NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SHININGBANK ENERGY ANNOUNCES 2004 CANADIAN
INCOME TAX INFORMATION

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund") today announced that distributions to unitholders in 2004 were 73.57% taxable and 26.43% tax deferred. A total of $2.76 per unit was distributed from January to December of 2004.

Unitholders holding their investment in a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP), Registered Retirement Income Fund (RRIF) or Deferred Profit Sharing Plan should not report any distribution income on their 2004 income tax return.

Unitholders holding their units outside such plans will receive a "T3 Supplementary" slip from the Fund's Trustee, Computershare Trust Company of Canada, if their units are held in registered form, or from their broker if the units are held in a brokerage account. The deadline for mailing all T3 Supplementary slips to unitholders is March 31, 2005.

The taxable portion of distributions received should be recorded as "Other Income" on the 2004 income tax return in accordance with the following table. Amounts received, which were not considered taxable are not reported on the T3 and are used to adjust the cost base (ACB) of the units for calculating capital gains or losses upon disposition of the units.

NEWS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASESHININGBANK ENERGY ANNOUNCES 2004 INCOME TAX INFORMATION FOR U.S. INVESTORS

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund") today announced that its distributions to U.S. investors in 2004 were 82.39% taxable as "qualified dividends" and 17.61% tax deferred. The Fund calculated earnings and profits under U.S. tax principles in order to provide this information to investors.

U.S. investors holding their investment in a Qualified Retirement Plan should not report any income related to distributions received on their 2004 tax return. U.S. investors holding units outside a Qualified Retirement Plan should report the taxable portion as "qualified dividend income". Amounts which are not considered taxable reduce the cost base of the units for calculating capital gains or losses upon disposition of the units.

After consulting with its tax advisors, and according to IRS notices 2003-71 and 2004-79, the Fund is of the opinion that the 2004 distributions paid to U.S. residents are to be treated as "qualified dividends". Under the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003 "qualified dividends" are subject to a maximum tax rate of 15%.

According to IRS statements a trust does not need to be recognized in certain databases established on behalf of U.S. brokers for the trust to be recognized as a "qualified foreign corporation". Canadian trusts that are not SEC filers cannot satisfy the safe harbours necessary to be included in such databases but may very well be qualified corporations. Firms subscribing to such databases are advised that status as a "qualified foreign corporation" is to be based solely on the IRS's procedures.

As non-residents of Canada, U.S. investors in the Fund are subject to a 15% Canadian withholding tax on the total distribution. This is a non refundable tax and in most cases the amount withheld can be treated as a foreign tax credit for U.S. tax purposes. Registered non-resident unitholders will receive a Form NR4 from the Fund's transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company of Canada, stating the amount of foreign tax withheld. Non-registered unitholders will receive the information through their broker.

The Fund is not required to file Form 1099s, and is providing this information in lieu of such requirement. Brokers, acting as intermediaries for investors, may be required to provide Form 1099s for their clients but these may not accurately reflect the information presented here. Form 1099 reporting does not control how the taxpayer is entitled to report distributions. Investors should consult with their brokers and tax advisors to ensure that the information presented in this news release is accurately reflected in their 1099s and tax returns.

This information is not exhaustive of all possible U.S. income tax considerations, and is provided as a general guideline only. Unitholders of the Fund should consult their own legal and tax advisors regarding their individual tax consequences.

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund is a conventional oil and gas royalty trust and its units are listed on The Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol "SHN.UN".

NEWS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
SHININGBANK ENERGY ANNOUNCES 2004 RESERVE INFORMATION

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the “Fund” or “Shiningbank”), today announced the results of its December 31, 2004 independent reserves evaluation. Parts of the evaluation were conducted by each of Paddock Lindstrom & Associates Ltd. (“PLA”) and Sproule Associates Limited (“Sproule”) effective December 31, 2004 and prepared in accordance with National Instrument 51-101. The following information aggregates the results of the two reports.

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- Increased proved plus probable reserves by 22% and proved reserves by 15% through acquisition and development in 2004;
- Proved producing reserves constitute 84% of total proved reserves and total proved reserves equate to 68% of total proved plus probable reserves;
- Shiningbank replaced 277% of 2004 production with new reserves acquired or developed in the year, bringing cumulative replacement to 276% of production over the life of the Fund;
- On the basis of proved plus probable reserves:
 - New reserves were acquired at an average cost of $12.90 per barrel of oil equivalent (“boe”) including future development costs (“FDCs”) and $11.16 per boe excluding FDCs;
 - Three year acquisition costs averaged $11.98 per boe including FDCs and $10.66 per boe excluding FDCs;
 - Development costs for the year aggregated $11.79 per boe including technical revisions and changes in FDCs and $9.80 per boe excluding revisions and FDCs;
 - Total acquisition and development costs, including revisions and the change in FDCs and technical revisions, aggregated $12.70 per boe, $10.81 per boe without revisions and FDCs;
 - The recycle ratio for 2004, based on an operating netback of $25.96 per boe, was 2.0 to 1, indicating extremely cost effective reserve additions.
 - The Fund’s reserve life index (“RLI”) stands at 9.8 years based on estimated 2005 production. Shiningbank’s RLI has fluctuated between 9.6 and 10.4 years over the past five years.

The following tables summarize the independent reserve estimates and value at December 31, 2004:

Notes to tables:

1. Barrel of oil equivalent (boe) volumes are reported at 6:1 with 6 mcf = 1 bbl. The 6:1 conversion ratio is based on an energy equivalency conversion method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead. While it is useful for comparative measures, it may not accurately reflect individual product values and may be misleading if used in isolation.
2. Company interest includes working interest plus royalty interests attributable to the Fund.
3. The present value of reserves is net of estimated future capital expenditures, royalty burdens, operating costs and abandonment costs, but prior to any provision for general and administrative expenses. It should not be assumed that present value is representative of the fair market value of the assets. Present value is based on Sproule's escalated price forecast as of January 1, 2005, which assumes a base 2005 oil price of US$44.29/bbl and an Alberta natural gas reference price of C$6.76/mcf.

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund is a conventional oil and gas royalty trust and its units are listed on The Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol "SHN.UN".

NEWS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
SHININGBANK ENERGY ANNOUNCES 2004 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the “Fund” or “Shiningbank”), today announced its audited financial results for the year ended December 31, 2004.

2004 HIGHLIGHTS

- Production volumes increased by 19% over 2003 to average 19,933 boe/d of which 72% was natural gas.
- Production increases were mainly due to the acquisition of Birchill Resources Limited in early 2004 and the subsequent development drilling.
- Revenues increased by 24% in 2004 to $307.5 million, as a result of higher production volumes and commodity prices.
- Net earnings before income tax increased by 3% to $52.6 million from $51.2 million in 2003.
- Net earnings after income tax increased by 117% to $138.8 million from $64.0 million due to a $74.8 million one-time recovery of future income taxes related to a corporate restructuring completed in the fourth quarter. This had no effect on cash flow or distributions.
- Cash flow before change in non-cash working capital increased 29% in 2004 to $174.9 million, up from $136.0 million in 2003.
- Fourth quarter distributions totaling $37.4 million resulted in a payout ratio of 79% in the quarter and 84% for the year.
- The combination of strong commodity prices and level operating expenses, 1% higher than in 2003, resulted in record operating netbacks of $25.96 per boe.
- The Fund’s balance sheet ended the year in very healthy condition with a debt to annual cash flow ratio of 1 to 1.
- Investors’ pre-tax total return for 2004 amounted to 30%, comprised of a 15% cash-on-cash distribution yield and a 15% increase in unit price.

The following discussion and analysis of the operating and financial results of Shiningbank is for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004. This information is provided as of March 1, 2005. The fourth quarter and year-end results have been compared with the corresponding periods in 2003. Certain comparative figures have been restated to reflect the accounting changes described in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements. Average prices have been restated to be prior to transportation costs in order to be consistent with the 2004 presentation. This discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the Fund's audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, together with the accompanying notes included herein. Additional information about the Fund is available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Barrel of oil equivalent (boe) volumes are reported at 6:1 with 6 mcf = 1 bbl. All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.

Natural gas % of production	72%	74%	(2)	72%	74%	(2)

Fourth quarter daily average production grew 20% over fourth quarter 2003, and 19% year over year. Natural gas liquids (“NGL”) accounted for the majority of the volume increases as a result of the acquisition of NGL-rich properties, notably Ferrier, during the year. The volume growth in 2004 was primarily due to acquisitions, along with a successful development drilling program.

The most significant acquisitions were the first quarter 2004 purchases of Birchill Resources Limited (“Birchill”) for $170.1 million and Good Ridge Explorations Ltd. (“Good Ridge”) for $7.0 million. Both acquisitions closed in early March and, together, added approximately 19% to 2004 production. These acquisitions were partially offset by the natural declines of producing properties, which are estimated to average 14% per year. Production in 2005 is expected to average between 19,500 and 20,000 boe/d.

The Fund’s 2004 drilling program added approximately 2,000 boe/d to year-end production rates. Due to wet weather in the spring and summer of 2004 which restricted field access, the effect of the drilling program was not fully realized until late in the year, and will carry over to 2005. Production from these new wells will initially decline faster than the Fund’s average. The impact is expected to be a slight increase in the average decline rate in 2005, as well as a marginal reduction in the Fund’s reserve life index until the wells have stabilized at a level of long-term deliverability.

Natural Gas

Shiningbank’s realized natural gas prices averaged $7.20/mcf for the fourth quarter, 14% higher than for the same period in 2003. For the full year, the average price was 1% higher than 2003 at $7.06/mcf. Natural gas pricing remained relatively flat throughout 2004 despite significant increases in oil prices. Hedging decreased the realized gas price by $0.11/mcf for the quarter and $0.07/mcf for the year, which compares with a 2003 hedging gain of $0.35/mcf for the quarter and $0.11/mcf for the year.

Gas pricing fundamentals remain strong. The Fund expects prices to weaken late in first quarter 2005 with the end of winter, a normal seasonal effect. The Fund also expects that there will be significant market volatility in 2005 with benchmark prices averaging in the range of Cdn$6.50 to $7.50/mcf. Shiningbank does not control the prices received for its production, but it does mitigate market risk through various methods including hedges and geographical diversity.

Oil and Natural Gas Liquids

Realized oil prices for the quarter were $42.61/bbl, up 27% from fourth quarter 2003. Hedging reduced the realized price by $8.36/bbl for the quarter compared with a hedging loss of $1.50/bbl in fourth quarter 2003.

For full-year 2004, Shiningbank's average oil price rose 14% to $43.14/bbl. Hedging reduced this realized price by $5.46/bbl as compared to a $1.33/bbl decline in 2003. The benchmark West Texas Intermediate ("WTI") price averaged 33% higher than in 2003, however strength in the Canadian dollar partially offset this increase. Oil prices are expected to remain high in US dollar terms, with many analysts calling for a US$40.00/bbl average price for 2005. Futures prices at the time of writing were over US$50.00/bbl.

NGL prices were also strong, reflecting high oil prices. The average NGL price in the fourth quarter 2004 was 33% higher than in fourth quarter 2003 at $43.70/bbl, and 20% higher for the full year at an average $40.24/bbl.

Hedging

Shiningbank maintains an active hedging program designed to reduce the variability of cash flow and stabilize distributions. Under the Fund's hedging policy, not more than one-half of production volumes of any commodity can be hedged at any one time. Gains and losses from hedging activities are typically recorded when they are realized and are included in oil and natural gas sales unless a particular hedge is considered ineffective. During 2004, the Fund hedged an average of 26% of total gas production (25% - 2003) and 39% of total oil production (37% - 2003). Currently, Shiningbank has the following hedging contracts in place:

Period	Commodity	Volume	Price
April 1, 2004 – March 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$5.91 /GJ
November 1, 2004 – March 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$7.50 /GJ floor $11.00/GJ ceiling

ROYALTIES

	2004	2003	%	2004	2003	%
Total royalties, net (000s)	$ 19,159	$ 12,794	50	$ 63,930	$ 53,628	19
As a % of revenue	23.2%	21.9%	6	20.8%	21.7%	(4)
Per boe	$ 10.00	$ 8.03	25	$ 8.76	$ 8.77	-

Royalty expense consists of royalties paid to provincial governments, freehold landowners and overriding royalty owners. The royalty rate was marginally lower in 2004 due to a one-time credit received in the third quarter of 2004 related to 2003 Crown royalties, offset in part by the high commodity price environment. The fourth quarter royalty rate was 6% higher due to the hedging loss experienced in 2004 as compared to a hedging gain in 2003. Hedging gains and losses affect revenue without a corresponding effect on royalties. The 2004 fourth quarter pre-hedging royalty rate was 22.4% which is comparable to the 2003 rate of 22.7% for the same period. The Fund expects that commodity prices in 2005 will be similar to those realized in 2004, resulting in little change to the 2005 royalty rate. The Alberta government provides a credit under the Alberta Royalty Credit program, which the Fund is eligible to access on a small portion of its properties. The Fund recorded the maximum credit of $500,000 in both 2004 and 2003.

TRANSPORTATION COSTS

	Three months ended December 31,			Year ended December 31,
	2004	2003	%	2004	2003	%
Transportation costs (000s)	$ 1,186	$ 1,293	(8)	$ 5,550	$ 5,050	10
Per boe	$ 0.62	$ 0.81	(23)	$ 0.76	$ 0.83	(8)

Transportation costs decreased 23% on a boe basis from fourth quarter 2003. The decrease was the result of prior quarter adjustments flowing through the fourth quarter. The 8% year over year decrease was the result of lower pricing and termination of certain transportation service commitments. In 2005, transportation costs are expected to be flat on a boe basis with 2004.

OPERATING COSTS

	Three months ended December 31,			Year ended December 31,
	2004	2003	%	2004	2003	%
Operating costs (000s)	$ 11,465	$ 11,058	4	$ 48,692	$ 40,536	20
Per boe	$ 5.98	$ 6.94	(14)	$ 6.67	$ 6.63	1

Operating costs on a boe basis decreased 14% from fourth quarter 2003 and increased 1% year over year. Higher field and plant maintenance costs in most areas were offset by volume increases in some areas with lower operating costs. The Fund expects 2005 costs to average $7.00/boe. While the Fund has gained efficiencies of scale in its operations on a per boe basis, operating costs will remain under pressure due to rising field costs, aging of the property portfolio and the likelihood of higher energy costs in 2005.

Total operating netback increased 26% quarter over quarter due mainly to higher commodity prices and lower transportation and operating costs. The year over year operating netback increased 7% due to higher commodity prices and lower transportation costs.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.03	$ 0.03	-	$ 0.13	$ 0.11	18

General and administrative costs per boe decreased 2% from fourth quarter 2003, and increased 21% year over year. The increases, including higher per average Trust Unit metrics, were due to higher activity levels resulting from acquisitions and increasing costs for corporate governance due to additional regulation. At year end, Shiningbank had 43 full-time employees and 24 full-time and part-time consultants at its head office. Field and production staff consisted of two production superintendents, 18 full-time employees and 38 contract operators. Costs of field and production staff are included in operating costs. General and administrative costs for 2005 are expected to trend upward to approximately $1.25/boe as a result of further corporate governance and related administrative costs.

INTEREST ON LONG TERM DEBT

Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.03	$ 0.02	50	$ 0.12	$ 0.15	(20)

Interest expense, which includes bank charges, increased 61% from fourth quarter 2003 due to higher debt levels resulting from the funding of capital expenditures. Year over year interest expense was relatively flat due to higher debt levels being offset by lower interest rates. Shiningbank is currently in compliance with all external debt covenants. Interest expense in 2005 is expected to be approximately $1.25/boe due to higher projected debt levels and interest rates.

DEPLETION, DEPRECIATION AND ACCRETION

	2004	2003	%	2004	2003	%
Depletion, depreciation and accretion (000s)	$ 32,035	$ 22,865	40	$ 118,547	$ 78,853	50
Per boe	$ 16.71	$ 14.36	16	$ 16.25	$ 12.89	26

Depletion, depreciation and accretion rose 16% per boe for the fourth quarter and 26% year over year. These increases were primarily due to expansion of the asset base from acquisitions made during the first quarter and associated future development costs. The fourth quarter depletion calculation was based on December 31, 2004 reserve estimates.

The 2003 comparative figure has been restated and increased by $3.8 million as a result of the adoption of the new asset retirement obligation standard. The accretion of discount on the asset retirement liability and additional depletion due to asset retirement costs are now included as part of this expense.

TRUST UNIT INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

During fourth quarter 2003, the Fund elected to prospectively adopt amendments to the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Handbook Section 3870, "Stock-based Compensation and Other Stock-based Payments" for all rights issued on or after January 1, 2003. At that time, a total of $572,000 was expensed for 2003, representing the fair value of rights issued and which vested in 2003.

During fourth quarter 2004, one new issue of rights was granted. Six new issues of rights, aggregating 580,000 in total (2003 – 525,000) were granted during the year. The fair value of rights issued was determined using a Black-Scholes model, and will be brought into income over the vesting period of the rights. Expenses in 2004 of $1.3 million represented the fair value of rights issued during 2003 and 2004 and which vested in 2004. All of these costs are "non-cash" costs and are not deducted in calculating distributions to unitholders.

INTERNALIZATION OF MANAGEMENT CONTRACT

	2004	2003	%	2004	2003	%
Internalization of management contract (000s)	$ 1,307	$ 1,561	(16)	$ 3,511	$ 5,989	(41)
Per boe	$ 0.68	$ 0.98	(31)	$ 0.48	$ 0.98	(51)

Effective October 9, 2002, the Fund internalized its management by acquiring all of the shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc., the former Manager of the Fund. Prior to the acquisition, the Fund paid fees of 3.25% of net operating income, a fee of 1.5% on the purchase price of acquisitions and a quarterly scheduled dividend in accordance with the terms of a management agreement. The acquisition eliminated all future fees and dividends.

Of the total purchase price of $20.6 million, $11.0 million was deferred, representing Exchangeable Shares subject to escrow provisions which are being amortized into income over specific vesting periods through 2007. During 2004, $2.7 million (2003 - $5.4 million) was expensed, representing the amortization of these escrowed Exchangeable Shares. At December 31, 2004, $1.9 million was left to be amortized ($1.3 million in 2005, $0.4 million in 2006 and $0.2 million in 2007).

Total consideration for the internalization was reduced by $1.8 million at the time of the transaction to provide for performance and retention bonuses to be paid to employees. During 2004, the remaining balance of this bonus pool, or $817,250, was paid out in cash and included in internalization expenses. This compares with $582,000 paid in 2003.

TAXES

	2004	2003	%	2004	2003	%
Capital and large corporation taxes (000s)	$ (451)	$ 139	(424)	$ 574	$ 595	(4)

The Fund is obligated to pay provincial capital taxes and federal large corporations tax in its operating entities. Under the Fund’s structure, payments are made between Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and the Fund. These payments provide the mechanism for transferring income to unitholders along with tax benefits and future tax liabilities. Current income taxes are not presently payable by the Fund or Shiningbank Energy Ltd.

In first quarter 2004, the Alberta government passed legislation to reduce the provincial corporate income tax rate to 11.5% from 12.5% effective April 1, 2004. Shiningbank’s expected future income tax rate incorporating this rate reduction is approximately 38.49% compared with the current rate of approximately 38.62% applicable to the 2004 tax year.

During the fourth quarter, the Fund changed its organizational structure to take advantage of certain tax attributes of a partnership acquired in the Birchill acquisition. These changes eliminated future income taxes payable within the Fund on income earned from the Birchill assets by taking advantage of the tax flow-through structure of that partnership. As a result of the Fund’s restructuring, a reduction in future income taxes was credited to income in the fourth quarter in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”). The effect on earnings for the year was an additional $78.4 million, or $1.50 per Trust Unit ($1.47 diluted). Net earnings were also affected through increased depletion charges arising from future income taxes being recorded in the cost of the assets at the time of the Birchill acquisition. This additional depletion reduced earnings by $8.1 million, or $0.15 per Trust Unit, basic and diluted. The costs of the restructuring were included in general and administrative costs in the fourth quarter.

NET EARNINGS

Shiningbank’s fourth quarter earnings were $88.0 million or $1.62 per Trust Unit ($1.60 diluted). Earnings in fourth quarter 2003, after restatement for the retroactive application of new accounting policies, were $5.4 million or $0.12 per Trust Unit, basic and diluted. For the year ended December 31, 2004 net earnings were $138.8 million or $2.66 per Trust Unit ($2.61 diluted), compared with restated 2003 figures of $64.0 million or $1.54 per Trust Unit ($1.51 diluted). Net earnings for the fourth quarter were increased by $78.4 million or $1.44 per Trust Unit ($1.43 diluted) as a result of an internal restructuring which reduced future income taxes. See “Taxes”.

Distributions to unitholders for the quarter increased 22% over the same period in 2003 to $37.4 million, while distributions per Trust Unit were consistent in both periods at $0.69. For full-year 2004, distributions to unitholders increased 20% to $146.4 million from $122.3 million in 2003. The increases in distributions to unitholders for both periods in 2004 were due to higher production volumes, large gains in pricing for oil and NGL and strong gas prices. On a per Trust Unit basis, the effect of an increased number of Trust Units outstanding offset the increase in distributions to unitholders. Full-year distributions decreased 3% to $2.76 in 2004 from $2.85 in 2003 as a result of greater holdbacks to fund capital expenditures. The Fund paid out 84% of its cash flow in 2004 compared with 90% in 2003. Management expects that the current distribution level will continue through 2005 provided that commodity prices remain at or near 2004 levels.

INCOME TAX INFORMATION

In 2004, 73.57% of cash distributions paid by the Fund were required to be included in the income of unitholders. The remaining 26.43% reduced each unitholder's adjusted cost base ("ACB") for income tax purposes. A summary of cash distributions paid in 2004 and the implications for Canadian taxpayers is shown below.

For US unitholders, 82.39% of distributions were taxable in 2004. Unitholders in both Canada and the US should consult tax advisors as to the proper treatment of Shiningbank distributions for income tax purposes.

Acquisitions are a key driver of Shiningbank's growth. In 2003, the Fund completed a major acquisition of properties at Ferrier/O'Chiese. In 2004, the Fund completed a major corporate acquisition of Birchill and a much smaller corporate acquisition of Good Ridge. Such acquisitions add to production volumes, revenues, earnings and assets. Revenues and earnings are also greatly affected by commodity prices, particularly natural gas prices as 72% of the Fund's 2004 production was natural gas. With its high weighting to natural gas, the Fund's revenue and earnings results closely track changes in natural gas pricing.

In 2003, substantial production growth through acquisitions and a rebound in oil and gas prices boosted revenues and earnings compared with relatively weak natural gas prices in 2002 which resulted in lower revenues and earnings. In 2004, the same combination of acquisition-driven production growth and high commodity prices resulted in higher revenues and cash flow. Earnings increased as a percentage of revenue in 2004 as a result of the recovery of future income taxes related to the Fund's internal restructuring.

As with Shiningbank's annual results, quarterly fluctuations are primarily the result of production increases due to acquisitions, the Fund's development drilling program and realized gas prices which can be extremely volatile. Volume increases from acquisitions occurred in second quarter 2003 through the acquisition of assets at Ferrier/O'Chiese and again, in second quarter 2004 with the acquisitions of Birchill and Good Ridge.

Natural gas prices remained strong and relatively consistent through the two years, apart from exceptionally strong prices in first quarter 2003 which led to higher distributions for that period. Oil prices increased substantially in late 2004, however, with oil playing a small role in Shiningbank's overall revenues, and with increased capital programs absorbing the extra cash flow, there was no change in distributions.

COSTS OF ACQUISITIONS AND DEVELOPMENT

During the first quarter, Shiningbank spent $177.1 million on the acquisitions of Birchill and Good Ridge. These acquisitions added approximately 19% to Shiningbank's production volumes for 2004 with the majority of additions coming in the Ferrier area, adjacent to Shiningbank's existing property and using much of the same infrastructure.

A total of $56.3 million was spent on drilling and new facilities during 2004, compared with $22.9 million in 2003. Cash flow was used to fund $27.8 million of these expenditures, with the balance being funded by debt. The increased expenditures funded a successful development drilling program concentrated in the Ferrier/O'Chiese area. Of the year's total, $13.3 million was spent in the fourth quarter compared with $6.9 million in fourth quarter 2003. A total of 96 wells (20.3 net) were drilled in 2004, 88 (18.5 net) of which were successful gas wells, four (0.9 net) were successful oil wells and four (0.9 net) were dry and abandoned. In addition, Shiningbank farmed-out an additional 30 wells for which no costs were incurred.

In 2005, the Fund plans to spend approximately $50 million on drilling, new facilities and maintenance capital. This will be funded through a combination of cash flow and debt financing.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Shiningbank’s ability to grow depends on access to bank lines of credit supplemented by periodic equity infusions. Smaller acquisitions through the course of the year are funded by bank debt. Equity is issued to fund single large acquisitions, or to pay down debt acquired following a number of smaller acquisitions. When the proceeds of an equity issue are greater than acquisition costs, the excess is used to reduce bank debt.

Since the Fund’s initial public offering in 1996, 11 public equity issues have been completed. Acquisitions have led to steady accretion in value to unitholders. This accretion is offset when equity is issued as existing unitholders are diluted by the issue of new units. However, as all new equity issues have been done in conjunction with an acquisition, over time, unitholders have not been diluted. This is apparent in the stability of the Net Asset Value (NAV) per unit of the Fund over time. At the inception of the Fund, the NAV was $9.43 per unit, discounted at 10%. At the end of 2004, despite payment of over $19 per unit in distributions over eight years, the NAV per unit is at a level of $12.87, discounted at 10%, indicating that unitholders have not been diluted.

Long Term Debt

The Fund has a $225 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of four Canadian chartered banks of which $182.1 million was drawn at December 31, 2004. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2005, at which time the facility reverts to a two-year term with principal payments, if necessary, commencing on July 28, 2005. The facility is secured by a $300 million floating charge debenture on all assets of Shiningbank together with supporting debentures and guarantees from the Fund’s operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks’ prime rate to the banks’ prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the total debt to cash flow ratio or, at Shiningbank’s option, the bankers’ acceptance rate plus a stamping fee.

Unitholders’ Equity

On March 8, 2004, the Fund issued 8,800,000 new Trust Units at $17.00 each for gross proceeds of $149.6 million. In addition, a total of 997,204 Trust Units were issued during the year under the Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan, under the Fund’s Distribution Reinvestment Plan, and through the exercise of Exchangeable Shares.

When equity is raised, the intended use of proceeds is specified in the related prospectus. Each major equity issue has been undertaken to acquire properties or to reduce debt incurred from prior acquisitions. In all cases, the proceeds were used according to the purpose specified.

As of March 1, 2005, the Fund had 54,280,516 Trust Units, 263,482 non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares and 353,614 escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding. Exchangeable Shares held in escrow will be released over the next three years under the terms of two escrow agreements. Exchangeable Shares are not eligible for distributions until they are exchanged for Trust Units at the discretion of the holder. The exchange rate was initially one Trust Unit for each Exchangeable Share. The exchange rate increases with each distribution by an amount equal to the per unit distribution divided by the 10-day weighted average trading price of the Trust Units preceding the record date for that distribution. As of December 31, 2004, the exchange rate was 1 to 1.32647.

Future Growth

Shiningbank's growth is based on its ability to raise debt and equity capital in Canadian financial markets. The Fund examines acquisition opportunities and selects those it believes to be accretive for such parameters as cash flows, distributions, net asset value, production and reserves.

Acquisitions are typically made using the Fund's credit facilities. Periodically, new Trust Units are issued, and the proceeds are used to pay down debt accumulated from previous acquisitions.

If the Canadian equity or debt markets were unable to satisfy Shiningbank's funding needs, it would impair the Fund's ability to continue to replace production and maintain distributions. The Fund has lines of credit held by four Canadian chartered banks, which provide sufficient debt capital to satisfy the Fund's ability to complete all but the largest acquisitions. However, the Fund's governing documents restrict debt levels to 40% of the value of its properties, and debt service costs are not to exceed 30% of the projected annual cash flow.

Shiningbank has on-going capital commitments in the ordinary course of business for development drilling, equipment and facilities. These are funded through a combination of cash flow, debt financing and periodic equity financing.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The Fund makes numerous accounting estimates in its financial statements in order to provide timely information to users. A critical accounting estimate is one that requires management to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate is made and, if a different estimate was used, financial results would be materially different. The following estimates are considered critical:

Reserves

The Fund must estimate its reserves. Reserves are evaluated and reported on annually by independent petroleum reserve evaluators who use various subjective factors and assumptions, including forecasts of costs based on geological and engineering data, projected future rates of production, and timing and amounts of future development costs. Although reserves are estimated, management believes the estimates are reasonable based on information available at the time the estimates were prepared. Management, the Fund's internal engineers, and the Board's Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee all review and approve the estimates reported by the independent reserve evaluators.

As new information becomes available, changes are made to the reserve estimates and future development cost estimates. Historically, the Fund has had no significant changes to these estimates, with the exception of adjusting reserves for acquisitions and divestitures and the results of new drilling. Future actual results could vary greatly from the estimates made, resulting in material changes to the depletion calculation and asset impairment test.

Asset Retirement Obligation

The Fund's estimated asset retirement obligation is based on estimated timing and costs to abandon and restore properties.

FINANCIAL REPORTING

During 2003 and 2004, there were numerous changes to financial reporting and regulatory requirements. The most important changes for Shiningbank are described below.

Asset Retirement Obligations

Effective January 1, 2004, Shiningbank adopted CICA handbook section 3110, “Asset Retirement Obligations.” The standard requires the recognition and measurement of liabilities related to legal obligations to retire property, plant and equipment upon acquisition of the liability. The initial liability must be measured at fair value and subsequently adjusted for the accretion of discount and changes in the fair value. The asset retirement cost is capitalized and depleted into earnings over time.

Hedging Relationships

Effective January 1, 2004, the Fund adopted Accounting Guideline 13, “Hedging Relationships” which establishes standards for the documentation and effectiveness of hedging relationships for the purposes of applying hedge accounting. The adoption of this standard had no effect on the Fund’s financial results.

Trust Unit Incentive Compensation

In September 2003, the CICA amended section 3870 of its handbook - “Stock-based Compensation and Other Stock-based Payments.” Effective January 1, 2004, companies are required to use the fair value method to measure all stock-based payments and recognize compensation expense in their financial statements. The Fund elected to adopt these amendments in fourth quarter 2003 for all rights issued on or after January 1, 2003.

Previously the Fund followed common practice in the sector and used the excess of the unit price over the exercise price at the date of the financial statement as a surrogate for fair value. If the Fund were to continue to use this method under the amended standard, the Fund could experience large fluctuations, even recoveries, in compensation expense over the next 10 years. Because of the highly volatile nature of distributions and unit trading prices, management believes amounts expensed and/or recovered under this calculation do not properly represent the benefit conveyed to rights holders during the vesting period, and could be confusing when reading the financial statements.

Management considered numerous methods of determining the fair value of rights granted and has chosen to use a Black-Scholes option-pricing model to determine fair value. The calculation of fair value requires management to make numerous assumptions, as outlined in note 7 to the financial statements. Readers are cautioned that the assumptions made are estimates of future events and actual results could differ materially from those estimated.

Supplemental Disclosure

Management believes that distributions to unitholders, cash flow and netbacks are useful supplemental measures. Distributions to unitholders should not be construed as an alternate to net income as determined by Canadian GAAP. All references to cash flow throughout this MD&A are based on cash flow before changes in non-cash working capital, which management uses to analyze operating performance and leverage. Cash flow as presented is not intended to represent operating cash flow or operating profits, nor should it be viewed as an alternative to cash flow from operating activities, net earnings or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Operating netbacks, which are calculated as average unit sales price less royalties, transportation costs and operating costs, represent the cash margin for product sold, calculated on a boe basis. Distributions to unitholders, cash flow and netbacks as presented do not have any standardized meanings prescribed by Canadian GAAP and therefore may not be comparable with the calculations of similar measure for other entities.

Forward-looking statements

This MD&A contains forward-looking statements relating to future events. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by such words as “may,” “expects” or similar expressions. These statements represent management’s best projections, but undue reliance should not be placed upon them as they are derived from numerous assumptions. These assumptions are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including the business risks discussed in this MD&A and in the AIF, which may cause actual performance and financial results to differ materially from any projections of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers are cautioned that events or circumstances could cause results to differ materially from those predicted.

Barrel of oil equivalent

Barrel of oil equivalent (boe) volumes are reported at 6:1 with 6 mcf = 1 bbl. The 6:1 boe conversion ratio is based on an energy equivalency conversion method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead. While it is useful for comparative measures, it may not accurately reflect individual product values and may be misleading if used in isolation.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

($ thousands, except Trust Units and per Trust Unit amounts)

1. ORGANIZATION

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (“Shiningbank” or the “Fund”) is an unincorporated open-end investment trust formed under the laws of the Province of Alberta pursuant to a trust indenture dated May 16, 1996 and subsequently amended. Operations commenced on July 1, 1996. The beneficiaries of the Fund are the holders (the “Unitholders”) of trust units (the “Trust Units”).

On March 5, 2004, the Fund acquired all of the shares of Good Ridge Explorations Ltd. (“Good Ridge”) through its wholly owned indirect subsidiary Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the “Corporation”). On March 8, 2004, the Corporation acquired all of the shares of Birchill Resources Limited (“Birchill”) which in turn held substantially all of its assets in a partnership. Also on March 8, 2004, the Corporation, Good Ridge and Birchill were amalgamated, continuing as Shiningbank Energy Ltd. The partnership, which was renamed Shiningbank Energy Partnership (“SEP”), remained in place and was held by the Corporation.

On December 31, 2004, the Corporation transferred substantially all of its interest in SEP to a newly formed limited partnership called Shiningbank Limited Partnership (“SLP”) and SEP was wound up. SLP is held by a newly created operating trust called Shiningbank Operating Trust (“SOT”), the sole beneficiary of which is the Fund. The Corporation is the general partner of SLP.

The trust indenture provides that 300,000,000 Trust Units may be issued. Each Trust Unit represents an equal fractional beneficial interest in any distributions from the Fund and in the net assets of the Fund on termination or winding up of the Fund. All Trust Units rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority. The trust indenture provides that Trust Units are redeemable at any time on demand by the Unitholders at amounts as determined by a market price formula. The total amount payable by the Fund in respect of all Trust Units tendered for redemption, however, may not exceed $100,000 in any calendar month.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management using Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingencies at the date of the financial statements, and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimated.

Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the amounts recorded for depletion and depreciation of the petroleum and natural gas properties, accretion of discount on asset retirement obligations, and asset retirement expenditures which are based on estimates of reserves and future costs and the amounts recorded for Trust Unit incentive compensation which are based on the estimated fair value of rights granted. By their nature, these estimates, and those related to future cash flows used to assess impairment, are subject to measurement uncertainty and the impact on the financial statements of future periods could be material.

(a) Principles of consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Fund and its direct and indirect subsidiaries, including the Corporation, SLP, SOT, Shiningbank Holdings Corporation (“SHC”) and 1130243 Alberta Inc.

(b) Fixed assets

The Fund follows the full cost method of accounting for petroleum and natural gas properties under which all acquisition and development costs are capitalized. Such costs include land acquisition, geological, geophysical and drilling costs for productive and non-productive wells and directly related overhead charges. Proceeds from the sale of petroleum and natural gas properties are applied against capitalized costs. Gains or losses upon disposition of such properties are not recognized unless the disposition would alter the depletion and depreciation rate by 20% or more.

The costs of fixed assets, plus a provision for future development costs of proved undeveloped reserves, are depleted and depreciated using the unit-of-production method based on estimated total proved reserves volumes, before royalties, as determined by independent engineers. Proved reserves are converted to a common unit of measure on the basis of their approximate relative energy content. Other miscellaneous assets are depreciated on a declining balance basis at 20% per annum.

Oil and gas assets are evaluated annually to determine that the carrying amount in a cost centre is recoverable and does not exceed the fair value of the properties in the cost centre. The carrying amounts are assessed to be recoverable when the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected from the production of proved reserves, the lower of cost and market of unproved properties and the cost of major development projects, exceeds the carrying amount of the cost centre. When the carrying amount is in excess, and is therefore assessed as not recoverable, an impairment loss would be recognized to the extent that the carrying value of assets exceeds the sum of the discounted cash flows from the production of proved and probable reserves, the lower of cost and market of unproved properties and the cost of major development projects. The cash flows are estimated using expected future product prices and costs and are discounted using a risk-free interest rate (see note 4).

(c) Goodwill

Goodwill is recorded upon a corporate acquisition when the total purchase price exceeds the net identifiable assets and liabilities of the acquired company. The goodwill balance is not amortized but instead is assessed for impairment annually or more frequently, if necessary. Impairment is determined based on the fair value of the reporting entity compared to the carrying or net book value of the reporting entity. Any impairment will be charged to earnings in the period in which the fair value of the reporting entity is below the carrying value.

(d) Asset retirement obligation

Shiningbank recognizes the fair value of an Asset Retirement Obligation (“ARO”) in the period in which it is incurred when a reasonable estimation of the fair value can be made. The fair value of the estimated ARO is recorded as a long-term liability, with a corresponding increase in the carrying value of the asset. In periods subsequent to initial measurement, the passage of time results in liability changes and the amount of accretion is charged against current period income. The liability is also adjusted for revisions to previously used estimates.

Previously, Shiningbank recognized a provision for estimated future site restoration and abandonment costs calculated on the unit-of-production method over the remaining proved reserves. Actual site restoration and abandonment costs were charged against the liability as incurred.

(e) Income taxes

The Fund is a taxable trust under the Income Tax Act (Canada). Any taxable income is allocated to the Unitholders and therefore no provision for income taxes relating to the Fund is included in these financial statements.

The Fund’s corporate subsidiaries follow the tax liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, income tax liabilities and assets are recognized for the estimated tax consequences attributable to differences between the amounts reported in the financial statements and their respective tax bases, using enacted income tax rates. The effect of a change in income tax rates on future income tax liabilities and assets is recognized in income in the period that the change occurs.

The Fund’s corporate subsidiaries are taxable Canadian corporations and are liable for tax on income that they retain. The Corporation is also subject to capital taxes in jurisdictions where such taxes apply and these taxes are deducted from distributions to Unitholders.

(f) Financial instruments

The Corporation from time to time employs financial instruments to manage exposures related to interest rates and commodity prices. These instruments are not used for speculative trading purposes. The Fund formally documents all relationships between hedging instruments and hedged items and assesses, both at the hedge’s inception and on an ongoing basis, whether the derivatives that are used in hedging transactions are highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of hedged items. Gains and losses on commodity price hedges are included in revenues upon the sale of related production provided there is reasonable assurance that the hedge is and will continue to be effective.

Realized and unrealized gains and losses associated with hedging instruments that have been terminated or cease to be effective prior to maturity, are deferred on the balance sheet and recognized in income in the period in which the underlying hedged transaction is recognized.

For transactions that do not qualify for hedge accounting, the Fund applies the fair value method of accounting by recording an asset or liability on the consolidated balance sheet and recognizing changes in the fair value of the instruments in the current period statement of earnings.

(g) Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan

The Fund accounts for the Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan using the fair value based method. Under this method, compensation costs attributed to the Trust Unit rights are measured at fair value at the grant date and recognized over the vesting period, with a corresponding increase to contributed surplus. Consideration paid by employees and directors of the Corporation on the exercise of Trust Unit rights under this plan is recorded in Trust Units equity upon receipt, along with the amount of non-cash Trust Unit incentive compensation expense recognized in contributed surplus.

(h) Joint ventures

Substantially all of the Fund's petroleum and natural gas activities are conducted jointly with others and, accordingly, these financial statements reflect only the Fund's proportionate interest in such activities.

(i) Per Trust Unit amounts

Basic earnings per Trust Unit is computed by dividing net earnings by the weighted average number of Trust Units outstanding for the year. Diluted net earnings per Trust Unit amounts reflect the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue Trust Units were exercised or converted to Trust Units.

(j) Revenue recognition

Revenue from the sale of oil and natural gas is recognized when the product is delivered.

(k) Comparative figures

Comparative figures have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation.

3. CHANGE IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Asset retirement obligation

Effective January 1, 2004 Shiningbank has adopted CICA handbook section 3110, "Asset Retirement Obligations." The standard requires the recognition and measurement of liabilities related to legal obligations to retire property, plant and equipment upon acquisition of the liability. The initial liability must be measured at fair value and subsequently adjusted for the accretion of discount and changes in the fair value. The asset retirement cost is capitalized and depleted into earnings over time.

This change in accounting policy has been adopted retroactively with restatement of the prior period presented for comparative purposes. The effect of the adoption is as follows:

Balance sheet	December 31, 2003	December 31, 2002
Increase in fixed assets for asset retirement costs	$ 12,531	$ 13,521
Net increase in asset retirement obligation	15,329	15,560
Decrease in future income tax liability	(771)	(493)
Decrease in accumulated earnings	(2,028)	(1,546)

Statement of earnings	Year ended December 31, 2003
Accretion expense on asset retirement obligation	$ 1,981
Increased depletion due to asset retirement costs	1,845
Eliminate prior provision for site restoration	(3,066)
Increase future income tax recovery	(277)
Net earnings impact	$ 483
Basic net earnings per Trust Unit	$ 0.01
Diluted net earnings per Trust Unit	$ 0.01

The estimated asset retirement obligation is based upon the Fund's net ownership interest in each area, estimated costs to abandon and reclaim wells and facilities in the area, and the anticipated timing of such expenditures.

Undiscounted expenditures totalling $37.6 million are expected to be made over the next 33 years. The Fund's credit adjusted risk free rate of 7% and an inflation rate of 2% were used to calculate the present value of the obligation.

The Fund's asset retirement obligation is as follows:

Carrying amount, beginning of year	$ 26,524	$ 23,907
Liability incurred during the year, net of dispositions	2,212	854
Settlement of liability during the year	(684)	(218)
Accretion expense	2,190	1,981
Carrying amount, end of year	$ 30,242	$ 26,524

(b) Trust Unit incentive compensation

During 2003 the Fund elected to adopt the amendments to the CICA Handbook Section 3870, "Stock-based Compensation and Other Stock-based Payments." The section was adopted effective January 1, 2003 and Trust Unit incentive compensation expense of $572,000 was recorded in 2003 for rights granted during 2003 and vesting within the year.

(c) Hedging relationships

Effective January 1, 2004, the Fund adopted Accounting Guideline 13, "Hedging Relationships" that establishes standards for the documentation and effectiveness of hedging relationships for the purposes of applying hedge accounting. The adoption of this standard had no effect on the Fund's financial results.

4. FIXED ASSETS

(a) Acquisition of Birchill Resources Limited

Effective January 1, 2004 the Corporation acquired all the outstanding shares of Birchill for $170.1 million. The transaction closed on March 8, 2004. The acquisition was accounted for by the purchase method and the results of operations of Birchill are included in the accounts from the closing date. Birchill and the Corporation were subsequently amalgamated.

Cash consideration	$ 169,639
Related fees and expenses	463
Cost of acquisition	$ 170,102

(b) Acquisition of Good Ridge Explorations Ltd.

Effective January 1, 2004 the Corporation acquired all the outstanding shares of Good Ridge for $7.0 million. The transaction closed on March 5, 2004. The acquisition was accounted for by the purchase method and the results of operations of Good Ridge are included in the accounts from the closing date. Good Ridge and the Corporation were subsequently amalgamated.

Cash consideration	$ 6,935
Related fees and expenses	30
Cost of acquisition	$ 6,965

Asset retirement obligation	(147)
Petroleum and natural gas properties and equipment	7,025
Goodwill	1,710
Total consideration	$ 6,965

(c) Ceiling test

The Fund performed a ceiling test calculation at December 31, 2004 to assess the recoverable value of fixed assets. Future prices were obtained from third parties, adjusted for commodity differentials specific to the Fund, and then escalated based on factors in the Fund's year-end independent reserves evaluation. The following table summarizes the benchmark prices used in the ceiling test calculation. Based on these assumptions, the undiscounted value of future net revenues from proved reserves exceeded the carrying value of the Fund's fixed assets at December 31, 2004.

Year	Oil		Gas
	WTI US$/bbl	Edmonton Light C$/bbl	AECO C$/mmbtu	Alberta Reference C$/mmbtu

Thereafter	+ 1.5%/annum	+ 1.5%/annum	+ 1.5%/annum	+ 1.5%/annum

5. LONG TERM DEBT

The Corporation has a $225 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of four Canadian chartered banks of which $182.1 million was drawn at December 31, 2004 (2003 - $121.7 million). The revolving period extends to April 27, 2005. If the revolving facility is not renewed on that date, it will revert to a two year term with principal payments commencing on July 28, 2005. The facility is secured by a $300 million floating charge debenture on all assets of the Corporation together with supporting debentures and guarantees from operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the Fund's total debt to cash flow ratio, or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee.

6. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes in the financial statements differs from the result that would have been obtained by applying the combined federal and provincial tax rate to the Corporation's and SHC's earnings before income taxes. This difference results from the following items:

Taxable loss of the Corporation and SHC	$ (27,800)	$ (17,400)
Combined federal and provincial tax rate	38.62%	40.60%
Computed income tax recovery	(10,700)	(7,100)
Increase (decrease) in income taxes resulting from:
Non-deductible Crown charges	3,500	1,800
Other	2,901	(222)
Internalization of management contract	1,400	2,400
Resource allowance	(1,800)	(1,900)
Change in tax rate	(3,100)	(7,700)
Internal restructuring	(78,400)	-
Future income tax recovery	(86,199)	(12,722)
Capital and large corporation taxes	574	595
Income and capital taxes	$ (85,625)	$ (12,127)

The recovery of future income taxes, through the internal restructuring, resulted from the transfer of the partnership acquired in the Birchill acquisition from the Corporation to a new operating trust, the beneficiary of which is the Fund.

The components of the Corporation's and SHC's future income tax liability at December 31, are as follows:

Future income taxes:
Oil and natural gas properties	$ 49,151	$ 59,999
Asset retirement obligation	(9,084)	(4,636)
Non-capital losses	(4,383)	(3,935)
Other	(2,418)	(864)

(c) Exchangeable Shares

On October 9, 2002, SHC issued 1,136,614 Exchangeable Shares in connection with the management internalization transaction. The Exchangeable Shares are exchangeable, at the option of the holder, into Trust Units for no additional consideration. As at December 31, 2004, 353,614 (2003 - 555,678) Exchangeable Shares were held in escrow to be released over periods up to October 2007 under the terms of two escrow agreements. The number of Trust Units issuable upon conversion is based upon the exchange ratio in effect at the conversion date. The exchange ratio is adjusted by the distributions paid to Unitholders divided by the 10-day weighted average unit price preceding the record date. The Exchangeable Shares are not eligible for distributions.

Total Trust Units issuable upon conversion of all shares	818,559		807,565

(d) Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan

Under Shiningbank's Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan the initial exercise price of rights granted may not be less than the current market price of the Trust Units as of the date of grant and the maximum term of each right is not to exceed 10 years. The exercise price of the rights is to be adjusted downwards from time to time by the amount, if any, that distributions to Unitholders in any calendar quarter exceed 2.5% (10% annually) of the Fund's consolidated net book value of fixed assets. A total of 3,197,796 Trust Units have been reserved for issuance under the plan. At December 31, 2004, there were 1,396,901 (2003 - 1,460,067) rights outstanding, of which 395,234 (2003 - 583,401) were exercisable at a weighted average exercise price of $13.34 (2003 - $14.20). In January 2005, a further 717,500 Trust Unit rights were granted.

The following table summarizes information about Trust Unit rights outstanding and exercisable at December 31, 2004:

Range of Exercise Prices	Rights Outstanding			Rights Exercisable
$ 10.00 to $ 12.99	481,667	7.8	$ 12.08	65,000	$ 11.96

$ 10.00 to $ 21.50	1,396,901	8.0	$ 14.74	395,234	$ 13.34

Shiningbank recorded Trust Unit incentive compensation expense of $1,263,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004 (2003 – $572,000) for rights issued in 2003 and 2004, and vesting within the year.

During the year, $419,000 (2003 - $nil) of contributed surplus was transferred to Trust Unit equity in respect of rights exercised during the period.

The following table reconciles the movement in the contributed surplus balance:

Contributed surplus
Balance, beginning of year	$ 572	$ -
Trust Unit incentive compensation	1,263	572
Net benefit on rights exercised ¹	(419)	-
Balance, end of year	$ 1,416	$ 572

¹ Upon exercise, the net benefit is reflected as a reduction of contributed surplus and an increase to Unitholders' capital.

The fair value of the 580,000 rights issued during the year was estimated using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rates ranging from 4.33 to 4.82% (2003 – 4.16 to 4.76%), volatility of 60%, life of 10 years, and a dividend yield rate of 10% representing the difference between the anticipated distribution and the anticipated drop in the strike price.

For rights issued in 2002, Shiningbank has elected to disclose the pro forma effect as if the amended accounting standard had been adopted January 1, 2002. For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, Shiningbank's net income would have decreased by $508,000 per year ($0.01 per basic and diluted Trust Unit in 2003 and 2004) due to additional Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to rights granted in 2002.

(e) Distribution Reinvestment Plan

The Distribution Reinvestment Plan ("DRIP") entitles eligible Unitholders to purchase additional Trust Units by re-investing their cash distributions or by making additional optional cash payments of up to a maximum of $3,000 per quarter for the purchase of additional Trust Units. Trust Units are acquired on the open market at the prevailing market price or issued from treasury at the average market price over the last 10 days of trading. During 2004, 296,538 Trust Units were issued from treasury (2003 – 179,488) under the DRIP for proceeds of $5.8 million (2003 - $3.0 million).

(f) Per Trust Unit amounts

For the year ended December 31, 2004, the weighted average number of Trust Units and non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding was 52,208,852 (2003 - 41,594,854). In computing diluted net earnings per Trust Unit, the dilutive effect of unit rights and escrowed Exchangeable Shares, added 984,155 Trust Units (2003 – 772,760) to the weighted average number of Trust Units outstanding.

8. OTHER CASH FLOW DISCLOSURES

(a) Change in non-cash operating working capital

	2004	2003

(d) Cash payments

Cash payments made for taxes	$ 1,231	$ 625
Cash payments made for interest	$ 6,023	$ 6,077

9. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

As at December 31, 2004, there are no significant differences between the carrying amounts and the fair value of accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, Trust Unit distributions payable, and long-term debt. The Corporation is exposed to interest rate variance on the long term debt disclosed in the balance sheet. Gains and losses on commodity price hedges are included in revenues upon the sale of related production provided there is reasonable assurance that the hedge is and will continue to be effective.

Substantially all of the Fund's accounts receivable are due from customers in the oil and gas industry and are subject to the normal industry credit risks. The carrying value of accounts receivable reflects management's assessment of the associated credit risk. Substantially all derivative financial instruments are entered into with Canadian chartered banks in order to reduce credit risk.

At December 31, 2004, Shiningbank held certain oil and natural gas hedge contracts, the terms of which are listed in the following table. The estimated market value at December 31, 2004, had the contracts been settled at that time, would have been a loss of $103,484.

Period	Commodity	Volume	Price
April 1, 2004 – March 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$5.91 /GJ
November 1, 2004 – March 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$7.50 /GJ floor $11.00/GJ ceiling
April 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$5.00 /GJ floor $6.39/GJ ceiling
January 1, 2005 – June 30, 2005	Oil	500 bbl/d	US$37.00/bbl floor US$50.50/bbl ceiling

Subsequent to December 31, 2004, Shiningbank entered into two additional hedge contracts.

Period	Commodity	Volume	Price
February 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005	Oil	500 bbl/d	US$40.00/bbl floor US$55.40/bbl ceiling
April 1, 2005 – October 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$6.70/GJ

10. INTERNALIZATION OF MANAGEMENT CONTRACT

Effective October 9, 2002, the Fund acquired all of the outstanding shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc., the former Manager of the Fund. Total consideration for the transaction consisted of a cash payment of $2.91 million plus 1,136,614 Exchangeable Shares. Total consideration was reduced by $1.8 million to provide for performance/retention bonuses to be paid to employees. During 2004, the remainder of this bonus pool, or $817,250 (2003 - $582,750) was paid out in cash and expensed.

Total consideration:

Cash	$ 2,910
Exchangeable Shares issued	16,490
Costs associated with the transaction	1,195
Total purchase price	$ 20,595

Prior to the acquisition, the Fund paid fees to the former Manager of 3.25% of net operating income, a fee of 1.5% on the purchase price of acquisitions and a quarterly scheduled dividend in accordance with the terms of the management agreement. The acquisition resulted in the elimination of all fees and dividends under the management contract.

Exchangeable Shares in the amount of $10.0 million were originally subject to escrow provisions and are being deferred and amortized into income as internalization of management contract expense over the specific vesting periods through 2007. For the year ending December 31, 2004, $2,693,400 (2003 - $5,380,600) has been recorded as expense representing the amortization of these escrowed Exchangeable Shares.

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund is a conventional oil and gas royalty trust and its units are listed on The Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol "SHN.UN".

The holders of the trust units of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund") resolved at a Special Meeting thereof held on October 8, 2002 (the "Meeting"), to effect an internalization of the management of the Fund (the "Internalization Transaction") by the purchase of all of the issued and outstanding shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc. ("SEMI") by Shiningbank Holdings Corporation, a subsidiary of the Fund and subsequently amalgamating the Grantor and SEMI (the "Amalgamation").
- B. The holders of the trust units of the Fund also resolved at the Meeting to amend this Royalty Agreement to provide that the distributions to the holders of the trust units may be made monthly rather than quarterly if deemed desirable by the Board of Directors of the Grantor.
- C. All actions have now been taken to give effect to the Internalization Transaction and the Amalgamation.
- D. The parties hereto wish to amend and restate the Royalty Agreement to reflect the above.

The parties agree as follows.

Amendments

The parties hereto agree that the Royalty Agreement will be amended effective as of the date set out above such that it shall be amended and restated, such restatement to be in the form attached hereto as Schedule "A" to this Agreement, and such Restated Royalty Agreement shall be the Royalty Agreement.

Article 2
Continuation

The Royalty Agreement, as amended as aforesaid, shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof.

Article 3
Miscellaneous

3.1 Enurement

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

3.2 Waivers in Writing

No waiver by any party hereto of any breach of any of the covenants, conditions and provisions herein contained shall be effective or be binding on any other party hereto unless such waiver is expressed in writing and any waiver so expressed shall not limit or affect its rights with respect to any other or future breach.

3.3 Amendments

No amendment, alteration or variation of this Agreement or any of its terms or conditions shall be binding upon the parties hereto unless made in writing and signed by the duly authorized representatives of each of the parties hereto.

3.4 Liability

The parties hereto acknowledge that the Trustee is entering into this agreement solely in its capacity as Trustee on behalf of the Trust and the obligations of the Trust hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Trustee or any of the holders of the Trust Units of the Trust and that any recourse against the Trust, the Trustee or any holder of the Trust Units of the Trust in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Trust arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund as defined in the Trust Indenture with respect to the Trust as the same was amended and restated as of February 28, 2003.

The parties agree as follows.

Definitions

1.1 Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement, including the recitals, the following words and expressions shall have the following meanings except where the context otherwise expressly provides:

“Additional Properties” means those P&NG Rights and any related Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests which are acquired by the Grantor after the Closing Date;

“Administrative Services Agreement” means the agreement between the Grantor and the Trustee as trustee for and on behalf of the Royalty Fund dated October 9, 2002, pursuant to which the Grantor has agreed to provide certain management and administration services to the Royalty Fund and the Trustee, and all amendments thereof, substitutions therefor and replacements thereof;

“Affiliate” means an affiliated body corporate within the meaning of Section 2(1) of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta);

“Agreement” means this agreement including the Schedule A hereto;

“ARC” means credits or rebates in respect of Crown Royalties which are paid or credited by the Crown, including those paid or credited under the Alberta Corporate Tax Act which are commonly known as ‘Alberta Royalty Credits’;

“Asset Value” in respect of any Property or the Properties at any time means the present worth (using the Discount Rate) of the estimated pre-tax net cash flow from such Property or the Properties of the Proved Reserves and 50% of the Probable Reserves shown on the most recent independent engineering report relating to such Property or the Properties;

“Business Day” means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in Alberta;

“Canadian resource property” shall have the meaning attributable to such term in the Tax Act,

“Capital Costs” means:

- (a) drilling costs, completion costs and equipping costs of wells; and
- (b) all other costs relating to the Properties which are “capital costs” under GAAP;

but does not include Future Acquisition Costs;

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be construed, interpreted and performed in accordance therewith.

1.4 Attornment

Any legal action or proceedings with respect to this Agreement shall be brought in the courts of the Province of Alberta and the courts of appeal therefrom. Each Party hereby attorns to and accepts for itself and in respect of its assets generally, irrevocably and unconditionally, the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts.

1.5 Monetary Sums

All references herein to dollar amounts or sums of money are to lawful funds of Canada.

1.6 In Specie Distribution

In the event of an in specie distribution of an interest in the Royalty pursuant to the rights of retraction in the Trust Indenture, as amended, there will be no further acquisition of properties under this Agreement.

Article 2 Royalty

2.1 Royalty Grant

- (a) Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Grantor hereby grants, transfers, assigns and conveys the Royalty to the Royalty Owner.
- (b) Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Royalty Owner, as the owner of the Royalty, shall be entitled to a payment from the Grantor with respect to each Period equal to the Royalty Income and the Grantor hereby covenants and agrees to make such payment.

- (c) The Royalty Owner shall reimburse to the Grantor 99% of all Non-Deductible Crown Royalties payable by the Grantor in respect of the Properties or the production of Petroleum Substances therefrom. The Grantor shall be entitled to set off Royalty Payments against amounts reimbursable to it pursuant to this subsection 2.1(c).
- (d) Subject to Section 6.6, the Grantor may acquire Additional Properties. Upon the acquisition of Additional Properties by the Grantor, such Additional Properties shall also automatically be subject to the Royalty, subject, to the extent applicable, to the security described in subsection 9.2(b).

2.2 Payment for Royalty Grant

- (a) The Royalty Owner shall pay to the Grantor as consideration for the granting and transferring of the Royalty:
 - (i) the Initial Purchase Payment; and
 - (ii) the Deferred Purchase Payments.
- (b) The Grantor acknowledges that the Royalty Owner has paid an estimate of the Initial Purchase Payment on the Execution Date by way of a cash payment in the sum of $27,612,398.00 and the balance of $21,157,332 by way of an absolute assignment of the Royalty Owner's right, title and interest in and to the Instalment Receivables and certain rights under the Instalment Receipt Agreement. Within 120 days of the Execution Date the amount of the Initial Purchase Payment shall be finalized and the Royalty Owner or the Grantor shall pay to the other the underpayment or overpayment, respectively.
- (c) If the Grantor acquires any Additional Properties, whether by way of a purchase of Additional Properties or the acquisition of the shares of a corporation or an interest in a partnership, trust or other entity (such corporations, partnerships, trusts and other entities being hereinafter referred to as a "Subsidiary" or "Subsidiaries") that owns Additional Properties and the subsequent amalgamation, winding-up, liquidation or similar combination (a "Combination") of such Subsidiary with the Grantor, the Royalty Owner shall make a Deferred Purchase Payment to the Grantor in an amount equal to 99% of the amount of the purchase price (including adjustments) for such Additional Properties that is allocated to Canadian resource property, to the extent that such purchase price is not financed with indebtedness incurred or assumed by the Grantor, provided that in the event of an acquisition of Additional Properties by way of acquisition of a Subsidiary and its subsequent Combination with the Grantor for purposes of determining the amount of the Deferred Purchase Payment respecting such Additional Property:
 - (i) the purchase price for such Additional Property shall be deemed to include the purchase price paid for the securities of such Subsidiary and the indebtedness of such Subsidiary that is not discharged prior to such acquisition; and

- (ii) the purchase price for such Additional Property shall be allocated among the assets of such Subsidiary in accordance with their fair market value and the indebtedness of such Subsidiary and any indebtedness incurred to acquire such Subsidiary or assumed as a result of such acquisition (including for greater certainty all indebtedness of such Subsidiary that is not discharged prior to such acquisition) shall be deemed to be indebtedness incurred or assumed by the Grantor in that regard, and such indebtedness shall be first allocated to any Canadian resource property that is included in such Additional Property up to the fair market value of such Canadian resource property, and the remaining indebtedness, if any, shall be allocated among the other components of such Additional Property pro rata in accordance with their respective fair market values.

- (d) If the Grantor designates any Capital Costs on or before the date on which the same are incurred, the Royalty Owner shall make a Deferred Purchase Payment to the Grantor in an amount equal to 99% of the amount of such designated Capital Costs incurred by the Grantor to the extent that such Capital Costs are not financed with indebtedness incurred or assumed by the Grantor.

- (e) If at any time while the Royalty Owner has an obligation to make a Deferred Purchase Payment to the Grantor, the Grantor is indebted to the Royalty Owner, the Deferred Purchase Payment shall be set off against such indebtedness.

- (f) If the Royalty Owner issues any Trust Units after the Closing Date (a "Future Offering"), the Royalty Owner shall make, if requested to do so by the Grantor, a Deferred Purchase Payment to the Grantor in such amount as may be specified by the Grantor, not exceeding the lesser of:
 - (i) the net proceeds of the Future Offering after deducting, without limitation, underwriters' fees and legal, accounting, engineering, professional fees and other disbursements; and
 - (ii) 99% of the principal amount of any outstanding indebtedness under the Credit Facility which reasonably relates to the Canadian resource property purchase price component of any Additional Property acquired by the Grantor on or before such Future Offering with the proceeds of the Credit Facility.

2.3 INTENTIONALLY DELETED

2.4 Use of Other Revenues and Grantor Disposition Proceeds

The Grantor shall not pay or be required to pay to the Royalty Owner the Other Revenues or the Grantor Disposition Proceeds. The Royalty Owner shall have no interest of any kind whatsoever in the Other Revenues or the Grantor Disposition Proceeds, provided however, after the Closing Date and as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt thereof by the Grantor, the Grantor shall use the Other Revenues and such portion of the Grantor Disposition Proceeds not utilized to repay borrowings of the Grantor for any of the following purposes:

- (a) purchase of Permitted Investments;
- (b) payment of Future Acquisition Costs;
- (c) general corporate purposes of the Grantor; and
- (d) payment of or provision for Production Costs (which would otherwise be deducted in determining Deductible Production Costs);

provided that the Grantor shall not use the Other Revenues for the payment of or provision for Production Costs unless the grantor is of the opinion that such payment will not have any adverse tax consequences for the Grantor or the Royalty Owner.

2.5 No Right to Take In Kind

The Royalty Owner shall not have the right:

- (a) to take in kind all or any portion of the Grantor's Share of Production for a Period;
or
- (b) to separately sell or market all or any portion of the Grantor's Share of Production for a Period.

2.6 No Share of Production

The Royalty Owner shall not own or have any rights to any of the Grantor's Share of Production.

2.7 Amendment to Schedule A

The Grantor shall from time to time as the P&NG Rights, Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests pertaining to the Initial Properties are assigned, conveyed, surrendered or otherwise disposed of pursuant hereto and as Additional Properties are acquired or assigned, conveyed, surrendered or otherwise disposed of pursuant hereto, issue a revised composite Schedule A to this Agreement. Such revised Schedule A shall bear the effective date of the revision, shall be numbered sequentially to the most recent revision issued by the Grantor, shall be initialled by the Grantor and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Royalty Owner.

2.8 Petroleum Substances Used in Operations

The Royalty shall not apply to Petroleum Substances lost or consumed in operations.

2.9 Not an Interest in Land

The Royalty:

- (a) is not a covenant attached to or running with the Royalty Lands;

- (b) is not an interest in land;
- (c) is not an interest in real property; and
- (d) does not attach to or form part of the Leases.

Article 3 Payments and Statements

3.1 Payments

- (a) On the fifteenth day of the Month following the end of a Period or the next following Business Day, if such day is not a Business Day, the Grantor shall pay the Royalty Payment for such Period to the Royalty Owner.
- (b) To the extent that Royalty Disposition Proceeds create a credit balance in the Grantor's cumulative Canadian oil and gas property expense account (as defined under the Tax Act) as at the end of any calendar year, the Grantor shall remit to the Royalty Owner on or before the tenth day of the following January, an amount from the Proceeds Account equal to such credit balance so as to permit the distribution thereof.
- (c) Royalty Disposition Proceeds shall be paid by the Grantor to the Royalty Owner in accordance with any required approval obtained from the Unitholders or the board of directors of the Grantor to an assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition of Properties and in any event, any Royalty Disposition Proceeds which are not used to purchase Additional Properties within one year from the date the same are deposited in the Proceeds Account shall be forthwith paid by the Grantor to the Royalty Owner.
- (d) On the fifteenth day of the Month following the end of a Period or the next following Business Day, if such day is not a Business Day, interest income accrued on the Proceeds Account during such Period shall be paid by the Grantor to the Royalty Owner.
- (e) Where there are amounts owing by a Royalty Owner as a result of the provisions of this Agreement, any payments pursuant to this Article may be offset against such amounts owing
- (f) The Grantor shall satisfy, perform and discharge all obligations and responsibilities under the Income Tax Act (Canada) or any similar provincial legislation, including withholding any taxes required to be withheld from such payments.

3.2 Statements

- (a) Each Royalty Payment in respect of a Quarter, and each Royalty Payment in respect of the last Month in a Quarter, shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth:

- (i) the amount of the Royalty Payment for such Quarter;
- (ii) all calculations used in determining the Royalty Payment for such Quarter;
- (iii) the Grantor's Share of Production (itemized by product) sold during such Quarter;
- (iv) the Non-Deductible Crown Royalties for such Quarter;
- (v) the Production Revenues for such Quarter;
- (vi) the Other Revenues for such Quarter;
- (vii) an itemized list of the Production Costs and Deductible Production Costs for such Quarter;
- (viii) the Properties surrendered, farmed out, disposed of or acquired in such Quarter;
- (ix) wells drilled, cased, or abandoned in such Quarter; and
- (x) the amount of the Proceeds Account and Royalty Owner Working Capital Account as at the end of such Quarter and the amount of the Deferred Purchase Payments, if any, made in such Quarter.

3.3 Overpayments

If the payment made by the Grantor on account of the Royalty for a Period is greater than the actual amount of the Royalty Payment for such Period, the Grantor will be entitled to recover the overpayment by set off against Royalty Payments for subsequent Periods.

3.4 Carry Forward of Deductible Production Costs

If the Deductible Production Costs for a Period exceed the Production Revenues for such Period, there shall be no Royalty Payment for such Period and the amount of the excess shall be carried forward and treated as Deductible Production Costs for the following Period and, if required, subsequent Periods.

3.5 Collection of Production Revenues and Other Revenues

The Grantor will use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the payment of Production Revenues and Other Revenues but shall not have any liability to the Royalty Owner to the extent that it fails to collect them, notwithstanding such commercially reasonable efforts to do so.

Article 4
Insurance

4.1 Maintenance of Insurance

The Grantor shall obtain and maintain such property damage and third party liability insurance with respect to the Properties with reputable insurers in such amounts and covering such risks as it reasonably determines to be appropriate, having regard to the insurance maintained by the operators pursuant to the Title and Operating Documents.

Article 5
Books and Records

5.1 Examination

During the term hereof and for a period of two years thereafter the Grantor shall maintain in Calgary, Alberta complete books and records pertaining to (i) the Royalty, (ii) Petroleum Substances attributable to the Royalty Lands consumed or sold by the Grantor, and (iii) all calculations made by the Grantor to determine the amount of payments on account of the Royalty. The Royalty Owner shall have the right at all reasonable times during business hours to inspect such books and records to the extent reasonably necessary in order to verify the amount paid or payable hereunder in respect of the Royalty.

5.2 Audit

Upon notice to the Grantor, the Royalty Owner shall have the right to audit the books and records referred to in Section 5.1 within the 24 month period next following the end of the calendar year to which they relate. The costs of any such audit shall be borne by the Royalty Owner. Any claims of discrepancies disclosed by such audit shall be made in writing to the Grantor within two months of the completion of such audit. The Grantor shall respond to any claims within six months of receipt of such claims. If the Grantor is unable to respond to the claims during the six month period, one extension of three months may be allowed if requested in writing by the Grantor within such six month period. If the Grantor disagrees with such claim or discrepancy and such matter cannot be settled, then the matter will be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Act (Alberta) as amended. In the event that the Grantor agrees with the claim or discrepancy or the claim or discrepancy is upheld, in whole or in part, by arbitration, the Grantor will forthwith rectify same and where such rectification includes payment of sums, promptly credit such sums to the Production Revenues, Other Revenues, Grantor Disposition Proceeds or otherwise as appropriate.

5.3 Confidentiality

The Royalty Owner shall keep all information provided to it pursuant to this Agreement (including, without limitation, information made available to it in connection with the audits, examinations and inspections conducted by it pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Article 5) strictly confidential, except for information which it is required by law to be disclosed or becomes publicly available through no act or omission of the Royalty Owner or which becomes available to the Royalty Owner from a source other than the Grantor, without confidentiality restrictions.

Article 6 Operations

6.1 Generally

Having regard to and subject to the provisions of the Title and Operating Documents and the Grantor's rights and obligations thereunder, the Grantor shall use all reasonable efforts so that:

- (a) operations on the Royalty Lands and lands pooled or unitized therewith for the recovery of Petroleum Substances and the operation of the Tangibles are conducted in compliance with all applicable Regulations and in accordance with good oil and gas field practices;
- (b) all duties and obligations of the Grantor under the Title and Operating Documents are diligently and promptly performed and all amounts payable as rental, royalty or similar charges from time to time due in respect of the Properties or in accordance with applicable laws are paid and all other actions as may be reasonably necessary to maintain the Title and Operating Documents in good standing at all times are taken, subject to the terms and provisions hereof; and
- (c) all Surface Rights needed for the proper operation of the Royalty Lands and the Tangibles are acquired and maintained in good standing and all taxes, rates, assessments and other amounts from time to time payable in respect of the Royalty Lands and the Tangibles are promptly paid.
- (d) the Grantor:
 - (i) will pay or cause to be paid, as they become due and payable, Grantor's Share of all accounts of contractors and claims for wages or salaries for services rendered or performed for the Grantor and for materials supplied to the Grantor;
 - (ii) will keep the Royalty Lands free from liens and encumbrances resulting from the failure to pay the costs described in subsection 6.1(d)(i) above, unless and to the extent there is a bona fide dispute with respect thereto; and
 - (iii) will not permit any dues or claims from any Workers' Compensation Board or similar authority established under any Regulations to become in arrears with respect to Grantor's employees.

6.2 No Obligation to Develop

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall impose any obligation, expressed or implied, on the Grantor to explore or develop the Royalty Lands.

6.3 Compliance with and Maintenance of Title and Operating Documents

The Grantor covenants to and in favour of the Royalty Owner that, except as provided in Article 7, the Grantor will:

- (a) observe and perform all of its duties and obligations under the Title and Operating Documents; and
- (b) not, without the written consent of the Royalty Owners owning greater than 50% of the Royalty which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed:
 - (i) agree to the amendment or termination of the Title and Operating Documents;
or
 - (ii) waive or consent to a departure from the performance by any Person of any of such Person's obligations under the Title and Operating Documents;

which could have a material, adverse effect on the Royalty or the rights and obligations of the Royalty Owner in respect of the Royalty, provided, however, that acts or omissions by Persons (including operators) without specific authorization from the joint operators and acts or omissions approved by affirmative vote of the joint operators which the Grantor did not vote in favour of and which are binding upon the Grantor shall not constitute a breach of the foregoing provisions.

6.4 Rights and Obligations

Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, as between the Royalty Owner and the Grantor, the Grantor shall have exclusive control and authority over the production, operation, exploration and development of the Royalty Lands and lands pooled or unitized therewith and the recovery of Petroleum Substances from the Royalty Lands and lands pooled or unitized therewith and the marketing thereof. As between the Royalty Owner and the Grantor, the Grantor shall make all decisions regarding drilling, completion, equipping, suspension and abandonment of wells and the rates of production of Petroleum Substances therefrom. Subject to the other provisions of this Article 6, the Grantor shall undertake and implement such activities in such manner as it determines in its sole discretion. The Royalty Owner acknowledges that, as owner of the Royalty, it shall not be entitled to any interest in the Properties or the Title and Operating Documents and the Grantor acknowledges that the Royalty Owner, as owner of the Royalty, shall not be liable for any of the duties or obligations arising thereunder. The Grantor shall arrange for the sale of the Grantor's Share of Production on such terms and conditions as the Grantor (acting in good faith and in accordance with good oil and gas field practices) may determine.

6.5 Capital Costs

- (a) Subject to subsection 6.5(b) below the Grantor may approve future Capital Costs or other obligations intended to maintain or improve production from the Properties. The Grantor shall not approve Capital Costs on exploration drilling without the approval of the Unitholders except where such drilling relates to the extension of an existing pool. The Grantor may finance Capital Costs by borrowings or by using Grantor's working capital. The Royalty Owner acknowledges that the non-approval of Capital Costs on exploration or development drilling may result in a production penalty or forfeiture under the Title and Operating Documents.

- (b) The aggregate amount of Capital Costs incurred by the Grantor during any calendar year shall not exceed 15% of the "net cash flow" from the Properties unless financed with borrowings or additional issuances of Trust Units. For the purposes of this subsection, "net cash flow" means the amount by which Production Revenues for such calendar year exceeds Deductible Production Costs for such calendar year, plus Capital Costs for such calendar year less all applicable Non-Deductible Crown Royalties net of ARC payable to the Grantor for such calendar year.

6.6 Borrowing

- (a) Subject to subsection 6.6(b) below, the Grantor may borrow funds pursuant to the Credit Facilities or from the Royalty Owner or otherwise to finance the purchase of Additional Properties, for Capital Costs or for other financial obligations or encumbrances in respect of the Properties or for working capital purposes and grant security on the Properties in priority to the Royalty in accordance with subsection 9.3(b);
- (b) The Grantor may not borrow funds under subsection 6.6(a) in circumstances where immediately after such proposed borrowing:
 - (i) the Grantor's total indebtedness pursuant to the Credit Facilities to parties other than the Trustee and the Grantor's Affiliates will exceed 40% of the aggregate Asset Value of all Initial Properties and the Additional Properties owned by the Grantor and its Affiliates, including for greater certainty any Additional Properties to be acquired with the proceeds of such proposed borrowing; or
 - (ii) the projected Debt Service Charges for the next twelve Months exceed 30% of the projected Royalty Payments for the next twelve Months.

Notwithstanding the above limitations on borrowing:

- (c) Any present or future liability or obligation of the Grantor to a financial institution in respect of a borrowing that contravenes subsection 6.6(b) including any obligation to repay a financial institution upon demand, shall not be affected, reduced or impaired by such contravention; and
- (d) the priority, validity, effectiveness and enforceability of any mortgage, charge, security interest or other security whatsoever now or hereafter granted by the Grantor to any financial institution and which contravenes subsection 6.6(b) shall not be affected, prejudiced or impaired by such contravention.

6.7 Costs of Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests

The cost of Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests comprising any Additional Properties shall be paid by the Grantor utilizing its own working capital or funds borrowed by it for such purposes pursuant to the Credit Facilities or from the Royalty Owner or otherwise.

6.8 Site Restoration Costs

If an In Specie Distribution has occurred, the Grantor may, at its discretion, create a sinking fund to fund site restoration and other liabilities as a result of abandonment of wells.

Article 7 Farmouts, Pooling, Unitization, Surrender, Abandonment

7.1 Farmouts

The Grantor shall have full right, power and authority to Farmout (and subsequently assign any interest earned pursuant thereto) any of the P&NG Rights comprised in the Properties, from time to time, provided that, in the Grantor's sole discretion, the Farmout is prudent and the terms thereof are in accordance with normal oil and gas industry practices.

7.2 Pooling and Unitization

The Grantor shall have full right, power and authority to pool or unitize any of the P&NG Rights comprised in the Properties, from time to time, with other P&NG rights provided that, in the Grantor's sole discretion, the pooling or unitization is prudent and the terms thereof are in accordance with normal oil and gas industry practices.

7.3 Surrender

Subject to the Title and Operating Documents, the Grantor may surrender a Lease, in whole or in part, without the consent of the Royalty Owner, provided that in the reasonable opinion of the Grantor there are no wells located on the lands covered by the Lease capable of producing Petroleum Substances in paying quantities from the zones which the Grantor proposes to surrender. From and after any such surrender, this Agreement and the Royalty shall cease to apply to the Royalty Lands surrendered except as to matters which occurred prior to the surrender.

7.4 Abandonment and Reclamation

The Grantor shall have the full right, power and authority without the prior consent of the Royalty Owner to authorize the abandonment of any well comprised in the Properties and/or the reclamation of any of the Properties if:

- (a) the Grantor determines in its sole discretion that such well is not capable of producing Petroleum Substances in paying quantities;
- (b) the operator of such well or portion of the Properties recommends or elects to do so;
or

- (c) it is in accordance with the Regulations or any order of any government or agency.

Article 8

Disposition of Properties

8.1 Dispositions of Properties

Except as provided in Article 7 and Sections 8.2, 8.3 and 9.2, the Grantor shall not assign, sell or otherwise dispose of any interest in the Properties without first notifying the Royalty Owner of its intention to do so and obtaining the written consent of the Royalty Owner, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

8.2 Release of Royalty

The Grantor may assign, sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the Properties and the Royalty Owner irrevocably authorizes the Grantor to release the Royalty therefrom provided that the Grantor determines such assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition would be in the best interests of the Unitholders and that such assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition is in accordance with the following:

- (a) an assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition of Properties for proceeds in excess of 5% of Asset Value must be approved by the board of directors of the Grantor. In connection with such approval, the board of directors of the Grantor shall determine whether the Royalty Disposition Proceeds in respect of such assignment sale or other disposition should be distributed to Unitholders or used to purchase Additional Properties; and
- (b) all assignments, sales, exchanges or other dispositions of Properties in a calendar year having an aggregate Asset Value of greater than 25% of the Asset Value of all Properties must be approved by a Special Resolution of the Unitholders. In connection with such approval, the Unitholders shall determine whether the net proceeds of such assignments, sales, exchanges or other dispositions should be distributed to the Unitholders or used to purchase Additional Properties.

8.3 Proceeds of Disposition of Properties

- (a) As consideration for the release of the Royalty as provided for in Section 8.2, the Grantor shall, forthwith upon the receipt of any Royalty Disposition Proceeds, deposit the same in an interest bearing account maintained by the Grantor in trust for the Royalty Fund with a Canadian chartered bank (the "Proceeds Account").
- (b) Subject to the entitlement of the Royalty Owner to receive payments in respect of interest earned on the Proceeds Account and to receive distributions of principal from the Proceeds Account as specifically provided for in this Agreement, the Grantor shall hold and apply the funds deposited in the Proceeds Account towards the Royalty Owner's obligation to make Deferred Purchase Payments in accordance with the provisions in this Agreement.

Article 9 Assignment

9.1 Consent to Assign; Assumption

Except as provided in Section 9.2, a Party shall not assign, sell, mortgage, pledge, charge or grant a security interest in, or otherwise dispose of any interest under this Agreement without first notifying the other Party of its intention to do so and obtaining the written consent of the other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Subject to subsections 9.2, no such assignment, sale or transfer shall be effective as against the other Party until the assignee, purchaser or transferee shall have executed and delivered a written undertaking, in favour of, and enforceable by, such other Party, agreeing to be bound by and to perform all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement applicable to the interest assigned, sold or disposed of.

9.2 Grant of Security

Notwithstanding Sections 8.1, 8.2 and 9.1:

- (a) the Grantor, without the consent of the Royalty Owner, may:
 - (i) dispose of tools, machinery and equipment which is surplus to its needs;
 - (ii) dispose of Petroleum Substances in the ordinary course of business;
- (b) the Grantor, without the consent of the Royalty Owner, may mortgage, pledge, charge or grant a security interest in the Initial Properties, the Additional Properties or this Agreement:
 - (i) to secure its obligations and liabilities under the Credit Facilities or under Swap Arrangements, which security may be granted in priority to the Royalty; and
 - (ii) to finance the purchase of Additional Properties or for Capital Costs or other financial obligations or encumbrances in respect of the Initial Properties and/or the Additional Properties or for working capital purposes, and such security on the Initial Properties and/or the Additional Properties may be granted in priority to the Royalty to secure the borrowing of such funds, and may enter into subordination and postponement agreements with the holders of the obligations owed under the Credit Facilities, Swap Arrangements and other financing transactions confirming the subordination of the Royalty thereto.

- (c) the Lender or a receiver or receiver-manager of the Grantor or of all or part of its assets or any other enforcement agent may sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the Properties or the Grantor's interest under this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the approval of the Royalty Owner in the course of realization on security for the Grantor's liabilities and obligations under or in connection with the Credit Facilities or Swap Arrangements and the Royalty may be released, terminated or foreclosed out in accordance with subsection 9.2(d); and

- (d) if all or a portion of the Properties is to be sold, transferred or conveyed (a "Disposition") by a receiver or receiver-manager of the Grantor or any of its assets or a secured creditor of the Grantor in the course of enforcement of any security having priority over the Royalty (a "Disposing Person") and the Royalty in relation thereto is released, terminated or foreclosed, the portion of the proceeds of the Disposition, net of the cost of the Disposition, to which the Royalty Owner shall be entitled on account of the release, termination or foreclosure of the Royalty and the Royalty Owner's interest in this Agreement or portion thereof pursuant to the Disposition shall be the greater of the following:

- (i) $10.00; and
- (ii) 99% of the amount remaining (the "Remainder") after the proceeds of the Disposition, net of the cost of Disposition, have been applied to (A) Production Costs for the Month in which the Disposition occurs (determined as if such Month ended on the date that the Disposition occurred) and (B) the amount of all outstanding liabilities and obligations in respect of the Credit Facilities and Swap Arrangements, to the extent (if any) not included in such Production Costs; provided that payment of the Remainder pro rata to the Royalty Owners shall only be made when payments by the Person to whom the Disposition is made are received and after the applications described in items (A) and (B) above have been made.

The balance of the net proceeds of a Disposition not allocated to the interest in the Royalty and the Royalty Owner's interest in this Agreement released pursuant thereto will be allocated to the interest in the Properties disposed of pursuant thereto.

Article 10

Term of Agreement

10.1 Term

Subject to Article 9, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until there are no Properties to which the Royalty applies. Thereafter, this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect:

- (a) in respect of any accrued and unfulfilled obligations of either Party; and
- (b) as to Articles 5 and 9.

Article 11 Notices and Payments

11.1 Addresses for Service and Payments

All payments hereunder in respect of the Royalty shall be paid or tendered to the Royalty Owner at its address for notices hereunder or such other place or depository as the Royalty Owner may request by written notice to the Grantor, provided that no change in the place at which payments on account of the Royalty are to be paid or tendered shall be effective until 30 days after written notice thereof has been provided to the Grantor by the Royalty Owner.

11.2 Giving and Deemed Receipt of Notices

Whether or not so stipulated herein, all notices, communications and statements (herein called "notices") required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing. Notices may be served:

- (a) by delivering them to the Party on which they are to be served at the Party's address for notices hereunder, provided such delivery shall be during normal business hours of the addressee. Such notices shall be deemed received by the addressee when actually delivered as aforesaid; or
- (b) by telecopier (or by any other like method by which a written and recorded message may be sent) directed to the Party on which they are to be served at the Party's telecopy number for notices hereunder. Such notices shall be deemed received by the addressee thereof (i) when actually received by it if sent within the normal working hours of a Business Day of the addressee, or (ii) otherwise at the commencement of the next ensuing Business Day following transmission thereof, whichever is earlier.

11.3 Addresses

The address for service for telecopy numbers and notices hereunder of each of the Parties shall be as follows:

Grantor:

Shiningbank Energy Ltd.
1050, 250 - 6th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, AB T2P 3C4

Attention: Chief Financial Officer
Telecopy: (403) 231-3099

Royalty Owner:

Computershare Trust Company of Canada
710, 530 - 8th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta
T2P 3S8

Attention: Manager, Corporate Trust Department
Telecopy: (403) 267-6598

11.4 Change of Address

A Party may change its said address or telecopy number for notices hereunder by notice to the other Party.

11.5 In Specie Distribution

Should an In Specie Distribution occur, the new Royalty Owner shall provide an address for payment and service to the Grantor.

Article 12 Miscellaneous

12.1 Enurement

Subject to Section 9.1, this Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

12.2 Waivers in Writing

No waiver by any Party of any breach of any of the covenants, conditions and provisions herein contained shall be effective or be binding on any other Party unless such waiver is expressed in writing and any waiver so expressed shall not limit or affect its rights with respect to any other or future breach.

12.3 Time of Essence

Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

12.4 No Partnership

Nothing herein shall be construed as creating a partnership and neither Party shall have any partnership rights or liabilities hereunder or in connection herewith.

12.5 Severability

This Agreement are severable. In the event of the unenforceability or invalidity of any one or more of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement under applicable law, such unenforceability or invalidity shall not render any of other terms, covenants or conditions hereof unenforceable or invalid and the Parties agree that this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable or invalid term, covenant or condition was never contained herein.

12.6 Amendments

No amendment, alteration or variation of this Agreement or any of its terms or conditions shall be binding upon the Parties unless made in writing and signed by the duly authorized representatives of each of the Parties.

Article 13
Concerning the Trustee

13.1 Acknowledgement

The Parties hereto acknowledge that Computershare Trust Company of Canada is entering into this Agreement solely in its capacity as trustee of the Royalty Fund and the obligations of the Royalty Owner hereunder shall not be personally binding upon Computershare Trust Company of Canada or any of the Unitholders and that any recourse against the Royalty Fund, Computershare Trust Company of Canada as trustee of the Royalty Fund, or any Unitholder in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Royalty Owner arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this Agreement relates, if any, including without limitation, claims based on negligence, tortious behaviour or otherwise, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Royalty Fund as defined in the Trust Indenture dated as of May 16, 1996 as it may be amended by supplemental from time to time.

Executed and delivered.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made as of the 9th day of October, 2002.

