pledging or charging its real or personal property or properties to secure any indebtedness or other financing.

6.13 Right of Debentureholder to Exchange Not Impaired

The subordination of the Debentures to the Senior Secured Indebtedness and the provisions of this Article 6 do not impair in any way the right of a Debentureholder to exchange its Debentures pursuant to Article 7.

6.14 Invalidated Payments

In the event that any of the Senior Secured Indebtedness shall be paid in full and subsequently, for whatever reason, such formerly paid or satisfied Senior Secured Indebtedness becomes unpaid or unsatisfied, the terms and conditions of this Article 6 shall be reinstated and the provisions of this Article shall again be operative until all Senior Secured Indebtedness is repaid in full, provided that such reinstatement shall not give the Senior Creditors any rights or recourses against the Debenture Trustee or the Debentureholders for amounts paid to the Debentureholders subsequent to such payment or satisfaction in full and prior to such reinstatement.

6.15 Contesting Security

The Debenture Trustee, for itself and on behalf of the Debentureholders, agrees that it shall not contest or bring into question the validity, perfection or enforceability of any of the Senior Security or Senior Secured Indebtedness, or the relative priority of the Senior Security or Senior Secured Indebtedness.

6.16 Obligations Created by Article 6

Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee, in its capacity as trustee hereunder and not in its corporate personal capacity, agree, and each holder by its acceptance of a Debenture likewise agrees, that:

(a) the provisions of this Article 6 are an inducement and consideration to each holder of Senior Secured Indebtedness to give or continue credit to Countryside Canada, its Subsidiaries or others or to acquire Senior Secured Indebtedness;

(b) each holder of Senior Secured Indebtedness may accept the benefit of this Article 6 on the terms and conditions set forth in this Article 6 by giving or continuing credit to Countryside Canada, its Subsidiaries or others or by acquiring or having outstanding as of the date hereof Senior Secured Indebtedness, in each case without notice to the Debenture Trustee and without establishing actual reliance on this Article 6; and

(c) each obligation created by this Article 6 is created for the benefit of the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness and is hereby declared to be created in trust for those holders by Countryside Canada, the Debenture Trustee and each holder of a Debenture and shall be binding on Countryside Canada, the Debenture Trustee and each holder of a Debenture whether or not the confirmation described in Section 6.7 is requested executed or delivered.

6.17 No Set-Off

Each of Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee agrees, and each holder of a Debenture, by his acceptance thereof, likewise agrees, that it shall have no rights of set-off or counterclaim with respect to the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Debentures at any time when any payment of, or in respect of, such amounts to the Debenture Trustee or the holder of a Debenture is prohibited by this Article 6 or is otherwise required to be paid to the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness or their representative or to the trustee under any indenture under which any instruments evidencing any of such Senior Secured Indebtedness may have been issued, as their respective interests may appear.

6.18 Amendments to Article 6

Each of Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee (relying on the opinion of Counsel) agrees, and each holder of a Debenture, by his acceptance thereof, likewise agrees, not to make any changes to this Indenture or the Debentures, including this Article 6 or the definition of Senior Secured Indebtedness, which prejudice the rights of the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness under this Article 6 without the consent of the holders of Senior Secured Indebtedness, including the Senior Creditors under the Amended Credit Facility, or their representative or the trustee under any indenture under which any instruments evidencing any of such Senior Secured Indebtedness may have been issued.

EXCHANGE OF DEBENTURES

7.1 Applicability of Article

Any Debentures issued hereunder of any series which by their terms are exchangeable (subject, however, to any applicable restriction of the exchange of Debentures of such series) will be exchangeable into Units or other securities, at such exchange rate or rates, and on such date or dates and in accordance with such other provisions as shall have been determined at the time of issue of such Debentures and shall have been expressed in this Indenture, in such Debentures, in a Certificate of the Manager, or in a supplemental indenture authorizing or providing for the issue thereof.

Such right of exchange shall extend only to the maximum number of whole Units into which the aggregate principal amount of the Debenture or Debentures surrendered for exchange at any one time by the holder thereof may be exchanged. Fractional interests in Units shall be adjusted for in the manner provided in Section 7.6.

7.2 Notice of Expiry of Exchange Privilege

Notice of the expiry of the exchange privileges of the Debentures shall be given by or on behalf of Countryside Canada, not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for the Time of Expiry, in the manner provided in Section 15.2.

7.3 Revival of Right to Exchange

If the redemption of any Debenture called for redemption by Countryside Canada is not made or the payment of the purchase price of any Debenture which has been tendered pursuant to the Put Right or in acceptance of any offer by Countryside Canada to purchase Debentures for cancellation is not made, in the case of a redemption upon due surrender of such Debenture or in the case of a purchase on the date on which such purchase is required to be made, as the case may be, then, provided that the Time of Expiry has not passed, the right to exchange such Debenture shall revive and continue as if such Debenture had not been called for redemption or tendered in acceptance of Countryside Canada's offer, respectively.

7.4 Manner of Exercise of Right to Exchange

(a) The holder of a Debenture desiring to exchange such Debenture in whole or in part into Units shall surrender such Debenture to the Debenture Trustee at its principal offices in Toronto together with the exchange form attached hereto as Schedule D duly executed by the holder or his or her executors or administrators or other legal representatives or his, her or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and executed in a manner satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee, exercising his or her right to exchange such Debenture in accordance with the provisions of this Article 7; provided that with respect to a Global Debenture, the obligation to surrender a Debenture to the Debenture Trustee shall be satisfied if the Debenture Trustee makes notation on the Global Debenture of the principal amount thereof so exchanged and the Debenture Trustee is provided with all other documentation which it may request. Thereupon, subject to payment of all applicable stamp or security transfer, income, withholding or other taxes or other governmental charges and compliance with all reasonable requirements of the Debenture Trustee (including, for greater certainty, the withholding obligation of the Debenture Trustee pursuant to Section 16.20 hereof), such Debentureholder or his or her nominee(s) or assignee(s) shall be entitled to be entered in the books of the Fund on the Business Day immediately after the Date of Exchange (or such later date as is specified in Section 7.4(b)), as the holder of the number of Units into which such Debenture is exchangeable, net of applicable withholding taxes, if any, in accordance with the provisions of this Article and, as soon as practicable thereafter, the Fund shall deliver a certificate or certificates for such Units and Countryside Canada shall (i) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Debentureholders, or subject as aforesaid, his or her nominee(s) or assignee(s) such certificate or certificates for such Units; and (ii) make or cause to be made any payment of interest to which such holder is entitled in accordance with Section 7.4(e) hereof or in respect of fractional Units as provided in Section 7.6.

(b) For the purposes of this Article, a Debenture shall be deemed to be surrendered for exchange on the date (herein called the "Date of Exchange") on which it is so surrendered in proper form when the register of the Debenture Trustee is open and in accordance with the provisions of this Article or, in the case of a Global Debenture which the Debenture Trustee received notice of and all necessary documentation in respect of the exercise of the exchange rights and, in the case of a Debenture so surrendered by post or other means of transmission, on the date on which it is received in proper form by the Debenture Trustee at its office specified in Section 7.4(a); provided that if a Debenture is surrendered for exchange on a day on which the register of Units is closed, the Person or Persons entitled to receive Units shall become the holder or holders of record of such Units as at the date on which such registers are next reopened.

(c) Any part, being $1,000 (in the currency of the applicable Debenture) or an integral multiple thereof, of a Debenture in a denomination in excess of $1,000 (in the currency of the applicable Debenture) may be exchanged as provided in this Article 7 and all references in this Indenture to exchange of Debentures shall be deemed to include exchange of such parts.

(d) The holder of any Debenture of which only a part is exchanged shall, upon the exercise of his or her right of exchange, surrender such Debenture to the Debenture Trustee, and the Debenture Trustee shall cancel the same and shall without charge forthwith certify and deliver to the holder a new Debenture or Debentures in an aggregate principal amount equal to the unexchanged part of the principal amount of the Debenture so surrendered or, with respect to a Global Debenture, the Depository shall make notations on the Global Debentures of the principal amount thereof so exchanged.

(e) The holder of a Debenture surrendered for exchange in accordance with this Section 7.4 shall be entitled (subject to any applicable restriction on the right to receive interest on exchange of Debentures of any series) to receive accrued and unpaid interest in respect thereof from and including the most recently completed Interest Payment Date to, but not including, the Date of Exchange of such Debenture (less applicable withholding taxes, if any) and the Units issued upon such exchange shall rank only in respect of distributions or dividends declared in favour of unitholders of record on and after the Date of Exchange or such later date as such holder shall become the holder of record of such Units pursuant to Section 7.4(b), from which applicable date they will for all purposes be and be deemed to be issued and outstanding as fully paid and non-assessable Units.

7.5 Adjustment of Exchange Price

The Exchange Price in effect at any date shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as set forth below.

(a) If and whenever at any time prior to the Time of Expiry the Fund shall (i) subdivide or redivide the outstanding Units into a greater number of units, (ii) reduce, combine or consolidate the outstanding Units into a smaller number of units, or (iii) issue Units (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Units) to the holders of all or substantially all of the outstanding Units by way of a dividend or distribution (other than the issue of Units to holders of Units who have elected to receive dividends or distributions in the form of Units in lieu of cash dividends or cash distributions paid in the ordinary course on the Units), the Exchange Price in effect on the effective date of such subdivision, redivision, reduction, combination or consolidation or on the record date for such issue of Units by way of a dividend or distribution, as the case may be, shall in the case of any of the events referred to in (i) and (iii) above be decreased in proportion to the number of outstanding Units resulting from such subdivision, redivision or dividend, or shall, in the case of any of the events referred to in (ii) above, be increased in proportion to the number of outstanding Units resulting from such reduction, combination or consolidation. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever any event referred to in this Section 7.5(a) shall occur. Any such issue of Units by way of a dividend or distribution shall be deemed to have been made on the record date for the dividend or distribution for the purpose of calculating the number of outstanding Units under subsections (b) and (c) of this Section 7.5.

(b) If and whenever at any time prior to the Time of Expiry, the Fund shall fix a record date for the issuance of options, rights or warrants to all or substantially all the holders of its outstanding Units entitling them, for a period expiring not more than 45 days after such record date, to subscribe for or purchase Units (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Units) at a price per unit (or having a conversion or exchange price per unit) less than 95% of the Current Market Price of a Unit on such record date, the Exchange Price shall be adjusted immediately after such record date so that it shall equal the price determined by multiplying the Exchange Price in effect on such record date by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the total number of Units outstanding on such record date plus a number of Units equal to the number arrived at by dividing the aggregate price of the total number of additional Units offered for subscription or purchase (or the aggregate conversion or exchange price of the convertible or exchangeable securities so offered) by such Current Market Price per Unit, and of which the denominator shall be the total number of Units outstanding on such record date plus the total number of additional Units offered for subscription or purchase (or into which the convertible or exchangeable securities so offered are convertible or exchangeable). Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed. To the extent that any such options, rights or warrants are not so issued or any such options, rights or warrants are not exercised prior to the expiration thereof, the Exchange Price shall be re-adjusted to the Exchange Price which would then be in effect if such record date had not been fixed or to the Exchange Price which would then be in effect based upon the number of Units (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Units) actually issued upon the exercise of such options, rights or warrants, as the case may be.

(c) If and whenever at any time prior to the Time of Expiry, the Fund shall fix a record date for the making of a distribution to all or substantially all the holders of its outstanding Units of (i) units of any class other than Units and other than units distributed to holders of Units who have elected to receive dividends or distributions in the form of such units in lieu of dividends or distributions paid in the ordinary course, (ii) rights, options or warrants (excluding rights, options or warrants entitling the holders thereof for a period of not more than 45 days to subscribe for or purchase Units or securities convertible into Units), (iii) evidences of its indebtedness, or (iv) assets (excluding dividends or distributions paid in the ordinary course) then, in each such case, the Exchange Price shall be adjusted immediately after such record date so that it shall equal the price determined by multiplying the Exchange Price in effect on such record date by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the total number of Units outstanding on such record date multiplied by the Current Market Price per Unit on such record date, less the fair market value (as determined by the Trustees or the Administrator, with the approval of the Directors, which determination shall be conclusive) of such units or rights, options or warrants or evidences or indebtedness or assets so distributed, and of which the denominator shall be the total number of Units outstanding on such record date multiplied by such Current Market Price per Unit. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed. To the extent that such distribution is not so made, the Exchange Price shall be re-adjusted to the Exchange Price which would then be in effect if such record date had not been fixed or to the Exchange Price which would then be in effect based upon such units or rights, options or warrants or evidences of indebtedness or assets actually distributed, as the case may be. In clause (iv) of this Section 7.5(c) the term "dividends or distributions paid in the ordinary course" shall include the value of any securities or other property or assets distributed in lieu of cash dividends or distributions paid in the ordinary course at the option of holders of Units.

(d) If and whenever at any time prior to the Time of Expiry, there is a reclassification of the Units or a capital reorganization of the Fund other than as described in Section 7.5(a) or a consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement or merger of the Fund with or into any other Person or other entity, or a sale or conveyance of the property and assets of the Fund as an entirety or substantially as an entirety to any other Person or other entity or a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Fund, any holder of a Debenture who has not exercised its right of exchange prior to the effective date of such reclassification, capital reorganization, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement or merger, sale or conveyance or liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or other similar transaction, upon the exercise of such right thereafter, shall be entitled to receive and shall accept, in lieu of the number of Units then sought to be acquired by it, the number of partnership units, trust units, shares or other securities or property of the Fund or of the Person or other entity resulting from such merger, amalgamation or consolidation or other similar transaction, or to which such sale or conveyance may be made or which holders of Units receive pursuant to such liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, as the case may be, that such holder of a Debenture would have been entitled to receive on such reclassification, capital reorganization, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement or merger, sale or conveyance or liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or other similar transaction, if, on the record date or the effective date thereof, as the case may be, the holder had been the registered holder of the number of Units sought to be acquired by it and to which it was entitled to acquire upon the exercise of the exchange right. If determined appropriate by the Trustees and the Directors, to give effect to or to evidence the provisions of this Section 7.5(d), the Fund, its successor, or such purchasing Person or other entity, as the case may be, shall, prior to or contemporaneously with any such reclassification, capital reorganization, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement, merger, sale or conveyance or liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or other similar transaction, enter into an indenture which shall provide, to the extent possible, for the application of the provisions set forth in this Indenture with respect to the rights and interests thereafter of the holder of Debentures to the end that the provisions set forth in this Indenture shall thereafter correspondingly be made applicable, as nearly as may reasonably be, with respect to any partnership units, trust units, shares or other securities or property to which a holder of Debentures is entitled on the exercise of its acquisition rights thereafter. Any indenture entered into between the Fund, Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Section 7.5(d) shall be a supplemental indenture entered into pursuant to the provisions of Article 17. Any indenture entered into between the Fund, any successor to the Fund or such purchasing Person or other entity, Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee shall provide for adjustments which shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided in this Section 7.5(d) and which shall apply to successive reclassifications, capital reorganizations, amalgamations, consolidations, mergers, sales or conveyances or other similar transactions.

(e) In any case in which this Section 7.5 shall require that an adjustment shall become effective immediately after a record date for an event referred to herein, the Fund and Countryside Canada may defer, until the occurrence of such event, issuing to the holder of any Debenture exchanged after such record date and before the occurrence of such event the additional Units issuable upon such exchange by reason of the adjustment required by such event before giving effect to such adjustment; provided, however, that Countryside Canada shall deliver to such holder an appropriate instrument evidencing such holder's right to receive such additional Units upon the occurrence of the event requiring such adjustment and the right to receive any distributions made on such additional Units declared in favour of holders of record of Units on and after the Date of Exchange or such later date as such holder would, but for the provisions of this Section 7.5(e), have become the holder of record of such additional Units pursuant to Section 7.4(b).

(f) The adjustments provided for in this Section 7.5 are cumulative and shall apply to successive subdivisions, redivisions, reductions, combinations, consolidations, distributions, issues or other events resulting in any adjustment under the provisions of this Section, provided that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, no adjustment of the Exchange Price shall be required unless such adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least 1% in the Exchange Price then in effect; provided however, that any adjustments which by reason of this Section 7.5(f) are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment.

(g) For the purpose of calculating the number of Units outstanding, Units owned by or for the benefit of the Fund shall not be counted.

(h) In the event of any question arising with respect to the adjustments provided in this Section 7.5, such question shall be conclusively determined by a firm of chartered accountants appointed by Countryside Canada and acceptable to the Debenture Trustee (who may be the auditors of the Fund); such accountants shall have access to all necessary records of the Fund and such determination shall be binding upon Countryside Canada, the Fund, the Debenture Trustee, and the Debentureholders.

(i) In case the Fund shall take any action affecting the Units other than action described in this Section 7.5, which in the opinion of the Directors, would materially affect the rights of Debentureholders, the Exchange Price shall be adjusted in such manner and at such time, by action of the Directors, subject to, as required, the prior written consent of the Toronto Stock Exchange (or, if the Units are not listed thereon, such other exchange on which the Debentures are then listed), as the Directors, in their sole discretion may determine to be equitable in the circumstances. Failure of the Directors to make such an adjustment shall be conclusive evidence that they have determined that it is equitable to make no adjustment in the circumstances.

(j) Subject to, as required, the prior written consent of the Toronto Stock Exchange (or, if the Units are not listed thereon, such other exchange on which the Debentures are then listed), no adjustment in the Exchange Price shall be made in respect of any event described in Sections 7.5(a), 7.5(b) or 7.5(c) other than the events described in 7.5(a)(i) or 7.5(a)(ii) if the holders of the Debentures are entitled to participate in such event on the same terms mutatis mutandis as though and with the same effect as if they had exchanged their Debentures prior to the effective date or record date, as the case may be, of such event.

(k) Except as stated above in this Section 7.5, no adjustment will be made in the Exchange Price for any Debentures as a result of the issuance of Units at less than the Current Market Price for such Units on the date of issuance or the then applicable Exchange Price.

7.6 No Requirement to Issue Fractional Units

The Fund shall not be required to issue, and Countryside Canada shall not be required to cause the issuance of, fractional Units upon the exchange of Debentures pursuant to this Article. If more than one Debenture shall be surrendered for exchange at one time by the same holder, the number of whole Units issuable upon exchange thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate principal amount of such Debentures to be exchanged. If any fractional interest in a Unit would, except for the provisions of this Section, be deliverable upon the exchange of any principal amount of Debentures, Countryside Canada shall, in lieu of delivering, or causing the delivery of, any certificate representing such fractional interest, make a cash payment to the holder of such Debenture of an amount equal to the fractional interest which would have been issuable multiplied by the Exchange Price, less applicable withholding taxes, if any.

7.7 Fund to Reserve Units

The Fund covenants with Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee that it will at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized Units (if the number thereof is or becomes limited), solely for the purpose of issuing such Units to Countryside Canada in connection with an exchange of Debentures, such number of Units as shall then be deliverable by Countryside Canada upon the exchange of all outstanding Debentures at that time, to enable and permit Countryside Canada to perform its obligation hereunder to deliver the requisite number of Units to Debentureholders who exercise their exchange rights hereunder. The Fund covenants with Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee that all Units, which shall be so issuable, shall be duly and validly issued as fully-paid and non-assessable upon receipt by the Fund of fair value consideration for such Units from Countryside Canada in such form as may be agreed to by the parties at the time. The Fund further covenants with Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee that it shall take all actions and do all things necessary or desirable to enable and permit Countryside Canada, in accordance with applicable law, to perform all of its obligations hereunder.

7.8 Cancellation of Exchanged Debentures

All Debentures exchanged in whole or in part under the provisions of this Article shall be forthwith delivered to and cancelled by the Debenture Trustee and, subject to the provisions of Section 7.4 as to Debentures exchanged in part, no Debenture shall be issued in substitution therefor.

7.9 Certificate as to Adjustment

Countryside Canada shall from time to time immediately after it has acquired actual knowledge of the occurrence of any event which requires an adjustment or readjustment as provided in Section 7.5, deliver a Certificate of the Manager to the Debenture Trustee specifying the nature of the event requiring the same and the amount of the adjustment necessitated thereby and setting forth in reasonable detail the method of calculation and the facts upon which such calculation is based, which certificate and the amount of the adjustment specified therein may be relied upon by the Debenture Trustee and shall be verified by an opinion of a nationally recognized firm of chartered accountants appointed by Countryside Canada and acceptable to the Debenture Trustee (who may be the auditors of Countryside Canada or the Fund) and shall be conclusive and binding on all parties in interest. When so approved, Countryside Canada shall, except in respect of any subdivision, redivision, reduction, combination or consolidation of Units, forthwith give notice to the Debentureholders in the manner provided in Section 15.2 specifying the event requiring such adjustment or readjustment and the results thereof, including the resulting Exchange Price.

7.10 Notice of Special Matters

Countryside Canada and the Fund covenant with the Debenture Trustee that so long as any Debenture remains outstanding, it will give written notice to the Debenture Trustee, and to the Debentureholders in the manner provided in Section 15.2, of its intention to fix a record date for any event referred to in Section 7.5(a), (b) or (c) (other than the subdivision, redivision, reduction, combination or consolidation of its Units) which may give rise to an adjustment in the Exchange Price, and, in each case, such notice shall specify the particulars of such event and the record date and the effective date for such event; provided that Countryside Canada and the Fund shall only be required to specify in such notice such particulars of such event as shall have been fixed and determined on the date on which such notice is given. Such notice shall be given not less than fourteen (14) days in each case prior to such applicable record date.

7.11 Protection of Debenture Trustee

Subject to Section 16.3, the Debenture Trustee:

(a) shall not at any time be under any duty or responsibility to any Debentureholder to determine whether any facts exist which may require any adjustment in the Exchange Price, or with respect to the nature or extent of any such adjustment when made, or with respect to the method employed in making the same;

(b) shall not be accountable with respect to the validity or value (or the kind or amount) of any Units or of any units, shares or other securities or property which may at any time be issued or delivered upon the exchange of any Debenture; and

(c) shall not be responsible for any failure of Countryside Canada to make any cash payment or to cause the Fund to issue, transfer or deliver Units, units or share certificates upon the surrender of any Debenture for the purpose of exchange, or to comply with any of the covenants contained in this Article.

7.12 U.S. 1933 Act Legend on Units

Each certificate representing Units issued upon exchange of Debentures pursuant to this Article 7 bearing the U.S. 1933 Act Legend set forth in Section 2.14, as well as all certificates issued in exchange for or in substitution of the foregoing securities, shall also bear the U.S. 1933 Act Legend set forth in Section 2.14; provided that if the Units are being sold outside the United States in accordance with Rule 904 of Regulation S, the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by providing a declaration to the transfer agent for the Units, as set forth in Schedule E hereto (or as the Fund may prescribe from time to time); and provided further that, if any such securities are being sold within the United States in accordance with Rule 144 under the 1933 Act, the U.S. 1933 Act Legend may be removed by delivery to the transfer agent for the Units, of an opinion of counsel of recognized standing, reasonably satisfactory to the Fund, to the effect that the U.S. 1933 Act Legend is no longer required under applicable requirements of the 1933 Act or any applicable local laws or regulations. Provided that the transfer agent obtains confirmation from the Fund that such counsel is satisfactory to it, it shall be entitled to rely on such opinion of counsel without further inquiry.

COVENANTS OF COUNTRYSIDE CANADA

Countryside Canada hereby covenants and agrees, and the Fund with respect to the last sentence of Section 8.4, Section 8.6 and Section 8.8 and also covenants and agrees, with the Debenture Trustee for the benefit of the Debenture Trustee and the Debentureholders, that so long as any Debentures remain outstanding:

8.1 To Pay Principal and Interest

Subject at all times to the provisions of Article 6 hereof, Countryside Canada will duly and punctually pay or cause to be paid to every Debentureholder the principal of and interest accrued on the Debentures of which it is the holder on the dates, at the places and in the manner mentioned herein and in the Debentures.

8.2 To Pay Debenture Trustee's Remuneration

Countryside Canada will pay the Debenture Trustee reasonable remuneration for its services as Debenture Trustee hereunder and will repay to the Debenture Trustee on demand all monies which shall have been paid by the Debenture Trustee in connection with the execution of the trusts hereby created and such monies including the Debenture Trustee's remuneration, shall be payable out of any funds coming into the possession of the Debenture Trustee in priority to any of the Debentures or interest thereon. Any amount due under this Section and unpaid thirty days after written request for such payment shall bear interest from the expiration of such thirty days at a rate per annum equal to the then rate charged by the Debenture Trustee under similar indentures from time to time, payable on demand. Such remuneration shall continue to be payable until the trusts hereof be finally wound up and whether or not the trusts of this Indenture shall be in the course of administration by or under the direction of a court of competent jurisdiction.

8.3 To Give Notice of Default

Countryside Canada shall notify the Debenture Trustee in writing immediately upon obtaining knowledge of any Event of Default hereunder.

8.4 Preservation of Existence, etc.

Subject to the express provisions hereof, Countryside Canada will carry on and conduct its activities, and cause its Subsidiaries to carry on and conduct their respective businesses, in a proper, efficient and business-like manner and in accordance with good business practices and in compliance with all applicable laws; and, subject to the express provisions hereof, it will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its and its Subsidiaries' respective existences and rights. On the date of issuance of the Debentures and for so long as the Debentures remain outstanding, all material undertaking, property and assets of the Fund shall be held through Countryside Canada and its wholly-owned Subsidiaries provided that for purposes of this Section 8.4 amounts distributed for the purpose of funding a distribution to holders of Units shall not be deemed to be a material undertaking, property or asset of the Fund.

8.5 Keeping of Books

Countryside Canada will keep or cause to be kept proper books of record and account, in which full and correct entries shall be made of all financial transactions and the assets and business of Countryside Canada in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

8.6 Reporting Requirements

In the event that Countryside Canada has Global Debentures outstanding, the Fund will provide the Depository with copies of continuous disclosure documents furnished to its Unitholders.

8.7 Performance of Covenants by Debenture Trustee

If Countryside Canada shall fail to perform any of its covenants contained in this Indenture, the Debenture Trustee may notify the Debentureholders of such failure on the part of Countryside Canada or may itself perform any of the covenants capable of being performed by it, but (subject to Sections 9.2 and 16.3) shall be under no obligation to do so or to notify the Debentureholders. All sums so expended or advanced by the Debenture Trustee shall be repayable as provided in Section 8.2. No such performance, expenditure or advance by the Debenture Trustee shall be deemed to relieve Countryside Canada of any default hereunder or from its continuing indebtedness.

8.8 Listing

The Fund and Countryside Canada shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Units and the Debentures, respectively, are listed and posted for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange, and shall maintain such listing and posting for trading of the Units and the Debentures, respectively, on the Toronto Stock Exchange, and to maintain the Fund's status as a "reporting issuer" not in default of Applicable Securities Legislation.

8.9 Regarding Distributions and Payments

Neither Countryside Canada nor any of its Subsidiaries shall make any payment, distribution or transfer of assets, including, without limitation, pursuant to any legal obligation, to any Subsidiary of the Fund (excluding Countryside Canada or a wholly-owned Subsidiary of Countryside Canada) other than dividends or distributions paid in the ordinary course (i) for the purpose of funding a distribution to holders of Units; or (ii) for the purpose of funding operating expenses of Countryside Canada or any of its Subsidiaries.

DEFAULT

9.1 Events of Default

Each of the following events constitutes, and is herein sometimes referred to as, an "Event of Default":

(a) failure for 15 days to pay interest on the Debentures when due;

(b) failure to pay principal or premium, if any, on the Debentures when due whether at maturity, upon redemption, by declaration or otherwise;

(c) if a decree or order of a Court having jurisdiction is entered adjudging Countryside Canada a bankrupt or insolvent under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other bankruptcy, insolvency or analogous laws, or issuing sequestration or process of execution against, or against any substantial part of, the property of Countryside Canada, or appointing a receiver of, or of any substantial part of, the property of Countryside Canada or ordering the winding-up or liquidation of its affairs, and any such decree or order continues unstayed and in effect for a period of 60 days;

(d) if Countryside Canada institutes proceedings to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or consents to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against it under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other bankruptcy, insolvency or analogous laws of Canada or any province or territory thereof, or consents to the filing of any such petition or to the appointment of a receiver of, or liquidator or trustee or assignee in bankruptcy or insolvency for it, or of any substantial part of, the property of Countryside Canada or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or is unable to or admits in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due;

(e) if a resolution is passed for the winding-up or liquidation of Countryside Canada except in the course of carrying out or pursuant to a transaction in respect of which the conditions of Section 12.1 are duly observed and performed;

(f) if, after the date of this Indenture, any proceedings with respect to Countryside Canada are taken with respect to a compromise or arrangement, with respect to creditors of Countryside Canada generally, under the applicable legislation of any jurisdiction; or

(g) default in the observance or performance of any material covenant or condition of this Indenture by Countryside Canada or by the Fund for a period of 30 days after notice in writing has been given by the Debenture Trustee to Countryside Canada or the Fund, as applicable, specifying such default and requiring Countryside Canada or the Fund, as applicable, to remedy such default.

In each and every such event the Debenture Trustee may, in its discretion, and shall, upon receipt of a request in writing signed by the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding, and upon being indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction against all fees, costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred, subject to the provisions of Section 9.3, by notice in writing to Countryside Canada declare the principal of and interest on all Debentures then outstanding and all other monies outstanding hereunder to be due and payable and the same shall forthwith become immediately due and payable to the Debenture Trustee, and Countryside Canada shall forthwith pay to the Debenture Trustee for the benefit of the Debentureholders such principal, accrued and unpaid interest and interest on amounts in default on such Debenture (and, where such a declaration is based upon a voluntary winding-up or liquidation of Countryside Canada, the premium, if any, on the Debentures then outstanding which would have been payable upon the redemption thereof by Countryside Canada on the date of such declaration) and all other monies outstanding hereunder, together with subsequent interest at the rate borne by the Debentures on such principal, interest and such other monies from the date of such declaration until payment is received by the Debenture Trustee, such subsequent interest to be payable at the times and places and in the monies mentioned in and according to the tenor of the Debentures. Such payment when made shall be deemed to have been made in discharge of Countryside Canada's obligations hereunder and any monies so received by the Debenture Trustee shall be applied in the manner provided in Section 9.6. For greater certainty, for the purposes of this Section 9.1, a series of Debentures shall be in default in respect of an Event of Default if such Event of Default relates to a default in the payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest on the Debentures of such series in which case references to Debentures in this Section 9.1 refer to Debentures of that particular series. For purposes of this Article 9, where the Event of Default refers to an Event of Default with respect to a particular series of Debentures as described in this Section 9.1, then this Article 9 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Debentures of such series and references in this Article 9 to the Debentures shall mean Debentures of the particular series and references to the Debentureholders shall refer to the Debentureholders of the particular series, as applicable.

9.2 Notice of Events of Default

If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing the Debenture Trustee shall, within 30 days after it receives written notice of the occurrence of such Event of Default, give notice of such Event of Default: (i) to the Debentureholders in the manner provided in Section 15.1; and (ii) relying upon contact information provided by Countryside Canada from time to time, to the agent under the Amended Credit Facility, provided that the Debenture Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such notice and shall not be subject to any liability as a result of its inadvertent failure to provide such notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless the Debenture Trustee shall have been requested to do so by the holders of at least 25% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding, the Debenture Trustee shall not be required to give such notice if the Debenture Trustee in good faith shall have determined that the withholding of such notice is in the best interests of the Debentureholders and shall have so advised Countryside Canada in writing.

When notice of the occurrence of an Event of Default has been given and the Event of Default is thereafter cured, notice that the Event of Default is no longer continuing shall be given by the Debenture Trustee to the Debentureholders within 15 days after the Debenture Trustee receives written notice that the Event of Default has been cured.

9.3 Waiver of Default

Upon the happening of any Event of Default hereunder:

(a) the holders of the Debentures shall have the power (in addition to the powers exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution as hereinafter provided) by requisition in writing by the holders of a majority of the principal amount of Debentures then outstanding or by Ordinary Resolution of Debentureholders at a meeting held in accordance with Article 14 hereof, to instruct the Debenture Trustee to waive any Event of Default and to cancel any declaration made by the Debenture Trustee pursuant to Section 9.1 and the Debenture Trustee shall thereupon waive the Event of Default and cancel such declaration, or either, upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed in such requisition; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Event of Default has occurred by reason of the non-observance or non-performance by Countryside Canada of any covenant applicable only to one or more series of Debentures, then the holders of a majority of the principal amount of the outstanding Debentures of that series shall be entitled to exercise the foregoing power and the Debenture Trustee shall so act and it shall not be necessary to obtain a waiver from the holders of any other series of Debentures; and

(b) the Debenture Trustee, so long as it has not become bound to declare the principal and interest on the Debentures then outstanding to be due and payable, or to obtain or enforce payment of the same, shall have power to waive any Event of Default if, in the Debenture Trustee's opinion, relying on the opinion of Counsel, the same shall have been cured or adequate satisfaction made therefor, and in such event to cancel any such declaration theretofore made by the Debenture Trustee in the exercise of its discretion, upon such terms and conditions as the Debenture Trustee may deem advisable.

No such act or omission either of the Debenture Trustee or of the Debentureholders shall extend to or be taken in any manner whatsoever to affect any subsequent Event of Default or the rights resulting therefrom.

9.4 Enforcement by the Debenture Trustee

Subject to the provisions of Section 9.3 and to the provisions of any Extraordinary Resolution that may be passed by the Debentureholders, if Countryside Canada shall fail to pay to the Debenture Trustee, forthwith after the same shall have been declared to be due and payable under Section 9.1, the principal of and premium (if any) and interest on all Debentures then outstanding, together with any other amounts due hereunder, the Debenture Trustee may in its discretion and shall upon receipt of a request in writing signed by the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding and upon being funded and indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction against all costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred, proceed in its name as trustee hereunder to obtain or enforce payment of such principal of and premium (if any) and interest on all the Debentures then outstanding together with any other amounts due hereunder by such proceedings authorized by this Indenture or by law or equity as the Debenture Trustee in such request shall have been directed to take, or if such request contains no such direction, or if the Debenture Trustee shall act without such request, then by such proceedings authorized by this Indenture or by suit at law or in equity as the Debenture Trustee shall deem expedient.