RECEIVED
2002 MAY -2 A 11:27
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL
CORPORATE FINANCE

AMONG:

Shiningbank Energy Ltd., a corporation amalgamated under the laws of Alberta having its registered office and principal place of business in Calgary, Alberta (the "Corporation")

OF THE FIRST PART

AND

Computershare Trust Company of Canada, a trust company incorporated under the laws of Canada (the "Trustee") as trustee for and on behalf of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund, a trust formed in accordance with the laws of Alberta (the "Trust")

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS the Trust was created pursuant to the terms of the Shiningbank Energy Income Fund Trust Indenture dated May 16, 1996, as amended (the "Trust Indenture");

AND WHEREAS Trust Units in the Trust have been issued to the public;

AND WHEREAS Shiningbank Energy Ltd., the predecessor by amalgamation to the Corporation, has purchased certain assets and has granted a royalty (the "Royalty") on the income generated from such assets to the Trust;

AND WHEREAS the Trust indirectly acquired all of the issued shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc. ("SEMI") on October 9, 2002;

AND WHEREAS Shiningbank Energy Ltd. was a wholly-owned subsidiary of SEMI;

AND WHEREAS Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and SEMI were amalgamated on October 9, 2002, to form the Corporation;

AND WHEREAS the holders of the Trust Units (the "Unitholders") of the Trust resolved at a Special Meeting of Unitholders held on October 8, 2002 (the "Meeting"), to approve the transactions referenced above, to amend the Trust Indenture and to ratify the execution of this agreement;

AND WHEREAS all actions have now been taken to give effect to the resolutions passed at the Meeting;

AND WHEREAS the parties hereto wish to enter into this agreement to reflect the above;

AND WHEREAS the Trustee wishes to retain the Corporation to provide certain management, advisory and administrative services in connection with the Royalty, the Trust and the Trust Units;

NOW THEREFORE the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

As used herein, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

- a. "Administrative Expenses" means the amount in aggregate representing all expenditures and costs incurred by the Corporation in the management and administration of the Trust, including: (i) reasonable costs and expenses solely and exclusively relating to the Trust which are paid to third parties by the Corporation; and (ii) reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Corporation to the extent such costs and expenses are reasonably identifiable as being incurred specifically for the Trust including, without limitation, auditing, accounting, bookkeeping, legal, land administration, engineering, travel, telephone, data processing, reporting, executive and management time, salaries and bonuses incurred in providing services provided hereunder;
- b. "Agreement" means this Administrative Services Agreement as amended from time to time;
- c. "Managed Entities" means Shiningbank Holdings Corporation, the Corporation, any Subsidiary of the Trust, any Subsidiary of the Corporation and any Subsidiary of any other Managed Entity;
- d. "Parties" means the parties to this Agreement;
- e. "Properties" means all assets of the Corporation including, without limitation, the working, royalty or other interests of the Corporation in any petroleum and natural gas rights, tangibles and miscellaneous interests which the Corporation may own from time to time;
- f. "Royalty Agreement" means the Royalty Agreement entered into between the Corporation and Montreal Trust Company of Canada as trustee of the Trust as of July 31, 1996 as amended and restated from time to time;
- g. "Trust Indenture" means the trust indenture establishing the Trust dated May 16, 1996, as amended between the Trustee, SEMI and Richardson Greenshields of Canada Limited, as further amended and restated from time to time;
- h. "Trust Services" mean the services set forth in Section 3.1 hereof.

1.2 Additional Definitions

Unless the context otherwise requires, capitalized terms used herein without definition as well as the word "person" shall mean the same as defined in the Trust Indenture.

1.3 Headings

The section headings hereof have been inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not be construed to affect the meaning, construction or effect of this Agreement.

1.4 Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

Each accounting term used in this Agreement, unless otherwise defined herein, has the meaning assigned to it under generally accepted accounting principles which are in effect from time to time in Canada consistently applied and reference to any balance sheet item, statement of income and retained earnings item or statement of cash flow item means such item as computed from the applicable financial statement prepared in accordance with such principles.

1.5 Insurance

With respect to the insurance policies maintained by the Corporation from time to time relating to liability insurance, the Corporation covenants to use its best commercial efforts to add the Fund and the Trustee as additional insureds under such policies, as their interests may appear.

1.6 Effective Date

The parties acknowledge that this Agreement shall become effective upon the 9th day of October, 2002.

ARTICLE 2 ENGAGEMENT

2.1 Engagement by the Trust

The Trustee hereby engages and delegates to the Corporation and the Corporation hereby accepts such engagement and delegation and agrees to provide the Trust Services to the Trust, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms, conditions and limitations contained in the Trust Indenture, and to perform such duties as are delegated to the Corporation as Administrator pursuant to the Trust Indenture or otherwise.

2.2 Employees, Agents or Contractors of the Corporation

All employees, agents or contractors used in connection with the provision by the Corporation of the Trust Services shall be employees, agents or contractors of the Corporation and not of the Trustee or the Trust, and the Corporation shall be solely responsible for complying with all laws applicable to such employment, agency or contractor relationship.

ARTICLE 3 SERVICES PROVIDED TO THE TRUST

3.1 Services Provided to the Trust

The Corporation shall during the term of this Agreement, provide and perform for the Trustee the following services (the "Trust Services"):

- a. exercise the specific powers and authorities of the Trustee set forth in Sections 7.1 and 7.2 of the Trust Indenture;
- b. exercise the specific authority of the Trust or the Trustee set forth in Section 3.2 and 3.15 of the Trust Indenture;
- c. calculate or cause to be calculated any amounts to be paid by the Trustee to Unitholders in accordance with the Trust Indenture;
- d. ensure compliance by the Trustee with its legal obligations, including its continuous disclosure obligations under all applicable securities legislation;
- e. assist the Trustee in providing the information which is made available to Unitholders pursuant to Section 16.5 of the Trust Indenture;
- f. prepare and furnish to each Unitholder all reports, financial statements, all necessary tax information and other information required to be sent to Unitholders pursuant to Sections 16.2, 16.3 and 16.4 of the Trust Indenture and all notices, reports and information to be provided under applicable legislation including pursuant to Section 10.2 of the Trust Indenture;
- g. if any material change occurs in relation to the Trust, provide the Unitholders with all such reports as law or regulatory policy may require and notify Unitholders of such material change in the next quarterly report of the Trust following such material change;
- h. call, hold and distribute material in respect of any meetings of Unitholders as required pursuant to the Trust Indenture;
- i. prepare and file all required tax returns on behalf of the Trust;

- j. make such changes or corrections to this Agreement as the Trustee may advise are necessary or desirable and which the Trustee confirms are not adverse to the interests of the Unitholders;
- k. provide advisory services, investor relations services and coordination and administration of any assets of the Trust;
- l. have available, in performing its duties hereunder, the office space, equipment and staff including all accounting, secretarial, corporate and administrative personnel that are reasonably necessary to allow it to perform its duties hereunder;
- m. arrange such audit, legal, insurance and other professional services which, in its discretion, may be reasonably necessary to allow it to perform its duties hereunder;
- n. provide such reports to the Trustee as it may reasonably request in respect of the administration and affairs of the Trust, including: (i) the status of the assets of the Trust; (ii) on an annual basis, within 140 days of the fiscal year end of the Trust, a certificate signed by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation, or such other officers of the Corporation as may be acceptable to the Trustee, certifying that the Corporation is in compliance, in all material respects, with its covenants, duties and obligations under the Trust Indenture, as amended, and the Royalty Agreement, as amended, relating to the administration and affairs of the Trust, or if such is not the case, specifying such non-compliance and providing particulars thereof;
- o. provide to the Trustee recommendations in respect of the reinvestment of any amounts by the Trust in securities or royalties of the Managed Entities or other persons; and
- p. provide to the Trustee for the benefit of the Trust such other support as may be necessary for the Trustee to discharge its responsibilities under the Trust Indenture.

The Corporation shall provide, upon request but not more frequently than monthly, reports to the Trustee generally outlining the nature and details of the Trust Services that have been provided.

ARTICLE 4 ACTIVITIES OF THE CORPORATION

4.1 Standard of Care

In exercising its powers and discharging its duties under this Agreement, the Corporation shall exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent administrator would exercise.

4.2 Delegation

The Corporation may delegate specific aspects of its obligations hereunder to any other corporation or entity, provided that such delegation shall not relieve the Corporation of any of its material obligations under this Agreement. The Corporation shall not be liable for the action or inaction of any person to which any such obligations may have been delegated provided that the Corporation has acted in accordance with Section 4.1 in selecting such person.

4.3 Limitations on Liability

- a. The Corporation, its directors, officers, employees and agents, shall not be liable, answerable or accountable to the Trustee, the Trust, or any Unitholder for any loss or damage resulting from, incidental to or relating to the provision of Trust Services hereunder or other authority delegated to the Corporation under the Trust Indenture, including any exercise or refusal to exercise a discretion, any mistake or error of judgement or any act or omission believed by such person to be within the scope of authority conferred by this Agreement or under the Trust Indenture, provided that this provision shall not relieve the Corporation or a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be, from loss or damage resulting from its or his own gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud.
- b. The Corporation shall not be liable, answerable or accountable for, and shall be fully protected from, any loss or damage occasioned by any reasonable reliance by the Corporation in performing its obligations hereunder or under the Trust Indenture on (i) any statement of fact by any other person or persons (any of whom may be persons with whom the Corporation is affiliated) who are reasonably considered by the Corporation to be knowledgeable of such facts; or (ii) the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any legal counsel, auditor, valuer, engineer, surveyor, appraiser or other expert who is reasonably considered by the Corporation to be a person on whom it should rely in the circumstances.
- c. None of the Unitholders, the Trust or the Trustee shall have any right of action against the Corporation or any of the directors, officers, employees or agents of the Corporation for acts of the Corporation or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents of the Corporation in respect of matters delegated to the Corporation under this Agreement or the Trust Indenture where such action is based on any allegation that the Corporation or any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation was a trustee for, or acting in a fiduciary capacity (or any other basis similar thereto) with respect to the Unitholders, the Trust or the Trustee.

ARTICLE 5 RESTRICTIONS ON CORPORATION

5.1 General

The Corporation shall at all times during the performance of the Trust Services provide information to the Trustee on a timely basis in order to allow the Trustee to exercise its powers and discharge its duties as required by applicable law. The Corporation acknowledges and agrees that the performance of the Trust Services is subject to the power and duty of the Trustee to set policy and issue directives in respect of the administration of the Trust and will conduct the administration of the Trust in accordance with the policies and directives set by the Trustee, from time to time.

ARTICLE 6 EXPENSES

6.1 Payment of Administrative Expenses

The Corporation shall be entitled to payment from the Trust for Administrative Expenses. Such payment is not intended to provide the Corporation, directly or indirectly, with any financial gain or loss and the Corporation agrees that such payment will be made only to the extent necessary to reimburse the Corporation for actual costs incurred, including carrying costs until payment. Costs and expenses incurred by the Corporation for the benefit of the Trustee or the Trust and others shall be prorated in a reasonable manner and shall be subject to reimbursement only to the extent such costs and expenses can reasonably be attributed to the services provided hereunder.

6.2 Payment of Administrative Expenses

The Administrative Expenses set forth in this Article 6 shall be calculated by the Corporation and invoiced to the Trust from time to time at intervals no more frequent than each calendar quarter. Such invoices shall be payable within 30 days of their issuance. The Administrative Expenses may be paid from the amounts received from the sale of Petroleum Substances collected from the Properties and may be paid prior to the payment of the Royalty to the Trustee on behalf of the Trust for any such period at the discretion of the Corporation. Each invoice rendered by the Corporation to the Trust shall be sufficiently detailed to permit the Trust to verify that the expenses which are the subject of such invoice are properly chargeable to the Trust.

6.3 Audits

The Corporation will allow access by the Trustee or its representatives at all reasonable times to the books, records and employees of the Corporation for the purpose of conducting an audit in respect of any Administrative Expenses or other matters necessary or advisable to be audited in order for the Trust to conduct an audit of its financial affairs. The Corporation agrees to keep and maintain in Calgary suitable records and accounts for such purposes.

ARTICLE 7 OTHER ACTIVITIES OF THE CORPORATION

7.1 Other Activities

The Corporation shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in other operations in which the Trust or any of the Managed Entities (excluding the Corporation) does not have a direct or indirect interest or which do not relate to the Trust, without the consent of the Trustee.

7.2 Additional Information

The parties hereto acknowledge that development activities on the Properties may have the incidental effect of providing additional information with respect to, or augmenting the value of, properties in which Affiliates of the Corporation or any one of the directors, officers or employees of the Corporation at the time have an interest not acquired in breach of this Agreement and the parties hereto agree that such persons shall not be liable to account to any of them with respect to such activities or results.

ARTICLE 8 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND DISCLOSURE OF MATERIAL INFORMATION

8.1 Confidentiality

The Corporation hereby agrees that it will not at any time use, disclose or make available to any party any confidential information concerning the operation, assets or affairs of the Trust, whether acquired in connection with the performance of the Trust Services by the Corporation hereunder or otherwise, except:

- a. such use as may be expressly permitted in or necessary or advisable for the performance of this Agreement or the Trust Indenture;
- b. such disclosures as may be required in order to comply with any statute, regulation or the order of a regulatory authority having jurisdiction;
- c. such information as comes into the public domain independently; and
- d. such information as can be demonstrated by the party desiring to disclose such information, to have been in its possession prior to this Agreement or to have come into its possession independently of anything done under this Agreement.

8.2 Binding Effect

The Corporation shall take all necessary steps to ensure that the obligations of confidentiality imposed under Section 8.1 hereunder are binding upon the directors, officers, employees, agents and contractors of the Corporation who have access to any confidential information of the Trust that is subject to an obligation of confidence under Section 8.1 hereof.

8.3 Disclosure of Material Changes

The Corporation acknowledges that the Trust Units of the Trust are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and that the Trust is a reporting issuer under applicable securities laws in each of the provinces in Canada and as such has certain disclosure obligations pursuant to the rules and policies of such stock exchange or applicable securities laws.

ARTICLE 9 INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Indemnification of the Corporation

The Corporation and any person who is serving or has served as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, shall be indemnified by the Trust out of its assets against all liabilities (including environmental liabilities), obligations, costs and expenses (including judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement with the approval of the Trust, as the case may be, and reasonable counsel fees) arising from or related in any manner to this Agreement or the delegation of authority to the Corporation under the Trust Indenture, provided:

- a. the Corporation shall be indemnified only to the extent such liabilities, obligations, costs or expenses have not resulted from the gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud of the Corporation;
- b. any other person claiming indemnification hereunder shall be indemnified only to the extent such person is not finally adjudged in said action, suit or proceeding to have acted with wilful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence and provided that any such person shall not be indemnified if such person is finally adjudged to have acted other than honestly and in good faith.

9.2 Indemnification of the Trustee and the Trust

The Trustee and any person who is serving or has served as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Trustee shall be indemnified by the Corporation out of the assets of the Corporation against all liabilities (including environmental liabilities), obligations, costs and expenses (including judgments, fines, penalties, amount paid in settlement with the approval of the Corporation, as the case may be, and reasonable counsel fees) arising from or related to any manner of breach of this Agreement by the Corporation or in any way arising from or related in any manner to the fraud, wilful misconduct, or gross negligence of the Corporation in the performance of its obligations hereunder provided any other person claiming indemnification hereunder shall be indemnified only to the extent such person is not finally adjudged in said action, suit or proceeding to have acted with wilful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence and provided that any such person shall not be indemnified if such person is finally adjudged to have acted other than honestly and in good faith.

9.3 Idem

For the purposes of Section 9.1 and 9.2, "action, suit or proceeding" shall include every action, suit or proceeding, civil, criminal or other. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which the Corporation or any person referred to in Section 9.1 and 9.2 may be entitled as a matter of law which may be lawfully granted to him. The foregoing right of indemnification shall enure to the benefit of the successors, assigns, personal representatives and heirs of any person entitled to indemnification. The indemnities and protections provided under Section 4.3 and this Article 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the removal or resignation of the Trustee and any removal of the Corporation as the administrator hereunder and, in addition, shall survive with respect to any director, officer, employee or agent of the Trustee or the Corporation, as the case may be, if such person shall cease to be a director, officer, employee or agent of the Trustee or the Corporation, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 10
TERM AND TERMINATION

10.1 Term

This Agreement shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 10.4 below.

10.2 Effective Date of Termination

For the purposes of this Article, "effective date of termination" means the date on which this Agreement terminates under Section 10.4 below.

10.3 Payment

From and after the effective date of termination of this Agreement, the Corporation shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in its capacity as Administrator under the terms of this Agreement or the Trust Indenture, to the effective date of termination.

10.4 Termination

- a. Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Agreement, this Agreement may be terminated by the Trustee, by notice in writing given by the Trustee to the Corporation, following which this Agreement shall terminate upon the earlier of 3 months from the date of such notice and the date on which a satisfactory replacement Administrator is appointed in compliance with the terms of the Trust Indenture respecting the replacement of the Administrator.
- b. Upon the effective date of termination, the Corporation shall forthwith:
 - i. pay to or to the order of the Trust, as the case may be, all monies collected and held for it pursuant to this Agreement, after deducting any amounts incurred to which it is then entitled; and
 - ii. deliver to or to the order of the Trust a complete report including a statement showing all payments collected by it, and a statement of all monies held by it pursuant to this Agreement during the period following the date of the last audited statement furnished to the Trust pursuant to this Agreement and prior to the effective date of termination and should an auditor's report for this period be requested, the expense of such a report will be borne by the Trust.

ARTICLE 11
MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 No Partnership or Joint Venture

The parties to this Agreement are not and shall not be deemed to be partners or joint venturers with one another and nothing herein shall be construed so as to impose any liability as such on any of them.

11.2 Amendments

This Agreement shall not be amended or varied in its terms by oral agreement or by representations or otherwise except by instrument in writing executed by the duly authorized representatives of the parties hereto or their respective successors or assigns. This Agreement may be amended or varied by the Trustee only with the consent of the Unitholders by Special Resolution provided however, that the Corporation and the Trustee may, without the approval of the Unitholders, agree to amendments to this Agreement for the purpose of:

- a. removing any conflicts or inconsistencies between this Agreement and any applicable law or regulation if in the opinion of counsel for the Trust such amendments are not prejudicial to the interests of the Unitholders; or
- b. making such changes or corrections to this Agreement as the Corporation may advise are necessary or desirable and which the Trustee confirms are not adverse to the interests of the Unitholders.

11.3 Assignment

This Agreement shall not be assigned by any party hereto without the prior written consent of all other parties and the consent of the Unitholders by Special Resolution as defined in the Trust Indenture; provided, however, that the Corporation may, without the consent of the Trustee or any of the Managed Entities, mortgage, pledge, charge or grant a security interest in this Agreement and the rights and benefits of the Corporation hereunder to secure its obligations and liabilities under the "Credit Facilities" and the "Swap Arrangements" (as those terms are defined in the Royalty Agreement), and such security may be granted in priority to all obligations and liabilities of the Corporation under this Agreement. The parties acknowledge that the obligations of the Corporation to the Trust and the other Managed Entities under this Agreement may be subject to the terms of subordination and postponement agreements entered into by the Trustee under such Credit Facilities and Swap Arrangements.

11.4 Subsequent Parties to this Agreement

Any replacement of the Trustee or the Corporation as Administrator shall, prior to becoming the Trustee or the Administrator, execute one or more counterparts of this Agreement (whether or not the same has been executed by another corporation acting as a Trustee or Administrator) and shall thereafter be entitled to all of the benefits of and be bound by the terms and conditions of the Agreement in the same manner as if it had been an original party hereto.

11.5 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provisions in such jurisdiction and shall not in any manner effect or render invalid or unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction or any other provision of this Agreement in any jurisdiction.

11.6 Notices

All notices required or permitted herein under this Agreement shall be in writing and may be given by delivering same or mailing same by pre-paid registered mail to the address set forth below. Any such notice or other communication shall, if delivered, be deemed to have been given or made and received on the date delivered, and if mailed, shall be deemed to have been given or made and received on the fifth (5th) Business Day following the day on which it was so mailed. The parties hereto may give from time to time written notice of change of address in the manner aforesaid.

11.7 Further Assurances

Each of the parties hereto shall from time to time do all such further acts and execute and deliver all such further documents as shall be reasonably required in order to fully to perform and carry out the terms, intent and purposes of this Agreement.

11.8 Entire Agreement

The terms of this Agreement express and constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto (except as provided for in the Trust Indenture) and no implied covenants or liability of any kind on the part of the parties is created or shall arise by reason of anything contained in this Agreement. This Agreement supercedes all other agreements (except as provided for in the Trust Indenture), documents, writings and verbal understandings between the parties relating to the matters herein contained.

11.9 Liability of Trustee

The parties hereto acknowledge that the Trustee is entering into this Agreement solely in its capacity as Trustee on behalf of the Trust and the obligations of the Trustee hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Trustee or any of the Unitholders of the Trust and that any recourse against the Trust, the Trustee or any Unitholder in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Trust arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behavior, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund as defined in the Trust Indenture.

11.10 Governing Law

The provisions of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Alberta.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF each of the parties has caused these presents to be executed by its duly authorized representatives as of the date first above written.

Agreement Amending and Restating
Unitholders' Rights Plan Agreement

May 31, 2004

RECEIVED
2004 MAY -2 A 11:27
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL
CORPORATE FINANCE

Recitals

- A. Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund"), Shiningbank Energy Ltd. ("SEL") and Montreal Trust Company of Canada ("MT") entered into a Unitholders' Rights Plan Agreement dated January 25, 2000 (the "URP Agreement") with MT acting as Rights Agent thereunder.
- B. Pursuant to an Assignment Agreement dated January 16, 2002 among the Fund, SEL, MT and Computershare Trust Company of Canada ("Computershare"), MT transferred and assigned to Computershare all of its rights, powers, duties and obligations under the URP Agreement and resigned as Rights Agent.
- C. At unitholders' meetings held in 2002 and 2004, the unitholders of the Fund reconfirmed the URP Agreement.
- D. The Fund, SEL and Computershare wish to amend the URP Agreement, such amendments having been approved by the unitholders of the Fund at the unitholders' meeting held in 2004.
- E. The parties hereto wish to restate the URP Agreement to reflect the above.

The parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
Amendment and Restatement

1.1 Amendment

The URP Agreement shall be amended, effective as of the date hereof, such that the definition of "Expiration Time" as contained in Section 1.1(m) of the URP Agreement will now read as follows:

"Expiration Time" means the earlier of: (i) the Termination Time; (ii) the Close of Business on the date of the annual meeting of the unitholders of the Trust at which the Independent Unitholders do not approve the resolution referred to in section 5.21 in accordance with section 5.21 at such meeting; and (iii) the time which is immediately after the termination of the annual meeting of the holders of Trust Units held, pursuant to the terms of the Trust Indenture, in 2006;"

1.2 Restatement

The URP Agreement shall be restated to give effect to the amendment referred to in 1.1 above, such restatement to be in the form attached hereto as schedule "A" to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2
Continuation

The URP Agreement, as amended and restated as aforesaid, shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof.

ARTICLE 3
Miscellaneous

3.1 Enurement

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

3.2 Waivers in Writing

No waiver by any party hereto of any breach of any of the covenants, conditions and provisions herein contained shall be effective or be binding on any other party hereto unless such waiver is expressed in writing and any waiver so expressed shall not limit or affect its rights with respect to any other or future breach.

3.3 Amendments

No amendment, alteration or variation of this Agreement or any of its terms or conditions shall be binding upon the parties hereto unless made in writing and signed by the duly authorized representatives of each of the parties hereto.

AMENDED AND RESTATED AS OF MAY 31, 2004

UNITHOLDERS' RIGHTS PLAN AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made as of the 25th day of January, 2000.

AMONG:

SHININGBANK ENERGY INCOME FUND, an open-ended investment trust created under the laws of Alberta (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust")

- and -

SHININGBANK ENERGY LTD., a body corporate incorporated under the laws of Alberta (hereinafter referred to as "Shiningbank")

- and -

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, a trust company incorporated under the laws of Canada (hereinafter referred to as the "Rights Agent")

WHEREAS pursuant to articles 7.1 and 7.2 of the Shiningbank Energy Income Fund Trust Indenture (the "Trust Indenture") dated May 16, 1996, as amended, between Shiningbank Energy Management Inc. (the "Manager") and Montreal Trust Company of Canada (the "Trustee"), the Trustee may exercise from time to time in respect of the Trust any and all rights, powers and privileges that could be exercised by a beneficial owner of the trust units of the Trust and the Trustee possesses and may exercise all rights, powers and privileges appertaining to the ownership of all or any part of the assets of the Trust;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to section 4.1(a) of the Management Agreement (the "Management Agreement") dated July 31, 1996, as amended, among the Manager, Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy Acquisitions Ltd., and the Trustee, the Manager has the authority to exercise the specific powers and authorities of the Trustee set forth in articles 7.1 and 7.2 of the Trust Indenture;

AND WHEREAS pursuant to section .6.1 of the Management Agreement the Board of Directors of Shiningbank (the "Board") has authority to set policy and issue directives for and on behalf of the Trust;

AND WHEREAS the Board has determined, after careful consideration of the recommendations received from its advisors, that it is advisable for the Trust to adopt a unitholder rights plan (the "Rights Plan") to ensure, to the extent possible, that all unitholders of the Trust are treated fairly in connection with any take-over offer for the Trust, to protect the Trust and its unitholders from unfair, abusive or coercive acquisition tactics, and to provide sufficient time to evaluate unsolicited take-over bids and to explore and develop alternatives to maximize unitholder value;

AND WHEREAS, in order to implement the Rights Plan, the Board has instructed the Manager to:

- (a) authorize and declare the issuance of one right (a "Right") effective at the Record Time (as hereinafter defined) in respect of each Trust Unit (as hereinafter defined) outstanding at the Record Time;
- (b) authorize the issuance of one Right in respect of each Trust Unit issued after the Record Time and prior to the earlier of the Separation Time (as hereinafter defined) and the Expiration Time (as hereinafter defined); and
- (c) authorize the issuance of Rights Certificates (as hereinafter defined) to holders of Rights pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein;

AND WHEREAS each Right entitles the holder thereof, after the Separation Time, to purchase securities of the Trust pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein;

AND WHEREAS the Board has directed the Manager to propose that the Rights Plan be ratified by the unitholders of the Trust at the Annual General Meeting of the unitholders to be held in the 2000 calendar year;

AND WHEREAS the Board has directed the Manager to propose that the term of the Rights Plan be for a period of 6 years, subject to the Rights Plan being reconfirmed by the unitholders of the Trust every two years;

AND WHEREAS the Board desires to appoint the Rights Agent to act on behalf of the Trust and holders of Rights, and the Rights Agent is willing to so act, in connection with the issuance, transfer, exchange and replacement of Rights Certificates (as hereinafter defined), the exercise of Rights and other matters referred to herein;

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the premises and respective agreements set forth herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 INTERPRETATION

1.1 Certain Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement, the following terms have the meanings indicated:

- (a) "Acquiring Person" means any Person who is the Beneficial Owner of 20% or more of the outstanding Trust Units of the Trust; provided, however, that the term "Acquiring Person" does not include:
 - (i) the Trust or any Subsidiary of the Trust;
 - (ii) any Person who becomes the Beneficial Owner of 20% or more of the outstanding Trust Units of the Trust as a result of any one or a combination of:

- (A) an acquisition or redemption by the Trust of Trust Units which, by reducing the number of Trust Units outstanding, increases the proportionate number of Trust Units Beneficially Owned by such Person to 20% or more of the Trust Units then outstanding (a "Trust Unit Reduction");
- (B) a Permitted Bid Acquisition (as hereinafter defined);
- (C) Trust Unit acquisitions: (1) in respect of which the Board has waived the application of Section 3.1 hereof pursuant to subsections 5.1(b), (c) or (d); or (2) which were made on or prior to the date of this Agreement; or (3) which were made pursuant to a distribution reinvestment plan of the Trust; or (4) pursuant to the receipt or exercise of rights issued by the Trust to all the holders of the Trust Units to subscribe for or purchase Trust Units or Convertible Securities, provided that such rights are acquired directly from the Trust and not from any other person; or (5) pursuant to a distribution by the Trust of Trust Units or Convertible Securities made pursuant to a prospectus; or (6) pursuant to a distribution by the Trust of Trust Units or Convertible Securities by way of a private placement by the Trust or upon the exercise by an individual employee of Trust Unit options granted under a Trust Unit option plan of the Trust or rights to purchase securities granted under a Trust Unit purchase plan of the Trust, provided that: (i) all necessary stock exchange approvals for such private placements, Trust Unit option plan or Trust Unit purchase plan have been obtained and such private placement, Trust Unit option plan or Trust Unit purchase plan complies with the terms and conditions of such approvals; and (ii) such Person does not become the Beneficial Owner of more than 25% of the Trust Units outstanding immediately prior to the distribution, and in making this determination the Trust Units to be issued to such Person in the distribution shall be deemed to be held by such Person but shall not be included in the aggregate number of outstanding Trust Units immediately prior to the distribution ("Exempt Acquisition");
- (D) the acquisition of Trust Units upon the exercise of Convertible Securities received by such Person pursuant to a Permitted Bid Acquisition, Exempt Acquisition or a Pro Rata Acquisition (as hereinafter defined) ("Convertible Security Acquisitions"); or
- (E) acquisitions as a result of a distribution of Trust Units or a Trust Unit split or other event pursuant to which such Person receives or acquires Trust Units or Convertible Securities on the same pro rata basis as all other holders of Trust Units of the same class ("Pro Rata Acquisitions"); provided, however, that if a Person shall become the Beneficial Owner of 20% or more of the outstanding Trust Units then outstanding by reason of any one or a combination of a Trust Unit Reduction, a Permitted Bid Acquisition, an Exempt Acquisition, a Convertible Security Acquisition or a Pro Rata Acquisition, and thereafter becomes the Beneficial Owner of an additional 1% of the outstanding Trust Units (other than pursuant to any of the foregoing) then, as of the date that such Person becomes a Beneficial Owner of such additional Trust Units, such Person shall become an “Acquiring Person”;

- (iii) a Person who is the Beneficial Owner of 20% or more of the outstanding Trust Units of the Trust determined as at the Record Time, provided, however, that this exception shall not be, and shall cease to be, applicable to such Person in the event that such Person shall after the Record Time become the Beneficial Owner of any additional Trust Units that increases its Beneficial Ownership of Trust Units by more than 1% of the number of Trust Units outstanding, other than through one or any combination of a Trust Unit Reduction, Permitted Bid Acquisition, Exempt Acquisition, Convertible Security Acquisition, Pro Rata Acquisition or an acquisition pursuant to a distribution reinvestment plan of the Trust;
 - (iv) for the period of 10 days after the Disqualification Date, any Person who becomes the Beneficial Owner of 20% or more of the outstanding Trust Units as a result of such Person becoming disqualified from relying on section 1.1(d)(B) solely because such Person makes or announces an intention to make a Take-over Bid, either alone or by acting jointly with any other Person. For the purposes of this definition, “Disqualification Date” means the first date of public announcement that any Person is making or intends to make a Take-over Bid; or
 - (v) an underwriter or member of a banking or selling group that becomes the Beneficial Owner of 20% or more of the Trust Units in connection with a distribution of securities by way of prospectus or private placement;
- (b) “Affiliate”, when used to indicate a relationship with a specified Person, means a Person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, such specified Person;
 - (c) “Associate”, of a specified individual means (i) a spouse of such specified individual, (ii) any individual of either sex with whom such specified individual is living in a conjugal relationship outside marriage or (iii) any relative of such specified individual or of an individual mentioned in clauses (i) or (ii) of this definition if that relative has the same home as the specified individual;
 - (d) A Person shall be deemed the “Beneficial Owner” of, and to have “Beneficial Ownership” of, and to “Beneficially Own”:

- (i) any securities as to which such Person or any of such Person's Affiliates or Associates is the owner at law or in equity and includes any securities in respect of which such Person or any of such Person's Affiliates or Associates owns at law or in equity any related instalment receipts;
- (ii) any securities as to which such Person or any of such Person's Affiliates or Associates has, directly or indirectly the right to acquire (A) upon the exercise of any Convertible Securities, or (B) pursuant to any agreement, arrangement, pledge or understanding or otherwise, whether such right is exercisable immediately or within a period of 45 days thereafter and whether such right is exercisable upon the occurrence of a contingency or payment of instalments or otherwise (other than: (I) customary agreements with and between underwriters or banking group or selling group members, with respect to a distribution to the public of securities; or (II) pledges of securities in the ordinary course of business); and
- (iii) any securities that are Beneficially Owned within the meaning of paragraph 1.1(d) (i) or (ii) by any other Person with which such Person or any of such Person's Affiliates or Associates is acting jointly or in concert; provided, however, that a Person shall not be deemed the "Beneficial Owner" of, or to have "Beneficial Ownership" of, or to "Beneficially Own", any security:

- (A) where such security has been agreed to be deposited or tendered pursuant to a Permitted Lock-up Agreement or is deposited or tendered pursuant to a Take-over Bid made by such Person or any of such Person's Affiliates or Associates or any Person referred to in paragraph 1.1(d)(iii) until such deposited or tendered security is accepted unconditionally for payment or exchange or is taken up and paid for;
- (B) where such Person, any of such Person's Affiliates or Associates or any Person referred to in paragraph 1.1(d)(iii), holds such security, provided that:
 - (1) the ordinary business of such Person (the "Investment Manager") includes the management of investment funds for others and such security is held by the Investment Manager in the ordinary course of such business in the performance of such Investment Manager's duties for the account of any other Person;
 - (2) such Person (the "Trust Company") is licensed to carry on the business of a trust company under applicable law and, as such, acts as a trustee or administrator or in a similar capacity in relation to the estates of deceased or incompetent Persons or in relation to other accounts and holds such security, and is acting, in the ordinary course of such duties for the estate of such deceased or incompetent Person or for such other accounts;

- (3) such Person (the "Plan Trustee") is the administrator or trustee of one or more pension plans or funds (each a "Plan") registered under applicable laws and holds such security for the purposes of its activities as such;
- (4) such Person (the "Statutory Body") is a Plan or is a Person established by statute for purposes that include, and the ordinary business or activity of such Person includes the management of investment funds for employee benefit plans, pension plans, insurance plans (other than plans administered by insurance companies) of various public bodies and the Statutory Body holds such security for the purposes of its activities as such; or
- (5) such Person is a Crown agent or agency (collectively, the "Crown Agent") and the ordinary business of such Person includes acting as an agent of the Crown in the management of public assets;

but only if the Investment Manager, the Trust Company, the Plan Trustee, the Plan, the Statutory Body, or the Crown Agent, as the case may be, is not then making a Take-over Bid or has not announced an intention to make a Take-over Bid, other than an Offer to Acquire Trust Units or other securities pursuant to a distribution by the Trust or by means of ordinary market transactions (including prearranged trades entered into in the ordinary course of business of such Person) executed through the facilities of a stock exchange or an organized over-the-counter market, alone or by acting jointly or in concert with any other Person; or

- (C) where such Person is a client of or has an account with the same Investment Manager as another Person on whose account the Investment Manager holds such security, or where such Person is a client of or has an account with the same Trust Company as another Person on whose account the Trust Company holds such security, or where such Person is a Plan and has a Plan Trustee who is also a Plan Trustee for another Plan on whose account the Plan Trustee holds such security; or
- (D) where such Person (i) is a client of an Investment Manager and such security is owned at law or in equity by the Investment Manager, or (ii) has an account with a Trust Company and such security is owned at law or in equity by the Trust Company, or (iii)

a Plan and such security is owned at law or in equity by the Plan Trustee; or

- (E) where such Person holds securities as a result of carrying on the business of, or acting as nominee for, a securities depository.

For purposes of this Agreement, the percentage of Trust Units Beneficially Owned by any Person, shall be and be deemed to be the product determined by the formula:

where:

- A = the aggregate number of votes for the election of all directors generally attaching to the Trust Units Beneficially Owned by such Person; and
- B = the number of votes for the election of all directors generally attaching to all outstanding Trust Units.

For the purposes of the foregoing formula, where any person is deemed to Beneficially Own unissued Trust Units which may be acquired pursuant to Convertible Securities, such Trust Units shall be deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of calculating the percentage of Trust Units Beneficially Owned by such person in both the numerator and the denominator, but other unissued Trust Units which may be acquired pursuant to any other outstanding Convertible Securities shall, for the purposes of calculation, be deemed to be outstanding;

- (e) "Board" means the board of directors of Shiningbank or such other Person whom the Trust has delegated or may delegate the authority to take action in connection with the matters referred to herein;

- (f) "Business Day" shall mean any day, other than a Saturday or Sunday or other day which banking institutions in the City of Calgary are authorized or obliged by law to close;

- (g) "Close of Business" on any given date shall mean 5:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on such date (or, if such date is not a Business Day, 5:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on the next succeeding Business Day);

- (h) "Competing Permitted Bid" means a Take-over Bid that:

- (i) is made after a Permitted Bid has been made and prior to the completion of a Permitted Bid; and
- (ii) satisfies all components of the definition of a Permitted Bid and the requirements set out in the clause (ii) of that definition;

(iii) contains, and the take-up and payment for securities tendered or deposited is subject to, an irrevocable and unqualified condition that no Trust Units will be taken up or paid for pursuant to the Takeover Bid prior to the Close of Business on the date that is no earlier than the later of (A) 21 calendar days after the date of the Takeover Bid constituting the Competing Permitted Bid; and (B) 45 calendar days following the date on which the earliest Permitted Bid preceded the Competing Permitted Bid was made; and only if at the date that the Trust Units are to be taken up, more than 50% of the Trust units held by Independent Unitholders have been deposited or tendered pursuant to the Competing Permitted Bid and not withdrawn.

(i) "Convertible Securities" means:

- (i) any right (contractual or otherwise and regardless of whether such right constitutes a security) to acquire Trust Units from the Trust; and
- (ii) any securities issued by the Trust from time to time (other than the Rights) carrying any exercise, conversion or exchange right; which is then exercisable or exercisable within a period of 45 calendar days from that time pursuant to which the holder thereof may acquire Trust Units or other securities which are convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Trust Units (in each case, whether such right is then exercisable or exercisable within a period of 45 calendar days from that time and whether or not on condition or the happening of any contingency);

(j) "Convertible Security Acquisitions" has the meaning set forth in the definition of "Acquiring Person";

(k) "Effective Date" shall mean January 25, 2000, subject to the provisions of subsection 5.19;

(m) "Expiration Time" means the earlier of: (i) the Termination Time; (ii) the Close of Business on the date of the annual meeting of the unitholders of the Trust at which the Independent Unitholders do not approve the resolution referred to in section 5.21 in accordance with section 5.21 at such meeting; and (iii) the time which is immediately after the termination of the annual meeting of the holders of Trust Units held, pursuant to the terms of the Trust Indenture, in 2006;

"Expiry Date of the Permitted Bid" means the date, which shall not be less than 45 calendar days following the date on which the proper Take-over Bid documentation relating to such Permitted Bid is sent to the unitholders of the Trust, which is indicated in such documentation as the date until which such Permitted Bid is open for acceptance;

- (o) “Flip-in Event” means a transaction or event occurring subsequent to the date of this Agreement in or pursuant to which any Person becomes an Acquiring Person provided, however, that a Flip-in Event shall be deemed to occur at the Close of Business on the tenth day (or later day as the Board may determine) after the Stock Acquisition Date.
- (p) “Independent Unitholders” shall mean holders of outstanding Trust Units, other than:
 - (i) any Acquiring Person;
 - (ii) any Offeror;
 - (iii) any Person acting jointly or in concert with such Acquiring Person or Offeror;
 - (iv) any Associate or Affiliate of such Acquiring Person, Offeror or Person referred to in (iii); or
 - (v) a Person who is a trustee of any employee benefit plan, deferred profit sharing plan, unit participation plan or trust for the benefit of employees of Shiningbank or a wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Trust, unless the beneficiaries of such plan or trust direct the manner in which such Trust Units are to be voted or direct whether the Trust Units are to be tendered to a Take-over Bid;
- (q) “Market Price” per security of any securities on any date of determination means the average of the daily Closing Prices Per Security of such securities (determined as described below) on each of the 20 consecutive Trading Days through and including the Trading Day immediately preceding such date; provided, however, that if an event of a type analogous to any of the events described in Section 2.3 hereof shall have caused the price used to determine the Closing Price Per Security on any Trading Day not to be fully comparable with the price used to determine the Closing Price Per Security on such date of determination or, if the date of determination is not a Trading Day, on the Trading Day immediately preceding such date of determination, each such price so used shall be appropriately adjusted in a manner analogous to the applicable adjustment provided for in Section 2.3 hereof in order to make it fully comparable with the price per security used to determine the Closing Price Per Security on such date of determination or if the date of determination is not a Trading Day, on the Trading Day immediately preceding such date of determination. The “Closing Price Per Security” of any securities on any date shall be:

- (i) the closing board lot sale price or, if such price is not available, the average of the closing bid and asked prices, for each of such securities as reported by the principal Canadian stock exchange (as determined by the Board) on which such securities are listed or admitted to trading;
- (ii) if for any reason none of such prices is available on such day or the securities are not listed or posted for trading on a Canadian stock exchange, the last sale price, or, in case no such sale takes place on such date, the average of the closing bid and asked prices for each of such securities as reported by the principal United States securities exchange (as determined by the Board) on which such securities are listed or admitted to trading;
- (iii) if for any reason none of such prices is available on such day or the securities are not listed or admitted to trading on a Canadian stock exchange or a national United States securities exchange, the last sale price, or in case no sale takes place on such date, the average of the high bid and low asked prices for each of such securities in the over-the-counter market, as quoted by any reporting system then in use (as determined by the Board); or
- (iv) if for any reason none of such prices is available on such day or the securities are not listed or admitted to trading on a Canadian stock exchange or a national United States securities exchange or quoted by any reporting system (as determined by the Board), the average of the closing bid and asked prices as furnished by a professional market maker making a market in the securities selected by the Board; provided, however, that if for any reason none of such prices is available on such date, the Closing Price Per Security of such securities on such date shall mean the fair value per security of such securities on such date as determined in good faith by an internationally recognized investment dealer or investment banker with respect to the fair value per security of such securities. Provided further that the Market Price shall be expressed in Canadian dollars and, if initially determined in respect of any day forming part of the 20 consecutive Trading Day period in question in United States dollars, such amount shall be translated into Canadian dollars on such date by multiplying such amount by the United States-Canadian exchange rate set by the Bank of Canada on such date, or where no such rate is set, as determined by the Board acting in good faith;

- (r) "Offer to Acquire" includes:
 - (i) an offer to purchase or a solicitation of an offer to sell Trust Units; and
 - (ii) an acceptance of an offer to sell Trust Units, whether or not such offer to sell has been solicited; or any combination thereof, and the Person accepting an offer to sell shall be deemed to be making an Offer to Acquire to the Person that made the offer to sell;

- (s) "Offeror" shall mean a Person who has announced an intention to make, or who has made, a Take-over Bid;
- (t) "Offeror's Securities" means the aggregate of the Trust Units Beneficially Owned on the date of an Offer to Acquire by any Person who is making a Take-over Bid;
- (u) "Permitted Bid" means a Take-over Bid made by means of a Take-over Bid circular and which also complies with the following additional provisions:
 - (i) the Take-over Bid is made to all holders of record of Trust Units as registered on the books of the Trust, other than the Offeror;
 - (ii) the Take-over Bid contains, and the take up and payment for Trust Units tendered or deposited thereunder is subject to, an irrevocable and unqualified condition that no Trust Units shall be taken up or paid for pursuant to the Take-over Bid prior to the Close of Business on a date which is not less than 45 calendar days following the date on which the proper Take-over Bid documentation relating to such Permitted Bid is sent to the unitholders of the Trust;
 - (iii) the Take-over Bid contains irrevocable and unqualified provisions that, unless such Take-over Bid is withdrawn, Trust Units may be deposited pursuant to such Take-over Bid at any time prior to the Close of Business on the date of the first take-up or payment for Trust Units and that any Trust Units deposited pursuant to the Take-over Bid may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Close of Business on such date;
 - (iv) the Take-over Bid contains an irrevocable and unqualified condition that more than 50% of the outstanding Trust Units held by Independent Unitholders, determined as at the date of first take-up or payment for Trust Units under the Take-over Bid, must be deposited to the Take-over Bid and not withdrawn at the Close of Business on the date of first take-up or payment for Trust Units; and
 - (v) the Take-over Bid contains an irrevocable and unqualified provision that in the event that more than 50% of the then outstanding Trust Units held by Independent Unitholders shall have been deposited to the Take-over Bid and not withdrawn as at the date of first take-up or payment for Trust Units under the Take-over Bid, the Offeror will make a public announcement of that fact and the Take-over Bid will remain open for deposits and tenders of Trust Units for not less than 10 Business Days from the date of such public announcement.

provided that if a Take-over bid constitutes a Competing Permitted Bid, the term "Permitted Bid" shall also mean the Competing Permitted Bid;

- (v) "Permitted Bid Acquisition" means an acquisition of Trust Units made pursuant to a Permitted Bid or a Competing Permitted Bid;
- (w) "Permitted Lock-up Agreement" means an agreement (the "Lock-up Agreement") between a Person and one or more holders of Trust Units (each such holder herein referred to as a "Locked-up Person") (the terms of which are publicly disclosed and reduced to writing and a copy of which is made available to the public (including the Trust) not later than the date of the Lock-up Bid (as hereinafter defined) or, if the Lock-up Bid has been made prior to the date of the Lock-up Agreement, not later than the date of the Lock-up Agreement) pursuant to which each Locked-up Person agrees to deposit or tender the Trust Units held by such holder to a Take-over Bid (the "Lock-up Bid") made by the Person or any of such Person's Affiliates or Associates or any other Person referred to in section 1.1(d)(iii) provided that:
 - (i) the Lock-up Agreement permits the Locked-up Person to withdraw its Trust Units from the Lock-up Agreement in order to deposit or tender the Trust Units to another Take-over Bid or to support another transaction prior to the Trust Units being taken up and paid for under the Lock-up Bid:
 - (A) at a price or value per Trust Unit that is at least 7% in excess of the price or value per Trust Unit offered under the Lock-up Bid; or
 - (B) for a number of Trust Units at least 7% greater than the number of Trust Units that the Offeror has offered to purchase under the Lock-up Bid at a price or value per Trust Unit that is not less than the price or value per Trust Unit offered under the Lock-up Bid; or
 - (C) (1) that contains an offering price for each Trust Unit that exceeds by as much as or more than a specified amount (the "Specified Amount") the offering price for each Trust Unit contained in or proposed to be contained in the Lock-up Bid and (II) does not by itself provide for a Specified Amount that is greater than 7% of the offering price contained in or proposed to be contained in the Lock-up Bid; and for greater clarity, the Lock-up Agreement may contain a right of first refusal or require a period of delay to give the Person who made the Lock-up Bid an opportunity to match a higher price in another Take-over Bid or other similar limitation on a Locked-up Person's right to withdraw Trust Units from the Lock-up Agreement, so long as the limitation does not preclude the exercise by the Locked-up Person of the right to withdraw

Trust Units during the period of the other Take-over Bid or transaction;
and

- (ii) no “break-up” fees, “top-up” fees, penalties, expenses or other amounts that exceed in aggregate the greater of:
 - (A) 2½% of the price or value of the consideration payable under the Lock-up Bid to a Locked-up Person; and
 - (A) 50% of the amount by which the price or value of the consideration received by a Locked-up Person under another Take-over Bid or transaction exceeds the price or value of the consideration that the Locked-up Person would have received under the Lock-up Bid; shall be payable by such Locked-up Person if the Locked-up Person fails to deposit or tender Trust Units to the Lock-up Bid or withdraws Trust Units previously tendered thereto in order to deposit or tender such Trust Units into another Take-over Bid or support another transaction.

- (x) “Person” includes any individual, firm, partnership, association, trust, trustee, executor, administrator, legal personal representative, government, governmental body or authority, corporation, or other incorporated or unincorporated organization, syndicate or other entity;
- (y) “Record Time” means the Close of Business on the day before the Effective Date;
- (z) “Rights” means the right to purchase securities pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein;
- (aa) “Rights Certificate” means the certificates representing the Rights after the Separation Time which shall be substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit “A”;
- (bb) “Securities Act” means the Securities Act (Alberta), as amended, and the rules and regulation or regulations made thereunder;
- (cc) “Separation Time” means, subject to Section 5.1(d), the Close of Business on the 10th Trading Day after the earlier of:
 - (i) the Stock Acquisition Date;
 - (ii) the date of the commencement of, or first public announcement of the intent of any Person (other than the Trust or any Subsidiary of the Trust) to commence a Take-over Bid (other than (x) a Take-over Bid which is a Permitted Bid or a Competing Permitted Bid, or (y), a Take-over Bid in respect of which the Board has determined to waive the application of Section 3.1 pursuant to Section 5.1), provided that, if any Take-over Bid referred to in this clause (ii) expires, is cancelled, terminated or otherwise withdrawn prior to the Separation Time, such Take-over Bid shall be deemed, for purposes of this Section 1.1(ee), never to have been made; and

(iii) the date upon which a Permitted Bid ceases to be a Permitted Bid; or such later date as may from time to time be determined by the Board acting in good faith provided that, if the foregoing results in the Separation Time being prior to the Record Time, the Separation Time shall be the Record Time;

- (dd) "Subsidiary" of any specified Person means any corporation or other entity controlled by such specified Person;
- (ee) "Take-over Bid" means an Offer to Acquire Trust Units or securities convertible into Trust Units where the Trust Units subject to the Offer to Acquire, together with the Trust Units into which the securities subject to the Offer to Acquire are convertible, and the Offerer's Securities, constitute, in the aggregate 20% or more of the outstanding Trust Units at the date of the Offer to Acquire;
- (ff) "Termination Time" means the time at which the right to exercise Rights shall terminate pursuant to Section 5.1 hereof;
- (gg) "Trading Day", when used with respect to any securities, means the day on which the principal Canadian or United States securities exchange (as determined by the Board) on which such securities are listed or admitted to trading is open for the transaction of business or, if the securities are not listed or admitted to trading on any Canadian or United States securities exchange, a Business Day;
- (hh) "Trust Units" shall mean the trust units of the Trust, each trust unit representing an equal undivided beneficial interest in the Trust as constituted on the date hereof, and any other security of the Trust into which the Trust Units may be subdivided, consolidated, reclassified or changed;
- (ii) "Trust Unit Acquisition Date" shall mean the first date of public announcement (which, for the purposes of this definition, shall include, without limitation, a report filed pursuant to Section 141 of the Securities Act) by the Trust or an Acquiring Person of facts indicating that a Person has become an Acquiring Person; and
- (jj) "Trust Unit Reduction" means an acquisition or redemption by the Trust of Trust Units which, by reducing the number of Trust Units outstanding, increases the proportionate number of Trust Units Beneficially Owned by any Person to 20% or more of the Trust Units then outstanding.

1.2 Currency

All sums of money which are referred to in this Agreement are expressed in lawful money of Canada, unless otherwise specified.

1.3 Number and Gender

Wherever the context will require, terms used herein importing the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa and words importing any one gender shall include the other.

1.4 Sections and Headings

The division of this Agreement into Articles, Sections and subsections and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. The terms "this Agreement", "hereunder", "hereof", and similar expressions refer to this Agreement and not to any particular Article, Section or other portion hereof and include any Agreement or instrument supplemental or ancillary hereto. Unless something in the subject matter or context is inconsistent therewith, references herein to Articles, Sections and subsections are to Articles, Sections and subsections to this Agreement.

1.5 Statutory References

Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference to a specific section, subsection, clause, policy, or rule of any act or regulation shall be deemed to refer to the same as it may be amended, re-enacted or replaced or, if repealed and there shall be no replacement therefor, to the same as it is in effect on the date of this Agreement.

1.6 Acting Jointly or in Concert

For the purposes of this Agreement, a Person is acting jointly or in concert with another Person if such Person has any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether formal or informal and whether or not in writing) with such other Person for the purpose of acquiring, or making an Offer to Acquire any Trust Units of the Trust (other than customary agreements with and between underwriters and banking group or selling group members with respect to a distribution of securities by way of prospectus or private placement or pursuant to a pledge of securities in the ordinary course of business).

1.7 Control

A Person is "controlled" by another Person or two or more other Persons acting jointly or in concert if:

- (a) in the case of a body corporate, securities entitled to vote in the election of directors of such body corporate carrying more than 50% of the votes for the election of directors are held, directly or indirectly, by or for the benefit of the other Person or Persons and the votes carried by such securities are entitled, if exercised, to elect a majority of the board of directors of such body corporate; or
- (b) in the case of a Person which is not a body corporate, more than 50% of the voting or equity interests of such entity are held, directly or indirectly, by or for the benefit of the other Person or Persons, and “controls”, “controlling” and “under common control with” shall be interpreted accordingly.

ARTICLE 2 THE RIGHTS

2.1 Legend on Trust Unit Certificates

Certificates for the Trust Units issued after the Record Time but prior to the Close of Business on the earlier of: (i) the Separation Time; and (ii) the Expiration Time, shall also evidence one Right for each Trust Unit represented thereby and shall have impressed on, printed on, written on or otherwise affixed to them the following legend:

“Until the Separation Time (as defined in the Rights Agreement referred to below), this certificate also evidences and entitles the holder hereof to certain Rights as set forth in a Unitholders’ Rights Plan Agreement, dated as of January 25, 2000 (the “Rights Agreement”), between Shiningbank Energy Income Fund and Montreal Trust Company of Canada, as Rights Agent, the terms of which are hereby incorporated herein by reference and a copy of which is on file at the principal executive office of the Trust. Under certain circumstances, as set forth in the Rights Agreement, such Rights may be amended or redeemed, may expire, may become void (if, in certain cases, they are “Beneficially Owned” by an “Acquiring Person”, as such terms are defined in the Rights Agreement, or a transferee thereof) or may be evidenced by separate certificates and may no longer be evidenced by this certificate. The Trust will mail or arrange for the mailing of a copy of the Rights Agreement to the holder of this certificate without charge as soon as practicable after the receipt of a written request therefor.”

Certificates representing Trust Units that are issued and outstanding at the Record Time shall evidence one Right for each Trust Unit, evidenced thereby, notwithstanding the absence of the foregoing legend, until the earlier of: (i) the Separation Time; and (ii) the Expiration Time.

2.2 Initial Exercise Price; Exercise of Rights; Detachment of Rights

- (a) Subject to adjustment as herein set forth, each Right will entitle the holder thereof, from and after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time, to purchase one Trust Unit, for the Exercise Price as at the Business Day immediately preceding the Separation Time (which Exercise Price and number of Trust Units are subject to adjustment as set forth below). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any Rights held by the Trust or any of its subsidiaries shall be void.
- (b) Until the Separation Time: (i) the Rights shall not be exercisable and no Right may be exercised; and (ii) for administrative purposes, each Right will be evidenced by the certificate for the associated Trust Unit registered in the name of the holder thereof (which certificate shall be deemed to represent a Rights Certificate) and will be transferable only together with, and will be transferred by a transfer of, such associated Trust Unit.

- (c) After the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time, the Rights may be exercised, and the registration and transfer of the Rights shall be separate from and independent of Trust Units. Promptly following the Separation Time, the Rights Agent will mail to each holder of record of Rights as of the Separation Time (other than an Acquiring Person and, in respect of any Rights Beneficially Owned by such Acquiring Person which are not held of record by such Acquiring Person, the holder of record of such Rights) at such holder's address as shown by the records of the Trust (the Trust hereby agreeing to furnish copies of such records to the Rights Agent for this purpose):
 - (i) a Rights Certificate in substantially the form of Exhibit "A" hereto with registration particulars appropriately completed, representing the number of Rights held by such holder at the Separation Time and having such marks of identification or designation and such legends, summaries or endorsements printed thereon as the Trust may deem appropriate and as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, or as may be required to comply with any law, rule or regulation or any rule or regulation of any stock exchange or quotation system on which the Rights may from time to time be listed or traded, or to conform to usage; and
 - (ii) a disclosure statement describing the Rights.
- (d) Rights may be exercised in whole or in part (but only with respect to a whole Right) on any Business Day after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time by submitting to the Rights Agent, at its office in the City of Calgary or such other office of the Rights Agent designated for that purpose by the Trust:
 - (i) the Rights Certificate evidencing such Rights together with an election to exercise (an "Election to Exercise") substantially in the form attached to the Rights Certificate duly completed and executed by the holder or his executors or administrators or other personal representatives or his or their legal attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing in form and executed in a manner satisfactory to the Rights Agent; and
 - (ii) payment by cash, certified cheque, banker's draft or money order payable to the order of the Trust, of a sum equal to the Exercise Price multiplied by the number of Rights being exercised and a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or charge which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the transfer or delivery of Rights Certificates or the issuance or delivery of certificates for Trust Units in a name other than that of the holder of the Rights being exercised.
- (e) Upon receipt of a Rights Certificate, with an Election to Exercise and payment as set forth in section 2.2(d), the Rights Agent (unless otherwise instructed by the Trust if the Trust is of the opinion that the Rights cannot be exercised in accordance with this Agreement) will thereupon promptly:

- (i) requisition from the Trust's transfer agent Trust Unit certificates representing the number of Trust Units to be purchased (the Trust hereby irrevocably agreeing to authorize its transfer agent to comply with all such requisitions);
 - (ii) after receipt of such Trust Unit certificates, deliver such certificates to, or to the order of, the registered holder of such Rights Certificate, registered in such name or names as may be designated by such holder;
 - (iii) when appropriate, requisition from the Trust the amount of cash, if any, to be paid in lieu of issuing fractional Trust Units;
 - (iv) when appropriate, after receipt of such cash, deliver such cash to, or to the order of, the registered holder of the Rights Certificate; and
 - (v) tender to the Trust all payments received upon exercise of the Rights.
- (f) In case the holder of any Rights shall exercise less than all the Rights evidenced by such holder's Rights Certificate, a new Rights Certificate evidencing the Rights remaining unexercised (subject to Section 5.5) will be issued by the Rights Agent to such holder or to such holder's duly authorized assigns.
- (g) The Trust covenants and agrees that it will:
- (i) take all such action as may be necessary and within its power to ensure that all Trust Units delivered upon exercise of Rights shall, at the time of delivery of the certificates for such Trust Units (subject to payment of the Exercise Price), be duly and validly authorized, executed, issued and delivered as fully paid and non-assessable;
 - (ii) take all such action as may reasonably be considered to be necessary and within its power to comply with any applicable requirements of the formation documents of the Trust and of the Securities Act and comparable legislation of each of the other provinces and territories of Canada, and the rules and regulations thereunder or any other applicable law, rule or regulation, in connection with the issuance and delivery of the Rights, the Rights Certificates and the issuance of any Trust Units upon exercise of the Rights;
 - (iii) use reasonable efforts to cause all Trust Units issued upon exercise of the Rights to be listed on the principal exchanges or traded in the over-the-counter markets on which the Trust Units are listed at that time;
 - (iv) pay when due and payable any and all Canadian and United States federal, provincial and state transfer taxes (for greater certainty not including any income taxes of the holder or exercising holder or any liability of the Trust to withhold tax) and charges which may be payable in respect of the original issuance or delivery of the Rights Certificates or certificates for Trust Units issued upon exercise of Rights, provided that the Trust shall not be required to pay any transfer tax or charge which may be payable in respect of any transfer of Rights or the issuance or delivery of certificates for Trust Units issued upon the exercise of Rights, in a name other than that of the holder of the Rights being transferred or exercised;

- (v) if applicable, cause to be reserved and kept available out of the authorized and unissued Trust Units of the Trust, the number of Trust Units that, as provided in this Agreement, will from time to time be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of all outstanding Rights;
- (vi) after the Separation Time, except as permitted by Section 5.1, not take any action if at the time such action is taken it is reasonably foreseeable that such action will diminish substantially or otherwise eliminate the benefits intended to be afforded by the Rights; and
- (vii) provide, or cause to be provided to, the Rights Agent a list of registered holders of Trust Units as and when requested by the Rights Agent.

Adjustments to Exercise Price; Number of Rights

- (a) The Exercise Price, the number and kind of securities subject to purchase upon exercise of each Right and the number of Rights outstanding are subject to adjustment from time to time as provided in this Section 2.3.
- (b) If the Trust shall at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Expiration Time:
 - (i) declare or pay a distribution on the Trust Units payable in Trust Units (or other securities exchangeable for or convertible into or giving a right to acquire Trust Units or other securities of the Trust) other than pursuant to any optional distribution plan;
 - (ii) subdivide or change the then outstanding Trust Units into a greater number of Trust Units;
 - (iii) combine or change the then outstanding Trust Units into a smaller number of Trust Units; or
 - (iv) issue any Trust Units (or other securities exchangeable for or convertible into or giving a right to acquire Trust Units) in respect of, in lieu of or in exchange for existing Trust Units, in a reclassification, amalgamation, merger, statutory arrangement or consolidation, the Exercise Price and the number of Rights outstanding (or, if the payment or effective date therefor shall occur after the Separation Time, the securities purchasable upon exercise of Rights) shall be adjusted as follows:

- (A) if the Exercise Price and number of Rights outstanding are to be adjusted:
 - (1) the Exercise Price in effect after such adjustment will be equal to the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment divided by the number of Trust Units that a holder of one Trust Unit immediately prior to such distribution, subdivision, change, combination or issuance would hold thereafter as a result thereof (the "Adjustment Factor"); and
 - (2) each Right held prior to such adjustment will become that number of Rights equal to the Adjustment Factor, and the adjusted number of Rights will be deemed to be allocated among the Trust Units with respect to which the original Rights were associated (if they remain outstanding) and the Trust Units issued in respect of such distribution, subdivision, change, combination or issuance, so that each such Trust Unit will have exactly one Right associated with it.
- (B) if the securities purchasable upon exercise of Rights are to be adjusted, the securities purchasable upon exercise of each Right after such adjustment will be the number of securities that a holder of the securities purchasable upon exercise of one Right immediately prior to such distribution, subdivision, change, combination or issuance would hold thereafter as a result thereof.
- (c) If after the Record Time and prior to the Expiration Time, the Trust shall issue any of its securities other than Trust Units in a transaction of a type described in subsection 2.3(b)(i) or 2.3(b)(iv), such securities shall be treated herein as nearly equivalent to Trust Units as may be practicable and appropriate under the circumstances and the Trust and the Rights Agent agree to amend this Agreement in order to effect such treatment.
- (d) If an event occurs which would require an adjustment under both this Section 2.3 and Section 3.1 hereof, the adjustment provided for in this Section 2.3 shall be in addition to, and shall be made prior to, any adjustment required pursuant to Section 3.1 hereof.
- (e) If the Trust shall at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Separation Time issue any Trust Units otherwise than in a transaction referred to in subsections 2.3(b)(i) to 2.3(b)(iv), each such Trust Unit so issued shall automatically have one new Right associated with it, which Right shall be evidenced by the certificate representing such Trust Unit.

- (f) If the Trust shall, at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Expiration Time fix a record date for the making of a distribution to all holders of Trust Units of rights or warrants entitling them (for a period expiring within 45calendar days after such record date) to subscribe for or purchase Trust Units (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for or carrying a right to purchase or subscribe for Trust Units) at a price per Trust Unit (or, in the case of a security convertible into or exchangeable for or carrying a right to purchase or subscribe for Trust Units, having a conversion, exchange or exercise price per Trust Unit (including the price required to be paid to purchase such convertible or exchangeable security or right)) less than the Market Price per Trust Unit on such record date, the Exercise Price in effect after such record date will equal the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such record date multiplied by a fraction:
- (i) of which the numerator shall be the number of Trust Units outstanding on such record date plus the number of Trust Units which the aggregate offering price of the total number of Trust Units so to be offered (and/or the aggregate initial conversion, exchange or exercise price of the convertible or exchangeable securities or rights so to be offered (including the price required to be paid to purchase such convertible or exchangeable securities or rights)) would purchase at such Market Price per Trust Unit; and
 - (ii) of which the denominator shall be the number of Trust Units outstanding on such record date plus the number of additional Trust Units to be offered for subscription or purchase (or into which the convertible or exchangeable securities or rights so to be offered are initially convertible, exchangeable or exercisable).

In case such subscription price may be paid in a consideration, part or all of which shall be in a form other than cash, the value of such consideration shall be as determined in good faith by the Board, whose determination shall be described in a statement filed with the Rights Agent and shall be binding on the Rights Agent and the holder of the Rights. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed. To the extent that such rights or warrants are not exercised prior to the expiration thereof, the Exercise Price shall be readjusted to the Exercise Price which would then be in effect based on the number of Trust Units (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Trust Units) actually issued upon the exercise of such Rights.

For purposes of this Agreement, the granting of the right to purchase Trust Units (whether from treasury or otherwise) pursuant to any distribution reinvestment plan or any Trust Unit participation plan providing for the reinvestment of distributions or the investment of periodic optional payments or employee benefit or similar plans (so long as such right to purchase is in no case evidenced by the delivery of rights or warrants by the Trust) shall not be deemed to constitute an issue of rights or warrants by the Trust; provided, however, that in the case of any distribution reinvestment or Trust Unit participation plan, the right to purchase Trust Units is at a price per Trust Unit of not less than 90% of the current market price per Trust Unit (determined as provided in such plans) of the Trust Units.

- (g) If the Trust shall, at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Expiration Time, fix a record date for the making of a distribution to all holders of Trust Units (including any such distribution made in connection with a merger in which the Trust is the continuing entity) of evidences of indebtedness, cash or assets (other than an ordinary course distribution or a distribution referred to in subsection 2.3(b)(i)) or of rights or warrants entitling them to subscribe for or purchase Trust Units (excluding those referred to in subsection 2.3(f)) at a price per Trust Unit (or, in the case of a security convertible into or exchangeable for or carrying a right to purchase or subscribe for Trust Units, having a conversion, exchange or exercise price per Trust Unit (including the price required to be paid to purchase such convertible or exchangeable security or right)) less than the Market Price per Trust Unit on such record date, the Exercise Price in effect after such record date shall be equal to the Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such record date less the fair market value (as determined in good faith by the Board, whose determination shall be described in a statement filed with the Rights Agent and shall be binding on the Rights Agent and the holders of the Rights) of the portion of the assets, evidences of indebtedness, cash, rights or warrants so to be distributed applicable to each of the securities purchasable upon exercise of one Right. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed.
- (h) Each adjustment made pursuant to this Section 2.3 shall be made as of:
 - (i) the payment or effective date for the applicable distribution, subdivision, change, combination or issuance, in the case of an adjustment made pursuant to subsection 2.3(b) above; and
 - (ii) the record date for the applicable distribution, in the case of an adjustment made pursuant to subsections 2.3(f) or 2.3(g) above, subject to readjustment to reverse the same if such distribution is not made.
- (i) If the Trust shall at any time after the Record Time and prior to the Expiration Time issue any securities (other than Trust Units), or rights or warrants to subscribe for or purchase any such securities or securities convertible into or exchangeable for any such securities, in a transaction of a type referred to in subsections 2.3(b)(i) to 2.3(b)(iv), 2.3(f) or 2.3(g) above and, if the Board acting in good faith determines that the adjustments contemplated by subsections 2.3(b), 2.3(f) and 2.3(g) above are not applicable or will not appropriately protect the interests of the holders of Rights, the Board may, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, determine what other adjustments to the Exercise Price, number of Rights and/or securities purchasable upon exercise of Rights would be appropriate and, notwithstanding subsections 2.3(b), (f) and (g) above, such adjustments, rather than the adjustments contemplated by subsections 2.3(b), 2.3(f) and 2.3(g) above, shall be made. The Trust and the Rights Agent shall amend this Agreement as appropriate to provide for such adjustments.

- (j) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no adjustment of the Exercise Price shall be required unless such adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least 1% in such Exercise Price; provided, however, that any adjustments which by reason of this subsection 2.3(j) are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. All adjustments made pursuant to this Section 2.3 shall be calculated to the nearest cent or to the nearest hundredth of a Trust Unit or Right, as the case may be. Whenever an adjustment is made to the Exercise Price, the Trust shall promptly file with the Rights Agent and the transfer agent for the Trust Units a copy of a certificate setting forth such adjustment and a brief statement of facts accounting for it and mail a summary thereof to the holders of Rights.
- (k) All Rights originally issued by the Trust subsequent to any adjustment made to an Exercise Price hereunder shall evidence the right to purchase, at the adjusted Exercise Price, the respective number of Trust Units purchasable from time to time hereunder upon exercise of the Rights, all subject to further adjustment as provided herein.
- (l) In any case in which this Section 2.3 shall require that an adjustment in an Exercise Price be made effective as of a record date for a specified event, the Trust may elect to defer, until the occurrence of such event, the issuance to the holder of any Right exercised after such record date of the number of Trust Units and other securities of the Trust, issuable upon such exercise over and above the number of Trust Units and other securities of the Trust, issuable upon such exercise on the basis of the relevant Exercise Price in effect prior to such adjustment; provided, however, that the Trust shall deliver to such holder an appropriate instrument evidencing such holder's right to receive such additional Trust Units (fractional or otherwise) or other securities upon the occurrence of the event requiring such adjustment.
- (m) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 2.3 to the contrary, the Trust shall be entitled to make such reductions in the Exercise Price, in addition to those adjustments expressly required by this Section 2.3, as and to the extent that in their good faith judgement the Board shall determine to be advisable in order that any:
 - (i) consolidation or subdivision of Trust Units;
 - (ii) issuance wholly or in part for cash of any Trust Units or securities that by their terms are convertible into or exchangeable for Trust Units;
 - (iii) Trust Unit distributions; or

(iv) issuance of rights, options or warrants referred to in this Section 2.3, hereafter made by the Trust to holders of its Trust Units shall not be taxable to such unitholders.

- (n) The Trust covenants and agrees that, after the Separation Time, it will not, except as permitted by Section 5.1 or 5.4, take any action, if at the time such action is taken it is reasonably foreseeable that such action will diminish substantially or otherwise eliminate the benefits intended to be afforded by the Rights.
- (o) Irrespective of any adjustment or change in the securities purchasable upon exercise of the Rights, the Rights Certificates theretofore and thereafter issued may continue to represent the securities so purchasable which were represented in the initial Rights Certificates issued hereunder.

2.4 Date on Which Exercise is Effective

Each Person in whose name any certificate for Trust Units or other securities, property or assets, if applicable, is issued upon the exercise of Rights shall for all purposes be deemed to have become the holder of record of the Trust Units or other securities, property or assets, if applicable, represented thereby on, and such certificate shall be dated, the date upon which the Rights Certificate evidencing such Rights was duly surrendered (together with a duly completed Election to Exercise) and payment of the Exercise Price for such Rights (and any applicable transfer taxes and other governmental charges payable by the exercising Person hereunder) was made; provided, however, that if the date of such surrender and payment is a date upon which the Trust Unit transfer books of the Trust are closed, such Person shall be deemed to have become the record holder of such Trust Units on, and such certificate shall be dated, the next succeeding Business Day on which the Trust Unit transfer books of the Trust are open.

2.5 Execution, Authentication, Delivery and Dating of Rights Certificates

- (a) The Rights Certificates shall be executed on behalf of the Trust by any one officer or director of Shiningbank. The signature of any of these officers on the Rights Certificates may be manual or facsimile. Rights Certificates bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of individuals who were at any time the proper officers of Shiningbank shall bind the Trust, notwithstanding that such individuals or any of them have ceased to hold such offices prior to the countersignature and delivery of such Rights Certificates.
- (b) Promptly after the Trust learns of the Separation Time, the Trust will notify the Rights Agent of such Separation Time and will deliver Rights Certificates executed by the Trust to the Rights Agent for countersignature, and the Rights Agent shall countersign (manually or by facsimile signature in a manner satisfactory to the Trust) and send such Rights Certificates to the holders of the Rights pursuant to subsection 2.2(c) hereof. No Rights Certificate shall be valid for any purpose until countersigned by the Rights Agent as aforesaid.
- (c) Each Rights Certificate shall be dated the date of countersignature thereof.

Registration, Registration of Transfer and Exchange

- (a) After the Separation Time, the Trust will cause to be kept a register (the “Rights Register”) in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Trust will provide for the registration and transfer of Rights. The Rights Agent is hereby appointed “Rights Registrar” for the purpose of maintaining the Rights Register for the Trust and registering Rights and transfers of Rights as herein provided and the Rights Agent hereby accepts such appointment. In the event that the Rights Agent shall cease to be the Rights Registrar, the Rights Agent will have the right to examine the Rights Register at all reasonable times.
- (b) After the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time, upon surrender for registration of transfer or exchange of any Rights Certificate, and subject to the provisions of subsection 2.6(d) and 3.1(b) below, the Trust will execute, and the Rights Agent will countersign, deliver and register, in the name of the holder or the designated transferee or transferees, as required pursuant to the holder’s instructions, one or more new Rights Certificates evidencing the same aggregate number of Rights as did the Rights Certificates so surrendered.
- (c) All Rights issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Rights Certificates shall be valid obligations of the Trust, and such Rights shall be entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement as the Rights surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.
- (d) Every Rights Certificate surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Trust or the Rights Agent, as the case may be, duly executed by the holder thereof or such holder’s attorney duly authorized in writing. As a condition to the issuance of any new Rights Certificate, under this Section 2.6, the Trust may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Rights Agent) in connection therewith.

Mutilated, Lost, Stolen and Destroyed Rights Certificates

- (a) If any mutilated Rights Certificate is surrendered to the Rights Agent prior to the Expiration Time, the Trust shall execute and the Rights Agent shall countersign and deliver in exchange therefor a new Rights Certificate evidencing the same number of Rights as did the Rights Certificate so surrendered.
- (b) If there shall be delivered to the Trust and the Rights Agent prior to the Expiration Time: (i) evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Rights Certificate; and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by them in their sole discretion to save each of them and any of their agents harmless, then, in the absence of notice to the Trust or the Rights Agent that such Rights Certificate has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Trust shall execute and upon its request the Rights Agent shall countersign and deliver, in lieu of any such destroyed, lost or stolen Rights Certificate, a new Rights Certificate evidencing the same number of Rights as did the Rights Certificate so destroyed, lost or stolen.

- (c) As a condition to the issuance of any new Rights Certificate under this Section 2.7, the Trust may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Rights Agent) connected therewith.
- (d) Every new Rights Certificate issued pursuant to this Section 2.7 in lieu of any destroyed, lost or stolen Rights Certificate, shall evidence an original additional contractual obligation of the Trust, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Rights Certificate shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all the benefits of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Rights duly issued hereunder.

2.8 Persons Deemed Owners

The Trust, the Rights Agent and any agent of the Trust or the Rights Agent may deem and treat the Person in whose name a Rights Certificate (or, prior to the Separation Time, the associated Trust Unit certificate) is registered as the absolute owner thereof and of the Rights evidenced thereby for all purposes whatsoever. As used in this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "holder" of any Rights shall mean the registered holder of such Rights (or, prior to the Separation Time, the associated Trust Units).

2.9 Delivery and Cancellation of Certificates

All Rights Certificates surrendered upon exercise or for redemption, registration of transfer or exchange shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Rights Agent, be delivered to the Rights Agent and, in any case, shall be promptly cancelled by the Rights Agent. The Trust may at any time deliver to the Rights Agent for cancellation any Rights Certificates previously countersigned and delivered hereunder which the Trust may have acquired in any manner whatsoever, and all Rights Certificates so delivered shall be promptly cancelled by the Rights Agent. No Rights Certificate shall be countersigned in lieu of or in exchange for any Rights Certificates cancelled as provided in this Section 2.9 except as expressly permitted by this Agreement. The Rights Agent shall, subject to applicable law, destroy all cancelled Rights Certificates and deliver a certificate of destruction to the Trust.

2.10 Agreement of Rights Holders

Every holder of Rights, by accepting such Rights, consents and agrees with the Trust and the Rights Agent and with every other holder of Rights:

- (a) to be bound by and subject to the provisions of this Agreement, as amended from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof, in respect of all Rights held;
- (b) that, prior to the Separation Time, each Right will be transferable only together with, and will be transferred by a transfer of, the associated Trust Unit;

- (c) that, after the Separation Time, the Rights will be transferable only on the Rights Register as provided herein;
- (d) that, prior to due presentment of a Rights Certificate (or, prior to the Separation Time, the associated Trust Unit certificate) for registration of transfer, the Trust, the Rights Agent and any agent of the Trust or the Rights Agent may deem and treat the Person in whose name the Rights Certificate (or, prior to the Separation Time, the associated Trust Unit certificate) is registered as the absolute owner thereof and of the Rights evidenced thereby (notwithstanding any notations of ownership or writing on such Rights Certificate or the associated Trust Unit certificate made by anyone other than the Trust or the Rights Agent) for all purposes whatsoever, and neither the Trust nor the Rights Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary;
- (e) that, such holder of Rights has waived its right to receive any fractional Rights or any fractional Trust Units or other securities, upon exercise of a Right (except as provided herein);
- (f) that, such holder of Rights shall not be entitled to any payment on a redemption of Rights hereunder if the payment owing to the holder would be less than $2.00;
- (g) that, if expressly provided in this Agreement, without the approval of any holder of Rights or Trust Units and upon the sole authority of the Board, this Agreement may be supplemented or amended from time to time as provided herein; and
- (h) notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, neither the Trust nor the Rights Agent shall have any liability to any holder of a Right or any other Person as a result of its inability to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement by reason of any preliminary or permanent injunction or other order, decree or ruling issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or by a governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or commission, or any statute, rule, regulation or executive order promulgated or enacted by a governmental authority, prohibiting or otherwise restraining performance of such obligations.

ADJUSTMENTS TO THE RIGHTS IN THE EVENT OF CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

3.1 Flip-in Event

- (a) Subject to subsection 3.1(b) and subsections 5.1(b), (c) and (d), in the event that prior to the Expiration Time a Flip-in Event occurs, the Board shall take such action as shall be necessary to ensure and provide, within 10 Business Days or such longer period as may be required to satisfy the requirements of the applicable securities acts or comparable legislation, so that, except as provided below, each Right shall thereafter constitute the right to purchase from the Trust, upon exercise thereof in accordance with the terms hereof, that number of Trust Units having an aggregate Market Price on the date of consummation or occurrence of such Flip-in Event equal to twice the Exercise Price for an amount in cash equal to the Exercise Price (such Right to be appropriately adjusted in a manner analogous to the applicable adjustment provided for in Section 2.3 in the event that after such date of consummation or occurrence, an event of a type analogous to any of the events described in Section 2.3 shall have occurred with respect to such Trust Units).

- (b) Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provisions of this Agreement, upon the occurrence of any Flip-in Event, any Rights that are or were Beneficially Owned on or after the earlier of the Separation Time and the Trust Unit Acquisition Date by:
- (i) an Acquiring Person (or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person or any Person acting jointly or in concert with an Acquiring Person or any Associate or Affiliate of an Acquiring Person); or
 - (ii) a transferee of Rights, direct or indirect, of an Acquiring Person (or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person or any Person acting jointly or in concert with an Acquiring Person or any Associate or Affiliate of an Acquiring Person) in a transfer made after the date hereof, whether or not for consideration, that the Board acting in good faith has determined is part of a plan, arrangement or scheme of an Acquiring Person (or any Affiliate or Associate of an Acquiring Person or any Person acting jointly or in concert with an Acquiring Person or any Associate or Affiliate of an Acquiring Person) that has the purpose or effect of avoiding subsection 3.1(b)(i), shall become null and void without any further action and any holder of such Rights (including any transferee of, or other successor entitled to, such Rights, whether directly or indirectly) shall thereafter have no right to exercise such Rights under any provisions of this Agreement and shall not have any other rights whatsoever in respect of such Rights, whether under any provision of this Agreement or otherwise. The holder of any Rights represented by a Rights Certificate which is submitted to the Rights Agent upon exercise or for registration of transfer or exchange which does not contain the necessary certifications set forth in the Rights Certificate establishing that such Rights are not void under this subsection 3.1(b) shall be deemed to be an Acquiring Person for the purposes of this subsection 3.1(b) and such Rights shall become null and void.

- (c) Any Rights Certificate that represents Rights Beneficially Owned by a Person described in either subsections 3.1(b)(i) or (ii) or transferred to any nominee of any such Person, and any Rights Certificate issued upon transfer, exchange, replacement or adjustment of any other Rights Certificate referred to in this sentence, shall contain or will be deemed to contain the following legend:

“The Rights represented by this Rights Certificate were Beneficially Owned by a Person who was an Acquiring Person or an Affiliate or an Associate of an Acquiring Person (as such terms are defined in the Rights Agreement) or was acting jointly or in concert with any of them. This Rights Certificate and the Rights represented hereby shall become void in the circumstances specified in subsection 3.1(b) of the Rights Agreement.”

provided that the Rights Agent shall not be under any responsibility to ascertain the existence of facts that would require the imposition of such legend but is required to impose such legend only if instructed to do so by the Trust or if a holder fails to certify upon transfer or exchange in the space provided on the Rights Certificate that such holder is not an Acquiring Person or an Affiliate or Associate thereof.

- (d) In the event that there shall not be sufficient Trust Units authorized for issuance to permit the exercise in full of the Rights in accordance with this section, the Trust shall take all such action as may be necessary to authorize additional Trust Units for issuance upon the exercise of the Rights.

3.2 Further Acts

Nothing contained in this Article 3 shall be construed as limiting or prohibiting the Trust or any offeror from proposing or engaging in any acquisition, disposition or other transfer of any securities of the Trust, any merger, amalgamation, arrangement, recapitalization or business combination or transaction involving the Trust, any sale or other transfer of assets of the Trust, any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Trust or any other business combination or other transaction, or any other action by the Trust or any offeror; provided that the holders of Rights shall have the rights set forth in this Agreement with respect to any such acquisition, disposition, transfer, merger, amalgamation, arrangement, recapitalization, sale, liquidation, dissolution, winding up, business combination or transaction or action.

ARTICLE 4 THE RIGHTS AGENT

4.1 General

- (a) The Trust hereby appoints the Rights Agent to act as agent for the Trust and the holders of Rights in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof, and the Rights Agent hereby accepts such appointment. The Trust may from time to time appoint such co-rights agents (“Co-Rights Agents”) as it may deem necessary or desirable. In the event the Trust appoints one or more Co-Rights Agents, the respective duties of the Rights Agent and Co-Rights Agents shall be as the Trust may determine. The Trust agrees to pay to the Rights Agent reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder and, from time to time, on demand of the Rights Agent, its reasonable expenses and counsel fees and other disbursements incurred in the administration and execution of this Agreement and the exercise and performance of its duties hereunder (including the reasonable fees and disbursements of any expert retained by the Rights Agent with the approval of the Board, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). The Trust also agrees to indemnify the Rights Agent, its directors, officers, agents and employees for, and to hold them harmless against, any loss, liability, damages or expense, incurred without negligence, bad faith or wilful misconduct on the part of the Rights Agent, for anything done, suffered or omitted by the Rights Agent in connection with the acceptance, execution and administration of this Agreement and the exercise and performance of duties hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending against any claim of liability, which right to indemnification will survive the termination of this Agreement or the resignation or removal of the Rights Agent.

- (b) The Rights Agent shall be protected and shall incur no liability for, or in respect of, any action taken, suffered or omitted by it in connection with its administration of this Agreement in reliance upon any certificate for Trust Units, Rights Certificate, certificate for other securities of the Trust, instrument of assignment or transfer, power of attorney, endorsement, affidavit, letter, notice, direction, consent, certificate, statement or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to be signed, executed and, where necessary, verified or acknowledged by the proper Person or Persons.
- (c) The Trust shall inform the Rights Agent in a reasonably timely manner of events which may materially affect the administration of this Agreement by the Rights Agent and, at any time upon written request, shall provide to the Rights Agent an incumbency certificate certifying the then current officers and directors of Shiningbank.

4.2 Merger, Amalgamation, Consolidation or Change of Name of Rights Agent

- (a) Any corporation into which the Rights Agent or any successor rights agent may be merged or amalgamated or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, amalgamation, statutory arrangement or consolidation to which the Rights Agent or any successor rights agent is a party, or any corporation succeeding to the unitholder or stockholder services business of the Rights Agent or any successor rights agent, will be the successor to the Rights Agent under this Agreement without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, provided that such corporation would be eligible for appointment as a successor rights agent under the provisions of Section 4.4 hereof. In case at the time such successor rights agent succeeds to the agency created by this Agreement any of the Rights Certificates have been countersigned but not delivered, any such successor rights agent may adopt the countersignature of the predecessor Rights Agent and deliver such Rights Certificates so countersigned; and in case at that time any of the Rights Certificates have not been countersigned, any successor rights agent may countersign such Rights Certificates either in the name of the predecessor Rights Agent or in the name of the successor rights agent; and in all such cases such Rights Certificates will have the full force provided in the Rights Certificates and in this Agreement.

- (b) In case at any time the name of the Rights Agent is changed and at such time any of the Rights Certificates shall have been countersigned but not delivered, the Rights Agent may adopt the countersignature under its prior name and deliver Rights Certificates so countersigned; and in case at that time any of the Rights Certificates shall not have been countersigned, the Rights Agent may countersign such Rights Certificates either in its prior name or in its changed name; and in all such cases such Rights Certificates shall have the full force provided in the Rights Certificates and in this Agreement.

4.3 Duties of Rights Agent

The Rights Agent undertakes the duties and obligations imposed by this Agreement upon the following terms and conditions, by all of which the Trust and the holders of Rights Certificates, by their acceptance thereof, shall be bound:

- (a) The Rights Agent may retain and consult with legal counsel (who may be legal counsel for the Trust) and the opinion of such counsel will be full and complete authorization and protection to the Rights Agent as to any action taken or omitted by it in good faith and in accordance with such opinion; the Rights Agent may also, with the approval of the Trust (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), and at the expense of the Trust, consult with such other experts as the Rights Agent shall consider necessary or appropriate to properly carry out the duties and obligations imposed under this Agreement and the Rights Agent shall be entitled to rely in good faith on the advice of any such expert;
- (b) Whenever in the performance of its duties under this Agreement the Rights Agent deems it necessary or desirable that any fact or matter be proved or established by the Trust prior to taking or suffering any action hereunder, such fact or matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) may be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate signed by a person believed by the Rights Agent to be an officer or director of Shiningbank and delivered to the Rights Agent; and such certificate will be full authorization to the Rights Agent for any action taken or suffered in good faith by it under the provisions of this Agreement in reliance upon such certificate;
- (c) The Rights Agent will be liable hereunder only for its own negligence, bad faith or wilful misconduct;
- (d) The Rights Agent will not be liable for or by reason of any of the statements of fact or recitals contained in this Agreement or in the certificates for Trust Units, or the Rights Certificates (except its countersignature thereof) or be required to verify the same, but all such statements and recitals are and will be deemed to have been made by the Trust only;
- (e) The Rights Agent will not be under any responsibility in respect of the validity of this Agreement or the authorization, execution and delivery hereof (except the due authorization, execution and delivery hereof by the Rights Agent) or in respect of the validity or execution of any certificate for Trust Units or Rights Certificate (except its countersignature thereof); nor will it be responsible for any breach by the Trust of any covenant or condition contained in this Agreement or in any Rights Certificate; nor will it be responsible for any change in the exercisability of the Rights (including the Rights becoming void pursuant to subsection 3.1(b) hereof) or any adjustment required under the provisions of Section 2.3 hereof or responsible for the manner, method or amount of any such adjustment or the ascertaining of the existence of facts that would require any such adjustment (except with respect to the exercise of Rights after receipt of the certificate contemplated by Section 2.3 describing any such adjustment); nor will it by any act hereunder be deemed to make any representation or warranty as to the authorization of any Trust Units to be issued pursuant to this Agreement or any Rights or as to any Trust Units, when issued, being duly and validly authorized, issued and delivered as fully paid and non-assessable;

- (f) The Trust agrees that it will perform, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further and other acts, instruments and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Rights Agent for the carrying out or performing by the Rights Agent of the provisions of this Agreement;
- (g) The Rights Agent is hereby authorized and directed to accept instructions with respect to the performance of its duties hereunder from any individual designated in writing by Shiningbank, and to apply to such individual for advice or instructions in connection with its duties, and it shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered by it in good faith in accordance with instructions of any such individual; it is understood that instructions to the Rights Agent shall, except where circumstances make it impracticable or the Rights Agent otherwise agrees, be given in writing and, where not in writing, such instructions shall be confirmed in writing as soon as reasonably possible after the giving of such instructions;
- (h) The Rights Agent and any unitholder or stockholder, director officer or employee of the Rights Agent may buy, sell or deal in Trust Units, Rights or other securities of the Trust or become pecuniarily interested in any transaction in which the Trust may be interested, or contract with or lend money to the Trust or otherwise act as fully and freely as though it were not the Rights Agent under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall preclude the Rights Agent from acting in any other capacity for the Trust or for any other legal entity; and
- (i) The Rights Agent may execute and exercise any of the rights or powers hereby vested in it or perform any duty hereunder either itself or by or through its attorneys or agents, and the Rights Agent will not be answerable or accountable for any act, default, neglect or misconduct of any such attorneys or agents or for any loss to the Trust resulting from any such act, omission, default, neglect or misconduct, provided reasonable care was exercised in the selection and continued employment thereof.