The Debenture Trustee shall be entitled and empowered, either in its own name or as trustee of an express trust, or as attorney-in-fact for the holders of the Debentures, or in any one or more of such capacities, to file such proof of debt, amendment of proof of debt, claim, petition or other document as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Debenture Trustee and of the holders of the Debentures allowed in any insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation or other judicial proceedings relative to Countryside Canada or its creditors or relative to or affecting its property. The Debenture Trustee is hereby irrevocably appointed (and the successive respective holders of the Debentures by taking and holding the same shall be conclusively deemed to have so appointed the Debenture Trustee) the true and lawful attorney-in-fact of the respective holders of the Debentures with authority to make and file in the respective names of the holders of the Debentures or on behalf of the holders of the Debentures as a class, subject to deduction from any such claims of the amounts of any claims filed by any of the holders of the Debentures themselves, any proof of debt, amendment of proof of debt, claim, petition or other document in any such proceedings and to receive payment of any sums becoming distributable on account thereof, and to execute any such other papers and documents and to do and perform any and all such acts and things for and on behalf of such holders of the Debentures, as may be necessary or advisable in the opinion of the Debenture Trustee, in order to have the respective claims of the Debenture Trustee and of the holders of the Debentures against Countryside Canada or its property allowed in any such proceeding, and to receive payment of or on account of such claims; provided, however, that subject to Section 9.3, nothing contained in this Indenture shall be deemed to give to the Debenture Trustee, unless so authorized by Extraordinary Resolution, any right to accept or consent to any plan of reorganization or otherwise by action of any character in such proceeding to waive or change in any way any right of any Debentureholder.

The Debenture Trustee shall also have the power at any time and from time to time to institute and to maintain such suits and proceedings as it may be advised shall be necessary or advisable to preserve and protect its interests and the interests of the Debentureholders.

All rights of action hereunder may be enforced by the Debenture Trustee without the possession of any of the Debentures or the production thereof at the trial or other proceedings relating thereto. Any such suit or proceeding instituted by the Debenture Trustee shall be brought in the name of the Debenture Trustee as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the rateable benefit of the holders of the Debentures subject to the provisions of this Indenture. In any proceeding brought by the Debenture Trustee (and also any proceeding in which a declaratory judgment of a court may be sought as to the interpretation or construction of any provision of this Indenture, to which the Debenture Trustee shall be a party) the Debenture Trustee shall be held to represent all the holders of the Debentures, and it shall not be necessary to make any holders of the Debentures parties to any such proceeding.

9.5 No Suits by Debentureholders

No holder of any Debenture shall have any right to institute any action, suit or proceeding at law or in equity for the purpose of enforcing payment of the principal of or premium (if any) or interest on the Debentures or for the execution of any trust or power hereunder or for the appointment of a liquidator or receiver or for a receiving order under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other bankruptcy, insolvency or analogous laws, or to have Countryside Canada wound up or to file or prove a claim in any liquidation or bankruptcy proceeding or for any other remedy hereunder, unless: (a) such holder shall previously have given to the Debenture Trustee written notice of the happening of an Event of Default hereunder; and (b) the Debentureholders by Extraordinary Resolution or by written instrument signed by the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding shall have made a request to the Debenture Trustee and the Debenture Trustee shall have been afforded reasonable opportunity either itself to proceed to exercise the powers hereinbefore granted or to institute an action, suit or proceeding in its name for such purpose; and (c) the Debentureholders or any of them shall have furnished to the Debenture Trustee, when so requested by the Debenture Trustee, sufficient funds and security and indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred therein or thereby; and (d) the Debenture Trustee shall have failed to act within a reasonable time after such notification, request and offer of indemnity and such notification, request and offer of indemnity are hereby declared in every such case, at the option of the Debenture Trustee, to be conditions precedent to any such proceeding or for any other remedy hereunder by or on behalf of the holder of any Debentures.

9.6 Application of Monies by Debenture Trustee

(a) Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, any monies received by the Debenture Trustee from Countryside Canada pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Article 9, or as a result of legal or other proceedings or from any trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator of Countryside Canada, shall be applied, together with any other monies in the hands of the Debenture Trustee available for such purpose, as follows:

(i) first, in payment or in reimbursement to the Debenture Trustee of its compensation, costs, charges, expenses, borrowings, advances or other monies furnished or provided by or at the instance of the Debenture Trustee in or about the execution of its trusts under, or otherwise in relation to, this Indenture, with interest thereon as herein provided;

(ii) second, but subject as hereinafter in this Section 9.6 provided, in payment, rateably and proportionately to (and in the case of applicable withholding taxes, if any, on behalf of) the holders of Debentures, of the principal of and premium (if any) and accrued and unpaid interest and interest on amounts in default on the Debentures which shall then be outstanding in the priority of principal first and then premium and then accrued and unpaid interest and interest on amounts in default unless otherwise directed by Extraordinary Resolution and in that case in such order or priority as between principal, premium (if any) and interest as may be directed by such resolution; and

(iii) third, in payment of the surplus, if any, of such monies to Countryside Canada or its assigns; provided, however, that no payment shall be made pursuant to clause (ii) above in respect of the principal, premium or interest on any Debenture held, directly or indirectly, by or for the benefit of the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries (other than any Debenture pledged for value and in good faith to a person other than the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries but only to the extent of such person's interest therein) except subject to the prior payment in full of the principal, premium (if any) and interest (if any) on all Debentures which are not so held.

(b) The Debenture Trustee shall not be bound to apply or make any partial or interim payment of any monies coming into its hands if the amount so received by it, after reserving thereout such amount as the Debenture Trustee may think necessary to provide for the payments mentioned in Section 9.6(a), is insufficient to make a distribution of at least 2% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debentures, but it may retain the money so received by it and invest or deposit the same as provided in Section 16.9 until the money or the investments representing the same, with the income derived therefrom, together with any other monies for the time being under its control shall be sufficient for the said purpose or until it shall consider it advisable to apply the same in the manner hereinbefore set forth. The foregoing shall, however, not apply to a final payment in distribution hereunder.

9.7 Notice of Payment by Debenture Trustee

Not less than 15 days notice shall be given in the manner provided in Section 15.2 by the Debenture Trustee to the Debentureholders of any payment to be made under this Article 9. After the day so fixed, unless payment shall have been duly demanded and have been refused, the Debentureholders will be entitled to interest only on the balance (if any) of the principal monies, premium (if any) and interest due (if any) to them, respectively, on the Debentures, after deduction of the respective amounts payable in respect thereof on the day so fixed.

9.8 Debenture Trustee May Demand Production of Debentures

The Debenture Trustee shall have the right to demand production of the Debentures in respect of which any payment of principal, interest or premium required by this Article 9 is made and may cause to be endorsed on the same a memorandum of the amount so paid and the date of payment, but the Debenture Trustee may, in its discretion, dispense with such production and endorsement, upon such indemnity being given to it and to Countryside Canada as the Debenture Trustee shall deem sufficient.

9.9 Remedies Cumulative

No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Debenture Trustee, or upon or to the holders of Debentures is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or now existing or hereafter to exist by law or by statute.

Countryside Canada covenants and agrees with the Debenture Trustee that, in case of any judicial or other proceedings to enforce the rights of the Debentureholders, judgment may be rendered against it in favour of the Debentureholders or in favour of the Debenture Trustee, as trustee for the Debentureholders, for any amount which may remain due in respect of the Debentures and premium (if any) and the interest thereon and any other monies owing hereunder.

9.11 Immunity of Debenture Trustee and Others

The Debentureholders and the Debenture Trustee hereby waive and release any right, cause of action or remedy now or hereafter existing in any jurisdiction against any past, present or future Trustee or Director, or officer of the Administrator or the Manager, or holder of Units or

and in either event:

(iii) Countryside Canada has paid, caused to be paid or made provisions to the satisfaction of the Debenture Trustee for the payment of all other sums payable with respect to all of such Debentures (together with all applicable expenses of the Debenture Trustee in connection with the payment of such Debentures); and

(iv) Countryside Canada has delivered to the Debenture Trustee a Certificate of the Manager stating that all conditions precedent herein provided relating to the payment, satisfaction and discharge of all such Debentures have been complied with.

In the event that the Debenture Trustee enters into any such agreement contemplated by this Section 10.5(a), the Debenture Trustee shall be deemed to have completely and satisfactorily discharged its duties and obligations under this indenture with respect to the Debentures being satisfied and all future duties and obligations of the Debenture Trustee with respect to the satisfied Debentures shall be governed solely pursuant to the terms of the new escrow and/or trust agreement, as applicable.

UNIT INTEREST PAYMENT ELECTION

11.1 Unit Interest Payment Election

(a) Provided that no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and that all necessary regulatory approvals have been obtained (including any required approval of any stock exchange on which the Debentures or Units are then listed), Countryside Canada shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to make a Unit Interest Payment Election in respect of any Interest Obligation, in whole or in part, by delivering a Unit Interest Payment Election Notice to the Debenture Trustee no later than the earlier of: (i) the date required by applicable law or the rules of any stock exchange on which the Debentures or Units are then listed, and (ii) the day which is 15 Business Days prior to the Interest Payment Date to which the Unit Interest Payment Election relates.

(b) Upon receipt of a Unit Interest Payment Election Notice, the Debenture Trustee shall, as directed in writing by Countryside Canada, as agent of Countryside Canada, in accordance with this Article 11 and such Unit Interest Payment Election Notice: (i) deliver Unit Bid Requests to the investment banks, brokers or dealers (each, a "Broker") identified by Countryside Canada, in its absolute discretion, in the Unit Interest Payment Election Notice, or (ii) agree to Countryside Canada establishing an account or accounts (in the name of the Debenture Trustee, if necessary) with a Broker identified by Countryside Canada, in its absolute discretion, in the Unit Interest Payment Election Notice for the purpose of such Broker selling Freely Tradeable Units on behalf of Countryside Canada in accordance with the terms hereof (which Broker shall notify Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee as such Units are sold and the settlement rules prescribed by securities regulatory policies shall apply in respect of the payment for such Units). The Broker shall send copies of the monthly statements and transaction slips in respect of all sales of Units to Countryside Canada (with a duplicate copy to the Debenture Trustee, or as it may otherwise in writing direct), as soon as reasonably practicable after preparation thereof). All fees payable in respect of such accounts shall be paid by Countryside Canada; provided, however, that it shall be a condition precedent to Countryside Canada establishing such an account with one or more Brokers that all necessary legal, regulatory and other requirements have been satisfied by Countryside Canada and the Debenture Trustee, if applicable, and Countryside Canada shall assume, to the maximum extent permitted herein and at law, all responsibility for administering such account(s). In connection with the Unit Interest Payment Election, the Debenture Trustee shall have the power to: (i) accept delivery of the Units from Countryside Canada and process the Units in accordance with the Unit Interest Payment Election Notice, (ii) accept bids with respect to, and consummate sales of, such Units, each as Countryside Canada shall direct in its absolute discretion through the Broker identified by Countryside Canada in the Unit Interest Payment Election Notice, (iii) invest the proceeds of such sales in Canadian Government Obligations, (iv) deliver proceeds to holders of Debentures to satisfy all or a portion of Countryside Canada's Interest Obligations, as directed by Countryside Canada in the Unit Interest Payment Election Notice, and (v) perform any other action necessarily incidental thereto as directed by Countryside Canada in its absolute discretion. The Unit Interest Payment Election Notice shall, where the Debenture Trustee delivers Unit Bid Requests, direct the Debenture Trustee to solicit and accept only, and each Unit Bid Request shall provide that the acceptance of any bid is conditional on the acceptance of, sufficient bids to result in aggregate net proceeds from such issue and sale of Units which, together with the cash payments to be made by Countryside Canada, if any, equal the Interest Obligation on the Unit Delivery Date.

(c) The Unit Interest Payment Election Notice shall provide confirmation from Countryside Canada that all necessary regulatory approvals have been obtained and shall also provide for, and all bids, if any, shall be subject to, the right of Countryside Canada, by delivering written notice to the Debenture Trustee at any time prior to the consummation of such delivery and sale of the Units on the Unit Delivery Date, to withdraw the Unit Interest Payment Election (which shall have the effect of withdrawing each related Unit Bid Request), whereupon Countryside Canada shall be obliged to pay in cash the Interest Obligation in respect of which the Unit Interest Payment Election Notice has been delivered.

(d) Any sale of Units pursuant to this Article 11 may be made to one or more Persons whose bids are solicited.

(e) The amount receivable by a holder of a Debenture in respect of the Interest Obligation or the entitlement thereto will not be affected by whether or not Countryside Canada elects to satisfy the Interest Obligation pursuant to a Unit Interest Payment Election.

(f) The Debenture Trustee shall inform Countryside Canada promptly following receipt of any bid or bids for Units solicited pursuant to the Unit Bid Requests. The Debenture Trustee shall accept such bid or bids as Countryside Canada, in its absolute discretion, shall direct by Written Direction of the Manager, provided that the aggregate net proceeds of all sales of Units through the facilities of a registered broker/dealer resulting from the acceptance of such bids, together with the amount of any cash payment by Countryside Canada, on the Unit Delivery Date, must be equal to the related Unit Interest Payment Election Amount in connection with any bids so accepted. Countryside Canada, the Debenture Trustee (if required by Countryside Canada in its absolute discretion) and the applicable bidders shall, not later than the Unit Delivery Date, enter into Unit Purchase Agreements in a form satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee and shall comply with all Applicable Securities Legislation, including the securities rules and regulations of any stock exchange on which the Debentures or Units are then listed. Countryside Canada shall pay all fees and expenses in connection with the Unit Purchase Agreements including the fees and commissions charged by the investment banks, brokers and dealers and the fees of the Debenture Trustee.

(g) Provided that (i) all conditions specified in each Unit Purchase Agreement to the closing of all sales thereunder have been satisfied, other than the delivery of the Units to be sold thereunder against payment of the purchase price thereof, and (ii) the purchasers under each Unit Purchase Agreement shall be ready, willing and able to perform thereunder, in each case on the Unit Delivery Date, Countryside Canada shall, on the Unit Delivery Date, deliver to the Debenture Trustee the Units to be sold on such date through the facilities of a registered broker/dealer, an amount in cash equal to the value of any fractional Units and a Certificate of the Manager to the effect that all conditions precedent to such sales, including those set forth in this Indenture and in each Unit Purchase Agreement, have been satisfied. Upon such deliveries, the Debenture Trustee shall consummate such sales through the facilities of a registered broker/dealer on such Unit Delivery Date by the delivery of the Units to such purchasers against payment to the Debenture Trustee in immediately available funds of the purchase price therefor.

(h) The Debenture Trustee shall, on the Unit Delivery Date, use the sale proceeds of the Units (together with any cash received from Countryside Canada) to purchase, on the direction of Countryside Canada in writing, Canadian Government Obligations which mature prior to the applicable Interest Payment Date and which the Debenture Trustee is required to hold until maturity (the "Unit Proceeds Investment") and shall, on such date, deposit the balance, if any, of such sale proceeds in the Property Account for such Debentures. The Debenture Trustee shall hold such Unit Proceeds Investment (but not income earned thereon) under its exclusive control in an irrevocable trust for the benefit of the holders of the Debentures. At least one Business Day prior to the Interest Payment Date, the Debenture Trustee shall deposit amounts from the proceeds of the Unit Proceeds Investment in the Property Account to bring the balance of the Property Account to the Unit Interest Payment Election Amount. On the Interest Payment Date, the Debenture Trustee shall pay Countryside Canada held in the Property Account to the holders of record of the Debentures on the record date of such Interest Payment Date (less any tax required to be withheld, if any) and, provided that there is no Event of Default, shall remit amounts, if any, in respect of income earned on the Unit Proceeds Investment or otherwise in excess of the Unit Interest Payment Election Amount to Countryside Canada.

(i) Neither the making of a Unit Payment Election nor the consummation of sales of Units on a Unit Delivery Date shall (i) result in the holders of the Debentures not being entitled to receive on the applicable Interest Payment Date cash in an aggregate amount equal to the Interest Obligation payable on such date or (ii) entitle such holders to receive any Freely Tradeable Units in satisfaction of such Interest Obligation.

SUCCESSORS

12.1 Restrictions on Amalgamation, Merger and Sale of Certain Assets, etc.

Subject to the provisions of Article 13, Countryside Canada shall not enter into any transaction or series of transactions whereby all or substantially all of its undertaking, property or assets would become the property of any other Person (herein called a "Successor") whether by way of reorganization, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement, merger, transfer, sale or otherwise, unless:

(a) prior to or contemporaneously with the consummation of such transaction Countryside Canada and the Successor shall have executed such instruments and done such things as, in the opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable to establish that upon the consummation of such transaction:

(iii) in the case of an entity organized otherwise than under the laws of the Province of Ontario, shall attorn to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario;

(b) such transaction, in the opinion of Counsel, shall be on such terms as to substantially preserve and not impair any of the rights and powers of the Debenture Trustee or of the Debentureholders hereunder; and

12.2 Vesting of Powers in Successor

Whenever the conditions of Section 12.1 shall have been duly observed and performed, any Successor formed by or resulting from such transaction shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of Countryside Canada under this Indenture with the same effect as though the Successor had been named as Countryside Canada herein and thereafter, except in the case of a lease or other similar disposition of property to the Successor or the disposition of less than all of Countryside Canada's undertaking, property and assets to the Successor, Countryside Canada shall be relieved of all obligations and covenants under this Indenture and the Debentures forthwith upon Countryside Canada delivering to the Debenture Trustee an opinion of Counsel to the effect that the transaction shall not result in any material adverse tax consequences to Countryside Canada or the Successor. The Debenture Trustee will, at the expense of the Successor, execute any documents which it may be advised by Counsel are necessary or advisable for effecting or evidencing such release and discharge.

(a) If a Dissenting Debentureholder has elected to demand payment of the fair value for his or her Debentures pursuant to Section 13.4(a)(ii)(B), the Offeror may, within 21 calendar days after it has paid the cash or transferred the other consideration to the Debenture Trustee under Section 13.6, apply to a court to fix the fair value of the Debentures of that Dissenting Debentureholder.

(b) If a Offeror fails to apply to a court under Section 13.9(a), a Dissenting Debentureholder may apply to a court for the same purpose within a further period of 21 calendar days.

(c) Where no application is made to a court under Section 13.9(b) within the period set out in that Section, a Dissenting Debentureholder is deemed to have elected to transfer his or her Debentures to the Offeror on the same terms on which the Offeror acquired Debentures of the applicable series from Debentureholders who accepted the Offer.

(d) An application under Section 13.9(a), or 13.9(b), shall be made to a court having jurisdiction in the Province of Ontario.

(e) A Dissenting Debentureholder is not required to give security for costs in an application made under Section 13.9(a) or 13.9(b).

(f) On an application under Section 13.9(a) or 13.9(b) :

(i) all Dissenting Debentureholders that have elected pursuant to Section 13.4(a)(ii)(B) whose Debentures have not been acquired by the Offeror shall be joined as parties and are bound by the decision of the court; and

(ii) the Offeror shall notify each affected Dissenting Debentureholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of their right to appear and be heard in person or by legal counsel.

(g) On an application to a court under Section 13.9(a) or 13.9(b) the court may determine whether any other Person is a Dissenting Debentureholder who should be joined as a party, and the court shall then fix a fair value for each series of Debentures held by the Dissenting Debentureholders.

(h) A court may in its discretion appoint one or more appraisers to assist the court in fixing a fair value for each series of Debentures of a Dissenting Debentureholder.

(i) The final order of the court shall be made against the Offeror in favour of each Dissenting Debentureholder in the amount for each series of Debentures as fixed by the court.

(j) In connection with proceedings under this Section 13.9, a court may make any order it thinks fit and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it may:

(i) fix the amount of money or other consideration that is required to be held in trust under Section 13.7;

(ii) order that money or other consideration be held in trust by a Person other than the Debenture Trustee; and

(iii) allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each Dissenting Debentureholder from the date they send or deliver notice to the Offeror under Section 13.4 until the date of payment.

13.9 Communication of Offer to Countryside Canada

An Offeror cannot make an Offer for Debentures unless, concurrent with the communication of the Offer to any Debentureholder, a copy of the Offer is provided to Countryside Canada.

ARTICLE 14
MEETINGS OF DEBENTUREHOLDERS

14.1 Right to Convene Meeting

The Debenture Trustee or Countryside Canada may at any time and from time to time, and the Debenture Trustee shall, on receipt of a written request of Countryside Canada or a written request signed by the holders of not less than 25% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding and upon receiving funding and being indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction by Countryside Canada or by the Debentureholders signing such request against the costs which may be incurred in connection with the calling and holding of such meeting, convene a meeting of the Debentureholders. In the event of the Debenture Trustee failing, within 30 days after receipt of any such request and such funding and indemnification, to give notice convening a meeting, Countryside Canada or such Debentureholders, as the case may be, may convene such meeting. Every such meeting shall be held in the City of Toronto or at such other place as may be approved or determined by the Debenture Trustee.

14.2 Notice of Meetings

(a) At least 21 days notice of any meeting shall be given to the Debentureholders in the manner provided in Section 15.2 and a copy of such notice shall be sent by post to the Debenture Trustee, unless the meeting has been called by it. Such notice shall state the time when and the place where the meeting is to be held and shall state briefly the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat and it shall not be necessary for any such notice to set out the terms of any resolution to be proposed or any of the provisions of this Article. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to any holder of Debentures shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting. A holder may waive notice of a meeting either before or after the meeting.

(b) If the business to be transacted at any meeting by Extraordinary Resolution or otherwise, or any action to be taken or power exercised by instrument in writing under Section 14.15, especially affects the rights of holders of Debentures of one or more series in a manner or to an extent differing in any material way from that in or to which the rights of holders of Debentures of any other series are affected (determined as provided in Sections 14.2(c) and (d)), then:

(i) a reference to such fact, indicating each series of Debentures in the opinion of the Debenture Trustee, as advised by counsel, so especially affected (hereinafter referred to as the "especially affected series") shall be made in the notice of such meeting, and in any such case the meeting shall be and be deemed to be and is herein referred to as a "Serial Meeting"; and

(ii) the holders of Debentures of an especially affected series shall not be bound by any action taken at a Serial Meeting or by instrument in writing under Section 14.15 unless in addition to compliance with the other provisions of this Article 14:

(A) at such Serial Meeting: (I) there are Debentureholders present in person or by proxy and representing at least 25% in principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding of such series, subject to the provisions of this Article 14 as to quorum at adjourned meetings; and (II) the resolution is passed by the affirmative vote of the holders of more than 50% (or in the case of an Extraordinary Resolution not less than 66 2/3%) of the principal amount of the Debentures of such series then outstanding voted on the resolution; or

(B) in the case of action taken or power exercised by instrument in writing under Section 14.15, such instrument is signed in one or more counterparts by the holders of not less than 66 2/3% in principal amount of the Debentures of such series then outstanding.

(c) Subject to Section 14.2(d), the determination as to whether any business to be transacted at a meeting of Debentureholders, or any action to be taken or power to be exercised by instrument in writing under Section 14.15, especially affects the rights of the Debentureholders of one or more series in a manner or to an extent differing in any material way from that in or to which it affects the rights of Debentureholders of any other series (and is therefore an especially affected series) shall be determined by an opinion of Counsel, which shall be binding on all Debentureholders, the Debenture Trustee and Countryside Canada for all purposes hereof.

(d) A proposal:

(i) to extend the maturity of Debentures of any particular series or to reduce the principal amount thereof, the rate of interest or any redemption premium thereon or to impair any exchange right thereof;

(ii) to modify or terminate any covenant or agreement which by its terms is effective only so long as Debentures of a particular series are outstanding; or

(iii) to reduce with respect to Debentureholders of any particular series any percentage stated in this Section 14.2 or Sections 14.4, 14.12 and 14.15, shall be deemed to especially affect the rights of the Debentureholders of such series in a manner differing in a material way from that in which it affects the rights of holders of Debentures of any other series, whether or not a similar extension, reduction, modification or termination is proposed with respect to Debentures of any or all other series.

14.3 Chairman

Some person, who need not be a Debentureholder, nominated in writing by Countryside Canada (in case it convenes the meeting) or the Debenture Trustee (in any other case) shall be chairman of the meeting and if no person is so nominated, or if the person so nominated is not present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for the holding of the meeting, a majority of the Debentureholders present in person or by proxy shall choose some person present to be chairman.

14.4 Quorum

Subject to the provisions of Section 14.12, at any meeting of the Debentureholders a quorum shall consist of not less than two Debentureholders present in person or by proxy and representing at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding Debentures and, if the meeting is a Serial Meeting, at least 25% of the Debentures then outstanding of each especially affected series. If a quorum of the Debentureholders shall not be present within 30 minutes from the time fixed for holding any meeting, the meeting, if summoned by the Debentureholders or pursuant to a request of the Debentureholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week (unless such day is not a Business Day in which case it shall be adjourned to the next following Business Day thereafter) at the same time and place, to the extent possible, and no notice shall be required to be given in respect of such adjourned meeting. At the adjourned meeting, the Debentureholders present in person or by proxy shall, subject to the provisions of Section 14.12, constitute a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened notwithstanding that they may not represent 25% of the principal amount of the outstanding Debentures or of the Debentures then outstanding of each especially affected series. Any business may be brought before or dealt with at an adjourned meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless the required quorum be present at the commencement of business.

14.5 Power to Adjourn

The chairman of any meeting at which a quorum of the Debentureholders is present may, with the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Debentures represented thereat, adjourn any such meeting and no notice of such adjournment need be given except such notice, if any, as the meeting may prescribe.

14.6 Show of Hands

Every question submitted to a meeting shall, subject to Section 14.7, be decided in the first place by a majority of the votes given on a show of hands except that votes on Extraordinary Resolutions shall be given in the manner hereinafter provided. At any such meeting, unless a poll is duly demanded as herein provided, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact. The chairman of any meeting shall be entitled, both on a show of hands and on a poll, to vote in respect of the Debentures, if any, held by him.

14.7 Poll

On every Extraordinary Resolution, and on any other question submitted to a meeting when demanded by the chairman or by one or more Debentureholders or proxies for Debentureholders, a poll shall be taken in such manner and either at once or after an adjournment as the chairman shall direct. Questions other than Extraordinary Resolutions shall, if a poll be taken, be decided by the votes of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Debentures and of each especially affected series, if applicable, represented at the meeting and voted on the poll.

14.8 Voting

On a show of hands every person who is present and entitled to vote, whether as a Debentureholder or as proxy for one or more Debentureholders or both, shall have one vote. On a poll each Debentureholder present in person or represented by a proxy duly appointed by an instrument in writing shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each $1,000 principal amount of Debentures of which he shall then be the holder. In the case of any Debenture denominated in a currency or currency unit other than U.S. Dollars, the principal amount thereof for these purposes shall be computed by Countryside Canada in U.S. Dollars on the basis of the conversion of the principal amount thereof at the applicable spot buying rate of exchange for such other currency or currency unit as reported by the Bank of Canada at the close of business on the Business Day next preceding the meeting. Any fractional amounts resulting from such conversion shall be rounded to the nearest $100. A proxy need not be a Debentureholder. In the case of joint holders of a Debenture, any one of them present in person or by proxy at the meeting may vote in the absence of the other or others but in case more than one of them be present in person or by proxy, they shall vote together in respect of the Debentures of which they are joint holders.

14.9 Proxies

A Debentureholder may be present and vote at any meeting of Debentureholders by an authorized representative. Countryside Canada (in case it convenes the meeting) or the Debenture Trustee (in any other case) for the purpose of enabling the Debentureholders to be present and vote at any meeting without producing their Debentures, and of enabling them to be present and vote at any such meeting by proxy and of lodging instruments appointing such proxies at some place other than the place where the meeting is to be held, may from time to time make and vary such regulations as it shall think fit providing for and governing any or all of the following matters:

(a) the form of the instrument appointing a proxy, which shall be in writing, and the manner in which the same shall be executed and the production of the authority of any person signing on behalf of a Debentureholder;

(b) the deposit of instruments appointing proxies at such place as the Debenture Trustee, Countryside Canada or the Debentureholder convening the meeting, as the case may be, may, in the notice convening the meeting, direct and the time, if any, before the holding of the meeting or any adjournment thereof by which the same must be deposited; and

(c) the deposit of instruments appointing proxies at some approved place or places other than the place at which the meeting is to be held and enabling particulars of such instruments appointing proxies to be mailed, faxed or sent by other electronic means before the meeting to Countryside Canada or to the Debenture Trustee at the place where the same is to be held and for the voting of proxies so deposited as though the instruments themselves were produced at the meeting.

Any regulations so made shall be binding and effective and the votes given in accordance therewith shall be valid and shall be counted. Save as such regulations may provide, the only persons who shall be recognized at any meeting as the holders of any Debentures, or as entitled to vote or be present at the meeting in respect thereof, shall be Debentureholders and persons whom Debentureholders have by instrument in writing duly appointed as their proxies.

14.10 Persons Entitled to Attend Meetings

Countryside Canada, the Manager and the Debenture Trustee, by their respective officers, directors, employees and agents (as applicable), the Auditors of Countryside Canada and the legal advisers of Countryside Canada, the Debenture Trustee or any Debentureholder may attend any meeting of the Debentureholders, but shall have no vote as such.

14.11 Powers Exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution

In addition to the powers conferred upon them by any other provisions of this Indenture or by applicable law, a meeting of the Debentureholders shall have the following powers exercisable from time to time by Extraordinary Resolution, subject in the case of the matters in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (l) to receipt of the prior approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange or such other exchange on which the Debentures are then listed:

(a) power to authorize the Debenture Trustee to grant extensions of time for payment of any principal, premium or interest on the Debentures, whether or not the principal, premium, or interest, the payment of which is extended, is at the time due or overdue;

(b) power to sanction any modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement of the rights of the Debentureholders or the Debenture Trustee against

Countryside Canada, or against its property, whether such rights arise under this Indenture or the Debentures or otherwise;

(c) power to assent to any modification of or change in or addition to or omission from the provisions contained in this Indenture or any Debenture which shall be agreed to by Countryside Canada and to authorize the Debenture Trustee to concur in and execute any indenture supplemental hereto embodying any modification, change, addition or omission;

(d) power to sanction any scheme for the reconstruction, reorganization or recapitalization of Countryside Canada or for the consolidation, amalgamation or merger of Countryside Canada with any other Person or for the sale, leasing, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the undertaking, property and assets of Countryside Canada or any part thereof, provided that no such sanction shall be necessary in respect of any such transaction if the provisions of Section 12.1 shall have been complied with;

(e) power to direct or authorize the Debenture Trustee to exercise any power, right, remedy or authority given to it by this Indenture in any manner specified in any such Extraordinary Resolution or to refrain from exercising any such power, right, remedy or authority;

(f) power to waive, and direct the Debenture Trustee to waive, any default hereunder and/or cancel any declaration made by the Debenture Trustee pursuant to Section 9.1 either unconditionally or upon any condition specified in such Extraordinary Resolution;

(g) power to restrain any Debentureholder from taking or instituting any suit, action or proceeding for the purpose of enforcing payment of the principal, premium or interest on the Debentures, or for the execution of any trust or power hereunder;

(h) power to direct any Debentureholder who, as such, has brought any action, suit or proceeding to stay or discontinue or otherwise deal with the same upon payment, if the taking of such suit, action or proceeding shall have been permitted by Section 9.5, of the costs, charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by such Debentureholder in connection therewith;

(i) power to assent to any compromise or arrangement with any creditor or creditors or any class or classes of creditors, whether secured or otherwise, and with holders of any units or other securities of Countryside Canada;

(j) power to appoint a committee with power and authority (subject to such limitations, if any, as may be prescribed in the resolution) to exercise, and to direct the Debenture Trustee to exercise, on behalf of the Debentureholders, such of the powers of the Debentureholders as are exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution or other resolution as shall be included in the resolution appointing the committee. The resolution making such appointment may provide for payment of the expenses and disbursements of and compensation to such committee. Such committee shall consist of such number of persons as shall be prescribed in the resolution appointing it and the members need not be themselves Debentureholders. Every such committee may elect its chairman and may make regulations respecting its quorum, the calling of its meetings, the filling of vacancies occurring in its number and its procedure generally. Such regulations may provide that the committee may act at a meeting at which a quorum is present or may act by minutes signed by the number of members thereof necessary to constitute a quorum. All acts of any such committee within the authority delegated to it shall be binding upon all Debentureholders. Neither the committee nor any member thereof shall be liable for any loss arising from or in connection with any action taken or omitted to be taken by them in good faith;

(k) power to remove the Debenture Trustee from office and to appoint a new Debenture Trustee or Debenture Trustees provided that no such removal shall be effective unless and until a new Debenture Trustee or Debenture Trustees shall have become bound by this Indenture;

(l) power to sanction the exchange of the Debentures for or the conversion thereof into units, bonds, debentures or other securities or obligations of Countryside Canada or of any other Person formed or to be formed;

(m) power to authorize the distribution in specie of any shares or securities received pursuant to a transaction authorized under the provisions of Section 14.11(l); and

(n) power to amend, alter or repeal any Extraordinary Resolution previously passed or sanctioned by the Debentureholders or by any committee appointed pursuant to Section 14.11(j).

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 14.11, none of such provisions shall in any manner allow or permit any amendment, modification, abrogation or addition to the provisions of Article 6 which could reasonably be expected to detrimentally affect the rights, remedies or recourse of the priority of the Senior Creditors.