4.4 Change of Rights Agent

The Rights Agent may resign and be discharged from its duties under this Agreement upon 60 days' notice (or such lesser notice as is acceptable to the Trust) in writing mailed to the Trust and to each transfer agent of Trust Units by registered or certified mail, and to the holders of the Rights in accordance with Section 5.9. The Trust may remove the Rights Agent upon 30 days' notice in writing, mailed to the Rights Agent and to each transfer agent of the Trust Units by registered or certified mail, and to the holders of the Rights in accordance with Section 5.9. If the Rights Agent should resign or be removed or otherwise become incapable of acting, the Trust will appoint a successor to the Rights Agent. If the Trust fails to make such appointment within a period of 30 days after such removal or after it has received notice in writing of such resignation or incapacity by the resigning or incapacitated Rights Agent, then the resigning Rights Agent or the holder of any Rights may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a new Rights Agent. Any successor rights agent, whether appointed by the Trust or by such a court, must be a corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada or a province thereof and authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in the Province of Alberta. After appointment, the successor rights agent will be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named as Rights Agent without further act or deed; but upon payment by the Trust to the predecessor Rights Agent of outstanding fees and expenses owing by the Trust, the predecessor Rights Agent shall deliver and transfer to the successor rights agent any property at the time held by it hereunder, and execute and deliver any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed necessary for the purpose. Not later than the effective date of any such appointment, the Trust will file notice thereof in writing with the predecessor Rights Agent and each transfer agent of the Trust Units and mail a notice thereof in writing to the holders of the Rights in accordance with Section 5.9. Failure to give any notice provided for in this Section 4.4, however, or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of the resignation or removal of the Rights Agent or the appointment of the successor rights agent, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 5 MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Redemption, Waiver and Termination

- (a) The Board acting in good faith may, with the prior consent of holders of Trust Units or of the holders of the Rights given in accordance with Section 5.1(f) or (g), as the case may be, at any time prior to the occurrence of a Flip-in Event as to which the application of Section 3.1 has not been waived pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.1, elect to redeem all but not less than all of the then outstanding Rights at a redemption price of $0.00001 per Right appropriately adjusted in a manner analogous to the applicable adjustment provided for in Section 2.3 in the event that an event of the type analogous to any of the events described in Section 2.3 shall have occurred (such redemption price being herein referred to as the "Redemption Price"). The redemption of the Rights by the Board may be made effective at such time, on such basis and with such conditions as the Board in its sole discretion may establish. The Board may, prior to the date of the unitholders' meeting described in Section 5.19, elect to redeem all but not less than all of the then outstanding Rights without the approval of the holders of Rights or Trust Units, provided such redemption is otherwise in accordance with this Section 5.1(a).

- (b) With the prior consent of the holders of Trust Units obtained in accordance with subsection 5.1(f), the Board may, at any time prior to the occurrence of a Flip-in Event as to which the application of Section 3.1 has not been waived pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.1, if such Flip-in Event would occur by reason of an acquisition of Trust Units otherwise than pursuant to a Take-over Bid made by means of a Take-over Bid circular to all holders of record of Trust Units and otherwise than in the circumstances set forth in subsection 5.1(d), waive the application of Section 3.1 to such Flip-in Event. In the event that the Board proposes such a waiver, the Board shall extend the Separation Time to a date subsequent to and not more than 10 Business Days following the meeting of unitholders called to approve such waiver.
- (c) Subject to Section 5.1(b), the Board, at its option, prior to the occurrence of a Flip-in Event as to which the application of Section 3.1 has not been waived under this clause, determine, upon prior written notice to the Rights Agent, to waive the application of Section 3.1 to that Flip-in Event provided that the Flip-in Event would occur by reason of a Take-over Bid made by means of a takeover bid circular sent to all holders of record of Trust Units; further provided that if the Board waives the application of Section 3.1 to such a Flip-in Event, the Board shall be deemed to have waived the application of Section 3.1 to any Flip-in Event occurring by reason of any Take-over Bid made by means of a take-over bid circular to all holders of record of Trust Units which is made prior to the expiry of any Take-over Bid in respect of which a waiver is, or is deemed to have been, granted under this Section 5.1(c).
- (d) The Board may waive the application of Section 3.1 to a Flip-in Event provided that the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (i) the Board has determined that the Acquiring Person became an Acquiring Person by inadvertence and without any intention to become, or knowledge that it would become, an Acquiring Person; and
 - (ii) such Acquiring Person has reduced its Beneficial Ownership of Trust Units such that at the time of the waiver pursuant to this subsection 5.1(d), it is no longer an Acquiring Person and has provided the Board with satisfactory evidence thereof, and in the event of any such waiver, for the purposes of this Agreement, such Flip-in Event shall be deemed not to have occurred and the Separation Time shall be deemed not to have occurred as a result of such Person having inadvertently become an Acquiring Person.
- (e) The Board shall, without further formality, be deemed to have elected to redeem the Rights at the Redemption Price on the date that a Person who has made a Permitted Bid or a Takeover Bid in respect of which the Board has waived, or is deemed to have waived, pursuant to Section 5.1(c), the application of Section 3.1, takes up and pays for the Trust Units pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Permitted Bid or Takeover Bid, as the case may be.

- (f) If a redemption of Rights pursuant to Section 5.1(a) or a waiver of a Flip-in Event pursuant to Section 5.1(b) is proposed at any time prior to the Separation Time, such redemption or waiver shall be submitted for approval to the holders of Trust Units. Such approval shall be deemed to have been given if the redemption or waiver is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by Independent Unitholders represented in person or by proxy at a meeting of such holders duly held in accordance with applicable laws and the formation documents of the Trust.
- (g) If a redemption of Rights pursuant to Section 5.1(a) is proposed at any time after the Separation Time, such redemption shall be submitted for approval to holders of Rights. Such approval shall be deemed to have been given if the redemption is approved by holders of Rights by a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Rights represented in person or by proxy at and entitled to vote at a meeting of such holders. For the purposes hereof, each outstanding Right (other than Rights which are Beneficially Owned by a Person referred to in clauses (i) to (v) inclusive of the definition of Independent Unitholders) shall be entitled to one vote, and the procedures for the calling, holding and conduct of the meeting shall be those, as nearly as may be, which are provided in the formation documents of the Trust with respect to meetings of unitholders of the Trust.
- (h) Where a Take-over Bid that is not a Permitted Bid or Competing Permitted Bid is withdrawn or otherwise terminated after the Separation Time has occurred and prior to the occurrence of a Flip-in Event, the Board may elect to redeem all of the outstanding Rights at the Redemption Price. Notwithstanding such redemption, all the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply as if the Separation Time had not occurred and it shall be deemed not to have occurred and Rights shall remain attached to the Trust Units, subject to and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- (i) If the Board elects to or is deemed to have elected to redeem the Rights the right to exercise the Rights will thereupon, without further action and without notice, terminate and the only right thereafter of the holders of Rights shall be to receive the Redemption Price, if applicable, and no further Rights shall thereafter be issued.
- (j) Within 10 Business Days of the Board electing or having been deemed to have elected to redeem the Rights, the Trust shall give notice of redemption to the holders of the then outstanding Rights by mailing such notice to each such holder at his last address as it appears upon the Rights Register of the Rights Agent, or, prior to the Separation Time, on the register for Trust Units maintained by the Trust's transfer agent. Each such notice of redemption shall state the method by which the payment of the Redemption Price shall be made. The Trust may not redeem, acquire or purchase for value any Rights at any time in any manner other than that specifically set forth in this Section 5.1 or in connection with the purchase of Trust Units prior to the Separation Time.

- (k) The Trust shall give prompt notice to the Rights Agent of any waiver or proposed waiver of the application of Section 3.1 made by the Board.

5.2 Expiration

No person will have any rights pursuant to this Agreement or in respect of any Right after the Expiration Time, except the Rights Agent as specified in Section 4.1 hereof.

5.3 Issuance of New Rights Certificates

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this Agreement or of the Rights to the contrary, the Trust may, at its option, issue new Rights Certificates evidencing Rights in such form as may be approved by the Board to reflect any adjustment or change in the number or kind or class of Trust Units purchasable upon exercise of Rights made in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

5.4 Supplements and Amendments

- (a) The Trust may make, without the approval of the holders of Rights or Trust Units, any amendments to this Agreement specifically contemplated in subsection 2.3(i) or any other provision hereof, to correct any clerical or typographical error, or which are required to maintain the validity and effectiveness of the Agreement as a result of any change in any applicable laws, rules or regulatory requirements. The Trust may, prior to the date of the unitholders' meeting referred to in Section 5.19, supplement, amend, vary or delete any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Rights without the approval of any holder of Rights or Trust Units (whether or not such action would materially adversely affect the interests of the holders of Rights generally), where the Board acting in good faith deems such action necessary or desirable. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.4 to the contrary, no such supplement or amendment shall be made to the provisions of Article 4 except with the written concurrence of the Rights Agent to such supplement or amendment.
- (b) Subject to subsection 5.4(a), the Trust may, with the prior consent of the holders of Trust Units obtained as set forth below, at any time before the Separation Time, supplement, amend, vary, rescind or delete any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Rights (whether or not such action would materially adversely affect the interests of the holders of Rights generally). Such consent shall be deemed to have been given if provided by the holders of Trust Units at a special meeting called and held in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulatory requirements and the requirements in the formation documents of the Trust. Subject to compliance with any requirements imposed by the foregoing, consent shall be given if the action requiring such approval is authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all Independent Unitholders represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.
- (c) The Trust may, with the prior consent of the holders of Rights obtained as set forth below, at any time after the Separation Time, supplement, amend, vary, rescind or delete any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Rights (whether or not such action would materially adversely affect the interests of the holders of Rights generally). Such consent shall be deemed to have been given if provided by the holders of Rights at a special meeting of holders of Rights called and held in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulatory requirements and, to the extent possible, with the requirements in the formation documents of the Trust applicable to meetings of holders of Trust Units, applied mutatis mutandis. Subject to compliance with any requirements imposed by the foregoing, consent shall be given if the proposed amendment, variation or rescission is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of Rights (other than holders of Rights whose Rights have become null and void pursuant to subsection 3.1(b)), represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting.

- (d) Any approval of the holders of Rights shall be deemed to have been given if the action requiring such approval is authorized by the affirmative votes of the holders of Rights present or represented at and entitled to be voted at a meeting of the holders of Rights and representing a majority of the votes cast in respect thereof. For the purposes hereof, each outstanding Right (other than Rights which are void pursuant to the provisions hereof) shall be entitled to one vote, and the procedures for the calling, holding and conduct of the meeting shall be those, as nearly as may be, which are provided in the formation documents of the Trust with respect to meetings of unitholders of the Trust.
- (e) Any amendments made by the Trust pursuant to subsection 5.4(a) which are required to maintain the validity and effectiveness of this Agreement as a result of any change in any applicable laws, rules or regulatory requirements shall:
 - (i) if made before the Separation Time, be submitted to the unitholders at the next meeting of unitholders and the unitholders may, by the majority referred to in subsection 5.4(b), confirm or reject such amendment;
 - (ii) if made after the Separation Time, be submitted to the holders of Rights at a meeting to be called for on a date not later than immediately following the next meeting of unitholders of the Trust and the holders of Rights may, by resolution on passed by the majority referred to in Subsection 5.4(d) confirm or reject such amendment.

Any amendment, variation or deletion shall be effective from the date of the resolution of the Board adopting such amendment, variation or deletion until it is confirmed or rejected or until it ceases to be effective (as described in the next sentence) and, where such amendment, variation or deletion is confirmed, it continues in effect in the form so confirmed. If such amendment, variation or deletion is rejected by the unitholders or the holders of Rights or is not submitted to the unitholders or holders of Rights as required, then such amendment, variation or deletion shall cease to be effective from and after the termination of the meeting at which it was rejected or to which it should have been but was not submitted or from and after the date of the meeting of holders of Rights that should have been but was not held, and no subsequent resolution of the Board to amend, vary or delete any provision of this Agreement to substantially the same effect shall be effective until confirmed by the unitholders or holders of Rights, as the case may be.

5.5 Fractional Rights and Fractional Trust Units

- (a) The Trust will not be required to issue fractions of Rights or to distribute Rights Certificates which evidence fractional Rights. After the Separation Time there shall be paid, to the registered holders of the Rights Certificates with regard to which fractional Rights would otherwise be issuable, an amount in cash equal to the same fraction of the Market Price of a whole Right in lieu of such fractional Rights, as of the date such fractional Right would otherwise be issuable.
- (b) The Trust shall not be required to issue fractional Trust Units upon exercise of the Rights or to distribute certificates that evidence fractional Trust Units. In lieu of issuing fractional Trust Units, the Trust shall pay to the registered holder of Rights Certificates at the time such Rights are exercised as herein provided, an amount in cash equal to the same fraction of the Market Price of one Trust Unit at the date of such exercise.

5.6 Rights of Action

Subject to the terms of this Agreement, rights of action in respect of this Agreement, other than rights of action vested solely in the Rights Agent, are vested in the respective holders of the Rights; and any holder of any Rights, without the consent of the Rights Agent or of the holder of any other Rights may, on such holder's own behalf and for such holder's own benefit and the benefit of other holders of Rights, enforce, and may institute and maintain any suit, action or proceeding against the Trust to enforce, or otherwise act in respect of, such holder's right to exercise such holder's Rights, or Rights to which he is entitled, in the manner provided in this Agreement and in such holder's Rights Certificate. Without limiting the foregoing or any remedies available to the holders of Rights, it is specifically acknowledged that the holders of Rights would not have an adequate remedy at law for any breach of this Agreement and will be entitled to specific performance of the obligations under, and injunctive relief against actual or threatened violations of, the obligations of any Person subject to this Agreement.

5.7 Holder of Rights Not Deemed a Unitholder

No holder, as such, of any Rights shall be entitled to vote, receive distribution or be deemed for any purpose the holder of Trust Units or any other securities which may at any time be issuable on the exercise of Rights, nor shall anything contained herein or in any Rights Certificate be construed to confer upon the holder of any Rights, as such, any of the rights of a unitholder of the Trust or any right to vote for the election of directors, or upon any matter submitted to unitholders at any meeting thereof, or to give or withhold consent to any action of the Trust or Shiningbank, or to receive notice of meetings or other actions affecting unitholders (except as provided in Section 5.8 hereof) or to receive distributions or subscription rights or otherwise, until such Rights or Right to which such holder is entitled, shall have been exercised in accordance with the provisions hereof.

5.8 Notice of Proposed Actions

In case the Trust proposes after the Separation Time and prior to the Expiration Time:

- (a) to effect or permit (in cases where the Trust's permission is required) any Flip-in Event; or
- (b) to effect the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Trust or the sale of all or substantially all of the Trust's assets, then, in each such case, the Trust shall give to each holder of a Right, in accordance with Section 5.9 hereof, a notice of such proposed action, which shall specify the date on which such Flip-in Event, liquidation, dissolution, or winding up is to take place, and such notice shall be so given at least 10 Business Days prior to the date of the taking of such proposed action by the Trust.

5.9 Notices

Notices or demands authorized or required by this Agreement to be given or made to or by the Rights Agent, the holder of any Rights or the Trust will be sufficiently given or made if delivered or sent by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or by fax machine (with, in the case of fax, an original copy of the notice or demand sent by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the Trust following the giving of the notice or demand by fax); addressed (until another address is filed in writing with the Rights Agent or the Trust, as applicable), as follows:

- (a) if to the Trust:

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund
c/o Shiningbank Energy Ltd.
Suite 1050, Bow Valley Square 4
250 - 6th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta T2P 3H7
Fax: (403) 268-7499
Attention: Corporate Secretary, or Chief Financial Officer

- (b) if to the Rights Agent:

MONTREAL TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA
7th Floor, Western Gas Tower
530 - 8th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta T2P 3S8
Fax: (403) 267-6598
Attention: Manager, Corporate Trust Department

- (c) if to the holder of any Rights:

to the address of such holder as it appears on the registry books of the Rights Agent or, prior to the Separation Time, on the registry books of the Trust for the Trust Units. Any notice which is mailed or sent or delivered in the manner herein provided for shall be deemed given whether or not the holder receives the notice.

Any notice given or made in accordance with this Section 5.9 shall be deemed to have been given and to have been received on the day of delivery, if so delivered, on the third Business Day (excluding each day during which there exists any general interruption of postal service due to strike, lockout or other cause) following the mailing thereof, if so mailed, and on the day of faxing (provided such sending is during the normal business hours of the addressee on a Business Day and if not, on the first Business Day thereafter). Each of the Trust and the Rights Agent may from time to time change its address for notice by notice to the other given in the manner aforesaid.

If mail service is or is threatened to be interrupted at a time when the Trust or the Rights Agent wishes to give a notice or demand hereunder to or on the holders of the Rights, the Trust or the Rights Agent may, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5.9, give such notice by means of publication once in each of two successive weeks in the business section of a national newspaper and, as long as the Trust has a transfer agent in the United States, in a daily publication in the United States designated by the Trust, or in such other publication or publications as may be designated by the Trust and notice so published shall be deemed to have been given on the date on which the first publication of such notice in any such publication has taken place.

5.10 Costs of Enforcement

The Trust agrees that if the Trust fails to fulfill any of its obligations pursuant to this Agreement, then the Trust will reimburse the holder of any Rights for the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by such holder in actions to enforce his rights pursuant to any Rights or this Agreement.

5.11 Regulatory Approvals

Any obligation of the Trust or action or event contemplated by this Agreement, or any amendment to this Agreement, shall be subject to the receipt of any requisite approval or consent from any governmental or regulatory authority. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any issuance or delivery of debt or equity securities (other than non-convertible debt security) of the Trust upon the exercise of Rights and any amendment to this Agreement shall be subject to the prior consent of the stock exchange on which the Trust Units are listed, if required.

5.12 Declaration as to Non-Canadian Holders

If in the opinion of the Board (who may rely on the advice of counsel) any action or event contemplated by this Agreement would require compliance with the securities laws or comparable legislation of a jurisdiction outside of Canada, the Board acting in good faith may take such actions as it may deem appropriate to ensure such compliance. In no event shall the Trust or the Rights Agent be required to issue or deliver Rights or securities issuable on exercise of Rights to persons who are citizens, residents or nationals of any jurisdiction other than Canada and any province or territory thereof in which such issue or delivery would be unlawful without registration of the relevant Persons or securities for such purposes.

5.13 Successors

All the covenants and provisions of this Agreement by or for the benefit of the Trust or the Rights Agent shall bind and enure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns hereunder.

5.14 Benefits of this Agreement

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to give to any Person other than the Trust, the Rights Agent and the holders of the Rights any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Agreement; this Agreement shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Trust, the Rights Agent and the holders of the Rights.

5.15 Governing Law

This Agreement and the Rights issued hereunder shall be deemed to be a contract made under the laws of the Province of Alberta and for all purposes will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of such province applicable to contracts to be made and performed entirely within such province.

5.16 Language

The parties hereto have required that this Agreement and all documents and notices related thereto and/or resulting therefrom be drawn up in English.

5.17 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and each of such counterparts will for all purposes be deemed to be an original, and all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

5.18 Severability

If any term or provision hereof or the application thereof to any circumstance is, in any jurisdiction and to any extent, invalid or unenforceable, such term or provision will be ineffective as to such jurisdiction to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without invalidating or rendering unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions hereof or the application of such term or provision to circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable.

5.19 Effective Date

This Agreement is effective from the date hereof. If this Agreement is not confirmed by resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast by Independent Unitholders who vote in respect of confirmation of this Agreement at a meeting of unitholders to be held not later than the date on which the annual meeting of unitholders of the Trust held in 2000 terminates, then this Agreement and all outstanding Rights shall terminate and be void and of no further force and effect, on and from that date which is the earlier of (a) the date of termination of the meeting called to consider the confirmation of this Agreement under this Section 5.19 and (b) the date of termination of the annual meeting of unitholders of the Trust held in 2000.

5.20 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence hereof.

5.21 Unitholder Review

At the first annual meeting of unitholders of the Trust following the second anniversary of the date of this Agreement, and at every second annual meeting of unitholders of the Trust held thereafter, provided that a Flip-in Event has not occurred prior to such time, the Board shall submit a resolution to the Independent Unitholders for their consideration and, if thought fit approval, ratifying the continued existence of the Rights Agreement. If a majority of the votes cast by Independent Unitholders who vote in respect of such resolution are voted against the continued existence of the Rights Agreement, the Board shall, immediately upon the confirmation by the chairman of such unitholders' meeting of the result of the vote on such resolution and without further formality, be deemed to have elected to redeem the Rights at the Redemption Price.

5.22 Determinations and Actions by the Board

All actions and determinations (including all omissions with respect to the foregoing) which are done or made by the Board in good faith, shall not subject any member of the Board to any liability whatsoever to the holders of the Rights.

FORM OF RIGHTS CERTIFICATE

Certificate No. _____

_____ Rights

THE RIGHTS ARE SUBJECT TO REDEMPTION, AT THE OPTION OF THE TRUST, ON THE TERMS SET FORTH IN THE RIGHTS AGREEMENT. IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES (SPECIFIED IN SECTION 3.1(b) OF THE RIGHTS AGREEMENT), RIGHTS BENEFICIALLY OWNED BY AN ACQUIRING PERSON OR TRANSFEREES OF AN ACQUIRING PERSON OR ITS AFFILIATES OR ASSOCIATES (AS SUCH TERMS ARE DEFINED IN THE RIGHTS AGREEMENT) OR ANY PERSON ACTING JOINTLY OR IN CONCERT WITH ANY OF THEM, MAY BECOME VOID.

Rights Certificate

This certifies that _____, or registered assigns, is the registered holder of the number of Rights set forth above, each of which entitles the registered holder thereof, subject to the terms, provisions and conditions of the Unitholder Rights Plan Agreement dated as of January 25, 2000 as amended from time to time (the "Rights Agreement") among Shiningbank Energy Income Fund, an open-ended investment trust created under the laws of Alberta (the "Trust"), Shiningbank Energy Ltd. ("Shiningbank"), a body corporate incorporated under the laws of Alberta, and Montreal Trust Company of Canada, a trust company incorporated under the laws of Canada, as Rights Agent (the "Rights Agent"), which term shall include any successor rights agent under the Rights Agreement, to purchase from the Trust at any time after the Separation Time (as such term is defined in the Rights Agreement) and prior to the earlier of (i) the Termination Time (as such term is defined in the Rights Agreement) and (ii) the termination of the annual meeting of the Trust in the year 2000, one fully paid trust unit of the Trust (a "Trust Unit") at the Exercise Price referred to below, upon presentation and surrender of this Rights Certificate together with the Form of Election to Exercise duly executed to the Rights Agent at its principal office in the City of Calgary or in such other cities as may be designated by the Trust from time to time. The Exercise Price shall initially be $50.00 per Right and shall be subject to adjustment in certain events as provided in the Rights Agreement.

In certain circumstances described in the Rights Agreement, the number of Trust Units, which each Right entitles the registered holder thereof to purchase, shall be adjusted as provided in the Rights Agreement.

This Rights Certificate is subject to all of the terms, provisions and conditions of the Rights Agreement, the terms, provisions and conditions of which are hereby incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof and to which Rights Agreement reference is hereby made for a full description of the rights, limitations of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Rights Agent, the Trust, Shiningbank and the holders of the Rights Certificates. Copies of the Rights Agreement are on file at the principal executive offices of the Trust and are available upon written request.

This Rights Certificate, with or without other Rights Certificates, upon surrender at any of the offices of the Rights Agent designated for such purpose, may be exchanged for another Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates of like tenor and date evidencing an aggregate number of Rights equal to the aggregate number of Rights evidenced by the Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates surrendered. If this Rights Certificate shall be exercised in part, the registered holder shall be entitled to receive, upon surrender hereof, another Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates for the number of whole Rights not exercised.

Subject to the provisions of the Rights Agreement, the Rights evidenced by this Certificate may be redeemed by the Trust at a redemption price of $.00001 per Right, subject to adjustment in certain events, under certain circumstances, at its option.

No fractional Trust Units will be issued upon the exercise of any Rights evidenced hereby, but in lieu thereof a cash payment will be made, as provided in the Rights Agreement.

No holder of this Rights Certificate, as such, shall be entitled to vote or receive dividends or be deemed for any purpose the holder of Trust Units or of any other securities which may at any time be issuable upon the exercise hereof, nor shall anything contained in the Rights Agreement or herein be construed to confer upon the holder hereof, as such, any of the Rights of a unitholder of the Trust or any right to vote for the election of directors or upon any matter submitted to unitholders at any meeting thereof, or to give or withhold consent to any corporate action, or to receive notice of meetings or other actions affecting unitholders (except as provided in the Rights Agreement), or to receive dividends or subscription rights, or otherwise, until the Rights evidenced by this Rights Certificate shall have been exercised as provided in the Rights Agreement.

This Rights Certificate shall not be valid or obligatory for any purpose until the Rights Agent shall have countersigned it.

CAL_LAW\1014681\1

ROYALTY AGREEMENT made effective the 8th day of March, 2004

Between:

Shiningbank Energy Ltd., a corporation incorporated under the laws of Alberta with office in Calgary, Alberta, as Managing Partner for and on behalf of SHININGBANK ENERGY PARTNERSHIP, a general partnership formed under the laws of Alberta, having its office and principal place of business in Calgary, Alberta (the "Grantor")

and

Computershare Trust Company of Canada, a trust company incorporated under the laws of Canada with offices in Calgary, Alberta as trustee for and on behalf of SHININGBANK ENERGY INCOME FUND, a trust formed in accordance with the laws of Alberta, having its office and principal place of business in Calgary, Alberta (the "Royalty Owner")

Recital:

- A. The Grantor wishes to grant the Royalty and the Royalty Owner wishes to acquire the Royalty from the Grantor on the terms and conditions set forth herein; and
- B. It is the intent of the parties hereto that the Royalty be a Canadian resource property, as defined herein.

The parties agree as follows.

ARTICLE 1 DEFINITIONS

1.1 Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement, including the recitals, the following words and expressions shall have the following meanings except where the context otherwise expressly provides:

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL
CORPORATE FINANCE

"Amalgamation Date" means the 8th day of March, 2004;

"ARC" means credits or rebates in respect of Crown Royalties which are paid or credited by the Crown, including those paid or credited under the Alberta Corporate Tax Act which are commonly known as 'Alberta Royalty Credits';

"Arrangement" means the Plan of Arrangement described in a Notice of Special Meeting of TUSK Energy Inc. Shareholders to be held October 28, 2004 and Notice of Petition to the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta and Information Circular with respect to a such arrangement, all dated September 28, 2004;

"Arrangement Notes" mean the notes issued by the Grantor or any of its Partners or preceding entities that became due to the Grantee in the course of the Arrangement, as refinanced from time to time and as described in Schedule "A" hereto, and such other notes or indebtedness as are described from time to time in Schedule "A" as amended by agreement between the parties;

"Asset Value" in respect of any Property or the Properties at any time means the present worth (using the Discount Rate) of the estimated pre-tax net cash flow from such Property or the Properties of the Proved Reserves and 50% of the Probable Reserves shown on the most recent independent engineering report relating to such Property or the Properties;

"Birchill Notes" means notes in the amount of $170,101,624 issued by SEL to SEIF, which is the amount of the debt incurred by SEL in the course of its acquisition of Birchill Resources Ltd., as refinanced from time to time and as described in Schedule "A" hereto and as reduced (directly or indirectly) by the Royalty Sale Price paid pursuant hereto, and such other notes or indebtedness as are described from time to time in Schedule "A" as amended by agreement between the parties;

"Business Day" means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday in Alberta;

"Canadian resource property" shall have the meaning attributable to such term in the Tax Act,

"Capital Costs" means:

- (a) drilling costs, completion costs and equipping costs of wells; and
- (b) all other costs relating to the Properties which are "capital costs" under GAAP;

but does not include Future Acquisition Costs;

"Commodity Price Swaps" means swap, hedging and other arrangements made by the Grantor, from time to time, the purpose of which is to mitigate or eliminate fluctuations in prices or commodities which affect Production Costs or revenues attributable to the Properties;

"Credit Facilities" means the Birchill Notes and credit facilities of the Grantor existing as of the date hereof, and those made available to the Grantor, from time to time hereafter, to fund the payment of or to refinance the payment of Production Costs, Future Acquisition Costs and other requirements of the Grantor, and all amendments thereto, substitutions therefor and replacements thereof;

"Crown" means Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Canada or a Province thereof;

"Crown Royalties" means any amount paid or payable to or received or receivable by the Crown by virtue of an obligation imposed by statute or a contractual obligation substituted for an obligation imposed by statute as a royalty, tax (other than municipal or school tax), lease rental or bonus or in lieu thereof that may be reasonably regarded as being in relation to P&NG Rights or the production of Petroleum Substances;

"Currency Exchange Swaps" means swap, hedging and other arrangements made by the Grantor, from time to time, the purpose of which is to mitigate or eliminate fluctuations in rates of exchange of one currency for another which affect Production Costs or revenues attributable to the Properties;

"Debt Service Charges" means, in respect of a Period:

- (a) all interest, penalties, fees, indemnities, legal costs, and other costs, expenses and disbursements pursuant to the Credit Facilities and which, in each case, accrue during such Period;
- (b) all amounts payable during such Period on account of principal pursuant to the Credit Facilities including, without limitation, scheduled, prepaid (voluntary or mandatory) and accelerated principal and (subject to the provisos below) any amounts required to be paid on account of banker's acceptances and letters of credit (other than fees described in (a) above);
- (c) plus (if there is a net loss) or minus (if there is a net profit) the net profit or loss from Interest Rate Swaps which accrues during such Period;

provided that the difference between the face amount of a banker's acceptance which is issued and accepted pursuant to the Credit Facilities and its discount proceeds (such difference being the "imputed interest") shall be treated as interest accruing at the times that it is considered to accrue in accordance with GAAP and provided that when the Grantor becomes liable under the Credit Facilities to pay the full amount of a banker's acceptance, the face amount less the amount of imputed interest for such banker's acceptance shall be included in the Debt Service Charges;

"Deductible Production Costs" means, in respect of a Period and without duplication:

- (a) Production Costs for that Period; plus
- (b) Deductible Production Costs which are carried forward to such Period pursuant to Section 3.4; less

- (c) Production Costs paid from advances made pursuant to the Credit Facilities; and
- (d) payments made in that Period by the Grantor in respect of Production Costs from Other Revenues and Grantor Disposition Proceeds pursuant to subsection 2.3(c);

"Deferred Purchase Payment" means any payment in addition to the payment of the Initial Purchase Payment required to be made by the Royalty Owner to the Grantor pursuant to Section 2.2 as additional consideration for the Royalty;

"Discount Rate" on any particular day shall be the lesser of:

- (a) twice the yield on ten year Government of Canada Bonds on the fifth Business Day preceding the particular date, rounded down to the nearest whole percentage point;
- (b) the yield on ten year Government of Canada Bonds on the fifth Business Day preceding the particular date plus 8%, rounded down to the nearest whole percentage point; or
- (c) 15%;

"Farmout" means an agreement whereby a Person at arm's length to the Grantor and the Royalty Owner agrees to pay for the drilling of one or more wells on one or more of the Properties in order to earn an interest therein with the Grantor retaining a royalty or residual interest in such Properties;

"Future Acquisition Costs" means amounts paid by or on behalf of the Grantor in respect of the costs of acquiring interests in Additional Properties (including purchase price, adjustments, broker's fees and commissions, professional and consulting fees and disbursements);

"GAAP" means, as of any time, generally accepted accounting principles in Canada as at such time;

"General and Administrative Costs" means the amount in aggregate representing all expenditures and costs incurred in the management and administration of the Grantor and the Royalty Owner including, without limitation:

- (a) all reasonable costs and expenses relating to the Grantor and the Royalty Owner and paid directly to Third Parties by or on behalf of the Grantor or the Royalty Owner or their Affiliates, including, without limitation, Trustee's fees; and
- (b) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Grantor specifically for the Royalty Owner including, without limitation, auditing, accounting, bookkeeping, rent and other leasehold expenses, legal, land administration, engineering, travel, telephone, data processing, reporting, executive and management time, salaries and all of those costs and expenses incurred by the Grantor in discharging its obligations to the Royalty Owner and Trustee;

"Grantor" means Shiningbank Energy Ltd., a corporation incorporated under the laws of Alberta with office in Calgary, Alberta, as Managing Partner for and on behalf of Shiningbank Energy Partnership, a general partnership formed under the laws of Alberta;

"Grantor Disposition Proceeds" means:

- (a) 1% of the proceeds of assignment, sale or other disposition of the Properties or any portion thereof (excluding proceeds in respect of Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests directly related thereto); plus the portion of the remaining 99% of such proceeds which are utilized to repay borrowings of the Grantor; and
- (b) 100% of the proceeds of assignment, sale or other disposition of Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests directly related to the Properties assigned, sold or otherwise disposed of;

"Grantor's Share" means the share (determined as if the Royalty had not been granted) which is attributable to the Properties, for which the Grantor is responsible or to which the Grantor is entitled;

"Grantor's Share of Production" means the Grantor's Share of the production of Petroleum Substances from the Royalty Lands and lands pooled or unitized therewith;

"Initial Properties" means those P&NG Rights, Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests in which the Grantor has an interest (whether contingent or absolute, legal or beneficial, present or future, vested or not) as of the Amalgamation Date including, without limitation, the P&NG Rights, Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests;

"Initial Purchase Payment" means the payment by the Royalty Owner of the Royalty Sale Price;

"Interest Rate Swaps" means interest rate swap, hedging and other arrangements made by the Grantor, from time to time, the purpose of which is to mitigate or eliminate exposure to fluctuations in interest rates applicable to the Credit Facilities or which otherwise affect Production Costs;

"In Specie Distribution" means a distribution pursuant to Section 3.13 of the Trust Indenture;

"Leases" means collectively the leases, reservations, permits, licenses, certificates of title or other documents of title (including all renewals and extensions of such documents and all documents issued in substitution therefor) by virtue of which the holder thereof is entitled to drill for, win, own, remove and/or receive proceeds from the sale or disposition of Petroleum Substances within, upon or under all or any part of the Royalty Lands or lands pooled or unitized therewith;

"Lender" means:

- (a) the lender or lenders (if there is more than one) that make the Credit Facilities available to the Grantor or other pertinent parties and includes any agent acting on their behalf; and
- (b) the Person or Persons with whom the Grantor makes Swap Arrangements;

"Miscellaneous Interests" means all interests, property, rights and assets of the Grantor, whether contingent or absolute, legal or beneficial, present or future, vested or not (and not being P&NG Rights, Tangibles, seismic or geophysical data), which pertain to the P&NG Rights or Tangibles or are described below in this definition, including without limitation, the interests of the Grantor in any of the following property, rights and assets:

- (a) contracts, agreements and documents (including Title and Operating Documents) relating to any of such P&NG Rights or Tangibles or any rights in relation thereto;
- (b) Surface Rights which are used or held for use in connection with any of such P&NG Rights or Tangibles;
- (c) permits, licences, authorizations and deposits relating to any of such P&NG Rights or Tangibles, including in respect of facilities, wells and pipelines, the export, removal, transportation, purchase or sale of Petroleum Substances;
- (d) the wells;
- (e) all extensions, renewals, replacements or amendments of the foregoing items described in subparagraphs (a) to (d) of this definition;
- (f) books, maps, records, documents, geological, engineering, data processing, well, plant and other reports, studies, data, information, tapes, disks, computer programs, papers or other records which relate to or are necessary or useful in connection with the Properties or any of the property or assets referred to in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this definition;

provided always that Miscellaneous Interests and Properties shall not include the well bores for wells located on the Royalty Lands which are dry and abandoned and for which a certificate of reclamation or certificate of restoration has been issued;

"Month" means a period commencing at 7:00 a.m. Calgary time on the first day of a calendar month and ending at 7:00 a.m. Calgary time on the first day of the following calendar month;

"Non-Deductible Crown Royalties" means Crown Royalties which are either:

- (a) required to be included in taxable income pursuant to the Tax Act, or
- (b) not permitted to be deducted in computing taxable income pursuant to the Tax Act;

"Other Revenues" means, in respect of a Period, ARC payable to the Grantor during the Period and the Grantor's Share of all revenues which accrue during such Period including, without limitation:

- (a) fees and similar payments made by Third Parties for processing, transportation, gathering, refining or treatment of their Petroleum Substances in facilities comprised in the Tangibles;
- (b) proceeds from the sale of Petroleum Substances purchased from Third Parties and processed in facilities comprised in the Tangibles;
- (c) take or pay and similar payments made to the Grantor in lieu of a buyer taking delivery of all or a portion of the Grantor's Share of Production;
- (d) proceeds from the sale of Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests (except when sold in connection with P&NG Rights);
- (e) insurance proceeds, including business interruption insurance, property damage insurance and third party liability insurance proceeds;
- (f) the net profit or loss (which shall be a negative amount for purposes of computing the Other Revenues if there is a net loss) from Currency Exchange Swaps which settled during the Period;
- (g) incentives, rebates and credits in respect of Production Costs payable to the Grantor during the Period; and
- (h) proceeds from the sale or licensing of seismic and similar data;

but not including Production Revenues and proceeds from the sale of P&NG Rights and any related Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests;

"P&NG Rights" means all of the right, title, estate and interest of the Grantor (whether absolute or contingent, legal or beneficial, present or future, vested or not, and whether or not an interest in land) that are Canadian resource properties in or to:

- (a) rights to explore for, drill for, produce, take, save or market Petroleum Substances;
- (b) rights to a share of the production of Petroleum Substances;
- (c) rights to a share of the proceeds of, or to receive payments calculated by reference to the quantity or value of, the production of Petroleum Substances, other than rights under agreements for the sale of Petroleum Substances;
- (d) interests in and to and in respect of the Leases and the Royalty Lands held by the Grantor as of the Amalgamation Date subject to the burdens, liens and encumbrances existing as of the Amalgamation Date;

- (e) the interests in and to and in respect of the Leases and the Royalty Lands hereafter acquired by the Grantor subject to the burdens, liens and encumbrances existing at the time of such acquisition;
- (f) rights to acquire any of the rights described in subparagraphs (a) to (e) of this definition; and

1.2 Number and Gender

Words importing the singular number include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender include the masculine, feminine and neuter genders.

1.3 References

The table of contents and headings herein are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement. A reference herein to an Article, Section or subsection without further reference shall be a reference to an Article, Section or subsection of this Agreement.

1.4 Choice of Law

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be construed, interpreted and performed in accordance therewith.

1.5 Attornment

Any legal action or proceedings with respect to this Agreement shall be brought in the courts of the Province of Alberta and the courts of appeal therefrom. Each Party hereby attorns to and accepts for itself and in respect of its assets generally, irrevocably and unconditionally, the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts.

1.6 Monetary Sums

All references herein to dollar amounts or sums of money are to lawful funds of Canada.

1.7 In Specie Distribution

In the event of an in specie distribution of an interest in the Royalty pursuant to the rights of retraction in the Trust Indenture, as amended, there shall be no further acquisition of properties under this Agreement.

1.8 Canadian resource property

It is the intent of the parties hereto that the Royalty be a Canadian resource property as that term is defined herein. Accordingly, if the operation of any provision herein would render the Royalty something other than a Canadian resource property, such provision shall be modified to the minimum extent possible to cause the Royalty to be a Canadian resource property while changing the economics of the relationship hereby created as little as is reasonably possible.

ARTICLE 2 ROYALTY

2.1 Royalty Grant

- (a) Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Grantor hereby grants, transfers, assigns and conveys the Royalty to the Royalty Owner.
- (b) Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Royalty Owner, as the owner of the Royalty, shall be entitled to a payment from the Grantor with respect to each Period equal to the Royalty Income and the Grantor hereby covenants and agrees to make such payment.

- (c) Upon written invoice from time to time with respect to a specified period, the Royalty Owner shall reimburse to the Grantor the portion specified by the Grantor of all Non-Deductible Crown Royalties payable by the Grantor in respect of the Properties or the production of Petroleum Substances therefrom with respect to such period, which shall not be more than ninety-nine percent (99%) of all such Non-Deductible Crown Royalties payable by the Grantor in respect of such period. The Grantor shall be entitled to set off such reimbursable amounts against any payment required hereunder.
- (d) Subject to Section 6.6, the Grantor may acquire Additional Properties. Upon the acquisition of Additional Properties by the Grantor, such Additional Properties shall also automatically be subject to the Royalty, subject, to the extent applicable, to the security described in subsection 9.2(b).

2.2 Payment for Royalty Grant

- (a) The Royalty Owner shall pay to the Grantor as consideration for the granting and transferring of the Royalty:
 - (i) the Initial Purchase Payment; and
 - (ii) the Deferred Purchase Payments.
- (b) If the Grantor acquires any Additional Properties, whether by way of a purchase of Additional Properties or the acquisition of the shares of a corporation or an interest in a partnership, trust or other entity (such corporations, partnerships, trusts and other entities being hereinafter referred to as a "Subsidiary" or "Subsidiaries") that owns Additional Properties and the subsequent winding-up, liquidation or similar combination (a "Combination") of such Subsidiary with the Grantor, the Royalty Owner shall make a Deferred Purchase Payment to the Grantor in an amount equal to 99% of the amount of the purchase price (including adjustments) for such Additional Properties that is allocated to Canadian resource property, to the extent that such purchase price is not financed with indebtedness incurred or assumed by the Grantor, provided that in the event of an acquisition of Additional Properties by way of acquisition of a Subsidiary and its subsequent Combination with the Grantor for purposes of determining the amount of the Deferred Purchase Payment respecting such Additional Property:
 - (i) the purchase price for such Additional Property shall be deemed to include the purchase price paid for the securities of such Subsidiary and the indebtedness of such Subsidiary that is not discharged prior to such acquisition; and not discharged prior to such acquisition) shall be deemed to be indebtedness incurred or assumed by the Grantor in that regard, and such indebtedness shall be first allocated to any Canadian resource property that is included in such Additional Property up to the fair market value of such Canadian resource property, and the remaining indebtedness, if any, shall be allocated among the other components of such Additional Property pro rata in accordance with their respective fair market values.

- (c) If the Grantor designates any Capital Costs on or before the date on which the same are incurred, the Royalty Owner shall make a Deferred Purchase Payment to the Grantor in an amount equal to 99% of the amount of such designated Capital Costs incurred by the Grantor to the extent that such Capital Costs are not financed with indebtedness incurred or assumed by the Grantor.
- (d) If at any time while the Royalty Owner has an obligation to make a Deferred Purchase Payment to the Grantor, the Grantor is indebted to the Royalty Owner, the Deferred Purchase Payment shall be set off against such indebtedness.

2.3 Use of Other Revenues and Grantor Disposition Proceeds

The Grantor shall not pay or be required to pay to the Royalty Owner the Other Revenues or the Grantor Disposition Proceeds. The Royalty Owner shall have no interest of any kind whatsoever in the Other Revenues or the Grantor Disposition Proceeds, provided however, after the Amalgamation Date and as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt thereof by the Grantor, the Grantor shall use the Other Revenues and such portion of the Grantor Disposition Proceeds not utilized to repay borrowings of the Grantor for any of the following purposes:

- (a) purchase of Permitted Investments;
- (b) payment of Future Acquisition Costs;
- (c) general corporate purposes of the Grantor; and
- (d) payment of or provision for Production Costs (which would otherwise be deducted in determining Deductible Production Costs);

provided that the Grantor shall not use the Other Revenues for the payment of or provision for Production Costs unless the grantor is of the opinion that such payment shall not have any adverse tax consequences for the Grantor or the Royalty Owner.

2.4 No Right to Take In Kind

The Royalty Owner shall not have the right:

- (a) to take in kind all or any portion of the Grantor's Share of Production for a Period;
or

- (b) to separately sell or market all or any portion of the Grantor's Share of Production for a Period.

2.5 No Share of Production

The Royalty Owner shall not own or have any rights to any of the Grantor's Share of Production.

2.6 Petroleum Substances Used in Operations

The Royalty shall not apply to Petroleum Substances lost or consumed in operations.

2.7 Not an Interest in Land

The Royalty:

- (a) is not a covenant attached to or running with the Royalty Lands;
- (b) is not an interest in land;
- (c) is not an interest in real property; and
- (d) does not attach to or form part of the Leases.

ARTICLE 3
PAYMENTS AND STATEMENTS

3.1 Payments

- (a) As soon as is reasonably practicable following the end of a Period the Grantor shall pay the Royalty Payment for such Period to the Royalty Owner.
- (b) To the extent that Royalty Disposition Proceeds create a credit balance in the Grantor's cumulative Canadian oil and gas property expense account (as defined under the Tax Act) as at the end of any calendar year, the Grantor shall remit to the Royalty Owner on or before the tenth day of the following January, an amount from the Proceeds Account equal to such credit balance so as to permit the distribution thereof.
- (c) Royalty Disposition Proceeds shall be paid by the Grantor to the Royalty Owner in accordance with any required approval obtained from the Unitholders or the board of directors of the Grantor to an assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition of Properties and in any event, any Royalty Disposition Proceeds which are not used to purchase Additional Properties within one year from the date the same are deposited in the Proceeds Account shall be forthwith paid by the Grantor to the Royalty Owner.
- (d) On the fifteenth day of the Month following the end of a Period or the next following Business Day, if such day is not a Business Day, interest income accrued on the Proceeds Account during such Period shall be paid by the Grantor to the Royalty Owner.

- (e) Where there are amounts owing by a Royalty Owner as a result of the provisions of this Agreement, any payments pursuant to this Article may be offset against such amounts owing
- (f) The Grantor shall satisfy, perform and discharge all obligations and responsibilities under the Income Tax Act (Canada) or any similar provincial legislation, including withholding any taxes required to be withheld from such payments.

3.2 Statements

- (a) Each Royalty Payment in respect of a Quarter, and each Royalty Payment in respect of the last Month in a Quarter, shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth:
 - (i) the amount of the Royalty Payment for such Quarter;
 - (ii) all calculations used in determining the Royalty Payment for such Quarter;
 - (iii) the Grantor's Share of Production (itemized by product) sold during such Quarter;
 - (iv) the Non-Deductible Crown Royalties for such Quarter;
 - (v) the Production Revenues for such Quarter;
 - (vi) the Other Revenues for such Quarter;
 - (vii) an itemized list of the Production Costs and Deductible Production Costs for such Quarter;
 - (viii) the Properties surrendered, farmed out, disposed of or acquired in such Quarter;
 - (ix) wells drilled, cased, or abandoned in such Quarter; and
 - (x) the amount of the Proceeds Account and Royalty Owner Working Capital Account as at the end of such Quarter and the amount of the Deferred Purchase Payments, if any, made in such Quarter.

3.3 Overpayments

If the payment made by the Grantor on account of the Royalty for a Period is greater than the actual amount of the Royalty Payment for such Period, the Grantor shall be entitled to recover the overpayment by set off against Royalty Payments for subsequent Periods.

3.4 Carry Forward of Deductible Production Costs

If the Deductible Production Costs for a Period exceed the Production Revenues for such Period, there shall be no Royalty Payment for such Period and the amount of the excess shall be carried forward and treated as Deductible Production Costs for the following Period and, if required, subsequent Periods.

3.5 Collection of Production Revenues and Other Revenues

The Grantor shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the payment of Production Revenues and Other Revenues but shall not have any liability to the Royalty Owner to the extent that it fails to collect them, notwithstanding such commercially reasonable efforts to do so.

ARTICLE 4 INSURANCE

4.1 Maintenance of Insurance

The Grantor shall obtain and maintain such property damage and third party liability insurance with respect to the Properties with reputable insurers in such amounts and covering such risks as it reasonably determines to be appropriate, having regard to the insurance maintained by the operators pursuant to the Title and Operating Documents.

ARTICLE 5 BOOKS AND RECORDS

5.1 Examination

During the term hereof and for a period of two years thereafter the Grantor shall maintain in Calgary, Alberta complete books and records pertaining to (i) the Royalty, (ii) Petroleum Substances attributable to the Royalty Lands consumed or sold by the Grantor, and (iii) all calculations made by the Grantor to determine the amount of payments on account of the Royalty. The Royalty Owner shall have the right at all reasonable times during business hours to inspect such books and records to the extent reasonably necessary in order to verify the amount paid or payable hereunder in respect of the Royalty.

5.2 Audit

Upon notice to the Grantor, the Royalty Owner shall have the right to audit the books and records referred to in Section 5.1 within the 24 month period next following the end of the calendar year to which they relate. The costs of any such audit shall be borne by the Royalty Owner. Any claims of discrepancies disclosed by such audit shall be made in writing to the Grantor within two months of the completion of such audit. The Grantor shall respond to any claims within six months of receipt of such claims. If the Grantor is unable to respond to the claims during the six month period, one extension of three months may be allowed if requested in writing by the Grantor within such six month period. If the Grantor disagrees with such claim or discrepancy and such matter cannot be settled, then the matter shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Act (Alberta) as amended. In the event that the Grantor agrees with the claim or discrepancy or the claim or discrepancy is upheld, in whole or in part, by arbitration, the Grantor shall forthwith rectify same and where such rectification includes payment of sums, promptly credit such sums to the Production Revenues, Other Revenues, Grantor Disposition Proceeds or otherwise as appropriate.

5.3 Confidentiality

The Royalty Owner shall keep all information provided to it pursuant to this Agreement (including, without limitation, information made available to it in connection with the audits, examinations and inspections conducted by it pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Article 5) strictly confidential, except for information which it is required by law to be disclosed or becomes publicly available through no act or omission of the Royalty Owner or which becomes available to the Royalty Owner from a source other than the Grantor, without confidentiality restrictions.

ARTICLE 6 OPERATIONS

6.1 Generally

Having regard to and subject to the provisions of the Title and Operating Documents and the Grantor's rights and obligations thereunder, the Grantor shall use all reasonable efforts so that:

- (a) operations on the Royalty Lands and lands pooled or unitized therewith for the recovery of Petroleum Substances and the operation of the Tangibles are conducted in compliance with all applicable Regulations and in accordance with good oil and gas field practices;
- (b) all duties and obligations of the Grantor under the Title and Operating Documents are diligently and promptly performed and all amounts payable as rental, royalty or similar charges from time to time due in respect of the Properties or in accordance with applicable laws are paid and all other actions as may be reasonably necessary to maintain the Title and Operating Documents in good standing at all times are taken, subject to the terms and provisions hereof; and
- (c) all Surface Rights needed for the proper operation of the Royalty Lands and the Tangibles are acquired and maintained in good standing and all taxes, rates, assessments and other amounts from time to time payable in respect of the Royalty Lands and the Tangibles are promptly paid.
- (d) the Grantor:
 - (i) shall pay or cause to be paid, as they become due and payable, Grantor's Share of all accounts of contractors and claims for wages or salaries for services rendered or performed for the Grantor and for materials supplied to the Grantor;

- (ii) shall keep the Royalty Lands free from liens and encumbrances resulting from the failure to pay the costs described in subsection 6.1(d)(i) above, unless and to the extent there is a bona fide dispute with respect thereto; and
- (iii) shall not permit any dues or claims from any Workers' Compensation Board or similar authority established under any Regulations to become in arrears with respect to Grantor's employees.

6.2 No Obligation to Develop

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall impose any obligation, expressed or implied, on the Grantor to explore or develop the Royalty Lands.

6.3 Compliance with and Maintenance of Title and Operating Documents

The Grantor covenants to and in favour of the Royalty Owner that, except as provided in Article 7, the Grantor shall:

- (a) observe and perform all of its duties and obligations under the Title and Operating Documents; and
- (b) not, without the written consent of the Royalty Owners owning greater than 50% of the Royalty which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed:
 - (i) agree to the amendment or termination of the Title and Operating Documents; or
 - (ii) waive or consent to a departure from the performance by any Person of any of such Person's obligations under the Title and Operating Documents;

which could have a material, adverse effect on the Royalty or the rights and obligations of the Royalty Owner in respect of the Royalty, provided, however, that acts or omissions by Persons (including operators) without specific authorization from the joint operators and acts or omissions approved by affirmative vote of the joint operators which the Grantor did not vote in favour of and which are binding upon the Grantor shall not constitute a breach of the foregoing provisions.

6.4 Rights and Obligations

Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, as between the Royalty Owner and the Grantor, the Grantor shall have exclusive control and authority over the production, operation, exploration and development of the Royalty Lands and lands pooled or unitized therewith and the recovery of Petroleum Substances from the Royalty Lands and lands pooled or unitized therewith and the marketing thereof. As between the Royalty Owner and the Grantor, the Grantor shall make all decisions regarding drilling, completion, equipping, suspension and abandonment of wells and the rates of production of Petroleum Substances therefrom. Subject to the other provisions of this Article 6, the Grantor shall undertake and implement such activities in such manner as it determines in its sole discretion. The Royalty Owner acknowledges that, as owner of the Royalty, it shall not be entitled to any interest in the Properties or the Title and Operating Documents and the Grantor acknowledges that the Royalty Owner, as owner of the Royalty, shall not be liable for any of the duties or obligations arising thereunder. The Grantor shall arrange for the sale of the Grantor's Share of Production on such terms and conditions as the Grantor (acting in good faith and in accordance with good oil and gas field practices) may determine.

6.5 Capital Costs

The Grantor may approve future Capital Costs or other obligations intended to maintain or improve production from the Properties. The Grantor shall not approve Capital Costs on exploration drilling without the approval of the Unitholders except where such drilling relates to the extension of an existing pool. The Grantor may finance Capital Costs by borrowings or by using Grantor's working capital. The Royalty Owner acknowledges that the non-approval of Capital Costs on exploration or development drilling may result in a production penalty or forfeiture under the Title and Operating Documents.

6.6 Borrowing

- (a) Subject to subsection 6.6(b) below, the Grantor may borrow funds pursuant to the Credit Facilities or from the Royalty Owner or otherwise to finance the purchase of Additional Properties, for Capital Costs or for other financial obligations or encumbrances in respect of the Properties or for working capital purposes and grant security on the Properties in priority to the Royalty in accordance with subsection 9.2(b);
- (b) The Grantor may not borrow funds under subsection 6.6(a) in circumstances where immediately after such proposed borrowing:
 - (i) the Grantor's total indebtedness pursuant to the Credit Facilities to parties other than the Trustee and the Grantor's Affiliates shall exceed 40% of the aggregate Asset Value of all Initial Properties and the Additional Properties owned by the Grantor and its Affiliates, including for greater certainty any Additional Properties to be acquired with the proceeds of such proposed borrowing; or
 - (ii) the projected Debt Service Charges for the next twelve Months exceed 30% of the projected Royalty Payments for the next twelve Months.

Notwithstanding the above limitations on borrowing:

- (c) Any present or future liability or obligation of the Grantor to a financial institution in respect of a borrowing that contravenes subsection 6.6(b) including any obligation to repay a financial institution upon demand, shall not be affected, reduced or impaired by such contravention; and

- (d) the priority, validity, effectiveness and enforceability of any mortgage, charge, security interest or other security whatsoever now or hereafter granted by the Grantor to any financial institution and which contravenes subsection 6.6(b) shall not be affected, prejudiced or impaired by such contravention.

6.7 Costs of Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests

The cost of Tangibles and Miscellaneous Interests comprising any Additional Properties shall be paid by the Grantor utilizing its own working capital or funds borrowed by it for such purposes pursuant to the Credit Facilities or from the Royalty Owner or otherwise.

6.8 Site Restoration Costs

If an In Specie Distribution has occurred, the Grantor may, at its discretion, create a sinking fund to fund site restoration and other liabilities as a result of abandonment of wells.

7.1 Farmouts

The Grantor shall have full right, power and authority to Farmout (and subsequently assign any interest earned pursuant thereto) any of the P&NG Rights comprised in the Properties, from time to time, provided that, in the Grantor's sole discretion, the Farmout is prudent and the terms thereof are in accordance with normal oil and gas industry practices.

7.2 Pooling and Unitization

The Grantor shall have full right, power and authority to pool or unitize any of the P&NG Rights comprised in the Properties, from time to time, with other P&NG rights provided that, in the Grantor's sole discretion, the pooling or unitization is prudent and the terms thereof are in accordance with normal oil and gas industry practices.

7.3 Surrender

Subject to the Title and Operating Documents, the Grantor may surrender a Lease, in whole or in part, without the consent of the Royalty Owner, provided that in the reasonable opinion of the Grantor there are no wells located on the lands covered by the Lease capable of producing Petroleum Substances in paying quantities from the zones which the Grantor proposes to surrender. From and after any such surrender, this Agreement and the Royalty shall cease to apply to the Royalty Lands surrendered except as to matters which occurred prior to the surrender.

7.4 Abandonment and Reclamation

The Grantor shall have the full right, power and authority without the prior consent of the Royalty Owner to authorize the abandonment of any well comprised in the Properties and/or the reclamation of any of the Properties if:

- (a) the Grantor determines in its sole discretion that such well is not capable of producing Petroleum Substances in paying quantities;
- (b) the operator of such well or portion of the Properties recommends or elects to do so; or
- (c) it is in accordance with the Regulations or any order of any government or agency.

ARTICLE 8 DISPOSITION OF PROPERTIES

8.1 Dispositions of Properties

Except as provided in Article 7 and Sections 8.2, 8.3 and 9.2, the Grantor shall not assign, sell or otherwise dispose of any interest in the Properties without first notifying the Royalty Owner of its intention to do so and obtaining the written consent of the Royalty Owner, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

8.2 Release of Royalty

The Grantor may assign, sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the Properties and the Royalty Owner irrevocably authorizes the Grantor to release the Royalty therefrom provided that the Grantor determines such assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition would be in the best interests of the Unitholders and that such assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition is in accordance with the following:

- (a) an assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition of Properties for proceeds in excess of 5% of Asset Value must be approved by the board of directors of the Grantor. In connection with such approval, the board of directors of the Grantor shall determine whether the Royalty Disposition Proceeds in respect of such assignment sale or other disposition should be distributed to Unitholders or used to purchase Additional Properties; and
- (b) all assignments, sales, exchanges or other dispositions of Properties in a calendar year having an aggregate Asset Value of greater than 25% of the Asset Value of all Properties must be approved by a Special Resolution of the Unitholders. In connection with such approval, the Unitholders shall determine whether the net proceeds of such assignments, sales, exchanges or other dispositions should be distributed to the Unitholders or used to purchase Additional Properties.

8.3 Proceeds of Disposition of Properties

- (a) As consideration for the release of the Royalty as provided for in Section 8.2, the Grantor shall, forthwith upon the receipt of any Royalty Disposition Proceeds, deposit the same in an interest bearing account maintained by the Grantor in trust for the Royalty Fund with a Canadian chartered bank (the "Proceeds Account").

- (b) Subject to the entitlement of the Royalty Owner to receive payments in respect of interest earned on the Proceeds Account and to receive distributions of principal from the Proceeds Account as specifically provided for in this Agreement, the Grantor shall hold and apply the funds deposited in the Proceeds Account towards the Royalty Owner's obligation to make Deferred Purchase Payments in accordance with the provisions in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 ASSIGNMENT

9.1 Consent to Assign; Assumption

Except as provided in Section 9.2, a Party shall not assign, sell, mortgage, pledge, charge or grant a security interest in, or otherwise dispose of any interest under this Agreement without first notifying the other Party of its intention to do so and obtaining the written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Subject to subsections 9.2, no such assignment, sale or transfer shall be effective as against the other Party until the assignee, purchaser or transferee shall have executed and delivered a written undertaking, in favour of, and enforceable by, such other Party, agreeing to be bound by and to perform all of the terms and provisions of this Agreement applicable to the interest assigned, sold or disposed of.

9.2 Grant of Security

Notwithstanding Sections 8.1, 8.2 and 9.1:

- (a) the Grantor, without the consent of the Royalty Owner, may:
 - (i) dispose of tools, machinery and equipment which is surplus to its needs;
 - (ii) dispose of Petroleum Substances in the ordinary course of business;
- (b) the Grantor, without the consent of the Royalty Owner, may mortgage, pledge, charge or grant a security interest in the Initial Properties, the Additional Properties or this Agreement:
 - (i) to secure its obligations and liabilities under the Credit Facilities or under Swap Arrangements, which security may be granted in priority to the Royalty;
 - (ii) to secure its obligations and liabilities under any guarantee, contract of indemnity or contract of suretyship (in each case, a "Guarantee") in respect of any liabilities and obligations of any Person, including, without limitation, any Guarantee given in respect of any liabilities and obligations of SEL or any of its Affiliates or any other Person in which the Royalty Owner directly or indirectly holds an interest (whether shares, partnership interests, beneficial interests or otherwise), which security may be granted in priority to the Royalty; and

- (iii) to finance the purchase of Additional Properties or for Capital Costs or other financial obligations or encumbrances in respect of the Initial Properties and/or the Additional Properties or for working capital purposes, and such security on the Initial Properties and/or the Additional Properties may be granted in priority to the Royalty to secure the borrowing of such funds, and may enter into subordination and postponement agreements with the holders of the obligations owed under the Credit Facilities, the Swap Arrangements, any Guarantees and other financing or guarantee transactions confirming the subordination of the Royalty thereto.

- (c) the Lender, any holder or beneficiary of any Guarantee or a receiver or receiver-manager of the Grantor or of all or part of its assets or any other enforcement agent may sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the Properties or the Grantor's interest under this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the approval of the Royalty Owner in the course of realization on security for the Grantor's liabilities and obligations under or in connection with the Credit Facilities or Swap Arrangements or any Guarantee and the Royalty may be released, terminated or foreclosed out in accordance with subsection 9.2(d); and
- (d) if all or a portion of the Properties is to be sold, transferred or conveyed (a "Disposition") by a receiver or receiver-manager of the Grantor or any of its assets or a secured creditor of the Grantor in the course of enforcement of any security having priority over the Royalty (a "Disposing Person") and the Royalty in relation thereto is released, terminated or foreclosed, the portion of the proceeds of the Disposition, net of the cost of the Disposition, to which the Royalty Owner shall be entitled on account of the release, termination or foreclosure of the Royalty and the Royalty Owner's interest in this Agreement or portion thereof pursuant to the Disposition shall be the greater of the following:
 - (i) $10.00; and
 - (ii) 99% of the amount remaining (the "Remainder") after the proceeds of the Disposition, net of the cost of Disposition, have been applied to (A) Production Costs for the Month in which the Disposition occurs (determined as if such Month ended on the date that the Disposition occurred) and (B) the amount of all outstanding liabilities and obligations in respect of the Credit Facilities and Swap Arrangements and all outstanding Guarantees, to the extent (if any) not included in such Production Costs; provided that payment of the Remainder pro rata to the Royalty Owners shall only be made when payments by the Person to whom the Disposition is made are received and after the applications described in items (A) and (B) above have been made.

The balance of the net proceeds of a Disposition not allocated to the interest in the Royalty and the Royalty Owner's interest in this Agreement released pursuant thereto shall be allocated to the interest in the Properties disposed of pursuant thereto.

ARTICLE 10 TERM OF AGREEMENT

10.1 Term

Subject to Article 9, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until there are no Properties to which the Royalty applies. Thereafter, this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect:

- (a) in respect of any accrued and unfulfilled obligations of either Party; and
- (b) as to Articles 5 and 9.

ARTICLE 11 NOTICES AND PAYMENTS

11.1 Addresses for Service and Payments

All payments hereunder in respect of the Royalty shall be paid or tendered to the Royalty Owner at its address for notices hereunder or such other place or depository as the Royalty Owner may request by written notice to the Grantor, provided that no change in the place at which payments on account of the Royalty are to be paid or tendered shall be effective until 30 days after written notice thereof has been provided to the Grantor by the Royalty Owner.

11.2 Giving and Deemed Receipt of Notices

Whether or not so stipulated herein, all notices, communications and statements (herein called "notices") required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing. Notices may be served:

- (a) by delivering them to the Party on which they are to be served at the Party's address for notices hereunder, provided such delivery shall be during normal business hours of the addressee. Such notices shall be deemed received by the addressee when actually delivered as aforesaid; or
- (b) by telecopier (or by any other like method by which a written and recorded message may be sent) directed to the Party on which they are to be served at the Party's telecopy number for notices hereunder. Such notices shall be deemed received by the addressee thereof (i) when actually received by it if sent within the normal working hours of a Business Day of the addressee, or (ii) otherwise at the commencement of the next ensuing Business Day following transmission thereof, whichever is earlier.

11.3 Addresses

The address for service for telecopy numbers and notices hereunder of each of the Parties shall be as follows:

Grantor:

Shiningbank Energy Partnership
1310, 111 – 5th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, AB T2P 3Y6

Attention: Chief Financial Officer
Telecopy: (403) 268-7499

Royalty Owner:

Shiningbank Energy Ltd.
as Administrator for
Shiningbank Energy Income Fund
1310, 111 – 5th Avenue S.W.

710, 530 - 8th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta T2P 3S8

Attention: Manager, Corporate Trust Department
Telecopy: (403) 267-6598

11.4 Change of Address

A Party may change its said address or telecopy number for notices hereunder by notice to the other Party.

11.5 In Specie Distribution

Should an In Specie Distribution occur, the new Royalty Owner shall provide an address for payment and service to the Grantor.

ARTICLE 12
MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Enurement

Subject to Section 9.1, this Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

12.2 Waivers in Writing

No waiver by any Party of any breach of any of the covenants, conditions and provisions herein contained shall be effective or be binding on any other Party unless such waiver is expressed in writing and any waiver so expressed shall not limit or affect its rights with respect to any other or future breach.

12.3 Time of Essence

Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

12.4 No Partnership

Nothing herein shall be construed as creating a partnership between the Parties and neither Party shall have any partnership rights or liabilities hereunder or in connection herewith.

12.5 Severability

This Agreement are severable. In the event of the unenforceability or invalidity of any one or more of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement under applicable law, such unenforceability or invalidity shall not render any of other terms, covenants or conditions hereof unenforceable or invalid and the Parties agree that this Agreement shall be construed as if such unenforceable or invalid term, covenant or condition was never contained herein.

12.6 Amendments

No amendment, alteration or variation of this Agreement or any of its terms or conditions shall be binding upon the Parties unless made in writing and signed by the duly authorized representatives of each of the Parties.

2003 MAY -2 A 11:28

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL
CORPORATE FINANCE

Recitals

- A. The holders of the trust units (the "Unitholders") of the Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Trust") resolved at a Special Meeting of the Unitholders held on October 8, 2002 (the "Meeting"), that the Trust indirectly acquire (the "Internalization Transaction") 100% of the shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc. (the "Manager"), that the Manager and Shiningbank Energy Ltd. be amalgamated to form Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and that Shiningbank Energy Ltd., as amalgamated, be the Administrator of the Trust, and that the Shiningbank Energy Income Fund Trust Indenture dated May 16, 1996, as amended (the "Trust Indenture") be further amended.
- B. All actions have now been taken to give effect to the Internalization Transaction and the amalgamation.
- C. The parties hereto wish to amend and restate the Trust Indenture to reflect the above.

The parties agree as follows:

Article 1
Amendment and Restatement

The Trust Indenture shall be amended and restated, such restatement to be in the form attached as Schedule "A" to this Agreement and such restated Trust Indenture shall be the Trust Indenture for the purposes of the Trust.

Article 2
Continuation

The Trust Indenture, as amended and restated as aforesaid, shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof.

Article 3
Miscellaneous

3.1 Enurement

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

3.2 Waivers in Writing

No waiver by any party hereto of any breach of any of the covenants, conditions and provisions herein contained shall be effective or be binding on any other party hereto unless such waiver is expressed in writing and any waiver so expressed shall not limit or affect its rights with respect to any other or future breach.

3.3 Amendments

No amendment, alteration or variation of this Agreement or any of its terms or conditions shall be binding upon the parties hereto unless made in writing and signed by the duly authorized representatives of each of the parties hereto.

and

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, a trust company incorporated under the laws of Canada, with offices in Calgary, Alberta ("Trustee")

and

SHININGBANK ENERGY LTD., a body corporate amalgamated under the laws of Alberta, with offices in Calgary, Alberta ("Administrator")

Recitals

- A. The Settlor has paid to the Trustee one hundred dollars in lawful money of Canada as the Settled Amount for the purpose of settling the Trust constituted hereby;
- B. The Trustee has agreed to hold the Settled Amount and all amounts and other property subsequently received under this Indenture in trust in accordance with the provisions hereinafter set forth;
- C. It is intended that the beneficiaries of the Trust shall be the holders of Trust Units, each of which Trust Units shall rank equally in all respects with every other Trust Unit;
- D. It is intended that the Trust will offer the Trust Units for sale from time to time and that the net proceeds of the first Offering thereof shall be used to acquire the Royalty, as hereinafter defined;
- E. It is intended that the Trust shall qualify as a "unit trust" and as a "mutual fund trust" under the provisions of paragraph 108(2) and subsection 132(6) of the Income Tax Act (Canada); and

- F. The parties hereto desire to set out the terms and conditions which shall govern the settlement and the administration of the Trust.

The parties agree as follows.

1.1 Definitions

In this Indenture including the recitals and in the Trust Certificates and schedules hereto, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words and expressions shall have the following meanings:

"Administrative Services Agreement" means the agreement to be entered into between the Administrator and the Trustee as trustee for and on behalf of the Trust dated October 9, 2002 as the same may be amended from time to time and includes any subsequent agreement between the Trustee and an administrator whereby an administrator is engaged to provide certain services in connection with the management and administration of the Trust or the Royalty, as set forth herein and therein;

"Administrator" means Shiningbank Energy Ltd., in its capacity as administrator of the Trust in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Services Agreement and shall be deemed to include any replacements or successor administrators under such agreement or as the Trustee may appoint hereunder, or its successor or successors in the office of the administrator of the Trust hereunder;

1.2 Meaning of “Outstanding”

Every Trust Unit created, issued, certified and delivered hereunder shall be deemed to be outstanding until it shall be cancelled or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation provided that:

- (a) when a new Trust Certificate has been issued in substitution for a Trust Certificate which has been lost, stolen or destroyed, only one of such Trust Certificates shall be counted for the purpose of determining the number of Trust Units outstanding; and
- (b) for the purposes of any provision of this Indenture entitling holders of outstanding Trust Units to vote, sign consents, requisitions or other instruments or take any other action under this Indenture, Trust Units owned directly or indirectly, legally or equitably, by the Administrator or any affiliate thereof shall be disregarded except that for the purpose of determining whether the Trustee shall be protected in relying on any such vote, consent, requisition or other instrument or action only the Trust Units which the Trustee knows are so owned shall be so disregarded.

1.3 References to Acts Performed by the Trust

For greater certainty, where any reference is made herein to an act to be performed by the Trust, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by the Trustee on behalf of the Trust or by some other person duly authorized to do so by the Trustee or pursuant to the provisions hereof.

1.4 Tax Act

Any reference to the Tax Act shall refer to the Income Tax Act, Revised Statutes of Canada 1985, Chapter 1 (5th Supplement) and the Income Tax Regulations as amended from time to time applicable with respect thereto. Any reference herein to a particular provision of the Tax Act shall include a reference to that provision as it may be renumbered or amended from time to time. Where there are proposals for amendments to the Tax Act which have not been enacted into law or proclaimed into force on or before the date on which such proposals are to become effective, the Trustee may take such proposals into consideration and apply the provisions hereof as if such proposals had been enacted into law and proclaimed into force.

1.5 Headings

The division of this Trust Indenture into articles and sections, subsections, clauses, subclauses and paragraphs and the provision of headings is for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Indenture.

1.6 Construction of Terms

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and vice versa, and words importing gender shall include the masculine, feminine and neuter genders. References in this Trust Indenture to “this Trust Indenture”, “this Indenture”, “hereto”, “herein”, “hereof”, “hereby”, “hereunder” and similar expressions shall be deemed to refer to this instrument and not to any particular Article, Section or portion hereof and include any and every instrument supplemental or ancillary hereto or in implementation hereof.

Article 2 Declaration of Trust

2.1 Settlement of Trust

The Settlor hereby confirms that it has paid the Settled Amount to the Trustee for the purpose of creating and settling the Trust and the Settlor is hereby issued ten initial Trust Units in the Trust.

2.2 Declaration of Trust

The Trustee hereby agrees that it does and shall hold the Trust Fund in trust for the use and benefit of the Unitholders, their permitted assigns and personal representatives upon the trusts and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter declared and set forth.

2.3 Name

The Trust shall be known and designated as “Shiningbank Energy Income Fund” and, whenever lawful and convenient, the affairs of the Trust shall be conducted and transacted under that name. If the Trustee determines that the use of the name “Shiningbank Energy Income Fund” is not practicable, legal or convenient, it may use such other designation or it may adopt such other name for the Trust as it deems appropriate and the Trust may hold property and conduct its activities under such other designation or name. Without limiting the foregoing, the Trustee may enter into agreements and other documents for and on behalf of the Trust under the name “Shiningbank Energy Income Fund” and the Trustee hereby acknowledges and confirms that any such agreement or other documents so entered into under the name “Shiningbank Energy Income Fund” shall for all purposes be and be deemed to have been entered into by, and be binding on, the Trustee, as trustee for and on behalf of the Trust.

2.4 Nature of the Trust

The Trust is a open-end investment trust established for the purpose of issuing the Trust Units and acquiring and holding the Royalty and Permitted Investments. The only undertaking of the Trust is and will be investing the funds of the Trust in the Royalty and Permitted Investments. The Trust shall not carry on any business. The Trust is not and is not intended to be, shall not be deemed to be and shall not be treated as a general partnership, limited partnership, syndicate, association, joint venture, company, corporation or joint stock company nor shall the Trustee, the Administrator, the Managed Entities or the Unitholders or any of them or any person be, or be deemed to be, treated in any way whatsoever liable or responsible hereunder as partners, or joint venturers. Neither the Trustee, the Administrator nor any Managed Entity shall be, or be deemed to be, an agent of the Unitholders and shall have no power to bind any Unitholder. The relationship of the Unitholders to the Trustee shall be solely that of beneficiaries of the Trust and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by this Trust Indenture.

2.5 Legal Entitlements and Restrictions of Unitholders

- (a) The rights of each Unitholder to call for a distribution or division of assets, monies, funds, income and capital gains held, received or realized by the Trustee are limited to those contained herein.
- (b) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture, no Unitholder or Unitholders shall be entitled to interfere or give any direction to the Trustee or the Administrator with respect to the affairs of the Trust or in connection with the exercise of any powers or authorities conferred upon the Trustee or the Administrator under this Indenture.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of section 3.13, the legal ownership of the assets of the Trust and the right to conduct the business of the Trust (subject to the limitations contained herein) are vested exclusively in the Trustee or such other persons as the Trustee may determine, and the Unitholders shall have no interest therein and they shall have no right to compel or call for any partition, division, dividend or distribution of the Trust Fund or any of the assets of the Trust. The Trust Units shall be personal property and shall confer upon the holders thereof only the interest and rights specifically set forth in this Trust Indenture. No Unitholder has or is deemed to have any right of ownership in any of the assets of the Trust.

2.6 Liability of Unitholders

No Unitholder shall incur or be subject to any liability in contract or in tort or of any other kind whatsoever to any person in connection with the Trust Fund or the obligations or the affairs of the Trust or with respect to any act performed by the Trustee or by any other person pursuant to this Indenture or with respect to any act or omission of the Trustee or any other person in the performance or exercise, or purported performance or exercise, of any obligation, power, discretion or authority conferred upon the Trustee or such other person hereunder or with respect to any transaction entered into by the Trustee or by any other person pursuant to this Indenture and no Unitholder shall be liable to indemnify the Trustee or any other person with respect to any such liability or liabilities incurred by the Trustee or by any such other person or persons or with respect to any taxes payable by the Trustee or by the Trustee or any other person on behalf of or in connection with the Trust; provided, however, to the extent that notwithstanding the foregoing, any such liabilities of Unitholders may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, they shall be enforceable only against, and shall be satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund.

2.7 Contracts of the Trust

Every contract entered into by or on behalf of the Trust, whether by the Trustee, the Administrator or otherwise, shall (except as the Trustee or Administrator may otherwise in any respect determine) include a provision substantially to the following effect:

The parties hereto acknowledge that the Trustee is entering into this agreement solely in its capacity as Trustee on behalf of the Trust and the obligations of the Trust hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Trustee or any of the Unitholders of the Trust and that any recourse against the Trust, the Trustee or any Unitholder in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Trust arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund as defined in the Trust Indenture dated as of May 16, 1996, as amended or restated from time to time.

The omission of such provision from any such written instrument shall not operate to impose personal liability on the Trustee, the Administrator or the Unitholders or in any way affect the validity, enforceability or binding effect of such instrument.

2.8 Head Office of Trust

The head office of the Trust hereby created shall be located at 1310, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3Y6 or at such other place or places in Canada as the Trustee may from time to time designate.

Article 3 Issue and Sale of Trust Units

3.1 Creation of Trust Units

The beneficial interests of the Trust shall be divided into interests of one class, described and designated as Trust Units, which shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the limitations, restrictions and conditions set out herein. The aggregate number of Trust Units which may be authorized and issued hereunder is limited to 300,000,000 Trust Units.

3.2 Offerings of Trust Units

Trust Units, including rights to acquire Trust Units, may be created, issued, sold and delivered pursuant hereto on terms and conditions and at such time or times as the Trustee may determine. The Trust is further authorized to create, issue, sell, or deliver any rights, warrants, special warrants, subscription receipts, instalment receipts, exchangeable securities or other securities to purchase, convert, redeem or exchange into Trust Units or other securities of the Trust (including, without limitation, debt convertible into Trust Units or other securities of the Trust), on such terms and conditions as the Trustee may determine.

3.3 Issue of Trust Units

- (a) Trust Units are issuable only in fully registered form. Trust Certificates evidencing Trust Units authorized pursuant to Section 3.2 shall forthwith be executed by the Administrator and delivered to the Trustee and shall thereupon be certified by and on behalf of the Trustee and shall be delivered by the Trustee to or upon the written order of the Administrator.
- (b) No Trust Certificate shall be issued or, if issued, shall entitle the holder to the benefits of this Indenture, until it has been certified by or on behalf of the Trustee substantially in the form set out in the Schedule hereto or in some other form approved by the Trustee. Such certification on any Trust Certificate shall be conclusive evidence that such Trust Certificate is duly issued and is entitled to the benefits hereof. The certificate of the Trustee signed on the Trust Certificates shall not be construed as a representation or warranty by the Trustee as to the validity of this Indenture or of the Trust Certificates or as to the issuance of the Trust Certificates. The certificate of the Trustee signed on any Trust Certificate shall, however, be a representation and warranty by the Trustee that such Trust Certificate has been duly certified by or on behalf of the Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture.
- (c) It is a condition of the closing of the first Offering of Trust Units that at least 300 persons each purchase a minimum of 100 Trust Units.

3.4 Certificates for Trust Units

The definitive form of certificate for the Trust Units (i) shall be in either the English or French language or both, substantially in the form set forth in the Schedule hereto, (ii) shall be dated as of the date of issue thereof and (iii) shall contain such distinguishing letters and numbers as the Trustee may prescribe.

3.5 Ranking of Trust Units

Each Trust Unit represents an equal fractional undivided beneficial interest in the Trust Fund. All Trust Units outstanding from time to time shall be entitled to an equal fractional undivided share of any distributions by the Trustee and, in the event of termination of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust. All Trust Units shall rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority whatever may be the actual date or terms of issue of the same respectively.

3.6 Trust Units Fully Paid and Non-Assessable

Trust Units are only to be issued as fully paid and are not to be subject to future calls or assessments; provided however that the Trust Units to be issued under the Offering may be issued for a consideration payable in instalments and that the Trust may take security over such Trust Units to be issued under the Offering as security for the payment of unpaid instalments.

3.7 No Conversion, Retraction, Redemption or Pre-Emptive Rights

No person shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to subscribe for or purchase any Trust Unit. Subject to the provisions of section 3.11, there are no conversion, retraction, redemption or preemptive rights attaching to the Trust Units.

3.8 No Fractional Trust Units

Fractions of Trust Units shall not be issued.

3.9 Transferability of Trust Units

The Trust Units are transferable.

3.10 Non-Resident Holders

At no time may more than one-half of the outstanding Trust Units be held by non-residents of Canada ("non-residents") within the meaning of the Tax Act. If at any time the Trustee becomes aware, as a result of requiring declarations as to beneficial ownership under Section 7.12 or otherwise, that the beneficial owners of 49% of the Trust Units then outstanding are or may be non-residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustee may make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Trust Units from or issue or register a transfer of Trust Units to a person unless the person provides a declaration pursuant to Section 7.12 that the person is not a non-resident. If notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee determines that a majority of the Trust Units are held by non-residents, the Trustee may send a notice to non-resident holders of Trust Units, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustee may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Trust Units or a specified portion thereof within a specified period of not less than 60 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Trust Units or provided the Trustee with satisfactory evidence that they are not non-residents within such period, the Trustee may on behalf of such Unitholders sell such Trust Units and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Trust Units. Any such sale by the Trustee shall be made on any stock exchange on which the Trust Units are then listed and, upon such sale, the affected holders shall cease to be holders of Trust Units and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the Trust Certificates representing such Trust Units.

3.11 Retraction Right

Trust Units will be retractable at any time on demand by the holder thereof upon delivery to the Trust of the certificate or certificates representing such Trust Units, accompanied by a duly completed and properly executed notice requesting retraction. Upon receipt of the retraction request by the Trust, all rights to and under the Trust Units tendered for retraction shall be surrendered and the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive the Redemption Price.

3.12 Limit on Cash Payments

The aggregate cash Redemption Price payable by the Trust in respect of any Trust Units surrendered for retraction during any calendar month shall be satisfied by way of a cash payment on the last day of the following month; provided that the entitlement of Unitholders to receive cash upon redemption of their Trust Units is subject to the limitations that:

- (a) the total amount payable by the Trust in respect of such Trust Units and all other Trust Units tendered for retraction in the same calendar month shall not exceed $100,000 provided that such limitation may be waived at the discretion of the board of directors of the Corporation;
- (b) at the time such Trust Units are tendered for retraction the outstanding Trust Units of the Trust shall be listed for trading on a stock exchange or traded or quoted on any other market which the board of directors of the Corporation considers in its sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Trust Units; or
- (c) the normal trading of Trust Units is not suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Trust Units are listed (or, if not listed on a stock exchange, on any market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading) on the date that the Trust Units are tendered for retraction or for more than five trading days during the ten day trading period commencing immediately after the date on which the Trust Units are tendered for retraction.

3.13 Distribution In Specie

If a Unitholder is not entitled to receive cash upon the redemption of Trust Units as a result of the foregoing limitations, then the redemption price for such Trust Units shall be the fair market value thereof as determined by the board of directors of the Corporation and shall, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals, be paid and satisfied by way of a distribution in specie of the Trust's property (the "Property"). Such Property may include interests in shares and/or debt instruments (the "Securities"). No fractional Securities will be distributed and where the number of Securities to be received by a Unitholder includes a fraction, such number shall be rounded to the next lowest whole number. The Trust shall be entitled to all interest paid or accrued and unpaid and to all dividends paid or declared payable with respect to the Property on or before the date of the distribution in specie. The holders of Property will be subject to the provisions of all material agreements that relate to such Property.

3.14 Non-Eligibility of In Specie Distribution

The Trustee, the Administrator and the Managed Entities shall not be liable to the Unitholder for any costs, expenses, charges, penalties or taxes imposed on a Unitholder as a result of or by virtue of Property received pursuant to Section 3.13 not being an eligible investment for registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds and deferred profit sharing plans.

3.15 Special Voting Units

In addition to Trust Units, the Trust is authorized to create, issue, sell and deliver an unlimited number of Special Voting Units entitling the holders thereof to such number of votes at meetings of Unitholders as may be determined by the Administrator and set out in any applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement. The Special Voting Units may have such other rights or limitations and may be issued on such terms and may take such form as the Administrator may determine and as are set out in any applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement. The Administrator shall determine any matter of doubt or uncertainty which may arise with respect to any Special Voting Unit regarding voting eligibility, entitlement or procedure or other matter which in the opinion of the Administrator is not determined by the applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, Special Voting Units may only be issued by the Trust in conjunction with the issuance by Shiningbank Holdings Corporation or any other Managed Entity of exchangeable shares and the holders of Special Voting Units, as such, shall not be entitled to any distributions of any nature whatsoever from the Trust or have any beneficial interest in any part of the Trust Fund during the administration of the Trust or on termination or winding-up of the Trust. Without restricting any other authority of the Trust to issue Trust Units, Trust Units shall be issued and delivered as required pursuant to the terms and conditions of any applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and Support Agreement.

Article 4 Investments of Trust Fund

4.1 Initial Investments

At the closing of the first Offering, the Trustee shall use the Net Proceeds of such Offering as follows:

- (a) to acquire the Royalty on the terms and conditions set forth in the Royalty Agreement, at and for the consideration specified therein;
- (b) to pay all amounts due to the Corporation under the Royalty Agreement;

- (c) to pay all Issue Expenses and underwriters' fees incurred in connection with the Offering and all structuring or other fees disclosed in the relevant Offering Document;
- (d) to repurchase for cancellation the ten initial Trust Units issued to the Settlor on the execution of these presents; and
- (e) to invest all remaining Net Proceeds in Permitted Investments.

4.2 Subsequent Offerings

The Net Proceeds of Offerings after the first Offering by the Trust, if any, shall only be used to make Deferred Purchase Payments, Permitted Investments, payments pursuant to section 3.11 and such other purposes as the board of directors of the Corporation may determine to be in the best interests of Unitholders and to pay costs, fees and expenses associated therewith or incidental thereto.

4.3 Other Investment Restrictions

Without in any manner qualifying or limiting the restrictions imposed by Section 4.2, under no circumstances shall the Trustee purchase any investment which (a) is defined as "foreign property" under any provision of the Tax Act, (b) is a "small business security" as that term is used in Part L1 of the Income Tax Regulations, or (c) would result in the Trust not being considered either a "unit trust" or a "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Tax Act at the time such investment was acquired.

Article 5 Distributions

5.1 Determination of Net Income

In this Article 5 and Section 7.2, "Net Income" means, in respect of a particular Distribution Record Date, the sum of the following amounts calculated as of such Distribution Record Date:

- (a) all interest income that has accrued to the Trust after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date;
- (b) all previously undistributed dividends, payments on return of capital or redemption of shares, principal repayments, proceeds from the sale of shares or debt and any trust distributions of income or capital received by the Trust after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date or that may reasonably be anticipated to be received on or before the Distribution Date immediately following the particular Distribution Record Date;

- (c) all previously undistributed Royalty Income received by the Trust after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date or that may reasonably be anticipated to be received on or before the Distribution Date immediately following the particular Distribution Record Date;
- (d) all previously undistributed ARC received by the Trust after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date or that may reasonably be anticipated to be received on or before the Distribution Date immediately following the particular Distribution Record Date; and
- (e) all other income received by the Trust after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date or that may reasonably be anticipated to be received on or before the Distribution Date immediately following the particular Distribution Record Date; less the sum of:

- (f) all Trust Expenses incurred after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date;
- (g) any other amounts (including taxes) required by law or hereunder to be deducted, withheld or paid by or in respect of the Trust after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date; and
- (h) all Crown Royalties which are not deductible for income tax purposes and that have been reimbursed by the Trust to the Corporation by way of set-off or otherwise after the immediately preceding Distribution Record Date and on or before the particular Distribution Record Date;

except to the extent that any portion of such amount becomes payable under Section 5.3 hereof on or before the particular Distribution Record Date, provided that for the purposes of calculating Net Income for the first Distribution Record Date, the references above to the "immediately preceding Distribution Record Date" shall be deemed to mean the Date of Closing of the first Offering, and further provided that items of income or expense not provided for above or in Section 5.3 may also be included or deducted in determining Net Income hereunder as may be considered appropriate by the Trustee.

5.2 Distributions of Net Income

The Trustee shall, with respect to each Distribution Record Date, declare to be payable to the persons who are Unitholders of record on that Distribution Record Date such part of Net Income as may be specified in the written notice given to the Trustee by the Administrator in respect of any period specified by the Administrator ending on or before that Distribution Record Date. Such Net Income, or part thereof, shall be payable to such Unitholders on either the Distribution Record Date or the Distribution Date, as such notice may specify.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the amount of any Net Income that is determined by the Trustee to be required to be retained by the Trustee in order to pay any tax liability of the Trust or any payments in respect of the Redemption Price shall not be distributed by the Trustee to the Unitholders.

5.3 Income for Tax Purposes to Become Payable

On December 31 of each year, the amount equal to the Trust's net income for such year determined in accordance with the Tax Act, other than subsection 104(6) thereof, to the extent not otherwise payable pursuant to this Article on any date in the year to any Unitholder or not otherwise deemed to have become payable in the year pursuant to subsection 104(29) of the Tax Act, shall become payable to the Unitholders on that date and a Unitholder shall be entitled to enforce payment thereof on that day. Absent a demand from a Unitholder to enforce payment, such amount shall be paid to Unitholders on or before February 15th of the following year, provided that any amount determined by the Trustee to be required to be retained by the Trustee in order to pay any tax liability of the Trust shall not be paid by the Trustee to the Unitholders. The share of such Net Income for each Trust Unit shall be determined by dividing such amount by the number of Trust Units in the Trust outstanding as of such December 31. Each Unitholder's share thereof shall be equal to the proportionate share per Trust Unit multiplied by the number of Trust Units owned of record by the Unitholder on such December 31. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the amount of any Net Income so determined for a year that is determined by the Trustee to be required to be retained by the Trustee in order to pay any tax liability of the Trust in respect of that or any prior year shall not be payable by the Trustee to Unitholders.

5.4 Other Amounts

Any amounts not otherwise payable to Unitholders pursuant to this Article 5 may be declared by the Trustee to be payable to Unitholders and distributed to Unitholders in the manner provided for in Section 5.2.

5.5 Amounts to Become Payable

Each Unitholder shall have the right to enforce payment of any amount payable to such Unitholder under this Article 5 at the time the amount became payable.

5.6 Withholding Taxes

The Trustee may deduct or withhold from the amounts payable to any Unitholder, amounts required by law to be withheld from such Unitholder's distributions or payments under this Article 5 or from any payments made to a Unitholder in respect of the Redemption Price.

Article 6Appointment, Resignation and Removal of Trustee*6.1 Trustee's Term of Office

Subject to Sections 6.2 and 6.3, Montreal Trust Company of Canada is hereby appointed as trustee hereunder for an initial term of office which shall expire immediately upon the second annual meeting of Unitholders. A decision to reappoint, or to appoint a successor to, a Trustee shall be made at the second annual meeting of the Unitholders and thereafter at each second annual meeting of Unitholders following any such reappointment or appointment. Any such reappointment or appointment shall be made either by an Ordinary Resolution at such meeting of Unitholders or shall be made in the manner set out in Section 6.4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Trustee is not reappointed at the meeting of Unitholders held immediately before the term of office of such Trustee expires and if no successor to such Trustee is appointed at that meeting, such Trustee shall continue to hold the office of Trustee under this Indenture until a successor has been appointed under Section 6.4.

6.2 Resignation of Trustee

The Trustee may resign from the office of trustee hereunder on giving not less than 60 days' notice in writing to the Administrator but no such resignation shall be effective until (i) the appointment of, and acceptance of such appointment by, a new Trustee in the place of the resigning Trustee has been made in the manner set out in Section 6.4, and (ii) the legal and valid assumption by the new Trustee of all obligations of the Trustee related hereto in the same capacities as the resigning Trustee.

6.3 Removal of Trustee

The Trustee shall be removed on not less than 21 days' notice in writing delivered by the Administrator to the Trustee in the event that, at any time, the Trustee shall no longer satisfy all of the requirements in Section 6.6 or shall be declared bankrupt or insolvent or shall enter into liquidation, whether compulsory or voluntary, and not being merely a voluntary liquidation for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction, or if the assets of the Trustee shall otherwise become liable to seizure or confiscation by any public or governmental authority or if the Trustee shall otherwise become incapable of performing or shall fail in any material respect to perform its responsibilities under this Indenture or as a result of a material increase in the fees charged by the Trustee. No decision to remove a Trustee under this Section 6.3 shall become effective until approved by a Special Resolution at a meeting of Unitholders duly called for that purpose and the appointment of, and acceptance of such appointment by, a new Trustee under Section 6.4 in the place of the Trustee to be removed.

6.4 Appointment of Successor to Trustee

- (a) A successor to a Trustee who has been removed by a Special Resolution of Unitholders under Section 6.3 or which has given notice of resignation under Section 6.2, shall be appointed by an Ordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Unitholders duly called for that purpose, provided the successor meets the requirements of Section 6.6;
- (b) Subject to Section 6.6, the Administrator may appoint a successor to any Trustee who has been removed by a Special Resolution of the Unitholders under Section 6.3 or which has given a notice of resignation under Section 6.2, if the Unitholders fail to do so at such meeting.

No appointment of any successor Trustee (including under Section 6.5) shall be effective until such successor Trustee shall have complied with the provisions of Section 6.2(ii).

6.5 Failure to Appoint Successor

In the event that no successor to a Trustee who has delivered a notice of resignation in accordance with Section 6.2, or who has received notice of removal in accordance with Section 6.3, has accepted an appointment within 120 days after the receipt by the Administrator of the notice of resignation, or 60 days after the receipt by the Trustee of the notice of removal, the Trustee, the Administrator or any Unitholder may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor to the Trustee. The appointment of such successor by such court shall not require the approval of Unitholders.

6.6 Qualifications of Trustee

The Trustee and any successor to the Trustee or new Trustee appointed under this Article 6 shall be a corporation incorporated under the laws of Canada or of a province thereof and shall be a resident of Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act. Such corporation must at all times when it is the Trustee be registered under the laws of the Province of Alberta to carry on the business of a trust company and must have undertaken in writing to discharge all of the obligations and responsibilities of the Trustee under this Indenture. The Trustee shall be a corporation which has reported in its last annual audited consolidated financial statements shareholders' equity of at least $100 million, which financial statements shall be dated not more than 365 days prior to the date of appointment.

Article 7

7.1 Powers of the Trustee

- (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture or other contracts or obligations of the Trustee or the Trust, the Trustee may exercise from time to time in respect of the Trust Fund any and all rights, powers and privileges that could be exercised by a beneficial owner thereof, except as specifically designated in subparagraph b. below.

- (b) The Corporation may exercise from time to time any and all rights, powers and privileges in relation to all matters relating to the maximization of Unitholder value in the context of a response to an offer for Trust Units or for all or substantially all of the assets of the Trust or the Managed Entities, or of any subsidiary of the Trust or the Managed Entities (an "Offer") including: (i) any Unitholder rights plan either prior to or during the course of any Offer; (ii) any defensive action either prior to or during the course of any Offer; (iii) the preparation of any "Directors' Circular" in response to any Offer; (iv) consideration on behalf of Unitholders and recommendations to Unitholders in response to any Offer; (v) any regulatory or court action in respect of any matters related to any Offer; and (vi) the carriage of any and all matters related to, or ancillary to, any Offer; and the Corporation accepts such responsibility and agrees that, in respect of such matters, it shall carry out its functions honestly, in good faith and in the best interest of the Trust and the Unitholders and, in connection therewith, shall exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. The Corporation may, and if directed by the Corporation in writing, the Trustee shall, execute any agreements on behalf of the Trust as the Corporation shall have authorized within the scope of the exercise of any such rights, powers or privileges.

7.2 Specific Powers and Authorities

Subject only to the express limitations contained in this Indenture or other contracts or obligations of the Trustee or the Trust, and in addition to any powers and authorities conferred by this Indenture (including, without limitation, Section 7.1 hereof) or which the Trustee may have by virtue of any present or future statute or rule of law, the Trustee without any action or consent by the Unitholders shall have the following powers and authorities which may be exercised by it from time to time in its sole judgment and discretion and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as it may from time to time deem proper:

- (a) to accept subscriptions for Trust Units received by the Trust and to issue Trust Units pursuant thereto;
- (b) to maintain books and records;
- (c) to provide timely reports to Unitholders in accordance with the provisions hereof;
- (d) to apply for Alberta Royalty Tax Credits or any other similar incentive credits or payments;
- (e) to deposit funds of the Trust in interest-bearing accounts in banks, whose short term obligations constitute Permitted Investments, including those of the Trustee, the same to be subject to withdrawal on such terms and in such manner and by such person or persons (including any one or more officers, agents or representatives) as the Trustee may determine;
- (f) to possess and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges appertaining to the ownership of all or any part of the assets of the Trust, to the same extent that an individual might, unless otherwise limited herein, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to vote or give any consent, request or notice, or waive any notice, either in person or by proxy or power of attorney, with or without power of substitution, to one or more persons, which proxies and powers of attorney may be for meetings or action generally or for any particular meeting or action and may include the exercise of discretionary power and the Trustee shall ensure that the directors of the Corporation and where applicable, any other Managed Entity, be elected or appointed (or re-elected or re-appointed, as the case may be) at intervals not exceeding eighteen months;
- (g) where reasonably required, to engage or employ any persons as agents, representatives, employees or independent contractors (including, without limitation, investment advisers, registrars, underwriters, accountants, lawyers, appraisers, brokers or otherwise) in one or more capacities;
- (h) to collect, sue for and receive all sums of money coming due to the Trust, and to engage in, intervene in, prosecute, join, defend, compromise, abandon or adjust, by arbitration or otherwise, any actions, suits, proceedings, disputes, claims, demands or other litigation relating to the Trust, the assets of the Trust or the Trust's affairs, to enter into agreements therefor, whether or not any suit is commenced or claim accrued or asserted and, in advance of any controversy, to enter into agreements regarding the arbitration, adjudication or settlement thereof;
- (i) to arrange for insurance contracts and policies insuring the assets of the Trust against any and all risks and insuring the Trust and/or any or all of the Trustee, the Administrator or the Unitholders against any and all claims and liabilities of any nature asserted by any person arising by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted by the Trust or by the Trustee, Administrator or Unitholders;

- (j) to cause legal title to any of the assets of the Trust to be held by and/or in the name of the Trustee, or except as prohibited by law, by and/or in the name of the Trust, or any other person, on such terms, in such manner, with such powers in such person as the Trustee may determine and with or without disclosure that the Trust or the Trustee is interested therein, provided that should legal title to any of the assets of the Trust be held by and/or in the name of any person other than the Trustee or the Trust, the Trustee shall require such person to execute a trust agreement acknowledging that legal title to such assets is held in trust for the benefit of the Trust;
 - (k) to make, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all deeds, contracts, waivers, releases or other documents of transfer and any and all other instruments in writing necessary or proper for the accomplishment of any of the powers herein granted;
 - (l) to pay out of the Trust Fund all reasonable fees, costs and expenses incurred in the administration of the Trust;
 - (m) to pay out of the Trust Fund the Net Income in accordance with the provisions hereof;
 - (n) except as prohibited by law, to delegate any or all of the management and administrative powers and duties of the Trustee to the Administrator and to any one or more agents, representatives, officers, employees, independent contractors or other persons without liability to the Trustee except as provided in this Indenture;
 - (o) to enter into and perform its obligations under any agreements with a Lender, including, without limitation, compliance with any provisions thereof which may restrict the powers of the Trustee hereunder or preclude the Trustee from acting in certain circumstances on resolutions of the Unitholders as might otherwise be provided for hereunder;
 - (p) to convey the Royalty in accordance with the terms of the Royalty Agreement in connection with any realization by a Lender upon the Properties;
 - (q) to do all such other acts and things as are incidental to the foregoing, and to exercise all powers which are necessary or useful for the operation of the Trust, to promote any of the purposes for which the Trust is formed and to carry out the provisions of this Indenture;
 - (r) to use reasonable efforts to ensure that the Trust complies at all times with the requirements of subsections 108(2) and 132(6) of the Tax Act;

- (s) without limiting any of the provisions hereof, to pay out of the Trust Fund:
 - (i) underwriting fees;
 - (ii) the purchase price of the Royalty; and
 - (iii) Issue Expenses;

all as contemplated by the Offering Documents;
- (t) to cancel or sell any Trust Unit tendered for retraction pursuant to section 3.11;
- (u) to make a payment to a Unitholder pursuant to section 3.11, or to distribute assets of the Trust Fund to a Unitholder who has tendered a Trust Unit for retraction pursuant to section 3.13;
- (v) to enter into and perform its obligations under any Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement and any Support Agreement;
- (w) to acquire shares of corporations and to loan money to Managed Entities; and
- (x) on behalf of the Trust Fund, to enter into a trust indenture.

provided that the exercise of powers and authorities shall not adversely affect the status of the Trust as a “unit trust” and a “mutual fund trust” for the purposes of the Tax Act and the exercise of any powers and authorities shall only be to the extent the same are within the reasonable control of the Trustee and/or the Administrator.

7.3 Restrictions on Powers

The Trustee shall have no power to borrow, incur any indebtedness or give any guarantee on behalf of the Trust or any other person or to charge, pledge, hypothecate or grant any security interest over or with respect to all or any of the assets of the Trust, but for greater certainty the Trustee shall have the authority to enter into the Support Agreement.

Except as permitted in the Royalty Agreement, the Trustee shall not sell, assign or otherwise dispose of the assets of the Trust without the approval of the Unitholders by Special Resolution at a meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose.

7.4 Banking

The banking business of the Trust, or any part thereof, shall be transacted with such bank, trust company (including the Trustee) or other firm or corporation carrying on a banking business as the Trustee may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time and all such banking business or any part thereof, shall be transacted on the Trust's behalf by such one or more officers of the Trustee or other persons (who may be officers or employees of the Administrator) as the Trustee may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time.

7.5 Standard of Care

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Trustee shall exercise its powers and carry out its functions hereunder as Trustee honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders and, in connection therewith, shall exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent trustee would exercise in comparable circumstances, subject to compliance by the Trustee with any agreements contemplated hereby which may be binding on the Trustee or the Trust. Unless otherwise required by law, the Trustee shall not be required to give bond, surety or security in any jurisdiction for the performance of any duties or obligations hereunder. The Trustee, in its capacity as trustee, shall not be required to devote its entire time to the business and affairs of the Trust.

7.6 Fees and Expenses

The Trustee shall be entitled to be paid from the Trust Fund such fees as may be agreed upon from time to time by the Administrator and the Trustee. As part of the Trust Expenses, the Trustee may pay or cause to be paid reasonable fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the administration and management of the Trust, including (without limitation) fees of auditors, lawyers, appraisers and other agents, consultants and professional advisors employed by or on behalf of the Trust and the cost of reporting or giving notices to Unitholders. All costs, charges and expenses (including any amounts payable to the Trustee under Section 7.8 or 7.9) properly incurred by the Trustee on behalf of the Trust shall be payable out of the Trust Fund. The Trustee shall have a lien on the Trust Fund (which shall have priority over the interests of the Unitholders pursuant hereto) to enforce payment of the fees, costs, expenses and other amounts payable or reimbursable by the Trust to the Trustee.

7.7 Limitations on Liability of Trustee

The Trustee, its officers and agents shall not be liable to any Unitholder for any action taken in good faith in reliance on any documents that are, prima facie, properly executed, for any depreciation of, or loss to, the Trust Fund incurred by reason of the sale of any property, for any inaccuracy in any evaluation provided by the Administrator or any other appropriately qualified person, for relying on any such evaluation, for any action or failure to act of the Administrator, or for any other action or failure to act (including, without limitation, the failure to compel in any way any former trustee to redress any breach of trust or any failure by the Administrator to perform its duties under this Indenture or any Material Contract), unless such liabilities arise out of the Trustee's or such officer's or agent's gross negligence, willful default or fraud. If the Trustee has retained an appropriate expert or advisor with respect to any matter connected with its duties under this Indenture or any Material Contract, the Trustee may act or refuse to act based on the advice of such expert or advisor and the Trustee shall not be liable for any action or refusal to act based on the advice of any such expert or advisor.

7.8 Indemnification of Trustee

The Trust (to the extent of the Trust Fund) is liable to, and shall indemnify and save harmless the Trustee and each of its officers and agents in respect of:

- (a) any liability and all costs, charges and expenses sustained or incurred in respect of any action, suit or proceeding that is proposed or commenced against the Trustee or against such officer or agent, as the case may be, for or in respect of anything done or permitted to be done in respect of the Trust and the execution of all duties, responsibilities, powers and authorities pertaining thereto; and
- (b) all other costs, charges, taxes, penalties and interest in respect of unpaid taxes and all other expenses and liabilities sustained or incurred by the Trustee in respect of the administration or termination of the Trust;

unless any of the foregoing arises out of the Trustee's or such officer's or agent's gross negligence, willful default or fraud, in which case the provisions of this Section 7.8 shall not apply.

7.9 Environmental Indemnity

- (a) Subject to Section 7.9(c), the Trust (to the extent of the Trust Fund) is liable to, and shall indemnify and save harmless, the Trustee, its directors, officers, employees, and agents, and all of their successors and assigns (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") against any loss, expense, claim, liability or asserted liability (including strict liability and including costs and expenses of abatement and remediation of spills or releases or releases of contaminants and including liabilities of the Indemnified Parties to third parties (including governmental agencies) in respect of bodily injuries, property damage, damage to or impairment of the environment or any other injury or damage and including liabilities of the Indemnified Parties to third parties for the third parties' foreseeable and unforeseeable consequential damages) incurred as a result of:
 - (i) the administration of the trust created hereby;
 - (ii) the exercise by the Trustee of any rights or obligations hereunder; which result from or relate, directly or indirectly, to:

- (iii) the presence or release of any contaminants, by any means or for any reason, on or in respect of the Properties, whether or not such release or presence of the contaminants was under the control, care or management of the Trust or the Administrator, or of a previous owner or operator of a Property;
 - (iv) any contaminant present on or released from any contiguous property to the Properties; or
 - (v) the breach or alleged breach of any environmental laws by the Trust or the Administrator.
- (b) For purposes of this Section 7.9, “liability” shall include (i) liability of an Indemnified Party for costs and expenses of abatement and remediation of spills and releases of contaminants, (ii) liability of an Indemnified Party to a third party to reimburse the third party for bodily injuries, property damages and other injuries or damages which the third party suffers, including (to the extent, if any, that the Indemnified Party is liable therefor) foreseeable and unforeseeable consequential damages suffered by the third party, and (iii) liability of the Indemnified Party for damage to or impairment of the environment;
- (c) In no event shall the Trust be liable to indemnify an Indemnified Party against any loss, expense, claims, liability or asserted liability to the extent resulting from the gross negligence, willful default or fraud of the Indemnified Party.

7.10 Apparent Authority

No purchaser, transfer agent or other person dealing with the Trustee or with any officer, employee or agent of the Trustee shall be bound to make any inquiry concerning the validity of any transaction purporting to be made by the Trustee or by such officer, employee or agent or make inquiry concerning, or be liable for, the application of money or property paid, lent or delivered to or on the order of the Trustee or of such officer, employee or agent. Any person dealing with the Trustee in respect of any matter pertaining to the Trust Fund and any right, title or interest therein shall be entitled to rely on a certificate, statutory declaration or resolution executed or certified on behalf of the Trustee as to the capacity, power and authority of any officer, employee or any other person to act for and on behalf and in the name of the Trust.

7.11 Notice to Unitholders of Non-Eligibility for Deferred Income Plans

If the Trustee becomes aware that the Trust Units have ceased to be eligible investments for registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds and deferred profit sharing plans (all within the meaning of the Tax Act) or any of such plans, the Trustee shall give notice to Unitholders at their latest address as shown on the register of Unitholders that Trust Units have ceased to be eligible investments for such plans. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee shall not be liable to the Trust or to any Unitholder for any costs, expenses, charges, penalties or taxes imposed upon a Unitholder as a result of or by virtue of a Trust Unit not being an eligible investment for any such plan, notwithstanding any failure or omission of the Trustee to have given such notice, provided the Trustee has complied with Section 7.5.

7.12 Declaration as to Beneficial Ownership

The Trustee may require any Unitholder as shown on the register of Unitholders to provide a declaration, in form prescribed by the Trustee, as to the beneficial ownership of Trust Units registered in such Unitholder's name and as to the jurisdiction in which such beneficial owner is resident.

7.13 Conditions Precedent to Trustee's Obligations to Act

The obligation of the Trustee to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding for the purpose of enforcing the rights of the Trustee and of the Unitholders shall be conditional upon the Administrator or Unitholders furnishing, when required by notice in writing by the Trustee, sufficient funds to commence or continue such act, action or proceeding and indemnity (to the extent sufficient funds for such purpose are not available in the Trust Fund) reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee to protect and hold harmless the Trustee against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred therein and any loss and damage it may suffer by reason thereof. None of the provisions contained in this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers unless indemnified as aforesaid.

Article 8 Delegation of Powers

8.1 The Administrator and the Corporation

- (a) Except as expressly prohibited by law, and without regard to whether such authority is normally granted or delegated by trustees, the Trustee shall delegate to the Corporation the authority to exercise all rights, powers and privileges in relation to all matters set out in Section 7.1(b).
- (b) Except as expressly prohibited by law, the Trustee may grant or delegate to the Administrator such authority as the Trustee may in its sole discretion deem necessary or desirable to effect the actual administration of the duties of the Trustee under this Indenture, without regard to whether such authority is normally granted or delegated by trustees. The Trustee may grant broad discretion to the Administrator to administer and manage the day-to-day operations of the Trust and the Trust Fund, to act as agent for the Trust, to execute documents on behalf of the Trust and to make executive decisions which conform to general policies and general principles set forth herein or previously established by the Trustee, provided that the Administrator shall make no decisions with respect to the exercise of the voting rights at meetings of the Corporation or any other Managed Entity. The Administrator shall have the powers and duties expressly provided for herein and in any administrative services agreement including, without limitation, the power to retain and instruct such appropriate experts or advisors to perform those duties and obligations herein which it is not qualified to perform (and the Administrator shall notify the Trustee of the name of the person or persons retained or instructed and the terms and conditions thereof). The Trustee may enter into a contract with the Administrator relating to the Administrator's authority, term of appointment, compensation and any other matters deemed desirable by the Trustee. The Administrator of the Trust Fund with respect to the Trust Units shall be the Corporation, and the Trustee shall enter into the Administrative Services Agreement with the Corporation. In the event of any replacement of the Corporation as Administrator, the person replacing the Corporation as Administrator shall become a party to this Indenture in the place and stead of the Corporation and shall agree to perform and be bound by and entitled to the benefits of and the covenants, obligations and duties of the Administrator herein and the Corporation shall be released from the obligations hereunder, provided that nothing herein shall release the Corporation of those covenants, obligations and duties required to be performed by the Corporation as Administrator prior to the date of such replacement.

8.2 Offerings

The Trustee hereby delegates to the Administrator responsibility for any or all matters relating to the offering of Trust Units or rights to Trust Units including (i) ensuring compliance with all applicable laws, (ii) all matters relating to the content of any Offering Documents and the accuracy of the disclosure contained therein, including the certification thereof, (iii) all matters concerning the terms of the Material Contracts, and (iv) all matters concerning any underwriting or agency agreement providing for the sale of Trust Units. The Administrator may, and if directed by the Administrator the Trustee shall, execute any agreements on behalf of the Trust as the Administrator shall have authorized within the scope of any authority delegated to it hereunder.

8.3 Power of Attorney

Without limiting any of the other provisions of this Article 8, the Trustee hereby delegates to the Administrator, who may in turn delegate to the Corporation, from time to time the full power and authority, and constitutes the Administrator or the Corporation as the case may be, its true and lawful attorney in fact, to sign on behalf of the Trust all prospectuses, annual information forms, management proxy circulars, other Offering Documents and any other documents ancillary or similar thereto required to be signed by the Trust from time to time.

8.4 Liability of Trustee

The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for any actions of the Administrator hereunder or under the Administrative Services Agreement and the Trustee, in relying upon the Administrator, shall be deemed to have complied with its obligations under Section 7.5 hereof.

8.5 Performance of Duties

In the event that the Administrator is unable or unwilling to perform its duties under the Administrative Services Agreement, or there is no Administrator, the Trustee shall either perform all duties of the Administrator thereunder or shall be entitled to engage another person that is duly qualified to perform such duties.

Article 9 Amendment

9.1 Amendment

Except where specifically provided otherwise, the provisions of this Indenture, the Administrative Services Agreement and the Royalty Agreement of the Corporation may only be amended by the Trustee with the consent of the Unitholders by Special Resolution.

Any of the provisions of this Indenture, the Administrative Services Agreement or the Royalty Agreement of the Corporation may be amended by the Trustee at any time or times, without the consent, approval or ratification of any of the Unitholders or any other person, for the purpose of:

- (a) ensuring that the Trust will comply with any applicable laws or requirements of any governmental agency or authority of Canada or of any province;
- (b) ensuring that the Trust will satisfy the provisions of each of subsections 108(2) and 132(6) of the Tax Act as from time to time amended or replaced;
- (c) ensuring that such additional protection is provided for the interests of Unitholders as the Trustee may consider expedient;
- (d) removing or curing any conflicts or inconsistencies between the provisions of this Indenture or any supplemental indenture, the Administrative Services Agreement or the Royalty Agreement and any other agreement of the Trust or any prospectus filed with any regulatory or governmental body with respect to the Trust, or any applicable law or regulation of any jurisdiction, provided that in the opinion of the Trustee the rights of the Trustee and of the Unitholders are not prejudiced thereby;
- (e) making changes for any other purpose not inconsistent with the terms of this Indenture, the Administrative Services Agreement and the Royalty Agreement, including the correction or rectification of any ambiguities, defective or inconsistent provisions, errors, mistakes or omissions, provided that in the opinion of the Trustee the rights of the Trustee and of the Unitholders are not prejudiced thereby.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment shall reduce the percentage of votes required to be cast at a meeting of the Unitholders for the purpose of amending this Section 9.1 or provide that a Trust Unit represents less than an equal fractional undivided interest in any distribution of the Trust Fund or, in the event of termination of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust without the consent of the holders of all of the Trust Units then outstanding. The execution of this Trust Indenture by the Administrator shall not in any manner constitute or be deemed to constitute the consent or agreement to any amendment of the Royalty Agreement or the Administrative Services Agreement.

9.2 Notification of Amendment

As soon as shall be practicable after the making of any amendment pursuant to this Article 9, the Trustee shall furnish written notification of the substance of such amendment to each Unitholder.

Article 10 Meetings of Unitholders

10.1 Annual and Special Meetings of Unitholders

Annual meetings of the Unitholders shall be held, commencing in 1997, on a day, at a time and at a place to be set by the Trustee. The business transacted at such meetings shall include the transaction of such business as Unitholders may be entitled to vote upon as hereinafter provided in this Article 10, or as the Trustee may determine. Special meetings of the Unitholders may be called at any time by the Trustee and shall be called by the Trustee upon a written request of Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 20% of the Trust Units then outstanding, such request specifying the purpose or purposes for which such meeting is to be called. For the purposes of determining such percentage required for such written request, the holders of any issued Special Voting Units shall not be regarded as representing outstanding Trust Units. Meetings of Unitholders shall be held in the City of Calgary, or at such other place as the Trustee shall designate. The Chairman of any annual or special meeting shall be a person designated by the Trustee for the purpose of such meeting except that, on the motion of any Unitholder, any person may be elected as Chairman by a majority of the votes cast at the meeting instead of such designated person or in the event that no person shall be designated by the Trustee.

10.2 Notice of Meetings

Notice of all meetings of Unitholders shall be given by unregistered mail postage prepaid addressed to each Unitholder and Special Unitholder at his registered address, mailed at least 21 days and not more than 60 days before the meeting. Such notice shall set out the time when, and the place where, such meeting is to be held and shall specify the nature of the business to be transacted at such meeting in sufficient detail to permit a Unitholder to form a reasoned judgment thereon, together with the text of any resolution proposed, at the time of mailing of the notice, to be passed. Any adjourned meeting may be held as adjourned without further notice. The accidental omission to give notice to or the non-receipt of such notice by any Unitholder or Special Unitholder shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.

10.3 Quorum

At any meeting of the Unitholders, subject as hereinafter provided, a quorum shall consist of two or more individuals present in person either holding personally or representing as proxies not less than 5% of the outstanding Trust Units. For the purposes of determining such quorum, the holders of any issued Special Voting Units who are present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting shall not be regarded as representing outstanding Trust Units. In the event of such quorum not being present at the appointed place on the date for which the meeting is called within one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour after the time fixed for the holding of such meeting, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Unitholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day being not less than 14 days later and to such place and time as may be appointed by the Chairman of the meeting. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present, the Unitholders present either personally or by proxy shall form a quorum, and any business may be brought before or dealt with at such an adjourned meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same.

10.4 Voting Rights of Unitholders

Only Unitholders and Special Unitholders of record shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Unitholders. Each Trust Unit shall entitle the holder or holders of that Trust Unit to one vote; each Special Voting Unit shall entitle the holder thereof to such number of votes as shall be determined in accordance with the applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement. Every question submitted to a meeting, other than a Special Resolution, shall, unless a poll vote is demanded, be decided by a show of hands vote, on which every person present and entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote. At any meeting of Unitholders, any holder of Trust Units entitled to vote thereat may vote by proxy and a proxy need not be a Unitholder, provided that no proxy shall be voted at any meeting unless it shall have been placed on file with the Trustee, or with such agent of the Trustee as the Trustee may direct, for verification at least twenty-four hours prior to the commencement of such meeting. If approved by the Trustee, proxies may be solicited in the name of the Trustee. When any Trust Unit is held jointly by several persons, any one of them may vote at any meeting in person or by proxy in respect of such Trust Unit, but if more than one of them shall be present at such meeting in person or by proxy, and such joint owners of their proxies so present disagree as to any vote to be cast, the joint owner present or represented whose name appears first in the register maintained pursuant to Section 11.3 shall be entitled to cast such vote. Any holder of a Special Voting Unit may vote by proxy or more than one proxy in accordance with the applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement.

10.5 Resolutions

- (a) The Trustee shall in accordance with an Ordinary Resolution passed by the Unitholders:
 - (i) change or cause the Administrator to change the Auditors as provided in Section 15.3;
 - (ii) exercise or cause the Administrator or others to exercise the voting rights at meetings of the Managed Entities in favour of the appointment of auditors of the Managed Entities;
 - (iii) exercise or cause the Administrator or others to exercise the voting rights at meetings of the Managed Entities in favour of the election of directors of the Managed Entities;
 - (iv) exercise or cause the Administrator or others to exercise the voting rights at meetings of the Managed Entities in favour of the ratification of any new bylaw of the Managed Entities or the amendment, repeal or modification of any bylaw of the Managed Entities; and
 - (v) exercise or cause the Administrator or others to exercise the voting rights at meetings of the Managed Entities in favour of any matter which requires security holder approval pursuant to stock exchange rules or securities laws, regulations or policies applicable to the Trust.

 - (b) The Trustee shall in accordance with a Special Resolution passed by the Unitholders:
 - (i) subject to Section 9.1, amend this Indenture;
 - (ii) subject to Section 9.1, approve any amendment to the Royalty Agreement of the Corporation;
 - (iii) subdivide or consolidate Trust Units;
 - (iv) sell or agree to sell the property of the Trust Fund as an entirety or substantially as an entirety or, subject to the Royalty Agreement, assign, transfer or dispose of the Royalty in whole or in part;
 - (v) subject to Section 9.1, amend the Administrative Services Agreement or enter into a replacement Administrative Services Agreement;
 - (vi) exercise or cause the Administrator or others to exercise the voting rights at meetings of the Managed Entities in favour of any matter which, under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) or such other legislation as may at the relevant time govern the Managed Entities, requires the sanction of a special resolution of the shareholders of the Managed Entities;

- (vii) appoint an Inspector if so requested pursuant to Section 10.9;
- (viii) resign if removed pursuant to Section 6.3;
- (ix) commence to windup and windup the affairs of the Trust if requested pursuant to Section 12.2; and
- (x) commence, defend, adjust or settle suits or legal proceedings in connection with the Trust and to represent the Trust in any such suits or legal proceedings (provided that the Trustee shall be required to comply with such authority and requirements only in the event that the Trustee has been provided with reasonable security for the payment of all costs which may be incurred in connection therewith).

Except with respect to the above matters set out in this Section 10.5 and the matters set forth in Sections 6.3, 6.4 and 12.2 hereof, no action taken by the Unitholders or resolution of the Unitholders at any meeting shall in any way bind the Trustee. Any action taken or resolution passed in respect of any matter at a meeting of Unitholders shall be by Special Resolution unless the contrary is otherwise expressly provided under any specific provisions of this Indenture.

10.6 Meaning of “Special Resolution”

Subject to Section 12.2, the expression “Special Resolution” when used in this Indenture means, subject as hereinafter in this Article provided, a resolution proposed to be passed as a special resolution at a meeting of Unitholders (including an adjourned meeting) duly convened for the purpose and held in accordance with the provisions of this Article at which two or more holders of at least 5% of the aggregate number of Trust Units then outstanding are present in person or by proxy and passed by the affirmative votes of the holders of not less than 66 2/3% of the Trust Units represented at the meeting and voted on a poll upon such resolution. For the purpose of determining such quorum, the holder of any issued Special Voting Unit who is present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting shall not be regarded as representing outstanding Trust Units. For the purpose of determining such percentage of votes upon any such resolution, the holder of any issued Special Voting Unit who is present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting shall be regarded as representing outstanding Trust Units equivalent in number to such number of votes as shall be determined in accordance with the applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement. Votes on a Special Resolution shall always be given on a poll and no demand for a poll on a Special Resolution shall be necessary.

10.7 Record Date for Voting

For the purpose of determining the Unitholders and any Special Unitholders who are entitled to vote or act at any meeting or any adjournment thereof, the Trustee may fix a date not more than 60 days and not less than 35 days prior to the date of any meeting of Unitholders as a record date for the determination of Unitholders and any Special Unitholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, and any Unitholder who was a Unitholder and any Special Unitholder who was a Special Unitholder at the time so fixed shall be entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof even though he has since that time disposed of his Trust Units or Special Voting Units, as the case may be, and no Unitholder or Special Unitholder becoming such after that time shall be so entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. In the event that the Trustee does not fix a record date for any meeting of Unitholders, the record date for such meeting shall be the Business Day immediately preceding the date upon which notice of the meeting is given as provided under Section 10.2.

10.8 Binding Effect of Resolutions

Every Ordinary Resolution and every Special Resolution passed in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture at a meeting of Unitholders shall be binding upon all the Unitholders and Special Unitholders, whether present at or absent from such meeting, and each and every Unitholder and Special Unitholder shall be bound to give effect accordingly to every such Ordinary Resolution and Special Resolution.

10.9 Appointment of Inspector

The Trustee shall call a meeting of Unitholders upon the written request of Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 20% of the Trust Units then outstanding for the purpose of considering the appointment of an Inspector to investigate the performance by the Trustee of any of the responsibilities thereof. For the purpose of determining such percentage required for such written request, the holder of any issued Special Voting Unit shall not be regarded as holding Trust Units. The Inspector shall have such powers not inconsistent herewith, as may be conferred upon him at the meeting when he is appointed but in all events shall not have any powers to act in any capacity as the Trustee hereunder or in place or in stead of the Trustee in any manner hereunder.

10.10 Solicitation of Proxies

A Unitholder shall have the right to appoint a proxy to attend and act for the Unitholder at any meeting of Unitholders. A Special Unitholder shall have the right to appoint one or more proxies to attend and act for the Special Unitholder at any meeting of Unitholders as determined in accordance with the applicable Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall solicit proxies from Unitholders in connection with all meetings of Unitholders. In connection therewith, the Trustee shall comply, as near as may be possible, with all provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) and the requirements of Canadian securities legislation applicable to the solicitation of proxies.

10.11 No Breach

Notwithstanding any provisions of this Indenture, Unitholders and Special Unitholders shall have no power to effect any amendment hereto which would require the Trustee to take any action which would constitute a breach or default by the Trust or the Trustee under any agreement binding on or obligation of the Trust or the Trustee.

Article 11 Certificates, Registration and Transfer of Trust Units

11.1 Nature of Trust Units

The nature of a Trust Unit and the relationship of a Unitholder to the Trustee and the relationship of one Unitholder to another is as described in Sections 2.4 and 2.5(c) and the provisions of this Article 11 shall not in any way alter the nature of Trust Units or the said relationships of a Unitholder to the Trustee and of one Unitholder to another, but are intended only to facilitate the issuance of certificates evidencing the registered ownership of Trust Units and the recording of all such transactions whether by the Trustee, securities dealers, stock exchanges, transfer agents, registrars or other persons.

11.2 Certificates

The form of certificate representing Trust Units shall be substantially as set out in the Schedule hereto or such other form as is authorized from time to time by the Trustee. Each such certificate shall bear an identifying serial number and shall be certified manually on behalf of the Trustee. Any additional signature required by the Trustee to appear on such certificate may be printed, lithographed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and, in such event, certificates so signed are as valid as if it had been signed manually. Any certificate which has one manual signature as hereinbefore provided shall be valid notwithstanding that one or more of the persons whose signature is printed, lithographed or mechanically reproduced no longer holds office at the date of issuance of such certificate. The Trust Certificates may be engraved, printed or lithographed, or partly in one form and partly in another, as the Trustee may determine.

11.3 Register of Unitholders

A register shall be kept at the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee in the City of Calgary by the Trustee or by a Transfer Agent designated to act on behalf and under the direction of the Trustee, which register shall contain the names and addresses of the Unitholders, the respective numbers of Trust Units held by them, the certificate numbers of the certificates representing such Trust Units and a record of all transfers thereof. Branch transfer registers shall be maintained at such other offices of the Trustee or Transfer Agent as the Trustee may from time to time designate. The Trustee shall designate an office in the Cities of Toronto and Montreal at which a branch register shall be maintained. Except in the case of the registers required to be maintained at the Cities of Calgary, Toronto and Montreal, the Trustee shall have the power at any time to close any register of transfers and in that event shall transfer the records thereof to another existing register or to a new register.

Only Unitholders whose certificates are so recorded shall be entitled to receive distributions or to exercise or enjoy the rights of Unitholders hereunder. The Trustee shall have the right to treat the person registered as a Unitholder on the register of the Trust as the owner of such Trust Units for all purposes, including, without limitation, payment of any distribution, giving notice to Unitholders and determining the right to attend and vote at meetings of Unitholders, and the Trustee shall not be bound to recognize any transfer, pledge or other disposition of a Trust Unit or any attempt to transfer, pledge or dispose of a Trust Unit, or any beneficial interest or equitable or other right or claim with respect thereto, whether or not the Trustee shall have actual or other notice thereof, until such Trust Unit shall have been transferred on the register of the Trust as herein provided.

The registers referred to in this Section shall at all reasonable times be open for inspection by the Unitholders, the Administrator and the Trustee.

11.4 Transfer of Trust Units

- (a) Subject to the provisions of this Article 11, the Trust Units shall be fully transferable without charge as between persons, but no transfer of Trust Units shall be effective as against the Trustee or shall be in any way binding upon the Trustee until the transfer has been recorded on the register or one of the branch registers of transfer maintained by the Trustee or Transfer Agent. No transfer of a Trust Unit shall be recognized unless such transfer is of a whole Trust Unit.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of this Article 11, Trust Units shall be transferable on the register or one of the branch registers of Unitholders of the Trust only by the Unitholders of record thereof or their executors, administrators or other legal representatives or by their agents hereunto duly authorized in writing, and only upon delivery to the Trustee or to a Transfer Agent of the Trust if appointed, of the certificate therefor, if certificates representing Trust Units are issued, properly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of transfer and accompanied by all necessary transfer or other taxes imposed by law, together with such evidence of the genuineness of such endorsement, execution and authorization and other matters that may reasonably be required by the Trustee. Upon such delivery the transfer shall be recorded on the register of Unitholders and a new certificate for the residue thereof (if any) shall be issued to the transferor.
- (c) Any person becoming entitled to any Trust Units as a consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incompetence of any Unitholder or otherwise by operation of law, shall be recorded as the holder of such Trust Units and shall receive a new certificate therefor only upon production of evidence satisfactory to the Trustee thereof and delivery of the existing certificate to the Trustee, but until such record is made the Unitholder of record shall continue to be and be deemed to be the holder of such Trust Units for all purposes whether or not the Trustee shall have actual or other notice of such death or other event.

11.5 Trust Units Held Jointly or in a Fiduciary Capacity

The Trustee may treat two or more persons holding any Trust Units as joint owners of the entire interest therein unless their ownership is expressly otherwise recorded on the register of the Trust, but no entry shall be made in the register or on any certificate that any person is in any other manner entitled to any future, limited or contingent interest in any Trust Units; provided, however, that any person recorded as a Unitholder may, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, be described in the register or on any certificate as a fiduciary of any kind and any customary words may be added to the description of the holder to identify the nature of such fiduciary relationship. Where any Trust Certificate is registered in more than one name, the distributions (if any) in respect thereof may be paid to the order of all such holders failing written instructions from them to the contrary and such payment shall be a valid discharge to the Trustee and any Transfer Agent. In the case of the death of one or more joint holders, the distributions (if any) in respect of any Trust Units may be paid to the survivor or survivors of such holders and such payment shall be a valid discharge to the Trustee and any Transfer Agent.

11.6 Performance of Trust

The Trustee, the Administrator, the Unitholders and any officer or agent of the Trustee or Administrator shall not be responsible for or otherwise inquire into or ensure the performance of any trust, express, implied or constructive, or of any charge, pledge or equity to which any of the Trust Units or any interest therein are or may be subject, or to ascertain or enquire whether any transfer of any such Trust Units or interests therein by any such Unitholder or by his personal representatives is authorized by such trust, charge, pledge or equity, or to recognize any person as having any interest therein except for the person recorded as Unitholder.

11.7 Lost Certificates

In the event that any certificate for Trust Units is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated, the Trustee may authorize the issuance of a new certificate for the same number of Trust Units in lieu thereof. The Trustee may in its discretion, before the issuance of such new certificate, require the owner of the lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, or the legal representative of the owner, to make an affidavit or statutory declaration setting forth such facts as to the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation as the Trustee may deem necessary, to surrender any mutilated certificate and may require the applicant to supply to the Trust a "lost certificate bond" or a similar bond in such reasonable sum as the Trustee may direct indemnifying the Trustee and its agent for so doing. The Trustee shall have the power to require from an insurer or insurers a blanket lost security bond or bonds in respect of the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificates. The Trustee shall pay all such premiums and other funds of money payable for such purpose out of the Trust Fund with such contribution, if any, by those insured as may be determined by the Trustee in its sole discretion. If such blanket lost security bond is required, the Trustee may authorize and direct (upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee may from time to time impose) any agent to whom the indemnity of such bond extends to take such action to replace any lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate without further action or approval by the Trustee.

11.8 Death of a Unitholder

The death of a Unitholder during the continuance of the Trust shall not terminate the Trust or any of the mutual or respective rights and obligations created by or arising under this Trust Indenture nor give such Unitholder's personal representative a right to an accounting or to take any action in court or otherwise against other Unitholders or the Trustee or the Trust Fund, but shall entitle the personal representatives of the deceased Unitholder to demand and receive, pursuant to the provisions hereof, a new certificate for Trust Units in place of the certificate held by the deceased Unitholder, and upon the acceptance thereof such personal representatives shall succeed to all rights of the deceased Unitholder under this Indenture.

11.9 Unclaimed Interest or Distribution

In the event that the Trustee shall hold any amount of interest or other distributable amount which is unclaimed or which cannot be paid for any reason, the Trustee shall be under no obligation to invest or reinvest the same but shall only be obliged to hold the same in a non-interest bearing account pending payment to the person or persons entitled thereto. The Trustee shall, as and when required by law, and may at any time prior to such required time, pay all or part of such interest or other distributable amount so held to the Public Trustee (or other appropriate Government official or agency) whose receipt shall be a good discharge and release of the Trustee.

11.10 Exchanges of Trust Certificates

Trust Certificates representing any number of Trust Units may be exchanged, upon payment by a Unitholder of the Trustee's normal fees and charges relating thereto, for Trust Certificates representing an equivalent number of Trust Units in the aggregate. Any exchange of Trust Certificates may be made at the offices of the Trustee or at the offices of any Transfer Agent where registers are maintained for the Trust Certificates pursuant to the provisions of this Article 11. Any Trust Certificates tendered for exchange shall be surrendered to the Trustee or appropriate Transfer Agent and shall be cancelled.

Article 12 Termination

12.1 Termination Date

Unless the Trust is terminated or extended earlier, the Trustee shall commence to wind up the affairs of the Trust on December 31, 2096.

12.2 Termination by Special Resolution of Unitholders

- (a) The Unitholders may vote by Special Resolution to terminate the Trust at any meeting of Unitholders duly called for the purpose, whereupon the Trustee shall commence to wind up the affairs of the Trust, provided that such a vote may only be held if requested in writing by the holders of not less than 20% of the Trust Units or the Trust Units have become ineligible for investment by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds and deferred profit sharing plans.
- (b) For the purpose of this Section and notwithstanding any other provision hereof, a quorum of at least 50% of the issued and outstanding Trust Units must be present or represented by proxy at the meeting or any adjournment thereof at which the vote is taken.

12.3 Procedure Upon Termination

Forthwith upon being required to commence to wind up the affairs of the Trust, the Trustee shall give notice thereof to the Unitholders, which notice shall designate the time or times at which Unitholders may surrender their Trust Units for cancellation and the date at which the register of the Trust shall be closed.

12.4 Powers of the Trustee upon Termination

After the date on which the Trustee is required to commence to wind up the affairs of the Trust, the Trustee shall carry on no activities except for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Trust as hereinafter provided and for these purposes, the Trustee shall continue to be vested with and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon the Trustee under this Indenture.

12.5 Sale of Investments

After the date referred to in Section 12.4, the Trustee shall proceed to wind up the affairs of the Trust as soon as may be reasonably practicable and for such purpose shall, subject to the terms of any agreements binding on or obligations of the Trust and the Trustee, sell and convert into money the Royalty and other assets comprising the Trust Fund in one transaction or in a series of transactions at public or private sale and do all other acts appropriate to liquidate the Trust Fund, and shall in all respects act in accordance with the directions, if any, of the Unitholders (in respect of a termination authorized under Section 12.2) and the Administrator (subject to any resolution of the Unitholders, in the case of termination pursuant to Section 12.2). Notwithstanding anything herein contained, in no event shall the Trust be wound up until the Royalty and other investments shall have been disposed of, and under no circumstances shall any Unitholder come into possession of any interest in the Royalty, except as permitted in section 3.13.

12.6 Distribution of Proceeds

After paying, retiring or discharging or making provision for the payment, retirement or discharge of all known liabilities and obligations of the Trust and providing for indemnity against any other outstanding liabilities and obligations, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining part of the proceeds of the sale of the Royalty and other assets together with any cash forming part of the Trust Fund among the Unitholders in accordance with their pro rata shares.

12.7 Further Notice to Unitholders

In the event that all of the Unitholders shall not surrender their Trust Units for cancellation within 6 months after the time specified in the notice referred to in Section 12.3, such remaining Trust Units shall be deemed to be cancelled without prejudice to the rights of the holders of such Trust Units to receive their pro rata shares of the amounts referred to in Section 12.6 and the Trustee may either take appropriate steps, or appoint an agent to take appropriate steps, to contact such Unitholders (deducting all expenses thereby incurred from the amounts to which such Unitholders are entitled as aforesaid) or, in the discretion of the Trustee, may pay such amounts into court.

12.8 Responsibility of Trustee after Sale and Conversion

The Trustee shall be under no obligation to invest the proceeds of any sale of the Royalty or other assets or cash forming part of the Trust Fund after the date referred to in Section 12.4 and, after such sale, the sole obligation of the Trustee under this Indenture shall be to hold such proceeds in trust for distribution under Section 12.6.

Article 13 Supplemental Indentures

13.1 Provision for Supplemental Indentures

From time to time the Trustee may, subject to the provisions hereof, and it shall, when so directed in accordance with the provisions hereof, execute and deliver by its proper officers, indentures or instruments supplemental hereto, which thereafter shall form part hereof, for any one or more or all of the following purposes:

- (a) adding to the provisions hereof such additional provisions as, in the opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable in the premises, provided that the same are not in the opinion of the Trustee prejudicial to the interests of the Unitholders;
- (b) giving effect to any Special Resolution passed as provided in Article 10;
- (c) making such provisions not inconsistent with this Indenture as may be necessary or desirable with respect to matters or questions arising hereunder, provided that such provisions are not, in the opinion of the Trustee, prejudicial to the interests of the Unitholders;

- (d) making any modification in the form of Trust Certificates which does not materially affect the substance thereof;
- (e) modifying any of the provisions of this Indenture (including relieving the Administrator from any obligations, conditions or restrictions herein contained) provided that the Trustee may in its sole discretion decline to enter into any such supplemental indenture which in its opinion may not afford adequate protection to the Trustee when the same shall become operative; and
- (f) for any other purpose not inconsistent with the terms of this Indenture, including the correction or rectification of any ambiguities, defective or inconsistent provisions, errors, mistakes or omissions herein, provided that in the opinion of the Trustee, the rights of the Trustee and the Unitholders are not prejudiced thereby.

Article 14

Notices to Unitholders

14.1 Notices

Any notice required to be given under this Indenture to the Unitholders shall be given by letter or circular sent through ordinary post addressed to each registered holder at his last address appearing on the register; provided that if there is a general discontinuance of postal service due to strike, lockout or otherwise, such notice may be given by publication twice in the National Edition of The Globe and Mail or any other newspaper having national circulation in Canada; provided further that if there is no newspaper having national circulation, then by publishing twice in a newspaper in each city where the register or a branch register is maintained. Any notice so given shall be deemed to have been given on the day following that on which the letter or circular was posted or, in the case of notice being given by publication, the day following the day of the second publication in the designated newspaper or newspapers. In proving notice was posted, it shall be sufficient to prove that such letter or circular was properly addressed, stamped and posted.

14.2 Failure to Give Notice

The failure by the Trustee, by accident or omission or otherwise unintentionally, to give any Unitholder any notice provided for herein shall not affect the validity or effect of any action referred to in such notice, and the Trustee shall not be liable to any Unitholder for any such failure.

14.3 Joint Holders

Service of a notice or document on any one of several joint holders of Trust Units shall be deemed effective service on the other joint holders.

14.4 Service of Notice

Any notice or document sent by post to or left at the address of a Unitholder pursuant to this Article shall, notwithstanding the death or bankruptcy of such Unitholder, and whether or not the Trustee has notice of such death or bankruptcy, be deemed to have been fully served and such service shall be deemed sufficient service on all persons interested in the Trust Units concerned.

Article 15
Auditors*15.1 Qualification of Auditors

The Auditors shall be an independent recognized firm of chartered accountants which has an office in Alberta.

15.2 Appointment of Auditors

The Trustee hereby appoints KPMG Peat Marwick Thorne, Chartered Accountants, as the Auditors of the Trust, to hold such office until the first annual meeting of the Unitholders at such remuneration as may be approved by the Trustee. The Auditors will be appointed at each annual meeting of Unitholders, and the Trustee shall, from time to time, approve the remuneration to be paid to the Auditors.

15.3 Change of Auditors

The Auditors may at any time be removed by the Trustee with the approval of a majority of the votes cast by Unitholders at a meeting of Unitholders duly called for the purpose and, upon the resignation or the removal of Auditors as aforesaid, new auditors may be appointed by the Trustee with the approval of a majority of votes cast by Unitholders at a meeting duly called for the purpose.

15.4 Reports of Auditors

The Auditors shall audit the accounts of the Trust at least once in each year and a report of the Auditors with respect to the annual financial statements of the Trust shall be provided to each Unitholder as set out in Section 16.3.

Article 16
Accounts, Records and Financial Statements*16.1 Records

The Trustee shall keep such books, records and accounts as are necessary and appropriate to document the Trust Fund and each transaction of the Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee will, at its principal office in Calgary, Alberta, keep records of all transactions of the Trust, a list of the Royalty and other assets of the Trust Fund from time to time and a copy of this Indenture and the Material Contracts with any amendments thereto.

16.2 Quarterly Reporting to Unitholders

The Trustee will mail to each Unitholder on or before May 30, August 29 and November 29 in each year, an unaudited quarterly financial statement of the Trust Fund for the most recent calendar quarter and an unaudited statement of receipts and disbursements related to the Royalty.

16.3 Annual Reporting to Unitholders

The Trustee will mail:

- (a) to each Unitholder, within 140 days after the end of each year, the audited consolidated financial statements of the Trust for the most recently completed year together with the report of the Auditors thereon;
- (b) to each person who received a distribution from the Trust during a year, within 90 days after the end of such year, tax reporting information relating to such year for the purpose of enabling such persons to report the income tax consequences of their respective investments in Trust Units in their respective annual Canadian income tax returns; and
- (c) annually to each Unitholder a summary review of the acquisitions and dispositions of assets that have occurred during the preceding year, and activities conducted thereon, including well locations and aggregate amounts of petroleum and natural gas produced therefrom and related operating costs. A summary description of material changes in the Trust's financial affairs and their expected impact on Unitholders will also be provided.

16.4 Additional Reporting to Unitholders

If any material change occurs in relation to the Trust, Unitholders will be advised thereof in accordance with applicable law and regulatory policy. The Trust will comply with its continuous disclosure obligations under all applicable securities legislation.

16.5 Information Available to Unitholders

- (a) Each Unitholder shall have the right to obtain, on demand and on payment of reasonable reproduction costs, from the head office of the Trust, a copy of this Indenture and any indenture supplemental hereto or any Material Contract.
- (b) Each Unitholder, upon payment of a reasonable fee and upon sending to the Trustee the affidavit referred to in paragraph (d) below, may upon application require the Trustee to furnish within 10 days from the receipt of the affidavit a list

(the "basic list") made up to a date not more than 10 days before the date of receipt of the affidavit setting out the names of the Unitholders, the number of Trust Units owned by each Unitholder and the address of each Unitholder as shown on the records of the Trustee.

- (c) A person requiring the Trustee to supply a basic list may, if he states in the affidavit referred to in paragraph (d) below that he requires supplemental lists, require the Trustee upon payment of a reasonable fee to furnish supplemental lists setting out any changes from the basic list in the names or addresses of the Unitholders and the number of Trust Units owned by each Unitholder for each business day following the date the basic list is made up to.
- (d) The affidavit referred to in paragraph (b) above shall state:
 - (i) the name and address of the applicant;
 - (ii) the name and address for service of the body corporate if the applicant is a body corporate; and
 - (iii) that the basic list and any supplemental lists will not be used except as permitted under paragraph (e) below.
- (e) A list of Unitholders obtained under this Section shall not be used by any person except in connection with:
 - (i) an effort to influence the voting of Unitholders;
 - (ii) an offer to acquire Trust Units; or
 - (iii) any other matter relating to the affairs of the Trust.

16.6 Income Tax: Obligation of the Trustee

The Trustee shall satisfy, perform and discharge all obligations and responsibilities of the Trustee under the Tax Act or any similar provincial legislation, and neither the Trust nor the Trustee shall be accountable or liable to any Unitholder by reason of any act or acts of the Trustee consistent with any such obligations or responsibilities.

16.7 Income Tax: Designations

In the return of its income under Part I of the Tax Act for each year the Trust shall make such designations to Unitholders with respect to any amounts distributed or payable to Unitholders in the year including, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, designations with respect to any taxable capital gains realized and distributed to Unitholders by the Trust in the year, and any interest payable to Unitholders in the year, as shall be permitted under the provisions of the Tax Act and as the Trustee in its sole discretion shall deem to be reasonable and equitable. In the first year, in filing a return of income for the Trust, the Trust shall elect that the Trust be deemed to be a mutual fund trust for the entire year.

16.8 Income Tax: Deductions

The Administrator shall determine the tax deductions to be claimed by the Trust in any year, and the Trustee shall claim such deductions for the purposes of computing the income of the Trust pursuant to the provisions of the Tax Act.

16.9 Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Trust shall end on December 31 of each year.

Article 17 Take-Over Bid Provisions

17.1 Definitions

In this Article 17:

- (a) “Dissenting Unitholder” means a Unitholder who does not accept an Offer referred to in section 17.2 and includes any assignee of the Trust Unit of a Unitholder to whom such an Offer is made, whether or not such assignee is recognized under this Declaration of Trust;
- (b) “Offer” means an offer to acquire outstanding Trust Units where, as of the date of the offer to acquire, the Trust Units that are subject to the offer to acquire, together with the Offeror’s Units, constitute in the aggregate 20% or more of all outstanding Trust Units;
- (c) “offer to acquire” includes an acceptance of an offer to sell;
- (d) “Offeror” means a person, or two or more persons acting jointly or in concert, who make an Offer to acquire Trust Units;
- (e) “Offeror’s Notice” means the notice described in section 17.3;
- (f) “Offeror’s Units” means Trust Units beneficially owned, or over which control or direction is exercised, on the date of an Offer by the Offeror, any Affiliate or Associate of the Offeror or any person or company acting jointly or in concert with the Offeror;

17.2 Offers for Trust Units

If an Offer for all of the outstanding Trust Units (other than Trust Units held by or on behalf of the Offeror or an Affiliate or Associate of the Offeror) is made and:

- (a) within the time provided in the Offer for its acceptance or within 45 days after the date the Offer is made, whichever period is the shorter, the Offer is accepted by Unitholders representing at least 90% of the outstanding Trust Units, other than the Offeror's Units;
- (b) the Offeror is bound to take up and pay for, or has taken up and paid for the Trust Units of the Unitholders who accepted the Offer, and
- (c) the Offeror complies with sections 17.3 and 17.5

the Offeror is entitled to acquire, and the Dissenting Unitholders are required to sell to the Offeror, the Trust Units held by the Dissenting Unitholders for the same consideration per Trust Unit payable or paid, as the case may be, under the Offer.

17.3 Offeror's Notice

Where an Offeror is entitled to acquire Trust Units held by Dissenting Unitholders pursuant to subsection (2), and the Offeror wishes to exercise such right, the Offeror shall send by registered mail within 30 days after the date of termination of the Offer a notice (the "Offeror's Notice") to each Dissenting Unitholder stating that:

- (a) Unitholders holding at least 90% of the Trust Units of all Unitholders, other than Offeror's Units, have accepted the Offer;
- (b) the Offeror is bound to take up and pay for, or has taken up and paid for, the Trust Units of the Unitholders who accepted the Offer;
- (c) Dissenting Unitholders must transfer their respective Trust Units to the Offeror on the terms on which the Offeror acquired the Trust Units of the Unitholders who accepted the Offer within 21 days after the date of the sending of the Offeror's Notice; and
- (d) Dissenting Unitholders must send their respective Trust Unit Certificate(s) to the Fund within 21 days after the date of the sending of the Offeror's Notice.

17.4 Delivery of Trust Unit Certificates

A Dissenting Unitholder to whom an Offeror's Notice is sent pursuant to subsection (3) shall, within 21 days after the sending of the Offeror's Notice, send his or her Trust Unit Certificate(s) to the Trustee, duly endorsed for transfer.

17.5 Payment for Trust Units

Within 21 days after the Offeror sends an Offeror's Notice pursuant to subsection (3), the Offeror shall pay or transfer to the Trustee, or to such other person as the Trustee may direct, the cash or other consideration that is payable to Dissenting Unitholders pursuant to section 17.2.

17.6 Deposit of Funds

The Trustee, or the person directed by the Trustee, shall hold in trust for the Dissenting Unitholders the cash or other consideration it receives under section 17.5. The Trustee, or such person, shall deposit cash in a separate account in a Canadian chartered bank, and shall place other consideration in the custody of a Canadian chartered bank or similar institution for safekeeping.

17.7 Transfer of Trust Units

Within 30 days after the date of the sending of an Offeror's Notice pursuant to section 17.3, the Trustee, if the Offeror has complied with section 17.5 shall:

- (a) do all acts and things and execute and cause to be executed all instruments as in the Trustee's opinion may be necessary or desirable to cause the transfer of the Trust Units of the Dissenting Unitholders to the Offeror;
- (b) send to each Dissenting Unitholder who has complied with section 17.4 the consideration to which such Dissenting Unitholder is entitled under this Article 17; and
- (c) send to each Dissenting Unitholder who has not complied with section 17.4 a notice stating that:
 - (i) his or her Trust Units have been transferred to the Offeror;
 - (ii) the Trustee or some other person designated in such notice are holding in trust the consideration for such Trust Units; and
 - (iii) the Trustee, or such other person, will send the consideration to such Dissenting Unitholder as soon as practicable after receiving such Dissenting Unitholder's Certificate(s) or such other documents as the Trustee, or such other person may require in lieu thereof; and the Trustee is hereby appointed the agent and attorney of the Dissenting Unitholders for the purposes of giving effect to the foregoing provisions.

17.8 Delivery of Offer to the Trustee

An Offeror cannot make an Offer for Trust Units unless, concurrent with the communication of the Offer to any Unitholder, a copy of the Offer is provided to the Trustee.

Article 18

18.1 Continued Listing

The Trustee hereby appoints the Administrator as its agent and the Administrator hereby covenants to the Trustee and agrees that it shall, at the cost and expense of the Trust, take all steps and actions and do all things that may be required to obtain and maintain the listing and posting for trading of the Trust Units on The Toronto Stock Exchange and to maintain its status as a “reporting issuer” not in default of the securities legislation and regulations of each of the provinces of Canada.

18.2 Successors and Assigns

The provisions of this Indenture shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties and their successors and, in the case of the Administrator, its assigns.

18.3 Counterparts

This Trust Indenture may be simultaneously executed in several counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts, together, shall constitute but one and the same instrument, which shall be sufficiently evidenced by any such original counterparts.

18.4 Severability

If any provision of this Trust Indenture shall be held invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision in such jurisdiction and shall not in any manner affect or render invalid or unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction or any other provision of this Indenture in any jurisdiction.

18.5 Day Not a Business Day

In the event that any day on or before which any amount is to be determined or any action is required to be taken hereunder is not a Business Day, then such amount shall be determined or such action shall be required to be taken at or before the requisite time on the next succeeding day that is a Business Day.

18.6 Time of the Essence

Time shall be of the essence in this Trust Indenture.

18.7 Governing Law

This Trust Indenture and the Trust Certificates shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein and shall be treated in all respects as Alberta contracts. The parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of the Province of Alberta.

18.8 Notices to Trustee and Administrator

- (a) Any notice to the Trustee under this Trust Indenture shall be valid and effective if delivered or if given by registered letter, postage prepaid, addressed to the attention of the Trust at the principal trust office of the Trustee at 710, 530 - 8th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3S8, Attention: Manager Corporate Trust or to the attention of any employee or officer of the Trustee who shall be designated by the Trustee, or may be given by telex or telecommunications device, at (403) 267-6598 and shall be deemed to have been given on the date of delivery or, if mailed, effective five (5) days after deposit in the Canadian mail.
- (b) Any notice to the Administrator under this Trust Indenture shall be valid and effective if delivered or if given by registered letter, postage prepaid, addressed to the Administrator at 1310, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3Y6, Attention: the President, or may be given by telex or telecommunications device at (403) 268-7499 and shall be deemed to have been effectively given on the date of delivery or, if mailed, five (5) days after deposit in the Canadian mail.
- (c) The Administrator or the Trustee may from time to time notify the other in writing of a change of address which thereafter, until changed by like notice, shall be the address of the Administrator or the Trustee for all purposes of this Indenture.
- (d) If, by reason of a strike, lockout or other work stoppage, actual or threatened, involving postal employees, any notice to be given hereunder could reasonably be considered unlikely to reach its destination, such notice shall be valid and effective only if it is delivered at the appropriate address provided in this Section, by cable, telegram, telex, telecommunications device or other means of prepaid, transmitted and recorded communication.

18.9 References to Agreements

Any reference herein to any agreement, contract or obligation shall refer to such agreement, contract or obligation as the same may be amended from time to time.

“Trust Indenture” means the amended and restated Trust Indenture made as of October 9, 2002, among Richardson Greenshields of Canada Limited, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and the Trustee providing for the establishment of the Fund and the creation and issue of the Trust Units, as the same may be amended from time to time;

“Trust Units” has the meaning ascribed thereto in the Trust Indenture; and “Unitholders” means the holders from time to time of one or more Trust Units.

- 1.3 Unless the context otherwise requires, where capitalized terms defined in the Trust Indenture are used herein without definition, the definitions set out therein shall apply to this Agreement.
- 1.4 In this Agreement, words importing the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa and words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine or neuter gender and vice versa where the context so requires.
- 1.5 The division of this Agreement into Articles and Sections and the Article and Section headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation or construction of this Agreement.

Article 2

Effect and Implementation of Agreement

- 2.1 This Agreement constitutes a unanimous shareholder agreement within the meaning of the Act.
- 2.2 The Trustee on behalf of the Fund covenants and agrees that at all times it shall vote or cause to be voted the Shares of the Corporation owned by the Fund to accomplish and give effect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 2.3 In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement on the one hand, and the Articles of Amalgamation or By-Laws on the other, the Trustee on behalf of the Fund agrees to vote or to cause to be voted the Shares owned by the Fund so as to cause the Articles or By-laws, or both, as the case may be, to be amended to resolve any such conflict in favour of the provisions of this Agreement.
- 2.4 The Corporation by its execution hereof acknowledges that it has actual notice of the terms of this Agreement, consents hereto and hereby covenants with the Trustee for the benefit of the Fund and the Unitholders that it will at all times during the terms of this Agreement be governed by the terms and provisions hereof in carrying out its business and affairs and, accordingly, shall give or cause to be given such notices, execute or cause to be executed such documents and do or cause to be done all such acts, matters and things as may from time to time be necessary or required to carry out the terms and intent hereof.
- 2.5 For purposes of Section 2.7 of the Trust Indenture, the parties hereto acknowledge that the Trustee is entering into this Agreement solely in its capacity as Trustee on behalf of the Fund and the obligations of the Trustee hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Trustee or any of the holders of Trust Units and that any recourse against the Fund, the Trustee or any holders of Trust Units in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Fund arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this Agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund; provided however that the limitation on recourse against the Trustee shall not be limited as aforesaid in the event of the fraud, wilful default or gross negligence of the Trustee.

Directions to Trustee

- 3.1 The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of a minimum of three members and a maximum of nine members, and shall initially be set at five members. The members of the Board of Directors shall be selected by a vote of the Unitholders and Special Unitholders at a meeting of Unitholders and Special Unitholders held in accordance with the Trust Indenture and thereafter the Trustee on behalf of the Fund shall elect the individuals so selected by the Unitholders and Special Unitholders to the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
- 3.2 The Trustee on behalf of the Fund shall only vote the Shares of the Corporation as resolved by the Unitholders and Special Unitholders at a meeting of Unitholders and Special Unitholders held in accordance with the Trust Indenture with respect to all matters set out in section 10.5 of the Trust Indenture.

Voting

- 4.1 Unitholders shall be entitled to notice of, to attend at and to direct the manner in which the Trustee on behalf of the Fund will vote the Shares owned by the Fund at any meeting of, and in respect of any matter put before the shareholders of the Corporation including, without limitation, voting on the election of directors of the Corporation, receiving its financial statements and appointing its auditors and the auditors of the Fund. Prior to the Trustee on behalf of the Fund voting the Shares owned by the Fund, each Unitholder shall be entitled to vote in respect of the matter at a meeting of Unitholders called for the purpose of considering the matter on the basis of one vote per Trust Unit held and the Trustee on behalf of the Fund shall be required to vote the Shares owned by the Fund in accordance with the result of the vote of Unitholders on the matter.
- 4.2 Without limitation, the rights granted to Unitholders pursuant to Section 4.1 hereof, shall include the entitlement to direct the Trustee on behalf of the Fund as to how to vote the Shares owned by the Fund at any meeting of shareholders at which amendments to this Agreement are being proposed, to vote on such amendments.
- 4.3 Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the Trustee acknowledges and agrees with the parties hereto that it shall have no voting rights in respect of the Trust Units registered in the name of the Fund and that any such rights shall be exercised solely by Unitholders.

Article 5
Issue of Shares

- 5.1 The Corporation may not issue any further Shares provided, however, that additional Shares may be issued if approval of Unitholders by Special Resolution is obtained and upon any such holder becoming a party to this Agreement in accordance with Section 10.1.

Article 6
Waiver

- 6.1 To the extent permitted by law, the Trustee on behalf of the Fund waives each and every provision contained in the Articles of Amalgamation or By-laws insofar as they may conflict with the provisions of this Agreement.

Article 7
Subsequent Parties to this Agreement

- 7.1 Any Person who shall hereafter become the registered owner of one or more Shares shall, prior to becoming such registered holder, and any replacement of the Trustee shall, prior to becoming the Trustee, execute one or more counterparts of this Agreement (whether or not the same has previously been executed by any other Person(s)) and shall thereafter be entitled to all of the benefits of and be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement in the same manner as if it had been an original party hereto.

Article 8
Fund No Longer Bound

- 8.1 If the Trustee on behalf of the Fund has disposed of all of the Shares owned by the Fund it shall no longer be bound by any of the provisions of this Agreement provided that it shall be a condition of any sale of the Shares that the transferee of the Shares shall become a party to and be subject to this Agreement in accordance with Article 10.

Article 9
Term of Agreement

- 9.1 This Agreement shall be in effect until terminated, cancelled or amended in writing by the agreement of the Corporation and the Trustee on behalf of the Fund, provided that the Trustee will only act on the direction of a Special Resolution of the Unitholders.

Article 10
Covenant for Further Agreements

- 10.1 The Corporation and the Trustee on behalf of the Fund covenant and agree that the parties shall execute and deliver a unanimous shareholder agreements containing the same terms and conditions as this Agreement relating to the rights of the Unitholders with respect to any wholly-owned subsidiary of the Fund in addition to the Corporation, or any subsidiary of a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fund, including the Corporation, created or acquired during the term of this Agreement.

Article 11
General Provisions

- 11.1 Each party hereto covenants and agrees to execute or cause to be done or executed all such further and other acts, deeds, things, instruments and assurances whatsoever for the better or more perfect and absolute performance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 11.2 Each communication provided for in this Agreement or arising in connection therewith (including the service of any documents or notices as may be required by any court or judge or by any court proceedings) shall be in writing and shall be mailed or delivered to the parties addressed as follows:

the Corporation: Shiningbank Holdings Corporation

Fax: (403) 267-6598

Each party may change its mailing or delivery address by giving to the other parties written notice to that effect.

- 11.3 Each such communication shall, if delivered be deemed to have been given to and received by the addressee when delivered or, if mailed at any post office in Canada by prepaid registered post in an envelope addressed to the party to whom the same is directed, be deemed to have been given to and received by the addressee on the fifth (5th) business day following the mailing, except where there exists a labour strike or disturbance the result of which is the interference to normal mail deliveries, in which case every communication provided for in this Agreement or arising in connection herewith shall be delivered to the parties at the above addresses.

- 11.4 Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the holder of any Shares or Trust Units now owned or hereinafter acquired by any Person shall have the benefits granted to such holder under this Agreement and shall be subject to the obligations imposed by this Agreement on such holders.
- 11.5 The Trustee joins in this Agreement on behalf of the Fund and the Unitholders and agrees to be bound hereby and to take all necessary measures to enforce this Agreement and all benefits and obligations created hereunder in favour of the Unitholders.
- 11.6 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all the parties hereto signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one instrument.
- 11.7 Notwithstanding the place of negotiation or execution of this Agreement or the province of residence of any of the parties hereto or of any of the Unitholders, it is agreed that this Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the Corporation and the Trustee hereby attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta.
- 11.8 Should any portion of this Agreement be judicially held to be invalid or wholly or partially unenforceable, such holding shall not invalidate or void the remainder of this Agreement, and the parties hereby agree that the parts so held to be wholly or partially invalid or unenforceable shall be deemed to have been stricken herefrom with the same force and effect as if such part or parts had never been included herein or had always been revised and reduced in scope so as to be valid and enforceable, as the case may be.
- 11.9 This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns and, through the Trustee, this Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Unitholders, their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns.
- 11.10 Any and all certificates representing Shares now or hereafter beneficially owned by the Fund or any other Person during the term of this Agreement (whether such certificates are issued initially or with respect to a transfer or otherwise) shall have endorsed thereon in bold type the following legend:

“THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF A UNANIMOUS SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT, WHICH AGREEMENT CONTAINS RESTRICTIONS RELATING TO THE TRANSFER, HYPOTHECATION OR OTHER DISPOSITION OF SUCH SHARES AND NOTICE OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUCH AGREEMENT IS HEREBY GIVEN.”

11.11 This Agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and may be modified or amended only in accordance with the terms of this agreement, in writing by authorized representatives of each of the parties.

11.12 Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

- 1.3 Unless the context otherwise requires, where capitalized terms defined in the Trust Indenture are used herein without definition, the definitions set out therein shall apply to this Agreement.
- 1.4 In this Agreement, words importing the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa and words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine or neuter gender and vice versa where the context so requires.

- 1.5 The division of this Agreement into Articles and Sections and the Article and Section headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation or construction of this Agreement.

Article 2
Effect and Implementation of Agreement

- 2.1 This Agreement constitutes a unanimous shareholder agreement within the meaning of the Act.
- 2.2 SHC covenants and agrees that at all times it shall vote or cause to be voted the Shares of the Corporation owned by it to accomplish and give effect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 2.3 In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement on the one hand, and the Articles of Amalgamation or By-Laws on the other, SHC agrees to vote or to cause to be voted the Shares owned by it so as to cause the Articles or By-laws, or both, as the case may be, to be amended to resolve any such conflict in favour of the provisions of this Agreement.
- 2.4 The Corporation by its execution hereof acknowledges that it has actual notice of the terms of this Agreement, consents hereto and hereby covenants with SHC and the Trustee for the benefit of the Fund and the Unitholders that it will at all times during the terms of this Agreement be governed by the terms and provisions hereof in carrying out its business and affairs and, accordingly, shall give or cause to be given such notices, execute or cause to be executed such documents and do or cause to be done all such acts, matters and things as may from time to time be necessary or required to carry out the terms and intent hereof.
- 2.5 For purposes of Section 2.7 of the Trust Indenture, the parties hereto acknowledge that the Trustee is entering into this Agreement solely in its capacity as Trustee on behalf of the Fund and the obligations of the Trustee hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Trustee or any of the holders of Trust Units and that any recourse against the Fund, the Trustee or any holders of Trust Units in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the Fund arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this Agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund; provided however that the limitation on recourse against the Trustee shall not be limited as aforesaid in the event of the fraud, wilful default or gross negligence of the Trustee.

Directions to SHC

- 3.1 The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of a minimum of three members and a maximum of nine members, and shall initially be set at five members. The members of the Board of Directors shall be selected by a vote of the Unitholders and Special Unitholders at a meeting of Unitholders and Special Unitholders held in accordance with the Trust Indenture and thereafter SHC shall elect the individuals so selected by the Unitholders and Special Unitholders to the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
- 3.2 SHC shall only vote the Shares of the Corporation as resolved by the Unitholders and Special Unitholders at a meeting of Unitholders and Special Unitholders held in accordance with the Trust Indenture with respect to all matters set out in section 10.5 of the Trust Indenture.

Article 4
Voting

- 4.1 Unitholders shall be entitled to notice of, to attend at and to direct the manner in which SHC will vote its Shares at any meeting of, and in respect of any matter put before the shareholders of the Corporation including, without limitation, voting on the election of directors of the Corporation, receiving its financial statements and appointing its auditors and the auditors of the Fund. Prior to SHC voting its Shares, each Unitholder shall be entitled to vote in respect of the matter at a meeting of Unitholders called for the purpose of considering the matter on the basis of one vote per Trust Unit held and SHC shall be required to vote its Shares in accordance with the result of the vote of Unitholders on the matter.
- 4.2 Without limitation, the rights granted to Unitholders pursuant to Section 4.1 hereof, shall include the entitlement to direct SHC as to how to vote its Shares at any meeting of shareholders at which amendments to this Agreement are being proposed, to vote on such amendments.
- 4.3 Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the Trustee acknowledges and agrees with the parties hereto that it shall have no voting rights in respect of the Trust Units registered in the name of the Fund and that any such rights shall be exercised solely by Unitholders.

Article 5
Issue of Shares

- 5.1 The Corporation may not issue any further Shares provided, however, that additional Shares may be issued if approval of Unitholders by Special Resolution is obtained and upon any such holder becoming a party to this Agreement in accordance with Section 10.1.

Article 6
Waiver

- 6.1 To the extent permitted by law, SHC waives each and every provision contained in the Articles of Amalgamation or By-laws insofar as they may conflict with the provisions of this Agreement.

Article 7
Subsequent Parties to this Agreement

- 7.1 Any Person who shall hereafter become the registered owner of one or more Shares shall, prior to becoming such registered holder, and any replacement of the Trustee shall, prior to becoming the Trustee, execute one or more counterparts of this Agreement (whether or not the same has previously been executed by any other Person(s)) and shall thereafter be entitled to all of the benefits of and be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement in the same manner as if it had been an original party hereto.

Article 8
SHC No Longer Bound

- 8.1 If SHC has disposed of all of its Shares it shall no longer be bound by any of the provisions of this Agreement provided that it shall be a condition of any sale of the Shares that the transferee of the Shares shall become a party to and be subject to this Agreement in accordance with Article 10.

Article 9
Term of Agreement

- 9.1 This Agreement shall be in effect until terminated, cancelled or amended in writing by the agreement of SHC, the Corporation and the Trustee, provided that the Trustee will only act on the direction of a Special Resolution of the Unitholders.

Article 10
Covenant for Further Agreements

- 10.1 SHC and the Trustee covenant and agree that the parties shall execute and deliver a unanimous shareholders agreement containing the same terms and conditions as this Agreement relating to the rights of the Unitholders with respect to any wholly-owned subsidiary of SHC in addition to the Corporation, or any subsidiary of a wholly-owned subsidiary of SHC, including the Corporation, created or acquired during the term of this Agreement.

Article 11
General Provisions

- 11.1 Each party hereto covenants and agrees to execute or cause to be done or executed all such further and other acts, deeds, things, instruments and assurances whatsoever for the better or more perfect and absolute performance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 11.2 Each communication provided for in this Agreement or arising in connection therewith (including the service of any documents or notices as may be required by any court or judge or by any court proceedings) shall be in writing and shall be mailed or delivered to the parties addressed as follows:

SHC: Shiningbank Holdings Corporation

Calgary, Alberta T2P 3Y6
Attention: President
Fax: (403) 268-7499

the Trustee: Computershare Trust Company of Canada
Suite 710, 530 - 8th Avenue SW
Calgary, Alberta T2P 3S8
Attention: Manager, Corporate Trust Department
Fax: (403) 267-6598

Each party may change its mailing or delivery address by giving to the other parties written notice to that effect.

- 11.3 Each such communication shall, if delivered be deemed to have been given to and received by the addressee when delivered or, if mailed at any post office in Canada by prepaid registered post in an envelope addressed to the party to whom the same is directed, be deemed to have been given to and received by the addressee on the fifth (5th) business day following the mailing, except where there exists a labour strike or disturbance the result of which is the interference to normal mail deliveries, in which case every communication provided for in this Agreement or arising in connection herewith shall be delivered to the parties at the above addresses.

- 11.4 Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the holder of any Shares or Trust Units now owned or hereinafter acquired by any Person shall have the benefits granted to such holder under this Agreement and shall be subject to the obligations imposed by this Agreement on such holders.
- 11.5 The Trustee joins in this Agreement on behalf of the Unitholders and agrees to be bound hereby and to take all necessary measures to enforce this Agreement and all benefits and obligations created hereunder in favour of the Unitholders.
- 11.6 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all the parties hereto signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one instrument.
- 11.7 Notwithstanding the place of negotiation or execution of this Agreement or the province of residence of any of the parties hereto or of any of the Unitholders, it is agreed that this Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and SHC, the Corporation and the Trustee hereby attorn to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta.
- 11.8 Should any portion of this Agreement be judicially held to be invalid or wholly or partially unenforceable, such holding shall not invalidate or void the remainder of this Agreement, and the parties hereby agree that the parts so held to be wholly or partially invalid or unenforceable shall be deemed to have been stricken herefrom with the same force and effect as if such part or parts had never been included herein or had always been revised and reduced in scope so as to be valid and enforceable, as the case may be.
- 11.9 This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns and, through the Trustee, this Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Unitholders, their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns.
- 11.10 Any and all certificates representing Shares now or hereafter beneficially owned by SHC or any other Person during the term of this Agreement (whether such certificates are issued initially or with respect to a transfer or otherwise) shall have endorsed thereon in bold type the following legend:

SHARES AND NOTICE OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUCH AGREEMENT IS HEREBY GIVEN.”

11.11 This Agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties and may be modified or amended only in accordance with the terms of this agreement, in writing by authorized representatives of each of the parties.

11.12 Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

Executed and delivered.

SHININGBANK ENERGY INCOME FUND

INFORMATION CIRCULAR

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF UNITHOLDERS

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES FOR FUND MEETING

This Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of Shiningbank Energy Ltd., as the administrator of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund"), for use at the Special and Annual General Meeting (the "Fund Meeting") of the holders (the "Unitholders") of trust units (the "Trust Units") issued by the Fund, to be held on May 10, 2005 at 3:00 p.m. (Calgary time) at the Calgary Petroleum Club, McMurray Room, Calgary, Alberta, and at any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Meeting. Information contained herein is given as of March 21, 2005, unless otherwise specifically stated.

SHC SHAREHOLDER'S MEETING

Pursuant to the terms of a Unanimous Shareholder Agreement dated October 9, 2002 (the "SHC Unanimous Shareholder Agreement"), Unitholders are entitled to notice of, and to attend at, the meeting of the shareholders of Shiningbank Holdings Corporation ("SHC") to be held on May 10, 2005 at 4:00 p.m. (Calgary time) at the Calgary Petroleum Club, McMurray Room, Calgary, Alberta, but have no right to vote at that meeting. This meeting is described herein as the "SHC Shareholder's Meeting". At the SHC Shareholder's Meeting, Computershare Trust Company of Canada, on behalf of the Fund (the "Trustee"), will vote all of the shares of SHC according to the directions given by resolutions to be passed at the Fund Meeting. The Fund has agreed to refrain from exercising its voting rights as a shareholder of SHC, except as directed by the Unitholders.

CORPORATION SHAREHOLDER'S MEETING

Pursuant to the terms of a Unanimous Shareholder Agreement dated October 9, 2002 (the "Corporation Unanimous Shareholder Agreement"), Unitholders are entitled to notice of, and to attend at, the annual general meeting of Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the "Corporation") to be held on May 10, 2005 at 4:15 p.m. (Calgary time) at the Calgary Petroleum Club, McMurray Room, Calgary, Alberta, but have no right to vote at that meeting. This meeting is described herein as the "Corporation Shareholder's Meeting". At the Corporation Shareholder's Meeting, SHC will vote all of the shares of the Corporation according to the directions given by resolutions to be passed at the Fund Meeting. SHC has agreed to refrain from exercising its voting rights as a shareholder of the Corporation except as directed by the Unitholders.

1130243 SHAREHOLDER'S MEETING

Unitholders shall receive notice of, and may attend at, the annual general meeting of 1130243 Alberta Inc. ("1130243") to be held on May 10, 2005 at 4:30 p.m. (Calgary time) at the Calgary Petroleum Club, McMurray Room, Calgary, Alberta, but have no right to vote at that meeting. This meeting is described herein as "1130243 Shareholder's Meeting". At the 1130243 Shareholder's Meeting, the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, will vote all of the shares of 1130243 according to the directions given by resolutions to be passed at the Fund Meeting.

APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The persons named in the accompanying Form of Proxy are officers of the Corporation.

A UNITHOLDER HAS A RIGHT TO APPOINT A PERSON, WHO NEED NOT BE A UNITHOLDER OF THE FUND, OTHER THAN A PERSON DESIGNATED IN THE FORM OF PROXY AS NOMINEE, TO ATTEND AND ACT FOR AND ON BEHALF OF SUCH UNITHOLDER AT THE FUND MEETING AND MAY EXERCISE SUCH RIGHT BY INSERTING THE NAME OF SUCH PERSON IN THE BLANK SPACE PROVIDED IN THE FORM OF PROXY PROVIDED OR MAY SUBMIT ANOTHER APPROPRIATE FORM OF PROXY. IF A UNITHOLDER APPOINTS A PERSON DESIGNATED IN THE FORM OF PROXY AS NOMINEE AND DOES NOT DIRECT THE SAID NOMINEE TO VOTE EITHER IN FAVOUR OF OR AGAINST OR TO ABSTAIN ON A MATTER OR MATTERS WITH RESPECT TO WHICH AN OPPORTUNITY HAS BEEN GIVEN TO SPECIFY HOW THE TRUST UNITS REGISTERED IN THE NAME OF SUCH UNITHOLDER SHALL BE VOTED, THE PROXY SHALL BE VOTED IN FAVOUR OF SUCH MATTER OR MATTERS.

In order to be acted upon and voted, properly executed proxies of Unitholders must be received at the Toronto office of Computershare Trust Company of Canada, Trustee for the Trust Units, at 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1, at least 24 hours before the time set for the Fund Meeting or any adjournments thereof (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays). Accordingly, such proxies must be received by no later than 3:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on Monday, May 9, 2005. PLEASE NOTE THAT NO PROXIES CAN BE ACCEPTED AFTER THIS TIME INCLUDING AT THE FUND MEETING.