14.12 Meaning of "Extraordinary Resolution"

(a) The expression "Extraordinary Resolution" when used in this Indenture means, subject as hereinafter in this Article provided, a resolution proposed to be passed as an Extraordinary Resolution at a meeting of Debentureholders (including an adjourned meeting) duly convened for the purpose and held in accordance with the provisions of this Article at which the holders of not less than 25% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding, and if the meeting is a Serial Meeting, at which holders of not less than 25% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding of each especially affected series, are present in person or by proxy and passed by the favourable votes of the holders of not less than 66⅔% of the principal amount of the Debentures, and if the meeting is a Serial Meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66⅔% of each especially affected series, in each case present or represented by proxy at the meeting and voted upon on a poll on such resolution.

(b) If, at any such meeting, the holders of not less than 25% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding and, if the meeting is a Serial Meeting, 25% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding of each especially affected series, in each case are not present in person or by proxy within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, then the meeting, if convened by or on the requisition of Debentureholders, shall be dissolved but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such date, being not less than 14 nor more than 60 days later, and to such place and time as may be appointed by the chairman. Not less than 10 days notice shall be given of the time and place of such adjourned meeting in the manner provided in Section 15.2. Such notice shall state that at the adjourned meeting the Debentureholders present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum. At the adjourned meeting the Debentureholders present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution proposed at such adjourned meeting and passed thereat by the affirmative vote of holders of not less than 66⅔% of the principal amount of the Debentures and, if the meeting is a Serial Meeting, by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66⅔% of the principal amount of the Debentures of each especially affected series, in each case present or represented by proxy at the meeting voted upon on a poll shall be an Extraordinary Resolution within the meaning of this Indenture, notwithstanding that the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding, and if the meeting is a Serial Meeting, at which holders of not less than 25% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding of each especially affected series, are not present in person or by proxy at such adjourned meeting.

(c) Votes on an Extraordinary Resolution shall always be given on a poll and no demand for a poll on an Extraordinary Resolution shall be necessary.

14.13 Powers Cumulative

Any one or more of the powers in this Indenture stated to be exercisable by the Debentureholders by Extraordinary Resolution or otherwise may be exercised from time to time and the exercise of any one or more of such powers from time to time shall not be deemed to exhaust the rights of the Debentureholders to exercise the same or any other such power or powers thereafter from time to time.

14.14 Minutes

Minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at every meeting as aforesaid shall be made and duly entered in books to be from time to time provided for that purpose by the Debenture Trustee at the expense of Countryside Canada, and any such minutes as aforesaid, if signed by the chairman of the meeting at which such resolutions were passed or proceedings had, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting of the Debentureholders, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated and, until the contrary is proved, every such meeting, in respect of the proceedings of which minutes shall have been made, shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened, and all resolutions passed thereat or proceedings taken thereat to have been duly passed and taken.

14.15 Instruments in Writing

All actions which may be taken and all powers that may be exercised by the Debentureholders at a meeting held as hereinbefore in this Article provided may also be taken and exercised by the holders of 66⅔% of the principal amount of all the outstanding Debentures and, if the meeting at which such actions might be taken would be a Serial Meeting, by the holders of 66-⅔% of the principal amount of the Debentures then outstanding of each especially affected series, by an instrument in writing signed in one or more counterparts and the expression "Extraordinary Resolution" when used in this Indenture shall include an instrument so signed.

14.16 Binding Effect of Resolutions

Every resolution and every Extraordinary Resolution passed in accordance with the provisions of this Article at a meeting of Debentureholders shall be binding upon all the Debentureholders, whether present at or absent from such meeting, and every instrument in writing signed by Debentureholders in accordance with Section 14.15 shall be binding upon all the Debentureholders, whether signatories thereto or not, and each and every Debentureholder and the Debenture Trustee (subject to the provisions for its indemnity herein contained) shall be bound to give effect accordingly to every such resolution, Extraordinary Resolution and instrument in writing.

14.17 Evidence of Rights Of Debentureholders

(a) Any request, direction, notice, consent or other instrument which this Indenture may require or permit to be signed or executed by the Debentureholders may be in any number of concurrent instruments of similar tenor signed or executed by such Debentureholders.

(b) The Debenture Trustee may, in its discretion, require proof of execution in cases where it deems proof desirable and may accept such proof as it shall consider proper.

14.18 Concerning Serial Meetings

If in the opinion of Counsel any business to be transacted at any meeting, or any action to be taken or power to be exercised by instrument in writing under Section 14.15, does not adversely affect the rights of the holders of Debentures of one or more series, the provisions of this Article 14 shall apply as if the Debentures of such series were not outstanding and no notice of any such meeting need be given to the holders of Debentures of such series. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a proposal to modify or terminate any covenant or agreement which is effective only so long as Debentures of a particular series are outstanding shall be deemed not to adversely affect the rights of the holders of Debentures of any other series.

ARTICLE 16
CONCERNING THE DEBENTURE TRUSTEE

16.1 No Conflict of Interest

The Fund acknowledges that the Debenture Trustee is acting as indenture trustee with respect to the Countryside Canada Notes. Accordingly, the Debenture Trustee may have or appear to have a conflict of interest. The Fund hereby agrees and consents to the appointment of the Debenture Trustee pursuant to this indenture.

Other than as disclosed above in this Section 16.1, the Debenture Trustee represents to Countryside Canada that at the date of execution and delivery by it of this Indenture there exists no material conflict of interest in the role of the Debenture Trustee as a fiduciary hereunder but if, notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 16.1, such a material conflict of interest exists, or hereafter arises, the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, and the Debentures issued hereunder, shall not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only that such material conflict of interest exists or arises but the Debenture Trustee shall, within 30 days after ascertaining that it has a material conflict of interest, either eliminate such material conflict of interest or resign in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 16.2.

16.2 Replacement of Debenture Trustee

The Debenture Trustee may resign its trust and be discharged from all further duties and liabilities hereunder by giving to Countryside Canada 30 days' notice in writing or such shorter notice as Countryside Canada may accept as sufficient. If at any time a material conflict of interest exists in the Debenture Trustee's role as a fiduciary hereunder the Debenture Trustee shall, within 30 days after ascertaining that such a material conflict of interest exists, either eliminate such material conflict of interest or resign in the manner and with the effect specified in this Section 16.2. The validity and enforceability of this Indenture and of the Debentures issued hereunder shall not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only that such a material conflict of interest exists. In the event of the Debenture Trustee resigning or being removed or being dissolved, becoming bankrupt, going into liquidation or otherwise becoming incapable of acting hereunder, Countryside Canada shall forthwith appoint a new Debenture Trustee unless a new Debenture Trustee has already been appointed by the Debentureholders. Failing such appointment by Countryside Canada, the retiring Debenture Trustee or any Debentureholder may apply to a Judge of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, on such notice as such Judge may direct at Countryside Canada's expense, for the appointment of a new Debenture Trustee but any new Debenture Trustee so appointed by Countryside Canada or by the Court shall be subject to removal as aforesaid by the Debentureholders and the appointment of such new Debenture Trustee shall be effective only upon such new Debenture Trustee becoming bound by this Indenture. Any new Debenture Trustee appointed under any provision of this Section 16.2 shall be a corporation authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in all of the provinces and territories of Canada. On any new appointment the new Debenture Trustee shall be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named herein as Debenture Trustee.

16.4 Reliance Upon Declarations, Opinions, etc.

In the exercise of its rights, duties and obligations hereunder the Debenture Trustee may, if acting in good faith, act and rely, as to the truth of the statements and accuracy of the opinions expressed therein, upon statutory declarations, opinions, reports or certificates furnished pursuant to any covenant, condition or requirement of this Indenture or required by the Debenture Trustee to be furnished to it in the exercise of its rights and duties hereunder, if the Debenture Trustee examines such statutory declarations, opinions, reports or certificates and determines that they comply with Section 16.5, if applicable, and with any other applicable requirements of this Indenture. The Debenture Trustee may nevertheless, in its discretion, require further proof in cases where it deems further proof desirable. Without restricting the foregoing, the Debenture Trustee may act and rely on an opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee notwithstanding that it is delivered by a solicitor or firm which acts as solicitors for Countryside Canada.

Whenever such evidence relates to a matter other than the certificates and delivery of Debentures and the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, and except as otherwise specifically provided herein, such evidence may consist of a report or opinion of any solicitor, auditor, accountant, engineer or appraiser or any other person whose qualifications give authority to a statement made by him, provided that if such report or opinion is furnished by a trustee, officer or employer of Countryside Canada it shall be in the form of a statutory declaration. Such evidence shall be, so far as appropriate, in accordance with the immediately preceding paragraph of this Section.

Each statutory declaration, certificate, opinion or report with respect to compliance with a condition precedent provided for in the Indenture shall include (a) a statement by the person giving the evidence that he has read and is familiar with those provisions of this Indenture relating to the condition precedent in question, (b) a brief statement of the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in such evidence are based, (c) a statement that, in the belief of the person giving such evidence, he has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable him to make the statements or give the opinions contained or expressed therein, and (d) a statement whether in the opinion of such person the conditions precedent in question have been complied with or satisfied.

Countryside Canada shall furnish to the Debenture Trustee at any time if the Debenture Trustee reasonably so requires, a Certificate of the Manager affirming compliance with all covenants, conditions or other requirements contained in this Indenture, the non-compliance with which would, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time, or both, or otherwise, constitute an Event of Default, or if such is not the case, specifying the covenant, condition or other requirement which has not been complied with and giving particulars of such non-compliance. Countryside Canada shall, whenever the Debenture Trustee so requires, furnish the Debenture Trustee with evidence by way of statutory declaration, opinion, report or certificate as specified by the Debenture Trustee as to

For certainty, the first interest payment will include interest accrued from ●, 2005 to, but excluding,

This Initial Debenture may be redeemed at the option of Countryside Canada on the terms and conditions set out in the Indenture at the redemption price therein and herein set out provided that this Initial Debenture is not redeemable prior to or on October 31, 2008, except in the event of the satisfaction of certain conditions after a Change of Control has occurred. After October 31, 2008 and prior to October 31, 2010, this Initial Debenture is redeemable at the option of Countryside Canada provided that Countryside Canada files with the Debenture Trustee on the day preceding the day on which notice of redemption of this Initial Debenture is first given, a Certificate of the Manager certifying that the weighted average price of the Units on the Toronto Stock Exchange (or elsewhere in accordance with the Indenture) for 20 consecutive trading days, ending on the fifth trading day preceding the day prior to the date on which such notice is given, is at least 125% of the Exchange Price then in effect. On and after October 31, 2010 and prior to maturity, the Initial Debentures are redeemable at the option of Countryside Canada on the terms and conditions set out in the Indenture at the redemption price set out therein irrespective of the price of the Units on the Toronto Stock Exchange (or elsewhere in accordance with the Indenture).

Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, each holder of Initial Debentures may subject to the terms and provisions of Section 2.4(i) and Article 6 of the Indenture require Countryside Canada to purchase the whole or any part of such holder's Initial Debentures at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Initial Debentures plus accrued and unpaid interest up to, but excluding, the date the Initial Debentures are so repurchased (the "Put Right"). Countryside Canada, at its option, may elect to satisfy the principal portion of such purchase price either by payment in cash or by the delivery of Units of the Fund. If 90% or more of the principal amount of all Initial Debentures outstanding on the date Countryside Canada provides notice of a Change of Control to the Debenture Trustee have been tendered for purchase pursuant to the Put Right, Countryside Canada has the right to redeem all the remaining outstanding Initial Debentures on the same date and at the same price.

If a takeover bid for Initial Debentures, within the meaning of the Securities Act (Ontario), is made and 90% or more of the principal amount of all the Initial Debentures (other than Initial Debentures held at the date of the takeover bid by or on behalf of the Offeror, Associates or Affiliates of the Offeror or anyone acting jointly or in concert with the Offeror) are taken up and paid for by the Offeror, the Offeror will be entitled to acquire the Initial Debentures of those holders who did not accept the offer on the same terms as the Offeror acquired the first 90% of the principal amount of the Initial Debentures, provided that the holders of Initial Debentures will have the right to be paid the fair value of their Initial Debentures if they complied with the applicable procedures in the Indenture.

Countryside Canada may, on notice as provided in the Indenture, at its option and (subject to any applicable regulatory approval), elect to satisfy the obligation to repay all or part of the principal amount of this Initial Debenture on the Maturity Date or on redemption by the issue of that number of Freely Tradeable Units obtained by dividing the principal amount of this Initial Debenture to be so repaid by 95% of the Current Market Price on the Maturity Date or the date fixed for redemption, as the case may be.

The indebtedness evidenced by this Initial Debenture, and by all other Initial Debentures now or hereafter certified and delivered under the Indenture, is a direct unsecured obligation of Countryside Canada, and is subordinated in right of payment, to the extent and in the manner provided in the Indenture, to the prior payment of all Senior Secured Indebtedness, whether outstanding at the date of the Indenture or thereafter created, incurred, assumed or guaranteed.

The principal hereof may become or be declared due and payable before the stated maturity in the events, in the manner, with the effect and at the times provided in the Indenture.

Any payment of money or transfer of Units to any holder of Debentures will be reduced by the amount of applicable withholding taxes, if any. The Indenture contains provisions making binding upon all holders of Debentures outstanding thereunder (or in certain circumstances specific series of Debentures) resolutions passed at meetings of such holders held in accordance with such provisions and instruments signed by the holders of a specified majority of Debentures outstanding (or specific series), which resolutions or instruments may have the effect of amending the terms of this Initial Debenture or the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions disclaiming any personal liability on the part of holders of shares or Units, Directors, Trustees, the Manager, the Administrator, officers or agents of Countryside Canada or the Fund in respect of any obligation or claim arising out of the Indenture or this Initial Debenture.

This Initial Debenture may only be transferred, upon compliance with the conditions prescribed in the Indenture, in one of the registers to be kept at the principal offices of the Debenture Trustee in Toronto and in such other place or places and/or by such other registrars (if any) as Countryside Canada with the approval of the Debenture Trustee may designate. No transfer of this Initial Debenture shall be valid unless made on the register by the registered holder hereof or his executors or administrators or other legal representatives, or his or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in form and substance satisfactory to the Debenture Trustee or other registrar, and upon compliance with such reasonable requirements as the Debenture Trustee and/or other registrar may prescribe and upon surrender of this Initial Debenture for cancellation. Thereupon a new Initial Debenture or Initial Debentures in the same aggregate principal amount shall be issued to the transferee in exchange hereof.

This Initial Debenture shall not become obligatory for any purpose until it shall have been certified by the Debenture Trustee under the Indenture.

Capitalized words or expressions used in this Initial Debenture shall, unless otherwise defined herein, have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Indenture. In the event that the terms and conditions stated in this Debenture conflict, or are inconsistent, with the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the Indenture shall prevail and take priority.

Countryside Power Income Fund Declares Cash Distribution and Announces 2004 Tax Deferral Rate

(London, Ontario, February 17, 2005) -- Countryside Power Income Fund (TSX:COU.UN) (the "Fund") today announced that it will pay a monthly cash distribution of $0.0854 per unit for the period from February 1, 2005 to February 28, 2005. The cash distribution will be payable on March 31, 2005 to unitholders of record as at February 28, 2005. The ex-distribution trading date is February 24, 2005.

Countryside also announced that for tax purposes, the composition of distributions paid by the Fund for 2004 was approximately 71% return on capital and 29% return of capital. Returns on capital are generally taxed as ordinary income or as dividends in the hands of a unitholder. Returns of capital are generally non-taxable to a unitholder (but reduce the unitholder's cost basis in the unit for tax purposes).

The composition for tax purposes of the Fund's distributions may change over time thus affecting the after-tax return to unitholders. Management estimates that in 2005, the composition of distributions for tax purposes will approximate the allocation reported for 2004. Unitholders and prospective investors should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the affect of such allocations on their own individual circumstances.

The Fund's policy is for unitholders of record on the last business day of a calendar month to receive distributions on or about the 30th day of the following month. Holders of units who are non-residents of Canada will be required to pay all applicable withholding taxes payable in respect of any distributions by the Fund.

Countryside Power Income Fund Reports Financial Results for Fiscal 2004

First Fiscal Period Meets Key Performance Targets

(London, Ontario, March 23, 2005) -- Countryside Power Income Fund (TSX: COU.UN) today announced its financial results for the three-month period ended December 31, 2004, and for the 267-day period from the start of operations on February 16 to December 31, 2004.

Highlights for the Three Months Ended December 31, 2004:

- Revenue was $7.9 million
- Net income was $2.2 million or $0.14 per unit
- Distributable cash was $3.71 million
- Declared distributions of $3.82 million or $0.2563 per unit

Highlights for the 267-Day Period Ended December 31, 2004:

- Revenue was $21.4 million
- Net income was $7.6 million or $0.51 per unit
- Distributable cash was $11.08 million
- Declared distributions of $11.16 million or $0.7488 per unit

"Countryside completed its first fiscal period with a track record of consistent distributions, solid operational performance and on-target financial results," said Göran Mörnhed, President and Chief Executive Officer of Countryside U.S. Power Inc. "We have a strong foundation that ensures cash flow sustainability and a disciplined investment approach that supports further growth. We are committed to growing the Fund through accretive investments and are actively reviewing opportunities to expand our portfolio."

During the year, Countryside delivered visible results from its internal growth strategy in its utility infrastructure investment, securing a major new customer and undertaking an efficiency improvement program at our district energy systems. These initiatives are already generating accretive cash flow and are expected to result in additional cash flow for the Fund of between $300,000 and $500,000 annually.

Financial results cover the period from Countryside's establishment on February 16, 2004, but reflect the fact that operations began with the launch of the publicly traded units on April 8, 2004.

Revenue from Countryside's district energy systems was $4.8 million for the three-month period and $11.7 million for the 267-day period, both of which were slightly higher than management's expectations due to increased sales and higher energy prices. Interest income on the loan receivable from U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. (USEB) was $2.9 million for the three-month period and $8.6 million for the 267-day period, both of which were in line with management's expectations. Revenue from Countryside's convertible royalty interest in USEB was $410,000 for the 267-day period.

With respect to its U.S.-based investments, Countryside's financial results generally have not been affected by the strengthening of the Canadian dollar relative to the U.S. dollar or the rise in U.S. interest rates during the past year. The USEB loan has a fixed coupon and is denominated in Canadian dollars so all revenues come in the form of Canadian dollars. Further, the interest rate on Countryside's outstanding bank debt is fixed under a three-year hedging arrangement with Toronto Dominion Bank.

Conference Call and Webcast

Management will host a conference call at 10 a.m. (ET) on Wednesday, March 23, 2005 to discuss the results. Please call 416-640-4127 or 1-800-814-4890 to access the call.

The call will be webcast live and archived on the Countryside web site at www.countrysidepowerfund.com.

Countryside's financial statements for the period and management's discussion and analysis are available at www.countrysidepowerfund.com.

Distributable cash does not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and is therefore unlikely to be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. Since the Fund and its subsidiaries distribute substantially all of their available cash on an on-going basis, management believes that distributable cash is an important measure in evaluating the performance of the Fund and determining whether to invest in units of the Fund. For a reconciliation of net income to distributable cash please see the Fund's MD&A for the period ended December 31, 2004.

The Fund owns indirect investments in 22 renewable power and energy projects and two district energy systems. The renewable power and energy projects, located in the United States, currently have approximately 51 megawatts of electric generation capacity and sold approximately 700,000 MMBtus of boiler fuel in 2003. The district energy systems are located in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island and London, Ontario, and together have approximately 122 megawatts of thermal and electric generation capacity. Countryside Power Income Fund Reports Financial Results for the First Quarter of 2005

Utility Infrastructure Investment Delivers Solid Growth

(London, Ontario, May 5, 2005) -- Countryside Power Income Fund (TSX: COU.UN) today announced its financial results for the first quarter of fiscal 2005, the three-month period ended March 31, 2005.

Highlights:

- Revenue was $9.4 million
- Net income was $3.0 million or $0.20 per unit
- EBITDA* was $4.4 million
- Distributable cash* was $4.3 million
- Declared distributions of $3.8 million or $0.256 per unit

"We are pleased with the Fund's performance this quarter, which was driven by year-over-year revenue and EBITDA increases at our utility infrastructure investment in district energy systems," said Göran Mörnhed, President and Chief Executive Officer of Countryside U.S. Power Inc. "Countryside has a solid base with stable cash flow from our utility infrastructure and renewable power investments. We remain focused on our strategy to improve current operations while looking for opportunities to further diversify our portfolio by fuel source and technology," Mr. Mornhed added.

Since inception, the Fund has generated distributable cash of $15.22 million and declared distributions of $14.98 million.

In the first quarter ended 2005, revenue from Countryside's district energy systems increased 9.1 per cent to $6.2 million from the prior year period. Interest income on the loan receivable from U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. (USEB) was $2.9 million, in line with expectations. EBITDA* for the three-month period was $4.4 million and net income was $3.0 million or $0.20 per unit.

The district energy systems benefited from a customer addition and efficiency improvement program initiated in 2004 and completed in the first quarter of 2005. District energy EBITDA increased by 30 per cent compared with the same period last year, mainly due to higher energy pricing combined with lower fuel costs resulting from an improved fuel mix.

With respect to its U.S.-based investments, Countryside's financial results generally have not been affected by the strengthening of the Canadian dollar relative to the U.S. dollar or the rise in U.S. interest rates during the past year. The USEB loan has a fixed coupon and is denominated in Canadian dollars. Further, the interest rate on Fund's outstanding Canadian bank debt is fixed under a three-year hedging arrangement.

Conference Call and Webcast

Management will host a conference call at 11:30 a.m. (ET) on Thursday, May 5, 2005 to discuss the results. Please call 416-640-4127 or 1-800-814-4853 to access the call.

The call will be webcast live and archived on the Countryside web site at www.countrysidepowerfund.com.

Countryside's financial statements for the period and management's discussion and analysis are available at www.countrysidepowerfund.com.

* Non-GAAP Measures

Distributable cash does not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and is therefore unlikely to be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. Since the Fund and its subsidiaries distribute substantially all of their available cash on an on-going basis, management believes that distributable cash is an important measure in evaluating the performance of the Fund and determining whether to invest in units of the Fund. For a reconciliation of net income to distributable cash please see the Fund's MD&A for the period ended March 31, 2005.

Earnings before interest, income taxes, unrealized interest rate swap gains and losses, and depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") is not a measure under Canadian GAAP and there is no standardized measure of EBITDA and therefore, it may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other funds or companies. Management uses EBITDA as a key measure of operating performance, and thus has framed a portion of the MD&A comments accordingly. EBITDA can be calculated from the Fund's GAAP statements as operating income, plus depreciation and amortization.

The Fund owns indirect investments in 22 renewable power and energy projects and two district energy systems. The renewable power and energy projects, located in the United States, currently have approximately 51 megawatts of electric generation capacity and sold approximately 750,000 MMBtus of boiler fuel in 2004. The district energy systems are located in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island and London, Ontario, and together have approximately 122 megawatts of thermal and electric generation capacity. The Fund's indirect investments consist of loans to, and a convertible royalty interest in, U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. and the ownership of the district energy systems.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release may contain forward-looking statements relating to expected future events and financial and operating results of the Fund that involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from management expectations as projected in such forward-looking statements for a variety of reasons, including market and general economic conditions and the risks and uncertainties detailed from time to time in the Fund's prospectus filed with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities. Due to the potential impact of these factors, the Fund disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, unless required by applicable law.

Countryside Power Income Fund Reports Financial Results for the Second Quarter of 2005

Positioned for Growth with Accretive Acquisition of California Power Assets

(London, Ontario, August 9, 2005) -- Countryside Power Income Fund (TSX: COU.UN) ("the Fund") today announced its financial results for the second quarter period ended June 30, 2005.

"Countryside delivered solid results in the second quarter, benefiting from the predictable revenue stream and stable cash flow that define our business, as well as earnings gains in the district energy business," said Göran Mörnhed, President and Chief Executive Officer of Countryside U.S. Power Inc. "The acquisition of two cogeneration plants in California, which further diversifies our portfolio, is expected to be accretive to cash flow and significantly expands our potential revenue and earnings base beginning in the third quarter."

Acquisition of California Cogeneration Plants

On June 29, 2005, Countryside acquired two gas-fired cogeneration plants in California through an indirect investment in Ripon Cogeneration LLC ("Ripon") for a total of US $95.3 million, or approximately CDN $117 million based on current exchange rates. The two facilities have a combined capacity of 95 megawatts and a weighted power purchase agreement expiry of 2017. They posted combined revenues of US $50 million and EBITDA* of approximately US $10.5 million for the period from January 27, 2004 to December 31, 2004. The acquisition further diversifies Countryside's asset base, consistent with the Fund's growth strategy. The operating results for Ripon are not included in the reporting period ended June 30, 2005.

"We expect that the addition of the cogeneration plants will add reliable cash flows from the sale of electricity to large, investment-grade utilities and steam to local industrial buyers under long-term contracts," said Edward Campana, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Countryside U.S. Power Inc. "These plants have a long and stable operating performance history with predictable cash flow streams."

Operating Results

Countryside's total revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2005 was $7.2 million, up 9.9% from $6.5 million from the prior year period ended June 30, 2004. It should be noted that since the Fund commenced operations on April 8, 2004, the comparable prior year quarterly period is a short period of 83 days. The revenue increase is primarily due to strong results at the district energy systems, which benefited from the addition of a new customer, changes in fuel pricing and improvements in efficiency. Revenue was $16.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2005. Since the Fund commenced operations on April 8, 2004, there is no comparable period for the first quarter of 2005.

The Fund's EBITDA* for the three-months ended June 30, 2005 was $3.1 million, net of certain transaction costs related to the Ripon acquisition. Excluding these costs, EBITDA would have been $3.6 million, unchanged from the comparable operating period last year. These costs were not related to the ongoing operations of the Fund. EBITDA gains of 25% in the district energy systems were offset by higher general and administration costs at the Fund level in the current quarter. For the first six months of 2005, EBITDA was $7.6 million.

Net income for the quarterly period was $0.9 million or $0.06 per unit, compared to $2.7 million or $0.18 per unit in the comparable period of 2004. The year-over-year difference in net income relates primarily to non-cash adjustments for financial hedging transactions, as well as bank refinancing costs and other transaction costs in connection with the Ripon acquisition. Net income was $3.9 million or $0.26 per unit for the six months ended June 30, 2005.

Distributable cash for the quarter was $2.9 million. Excluding the Ripon related transaction costs, distributable cash would have been $3.3 million, unchanged from the comparable period. Distributions declared were $3.8 million. Due to the seasonality of Countryside's district energy systems, distributable cash is typically lower in the second and third quarters than in the first and fourth quarters. As of January 1, 2005, the royalty interest income earned from USEB is included in the calculation of distributable cash when received. In the six-month period ended June 30, 2005, which includes the peak heating season for the district energy systems, distributable cash was $7.2 million. Excluding the Ripon-related transaction costs, distributable cash would have been $7.7 million. Distributions declared year-to-date were $7.6 million.

Conference Call and Webcast

Management will host a conference call at 10 a.m. (ET) on Tuesday, August 9, 2005 to discuss the results. Please call 1-800-814-3911 to access the call.

The call will be webcast live and archived on the Countryside web site at www.countrysidepowerfund.com.

Countryside Power Income Fund Reports Financial Results for the Third Quarter of 2005

Acquisition of Cogeneration Assets Adds Significantly to Distributable Cash Flow

(London, Ontario, November 10, 2005) -- Countryside Power Income Fund (TSX: COU.UN) ("the Fund") today announced its financial results for the third quarter period ended September 30, 2005. All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise stated.

Financial Highlights:

- Revenue was $26.8 million for the quarter
- EBITDA* was $10.6 million for the quarter
- Distributable cash* was $6.2 million for the quarter or $0.418 per unit and $13.8 million year-to-date or $0.926 per unit
- Declared distributions of $3.8 million or $0.257 per unit for the quarter and $11.5 million or $0.770 per unit year-to-date

"We executed on the growth strategy that we laid out for investors last year, and saw tangible evidence of our success in Countryside's solid results for the third quarter," said Göran Mörnhed, President and Chief Executive Officer of the management company, Countryside Ventures LLC. "As a result of the acquisition of two cogeneration plants in California, we have further diversified our portfolio, added assets with long-term predictable cash flow streams and increased cash available for distribution to unitholders," he added.

During the third quarter, Countryside's board of trustees declared an increase in the Fund's cash distributions of $0.01 per unit annually as a result of the expected accretive acquisition of the Ripon cogeneration facilities (the "Cogen Facilities").

Operating Results

Countryside's total revenue for the three months ended September 30, 2005 was $26.8 million, an increase of $20 million compared with the same period last year, primarily as a result of the acquisition of the Cogen Facilities. Excluding the effect of the acquisition, revenue would have been $6.9 million, up from $6.7 million in the same period in 2004, primarily due to better results at the district energy systems, which benefited from the addition of a new customer, changes in fuel pricing and improvements in efficiency. In the nine months ended September 30, 2005, revenue was $43.3 million. Since the Fund commenced operations on April 8, 2004, there is no comparable period for the first quarter of 2005.

The Fund's EBITDA* for the three-months ended September 30, 2005 was $10.6 million, an increase of $6.7 million from the prior year period, again due primarily to the addition of the results of the Cogen Facilities. Excluding the quarterly results of Ripon and other Ripon-related expenses, EBITDA would have been $3.9 million in the third quarter compared to $3.9 million in the prior year period. In the first nine months of 2005, EBITDA was $18.0 million.

Net income in the quarterly period ended September 30, 2005, was $5.2 million or $0.35 per unit, compared with $2.7 million or $0.18 per unit in the comparable period of 2004. Net income was $9.1 million or $0.61 per unit for the nine months ended September 30, 2005.

Distributable cash* available for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2005 was $6.2 million. Excluding the quarterly results of the Cogen Facilities and other Ripon-related expenses, distributable cash would have been $3.8 million, in line with the $3.8 million in the comparable period last year. In the nine-month period, distributable cash was $13.8 million and distributions declared were $11.5 million. Prior to the acquisition of the Cogen Facilities, distributable cash flow for the Fund was at its highest during the first and fourth quarters, reflecting the peak season demand for customer heating at our District Energy Systems. As a result of the acquisition of the Cogen Facilities, distributable cash for the Fund is expected to be at its highest in the third quarter when capacity payments under the power purchase agreements are at peak pricing.

	With Cogen Facilities 9/30/05	Without Cogen Facilities 9/30/05	Without Cogen Facilities 9/30/04
Revenues	26,754	6,931	6,714

Subsequent to quarter-end, the Fund and its direct subsidiary entered into an agreement to sell, to a syndicate of underwriters including CIBC World Markets, RBC Capital Markets, TD Securities Inc, National Bank Financial and BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., 4,720,000 trust units to raise gross proceeds of $44 million and US$55 million through 6.25% exchangeable unsecured subordinated debentures due October 31, 2012. Countryside will use the net proceeds from the offering to repay indebtedness associated with the acquisition of the Cogen Facilities, to acquire debt owing by the subsidiary that holds the Cogen Facilities, to pay certain expenses in connection with the offering and for general corporate purposes. Closing of the offering is scheduled on or about November 14, 2005.

"The offering provides the Fund with a competitive and permanent capital structure that will significantly mitigate both interest rate and foreign exchange risk," said Edward M. Campana, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Countryside Ventures LLC.

Countryside Power Income Fund Reports Financial Results for the Fiscal Year 2005

Acquisition of Cogeneration Assets Fuel Strong Cash Flow Growth

(London, Ontario, March 10, 2006) -- Countryside Power Income Fund (TSX: COU.UN) ("the Fund") today announced its financial results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise stated.

Highlights for Fiscal 2005:

- Cash available for distribution increased to $20.0 million, resulting in distributable cash* of $1.274 per unit and a solid 80.7% payout ratio
- Cash distributions to unitholders were increased by 1 cent per unit annually to $1.035
- Acquisition of two Cogeneration Facilities in the U.S. through execution of growth strategy
- Strengthened governance practices and modified management arrangements to facilitate opportunities for further accretive investments in power generation and utility infrastructure

"In 2005, Countryside delivered excellent financial results and strong growth. We improved operational performance, further diversified our asset base, and increased our two most important measures of cash flow – Adjusted EBITDA* and cash available for distribution. As a result, we increased distributions to unitholders," said Göran Mörnhed, President and Chief Executive Officer of Countryside Ventures LLC (the "Manager").

Results for Fiscal 2005

Countryside's consolidated revenue increased substantially from the prior year period due primarily to the successful acquisition of Ripon Power LLC (the "Cogen Facilities") in June 2005. Revenue for the fiscal year 2005 was $67.2 million compared with $21.1 million for 2004. The Fund delivered significantly higher Adjusted EBITDA for 2005 of $24.5 million, compared with $11.3 million for 2004. The Cogen Facilities contributed six months of solid operating results in the second half of 2005, with an Adjusted EBITDA of $10.1 USD million, primarily as a result of an operational focus on maximizing cash flow margins. In the District Energy Systems, Adjusted EBITDA was $5.9 million for the year, an increase of 27% from 2004, due primarily to efficiency and operational improvements. Net income was $13.2 million or $0.85 per unit as compared with $7.6 million or $0.51 per unit in the prior year period.

In the 12-month period, distributable cash was $20.0 million and distributions declared were $16.1 million, resulting in a payout ratio of 80.7%. The payout ratio reflects the strong performance and peak operating season at the Cogen Facilities. The Fund also implemented a foreign exchange hedging program on a portion of the cash flows from the Cogen Facilities, ensuring there is a foreign currency hedge on substantially all U.S. dollar amounts that are required to meet the Fund's Canadian dollar-denominated obligations and anticipated unitholder distributions.

Results for the Fourth Quarter 2005

Countryside's consolidated revenue for the three months ended December 31, 2005 was $23.8 million, an increase of $16.0 million compared with the same period last year, primarily as a result of the acquisition of the Cogen Facilities. Excluding the effect of the acquisition, revenue would have been $8.7 million, up 10.7% from $7.9 million in the same period in 2004.