Any person or corporation giving a proxy has the power to revoke such proxy prior to the exercise thereof by instrument in writing executed by the Unitholder, or by his attorney authorized in writing or, if the Unitholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized, and deposited at the Toronto office for the Trustee at the address set out above, at least 24 hours before the time set for the Fund Meeting or any adjournments thereof (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) or with the Chairman of the Fund Meeting prior to the commencement of the Fund Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, and upon either of such deposits, the proxy is revoked.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN UNDER THE PROXY

Unless the Unitholder specifies otherwise, proxies in the form enclosed which are properly executed and returned will be voted in favour of the matters referred to in the Notices of Meeting. In each case where the giver of a proxy has appropriately specified that the proxy is to be voted otherwise, it will be voted in accordance with the specifications so made. The persons named in the enclosed proxy, who are members of the management of the Corporation, may, if in their judgment it is deemed to be advisable, vote such proxy to adjourn the Fund Meeting from time to time. It is the intention that, as to any matters or business other than the matters described herein which may be properly brought before the meeting, a vote may be cast pursuant to the enclosed proxy in accordance with the judgment of the person or persons voting the same. Management of the Corporation knows of no such amendments, variations, or other matters to come before the meeting other than the matters referred to in the Notices of Meeting.

SIGNATURE OF PROXY

The Form of Proxy must be executed by the Unitholder or his attorney authorized in writing, or if a Unitholder is a corporation, the Form of Proxy must be signed in its corporate name under its corporate seal or under the hand of any officer or attorney duly authorized and persons signing as executors, administrators, trustees or in some other representative capacity should so indicate following their signature. The appropriate instrument evidencing qualification and authority to act should accompany the proxy (unless such has been previously filed with the Trustee or the Fund). IF YOUR TRUST UNITS ARE REGISTERED IN THE NAME OF A BROKER OR OTHER INTERMEDIARY, THE FORM OF PROXY RECEIVED BY THE TRUSTEE MUST BE SIGNED BY THE REGISTERED HOLDER. THE INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE INTERMEDIARY ENCLOSED WITH THE FORM OF PROXY SHOULD BE FOLLOWED.

THIS SOLICITATION IS MADE ON BEHALF OF THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE FUND

The solicitation is made on behalf of the Fund by the management of the Corporation, as the administrator of the Fund. This solicitation is being made primarily by mail but may also be made personally by telephone and facsimile by directors, officers and other employees of the Corporation who have been delegated responsibility for the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Fund and who will not be additionally compensated therefore. The total cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Fund.

TRUST UNITS ENTITLED TO VOTE AND PRINCIPAL UNITHOLDERS

Pursuant to the terms of the Trust Indenture dated May 16, 1996, as amended and restated on March 7, 2003 between the Corporation and the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund (the "Trust Indenture"), Unitholders are entitled to notice of, and to attend at the Fund Meeting and to one vote per Trust Unit held on any ballot thereat.

The Corporation has set the close of business of the Trustee at its office in Calgary, Alberta, on March 21, 2005 (the "Record Date") as the date for determination of Unitholders entitled to receive notice of the Fund Meeting, the SHC Shareholder's Meeting, the Corporation Shareholder's Meeting and the 1130243 Shareholder's Meeting. The registered Unitholders at that time are entitled to attend and vote at the Fund Meeting and to attend the SHC Shareholder's Meeting, the Corporation Shareholder's Meeting and the 1130243 Shareholder's Meeting.

As at the Record Date, the Fund had 54,309,735 issued and outstanding Trust Units. In addition, there are 617,096 Exchangeable Shares (as defined below) issued and outstanding, which Exchangeable Shares are entitled to one vote per share at the Fund Meeting. To the best of the knowledge of the management of the Corporation, no persons beneficially own, directly or indirectly, Trust Units carrying more than 10% of the voting rights attached to the issued and outstanding Trust Units.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE FUND MEETING

Capitalized terms used in this section and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Trust Indenture.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The consolidated financial statements of the Fund for the year ended December 31, 2004, together with the auditors' report thereon, are contained in the 2004 Annual Report mailed to Unitholders with this information circular, and will be presented at the Fund Meeting.

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

It is proposed that the firm of KPMG LLP, Chartered Accountants, of Calgary, Alberta, be re-appointed as auditors of the Fund, to hold office until the next annual general meeting of the Unitholders or until their successor is appointed and that the Trustee be authorized to fix the remuneration of the auditors. KPMG LLP have been the auditors of the Fund since its inception in 1996. The persons named in the enclosed Form of Proxy, if not expressly directed to the contrary in such Form of Proxy, will vote such proxies in favour of a resolution to re-appoint KPMG LLP as auditors of the Fund and authorize the Trustee to fix their remuneration.

Pursuant to the terms of the SHC Unanimous Shareholder Agreement, the Unitholders will direct the Trustee as to the appointment of auditors of SHC. It is proposed that KPMG LLP be appointed auditors of SHC until the next annual meeting of SHC, and that the Trustee be authorized to fix the remuneration of the auditors.

Pursuant to the terms of the Corporation Unanimous Shareholder Agreement, the Unitholders will direct SHC as to the appointment of auditors of the Corporation. It is proposed that KPMG LLP be appointed auditors of the Corporation until the next annual meeting of the Corporation, and that the Trustee be authorized to fix the remuneration of the auditors.

The Unitholders will direct the Trustee as to the appointment of auditors of 1130243. It is proposed that KPMG LLP be appointed auditors of 1130243 until the next annual meeting of 1130243, and that the Trustee be authorized to fix the remuneration of the auditors.

INSTRUCTION TO TRUSTEE AS TO ELECTION OF DIRECTORS OF SHC, THE CORPORATION AND 1130243

Pursuant to the terms of the SHC Unanimous Shareholder Agreement and the Corporation Unanimous Shareholder Agreement, the members of the Boards of Directors of SHC and the Corporation are to be selected by a vote of the Unitholders at the Fund Meeting. Pursuant to the Trust Indenture, the members of the Board of Directors of 1130243 are to be selected by a vote of the Unitholders at the Fund Meeting. Arne R. Nielsen, David M. Fitzpatrick, D. Grant Gunderson, Edward W. Best and Warren D. Steckley have been proposed as the Fund's nominees as directors of SHC and the Corporation. Arne R. Nielsen, David M. Fitzpatrick and Warren D. Steckley have been proposed as the Fund's nominees as directors of 1130243. At the Fund Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed Form of Proxy, if not expressly directed to the contrary in such Form of Proxy, will vote such proxies (i) to direct the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, to vote the shares of SHC and to direct SHC to vote the shares of the Corporation in favour of the election, as directors of the SHC and the Corporation, of Arne R. Nielsen, David M. Fitzpatrick, D. Grant Gunderson, Edward W. Best and Warren D. Steckley, and (ii) to direct the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, to vote the shares of 1130243 in favour of the election, as directors of 1130243, of Arne R. Nielsen, David M. Fitzpatrick and Warren D. Steckley.

- (1) Member of the Audit Committee of the Corporation. For more information on the composition and mandate of the Audit Committee of the Corporation, as required pursuant to Multilateral Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees, please refer to the heading "Audit Committee" of the Fund's Annual Information Form for the year ended December 31, 2004, a copy of which will be filed on SEDAR concurrently with this document.
- (2) Member of the Compensation Committee of the Corporation.
- (3) Member of the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee of the Corporation.
- (4) In addition, pursuant to the acquisition of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc. by the Corporation in October of 2002, Mr. Nielsen, through Proximus Energy Corporation, holds 313,999 Exchangeable Shares that may be converted (as at March 15, 2005) into 426,269 Trust Units of the Fund at any time, and of which 126,291 Exchangeable Shares are subject to certain escrow conditions. Pursuant to a special voting unit, each Exchangeable Share carries with it the right to one vote at all meetings of holders of Trust Units.
- (5) In addition, pursuant to the acquisition of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc. by the Corporation in October of 2002, Mr. Fitzpatrick, through Kivacorp Petroleum Ltd., holds 303,097 Exchangeable Shares that may be converted (as at March 15, 2005) into 411,469 Trust Units of the Fund at any time, and of which 227,323 Exchangeable Shares are subject to certain escrow conditions. Pursuant to a special voting unit, each Exchangeable Share carries with it the right to one vote at all meetings of holders of Trust Units.

Unless otherwise disclosed herein, no proposed director of the Fund, the Corporation, SHC or 1130243:

- (a) is, as at the date hereof, or has been, within the last 10 years, a director or executive officer of any company that, while that person was acting in that capacity,
 - (i) was the subject of a cease trade or similar order or an order that denied the relevant company access to any exemption under securities legislation, for a period of more than 30 consecutive days;
 - (ii) was subject to an event that resulted, after the director or executive officer ceased to be a director or executive officer, in the company being the subject of a cease trade or similar order or an order that denied the relevant company access to any exemption under securities legislation, for a period of more than 30 consecutive days; or
 - (iii) or within a year of that person ceasing to act in that capacity, became bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or was subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold its assets; or

- (b) has, within the last 10 years, become bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or become subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors, or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold the assets of the proposed director.

REAPPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEE

Pursuant to Article 6.1 of the Trust Indenture, it is necessary to reappoint, or to appoint a successor to, the Trustee of the Fund at an annual general meeting of the Unitholders, for an ensuing two years. It is proposed that Computershare Trust Company of Canada be re-appointed Trustee of the Fund for the two year period ending at the close of the Special and Annual General Meeting of the Unitholders in 2007. Computershare (including its predecessor Montreal Trust Company of Canada) has been the Trustee of the Fund since its inception in 1996.

Resolution

Unitholders will be requested at the Fund Meeting to consider and, if thought fit, approve the re-appointment of Computershare Trust Company of Canada as Trustee of the Fund by passing the following resolution:

"BE IT RESOLVED THAT Computershare Trust Company of Canada ("Trustee") be re-appointed trustee of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund under the Trust Indenture dated May 16, 1996, as amended and restated on March 7, 2003 between Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and the Trustee, for a two year period ending upon the termination of the Special and Annual General Meeting of the Unitholders of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund to be held in the year 2007."

The foregoing resolution will be passed if it is approved by more than 50% of the votes cast in respect thereof by or on behalf of the Unitholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Fund Meeting.

AMENDMENT TO ROYALTY AGREEMENT

Under the terms of the amended and restated royalty agreement between the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, and the Corporation dated July 31, 1996, as amended and restated on February 28, 2003 (the "Royalty Agreement"), the Corporation may approve and fund capital expenditures to maintain or improve production and to exploit the Corporation's assets. The Royalty Agreement provides in Section 6.5(b) thereof that the aggregate "capital costs" incurred by the Corporation (which does not include certain costs to the Corporation of acquiring additional properties) during any calendar year shall not exceed 15% of the "net cash flow" (as that term is defined in the Royalty Agreement) from the properties of the Corporation unless those capital costs are financed with borrowings by the Corporation or additional issuances of Trust Units. It is the view of management of the Corporation that the amount of such capital costs that may be required to be spent in the future by the Corporation to maintain and improve production and to exploit its assets, may exceed the 15% limit set out in Section 6.5(b). The amounts spent on any such capital costs by the Corporation will not be available for use in distribution to Unitholders.

In order for the management of the Corporation to have the flexibility to expend capital costs in a manner that is in the best interests of the Corporation, the Fund and the Unitholders, at the Fund Meeting, the Unitholders will be asked to approve a special resolution amending the Royalty Agreement to remove Section 6.5(b) thereof.

Resolutions

Unitholders will be requested at the Fund Meeting to consider and, if thought fit, approve the following special resolutions to amend the Royalty Agreement:

"BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

- (a) the Royalty Agreement between the Trustee, on behalf of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund") and Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the "Corporation") dated July 31, 1996, as amended and restated on February 28, 2003 (the "Royalty Agreement") be amended such that: (i) Section 6.5(b) shall be deleted from the Royalty Agreement; (ii) the words "Subject to subsection 6.5(b) below" shall be deleted from Section 6.5(a) of the Royalty Agreement; and (iii) such other changes shall be made to the Royalty Agreement so as to reflect the above as the same is determined by the Trustee and the Corporation such determination to be evidenced by the execution and delivery of the appropriate document so amending the Royalty Agreement; and

- (b) any one of the officers or directors of the Corporation shall execute and deliver all such agreements, documents, certificates and other writings, and take such other actions, for and on behalf of the Corporation, in its own capacity and in its capacity as administrator of the Fund, as such person determines necessary or desirable, to give effect to the foregoing resolutions."

The foregoing special resolutions will be passed if they are approved by not less than 66⅔% of the votes cast in respect thereof by or on behalf of the Unitholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Fund Meeting.

AMENDMENT TO TRUST INDENTURE

Section 7.3 of the Trust Indenture provides that the Trustee shall have no power to borrow, incur any indebtedness or give any guarantee on behalf of the Fund or any other person or to charge, pledge, hypothecate or grant any security interest over any other entity or over the assets of the Fund. This provision may prevent the Fund from issuing debt securities such as convertible debentures, secured or otherwise. In order to afford flexibility to the Fund in this regard, at the Fund Meeting, the Unitholders will be asked to approve a special resolution amending the Trust Indenture to remove this restriction preventing the Trustee from borrowing or incurring indebtedness or giving a guarantee on behalf of the Fund or charging, pledging, hypothecating or granting any security interest over any other entity or over the assets of the Fund.

Resolutions

Unitholders will be requested at the Fund Meeting to consider, and, if thought fit, approve the following special resolutions to amend the Trust Indenture:

"BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

- (a) the Trust Indenture dated May 16, 1996, as amended and restated on March 7, 2003 between Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the "Corporation") and the Trustee, on behalf of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund") (the "Trust Indenture"), be amended such that: (i) the First Paragraph in Section 7.3 shall be deleted, and (ii) such other changes shall be made to the Trust Indenture so as to reflect the above as the same is determined by the Trustee and the Corporation such determination to be evidenced by the execution and delivery of the appropriate document so amending the Trust Indenture; and
- (b) any one of the officers or directors of the Corporation shall execute and deliver all such agreements, documents, certificates and other writings, and take such other actions, for and on behalf of the Corporation, in its own capacity and in its capacity as administrator of the Fund, as such person determines necessary or desirable, to give effect to the foregoing resolutions."

The foregoing special resolutions will be passed if they are approved by not less than 66⅔% of the votes cast in respect thereof by or on behalf of the Unitholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Fund Meeting.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Corporation knows of no amendment, variation or other matter to come before the Fund Meeting other than the matters referred to in the Notice of Meeting. If any other matter properly comes before the Fund Meeting, however, the accompanying proxies will be voted on such matter in accordance with the best judgment of the person or persons voting the proxies.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SHC SHAREHOLDER'S MEETING

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, will vote the shares of SHC as directed by resolution of the Unitholders at the Fund Meeting, for the appointment of its auditors. KPMG LLP, Chartered Accountants, using their offices in Calgary, Alberta, have been proposed for re-appointment as auditors of the Corporation, to hold office until the next annual meeting thereof. KPMG LLP were first appointed auditors of SHC on August 22, 2002. See "Matters to be Considered at the Fund Meeting – Appointment of Auditors".

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The terms of the current directors of SHC expire at the end of the SHC Shareholder's Meeting. Pursuant to the terms of the SHC Unanimous Shareholder Agreement, the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, will vote for the Board of Directors of SHC pursuant to the instructions of the Unitholders. The Unitholders will direct the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, how to vote with respect to the five nominees: Arne R. Nielsen, David M. Fitzpatrick, D. Grant Gunderson, Edward W. Best and Warren D. Steckley as directors of SHC. See "Matters to be Considered at the Fund Meeting – Instruction to Trustee as to Election of Directors of SHC, the Corporation and 1130243".

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION OF THE DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS OF SHC AND 1130243

The officers and directors of both SHC and 1130243 do not receive compensation of any kind for their positions as officers or directors of such companies.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION

The Board of Directors of the Corporation consists of five members, one of whom is a member of management, one of whom is chairman of the Board of Directors (who up until July 31, 2003 was a member of management but is currently considered to be unrelated) and three of whom are unrelated directors. For purposes of the discussion below, compensation of the chairman will be disclosed separately from that of the other unrelated directors. The chairman will be paid an annual retainer of $25,000 (same as 2004) and a meeting attendance fee of $1,500 (same as 2004 after committee appointments) for each board meeting or committee meeting attended, excluding teleconference meetings and any meetings in excess of one on any one day. The unrelated directors will be paid an annual retainer of $15,000 for 2005 ($12,000 in 2004) and meeting attendance fees of $1,000 (same as 2004) for each board or committee (of which they are a member) meeting attended, excluding teleconference meetings and any meetings in excess of one on any one day. For 2005, an additional annual fee of $2,500 ($1,000 in 2004) will be paid to unrelated directors who are committee chairmen, except the chairman of the audit committee who will be paid an annual fee of $5,000 ($3,000 in 2004). The fee increases are commensurate with the increased responsibilities and risks to the directors of the Corporation. The members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation are reimbursed for any expenses to attend board and committee meetings. All fees and expenses of the Board of Directors are paid by the Corporation. No directors' fees are paid to the member of the Board of Directors who is a member of management.

Each member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation is eligible to receive options to purchase Trust Units ("Unit Options") under the Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan of the Fund adopted and approved by the Board of Directors and the Unitholders on May 8, 2001, as amended from time to time (the "Option Plan"). The following table sets out the number of Unit Options granted to the chairman and the unrelated directors, along with the number of Unit Options currently held. All Unit Options vest over a period of three years, with the Unit Options first becoming exercisable one year from the date of grant. The Unit Options granted to members of the Board of Directors who are members of management are discussed under the heading "Summary of Executive Compensation".

Holder	Date of Grant	Total Options Granted	Grant Price ⁽³⁾	Expiry Date	Currently Held ⁽⁴⁾

	January 1, 2003	60,000	$15.15	December 31, 2012	20,001
	January 1, 2004	60,000	$18.64	December 31, 2013	39,999
	January 1, 2005	75,000	$21.49	December 31, 2014	75,000

Notes:

- (1) Arne R. Nielsen, the chairman of the Board of Directors, was the Executive Chairman of the Board, and a salaried employee, of the Corporation (and prior to October 9, 2002, of the manager of the Fund) until July 31, 2003.
- (2) Each of the unrelated directors receives an equal number of Unit Options when granted.
- (3) The actual exercise price of these Unit Options reduces as distributions are paid by the Trust on its Trust Units. For more information on the reducing exercise price of these Unit Options, including the exercise price thereof as of March 21, 2005, refer to "Executive Compensation- Summary of Executive Compensation- Unit Options".
- (4) Since the inception of the Option Plan in 2001, the unrelated directors have exercised 270,000 Unit Options and the chairman has exercised 110,000 Unit Options. All Unit Options are subject to three year vesting periods.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Employment agreements have been entered into with each of the executive officers of the Corporation. Upon a change of control (as defined in the applicable employment agreement), then within 30 days of the earlier of: (i) the date that the executive officer has been terminated without cause; (ii) the date of resignation by the executive (which must occur within 6 months of the change of control); or (iii) in the case of the President, the date the Administrative Services Agreement is terminated, the Corporation will be responsible for a lump sum payment to the executive officers of 36 months of salary in the case of the President and 18 months salary in the case of the Vice Presidents, plus benefits applicable at time of termination. In the event that a change of control as defined in the applicable employment agreement does not result in a change of control as defined in the Option Plan, the executive shall elect to either (i) exercise all of the unexercised outstanding Unit Options held by the executive, whether or not such Unit Options have vested, and receive Trust Units upon payment of the exercise price, or (ii) receive a further lump sum payment equal to the 'in-the-money' value of all unexercised Unit Options held at that time, whether or not such Unit Options have vested, and upon the payment of such amount, the executive shall consent to the termination of all such Unit Options. In addition, if the Corporation terminates any executive officer without cause, the Corporation will be responsible for a lump sum payment equal to, in the case of the President, 36 months salary and any earned portion of the bonus, and in the case of any Vice President, 18 months salary, and such lump sum payment shall include benefits applicable at time of termination.

SUMMARY OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following Summary Compensation Table details compensation for the referenced fiscal periods paid by the Corporation to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and the other executive officers whose total salary and bonus exceeded $150,000 in the most recently completed financial year.

Notes:

- (1) David M. Fitzpatrick currently is a salaried employee of the Corporation. Mr. Fitzpatrick was a salaried employee of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc., the former manager of the Fund, which was not a subsidiary of the Fund (the "Former Manager"). Prior to the management internalization that took place on October 9, 2002 (the "Management Internalization"), the Former Manager received reimbursement from the Fund for general and administrative expenses, including the salary paid to David M. Fitzpatrick, incurred by it in its former role as manager of the Fund.
- (2) Prior to the Management Internalization, Messrs. Moore, Prokopy and Gibson received their compensation from the Former Manager. Since the Management Internalization, they have received their compensation from the Corporation, which is a subsidiary of the Fund. During the period from October 9 to December 31, 2002, each of Messrs. Moore, Prokopy and Gibson received salary at the rate of $136,000 per annum pursuant to their employment agreements with the Corporation.
- (3) Except as disclosed in the table, perquisites and other personal benefits are less than $50,000 and 10% of the total annual salary and bonus for any of the named executive officers.
- (4) Out of this bonus amount, $25,000 was paid by the issuance of 1,599 Trust Units to each of executive officers at a deemed issue price of $15.63 per Trust Unit.
- (5) This bonus amount was paid by the issuance of 1,981 Trust Units to each of the executive officers at a deemed issue price of $15.14 per Trust Unit.
- (6) Includes the annual contributions by the Corporation in accordance with the employee savings plan and the insurance premium paid by the Corporation with respect to term life insurance for the benefit of the executive officers.

UNIT OPTIONS

The purpose of the Option Plan is to encourage ownership of Trust Units, to maintain a direct link between compensation and performance and to retain and motivate directors, officers, employees and consultants to optimize the Fund's long-term financial success.

The directors, officers, employees and other service providers of the Corporation are eligible to participate in the Option Plan. Under the current Option Plan a maximum of 3,995,692 Trust Units may be reserved for grants of Unit Options, which represents 7.357% of the Fund's issued and outstanding Trust Units. The number of Trust Units reserved under the Option Plan shall not at any time exceed 7.5% of the aggregate number of issued and outstanding Trust Units unless otherwise approved by the Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") and the Unitholders. At the annual and special meeting held May 12, 2004, Unitholders approved the increase in the number of Trust Units reserved for issuance under the Option Plan from 2,793,163 to 3,995,692. Under the terms of the Option Plan, one-third of the Unit Options granted to each optionee may be exercised commencing after the first anniversary of the date of grant and an additional one-third become exercisable upon each of the following two anniversaries of the date of grant. However, these vesting provisions will be accelerated upon a change of control (as defined in the Option Plan). The aggregate number of Unit Options granted to any single participant under the Option Plan shall not exceed 5% of the issued and outstanding Trust Units of the Fund. Unit Options will be granted at the per unit closing price of the Trust Units on the TSX on the day preceding the date of grant. The Option Plan provides for an exercise period not exceeding ten years on all Unit Options granted under the Option Plan. Upon the cessation of a participant's services to the Corporation for any reason whatsoever, other than death (including services as a member of the Board of Directors of the Corporation), any unvested Unit Options terminate immediately and such participant will have the shorter of 60 days from the date of such cessation and the end of the exercise period to exercise all vested Unit Options, after which time such unexercised Unit Options will terminate; provided, however, that upon termination for cause, all Unit Options, whether vested or unvested, may, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, be terminated immediately. Upon cessation of services by reason of death, the executor or personal representative shall be entitled to exercise all vested Unit Options of the deceased for a period commencing on the date of death and ending on the date which is the shorter of 6 months and the end of the exercise period.

As at March 21, 2005, a total of 2,032,734 Unit Options were outstanding under the Option Plan as follows:

Number of Options Outstanding	As a % of the Issued and Outstanding Trust Units	Grant Date	Grant Price	Current Exercise Price
325,234	0.60%	July 1, 2001	$17.25 per Trust Unit	$13.27 per Trust Unit

55,000	0.10%	July 5, 2004	$19.40 per Trust Unit	$18.52 per Trust Unit
15,000	0.03%	August 3, 2004	$19.86 per Trust Unit	$19.09 per Trust Unit
15,000	0.03%	December 16, 2004	$21.19 per Trust Unit	$20.86 per Trust Unit
717,500	1.32%	January 1, 2005	$21.49 per Trust Unit	$21.27 per Trust Unit

A further 1,083,395 Unit Options (1.99% of the Fund's issued and outstanding Trust Units) are currently available to be granted to eligible participants under the Option Plan. Under the terms of the Option Plan, the exercise price of each Unit Option is reduced monthly pursuant to a formula. This formula provides that the exercise price of each Unit Option is reduced monthly by the aggregate amount of any decreases in the daily closing prices on the TSX of the Trust Units from the date prior to the date the Trust Units first trade "ex-distribution" (the "Ex-Distribution Date") of the monthly distribution amount thereon to the date that is prior to the next Ex-Distribution Date that is in excess of 0.83333% of the Fund's consolidated net fixed assets (the "Monthly Return Amount"); provided however that such monthly decrease in the exercise price will not exceed the amount of that month's per Trust Unit distribution amount that exceeds the Monthly Return Amount (the "Excess Monthly Return"). In addition, any amount by which the aggregate of the monthly reduction in the exercise price is less than the Excess Monthly Return for that month can be carried over to future months to permit the exercise price to be reduced further by that amount. The Option Plan may be amended, modified or terminated by the Board of Directors with the approval of the TSX, and any Unitholder approvals required by the TSX.

- (2) The value of unexercised Unit Options at December 31, 2004 was based on a closing price per Trust Unit on the TSX on December 31, 2004 of $21.49.

COMPOSITION OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Corporation's Board of Directors has appointed a compensation committee (the "Compensation Committee") whose mandate includes compensation awards, issues and policies, and evaluation of executive performance. The Compensation Committee is comprised of four unrelated directors, Edward W. Best, D. Grant Gunderson, Warren D. Steckley and Arne R. Nielsen, and is chaired by Mr. Best.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee, whose members are appointed by and from the Board of Directors, convenes at least once a year to assess executive management, review proposals for compensation for all executive officers and conduct an independent evaluation of compensation for current management. The Compensation Committee submits its recommendations to the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee has the goal of achieving an effective compensation structure that aligns the interests of management with that of the Unitholders.

The Corporation's policy is to provide a compensation package that will attract and retain qualified executive officers and at the same time link incentives to short and long term corporate and Trust Unit performance. Currently, the compensation program for executive officers of the Corporation is comprised of salary, benefits, Unit Options and a bonus plan.

The following are the components of executive compensation at the Corporation. Although each of the following components have different objectives, each are considered by the Compensation Committee to be equally important and each must be competitive within the Fund's peer group.

Base Salary and Benefits

Base salaries and benefits for executive officers are determined by the Compensation Committee on the basis of position held and related responsibilities and functions performed, having regard to base salary and benefit ranges for similar positions in the Corporation's comparative group. The Compensation Committee also utilizes an independent annual industry survey containing comparative data for a peer group of oil and gas royalty trusts and similarly sized oil and gas exploration and production companies. Compensation levels are to approximate the median level of the survey but individual, executive group and Fund performance are also considered by the Compensation Committee in assessing compensation.

Bonus Plan

The purpose of the bonus plan is to relate a component of compensation directly to the annual results of the Fund and performance of the individual and executive group. The bonus plan was created by the Board of Directors upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee. Bonus awards are determined by considering the Corporation's growth, financial and operating factors such as cash flow, operating and general and administrative costs and netbacks, all considered on a per boe basis. None of these factors is given a specific weight in determining the bonuses awarded under the bonus plan.

The Compensation Committee compares the Fund's results with comparative data for a peer group of oil and gas royalty trusts in order to remove non-controllable external factors such as royalty rates and commodity prices. The Board of Directors has retained complete discretion in the awarding of bonuses and utilizes independently collected comparative data.

Unit Options

Unit Options are granted as a long-term incentive. The Compensation Committee, in determining the number of Unit Options to be granted, will consider the number and terms of Unit Options held, the responsibilities and functions of the executive officer, the officer's individual and group performance and the overall performance of the Fund over a period of recent years. A wide range of performance factors such as unit price, distribution per Trust Unit, annual and multi-year yields, net asset value per Trust Unit, finding, development and acquisition costs per barrel, recycle ratio and internal rate of return are considered.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

The factors considered by the Compensation Committee in determining total compensation for the CEO, as well as the manner in which these factors are reviewed, are similar to those used in determining total compensation for the other executives of the Corporation. However, in the case of the CEO, more weight is given to the overall performance of the Fund, as well as the CEO's performance in such areas as leadership, communications skills and strategic vision.

The foregoing report is respectfully submitted to the Unitholders by the Compensation Committee.

REIMBURSEMENT OF THE CORPORATION BY THE FUND - ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Pursuant to an administrative services agreement (the "Administrative Services Agreement") entered into by the Corporation and the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, dated October 9, 2002, the Corporation is entitled to reimbursement from the Fund for administrative expenses. Such payment is not intended to provide the Corporation, directly or indirectly, with any financial gain or loss and the Corporation has agreed that such payment will be made only to the extent necessary to reimburse the Corporation for actual costs incurred, including carrying costs until payment. Costs and expenses incurred by the Corporation for the benefit of the Trustee or the Fund and others shall be prorated in a reasonable manner and shall be subject to reimbursement only to the extent such costs and expenses can reasonably be attributed to the services provided under the Administrative Services Agreement.

Administrative expenses are defined in the Administrative Services Agreement as the amount in aggregate representing all expenditures and costs incurred by the Corporation in the management and administration of the Fund, including: (i) reasonable costs and expenses solely and exclusively relating to the Fund which are paid to third parties by the Corporation; and (ii) reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the Corporation to the extent such costs and expenses are reasonably identifiable as being incurred specifically for the Fund including, without limitation, auditing, accounting, bookkeeping, legal, land administration, engineering, travel, telephone, data processing, reporting, executive and management time, salaries and bonuses incurred in providing services provided under the Administrative Services Agreement.

The Administrative Services Agreement may be terminated by the Trustee upon the earlier of 3 months from the date of such notice and the date on which a satisfactory replacement administrator is appointed in compliance with the terms of the Trust Indenture.

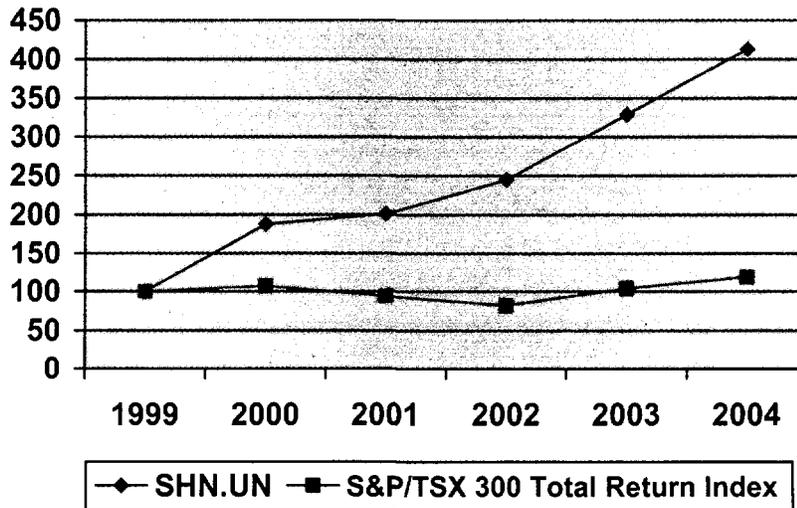

Upon the effective date of termination, the Corporation shall: (i) pay to or to the order of the Fund, as the case may be, all monies collected and held for it pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement, after deducting any amounts incurred to which it is then entitled; and (ii) deliver to or to the order of the Fund a complete report including a statement showing all payments collected by it, and a statement of all monies held by it pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement during the period following the date of the last audited statement furnished to the Fund pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement and prior to the effective date of termination and should an auditor's report for this period be requested, the expense of such a report will be borne by the Fund.

EMPLOYEE SAVINGS PLAN

Effective January 1, 2001, the Corporation established an Employee Trust Unit Savings Plan (the "ESP") to assist employees in meeting long term savings goals through the acquisition of Trust Units of the Fund and other professionally managed investment funds and to encourage its employees to have a direct investment in the Fund. Under the ESP, employees may contribute as much of their semi-monthly pay period earnings to the ESP as they wish, subject to a minimum contribution of 2% per pay period. The Corporation contributes an amount equal to the amount contributed by the employee to a maximum of 6% per pay period. The Corporation's contributions accumulate and are directly deposited into the employee's account on a monthly basis. Once deposited, the contributions vest immediately in favour of the employee even if his or her employment with the Corporation ends afterwards. All contributions under the ESP are contributed to the employees' respective self-directed RRSP accounts or non-RRSP accounts. The contributions made under the ESP by the Corporation are used to purchase Trust Units of the Fund from the secondary market through the facilities of the TSX. All commissions payable respecting the purchase of Trust Units are paid by the Corporation. Employees are responsible for commissions payable in connection with the sale of their Trust Units or other securities held under the ESP.

INDEBTEDNESS OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Since the inception of the Fund, no directors or officers of the Corporation, the Former Manager, nor any associate or affiliate of any of them, have been indebted to the Fund or the Corporation.

INTEREST OF INFORMED PERSONS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Except as disclosed in this Information Circular, management of the Corporation is not aware of any material interest of any informed person, director, proposed director or officer of the Corporation, SHC or 1130243, any shareholder of the Corporation, SHC or 1130243, or any Unitholder who beneficially owns more than 10% of the common shares of the Corporation or of the Trust Units, or any known associate or affiliate of these persons, in any transaction since the commencement of the last fiscal year of the Fund or in any proposed transaction that has materially affected or would materially affect the Fund or any of its subsidiaries.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information relating to the Fund is on the SEDAR website at www.sedar.com. The Fund has a current Annual Information Form ("AIF") filed with the securities commissions of all the provinces and territories of Canada pursuant to National Instrument 44-101. Financial information is provided in the Fund's comparative financial statements and MD&A for its most recently completed financial year. The following documents will be provided to any Unitholder upon request to the Corporate Secretary of the Corporation:

1. A copy of the AIF of the Fund, together with one copy of any document or the pertinent pages of any document, incorporated by reference in the AIF; and
2. A copy of the comparative financial statements of the Fund for its most recently completed financial year together with the accompanying report of the auditors and one copy of any interim financial statements of the Fund subsequent to the financial statements for its most recently completed financial year, together with the applicable MD&A.

Such documents are also publicly available on the Fund's website at www.shiningbank.com.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Details of the manner in which the Fund presently responds to the Toronto Stock Exchange corporate governance guidelines, implemented by the Corporation, are provided in Schedule "A" to this Information Circular.

In response to Multilateral Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees ("MI 52-110"), the Corporation has updated its audit committee charter to address such items as: (a) the procedure to nominate the external auditor and the recommendation of its compensation; (b) the overview of the external auditor's work; (c) pre-approval of non-audit services; (d) the review of financial statements, MD&A and financial sections of other public reports requiring board of director approval; (e) the procedure to respond to complaints respecting accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and the procedure for confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters; and (f) the review of the Corporation's hiring policies towards present or former employees or partners of the Corporation's present or former external auditor. Refer to the heading "Audit Committee" in the Fund's AIF for the disclosure required by Section 5.1 of MI 52-110.

APPROVAL

The contents and mailing of this Information Circular have been approved by the directors of the Corporation.

SCHEDULE "A"

TSX Guidelines	Compliant	Implementation of the Guidelines
1. The Board of Directors of every Corporation should explicitly assume responsibility for the stewardship of the Corporation and, as part of the overall stewardship responsibility, should assume responsibility for the following matters:	Yes	The Board has established procedures with regard to the approval of material transactions, the delegation of authority and the execution of documents as part of its organizational structure. The Board receives an annual report and recommendations from the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserves Review Committee in relation to the mandates and terms of reference for each of its committees. The Board meets quarterly in the absence of management and communicates its expectations to management directly.
(a) adoption of a strategic planning process:	Yes	Substantial strategic planning occurs at the Board level on at least an annual basis. Strategic plans proposed by management are reviewed by the Board by considering such items as forecasts and capital budgets, effective allocation of resources and the opportunities and risks associated with the Fund. The Board also approves the Fund's financial statements, major investments, the raising of capital and any organizational restructuring.
(b) the identification of the principal risks of the Corporation's business and ensuring the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks:	Yes	Management specifically identifies the Fund's principal risks and reports to the Board thereon. The Board has established committees to review and monitor the systems put in place to address these risks. As an example, the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee regularly reviews the Corporation's environmental, health and safety management system, and through the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer, monitors its operation. The same committee reviews the reserve reports prepared by independent reservoir engineering firms, meets with the independent engineers and with management and is apprised of any major changes, or potential future changes to reserves and reserves reporting. Following its review, the committee meets with the full Board to make recommendations regarding the acceptance of such reports. In addition, this committee considers the human resources, organizational structure and succession planning matters annually and reports to the Board. It also reviews the Corporation's overall external communication policies to ensure effective communication with the shareholders and the public. As a further example, the Audit Committee regularly reviews corporate risks, internal control systems, risk management and mitigation, including hedging policies and activities and the implementation of accounting guidelines. The Compensation Committee regularly reviews the competitive position of the Fund in the area of human resources.
(c) succession planning, including appointing, training and monitoring senior management:	Yes	The Board regularly reviews the issues of appointing, training and monitoring senior management as they apply to the management of the assets and operations of the Fund. As part of this review, the Compensation Committee reviews the compensation paid to management annually. Annual reviews of the performance of senior management are conducted by the Compensation Committee.

Implementation of the Guidelines

(d) a communications policy for the Corporation:

Yes

The Board and management have put structures in place to avoid selective disclosure and to ensure open, accessible and effective communication within the Corporation as well as between the Corporation, its stakeholders, the public and regulatory authorities. These structures include Audit Committee review and approval of the financial statements with accompanying management discussion and analysis and Board review and approval of all significant disclosure documents such as annual and quarterly reports, financial statements, annual information forms, circulars and press releases regarding material events. The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee reviews and approves disclosure of reserves data. Shiningbank also maintains an extensive website at www.shiningbank.com to provide investors with current information pertaining to the Fund and has also established facilities to broadcast live conference calls respecting major developments which are promptly made available via the Internet or telephone.

(e) the integrity of the Corporation's internal control and management information systems:

Yes

Management has implemented an effective system of internal controls, including the management of information systems. Various committees of the Board regularly review, advise and report to the Board on corporate strategy in the following areas:

(i) Human Resources: policies and remuneration;

(ii) Risk Management and Environment: all issues, including minimization of the major operating risks faced by the Corporation and environmental and health and safety compliance;

(iii) Audit and Finance: compliance of financial reporting with GAAP, oversight of all financing plans and control and management of information systems, monitoring of the independence and performance of the external auditors;

(iv) Corporate Governance: determining Board priorities and reviewing the effectiveness of management's interaction with and responsiveness to the Board; and

(v) Reserves: review of independent reserves evaluators and reserve evaluation reports to ensure reserves are reported fairly and to ensure the Board is apprised of any major changes or potential changes to reserves and reserves reporting standards, review of the Corporation's procedures relating to the disclosure of information with respect to oil and gas activities and procedures for providing information to the reserves evaluators, and review and recommend to the Board in relation to content and filing of statements required under National Instrument 51-101 following the meeting with the independent reserves evaluators and management.

2. The Board of Directors of every Corporation shall be constituted with a majority of individuals who qualify as unrelated directors. An unrelated director is a director who is independent of management and is free from any interest and any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the director's ability to act with a view to the best interests of the Corporation, other than interests and relationships arising from shareholding. A related director is a director who is not an unrelated director. If the Corporation has a significant shareholder, in addition to the majority of unrelated directors, the board should include a number of directors who do not have interests in or relationships with either the Corporation or the significant shareholder.	Yes	The Board is presently comprised of five directors, the majority of whom are considered unrelated. Other than Mr. Nielsen, none of the unrelated directors or their associates have worked for the Fund or the Corporation, have material contracts with the Fund or the Corporation or have received material remuneration from the Fund (other than in the form of unit options) or the Corporation in excess of directors' fees. 5. Every Board of Directors should implement a process to be carried out by the nominating committee for assessing the effectiveness of the board as a whole, the committees of the board, and the contribution of individual directors.	Partially	The Board has determined that the implementation of a performance assessment mechanism for individual directors is neither practical nor realistically effective. The mandate of the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) monitoring the quality of the relationship between management and the Board and recommending improvements;(ii) annually assessing the effectiveness of the Board and each of its committees;(iii) reviewing the Terms of Reference of committees and recommending changes to the Board if required;(iv) reviewing the structures and procedures of the Board and its relationship to management to ensure the Board can function independently of management; and(v) reviewing the Corporation's overall approach to corporate governance and, as appropriate, making recommendations to the Board.
6. Every Corporation, as an integral element of the process for appointing new directors, should provide an orientation and education program for new recruits to the board.	Yes	The Chairman is responsible for orienting new and existing directors. From time to time, presentations are made to the Board on directors' duties and responsibilities. New directors will meet with management to familiarize themselves with the business and operations, and management is available to meet with the directors upon request. The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee tours field sites periodically, which serves to give the directors additional insight into the Corporation's business. In addition, each new director is provided materials detailing the responsibilities of (a) the committees on which he sits, (b) the Chairman, and (c) the President and CEO, as well as corporate governance materials and copies of all the Corporation's policies. Directors are kept up to date on changes affecting their responsibilities, and are encouraged to attend seminars or other learning forums with the consent of the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee.
7. Every Board of Directors should examine its size and, with a view to determining the impact of the number upon effectiveness, undertake where appropriate, a program to reduce the number of directors to a number which facilitates more effective decision-making.	Yes	The Board must have enough directors to carry out its duties efficiently, while presenting a diversity of views and experience. The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee reviews whether the current size of the Board promotes effectiveness and efficiency. The Board currently is composed of five directors – a minimal, but sufficient number to fulfill its responsibilities effectively and efficiently.

8. The Board of Directors should review the adequacy and form of the compensation of directors and ensure the compensation realistically reflects the responsibilities and the risks involved in being an effective director.	Yes	The Compensation Committee has the mandate to review and make recommendations to the Board respecting the remuneration of directors. Factors such as market conditions, time commitment and responsibilities are considered in determining remuneration. It is the Board's belief that the establishment of the Corporation's long-term Option Plan assists in aligning Directors' interests with those of the Unitholders of the Fund and in attracting and retaining competent and effective executives to meet and exceed performance milestones. The Compensation Committee has established a written charter that clearly establishes the committee's purpose, responsibilities, membership qualification, appointment and removal, structure and operations, and manner of reporting to the Board. One of such responsibilities is to review executive compensation disclosure before it is publicly disclosed.
9. Committees of the Board of Directors should generally be composed of outside directors, a majority of whom are unrelated directors, although some board committees, such as the executive committee may include one or more inside directors.	Yes	The Corporation's Board Committees are composed entirely of unrelated directors.
10. Every Board of Directors should expressly assume responsibility for, or assign to a committee of directors the general responsibility for, developing the Corporation's approach to corporate governance issues. This committee would, amongst other things, be responsible for the Corporation's response to these governance guidelines.	Yes	The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee has established a written mandate that includes developing the Corporation's approach to corporate governance issues and in responding to the TSX governance guidelines. The committee is keeping abreast of recent developments in this area and is assessing its current policies and procedures in light of the proposed changes. At a minimum, the committee's mandate is reviewed annually to ensure that all aspects of responsible corporate governance are being addressed.
11. The Board of Directors, together with the CEO, should develop position descriptions for the board and the CEO, involving the definition of the limits to management's responsibilities. In addition, the board should approve or develop the corporate objectives which the CEO is responsible for meeting.	Yes	There is no specific mandate for the Board, since the Board has plenary power. Any responsibility which is not delegated to senior management or a Board Committee remains with the full Board. Each Committee has specific Terms of Reference approved by the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee. The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee reviews and recommends to the Board the CEO's authorities and responsibilities. The Board reviews and approves corporate objectives as part of its planning process and then monitors performance.
12. Every Board of Directors should have in place appropriate structures and procedures to ensure that the board can function independently of management. An appropriate structure would be to (i) appoint a chair of the board who is not a member of management with responsibility to ensure the board discharges its responsibilities, or (ii) adopt alternative means such as assigning this responsibility to a committee of the board or to a director, sometimes referred to as a "lead director". Appropriate procedures may involve the board meeting on a regular basis without management present or may involve expressly assigning the responsibility for administering the board's relationship to management to a committee.	Yes	The Board meets independently of management on a quarterly basis. The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee is composed of unrelated directors and ensures that the Board functions independently of management. The Chairman of the Board is not a member of management of the Corporation. Each of the committees has the authority to engage and compensate independent advisors as it deems appropriate.

13. The audit committee of every Board of Directors should be composed only of outside directors. The roles and responsibilities of the audit committee should be specifically defined so as to provide appropriate guidance to audit committee members as to their duties. The audit committee should have direct communication channels with the internal and external auditors to discuss and review specific issues as appropriate. The audit committee's duties should include oversight responsibilities for management reporting on internal control. While it is management's responsibility to design and implement an effective system of internal control, it is the responsibility of the audit committee to ensure that management has done so.	Yes	The Audit Committee is composed only of outside directors. As well, none of the members of the committee have a direct or indirect material relationship with the Corporation or the Fund, and none are deemed to have a material relationship. The Terms of Reference of the Audit Committee specifically define its duties and responsibilities which include meeting separately with external auditors to discuss and review specific issues as appropriate. The Audit Committee annually recommends to the Board the auditors to be appointed and the remuneration to be paid. The auditors report directly to the Audit Committee. This committee also approves all non-audit services provided by the external auditor and reviews all financial information before it is publicly disclosed. The Audit Committee also reviews internal control systems of the Corporation and the Fund. It is the Board's position that each member of the Audit Committee is "financially literate" and accordingly sufficiently competent to provide effective review of the Corporation's finances. An individual is considered financially literate if he or she has the ability to read and understand a set of financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity of accounting issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of the issues that can reasonably be expected to be raised by the Corporation's financial statements. For further information, refer to the Fund's Annual Information Form.
14. The Board of Directors should implement a system which enables an individual director to engage an outside adviser at the expense of the Corporation in appropriate circumstances. The engagement of the outside advisor should be subject to the approval of an appropriate committee of the board.	Yes	Individual directors may engage outside advisers at corporate expense upon receipt of written authorization from the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee.

ABBREVIATIONS, TERMS AND CONVERSIONS

Certain terms and abbreviations used in this Annual Information Form are defined below:

"bbl"	barrel of oil or NGL;
"bcf"	billion cubic feet of natural gas;
"boe"*	barrel of oil equivalent;
"boe/d"*	barrel of oil equivalent per day;
"bbl/d"	barrel of oil or NGL per day;
"mdbl"	thousand barrels;
"mboe"*	thousand barrels of oil equivalent;
"mmbtu"	million British Thermal Units;
"mcf"	thousand cubic feet of natural gas;
"mcf/d"	thousand cubic feet of natural gas per day;
"mmcf"	million cubic feet of natural gas;
"mmcf/d"	million cubic feet of natural gas per day;
"mstb"	thousand stock tank barrels;
"NGL"	natural gas liquids;

- * A barrel of oil equivalent is determined by converting a volume of natural gas to barrels using the ratio of six mcf to one barrel. Boe's may be misleading, particularly if used in isolation. The boe conversion ratio of 6 mcf:1 bbl is based on an energy equivalency method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead.

In this Annual Information Form measurements are given in standard Imperial or metric units only. The following table sets forth certain standard conversions.

To Convert From	To	Multiply By
mcf	cubic metres	28.174
cubic metres	cubic feet	35.494
bbl	cubic metres	0.159
cubic metres	bbl	6.290
feet	metres	0.305
metres	feet	3.281
miles	kilometres	1.609
kilometres	miles	0.621
acres	hectares	0.405
hectares	acres	2.471

Unless stated otherwise, all sums of money referred to in this Annual Information Form are expressed in Canadian dollars.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements contained in this Annual Information Form, including estimates of reserves, estimates of future cash flow and estimates of future production as well as other statements about anticipated future events or results, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements often, but not always, are identified by the use of words such as "seek", "anticipate", "believe", "plan", "estimate", "expect", "targeting" and "intend" and statements that an event or result "may", "will", "should", "could" or "might" occur or be achieved and other similar expressions. The forward-looking statements that are contained in this Annual Information Form involve a number of risks and uncertainties. As a consequence, actual results might differ materially from results forecast or suggested in these forward-looking statements. Some of these risks and uncertainties are identified under the heading "Risk Factors" in this Annual Information Form. Additional information regarding these factors and other important factors that could cause results to differ materially may be referred to as part of particular forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by reference to the important factors discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" and to those that may be discussed as part of particular forward-looking statements.

PRESENTATION OF OIL AND GAS RESERVES AND PRODUCTION INFORMATION

All oil and natural gas information contained in this Annual Information Form has been prepared and presented in accordance with Canadian Securities Administrators' National Instrument 51-101 ("NI 51-101"). The actual oil and natural gas reserves and future production will be greater than or less than the estimates provided in this Annual Information Form. The estimated future net revenue from the production of the disclosed oil and natural gas reserves does not represent the fair market value of these reserves. There is no assurance that the constant or forecast prices and costs or other assumptions made in connection with the reserves disclosed herein will be attained and variances could be material.

The estimates of reserves and future net revenue for individual properties may not reflect the same confidence level as estimates of revenue and future net revenue for all properties, due to the effects of aggregation.

NON-GAAP MEASURES

In this Annual Information Form, the Fund uses the terms "cash flow", "cash available for distribution" and "distributable cash" to refer to the amount of cash available for distribution to Unitholders and as indicators of financial performance. The Fund also uses the term "netbacks", which are calculated as average unit sales price less royalties, transportation costs and operating costs, to represent the cash margin for product sold, calculated on a boe basis. "Cash flow", "cash available for distribution", "distributable cash" and "netbacks" are not measures recognized by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and do not have standardized meanings prescribed by GAAP. Therefore, "cash flow", "cash available for distribution", "distributable cash" and "netbacks" of the Fund may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers, and investors are cautioned that "cash flow", "cash available for distribution", "distributable cash" and "netbacks" should not be construed as alternatives to net earnings, cash flow from operating activities or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with GAAP. Cash available for distribution cannot be assured and future distributions may vary.

INCORPORATION AND ORGANIZATION

The Fund

The Fund is an unincorporated open-ended investment trust created under the laws of the Province of Alberta and formed and governed by the Trust Indenture. The head and principal offices of the Fund are located at 1310, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3Y6. The registered office of the Fund is located at Suite 1200, 700 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4V5.

The Fund's assets consist primarily of the Royalties granted by the Corporation and SLP, the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note. The Royalties entitle the Fund to receive Royalty Income earned by the Corporation and by SLP. See "Incorporation and Organization - The Royalties". The Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note entitle the Fund to receive payments of principal and interest from the Corporation and from SLP in accordance with the terms of promissory notes arising at the time of acquisition of the shares of Raider, Ionic and Birchill.

Holders of Trust Units are the beneficiaries of the Fund. Unitholders indirectly receive the benefit of the Royalties consisting of the entitlement to receive an amount equal to the Royalty Income and also indirectly receive the benefit of the interest income on the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note received by the Fund from the Corporation and SLP.

Shiningbank Energy Ltd.

Shiningbank Energy Ltd. was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) on March 7, 1996 as Proximity Energy Ltd. Its articles were amended by Certificate of Amendment dated April 9, 1996 to change its name to Shiningbank Energy Ltd. Effective July 1, 2000, and pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), Shiningbank Energy Ltd. amalgamated with Shiningbank Energy Acquisitions Ltd. ("SEAL"), Raider and Raider's wholly-owned subsidiary Cambright Gas Corporation ("Cambright") and continued under the name Shiningbank Energy Ltd. Effective May 4, 2001, and pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), Shiningbank Energy Ltd. amalgamated with 923720 Alberta Inc. and Ionic Energy Inc. and continued under the name Shiningbank Energy Ltd. Effective October 9, 2002, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. amalgamated with Shiningbank Energy Management Inc. and continued under the name Shiningbank Energy Ltd. Effective January 1, 2004, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. amalgamated with Jocsak Energy Ltd. and continued under the name Shiningbank Energy Ltd. Effective March 8, 2004, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. amalgamated with Birchill Resources Limited and Good Ridge Explorations Ltd. to form the Corporation. The Corporation is a wholly-owned subsidiary of SHC and an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Fund. The head and principal office of the Corporation is located at 1310, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3Y6. The registered office of the Corporation is located at Suite 1200, 700 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4V5.

The Corporation is in the business of acquiring, developing, exploiting, owning and disposing of oil and natural gas properties, providing certain administrative services to the Fund and acting as general partner of SLP. The Corporation has approximately 65 employees. The Corporation has agreed, pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement, to provide certain management, advisory and administrative services in connection with the Royalties, the Fund, the Trust Units and any entity of the Fund administered by the Corporation. The Corporation receives no management fees for acting as administrator of the Fund or as general partner of SLP and is reimbursed only for administrative expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Shiningbank Holdings Corporation

Shiningbank Holdings Corporation was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) on July 24, 2002 as 999972 Alberta Inc. Its articles were amended by a Certificate of Amendment dated October 8, 2002 to, among other things, change its name to Shiningbank Holdings Corporation and authorize the issuance of an unlimited number of non-voting exchangeable shares. With the exception of the non-voting Exchangeable Shares, the Fund owns all of the issued and outstanding shares of SHC. The head and principal office of SHC is located at 1310, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3Y6. The registered office of SHC is located at Suite 1200, 700 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4V5.

SHC was incorporated for the purpose of acquiring all of the shares of the Former Manager, for cash and Exchangeable Shares, to effect the internalization of the Fund's management. SHC has no business or employees other than holding the shares of the Corporation. See "General Development of the Business of the Fund – Management Internalization Transactions".

Shiningbank Limited Partnership

Shiningbank Limited Partnership ("SLP") is a limited partnership which was formed on December 10, 2004 under the Partnership Act (Alberta). The head and principal office of SLP is located at 1310, 111 – 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3Y6. The registered office of SLP is located at Suite 1200, 700 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4V5.

SLP is in the business of acquiring, developing, exploiting, owning and disposing of oil and natural gas properties. Shiningbank Operating Trust owns 100% of the limited partnership interests in SLP and SEL is the general partner of SLP.

Shiningbank Operating Trust

Shiningbank Operating Trust ("SOT") is an unincorporated commercial trust created under the laws of the Province of Alberta and governed by a trust indenture between Arne R. Nielsen, as settlor, and 1130243 Alberta Inc., as trustee, dated September 30, 2004. The head and principal office of SOT is located at Suite 1200, 700 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4V5.

The trustee of SOT is 1130243 Alberta Inc. All of the beneficial interest of SOT is held by the Fund. The assets of SOT currently consist of its limited partnership interest in SLP.

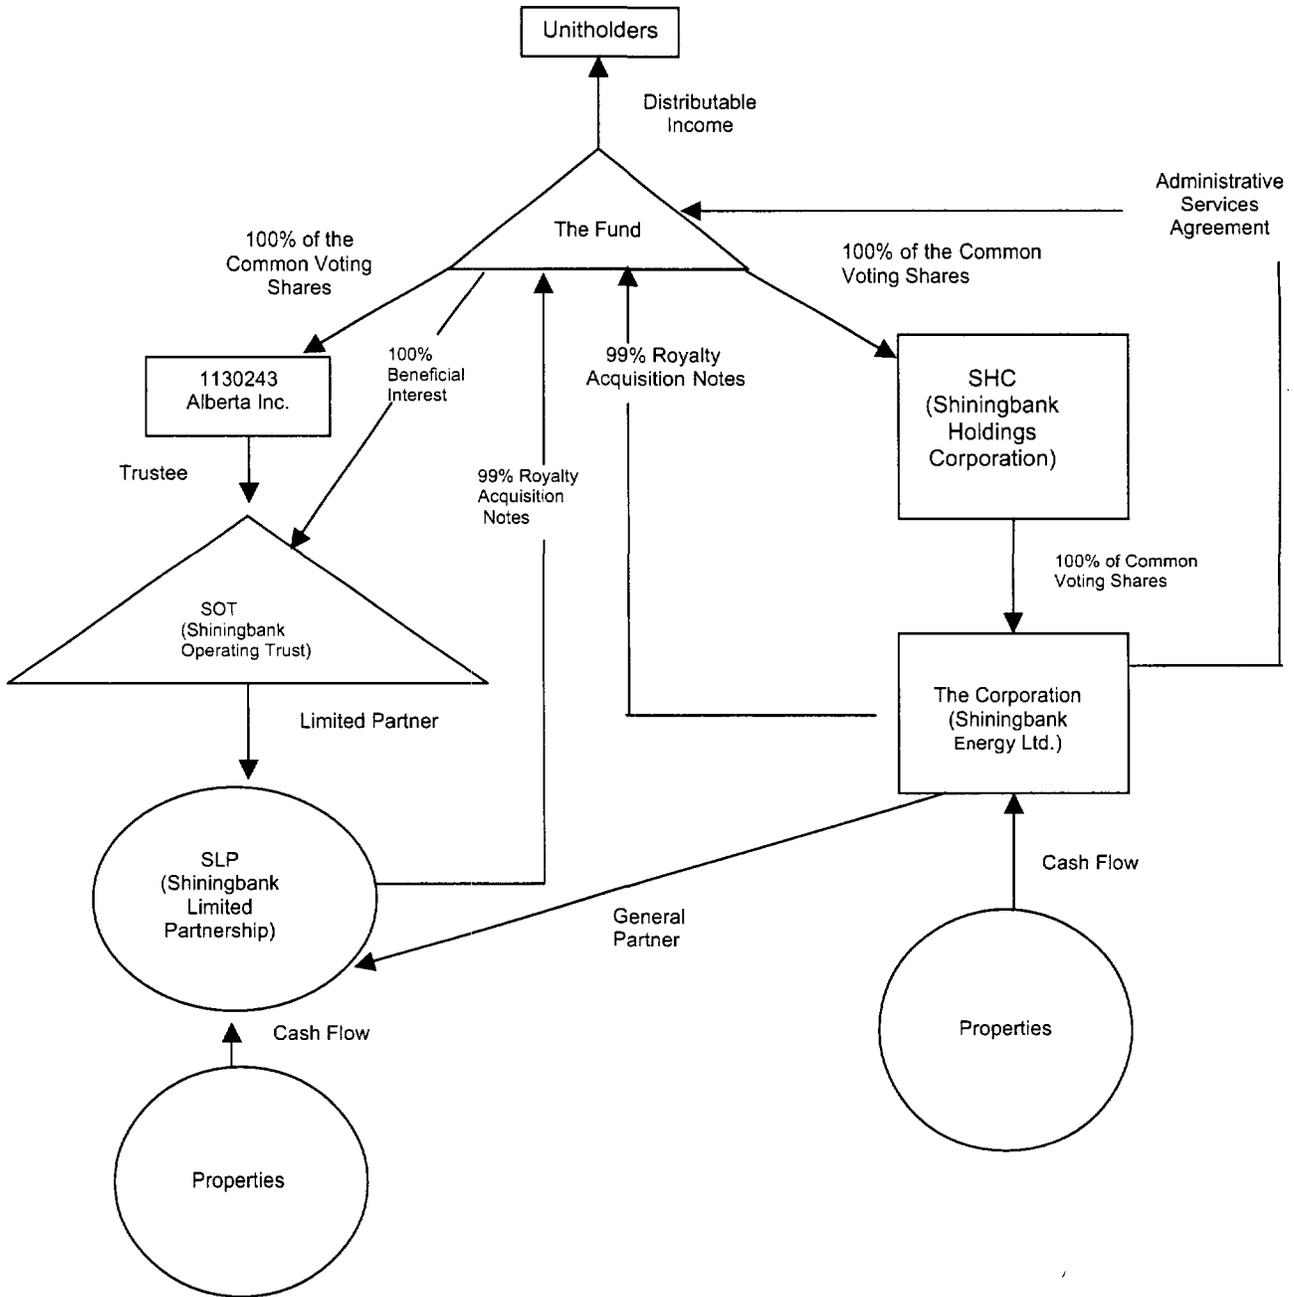

1130243 Alberta Inc.

1130243 Alberta Inc. was incorporated under the ABCA on September 30, 2004. Its head and principal office is located at 1310, 111 – 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3Y6 and its registered office is located at Suite 1200, 700 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4V5.

1130243 Alberta Inc. was incorporated for the purpose of being the trustee of SOT. All of the outstanding shares of 1130243 Alberta Inc. are held by the Fund.

Intercorporate Relationships

The following diagram illustrates the flow of cash from the Properties to the Fund and from the Fund to the Unitholders. Reference should be made to the appropriate sections of this Annual Information Form for a complete description of the structure of the Fund:

The Royalties

Pursuant to the Royalty Agreements, the Corporation and SLP have granted the Royalties to the Fund. The Royalties do not constitute an interest in land and the Fund is not entitled to take its share of production in kind or to separately sell or market its share of Petroleum Substances.

The Corporation and SLP are required to pay all Crown charges in respect of the Properties and the Fund is required to reimburse the Corporation and SLP for 99% of the portion thereof not deductible for income tax purposes. At the option of the Corporation and SLP, such reimbursement may be effected by set off against amounts of Royalty Income which the Corporation and SLP are obliged to pay the Fund.

The Royalty Agreements provide that the Fund will be entitled to be paid by the Corporation and SLP, by way of cash payments, the amount payable in respect of the Royalties for each month or quarter (a "Period"), at the election of the Corporation and SLP, on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the completion of each Period.

Deferred Purchase Price Obligation

Recognizing that cash-flows from properties acquired by the Corporation and SLP will be subject to the Royalties for the benefit of Unitholders, the Royalty Agreement imposes upon the Fund the obligation to pay a deferred purchase price (the "Deferred Purchase Price Obligation"). The Deferred Purchase Price Obligation constitutes an ongoing obligation of the Fund to pay to the Corporation and SLP, as additions to the purchase price for the Royalties on the following basis: (i) 99% of the cost of any Canadian resource properties (as defined in the Tax Act) which may be subsequently acquired by the Corporation and SLP, directly or by way of corporate or other business combination, to the extent that such cost is not financed by the debt incurred or assumed by the Corporation and SLP; and (ii) 99% of any capital expenditures incurred in respect of the Properties and so designated by the Corporation and SLP to the extent that such cost is not financed by debt incurred or assumed by the Corporation and SLP. If the Corporation or SLP does not make a designation in respect of capital expenditures at the time they are incurred, the Deferred Purchase Price Obligation shall not be applicable to such expenditures. The Royalty Agreement also provides that the net proceeds realized by the Fund from any offerings of Trust Units which occur subsequent to the initial public offering of Trust Units may be payable by the Fund to the Corporation and SLP pursuant to the Deferred Purchase Price Obligation outstanding at the relevant time.

The cost of the 1% of Canadian resource properties acquired by the Corporation or SLP that is not subject to the Deferred Purchase Price Obligation and the entire cost of depreciable tangible equipment relating to any such additional properties, shall be borne by the Corporation and SLP utilizing their own working capital or funds borrowed by them for such purposes from the Fund or otherwise.

Release of Royalties and Acquisition of Replacement Properties

Pursuant to the terms of the Royalty Agreements, the Corporation and SLP may assign, sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of, all or any portion of the Properties and may release the Royalties therefrom, provided that they determine that such assignments, sales, exchanges or other dispositions would be in the best interests of the Unitholders and that such sales are in accordance with the following:

- (i) all assignments, sales, exchanges or other dispositions of Properties for proceeds in excess of 5% of the net asset value (as defined in the Royalty Agreements) of all Properties must be approved by the Board of directors of the Corporation and, in connection with such approval, the Board of directors of the Corporation must determine whether the net proceeds of any sales allocable to the Fund should be distributed to Unitholders or used to purchase additional properties; and
- (ii) all assignments, sales, exchanges or other dispositions of Properties having a value (as defined in the Royalty Agreements) greater than 25%, in a calendar year, of the net asset value of all Properties must be approved by a Special Resolution of the Unitholders and, in connection with such approval, the Unitholders, subject to the recommendation by the Board of directors of the Corporation, are also required to consider whether the net proceeds of the assignment, sale, exchange or other disposition, allocable to the Fund should be distributed to the Unitholders or used to purchase additional properties.

The Royalty Agreements provide, with respect to the release of the Royalties, that:

- (i) the proceeds of disposition of an interest in any of the Properties (excluding proceeds in respect of related tangible equipment and certain other miscellaneous interests), to the extent not applied to repay borrowings of the Corporation and SLP, shall be allocated 99% to the Fund and 1% to the residual interest of the Corporation and SLP and 100% of the proceeds in respect of related tangible equipment and certain other miscellaneous interests shall be allocated to the Corporation and SLP;
- (ii) the proceeds of disposition allocable as aforesaid to the Fund (the "Royalty Disposition Proceeds") shall be forthwith deposited in an interest bearing account with a Canadian chartered bank maintained by the Corporation or SLP, as the case may be, in trust for the Fund (the "Proceeds Account") and to the extent that there is a Deferred Purchase Price Obligation outstanding, the amount thereof shall be paid to the Corporation out of those proceeds of disposition;
- (iii) interest received on the Proceeds Account during any Period shall be paid by the Corporation and to the Fund on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the end of such Period;
- (iv) to the extent that Royalty Disposition Proceeds create a negative balance in the cumulative Canadian oil and gas property expense account of the Fund (as defined in the Tax Act) as at the end of any calendar year, the Corporation and SLP shall remit to the Fund an amount from the Proceeds Account equal to such negative balance so as to permit the distribution thereof; and
- (v) to the extent that Royalty Disposition Proceeds are not used to purchase replacement properties within one year from the date such proceeds are deposited in the Proceeds Account, such proceeds shall be forthwith paid by the Corporation and SLP to the Fund and distributed to Unitholders.

The Raider Acquisition Notes

In June, 2000, the Fund, through SEAL, completed the acquisition of all of the outstanding Raider common shares. SEAL paid approximately $420,000 in cash and the Fund issued approximately 2.44 million Trust Units in order to acquire 100% of the Raider common shares. Effective July 1, 2000, Shiningbank Energy Ltd., SEAL, Raider and Cambright were amalgamated, continuing as Shiningbank Energy Ltd. Prior to this amalgamation, the Fund transferred to SEAL all of the Raider common shares acquired by it pursuant to the Raider Offer in exchange for the Raider Acquisition Notes. The Raider Acquisition Notes issued by SEAL to the Fund in connection with the acquisition of Raider total approximately $17.4 million and bear interest at a rate equal to the prime rate of interest announced from time to time by a major Canadian chartered bank for Canadian dollar loans. The Raider Acquisition Notes are now obligations of the Corporation.

The Ionic Acquisition Notes

In April, 2001, the Fund, through 923720, completed the acquisition of all of the outstanding Ionic common shares. The Fund and 923720 paid approximately $45 million in cash and the Fund issued 5,035,362 Trust Units in order to acquire 100% of the Ionic common shares. Effective May 4, 2001, Shiningbank Energy Ltd., 923720 and Ionic were amalgamated pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), continuing as Shiningbank Energy Ltd., which was a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Former Manager. Prior to such amalgamation, the Fund transferred to 923720 all of the Ionic common shares acquired by it pursuant to the Ionic Offer in exchange for demand promissory notes and the Fund transferred the shares of 923720 to Shiningbank Energy Ltd. These demand promissory notes issued by 923720 to the Fund in connection with the acquisition of Ionic total approximately $77.6 million (the "Ionic Acquisition Notes"), bear interest at a rate equal to the prime rate of interest announced from time to time by a major Canadian chartered bank for Canadian dollar loans plus one quarter of one percent. The Ionic Acquisition Notes are now obligations of the Corporation.

The Birchill Acquisition Note

On March 8, 2004, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Birchill Resources Limited for a purchase price of $170.1 million. Of this purchase price, $141.5 million was provided by the Fund which funds were raised by way of a public offering of subscription receipts of the Fund (see "General Development of the Business of the Fund – Significant Developments in 2004"). The remainder of the purchase price for the acquisition of Birchill came from Shiningbank Energy Ltd.'s bank credit facilities. The $141.5 million in funds provided by the Fund to Shiningbank Energy Ltd. was provided in exchange for a demand promissory note of Shiningbank Energy Ltd. in the same amount. This demand promissory note (the "Birchill Acquisition Note") bears interest at a rate equal to the prime rate of interest announced from time to time by a major Canadian chartered bank for Canadian dollar loans plus one quarter of one percent. A portion of the Birchill Acquisition Note was transferred to SLP pursuant to the restructuring that occurred in late 2004 (see "General Development of the Business of the Fund – Year Ended December 31, 2004"). Effective March 8, 2004, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. amalgamated with Birchill Resources Limited and Good Ridge Explorations Ltd. to form the Corporation.

Trust Units

A maximum of 300,000,000 Trust Units are authorized for issuance pursuant to the Trust Indenture, of which 54,309,735 were issued and outstanding as at March 21, 2005. The Trust Units represent equal and undivided beneficial interests in the Fund. All Trust Units share equally in all distributions from the Fund and all Trust Units carry equal voting rights at meetings of Unitholders. No conversion or pre-emptive rights are attached to the Trust Units.

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the Trust Indenture. For a complete description of the Trust Indenture, reference should be made to the Trust Indenture, a copy of which may be obtained from the Trustee or viewed at the offices of the Corporation at Calgary, Alberta.

Distributions of Cash

The amount of cash to be distributed annually per Trust Unit is equal to a pro rata share of the Fund's Distributable Cash for the year. Cash distributions of Distributable Cash are made on a monthly basis on the Cash Distribution Date. The Corporation determines the Royalty Income and interest income accrued to the Fund on the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note for a particular period and arranges for payment of all direct expenses of the Fund from such income.

Future Offerings

The Fund may offer additional Trust Units or rights to purchase additional Trust Units (up to the authorized maximum) at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Corporation may determine with the approval of the Board of directors of the Corporation. The Royalties will attach to the interests of the Corporation and SLP in any additional properties which are acquired, whether directly or by way of corporate or other business combination, from time to time. Accordingly, the proceeds from any future offerings may be used to finance the acquisition of additional properties, whether directly or by way of corporate or other business combination, should such be available on terms and conditions acceptable to the Corporation, with the approval of the Board of directors of the Corporation in certain circumstances.

Meetings and Voting

Annual meetings of the Unitholders have been held since the inception of the Fund. Special meetings of Unitholders may be called at any time by the Trustee and shall be called by the Trustee upon the written request of Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 20% of the issued and outstanding Trust Units. Notice of all meetings of Unitholders shall be given to Unitholders at least 21 days (or such other period of time as may be prescribed by applicable securities legislation) prior to the meeting.

Unitholders may attend and vote at all meetings of Unitholders either in person or by proxy and a proxy holder need not be a holder of Trust Units. Two persons present in person or represented by proxy and representing in the aggregate not less than 5% of the votes attaching to all outstanding Trust Units constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all such meetings.

Unitholders are entitled to one vote per Trust Unit at all meetings of Unitholders. A Special Resolution of the Unitholders is required to, among other things, amend (except for certain amendments that are not consequential or are required to ensure the Fund complies with applicable laws) the Trust Indenture, the Royalty Agreements, the Administrative Services Agreement, the Corporation USA, the SHC USA, to remove the Trustee, or terminate the Fund.

In addition, holders of Exchangeable Shares have the right to receive notice of, and to vote, at meetings of Unitholders. The holders of the Exchangeable Shares are entitled to vote at meetings of Unitholders through a Special Voting Unit issued by the Fund, on the basis of one vote for each outstanding Exchangeable Share. These rights are governed by a Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement dated October 9, 2002 among the Fund, SHC and the Corporation, and a Support Agreement dated October 9, 2002 among the Fund, SHC and the Corporation as the trustee of the Exchangeable Shares. See "General Development of the Business of the Fund – Three Year History – Management Internalization Transactions".

Corporation USA

The Corporation, SHC and the Trustee, have entered into the Corporation USA which provides that the Unitholders will be entitled to receive notice of and to attend all meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation and except as set forth below, to direct the manner in which SHC votes its shares in the Corporation at all such meetings. Prior to SHC voting its shares of the Corporation, each Unitholder will be entitled to vote in respect of the matter on the basis of one vote per Trust Unit held and SHC will be required to vote its shares of the Corporation in accordance with the result of the votes of Unitholders. Holders of Trust Units are entitled to direct SHC as to how to vote in respect of all matters placed before it as the holder of all voting shares of the Corporation, including the election of directors of the Corporation and the appointment of the auditors of the Corporation and the Fund. In addition, Unitholders are entitled to direct SHC as to how to vote its shares in the Corporation on any proposed amendment to the Corporation USA, the Trust Indenture or the Administrative Services Agreement, which amendments are required to be approved by Special Resolution. SHC is not entitled to exercise its rights as a shareholder except as set forth above.

The Corporation USA also provides that the Board of directors of the Corporation shall consist of a minimum of three and a maximum of nine directors. The number of directors is currently set at five.

SHC USA

SHC, the Trustee, Proximus and Kivacorp have entered into the SHC USA which provides that the Unitholders will be entitled to receive notice of and to attend all meetings of the shareholders of SHC and, except as set forth below, to direct the manner in which the Trustee, on behalf of the Fund, votes its shares in SHC at all such meetings. Prior to the Trustee voting the Fund's shares in SHC, each Unitholder will be entitled to vote in respect of the matter on the basis of one vote per Trust Unit held and the Trustee will be required to vote the Fund's shares in SHC in accordance with the result of the votes of Unitholders. Holders of Trust Units are entitled to direct the Trustee as to how to vote in respect of all matters placed before the shareholders of SHC, including the election of directors of SHC and the appointment of the auditors of SHC. In addition, Unitholders are entitled to direct the Trustee as to how to vote the Fund's shares in SHC on any proposed amendment to the SHC USA, the Trust Indenture or the Administrative Services Agreement, which amendments are required to be approved by Special Resolution. The Fund is not entitled, without the direction of the Unitholders, to exercise its rights as a shareholder, except as set forth above.

The SHC USA also provides that the Board of directors of SHC shall consist of a minimum of three and a maximum of nine directors. The number of directors is currently set at five.

Limitation on Non-Resident Ownership

In order for the Fund to maintain its status as a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the Fund must not be established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents of Canada ("non-residents") within the meaning of the Tax Act. Accordingly, the Trust Indenture provides that at no time may non-residents be the beneficial owners of a majority of the Trust Units. The Trustee may require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial holders of Trust Units are resident. If the Trustee becomes aware, as a result of requiring such declarations or otherwise, that the beneficial owners of 49% of the Trust Units then outstanding are or may be non-residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustee shall make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Trust Units from, or issue or register a transfer of Trust Units to, a person unless the person provides a declaration that the person is a resident of Canada. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee determines that a majority of the Trust Units are held by non-residents, the Trustee shall send a notice to non-resident holders of Trust Units, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustee may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Trust Units or a portion thereof within a specified period of not less than 60 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Trust Units or provided the Trustee with satisfactory evidence that they are not non-residents within such period, the Trustee shall on behalf of such Unitholders sell such Trust Units and in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Trust Units. Any such sale shall be made on any stock exchange on which the Trust Units are then listed and, upon such sale, the affected holders shall cease to be holders of Trust Units and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates representing such Trust Units. To the best of the knowledge of management, non-resident ownership of the Trust does not exceed 20% as of the date of this Annual Information Form.

Laws in certain jurisdictions outside Canada may also limit the ownership of Trust Units by certain non-residents, and the Trustee may from time to time take steps similar to the foregoing to minimize any adverse consequences to non-resident Unitholders arising from such laws.

Voting at Meetings of SHC, the Corporation and 1130243 Alberta Inc.

The Unitholders are entitled to certain voting rights at meetings of SHC, the Corporation and 1130243 Alberta Inc. including voting rights with respect to the appointment of auditors and directors of these corporations. See "Incorporation and Organization – Trust Units – Corporation USA" and "Incorporation and Organization – Trust Units – SHC USA".

Termination of the Fund

The Unitholders may vote to terminate the Fund at any meeting of the Unitholders, subject to the following: (a) the vote is requested in writing by the holders of not less than 20% of the Trust Units; or (b) if the Trust Units have become ineligible for investment by Exempt Plans; and (c) a quorum of holders of 50% of the issued and outstanding Trust Units is present in person or by proxy at the meeting; and (d) the termination is approved by Special Resolution of the Unitholders at the meeting.

Unless the Fund is terminated or extended by vote of the Unitholders earlier, the Trustee shall commence to wind up the affairs of the Fund on December 31, 2096. In the event that the Fund is wound-up, the Trustee will liquidate all the assets of the Fund, pay, retire, discharge or make provision for some or all obligations of the Fund and then distribute the remaining proceeds of sale, if any, to Unitholders.

Reporting to Unitholders

The Fund furnishes to Unitholders, within 45 days of the end of the first, second and third quarters of each year, a report which includes an unaudited statement of receipts and disbursements attributable to the Royalties for the quarter. Within 90 days of the end of each calendar year, the Fund furnishes tax reporting information to each person who received Distributable Cash at any time during the previous calendar year (or such shorter period of time as may be prescribed by applicable securities legislation).

The financial statements of the Fund are audited at least annually by an independent, recognized firm of chartered accountants and the audited financial statements of the Fund, together with the report of such chartered accountants, are mailed by the Trustee to Unitholders within 90 days of the end of each calendar year. The fiscal year end of the Fund is December 31.

The Fund also furnishes annually to Unitholders a summary review of the acquisitions and dispositions of Properties that have occurred during the preceding year and activities conducted thereon, including locations of Properties and aggregate amounts of crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids produced therefrom and related operating costs. A summary description of material changes in the Fund's financial affairs and their expected impact on Unitholders is also provided.

Take-over Bids and Unitholder Rights Plan

The Trust Indenture contains provisions to the effect that if a take-over bid is made for Trust Units and not less than 90% of the Trust Units (other than Trust Units held at the date of the take-over bid by or on behalf of the offeror or associates or affiliates of the offeror) are taken up and paid for by the offeror, the offeror shall be entitled to acquire the Trust Units held by Unitholders who did not accept the offer on the terms offered by the offeror, subject to compliance with the relevant provisions of the Trust Indenture. On January 25, 2000, the Board of directors of the Corporation approved the adoption by the Fund of a unitholder rights plan (the "Rights Plan"). The Unitholders ratified the adoption of the Rights Plan at the Special and Annual General Meeting of Unitholders held on May 9, 2000. The provisions of the Rights Plan require that Unitholders ratify the continued existence of the Rights Plan at the first annual meeting of Unitholders of the Fund following the second anniversary of the date of the Rights Plan, and at every second annual meeting of Unitholders of the Fund held thereafter. In addition, pursuant to amendments to the Trust Indenture approved by Unitholders on May 9, 2000, the Trustee has delegated its authority to the Corporation to address all matters pertaining to the Unitholder Rights Plan or the maximization of Unitholder value in the context of a response to an offer for Trust Units or for all or substantially all of the assets of the Trust or any of the Managed Entities. The Unitholders reconfirmed the Rights Plan at the Special and Annual General Meetings of Unitholders held on May 7, 2002 and May 12, 2004.

Retraction Rights

Trust Units will be retractable at any time on demand by the holder thereof upon delivery to the Fund of the certificate or certificates representing such Trust Units, accompanied by a duly completed and properly executed notice requesting retraction. Upon receipt of the retraction request by the Fund, all rights to and under the Trust Units tendered for retraction shall be surrendered and the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive a price per Trust Unit ("Redemption Price") equal to the lesser of: (i) 95% of the "market price" of the Trust Units on the principal market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading during the 10 trading day period commencing immediately after the date on which the Trust Units are surrendered for retraction; and (ii) the "closing market price" on the principal market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading on the date that the Trust Units are surrendered for retraction.

The "market price" for the purposes of a retraction of Trust Units will be an amount equal to the simple average of the closing price of the Trust Units for each of the 10 trading days on the principal market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading and on which there was a closing price; provided that if the applicable exchange or market does not provide a closing price but only provides the highest and lowest prices of the Trust Units traded on a particular day, the "closing price" shall be an amount equal to the simple average of the highest and lowest prices for that trading day if there was a trade; and provided further that if there was a trade on the applicable exchange or market for fewer than five of the 10 trading days, the "market price" shall be the simple average of the "closing market price" on each of the 10 trading days. The "closing market price" shall be an amount equal to the closing price of the Trust Units if there was a trade on the date; an amount equal to the average of the highest and lowest prices of Trust Units if there was trading and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Trust Units traded on a particular day; and the average of the last bid and last ask prices of the Trust Units if there was no trading on the date.

The aggregate cash Redemption Price payable by the Fund in respect of any Trust Units surrendered for retraction during any calendar month shall be satisfied by way of a cash payment on the last day of the following month; provided that the entitlement of Unitholders to receive cash upon redemption of their Trust Units is subject to the limitations that: (i) the total amount payable by the Fund in respect of such Trust Units and all other Trust Units tendered for retraction in the same calendar month shall not exceed $100,000 provided that such limitation may be waived at the discretion of the Board of directors of the Corporation; (ii) at the time such Trust Units are tendered for retraction the outstanding Trust Units of the Fund shall be listed for trading on a stock exchange or traded or quoted on any other market which the Board of directors of the Corporation consider, in their sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Trust Units; or (iii) the normal trading of Trust Units is not suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Trust Units are listed (or, if not listed on a stock exchange, on any market on which the Trust Units are quoted for trading) on the date that the Trust Units are tendered for retraction or for more than five trading days during the 10 day trading period commencing immediately after the date on which the Trust Units are tendered for retraction.

If a Unitholder is not entitled to receive cash upon the redemption of Trust Units as a result of the foregoing limitations, then the Redemption Price for such Trust Units shall be the fair market value thereof as determined by the Board of directors of the Corporation and shall, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals, be paid and satisfied by way of a distribution in specie of the Fund's property (the "Fund Property"). The Fund Property may include interests in shares and/or debt instruments (the "Securities"). No fractional Securities will be distributed and where the number of Securities to be received by a Unitholder includes a fraction, such number shall be rounded to the next lowest whole number. The Fund shall be entitled to all interest paid or accrued and unpaid and to all dividends paid or declared payable with respect to the Fund Property on or before the date of such distribution in specie. The holders of the Fund Property will be subject to the provisions of all material agreements that relate to the Fund Property.

It is not anticipated that the retraction right will be the primary mechanism for Unitholders to liquidate their investment. The Securities which may be distributed to Unitholders in connection with any retraction may be subject to resale restrictions under applicable securities laws, will not be listed on any stock exchange and no market is expected to develop for such Securities. The Securities received as a result of a retraction of Trust Units may not be qualified investments for Exempt Plans, depending upon the circumstances existing at that time. The holders of the Securities will be subject to the provisions of all agreements that relate to the Securities. See "Incorporation and Organization - The Royalties, The Raider Acquisition Notes, The Ionic Acquisition Notes and The Birchill Acquisition Note".

Trustee

Computershare Trust Company of Canada ("Computershare") is the Trustee of the Fund and also acts as the transfer agent for the Trust Units. The Trustee is responsible for, or has delegated to the Corporation, the following: (i) receiving and reviewing subscriptions for Trust Units and issuing Trust Units pursuant thereto; (ii) maintaining books and records of the Fund and providing timely reports to holders of Trust Units; (iii) paying Distributable Cash to Unitholders; and (iv) monitoring, on a continuous basis, the activities of the Fund. The Trustee may require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of Trust Units are resident.

The Trust Indenture provides that the Trustee shall exercise its powers and carry out its functions thereunder as Trustee honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Fund and the Unitholders and, in connection therewith, shall exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent trustee would exercise in comparable circumstances, subject to compliance by the Trustee with any agreements contemplated by the Trust Indenture, which may be binding upon the Trustee or the Fund.

The Trustee is reappointed or changed every two years as may be determined by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Unitholders. At the Special and Annual General Meeting of the Unitholders to be held on May 10, 2005 the Unitholders will be asked to consider and vote on a resolution that Computershare be reappointed and reconfirmed as Trustee. The Trustee may resign upon 60 days' notice to the Corporation. The Trustee may also be removed by Special Resolution of the Unitholders if the Trustee becomes bankrupt or insolvent or otherwise incapable of performing its responsibilities under the Trust Indenture or as the result of a material increase in the fees charged by the Trustee. Such resignation or removal becomes effective upon the acceptance or appointment of a successor trustee. Prior to November 1, 2001, Montreal Trust Company of Canada ("Montreal Trust") was the trustee of the Fund and was replaced by Computershare, the successor in interest to Montreal Trust by virtue of the acquisition of certain assets of Montreal Trust by Computershare early in 2001.

The Corporation, on behalf of the Trustee, keeps such books and records as are necessary for the proper recording of the business transactions of the Fund. Where it is practical to do so, these records are similar to those required to be maintained by a distributing corporation incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Alberta). Unitholders generally have access to such records to the same extent as though they were shareholders of such a corporation. All such records are kept by the Corporation at its offices in Calgary, Alberta.

The Trust Indenture provides that the Trustee shall be under no liability to any holder of Trust Units for any action taken in good faith reliance upon any documents that are, prima facie, properly executed, for any depreciation of, or loss to, the Fund incurred by reason of the sale of any property, for any inaccuracy in any evaluation provided by the Corporation or any other appropriately qualified person, for relying on any such evaluation, for any action or failure to act of the Corporation, or for any other action or failure to act (including, without limitation, the failure to compel in any way any former trustee to redress any breach of trust or any failure by the Corporation to perform its duties under the Trust Indenture, or the Royalty Agreements, the Administrative Services Agreement, the Corporation USA, the SHC USA or any underwriting agreement to which the Fund is a party), unless such liabilities arise out of the Trustee's gross negligence, wilful default or fraud. If the Trustee has retained an appropriate expert or advisor with respect to any matter connected with its duties under the Trust Indenture or the Royalty Agreements, the Trustee may act or refuse to act based on the advice of any such expert or advisor without liability. The Trustee shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Fund and shall have no additional recourse against Unitholders for: (i) any taxes or other government charges imposed upon the Trustee in consequence of its performance of its duties; (ii) losses suffered by it arising out of the performance of its duties under the Trust Indenture; and (iii) for losses arising in respect of third party environmental claims, provided: (a) that such losses do not arise out of the Trustee's gross negligence, wilful default or fraud; and (b) the assets of the Fund are sufficient to satisfy the above losses of the Trustee. Pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement, the Trustee and any person who is serving or has served as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Trustee shall be indemnified by the Corporation out of the assets of the Corporation against all liabilities (including environmental liabilities), obligations, costs and expenses (including judgments, fines, penalties, amount paid in settlement with the approval of the Corporation, as the case may be, and reasonable counsel fees) arising from or related to any manner of breach of the Administrative Services Agreement by the Corporation or in any way arising from or related in any manner to the fraud, wilful misconduct, or gross negligence of the Corporation in the performance of its obligations thereunder, provided any other person claiming indemnification hereunder shall be indemnified only to the extent such person is not finally adjudged in said action, suit or proceeding to have acted with wilful misfeasance, bad faith, or gross negligence and provided that any such person shall not be indemnified if such person is finally adjudged to have acted other than honestly and in good faith.

The Trust Indenture provides that all contracts signed by or on behalf of the Fund must (except as the Trustee or Corporation may otherwise, in any respect, determine) contain a provision to the effect that the obligations in such agreement will not be binding upon Unitholders personally. Personal liability may also arise in respect of claims against the Fund that do not arise under contracts, including claims in tort, claims for taxes and possibly certain other statutory liabilities. The possibility of any personal liability of this nature arising is considered unlikely. In addition, the Income Trust Liability Act (Alberta) provides that a beneficiary of a trust that is (a) created by a trust instrument governed by the laws of Alberta, and (b) a reporting issuer as defined in the Securities Act (Alberta), is not liable as a beneficiary for any act, default, obligation or liability of the trustee. See "Risk Factors – Unitholder Liability".

Administrative Services Agreement

The Trustee and the Corporation entered into the Administrative Services Agreement on October 9, 2002. The Administrative Services Agreement may be terminated by the Trustee on the earlier of the expiry of 3 months written notice of termination given by the Trustee to the Corporation, and the date on which a satisfactory replacement administrator is appointed.

Pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement, the Corporation provides certain management, advisory and administrative services in connection with the Royalties, the Fund, the Trust Units and any entity of the Fund managed by the Corporation. In return, the Corporation is reimbursed only for administrative expenses incurred, with the intention that the Corporation not derive any financial gain, nor suffer any financial loss, as a result of providing such services.

The main duties of the Corporation under the Administrative Services Agreement include:

- ▶ managing all of the operations and other affairs of the Fund;
- ▶ advising the Fund in respect of the Royalties;
- ▶ administering all matters respecting the assets of the Fund and the Trust Units;
- ▶ providing or causing to be provided to Unitholders all information to which Unitholders are entitled under the Trust Indenture;
- ▶ determining the timing and terms of future offerings of Trust Units, if any, and all other services as may be necessary for the Trustee to discharge its responsibilities under the Trust Indenture;
- ▶ ensuring compliance by the Fund with continuous disclosure obligations under all applicable securities legislation;
- ▶ providing investor relations services to the Fund;
- ▶ calling and holding all necessary meetings of Unitholders and distributing materials including notices of meetings and information circulars in respect thereof;
- ▶ determining the amounts payable from time to time to Unitholders and arranging for distributions to Unitholders of Distributable Cash; and
- ▶ providing office space, equipment and staff, including clerical, technical, managerial and accounting services for the Fund and the Corporation.

In exercising its powers and discharging its duties under the Administrative Services Agreement, the Corporation is required to exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent administrator would exercise in comparable circumstances.

The Corporation will be indemnified by the Fund in respect of certain liabilities, obligations, costs and expenses which it may suffer in discharging its obligations under the Administrative Services Agreement provided that such liabilities, obligations, costs and expenses do not arise from the fraud, wilful misconduct or gross negligence of the Corporation.

The Board of directors of the Corporation reviews the provision of services under the Administrative Services Agreement on an ongoing basis. Any significant amendment to the Administrative Services Agreement must be approved by the Board of directors of the Corporation, the Trustee and by Special Resolution of the Unitholders.

The Corporation's Business Strategy

The Corporation manages and administers the assets of the Fund according to the terms and conditions set forth in the Administrative Services Agreement. A business strategy has been set out which utilizes the extensive management, technical and business experience of the directors and officers of the Corporation with the objective of maintaining and enhancing Distributable Cash to Unitholders and the value of the Trust Units. Optimizing income and value will be achieved by increasing both the quality and quantity of the assets held by the Corporation and underlying the Royalties. To achieve this strategy the Corporation:

- ▶ plans to acquire additional producing assets having a long reserve life;
- ▶ operates a significant number of the Properties in order to proactively manage the factors impacting Distributable Cash, including operating costs, capital costs, development plans and timing, abandonment liabilities, commodity markets, joint venture billings and receipts;

- ▶ uses capital to exploit oil and natural gas assets and optimize cash-flow where the Corporation considers the risk to be reasonable;
- ▶ has developed a production marketing strategy to provide a competitive commodity price portfolio as well as to reduce price volatility; and
- ▶ endeavours to optimize cash flow by reducing operating costs and general and administrative costs.

The Corporation endeavours to capitalize on the operating, exploitation, evaluation and management experience of its officers and the directors in order to be competitive in the asset acquisition and cash flow enhancement process.

The Corporation's Acquisition Criteria

The Corporation may periodically purchase additional oil and natural gas properties or acquire corporations or other entities holding such assets, with a view to maintaining or increasing Distributable Cash for Unitholders. Such acquisitions generally comply with the following criteria and procedures:

- ▶ each must be evaluated by an independent engineer except for properties from a single vendor acting at arm's length where the purchase price of the properties is not in excess of $15 million;
- ▶ each is evaluated using industry accepted pricing and reserve definitions and discount rates. Payout periods and acquisition costs per boe are rigorously evaluated as part of the process to attempt to ensure a competitive Distributable Cash will result from such acquisitions;
- ▶ not more than 50% of the net asset value of all Properties can be attributable to a single pool;
- ▶ at least 60% of the net asset value of all Properties must be represented by proved reserves;
- ▶ the Properties must be selected, in part, on the basis that the amount of anticipated capital expenditures required thereon will be of the type which are intended to maintain, realize or improve production from such properties; and
- ▶ the approval of the Board of directors of the Corporation is required for acquisitions exceeding $20 million per transaction.

The oil and natural gas industry continues to go through a period of consolidation and rationalization which has resulted in an increase in property divestitures by industry participants. The Corporation believes that this process will continue, thereby providing it with opportunities to acquire oil and natural gas producing properties which meet the foregoing acquisition criteria.

The Corporation and SLP

Business

The Corporation was incorporated and organized for the purpose of, and carries on the business of, acquiring, developing, exploiting and disposing of oil and natural gas properties and granting the royalty to the Fund under the terms of the Corporation Royalty Agreement. It also performs its duties under the Administrative Services Agreement and its duties as general partner of SLP under the limited partnership agreement for SLP.

SLP was formed for the purpose of, and carries on the business of, acquiring, developing, exploiting and disposing of oil and natural gas properties. It granted the royalty to the Fund under the terms of the SLP Royalty Agreement. The Corporation is the general partner of SLP and, in that capacity, directs the operations and policies of SLP.

Borrowing

The Corporation has a $225 million revolving committed credit facility with a syndicate of Canadian chartered banks. The facility has a revolving period ending on April 27, 2006, at which time the facility, unless renewed, reverts to a two year term with principal payments, if necessary, commencing on July 28, 2005. The credit facility is accessed through the use of funding instruments as provided for under the credit facility and is secured by: (i) $300 million floating charge demand debentures pursuant to which all of the Corporation's and SLP's assets are pledged; and (ii) general security agreements under which all personal property of the Corporation and of SLP has been mortgaged and charged. The facility contains provisions which may restrict the ability of the Corporation and SLP to pay the Royalties and which may compel a sale of the working interests underlying the Royalties in certain circumstances, with all proceeds from such sale going to the banks and not to the Fund. The Corporation may borrow certain amounts to finance its ongoing operations as well as those of SLP, including certain costs incurred on behalf of the Fund and SLP.

Limitations on Borrowing

Pursuant to the Royalty Agreement, the Corporation is permitted to borrow funds to finance the purchase of Properties, incur capital expenditures or other financial obligations or encumbrances in respect of the Properties or for working capital purposes and to grant security on the Properties in priority to the Royalties to secure the loans of such monies. However, the Royalty Agreements restrict the ability of the Corporation to borrow from third parties if: (i) the amounts borrowed from such third parties to finance the purchase of Properties exceeds 40% of the asset value of all of the Properties at the time of borrowing; or (ii) the Debt Service Charges on amounts borrowed from such third parties to finance the purchase of Properties or capital expenditures to maintain or improve production from the Properties or other borrowings, exceed 30% of the aggregate of the projected annual Royalty Income and the projected annual income from the Birchill Acquisition Note, the Raider Acquisition Notes and the Ionic Acquisition Notes.

Capital Expenditures

The Corporation may approve and fund capital expenditures under the terms of the Royalty Agreements. Future capital expenditures are intended to maintain or improve production and to exploit the assets of the Corporation and of SLP. Capital expenditures will not be incurred to fund what management considers to be high risk exploratory drilling activities. Capital expenditures may be financed from Royalty Income, additional issuances of Trust Units, borrowings or by joint venture agreements on the basis that the joint venture partner will assume such capital expenditures in exchange for a working interest participation in the Properties. Under the terms of the Royalty Agreements, annual capital expenditures are not to exceed 15% of the annual Net Operating Income from the Properties unless financed with borrowings or additional issuances of Trust Units (this requirement is proposed to be removed subject to approval of Unitholders at the Fund's annual meeting of unitholders to be held this year). Capital expenditures which are funded from Royalty Income may result in a short term reduction in Distributable Cash.

Environmental Obligations

The Corporation and SLP are liable for their respective working interest share of ongoing environmental obligations and for the ultimate reclamation of the Properties upon abandonment. Ongoing environmental obligations are expected to be funded as incurred. Management of the Corporation believes that funding environmental obligations in this manner is appropriate given that the Corporation and SLP operate a significant number of the Properties. The Corporation pro-actively monitors the factors giving rise to environmental liabilities on behalf of itself and SLP.

The provision for abandonment costs by the Corporation and SLP is calculated over the remaining life of their respective reserves using the "unit-of-production" method. The Corporation and SLP record a liability equal to the present value of future abandonment and reclamation costs and a corresponding increase in property, plant and equipment costs. The initial liability must be measured at fair value and subsequently adjusted for the accretion of discount and changes in such fair value. The asset retirement cost is capitalized and depleted into earnings over time. Actual abandonment costs incurred in a specific period are charged against this provision. For Royalty Income calculation, actual abandonment costs paid or payable are charged as an expense. All salvaged equipment is re-used or sold to help offset well abandonment and site reclamation costs.

Insurance

The Corporation carries insurance policies to provide protection for the assets of the Corporation and SLP, providing coverage at or above industry standards. Insurance policies cover property damage, business interruption and general liability. The ongoing level, type and maintenance of insurance will be determined by the Corporation based upon the availability and cost of such insurance and the Corporation's perception of the risk of loss. The Corporation carries insurance which provides standard industry levels of coverage to individuals for all good faith acts carried out by them on behalf of the Corporation in their capacity as directors or officers of the Corporation.

The DRIP Plan

On March 14, 2000, the Board of directors of the Corporation approved the adoption by the Fund of a distribution reinvestment and optional trust unit purchase plan (the "DRIP Plan"). On May 9, 2000, the adoption of the DRIP Plan was ratified by the Unitholders at the Special and Annual Meeting of Unitholders. The purpose of the DRIP Plan is to allow eligible Unitholders to purchase additional Trust Units by either re-investing their cash distributions or by making additional optional cash payments of up to a maximum of $3,000 per quarter for the purchase of additional Trust Units. During 2004, 296,538 Trust Units were issued from treasury pursuant to the DRIP Plan and the balance were purchased through the facilities of the TSX.

Rights Incentive Plan

Effective July 1, 2001, the Fund replaced its trust unit option plan with a trust unit rights incentive plan (the "Rights Incentive Plan"). The Rights Incentive Plan permits the Board of directors of the Corporation to grant rights to purchase Trust Units to employees, officers, directors or other service providers of the Corporation. The purpose of the Rights Incentive Plan is to provide an effective long-term incentive to eligible participants and to reward them on the basis of the long-term Trust Unit trading price performance and distributions of the Fund, thereby reflecting the total return to Unitholders. Further information on the Rights Incentive Plan is available in the Fund's Information Circular dated March 21, 2005 that relates to the Special and Annual General Meeting of the Unitholders of the Fund to be held on May 10, 2005.

Unitholder Rights Plan

For details respecting the Unitholder Rights Plan, see "Trust Units – Take-over Bids and Unitholder Rights Plan" above.

Employee Savings Plan

Effective January 1, 2001, the Corporation established an Employee Trust Unit Savings Plan (the "ESP") to assist employees in meeting long term savings goals through the acquisition of Trust Units of the Fund and other professionally managed investment funds and to encourage its employees to have a direct investment in the Corporation. Under the ESP, employees may contribute as much of their semi-monthly pay period earnings to the Plan as they wish, subject to a minimum contribution of 2% per pay period. The Corporation contributes an amount equal to the amount contributed by the employee to a maximum of 6% per pay period. The Corporation's contributions accumulate and are directly deposited into the employee's account on a monthly basis. Once deposited, the contributions vest immediately in favour of the employee even if his or her employment with the Corporation ends thereafter. All contributions under the ESP are contributed to the employees' respective self-directed RRSP accounts or non-RRSP accounts. The contributions made under the ESP by the Corporation are used to purchase Trust Units of the Fund in the secondary market through the facilities of the TSX. All commissions payable respecting the purchase of Trust Units are paid by the Corporation. Employees are responsible for commissions payable in connection with the sale of their Trust Units or other securities held under the ESP.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS OF THE FUND

General

The Fund was created in July 1996, pursuant to an initial public offering of $53 million of Trust Units, the proceeds of which were used to acquire the royalty from the Corporation under the terms of the Corporation Royalty Agreement. The Fund is a conventional oil and gas royalty trust which earns income from the Royalties and from the Birchill Acquisition Note, Raider Acquisition Notes and Ionic Acquisition Notes, for the benefit of Unitholders and operates as an open-end mutual fund trust, providing Unitholders with regular payments of Distributable Cash. The Corporation and SLP acquire, develop and operate oil and gas properties, the cash flow from which pays the Royalties and the principal and interest under the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note. The Corporation is the general partner of SLP.

Three Year History

On May 2, 2002, the Fund issued 4,025,000 Trust Units at $14.20 each for gross proceeds of $57,155,000 which was used to finance the purchase of long-life oil and natural gas properties.

During 2002, the Corporation expended an aggregate of $49.6 million in various property acquisitions in 16 separate transactions ranging in size from $22,000 to $21.1 million. Each of these acquisitions were structured as asset acquisitions and were funded by a combination of debt and proceeds from the issue of Trust Units described above. The largest transaction was the purchase in May 2002 of a natural gas producing property at Minehead in west-central, Alberta at a cost of $21.1 million.

On October 9, 2002, the Fund, through SHC, purchased all of the outstanding shares of the Former Manager for net aggregate consideration of $19.4 million consisting of $2.9 million in cash and 1,136,614 Exchangeable Shares valued at $16.5 million, at a deemed value of $14.508 per Exchangeable Share. See "General Development of the Business of the Fund – Three Year History – Management Internalization Transactions".

At a special meeting of Unitholders held on October 8, 2002, Unitholders approved changes to the Trust Indenture and the Corporation Royalty Agreement to allow for monthly distributions of Distributable Cash to Unitholders. The Fund commenced monthly distributions in the first quarter of 2003. The record date for each monthly distribution is the last day of the calendar month with such distribution being paid on the 15th day of the following month. The record date for the first monthly distribution was February 28, 2003.

Management Internalization Transactions

After receiving the approval of Unitholders at the special meeting held on October 8, 2002, the Fund effected an internalization of its management structure by acquiring, through its wholly-owned subsidiary SHC, all of the shares of the Former Manager, and subsequently amalgamating the Former Manager with the Corporation and continuing as the Corporation. The purposes of the transaction were to eliminate the Fund's on-going management fees and improve its competitiveness and flexibility in making acquisitions, while at the same time retaining the executive officers and key personnel of the Former Manager and better aligning their interests with those of the Unitholders. The consideration paid for the shares of the Former Manager was $19.4 million, of which $2.9 million was paid in cash and the balance was paid by the issuance of 1,136,614 Exchangeable Shares of SHC at a deemed value of $14.508 per Exchangeable Share.

Prior to the internalization, the shareholders of the Former Manager were Proximus, as to 50%, a corporation wholly-owned by Arne R. Nielsen, the Chairman of the Board and a director of the Former Manager and the Corporation, and Kivacorp as to 50%, a corporation wholly-owned by David M. Fitzpatrick, the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of the Former Manager and the Corporation. The transaction was negotiated on behalf of the Fund by an independent committee of the Board of directors of the Corporation (the "Independent Committee") consisting of the three directors of the Corporation who are independent of management of the Corporation. The Independent Committee obtained independent legal advice and an independent opinion with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable under the transactions from National Bank Financial Inc. Mr. Nielsen and Mr. Fitzpatrick abstained from voting on the approval of the transactions, both as directors of the Corporation and as Unitholders.

The Trustee, for and on behalf of the Fund, the Corporation and the Former Manager had entered into the Management Agreement, which required the Former Manager to provide management services to the Fund and the Corporation. Under the terms of the Management Agreement, the Former Manager received annual management fees equal to 3.25% of the net operating income of the Corporation (as that term was defined in the Management Agreement) and acquisition fees equal to 1.5% of the purchase price of acquisitions made by the Corporation or its affiliates. A quarterly dividend was also paid to the Former Manager by the Corporation. The dividend amount was equal to approximately 1% of the Distributable Cash for such quarter. During the year ended December 31, 2002, the fees received by the Former Manager under the Management Agreement consisted of management fees of $1,938,795, acquisition fees of $720,742 and dividends of $517,130. Following the acquisition of the Former Manager and its subsequent amalgamation with the Corporation, the Management Agreement was terminated and replaced with the Administrative Services Agreement. See "Incorporation and Organization – Administrative Services Agreement".

The Exchangeable Shares are exchangeable into Trust Units at the election of the holder. The number of Trust Units required to be issued for each Exchangeable Share tendered at the time of the exchange (the "Exchange Ratio") was initially one to one, based on the deemed value of $14.508 per Exchangeable Share at their issue date of October 9, 2002. The Exchange Ratio is increased at the time of payment of each distribution of Distributable Cash to Unitholders by an amount equal to the distribution per Trust Unit divided by the weighted average trading price of the Trust Units on the TSX for the 10 trading days ending on the record date for that distribution. As at December 31, 2004 the Exchange Ratio was 1.32647 Trust Units for each Exchangeable Share and as of March 21, 2005, the Exchange Ratio was 1.35755 Trust Units for each Exchangeable Share.

Holders of Exchangeable Shares have the right to receive notice of and to vote at meetings of Unitholders. The holders of the Exchangeable Shares are entitled to vote at meetings of Unitholders through a Special Voting Unit issued by the Fund, on the basis of one vote for each outstanding Exchangeable Share. These rights are governed by a Voting and Exchange Trust Agreement dated October 9, 2002 among the Fund, SHC and the Corporation, and a Support Agreement dated October 9, 2002 among the Fund, SHC and the Corporation as the trustee of the Exchangeable Shares.

In order to encourage the retention of the management of the Fund, 378,871 of the 568,307 Exchangeable Shares received by each of Kivacorp and Proximus, and the underlying Trust Units into which they may be exchanged, were placed in escrow with Valiant Trust Company as the escrow agent. Under the terms of the escrow agreement with Kivacorp, one fifth of the escrowed securities were released to Kivacorp on October 9 in 2003 and 2004 with one fifth releasable on October 9 in each of 2005, 2006 and 2007 as long as Mr. Fitzpatrick remains the President and CEO of the Corporation. If Mr. Fitzpatrick voluntarily terminates his employment with the Corporation before October 9, 2007, the Exchangeable Shares or Trust Units remaining in escrow at the time of such termination will be cancelled without consideration. Proximus has a similar escrow agreement but for a period of three years, respecting Mr. Nielsen and his position of Chairman or Executive Chairman of the Corporation, the release dates of which were October 9 in each of 2003 and 2004 with the last release scheduled for October 9, 2005. At December 31, 2004, 263,482 Exchangeable Shares were exercisable and 353,614 remained in escrow.

Under the provisions of a unanimous shareholders agreement of the Corporation, as amended and restated on November 1, 2001, the Former Manager had the right to appoint two directors to the Board of directors of the Corporation, with the balance of the directors being elected by the Unitholders. This unanimous shareholder agreement has been terminated and replaced by the Corporation USA. Pursuant to the terms of the Corporation USA, all of the directors of the Corporation are to be elected annually by the Unitholders; however, the Corporation has agreed that Mr. Fitzpatrick will be a nominee director for at least five years and Mr. Nielsen for at least three years, provided their respective employment with the Corporation continues.

On January 15, 2003, the Corporation acquired long-life oil and gas reserves in the Modeste Creek, Whitecourt and Long Coulee areas of Alberta, all of which were complementary to its existing operations, in two separate transactions. The aggregate cost of these acquisitions was $16.7 million. The Modeste Creek asset acquisitions were effective October 1, 2002 and the Whitecourt and Long Coulee asset acquisitions were both effective November 1, 2002.

Pursuant to an offering of 3,340,000 Trust Units under its prospectus dated January 31, 2003, the Fund raised net proceeds of approximately $47,345,000 which were applied to the amounts owing to the Corporation under its Deferred Purchase Price Obligation.

On March 31, 2003, the Corporation acquired, with an effective date of January 1, 2003, operated and non-operated interests in long life oil and gas reserves principally located in the Ferrier and O'Chiese areas of west central Alberta (the "Ferrier/O'Chiese Properties"), adjacent to the Corporation's then existing properties in the Ferrier area, for a purchase price of $134.3 million net of closing adjustments (the "Ferrier/O'Chiese Acquisition"). The Ferrier/O'Chiese Properties are characterized by long-life, liquids-rich gas production combined with low operating costs. The natural gas production from the Ferrier/O'Chiese Properties, which constituted 72% of total production from these properties in 2004, is primarily uncontracted. The Ferrier/O'Chiese Acquisition also included 22,755 net acres of undeveloped land. Cash flow and income from the Ferrier/O'Chiese Properties has been consolidated with the Corporation's financial position since April 1, 2003. The Ferrier/O'Chiese Acquisition was funded entirely through the Corporation's credit facilities. For the purposes of the Canadian Securities Administrators' National Instrument 44-101 ("NI 44-101"), the Ferrier/O'Chiese Acquisition was a "significant acquisition" for the Fund.

Pursuant to an offering of 6,497,500 Trust Units under its prospectus dated April 22, 2003, the Fund raised net proceeds of approximately $92,589,000 which were used to repay a portion of the debt incurred by the Corporation in connection with the Ferrier/O'Chiese Acquisition.

Effective August 1, 2003, Mr. Arne R. Nielsen became the non-executive Chairman of the Corporation. Prior thereto he was the Executive Chairman of the Corporation. Mr. Nielsen continues to remain involved with the business of the Corporation as a director.

During 2003, additional acquisitions for a total cost of $9.1 million in 11 separate transactions and dispositions of non-core assets with total proceeds of $5.8 million in 13 separate transactions were completed.

Year Ended December 31, 2004

Effective January 1, 2004 the Corporation acquired all the outstanding shares of Good Ridge Explorations Ltd. for $7.0 million. The transaction closed on March 5, 2004.

On February 19, 2004, the Corporation entered into a share purchase agreement (the "Share Purchase Agreement") with Dutch Canadian Investments S.A. and Anthos Canada Inc. (collectively, the "Vendor") providing for the acquisition of all of the issued and outstanding shares of Birchill Resources Limited ("Birchill"), a private company incorporated under the laws of Alberta, for a purchase price of $170.1 million (the "Birchill Acquisition"), which acquisition closed on March 8, 2004. Birchill's oil and gas properties (the "Birchill Properties") and facilities included a mix of operated and non-operated interests located primarily in west central Alberta and southern Saskatchewan. The principal Birchill Properties are located in the Ferrier, Kaybob/Winterburn and Rainbow areas of Alberta and in the Nottingham and Coleville areas of southern Saskatchewan. The Birchill Acquisition complemented the Corporation's production in the Ferrier/O'Chiese area, which has become the Corporation's largest core property. The acquisition of Birchill's interest at Ferrier also provided additional facility synergies and yielded a significant number of additional development drilling opportunities. In 2004, the Birchill Properties produced an average of 3,712 boe/d of which 59% was natural gas. For the purposes of NI 44-101, the Birchill Acquisition was a "significant acquisition" for the Fund.

The Fund completed an underwritten financing on March 8, 2004, issuing 8,800,000 subscription receipts for net proceeds of approximately $141.5 million which were used to complete the Birchill Acquisition.

Each subscription receipt entitled the holder thereof to receive, without payment of additional consideration, one Trust Unit. On March 8, 2004, a total of 8,800,000 Trust Units were issued pursuant to the terms of these subscription receipts.

In December, 2004, the Fund implemented an internal reorganization of certain of its subsidiaries and assets which resulted in the transfer of certain assets which the Corporation acquired pursuant to the Birchill Acquisition to SLP, a newly formed limited partnership, of which SOT, a newly formed commercial trust, is the sole limited partner and the Corporation is the general partner. The Fund owns all of the shares of 1130243 Alberta Inc. which is the Trustee of SOT. The Fund is SOT's sole beneficiary. The SLP Royalty Agreement was entered into between SLP and the Fund. In addition, as part of the restructuring, a portion of the Birchill Acquisition Note was transferred to SLP. See "Incorporation and Organization – Shiningbank Limited Partnership", "Incorporation and Organization – Shiningbank Operating Trust", "Incorporation and Organization – 1130243 Alberta Inc." and "Incorporation and Organization – Intercorporate Relationships".

Trends

Commodity prices are cyclical. In recent years, the price of oil has moved through a large range and is currently in the high end of that range. It is the Corporation's expectation that the price of oil over the longer term will average in the area of US$40 to US$50 per bbl.

Natural gas prices have also moved through a large range in the last several years, reaching peak prices of over $13 per mcf in February, 2003. Pricing has remained relatively flat throughout 2004, averaging $7.06 per mcf. The Corporation expects that the price of natural gas will fluctuate in the range of $6.50 to $7.50 per mcf during the medium to long term. This expectation is based upon the Corporation's view of supply and demand fundamentals in North American energy markets.

The expectations for natural gas prices are currently in a state of flux, and have led to significant increases in the prices paid to acquire natural gas producing properties. The Fund is dependent on a steady supply of newly acquired properties in order to offset natural production declines and to continue to grow. In order to maintain its natural gas focus, acquisition costs will likely rise.

STATEMENT OF RESERVES DATA AND OTHER OIL AND GAS INFORMATION

This statement of reserves data and other information (the "Statement") is dated March 21, 2005 and is effective December 31, 2004. The preparation date of the information regarding reserves in the Statement from the Paddock Report was February 14, 2005 and from the Sproule Report was February 8, 2005.

The future net revenue numbers presented throughout this Statement, whether calculated without discount or using a discount rate, are estimated values and do not represent fair market value.

Disclosure of Reserve Data

The following reserves data and associated tables summarize the reserves of crude oil, natural gas and associated products and the net present values of future net revenues associated with the Corporation's reserves as evaluated or audited in the Paddock Report and the Sproule Report, based on constant and forecast price assumptions presented in accordance with National Instrument 51-101 – Standards of Disclosure for Oil and Gas Activities ("NI 51-101").

The tables summarize the data contained in the Paddock Report and the Sproule Report and, as a result, may contain slightly different numbers than the Paddock Report and the Sproule Report due to rounding. There is no assurance that the price and cost assumptions set out below will be attained and variances could be material. The reserve estimates provided herein are estimates only and there is no guarantee that the estimated reserves will be recovered. Actual reserves may be greater than or less than the estimates provided herein.

All of the Corporation's properties, reserves and production are located in Canada in the provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Ontario.

The following tables detail the aggregate gross, net and "Company Interest" reserves of the Corporation as a whole derived from both the Paddock Report and the Sproule Report, as at December 31, 2004, using constant prices and costs as well as the aggregate net present value of future net revenue attributable to the reserves estimated using constant prices and costs, calculated without discount and using discount rates of 5%, 10%, 15% and 20%:

Note:

- (1) NI 51-101 requires that issuers engaged in oil and gas activities report their reserves on a "gross" and "net" basis as those terms are defined in the Canadian Oil and Gas Evaluation Handbook (the "COGE Handbook"). See "Definitions, Notes and Other Cautionary Statements". Prior to 2004, the Corporation reported its reserves on a "Company Interest" basis which is the Corporation's working interest reserves before reduction for royalty obligations plus the Corporation's royalty interests. For continuity and comparison purposes, the Corporation is including in the table above its reserves on a "Company Interest" basis.

Pricing Assumptions

The following tables detail the benchmark reference prices for the regions in which the Corporation operated as at December 31, 2004 reflected in the reserves data disclosed above under "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information – Disclosure of Reserves Data". The pricing assumptions for both the constant prices and costs and forecast prices and costs were provided by Sproule and were relied upon by Sproule in the Sproule Report and by Paddock in the Paddock Report. Both Paddock and Sproule are independent reserves evaluators and auditors.

Additional Information Relating to Reserves Data

Undeveloped Reserves

The proved and probable undeveloped reserves of the Corporation have been estimated in accordance with procedures and standards contained in the COGE Handbook. In general, the Corporation's undeveloped reserves are scheduled to be developed within the next two years. See "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information – Oil and Gas Properties" for the Corporation's general development plans for its undeveloped reserves.

Significant Factors or Uncertainties

For details of important economic factors or significant uncertainties that may affect the components of the reserves data in this Statement, see "Management's Discussion and Analysis" and "Risk Factors".

Future Development Costs

The following table details the development costs deducted in the estimation of future net revenue attributable to proved reserves of the Corporation derived from both the Paddock Report and the Sproule Report (estimated using both constant prices and costs and forecast prices and costs) and proved plus probable reserves of the Corporation (estimated using forecast prices and costs):

Year	Proved Reserves		Proved plus Probable Reserves
	(Constant prices and costs)	(Forecast prices and costs)	(Forecast prices and costs)
2005	16,922	16,922	32,734
2006	11,471	11,744	21,755
2007	822	847	1,955

Total Undiscounted	31,791	32,414	62,211
Total Discounted at 10%	28,162	28,537	54,700

The Corporation's source of funding for future development costs of the Corporation's reserves will be derived from a combination of cash flow, debt and new equity. Management of the Corporation does not anticipate that the costs of funding referred to above will materially affect the Corporation's disclosed reserves and future net revenues or will make the development of any of the Corporation's properties uneconomic.

Oil and Gas Properties

The assets of the Corporation are the oil and natural gas interests upon which the Royalty has been granted and the oil and natural gas interests underlying the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note. The assets of the Corporation include operated and non-operated interests. Set out below is a description of the Corporation's principal producing properties, plants, facilities and installations. All of the Corporation's properties referred to below are onshore properties.

Ferrier/O'Chiese, Alberta

The Corporation owns various operating and non-operating interests in long life oil and gas reserves located in the Ferrier and O'Chiese areas of west central Alberta. These properties are characterized by long-life, liquids-rich gas production combined with low operating costs. The natural gas production from these properties, which constitutes 72% of total production on a boe basis, is primarily uncontracted and is processed in three non-operated gas plants in which the Corporation owns minor working interests or processes for a fee as a non-owner. The Corporation owns and operates an average 44.3% working interest in 131 gross (57.8 net) producing natural gas wells and 7 gross (3.3 net) producing oil wells in this area. During 2005, the Corporation has plans to drill up to 23 gross (13.1 net) wells in the area to further develop the producing pools.

Whitcourt, Alberta

The Corporation owns and operates an average 54% working interest in 55 gross (31.2 net) producing natural gas wells and five gross (2.0 net) producing oil wells in the Whitcourt area. The natural gas is processed in the Corporation operated Whitcourt gas plant. The property is located approximately 150 km northwest of Edmonton, Alberta. The Corporation has an ongoing program of well recompletions and workovers designed to optimize production from the area, but no significant development activity is planned.

Caroline, Alberta

The Corporation holds an average 56% working interest in 31 gross (19.5 net) oil wells and 14 gross (4.1 net) natural gas wells in the Caroline area. The property consists of varying working interests in four separate units, including an 86.5% working interest in 21 gross (18.2 net) producing oil wells in the Corporation operated Caroline Cardium "B" Sand Unit No. 1, along with an interest in 24 gross (5.4 net) non-unit producing oil and natural gas wells. This property is located immediately southwest of the town of Caroline, Alberta. The Corporation has no further development plans in this mature field.

Penhold, Alberta

The Corporation owns and operates an average 58% working interest in 40 gross (24.8 net) producing natural gas wells and 6 gross (3.3 net) oil wells in the Penhold area. This property is located immediately southwest of Red Deer, Alberta. Natural gas is processed in three gas plants operated by others. The Corporation holds an interest in one of these gas plants.

Paddle River, Alberta

The Corporation owns various interests averaging 37% in 44 gross (17.1 net) producing oil and natural gas wells in the Paddle River area, located approximately 120 km northwest of Edmonton, Alberta, which produce primarily from the Nordegg formation. The natural gas produced from this area is liquids-rich with an average ratio of 44 barrels of NGL per mcf of natural gas. The natural gas is processed at a third party owned and operated gas plant.

Windfall, Alberta

The Corporation owns and operates an average 78% working interest in 21 gross (16.4 net) producing natural gas wells in the Windfall area. The natural gas is processed at a third party owned and operated gas plant. The property is located approximately 200 km northwest of Edmonton, Alberta.

Dunvegan, Alberta

The Corporation holds an average 4.2% working interest in 160 gross (6.8 net) producing wells in the Dunvegan area, located approximately 400 km northwest of Edmonton, Alberta. Included in this is a 4.29% working interest in the Dunvegan Gas Unit No. 1 (the "Unit"), which consists of 143 gross (6.1 net) producing natural gas wells. Production comes from as many as seven pay zones, but primarily the Debolt zone. The Unit was initially placed on production in 1973. The operator of this property has virtually continuous development drilling activity in the area, in which the Corporation participates up to its proportionate share, but due to its small interest, has no control over approvals.

Monias, British Columbia

The Corporation holds an average 57% working interest in, and operates, the Monias gas field and related facilities, located approximately 50 km southwest of Fort St. John, British Columbia. Production is from the Triassic Halfway formation, which exhibits low decline rates and long producing life. Production is processed in a non-operated gas plant in which the Corporation holds no interest.

Medicine Hat, Alberta

The Corporation owns an overriding royalty interest in approximately 475 producing natural gas wells in the Medicine Hat area. The property is located immediately northeast of the City of Medicine Hat. By virtue of the terms of the overriding royalty agreement, the Corporation receives revenue from the wells through the operator and is not responsible for operating or capital costs. Over the last several years this area has been the subject of development drilling by others which has increased the Corporation's production from the area at no cost.

Minehead, Alberta

The Corporation owns and operates an average 45% working interest in 21 gross (9.5 net) producing natural gas wells in the Minehead area. The property is located approximately 160 km east of Edmonton, Alberta. Production is from the Cardium formation, which is characterized by liquids rich gas exhibiting low decline rates and long producing life. Production is processed in a non-operated gas plant in which the Corporation holds no interest. During 2005, the Corporation has plans to drill up to 8 gross (2.8 net) wells in the area to further develop the producing pools.

Long Coulee, Alberta

The Corporation owns and operates a 99% interest in the Long Coulee Unit #2, which consists of 31 gross (30.7 net) producing oil wells. The Corporation also holds an interest in 10 gross (6.3 net) non-unit producing oil and natural gas wells in the Long Coulee area. The property is located approximately 90 km southeast of Calgary, Alberta. During 2005, the Corporation has plans to drill up to 2 gross (2.0 net) wells in the area to further develop the producing pools. The Corporation operates an oil battery but gas is processed at a third party operated gas plant.

Producing and Non-Producing Wells

The following table summarizes the Corporation's interests, as at December 31, 2004 in oil and gas wells:

Producing and Non-producing Wells

- (2) Includes wells that are not capable of production but that are not yet abandoned.

Properties with no Attributed Reserves

The following table summarizes information with respect to the Corporation's properties to which no reserves have been specifically attributed:

Land Holdings Without Attributed Reserves as at December 31, 2004

	Unproved Properties (Acres)		Expiring in 2005 (Acres)
	Gross	Net	Gross	Net
Alberta	447,420	180,460	108,326	54,230

Saskatchewan	39,476	1,272	80	10
TOTAL	521,641	198,727	108,406	54,240

There are no material work commitments on the above undeveloped land holdings.

Forward Contracts

For information with respect to the forward contracts of the Corporation as at December 31, 2004, see the section titled "Results of Operations – Pricing (including Hedging Activity) – Current Hedging" in the Management's Discussion and Analysis contained on page 27 of the Fund's Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2004, which section is incorporated herein by reference.

Additional Information Concerning Abandonment and Reclamation

The Corporation bases its estimates for the costs of abandonment and reclamation of surface leases, wells, facilities and pipelines on previous experience of management with similar well sites and facility locations. As at December 31, 2004, management expected to incur such costs on 752.2 net wells. The total of such costs, net of estimated salvage value, was $15.0 million (undiscounted) and $6.0 million (discounted at 10%).

Future net revenue figures set forth in this Statement include abandonment liabilities only for wells assigned reserves. Reclamation costs of $15.8 million (undiscounted) and salvage values of $22.5 million are not considered in the future net revenue figures. Within the next three financial years, it is expected such costs will total approximately $3.3 million ($2.9 million discounted at 10%).

Tax Horizon

Under its existing trust structure, the Corporation and the Fund do not pay income tax because the tax liability is transferred to the individual Unitholders of the Fund.

Costs Incurred

For the year ended December 31, 2004, the Corporation incurred the following costs on its properties:

Costs Incurred
Year Ended December 31, 2004
($thousands)
Property Acquisition costs
Proved Properties	857
Unproved Properties	1,758
Exploration costs	11
Development costs	56,328
	58,954

In addition to the above, the Corporation purchased Birchill Resources Limited and Good Ridge Explorations Ltd. in 2004 at a total cash cost of $177.1 million (see "General Development of the Business of the Fund – Three Year History").

Exploration and Development Activities

For the year ended December 31, 2004, the Corporation completed the following exploratory and development wells:

Definitions, Notes and Other Cautionary Statements

In the tables set forth in "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information" and elsewhere in this Annual Information Form, unless otherwise indicated, the following definitions and other notes are applicable.

1. "Gross" means:
 - (a) in relation to the Corporation's and SLP's interest in production and reserves, its "gross revenues", which are the Corporation's and SLP's interest (operating and non-operating) share before deduction of royalties and without including any royalty interest of the Corporation and SLP;
 - (b) in relation to wells, the total number of wells in which the Corporation and SLP has an interest; and
 - (c) in relation to properties, the total area of properties in which the Corporation and SLP has an interest.
2. "Net" means:
 - (a) in relation to the Corporation's and SLP's interest in production and reserves, its "net reserves", which are the Corporation's and SLP's interest (operating and non-operating) share after deduction of royalty obligations, plus the Corporation's and SLP's royalty interest in production of reserves;
 - (b) in relation to wells, the number of wells obtained by aggregating the Corporation's and SLP's working interest in each of its gross wells; and
 - (c) in relation to the Corporation's and SLP's interest in a property, the total area in which the Corporation and SLP has an interest multiplied by the working interest owned by the Corporation and SLP.
3. Definitions used for reserve categories are as follows:

Reserves are estimated remaining quantities of oil and natural gas and related substances anticipated to be recoverable from known accumulations, from a given date forward, based on:

- analysis of drilling, geological, geophysical and engineering data;
- the use of established technology; and
- specified economic conditions, which are generally accepted as being reasonable.

Reserves are classified according to the degree of certainty associated with the estimates.

- (a) Proved reserves are those reserves that can be estimated with a high degree of certainty to be recoverable. It is likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will exceed the estimated proved reserves.
- (b) Probable reserves are those additional reserves that are less certain to be recovered than proved reserves. It is equally likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will be greater or less than the sum of the estimated proved plus probable reserves.

Development and Production Status

Each of the reserve categories (proved and probable) may be divided into developed and undeveloped categories:

- (a) Developed reserves are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from existing wells and installed facilities or, if facilities have not been installed, that would involve a low expenditure (for example, when compared to the cost of drilling a well) to put the reserves on production. The developed category may be subdivided into producing and non-producing.

- (i) Developed producing reserves are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from completion intervals open at the time of the estimate. These reserves may be currently producing or, if shut-in, they must have previously been on production, and the date of resumption of production must be known with reasonable certainty.
 - (ii) Developed non-producing reserves are those reserves that either have not been on production, or have previously been on production, but are shut-in, and the date of resumption of production is unknown.
- (b) Undeveloped reserves are those reserves expected to be recovered from known accumulations where a significant expenditure (for example, when compared to the cost of drilling a well) is required to render them capable of production. They must fully meet the requirements of the reserves classification (proved, probable) to which they are assigned.

In multi-well pools it may be appropriate to allocate total pool reserves between the developed and undeveloped categories or to subdivide the developed reserves for the pool between developed producing and developed non-producing. This allocation should be based on the estimator's assessment as to the reserves that will be recovered from specific wells, facilities and completion intervals in the pool and their respective development and production status.

Levels of Certainty for Reported Reserves

The qualitative certainty levels referred to in the definitions above are applicable to individual reserve entities (which refers to the lowest level at which reserves calculations are performed) and to reported reserves (which refers to the highest level sum of individual entity estimates for which reserves are presented). Reported reserves should target the following levels of certainty under a specific set of economic conditions:

- At least a 90 percent probability that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the estimated proved reserves;
- At least a 50 percent probability that the quantities recovered will equal or exceed the sum of the estimated proved plus probable reserves.

A qualitative measure of the certainty levels pertaining to estimates prepared for the various reserves categories is desirable to provide a clearer understanding of the associated risks and uncertainties. However, the majority of reserves estimates will be prepared using deterministic methods that do not provide a mathematically derived quantitative measure of probability. In principle, there should be no difference between estimates prepared using probabilistic or deterministic methods.

4. Forecast prices and costs

Future prices and costs that are:

- (a) Generally acceptable as being a reasonable outlook of the future; and
- (b) If and only to the extent that, there are fixed or presently determinable future prices or costs to which the Corporation and SLP is legally bound by a contractual or other obligation to supply a physical product, including those for an extension period of a contract that is likely to be extended, those prices or costs rather than the prices and costs referred to in paragraph (a).

5. Constant prices and costs

Prices and costs used in an estimate that are:

- (a) the Corporation's and SLP's prices and costs as at the effective date of the estimation, held constant throughout the estimated lives of the properties to which the estimate applies; and
- (b) If, and only to the extent that, there are fixed or presently determinable future prices or costs to which the Corporation and SLP is legally bound by a contractual or other obligation to supply a physical product, including those for an extension period of a contract that is likely to be extended, those prices or costs rather than the prices and costs referred to in paragraph (a).

For the purposes of paragraph (a), the Corporation's and SLP's prices are the posted prices for oil and the spot price for gas, after historical adjustments for transportation, gravity and other factors.

6. ARTC is included in the cumulative cash flow amounts, ARTC is based on the program announced November 1989 by the Alberta government with modifications effective January 1, 1995. The Fund qualifies for the maximum ARTC.

7. Future income tax expense

Future income tax expenses are estimated:

- (a) Making appropriate allocations of estimated unclaimed costs and losses carried forward for tax purposes;
- (b) Without deducting estimated future costs that are not deductible in computing taxable income;
- (c) Taking into account estimated tax credits and allowances; and
- (d) Applying to the future pre-tax net cash flows relating to the Corporation's and SLP's oil and gas activities the appropriate year-end statutory rates, taking into account future tax rates already legislated.

Under its existing trust structure, the Corporation, SLP and the Fund do not pay income tax because the tax liability is transferred to individual Unitholders of the Fund.

8. "Development well" means a well drilled inside the established limits of an oil and gas reservoir, or in close proximity to the edge of the reservoir, to the depth of a stratigraphic location horizon known to be productive.

9. "Development costs" means costs incurred to obtain access to reserves and to provide facilities for extracting, treating, gathering and storing the oil and gas from reserves. More specifically, development costs, including applicable operating costs of support equipment and facilities and other costs of development activities, are costs incurred to:

- (a) Gain access to and prepare well locations for drilling, including surveying well locations for the purpose of determining specific development drilling sites, clearing ground, draining, road building, and relocating public roads, gas lines and power lines to the extent necessary in developing the reserves;
- (b) Drill and equip development wells, development type stratigraphic test wells and service wells, including the costs of platforms and of well equipment such as casing, tubing, pumping equipment and wellhead assembly;
- (c) Acquire, construct and install production facilities such as flow lines, separators, treaters, heaters, manifolds, measuring devices and production storage tanks, natural gas cycling and processing plants, and central utility and waste disposal systems; and
- (d) Provide improved recovery systems.

10. "Exploration well" means a well that is not a development well, a service well or a stratigraphic test well.
11. "Exploration costs" means costs incurred in identifying areas that may warrant examination and in examining specific areas that are considered to have prospects that may contain oil and gas reserves, including costs of drilling exploratory wells and exploratory type stratigraphic test wells. Exploration costs may be incurred both before acquiring the related property and after acquiring the property. Exploration costs, which include applicable operating costs of support equipment and facilities and other costs of exploration activities, are:
 - (a) Costs of topographical, geochemical, geological and geophysical studies, rights of access to properties to conduct those studies, and salaries and other expenses of geologists, geophysical crews and others conducting those studies;
 - (b) Costs of carrying and retaining unproved properties, such as delay rentals, taxes (other than income and capital taxes) on properties, legal costs for title defence, and the maintenance of land and lease records;
 - (c) Dry hole contributions and bottom hole contributions;
 - (d) Costs of drilling and equipping exploratory wells; and
 - (e) Costs of drilling exploratory type stratigraphic test wells.
12. "Service well" means a well drilled or completed for the purpose of supporting production in an existing field. Wells in this class are drilled for the following specific purposes: gas injection (natural gas, propane, butane or flue gas), water injection, steam injection, air injection, salt water disposal, water supply for injection, observation or injection for combustion.
13. Numbers may not add due to rounding.
14. The estimates of future net revenue presented do not represent fair market value.
15. Disclosure provided herein in respect of boes may be misleading, particularly if used in isolation. A boe conversion ratio of 6 mcf : 1 bbls is based on an energy equivalency conversion method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead.
16. Estimated future abandonment and reclamation costs related to a property have been taken into account by Paddock and Sproule in determining reserves that should be attributable to a property and in determining the aggregate future net revenue therefrom, there was deducted the reasonable estimated future well abandonment costs.
17. Both the constant and forecast price and cost assumptions assume the continuance of current laws and regulations.
18. The extended character of all factual data supplied to Paddock and Sproule were accepted by them as represented. No field inspection was conducted.

DISTRIBUTABLE CASH

Unitholders of record on each Distribution Record Date are entitled to receive cash distributions of the Distributable Cash. The Corporation will calculate the Distributable Cash that will be paid by the Trustee to the Unitholders on each Cash Distribution Date. The accompanying table summarizes cash distributions from the Fund since January of 2002. Commencing February of 2003, the Fund began paying cash distributions monthly.

Terry P. Prokopy Alberta, Canada	Vice President, Land	Vice President, Land of the Corporation
Bruce K. Gibson Alberta, Canada	Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer	Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation
Richard W. Clark Alberta, Canada	Corporate Secretary	Partner with Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP, lawyer

Notes:

- (1) Member of the Audit Committee
- (2) Member of the Compensation Committee
- (3) Member of the Environmental, Reserve Review and Corporate Governance Committee

Each of the Directors has been a director since the inception of the Fund in July, 1996. Directors are elected at each annual general meeting of Unitholders to hold office until the next such meeting. The next annual general meeting of Unitholders will be held on May 10, 2005. Including the Exchangeable Shares held beneficially by Mr. Nielsen and Mr. Fitzpatrick, as a group, the Directors and Executive Officers of the Corporation beneficially own, directly or indirectly, or exercise control over, 836,434 Trust Units or 2% of issued and outstanding Trust Units See "General Development of the Business of the Fund – Management Internalization Transactions".

Arne R. Nielsen

Mr. Nielsen was President of Mobil Oil Canada Ltd. ("Mobil") from 1967 through 1977 and thereafter through 1982 was President and Chief Executive Officer of Canadian Superior Oil Ltd. also serving as Chairman from 1982 through 1986. Pursuant to the acquisition of Canadian Superior Oil Ltd. by Mobil, Mr. Nielsen served as Chairman and CEO of Mobil from 1986 through 1989. Since that time, Mr. Nielsen has served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Bowtex Energy (Canada) Corporation and thereafter through May of 1994 in executive positions with Poco Petroleum Ltd. Since May of 1994, Mr. Nielsen has consulted to various western Canadian and international oil companies. In April of 1995, Mr. Nielsen was appointed Chairman and a director of Serenpet Inc., a position he held until July 31, 1996 when he resigned upon closing of the Fund's initial public offering. On July 31, 2003, Mr. Nielsen retired as the Executive Chairman of the Corporation. He remains the non-executive Chairman of the Corporation. Mr. Nielsen currently is also a director of the following companies: VAALCO Energy Inc., Grand River Resources Ltd. and Softrock Petroleum Ltd. Mr. Nielsen graduated from the University of Alberta in 1949 with an Honors Bachelor of Science Degree in Geology and, subsequently, a Master's Degree in Geology in 1950. In 2000 he received an Honorary Doctorate of Science Degree from the University of Alberta. He is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists, and Geophysicists of Alberta, the Canadian Society of Petroleum Geologists, the American Association of Petroleum Geologists and the American Institute of Professional Geologists. In 1998, Mr. Nielsen was inducted into the Canadian Petroleum Hall of Fame.

David M. Fitzpatrick

Mr. Fitzpatrick was employed in various senior management positions at Serenpet Inc. including Chief Operating Officer and, most recently, Senior Vice-President, Corporate Development and Gas Marketing from 1990 until July 31, 1996 when he resigned upon closing of the Fund's initial public offering. Prior to joining Serenpet Inc., Mr. Fitzpatrick held engineering and supervisory positions with Canadian Hunter Exploration Ltd. and Amoco Canada Petroleum Co. Ltd. Mr. Fitzpatrick graduated from Queen's University in 1981 with a degree in Geological Engineering and received an Executive Management Program certificate from Queen's University in 1994. He is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists, and Geophysicists of Alberta and the Society of Petroleum Engineers.

Warren D. Steckley

Mr. Steckley is currently President and Chief Operating Officer of Barnwell of Canada, Limited, an oil and gas company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Barnwell Industries Inc., a public company which trades on the American Stock Exchange. From 1994 to 1998, he was an independent consultant providing a range of technical and financial services to emerging oil and gas companies. Prior to 1994, Mr. Steckley was employed at PowerWest Financial Ltd. (now ARC Financial Corporation) as a Senior Investment Analyst and then as a Vice-President. He is also a director of several public and private junior oil and gas companies.

Edward W. Best

Mr. Best was President of the Oil and Gas Division and a director of BP Canada Inc. from 1980 to 1985 when he retired after being employed with BP Canada Inc. and related companies in various management and professional functions for 30 years. From 1985 to 1995 he was a partner of Foster Research, a management and economic consulting firm. He has consulted internationally and domestically for a number of companies, governments and associations, primarily in the petroleum industry. Mr. Best has been a director for a variety of Canadian companies such as NOVA Corporation, Polysar Energy and Chemical Corporation, Canterra Energy Ltd., ProGas Ltd. and CanWest Gas Supply Inc. He is also a director of a number of junior oil and gas companies and was a member of the Alberta Environmental Appeal Board.

D. Grant Gunderson

Mr. Gunderson was Vice-President, Economics and Planning of Canadian Superior Oil Ltd. from 1981 through January 1986 when that company was acquired by Mobil Oil Canada. From 1986 through 1987, Mr. Gunderson was Manager of Mobil Canada's heavy oil division. From 1988 until July 1990, Mr. Gunderson worked in Mobil Oil's head offices in New York and Fairfax, Virginia, in a planning capacity. Returning to Canada in July 1990, Mr. Gunderson served as Vice President, Business Development of Bowtex Energy (Canada) Corporation until 1992, and as President and Director of that company until July 1, 1983 when Bowtex was merged with Luscar Oil and Gas Ltd. Mr. Gunderson joined Sayer Securities Limited in February 1994, as an associate, and continued in that position until his retirement on June 30, 2003. While at Superior and Mobil, Mr. Gunderson developed long range financial planning models to use as valuation tools and for strategic planning purposes. During his tenure with Bowtex and Sayer, Mr. Gunderson directed corporate and asset evaluation activities, developed budgets (and a system for monitoring the same) and business plans and participated in financial reorganizations. Over the course of his career, along with the extensive experience he obtained in corporate valuations, Mr. Gunderson had the opportunity to work closely with the controllers and other financial officers in the preparation of financial information and disclosure, in addition to his regular review of reserves data and financial statement information for purposes of preparing corporate valuation reports.

Gregory D. Moore

Prior to joining the Corporation on July 1, 1996, Mr. Moore held various engineering and senior management positions with a number of oil and gas exploration and production companies in western Canada and Australia with emphasis on field operations, drilling and completions, production engineering, property acquisitions and dispositions and reservoir exploitation. Most recently, Mr. Moore was Vice President, Production and Operations with Omega Hydrocarbons Ltd. Prior to this, he held positions of increasing responsibility with Suncor Inc., Delhi Petroleum Pty. Ltd. in Australia, Husky Oil Operations Ltd. and Amoco Canada Petroleum Co. Ltd. Mr. Moore graduated from Nova Scotia Technical College in 1970 with a degree in Chemical Engineering and received a Western Executive Program Certificate in 1989 from the University of Western Ontario. He is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists of Alberta, the Society of Petroleum Engineers and the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum.

Terry P. Prokopy

Mr. Prokopy has over 29 years of land experience with both major and junior oil and gas companies. Mr. Prokopy was appointed Vice President, Land of the Corporation in July 2001. Prior to joining the Corporation in December 2000, Mr. Prokopy consulted to Cabre Exploration from 1999. From 1996 through 1999, Mr. Prokopy was Vice President, Land for Gardiner Exploration Limited. He was Vice President, Land for Gardiner Oil and Gas Ltd. (formerly Asamera Inc.) from 1988 through 1996 and he served as Land Manager for Asamera Inc. from 1986 through 1988. Prior to this, he held various senior positions with Unicorp Resources, Shelter Hydrocarbons Ltd., Francana Oil & Gas Ltd., Provident Resources Ltd., Amoco Canada Petroleum Company Ltd. and Red River Oils. Mr. Prokopy has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics from the University of Calgary and is a member of the Canadian Association of Professional Landmen.

Bruce K. Gibson

Bruce K. Gibson was appointed Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation on September 16, 1997. From January, 1996 to September, 1997, Mr. Gibson was Vice-President, Finance of Magrath Energy Corporation. From September, 1987 to July, 1995, Mr. Gibson was Vice President, Finance of Northridge Exploration Ltd. Mr. Gibson obtained a Bachelor of Commerce Degree from the University of Calgary in 1978. He is a member of the Canadian and Alberta Institutes of Chartered Accountants and a member of the Canadian Petroleum Tax Society.

Richard W. Clark

Mr. Clark is a partner at the Calgary office of the national law firm of Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP, and practices primarily in the areas of securities and corporate finance law. He received a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Calgary in 1990, a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Calgary in 1987 and was admitted to the Law Society of Alberta in 1990. He is the Corporate Secretary of the Corporation, a position he has held since the inception of the Fund in July 1996. Mr. Clark is the Secretary of Rise Healthcare Inc., a company listed on the TSX. Mr. Clark is a director of Platform Resources Inc., and is the CEO and a director of Strike Petroleum Ltd. both of which are listed on the TSX. In addition, Mr. Clark is also a director or officer of a number of private companies.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The purpose of the Corporation's audit committee is to provide assistance to the Board of directors of the Corporation in fulfilling its legal and fiduciary obligations with respect to matters involving the accounting, auditing, financial reporting, internal control and legal compliance functions of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. It is the objective of the audit committee to maintain a free and open means of communication among the Board of directors of the Corporation, the independent auditors and the financial and senior management of the Corporation.

The full text of the audit committee's terms of reference is included as Schedule A to this Annual Information Form.

Composition of the Audit Committee

The audit committee is comprised of Arne R. Nielsen, Warren D. Steckley, Edward W. Best and D. Grant Gunderson. Mr. Gunderson is the chairman of the audit committee. Each of the members is financially literate under Section 1.5 of MI 52-110 and independent under Section 1.4 of MI 52-110.

Relevant Education and Experience

See the descriptions for each of Messrs. Nielsen, Steckley, Best and Gunderson under "Directors and Officers".

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The audit committee pre-approves engagements for non-audit services provided by the external auditors or their affiliates, together with estimated fees and potential issues of independence.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed by the Corporation's external auditor for audit services in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 were $315,940 ($260,400 – 2003).

Tax Fees

The aggregate fees billed by the Corporation's external auditor for professional services including tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 were $111,043 ($27,118 – 2003).

CEASE TRADE ORDERS, BANKRUPTCIES, PENALTIES OR SANCTIONS

To the knowledge of management of the Corporation, no director or executive officer of the Corporation, or any shareholder holding a sufficient number of securities of the Corporation to affect materially the control of the Corporation:

- (a) is, as at the date hereof, or within the 10 years before the date hereof has been, a director or officer of any issuer, that while that person was acting in that capacity:
 - (i) was the subject of a cease trade or similar order, or an order that denied the relevant issuer access to any exemptions under Canadian securities legislation, for a period of more than 30 consecutive days;

- (ii) was subject to an event that resulted, after the director or executive officer ceased to be a director or executive officer, in the issuer being the subject of a cease trade or similar order or an order that denied the relevant issuer access to any exemption under securities legislation, for a period of more than 30 consecutive days; or
 - (iii) or within a year of that person ceasing to act in that capacity, became bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or was subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold its assets; or
- (b) has, within the 10 years before the date hereof, become bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or was subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors, or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold the assets of such person.

To the knowledge of management of the Corporation, no director or executive officer of the Corporation, or any shareholder holding a sufficient number of securities of the Corporation to affect materially the control of the Corporation, has been subject to:

- (a) any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to Canadian securities legislation or by a Canadian securities regulatory authority or has entered into a settlement agreement with the Canadian securities regulatory authority; or
- (b) any other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body that would likely be considered important to a reasonable investor in making an investment decision.

Conflicts of Interest

Some of the directors of the Corporation are also directors of other oil and natural gas companies, which may from time to time be in competition with the Corporation and the Fund for property acquisitions, or other limited resources. Where required by law, appropriate disclosure of such conflicts will be made by the applicable directors. In particular, the Corporation follows the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta). These provisions state that in the event that a director has an interest in a contract or proposed contract or agreement, such director shall disclose his interest in such contract or agreement and shall refrain from voting on any matter in respect of such contract or agreement unless otherwise permitted by the Business Corporations Act (Alberta).

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE OIL AND NATURAL GAS INDUSTRY

Government Regulation

The oil and natural gas industry is subject to extensive controls and regulations imposed by various levels of government. Outlined below are some of the more significant aspects of the legislation, regulations and agreements governing the oil and gas industry. It is not expected that any of such controls or regulations would affect the operations of the Fund, the Corporation or SLP in a manner materially different than they would affect other companies of similar size in the oil and natural gas industry. All current legislation is a matter of public record and the Corporation is unable to predict what additional legislation or amendments may be enacted.

Pricing and Marketing - Oil

In Canada, producers of oil negotiate sales contracts directly with oil purchasers, with the result that the market determines the price of oil. The price depends in part on oil quality, prices of competing fuels, distance to market, the value of the refined products and the supply/demand balance. Oil exports may be made pursuant to export contracts with terms not exceeding one year in the case of light crude, and not exceeding two years in the case of heavy crude, provided that an order approving any such export has been obtained from the National Energy Board ("NEB"). Any oil export to be made pursuant to a contract of longer duration requires an exporter to obtain an export license from the NEB and the issue of such a license requires the approval of the Governor in Council.

Pricing and Marketing - Natural Gas

In Canada, the price of natural gas sold is determined by negotiation between buyers and sellers. Natural gas exported from Canada is subject to regulation by the NEB and the government of Canada. Exporters are free to negotiate prices and other terms with purchasers, provided that the export contracts in excess of two years must continue to meet certain criteria prescribed by the NEB and the government of Canada. As is the case with oil, natural gas exports for a term of less than two years must be made pursuant to an NEB order, or, in the case of exports for a longer duration, pursuant to an NEB license and Governor in Council approval. The price received by the Corporation or SLP depends, in part, on the prices of competing natural gas and other substitute fuels, access to downstream transportation, distance to markets, length of the contract term, weather conditions, the supply and demand balance and other contractual terms.

The governments of Alberta and British Columbia also regulate the volume of natural gas which may be removed from those provinces for consumption elsewhere based on such factors as reserve availability, transportation arrangements and market considerations.

The North American Free Trade Agreement

On January 1, 1994 the North American Free Trade Agreement ("NAFTA") among the governments of Canada, the U.S. and Mexico became effective. The NAFTA carries forward most of the material energy terms contained in the Canada - U.S. Free Trade Agreement. In the context of energy resources, Canada continues to remain free to determine whether exports to the U.S. or Mexico will be allowed provided that the restrictions are justified under certain provisions of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and then only if the export restrictions do not: (i) reduce the proportion of energy resources exported relative to the total supply of the energy resource (based upon the proportion prevailing in the most recent 36 month period), (ii) impose an export price higher than the domestic price, and (iii) disrupt normal channels of supply. All three countries are prohibited from imposing minimum export or import price requirements.

NAFTA contemplates the reduction of Mexican restrictive trade practices in the energy sector and prohibits discriminatory border restrictions and export taxes. The agreement also contemplates clearer disciplines on regulators to ensure fair implementation of any regulatory changes and to minimize disruption of contractual arrangements, which is important for Canadian natural gas exports.

Royalties and Incentives

In addition to federal regulation, the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia have legislation and regulations which govern land tenure, royalties, production rates, environmental protection and other matters. The royalty regime is a significant factor in the profitability of oil and natural gas production. Royalties payable on production from lands other than Crown lands are determined by negotiations between the mineral owner and the lessee. Crown royalties are determined by government regulation and are generally calculated as a percentage of the value of the gross production, and the rate of royalties payable generally depends in part on the prescribed reference prices, well productivity, geographical location, field discovery date, the method of recovery and the type or quality of the petroleum product produced.

From time to time the provincial governments of Canada have established incentive programs which have included royalty rate reductions, royalty holidays and tax credits for the purpose of encouraging oil and natural gas exploration or enhanced production projects.

Oil and natural gas royalty holidays and reductions for specific wells reduce the amount of Crown royalties paid by the Corporation to governments. These incentives increase the net income of the Corporation.

There are no assurances that the government's programs or other incentives currently in place will remain so. The termination of any of the current incentives may have a significant effect upon the Fund and the amount of Distributable Cash available to Unitholders. Alberta Royalty Tax Credit may be claimed in respect of eligible properties only by the Corporation or the Fund and not by holders of Trust Units. The Fund is currently eligible to claim the full amount of the Alberta Royalty Tax Credit.

Land Tenure

Crude oil and natural gas located in the western provinces is owned predominantly by the respective provincial governments. Provincial governments grant rights to explore for and produce oil and natural gas pursuant to leases, licences and permits for varying terms and on conditions set forth in provincial legislation, including requirements to perform specific work or make payments. Oil and natural gas located in such provinces can also be privately owned and rights to explore for and produce such oil and natural gas are granted by lease on such terms and conditions as may be negotiated.

Environmental Regulation

The oil and natural gas industry is subject to environmental regulation pursuant to local, provincial and federal legislation. Environmental legislation provides for restrictions and prohibitions on releases or emissions of various substances produced in association with certain oil and natural gas industry operations and can affect the location and operation of wells and other facilities and the extent to which exploration and development is permitted. In addition, such legislation requires that well and facility sites be abandoned and reclaimed to the satisfaction of provincial authorities. A breach of such legislation may result in the imposition of fines or clean-up orders.

The Corporation is committed to meeting its responsibilities to protect the environment wherever it operates and anticipates making increased expenditures of both a capital and expense nature, as a result of the increasingly stringent laws relating to the protection of the environment. The Corporation's internal procedures are designed to ensure that the environmental aspects of new developments are taken into account prior to proceeding. The Corporation believes that it is reasonably likely that the trend towards stricter standards in environmental legislation and regulation will continue.

RISK FACTORS

The Trust Units do not represent a traditional investment in the oil and natural gas industry. Prospective purchasers of the Trust Units should carefully consider the information set forth below and the other information set forth herein before deciding to invest in the Trust Units.

Development of Additional Reserves

The Fund's future success and its Distributable Cash are dependent upon the Corporation's and SLP's ability to develop or acquire additional oil and natural gas reserves that are economically recoverable at attractive acquisition prices. Except to the extent that the Corporation and SLP conduct successful development activities or acquires properties containing proved reserves, or both, the proved reserves and production of the Corporation and SLP will generally decline as reserves are produced. If prevailing oil and natural gas prices were to increase significantly, the Corporation's and SLP's costs to add reserves could be expected to increase. The drilling of oil and natural gas wells involves a high degree of risk, especially the risk of a dry hole or of a well that is not sufficiently productive to provide an economic return on the capital expended to drill the well.

To the extent that external sources of capital, including the issuance of additional Trust Units, become limited or unavailable, the Corporation's and SLP's ability to make the necessary capital investments to maintain or expand their oil and natural gas reserves will be impaired. To the extent that the Corporation and SLP is required to use Net Production Revenue to finance capital expenditures or property acquisitions, the level of Distributable Cash will be reduced.

There is strong competition relating to all aspects of the oil and gas industry. The Corporation and SLP will actively compete for reserve acquisitions and skilled industry personnel with a substantial number of other oil and gas companies, many of which have significantly greater financial resources than the Corporation and SLP.

There can be no assurance that the Corporation and SLP will be successful in developing additional reserves or acquiring reserves on terms that meet the Fund's investment criteria.

Exploitation and development risks are due to the uncertain results of searching for and producing oil and natural gas using imperfect scientific methods. These risks are mitigated by using highly skilled staff, focussing exploitation efforts in areas in which the Corporation has existing knowledge and expertise or access to such expertise, using up-to-date technology to enhance methods and controlling costs to maximize returns. Advanced oil and natural gas related technologies such as three dimensional seismography, reservoir simulation studies and horizontal drilling may, where appropriate, be used by the Corporation to improve its ability to find, develop and produce oil and natural gas.

Oil and Natural Gas Prices - Marketability of Production

The Fund's revenues are dependent upon prevailing prices for oil and natural gas. Oil and natural gas prices can be extremely volatile and are affected by the actions of foreign governments, international cartels and the Canadian federal and provincial governments. In addition, the marketability of the production underlying the Royalties depends upon the availability and capacity of gathering systems and pipelines, the effect of federal and provincial regulation on such production, supply and demand conditions for oil and gas and general economic conditions. All of these factors are beyond the control of the Corporation and the Fund.

The Fund operates in a competitive environment, wherein the commodity price is and could be affected by a number of factors beyond the control of the Fund. The Corporation's and SLP's results of operations and financial position, and therefore the amounts paid to the Fund pursuant to the Royalties, the Raider Acquisition Notes, Ionic Acquisition Notes and Birchill Acquisition Note, are dependent on the prices received for their oil and natural gas production. Oil and natural gas prices have fluctuated widely during recent years and are determined by supply and demand factors, including weather and general economic conditions as well as conditions in other oil producing regions, which are beyond the control of the Corporation and the Fund. Any decline in oil or natural gas prices could have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's and SLP's operations, financial condition, proved reserves and the level of expenditures for the development of their oil and natural gas reserves. Distributable Cash will therefore be sensitive to prevailing oil and natural gas prices.

The Corporation may manage the risk associated with changes in commodity prices and foreign exchange rates by causing the Corporation and SLP, from time to time, to enter into crude oil or natural gas price hedges and forward foreign exchange contracts. To the extent that the Corporation engages in risk management activities related to commodity prices and foreign exchange rates, it and SLP will be subject to credit risks associated with counter parties with which they contract.

Title

Although satisfactory title reviews of the Properties are conducted in accordance with industry standards, those title reviews do not guarantee or certify that a defect in the chain of title may not arise to defeat the claim of the Corporation or SLP to a Property. A reduction of Royalty Income could result in those circumstances.

Environmental Concerns

The operation of oil and natural gas wells involves a number of natural hazards which may result in blowouts, environmental damage or other unexpected or dangerous conditions resulting in liability to the Corporation and SLP and possibly liability to third parties. The oil and natural gas industry is subject to extensive environmental regulation which provides for restrictions and prohibitions on releases or emissions of various substances produced in association with certain oil and natural gas industry operations. In addition, legislation requires that well and facility sites be abandoned and reclaimed to the satisfaction of provincial authorities. A breach of such legislation may result in fines or the issuance of clean-up orders. The Corporation and SLP will make reasonable provision for well abandonment where appropriate, however there can be no assurance that such provision will be sufficient to satisfy all such obligations. No sinking fund or reserve will be established for the purpose of site reclamation or abandonment costs. Actual abandonment costs incurred in a specific period are deducted for purposes of the Royalty Income and will reduce the amount of Distributable Cash available for distribution to Unitholders.

Reserves

Although Paddock, Sproule and the Fund have carefully prepared the reserve estimates included herein and believe that the methods of estimating reserves have been verified by judgment and operating experience, such figures are estimates and no assurance can be given that the indicated levels of reserves will be produced. Probable reserves estimated for properties may require revision based on the actual development strategies employed to prove such reserves. Declines in the reserves of the Corporation and SLP that are not offset by the acquisition or development of additional reserves may reduce the underlying value of Trust Units to Unitholders. Trust Units will have little or no value once all of the oil and natural gas reserves of the Corporation and SLP have been produced. As a result, holders of Trust Units will have to obtain the return of capital invested out of cash flow derived from their investment in such Trust Units.

Purchase of Reserves

Acquisitions of resource companies and resource assets by the Corporation and SLP will be based on engineering and economic assessments made by management and reviewed by independent engineers. These assessments include a series of assumptions regarding such factors as recoverability and marketability of oil and natural gas, future prices of oil and natural gas and operating costs, future capital expenditures and royalties and other governmental levies which will be imposed over the producing life of the reserves. Many of these factors are subject to change and are beyond the control of the Corporation or the Fund. In particular, changes in the prices of and markets for oil and natural gas from those anticipated at the time of making such assessments will affect the return on and value of the Trust Units. In addition, all such assessments involve a measure of geological and engineering uncertainty which could result in lower production and reserves than anticipated.

Depletion of Reserves

The Fund has certain unique attributes that differentiate it from other oil and gas industry participants. Distributions of Distributable Cash in respect of the Corporation's and SLP's oil and gas properties, absent commodity price increases or cost effective acquisition and development activities, will decline over time in a manner consistent with declining production from typical oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids reserves. The Corporation and SLP will not be reinvesting cash flow in the same manner as other industry participants. Accordingly, absent capital injections, the Corporation's and SLP's initial production levels and reserves will decline.

The Corporation's and SLP's future oil and natural gas reserves and production, and therefore its cash flows, will be highly dependent on the Corporation's and SLP's success in exploiting its reserve base and acquiring additional reserves. Without reserve additions through acquisition or development activities, the Corporation's and SLP's reserves and production will decline over time as reserves are exploited.

To the extent that external sources of capital, including the issuance of additional Trust Units, become limited or unavailable, the Corporation's and SLP's ability to make the necessary capital investments to maintain or expand its oil and natural gas reserves will be impaired. To the extent that the Corporation and SLP are required to use cash flow to finance capital expenditures or property acquisitions, the level of Distributable Cash will be reduced.

There can be no assurance that the Corporation or SLP will be successful in developing or acquiring additional reserves on terms that meet the Fund's investment objectives.

Reliance on Key Personnel

Unitholders are entirely dependent on the Corporation in respect of administration of all matters relating to the Properties and the Trust Units. Investors who are not willing to rely on the Corporation should not invest in the Trust Units.

The Fund is highly dependent upon the executive officers and key employees of the Corporation. The unexpected loss of the services of any of these individuals could have a detrimental effect on the Fund. In particular, termination of the Administrative Services Agreement between the Corporation and the Trustee, could result in a significant loss to the Fund. See "Directors and Officers". The directors and officers of the Corporation have extensive experience in oil and natural gas production activities.

Credit Facility

The Corporation has credit facilities in the amount of $225 million. Variations in interest rates could result in significant changes in the amount required to be applied to debt service before payment of the Royalties and principal and interest on the Raider Acquisition Notes, Ionic Acquisition Notes and Birchill Acquisition Note. Certain covenants of the agreements of the Corporation with the bank could limit distributions to the Fund. Although the Corporation believes that the bank lines of credit are sufficient, there can be no assurance that the amount will be adequate for the financial obligations of the Corporation or SLP or that additional funds can be obtained. If the Corporation and SLP do not earn sufficient income from the Properties to meet the debt service obligations under the credit facilities, the bank could foreclose on the Properties and, if the Properties are sold, also cause the Royalties, the Raider Acquisition Notes, Birchill Acquisition Note and/or Ionic Acquisition Notes to be sold. Upon annual review of the underlying assets pledged as security for the credit facilities, the bank may adjust the size of the credit facilities. Principal repayments as required by the bank or as determined by the Corporation will reduce Distributable Cash. The credit facilities contain provisions which may restrict the ability of the Corporation and SLP to pay the Royalties, principal or interest on the Raider Acquisition Notes, Ionic Acquisition Notes and Birchill Acquisition Note and which may compel a sale of the working interests underlying the Royalties and those notes in certain circumstances, with all proceeds from such sale going to the bank and not to the Fund.

Foreign Exchange

Operating costs incurred by the Corporation and SLP are generally paid in Canadian dollars. World oil prices are quoted in United States dollars and the price received by Canadian producers is therefore affected by the Canadian/U.S. dollar exchange rate that may fluctuate over time. A material increase in the value of the Canadian dollar may negatively impact the Corporation's and SLP's net production revenue. To the extent that the Corporation has engaged or will in the future engage in risk management activities related to commodity prices and foreign exchange rates, through entry into oil and natural gas price hedges and forward foreign exchange contracts or otherwise, the Corporation and SLP will be subject to unfavourable price changes and credit risks associated with the counterparties with which it contracts.

Capital Investment

The timing and amount of capital expenditures will directly affect the amount of Distributable Cash for distribution to Unitholders. Distributions may be reduced, or even eliminated, at times when significant capital or other expenditures are made.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

Some of the directors of the Corporation are also directors of other oil and natural gas companies, which may from time to time be in competition with the Corporation and the Fund for property acquisitions, or other limited resources. Where required by law, appropriate disclosure of such conflicts will be made by the applicable directors. In particular, the Corporation follows the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta). These provisions state that in the event that a director has an interest in a contract or proposed contract or agreement, such director shall disclose his interest in such contract or agreement and shall refrain from voting on any matter in respect of such contract or agreement unless otherwise permitted by the Business Corporations Act (Alberta).

Competition

The oil and natural gas industry is intensely competitive and the Corporation and SLP will compete for joint venture partners and capital with a substantial number of other companies which have greater resources. Many such companies not only explore for and produce oil and natural gas, but also carry on refining operations and market petroleum and other products on a worldwide basis and as such have greater and more diverse resources upon which to draw. There is also competition between the oil industry and other industries with respect to the supply of energy and fuel to industrial, commercial and individual customers. Oil and natural gas operations involve a high degree of risk, which even a combination of experience, knowledge and careful evaluation may not be able to overcome.

Operating Risks

The oil and natural gas business involves a variety of operating risks, including the risk of fire, explosions, blowouts and encountering formations with abnormal pressure and oil spills, the occurrence of any of which could result in substantial losses to the Fund. The Corporation and SLP maintain insurance against some, but not all, of these risks, in amounts which meet or exceed standard industry practice. There can be no assurance that any insurance will continue to be available at premium levels that justify its purchase or whether insurance will be available at all.

Continuing production from the Properties, and to some extent the marketing of production therefrom, are dependent upon the ability of the operator of such Properties. To the extent that the operator of a Property fails to perform these functions properly, revenue may be reduced. Payments from production generally flow through the operator and there is a risk of delay and additional expense in receiving such revenues if the operator becomes insolvent or experiences cash flow problems.

Changes in Legislation

There can be no assurance that income tax laws, other laws or government incentive programs relating to the oil and gas industry, such as the status of investment trusts and resource allowance, will not be changed in a manner which will adversely affect the Fund and Unitholders. There can be no assurance that tax authorities having jurisdiction will agree with how the Fund calculates its income for tax purposes or that such tax authorities will not change their administrative practices to the detriment of the Fund or the Unitholders.

Investment Eligibility

The Corporation will seek to ensure that the Trust Units are qualified investments for Exempt Plans under the Tax Act. The Tax Act imposes penalties for the acquisition or holding of non-qualified or ineligible investments and there is no assurance that the conditions prescribed for such qualified or eligible investments will be adhered to at any particular time. If the Fund ceases to qualify at any relevant time as a "mutual fund trust" under the Tax Act, the Trust Units will cease to be qualified investments for Exempt Plans.

Nature of Trust Units

Securities such as the Trust Units are hybrids in that they share certain attributes common to both equity securities and debt instruments. Trust Units are dissimilar to debt instruments in that there is no principal amount owing to Unitholders. The Trust Units do not represent a traditional investment in the oil and natural gas industry and should not be viewed by investors as shares in the Fund. The Trust Units represent an equal undivided beneficial interest in the Fund. As holders of Trust Units, Unitholders will not have the statutory rights normally associated with ownership of shares of a corporation including, for example, the right to bring "oppression" or "derivative" actions. The market price per Trust Unit is a function of anticipated Distributable Cash, the market's perception of the value of Properties and the Corporation's ability to effect long-term growth in the value of the Fund.

Unitholder Liability

The Trust Indenture provides that no Unitholder will be subject to any liability in connection with the Fund or its obligations and affairs and, in the event that a court determines Unitholders are subject to any such liabilities, the liabilities will be, with certain exceptions, enforceable only against, and will be satisfied only out of the Fund's assets.

The Trust Indenture provides that all contracts signed by or on behalf of the Fund must (except as the Trustee or the Corporation may otherwise, in any respect, determine) contain a provision to the effect that the obligations in such agreement will not be binding upon Unitholders personally. Personal liability may also arise in respect of claims against the Fund that do not arise under contracts, including claims in tort, claims for taxes and possibly certain other statutory liabilities. The possibility of any personal liability of this nature arising is considered unlikely. In addition, the Income Trust Liability Act (Alberta) was proclaimed in Alberta on July 1, 2004. The Income Trust Liability Act (Alberta) provides that a beneficiary of a trust that is (a) created by a trust instrument governed by the laws of Alberta, and (b) a reporting issuer as defined in the Securities Act (Alberta), is not liable as a beneficiary for any act, default, obligation or liability of the trustee.

Additional Financing

To the extent that external sources of capital, including the issuance of additional Trust Units, become limited or unavailable, the Fund's, the Corporation's and SLP's ability to make the necessary capital investments to maintain or expand their oil and gas reserves and to invest in assets, as the case may be, will be impaired. To the extent that the Corporation and SLP are required to use distributable cash flow to finance capital expenditures, property acquisitions or asset acquisitions, as the case may be, the level of Distributable Cash will be reduced.

Return of Capital

Trust Units will have limited value when reserves from the Properties can no longer be economically produced. Distributions of Distributable Cash may not represent a "yield" in the traditional sense as they may represent either a return of capital, a return on investment or both.

Distribution of Cash

The amount of cash available for distribution to holders of Trust Units is subject to a number of factors, including prevailing prices for oil and natural gas, operating costs, capital costs, general and administrative costs, borrowing costs, the cost of capital, Crown and freehold royalty payments and other forms of taxation applied to the Corporation and SLP and their production, as well as the magnitude of other direct expenses of the Corporation and SLP. It is possible that no Distributable Cash will be available for distribution to holders of Trust Units due to these or other factors.

Enforcement of Operating Agreements

Operations of the wells located on properties not operated by the Corporation or SLP are generally governed by operating agreements that typically require the operator to conduct operations in a good and workmanlike manner. Operating agreements generally provide, however, that the operator will have no liability to the other non-operating working interest owners for losses sustained or liabilities incurred, except such as may result from gross negligence or wilful misconduct. In addition, third-party operators are generally not fiduciaries with respect to the Corporation, SLP, the Fund or the Unitholders. The Corporation and SLP, as owners of working interests in properties not operated by them, will generally have a cause of action for damages arising from a breach of such duty. Although not established by definitive legal precedent, it is unlikely that the Fund or Unitholders would be entitled to bring suit against third-party operators to enforce the terms of the operating agreements; thus, Unitholders will be dependent on the Corporation and SLP, as owner of the working interest, to enforce such rights.

Delays in Cash Distribution

In addition to the usual delays in payment by purchasers of oil and natural gas to the operators of oil and gas properties, and by the operator to the Corporation and SLP, payments between any of such parties may also be delayed by restrictions imposed by lenders, delays in the sale or delivery of products, delays in the connection of wells to a gathering system, blowouts or other accidents, recovery by the operator of expenses incurred in the operation of oil and gas properties or the establishment by the operator of reserves for such expenses. Any of these delays could adversely affect distributions made by the Fund.

Potential For Write-Downs

Under Canadian accounting rules, the net capitalized cost of oil and gas properties may not exceed a "ceiling limit", which is based, in part, upon estimated future net cash flows from reserves. If the net capitalized costs exceed this limit, the Corporation and SLP must charge the amount of the excess against earnings. As oil and gas prices decline, the Corporation's and SLP's net capitalized cost may approach and, in certain circumstances, may exceed this cost ceiling resulting in a charge against earnings. While these write-downs would not affect cash flow, the charge to earnings could be viewed unfavourably in the market or could limit the Corporation's and SLP's ability to borrow funds or comply with covenants contained in current or future credit agreements or other debt instruments.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

To the knowledge of management of the Corporation, there are no legal proceedings to which the Corporation or the Fund or which any of their property is the subject, nor are any such proceedings that are contemplated.

INTEREST OF MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Other than as disclosed elsewhere herein, no director or officer or principal shareholder, or any associate or affiliate of the foregoing, has or has had, any material interest, direct or indirect, in any transaction within the three most recently completed financial years or in the current financial year that has materially affected or will materially affect the Corporation or the Fund.

TRANSFER AGENTS AND REGISTRARS

The transfer agent and registrar of the Trust Units of the Fund is Computershare Trust Company of Canada, at its offices in Calgary, Alberta and Toronto, Ontario.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

Except for contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business, the only material contracts that were entered into within the most recently completed financial year, or before the most recently completed financial year and still in effect:

1. The Trust Indenture;
2. the Royalty Agreements;
3. the Corporation USA;
4. the SHC USA;
5. the Administration Services Agreement;
6. the Rights Plan; and
7. the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note.

REPORT ON RESERVES DATA BY INDEPENDENT QUALIFIED RESERVES EVALUATOR AND AUDITOR FORM 51-101F2

Terms to which a meaning is ascribed in National Instrument 51-101 have the same meaning herein.

To the Board of Directors of Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the "Company"):

1. We have evaluated and audited the Company's reserves data as at December 31, 2004. The reserves data consist of the following:
 - (a) (i) proved and proved plus probable oil and gas reserves estimated as at December 31, 2004 using forecast prices and costs; and
 - (ii) the related estimated future net revenue; and
 - (b) (i) proved oil and gas reserves estimated as at December 31, 2004 using constant prices and costs; and
 - (ii) the related estimated future net revenue.
2. The reserves data are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the reserves data based on our evaluation and audit.

We carried out our evaluation and audit in accordance with standards set out in the Canadian Oil and Gas Evaluation Handbook (the "COGE Handbook") prepared jointly by the Society of Petroleum Evaluation Engineers (Calgary Chapter) and the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy & Petroleum (Petroleum Society).

3. Those standards require that we plan and perform an evaluation and audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the reserves data are free of material misstatement. An evaluation and audit also includes assessing whether the reserves data are in accordance with principles and definitions presented in the COGE Handbook.
4. The following table sets forth the estimated future net revenue (before deduction of income taxes) attributed to proved plus probable reserves, estimated using forecast prices and costs and calculated using a discount rate of 10 percent, included in the reserves data of the Company evaluated and audited by us for the year ended December 31, 2004, and identifies the respective portions thereof that we have evaluated and audited and reported on to the Company's board of directors:

Independent Qualified Reserves Evaluator or Auditor	Description and Preparation Date of Evaluation/Audit Report	Location of Reserves (Country or Foreign Geographic Area)	Net Present Value of Future Net Revenue ($millions - before income taxes, 10% discount rate)
			Audited	Evaluated	Reviewed	Total
Paddock Lindström & Associates Ltd.	February 14, 2005	Canada	48.5	440.7	nil	489.2

5. In our opinion, the reserves data respectively evaluated and audited by us have, in all material respects, been determined and are in accordance with the COGE Handbook. We express no opinion on the reserves data that we reviewed but did not audit or evaluate.
6. We have no responsibility to update our reports referred to in paragraph 4 for events and circumstances occurring after their respective preparation dates.

7. Because the reserves data are based on judgements regarding future events, actual results will vary and the variations may be material.

REPORT OF MANAGEMENT AND DIRECTORS ON RESERVES DATA AND OTHER INFORMATION
FORM 51-101F3

Terms to which a meaning is ascribed in National Instrument 51-101 have the same meaning herein.

Management of Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the "Company") are responsible for the preparation and disclosure of information with respect to the Company's oil and gas activities in accordance with securities regulatory requirements. This information includes reserves data, which consist of the following:

- (a) (i) proved and proved plus probable oil and gas reserves estimated as at December 31, 2004 using forecast prices and costs; and
- (a) (ii) the related estimated future net revenue; and
- (b) (i) proved oil and gas reserves estimated as at December 31, 2004 using constant prices and costs; and
- (b) (ii) the related estimated future net revenue.

Independent qualified reserves evaluators and auditors have evaluated and audited the Company's reserves data. The reports of the independent qualified reserves evaluators and auditors are presented in the Annual Information Form of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund effective as of December 31, 2004.

The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee of the board of directors of the Company has

- (a) reviewed the Company's procedures for providing information to the independent qualified reserves evaluator and auditor;
- (b) met with the independent qualified reserves evaluators and auditors to determine whether any restrictions affected the ability of the independent qualified reserves evaluators and auditors to report without reservation; and
- (c) reviewed the reserves data with management and the independent qualified reserves evaluators and auditors.

The Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee of the board of directors has reviewed the Company's procedures for assembling and reporting other information associated with oil and gas activities and has reviewed that information with management. The board of directors has, on the recommendation of the Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee, approved:

- (a) the content and filing with securities regulatory authorities of the reserves data and other oil and gas information;
- (b) the filing of the report of the independent qualified reserves evaluator and auditor on the reserves data; and
- (c) the content and filing of this report.

Because the reserves data are based on judgements regarding future events, actual results will vary and the variations may be material.

SCHEDULE "A"

SHININGBANK ENERGY LTD.

AUDIT COMMITTEE - TERMS OF REFERENCE

(Adopted by the Board of Directors of Shiningbank Energy Ltd. effective March 2, 2005)

PURPOSE

The overall purpose of the Audit Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the "Corporation") is to carry out the functions associated with an audit committee of an issuer of the size and nature of the Corporation and the Fund (as defined below). The purpose of the Committee is to ensure that the Corporation's management has designed and implemented an effective system to review and report on the integrity of the consolidated financial statements of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("SEIF") and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Fund"). As part of this mandate, the Committee shall take all necessary steps so as to ensure compliance by the Fund with all laws and regulatory policies, rules, regulations and instruments pertaining to audit and financial reporting that are applicable to the Fund from time to time (the "Applicable Laws").

COMPOSITION, PROCEDURES AND ORGANIZATION

1. The Committee shall consist of not less than three members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the "Board"), each of whom:
 - (a) must meet any independence tests; and
 - (b) must satisfy any financial literacy or other competency standards;

as set out under Applicable Laws, except as may be allowed under any applicable exemptions provided for under Applicable Laws or any exemption orders obtained from applicable regulatory authorities.

2. The Board, at its organizational meeting held in conjunction with each annual general meeting of the holders of trust units of SEIF, shall appoint the members of the Committee for the ensuing year. The Board may at any time remove or replace any member of the Committee and may fill any vacancy in the Committee.
3. Unless the Board shall have appointed a chair of the Committee, the members of the Committee shall elect a chair (the "Chairman") from amongst their number.
4. The Secretary of the Corporation shall be the secretary of the Committee, unless otherwise determined by the Committee.
5. The quorum for meetings shall be a majority of the members (the "Members") of the Committee, present in person or by telephone or other telecommunication device that permits all persons participating in the meeting to speak and to hear each other.
6. The Committee shall have access to such officers and employees of the Corporation and of the other consolidated subsidiaries of the Fund, and to the Fund's external auditors and to such information respecting the Fund, as the Committee considers to be necessary or advisable in order to perform its duties and responsibilities.