The Fund's Adjusted EBITDA for the three-months ended December 31, 2005 was $6.5 million, an increase of $2.6 million from the prior year period, again due primarily to the addition of the Cogen Facilities. Excluding the quarterly results of Ripon and other Ripon-related expenses, Adjusted EBITDA would have been $4.2 million in the fourth quarter, an increase of 9.7% compared with $3.8 million in the prior year period. The higher Adjusted EBITDA is due primarily to increased energy prices, efficiency and operational improvements. Net income was $4.0 million and $0.23 per unit as compared with $2.2 million and $0.14 per unit in the prior year period.

Distributable cash available for the quarterly period ended December 31, 2005 was $6.2 million, resulting in a payout ratio for the period of 75.3%. Excluding the quarterly results of the Cogen Facilities and other Ripon-related expenses, distributable cash would have been $4.0 million, up 7.1% from $3.7 million in the comparable period last year.

Distributions

As a result of improvements in operating performance and expected increases in cash flow from operations, Countryside increased distributions to unitholders in September 2005 to $1.035 per unit annually from $1.025. The Fund anticipates that unitholder cash distributions will continue at $1.035 per unit for the remainder of fiscal 2006. Cash retained by the Fund in fiscal 2005 that is reflected by the 2005 payout ratio of 80.7% should provide flexibility for possible further increases in distributions, as well as a strong protection against unexpected events.

Outlook

The Cogen Facilities' power purchase agreements provide for both electrical capacity and energy payments that will not expire until 2016 and 2018. Based on these long-term commercial arrangements and strong growth fundamentals in the California power market, the Fund is currently evaluating profit improvement strategies that may include, among other things, an expansion of plant capacity. No major maintenance expenditures are expected at the Cogen Facilities until 2007 and 2008.

In mid-2006, when the Cogen Facilities' energy pricing under the power purchase agreements ("PPA") revert to pricing formulas correlated with California gas price indices, and the current gas purchase arrangements end, the Cogen Facilities intend to enter into new arrangements with one or more investment grade gas supplier(s) that would provide full natural gas requirements.

The California Public Utility Commission is currently reviewing possible adjustments of energy payment pricing formulas under PPAs for qualifying power generation facilities in California that are governed by the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978 and applicable California state regulations. The outcome of an adjustment in energy pricing, if any, may affect approximately 7,000 megawatts of qualifying power generation facilities, including the Fund's Cogen Facilities. The final terms of any long-term arrangements for fuel supply that may be entered into by the Cogen Facilities will be based on the outcome of the California Public Utility Commission review, with an aim to substantially correlate fuel pricing with the PPA energy pricing formula then in effect.

The Ontario Power Authority ("OPA") is seeking to solicit up to 1,000 megawatts of combined heat and power generation in the Province of Ontario. The Fund's London, Ontario based district energy facility already operates in this market and may be able to meet the criteria for providing a portion of the requested power generation. The London System will evaluate if an expansion of its facilities and the terms of a concomitant new power purchase agreement with OPA would be competitive in the market and economically beneficial to the Fund, as well as accretive to the Fund's distributable cash.

The Manager is committed to growing the Fund through new accretive investments in North America and is continually evaluating investment opportunities. The Manager has a disciplined investment strategy to identify and pursue acquisitions and investment opportunities.

Tax Deferral Rate

The Manager of the Fund estimates that in 2005, the composition of distributions for tax purposes will be approximately 34 per cent return of capital, with the remaining 66 per cent will be subject to tax in the hands of unitholders.

* Non-GAAP Measures

Distributable cash does not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and is therefore unlikely to be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. Since the Fund and its subsidiaries distribute substantially all of their available cash on an on-going basis, management believes that distributable cash is an important measure in evaluating the performance of the Fund and determining whether to invest in units of the Fund. For a reconciliation of cash provided by operating activities from the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows to distributable cash please see the Fund's MD&A for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Adjusted earnings before interest, income taxes, unrealized and realized interest rate swap and unrealized foreign exchange gains and losses, and depreciation and amortization ("Adjusted EBITDA") is not a measure under Canadian GAAP and there is no standardized measure of Adjusted EBITDA and therefore, it may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other funds or companies. Management uses Adjusted EBITDA as a key measure of operating performance, and thus has framed a portion of the MD&A comments accordingly. Adjusted EBITDA can be calculated from the Fund's GAAP statements as operating income, plus depreciation and amortization.

__Prior Year Period__

The prior year comparative period includes operating results for the 267-day period from April 8, 2004, the date of the Fund's initial public offering, to December 31, 2004.

__Tax Deferral__

Investors should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in Countryside's trust units based on their respective circumstances.

Countryside Power Income Fund Completes Foreign Exchange Hedging Program

(London, Ontario, January 13, 2006) -- Countryside Power Income Fund (the "Fund") (TSX: COU.UN) today announced that in December 2005, a subsidiary of the Fund entered into a call option with a Schedule 1 Canadian bank that hedges a substantial portion of the cash flow from its California-based cogeneration facilities ("Cogen Facilities") between exchange rates of US$0.84 and US$0.89 per CDN$1.00 for three years. With this transaction, Countryside has now hedged foreign currency exchange risk for substantially all U.S. dollar amounts that are required to meet the Fund's Canadian dollar-denominated obligations and anticipated unitholder distributions.

In addition to the acquired hedge, the interest coupon due under Countryside Canada Power Inc.'s (wholly-owned subsidiary of the Fund) recently issued U.S. dollar-denominated, fixed rate, exchangeable subordinated debentures already provides a natural hedge for approximately 40 per cent of the U.S. dollar cash flows from the Cogen Facilities that have been used to meet Canadian dollar obligations and anticipated unitholder distributions.

Countryside receives cash flow from three primary sources: (i) the two Cogen Facilities; (ii) its two district energy systems, which generate revenue in Canadian dollars; and (iii) its investment in U.S.-based renewable power projects, which is mainly in the form of a loan denominated in Canadian dollars, thereby shielding the Fund from currency exchange rate risk.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 (All amounts in thousands of U.S. dollars, unless otherwise stated)

NOTE 1 - DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. ("USEB"), a Delaware Corporation, is a developer, owner and operator of landfill gas projects in the United States. USEB owns and operates 21 landfill gas to energy projects located in nine states. USEB also owns and operates the equipment on one additional landfill gas to energy project that is owned by an independent party. Of the 21 owned facilities, 18 utilize landfill gas as a fuel for the generation of electricity and three sell gas to unrelated users for use as boiler fuel. USEB owns 100% of the projects located outside the State of Illinois and 50% of those located in Illinois. The remaining 50% of the projects located in Illinois are owned by AJG Financial Service, Inc. ("AJG").

USEB also typically owns a small percentage of the gas collection companies (gascos) associated with the facilities and operates the gas collection systems on behalf of the gasco entity owners.

USEB does not own any of the landfills and does not perform any landfill operations. Generally, the landfill gas utilized is purchased through gas purchase agreements with the gasco entities.

On May 1, 2001, the predecessor of USEB, Zahren Alternative Power Corporation, was acquired by US Energy Systems, Inc. ("USEY") and Cinergy Energy Solutions, Inc. ("Cinergy"), an indirect subsidiary of Cinergy Corp. USEY owns 54.3% of USEB and Cinergy owns the remaining 45.7%.

The financial statements presented reflect the "USEB Operating Assets". The USEB Operating Assets consist of the assets, liabilities and capitalization of USEB and its predecessor company and their subsidiaries excluding the equity and assets and liabilities of Brown County Energy Associates LLC, Garland Energy Development LLC, Hoffman Road Associates LLC, Oyster Bay Energy Partners LP, Zapco Development Corp., Zapco Equipment Corp. and ZFC Equipment Corp.

NOTE 2 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP").

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of USEB, wholly-owned subsidiaries and entities and/or projects owned or controlled through various partnership and limited liability company interests. All significant inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated on consolidation.

(c) Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(d) Concentration of Credit Risk

Substantially all of USEB's power generation and gas revenues are derived from investment grade utilities, municipalities and industrial concerns. These customers have contracted with USEB to purchase electricity and landfill gas ("LFG") under energy purchase agreements. The concentration of credit in this business segment reduces USEB's overall credit exposure because the majority of these customers are investment grade, diversified and under contract based on production of electricity and LFG.

During the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004, power generation sales to Commonwealth Edison amounted to 46% of all power generation sales. Please refer to Notes 4 and 15 for further discussion. USEB maintains demand deposits in excess of $100 with individual banks. Amounts in excess of $100 are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(e) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of acquired companies over the fair value of their tangible net assets acquired. The periods of amortization of goodwill and other long-lived assets are evaluated at least annually to determine whether events and circumstances warrant revised estimates of useful lives. This evaluation considers, among other factors, expected cash flows and profits of the business to which the goodwill and other long-lived assets relate. More specifically, the Company performed a discounted cash flow analysis using a risk adjusted rate of return, commensurate with specific business or asset characteristics and potential business opportunities for the investment. Significant estimates utilized in the discounted cash flow analysis include the amount of landfill gas available for power generation, the rate paid for the power generation and the investment yields on the investment of the Illinois Accounts. Changes in the actual results compared to these estimates would effect the valuation of goodwill.

In June 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations (SFAS 141), and No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (SFAS 142). SFAS 141 requires all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001, to be accounted for using the purchase method. With the adoption of SFAS 142, goodwill and other intangibles with indefinite lives will no longer be subject to amortization. SFAS 142 requires that goodwill be assessed for impairment upon adoption and at least annually thereafter by applying a fair-value-based test, as opposed to the undiscounted cash flow test applied under prior accounting standards. This test must be applied at the "reporting unit" level, which is not permitted to be broader than the current business segments. Under SFAS 142, an acquired intangible asset should be separately recognized if the benefit of the intangible asset is obtained through contractual or other legal rights, or if the intangible asset can be sold, transferred, licensed, rented, or exchanged, regardless of the acquirer's intent to do so.

We began applying SFAS 141 in the third quarter of 2001 and SFAS 142 in the first quarter of 2002. The discontinuance of amortization of goodwill, which began in the first quarter of 2002, was not material to our financial position or results of operations. In 2004 and 2003, an impairment test of the goodwill resulting from the acquisition of USEB was performed with no change in the valuation. We will continue to perform goodwill impairment tests annually, as required by SFAS 142, or when circumstances indicate that the fair value of a reporting unit has declined below the amount necessary to maintain the goodwill valuation.

Goodwill at December 31, 2004 and 2003 is presented net of amortization of $592. Amortization has ceased with the adoption of SFAS No. 142. Goodwill was adjusted in 2004 to reflect the payment of additional compensation to the former USEB shareholders per the terms of the 2001 merger agreement.

(f) Fair Values of Financial Instruments/Financial Market Risk

The estimated fair value of financial instruments has been determined based on available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. The carrying amounts of cash, accounts receivable, other current assets, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value as of December 31, 2004 because of the short maturity of these financial instruments. Except as noted below, the estimated carrying value of the notes receivable, notes payable and cash investments are either contractual or approximate fair value. Cash investment assets held in non-cash assets such as investments in equity or fixed income funds are marked to market. The fair value estimates were based on information available to management as of December 31, 2004. If subsequent circumstances indicate that a decline in the fair market value of a financial asset is other than temporary, the financial instrument is written down to its fair market value. Except as noted below, it is management's opinion that USEB is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments for the near future.

As discussed further in Note 9 to the Financial Statements, USEB's debt obligations to Countryside Power Income Fund (CPIF) are denominated in Canadian currency, which exposes USEB to foreign currency risk. In April 2004, USEB entered into a currency hedge agreement that fixed the U.S. dollar to the Canadian dollar exchange rate at U.S. $0.76 per Canadian dollar through March 31, 2007. According to the terms of the loan agreement with CPIF, USEB s required to maintain a foreign currency hedge agreement for a minimum of 75% of the remaining debt service payments. USEB will be at risk for fluctuations in the currency exchange rate should the rate vary from the exchange rate existing in the expiring hedge agreement.

As discussed in Notes 3 and 4, USEB is required to maintain significant funds in reserve accounts for the repayment of the Illinois Subsidy Liability as it becomes due. The amounts currently being deposited into these accounts are based on an expected yield on the reserve funds. Should the balance held in the reserve account combined with expected returns on the investments be insufficient to fully retire the liability as it becomes due, any shortfall would have to be funded from project operations during the repayment periods.

(g) Inventory

Inventory is recorded at the lower of cost or market value and consists primarily of spare parts for the power generation and gas transmission equipment at the various landfill gas projects.

(h) Depreciation and Amortization

Fixed assets are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation, where such amounts were determined to be a reasonable representation of their fair market value, based on independent valuation studies done on a sample of the operating projects. USEB provides for depreciation of assets by charges to operations using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives. Expenditures for major overhauls and improvements to property, plant and power generation and gas transmission equipment are capitalized and depreciated over the remaining expected useful lives of the underlying assets. Generating and transmission rights are amortized over the remaining terms of the power and gas purchase agreements.

(i) Debt Issuance Costs

Debt issuance costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the related financing agreements. For the nine months ended December 31, 2004, the amount amortized to expense was approximately $546 and the unamortized balance as of December 31, 2004 was $11,266. This balance will be amortized over the remaining term of the debt with the annual amortization expense equal to approximately $795.

(j) Deferred Revenues

Deferred revenues primarily represent gains to be recognized from the sale of USEB's limited partnership interests in certain partnerships, further described in Note 8. The majority of the proceeds from the sales are to be paid in installments, the amounts of which will be determined by production and other considerations; therefore, the gain will be recognized as payments are received.

In June, 2004, deferred revenues were reduced by $2,502 to reflect revised estimates of the total amount to be realized under the contingent note receivable from AJG pertaining to their acquisition of various gasco interests. Refer to Note 8 for further discussion.

(k) Income Taxes

USEB uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred income taxes result from differences between the book and tax basis of assets and liabilities and the treatment of revenues received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. Differences in the timing of gain recognition and the utilization of tax net operating losses constitute the majority of the deferred tax asset. Income taxes have been accrued on the undistributed earnings of all subsidiaries.

(l) Investments in Derivatives

USEB holds derivative financial instruments for the sole purpose of hedging the risk of identifiable transactions. The types of risks hedged are those relating to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the variability of which impacts future earnings and cash flows. USEB documents its risk management strategy and hedge effectiveness at the inception of and during the term of the hedge. Changes in the fair market value of derivatives are recorded each period in other comprehensive income. For fair market value hedge transactions, changes in the fair market value of the derivative instrument are generally offset in the income statement by changes in the fair value of the item being hedged. For cash flow hedge transactions, changes in the fair value of the derivative instrument are reported in other comprehensive income.

(m) Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, USEB considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Supplementary cash flow information for cash payments are as follows:

Interest	$	6,372

NOTE 3 - RESTRICTED CASH AND MARKETABLE SECURITIES

USEB's financing with CPIF established various reserve accounts which are also collateral for the financing with CPIF. These accounts include the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts, a debt service reserve account and an improvement reserve account. The funds held in the improvement reserve account can be utilized to fund capital expenditures. The funds in the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts (the "Illinois Accounts") are to be utilized to retire the Illinois subsidy liability as it becomes due.

Restricted cash and investments as of December 31, 2004 consisted of the following:

Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts	$ 23,438
Improvement Reserve	4,022
Debt Service Reserve	2,011
Project Contract Reserve	138
Totals	$ 29,609

Included in the Illinois Accounts is $21,428 that is managed by Smith Barney under investment allocation parameters established by USEB. The Smith Barney accounts, as of December 31, 2004, included $13,352 invested in equity fund accounts, $6,945 invested in debt fund accounts, and $1,131 being held in cash or cash equivalent accounts. The cost basis of the investments with Smith Barney, which have been invested since July 2004, is $20,182.

Please see Note 4 below for additional information pertaining to the Illinois Accounts.

NOTE 4 - ILLINOIS RETAIL RATE PROGRAM

USEB has ten operating projects in Illinois that are receiving a subsidy for each kilowatt hour ("kwh") of electricity sold to the local utility under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. In accordance with the Illinois Retail Rate Program, the utility has contracted with each project to purchase electricity for an amount in excess of the utility's Avoided Cost (what it would otherwise pay for the generation of electricity) for a period of 10 years from the date of commencement of commercial operation of the relevant project. In turn, the utility receives a tax credit from the State of Illinois (the "State") equaling the amount of that excess. The excess is the subsidy received from the State. Each project is obligated to begin to repay the subsidy to the State after the project that received the subsidy has recouped its capital investment and retired all debt associated with the financing and construction of the project but, in any case, no later than 10 years from the date the project commenced commercial operation. All subsidy liabilities must be fully repaid to the State (without interest) by the end of the actual useful life of the project.

This subsidy is accounted for GAAP purposes in a manner similar to an original issue discount whereby the amount to be repaid in the future is discounted to its net present value and the discount is amortized (as interest expense) over the ten-year period until repayment begins. The amount of power generation income recognized each period is equal to the Avoided Cost rate plus the difference between the subsidy received by the project and the net present value of the subsidy. This unamortized discount and the liability are shown net on the consolidated balance sheet as Illinois Subsidy Liability.

USEB is required by CPIF to deposit funds into the Illinois Accounts for repayment of the Illinois Subsidy Liability. The Illinois Accounts are classified as restricted cash and marketable securities. The amount deposited into the Illinois Accounts is based upon the amount of subsidy received and contemplates an annual return sufficient to fund the current period subsidy liability repayment as it becomes due. Regular deposits combined with actual and expected returns on those deposits may not be sufficient to fully repay the respective liabilities as they become due. Should the amounts in the Illinois Accounts be insufficient to fully repay the obligations, any shortfall would have to be funded from the project's operations or assets as and when they become due.

The funds held in the Illinois Accounts are currently invested in equities and fixed income securities. These investments are being managed by a third-party professional money manager with the investment allocations being approved by the management of USEB. The amount held in the Illinois Accounts as of December 31, 2004 was $23,435. The amount of the incentive liability owed to the State as of December 31, 2004 was $49,028. It is anticipated that repayments of the incentive will begin in 2008 and continue through 2021.

Under the terms of the Illinois Retail Rate Program, estimated rates are paid for production sold to the utility with that rate being trued up annually, on the anniversary of the commencement of commercial operations of the applicable project, to the actual rates paid for electricity by the local municipality. After the actual rate is determined, sales for the preceding calendar year, retroactive to the last anniversary date, are adjusted based upon the actual rate. If the actual rate is greater than the estimated rate, additional sales proceeds are paid to the project. If the actual rate is less than the estimated rate, then prior sales proceeds received, equal to the excess amounts paid, must be refunded to the utility. This actual rate then becomes the estimated rate for the subsequent year.

During 2004, Retail rate for three of the Illinois projects, Morris, Dixon Lee and 122nd Street, decreased by 27%, 26% and 40% per kwh respectively. These retroactive rate reductions resulted in a decrease in revenues of $867 for the period ended December 31, 2004. This decrease is comprised of a $699 decrease related to the recalculation of prior calendar period sales and a $168 decrease in current sales due to those sales being calculated at the lower rate.

In the past, the annual reconciliation of estimated rates to actual rates has resulted in both increases and decreases in revenue retroactively. USEB has participated in the Illinois Retail Rate program since 1998 and has never experienced rate reconciliation changes of this magnitude. USEB has requested, but never received, an explanation from Commonwealth Edison. We are continuing to research the rationale for these decreases and will pursue any options such research may indicate are available to us to minimize the decreases. USEB has a total of 10 projects in Illinois, representing 64% of its Power Generation Revenues. USEB cannot predict whether any other major decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects are likely.

In the last few years, including 2004, legislation has been proposed in the State which included changes to, or the elimination of, the Illinois Retail Rate Program. While none of this legislation has been adopted, the adoption of any legislation that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under the Illinois Retail Rate Program could have a material adverse effect on USEB.

NOTE 5 - INVESTMENTS

The majority of the limited partnership interests classified as investments represent general partner ownership interests in the entities which own the LFG collection systems and LFG extraction rights of the landfills USEB has developed. Most of these entities qualify for non-conventional fuel source tax credits under Section 29 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended. USEB typically owns a 1% interest in these entities and accordingly accounts for the investments using the cost method.

NOTE 6 - INCOME TAXES

USEB uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred income taxes result from differences between the book and tax basis of assets and liabilities and the treatment of revenues received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. For income tax purposes, the subsidy received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program is treated as a loan owed to the State of Illinois. Differences in the timing of gain recognition and the utilization of tax net operating losses constitute the majority of the deferred tax asset. Income taxes have been accrued on the undistributed earning of all subsidiaries.

The provisions (benefits) for income taxes is as follows:

Current	$ 240
Deferred	(808)
Total	$ (568)

The provision (benefit) for income taxes differs from the Federal statutory rate for the following reasons:

	2004
Provision (Benefit) at Statutory Rate	781
Non-deductible Expenses	14
Illinois Subsidy and Deferred Revenue	(993)
Depreciation	(401)
State Income Tax	240
Other	(209)
Actual Provision (Benefit) for Income Taxes	(568)

NOTE 7 - FIXED ASSETS

Power Generation and Gas Transmission Assets

Power generation and gas transmission assets consist primarily of the value of the internal combustion engines and related equipment located at the landfill gas to energy projects. The majority of these assets are depreciated using the straight-line method for financial statement purposes.

The following is a summary of Power Generation Assets as of December 31, 2004:

Generation and Transmission Equipment and Peripherals	$ 65,780
Land	98
Accumulated depreciation	(24,213)
Total	$ 41,665

Other Property and Equipment, Net

Other property and equipment as of December 31, 2004, consists of site tools, office furniture, computer equipment and company vehicles. These assets are depreciated over lives ranging from three to ten years.

Other Property and Equipment	$	503
Accumulated depreciation		(282)
Total	$	221

NOTE 8 - NOTES AND INTEREST RECEIVABLE

Notes receivable as of December 31, 2004 consisted of four notes pertaining to USEB's sale of its limited partnership interests in several Gasco entities. Payments of principal and interest on the three contingent installment notes are made quarterly based upon the amount of LFG sold and the value of the tax credits generated by the sale. Payments of principal and interest on the Fixed Installment Notes are made quarterly based upon a mortgage style amortization. In June 2004, the contingent installment note receivable for the 1999 sale of gasco interests was written down by approximately $2,500 to reflect updated projections for the amount of gas projected to be sold and the dollar value of payments required under the contingent note. The write down of the note receivable was equally offset by a reduction in deferred revenue and did not result in a charge to operating income.

On April 8, 2004, AJG made a cash down payment of $2,000 and executed a $14,000 note payable to a subsidiary of USEB to satisfy its obligation to pay for certain ownership interests in Illinois based generating project entities AJG had previously acquired. The note matures in 2024, requires scheduled payments of principal and interest and bears interest at a rate of 15% per annum. Payments on the note are limited to cash distributions from the project entities with any excesses to the scheduled payments being applied as an additional principal payment and any deficits to scheduled payments being deferred. This transaction resulted in a gain for USEB of $16,000, which was recognized in June, 2004.

Notes receivable as of December 31, 2004 consisted of the following:

	Interest Rate	Current Portion	Long-Term Portion
Contingent Installment Note Receivable for 1999 Sale of GASCO Interests, Secured by the Interests	9.47%	$ 621	$ 3,814
Fixed Installment Note Receivable for 2001 Sale of GASCO Interests, Secured by the Interests	6.00%	510	825
Contingent Installment Note Receivable for 2001 Sale of GASCO Interests, Secured by the Interests	6.00%	510	4,586
Contingent Notes Receivable for Sale of Barre, MA Project's Gas Collection System and Related Assets, Secured by the Interests	10.00%	10	533
Installment Note Receivable from AJG for Illinois Electric Generation Partners 2, Secured by Ownership Interests	15.00%	220	13,780
Accrued Interest Receivable	-	623	-
		$ 2,494	$ 23,538

In 2001, USEB sold limited partnership interests in three other Gasco entities. The purchaser was AJG Financial Services. The total purchase price was approximately $12,300 including interest and consisted of a down payment of $1,000 and two long-term notes receivable; one calling for fixed quarterly payments of $145 and the other calling for contingent quarterly payments based on actual gas production. Both bear interest at 6% per annum. Gains of $401, $174 and $145 were recognized on the contingent note in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Consistent with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for this transaction, the remaining deferred gain of $3,097 for 2004.

NOTE 9 - NOTES PAYABLE

Notes Payable to Countryside Power Income Fund

On April 8, 2004, CPIF, an unincorporated open-ended, limited purpose trust formed under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada acquired the outstanding balance of existing USE loans from John Hancock Life Insurance Companies, ABB Energy Capital and AJG.

Immediately following the acquisition of the loans, CPIF and USEB amended the existing loan agreements to denominate the loans in Canadian currency, to provide an additional loan amount of $23,843 and to provide for a remaining term of 15 years with a balloon payment at the maturity date of $35,100. In addition, certain loan covenants were amended. In connection with the amendment of the loans, USEB paid related costs of $16,994. The amendment established several reserve accounts including a $4,000 improvement reserve with funds to be utilized to expand USEB and a $2,000 debt service reserve. In addition, $8,200 of loan proceeds were deposited into the Illinois Accounts. Immediately upon completion of the transaction, the total amount owed to CPIF by USEB was CAD $107,000 which was equal to U.S. $81,431 based upon the currency exchange rate at the date of closing. The loan is secured by the USEB Operating Assets and bears interest at a rate of 11% per annum.

The loan agreement with CPIF requires USEB to deposit $250 per calendar quarter into the debt reserve fund provided that cash available, as defined in the loan agreement, is at a certain level. USEB was only required to make $84 of additional deposits into the debt reserve fund during 2004. Until an amount is deposited in the reserve equal to $250 per quarter since the April 8, 2004 closing, USEB is precluded from making dividend or royalty interest payments or from expending funds to expand its production or capacity.

Due to the requirement in the amended loan documents that payments be made to CPIF in Canadian dollars, USEB has entered into a three-year hedge agreement with Toronto Dominion Bank fixing the U.S. dollar to the Canadian dollar exchange rate at U.S. $0.76 per Canadian dollar through March 31, 2007. According to the terms of the loan agreement with CPIF, USEB is required to maintain a foreign currency hedge agreement for a minimum of 75% of the remaining debt service payments. After the expiration of the hedge agreement, USEB will be at risk for fluctuations in the currency exchange rate should the rate vary from the exchange rate existing in the expiring hedge agreement.

USEB's debt obligation as of December 31, 2004:

Notes Payable

Countryside Power Income Fund	$ 80,522

Approximate scheduled principal payments for the next five years on the Notes Payable to CPIF are as follows:

Year	Amount
2005	$ 1,373
2006	1,532
2007	1,710
2009	2,128

As discussed above, the amount of the principal payment after March 31, 2007 and for 2008 and 2009, as denominated in U.S. dollars, may fluctuate depending upon the foreign currency exchange rate at that time. Principal payments listed above for 2007, 2008 and 2009 are based upon the hedged foreign currency exchange rate that is currently in effect. The current hedge agreement that fixes the U.S. dollar to the Canadian dollar exchange rate at U.S. $0.76 per Canadian dollar expires on March 31, 2007.

The notes payable to CPIF are senior secured notes utilizing all of USEB's assets as collateral. The terms require that USEB maintain a minimum Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, as defined in the loan agreements, of 1.10 to 1 in 2004, 1.15 to 1 for 2005 and 1.25 to 1 thereafter. The Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is calculated based upon operating results for the preceding four fiscal quarters or, if four fiscal quarters have not elapsed since the closing of the refinancing, for the number of quarters that have elapsed. The Ratio is calculated after deducting deposits made into the Illinois Accounts. Failure to maintain the minimum Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is a default under the terms of the loan agreement. The Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio for the three fiscal quarters ended December 30, 2004 was 1.16 to 1. The financing matures in April, 2019 with a balloon payment of $35,100 being due and payable on the maturity date.

Note Payable to AJG Financial Services, Inc.

On September 30, 2004, USEB purchased the subordinated note owed by USEB to AJG. The outstanding principal amount of $5,729 plus outstanding accrued interest was purchased for $3,000. Funds for the acquisition were provided by equity contributions to USEB from the USEB shareholders. The purchase resulted in a gain of $2,729. The gain represents the amount of the acquisition price below the note's face value.

NOTE 10 - CAPITAL STOCK TRANSACTIONS

USEB is authorized to issue 10,000 shares of Common Stock consisting of Class A shares and Class B shares. The shares of Class A and Class B are identical and vote together on matters on which stockholders are entitled to vote as a single class except that each share of Class A Common Stock is entitled to one vote and each share of Class B Common Stock is entitled to 0.296437937 votes.

The following is a summary of the number of shares outstanding by class:

	Series A	Series B	Total
Balance, December 31, 2004	5,426	4,574	10,000

During the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004, the shareholders' of USEB contributed $3,000 to additional paid in capital (see Note 9).

NOTE 11 - TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

USEB is a general partner in alternative energy and equipment finance transactions with related limited partnerships and collects management fees from the partnerships. Management fees earned from such partnership agreements amounted to $459 for the nine-months ended December 31, 2004.

During prior years, USEB sold 12% of its rights to cash flows from six power generation projects and 9.6% of its rights to cash flows from two additional projects to ZFC Royalty Partners ("ZRP"). These sales of rights are an obligation payable out of cash flows achieved by the projects. The cash flow payments are subordinate to the required debt service for the projects, even though the cash flows are calculated without regard to debt payments. For the nine-months ended December 31, 2004 royalty expense was $181. Approximately 31% of the amounts payable revert back to USEB and decrease its equity investment.

USEB reimburses its shareholders for a majority of the costs incurred by them for the benefit of USEB. These costs include management and accounting salary and benefit costs, office expenses associated with the accounting services and an allocation of rent expenses. The total reimbursements included in expenses for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 were $442.

NOTE 12 - DEFERRED ROYALTY LIABILITY

On April 8, 2004, CPIF acquired a convertible royalty interest from USEB for $6,000. Pursuant to the terms of the Royalty Agreement, CPIF will have the right to receive, on a quarterly basis, the sum of 7% of net distributable cash flow as defined in the Royalty Agreement and 1.8% of USEB's gross revenues, also as defined in the Royalty Agreement. The total royalty payment to be made to CPIF is capped at an amount not to exceed 49% of total distributions made to CPIF and the shareholders of USEB, combined. All distributions must be approved by the Board of Directors of USEB. CPIF has the option, under the terms of the Royalty Agreement, to convert the interest into non-voting common shares of USEB, equal to 49% of the outstanding equity. CPIF can convert at the earlier of the date on which the loan from CPIF is paid in full and/or the 20th anniversary date of the Royalty Agreement, which would be April 8, 2024. The amount of the Royalty is accrued on a quarterly basis and paid upon the approval of distributions by the Board of Directors of USEB.

For the quarters ended June 30, September 30, USEB accrued $156 and $158, respectively, for royalty payments. Due primarily to the Illinois rate decrease discussed in Note 4, there was no royalty payment due or accrued for the quarter ended December 31, 2004. Only the June 30 royalty interest has been paid and USEB has recorded a current liability of $158 for royalty interest for the third quarter of 2004. Payment of this liability, future royalty interest, and distributions to the shareholders of USEB are dependent on sufficient cash flow being generated by USEB to support operations after the distributions.

NOTE 13 - RETIREMENT AND PROFIT SHARING PLAN

USEB has a 401(k) plan and the employees may defer up to 15% of their salaries up to the maximum contribution allowed under the Internal Revenue Code. USEB matches 100% of the first 3% of salary contributed and 50% of the next 2% of salary contributed to the plan. For the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004, USEB's total contribution was $31.

NOTE 14 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

USEB has long-term obligations for an office lease in Bohemia, New York and office equipment financing obligations which expire on various dates. The office lease expires in September, 2005.

These commitments for the next three years are:

Year	Commitments
2005	$ 66
2006	38
2007	2

Lease expenses for the 2004 period were $61.

NOTE 15 - MAJOR CUSTOMERS

During the nine-months ended December 31, 2004, seven of USEB's electricity generating projects sold energy to Commonwealth Edison. Revenues from Commonwealth Edison for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 totaled $5,783 and were equal to approximately 46% of total power generation and gas revenues for the period.

NOTE 16 - SALE OF RENEWABLE ENERGY CREDITS

During the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004, USEB entered into contracts for it's Barre, Manchester and Burlington projects for the sale of the Renewable Energy Credits (RECs) produced by the generation of electricity from landfill gas. One REC is produced when the project sells one megawatt of qualified renewable energy to the utility grid. The contracts do not require USEB to deliver any specified quantities of RECs. Gross proceeds from the sale of the RECs during the nine-month period for the Barre, Manchester and Burlington projects were $144, $207 and $58, respectively. A portion of gross proceeds from the sale of the RECs for the Burlington project is paid to the local utility. The REC revenue is in addition to the energy value that is sold under a separate contract. The contracts for Barre and Manchester are three-year contracts. The Burlington contract is for the sale of RECs produced during the last three quarters of 2004.

NOTE 17 - GAIN ON SALE OF ILLINOIS ELECTRICAL GENERATION PARTNERS

On April 8, 2004, AJG made a cash down payment and executed a note payable to a subsidiary of USEB to satisfy its obligation to pay for interests in various Illinois based generating project entities that it had previously acquired from USEB. As a result of the completion of this transaction, USEB recorded a gain of $16,000 in June, 2004. (Refer to Note 8 for additional discussion.)

NOTE 18 - DEVELOPMENT COSTS WRITTEN OFF

Development costs written off of $13,488 for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 were primarily comprised of non-recurring expenses associated with the completion of the transaction with CPIF. Included in this amount is $9,886 reimbursed to CPIF related to expenses incurred by CPIF in their acquisition of the USEB debt from the existing lenders, $2,344 of unamortized debt issuance costs related to the debt acquired by CPIF that remained on USEB's books and $1,194 of USEY, a shareholder of USEB and the sponsor of CPIF, salaries and related costs charged to USEB for services pertaining to the CPIF transaction.

NOTE 19 - UNREALIZED GAIN

Unrealized gain represents the net gain in market value above the acquisition price for various investments and hedging agreements. The amount for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 is comprised of $1,246 of net gain from the investment of the Illinois Accounts (please refer to Note 3) and $1,207 of gain in the value of the foreign currency swap agreement associated with the CPIF financing (please refer to Note 9) less $932 in taxes.