7. Meetings of the Committee shall be conducted as follows:
 - (a) the Committee shall meet at least four times annually at such times and at such locations as may be requested by the Chairman. The Fund's external auditors or any member of the Committee may request a meeting of the Committee;
 - (b) the Fund's external auditors shall receive notice of and have the right, and shall be encouraged, to attend all meetings of the Committee; and
 - (c) the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation shall be invited to attend all meetings of the Committee, except executive sessions and private sessions with the external auditors. Other management representatives of the Corporation shall be invited to attend as necessary.
8. The internal auditors of the Fund (if any) and the external auditors of the Fund shall have a direct line of communication to the Committee through the Chairman. The Fund shall require the external auditors of the Fund to report directly to the Committee.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

9. The overall duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall include:
 - (a) assisting the Board in the discharge of its responsibilities relating to the Fund's accounting principles, reporting practices and internal controls and approving the Fund's annual and quarterly consolidated financial statements;
 - (b) establishing and maintaining a direct line of communication with the Fund's internal (if any) and external auditors and assessing their performance;
 - (c) ensuring that the management of the Corporation has designed, implemented and is maintaining an effective system of internal controls for the Fund;
 - (d) reporting regularly to the Board on the fulfilment of the duties and responsibilities of the Committee;
 - (e) ensure adequate procedures are in place for the review of the Fund's public disclosure of financial information extracted or derived from the Fund's financial statements and periodically assess the adequacy of those procedures;
 - (f) review the appropriateness and effectiveness of the Fund's policies and business practices which impact on the financial integrity of the Fund, including those relating to internal auditing, insurance, accounting, information services and systems and financial controls, management reporting and risk management;
 - (g) review compliance with any business conduct policy that the Fund may put in place and periodically review this policy and recommend to the Board changes which the Committee may deem appropriate; and
 - (h) review any unresolved issues between management and the external auditors that could affect the financial reporting or internal controls of the Fund.

10. The duties and responsibilities of the Committee as they relate to the external auditors shall include:
 - (a) recommending to the Board a firm of external auditors to be engaged by the Fund;
 - (b) reviewing and approving the fee, scope and timing of the audit and other related services rendered by the external auditors;
 - (c) overseeing the work of the external auditor engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an auditor's report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Fund, including the resolution of disagreements between management of the Corporation and the external auditor regarding financial reporting;
 - (d) reviewing the audit plan of the external auditors prior to the commencement of the audit;
 - (e) reviewing with the external auditors, upon completion of their audit:
 - (i) contents of their report;
 - (ii) scope and quality of the audit work performed;
 - (iii) adequacy of the Corporation's financial and auditing personnel;
 - (iv) co-operation received from the Corporation's personnel during the audit;
 - (v) internal resources used;
 - (vi) significant transactions outside of the normal business of the Fund; and
 - (vii) significant proposed adjustments and recommendations for improving internal accounting controls, accounting principles or management systems;
 - (f) pre-approving all non-audit services to be provided to the Fund by the Fund's external auditor in accordance with Applicable Laws; and
 - (g) periodically review the Fund's financial and auditing procedures and the extent to which recommendations made by the internal audit staff or by the external auditors have been implemented.
11. The Committee shall hold in camera (i.e. without the presence of management of the Corporation) meetings with the external auditors at least once a year prior the approval of the audited annual financial statements of the Fund and at such other times as determined necessary or appropriate by the Committee.
12. The duties and responsibilities of the Committee as they relate to the Fund's internal auditors (if any) shall include:
 - (a) periodically reviewing the internal audit function with respect to the organization, staffing and effectiveness of the internal audit department;
 - (b) reviewing and approving the internal audit plan; and

- (c) reviewing significant internal audit findings and recommendations, and management's response thereto.
13. The Committee is also charged with the responsibility to:
- (a) review and approve the Fund's financial statements (annual and interim) and MD&A (annual and interim) as well as the financial sections of prospectuses and other public reports requiring approval by the Board before such documents are publicly disclosed by the Fund;
 - (b) review regulatory filings and decisions as they relate to the Fund's consolidated financial statements;
 - (c) review the minutes of any audit committee meeting of associated companies, partnerships or trusts;
 - (d) review with management, the external auditors and if necessary with legal counsel, any litigation, claim or other contingency, including tax assessments that could have a material affect upon the financial position or operating results of the Fund and the manner in which such matters have been disclosed in the consolidated financial statements;
 - (e) establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Fund regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters;
 - (f) establish procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Corporation or any other consolidated subsidiary of the Fund of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters,
 - (g) review and approve the Corporation's hiring policies regarding partners, employees and former partners and employees of the present and former external auditors of the Fund; and
 - (h) develop a calendar of activities to be undertaken by the Committee for each ensuing year and to submit the calendar in the appropriate format to the Board following each annual general meeting of unitholders.
14. The Committee has the authority:
- (a) to engage independent counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties; and
 - (b) to set and pay the compensation for any advisors employed by the Committee.

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SHININGBANK ENERGY ANNOUNCES
FIRST QUARTER 2005 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund"), today announced its financial results for the three months ended March 31, 2005. Production for the first quarter was 20,031 barrels of oil equivalent per day (boe/d) where natural gas is converted to barrels of oil equivalent on the basis of 6 mcf per boe. Production volumes increased by 8% for the quarter from 2004, and revenues increased by 15% in the three month period to $80.1 million from $69.6 million in 2004 due to higher volumes and prices. The Fund distributed $0.69 per Trust Unit in the quarter representing a 13% annualized pre-tax cash-on-cash distribution rate on the period closing price of Trust Units. The accompanying table provides additional highlights.

The following discussion and analysis of the operating and financial results of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank" or the "Fund") is for the three months ended March 31, 2005. This information is provided as of May 5, 2005. The first quarter results have been compared with the corresponding period in 2004. This discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the Fund's audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, together with the accompanying notes, and the December 31, 2004 Annual Information Form ("AIF"). These documents and additional information about the Fund are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE

Management believes that distributions to unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks are useful supplemental measures. Distributions to unitholders should not be construed as an alternate to net income as determined by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). All references to cash flow throughout this discussion and analysis are based on cash flow before changes in non-cash working capital, which management uses to analyze operating performance and leverage. Cash flow as presented is not intended to represent operating cash flow or operating profits, nor should it be viewed as an alternative to cash flow from operating activities, net earnings or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Operating netbacks, which are calculated as average unit sales price less royalties, transportation costs and operating costs, represent the cash margin for product sold, calculated on a boe basis. Distributions to unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks as presented do not have any standardized meanings prescribed by Canadian GAAP and therefore may not be comparable with the calculations of similar measure for other entities.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements relating to future events. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by such words as "may," "expects" or similar expressions. These statements represent management's best projections, but undue reliance should not be placed upon them as they are derived from numerous assumptions. These assumptions are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including the business risks discussed in this discussion and analysis and in the AIF, which may cause actual performance and financial results to differ materially from any projections of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers are cautioned that events or circumstances could cause results to differ materially from those predicted.

BARREL OF OIL EQUIVALENT

Barrel of oil equivalent (boe) volumes are reported at 6:1 with 6 mcf = 1 bbl. The 6:1 boe conversion ratio is based on an energy equivalency conversion method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead. While it is useful for comparative measures, it may not accurately reflect individual product values and may be misleading if used in isolation.

REPORTING CURRENCY

All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

PRODUCTION VOLUMES

Daily Production Volumes

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Oil (bbl/d)	2,327	2,142	9
Natural gas (mmcf/d)	86.8	82.0	6
Natural gas liquids (bbl/d)	3,242	2,670	21
Oil equivalent (boe/d)	20,031	18,478	8
Natural gas % of production	72%	74%	(2)

First quarter daily average production grew 8% over first quarter 2004 primarily due to the acquisition of Birchill Resources Limited ("Birchill") late in first quarter 2004. Natural gas liquids ("NGL") accounted for the majority of the volume increase as a result of the acquisition of NGL-rich properties from Birchill.

A successful development drilling program and well tie-ins during the second half of 2004 also contributed to the quarter over quarter volume growth. Drilling in the first quarter was at a moderate level with the emphasis on partner-operated wells and arresting production declines. Average production in 2005 is expected to be 19,500 - 20,000 boe/d.

Natural Gas

Shiningbank's realized natural gas prices remained flat in the first quarter averaging $7.03/mcf. Hedging increased the gas price by $0.04/mcf for the quarter compared with a hedging loss of $0.01/mcf in first quarter 2004. Futures prices remain high, with summer prices averaging over $7.40/mcf and the upcoming winter prices averaging over $8.50/mcf.

Oil and Natural Gas Liquids

Realized oil prices for the quarter averaged $56.25/bbl, up 42% from first quarter 2004. Hedging reduced the price by $0.37/bbl for the quarter compared with a hedging loss of $2.09/bbl in first quarter 2004.

The benchmark West Texas Intermediate ("WTI") price averaged 42% higher than in first quarter 2004, however strength in the Canadian dollar partially offset this increase. Oil prices continue to be exceptionally high, with futures prices averaging over $50.00/bbl for the remainder of 2005.

NGL prices were also strong, reflecting high oil prices. The average NGL price in first quarter 2005 was 28% higher than in first quarter 2004 at $45.91/bbl. NGL prices continue to average between 80 - 85% of realized pre-hedged oil prices.

Hedging

Shiningbank maintains an active hedging program designed to reduce the variability of cash flow and stabilize distributions. Under the Fund's hedging policy, not more than one-half of production volumes of any commodity can be hedged at any one time. Gains and losses from hedging activities are typically recorded when they are realized and are included in oil and natural gas sales unless a particular hedge is considered ineffective. Currently, Shiningbank has the following hedging contracts in place:

Period	Commodity	Volume	Price
April 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$5.00 /GJ floor $6.39/GJ ceiling
April 1, 2005 – October 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$6.70/GJ

As a % of revenue	23.1%	19.8%	17
Per boe	$ 10.28	$ 8.19	26

Royalty expense consists of royalties paid to provincial governments, freehold landowners and overriding royalty owners. The royalty rate increased in first quarter 2005 due to an adjustment related to prior periods regarding the Birchill acquisition. Excluding this one time adjustment, the royalty rate would have been 22.3%. The Fund expects rates to average 22.5% in 2005.

TRANSPORTATION COSTS

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Transportation costs (000s)	$ 1,167	$ 1,335	(13)
Per boe	$ 0.65	$ 0.79	(18)

Transportation costs decreased 18% on a boe basis from first quarter 2004. The decrease was the result of lower pricing following the termination of certain transportation service commitments. These terminations are not expected to impact the Fund's ability to market production.

OPERATING COSTS

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Operating costs (000s)	$ 11,772	$ 11,106	6
Per boe	$ 6.53	$ 6.60	(1)

Operating costs on a boe basis were flat in first quarter 2005, decreasing 1% from first quarter 2004. Higher field and plant maintenance costs in most areas were offset by volume increases in some areas with lower operating costs. Operating costs are expected to average $7.00/boe in 2005.

OPERATING NETBACKS

Operating expenses	(6.53)	(6.60)	(1)
Operating netbacks	$ 26.99	$ 25.46	6

Operating netbacks increased 6% quarter over quarter due mainly to higher commodity prices which were partially offset by higher royalty expenses.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
General and administrative costs (000s)	$ 2,177	$ 1,547	41
Per boe	$ 1.21	$ 0.92	32
Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.04	$ 0.03	33

General and administrative costs increased on all metrics including on a per boe basis and per average Trust Unit. These increases were due to higher activity levels related to acquisitions, development activities and increasing costs for corporate governance from additional regulation. Costs are expected to average $1.25/boe in 2005.

INTEREST ON LONG TERM DEBT

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Interest on long term debt (000s)	$ 1,844	$ 1,471	25
Per boe	$ 1.02	$ 0.87	17
Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.03	$ 0.03	-

Interest expense, which includes bank charges, increased 25% from first quarter 2004 due to higher debt levels resulting from the funding of acquisitions and capital expenditures. Shiningbank is currently in compliance with all external debt covenants.

DEPLETION, DEPRECIATION AND ACCRETION

	Three months ended March 31,

Depletion, depreciation and accretion (000s)	$ 30,637	$ 25,648	19
Per boe	$ 16.99	$ 15.25	11

Depletion, depreciation and accretion rose 11% per boe for the first quarter. The increase was primarily related to expansion of the asset base from acquisitions made late in first quarter 2004 and associated future development costs.

TRUST UNIT INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Trust Unit incentive compensation (000s)	$ 615	$ 298	106
Per boe	$ 0.34	$ 0.18	89

During first quarter 2005, one new issue of Trust Unit rights was granted. The fair value of rights issued was determined using a Black-Scholes model, and will be brought into income over the vesting period of the rights. The total first quarter 2005 expense of $615,000 (2004 - $298,000) represented the fair value of rights issued during 2003 through to 2005 and which vested in first quarter 2005. All of these costs are "non-cash" costs and are not deducted in calculating distributions to unitholders.

INTERNALIZATION OF MANAGEMENT CONTRACT

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Internalization of management contract (000s)	$ 368	$ 734	(50)
Per boe	$ 0.20	$ 0.44	(55)

Effective October 9, 2002, the Fund internalized its management by acquiring all of the shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc., the former Manager of the Fund. Prior to the acquisition, the Fund paid fees of 3.25% of net operating income, a fee of 1.5% on the purchase price of acquisitions and a quarterly scheduled dividend in accordance with the terms of a management agreement. The acquisition eliminated all future fees and dividends.

Of the total purchase price of $20.6 million, $11.0 million was deferred, representing Exchangeable Shares subject to escrow provisions which are being amortized into income over specific vesting periods through 2007. During first quarter 2005, $368,000 (2004 - $734,000) was expensed, representing the amortization of these escrowed Exchangeable Shares.

TAXES

	Three months ended March 31,

Future income tax recovery (000s)	$ (1,486)	$ (5,311)	(72)
Per boe	$ (0.75)	$ (3.02)	(75)

The Fund is obligated to pay provincial capital taxes and federal large corporations tax in its operating entities. Under the Fund's structure, payments are made between Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and the Fund. These payments provide the mechanism for transferring income to unitholders along with tax benefits and future tax liabilities. Current income taxes are not presently payable by the Fund or its operating entities.

NET EARNINGS

Shiningbank's first quarter earnings were $14.4 million or $0.26 per Trust Unit, basic and diluted. Earnings in first quarter 2004 were $18.8 million or $0.40 per Trust Unit ($0.39 diluted).

Distributions to unitholders for the quarter increased 8% over the same period in 2004 to $37.5 million. The increase was based on higher production volumes, large gains in pricing for oil and NGL and strong gas prices.

On a per Trust Unit basis, distributions were consistent in both periods at $0.69. The increase in the number of Trust Units outstanding offset the higher cash flow. The Fund paid out 84% of its first quarter cash flow compared with 88% in first quarter 2004.

Quarterly fluctuations are primarily the result of production increases due to acquisitions, the Fund's development drilling program and realized commodity prices which can be extremely volatile. Volume increases from acquisitions occurred in second quarter 2003 through the acquisition of assets at Ferrier/O'Chiese and again, in second quarter 2004 with the acquisition of Birchill.

Natural gas prices remained strong and relatively consistent through the eight quarters. Oil prices increased substantially in late 2004. With oil playing a small role in Shiningbank's overall revenues and with increased capital programs absorbing the extra cash flow, there was no change in distributions.

COSTS OF ACQUISITIONS AND DEVELOPMENT

A total of $14.5 million was spent on drilling and new facilities in first quarter 2005, compared with $11.0 million in the same period in 2004. Cash flow funded $7.0 million of these expenditures, with the balance funded by debt and proceeds from the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan. The capital program funded a successful development drilling program concentrated in the Ferrier/O'Chiese area and the completion and tie-in of those wells. Most expenditures in first quarter 2005 were associated with partner-operated activities. The Fund's drilling program will be more active in the summer and fall of 2005 when drilling costs are expected to be lower.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Shiningbank's ability to grow depends on access to bank lines of credit and periodic equity infusions. Smaller acquisitions through the course of a year are funded by bank debt. Equity is issued to fund single large acquisitions, or to pay down debt acquired following a number of smaller acquisitions. When the proceeds of an equity issue are greater than acquisition costs, the excess is used to reduce bank debt.

LONG TERM DEBT

The Fund has a $250 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of four Canadian chartered banks of which $178.7 million was drawn at March 31, 2005. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006, at which time the facility reverts to a two-year term with principal payments, if necessary, commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $300 million floating charge debenture on all assets of Shiningbank together with supporting debentures and guarantees from the Fund's operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the total debt to cash flow ratio or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee. At March 31, 2005 the debt to cash flow ratio was 1:1.

UNITHOLDERS' EQUITY

A total of 179,116 Trust Units were issued during the quarter under the Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan and under the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan.

When equity is raised, the intended use of proceeds is specified in the related prospectus. Each major equity issue has been undertaken to acquire properties or to reduce debt incurred from prior acquisitions. In all cases, the proceeds were used according to the purpose specified.

As of May 5, 2005, the Fund had 54,437,186 Trust Units, 263,482 non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares and 353,614 escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding. Exchangeable Shares held in escrow will be released over the next three years under the terms of two escrow agreements.

Exchangeable Shares are not eligible for distributions until they are exchanged for Trust Units at the discretion of the holder. The exchange rate was initially one Trust Unit for each Exchangeable Share. The exchange rate increases with each distribution by an amount equal to the per unit distribution divided by the 10-day weighted average trading price of the Trust Units preceding the record date for that distribution. As of March 31, 2005, the exchange rate was 1 to 1.35755.

¹ The long term debt obligation assumes that the revolving credit line is not renewed in April 2006.

Shiningbank has on-going capital commitments in the ordinary course of business for development drilling, equipment and facilities. These are funded through a combination of cash flow, debt financing and periodic equity financing.

IMPACT OF NEW ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NON-CONTROLLING INTEREST

On March 8, 2005, the Emerging Issues Committee of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants amended its position on the reporting of exchangeable securities issued by subsidiaries of income trusts. The amendment states that exchangeable securities issued by a subsidiary of an income trust should be reflected as either non-controlling interest or debt on the consolidated balance sheet unless they meet certain criteria. The amendment will take effect in the second quarter of 2005 and the changes may result in a restatement of 2004 earnings and comparable figures. It is not expected that these changes will have a material impact on the financial statements.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The Fund makes numerous accounting estimates in its financial statements in order to provide timely information to users. A critical accounting estimate is one that requires management to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate is made and, if a different estimate was used, financial results would be materially different. The following estimates are considered critical:

RESERVES

The Fund must estimate its reserves. Reserves are evaluated and reported on annually by independent petroleum reserve evaluators who use various subjective factors and assumptions, including forecasts of costs based on geological and engineering data, projected future rates of production, and timing and amounts of future development costs. Although reserves are estimated, management believes the estimates are reasonable based on information available at the time the estimates were prepared. Management, the Fund's internal engineers, and the Board's Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee all review and approve the estimates reported by the independent reserve evaluators.

As new information becomes available, changes are made to the reserve estimates and future development cost estimates. Historically, the Fund has had no significant changes to these estimates, with the exception of adjusting reserves for acquisitions and divestitures and the results of new drilling. Future actual results could vary greatly from the estimates made, resulting in material changes to the depletion calculation and asset impairment test.

ASSET RETIREMENT OBLIGATION

The Fund's estimated asset retirement obligation is based on estimated timing and costs to abandon and restore properties.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the periods ended March 31, 2005 and 2004

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The interim consolidated financial statements of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank" or the "Fund") have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and follow the same accounting principles and methods of computation as the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 unless otherwise disclosed. The disclosures provided below are incremental to those included with the annual consolidated financial statements. The interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto in Shiningbank's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2004.

2. Long Term Debt

The Corporation has a $250 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of four Canadian chartered banks of which $178.7 million was drawn at March 31, 2005. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006. If the revolving facility is not renewed on that date, it will revert to a two year term with principal payments commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $300 million floating charge debenture on all assets of the Corporation together with supporting debentures and guarantees from operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the Fund's total debt to cash flow ratio, or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee.

(d) Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan

At March 31, 2005, there were 2,022,734 (2004 - 1,803,668) rights outstanding, of which 715,234 (2004 - 733,668) were exercisable at a weighted average exercise price of $13.41 (2004 - $13.60).

$10.00 to $21.50	2,022,734	8.5	$ 16.93	715,234	$ 13.41

Shiningbank recorded Trust Unit incentive compensation expense of $615,000 during the quarter (2004 - $298,000) for rights issued between 2003 and 2005, and which vested in first quarter 2005.

During the quarter, $199,000 (2004 - $89,000) of contributed surplus was transferred to Trust Unit equity in respect of rights exercised during the period.

The following table reconciles the movement in the contributed surplus balance:

Contributed surplus	Amount (000s)
Balance, December 31, 2004	$ 1,416
Trust Unit incentive compensation	615
Net benefit on rights exercised ¹	(199)
Balance, March 31, 2005	$ 1,832

¹ Upon exercise, the net benefit is reflected as a reduction of contributed surplus and an increase to Unitholders' capital.

The $3.3 million fair value of the 717,500 rights issued during the quarter was estimated using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 4.21%, volatility of 60%, life of 10 years, and a distribution yield rate of 10% representing the difference between the anticipated distribution and the anticipated drop in the strike price. Users are cautioned that the assumptions made are estimates of future events and actual results could differ materially from those estimated.

For rights issued in 2002, Shiningbank has elected to disclose the pro forma effect as if the amended accounting standard had been adopted January 1, 2002. The rights granted on January 1, 2002 fully vested on January 1, 2005 and therefore, no Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights would have been recorded during the quarter. For the quarter ended March 31, 2004, Shiningbank's net income would have decreased by $127,000 due to additional Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights. Neither basic nor diluted per Trust Unit figures would have changed as a result of this additional expense.

(e) Per Trust Unit amounts

For the three months ended March 31, 2005, the weighted average number of Trust Units and non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding was 54,614,166 (2004 – 46,938,326). In computing diluted net earnings per Trust Unit, the dilutive effect of Trust Unit rights and escrowed Exchangeable Shares added 1,253,690 Trust Units (2004 – 752,148) to the weighted average number of Trust Units outstanding.

5. Financial Instruments

At March 31, 2005, Shiningbank held certain oil and natural gas hedge contracts, the terms of which are listed in the following table. The estimated market value at March 31, 2005, had the contracts been settled at that time, would have been a loss of $5.1 million.

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SHININGBANK ENERGY ANNOUNCES CORPORATE ACQUISITION

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund today announced that it has entered into an agreement to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Outlook Energy Corp. ("Outlook") a private Canadian company for $32.4 million. Outlook's properties include a mix of gas focused, operated and non-operated interests in west-central Alberta. The principal properties are located in the Minnehik, Alexander, and Nelson areas of Alberta. The properties are adjacent to a number of Shiningbank's existing operations at Pembina, Alexander, and Penhold. Proved plus probable reserves total 1.7 million barrels of oil equivalent (boe), 95% of which is natural gas. Current production from the properties is approximately 650 boe per day consisting of 3.7 MMcf/d natural gas and 35 bbl/d of oil and NGL

Completion of the transaction is subject to certain regulatory and other conditions and closing is expected to occur in late June, 2005. The transaction will be financed with debt drawn from Shiningbank's existing line of credit.

Highlights

- Total cost of the acquisition is $32.4 million including the assumption of $2.0 million in debt and working capital deficiency
- Acquisition cost equates to $19.20/boe for proved plus probable reserves and $49,850 per flowing boe
- Proved plus Probable reserve life index of 7.0 years
- Approximately 65% of the reserves are proven
- Approximately 95% of the production is sweet natural gas
- Significant development opportunities exist on the approximate 6,000 net acres of undeveloped land

Impact on Unitholders

The acquisition is expected to be accretive to per unit cash flow over the coming year and provides many opportunities to further enhance value through production optimization, operating synergies and development drilling. Shiningbank's debt to cash flow ratio will move to approximately 1.2 predicated on a 2005 gas price of C $7.00/mcf and an oil price of US$45.00/bbl.

Reserves and Production

Outlook had a reserve evaluation prepared by independent engineers as at December 31, 2004. There was a high level of activity in Q1 2005 on Outlook lands, most of which was not included in the year end evaluation. Those additions have been included in the following reserve estimates prepared by Shiningbank.

Shiningbank estimates at April 1, 2005 (Outlook Share)

	Oil (mbbls)	Natural Gas (bcf)	NGL (mbbls)	Oil Equivalent (mboe)
Total Proved	17.0	6.20	30.2	1,080
Proved plus Probable	22.2	9.64	59.1	1,687

Major Properties & Current Operations

Outlook's asset base consists of a concentrated group of properties located in west-central Alberta. Approximately 50% of the production comes from the Minnehik area adjacent to Shiningbank's existing operations. Other major properties include Alexander and Nelson, together accounting for approximately 30% of production.

Current projects include 6 development drilling locations (2.39 net), 3 of which are operated by the company. Also planned in second quarter 2005 are 2 completion operations (0.49 net), tie-in of 2 new wells (0.47 net) from the first quarter development program, and a number of facility and gathering system projects to optimize the existing infrastructure. Operations on a number of the above facility projects have commenced and drilling operations are expected to commence in May as surface conditions permit.

All of the natural gas production is uncontracted, and operating costs are reasonable at under $7.00 per boe. The major properties contain a significant number of development opportunities, most of which are not reflected in the above reserve estimates. Shiningbank plans to enhance its existing development drilling program with the addition of the Outlook assets.

BUILT FOR THE LONG TERM

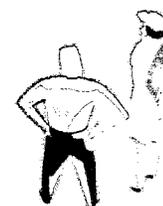

Q1

First Quarter Report 2005

- Stable distributions continued at $0.69 per unit ($0.23 per unit per month) for the eighth consecutive quarter.
- Aggregate distributions to unitholders surpassed $20 per unit since the Fund's inception.
- 97% drilling success on 3.4 net development wells will add production later in 2005.
- Natural gas futures are near record levels, setting the stage for consistent monthly distributions for 2005.

FELLOW UNITHOLDERS

Shiningbank reached a milestone in the first quarter when aggregate distributions since inception surpassed $20 per unit, twice our $10 initial public offering almost nine years ago. Shiningbank's distributions have consistently outpaced the average of other oil and gas trusts as a result of our natural gas strategy, and our ability to pay out higher distributions while maintaining and enhancing unitholder value in the Fund.

In the first quarter and for full-year 2004, we distributed 84% of cash flow to unitholders while production was held steady by our development drilling program. That high percentage reflects our philosophy – and track record – of maintaining a stable level of distributions while building a sustainable and long-life trust. The high quality properties in our portfolio will continue to stand the test of time, particularly as we see strong gas price fundamentals over the medium and long term.

DISTRIBUTIONS

For the eighth consecutive quarter, our unitholders received consistent distributions of $0.69 per unit ($0.23 per unit per month). Strength in commodity markets continued to support distributions, as well as our unit price which has remained above $20 since last September. The market continues to see the energy sector as the place to be; oil futures are selling at over US$50/bbl for the rest of 2005 and natural gas futures are trading at more than $8.50/mcf for this coming winter. These market forces will clearly benefit our unitholders as we anticipate distributions remaining stable throughout 2005.

PRODUCTION

When compared with fourth quarter 2004, production was steady at approximately 20,000 boe/d due to wells drilled late in the year being brought on production which offset natural declines. Total production was 8% higher than last year's first quarter as a result of the Birchill acquisition in early March 2004.

Natural gas volumes for the quarter averaged 86.8 mmcf/d, up 6% from first quarter 2004. Again, the volume growth was mainly from the Birchill acquisition in March 2004 which added 12.4 mmcf/d.

Oil volumes for the quarter were up 9% from last year's first quarter to average 2,327 bbl/d, while NGL volumes rose 21% to 3,242 bbl/d. Both increases were directly related to the Birchill acquisition, but successful drilling in 2004 at Ferrier/O'Chiese also contributed to the growth.

PRICING DETAILS

Natural gas prices remained strong in the quarter averaging $7.03/mcf, essentially flat with the first quarter 2004 price of $7.05/mcf. Longer term, robust gas prices are being supported by extremely high oil prices and continued concerns about adequate supply for this coming year.

Prior to last winter, gas storage levels were at record highs and we emerged from the prime heating season with storage levels approximately 20% higher than average. This was of some comfort to the markets, yet supply concerns persist, particularly as the soaring price of oil could force up demand as industries fuel-switch to natural gas. The futures gas market is at or near record high levels for both the coming summer months at over $7.00/mcf, and next winter at more than $8.50/mcf.

Prices for both oil and NGL were unusually high in the first quarter. The benchmark West Texas Intermediate (WTI) averaged US$49.84/bbl, compared with US$35.14 one year ago. WTI continues to trade near US$50 and is subject to volatility. Shiningbank's realized oil price for the quarter was up 42% to average Cdn$56.25/bbl, after hedging. NGL prices increased 28% over first quarter 2004, reflecting the rise in oil prices. Our NGL prices averaged $45.91/bbl for the quarter.

SUCCESSFUL LOW-COST DEVELOPMENT

The first quarter saw a moderate level of drilling activity with spending of over $14.0 million, of which $5.8 million was for drilling and completions, mainly in partner-operated areas. The remaining $8.2 million was spent on production maintenance, largely for work on facilities, wells and tie-ins of new wells. With this activity, we are successfully reducing our production declines which have historically averaged about 13% annually. Our goal is for development drilling to offset a good portion of those declines in order to maintain production and cash flow. At the same time, our development programs have the potential to unlock upside production potential, increasing the value of our properties through low risk and relatively low cost activities.

We participated in the drilling of 21 wells (3.4 net), of which 20 (3.3 net) were successful gas wells and one (0.1 net) was a dry hole. Most of the higher impact wells (2.2 net) were concentrated in the Ferrier/O'Chiese area where we drilled four successful gas wells. Equipping and tie-in of these wells is underway and production will commence late in the second quarter. We anticipate ramping up our development drilling programs in the Minehead and Ferrier areas in the second and third quarters when drier field conditions and warm weather should reduce drilling costs.

OUTLOOK

Both commodity markets and stock markets are volatile. However, based on the strength of commodity prices and steady production supported by our development drilling program, we anticipate delivering stable distributions to unitholders in 2005. In addition, we are continuing to evaluate acquisitions for larger-scale production and reserve growth. As always, acquisitions must be accretive to the Fund on a variety of metrics, and consist of high quality properties, a factor that has ensured the consistency of superior distributions, and built a strong foundation for the long term.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following is management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") of the operating and financial results of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank" or the "Fund") for the three months ended March 31, 2005. This information is provided as of May 5, 2005. The first quarter results have been compared with the corresponding period in 2004. This MD&A should be read in conjunction with the Fund's audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, together with the accompanying notes, and the December 31, 2004 Annual Information Form ("AIF"). These documents and additional information about the Fund are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE

Management believes that distributions to unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks are useful supplemental measures. Distributions to unitholders should not be construed as an alternate to net income as determined by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). All references to cash flow throughout this MD&A are based on cash flow before changes in non-cash working capital, which management uses to analyze operating performance and leverage. Cash flow as presented is not intended to represent operating cash flow or operating profits, nor should it be viewed as an alternative to cash flow from operating activities, net earnings or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Operating netbacks, which are calculated as average unit sales price less royalties, transportation costs and operating costs, represent the cash margin for product sold, calculated on a boe basis. Distributions to unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks as presented do not have any standardized meanings prescribed by Canadian GAAP and therefore may not be comparable with the calculations of similar measure for other entities.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This MD&A contains forward-looking statements relating to future events. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by such words as "may," "expects" or similar expressions. These statements represent management's best projections, but undue reliance should not be placed upon them as they are derived from numerous assumptions. These assumptions are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including the business risks discussed in this MD&A and in the AIF, which may cause actual performance and financial results to differ materially from any projections of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers are cautioned that events or circumstances could cause results to differ materially from those predicted.

BARREL OF OIL EQUIVALENT

Barrel of oil equivalent (boe) volumes are reported at 6:1 with 6 mcf = 1 bbl. The 6:1 boe conversion ratio is based on an energy equivalency conversion method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead. While it is useful for comparative measures, it may not accurately reflect individual product values and may be misleading if used in isolation.

REPORTING CURRENCY

All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

PRODUCTION VOLUMES

Daily Production Volumes

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Oil (tbt/d)	2,327	2,142	9
Natural gas (mmcf/d)	86.8	82.0	6
Natural gas liquids (tbt/d)	3,242	2,670	21
Oil equivalent (boe/d)	20,031	18,478	8
Natural gas % of production	72%	74%	(2)

First quarter daily average production grew 8% over first quarter 2004 primarily due to the acquisition of Birchill Resources Limited ("Birchill") late in first quarter 2004. Natural gas liquids ("NGL") accounted for the majority of the volume increase as a result of the acquisition of NGL-rich properties from Birchill.

A successful development drilling program and well tie-ins during the second half of 2004 also contributed to the quarter over quarter volume growth. Drilling in the first quarter was at a moderate level with the emphasis on partner-operated wells and arresting production declines. Average production in 2005 is expected to be 19,500 – 20,000 boe/d.

Natural Gas

Shiningbank's realized natural gas prices remained flat in the first quarter averaging $7.03/mcf. Hedging increased the gas price by $0.04/mcf for the quarter compared with a hedging loss of $0.01/mcf in first quarter 2004. Futures prices remain high, with summer prices averaging over $7.40/mcf and the upcoming winter prices averaging over $8.50/mcf.

Oil and Natural Gas Liquids

Realized oil prices for the quarter averaged $56.25/bbl, up 42% from first quarter 2004. Hedging reduced the price by $0.37/bbl for the quarter compared with a hedging loss of $2.09/bbl in first quarter 2004.

The benchmark West Texas Intermediate ("WTI") price averaged 42% higher than in first quarter 2004, however strength in the Canadian dollar partially offset this increase. Oil prices continue to be exceptionally high, with futures prices averaging over $50.00/bbl for the remainder of 2005.

NGL prices were also strong, reflecting high oil prices. The average NGL price in first quarter 2005 was 28% higher than in first quarter 2004 at $45.91/bbl. NGL prices continue to average between 80 – 85% of realized pre-hedged oil prices.

Hedging

Shiningbank maintains an active hedging program designed to reduce the variability of cash flow and stabilize distributions. Under the Fund's hedging policy, not more than one-half of production volumes of any commodity can be hedged at any one time. Gains and losses from hedging activities are typically recorded when they are realized and are included in oil and natural gas sales unless a particular hedge is considered ineffective. Currently, Shiningbank has the following hedging contracts in place:

Period	Commodity	Volume	Price
April 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$5.00 /GJ floor $6.39/GJ ceiling

Royalty expense consists of royalties paid to provincial governments, freehold landowners and overriding royalty owners. The royalty rate increased in first quarter 2005 due to an adjustment related to prior periods regarding the Birchill acquisition. Excluding this one time adjustment, the royalty rate would have been 22.3%. The Fund expects rates to average 22.5% in 2005.

Transportation costs (000s)	$ 1,167	$ 1,335	(13)
Per boe	$ 0.65	$ 0.79	(18)

Transportation costs decreased 18% on a boe basis from first quarter 2004. The decrease was the result of lower pricing following the termination of certain transportation service commitments. These terminations are not expected to impact the Fund's ability to market production.

OPERATING COSTS

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Operating costs (000s)	$ 11,772	$ 11,106	6
Per boe	$ 6.53	$ 6.60	(1)

Operating costs on a boe basis were flat in first quarter 2005, decreasing 1% from first quarter 2004. Higher field and plant maintenance costs in most areas were offset by volume increases in some areas with lower operating costs. Operating costs are expected to average $7.00/boe in 2005.

OPERATING NETBACKS

($/boe)	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Oil and natural gas sales	$ 44.41	$ 41.40	7
Other income (loss)	0.04	(0.36)	(111)
Royalty expenses	(10.28)	(8.19)	26
Transportation expenses	(0.65)	(0.79)	(18)
Operating expenses	(6.53)	(6.60)	(1)
Operating netbacks	$ 26.99	$ 25.46	6

Operating netbacks increased 6% quarter over quarter due mainly to higher commodity prices which were partially offset by higher royalty expenses.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
General and administrative costs (000s)	$ 2,177	$ 1,547	41
Per boe	$ 1.21	$ 0.92	32
Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.04	$ 0.03	33

General and administrative costs increased on all metrics including on a per boe basis and per average Trust Unit. These increases were due to higher activity levels related to acquisitions, development activities and increasing costs for corporate governance from additional regulation. Costs are expected to average $1.25/boe in 2005.

INTEREST ON LONG TERM DEBT

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Interest on long term debt (000s)	$ 1,844	$ 1,471	25
Per boe	$ 1.02	$ 0.87	17
Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.03	$ 0.03	—

Interest expense, which includes bank charges, increased 25% from first quarter 2004 due to higher debt levels resulting from the funding of acquisitions and capital expenditures. Shiningbank is currently in compliance with all external debt covenants.

DEPLETION, DEPRECIATION AND ACCRETION

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Depletion, depreciation and accretion (000s)	$ 30,637	$ 25,648	19
Per boe	$ 16.99	$ 15.25	11

Depletion, depreciation and accretion rose 11% per boe for the first quarter. The increase was primarily related to expansion of the asset base from acquisitions made late in first quarter 2004 and associated future development costs.

TRUST UNIT INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Trust Unit incentive compensation (000s)	$ 615	$ 298	106
Per boe	$ 0.34	$ 0.18	89

During first quarter 2005, one new issue of Trust Unit rights was granted. The fair value of rights issued was determined using a Black-Scholes model, and will be brought into income over the vesting period of the rights. The total first quarter 2005 expense of $615,000 (2004 – $298,000) represented the fair value of rights issued during 2003 through to 2005 and which vested in first quarter 2005. All of these costs are “non-cash” costs and are not deducted in calculating distributions to unitholders.

INTERNALIZATION OF MANAGEMENT CONTRACT

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Internalization of management contract (000s)	$ 368	$ 734	(50)
Per boe	$ 0.20	$ 0.44	(55)

Effective October 9, 2002, the Fund internalized its management by acquiring all of the shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc., the former Manager of the Fund. Prior to the acquisition, the Fund paid fees of 3.25% of net operating income, a fee of 1.5% on the purchase price of acquisitions and a quarterly scheduled dividend in accordance with the terms of a management agreement. The acquisition eliminated all future fees and dividends.

Of the total purchase price of $20.6 million, $11.0 million was deferred, representing Exchangeable Shares subject to escrow provisions which are being amortized into income over specific vesting periods through 2007. During first quarter 2005, $368,000 (2004 – $734,000) was expensed, representing the amortization of these escrowed Exchangeable Shares.

TAXES

	Three months ended March 31,
	2005	2004	%
Capital and large corporation taxes (000s)	$ 129	$ 225	(43)
Future income tax recovery (000s)	$ (1,486)	$ (5,311)	(72)
Per boe	$ (0.75)	$ (3.02)	(75)

The Fund is obligated to pay provincial capital taxes and federal large corporations tax in its operating entities. Under the Fund's structure, payments are made between Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and the Fund. These payments provide the mechanism for transferring income to unitholders along with tax benefits and future tax liabilities. Current income taxes are not presently payable by the Fund or its operating entities.

NET EARNINGS

Shiningbank's first quarter earnings were $14.4 million or $0.26 per Trust Unit, basic and diluted. Earnings in first quarter 2004 were $18.8 million or $0.40 per Trust Unit ($0.39 diluted).

Distributions to unitholders for the quarter increased 8% over the same period in 2004 to $37.5 million. The increase was based on higher production volumes, large gains in pricing for oil and NGL and strong gas prices.

On a per Trust Unit basis, distributions were consistent in both periods at $0.69. The increase in the number of Trust Units outstanding offset the higher cash flow. The Fund paid out 84% of its first quarter cash flow compared with 88% in first quarter 2004.

Quarterly fluctuations are primarily the result of production increases due to acquisitions, the Fund's development drilling program and realized commodity prices which can be extremely volatile. Volume increases from acquisitions occurred in second quarter 2003 through the acquisition of assets at Ferrier/O'Chiese and again, in second quarter 2004 with the acquisition of Birchill.

Natural gas prices remained strong and relatively consistent through the eight quarters. Oil prices increased substantially in late 2004. With oil playing a small role in Shiningbank's overall revenues and with increased capital programs absorbing the extra cash flow, there was no change in distributions.

COSTS OF ACQUISITIONS AND DEVELOPMENT

A total of $14.5 million was spent on drilling and new facilities in first quarter 2005, compared with $11.0 million in the same period in 2004. Cash flow funded $7.0 million of these expenditures, with the balance funded by debt and proceeds from the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan. The capital program funded a successful development drilling program concentrated in the Ferrier/O'Chiese area and the completion and tie-in of those wells. Most expenditures in first quarter 2005 were associated with partner-operated activities. The Fund's drilling program will be more active in the summer and fall of 2005 when drilling costs are expected to be lower.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Shiningbank's ability to grow depends on access to bank lines of credit and periodic equity infusions. Smaller acquisitions through the course of a year are funded by bank debt. Equity is issued to fund single large acquisitions, or to pay down debt acquired following a number of smaller acquisitions. When the proceeds of an equity issue are greater than acquisition costs, the excess is used to reduce bank debt.

LONG TERM DEBT

The Fund has a $250 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of four Canadian chartered banks of which $178.7 million was drawn at March 31, 2005. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006, at which time the facility reverts to a two-year term with principal payments, if necessary, commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $300 million floating charge debenture on all assets of Shiningbank together with supporting debentures and guarantees from the Fund's operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the total debt to cash flow ratio or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee. At March 31, 2005 the debt to cash flow ratio was 1:1.

UNITHOLDERS' EQUITY

A total of 179,116 Trust Units were issued during the quarter under the Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan and under the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan.

When equity is raised, the intended use of proceeds is specified in the related prospectus. Each major equity issue has been undertaken to acquire properties or to reduce debt incurred from prior acquisitions. In all cases, the proceeds were used according to the purpose specified.

As of May 5, 2005, the Fund had 54,437,186 Trust Units, 263,482 non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares and 353,614 escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding. Exchangeable Shares held in escrow will be released over the next three years under the terms of two escrow agreements. Exchangeable Shares are not eligible for distributions until they are exchanged for Trust Units at the discretion of the holder. The exchange rate was initially one Trust Unit for each Exchangeable Share. The exchange rate increases with each distribution by an amount equal to the per unit distribution divided by the 10-day weighted average trading price of the Trust Units preceding the record date for that distribution. As of March 31, 2005, the exchange rate was 1 to 1.35755.

Shiningbank has ongoing capital commitments in the ordinary course of business for development drilling, equipment and facilities. These are funded through a combination of cash flow, debt financing and periodic equity financing.

IMPACT OF NEW ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NON-CONTROLLING INTEREST

On March 8, 2005, the Emerging Issues Committee of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants amended its position on the reporting of exchangeable securities issued by subsidiaries of income trusts. The amendment states that exchangeable securities issued by a subsidiary of an income trust should be reflected as either non-controlling interest or debt on the consolidated balance sheet unless they meet certain criteria. The amendment will take effect in the second quarter of 2005 and the changes may result in a restatement of 2004 earnings and comparable figures. It is not expected that these changes will have a material impact on the financial statements.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The Fund makes numerous accounting estimates in its financial statements in order to provide timely information to users. A critical accounting estimate is one that requires management to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate is made and, if a different estimate was used, financial results would be materially different. The following estimates are considered critical:

RESERVES

The Fund must estimate its reserves. Reserves are evaluated and reported on annually by independent petroleum reserve evaluators who use various subjective factors and assumptions, including forecasts of costs based on geological and engineering data, projected future rates of production, and timing and amounts of future development costs. Although reserves are estimated, management believes the estimates are reasonable based on information available at the time the estimates were prepared. Management, the Fund's internal engineers, and the Board's Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee all review and approve the estimates reported by the independent reserve evaluators.

As new information becomes available, changes are made to the reserve estimates and future development cost estimates. Historically, the Fund has had no significant changes to these estimates, with the exception of adjusting reserves for acquisitions and divestitures and the results of new drilling. Future actual results could vary greatly from the estimates made, resulting in material changes to the depletion calculation and asset impairment test.

ASSET RETIREMENT OBLIGATION

The Fund's estimated asset retirement obligation is based on estimated timing and costs to abandon and restore properties.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the periods ended March 31, 2005 and 2004

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The interim consolidated financial statements of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank" or the "Fund") have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and follow the same accounting principles and methods of computation as the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 unless otherwise disclosed. The disclosures provided below are incremental to those included with the annual consolidated financial statements. The interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto in Shiningbank's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2004.

2. LONG TERM DEBT

The Corporation has a $250 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of four Canadian chartered banks of which $178.7 million was drawn at March 31, 2005. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006. If the revolving facility is not renewed on that date, it will revert to a two year term with principal payments commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $300 million floating charge debenture on all assets of the Corporation together with supporting debentures and guarantees from operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the Fund's total debt to cash flow ratio, or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee.

(d) Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan

At March 31, 2005, there were 2,022,734 (2004 – 1,803,668) rights outstanding, of which 715,234 (2004 – 733,668) were exercisable at a weighted average exercise price of $13.41 (2004 – $13.60).

$10.00 to $21.50	2,022,734	8.5	$ 16.93	715,234	$ 13.41

Shiningbank recorded Trust Unit incentive compensation expense of $615,000 during the quarter (2004 – $298,000) for rights issued between 2003 and 2005, and which vested in first quarter 2005.

During the quarter, $199,000 (2004 – $89,000) of contributed surplus was transferred to Trust Unit equity in respect of rights exercised during the period.

The following table reconciles the movement in the contributed surplus balance:

Contributed surplus	Amount (000s)
Balance, December 31, 2004	$ 1,416
Trust Unit incentive compensation	615
Net benefit on rights exercised ¹	(199)
Balance, March 31, 2005	$ 1,832

¹ Upon exercise, the net benefit is reflected as a reduction of contributed surplus and an increase to Unitholders' capital.

The $3.3 million fair value of the 717,500 rights issued during the quarter was estimated using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 4.21%, volatility of 60%, life of 10 years, and a distribution yield rate of 10% representing the difference between the anticipated distribution and the anticipated drop in the strike price. Users are cautioned that the assumptions made are estimates of future events and actual results could differ materially from those estimated.

For rights issued in 2002, Shiningbank has elected to disclose the pro forma effect as if the amended accounting standard had been adopted January 1, 2002. The rights granted on January 1, 2002 fully vested on January 1, 2005 and therefore, no Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights would have been recorded during the quarter. For the quarter ended March 31, 2004, Shiningbank's net income would have decreased by $127,000 due to additional Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights. Neither basic nor diluted per Trust Unit figures would have changed as a result of this additional expense.

(e) Per Trust Unit amounts

For the three months ended March 31, 2005, the weighted average number of Trust Units and non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding was 54,614,166 (2004 – 46,938,326). In computing diluted net earnings per Trust Unit, the dilutive effect of Trust Unit rights and escrowed Exchangeable Shares added 1,253,690 Trust Units (2004 – 752,148) to the weighted average number of Trust Units outstanding.

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SHININGBANK ENERGY INCOME FUND AND BLIZZARD ENERGY INC. JOINTLY ANNOUNCE PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank") and Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") are pleased to announce that they have entered into an agreement under which Shiningbank will acquire the majority of Blizzard's natural gas assets pursuant to a Plan of Arrangement (the "Plan"). Under the Plan, certain Blizzard producing assets and undeveloped land in the Grande Prairie and northeast British Columbia areas will be transferred to a new exploration-focused producer ("Exploreco"). Exploreco will be managed by the current management team and Board of Directors of Blizzard.

Pursuant to the Plan, Blizzard shareholders will receive 0.0777 Trust Units of Shiningbank, $0.4097 cash, one common share of Exploreco and 0.211 of an Exploreco transaction warrant for each Blizzard common share. Each whole Exploreco transaction warrant entitles the holder to acquire an additional share of Exploreco at the current estimated asset value for 30 days after closing.

"This transaction fits with Shiningbank's strategy of focusing on long-life natural gas assets with substantial multi-zone development potential", said David Fitzpatrick, President and CEO of Shiningbank. "As a result of the transaction, Shiningbank will add 4,600 boe/d of natural gas production in two concentrated core areas with an attractive portfolio of drilling opportunities. The transaction is expected to be accretive to Shiningbank on all key measures."

John Rooney, President and CEO of Blizzard, added "the transaction represents an excellent opportunity to create value for Blizzard shareholders. In addition to receiving a cash payment, Blizzard shareholders will receive units in Shiningbank, a $1.3 billion gas-weighted energy trust. Blizzard shareholders will also receive shares and warrants in Exploreco, a high-growth junior producer with highly prospective assets in Blizzard's Grande Prairie and northeast British Columbia core areas."

The Plan has the unanimous support of the boards of directors of both Shiningbank and Blizzard. The Officers and Directors and certain employees of Blizzard, holding collectively approximately 14% of the fully diluted shares, have agreed to vote in favour of the Plan. CIBC World Markets Inc. is acting as financial advisor to Shiningbank in connection with the transaction. Orion Securities Inc. and Waterous Securities Inc. are acting as financial advisors to Blizzard. In addition, Canaccord Capital Corporation, GMP Securities Ltd. and Salman Partners Inc. are acting as strategic advisors to Blizzard and Exploreco in connection with the transaction.

Impact of the Transaction on Shiningbank

Under the Plan, Shiningbank will acquire an attractive suite of long-life natural gas properties concentrated in the Peace River Arch area near Grande Prairie and the Sousa area of north-western Alberta. The majority of the properties are operated and are characterized by high working interests, low operating costs and high field netbacks. The current production of these properties is 4,600 barrels of oil equivalent per day (boe/d), approximately 95% of which is natural gas. The addition of the Blizzard properties adds two new core areas to Shiningbank's operations including the Peace River Arch, which is a logical extension of Shiningbank's existing west-central natural gas focused operations. Significant undeveloped acreage in the two key areas will provide substantial additional low-risk development opportunities over the next several years, which Shiningbank expects to exploit to enhance production volumes and reserves.

Transaction highlights:

- The transaction is expected to be accretive to Shiningbank's cash flow, net asset value, production and reserves on a per unit basis;
- The transaction results in the addition of 4,600 boe/d of low cost natural gas production to Shiningbank's portfolio, increasing Shiningbank's overall natural gas weighting to 78% and improving overall unit operating costs and netbacks;
- Proved plus probable reserves to be acquired by Shiningbank are estimated at 16.0 million barrels of oil equivalent (95% natural gas), as at March 31, 2005, which reserves estimates are based on the year-end reserve evaluation by an independent engineering firm, plus Shiningbank's estimate of reserves added through first quarter 2005 exploration and development drilling activity;
- Approximately 70% of the acquired reserves are proved and 88% of the proved plus probable reserves are developed;
- The proved plus probable reserve life index of the acquired properties is 9.5 years, which is consistent with Shiningbank's reserve life index; and
- Shiningbank will also add approximately 265,000 net acres of undeveloped lands valued at approximately $30 million, which more than doubles Shiningbank's current undeveloped land position.

Based on a total acquisition cost of $275 million, including the assumption of a $42.0 million debt and working capital deficiency, the acquisition metrics of the transaction are as follows:

- Reserve acquisition metrics of $17.19/boe of proved plus probable reserves ($15.31/boe net of $30 million attributed to undeveloped land) and excluding estimated future development costs of $14.7 million
- Production acquisition cost of $59,780/boe/d ($52,261/boe/d net of the value of undeveloped land) and excluding estimated future development costs
- Anticipated 2005 annualized cash flow (assuming C$7.00/mcf AECO natural gas and US$45.00/bbl WTI) of $48.4 million
- Cash flow multiple of 5.7 times

Impact of the Transaction on Blizzard

Pursuant to the Plan, shareholders of Blizzard will receive cash, units of Shiningbank, shares of Exploreco and Exploreco transaction warrants, thereby allowing them to continue to participate both in the existing production base built by Blizzard and in the exploration opportunities created by that management team through an investment in Exploreco.

Blizzard believes that the transaction will enhance value for its shareholders through:

- Equity participation in one of the premier natural gas weighted trusts in the oil and gas royalty trust sector, which will allow continuing participation in the strength of natural gas prices and will deliver an attractive stream of cash distributions;
- Monetization of a portion of their investment in Blizzard at an attractive valuation;
- Participation in a high growth exploration-focused producer with a sizeable prospect inventory.

Exploreco will have approximately 400 boe/d of production primarily within the Grande Prairie area, along with over 17,000 net acres of land. In addition, Exploreco will acquire Blizzard's interest in a joint venture agreement with a major E&P company encompassing 160,000 acres in northeast British Columbia. This past winter a 40 square mile 3D seismic program was run over this area and several stratigraphic wells were drilled which confirmed a significant natural gas resource opportunity.

Based on independent reserve evaluations, Exploreco will have a net asset value of $28.8 million or $0.25/share comprised of $14.4 million for reserves, $4.3 million for undeveloped land, $2.5 million for seismic and $7.5 million for the joint venture opportunity in northeast British Columbia.

Exploreco will be managed by the current executives of Blizzard and will be led by John Rooney as President and CEO, Mike Machalski as COO and Hal Metcalfe as CFO. In addition to John Rooney, the Board of Directors will include Jim Artindale (Chairman), Larry Evans, Dave MacKenzie, George Watson, Frank Guidolin, Doug Manner and Bob Rooney. John Rooney and the current management team of Blizzard have generated a return of over 200% to shareholders of Blizzard since inception in December, 2003.

A private placement of shares of Explorecoco will be made available to the Blizzard directors and employees raising maximum proceeds of $6 million, while an additional $6 million may be raised through the exercise of Explorecoco transaction warrants. Explorecoco will be debt free and well positioned to aggressively pursue and expand its asset base and certain exploratory initiatives, which are currently underway.

Plan of Arrangement

An information circular detailing the Plan is anticipated to be mailed to Blizzard shareholders by the end of June. A meeting of Blizzard shareholders to consider the Plan will occur in early August. The Plan will require the approval of 66 2/3 percent of the votes cast by the shareholders, optionholders and warrant holders of Blizzard, voting as a single class, the approval of the majority of shareholders, excluding directors and officers of Blizzard and the approval of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta and certain regulatory agencies. In addition, Blizzard has agreed that it will not solicit or initiate discussions or negotiations with any third party for any business combination involving Blizzard. Under certain circumstances, Shiningbank and Blizzard have agreed to pay non-completion fees in the event that the transaction is not completed.

Orion Securities Inc. has advised the Board of Directors of Blizzard that it is of the opinion that the consideration to be received by Blizzard shareholders pursuant to the Plan is fair from a financial point of view to Blizzard shareholders.

Conference Call

A joint conference call is planned to discuss this transaction in more detail on Tuesday June 7 at 2:30 pm MDT (4:30pm EDT). Callers may dial 1-800-298-3006 to participate in the call. A taped recording will be available until June 14 by dialing 1-800-558-5253 and using the passcode 21248753#.

1.9 Exhibits

The following exhibits attached hereto are incorporated into and form an integral part of this Agreement:

- A.I – Plan of Arrangement (Form I)
- A.II – Plan of Arrangement (Form II)
- B – Form of ExploreCo Conveyance Agreement
- C – Terms of ExploreCo Private Placement and ExploreCo Incentive Plans

ARTICLE 2 THE ARRANGEMENT

2.1 Plan of Arrangement

Blizzard will forthwith file, proceed with and diligently prosecute an application for an Interim Order providing for, among other things, the calling and holding of the Blizzard Meeting for the purpose of considering and, if deemed advisable, approving the Arrangement Resolution. Provided all necessary approvals for the Arrangement Resolution are obtained from the Blizzard Securityholders, Blizzard shall submit the Arrangement to the Court and apply for the Final Order. Upon issuance of the Final Order and subject to the conditions precedent in Article 5, Blizzard shall forthwith proceed to file the Articles of Arrangement, the Final Order and such other documents as may be required to give effect to the Arrangement with the Registrar pursuant to Subsection 193(9) of the ABCA, whereupon the transactions comprising the Arrangement shall occur and shall be deemed to have occurred in the order set out therein without any act or formality.

2.2 Interim Order

The Interim Order shall provide that:

- (a) the securities of Blizzard for which holders shall be entitled to vote on the Arrangement Resolution shall be the Blizzard Shares, the Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants;
- (b) the Blizzard Shareholders, the Blizzard Optionholders and the Blizzard Warrantholders shall be entitled to vote on the Arrangement Resolution together as a single class, and not as separate classes, with each Blizzard Shareholder being entitled to one vote for each Blizzard Share held by such holder, each Blizzard Optionholder being entitled to one vote for each Blizzard Share issuable pursuant to the Blizzard Options held by such holder and each Blizzard Warrantholder being entitled to one vote for each Blizzard Share issuable pursuant to the Blizzard Warrants held by such holder; and

- (c) the requisite majority for the approval of the Arrangement Resolution shall be: (i) 66 2/3% of the votes cast by the Blizzard Securityholders present in person or by proxy at the Blizzard Meeting, voting together as a single class, and not as separate classes; and (ii) a majority of the votes cast by the Blizzard Shareholders, after excluding the votes cast by those persons whose votes must be excluded pursuant to Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501 or similar rules in Quebec (Q-27).

2.3 Information Circulars and Meetings

As promptly as practicable following the execution of this Agreement and in compliance with the Interim Order and applicable corporate and securities laws:

- (a) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall prepare the Shiningbank Information for inclusion in the Blizzard Information Circular; and
- (b) Blizzard shall:
- (i) prepare the Blizzard Information Circular and cause such circular to be mailed to the Blizzard Securityholders and filed with applicable regulatory authorities and other governmental authorities in all jurisdictions where the same are required to be mailed and filed; and
 - (ii) convene the Blizzard Meeting.

2.4 Effective Time

The Arrangement shall become effective at the Effective Time.

2.5 ExploreCo

Prior to the mailing of the Blizzard Information Circular, Blizzard shall, in its discretion:

- (a) pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement substantially in the form set forth as Exhibit A.I hereto, cause a new corporation to be incorporated under the ABCA for the purposes of acquiring the ExploreCo Assets; or
- (b) in its sole discretion, choose the Plan of Arrangement substantially in the form set forth as Exhibit A.II hereto and designate a company to acquire the ExploreSubCo Assets; provided that, in the event that Blizzard chooses the alternative set forth in (b) above, Blizzard shall provide notice of such election to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy not later than 96 hours prior to mailing of the Blizzard Information Circular along with reasonable details in respect of the company to participate in the Come-Along Agreement. In such event, Blizzard shall further provide Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy the opportunity to comment on the terms of the Come-Along Agreement and the company so designated for a period of time equal to one-half of the time remaining from the time that Blizzard provides notice of the election in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.5 to the date of mailing of the Blizzard Information Circular, such comments to be given serious consideration by Blizzard.

Subsequent to the mailing of the Blizzard Information Circular and at any time prior to the Effective Time, Blizzard may, at its sole discretion, elect to proceed with the company described in section 1.1(cc)(ii) in Exhibit A.II. hereto and shall provide the required information for such election in the Blizzard Information Circular.

2.6 ExploreCo Employees

ExploreCo shall make offers of employment to the ExploreCo Employees effective at the Effective Time. All such offers shall be conditional upon each such employee executing releases, in a form satisfactory to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, releasing Blizzard from all obligations to such employees whatsoever, other than: (a) Blizzard's obligations under written change of control agreements previously disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy; (b) Blizzard's obligations under retention arrangements or bonuses included in the amount specified in Section 3.2(e); (c) any right of indemnity under Blizzard's by-laws or indemnity agreements previously disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy; and (d) any right for directors and officers insurance currently in place or put in place pursuant to Section 5.1(g).

2.7 ExploreCo Private Placement and ExploreCo Incentive Plans

- (a) Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, prior to the completion of the Arrangement, ExploreCo (or another newly incorporated company which shall become a subsidiary of ExploreCo pursuant to the Arrangement) may complete the ExploreCo Private Placement.
- (b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement and to receipt of all necessary approvals, ExploreCo may adopt the ExploreCo Incentive Plans.

2.8 Blizzard Shareholder Tax Election Forms

Shiningbank agrees to cause Blizzard or its successor to execute tax election forms T2057 or T2058 in respect of the Arrangement for Blizzard Shareholders provided that:

- (a) such Blizzard Shareholder notifies Blizzard at least five business days prior to the Effective Date that such Blizzard Shareholder wishes to file a T2057 or T2058 in respect of the Arrangement;
- (b) such forms are properly prepared and have all applicable sections of the applicable election forms duly and properly filled out;
- (c) such forms are hand delivered, couriered or sent via registered mail to Blizzard's registered office on or before the Effective Date; and
- (d) each such Blizzard Shareholder has signed a release in form satisfactory to Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, regarding the tax consequences of such election and has provided Blizzard such release by hand delivery, courier or registered mail at Blizzard's registered office on or prior to the Effective Date.

2.9 Completion of Transactions

Blizzard shall cause ExploreCo to complete the transactions contemplated herein and in the Plan of Arrangement or shall negotiate covenants from ExploreCo in the Come Along Agreement to complete the transactions contemplated herein and in the Plan of Arrangement.

ARTICLE 3 COVENANTS

3.1 Covenants of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy

From the date hereof until the Effective Date or termination of this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of Blizzard (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), and except as otherwise expressly permitted or specifically contemplated by this Agreement:

- (a) Shiningbank shall keep Blizzard apprised of all material developments relating to the ongoing business and affairs of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries;
- (b) Shiningbank shall not directly or indirectly do or permit to occur any of the following: (i) amend its constating documents (including the Trust Indenture) in a manner materially adverse to the consideration to be received by Blizzard Securityholders; (ii) declare, set aside or pay any distribution or payment (whether in cash, shares or property) in respect of its outstanding Shiningbank Units except in an amount not greater than in accordance with Shiningbank current distribution policy; (iii) split, combine or reclassify any of its Shiningbank Units unless the Arrangement is amended upon the same terms and conditions; (iv) adopt a plan of liquidation or resolutions providing for the liquidation, dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of Shiningbank; or (vii) enter into or modify any contract, agreement, commitment or arrangement with respect to any of the foregoing;
- (c) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall not take any action that would render, or may reasonably be expected to render, any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement untrue in any material respect at any time prior to completion of the Arrangement or termination of this Agreement, whichever first occurs;
- (d) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall promptly notify Blizzard in writing of any material change (actual, anticipated, contemplated or, to the knowledge of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy threatened, financial or otherwise) in its business, operations, affairs, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Shiningbank or of any change in any representation or warranty provided by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in this Agreement which change is or may be of such a nature to render any representation or warranty misleading or untrue in any material respect and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall in good faith discuss with Blizzard any change in circumstances (actual, anticipated, contemplated, or to the knowledge of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy threatened) which is of such a nature that there may be a reasonable question as to whether notice need to be given to Blizzard pursuant to this provision;
- (e) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall use their reasonable commercial efforts to satisfy or cause satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 5.1 and 5.3 as soon as reasonably possible to the extent that the satisfaction of the same is within the control of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy;
- (f) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will ensure that the Shiningbank Information provides Blizzard Securityholders with information in sufficient detail to permit them to form a reasoned judgment concerning the matters before them and shall include, without limitation, any financial statements in respect of prior acquisitions made by it that are required to be included therein in accordance with Applicable Laws;

- (g) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will assist Blizzard in the preparation of the Blizzard Information Circular and provide to Blizzard, in a timely and expeditious manner, all information as may be reasonably requested by Blizzard with respect to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy for inclusion in the Blizzard Information Circular and any amendments or supplements thereto, in each case complying in all material respects with all applicable legal requirements on the date of issue thereof;
- (h) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall indemnify and save harmless Blizzard and the directors, officers and agents of Blizzard from and against any and all liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses (excluding any loss of profits or consequential damages) to which Blizzard, or any director, officer or agent thereof, may be subject or which Blizzard, or any director, officer or agent thereof may suffer, whether under the provisions of any statute or otherwise, in any way caused by, or arising, directly or indirectly, from or in consequence of:
 - (i) any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation in the Shiningbank Information or in any material filed by or on behalf of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in compliance or intended compliance with any Applicable Laws;
 - (ii) any order made or any inquiry, investigation or proceeding by any securities commission or other competent authority based upon any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission of a material fact or any misrepresentation or any alleged misrepresentation in the Shiningbank Information or in any material filed by or on behalf of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in compliance or intended compliance with Applicable Laws, which prevents or restricts the trading in the Shiningbank Units; and
 - (iii) Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy not complying with any requirement of Applicable Laws in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement;

except that Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses arise out of or are based upon any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation of a material fact based solely on the Blizzard Information included in the Shiningbank Information or the negligence of Blizzard;

- (i) except for non-substantive communications, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will furnish promptly to Blizzard or Blizzard's counsel, a copy of each notice, report, schedule or other document delivered, filed or received by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in connection with: (i) the Arrangement; (ii) any filings under Applicable Laws; and (iii) any dealings with regulatory agencies in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby;
- (j) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will make all necessary filings and applications under Canadian federal and provincial and U.S. laws and regulations required to be made on the part of Shiningbank in connection with the transactions contemplated herein and shall take all reasonable action necessary to be in compliance with such laws and regulations;
- (k) subject to the specific provisions of this Agreement, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall take all necessary actions to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Arrangement; and
- (l) Shiningbank will take all necessary steps to maintain its status as a "mutual fund trust" for the purposes of Section 132 of the Tax Act.

- (m) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall not issue, agree to issue or announce intentions to issue additional Shiningbank Units at a price less than the ascribed price per unit offered to Blizzard Securityholders pursuant to the Arrangement other than pursuant to existing commitments disclosed in the Public Record of Shiningbank, pursuant to the distribution reinvestment plan of Shiningbank or pursuant to the trust unit rights incentive plan of Shiningbank.

3.2 Covenants of Blizzard

From the date hereof until the Effective Date or termination of this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), and except as otherwise expressly permitted or specifically contemplated by this Agreement:

- (a) Blizzard's business shall be conducted only in the usual and ordinary course of business consistent with past practices (for greater certainty, where it is an operator of any property, it shall operate and maintain such property in a proper and prudent manner in accordance with good industry practice and the agreements governing the ownership and operation of such property), Blizzard shall consult with Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in respect of the ongoing business and affairs of Blizzard and keep Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy apprised of all material developments relating thereto and Blizzard shall carry out its transitional capital spending program as set forth in its May 26, 2005 capital budget, a copy of which has been provided to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, in a diligent and timely manner consistent with past practices;
- (b) Blizzard shall not directly or indirectly do or permit to occur any of the following: (i) amend its constating documents; (ii) declare, set aside or pay any dividend or other distribution or payment (whether in cash, shares or property) in respect of its outstanding shares; (iii) issue (other than on exercise of currently outstanding Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants), grant, sell or pledge or agree to issue, grant, sell or pledge any shares of Blizzard, or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for, or otherwise evidencing a right to acquire, shares of Blizzard; (iv) redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire any of its outstanding shares or other securities, except as permitted pursuant to the terms thereof or as permitted in accordance with the terms hereunder; (v) split, combine or reclassify any of its shares; (vi) adopt a plan of liquidation or resolutions providing for the liquidation, dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of Blizzard; or (vii) enter into or modify any contract, agreement, commitment or arrangement with respect to any of the foregoing;
- (c) Blizzard will not, directly or indirectly, do any of the following other than pursuant to transactions contemplated herein or pursuant to commitments entered into prior to the date of this Agreement and disclosed to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in writing or otherwise without the prior consent of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld: (i) sell, pledge, dispose of or encumber any assets except for production in the ordinary course of business, for a consideration in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate; (ii) expend or commit to expend amounts in respect of capital or operating expenses in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate ($nil in respect of the ExploreCo Assets and the ExploreSubCo Assets, as applicable) excluding expenditures specified in Blizzard's May 26, 2005 budget as disclosed to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy which for greater certainty, shall not be subject to the foregoing covenant set forth in this Section 3.2(c); (iii) reorganize, amalgamate, merge or otherwise continue Blizzard with any other person, corporation, partnership or other business organization whatsoever; (iv) acquire (by merger,

- amalgamation, consolidation or acquisition of shares or assets) any corporation, partnership or other business organization or division thereof, or, except for investments in securities made in the ordinary course of business, make any investment either by purchase of shares or securities, contributions of capital (other than to subsidiaries), property transfer, or, except in the ordinary course of business, purchase of any property or assets of any other individual or entity, in each case having a value in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate ($nil in respect of the ExploreCo Assets and the ExploreSubCo Assets, as applicable); (v) incur any indebtedness for borrowed money or any other material liability or obligation or issue any debt securities or assume, guarantee, endorse or otherwise as an accommodation become responsible for, the obligation of any other individual or entity, or make any loans or advances, except in the ordinary course of business or otherwise in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate ($nil in respect of the ExploreCo Assets and the ExploreSubCo Assets, as applicable); (vi) pay, discharge or satisfy any material claims, liabilities or obligations other than as disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy prior to the entering into of this Agreement or reflected or reserved against in the Blizzard Financial Statements or otherwise in the ordinary course of business; (vii) enter into any hedges, swaps or other financial instruments or like transactions; (viii) enter into any agreements for the sale of production having a term of more than thirty (30) days; (ix) enter into any consulting or contract operating agreement that cannot be terminated on thirty (30) days or less notice without penalty; (x) terminate the employment of any employee; or (xi) authorize or propose any of the foregoing, or enter into or modify any contract, agreement, commitment or arrangement to do any of the foregoing, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Blizzard shall not be restricted from any such activities in an emergency situation involving health, safety or the environment and, in such circumstances, Blizzard shall provide notice to Shiningbank Energy of such activities as soon as reasonably practical;
- (d) Blizzard shall not adopt or amend or make any contribution to any bonus, profit sharing, option, pension, retirement, deferred compensation, insurance, incentive compensation, other compensation or other similar plan, agreement or arrangements for the benefit of employees, except as is necessary (i) to comply with the law or with respect to existing provisions or payment accruals of any such plans, programs, arrangements or agreements; (ii) to accelerate vesting of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants; or (iii) to accelerate release from trust of the founders' shares as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements;
- (e) Blizzard shall not grant any officer, director, employee or consultant an increase in compensation in any form or take any action with respect to the amendment or grant of any severance or termination pay policies or arrangements for any directors, officers, employees or consultants, nor adopt or amend (other than to permit accelerated vesting of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants or to accelerate release from trust of the founders' shares as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements) or make any contribution to any bonus, profit-sharing, option, pension, retirement, deferred compensation, insurance, incentive compensation, other compensation or other similar plan from a trust fund or arrangement for the benefit of directors, officers, employees or consultants, except as is necessary to comply with the law or with respect to provisions or payment accruals of any such plans, programs, arrangements or agreements or to accelerate vesting of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants or to accelerate release from trust of the founders' shares as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements, which exceptions shall not exceed $2 million in the aggregate;
- (f) Blizzard shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to cause its current insurance (or re-insurance) policies not to be cancelled or terminated or any of the coverage thereunder to lapse, unless simultaneously with such termination, cancellation or lapse, replacement policies underwritten by insurance or re-insurance companies of nationally recognized standing providing coverage equal to or greater than the coverage under the cancelled, terminated or lapsed policies for substantially similar premiums are in full force and effect;

- (g) except to permit the early vesting of all Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants, no amendments shall be made to outstanding Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants without the prior written consent of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy;
- (h) Blizzard shall not take any action that would render, or may reasonably be expected to render, any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement untrue in any material respect at any time prior to completion of the Arrangement or termination of this Agreement, whichever first occurs;
- (i) Blizzard shall promptly notify Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in writing of any material change (actual, anticipated, contemplated or, to the knowledge of Blizzard threatened, financial or otherwise) in its business, operations, affairs, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Blizzard or of any change in any representation or warranty provided by Blizzard in this Agreement which change is or may be of such a nature as to render any representation or warranty misleading or untrue in any material respect and Blizzard shall in good faith discuss with Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy any change in circumstances (actual, anticipated, contemplated, or to the knowledge of Blizzard threatened) which is of such a nature that there may be a reasonable question as to whether notice need be given to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy pursuant to this provision;
- (j) Blizzard shall ensure that it has available funds under its lines of credit or other bank facilities to permit the payment of the amount which may be required by Section 6.1 having regard to its other liabilities and obligations, and shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that it maintains such availability to ensure that it is able to pay such amount when required;
- (k) Blizzard shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to obtain the consent of its bankers and any other third party consents required for the transactions contemplated hereby and provide the same to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy on or prior to the Effective Date;
- (l) Blizzard shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to satisfy or cause satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 5.1 and 5.2 as soon as reasonably possible to the extent that the satisfaction of the same is within the control of Blizzard;
- (m) Blizzard shall provide notice to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the Blizzard Meeting and allow Shiningbank's and Shiningbank Energy's representatives to attend such meeting;
- (n) Blizzard will ensure that the Blizzard Information Circular provides Blizzard Securityholders with information in sufficient detail to permit them to form a reasoned judgment concerning the matters before them, and will set out the Shiningbank Information in the Blizzard Information Circular in the form approved by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and shall include, without limitation; (i) any financial statements in respect of prior acquisitions made by it that are required to be included therein in accordance with Applicable Laws; and (ii) the unanimous determination of the members of the board of directors of Blizzard that the Arrangement is fair from a financial point of view to Blizzard Securityholders, is in the best interests of Blizzard and Blizzard Securityholders, and include the unanimous recommendation of the members of the board of directors of Blizzard that the Blizzard Securityholders vote in favour of the Arrangement

Resolution, provided that, notwithstanding the covenants of Blizzard in this subsection, prior to the completion of the Arrangement, the board of directors of Blizzard may withdraw, modify or change the recommendation regarding the Arrangement if, in the opinion of such board of directors acting reasonably, having received the advice of its outside legal counsel which is reflected in minutes of the meeting of the board of directors, such withdrawal, modification or change is required to act in a manner consistent with the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of Blizzard and, if applicable, provided the board of directors shall have complied with the provisions of Sections 3.4 and 6.1;

- (o) Blizzard shall indemnify and save harmless Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and the directors, officers and agents of Shiningbank Energy from and against any and all liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses (excluding any loss of profits or consequential damages) to which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, or any director, officer or agent thereof, may be subject or which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, or any director, officer or agent thereof may suffer, whether under the provisions of any statute or otherwise, in any way caused by, or arising, directly or indirectly, from or in consequence of:
 - (i) any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation in the Blizzard Information Circular or in any material filed in compliance or intended compliance with any Applicable Laws;
 - (ii) any order made or any inquiry, investigation or proceeding by any securities commission or other competent authority based upon any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission of a material fact or any misrepresentation or any alleged misrepresentation in the Blizzard Information Circular or in any material filed by or on behalf of Blizzard in compliance or intended compliance with Applicable Laws, which prevents or restricts the trading in the Blizzard Shares; and
 - (iii) Blizzard not complying with any requirement of Applicable Laws in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement;

except that Blizzard shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses arise out of or are based upon any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation of a material fact based solely on the Shiningbank Information included in the Blizzard Information Circular or the negligence of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy;

- (p) except for proxies and other non-substantive communications with securityholders, Blizzard will furnish promptly to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or Shiningbank's counsel, a copy of each notice, report, schedule or other document delivered, filed or received by Blizzard from securityholders or regulatory agencies in connection with: (i) the Arrangement; (ii) the Blizzard Meeting; (iii) any filings under Applicable Laws; and (iv) any dealings with regulatory agencies in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby;
- (q) Blizzard shall solicit proxies to be voted at the Blizzard Meeting in favour of matters to be considered at the Blizzard Meeting, including the Arrangement Resolution;
- (r) Blizzard shall conduct the Blizzard Meeting in accordance with the by-laws of Blizzard and any instrument governing the Blizzard Meeting (including, without limitation, the Interim Order), as applicable, and as otherwise required by law;

- (s) Blizzard will make all necessary filings and applications under Canadian federal and provincial and U.S. laws and regulations required to be made on the part of Blizzard in connection with the transactions contemplated herein and shall take all reasonable action necessary to be in compliance with such laws and regulations;
- (t) in the event that dissent rights are given to Blizzard Securityholders under the terms of the Interim Order, Blizzard shall promptly advise Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the number of Blizzard Securities for which Blizzard receives notices of dissent or written objections to the Arrangement and provide Shiningbank with copies of such notices and written objections; and
- (u) subject to the specific provisions of this Agreement, Blizzard shall take all necessary actions to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Arrangement.

3.3 Mutual Covenants Regarding the Arrangement

From the date hereof until the Effective Date, each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard will use its reasonable commercial efforts to satisfy (or cause the satisfaction of) the conditions precedent to its obligations hereunder and to take, or cause to be taken, all other actions and to do, or cause to be done, all other things necessary, proper or advisable under Applicable Laws to complete the Arrangement, including using reasonable efforts:

- (a) to obtain all necessary waivers, consents and approvals required to be obtained by it from other parties to loan agreements, leases and other contracts;
- (b) to obtain all necessary consents, assignments, waivers and amendments to or terminations of any instruments and take such measures as may be appropriate to fulfill its obligations hereunder and to carry out the transactions contemplated hereby; and
- (c) to effect all necessary registrations and filings and submissions of information requested by governmental authorities required to be effected by it in connection with the Arrangement, and each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard will use its reasonable commercial efforts to cooperate with the other in connection with the performance by the other of their obligations under this Section 3.3 including, without limitation, continuing to provide reasonable access to information and to maintain ongoing communications as between representatives of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, subject in all cases to the Confidentiality Agreement.

3.4 Blizzard's Covenants Regarding Non-Solicitation

- (a) Blizzard shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions and negotiations (including, without limitation, through any advisors or other parties on its behalf), if any, with any parties conducted before the date of this Agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and shall immediately request the return or destruction of all information provided to any third parties which have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such party relating to an Acquisition Proposal and shall use all reasonable commercial efforts to ensure that such requests are honoured.
- (b) Blizzard shall not, directly or indirectly, do or authorize or permit any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it to do, any of the following:

- (i) solicit, facilitate, initiate or encourage any Acquisition Proposal;
- (ii) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion regarding an Acquisition Proposal, or furnish to any other person any information with respect to its business, properties, operations, prospects or conditions (financial or otherwise) in connection with an Acquisition Proposal or otherwise cooperate in any way with, or assist or participate in, facilitate or encourage, any effort or attempt of any other person to do or seek to do any of the foregoing;
- (iii) waive, or otherwise forbear in the enforcement of, or enter into or participate in any discussions, negotiations or agreements to waive or otherwise forbear in respect of, any rights or other benefits under confidential information agreements, including, without limitation, any "standstill provisions" thereunder; or
- (iv) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement an Acquisition Proposal, provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision hereof, Blizzard and its officers, directors and advisers may:

- (v) enter into or participate in discussions or negotiations regarding ExploreCo or the ExploreCo Assets or ExploreSubCo Assets, as applicable provided that no binding agreement regarding ExploreCo or the ExploreCo Assets or ExploreSubCo Assets, as applicable, is entered into until after the Effective Date;
- (vi) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion with a third party which (without any solicitation, initiation or encouragement, directly or indirectly, after the date of this Agreement, by Blizzard or any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it) seeks to initiate such negotiations or discussions and, subject to execution of a confidentiality agreement substantially similar to the Confidentiality Agreement (provided that such confidentiality agreement shall provide for disclosure thereof (along with all information provided thereunder) to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy as set out below), may furnish to such third party information concerning Blizzard and its business, properties and assets, in each case if, and only to the extent that:
 - (A) the third party has first made a written bona fide Acquisition Proposal which the board of directors of Blizzard determines in good faith: (1) that funds or other consideration necessary for the Acquisition Proposal are or are likely to be available; (2) (after consultation with its financial advisor) would, if consummated in accordance with its terms, result in a transaction financially superior for securityholders of Blizzard as compared to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement; and (3) after receiving the advice of outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharge of its fiduciary duties under Applicable Laws (a "Superior Proposal"); and
 - (B) prior to furnishing such information to or entering into or participating in any such negotiations or initiating any discussions with such third party, Blizzard provides prompt notice to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy to the effect that it is furnishing information to or entering into or participating in discussions or negotiations with such person or entity together with a copy of the confidentiality agreement referenced above and if not previously provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such third party concurrently with the provision of such information to such third party, and provided further that, Blizzard shall notify Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy orally and in writing of any inquiries, offers or proposals with respect to a Superior Proposal (which written notice shall include, without limitation, a summary of the details of such proposal (and any amendments or supplements thereto), the identity of the person making it (unless the Superior Proposal is an all cash offer), if not previously provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such party and all other information reasonably requested by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy), within 24 hours of the receipt thereof, shall keep Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy informed of the status and details of any such inquiry, offer or proposal and answer Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy's questions with respect thereto;

- (vii) comply with Section 172 of the Securities Act (Alberta) and similar provisions under applicable Canadian securities laws relating to the provision of directors' circulars and make appropriate disclosure with respect thereto to its securityholders; and
 - (viii) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement a Superior Proposal from a third party, but only if prior to such acceptance, recommendation, approval or implementation, its board of directors shall have concluded in good faith, after considering all proposals to adjust the terms and conditions of this Agreement and after receiving the advice of financial advisors and outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharging its fiduciary duties under Applicable Laws and Blizzard complies with its obligations set forth in Section 3.4(c) and terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(d) and concurrently therewith pays the amount required by Section 6.1.
- (c) If Blizzard receives a Superior Proposal it shall give Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, orally and in writing, at least two Business Days advance notice of any decision by its board of directors to accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement a Superior Proposal, which notice shall include a summary of the details of the Superior Proposal including the identity of the third party making the Superior Proposal.
 - (d) Each Party agrees that all information that may be provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy by Blizzard with respect to any Superior Proposal pursuant to this Section 3.4 shall be treated as if it were "Evaluation Material" as that term is defined in the Confidentiality Agreement and shall not be disclosed or used except in accordance with the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement or in order to enforce its rights under this Agreement in legal proceedings.
 - (e) Each Party shall ensure that its officers, directors and employees and any investment bankers or other advisers or representatives retained by it are aware of the provisions of this Section 3.4. Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall be responsible for any breach of this Section 3.4 by its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, advisers or representatives, and Blizzard shall be responsible for any breach of this Section 3.4 by its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, advisers or representatives.

3.5 Access to Information

Subject to the Confidentiality Agreement and applicable law, upon reasonable notice, each Party shall (and shall cause each of its subsidiaries to) afford the other Party's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives and advisers access, during normal business hours from the date hereof and until the earlier of the Effective Date or the termination of this Agreement, to its properties, books, contracts and records as well as to its management personnel, and shall (and shall cause each of its subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to the other Party all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as the other Party may reasonably request.

ARTICLE 4 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

4.1 Representations and Warranties of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy

Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy hereby make the representations and warranties set forth in this Section 4.1 to and in favour of Blizzard and acknowledges that Blizzard is relying upon such representations and warranties in connection with the matters contemplated by this Agreement.

- (a) Shiningbank is a trust duly created and subsisting under the laws of the Province of Alberta and each of Shiningbank Energy and Shiningbank's other subsidiaries is a corporation duly incorporated or amalgamated or a partnership or trust duly created and validly subsisting under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation, amalgamation or creation and has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. Shiningbank and each of its subsidiaries, including Shiningbank Energy, is duly registered to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the character of its properties, owned or leased, or the nature of its activities make such registration necessary, except where the failure to be so registered or in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on Shiningbank and its subsidiaries taken as a whole.
- (b) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have the requisite trust and corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out their obligations hereunder. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by Shiningbank's board of directors and no other trust or corporate proceedings on the part of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy are or will be necessary to authorize this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy enforceable against Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity.
- (c) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, the consummation by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the transactions contemplated hereby nor compliance by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy with any of the provisions hereof will: (i) violate, conflict with, or result in a breach of any provision of, require any consent, approval or notice under, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) or result in a right of termination or acceleration under, or result in a creation of any lien, security interest, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (A) the trust indenture of Shiningbank or the articles or bylaws or other constating documents of Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries, or (B) any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, loan agreement, deed of trust, agreement, lien, contract or other instrument or obligation to which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy is a party or to which it, or its properties or assets, may be subject or by which Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries is bound; or (ii) subject to compliance with Applicable Laws, violate any judgment, ruling, order, writ, injunction, determination, award, decree, statute, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries (except, in the case of each of clauses (i) and (ii) above, for such violations, conflicts, breaches, defaults, terminations which, or any consents, approvals or notices which if not given or received, would not have any material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or on the ability of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby); or (iii) cause a suspension or revocation of any authorization for the consent, approval or license currently in effect which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and their subsidiaries taken as a whole.

- (d) Other than in connection with or in compliance with the provisions of Applicable Laws:
- (i) there is no legal impediment to Shiningbank's or Shiningbank Energy's consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and
 - (ii) no filing or registration with, or authorization, consent or approval of, any domestic or foreign public body or authority is necessary by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in connection with the consummation of the Arrangement, except for such filings or registrations which, if not made, or for such authorizations, consents or approvals, which, if not received, would not have any material adverse effect on the ability of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (e) Shiningbank is authorized to issue a maximum of 300,000,000 Shiningbank Units, of which as at June 3, 2005, Shiningbank has issued and outstanding: (i) 54,468,100 Shiningbank Units; and (ii) rights to acquire 1,962,734 Shiningbank Units pursuant to the trust unit rights incentive plan of Shiningbank. Shiningbank Holdings Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Shiningbank, owns all of the issued and outstanding shares of Shiningbank Energy and as at June 3, 2005, has 617,096 issued and outstanding exchangeable shares, exchangeable into Shiningbank Units. Except as aforesaid, there are no outstanding trust units of Shiningbank or shares of Shiningbank Energy or options, warrants, rights or conversion or exchange privileges or other securities entitling anyone to acquire any trust units of Shiningbank or shares of Shiningbank Energy or any other rights, agreements or commitments of any character whatsoever requiring the issuance, sale or transfer by Shiningbank of any trust units of Shiningbank or by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy of any shares of Shiningbank or any securities convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, or otherwise evidencing a right to acquire, any trust units of Shiningbank or shares of Shiningbank Energy. All outstanding Shiningbank Units have been duly authorized and validly issued pursuant to the Trust Indenture and are not subject to, nor have they been issued in violation of, any pre-emptive rights, and all Shiningbank Units issuable upon exercise or conversion of outstanding rights to purchase Shiningbank Units in accordance with their respective terms, will be duly authorized and validly issued pursuant to the Trust Indenture and will not be subject to any pre-emptive rights.