NOTE 1 – DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. ("USEB"), a Delaware Corporation, is a developer, owner and operator of landfill gas projects in the United States. USEB owns and operates 21 landfill gas to energy projects located in nine states. USEB also owns and operates the equipment on one additional landfill gas to energy project that is owned by an independent party. Of the 21 owned facilities, 18 utilize landfill gas as a fuel for the generation of electricity and three sell gas to unrelated users for use as boiler fuel. USEB owns 100% of the projects located outside the State of Illinois and 50% of those located in Illinois. The remaining 50% of the projects located in Illinois are owned by AIG Financial Services, Inc. ("AIG").

USEB also typically owns a small percentage of the gas collection companies (gascos) associated with the facilities and operates the gas collection systems on behalf of the gasco entity owners.

USEB does not own any of the landfills and does not perform any landfill operations. Generally, the landfill gas utilized is purchased through gas purchase agreements with the gasco entities.

On May 1, 2001, the predecessor of USEB, Zahren Alternative Power Corporation, was acquired by US Energy Systems, Inc. ("USEY") and Cinergy Energy Solutions, Inc. ("Cinergy"), an indirect subsidiary of Cinergy Corp. USEY owns 54.3% of USEB and Cinergy owns the remaining 45.7%.

The financial statements presented reflect the "USEB Operating Assets". The USEB Operating Assets consist of the assets, liabilities and capitalization of USEB and its predecessor company and their subsidiaries excluding the equity and assets and liabilities of Brown County Energy Associates LLC, Garland Energy Development LLC, Hoffman Road Associates LLC, Oyster Bay Energy Partners LP, Zapco Development Corp., Zapco Equipment Corp. and ZFC Equipment Corp.

NOTE 2 – RESTATEMENT

On May 16, 2005, USEB announced that an error had been identified relating to accounting for a foreign currency loan and related hedge arrangement entered into in April 2004 in connection with the CDN $107,000 debt arrangement between USEB and Countryside Power Income Fund ("CPIF") and its subsidiaries (the "Countryside Debt").

The accounting issue relates to the Application of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 52, Foreign Currency Translation, as amended ("SFAS No. 52") and Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended ("SFAS No. 133").

USEB is restating its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 to reflect the impact of the changes in the current exchange rate for debt service payments beyond the expiration of the hedge arrangement in April 2007, to reflect the outstanding principal amount of the Countryside Debt using the current exchange rate in effect at the end of the applicable period and to record changes in the fair value of the hedge arrangement.

The following table isolates each of the restated amounts in USEB's Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2004:

	Restated	As originally reported
Consolidated Balance Sheet:
Foreign Currency Hedge	$ 2,414	$ 1,207
Deferred Tax Asset	$ 10,451	$ 8,093
Total Assets	$ 157,654	$ 154,089
Long-Term Debt	$ 87,815	$ 80,521
Minority Interests	$ 1,735	$ 720
Accumulated Deficit	$ (3,754)	$ (1,991)
Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income	$ 2,010	$ 1,521
Total Shareholders' Equity	$ 33,251	$ 34,524
Total Liabilities and Shareholders' Equity	$ 157,654	$ 154,089

NOTE 3 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP").

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of USEB, wholly-owned subsidiaries and entities and/or projects owned or controlled through various partnership and limited liability company interests. All significant inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated on consolidation.

(c) Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(d) Concentration of Credit Risk

Substantially all of USEB's power generation and gas revenues are derived from investment grade utilities, municipalities and industrial concerns. These customers have contracted with USEB to purchase electricity and landfill gas ("LFG") under energy purchase agreements. The concentration of credit in this business segment reduces USEB's overall credit exposure because the majority of these customers are investment grade, diversified and under contract based on production of electricity and LFG.

During the three month period ended March 31, 2005, power generation sales to Commonwealth Edison amounted to 48% of all power generation sales. Please refer to Notes 5 and 19 for further discussion.

USEB maintains demand deposits in excess of $100 with individual banks. Amounts in excess of $100 are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(e) Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of acquired companies over the fair value of their tangible net assets acquired. The periods of amortization of goodwill and other long-lived assets are evaluated at least annually to determine whether events and circumstances warrant revised estimates of useful lives. This evaluation considers, among other factors, expected cash flows and profits of the business to which the goodwill and other long-lived assets relate. More specifically, USEB performed a discounted cash flow analysis using a risk adjusted rate of return, commensurate with specific business or asset characteristics and potential business opportunities for the investment. Significant estimates utilized in the discounted cash flow analysis include the amount of landfill gas available for power generation, the rate paid for the power generation and the investment yields on the investment of the Illinois Subsidy Reserve Accounts (the "Illinois Accounts"). Changes in the actual results compared to these estimates would effect the valuation of goodwill.

In June 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations (SFAS 141), and No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (SFAS 142). SFAS 141 requires all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001, to be accounted for using the purchase method. With the adoption of SFAS 142, goodwill and other intangibles with indefinite lives will no longer be subject to amortization. SFAS 142 requires that goodwill be assessed for impairment upon adoption and at least annually thereafter by applying a fair-value-based test, as opposed to the undiscounted cash flow test applied under prior accounting standards. This test must be applied at the "reporting unit" level, which is not permitted to be broader than the current business segments. Under SFAS 142, an acquired intangible asset should be separately recognized if the benefit of the intangible asset is obtained through contractual or other legal rights, or if the intangible asset can be sold, transferred, licensed, rented, or exchanged, regardless of the acquirer's intent to do so.

We began applying SFAS 141 in the third quarter of 2001 and SFAS 142 in the first quarter of 2002. The discontinuance of amortization of goodwill, which began in the first quarter of 2002, was not material to our financial position or results of operations. In 2004 and 2003, an impairment test of the goodwill resulting from the acquisition of USEB was performed with no change in the valuation. We will continue to perform goodwill impairment tests annually, as required by SFAS 142, or when circumstances indicate that the fair value of a reporting unit has declined below the amount necessary to maintain the goodwill valuation.

Goodwill at March 31, 2005 of $26,618 is presented net of amortization of $592. Amortization has ceased with the adoption of SFAS No. 142. Goodwill was adjusted in 2004 to reflect the payment of additional compensation to the former USEB shareholders per the terms of the 2001 merger agreement.

(f) Fair Values of Financial Instruments/Financial Market Risk

The estimated fair value of financial instruments has been determined based on available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. The carrying amounts of cash, accounts receivable, other current assets, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value as of March 31, 2005 because of the short maturity of these financial instruments. Except as noted below, the estimated carrying value of the notes receivable, notes payable and cash investments are either contractual or approximate fair value. Cash investment assets held in non-cash assets such as investments in equity or fixed income funds are marked to market. The fair value estimates were based on information available to management as of March 31, 2005. If subsequent circumstances indicate that a decline in the fair market value of a financial asset is other than temporary, the financial instrument is written down to its fair market value. Except as noted below, it is management's opinion that USEB is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments for the near future.

As discussed further in Note 13 to the Financial Statements, USEB's debt obligations to Countryside Power Income Fund (CPIF) are denominated in Canadian currency, which exposes USEB to foreign currency risk. In April 2004, USEB entered into a currency hedge agreement that fixed the U.S. dollar to the Canadian dollar exchange rate at U.S. $0.76 per Canadian dollar through March 31, 2007. According to the terms of the loan agreement with CPIF, USEB is required to maintain a foreign currency hedge agreement for a minimum of 75% of the remaining debt service payments. USEB will be at risk for fluctuations in the currency exchange rate should the rate vary from the exchange rate existing in the expiring hedge agreement.

As discussed in Notes 4 and 5, USEB is required to maintain significant funds in reserve accounts for the repayment of the Illinois Subsidy Liability as it becomes due. The amounts currently being deposited into these accounts are based on an expected yield on the reserve funds. Should the balance held in the reserve account combined with expected returns on the investments be insufficient to fully retire the liability as it becomes due, any shortfall would have to be funded from project operations during the repayment periods.

(g) Inventory

Inventory is recorded at the lower of cost or market value and consists primarily of spare parts for the power generation and gas transmission equipment at the various landfill gas projects.

(h) Depreciation and Amortization

Fixed assets are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation, where such amounts were determined to be a reasonable representation of their fair market value, based on independent valuation studies done on a sample of the operating projects. USEB provides for depreciation of assets by charges to operations using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives. Expenditures for major overhauls and improvements to property, plant and power generation and gas transmission equipment are capitalized and depreciated over the remaining expected useful lives of the underlying assets. Generating and transmission rights are amortized over the remaining terms of the power and gas purchase agreements.

(i) Debt Issuance Costs

Debt issuance costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the related financing agreements. For the three months ended March 31, 2005, the amount amortized to expense was approximately $198 and the unamortized balance as of March 31, 2005 was $11,068. This balance will be amortized over the remaining term of the debt with the annual amortization expense equal to approximately $792.

(j) Deferred Revenues

Deferred revenues primarily represent gains to be recognized from the sale of USEB's limited partnership interests in certain partnerships, further described in Note 12. The majority of the proceeds from the sales are to be paid in installments, the amounts of which will be determined by production and other considerations; therefore, the gain will be recognized as payments are received..

(k) Income Taxes

USEB uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred income taxes result from differences between the book and tax basis of assets and liabilities and the treatment of revenues received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. Differences in the timing of gain recognition and the utilization of tax net operating losses constitute the majority of the deferred tax asset. Income taxes have been accrued on the undistributed earnings of all subsidiaries.

(f) Investments in Derivatives

USEB holds derivative financial instruments for the sole purpose of hedging the risk of identifiable transactions. The types of risks hedged are those relating to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the variability of which impacts future earnings and cash flows. USEB documents its risk management strategy and hedge effectiveness at the inception of and during the term of the hedge. Changes in the fair market value of derivatives are recorded each period in other comprehensive income. For fair market value hedge transactions, changes in the fair market value of the derivative instrument are generally offset in the income statement by changes in the fair value of the item being hedged. For cash flow hedge transactions, changes in the fair value of the derivative instrument are reported in other comprehensive income.

NOTE 4 – RESTRICTED CASH AND MARKETABLE SECURITIES

USEB's financing with CPIF established various reserve accounts which are also collateral for the financing with CPIF. These accounts include the Illinois Accounts, a debt service reserve account and an improvement reserve account. The funds held in the improvement reserve account can be utilized to fund capital expenditures. The funds in the Illinois Accounts are to be utilized to retire the Illinois subsidy liability as it becomes due.

Restricted cash and investments as of March 31, 2005 consisted of the following:

Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts	$ 24,144
Improvement Reserve	3,653
Debt Service Reserve	2,091
Project Contract Reserve	138
Total	$ 30,026

Included in the Illinois Accounts is $22,144 that is managed by Smith Barney under investment allocation parameters established by USEB. The Smith Barney accounts, as of March 31, 2005, included $13,276 invested in equity fund accounts, $7,295 invested in debt fund accounts, and $1,573 being held in cash or cash equivalent accounts. The cost basis of the investments with Smith Barney which have been invested since July 2004, is $20,696.

Please see Note 5 below for additional information pertaining to the Illinois Accounts.

NOTE 5 – ILLINOIS RETAIL RATE PROGRAM

USEB has ten operating projects in Illinois that are receiving a subsidy for each kilowatt hour ("kwh") of electricity sold to the local utility under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. In accordance with the Illinois Retail Rate Program, the utility has contracted with each project to purchase electricity for an amount in excess of the utility's Avoided Cost (what it would otherwise pay for the generation of electricity) for a period of ten years from the date of commencement of commercial operation of the relevant project. In turn, the utility receives a tax credit from the State of Illinois (the "State") equaling the amount of that excess. The excess is the subsidy received from the State. Each project is obligated to begin to repay the subsidy to the State after the project that received the subsidy has recouped its capital investment and retired all debt associated with the financing and construction of the project but in any case, no later than ten years from the date the project commenced commercial operation. All subsidy liabilities must be fully repaid to the State (without interest) by the end of the actual useful life of the project.

This subsidy is accounted for GAAP purposes in a manner similar to an original issue discount whereby the amount to be repaid in the future is discounted to its net present value and the discount is amortized (as interest expense) over the ten-year period until repayment begins. The amount of power generation income recognized each period is equal to the Avoided Cost rate plus the difference between the subsidy received by the project and the net present value of the subsidy. This unamortized discount and the liability are shown net on the consolidated balance sheet as Rate incentive liability.

USEB is required by CPIF to deposit funds into the Illinois Accounts for repayment of the Rate incentive liability. The Illinois Accounts are classified as restricted cash and marketable securities. The amount deposited into the Illinois Accounts is based upon the amount of subsidy received and contemplates an annual return sufficient to fund the current period subsidy liability repayment as it becomes due. Regular deposits combined with actual and expected returns on those deposits may not be sufficient to fully repay the respective liabilities as they become due. Should the amounts in the Illinois Accounts be insufficient to fully repay the obligations, any shortfall would have to be funded from the project's operations or assets as and when they become due.

The funds held in the Illinois Accounts are currently invested in equities and fixed income securities. These investments are being managed by a third-party professional money manager with the investment allocations being approved by the management of USEB. The amount held in the Illinois Accounts as of March 31, 2005 was $24,144. The amount of the incentive liability owed to the State as of March 31, 2005 was $50,669. It is anticipated that repayments of the incentive will begin in 2008 and continue through 2021.

Under the terms of the Illinois Retail Rate Program, estimated rates are paid for production sold to the utility with that rate being trued up annually on the anniversary of the commencement of commercial operations of the applicable project, to the actual rates paid for electricity by the local municipality. After the actual rate is determined, sales for the preceding calendar year, retroactive to the last anniversary date, are adjusted based upon the actual rate. If the actual rate is greater than the estimated rate, additional sales proceeds are paid to the project. If the actual rate is less than the estimated rate, then prior sales proceeds received, equal to the excess amounts paid, must be refunded to the utility. This actual rate then becomes the estimated rate for the subsequent year.

Following is a summary of significant dates pertaining to a project's participation in the Illinois Retail Rate Program.

Project	Commencement of Commercial Operations	Expiration of Illinois Retail Rate Program	Estimated Commencement of Repayment of Subsidy Liability
Countryside	April, 2001	April, 2011	May, 2011
Dolton	May, 1998	May, 2008	June, 2008
Dixon Lee	July, 1999	July, 2009	August, 2009
Morris	December, 2000	December, 2010	January 2011
Roxana	November, 1999	November, 2009	December, 2009
Upper Rock	April, 2000	April, 2010	May, 2010
122nd Street	July, 1998	July, 2008	August, 2008
Brickyard	September, 1999	September, 2009	October, 2009
Streator	January, 2000	January, 2010	February, 2010
Willow Ranch	January, 1998	January, 2009	February, 2009

In the past, the annual reconciliation of estimated rates to actual rates has resulted in both increases and decreases in retroactive revenue. USEB cannot predict whether any changes in future rates will result in increases or decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects. USEB receives approximately 21% of its Power Generation Revenue from the subsidy paid under the Illinois Retail Rate Program.

In the last few years, including 2004, legislation has been proposed in the State which included changes to, or the elimination of, the Illinois Retail Rate Program. While none of this legislation has been adopted, the adoption of any legislation that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under the Illinois Retail Rate Program could have a material adverse effect on USEB.

NOTE 6 – INVESTMENTS

The majority of the limited partnership interests classified as investments represent general partner ownership interests in the entities which own the LFG collection systems and LFG extraction rights of the landfills USEB has developed. Most of these entities qualify for non-conventional fuel source tax credits under Section 29 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended. USEB typically owns a 1% interest in these entities and accordingly accounts for the investments using the cost method.

NOTE 7 – FOREIGN CURRENCY

Foreign currency translation adjustments of a long-term nature are reflected in Other Comprehensive Income. Foreign currency transaction gains or losses are recognized in the period incurred and are included in Other Income (Loss) in the consolidated statement of operations.

NOTE 8 – INVESTMENTS IN DERIVATIVES

USEB holds derivative financial instruments for the sole purpose of hedging the risks relating to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the variability of which impacts future earnings and cash flows. USEB documents its risk management strategy and hedge effectiveness at the inception of and during the term of the hedge. Changes in the fair market value of our foreign currency cash flow hedge derivatives are recorded each period in other comprehensive income.

NOTE 9 – INCOME TAXES

USEB uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred income taxes result from differences between the book and tax basis of assets and liabilities and the treatment of revenues received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. For income tax purposes, the subsidy received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program is treated as a loan owed to the State of Illinois. Differences in the timing of gain recognition and the utilization of tax net operating losses constitute the majority of the deferred tax asset. Income taxes have been accrued on the undistributed earning of all subsidiaries.

NOTE 10 – FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS

USEB's debt obligation to CPIF requires that debt service payments be made in Canadian dollars. USEB has entered into a cash flow foreign currency hedge agreement with financial institutions fixing the Canadian dollar to U.S. dollar exchange rate at $1.331 Canadian dollar per U.S. dollar. This hedge agreement, in an amount equal to the debt service payments, expires on March 31, 2007. Subsequent to the expiration of the hedge agreement, USEB's debt service payments to CPIF are subject to fluctuations in the currency exchange rate.

As required by SFAS No. 52 and SFAS No. 133, USEB has adjusted the outstanding principal on the debt owed to CPIF to reflect the currency exchange rate as of the end of the financial reporting period. The gain or loss resulting from the adjustment of the outstanding principal from that recorded in the previous reporting periods is recorded as Foreign Currency Transaction Income (Loss).

Following is a summary of the Foreign Currency Transaction account as of March 31, 2005 (the exchange rates are Canadian dollars per one U.S. dollar):

Currency Exchange Rate at Loan Origination, April 8, 2004	$	1.3140
Currency Exchange Rate at December 31, 2004	$	1.2047
Currency Exchange Rate as of March 31, 2005	$	1.2096
Cumulative Translation Adjustments Beginning of Reporting Period	$	6,988
Cumulative Translation Adjustments End of Reporting Period	$	6,643
Aggregate Adjustment for the Current Reporting Period Income / (Expense)	$	345
Deferred Income Taxes Allocated to Adjustment in the Reporting Period	$	147

NOTE 11 – FIXED ASSETS

Power Generation and Gas Transmission Assets

Power generation and gas transmission assets consist primarily of the value of the internal combustion engines and related equipment located at the landfill gas to energy projects. The majority of these assets are depreciated using the straight-line method for financial statement purposes.

The following is a summary of Power Generation Assets as of March 31, 2005:

Generation and Transmission Equipment and Peripherals	$	66,345
Other Property and Equipment		207
Land		98
Accumulated Depreciation		(25,393)
Total	$	41,257

NOTE 12 – NOTES AND INTEREST RECEIVABLE

Notes receivable as of March 31, 2005 consisted of four notes pertaining to USEB's sale of its limited partnership interests in several Gasco entities. Payments of principal and interest on the three contingent installment notes are made quarterly based upon the amount of LFG sold and the value of the tax credits generated by the sale. Payments of principal and interest on the Fixed Installment Notes are made quarterly based upon a mortgage style amortization. In June 2004, the contingent installment note receivable for the 1999 sale of gasco interests was written down by approximately $2,500 to reflect updated projections for the amount of gas projected to be sold and the dollar value of payments required under the contingent note. The write down of the note receivable was equally offset by a reduction in deferred revenue and did not result in a charge to operating income.

On April 8, 2004, AJG made a cash down payment of $2,000 and executed a $14,000 note payable to a subsidiary of USEB to satisfy its obligation to pay for certain ownership interests in Illinois based generating project entities AJG had previously acquired. The note matures in 2024, requires scheduled payments of principal and interest and bears interest at a rate of 15% per annum. Payments on the note are limited to cash distributions from the project entities with any excesses to the scheduled payments being applied as an additional principal payment and any deficits to scheduled payments being deferred. This transaction resulted in a gain for USEB of $16,000, which was recognized in June, 2004.

	Interest Rate	Current Portion	Long-term Portion
Contingent Installment Note Receivable for 1999 Sale of GASCO Interests, Secured by the Interests	9.47%	$ 414	$ 3,868
Fixed Installment Note Receivable for 2001 Sale of GASCO Interests, Secured by the Interests	6.00%	518	567
Contingent Installment Note Receivable for 2001 Sale of GASCO Interests, Secured by the Interests	6.00%	416	4,262
Contingent Notes Receivable for Sale of Barre, MA Project's Gas Collection System and Related Assets, Secured by the Interests	10.00%	10	824
Installment Note Receivable From AIG For Illinois Electric Generation Partners 2, Secured by Ownership Interests	15.00%	208	13,792
Accrued Interest Receivable		1,145	-
Total		$ 2,711	$ 23,313

In 2001, USEB sold limited partnership interests in three other Gasco entities. The purchaser was AIG. The total purchase price was approximately $12,300 including interest and consisted of a down payment of $1,000 and two long-term notes receivable; one calling for fixed quarterly payments of $145 and the other calling for contingent quarterly payments based on actual gas production. Both bear interest at 6% per annum. Gains of $401, $174 and $145 were recognized on the contingent note in 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Gains for the three month period ended March 31, 2005 were $87. Consistent with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for this transaction, the remaining deferred gain is $2,611 as of March 31, 2005.

Notes Payable to Countryside Power Income Fund

On April 8, 2004, CPIF, an unincorporated open-ended, limited purpose trust formed under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada acquired the outstanding balance of existing USE loans from John Hancock Life Insurance Companies, ABB Energy Capital and AIG.

Immediately following the acquisition of the loans, CPIF and USEB amended the existing loan agreements to denominate the loans in Canadian currency, to provide an additional loan amount of $23,843 and to provide for a remaining term of 15 years with a balloon payment at the maturity date of $35,100. In addition, certain loan covenants were amended. In connection with the amendment of the loans, USEB paid related costs of $16,994. The amendment established several reserve accounts including a $4,000 improvement reserve with funds to be utilized to expand USEB and a $2,000 debt service reserve. In addition, $8,200 of loan proceeds were deposited into the Illinois Accounts. Immediately upon completion of the transaction, the total amount owed to CPIF by USEB was CAD $107,000 which was equal to U.S. $81,431 based upon the currency exchange rate at the date of closing. The loan is secured by the USEB Operating Assets and bears interest at a rate of 11% per annum.

The loan agreement with CPIF requires USEB to deposit $250 per calendar quarter into the debt reserve fund provided that cash available, as defined in the loan agreement, is at a certain level. USEB was only required to make $84 of additional deposits into the debt reserve fund through March 31, 2005. Until an amount is deposited in the reserve equal to $250 per quarter since the April 8, 2004 closing, USEB is precluded from making dividend or royalty interest payments or from expending funds to expand its production or capacity.

Due to the requirement in the amended loan documents that payments be made to CPIF in Canadian dollars, USEB has entered into a three-year hedge agreement with Toronto Dominion Bank fixing the US dollar to the Canadian dollar exchange rate at U.S. $0.76 per Canadian dollar through March 31, 2007. According to the terms of the loan agreement with CPIF, USEB is required to maintain a foreign currency hedge agreement for a minimum of 75% of the remaining debt service payments. After the expiration of the hedge agreement, USEB will be at risk for fluctuations in the currency exchange rate should the rate vary from the exchange rate existing in the expiring hedge agreement.

USEB's debt obligation as of March 31, 2005 based upon the Canadian dollar to U.S. dollar exchange rate at the end of the reporting period of $1.2096 is:

Notes Payable
Countryside Power Income Fund	$ 87,096

Approximate scheduled principal payments on the Notes Payable to CPIF for the five years beginning on January 1, 2005 based upon the Canadian dollar to U.S. dollar exchange rate at the end of the reporting period of $1.2096 are as follows:

Year	Amount
2006	1,693

The notes payable to CPIF are senior secured notes utilizing all of USEB's assets as collateral. The terms require that USEB maintain a minimum Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio, as defined in the loan agreements, of 1.10 to 1 in 2004, 1.15 to 1 for 2005 and 1.25 to 1 thereafter. The Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is calculated based upon operating results for the preceding four fiscal quarters. The Ratio is calculated after deducting deposits made into the Illinois Accounts. Failure to maintain the minimum Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio is a default under the terms of the loan agreement. The Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio for the four fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2005 was 1.19 to 1. The financing matures in April, 2019 with a balloon payment of $35,100 being due and payable on the maturity date.

NOTE 14 – CAPITAL STOCK TRANSACTIONS

USEB is authorized to issue 10,000 shares of Common Stock consisting of Class A shares and Class B shares. The shares of Class A and Class B are identical and vote together on matters on which stockholders are entitled to vote as a single class except that each share of Class A Common Stock is entitled to one vote and each share of Class B Common Stock is entitled to 0.296437937 votes.

The following is a summary of the number of shares outstanding by class:

	Series A	Series B	Total
Balance, March 31, 2005	5,426	4,574	10,000

NOTE 15 – TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

USEB is a general partner in alternative energy and equipment finance transactions with related limited partnerships and collects management fees from the partnerships. Management fees earned from such partnership agreements amounted to $95 for the three months ended March 31, 2005.

During prior years, USEB sold 12% of its rights to cash flows from six power generation projects and 9.6% of its rights to cash flows from two additional projects to ZFC Royalty Partners ("ZRP"). These sales of rights are an obligation payable out of cash flows achieved by the projects. The cash flow payments are subordinate to the required debt service for the projects, even though the cash flows are calculated without regard to debt payments. For the three months ended March 31, 2005 royalty expense was $43. Approximately 31% of the amounts payable revert back to USEB and decrease its equity investment.

USEB reimburses its shareholders for a majority of the costs incurred by them for the benefit of USEB. These costs include management and accounting salary and benefit costs, office expenses associated with the accounting services and an allocation of rent expenses. The total reimbursements included in expenses for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 were $240. Included in this amount was $140 in costs incurred by a shareholder during the period October 2004 through March 2005 which is recorded as Selling, general and administrative – billed from shareholders and $100 in costs for accounting services for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 which is recorded in Selling, general and administrative expenses.

NOTE 16 – DEFERRED ROYALTY LIABILITY

On April 8, 2004, CPIF acquired a convertible royalty interest from USEB for $6,000. Pursuant to the terms of the Royalty Agreement, CPIF will have the right to receive, on a quarterly basis, the sum of 7% of net distributable cash flow as defined in the Royalty Agreement and 1.8% of USEB's gross revenues, also as defined in the Royalty Agreement. The total royalty payment to be made to CPIF is capped at an amount not to exceed 49% of total distributions made to CPIF and the shareholders of USEB, combined. All distributions must be approved by the Board of Directors of USEB. CPIF has the option, under the terms of the Royalty Agreement, to convert the interest into non-voting common shares of USEB, equal to 49% of the outstanding equity. CPIF can convert at the earlier of the date on which the loan from CPIF is paid in full and/or the 20th anniversary date of the Royalty Agreement, which would be April 8, 2024. The amount of the Royalty is accrued on a quarterly basis and paid upon the approval of distributions by the Board of Directors of USEB.

For the three-month period ended March 31, 2005, USEB accrued $88 for royalty payments. USEB also has accrued but unpaid royalty expenses from 2004 of $158. Payment of this liability, future royalty interest, and distributions to the shareholders of USEB is dependent on sufficient cash flow being generated by USEB to support operations after the distributions.

NOTE 17 – RETIREMENT AND PROFIT SHARING PLAN

USEB has a 401(k) plan and the employees may defer up to 15% of their salaries up to the maximum contribution allowed under the Internal Revenue Code. USEB matches 100% of the first 3% of salary contributed and 50% of the next 2% of salary contributed to the plan. For the three-month period ended March 31, 2005, USEB's total contribution was $15.

NOTE 18 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

USEB has long-term obligations for an office lease in Bohemia, New York and office equipment financing obligations which expire on various dates. The office lease expires in September, 2005.

These commitments for the next three years are:

Year	Commitments
2005	$ 49
2006	38
2007	2

NOTE 19 – MAJOR CUSTOMERS

During the three months ended March 31, 2005, seven of USEB's electricity generating projects sold energy to Commonwealth Edison. Revenues from Commonwealth Edison for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 totaled $2,167 and were equal to approximately 48% of total power generation and gas revenues for the period.

NOTE 20 – SALE OF RENEWABLE ENERGY CREDITS

During 2004, USEB entered into contracts for it's Barre, and Manchester projects for the sale of the Renewable Energy Credits ("RECs") produced by the generation of electricity from landfill gas. One REC is produced when the project sells one megawatt of qualified renewable energy to the utility grid. The contracts do not require USEB to deliver any specified quantities of RECs. Gross proceeds from the sale of the RECs during the three-month period were $105. The REC revenue is in addition to the energy value that is sold under a separate contract. The contracts for Barre and Manchester are three year contracts.

NOTE 21 – UNREALIZED LOSS

Unrealized Loss represents the net loss in market value above the acquisition price for various investments and hedging agreements. The amount for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 is comprised of $412 of net loss from the investment of the Illinois Accounts (please refer to Note 4) and $89 of loss in the value of the foreign currency swap agreement associated with the CPIF financing (please refer to Note 13) less taxes.

NOTE A — BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These financial statements are the financial statements of the USEB Operating Assets. Per the Amendment to Note Purchase Agreement dated as of April 8, 2004 between US Energy Biogas Corp. and certain subsidiaries (the Issuer) and Countryside Canada Power Inc., USEB is required to compile financial statements for the USEB Operating Assets which is defined in the agreement as follows:
"the assets, liabilities and capitalization of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, excluding the equity, assets and liabilities of Brown County Energy Associates LLC, Garland Energy Development LLC, Hoffman Road Associates LLC, Oyster Bay Energy Partners LP, Zapco Development Corp. and ZFC Equipment Corp. and certain restructuring expenses of the Issuer unrelated to the continuing operating projects of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries."

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with US GAAP but do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The results for the three and six month periods are not necessarily indicative of results for the full year.

NOTE B — RESTATEMENTS

1. Foreign Currency Transaction

On May 16, 2005 USEB announced that an error had been identified relating to accounting for a foreign currency loan and related hedge arrangement entered into in April 2004 in connection with the CDN $107 million debt arrangement between a majority owned subsidiary, US Energy Biogas Corp. ("USEB") and Countryside Power Income Fund ("CPIF") and its subsidiaries (the "Countryside Debt").

The accounting issue related to the Application of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 52, Foreign Currency Translation, as amended ("SFAS No. 52") and Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended ("SFAS No. 133").

USEB restated its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and for the interim periods ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004 to reflect the impact of the changes in the current exchange rate for debt service payments beyond the expiration of the hedge arrangement in April 2007, to reflect the outstanding principal amount of the Countryside Debt using the current exchange rate in effect at the end of the applicable period and to record changes in the fair value of the hedge arrangement.

2. Gain Recognition

On August 22, 2005, USEB announced a change in the application of accounting principles relating to the accounting for the payment received for the sale of certain ownership interests in Illinois based generating project entities previously sold to AJG Financial Services, Inc. ("AJG"). On April 8, 2004 AJG made a cash down payment of $2,000 and delivered a $14,000 note payable to a subsidiary of USEB to satisfy AJG's obligation for the purchase of the ownership interests. The note matures in 2024, requires scheduled payments of principal and interest and bears interest at a rate of 15% per annum. Payments on the note are limited to cash distributions from the project entities with any excesses to the scheduled payments being applied as an additional principal payment and any deficits to scheduled principal payments being deferred. Recourse on the note is limited to AJG's ownership interests in the partnership.

The original accounting treatment for the receipt of this payment reflected in USEB's financial statements for the periods ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004, as amended, for the year ended December 31, 2004, as amended and for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, included the recording of a non-recurring gain during the interim period ended June 30, 2004. This gain recorded represented the gain for both the cash and note received.

The accounting issues requiring the restatement of this gain relate to the application of Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 30, Accounting for Divestiture of a Subsidiary or Other Business Operation, as amended ("SAB No. 30") and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 81, Gain Recognition on the Sale of a Business to a Highly Leverage Entity, as amended ("SAB No. 81"; together with SAB No. 30, the "Bulletins"). The issues pertain to the gain associated with the note portion of the compensation received. The accounting Bulletins provide and management determined that since the payments on the note portion of the compensation received are wholly dependent upon the future operations of the assets being sold, any gain associated with the note should be deferred and not recognized until such time as actual principal payments are received on the note.

To comply with the Bulletins, USEB will be restating its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and for the interim periods ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004 and for the quarter ending March 31, 2005 to eliminate $14,000 of the non-recurring gain, the amount of the gain that was related to the note. Future principal payments received on the note will be recorded as gains for financial statement purposes. These changes will have no effect on the cash flows of USEB.

The following tables isolate each of the restated amounts described in Notes B(1) and B(2)in USEB's Consolidated Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2004 and Statement of Operations and Other Comprehensive Income for the three months ended June 30, 2004:

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES FOLLOWED IN THE PREPARATION OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

NOTE C— BASIS OF REPORTING

These statements have been compiled in accordance with US GAAP. Investments in joint ventures are accounted for under the equity method. Investments in partnerships, in which our ownership does not exceed 1%, are not consolidated and carried at cost. All inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidation.

NOTE D — REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenues are recognized upon delivery of energy or service.

NOTE E — FOREIGN CURRENCY

The functional currency for our foreign debt obligations is the local currency. For these foreign obligations, we translate income statement amounts at average exchange rates for the period, and we translate the debt obligations at the end-of-period exchange rates. We report any translation adjustments on inter-company foreign currency transactions of a long-term nature in Other Comprehensive Income. Foreign currency transaction gains or losses are recognized in the period incurred and are included in Other Income (Loss) in the consolidated statement of operations.

NOTE F — INVESTMENTS IN DERIVATIVES

USEB holds derivative financial instruments for the sole purpose of hedging the risks relating to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the variability of which impacts future earnings and cash flows. USEB documents its risk management strategy and hedge effectiveness at the inception of and during the term of the hedge. Changes in the fair market value of our foreign currency cash flow hedge derivatives are recorded each period in other comprehensive income.

NOTE G — RESTRICTED CASH AND MARKETABLE SECURITIES

USEB's financing arrangements with CPIF established various reserve accounts, which are also collateral for the financing. These accounts include the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts, a debt service reserve account and an improvement reserve account. The funds held in the improvement reserve account can be utilized to fund capital expenditures. The funds in the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Account (the "Illinois Accounts") are to be utilized to retire the Illinois subsidy liability as it becomes due.

Restricted cash and marketable securities were as follows:

	June 30, 2005	December 31, 2004
Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts	$24,638	$23,438
Improvement Reserve	3,327	4,022
Debt Service Reserve	2,107	2,011
Project Contract Reserve	138	138
	$30,210	$29,609

Included in the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts at June 30, 2005 is $22,638 that is managed by a professional investment manager under investment allocation parameters established by USEB. The amounts managed by the professional manager, as of June 30, 2005, included $13,798 invested in equity fund accounts, $7,552 invested in debt accounts, and $1,288 being held in cash or cash equivalent accounts. The original cost basis of the investments, which have been invested since July 2004, is $21,026.

NOTE H – ILLINOIS RETAIL RATE PROGRAM

USEB has 10 operating projects in Illinois, which are receiving a subsidy for each kilowatt hour ("kwh") of electricity sold to the local utility under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. In accordance with the Illinois Retail Rate Program, the utility has contracted, for a ten year period, with each project to purchase electricity for an amount that exceeds the utility's Avoided Cost (what it would otherwise pay for the generation of electricity). The excess paid above avoided cost is the subsidy. The utility then receives a tax credit from the State of Illinois ("Illinois") equal to the amount of that excess. Each project is obligated to begin to repay the subsidy to Illinois after the project has recouped its capital investment and retired all debt associated with the financing and construction of the project but, in any case, no later than 10 years from the date the project commenced commercial operations. All subsidy liabilities must be fully repaid to Illinois (without interest) by the end of the actual useful life of the project but no later than 20 years from the date the project commenced commercial operations.

This subsidy is accounted for reporting purposes in a manner similar to an original issue discount whereby the amount to be repaid in the future is discounted to its net present value and the discount is amortized (as interest expense) over the 10-year period until repayment begins. The amount of power generation revenue recognized each period is equal to the Avoided Cost rate plus the difference between the subsidy received by the project and the net present value of the subsidy. This unamortized discount and the liability are shown net on the consolidated balance sheet as Illinois Subsidy Liability.

USEB is required by CPIF to deposit funds into the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts for repayment of the Illinois subsidy liability. The Illinois Accounts are classified as restricted cash and marketable securities. The amount deposited into the Illinois Accounts is based upon the amount of subsidy received and contemplates an annual return sufficient to fund the current period subsidy liability repayment as it becomes due. Regular deposits combined with actual and expected returns on those deposits may not be sufficient to fully repay the respective liabilities as they become due. Should the amounts in the Illinois Accounts be insufficient to fully repay the obligations, any shortfall would have to be funded from the project's operations or assets.

Following is a summary of significant dates pertaining to a project's participation in the Illinois Retail Rate Program.

Project	Commencement of Commercial Operations	Expiration of Illinois Retail Rate Program	Estimated Commencement of Repayment of Subsidy Liability[1]
Countryside	April, 2001	April, 2011	May, 2011
Dolton	May, 1998	May, 2008	June, 2008
Dixon Lee	July, 1999	July, 2009	August, 2009
Morris	December, 2000	December, 2010	January, 2011
Roxanna	November, 1999	November, 2009	December, 2009
Upper Rock	April, 2000	April, 2010	May, 2010
122nd Street	July, 1998	July, 2008	August, 2008
Brickyard	September, 1999	September, 2009	October, 2009
Streator	January, 2000	January, 2010	February, 2010
Willow Ranch	January, 1998	January, 2009	February, 2009

(1) The estimated commencement of the repayment of the liability is based upon management's assumptions. One year before a project's eligibility for participation in the program terminates, a proposed repayment schedule must be presented to the Illinois Commerce Commission for their approval. Until any repayment schedule is approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission, it will continue to be an estimated schedule.

The funds held in the Illinois Accounts are currently invested in equities and fixed income securities. These investments are being managed by a third-party professional money manager with the investment allocations being approved by the management of USEB. The amount held in the Illinois Accounts as of June 30 2005 was $24,638. The amount of the subsidy liability owed to Illinois as of June 30, 2005 was $53,620. It is anticipated that repayments of the incentive will begin in 2008 and continue through 2021.

Under the terms of the Illinois Retail Rate Program, estimated rates are paid for production sold to the utility with that rate being trued up annually, on the anniversary date of the commencement of commercial operations of the applicable project, to the actual rates paid for electricity by the local municipality. After the actual rate is determined, sales for the preceding calendar year, retroactive to the last anniversary date, are adjusted based upon the actual rate. If the actual rate is greater than the estimated rate, additional sales proceeds are paid to the project. If the actual rate is less than the estimated rate, then prior sales proceeds received, equal to the excess amounts paid, must be refunded to the utility. This actual rate then becomes the estimated rate for the subsequent year.

In the past, the annual reconciliation of estimated rates to actual rates has resulted in both increases and decreases in retroactive revenue. USEB cannot predict whether any changes in future rates will result in increases or decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects. For the six month period ended June 30, 2005, USEB received approximately 27% of its revenues from the subsidy paid under the Illinois Retail Rate Program.

From time to time during the past few years including 2004 and 2005, proposed changes to or the elimination of the Illinois Retail Rate Program have been introduced in the Illinois legislature. While legislation has not been adopted, the adoption of legislation or the implementation of rules that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under this program would have a material adverse effect on USEB.

NOTE I — TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

USEB is a general partner in alternative energy and equipment finance transactions with related unconsolidated limited partnerships and collects management fees from the partnerships. Fees earned from such general partner undertakings amount to $246 for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and $327 for the six months ended June 30, 2004

USEB reimburses its shareholders for a majority of the costs incurred by them for the benefit of USEB. These costs include management and accounting salary and benefit costs, office expenses associated with the accounting services and an allocation of rent expenses. The total reimbursements for the six month period ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 were $155 and $196, respectively.

NOTE J — FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS

USEB's debt obligation to CPIF requires that debt service payments be made in Canadian dollars. USEB has entered into a cash flow foreign currency hedge agreement with financial institutions fixing the Canadian dollar to US dollar exchange rate at $1.331 Canadian dollar per US dollar. This hedge agreement, in an amount equal to the debt service payments, expires on March 31, 2007. Subsequent to the expiration of the hedge agreement, USEB's debt service payments to the Countryside Fund are subject to fluctuations in the currency exchange rate.

As required by SFAS No. 52 and SFAS No. 133, USEB has adjusted the outstanding principal on the debt owed to CPIF to reflect the currency exchange rate as of the end of the financial reporting period. The gain or loss resulting from the adjustment of the outstanding principal from that recorded in the previous reporting periods is recorded as Foreign Currency Transaction Income (Loss).

Following is a summary of the Foreign Currency Transaction account as of June 30, 2005 (the exchange rates are Canadian dollars per one US dollar and are stated whole dollars, all other amounts are in $000's):

	Three Months Ended June 30, 2005	Six Months Ended June 30, 2005

USEB OPERATING ASSETS
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE MONTH AND NINE MONTH PERIODS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2005
(Unaudited)
(Amounts in thousands of U.S. dollars)

NOTE A — BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These financial statements are the financial statements of the USEB Operating Assets. Per the Amendment to Note Purchase Agreement dated as of April 8, 2004 between US Energy Biogas Corp. and certain subsidiaries (the Issuer) and Countryside Canada Power Inc., USEB is required to compile financial statements for the USEB Operating Assets which is defined in the agreement as follows:

"the assets, liabilities and capitalization of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, excluding the equity, assets and liabilities of Brown County Energy Associates LLC, Garland Energy Development LLC, Hoffman Road Associates LLC, Oyster Bay Energy Partners LP, Zapco Development Corp. and ZFC Equipment Corp. and certain restructuring expenses of the Issuer unrelated to the continuing operating projects of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries."

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with US GAAP but do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The results for the three and nine month periods are not necessarily indicative of results for the full year.

NOTE B — RESTATEMENTS

1. Foreign Currency Transaction

On May 16, 2005 USEB announced that an error had been identified relating to accounting for a foreign currency loan and related hedge arrangement entered into in April 2004 in connection with the CDN $107 million debt arrangement between a majority owned subsidiary, US Energy Biogas Corp. ("USEB") and Countryside Power Income Fund ("CPIF") and its subsidiaries (the "Countryside Debt").

The accounting issue related to the Application of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 52, Foreign Currency Translation, as amended ("SFAS No. 52") and Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended ("SFAS No. 133").

USEB restated its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and for the interim periods ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004 to reflect the impact of the changes in the current exchange rate for debt service payments beyond the expiration of the hedge arrangement in April 2007, to reflect the outstanding principal amount of the Countryside Debt using the current exchange rate in effect at the end of the applicable period and to record changes in the fair value of the hedge arrangement.

2. Gain Recognition

On August 22, 2005, USEB announced a change in the application of accounting principles relating to the accounting for the payment received for the sale of certain ownership interests in Illinois based generating project entities previously sold to AJG Financial Services, Inc. ("AJG"). On April 8, 2004 AJG made a cash down payment of $2,000 and delivered a $14,000 note payable to a subsidiary of USEB to satisfy AJG's obligation for the purchase of the ownership interests. The note matures in 2024, requires scheduled payments of principal and interest and bears interest at a rate of 15% per annum. Payments on the note are limited to cash distributions from the project entities with any excesses to the scheduled payments being applied as an additional principal payment and any deficits to scheduled principal payments being deferred. Recourse on the note is limited to AJG's ownership interests in the partnership.

The original accounting treatment for the receipt of this payment reflected in USEB's financial statements for the periods ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004, as amended, for the year ended December 31, 2004, as amended and for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, included the recording of a non-recurring gain during the interim period ended June 30, 2004. This gain recorded represented the gain for both the cash and note received.

The accounting issues requiring the restatement of this gain relate to the application of Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 30, Accounting for Divestiture of a Subsidiary or Other Business Operation, as amended ("SAB No. 30") and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 81, Gain Recognition on the Sale of a Business to a Highly Leveraged Entity, as amended ("SAB No. 81"; together with SAB No. 30, the "Bulletins"). The issues pertain to the gain associated with the note portion of the compensation received. The accounting Bulletins provide and management determined that since the payments on the note portion of the compensation received are wholly dependent upon the future operations of the assets being sold, any gain associated with the note should be deferred and not recognized until such time as actual principal payments are received on the note.

To comply with the Bulletins, USEB has restated its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and for the interim periods ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004 and for the quarter ending March 31, 2005 to eliminate $14,000 of the non-recurring gain, the amount of the gain that was related to the note. Future principal payments received on the note will be recorded as gains for financial statement purposes. These changes will have no effect on the cash flows of USEB.

The following tables isolate each of the restated amounts described in Notes B(1) and B(2)in USEB's Consolidated Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2004 and Statement of Operations and Other Comprehensive Income (Loss) for the nine months ended September 30, 2004:

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES FOLLOWED IN THE PREPARATION OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

NOTE C— BASIS OF REPORTING

These statements have been compiled in accordance with US GAAP. Investments in joint ventures are accounted for under the equity method. Investments in partnerships, in which our ownership does not exceed 1%, are not consolidated and carried at cost. All inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidation.

NOTE D — REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenues are recognized upon delivery of energy or service.

NOTE E — FOREIGN CURRENCY

The functional currency for our foreign debt obligations is the local currency. For these foreign obligations, we translate income statement amounts at average exchange rates for the period, and we translate the debt obligations at the end-of-period exchange rates. We report any translation adjustments on inter-company foreign currency transactions of a long-term nature in Other Comprehensive Income (Loss). Foreign currency transaction gains or losses are recognized in the period incurred and are included in Other Income (Loss) in the consolidated statement of operations.

NOTE F — INVESTMENTS IN DERIVATIVES

USEB holds derivative financial instruments for the sole purpose of hedging the risks relating to changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the variability of which impacts future earnings and cash flows. USEB documents its risk management strategy and hedge effectiveness at the inception of and during the term of the hedge. Changes in the fair market value of our foreign currency cash flow hedge derivatives are recorded each period in other comprehensive income (loss).

NOTE G — RESTRICTED CASH AND MARKETABLE SECURITIES

USEB's financing arrangements with CPIF established various reserve accounts, which are also collateral for the financing. These accounts include the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts, a debt service reserve account and an improvement reserve account. The funds held in the improvement reserve account can be utilized to fund capital expenditures. The funds in the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Account (the "Illinois Accounts") are to be utilized to retire the Illinois subsidy liability as it becomes due.

Restricted cash and marketable securities were as follows:

	September 30, 2005	December 31, 2004
Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts	$25,805	$23,438
Improvement Reserve	3,342	4,022
Debt Service Reserve	2,095	2,011
Project Contract Reserve	138	138
	$31,380	$29,609

Included in the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts at September 30, 2005 is $23,798 that is managed by a professional investment manager under investment allocation parameters established by USEB. The amounts managed by the professional manager, as of September 30, 2005, included $14,728 invested in equity fund accounts, $7,551 invested in debt accounts, and $1,519 being held in cash or cash equivalent accounts. The original cost basis of the investments, which have been invested since July 2004, is $20,784.

NOTE H – ILLINOIS RETAIL RATE PROGRAM

USEB has 10 operating projects in Illinois, which are receiving a subsidy for each kilowatt hour ("kwh") of electricity sold to the local utility under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. In accordance with the Illinois Retail Rate Program, the utility has contracted, for a ten year period, with each project to purchase electricity for an amount that exceeds the utility's Avoided Cost (what it would otherwise pay for the generation of electricity). The excess paid above avoided cost is the subsidy. The utility then receives a tax credit from the State of Illinois ("Illinois") equal to the amount of that excess. Each project is obligated to begin to repay the subsidy to Illinois after the project has recouped its capital investment and retired all debt associated with the financing and construction of the project but, in any case, no later than 10 years from the date the project commenced commercial operations. All subsidy liabilities must be fully repaid to Illinois (without interest) by the end of the actual useful life of the project but no later than 20 years from the date the project commenced commercial operations.

This subsidy is accounted for reporting purposes in a manner similar to an original issue discount whereby the amount to be repaid in the future is discounted to its net present value and the discount is amortized (as interest expense) over the 10-year period until repayment begins. The amount of power generation revenue recognized each period is equal to the Avoided Cost rate plus the difference between the subsidy received by the project and the net present value of the subsidy. This unamortized discount and the liability are shown net on the consolidated balance sheet as Illinois Subsidy Liability.

USEB is required by CPIF to deposit funds into the Illinois Subsidy Liability Reserve Accounts for repayment of the Illinois subsidy liability. The Illinois Accounts are classified as restricted cash and marketable securities. The amount deposited into the Illinois Accounts is based upon the amount of subsidy received and contemplates an annual return sufficient to fund the current period subsidy liability repayment as it becomes due. Regular deposits combined with actual and expected returns on those deposits may not be sufficient to fully repay the respective liabilities as they become due. Should the amounts in the Illinois Accounts be insufficient to fully repay the obligations, any shortfall would have to be funded from the project's operations or assets.

Following is a summary of significant dates pertaining to a project's participation in the Illinois Retail Rate Program.

Project	Commencement of Commercial Operations	Expiration of Illinois Retail Rate Program	Estimated Commencement of Repayment of Subsidy Liability[1]
Countryside	April, 2001	April, 2011	May, 2011
Dolton	May, 1998	May, 2008	June, 2008
Dixon Lee	July, 1999	July, 2009	August, 2009
Morris	December, 2000	December, 2010	January, 2011
Roxanna	November, 1999	November, 2009	December, 2009
Upper Rock	April, 2000	April, 2010	May, 2010
122nd Street	July, 1998	July, 2008	August, 2008
Brickyard	September, 1999	September, 2009	October, 2009
Streator	January, 2000	January, 2010	February, 2010
Willow Ranch	January, 1998	January, 2009	February, 2009

(1) The estimated commencement of the repayment of the liability is based upon management's assumptions. One year before a project's eligibility for participation in the program terminates, a proposed repayment schedule must be presented to the Illinois Commerce Commission for their approval. Until any repayment schedule is approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission, it will continue to be an estimated schedule.

The funds held in the Illinois Accounts are currently invested in equities and fixed income securities. These investments are being managed by a third-party professional money manager with the investment allocations being approved by the management of USEB. The amount held in the Illinois Accounts as of September 30 2005 was $25,805. The amount of the subsidy liability owed to Illinois as of September 30, 2005 was $55,084. It is anticipated that repayments of the incentive will begin in 2008 and continue through 2021.

Under the terms of the Illinois Retail Rate Program, estimated rates are paid for production sold to the utility with that rate being trued up annually, on the anniversary date of the commencement of commercial operations of the applicable project, to the actual rates paid for electricity by the local municipality. After the actual rate is determined, sales for the preceding calendar year, retroactive to the last anniversary date, are adjusted based upon the actual rate. If the actual rate is greater than the estimated rate, additional sales proceeds are paid to the project. If the actual rate is less than the estimated rate, then prior sales proceeds received, equal to the excess amounts paid, must be refunded to the utility. This actual rate then becomes the estimated rate for the subsequent year.

In the past, the annual reconciliation of estimated rates to actual rates has resulted in both increases and decreases in retroactive revenue. USEB cannot predict whether any changes in future rates will result in increases or decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects. For the nine month period ended September 30, 2005, USEB received approximately 25% of its revenues from the subsidy paid under the Illinois Retail Rate Program.

From time to time during the past few years including 2004 and 2005, proposed changes to or the elimination of the Illinois Retail Rate Program have been introduced in the Illinois legislature. While legislation has not been adopted, the adoption of legislation or the implementation of rules that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under this program would have a material adverse effect on USEB.

NOTE I — TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

USEB is a general partner in alternative energy and equipment finance transactions with related unconsolidated limited partnerships and collects management fees from the partnerships. Fees earned from such general partner undertakings amount to $287 for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and $565 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004.

USEB reimburses its shareholders for a majority of the costs incurred by them for the benefit of USEB. These costs include management and accounting salary and benefit costs, office expenses associated with the accounting services and an allocation of rent expenses. The total reimbursements for the nine month period ended September 30, 2005 and 2004 were $245 and $318, respectively.

NOTE J — FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS

USEB's debt obligation to CPIF requires that debt service payments be made in Canadian dollars. USEB has entered into a cash flow foreign currency hedge agreement with financial institutions fixing the Canadian dollar to US dollar exchange rate at $1.331 Canadian dollar per US dollar. This hedge agreement, in an amount equal to the debt service payments, expires on March 31, 2007. Subsequent to the expiration of the hedge agreement, USEB's debt service payments to the Countryside Fund are subject to fluctuations in the currency exchange rate.

As required by SFAS No. 52 and SFAS No. 133, USEB has adjusted the outstanding principal on the debt owed to CPIF to reflect the currency exchange rate as of the end of the financial reporting period. The gain or loss resulting from the adjustment of the outstanding principal from that recorded in the previous reporting periods is recorded as Foreign Currency Transaction Income (Loss).

Following is a summary of the Foreign Currency Transaction account as of September 30, 2005 (the exchange rates are Canadian dollars per one US dollar and are stated whole dollars, all other amounts are in $000's):

	Three Months Ended September 30, 2005	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2005

NOTE K – OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME/(LOSS)

The other Comprehensive loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 of $222 is comprised of $239 of unrealized losses on available for sale marketable securities offset by $17 in gains associated with foreign currency exchange rates.

CHANGES IN FINANCING AGREEMENTS

Countryside Power Income Fund

On April 8, 2004, Countryside Power Income Fund (CPIF), an unincorporated open-ended, limited purpose trust formed under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada, acquired the outstanding balance of existing USEB debt from John Hancock Life Insurance Companies, ABB Energy Capital and AJG Financial Services, Inc. (AJG).

Immediately following the acquisition of the loans, CPIF and USEB amended the existing loan agreements to denominate the loans in Canadian currency, to provide an additional loan amount of $23,843 and to provide for a remaining term of 15 years with a balloon payment at the maturity date of $35,100. In addition, certain loan covenants were amended. In connection with the amendment of the loans, USEB paid related costs of $16,994. The amendment established several reserve accounts including a $4,000 improvement reserve with funds to be utilized to expand USEB and a $2,000 debt service reserve. In addition, $8,200 of loan proceeds were deposited into the Illinois Subsidy Reserve Accounts (the "Illinois Accounts"). Immediately upon completion of the transaction, the total amount owed to CPIF by USEB was CAD $107,000 which was equal to U.S. $81,431 based upon the currency exchange rate as of the date of closing. The loan is secured by the USEB Operating Assets and bears interest at a rate of 11% per annum.

The loan agreement with CPIF requires USEB to deposit $250 per quarter into the debt reserve fund provided that cash available, as defined in the loan agreement, is at a certain level. USEB was only required to make $84 of additional deposits into the debt reserve fund during 2004. Until an amount is deposited into the reserve equal to $250 per quarter since the April 8, 2004 closing, USEB is precluded from making dividend or royalty interest payments or from expending funds to expand its production or capacity.

Due to the requirement in the amended loan documents that payments be made to CPIF in Canadian dollars, USEB has entered into a three-year hedge agreement with Toronto Dominion Bank fixing the U.S. dollar to the Canadian dollar exchange rate at U.S. $0.76 per Canadian dollar through March 31, 2007. According to the terms of the loan agreement with CPIF, USEB is required to maintain a foreign currency hedge agreement for a minimum of 75% of the remaining debt service payments. After the expiration of the hedge agreement, USEB will be at risk for fluctuations in the currency exchange rate should the rate vary from the exchange rate existing in the expiring hedge agreement. (Refer to Note 9 of the consolidated financial statements.)

Concurrent with their acquisition of the existing loans, CPIF acquired a convertible royalty interest in USEB for $6,000. Pursuant to the terms of the Royalty Agreement, CPIF will have the right to receive, on a quarterly basis, the sum of 7% of net distributable cash flow as defined in the Royalty Agreement and 1.8% of USEB's gross revenues, also as defined in the Royalty Agreement. The total royalty payment to be made to CPIF is capped at an amount not to exceed 49% of total distributions made to CPIF and the shareholders of USEB combined. All distributions must be approved by the Board of Directors of USEB. CPIF has the option, under the terms of the Royalty Agreement, to convert its interest into non-voting common shares of USEB equal to 49% of the outstanding equity. CPIF can convert at the earlier of the date on which the loan from CPIF is paid in full or the 20th anniversary date of the Royalty Agreement, which is April 8, 2024. The amount of the Royalty is accrued on a quarterly basis and paid upon the approval of distributions by the Board of Directors of USEB. (Refer to Note 12 of the consolidated financial statements.)

For the quarters ended June 30, and September 30, USEB accrued $156 and $158, respectively, for royalty payments. Due primarily to the decrease in rates paid under the Illinois Retail Rate Program discussed in Note 4 to the consolidated financial statements, there was no royalty payment due or accrued for in the quarter ended December 31, 2004. Only the June 30 royalty interest has been paid and USEB has recorded a current liability of $158 for royalty interest for the third quarter of 2004. Payment of this liability, future royalty interest, and distributions to the shareholders of USEB, is dependent on sufficient cash flow being generated by USEB to support operations after the distributions .

Acquisition of Subordinated Debt

On September 30, 2004, USEB purchased the subordinated note owed by USEB to AJG. The outstanding principal amount of $5,729 plus outstanding accrued interest was purchased for $3,000. Funds for the acquisition were provided by equity contributions to USEB from the USEB shareholders. The purchase resulted in a gain of $2,729. This gain represents the amount of the acquisition price below the notes' face value.

Sale of Ownership Interests

On April 8, 2004, AJG made a cash down payment of $2,000 and executed a $14,000 note payable to a subsidiary of USEB to satisfy its obligation to pay for certain ownership interests in the Illinois based generating project entities it had previously acquired. The note matures in April, 2024, requires scheduled payments of principal and interest, and bears interest at a rate of 15% per annum. Payments on the note are limited to cash distributed from the project entities with any deficits to the scheduled payments being deferred and any excess being applied as additional principal payments. The completion of this transaction resulted in a gain for USEB of $16,000 which was recognized in June, 2004. (Refer to Note 8 of the consolidated financial statements.)

OPERATING RESULTS

Financial Results for the Three and Nine-Month Periods Ended December 31, 2004

USEB's comprehensive income for the three-month period and nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 was $1,599 and $5,076, respectively. A summary of the revenues and expenses for the periods is as follows:

	Three Months Ended Decmber 31, 2004	Nine Months Ended Decmber 31, 2004
Revenues	$ 5,641	$ 35,743
Operating and Administrative expenses	3,343	8,289
Income Before Interest, Tax, Depreciation and Amortization	2,298	27,454
Interest, Taxes, Depreciation & Other Expenses	3,259	24,831
Unrealized Gain, Net of Taxes	1,628	1,521
Net Comprehensive Income	$ 667	$ 4,144

Revenues

	Three Months Ended December 31, 2004	Nine Months Ended December 31, 2004
Power Generation Revenues	$ 3,920	$ 13,173
Renewable Energy Credit Sale	143	409
Interest Income	1,124	2,576
Other Revenue	454	856
Non Recurring Revenues	0	18,729
Total Revenues	$ 5,641	$ 35,743

Total revenues for USEB for the three-month and nine-month periods ended December 31, 2004 were $5,641 and $35,743. Revenues for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 included non-recurring gains of $16,000 pertaining to AJG's payment for a 50% ownership interest in certain of the Illinois-based USEB projects (see Note 18 of the consolidated financial statements) and $2,729 resulting from the acquisition by USEB of subordinated debt at a discount to par value. (Refer to Note 9 of the consolidated financial statements.) Total recurring revenues for the periods were $5,641 for the three-month period and $17,014 for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004.

Power generation and gas sales revenues for the three and nine-month periods ending December 31, 2004 were $3,920 and $13,173, respectively. Revenues for the three-month period decreased by $981 from the $4,901 reported for the three-month period ended September 30, 2004. The decrease was primarily the result of a decrease in the amount of subsidy received for three of the Illinois projects; Morris, Dixon Lee and 122nd Street.

Under the terms of the Illinois Retail Rate Program, estimated rates are paid for production sold to the utility with that rate being trued up annually, on the anniversary of the commencement of commercial operations date of the applicable project, to the actual rates paid for electricity by the local municipality. After the actual rate is determined, sales for the preceding calendar year, retroactive to the last anniversary date, are adjusted based upon the actual rate. If the actual rate is greater than the estimated rate, additional sales proceeds are paid to the project. If the actual rate is less than the estimated rate, then prior sales proceeds received equal to the excess amounts paid must be refunded to the utility. The actual rate then becomes the estimated rate for the subsequent year.

During 2004, retail rates for three of the Illinois projects; Morris, Dixon Lee and 122nd Street, decreased by 27%, 26% and 40% per kwh, respectively. These retroactive rate reductions resulted in a decrease in revenues of $867 for the three-month period ended December 31, 2004. This decrease is comprised of a $699 decrease related to the recalculation of prior period sales and a $163 decrease in current period sales due to those sales being calculated at the lower rate.

In the past, the annual reconciliation of estimated rates to actual rates has resulted in both increases and decreases in retroactive revenue. USEB has participated in the Illinois Retail Rate program since 1998 and has never experienced rate reconciliation changes of this magnitude. USEB has requested, but never received, an explanation from Commonwealth Edison. We are continuing to research the rationale for these decreases and will pursue any options such research may indicate are available to us to minimize the decreases. USEB has a total of ten projects in Illinois, representing 64% of its Power Generation Revenues. USEB cannot predict whether any other major decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects are likely.

In the last few years, including 2004, legislation has been proposed in the State of Illinois which included changes to, or the elimination of, the Illinois Retail Rate Program. While none of this legislation has been adopted, the adoption of any legislation that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under the Illinois Retail Rate Program could have a material adverse effect on USEB.

During the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004, USEB entered into contracts for it's Barre, Manchester and Burlington projects for the sale of the Renewable Energy Credits (RECs) produced by the generation of electricity from landfill gas. One REC is produced when the project sells one megawatt of qualified renewable energy to the utility grid. The contracts do not require USEB to deliver any specified quantities of RECs. Gross proceeds from the sale of the RECs during the nine-month period for the Barre, Manchester and Burlington projects were $144, $201 and $58, respectively. A portion of gross proceeds from the sale of the RECs for the Burlington project is paid to the local utility. The REC revenue is in addition to the energy value, which is sold under a separate contract. The contracts for Barre and Manchester are three-year contracts. The Burlington contract is for the sale of RECs produced during the last three quarters of 2004.

Total Expenses

Operating expenses were $2,380 and $6,832 for the three and nine-month periods ended December 31, 2004. Operating expenses for the three-month period decreased by $198 when compared to the three-month period ended September 30, 2004. The decrease was primarily related to expenses associated with the reclassification, in the three-month period ending September 30, 2004, of operating expenses previously recorded as Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses. Operating expenses include expenses associated with the operation of the energy generating equipment, the acquisition of landfill gas, production rental and site lease payments paid to the landfill owners per the terms of the landfill gas rights and site lease agreements, electricity purchased from local utilities, insurance and other site operating expenses.

SG&A expenses related to USEB were $615 and $1,109 for the three and nine-month periods, respectively. SG&A expenses for the three-month period increased by approximately $487 when compared to the three-month period ended September 30, 2004. The increase was primarily related to the reclassification, in the three-month period ending September 30, 2004, of operating expenses previously recorded as SG&A expenses. SG&A expenses include payroll and related costs associated with the accounting and management functions of USEB, third party accounting charges, rent and office expenses and other expenses related to the administration of the USEB entities.

Income Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization

Income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization was $2,298 for the three-month period and $27,454 for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004. Income for the nine-month period included two non-recurring income items of $16,000 (see Note 18 of the consolidated financial statements) and $2,729 (see Note 9 of the consolidated financial statements). When adjusted for the non-recurring items, income for the respective three and nine-month periods was $2,298 and $8,724.

Development Costs Written Off

Development costs written off of $13,488 for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 were primarily comprised of non-recurring expenses associated with the completion of the financing transaction with CPIF. This included $9,886 reimbursed to CPIF related to expenses incurred by CPIF for their acquisition of the USEB debt from the existing lenders, $2,344 of unamortized debt issuance costs related to the debt acquired by CPIF that remained on USEB's books, and $1,194 of U.S. Energy Systems, Inc., a shareholder of USEB and the sponsor of CPIF, salaries and related costs charged to USEB for services pertaining to the CPIF transaction. During the three-month period ended December 31, 2004, an additional $64 of development costs pertaining to other USEB assets was written off.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the three-month and nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 was $2,192 and $6,372, respectively. Interest expense for the three-month period represents interest paid to CPIF. For the nine-month period $6,428 of interest expense pertaining to the CPIF loan was offset by a $56 credit to interest expense resulting from USEB's purchase of the subordinated note owed by USEB to AJG (see Note 9 of the consolidated financial statements).

Unrealized Gain

The unrealized gain, net of taxes for the three-month and nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 was $1,628 and $1,521, respectively. Unrealized gains and losses represent the gain or loss in market value above the acquisition price for various investments and hedging agreements. The amount for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2004 is comprised of $1,246 of net gain from the investment of the Illinois Accounts (please refer to Note 3 of the consolidated financial statements) and $1,207 of gain in the value of the foreign currency swap agreement associated with the CPIF financing less $932 in taxes (please refer to Note 9 of the consolidated financial statements).

The unrealized gain of $1,628 for the three-month period ended December 31, 2004 is an increase of $1,735 over the $107 unrealized loss recorded during the three months ended September 30, 2004. The gain is the result of market gains in the equity investments and hedge fund agreement.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At December 31, 2004, cash and cash equivalents totaled approximately $30,819 of which $1,213 was unrestricted. This compares with $29,339 in cash and cash equivalents as of September 30, 2004. In connection with notes payable to CPIF, the lender requires that USEB maintain various restricted cash accounts, which, at December 31, 2004 amounted to $29,606. This amount includes $23,435 maintained in the Illinois Accounts to be utilized to repay the Illinois incentive obligations as they become due, $4,022 in an improvement reserve account to be utilized to expand the USEB portfolio, $2,011 in a debt service reserve account and $138 in a project reserve supporting a project contract. The value of the Illinois Accounts is based upon the market value of the investment portfolio as of the reporting date.

All cash held in the Illinois Accounts is invested in equities and fixed income securities. These investments are being managed by a third-party professional money manager with investment allocations approved by the management of USEB.

USEB is required by CPIF to reserve funds for the repayment of the Illinois subsidy liability. The amount deposited into the reserve account is based upon the amount of subsidy received and contemplates an annual return sufficient to fund the current period subsidy liability payment as it becomes due. Regular deposits combined with actual and expected returns on those deposits may not be sufficient to fully repay the respective liabilities as they become due. Should the amounts in the Illinois Accounts be insufficient to fully repay the obligations, any shortfall would have to be funded from the project's operations during the repayment period. It is estimated that repayments of the obligations will begin in 2008 and continue through 2021.

USEB is required by CPIF to deposit $250 per quarter into the debt service reserve fund provided that cash available, as defined in the loan agreement, is at a certain level. USEB was only required to make $84 of additional deposits into the debt reserve fund during 2004, and until an amount equal to $250 per calendar quarter is deposited, USEB is precluded from making dividend or royalty payments or from expending funds to expand its production or capacity.

Management continually evaluates current and forecasted cash flows as a basis to determine the sufficiency of available cash to fund operating requirements and capital expenditures. Management believes that sufficient cash flow from operations and working capital, including unrestricted cash, is available to satisfy all obligations under outstanding indebtedness, to finance anticipated capital expenditures and to fund working capital requirements for the next twelve months. However, management's ability to fund planned capital expenditures at existing facilities to maintain current production levels is dependent on having access to funds in the improvement reserve account. In addition, cash forecasts assume that future revenue from the projects will be consistent with past revenue levels. As disclosed in Note 4 of the consolidated financial statements, USEB has experienced a significant decrease in revenues at three facilities in Illinois. USEB has a total of ten projects in Illinois representing 64% of power generation revenues. USEB cannot predict whether any other major decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects are likely. In the last few years, including 2004, legislation has been proposed in the State which included changes to or the elimination of the Illinois Retail Rate Program. While none of this legislation has been adopted, the adoption of any legislation that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under the Illinois Retail Rate Program could have a material adverse effect on USEB.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

Q1 For the three month period ended March 31, 2005 (in thousands of U.S. dollars, unless otherwise stated)

The consolidated financial statements presented represent the statement of operations, balance sheets and statement of cash flows for the USEB Operating Assets. The USEB Operating Assets consist of the assets, liabilities and capitalization of U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. and its predecessor company and their subsidiaries ("USEB") excluding the equity, assets and liabilities of Brown County Energy Associates LLC, Garland Energy Development LLC, Hoffman Road Associates LLC, Oyster Bay Energy Partners LP, Zapco Development Corp. and Zapco Equipment Corp.

Management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") of the consolidated financial statements for USEB Operating Assets should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto prepared as of March 31, 2005 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005.

FINANCING AGREEMENTS

Countryside Power Income Fund

On April 8, 2004, Countryside Power Income Fund ("CPIF"), an unincorporated open-ended, limited purpose trust formed under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada, acquired the outstanding balance of existing USEB debt from John Hancock Life Insurance Companies, ABB Energy Capital and AIG Financial Services, Inc. ("AIG").

Immediately following the acquisition of the loans, CPIF and USEB amended the existing loan agreements to denominate the loans in Canadian currency, to provide an additional loan amount of $23,843 and to provide for a remaining term of 15 years with a balloon payment at the maturity date of $35,100. In addition, certain loan covenants were amended. In connection with the amendment of the loans, USEB paid related costs of $16,994. The amendment established several reserve accounts including a $4,000 improvement reserve with funds to be utilized to expand USEB and a $2,000 debt service reserve. In addition, $8,200 of loan proceeds was deposited into the Illinois Subsidy Reserve Accounts (the "Illinois Accounts"). Immediately upon completion of the transaction, the total amount owed to CPIF by USEB was CAD $107,000 which was equal to U.S. $81,431 based upon the currency exchange rate as of the date of closing. The loan is secured by the USEB Operating Assets and bears interest at a rate of 11% per annum.

The loan agreement with CPIF requires USEB to deposit $250 per quarter into the debt reserve fund provided that cash available, as defined in the loan agreement, is at a certain level. USEB was only required to make $84 of additional deposits into the debt reserve fund through March 31, 2005. Until an amount is deposited into the reserve equal to $250 per quarter since the April 8, 2004 closing, USEB is precluded from making dividend or royalty interest payments or from expending funds to expand its production or capacity.

Due to the requirement in the amended loan documents that payments be made to CPIF in Canadian dollars, USEB has entered into a three-year hedge agreement with Toronto Dominion Bank fixing the U.S. dollar to the Canadian dollar exchange rate at U.S. $0.76 per Canadian dollar through March 31, 2007. According to the terms of the loan agreement with CPIF, USEB is required to maintain a foreign currency hedge agreement for a minimum of 75% of the remaining debt service payments. After the expiration of the hedge agreement, USEB will be at risk for fluctuations in the currency exchange rate should the rate vary from the exchange rate existing in the expiring hedge agreement. (Refer to Note 13 of the consolidated financial statements.)

Concurrent with their acquisition of the existing loans, CPIF acquired a convertible royalty interest in USEB for $6,000. Pursuant to the terms of the Royalty Agreement, CPIF will have the right to receive, on a quarterly basis, the sum of 7% of net distributable cash flow as defined in the Royalty Agreement and 1.8% of USEB's gross revenues, also as defined in the Royalty Agreement. The total royalty payment to be made to CPIF is capped at an amount not to exceed 49% of total distributions made to CPIF and the shareholders of USEB combined. All distributions must be approved by the Board of Directors of USEB. CPIF has the option, under the terms of the Royalty Agreement, to convert its interest into non-voting common shares of USEB equal to 49% of the outstanding equity. CPIF can convert at the earlier of the date on which the loan from CPIF is paid in full or the 20th anniversary date of the Royalty Agreement, which is April 8, 2024. The amount of the Royalty is accrued on a quarterly basis and paid upon the approval of distributions by the Board of Directors of USEB. (Refer to Note 16 of the consolidated financial statements.)

For the three-month period ended March 31, 2005, USEB accrued $88 for royalty payments. USEB also has accrued but unpaid royalty expenses from 2004 of $158. Payment of this liability, future royalty interest, and distributions to the shareholders of USEB, is dependent on sufficient cash flow being generated by USEB to support operations after the distributions.

OPERATING RESULTS

Financial Results for the Three-Month Period Ended March 31, 2005

USEB's comprehensive loss for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 was $988. A summary of the revenues and expenses for the period is as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2005
Revenues	$ 5,010
Operating and administrative expenses	2,758
Income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization	2,252
Interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, and other income and expenses	2,751
Net loss	$ 499

Revenues

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2005
Power Generation Revenues	$ 4,608
Renewable Energy Credit Sales	105
Other Revenues	297
Total Revenues	$ 5,010

Power generation and gas sales revenues for the three-month period ending March 31, 2005 were $4,608. Revenues for the three-month period increased by $688 from the $3,920 reported for the three-month period ended December 31, 2004. The increase is primarily due to additional electric and gas sales offset in part by rate decreases for the Morris, Dixon Lee and 122nd Street projects resulting from the decrease in rates paid to the projects under the Illinois Retail Rate Program that occurred in the fourth quarter of 2004.

Under the terms of the Illinois Retail Rate Program, estimated rates are paid for production sold to the utility with that rate being trued up annually, on the anniversary of the commencement of commercial operations date of the applicable project, to the actual rates paid for electricity by the local municipality. After the actual rate is determined, sales for the preceding calendar year, retroactive to the last anniversary date, are adjusted based upon the actual rate. If the actual rate is greater than the estimated rate, additional sales proceeds are paid to the project. If the actual rate is less than the estimated rate, then prior sales proceeds received equal to the excess amounts paid must be refunded to the utility. The actual rate then becomes the estimated rate for the subsequent year.

Following is a summary of significant dates pertaining to a project's participation in the Illinois Retail Rate Program.

Project	Commencement of Commercial Operations	Expiration of Illinois Retail Rate Program	Estimated Commencement of Repayment of Subsidy Liability
Countryside	April, 2001	April, 2011	May, 2011
Dolton	May, 1998	May, 2008	June, 2008
Dixon Lee	July, 1999	July, 2009	August, 2009
Morris	December, 2000	December, 2010	January, 2011
Roxana	November, 1999	November, 2009	December, 2009
Upper Rock	April, 2000	April, 2010	May, 2010
122nd Street	July, 1998	July, 2008	August, 2008
Brickyard	September, 1999	September, 2009	October, 2009
Streator	January, 2000	January, 2010	February, 2010
Willow Ranch	January, 1998	January, 2009	February, 2009

In the past, the annual reconciliation of estimated rates to actual rates has resulted in both increases and decreases in retroactive revenue. USEB cannot predict whether any changes in future rates will result in increases or decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects.

In the last few years, including 2004, legislation has been proposed in the State of Illinois which included changes to, or the elimination of, the Illinois Retail Rate Program. While none of this legislation has been adopted, the adoption of any legislation that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under the Illinois Retail Rate Program could have a material adverse effect on USEB.

During 2004, USEB entered into contracts for it's Barre and Manchester projects for the sale of the Renewable Energy Credits ("RECs") produced by the generation of electricity from landfill gas. One REC is produced when the project sells one megawatt of qualified renewable energy to the utility grid. The contracts do not require USEB to deliver any specified quantities of RECs. Gross proceeds from the sale of the RECs during the three-month period were $105. The REC revenue is in addition to the energy value, which is sold under a separate contract. The contracts for Barre and Manchester are three-year contracts.

Total Expenses

Operating expenses were $2,139 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005. Operating expenses for the three-month period decreased by $240 when compared to the three month period ended December 31, 2004. Operating expenses include expenses associated with the operation of the energy generating equipment, the acquisition of landfill gas, production rental and site lease payments paid to the landfill owners per the terms of the landfill gas rights and site lease agreements, electricity purchased from local utilities, insurance and other site operating expenses.

Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses related to USEB were $348 for the three-month period. SG&A expenses for the three-month period decreased by approximately $266 when compared to the three-month period ended December 31, 2004. The decrease was primarily related to the recording in the three-month period ended December 31, 2004 of expenses related to a previous reporting period. SG&A expenses include payroll and related costs associated with the accounting and management functions of USEB, third party accounting charges, rent and office expenses and other expenses related to the administration of the USEB entities.

SG&A expenses-Billed from Shareholders were $140 for the three month period. This amount represents the reimbursement of expenses incurred by the shareholders of USEB for the benefit of USEB. These costs include management salary and benefit costs, travel expenses and other administrative costs associated with the services provided to USEB. The amount recorded for the three month period ended March 31, 2005 represents the reimbursement for expenses incurred by a shareholder for the period October 2004 through March 2005.

Income Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization

Income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization was $2,252 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005. Income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization decreased by approximately $46 from the $2,298 reported for the three- month period ended December 31, 2004.

Foreign Currency Transaction

Foreign currency transaction income was $345 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and represents the adjustment, as required by SFAS 52, Foreign Currency Translations, to the outstanding principal owed to CPIF to reflect the change in the currency exchange rate from the start of the reporting period. The Canadian dollar to US dollar exchange rate increased to $1.2096 from $1.2047 as of December 31, 2004 resulting in a net gain for the period of $345, after adjustments relating to our foreign currency cash flow hedge. The Deferred Income Tax asset was reduced by $147 to reflect the tax effect of the transiation gain. See Note 10 to the Consolidated Financial Statements. During the three months ended March 31, 2004, there was no Foreign Currency Transaction adjustment as the Countryside debt arrangements were entered into on April 8, 2004.

Interest Expense

Interest expense for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 was $2,183. Interest expense for the three-month period was comprised solely of interest paid to CPIF.

Unrealized Gain/(Loss)

The unrealized loss for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 was $489. Unrealized gains and losses represent the gain or loss in market value above the acquisition price for various investments and hedging agreements. The amount for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 is comprised of $412 of net loss from the investment of the Illinois Accounts (please refer to Note 4 of the consolidated financial statements) and $77 of loss in the value of the foreign currency swap agreement associated with the CPIF financing (please refer to Note 13 of the consolidated financial statements).

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At March 31, 2005, cash and restricted cash and marketable securities totaled approximately $30,998 of which $972 was unrestricted. This compares with $30,819 in cash and restricted cash and marketable securities as of December 31, 2004. In connection with notes payable to CPIF, the lender requires that USEB maintain various restricted cash accounts, which, at March 31, 2005 amounted to $29,828. This amount includes $24,144 maintained in the Illinois Accounts to be utilized to repay the Illinois incentive obligations as they become due, $3,653 in an improvement reserve account to be utilized to expand the USEB portfolio and $2,091 in a debt service reserve account. In addition, the power purchase agreement for the SPSA project requires that USEB maintain a restricted cash reserve of $138 to support the project contract. The value of the Illinois Accounts is based upon the market value of the investment portfolio as of the reporting date.

All cash held in the Illinois Accounts is invested in equities and fixed income securities. These investments are being managed by a third-party professional money manager with investment allocations approved by the management of USEB.

USEB is required by CPIF to reserve funds for the repayment of the Illinois subsidy liability. The amount deposited into the reserve account is based upon the amount of subsidy received and contemplates an annual return sufficient to fund the current period subsidy liability payment as it becomes due. Regular deposits combined with actual and expected returns on those deposits may not be sufficient to fully repay the respective liabilities as they become due. Should the amounts in the Illinois Accounts be insufficient to fully repay the obligations, any shortfall would have to be funded from the project's operations during the repayment period. It is estimated that repayments of the obligations will begin in 2008 and continue through 2021.

USEB is required by CPIF to deposit $250 per quarter into the debt service reserve fund provided that cash available, as defined in the loan agreement, is at a certain level. USEB was only required to make $84 of additional deposits into the debt reserve fund during 2004, until an amount equal to $250 per calendar quarter is deposited. USEB is precluded from making dividend or royalty payments or from expending funds to expand it production capacity.

Management continually evaluates current and forecasted cash flows as a basis to determine the sufficiency of available cash to fund operating requirements and capital expenditures. Management believes that sufficient cash flow from operations and working capital, including unrestricted cash is available to satisfy all obligations under outstanding indebtedness, to finance anticipated capital expenditures and to fund working capital requirements for the next twelve months. However, management's ability to fund planned capital expenditures at existing facilities to maintain current production levels is dependent on having access to funds in the improvement reserve account. In addition, cash forecasts assume that future revenue from the projects will be consistent with past revenue levels. USEB operates 10 projects that sell electricity under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. Rates paid under the program are estimated rates which are trued up annually on the project's anniversary date of the commencement of commercial operations. (See Note 5 to the Consolidated Financial Statements). USEB cannot predict whether any changes in future rates will result in increases or decreases in revenues from the Illinois projects. USEB receives approximately 21% of its Power Generation revenues from the subsidy paid under the Illinois Retail Rate Program. In the last few years, including 2004, legislation has been proposed in the State which included changes to or the elimination of the Illinois Retail Rate Program. While none of this legislation has been adopted, the adoption of any legislation that would reduce or eliminate the benefits received by USEB under the Illinois Retail Rate Program could have a material adverse effect on USEB.

Legal Proceedings

In 2004, a foreclosure proceeding entitled CIB Bank v. Miss Mimi Corporation, Countryside Genco, LLC et al was commenced in the circuit court for the 19th Judicial District, Lake County, Illinois. Countryside Genco, LLC ("Countryside") is a USEB project entity and leases, pursuant to a long-term site lease agreement, a portion of the land which the lender is seeking to foreclose. Countryside has a consent and recognition agreement with the lender that provides that if the lender forecloses on the underlying land and Countryside is not in default of the site lease agreement, the lender will not cause the lease to be terminated and Countryside will be recognized by the lender as a tenant. Countryside is not in default of the site lease agreement.

USEB Operating Assets

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

With the closing of the Countryside transaction on April 8, 2004, USEB began, as required under the amended loan agreements, to report the financial results of the USEB Operating Assets. USEB Operating Assets are defined in the Amendment to Note Purchase Agreement dated as of April 8, 2004 as "the assets, liabilities and capitalization of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, excluding the equity, assets and liabilities of Brown County Energy Associates LLC, Garland Energy Development LLC, Hoffman Road Associates LLC, Oyster Bay Energy Partners LP, Zapco Development Corp. and ZFC Equipment Corp. and certain restructuring expenses of the Issuer unrelated to the continuing operating projects of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries."

Prior to April 8, 2004, financial reports were not generated for the USEB Operating Assets and therefore are not available for periods prior to that date for comparative purposes. Therefore, for this financial report, comparison will be made only for the three month periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004.

The net loss for the three months ended June 30, 2005 was $24 compared with net loss for the three month period ended June 30, 2004 of $11,661, as restated per Note B(2) above. During the three month period ended June 30, 2004, non-recurring items pertaining to the sale of USEB interests in Illinois Electrical Generation Partners II and the completion of the Countryside transaction resulting in non-recurring income were recorded during the period. Excluding the non-recurring items, the net loss for the three month period ended June 30, 2004 would have been $191.

Revenues for the three month period ended June 30, 2005 were $4,514, a decrease of $169, or 4%, from the $4,683 reported for the three month period ended June 30, 2004. The decrease is primarily due to a $181 decrease in power generation sales due to lower rates being received under the Illinois Retail Rate program, a $37 decrease in the gains derived from the installment notes pertaining to the sale of partnership interests and a $45 decrease in fee and royalty income. These decreases were offset by a $91 increase is revenues from the sale of renewable energy credits. The decrease in royalty income is due to a reduction in income derived from the royalty agreement with Countryside. The increase in revenues from renewable energy credit sales is due to the fact that the contracts for the sale of the credits were executed after June 30, 2004.

Total operating expenses for the three month period ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 were $2,168 and $1,974, respectively. This represents an increase of $194 or 10%. The increase is due to approximately $200 in site lease payments due to certain landfill owners that were paid in the three month period ended June 30, 2005 which were for expenses pertaining to 2004.

General and Administrative expenses for the three month period ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 were $354 and $367, respectively. This represents a decrease of $13 or 4%.The variance reflects expected minor changes in expenses incurred during the periods.

Depreciation and amortization expenses for the three month periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 were $1,627 and $1,480, respectively, an increase of $147. The increase is due principally to the increase in the amortization of debt issuance costs associated with the CPIF transaction which was consummated on April 8, 2004.

Interest income was $746 and $737 for the three months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 reflecting net increases of $9. The increase is due to an increase in interest from the note receivable pertaining to the Illinois Electrical Generation Partners, II ("IEGP II") sale which was executed on April 8, 2004.

Foreign Currency Transaction income was $1,307 and $1,149 for the three month periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004. These amounts represent the adjustment, as required by SFAS 52, Foreign Currency Translations, to the outstanding principal owed to CPIF to reflect the change in the currency exchange rate from the start of the reporting period. The Canadian dollar to US dollar exchange rate was $1.2287 as of June 30, 2005, $1.2096 as of March 31, 2005 and $1.2047 as of December 31, 2004. The changes in the exchange rates result in the amounts recorded as foreign currency transaction income. Refer to Note J to the financial statements for additional discussion.

Interest expense was $2,174 and $2,184 for the three month periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004. This interest pertains solely to the CPIF loan and its decrease is the result of the continuing amortization of principal and the subsequent reduction in interest expense on the reducing principal outstanding.

The $2,000 Gain on Sale of IEGP II was a non-recurring item recorded in the three month period ended June 30, 2004 resulting from the payment by AJG Financial Services for their ownership in IEGP II, that they had previously acquired.

Development Costs Written off of $13,470 for the three month period ended June 30, 2004 represent the expensing of certain non-recurring costs related to the CPIF transaction that closed in April, 2004.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At June 30, 2005, cash accounts totaled $31,573 compared with $30,822 at December 31, 2004. The debt arrangements between CPIF and USEB projects require these subsidiaries to maintain various restricted cash accounts, which totaled $30,072 as of June 30, 2005 and $29,471 as of June 30, 2004. Included in the restricted cash and marketable securities is $22,638 that is managed by a professional investment manager under investment allocation parameters established by USEB. The amounts managed by the professional manager, as of June 30, 2005, included $13,791 invested in equity fund accounts, $7,552 invested in debt accounts, and $1,288 being held in cash or cash equivalent accounts. The cost basis of the investments, which have been invested since July 2004, is $21,026. In addition to the restricted cash required by CPIF, $138 is required by a project document to be held in a restricted account in support of that document.

During the six months ended June 30, 2005, cash used by operating activities was $801, primarily resulting from the payment of accounts payable and an increase in prepaid expenses pertaining to future capital maintenance services to be performed under the third party operating agreements for the Illinois projects.

Cash used in investing activities was $1,301 for the six months ended June 30, 2005. This amount is comprised primarily of investments made by USEB pertaining to the expansion of the landfill gas collection systems at certain of USEB's projects, as required by contracts and the landfill owners, plus capital maintenance expenditures for certain generating projects.

Cash provided by financing activities was $2,853 for the six month period ended June 30, 2005. This amount is comprised primarily of subsidy proceeds received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program and payments made under the various notes receivable held by USEB, offset by debt service payments made to CPIF.

USEB's financing arrangements with the CPIF limit the ability of USEB and its subsidiaries to distribute funds to it's shareholders or to make improvements or expand certain projects unless specified conditions are satisfied.

Under the Internal Revenue Service Code Section 29, the amount of the tax credit generated from non conventional fuel sources, of which landfill gas is one, shall be reduced or eliminated should the reference price of an equivalent barrel of energy ("EBE") utilized to establish the value of the credit reach certain levels. Should the EBE reference price exceed the specified levels, the resultant decline in the tax credit value generated by the sale of landfill gas by USEB will reduce the amount of proceeds USEB receives under the installment sale notes.

We continue to evaluate current and forecasted cash flow as a basis to determine financing operating requirements and capital expenditures. We believe that we have sufficient cash flow from operations and working capital including unrestricted cash on hand to satisfy all obligations under outstanding indebtedness, to finance anticipated capital expenditures and to fund working capital requirements during the next twelve months.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE MONTH AND NINE MONTH PERIODS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2005
(Amounts in thousands of U.S. dollars)

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

With the closing of the Countryside transaction on April 8, 2004, USEB began, as required under the amended loan agreements, to report the financial results of the USEB Operating Assets. USEB Operating Assets are defined in the Amendment to Note Purchase Agreement dated as of April 8, 2004 as "the assets, liabilities and capitalization of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, excluding the equity, assets and liabilities of Brown County Energy Associates LLC, Garland Energy Development LLC, Hoffman Road Associates LLC, Oyster Bay Energy Partners LP, Zapco Development Corp. and ZFC Equipment Corp. and certain restructuring expenses of the Issuer unrelated to the continuing operating projects of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries."

The net loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005 was $2,580 and $3,121, respectively. This compares with net losses of $745 and $12,053 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2004.

Financial results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2004 included non-recurring items. These items included the recording of a $2,000 gain resulting from the receipt by USEB of payment for the sale of 50% interest in a partnership, a $2,729 gain from the acquisition of subordinated debt below the face value of the indebtedness, the reversal of $252 in interest expense associated with the acquisition of the subordinated indebtedness and the expensing of $13,193 of development costs primarily associated with the refinancing of USEB's debt in the Countryside transaction.

The results of operations for the three and nine month period ended September 30, 2004, excluding these non-recurring items are as follows:

	Three Months Ended September 30, 2004	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2004
Net Loss Including Non Recurring Items	$ (745)	$ (12,053)
Less:
Gain from Sale of Interests	-----	(2,000)
Gain from Acquisition of Subordinated Debt	(2,729)	(2,729)
Adjustment of Interest Expense From Subordinate Debt	(252)	(252)
Development Costs Written Off	(46)	13,193
Net Income Loss Excluding Non-Recurring Items	$(3,772)	$(3,841)

RECEIVED
2005 APR 27 A 11:25
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL
CORPORATE FINANCE

Excluding the non-recurring items, the net loss of $2,580 for the three months ended September 30, 2005 is a $1,192 decrease from the $3,772 loss for the 2004 period. The $3,121 loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 is a $720 decrease from the $3,841 loss, excluding non-recurring items, reported for the comparative 2004 period.

Revenues for the three month and nine months ended September 30, 2005 were $4,910 and $14,403, respectively, compared with $8,355 and $19,744, including the non-recurring items, for the corresponding 2004 periods. Excluding the non-recurring items, revenues for the 2004 periods were $5,626 and $15,015 representing decreases of $716 and $612, respectively. These decreases are due to:

a. decreases of $147 and $257 related to production decreases for the comparative periods. KWH production decreased to 69,250 kwh and 211,750 kwh for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2005 compared with 74,200 kwh and 219,680 kwh for the comparative 2004 periods. The production decreases for the comparative nine month periods included a decrease of 3,245 kwh from the east coast projects resulting from the natural decline of gas being generated by their respective closed landfills and 4,685 kwh decrease from the Illinois projects. The reduction in output from the Illinois projects is due primarily to problems experienced with the third party operator as they restructure their organization.

b. decreases of $282 and $370 for the three and nine month comparative periods due to continued changes in the rates paid under the Illinois retail rate program. As discussed in Note H to the financial statements, rates paid under the Illinois retail rate program are trued up annually to the actual rates paid for electricity by the local municipality. The latest annual rate true-ups are summarized below:

Project	Rate After Adjustment	Rate Before Adjustment	Net Change	% Change	Adjustment Month
Countryside	$0.0794	$0.0812	$(0.0018)	(2.2)	March
Dolton	$0.0710	$0.0702	$ 0.0008	1.1	June
Dixon Lee	$0.0369	$0.0647	$(0.0278)	(43.0)	August
Morris	$0.0647	$0.0892	$(0.0245)	(27.5)	January
Roxanna	$0.0677	$0.0698	$(0.0022)	(3.2)	November
Upper Rock	$0.0641	$0.0599	$ 0.0043	7.1	April
122nd Street	$0.0397	$0.0659	$(0.0262)	(39.8)	July
Brickyard	$0.0783	$0.0773	$ 0.0010	1.2	September
Streator	$0.0886	$0.0895	$(0.0009)	(1.0)	January
Willow Ranch	$0.0856	$0.0871	$(0.0015)	(1.7)	January

The net result of these changes is to reduce the average net effective rate received under the Retail Rate program to $0.050/kwh for the nine month period ended September 30, 2005 from to $0.054/kwh for the comparative 2004 period. The net effective rate is equal to the gross rate received under the program less amounts funded into the Illinois reserve accounts.

c. a decrease of $189 and an increase of $8 in revenues received from the sale of renewable energy credits (RECs) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005. The decrease in the three month period is due to the recording, during the three month period ended September 30, 2004 of revenues retroactive to January 1, 2004. The sales contracts for the RECs were executed in the 3rd quarter of 2004 retroactive to the beginning of the year.

d. an increase of $266 in both the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2005 from gains associated with principal payments received on the IEGP II note receivable (See Note B to the financial statements). There were no gains recorded for the corresponding 2004 periods.

e. a decrease of $156 and $121 in revenues related to the CPIF royalty for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005. This decrease in revenues is offset by an identical decrease in royalty expense for the periods.

f. Decreases of $200 and $150 in fees for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005 due to the recording, in the 2004 periods, of fees related to periods prior to the reporting period.

Total operating expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005 were $2,045 and $6,351 compared with $2,285 and $6,281 for the respective 2004 periods representing a decrease of $240 for the three month period and an increase of $70 for the nine month period. The decrease for the three month period was primarily due to reductions in labor costs, $47, subcontracting costs, $60 and insurance, $13.

General and Administrative expenses for the three month and nine months ended September 30, 2005 were $278 and $1,120 compared with $136 and $1,410 for the respective 2004 periods representing an increase of $142 for the three month period and a decrease of $290 for the nine month period. The increase for the three month period is due to the recording, during the 2004 period, of credits to General and Administrative expenses related to prior periods.

Depreciation and amortization expenses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005 were $1,626 and $4,879 compared with $1,629 and $4,480 for the respective 2004 periods. The increase of $399 for the nine month period is primarily due to the increase in the amortization of debt issuance costs associated with the refinancing of USEB's debt with the Countryside fund. The financial results for the nine month period ended September 30, 2005 include nine months of the additional amortization of costs associated with the refinancing while the 2004 period included only six months of the additional amortization as the refinancing closed in April, 2004.

Interest income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005 were $761 and $2,273, respectively, compared with $760 and $1,840 for the respective 2004 periods. The increase of $433 for the nine month period is primarily due to the inclusion of nine months of interest income related to a note receivable from the sale of partnership interests. The 2004 period included only 6 months of interest income as the note was executed in April, 2004.

Losses from Foreign Currency Transactions for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005 were $4,039 and $2,387, respectively, compared with losses of $4,346 and $3,197 for corresponding 2004 periods. These amounts represent the adjustment, as required by SFAS 52, Foreign Currency Translations, to the outstanding principal owed to CPIF to reflect the change in the currency exchange rate from the start of the reporting period. The Canadian dollar to US dollar exchange rate was $1.1713 as of September 30, 2005, $1.2287 as of June 30, 2005 and $1.2047 as of December 31, 2004. The changes in the exchange rates result in the amounts recorded as foreign currency transaction income. Refer to Note J to the financial statements for additional discussion.

Interest expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005 was $2,164 and $6,521, respectively compared with $1,997 and $5,813 for the comparative 2004 periods. The three and nine month period ended September 30, 2004 included the reversal of $252 in accrued interest expense which was eliminated with the acquisition of the subordinated debt. Excluding this non-recurring item, interest expense for the three and nine months for 2004 is $2,249 and $6,065, respectively. Comparing the 2005 periods with the 2004 periods, excluding the non-recurring item, produces a decrease in interest expense of $85 for the three month period and an increase of $456 for the nine month period. The decrease for the comparative three month periods is the result of the continuing amortization of principal and the subsequent reduction in interest expense on the reducing principal outstanding. The increase for the comparative nine month periods is due to the inclusion of nine months of CPIF interest in the 2005 period and only six month of CPIF interest in the 2004 period as the CPIF refinancing closed in April, 2004.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At September 30, 2005, cash accounts totaled $32,615 compared with $30,822 at December 31, 2004. The debt arrangements between CPIF and USEB projects require these subsidiaries to maintain various restricted cash accounts, which totaled $31,242 as of September 30, 2005 and $29,471 as of December 31, 2004. Included in the restricted cash and marketable securities is $23,798 that is managed by a professional investment manager under investment allocation parameters established by USEB. The amounts managed by the professional manager, as of September 30, 2005, included $14,728 invested in equity fund accounts, $7,551 invested in debt accounts, and $1,519 being held in cash or cash equivalent accounts. The cost basis of the investments, which have been invested since July 2004, is $20,784. In addition to the restricted cash required by CPIF, $138 is required by a project document to be held in a restricted account in support of that document.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2005, cash used by operating activities was $827, primarily resulting from the payment of accounts payable and an increase in prepaid expenses pertaining to future capital maintenance services to be performed under the third party operating agreements for the Illinois projects.

Cash used in investing activities was $817 for the nine months ended September 30, 2005. This amount is comprised primarily of investments made by USEB pertaining to the expansion of the landfill gas collection systems at certain of USEB's projects, as required by contracts and the landfill owners, plus capital maintenance expenditures for certain generating projects.

Cash provided by financing activities was $3,440 for the nine month period ended September 30, 2005. This amount is comprised primarily of subsidy proceeds received under the Illinois Retail Rate Program and payments made under the various notes receivable held by USEB, offset by debt service payments made to CPIF.

USEB's financing arrangements with the CPIF limit the ability of USEB and its subsidiaries to distribute funds to it's shareholders or to make improvements or expand certain projects unless specified conditions are satisfied.

Under the Internal Revenue Service Code Section 29, the amount of the tax credit generated from non conventional fuel sources, of which landfill gas is one, shall be reduced or eliminated should the reference price of an equivalent barrel of energy ("EBE") utilized to establish the value of the credit reach certain levels. Should the EBE reference price exceed the specified levels, the resultant decline in the tax credit value generated by the sale of landfill gas by USEB will reduce the amount of proceeds USEB receives under the installment sale notes.

We continue to evaluate current and forecasted cash flow as a basis to determine financing operating requirements and capital expenditures. We believe that we have sufficient cash flow from operations and working capital including unrestricted cash on hand to satisfy all obligations under outstanding indebtedness, to finance anticipated capital expenditures and to fund working capital requirements during the next twelve months.

COUNTRYSIDE POWER INCOME FUND

AMENDED AND RESTATED CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

The following code of business conduct and ethics was amended and restated by the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the board of trustees of Countryside Power Income Fund (the "Fund") on March 9, 2006.

INTRODUCTION

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics covers a wide range of business practices and procedures. It does not cover every issue that may arise, but sets out basic principles to guide all trustees, directors, officers and employees of Countryside Power Income Fund (the "Fund") and, its respective subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, "Fund Personnel"). All Fund Personnel must conduct themselves accordingly and seek to avoid even the appearance of improper behavior.

If a law or an agreement binding on the Fund conflicts with a policy in this Code, Fund Personnel must comply with the law or such binding agreement. If a local custom or policy conflicts with this Code, Fund Personnel must comply with this Code. This Code is not intended to supercede or replace any detailed procedures implemented by Fund subsidiaries such as plant safety procedures or human resources policies that do not conflict with this Code. If you have any questions about these conflicts, you should ask a senior officer of the Fund how to handle the situation. Countryside Ventures LLC (the "Manager") is responsible for administering this policy and the Trustees are ultimately responsible for enforcing this policy. Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President of Countryside Ventures LLC (phone: (646) 752 5638) and/or James Anderson, Fund Trustee, (phone: (416) 979-1991 ext 372) are the contact persons for any questions regarding the policy.

Fund Personnel who violate the standards in this Code will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of their employment or other relationship with the Fund or subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Fund Entities"). If you are in a situation that you believe may violate or lead to a violation of this Code, follow the guidelines described below under "Compliance Procedures".

THE CODE

Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

Obeying the law, both in letter and in spirit, is the foundation on which the Fund Entities' ethical standards are built and is critical to our reputation and continued success. All Fund Personnel must respect and obey the laws of the various jurisdictions in which the Fund Entities operate and avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Although not all Fund Personnel are expected to know the details of these laws, it is important to know enough to determine when to seek advice from executive members or other appropriate personnel. Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President of Countryside Ventures LLC and/or James Anderson, Fund Trustee, is available to assist Fund Personnel in determining applicable legal requirements and to seek the advice of legal counsel where appropriate.

Conflicts of Interest

A "conflict of interest" exists when a person's private interests interfere in any way with the interests of the Fund Entities. A conflict of interest can arise when Fund Personnel take actions or have interests that may make it difficult for them to perform their work for a Fund Entity objectively and effectively. Conflicts of interest also may arise when Fund Personnel or members of their families receive improper personal benefits as a result of their positions with a Fund Entity.

Conflicts of interest are prohibited as a matter of policy, except as may be approved by the board of Trustees of the Fund. Conflicts of interest may not always be clear-cut. If you have a question, you should consult with your supervisor or department head. Any Fund Personnel who become aware of a conflict or potential conflict should bring it to the attention of a supervisor or department head and consult the procedures described below under "Compliance Procedures".

Confidentiality

Fund Personnel must maintain the confidentiality of confidential information entrusted to them by any Fund Entity and persons with whom the Fund Entities do business, except when disclosure is authorized under the Confidential Information Policy or required by laws or regulations. Confidential information includes all non-public information that might be of use to competitors or harmful to any Fund Entity or the person to whom it relates if disclosed. The obligation to preserve confidential information continues even after Fund Personnel cease to have a relationship with the Fund Entities.

Fund Personnel who have access to confidential information are not permitted to use or share that information for trust unit trading purposes or for any other purpose except the conduct of the Fund Entities' business. All Fund Personnel should read and abide by the Fund's Confidential Information Policy and Disclosure Policy.

Corporate Opportunities

Fund Personnel are prohibited from taking for themselves personally opportunities that are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or positions without the consent of the board of Trustees and from using corporate property, information, or position for improper personal gain. No Fund Personnel may compete with any of the Fund Entities directly or indirectly. Fund Personnel owe a duty to each Fund Entity to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises.

Protection and Proper Use of Fund Entity Assets

All Fund Personnel should endeavor to protect Fund Entity assets and ensure their efficient use. Theft, carelessness, and waste have a direct impact on the profitability of the Fund Entities. Any suspected incident of fraud or theft should be reported immediately to your department head for investigation.

The obligation of Fund Personnel to protect the assets of the Fund Entities includes the Fund Entities' proprietary information. Proprietary information includes any information that is not known generally to the public or would be helpful to competitors of any of the Fund Entities. Examples of proprietary information include intellectual property (such as trade secrets, patents, trademarks, and copyrights), business, marketing and service plans, designs, databases, salary information and any unpublished financial data and reports. Unauthorized use or distribution of this information would violate Fund Entity policy and could be illegal and result in civil or criminal penalties. The obligation to preserve the confidentiality of proprietary information continues even after Fund Personnel cease to have a relationship with the Fund Entities.

Fund Entity assets may never be used for illegal purposes.

Competition and Fair Dealing

The Fund Entities seek to excel and to outperform any competitors fairly and honestly through superior performance and not through unethical or illegal business practices. Taking proprietary information without the owner's consent, inducing disclosure of that information by past or present employees of other persons or using that information is prohibited. Fund Personnel should respect the rights of, and deal fairly with, the Fund Entities' competitors and persons with whom the Fund Entities have a business relationship. No Fund Personnel should take unfair advantage of anyone through illegal conduct, manipulation, concealment, abuse of proprietary information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other intentional unfair-dealing practice. Nor should any Fund Personnel act in a manner that may be anti-competitive under anti-trust laws. Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President of Countryside Ventures LLC and/or James Anderson, Fund Trustee is available to assist Fund Personnel in determining the application of those laws and to seek the advice of legal counsel where appropriate.

Gifts and Entertainment

Business gifts and entertainment are customary courtesies designed to build goodwill and constructive relationship among business partners. These courtesies may include such things as meals and beverages, tickets to sporting or cultural events, discounts not available to the general public, accommodation and other merchandise or services. In some cultures, they play an important role in business relationships. However, a problem may arise when these courtesies compromise, or appear to compromise, a Fund Entity's ability to make fair and objective business decisions or to gain an unfair advantage.

Offering or receiving any gift, gratuity or entertainment that might be perceived to unfairly influence a business relationship should be avoided. These guidelines apply at all times and do not change during traditional gift-giving seasons.

No gift or entertainment should ever be offered, given, provided, authorized or accepted by any Fund Personnel or their family members unless it is not a cash gift, is consistent with customary business practices, is not excessive in value, cannot be construed as a bribe or payoff, and does not violate any laws. Strict rules apply when a Fund Entity does business with governmental agencies and officials, as discussed in more detail below. Fund Personnel should discuss with their department head any gifts or proposed gifts about which they have any questions.

Payments to Government Personnel

All Fund Personnel must comply with all laws prohibiting improper payments to domestic and foreign officials. Other governments have laws regarding business gifts that may be accepted by government personnel. The promise, offer or delivery to an official or employee of various governments of a gift, favor or other gratuity in violation of these laws would not only violate the Fund Entities policies but could also be a criminal offense. Illegal payments should not be made to government officials of any country. Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President of Countryside Ventures LLC and/or James Anderson, Fund Trustee., can provide guidance to Fund Personnel in this area.

Discrimination and Harassment

The diversity of Fund Personnel is a tremendous asset. The Fund Entities are firmly committed to providing equal opportunity in all aspects of employment and will not tolerate any illegal discrimination or harassment of any kind. Examples include derogatory comments based on racial or ethnic characteristics and unwelcome sexual advances. Violence and threatening behavior are not permitted. Fund Personnel are encouraged to speak with Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President of Countryside Ventures LLC and/or James Anderson, Fund Trustee, when a co-worker's conduct makes them uncomfortable and to report harassment when it occurs.

Health and Safety

The Fund Entities strive to provide all Fund Personnel with a safe and healthy work environment. All Fund Personnel have responsibility for maintaining a safe and healthy workplace by following safety and health rules and practices and reporting accidents, injuries and unsafe equipment, practices or conditions to a supervisor or department head. Being under the influence of and the possession of illegal drugs in the workplace will not be tolerated. Fund Personnel should report to work in condition to perform their duties, free from the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol.

Accuracy of Records and Reporting

The Fund Entities require honest and accurate recording and reporting of information to make responsible business decisions. Each Fund Entity's accounting records are relied upon to produce reports for our management, trustees, directors, trust unitholders, governmental agencies and persons with whom the applicable Fund Entity does business. All of each Fund Entity's financial statements and the books, records and accounts on which they are based must appropriately reflect such Fund Entity's activities and conform to applicable legal and accounting requirements and to the Fund Entity's system of internal controls. Unrecorded or "off the books" funds or assets should not be maintained unless required by applicable law or regulation.

All Fund Personnel have a responsibility, within the scope of their positions, to ensure that each Fund Entity's accounting records do not contain any false or intentionally misleading entries. The Fund Entities do not permit intentional misclassification of transaction as to accounts, departments or accounting records. All transactions must be supported by accurate documentation in reasonable detail and recorded in the proper accounts and in the proper accounting period.

Many Fund Personnel use business expense accounts, which must be documented and recorded accurately. If Fund Personnel are not sure whether a certain expense is legitimate, a supervisor or department head can provide advice. General rules and guidelines are available from Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President of Countryside Ventures LLC and/or James Anderson, Fund Trustee.

Business records and communications often become public through legal or regulatory proceedings or the media. Fund Personnel should avoid exaggeration, derogatory remarks, guesswork or inappropriate characterizations that can be misunderstood. This requirement applies equally to communications of all kinds, including e-mail, informal notes, internal memos, and formal reports.

Use of E-mail and Internet Services

E-mail and internet services are provided by the Fund Entities to assist Fund Personnel in carrying out their work. Incidental and occasional personal use is permitted, but never for personal gain or any improper purpose. Fund Personnel may not access, send or download any information that could be insulting or offensive to another person, such as sexually explicit messages, cartoons, jokes, unwelcome propositions, derogatory based on racial or ethnic characteristics, or any other message that could reasonably be viewed as harassment. Flooding the Fund Entities' system with junk mail and trivia hampers the ability of the Fund Entities' system to handle legitimate company business and is prohibited.

Messages (including voice-mail) and computer information sent, received or created by Fund Personnel are considered property of the Fund Entities and Fund Personnel should recognize that these messages and information are not "private". Unless prohibited by law, the Fund Entities reserve the right to access and disclose those messages and information as necessary for its business purposes. Fund Personnel should use good judgment and not access, send messages or store any information that they would not want to be seen or heard by others.

WAIVERS OF THE CODE

Any waiver of this Code for executive officers or directors may be made only by the Trustees (or a committee of the board of Trustees to whom that authority has been delegated) and will be promptly disclosed as required by law or stock exchange regulation.

REPORTING ANY ILLEGAL OR UNETHICAL BEHAVIOR

The Fund Entities have a strong commitment to the conduct of its business in a lawful and ethical manner. Fund Personnel are encouraged to talk to executive officers or other appropriate personnel about observed illegal or unethical behavior and when in doubt about the best course of action in a particular situation. It is the policy of the Fund Entities not to allow retaliation for reports of misconduct by others made in good faith. It is, at the same time, unacceptable to file a report knowing that it is false. All Fund Personnel are expected to cooperate in internal investigations of misconduct.

COMPLIANCE PROCEDURES

All Fund Personnel must work to ensure prompt and consistent action against violations of this Code. However, in some situations it is difficult to know right from wrong. Since we cannot anticipate every situation that will arise, it is important that the Fund Entities have a way to approach a new question or problem. These are the steps to keep in mind:

- Make sure you have all the facts. In order to reach the right solutions, we must be as fully informed as possible.

- Ask yourself: What specifically am I being asked to do? Does it seem unethical or improper? This will help you to focus on the specific question you are faced with and the alternatives you have. Use your judgment and common sense - if something seems like it might possibly be unethical or improper, it probably is.

- Clarify your responsibility and role. In most situations, there is shared responsibility. Are your colleagues informed? It may help to get others involved and discuss the problem.

- Discuss the problem with your manager. This is the basic guidance for all situations. In many cases, your manager will be more knowledgeable about the question, and will appreciate being brought into the decision-making process. Remember that it is your manager's responsibility to help solve problems.

- Seek help from company resources. In the rare case where it may not be appropriate to discuss an issue with your manager, or where you do not feel comfortable approaching your manager with your question, discuss it locally with your "two-up". If that is not appropriate for any reason, contact Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President of Countryside Ventures LLC and/or James Anderson, Trustee.

- You may report ethical violations in confidence and without fear of retaliation. If your situation requires that your identity be kept secret, your anonymity will be protected. The Fund Entities do not permit retaliation of any kind against employees for good faith reports of ethical violations.

- Always ask first, act later: If you are unsure of what to do in any situation, seek guidance before you act.

COUNTRYSIDE POWER INCOME FUND (the "Fund") has undertaken that in complying with the Fund's reporting issuer obligations, it will treat RIPON POWER LLC ("Ripon") as a subsidiary of the Fund; provided, however, that if generally accepted accounting principles prohibit the consolidation of financial information of Ripon and the Fund, for as long as Ripon (including any of its significant business interests) represents a significant asset of the Fund, the Fund will provide unitholders with separate financial statements for Ripon (including information about any of its significant business interest).

The Fund has taken appropriate measures to require each person who would be an insider of Ripon if Ripon were a reporting issuer to (a) file insider reports about trades in trust units of the Fund (including securities which are exchangeable into trust units of the Fund), and (b) comply with statutory prohibitions against insider trading.

The Fund hereby certifies that, in respect of the year ended December 31, 2005, it has complied with the undertaking set out above.

Management Information Circular

March 27, 2006

This management information circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Trustees (the "Trustees") of Countryside Power Income Fund (the "Fund") of proxies to be used at the annual meeting (the "Meeting") of holders (the "Unitholders") of trust units (the "Units") of the Fund, to be held on Tuesday, May 9, 2006 at The Toronto Board of Trade in the MacDonald/Brule Room (1 First Canadian Place, 100 King Street West, Toronto, Ontario) commencing at 10:00 a.m. Toronto time, and at all postponements or adjournments thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Meeting. All dollar amounts in this management information circular are expressed in Canadian dollars, unless otherwise indicated.

THE FUND

The Fund is an unincorporated open-ended, limited purpose trust established under the laws of the Province of Ontario pursuant to a declaration of trust dated February 16, 2004. The declaration of trust was amended and restated on April 8, 2004, the date of the initial public offering of Units of the Fund. The Fund owns 100% of Countryside Canada Power Inc. ("Countryside Canada").

The Fund was initially established to fund, through Countryside Canada, the acquisition of USE Canada Holdings Corp. now known as Countryside District Energy Holdings Corp., the indirect owner of the district energy systems located in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island (the "PEI System") and London, Ontario, (the "London System", together with the PEI System, the "District Energy Systems") the acquisition, amendment and additional advances respecting existing loans to U.S. Energy Biogas Corp. ("USEB") (collectively, the "USEB Loans") and the acquisition of a convertible royalty interest in USEB (the "USEB Royalty Interest"). The Fund subsequently acquired indirectly two gas-fired cogeneration plants in California, one located in Ripon, California near San Francisco and the other located in Pomona, California, near Los Angeles (the "Cogen Facilities").

The Fund's objectives are to maintain the stability and sustainability of cash distributions to Unitholders and increase, when prudent, cash distributions per Unit. In order to achieve these objectives, the Fund intends to focus on enhancing the current operational practices of its existing businesses, pursuing internal growth and expansion opportunities, and making additional investments in power generation and utility infrastructure projects, including, among others, cogeneration projects, renewable energy projects and district energy systems.

PROXY SOLICITATION AND VOTING

Solicitation of Proxies

The solicitation of proxies for the Meeting will be made primarily by mail, but proxies may also be solicited personally or by telephone on behalf of the Fund. The information contained herein is given as at March 27, 2006, except where otherwise noted.

Appointment and Revocation of Proxies

Together with this management information circular, the Unitholders of the Fund will also be sent a form of proxy. The persons named in such proxy are Trustees of the Fund. A Unitholder who wishes to appoint some other person to represent him or her at the Meeting may do so by crossing out the persons named in the enclosed proxy and inserting such person's name in the blank space provided in the form of proxy or by completing another proper form of proxy. Such other person need not be a Unitholder of the Fund.

To be valid, proxies must be deposited at the offices of the Transfer Agent of the Fund, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, by mail in the enclosed envelope or in an envelope addressed to Countryside Power Income Fund, c/o CIBC Mellon Trust Company, 200 Queen's Quay East, Unit #6, Toronto, Ontario M5A 4K9 or by facsimile to (416) 368-2502. Proxies must not arrive later than 10:00 a.m. Toronto time, on Friday, May 5, 2006. If the Meeting is adjourned, proxies must be deposited 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays), before the time set for any reconvened meeting at which the proxy is to be used, prior to the commencement of the Meeting or any reconvened meeting.

The document appointing a proxy must be in writing and completed and signed by a Unitholder or his or her attorney authorized in writing or, if the Unitholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized. Persons signing as officers, attorneys, executors, administrators, Trustees, etc., should so indicate and provide satisfactory evidence of such authority.

A Unitholder who has given a proxy may revoke the proxy: (a) by completing and signing a proxy bearing a later date and depositing it as aforesaid; (b) by depositing an instrument in writing executed by the Unitholder or by his or her attorney authorized in writing at the registered office of the Fund at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the applicable Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, at which the proxy is to be used, or (c) in any other manner permitted by law.

Voting of Proxies

The persons named in the accompanying form of proxy will vote Units in respect of which they are appointed, on any ballot that may be called for, in accordance with the instructions of the Unitholder as indicated on the proxy. In the absence of such specification, such Units will be voted (a) FOR the election of the three nominees to the Board of Trustees listed under the heading "Matters to be Considered at the Meeting – Election of Trustees" (b) FOR directing the Trustees to vote the Fund's shares of Countryside Canada in favour of the election of the four nominees to the Board of Directors of Countryside Canada listed under the heading "Matters to be Considered at the Meeting – Election of Directors of Countryside Canada" and (c) FOR the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as auditors of the Fund.

The persons appointed under the form of proxy are conferred with discretionary authority with respect to amendments to or variations of matters identified in the form of proxy and Notice of Meeting and with respect to other matters which may properly come before the Meeting. In the event that amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting are properly brought before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matter or business. At the time of printing this management information circular, the Trustees know of no such amendments, variations or other matter.

QUORUM

A quorum is required for the Meeting. For the Meeting, two or more individuals present in person or by proxy and representing in the aggregate at least 10% of the votes attached to all outstanding Units will constitute a quorum. If a quorum is not present within one-half hour after the time fixed for the holding of the Meeting, the Meeting will stand adjourned to a day not less than 14 days later and to a place and time as chosen by the Chair of the Meeting, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the holders of Units present either in person or by proxy shall be deemed to constitute a quorum.

INFORMATION FOR BENEFICIAL HOLDERS OF SECURITIES

The information in this section is of significant importance to Unitholders, as the issued and outstanding Units are not registered in the name of such holders ("Beneficial Holders").

Beneficial Holders should note that only proxies deposited by Unitholders whose names appear on the records of the Fund as the registered holders of Units can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting. All of the Units are registered in the name of CDS & Co. (the nominee for The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited ("CDS")). CDS maintains books showing its participants, such as investment dealers or brokers, through which the Units are beneficially owned. Investment dealers and brokers maintain their own records showing the beneficial ownership of such Units by their clients. Units held by CDS can be voted only upon the instructions of the Beneficial Holder. Without specific instructions, CDS and its participants are prohibited from voting Units for their clients. The Trustees do not know for whose benefit the Units registered in the name of CDS are held. Therefore, Beneficial Holders cannot be recognized at the Meeting for purposes of voting their Units in person or by way of proxy unless they comply with the procedures described below.

Applicable regulatory policy in Canada requires brokers and other intermediaries to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Holders in advance of Unitholders' meetings. Every broker or other intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Holders in order to ensure that their Units are voted at the Meeting. Often, the form of proxy supplied to a Beneficial Unitholder by its broker is identical to that provided to registered Unitholders. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered Unitholder how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Unitholder. Most brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from clients to ADP Investor Communications ("ADP"). ADP typically prepares a machine-readable voting instruction form, mails those forms to the Beneficial Holders and asks Beneficial Holders to return the proxy forms to ADP. ADP then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions representing the voting of Units to be represented at the Meeting. A Beneficial Holder receiving an ADP voting instruction form cannot use that voting instruction form to vote Units directly at the Meeting. The voting instruction form must be returned to ADP well in advance of the Meeting in order to have the Units voted.

Although Beneficial Holders may not be recognized directly at the Meeting for the purposes of voting Units registered in the name of their broker or other intermediary, a Beneficial Holder may attend at the Meeting as proxyholder for the registered holder and vote their Units in that capacity. Beneficial Holders who wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote their own Units as proxyholder for the registered holder should enter their own names in the blank space on the form of proxy or voting instruction form provided to them and return the same to their broker or other intermediary (or the agent of such broker or other intermediary) in accordance with the instructions provided by such broker, intermediary or agent well in advance of the Meeting.

VOTING UNITS AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

The Fund is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Units. As of the date of this management information circular, there were 19,646,276 Units issued and outstanding.

At the Meeting, each Unitholder of record at the close of business on March 28, 2006, the record date established for the notice of the meeting (the "Record Date"), will be entitled to one vote for each Unit held on all matters proposed to come before the Meeting. To the knowledge of the Trustees, no persons beneficially own or exercise control or direction over securities carrying more than 10% of the votes attached to the issued and outstanding Units.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE MEETING

Election of Trustees

The Fund is required to have a minimum of three and a maximum of five Trustees. The number of Trustees is determined from time to time by resolution of the Trustees. The number of Trustees to be elected at the Meeting has been fixed at three. All Trustees shall be Canadian Residents. The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy, if not expressly directed to the contrary in such form of proxy, intend to vote for the election, as Trustees, of the proposed nominees whose names are set out below. It is not contemplated that any of the proposed nominees will be unable to serve as a Trustee but, if that should occur for any reason prior to the Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy reserve the right to vote for another nominee at their discretion. Each Trustee elected will hold office until the next annual meeting or until his successor is elected or appointed.

The following table sets forth the names of, and certain information for, the persons proposed to be nominated for election as Trustees:

Election of Directors of Countryside Canada

Countryside Canada has a board of directors (the "Board") consisting of four members, all of whom are currently elected by the Fund as holder of all of the common shares of Countryside Canada. Pursuant to the terms of the Declaration of Trust the Unitholders are entitled to pass resolutions directing the Trustees to vote the shares of Countryside Canada in connection with the election of directors ("Director(s)") of Countryside Canada.

Compensation of Executive Officers

Under applicable securities legislation, the Fund is required to disclose certain financial and other information relating to the compensation of its Chief Executive Officer, its Chief Financial Officer and the Fund's three most highly compensated executive officers (other than the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer).

From April 8, 2004 through October 31, 2005 the Fund's three most highly compensated executive officers were Goran Mornhed, President and Chief Executive Officer of Countryside U.S. Power Inc. a wholly owned subsidiary of Countryside Canada, ("Countryside U.S. Power"), Edward Campana, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Countryside U.S. Power and Allen Rothman, Senior Vice President and Secretary of Countryside U.S. Power.

On September 23, 2005, Countryside Canada, Countryside US Holding Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Countryside Canada, ("Countryside U.S. Holding") and, an independent company, Countryside Ventures LLC (the "Manager") entered into a Management Agreement (the "Management Agreement") under which, effective November 1, 2005, the Manager provides management and administrative services to the Fund and its subsidiaries as well as new growth opportunities. Under the Management Agreement, Countryside Ventures is obligated to provide the services of three qualified individuals who, in their capacity as officers of the Manager will provide services that would customarily be provided by senior officers of Countryside Canada and its subsidiaries ("Executives"). Effective November 1, 2005, Countryside U.S. Power ceased compensating Messrs. Mornhed, Campana and Rothman. Effective such date, Messrs. Mornhed, Campana and Rothman were designated as Executives by the Manager to provide the services that would customarily be provided by the President and Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President and Secretary, respectively, of Countryside Canada and Countryside U.S. Holding.

The Executives receive compensation payments from the Manager. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Management Agreement, Countryside Canada and Countryside US Holding reimburse the Manager for such compensation-related payments, including certain base compensation and short term incentive payments. Certain of the provisions of the Management Agreement relating to compensation are summarized in the "Report on Executive Compensation" by the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. For a more detailed and extensive discussion of the Management Agreement, reference should be made to the section of the 2005 Annual Information Form entitled "The Management and Administration Agreements-Management Agreement" as well as the Prospectus of the Fund and Countryside Canada filed with securities regulators on November 8, 2005 pages 25 to 29 which are incorporated by reference and filed on www.sedar.com.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION REPORT

Composition of the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Fund and Countryside Canada maintain a Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Such committee reviews and makes recommendations concerning nominations of Trustees and Directors of Countryside Canada, appointment of Directors to Fund subsidiaries, the appointment of officers of Countryside Canada and its subsidiaries and the hiring, compensation, benefits and termination of key employees of the Fund and its subsidiaries as applicable. Such committee shall also participate in the recruitment of any replacement of any Executive provided that the decision of whether to hire such replacement shall be made by the Manager subject to the approval of Countryside Canada and Countryside US Holding, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or denied. Such committee annually reviews the goals and objectives of the Manager and the Executive performing the services of Chief Executive Officer for the upcoming year and provides an appraisal of their performance. The committee also reviews and makes recommendations respecting adjustments to Base Compensation under the Management Agreement and establishment of Operating Objectives for the Short-Term Incentive Plan ("STIP") under the Management Agreement and the determination of whether they have been reached. The committee also makes recommendations regarding Fund employee bonus plans. Such committee is responsible for developing the Fund's approach to corporate governance issues including Fund policies relating thereto and periodically reviewing the composition and effectiveness of the Board and the subsidiary boards and the contribution of individual Trustees and Directors.

The Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is comprised of the three Trustees: Messrs. Oskar T. Sigvaldason (Chair), V. James Sardo and James R. Anderson. Oskar T. Sigvaldason was elected to the Trustee position formerly occupied by Rudy G. Reidl on May 5, 2005. Mr. Sigvaldason serves as a Trustee, a member of each Fund subsidiary board (except for Countryside U.S. Power) and serves on both the Joint Audit Committee and the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. According to its Charter, all members of the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee must be independent of management and the Manager and therefore no member of the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is an officer, employee or former officer or employee of the Fund, the Manager or any of their affiliates.

Report on Executive Compensation by the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's philosophy in structuring the compensation-related provisions of the Management Agreement, was to retain the services of the senior management team critical to the success of the Fund and to motivate them to enhance unitholder value through compensation which is largely performance-based and structured to align the interests of the Executives with the interests of Unitholders.

These objectives are met by the three key compensation-related components of the Management Agreement: (a) the reimbursement by Countryside Canada and Countryside US Holding of the Manager's payments of Base Compensation to the Executives, (b) the reimbursement by Countryside Canada and Countryside US Holding of the Manager's STIP payments to the Executives and (c) the award to the Manager of the Long-Term Incentive Plan ("LTIP") Interest (defined below) with respect to each Development Asset (defined below).

Commencing November 1, 2005 the Manager is entitled to an annual minimum aggregate expense reimbursement of US $775,000, representing the annual compensation paid to the Executives (the "Base Salary"), as well as all associated costs, including wage burden and the cost of providing the benefits to the executives (collectively the "Base Compensation"). The Base Compensation will be subject to annual review and periodic adjustment as agreed to in good faith by the parties from time to time and subject to independent reviews by third party compensation experts.

In addition to the Base Compensation and other expense reimbursement, Countryside US Holding and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, also reimburse the Manager for payments made by the Manager to the Executives under a STIP adopted by the Manager that is consistent with the terms and conditions of the Management Agreement. Countryside US Holding, and if applicable, Countryside Canada reimburse the Manager an amount in respect of the STIP equal to 50% of the Base Compensation ("STIP Pool"), provided that payments will be made based on: (i) meeting certain objectives relating to managing Countryside that are recommended annually by the Manager and subject to the approval of the Directors of Countryside US Holding and, if applicable, the compensation committee of Countryside Canada in their discretion (the "Operating Objectives"); and (ii) successfully sourcing and consummating an acquisition or investment on behalf of Countryside (the "Acquisition Objective"). In each year, 25% and 75% of the STIP Pool will be available to reimburse the Manager for payments made for achieving the Operating Objectives and the Acquisition Objective, respectively. However, the payment to reimburse the Manager for meeting the Acquisition Objective shall not be less than US$291,000 in each year. The STIP Pool is non-cumulative from year to year. The Manager will be reimbursed by Countryside US Holding and/or Countryside Canada: (i) for meeting the Operating Objectives, by payment of both freely tradeable Units and cash; and (ii) for meeting the Acquisition Objective by cash payment only, in accordance with the conditions described in the Management Agreement. Any Units delivered to the Executives under the STIP will be required to be held until the earlier of the termination of the Management Agreement or the termination of the Executive's involvement with the Manager. The initial levels of the Base Compensation and the STIP Pool were negotiated between the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee and the Manager. The Committee was advised by an independent compensation consultant during such negotiations.

The Manager or a designated affiliate is entitled to receive an LTIP payment in the form of a subordinated interest in each new asset, company or investment (including Ripon Power LLC) acquired or made, directly or indirectly, by Countryside US Holding, Countryside Canada or their affiliates and originated, structured or developed through the efforts of the Manager or an Affiliate of the Manager (a "Development Asset"). The Manager or its applicable affiliate is entitled to a distribution from the Development Asset of operating cash flow equal to 25% of the cash distributions made by the Development Asset in excess of the base level distribution that is required to be paid to Countryside US Holding or Countryside Canada (as applicable) by the Development Asset to reflect the cost of interest payments on debt incurred and Unitholder distributions on equity raised to fund the purchase of the Development Asset (the "Base Level Distribution"). Payments to the Manager will be made at the same time as the distribution is made to Countryside US Holding or Countryside Canada or their affiliates (as applicable).

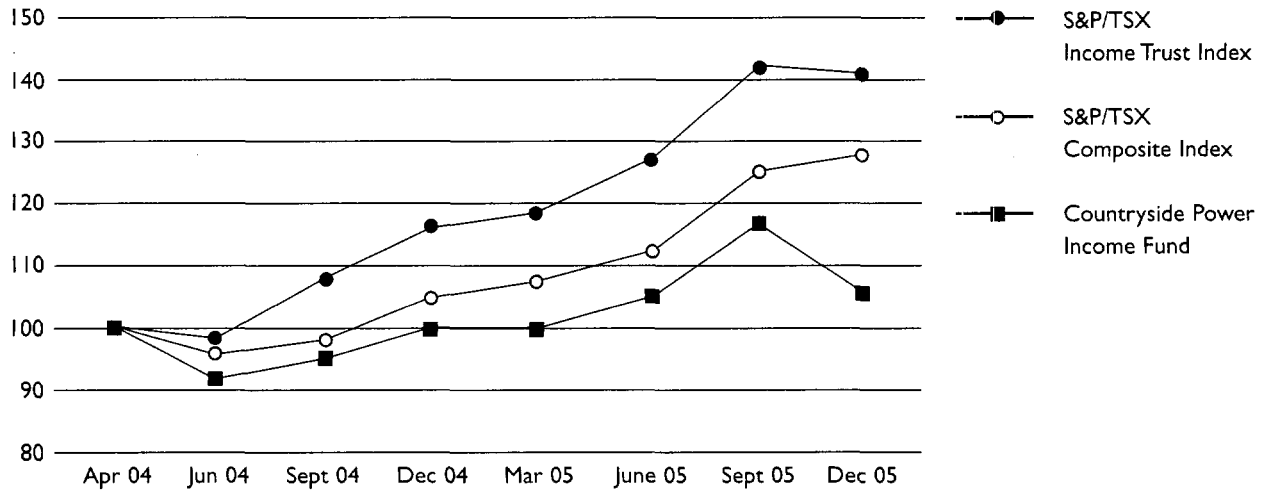
The Manager and Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada each have the right to cause the LTIP Interest to be exchanged for Fund Units subject to terms and conditions set forth in the Management Agreement.

The Management Agreement has an initial 20-year term and will be automatically renewed for additional five-year terms unless, Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada, who are independent of the Manager, determine that the Management Agreement will not be renewed and notify the Manager accordingly, in accordance with the Management Agreement. The Manager on the one hand and Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada on the other, each have the right to terminate the Management Agreement before the expiration of its term under specified circumstances.

In addition, the Manager may terminate the Management Agreement (i) at any time after the first five years of the term of the Agreement or (ii) at any time within one year of a Change of Control (as defined in the Management Agreement), upon 180 days' written notice to Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada. In the event of such a termination, the Manager will be entitled to reimbursement from Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada for actual reasonable costs associated with termination. Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada have the right to jointly terminate the Management Agreement at any time after the first five years of the term of the Management Agreement with the payment to the Manager of a fee equal to (i) its actual costs associated with the termination plus an amount equal to two times the previous year's compensation paid to the Executives by the Manager and reimbursed by Countryside US Holding and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, for the Base Compensation and under the STIP for achieving the Operating Objectives or, (ii) if such termination occurs within 12 months of a Change of Control, 2.9 times the previous year's compensation paid to the Executives by the Manager and reimbursed by Countryside US Holding and, if applicable, Countryside Canada, for the Base Compensation and under the STIP for achieving certain stated operating objectives. In the event of a Change of Control, Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada will have the right to jointly terminate the Agreement at any time with the payment to the Manager of a fee calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Management Agreement.

The Fund and Countryside Canada reimburse Countryside Canada Ventures Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Manager (the "Administrator") for base compensation and incentive compensation payments made to employees of the Administrator under the Management and Administration Agreement by and among the Fund, Countryside Canada and the Administrator dated September 26, 2005 (the "Administration Agreement").

Chief Executive Officer Compensation



The annual salary for Mr. Mornhed through October 31, 2005 was determined based upon the employment agreement described under "Compensation of Trustees, Directors and Executive Officers - Employment Contracts". Under the Management Agreement, Countryside US Holding and Countryside Canada reimburse the Manager for Base Compensation Payments and STIP payments made to the Executives including Mr. Mornhed. See "Executive Compensation Report-Report on Executive Compensation by the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee", pages 9-11.

To date, all of the Fund's Trustees have visited some of the Fund's Facilities to obtain an understanding of the operations. A majority of the Trustees have also attended the Fund's corporate headquarters in London, Ontario for a visit with staff and a tour of that office's operations. Additionally, the orientation program will include presentations by senior management to familiarize new Trustees with the Fund's strategic plans, significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, Fund policies, the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, its principal officers and independent auditors. The "Whistleblower Policy" requires that such complaints or concerns will be kept confidential to the fullest extent possible.

Under the Code, any waivers from the requirements in the Code that are to be granted for the benefit of the Fund's Trustees or executive officers are to be granted by the Board of Trustees only (or a committee of the Board of Trustees, or other designees, to whom that authority has been delegated) and will be promptly disclosed as required by law or stock exchange regulation.

6. Nomination of Directors and Compensation

The Board of Trustees and the Board of Directors of Countryside Canada has appointed a Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee comprised entirely of independent members.

The Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee charter clearly establishes the committee's purpose, responsibilities, composition, reporting requirements, structure and process. In addition, the Committee has the authority to retain and compensate any outside advisor that it determines to be necessary to permit it to carry out its duties.

The Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying individuals qualified to become new Board members and recommending to the Trustees the new Trustee nominees for the next annual meeting of Unitholders. In making its recommendations, the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers:

a. the competencies and skills that the Board considers to be necessary for the Board, as a whole, to possess;

b. the competencies and skills that the Board considers each existing Trustee to possess; and

c. the competencies and skills each new nominee will bring to the boardroom.

At a meeting of the committee held on March 9, 2006, the committee considered the current composition of the board and determined that no new members were required at this time.

The Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is also responsible for:

(i) reviewing and approving Fund goals and objectives relevant to reimbursement of Base Compensation and STIP Pool for the Executives (including the Executive fulfilling the role of CEO), evaluating the performance of the Manager and the Executive fulfilling the role of CEO in light of those Fund goals and objectives, and negotiating (or making recommendations to the Directors of Countryside Canada and Countryside US Holding) with respect to adjustments to Base Compensation and STIP Pool levels based on this evaluation;

(ii) making recommendations to the Board of Trustees and boards of Directors of the Fund's subsidiaries with respect to non-Executive officer and Trustee compensation, incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans; and

(iii) reviewing executive compensation disclosure before the Fund publicly discloses this information.

During fiscal 2005, an independent compensation consultant was retained to assist the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in determining (i) the appropriate structure of the Fund's senior management arrangements and compensation levels within such structure (ii) levels of Trustee and Director compensation and (iii) the appropriate levels of compensation for the Fund's Canadian based management.

7. Other Board Committees

The Fund has no Committees other than the Joint Audit Committee and the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

8. Assessments

The Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for the regular assessment of the effectiveness of the Trustees as a whole, the committees of the Boards and the contributions of individual Trustees and Board members. At a recent meeting of the Joint Compensation, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the matter was first addressed and a process was established to address this matter in early calendar 2006. This process will be used with respect to both the appointment of new Trustees and Directors and the assessment of continuing Trustees and Directors.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Trustees are not aware of any matter intended to come before the Meeting other than those items of business set forth in the attached Notice. If any other matters properly come before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the form of proxy to vote in respect of those matters in accordance with their judgment.