- (f) Since the date of the Shiningbank Financial Statements, except as disclosed in the Public Record:
- (i) there has been no material adverse change, (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change that could be materially adverse to Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospect, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;
 - (ii) each of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries has conducted its business only in the ordinary and normal course; and
 - (iii) no liability or obligation of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) material to Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries has been incurred other than in the ordinary and normal course of business.
- (g) The data and information in respect of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and their assets, reserves, liabilities, business and operations provided by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or their advisors to Blizzard or its advisors was and is accurate and correct in all material respects as at the respective dates thereof and, in respect of any information provided or requested, did not knowingly omit any material data or information necessary to make any data or information provided not misleading as at the respective dates thereof. Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have no knowledge of any material adverse change to the oil and gas reserves of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy from that disclosed in such data and information.
- (h) The information and statements set forth in the Public Record as at the date hereof, as relates to Shiningbank, are true, correct, and complete and did not contain any misrepresentation, as of the respective dates of such information or statements, and no material change has occurred in relation to Shiningbank which is not disclosed in the Public Record, and Shiningbank has not filed any confidential material change reports which continue to be confidential.
- (i) Except as disclosed in the Public Record or as otherwise disclosed in writing to Blizzard by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy prior to the date hereof, there are no outstanding or threatened claims, suits, actions or proceedings against Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy which, if determined adversely to Shiningbank, taken as a whole, would have a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business or operations of Shiningbank, taken as a whole, or on the ability of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (j) The Shiningbank Financial Statements fairly present, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada, consistently applied, the financial position and condition of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis at the dates thereof and the results of the operations of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis for the periods then ended and reflect all material assets, liabilities or obligations (absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis as at the dates thereof.
- (k) Neither Shiningbank nor Shiningbank Energy has received notice of any material violation of or investigation relating to any federal, provincial or local law, regulation or ordinance with respect to its assets, business or operations and Shiningbank and its subsidiaries holds all permits, licenses and other authorizations which are required under federal, provincial or local laws relating to its assets, business or operations. The assets of Shiningbank, taken as a whole, are operated and maintained by it are in compliance with all terms and conditions of such laws, permits, licenses and authorizations in all material respects.

- (l) No securities commission or similar regulatory authority, or stock exchange in Canada or the United States has issued any order which is currently outstanding preventing or suspending trading in any securities of Shiningbank, no such proceeding is, to the knowledge of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, pending, contemplated or threatened and Shiningbank is not, to its knowledge, in default of any requirement of any securities laws, rules or policies applicable to Shiningbank or its securities.
- (m) The board of directors of Shiningbank has unanimously approved this Agreement.
- (n) Based on prevailing and anticipated commodity prices and industry and general economic conditions, as of the date hereof, Shiningbank has no current intention to vary its monthly distribution rate for the remainder of 2005.
- (o) The entering into of this Agreement and the consummation of the Arrangement will not trigger any rights to acquire trust units of Shiningbank under the Shiningbank unitholder rights plan or other securities of Shiningbank or rights, entitlements or privileges in favour of any person or, if the unitholder rights plan is triggered, the Board of Shiningbank Energy has waived the application of the plan under the existing provisions of the plan.
- (p) Shiningbank directly or indirectly beneficially owns all of the outstanding shares and other securities or interests of each of its subsidiaries (other than exchangeable shares referred to in Section 4.1(e)) and no person, firm, corporation or other entity holds any securities convertible or exchangeable into securities of such subsidiaries or has any agreement, warrant, option, right or privilege (whether pre-emptive or contractual) being or capable of becoming an agreement for the purchase or issuance of any shares or other securities of such subsidiary.
- (q) The trust and corporate records and minute books, books of account and other records of Shiningbank and each of its subsidiaries have (whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise) been maintained in accordance with, in all material respects, all applicable statutory requirements and prudent business practice and are complete and accurate in all material respects.
- (r) Shiningbank is a "reporting issuer" or equivalent in each province of Canada and the outstanding Shiningbank Units are listed and posted for trading on the TSX.
- (s) Computershare Trust Company of Canada, at its principal office in Toronto and Calgary is the duly appointed registrar and transfer agent of Shiningbank with respect to the Shiningbank Units.
- (t) All Returns required to be filed have been duly filed on a timely basis and all Taxes shown to be payable on the Returns or on subsequent assessments with respect thereto have been paid in full on a timely basis. Except for matters disclosed in the Shiningbank Financial Statements or otherwise disclosed to Blizzard that may give rise to the filing of amended Returns, the filed Returns are true, complete and correct in all material respects, and no other Taxes are payable by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries with respect to items or periods covered by such Returns.
- (u) Except with respect to matters disclosed to Blizzard prior to the date hereof, Shiningbank has paid or provided adequate accruals in its financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2004 for Taxes, including income taxes and related future taxes, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable in Canada.

- (v) No material deficiencies exist or have been asserted with respect to Taxes. Neither Shiningbank nor any of its subsidiaries is a party to any action or proceeding for assessment or collection of Taxes, nor has such event been asserted or threatened against Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries or any of their respective assets. No waiver or extension of any statute of limitations is in effect with respect to Taxes or Returns. Except as disclosed to Blizzard prior to the date hereof, the Returns have never been audited by a government or taxing authority, nor is any such audit in process, pending or threatened which resulted in or could result in a reassessment of Taxes owing by Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries. Shiningbank and its subsidiaries have withheld any Taxes required to be withheld by the Applicable Laws and the Tax Act and has paid or remitted on a timely basis, the full amount of any Taxes which have been withheld to the applicable governmental authority.
- (w) No director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party to Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries (or any associate or affiliate thereof) has any right, title or interest in (or the right to acquire any right, title or interest in) any royalty interest, carried interest, participation interest or any other interest whatsoever which are based on production from or in respect of any properties of Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries that will be effective after the Effective Date.
- (x) Except as disclosed in the Public Record, no director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party is indebted to Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries.
- (y) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have provided to Blizzard copies of all management recommendation letters relating to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy or any of its subsidiaries received from Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy's current auditor or any previous auditor during the two years prior to the date hereof.
- (z) Acquiring the Blizzard Shares with Shiningbank's existing outstanding bank facilities will not create an event of acceleration or default under any of the Shiningbank bank facilities or Shiningbank has or will have sufficient available lines of credit, bank facilities or other financing arrangements confirmed to the satisfaction of Blizzard, acting reasonably, to pay the cash consideration to be delivered to Blizzard Securityholders under the Arrangement and to pay out the Blizzard bank facilities, debt and working capital deficiency on the Effective Date.
- (aa) To the knowledge of Shiningbank, Shiningbank has not exceeded the 49% non-resident ownership threshold in the Trust Indenture with respect to the Shiningbank Units.
- (bb) Shiningbank is a "mutual fund trust" for the purposes of Section 132 of the Tax Act and has no reason to believe that its status as a "mutual fund trust" will be challenged by the governmental authorities.
- (cc) To the knowledge of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have not withheld from Blizzard any material information or documents concerning Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries or their respective assets or liabilities during the course of Blizzard's review of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and their assets. No representation or warranty contained herein and no statement contained in any schedule or other disclosure document provided or to be provided to Blizzard by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy pursuant hereto contains or will contain an untrue statement of a material fact which is necessary to make the statements herein or therein not misleading.

4.2 Representations and Warranties of Blizzard

Blizzard hereby makes the representations and warranties set forth in this Section 4.2 to and in favour of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and acknowledges that Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy are relying upon such representations and warranties in connection with the matters contemplated by this Agreement.

- (a) Blizzard is a corporation duly amalgamated under the laws of the Province of Alberta and has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. Blizzard is duly registered to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the character of its properties, owned or leased, or the nature of its activities make such registration necessary, except where the failure to be so registered or in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on Blizzard.
- (b) Blizzard has the requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation by Blizzard of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by Blizzard's board of directors and, subject to obtaining shareholder approval, no other corporate proceedings on the part of Blizzard are or will be necessary to authorize this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Blizzard and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Blizzard enforceable against Blizzard in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity.
- (c) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Blizzard, the consummation by Blizzard of the transactions contemplated hereby nor compliance by Blizzard with any of the provisions hereof will: (i) violate, conflict with, or result in breach of any provision of, require any consent, approval or notice under, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) or result in a right of termination or acceleration under, or result in a creation of any lien, security interest, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of Blizzard under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (A) the articles, bylaws or other constating documents of Blizzard, or (B) any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, loan agreement, deed of trust, agreement, lien, contract or other instrument or obligation to which Blizzard is a party or to which it, or its properties or assets, may be subject or by which Blizzard is bound (subject to obtaining the consent of Blizzard's bankers, the consent of Blizzard's landlord under its office lease and, if applicable, the farmor with respect to the Farmout Agreement described in the ExploreCo Conveyance Agreement or ExploreSubCo Conveyance, as applicable); or (ii) subject to compliance with Applicable Laws, violate any judgment, ruling, order, writ, injunction, determination, award, decree, statute, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to Blizzard (except for such violations, conflicts, breaches, defaults, terminations which, or any consents, approvals or notices which if not given or received, would not have any material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Blizzard or on the ability of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby); or (iii) cause a suspension or revocation of any authorization for the consent, approval or license currently in effect which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Blizzard.

- (d) Other than in connection with or in compliance with the provisions of Applicable Laws:
- (i) there is no legal impediment to Blizzard's consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and
 - (ii) no filing or registration with, or authorization, consent or approval of, any domestic or foreign public body or authority is necessary by Blizzard in connection with the consummation of the Arrangement, except for such filings or registrations which, if not made, or for such authorizations, consents or approvals, which, if not received, would not have any material adverse effect on the ability of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (e) Blizzard is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Blizzard Shares, and unlimited number of class A common shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares of which, as at June 3, 2005, Blizzard has issued and outstanding 108,774,500 Blizzard Shares and no Class A common shares or preferred shares and, in addition, as at June 3, 2005 Blizzard has issued and outstanding 4,572,000 Blizzard Options to acquire 4,572,000 Blizzard Shares and Blizzard Warrants entitling the holders thereof to acquire 396,000 Blizzard Shares. Except as aforesaid, there are no outstanding shares of Blizzard or options, warrants, rights or conversion or exchange privileges or other securities entitling anyone to acquire any shares of Blizzard or any other rights, agreements or commitments of any character whatsoever requiring the issuance, sale or transfer by Blizzard of any shares of Blizzard (including Blizzard Shares) or any securities convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, or otherwise evidencing a right to acquire, any shares of Blizzard. All outstanding Blizzard Shares have been duly authorized and validly issued, and are fully paid and non-assessable and are not subject to, nor have they been issued in violation of, any pre-emptive rights, and all Blizzard Shares issuable upon exercise or conversion of outstanding Blizzard Options in accordance with their respective terms, will be duly authorized and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and will not be subject to any pre-emptive rights.
- (f) Since the date of the Blizzard Financial Statements, except as disclosed in the Public Record:
- (i) there has been no material adverse change, (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change that could be materially adverse to Blizzard) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospect, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Blizzard and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;
 - (ii) Blizzard has conducted its business only in the ordinary and normal course; and
 - (iii) no liability or obligation of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) material to Blizzard has been incurred other than in the ordinary and normal course of business or as disclosed to Shiningbank in writing prior to the execution of this Agreement.
- (g) The data and information in respect of Blizzard and its assets, reserves, liabilities, business and operations provided by Blizzard or its advisors to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or its advisors was and is accurate and correct in all material respects as at the respective dates thereof and, in respect of any information provided or requested, did not knowingly omit any material data or information necessary to make any data or information provided not misleading as at the respective dates thereof. Blizzard has no knowledge of any material adverse change to the oil and gas reserves of Blizzard from that disclosed in such data and information.

- (h) The information and statements set forth in the Public Record as at the date hereof, as relates to Blizzard, are true, correct, and complete and did not contain any misrepresentation, as of the respective dates of such information or statements, and no material change has occurred in relation to Blizzard which is not disclosed in the Public Record, and Blizzard has not filed any confidential material change reports which continue to be confidential.
- (i) Except as disclosed in the Public Record or as otherwise disclosed in writing to Shiningbank by Blizzard prior to the date hereof, there are no outstanding or threatened claims, suits, actions or proceedings against Blizzard which, if determined adversely to Blizzard, would have a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business or operations of Blizzard, or on the ability of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (j) The Blizzard Financial Statements fairly present, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada, consistently applied, the financial position and condition of Blizzard at the dates thereof and the results of the operations of Blizzard for the periods then ended and reflect all material assets, liabilities or obligations (absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of Blizzard as at the dates thereof.
- (k) Blizzard has not received notice of any material violation of or investigation relating to any federal, provincial or local law, regulation or ordinance with respect to its assets, business or operations and Blizzard holds all permits, licenses and other authorizations which are required under federal, provincial or local laws to be held by it relating to its assets, business or operations. The assets of Blizzard operated and maintained by it are in compliance with all terms and conditions of such laws, permits, licenses and authorizations in all material respects.
- (l) No securities commission or similar regulatory authority, or stock exchange in Canada or the United States has issued any order which is currently outstanding preventing or suspending trading in any securities of Blizzard, no such proceeding is, to the knowledge of Blizzard, pending, contemplated or threatened and Blizzard is not, to its knowledge, in default of any requirement of any securities laws, rules or policies applicable to Blizzard or its securities.
- (m) There are no payments to directors, officers and employees of Blizzard prior to the Effective Date under all contract settlements, bonus plans, retention arrangements, change of control agreements and severance obligations (whether resulting from termination or alteration of duties) other than the amounts payable pursuant to payments referenced in Section 3.2(e);
- (n) Blizzard has retained certain financial, legal and accounting advisors, brokers or consultants regarding this Agreement and the transactions referred to herein and fees to be paid to such advisors, brokers or consultants on account of this Agreement or the Arrangement and any transaction contemplated hereby or any transaction presently ongoing will not exceed $3 million;
- (o) The board of directors of Blizzard has unanimously endorsed the Arrangement and approved this Agreement, has unanimously determined that the Arrangement and this Agreement are in the best interests of Blizzard and the Blizzard Securityholders has unanimously determined that the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Blizzard Securityholders and has resolved to unanimously recommend approval of the Arrangement by Blizzard Securityholders.
- (p) Blizzard is not a party to and, prior to the Effective Date, Blizzard will not implement, a shareholder rights plan or any other form of plan, agreement, contract or instrument that will trigger any rights to acquire Blizzard Shares or other securities of Blizzard or rights, entitlements or privileges in favour of any person upon the entering into of this Agreement or the Arrangement.

- (q) Other than the Blizzard Lock-up Agreements, none of the Blizzard Securities are the subject of any voting trust or other similar agreement.
- (r) Blizzard does not have any outstanding obligations to incur and/or renounce any Canadian exploration expenditures or Canadian development expenditures to any purchaser of the shares of Blizzard that have not yet been fully expended and renounced and reflected in the Blizzard Financial Statements, other than as disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy prior to the date hereof.
- (s) During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, Blizzard did not hold assets in the United States having an aggregate total value of US$25 million or more and did not have aggregate sales in or into the United States of US$25 million or more.
- (t) There is not (or are not):
 - (i) any order or directive from any regulatory authority which relates to environmental matters and which requires any material work, repairs, construction, or capital expenditures;
 - (ii) any demand or notice from any regulatory authority with respect to the material breach of any environmental, health or safety law applicable to Blizzard including, without limitation, any regulations respecting the use, storage, treatment, transportation, or disposition of environmental contaminants; or
 - (iii) any spills, releases, deposits or discharges of hazardous or toxic substances, contaminants or wastes, which have not been rectified, on any of the properties or assets owned or leased by Blizzard or in which it has an interest or over which it has control, except for any such spills, releases, deposits or discharges which, in aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of Blizzard.
- (u) Blizzard does not have any subsidiaries.
- (v) The corporate records and minute books, books of account and other records of Blizzard (whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise) have been maintained in accordance with, in all material respects, all applicable statutory requirements and prudent business practice and are complete and accurate in all material respects.
- (w) Blizzard is a "reporting issuer" or equivalent in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec and the outstanding Blizzard Shares are listed and posted for trading on the TSX.
- (x) Valiant Trust Company at its principal office in Calgary, Alberta, and through its co-agent, Equity Transfer Services Inc., at its principal office in Toronto, Ontario, is the duly appointed registrar and transfer agent of Blizzard with respect to the Blizzard Shares;
- (y) All Returns required to be filed have been duly filed on a timely basis and such Returns are true, complete and correct in all material respects and all Taxes shown to be payable on the Returns or on subsequent assessments with respect thereto have been paid in full on a timely basis, and no other Taxes are payable by Blizzard with respect to items or periods covered by such Returns, other than disclosed to or known by Shiningbank prior to the date hereof.

- (z) Blizzard has paid or provided adequate accruals in its Blizzard Financial Statements for the year ended dated December 31, 2004 for Taxes, including income taxes and related future taxes, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable in Canada, other than disclosed to or known by Shiningbank prior to the date hereof.
- (aa) No material deficiencies exist or have been asserted with respect to Taxes. Blizzard is not a party to any action or proceeding for assessment or collection of Taxes, nor has such event been asserted or threatened against Blizzard or any of its assets. No waiver or extension of any statute of limitations is in effect with respect to Taxes or Returns. Except as disclosed to Shiningbank prior to the date hereof, the Returns have never been audited by a government or taxing authority, nor is any such audit in process, pending or threatened which resulted in or could result in a reassessment of Taxes owing by Blizzard. Blizzard has withheld any Taxes required to be withheld by the Applicable Laws and the Tax Act and has paid or remitted on a timely basis, the full amount of any Taxes which have been withheld to the applicable governmental authority.
- (bb) No director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party to Blizzard (or any associate or affiliate thereof) has any right, title or interest in (or the right to acquire any right, title or interest in) any royalty interest, carried interest, participation interest or any other interest whatsoever which are based on production from or in respect of any properties of Blizzard that will be effective after the Effective Date.
- (cc) No director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party of Blizzard is indebted to Blizzard.
- (dd) Except for indemnity agreements with its directors and officers, Blizzard is not a party to or bound by any agreement, guarantee, indemnification, or endorsement or like commitment of the obligations, liabilities (contingent or otherwise) or indebtedness of any person, firm or corporation.
- (ee) The policies of insurance in force at the date hereof naming Blizzard as an insured and as disclosed to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy prior to the date hereof to the knowledge of Blizzard, remain in force and effect and shall not be cancelled or otherwise terminated as a result of the transactions contemplated herein.
- (ff) Blizzard is not in default under its existing bank facility and, to Blizzard's knowledge, its banker is not contemplating any reduction in Blizzard's borrowing base, prior to giving effect to this transaction.
- (gg) Blizzard has provided to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy copies of all management recommendation letters relating to Blizzard received from Blizzard's current auditor or any previous auditor during the two years prior to the date hereof.
- (hh) To the knowledge of Blizzard, Blizzard has not withheld from Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy any material information or documents concerning Blizzard or its assets or liabilities during the course of Shiningbank's and Shiningbank Energy's review of Blizzard and its assets. No representation or warranty contained herein and no statement contained in any schedule or other disclosure document provided or to be provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy by Blizzard pursuant hereto contains or will contain any untrue statement or a material fact which is necessary in order to make the statements herein or therein not misleading.

- (ii) To the best of Blizzard's knowledge, immediately following the Effective Time, Blizzard will have tax pools of $130 million.
- (jj) Blizzard had $52.8 million of debt and working capital as at April 30, 2005, subject to adjustments, that arise due to actual financial results differing from accruals.

4.3 Privacy Issues

- (a) For the purposes of this Section 4.3, the following definitions shall apply:
 - (i) "applicable law" means, in relation to any person, transaction or event, all applicable provisions of laws, statutes, rules, regulations, official directives and orders of and the terms of all judgements, orders and decrees issued by any authorized authority by which such person is bound or having application to the transaction or event in question, including applicable privacy laws;
 - (ii) "applicable privacy laws" means any and all applicable laws relating to privacy and the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information in all applicable jurisdictions, including but not limited to the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (Canada) and/or any comparable provincial law including the Personal Information Protection Act (Alberta);
 - (iii) "authorized authority" means, in relation to any person, transaction or event, any (a) federal, provincial, municipal or local governmental body (whether administrative, legislative, executive or otherwise), both domestic and foreign, (b) agency, authority, commission, instrumentality, regulatory body, court, central bank or other entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, taxing, regulatory or administrative powers or functions of or pertaining to government, (c) court, arbitrator, commission or body exercising judicial, quasi-judicial, administrative or similar functions, and (d) other body or entity created under the authority of or otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of any of the foregoing, including any stock or other securities exchange, in each case having jurisdiction over such person, transaction or event; and
 - (iv) "Personal Information" means information about an individual.
- (b) The Parties hereto acknowledge that they are responsible for compliance at all times with applicable privacy laws which govern the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information acquired by or disclosed to either Party pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement (the "Disclosed Personal Information").
- (c) Neither Party shall use the Disclosed Personal Information for any purposes other than those related to the performance of this Agreement and the completion of the Arrangement.
- (d) Each Party acknowledges and confirms that the disclosure of the Disclosed Personal Information is necessary for the purposes of determining if the Parties shall proceed with the Arrangement, and that the disclosure of the Disclosed Personal Information relates solely to the carrying on of the business and the completion of the Arrangement.

- (e) Each Party acknowledges and confirms that it has and shall continue to employ appropriate technology and procedures in accordance with applicable law to prevent accidental loss or corruption of the Disclosed Personal Information, unauthorized input or access to the Disclosed Personal Information, or unauthorized or unlawful collection, storage, disclosure, recording, copying, alteration, removal, deletion, use or other processing of such Disclosed Personal Information.
- (f) Each Party shall at all times keep strictly confidential all Disclosed Personal Information provided to it, and shall instruct those employees or advisors responsible for processing such Disclosed Personal Information to protect the confidentiality of such information in a manner consistent with the Parties' obligations hereunder. Each Party shall ensure that access to the Disclosed Personal Information shall be restricted to those employees or advisors of the respective party who have a bona fide need to access to such information in order to complete the Arrangement.
- (g) Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party to this Agreement of all inquiries, complaints, requests for access, and claims of which the Party is made aware in connection with the Disclosed Personal Information. The Parties shall fully co-operate with one another, with the persons to whom the Personal Information relates, and any authorized authority charged with enforcement of applicable privacy laws, in responding to such inquiries, complaints, requests for access, and claims.
- (h) Upon the expiry or termination of this Agreement, or otherwise upon the reasonable request of either Party, the other Party shall forthwith cease all use of the Personal Information acquired by such Party in connection with this Agreement and will return to the first Party or, at such Party's request, destroy in a secure manner, the Disclosed Personal Information (and any copies).

ARTICLE 5 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

5.1 Mutual Conditions Precedent

The respective obligations of the Parties to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and in particular the Arrangement, are subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions, any of which may be waived by the mutual consent of such Parties without prejudice to their right to rely on any other of such conditions:

- (a) on or prior to July 15, 2005, the Interim Order shall have been granted in form and substance satisfactory to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably, and such order shall not have been set aside or modified in a manner unacceptable to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably, on appeal or otherwise;
- (b) the Arrangement Resolution shall have been passed by the holders of Blizzard Securities, on or prior to August 15, 2005 in accordance with the Interim Order and in form and substance satisfactory to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (c) in the event that dissent rights are given to Blizzard Securityholders under the terms of the Interim Order, holders of not greater than 2% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities shall have exercised rights of dissent in respect of the Arrangement that have not been withdrawn as of the Effective Date;

- (d) on or prior to August 15, 2005, the Final Order shall have been granted in form and substance satisfactory to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (e) the Articles of Arrangement to be filed with the Registrar in accordance with the Arrangement shall be in form and substance satisfactory to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (f) the Arrangement shall have become effective on or prior to August 15, 2005;
- (g) Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard shall enter into written agreements effective as of the Effective Date satisfactory to Blizzard or Blizzard shall have evidence satisfactory to Blizzard, acting reasonably, pursuant to which Blizzard shall have arranged or Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall agree or have agreed that, for a period of six years after the Effective Date, Shiningbank and/or Shiningbank Energy shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained (provided that Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy may substitute therefor policies of at least the same change coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous) providing coverage on a "trailing" or "run-off" basis for all present and former directors and officers of Blizzard with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred before the Effective Date;
- (h) the TSX shall have conditionally listed all of the Shiningbank Units issuable pursuant to the Arrangement;
- (i) the relevant waiting period in section 123 of the Competition Act shall have expired and: (i) an advance ruling certificate ("ARC") pursuant to section 102 of the Competition Act shall have been issued by the Commissioner of the Competition Bureau ("Commissioner") appointed under the Competition Act; or (ii) a "no action letter" satisfactory to each of Shiningbank and Blizzard, acting reasonably, indicating that the Commissioner has determined not to make an application for an order under section 92 of the Competition Act shall have been received from the Commissioner, and any terms and conditions attached to any such letter shall be acceptable to each of Shiningbank and Blizzard, acting reasonably; and in addition, in the event that the ARC or "no action" letter described in (i) or (ii) in the foregoing is issued, there shall be no threatened or actual application by the Commissioner for an order under section 92 or 100 of the Competition Act;
- (j) all requisite domestic and foreign regulatory approvals and consents required for completion of the Arrangement shall have been obtained on terms and conditions satisfactory to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably, and all applicable domestic and foreign statutory or regulatory waiting periods to the transactions contemplated in the Arrangement shall have expired or been terminated, and no objection or opposition shall have been filed, initiated or made by any regulatory authority during any applicable statutory or regulatory waiting period; and
- (k) there shall be no action taken under any existing applicable law or regulation, nor any statute, rule, regulation or order which is enacted, enforced, promulgated or issued by any court, department, commission, board, regulatory body, government or governmental authority or similar agency, domestic or foreign, that:
 - (i) makes illegal or otherwise directly or indirectly restrains, enjoins or prohibits the Arrangement or any other transactions contemplated herein; or

- (ii) results in a judgment or assessment of material damages directly or indirectly relating to the Arrangement or any other transactions contemplated herein.

The foregoing conditions are for the mutual benefit of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard and may be asserted by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard regardless of the circumstances and may be waived by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard in their sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or Blizzard may have.

5.2 Additional Conditions to Obligations of Shiningbank

The obligation of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and in particular the Arrangement, is subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions:

- (a) Blizzard shall have mailed the Blizzard Information Circular and other documentation required in connection with the Blizzard Meeting on or before July 15, 2005;
- (b) each of the acts and undertakings of Blizzard to be performed on or before the Effective Date pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall have been duly performed by Blizzard;
- (c) Blizzard shall have furnished Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy with:
 - (i) certified copies of the resolutions duly passed by the boards of directors of Blizzard approving this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; and
 - (ii) certified copies of the resolutions of Blizzard Securityholders, duly passed at the Blizzard Meeting, approving the Arrangement Resolution;
- (d) except as affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the representations and warranties of Blizzard contained in Section 4.2 shall be true in all material respects as at the Effective Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such time and Blizzard shall have complied in all material respects with its covenants in this Agreement and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall have received a certificate to that effect dated the Effective Date from the President and Chief Financial Officer of Blizzard and another senior officer thereof acceptable to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, acting solely on behalf of Blizzard and not in their personal capacity, to the best of his information and belief having made reasonable inquiry and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will have no knowledge to the contrary;
- (e) there shall not have occurred any change after the date hereof or prior to the date hereof which has not been publicly disclosed prior to the date hereof or previously disclosed prior to the date hereof to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in writing (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Blizzard and which, in the judgment of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, is materially adverse to Blizzard other than: (i) a change directly resulting from an action taken by Blizzard pursuant to Blizzard's May 26, 2005 budget as disclosed to Shiningbank or to which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy has consented to in writing; (ii) a change in ExploreCo Assets or ExploreSubCo Assets, as applicable; (iii) a change resulting from conditions affecting the oil and gas industry in Canada including, without limitation, changes in commodity prices or taxes of any kind at any time; or (iv) the occurrence, development or coming into effect or existence of any event, action, state, condition, or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law, regulation, action, government regulation, enquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which materially adversely affects or involves the financial markets in Canada or the United States generally or the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of Blizzard; and

- (f) EnCana shall have discharged or consented to the transfer of the Debenture as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements such that it does not apply to Blizzard or any of its assets, other than the Explorecoco Assets or ExploreSubCo Assets, as applicable.

The conditions in this Section 5.2 are for the exclusive benefit of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and may be asserted by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy regardless of the circumstances or may be waived by Shiningbank in its sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy may have.

5.3 Additional Conditions to Obligations of Blizzard

The obligation of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and in particular the Arrangement, is subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions:

- (a) each of the acts and undertakings of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy to be performed on or before the Effective Date pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall have been duly performed by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, as the case may be;
- (b) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall have furnished Blizzard with certified copies of the resolutions duly passed by the board of directors of Shiningbank Energy approving this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby;
- (c) except as affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the representations and warranties of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy contained in Section 4.1 shall be true in all material respects as at the Effective Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such time and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall have complied in all material respects with its covenants in this Agreement and Blizzard shall have received a certificate to that effect dated the Effective Date from the President of Shiningbank Energy and another senior officer thereof acceptable to Blizzard, acting reasonably, acting solely on behalf of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and not in their personal capacity, to the best of his information and belief having made reasonable inquiry and Blizzard will have no knowledge to the contrary; and
- (d) there shall not have occurred any change after the date hereof or prior to the date hereof which has not been publicly disclosed prior to the date hereof or previously disclosed prior to the date hereof to Blizzard in writing (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Shiningbank, taken as a whole, and which, in the judgment of Blizzard, acting reasonably, is materially adverse to Shiningbank, taken as a whole, other than: (i) a change directly resulting from an action taken by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy to which Blizzard has consented to in writing; (ii) a change resulting from conditions affecting the oil and gas industry in Canada including, without limitation, changes in commodity prices or taxes of any kind at any time; or (iii) the occurrence, development or coming into effect or existence of any event, action, state, condition, or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law, regulation, action, government regulation, enquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which materially adversely affects or involves the financial markets in Canada or the United States generally or the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of Shiningbank, taken as a whole.

The conditions in this Section 5.3 are for the exclusive benefit of Blizzard and may be asserted by Blizzard regardless of the circumstances or may be waived by Blizzard in its sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which Blizzard may have.

5.4 Notice and Effect of Failure to Comply with Conditions

- (a) Each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard shall give prompt notice to the other of the occurrence, or failure to occur, at any time from the date hereof to the Effective Date of any event or state of facts which occurrence or failure would, or would be likely to, (i) cause any of the representations or warranties of any Party contained herein to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect, or (ii) result in the failure to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by any party hereunder; provided, however, that no such notification will affect the representations or warranties of the Parties or the conditions to the obligations of the Parties hereunder.
- (b) If a Party intends to rely on a breach of a representation, warranty or covenant of the other Party to rescind or terminate this Agreement, such Party intending to rely thereon shall deliver a written notice to the other Party, specifying in reasonable detail all breaches of covenants, representations and warranties which the Party delivering such notice is asserting and provide the other Party 48 hours to rectify the breaches before the effective date of rescission of termination. More than one such notice may be delivered by a Party

5.5 Satisfaction of Conditions

The conditions set out in this Article 5 are conclusively deemed to have been satisfied, waived or released when, with the agreement of the Parties, Articles of Arrangement are filed under the ABCA to give effect to the Arrangement.

ARTICLE 6 AGREEMENT AS TO DAMAGES AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

6.1 Shiningbank Damages

If at any time after the execution of this Agreement:

- (a) the board of directors of Blizzard has withdrawn or changed any of its recommendations or determinations referred to in Section 3.2(n) and 4.2(o) in a manner adverse to Shiningbank or shall have resolved to do so prior to the Effective Date other than as a result of a Blizzard Damages Event or a change referred to in Section 5.3(d);

- (b) a bona fide Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced, proposed, offered or made to the Blizzard Shareholders or to Blizzard and: (i) the Blizzard Shareholders do not approve the Arrangement; and (ii) such Acquisition Proposal is consummated within 6 months of the date of this Agreement;
- (c) Blizzard accepts, recommends, approves or enters into an agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement) to implement a Superior Proposal prior to the Effective Date or termination of this Agreement;
- (d) Blizzard breaches any of its covenants in Section 3.4 or wilfully breaches any other of its representations, warranties or covenants made in this Agreement which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement; or
- (e) Blizzard breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in this Agreement (other than a wilful breach referred in Section 6.1(d)), which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement,

(each of the above being a "Shiningbank Damages Event"), then in the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or (d), Blizzard shall pay to Shiningbank $8 million (in the case of an event referred to in Section 6.1(a), (b), (c) or (d)) or $ 1 million in the aggregate (in the case of an event referred to in section 6.1(e)) as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy within one business day after the first to occur of the events described above, and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, Blizzard shall be deemed to hold such fund in trust for Shiningbank. Blizzard shall only be obligated to pay a maximum of $8 million pursuant to this Section 6.1.

6.2 Blizzard Damages

If at any time after the execution of this Agreement, Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in this Agreement, which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement (being a "Blizzard Damages Event"), then in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(e), Shiningbank shall pay to Blizzard $1 million, in aggregate, as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by Blizzard within one business day after the breach as described above and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, Shiningbank shall be deemed to hold such funds in trust for Blizzard.

6.3 Liquidated Damages

Each of Blizzard, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy acknowledge that all of the payment amounts set out in this Article 6 are payments of liquidated damages which are a genuine pre-estimate of the damages which Blizzard or Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will suffer or incur as a result of the event giving rise to such damages and resultant termination of this Agreement and are not penalties. Each of Blizzard, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy irrevocably waives any right it may have to raise as a defence that any such liquidated damages are excessive or punitive. For greater certainty, the Parties agree that the payment of the amount pursuant to this Article 6 is the sole monetary remedy of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy or Blizzard in the event the transactions contemplated herein are not consummated. Nothing herein shall preclude Blizzard or Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy from seeking injunctive relief to restrain any breach or threatened breach of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement or the Confidentiality Agreement or otherwise to obtain specific performance of any of such act, covenants or agreements, without the necessity of posting bond or security in connection therewith.

ARTICLE 7 AMENDMENT

7.1 Amendment

This Agreement may at any time and from time to time before or after the holding of the Blizzard Meeting be amended by written agreement of the Parties hereto without, subject to applicable law, further notice to or authorization on the part of their respective securityholders and any such amendment may, without limitation:

- (a) change the time for performance of any of the obligations or acts of the Parties;
- (b) waive any inaccuracies or modify any representation or warranty contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto;
- (c) waive compliance with or modify any of the covenants herein contained and waive or modify performance of any of the obligations of the Parties; or
- (d) waive compliance with or modify any other conditions precedent contained herein;

provided that no such amendment reduces or materially adversely affects the consideration to be received by a Blizzard Securityholder without approval by the Blizzard securityholders given in the same manner as required for the approval of the Arrangement or as may be ordered by the Court.

ARTICLE 8 TERMINATION

8.1 Termination

This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Date:

- (a) by mutual written consent of Shiningbank and Blizzard;
- (b) as provided in Sections 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3;
- (c) by Shiningbank upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event as provided in Section 6.1 provided that in the event of a Shiningbank Damages Event provided for in Section 6.1(a), this Agreement may not be terminated by Shiningbank unless Blizzard Securityholders do not approve the Arrangement as required in the Interim Order or the Arrangement is not submitted for their approval;
- (d) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event provided for in Sections 6.1(a),(b),(c) or (d) and the payment by Blizzard to Shiningbank of the amount required by Section 6.1; or
- (e) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Blizzard Damages Event as provided in Section 6.2.

In the event of the termination of this Agreement in the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and neither Party shall have any liability or further obligation to the other Party hereunder except with respect to the obligations set forth in or as otherwise specified in Article 6 which shall survive such termination.

ARTICLE 9 NOTICES

9.1 Notices

All notices which may or are required to be given pursuant to any provision of this Agreement are to be given or made in writing and served personally or sent by telecopy and in the case of:

ARTICLE 10 GENERAL

10.1 Binding Effect

This Agreement shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the Parties hereto.

10.2 Assignment

No Party to this Agreement may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without prior written consent of the other Party.

10.3 Disclosure

Each Party shall receive the prior consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, of the other Party prior to issuing or permitting any director, officer, employee or agent to issue, any press release or other written statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if either Party is required by law or administrative regulation to make any disclosure relating to the transactions contemplated herein, such disclosure may be made, but that Party will consult with the other Party as to the wording of such disclosure prior to its being made.

10.4 Costs

Except as contemplated herein (including Section 6.1 and 6.2 hereof), each Party hereto covenants and agrees to bear its own costs and expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby. Shiningbank and Blizzard shall share equally any filing fees payable for applications made under the Competition Act in respect of the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement.

10.5 Severability

If any one or more of the provisions or parts thereof contained in this Agreement should be or become invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect in any jurisdiction, the remaining provisions or parts thereof contained herein shall be and shall be conclusively deemed to be, as to such jurisdiction, severable therefrom and:

- (a) the validity, legality or enforceability of such remaining provisions or parts thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired by the severance of the provisions or parts thereof severed; and
- (b) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision or part thereof contained in this Agreement in any jurisdiction shall not affect or impair such provision or part thereof or any other provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

10.6 Further Assurances

Each Party hereto shall, from time to time and at all times hereafter, at the request of the other Party hereto, but without further consideration, do all such further acts, and execute and deliver all such further documents and instruments as may be reasonably required in order to fully perform and carry out the terms and intent hereof.

10.7 Time of Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

10.8 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the Parties hereto irrevocably atom to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta.

10.9 Waiver

No waiver by any Party shall be effective unless in writing and any waiver shall affect only the matter, and the occurrence thereof, specifically identified and shall not extend to any other matter or occurrence.

10.10 Limitation on Trustees Liability

The parties hereto acknowledge that Shiningbank Energy is entering into this agreement behalf of Shiningbank and the obligations of Shiningbank hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Computershare Trust Company of Canada or any of the unitholders of Shiningbank and that any recourse against Shiningbank or any unitholder in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of Shiningbank arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund as defined in the trust indenture, as amended from time to time.

10.11 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL
CORPORATE FINANCE

1. Name and Address of Company:

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank")
1310, 111 - 5th Ave SW
Calgary, AB T2P 3Y6

2. Date of Material Change:

June 6, 2005

3. News Release:

A press release disclosing in detail the material summarized in this material change report was disseminated through the facilities of CCN Matthews on June 6, 2005 and would have been received by the securities commissions where Shiningbank is a "reporting issuer" and the stock exchanges on which the securities of Shiningbank are listed and posted for trading in the normal course of their dissemination.

4. Summary of Material Change:

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank"), Shiningbank Energy Ltd. ("Shiningbank Energy") and Blizzard entered into an arrangement agreement dated June 6, 2005 (the "Arrangement Agreement"), a copy of which (excluding the schedules thereto) is filed on SEDAR as a material contract, which was unanimously approved by the board of directors of Blizzard and board of trustees of Shiningbank. Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement and the plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement") set out therein, Shiningbank will acquire the majority of Blizzard's natural gas assets and certain Blizzard producing assets and undeveloped land will be transferred to a new exploration focused producer, to be named at a later date ("Exploreco"). Exploreco will be managed by the current management team and board of directors of Blizzard. As a result of the Arrangement, shareholders of Blizzard will receive 0.0777 units of Shiningbank, $0.4097 cash, one common share of Exploreco and 0.211 of an Exploreco transaction warrant for each Blizzard common share held. Each whole Exploreco transaction warrant entitles the holder to acquire an additional share of Exploreco at the current estimated asset value for Exploreco for 30 days after closing.

5. Full Description of Material Change:

The Arrangement and the Arrangement Agreement

Pursuant to the Arrangement, Shiningbank will acquire the majority of Blizzard's natural gas assets and certain Blizzard producing assets and undeveloped land will be transferred to Exploreco. As a result of the Arrangement, shareholders of Blizzard will receive 0.0777 units of Shiningbank, $0.4097 cash, one common share of Exploreco and 0.211 of an Exploreco transaction warrant for each Blizzard common share held. Each whole Exploreco transaction warrant entitles the holder to acquire an additional share of Exploreco at the current estimated asset value for Exploreco for 30 days after closing.

An information circular detailing the Arrangement is anticipated to be mailed to securityholders of Blizzard by the end of June. A meeting of the securityholders of Blizzard to consider the Arrangement is scheduled to take place in late July with closing anticipated to occur in early August.

The Arrangement will require the approval of 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the votes cast by the shareholders, option holders and warrant holders of Blizzard voting as a single class, the approval of the majority of the shareholders, excluding directors and officers of Blizzard participating in the Explorecor private placement (as hereinafter described) and the approval of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta and certain regulatory agencies.

Non-Solicitation Provisions

Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, Blizzard has agreed to not directly or indirectly, do or authorize or permit any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it to do, any of the following:

- (a) solicit, facilitate, initiate or encourage any Acquisition Proposal (which is defined in the Arrangement Agreement to mean any inquiry or the making of any proposal to Blizzard or its shareholders from any person which constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to (in either case whether in one transaction or a series of transactions): (A) an acquisition from Blizzard or its shareholders of more than 20% of the securities of Blizzard (other than on exercise of currently outstanding Blizzard options or Blizzard warrants); (B) any acquisition of 20% or more of the assets of Blizzard; (C) an amalgamation, arrangement, merger, or consolidation involving Blizzard; or (D) any take-over bid, issuer bid, exchange offer, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, reorganization into a royalty trust or income fund or similar transaction involving Blizzard or any other transaction, the consummation of which would or could reasonably be expected to impede, interfere with, prevent or delay the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement or the Arrangement or which would or could reasonably be expected to materially reduce the benefits to the other party under the Arrangement Agreement or the Arrangement);
- (b) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion regarding an Acquisition Proposal, or furnish to any other person any information with respect to its business, properties, operations, prospects or conditions (financial or otherwise) in connection with an Acquisition Proposal or otherwise cooperate in any way with, or assist or participate in, facilitate or encourage, any effort or attempt of any other person to do or seek to do any of the foregoing;
- (c) waive, or otherwise forbear in the enforcement of, or enter into or participate in any discussions, negotiations or agreements to waive or otherwise forbear in respect of, any rights or other benefits under confidential information agreements, including, without limitation, any "standstill provisions" thereunder; or
- (d) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement an Acquisition Proposal, provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of the Arrangement Agreement, Blizzard and its officers, directors and advisers may:

- (e) enter into or participate in discussions or negotiations regarding ExploreCo or the assets of ExploreCo provided that no binding agreement regarding ExploreCo or the assets of ExploreCo, as applicable, is entered into until after the date the Arrangement becomes effective under the Business Corporation Act (Alberta) which shall be the first business day immediately following the date of the Blizzard Meeting or such later date as may be agreed to by Blizzard and Shiningbank provided that such date shall not be before August 2, 2005 (the "Effective Date");
- (f) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion with a third party which (without any solicitation, initiation or encouragement, directly or indirectly, after the date of the Arrangement Agreement, by Blizzard or any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it) seeks to initiate such negotiations or discussions and, subject to execution of a confidentiality agreement substantially similar to the Confidentiality Agreement (provided that such confidentiality agreement shall provide for disclosure thereof (along with all information provided thereunder) to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy as set out below), may furnish to such third party information concerning Blizzard and its business, properties and assets, in each case if, and only to the extent that:
 - (i) the third party has first made a written bona fide Acquisition Proposal which the board of directors of Blizzard determines in good faith: (1) that funds or other consideration necessary for the Acquisition Proposal are or are likely to be available; (2) (after consultation with its financial advisor) would, if consummated in accordance with its terms, result in a transaction financially superior for securityholders of Blizzard as compared to the transaction contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement; and (3) after receiving the advice of outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharge of its fiduciary duties under applicable laws (a "Superior Proposal"); and
 - (ii) prior to furnishing such information to or entering into or participating in any such negotiations or initiating any discussions with such third party, Blizzard provides prompt notice to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy to the effect that it is furnishing information to or entering into or participating in discussions or negotiations with such person or entity together with a copy of the confidentiality agreement referenced above and if not previously provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such third party concurrently with the provision of such information to such third party, and provided further that, Blizzard shall notify Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy orally and in writing of any inquiries, offers or proposals with respect to a Superior Proposal (which written notice shall include, without limitation, a summary of the details of such proposal (and any amendments or supplements thereto), the identity of the person making it (unless the Superior Proposal is an all cash offer), if not previously provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such party and all other information reasonably requested by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy), within 24 hours of the receipt thereof, shall keep Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy informed of the status and details of any such inquiry, offer or proposal and answer Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy's questions with respect thereto;

- (g) comply with Section 172 of the Securities Act (Alberta) and similar provisions under applicable Canadian securities laws relating to the provision of directors' circulars and make appropriate disclosure with respect thereto to its securityholders; and
- (h) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement a Superior Proposal from a third party, but only if prior to such acceptance, recommendation, approval or implementation, its board of directors shall have concluded in good faith, after considering all proposals to adjust the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement and after receiving the advice of financial advisors and outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharging its fiduciary duties under applicable laws and Blizzard complies with its obligations set forth in the Arrangement Agreement and terminates the Arrangement Agreement and pays the termination fee.

Termination Fee

Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, Blizzard, Shiningbank and Shiningback Energy have agreed that if at any time after the execution of the Arrangement Agreement:

- (a) the board of directors of Blizzard has withdrawn or changed any of its recommendations or determinations regarding the Arrangement in a manner adverse to Shiningback or shall have resolved to do so prior to the Effective Date other than in certain circumstances provided for in the Arrangement Agreement;
- (b) a bona fide Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced, proposed, offered or made to the Blizzard shareholders or to Blizzard and: (i) the Blizzard shareholders do not approve the Arrangement; and (ii) such Acquisition Proposal is consummated within 6 months of the date of the Arrangement Agreement;
- (c) Blizzard accepts, recommends, approves or enters into an agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement) to implement a Superior Proposal prior to the Effective Date or termination of the Arrangement Agreement;
- (d) Blizzard breaches any of its covenants in the Arrangement Agreement or wilfully breaches any other of its representations, warranties or covenants made in the Arrangement Agreement which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement; or
- (e) Blizzard breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in the Arrangement Agreement (other than a wilful breach referred to in (d) above), which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement

(each of the above being a "Shiningbank Damages Event"), then in the event of the termination of the Arrangement Agreement, Blizzard shall pay to Shiningbank $8.0 million (in the case of an event referred to in (a), (b), (c) or (d) above) or $1.0 million in the aggregate (in the case of an event referred to in (e) above) as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy within one business day after the first to occur of the events described above, and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, Blizzard shall be deemed to hold such fund in trust for Shiningbank. Blizzard shall only be obligated to pay a maximum of $8.0 million.

If at any time after the execution of the Arrangement Agreement, Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in the Arrangement Agreement, which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement (being a "Blizzard Damages Event"), then in the event of termination of the Arrangement Agreement, Shiningbank shall pay to Blizzard $1.0 million, in aggregate, as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by Blizzard within one business day after the breach as described above and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, Shiningbank shall be deemed to hold such funds in trust for Blizzard.

Termination

The Arrangement Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Date:

- (a) by mutual written consent of Shiningbank and Blizzard;
- (b) as a result of the failure to satisfy any of the conditions set forth in the Arrangement Agreement;
- (c) by Shiningbank upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event, in certain circumstances, provided that in the event of a Shiningbank Damages Event, the Arrangement Agreement may not be terminated by Shiningbank unless Blizzard securityholders do not approve the Arrangement as required in the interim order of the Court of Queen's Bench concerning the Arrangement or the Arrangement is not submitted for their approval;
- (d) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event, in certain circumstances, and the payment by Blizzard to Shiningbank of the applicable termination fee; or
- (e) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Blizzard Damages Event.

In the event of any such termination, the Arrangement Agreement shall forthwith become void and neither party shall have any liability or further obligation to the other party under the Arrangement Agreement except with respect to the payment of the termination fee which shall survive such termination.

Benefits of Transaction to Shiningbank Energy Trust

Under the Plan, Shiningbank will acquire an attractive suite of long-life natural gas properties concentrated in the Peace River Arch area near Grande Prairie and the Sousa area of north-western Alberta. The majority of the properties are operated and are characterized by high working interests, low operating costs and high field netbacks. The current production of these properties is 4,600 barrels of oil equivalent per day (boe/d), approximately 95% of which is natural gas. The addition of the Blizzard properties adds two new core areas to Shiningbank's operations including the Peace River Arch, which is a logical extension of Shiningbank's existing west-central natural gas focused operations. Significant undeveloped acreage in the two key areas will provide substantial additional low-risk development opportunities over the next several years, which Shiningbank expects to exploit to enhance production volumes and reserves.

Transaction highlights:

- The transaction is expected to be accretive to Shiningbank's cash flow, net asset value, production and reserves on a per unit basis;
- The transaction results in the addition of 4,600 boe/d of low cost natural gas production to Shiningbank's portfolio, increasing Shiningbank's overall natural gas weighting to 78% and improving overall unit operating costs and netbacks;
- Proved plus probable reserves to be acquired by Shiningbank are estimated at 16.0 million barrels of oil equivalent (95% natural gas), as at March 31, 2005, which reserves estimates are based on the year-end reserve evaluation by an independent engineering firm, plus Shiningbank's estimate of reserves added through first quarter 2005 exploration and development drilling activity;
- Approximately 70% of the acquired reserves are proved and 88% of the proved plus probable reserves are developed;
- The proved plus probable reserve life index of the acquired properties is 9.5 years, which is consistent with Shiningbank's reserve life index; and
- Shiningbank will also add approximately 265,000 net acres of undeveloped lands valued at approximately $30 million, which more than doubles Shiningbank's current undeveloped land position.

Based on a total acquisition cost of $275 million, including the assumption of a $42.0 million debt and working capital deficiency, the acquisition metrics of the transaction are as follows:

- Reserve acquisition metrics of $17.19/boe of proved plus probable reserves ($15.31/boe net of $30 million attributed to undeveloped land) and excluding estimated future development costs of $14.7 million;
- Production acquisition cost of $59,780/boe/d ($52,261/boe/d net of the value of undeveloped land) and excluding estimated future development costs;
- Anticipated 2005 annualized cash flow (assuming C$7.00/mcf AECO natural gas and US$45.00/bbl WTI) of $48.4 million; and
- Cash flow multiple of 5.7 times.

Shiningbank is a conventional oil and gas royalty trust listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol SHN.UN.

The board of directors of Shiningbank has unanimously approved this transaction. CIBC World Markets Inc. is acting as financial advisor to Shiningbank in connection with the transaction.

JOINTLY ANNOUNCE SECURITYHOLDER AND COURT APPROVAL OF
PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT

Calgary, Alberta, July 28, 2005 – Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank") and Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") jointly announce today that Blizzard received securityholder approval at its special meeting for the previously announced plan of arrangement. Shareholders, optionholders and warrant holders of Blizzard voted 97.9% in favour of the plan of arrangement which included approval of the plan of arrangement, the stock option plan of Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas") and the initial $6.0 million private placement by Zenas. Shiningbank and Blizzard have also received approval of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta and all other necessary regulatory approvals. It is expected that the plan of arrangement will become effective August 2, 2005. In addition, the common shares of Zenas have been conditionally approved for listing on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") and are expected to start trading under the symbol "ZNS" on Thursday, August 4, 2005, subject to Zenas fulfilling the listing requirements of the TSX.

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SHININGBANK ENERGY ANNOUNCES
SECOND QUARTER 2005 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund"), today announced its financial results for the three months ended June 30, 2005. Production for the second quarter was 18,891 barrels of oil equivalent per day (boe/d) where natural gas is converted to barrels of oil equivalent on the basis of 6 mcf per boe. Revenues, cash flow and net earnings all increased over the comparable period in 2004 due mainly to higher commodity prices. Operating results do not include any impact from the closing of one small corporate acquisition at the end of the quarter or the Blizzard Energy Inc. acquisition which closed after the end of the quarter. The Fund distributed $0.69 per Trust Unit in the quarter representing a 13% annualized pre-tax cash-on-cash distribution rate on the period closing price of Trust Units. The accompanying table provides additional highlights.

The following discussion and analysis of the operating and financial results of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund is for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2005. This information is provided as of August 4, 2005. The second quarter and half-year results have been compared with the corresponding periods in 2004. This discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the Fund's audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, together with the accompanying notes, and the December 31, 2004 Management Discussion & Analysis ("MD&A") and Annual Information Form ("AIF"). These documents and additional information about the Fund are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE

Management believes that distributions to Unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks are useful supplemental measures. Distributions to Unitholders should not be construed as an alternative to net income as determined by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). All references to cash flow throughout this discussion and analysis are based on cash flow before changes in non-cash working capital, which management uses to analyze operating performance and leverage. Cash flow as presented is not intended to represent operating cash flow or operating profits, nor should it be viewed as an alternative to cash flow from operating activities, net earnings or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Operating netbacks, which are calculated as average unit sales price less royalties, transportation costs and operating costs, represent the cash margin for product sold, calculated on a boe basis. Distributions to Unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks as presented do not have any standardized meanings prescribed by Canadian GAAP and therefore may not be comparable with the calculations of similar measures for other entities.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements relating to future events. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by such words as "may," "expects" or similar expressions. These statements represent management's best projections, but undue reliance should not be placed upon them as they are derived from numerous assumptions. These assumptions are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including the business risks discussed in this discussion and analysis and in the AIF, which may cause actual performance and financial results to differ materially from any projections of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers are cautioned that events or circumstances could cause results to differ materially from those predicted.

BARREL OF OIL EQUIVALENT

Barrel of oil equivalent (boe) volumes are reported at 6:1 with 6 mcf = 1 bbl. The 6:1 boe conversion ratio is based on an energy equivalency conversion method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead. While it is useful for comparative measures, it may not accurately reflect individual product values and may be misleading if used in isolation.

REPORTING CURRENCY

All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.

Daily production for the second quarter averaged 18,891 boe/d, down 9% from the same period last year. For the first half of the year, daily production volumes averaged 19,458 boe/d, 1% lower than in 2004. The decreases reflect normal declines in the production base which were not fully offset by production from new wells, as anticipated. Wet weather delayed the tie-in of wells drilled in fourth quarter 2004 and first quarter 2005. An additional 225 boe/d was lost in the second quarter from pipeline damage caused by unprecedented flooding in southern Alberta. A similar amount is expected to be lost in the third quarter as pipeline repairs are completed. However, total production will increase by an approximate 20% for the second half of the year due to the recent acquisitions of Outlook Energy Corp. ("Outlook") and Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") with production expected to average from 23,500 to 24,000 boe/d.

Natural Gas

Shiningbank's realized natural gas prices averaged $7.80/mcf for the quarter, 7% higher than second quarter 2004. Year to date, the average price was 3% higher at $7.41. Hedging decreased the gas price by $0.05/mcf for the quarter but had no significant impact on the year to date price. This compares with a 2004 hedging loss of $0.09/mcf for the quarter and $0.05/mcf for the first six months. Futures prices remain high with upcoming winter prices averaging over $9.00/mcf.

Oil and Natural Gas Liquids

Realized oil prices for the quarter averaged $56.75/bbl, up 32% from second quarter 2004. Realized oil prices for the first half were $56.50/bbl, up 36% from 2004. Hedging reduced the price by $0.83/bbl for the quarter and $0.61/bbl year to date, compared with 2004 hedging losses of $3.66/bbl for the quarter and $2.97/bbl for the first six months.

The benchmark West Texas Intermediate (“WTI”) price averaged 39% higher for the quarter and 40% year to date, however strength in the Canadian dollar partially offset this increase. Oil prices continue to be exceptionally high, with WTI futures averaging over $60.00/bbl for the remainder of 2005.

NGL prices were also strong reflecting high oil prices. The quarterly average NGL price was 16% higher than in second quarter 2004 at $45.29/bbl, and 21% higher year to date at an average $45.61/bbl.

Hedging

Shiningbank maintains an active hedging program designed to reduce the variability of cash flow and stabilize distributions. Under the Fund’s hedging policy, not more than one-half of production volumes of any commodity can be hedged at any one time. Gains and losses from hedging activities are typically recorded when they are realized and are included in oil and natural gas sales unless a particular hedge is considered ineffective. Currently, Shiningbank has the following hedging contracts in place:

Period	Commodity	Volume	Price
April 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$5.00 /GJ floor
			$6.39/GJ ceiling
April 1, 2005 – October 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$6.70/GJ
April 1, 2005 – October 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$6.65 /GJ floor

ROYALTIES

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Total royalties, net (000s)	$ 17,063	$ 17,674	(3)	$ 35,604	$ 31,450	13
As a % of revenue	20.5%	21.9%	(6)	21.8%	20.9%	4
Per boe	$ 9.93	$ 9.39	6	$ 10.11	$ 8.82	15

Royalty expense consists of royalties paid to provincial governments, freehold landowners and overriding royalty owners. The royalty rate decreased in second quarter 2005 due to the receipt of gas cost allowance credits for 2004. Excluding this one time adjustment, the royalty rate for the quarter would have been 21.7%. The Fund expects rates to average 22.5% for the remainder of 2005.

TRANSPORTATION COSTS

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Transportation costs (000s)	$ 1,075	$ 1,540	(30)	$ 2,242	$ 2,875	(22)
Per boe	$ 0.63	$ 0.82	(23)	$ 0.64	$ 0.81	(21)

On a boe basis, transportation costs declined 23% from second quarter 2004 and 21% year to date. The decrease resulted from the termination of certain transportation service commitments. These terminations are not expected to impact the Fund's ability to market its production.

OPERATING COSTS

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Operating costs (000s)	$ 13,949	$ 12,607	11	$ 25,721	$ 23,713	8
Per boe	$ 8.11	$ 6.69	21	$ 7.30	$ 6.65	10

Operating costs on a boe basis increased 21% from second quarter 2004 and 10% year over year, mainly due to two factors: higher field and plant maintenance costs in most areas, and extra costs associated with the second quarter flooding in southern Alberta. Operating costs should decrease slightly in the third quarter with the incorporation of the Blizzard assets which have lower costs. Operating costs are expected to average $7.00/boe for 2005.

OPERATING NETBACKS

($/boe)	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%

Operating netbacks	$ 29.74	$ 25.97	15	$ 28.34	$ 25.56	11

Operating netbacks increased 15% quarter over quarter and 11% year over year due to higher commodity prices and lower transportation costs. Higher operating costs partially offset this increase.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
General and administrative costs (000s)	$ 1,750	$ 1,877	(7)	$ 3,927	$ 3,424	15

Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.03	$ 0.04	(25)	$ 0.07	$ 0.07	-

General and administrative costs remained relatively flat on a boe basis from second quarter 2004. Year over year costs increased 17% on a boe basis due to higher activity levels related to acquisitions, development activities and increasing costs due to additional regulatory requirements. Costs are expected to average $1.25/boe for the remainder of 2005.

INTEREST ON LONG TERM DEBT

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%

Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.04	$ 0.03	33	$ 0.07	$ 0.06	17

Interest expense, which includes bank charges, increased 35% from second quarter 2004 and 30% year over year due to higher debt levels resulting from the funding of acquisitions and capital expenditures. Shiningbank is currently in compliance with all external debt covenants.

DEPLETION, DEPRECIATION AND ACCRETION

Per boe	$ 17.08	$ 16.62	3	$ 17.04	$ 15.98	7

Depletion, depreciation and accretion rose 3% per boe for the second quarter and 7% year over year. These increases were primarily related to the effect of the acquisitions in first quarter 2004.

Per boe	$ 0.35	$ 0.16	119	$ 0.35	$ 0.17	106

During second quarter 2005, three new issues aggregating 50,000 Trust Unit rights were granted. Four new issues of rights aggregating 767,500 (2004 – 495,000) have been granted during the year. The fair value of rights issued was determined using a Black-Scholes model and will be brought into income over the vesting period of the rights. The total second quarter 2005 expense of $607,000 (2004 - $304,000) represented the fair value of rights issued during 2003 through to 2005 and which vested in second quarter 2005. All of these costs are “non-cash” costs and are not deducted in calculating distributions to Unitholders.

INTERNALIZATION OF MANAGEMENT CONTRACT

Per boe	$ 0.21	$ 0.39	(46)	$ 0.21	$ 0.41	(49)

Effective October 9, 2002, the Fund internalized its management by acquiring all of the shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc., the former Manager of the Fund. Prior to the acquisition, the Fund paid fees of 3.25% of net operating income, a fee of 1.5% on the purchase price of acquisitions and a quarterly scheduled dividend in accordance with the terms of a management agreement. The acquisition eliminated all future fees and dividends.

Of the total purchase price of $20.6 million, $11.0 million was deferred, representing Exchangeable Shares subject to escrow provisions which are being amortized into income over specific vesting periods through 2007. During second quarter 2005, $368,000 (2004 - $735,000) was expensed, representing the amortization of these escrowed Exchangeable Shares.

Per boe	$ (0.97)	$ (1.50)	(35)	$ (0.86)	$ (2.22)	(61)

The Fund is obligated to pay provincial capital taxes and federal large corporations tax in its operating entities. Under the Fund’s structure, payments are made between Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and the Fund. These payments provide the mechanism for transferring income to Unitholders along with tax benefits and future tax liabilities. Current income taxes are not presently payable by the Fund or its operating entities.

NET EARNINGS

Shiningbank’s second quarter earnings were $18.8 million (2004 – $16.1 million) or $0.34 per Trust Unit, basic and diluted (2004 - $0.30 basic, $0.29 diluted). Year to date net earnings were $33.2 million (2004 - $34.9 million) or $0.61 per Trust Unit basic, $0.60 diluted (2004 - $0.69 basic, $0.68 diluted).

Total distributions to Unitholders increased 2% for the second quarter and 5% year to date over 2004. The increases were based on large gains in pricing for oil and NGL and strong gas prices.

On a per Trust Unit basis, distributions were consistent in both periods at $0.69 for the quarter and $1.38 year to date. The increase in the number of Trust Units outstanding offset the higher cash flow. The Fund paid out 81% of its cash flow from the second quarter 2005, 83% year to date.

Quarterly fluctuations are primarily the result of production increases due to acquisitions, volumes added through the Fund's development drilling program and realized commodity prices which can be extremely volatile.

Volume increases from acquisitions occurred in second quarter 2003 through the acquisition of assets at Ferrier/O'Chiese and again, in second quarter 2004 with the acquisition of Birchill Resources Limited. The Fund's development drilling program strives to replace natural declines on the production base, with results fluctuating depending on field access for equipment and drilling success. Shiningbank's drilling success rate in 2005 has been 98%.

Natural gas prices remained strong and relatively consistent through the eight quarters. Oil prices increased substantially in late 2004. With oil playing a small role in Shiningbank's overall revenues and with increased capital programs absorbing the extra cash flow, there was no change in distributions.

COSTS OF ACQUISITIONS AND DEVELOPMENT

During the second quarter, Shiningbank spent $31.4 million on the acquisition of Outlook. This acquisition is expected to add 600 boe/d to production for the remainder of the year.

A total of $11.3 million was spent on drilling and new facilities during the second quarter and $25.7 million in the first half of 2005, compared with $9.6 million and $20.6 million, respectively for the same periods in 2004. Cash flow funded $8.7 million of the second quarter expenditures and $15.7 million of the year to date expenditures, with the balance funded by debt and proceeds from the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan. The capital program funded a successful development drilling and tie-in program concentrated in the Ferrier/O'Chiese area. While second quarter field operations were postponed due to wet weather, the Fund's drilling program will be more active in the summer and fall of 2005.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Shiningbank's ability to grow depends on access to bank lines of credit and periodic equity infusions. Smaller acquisitions through the course of a year are funded by bank debt. Equity is issued to fund single large acquisitions, or to pay down debt acquired following a number of smaller acquisitions. When the proceeds of an equity issue are greater than acquisition costs, the excess is used to reduce bank debt.

LONG TERM DEBT

The Fund has a $330 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of Canadian chartered banks of which $207.4 million was drawn at June 30, 2005. This facility was increased from $250 million as a result of the Blizzard acquisition. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006, at which time the facility reverts to a two-year term with principal payments, if necessary, commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $600 million floating charge debenture on all assets of Shiningbank together with supporting debentures and guarantees from the Fund's operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the total debt to cash flow ratio or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee. At June 30, 2005 the debt to cash flow ratio was 1:1. Draw-downs under this facility were used to fund the Blizzard acquisition and, as a result, Shiningbank will have an approximate 1.3 times debt to cash flow ratio in the third quarter.

UNITHOLDERS' EQUITY

A total of 204,621 Trust Units were issued during the second quarter (383,737 year to date) under the Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan and under the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan.

When equity is raised in a public equity issue, the intended use of proceeds is specified in the related prospectus. Each major equity issue has been undertaken to acquire properties or to reduce debt incurred from prior acquisitions. In all cases, the proceeds were used according to the purpose specified.

As of August 4, 2005, the Fund had 54,601,812 Trust Units, 263,482 non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares and 353,614 escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding. Exchangeable Shares held in escrow will be released over the next three years under the terms of two escrow agreements. Exchangeable Shares are not eligible for distributions until they are exchanged for Trust Units at the discretion of the holder. The exchange rate was initially one Trust Unit for each Exchangeable Share. The exchange rate increases with each distribution by an amount equal to the per unit distribution divided by the 10-day weighted average trading price of the Trust Units preceding the record date for that distribution. As of June 30, 2005, the exchange rate was 1 to 1.39023.

¹ The long term debt obligation assumes that the revolving credit line is not renewed in April 2006.

Shiningbank has on-going capital commitments in the ordinary course of business for development drilling, equipment and facilities. These are funded through a combination of cash flow, debt financing and periodic equity financing.

IMPACT OF NEW ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NON-CONTROLLING INTEREST

On March 8, 2005 and effective for second quarter 2005, the Emerging Issues Committee (EIC) of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants amended its position on the reporting of exchangeable securities issued by subsidiaries of income trusts. The amendment states that exchangeable securities issued by a subsidiary of an income trust should be reflected as either non-controlling interest or debt on the consolidated balance sheet unless they meet certain criteria. Shiningbank's Exchangeable Shares meet the specified criteria and therefore, the current treatment of reporting exchangeable securities as equity on the balance sheet continues to be appropriate.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The Fund makes numerous accounting estimates in its financial statements in order to provide timely information to users. A critical accounting estimate is one that requires management to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate is made and, if a different estimate was used, financial results would be materially different. The following estimates are considered critical:

RESERVES

The Fund must estimate its reserves. Reserves are evaluated and reported on annually by independent petroleum reserve evaluators who use various subjective factors and assumptions, including forecasts of costs based on geological and engineering data, projected future rates of production, and timing and amounts of future development costs. Although reserves are estimated, management believes the estimates are reasonable based on information available at the time the estimates were prepared. Management, the Fund's internal engineers, and the Board's Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee all review and approve the estimates reported by the independent reserve evaluators.

As new information becomes available, changes are made to the reserve estimates and future development cost estimates. Historically, the Fund has had no significant changes to these estimates, with the exception of adjusting reserves for acquisitions and divestitures and the results of new drilling. Future actual results could vary greatly from the estimates made, resulting in material changes to the depletion calculation and asset impairment test.

ASSET RETIREMENT OBLIGATION

The Fund's estimated asset retirement obligation is based on estimated timing and costs to abandon and restore properties.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The interim consolidated financial statements of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank" or the "Fund") have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and follow the same accounting principles and methods of computation as the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 unless otherwise disclosed. The disclosures provided below are incremental to those included with the annual consolidated financial statements. The interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto in Shiningbank's annual report for the year ended December 31, 2004.

2. Long Term Debt

Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the "Corporation") has a $330 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of Canadian chartered banks of which $207.4 million was drawn at June 30, 2005. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006. If the revolving facility is not renewed on that date, it will revert to a two year term with principal payments commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $600 million floating charge debenture on all assets of the Corporation together with supporting debentures and guarantees from operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the Fund's total debt to cash flow ratio, or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee.

3. Fixed Assets

Acquisition of Outlook Energy Corp.

Effective June 21, 2005 the Corporation acquired 99.9% of the issued and outstanding common shares of Outlook Energy Corp. ("Outlook") for $31.2 million. The transaction closed June 21, 2005. The acquisition was accounted for by the purchase method and the results of operations of Outlook are included in the accounts from the closing date. The following allocation of net assets acquired is a preliminary calculation which is subject to change with regards to closing adjustments and other items.

(d) Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan

At June 30, 2005, there were 1,937,734 (2004 - 1,578,335) rights outstanding, of which 620,234 (2004 - 503,335) were exercisable at a weighted average exercise price of $13.29 (2004 - $13.62).

Shiningbank recorded Trust Unit incentive compensation expense of $1,222,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2005 (2004 – $602,000) and $607,000 for the quarter (2004 - $304,000) for rights issued between 2003 and 2005, and which vested in 2005.

During the first half of 2005, $408,000 (2004 - $211,000) of contributed surplus was transferred to Trust Unit equity in respect of rights exercised during the period. For the second quarter, $209,000 (2004 - $124,000) was transferred.

The following table reconciles the movement in the contributed surplus balance:

Contributed surplus	Amount (000s)
Balance, December 31, 2004	$ 1,416
Trust Unit incentive compensation	1,222
Net benefit on rights exercised ¹	(408)
Balance, June 30, 2005	$ 2,230

¹ Upon exercise, the net benefit is reflected as a reduction of contributed surplus and an increase to Unitholders' capital.

The $3.6 million fair value of the 767,500 rights issued during the first half of 2005 ($223,000 fair value of 50,000 rights issued during the quarter) was estimated using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 3.81 to 4.21% (3.81 to 4.14% for the quarter), volatility of 60%, life of 10 years, and a distribution yield rate of 10% representing the difference between the anticipated distribution and the anticipated drop in the strike price. Users are cautioned that the assumptions made are estimates of future events and actual results could differ materially from those estimated.

For rights issued in 2002, Shiningbank has elected to disclose the pro forma effect as if the amended accounting standard had been adopted January 1, 2002. The rights granted on January 1, 2002 fully vested on January 1, 2005 and therefore, no Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights would have been recorded during the quarter. For the six months ended June 30, 2004, Shiningbank's net income would have decreased by $254,000 ($127,000 for the quarter) due to additional Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights. Neither basic nor diluted per Trust Unit figures would have changed as a result of this additional expense.

(e) Per Trust Unit amounts

For the six months ended June 30, 2005, the weighted average number of Trust Units and non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding was 54,714,567 (2004 – 50,253,923) and for the three months ended June 30, 2005 was 54,813,864 (2004 - 53,569,521). In computing diluted net earnings per Trust Unit, the dilutive effect of Trust Unit rights and escrowed Exchangeable Shares added 677,306 Trust Units (2004 – 956,302) for the six months and 596,453 (2004 – 972,407) for the quarter, to the weighted average number of Trust Units outstanding.

7. Subsequent Event

The Fund, the Corporation and Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") entered into an arrangement agreement dated June 6, 2005, as amended and restated June 27, 2005. Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, the Fund will acquire the majority of Blizzard's natural gas assets, while certain of Blizzard's producing assets and undeveloped lands will be transferred to Zenas Energy Corp. As a result, pursuant to the Arrangement, Shiningbank issued 8,837,793 Trust Units and $46.6 million cash in exchange for all of the issued and outstanding shares of Blizzard and assumed debt and working capital deficiency of approximately $42.0 million. The Plan was approved by Blizzard Shareholders at a Special Meeting held on July 28, 2005.

Upon the above mentioned close, the Corporation's revolving credit facility was increased from $250 million to $330 million.

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund is a conventional oil and gas royalty trust listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol SHN.UN.

FELLOW UNITHOLDERS

It was an eventful second quarter. We announced two acquisitions which have significantly increased production going into the second half of the year. Approximately 5,200 boe/d, 95% natural gas, has been added to our production volumes; 600 boe/d on June 21, and 4,600 boe/d on August 2. Both acquisitions were completed at attractive prices, and we expect them to be accretive to Unitholders on all measures: cash flow, net asset value, and both production and reserves on a per unit basis.

In addition to volume growth, the transactions have increased our natural gas weighting to 78% of total production. Another and longer-term impact was to double our undeveloped land holdings, with the acquired acreage located in areas that strategically fit with our focus on long-life natural gas assets with attractive development potential.

ACQUISITIONS

Outlook Energy Corp.

The first acquisition was the $31.4 million purchase of Outlook Energy Corp., a private natural gas focused company, adding current production of 600 boe/d, 95% natural gas. The majority of that production is from properties near existing Shiningbank operations in west-central Alberta. We also acquired 6,000 net acres of undeveloped land in the area. This purchase was funded entirely through Shiningbank's existing credit facilities and closed on June 21.

This acquisition was an excellent property fit with our west-central Alberta producing areas and brings with it a program of development drilling opportunities with the potential to increase its production by 30 – 50% by the end of 2005. We estimate adding approximately $2 million to our capital expenditure program in the second half of 2005 as we begin to exploit these assets. In July, we drilled two wells on these properties, both of which are potential gas wells pending completion and tie-in.

Blizzard Energy Inc.

The second and much larger acquisition, a $275 million cash and Trust Unit deal with Blizzard Energy Inc., closed on August 2 boosting production by approximately 4,600 boe/d, again, 95% natural gas. Shiningbank acquired an attractive suite of long-life natural gas properties located in the Peace River Arch area near Grande Prairie and the Sousa area of north-western Alberta. In these two concentrated core areas we have also acquired 265,000 acres of undeveloped land with an attractive portfolio of multi-zone drilling opportunities which we will begin pursuing in the second half of this year.

This acquisition was accomplished through a "plan of arrangement" which required the affirmative vote of 2/3 of Blizzard shareholders and received 98% approval from those shareholders. Under the plan, Shiningbank has issued 8.8 million Trust Units, paid $46.6 million in cash and assumed $42.0 million in debt and working capital deficiency to fund the purchase. Because of the relative strength of the price of Shiningbank units, this acquisition is expected to be highly accretive to cash flow and net asset value per unit.

Blizzard was a publicly traded junior oil and gas company which had grown to produce over 5,000 boe/d in less than two years through a combination of acquisition, exploration and development. As part of the transaction, the management team of Blizzard retained approximately 400 boe/d in a newly created public junior oil and gas company. For Shiningbank, the key features of the Blizzard acquisition were:

- production of approximately 4,600 boe/d
- 95% of production is natural gas
- extremely focused properties in two areas – Sousa in northwest Alberta and in the Peace River Arch area near Grande Prairie, Alberta
- production is in areas with established infrastructure
- significant inventory of development drilling possibilities on 265,000 acres of undrilled land
- virtually all of the gas production is uncontracted and unhedged.

During the second half of 2005, we will commence exploitation of these lands. A major development program is planned for first quarter 2006 in the Sousa area, and further programs are planned for the Grande Prairie opportunities later in 2005 and early 2006.

PRODUCTION

Second quarter production decreased by 9% to 18,891 boe/d from second quarter 2004. The reduction was due to normal production declines which were in line with our internal expectations. The tie-in of an estimated 500 boe/d from wells drilled in last year's fourth quarter and first quarter 2005 was delayed due to a prolonged spring break-up and record rainfall in June. Flood damage also caused the partial shut-in of the Caroline area resulting in the loss of approximately 225 boe/d for the quarter, some of which will continue into the third quarter. Regular planned maintenance reduced second quarter production by 135 boe/d and will temporarily reduce volumes by an approximate 425 boe/d in the third quarter.

PRICING

Gas prices in the second quarter averaged $7.80/mcf. While spot prices have been higher in the past for short periods of time, our average price was one of the highest ever received by the Fund for a full quarter. This unprecedented level is due primarily to the strength in oil prices, combined with general nervousness about the ability of the gas supply to meet demand. Contributing to the market's anxiety are concerns surrounding air conditioning demand with warm summer weather and the early onset of an active hurricane season which, as we saw last year, can disrupt supply from the US Gulf of Mexico.

Oil prices remain at all-time highs as this is written. For the second quarter, realized prices set a new quarterly high averaging $56.75/bbl. We do not see any reason for short-term weakening in markets and expect robust pricing in the second half of the year.

DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITY

During the second quarter, Shiningbank participated in drilling 16 wells (4.0 net), with all but two (2.0 net) operated by others. We delayed most of our operated drilling program until the summer months in order to reduce costs associated with winter operations. However, the summer program did not really get started in Alberta until mid-July due to drilling delays across the industry caused by an extended spring break-up season and heavy rainfall in June. Most of Shiningbank's wells were not completed by the end of the quarter and we are awaiting accurate test data. However, based on present indications, of the 16 wells drilled, two are potential oil wells (1.3 net), 13 are potential gas wells (2.6 net) and one was a dry hole (0.1 net). These wells should be completed in the third quarter with production commencing later in the year.

NEW DIRECTOR

We would like to welcome Richard W. Clark to the Board of Directors. Richard has been the Fund's Corporate Secretary and general counsel since its inception in 1996 and has contributed greatly to our success. Richard has practiced law in Calgary since 1991 and is currently a partner with Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP, the Fund's external legal advisor. Richard's knowledge of the oil and gas business and securities legislation will add significant strength to the Board.

SUSTAINABLE DISTRIBUTIONS

The growth in production and cash flow from our two recent acquisitions, mainly the Blizzard deal, will begin to be seen in the third quarter. Longer-term, we have acquired substantial undeveloped lands which fit with our strategy of focusing on long-life natural gas assets with attractive and substantial multi-zone development opportunities. As we move to exploit these opportunities, a prime goal will be to maintain distributions at a steady level while using cash flow as much as possible to fund an active capital expenditure program. The unprecedented strength in natural gas prices is helping greatly in achieving this goal. While wet weather and poor field conditions worked against the entire industry through the past spring and early summer, we expect to be back on course with drilling and well tie-ins over the course of the year. In all, Shiningbank is well positioned to continue to provide stable distributions to Unitholders.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following is management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") of the operating and financial results of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank" or the "Fund") for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2005. This information is provided as of August 4, 2005. The second quarter and half-year results have been compared with the corresponding periods in 2004. This MD&A should be read in conjunction with the Fund's audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, together with the accompanying notes, and the December 31, 2004 Annual Information Form ("AIF"). These documents and additional information about the Fund are available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE

Management believes that distributions to Unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks are useful supplemental measures. Distributions to Unitholders should not be construed as an alternative to net income as determined by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). All references to cash flow throughout this MD&A are based on cash flow before changes in non-cash working capital, which management uses to analyze operating performance and leverage. Cash flow as presented is not intended to represent operating cash flow or operating profits, nor should it be viewed as an alternative to cash flow from operating activities, net earnings or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with Canadian GAAP. Operating netbacks, which are calculated as average unit sales price less royalties, transportation costs and operating costs, represent the cash margin for product sold, calculated on a boe basis. Distributions to Unitholders, cash flow and operating netbacks as presented do not have any standardized meanings prescribed by Canadian GAAP and therefore may not be comparable with the calculations of similar measures for other entities.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This MD&A contains forward-looking statements relating to future events. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by such words as "may," "expects" or similar expressions. These statements represent management's best projections, but undue reliance should not be placed upon them as they are derived from numerous assumptions. These assumptions are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including the business risks discussed in this MD&A and in the AIF, which may cause actual performance and financial results to differ materially from any projections of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers are cautioned that events or circumstances could cause results to differ materially from those predicted.

BARREL OF OIL EQUIVALENT

Barrel of oil equivalent (boe) volumes are reported at 6:1 with 6 mcf = 1 bbl. The 6:1 boe conversion ratio is based on an energy equivalency conversion method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead. While it is useful for comparative measures, it may not accurately reflect individual product values and may be misleading if used in isolation.

REPORTING CURRENCY

All figures are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Natural gas % of production	72%	72%	-	72%	73%	(1)

Daily production for the second quarter averaged 18,891 boe/d, down 9% from the same period last year. For the first half of the year, daily production volumes averaged 19,458 boe/d, 1% lower than in 2004. The decreases reflect normal declines in the production base which were not fully offset by production from new wells, as anticipated. Wet weather delayed the tie-in of wells drilled in fourth quarter 2004 and first quarter 2005. An additional 225 boe/d was lost in the second quarter from pipeline damage caused by unprecedented flooding in southern Alberta. A similar amount is expected to be lost in the third quarter as pipeline repairs are completed. However, total production will increase by an approximate 20% for the second half of the year due to the recent acquisitions of Outlook Energy Corp. ("Outlook") and Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") with production expected to average from 23,500 to 24,000 boe/d.

Natural Gas

Shiningbank's realized natural gas prices averaged $7.80/mcf for the quarter, 7% higher than second quarter 2004. Year to date, the average price was 3% higher at $7.41. Hedging decreased the gas price by $0.05/mcf for the quarter but had no significant impact on the year to date price. This compares with a 2004 hedging loss of $0.09/mcf for the quarter and $0.05/mcf for the first six months. Futures prices remain high with upcoming winter prices averaging over $9.00/mcf.

Oil and Natural Gas Liquids

Realized oil prices for the quarter averaged $56.75/bbl, up 32% from second quarter 2004. Realized oil prices for the first half were $56.50/bbl, up 36% from 2004. Hedging reduced the price by $0.83/bbl for the quarter and $0.61/bbl year to date, compared with 2004 hedging losses of $3.66/bbl for the quarter and $2.97/bbl for the first six months.

The benchmark West Texas Intermediate ("WTI") price averaged 39% higher for the quarter and 40% year to date, however strength in the Canadian dollar partially offset this increase. Oil prices continue to be exceptionally high, with WTI futures averaging over $60.00/bbl for the remainder of 2005.

NGL prices were also strong reflecting high oil prices. The quarterly average NGL price was 16% higher than in second quarter 2004 at $45.29/bbl, and 21% higher year to date at an average $45.61/bbl.

Hedging

Shiningbank maintains an active hedging program designed to reduce the variability of cash flow and stabilize distributions. Under the Fund's hedging policy, not more than one-half of production volumes of any commodity can be hedged at any one time. Gains and losses from hedging activities are typically recorded when they are realized and are included in oil and natural gas sales unless a particular hedge is considered ineffective. Currently, Shiningbank has the following hedging contracts in place:

Period	Commodity	Volume	Price
April 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005	Gas	5,000 GJ/d	$5.00 /GJ floor $6.39/GJ ceiling

ROYALTIES

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Total royalties, net (000s)	$ 17,063	$ 17,674	(3)	$ 35,604	$ 31,450	13
As a % of revenue	20.5%	21.9%	(6)	21.8%	20.9%	4
Per boe	$ 9.93	$ 9.39	6	$ 10.11	$ 8.82	15

Royalty expense consists of royalties paid to provincial governments, freehold landowners and overriding royalty owners. The royalty rate decreased in second quarter 2005 due to the receipt of gas cost allowance credits for 2004. Excluding this one time adjustment, the royalty rate for the quarter would have been 21.7%. The Fund expects rates to average 22.5% for the remainder of 2005.

TRANSPORTATION COSTS

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Transportation costs (000s)	$ 1,075	$ 1,540	(30)	$ 2,242	$ 2,875	(22)
Per boe	$ 0.63	$ 0.82	(23)	$ 0.64	$ 0.81	(21)

On a boe basis, transportation costs declined 23% from second quarter 2004 and 21% year to date. The decrease resulted from the termination of certain transportation service commitments. These terminations are not expected to impact the Fund's ability to market its production.

OPERATING COSTS

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Operating costs (000s)	$ 13,949	$ 12,607	11	$ 25,721	$ 23,713	8
Per boe	$ 8.11	$ 6.69	21	$ 7.30	$ 6.65	10

Operating costs on a boe basis increased 21% from second quarter 2004 and 10% year over year, mainly due to two factors: higher field and plant maintenance costs in most areas, and extra costs associated with the second quarter flooding in southern Alberta. Operating costs should decrease slightly in the third quarter with the incorporation of the Blizzard assets which have lower costs. Operating costs are expected to average $7.00/boe for 2005.

OPERATING NETBACKS

($/boe)	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Oil and natural gas sales	$ 47.83	$ 42.87	12	$ 46.08	$ 42.01	10

Operating netbacks	$ 29.74	$ 25.97	15	$ 28.34	$ 25.56	11

Operating netbacks increased 15% quarter over quarter and 11% year over year due to higher commodity prices and lower transportation costs. Higher operating costs partially offset this increase.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
General and administrative costs (000s)	$ 1,750	$ 1,877	(7)	$ 3,927	$ 3,424	15

Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.03	$ 0.04	(25)	$ 0.07	$ 0.07	—

General and administrative costs remained relatively flat on a boe basis from second quarter 2004. Year over year costs increased 17% on a boe basis due to higher activity levels related to acquisitions, development activities and increasing costs due to additional regulatory requirements. Costs are expected to average $1.25/boe for the remainder of 2005.

INTEREST ON LONG TERM DEBT

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Interest on long term debt (000s)	$ 1,931	$ 1,431	35	$ 3,775	$ 2,902	30

Per average Trust Unit	$ 0.04	$ 0.03	33	$ 0.07	$ 0.06	17

Interest expense, which includes bank charges, increased 35% from second quarter 2004 and 30% year over year due to higher debt levels resulting from the funding of acquisitions and capital expenditures. Shiningbank is currently in compliance with all external debt covenants.

DEPLETION, DEPRECIATION AND ACCRETION

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,
	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Depletion, depreciation and accretion (000s)	$ 29,367	$ 31,300	(6)	$ 60,004	$ 56,948	5
Per boe	$ 17.08	$ 16.62	3	$ 17.04	$ 15.98	7

Depletion, depreciation and accretion rose 3% per boe for the second quarter and 7% year over year. These increases were primarily related to the effect of the acquisitions in first quarter 2004.

TRUST UNIT INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

	Three months ended June 30,			Six months ended June 30,

Per boe	$ 0.35	$ 0.16	119	$ 0.35	$ 0.17	106

During second quarter 2005, three new issues aggregating 50,000 Trust Unit rights were granted. Four new issues of rights aggregating 767,500 (2004 – 495,000) have been granted during the year. The fair value of rights issued was determined using a Black-Scholes model and will be brought into income over the vesting period of the rights. The total second quarter 2005 expense of $607,000 (2004 – $304,000) represented the fair value of rights issued during 2003 through to 2005 and which vested in second quarter 2005. All of these costs are “non-cash” costs and are not deducted in calculating distributions to Unitholders.

INTERNALIZATION OF MANAGEMENT CONTRACT

	2005	2004	%	2005	2004	%
Internalization of management contract (000s)	$ 368	$ 735	(50)	$ 736	$ 1,469	(50)
Per boe	$ 0.21	$ 0.39	(46)	$ 0.21	$ 0.41	(49)

Effective October 9, 2002, the Fund internalized its management by acquiring all of the shares of Shiningbank Energy Management Inc., the former Manager of the Fund. Prior to the acquisition, the Fund paid fees of 3.25% of net operating income, a fee of 1.5% on the purchase price of acquisitions and a quarterly scheduled dividend in accordance with the terms of a management agreement. The acquisition eliminated all future fees and dividends.

Of the total purchase price of $20.6 million, $11.0 million was deferred, representing Exchangeable Shares subject to escrow provisions which are being amortized into income over specific vesting periods through 2007. During second quarter 2005, $368,000 (2004 – $735,000) was expensed, representing the amortization of these escrowed Exchangeable Shares.

TAXES

Per boe	$ (0.97)	$ (1.50)	(35)	$ (0.86)	$ (2.22)	(61)

The Fund is obligated to pay provincial capital taxes and federal large corporations tax in its operating entities. Under the Fund's structure, payments are made between Shiningbank Energy Ltd. and the Fund. These payments provide the mechanism for transferring income to Unitholders along with tax benefits and future tax liabilities. Current income taxes are not presently payable by the Fund or its operating entities.

NET EARNINGS

Shiningbank's second quarter earnings were $18.8 million (2004 – $16.1 million) or $0.34 per Trust Unit, basic and diluted (2004 – $0.30 basic, $0.29 diluted). Year to date net earnings were $33.2 million (2004 – $34.9 million) or $0.61 per Trust Unit basic, $0.60 diluted (2004 – $0.69 basic, $0.68 diluted).

Trust Units outstanding	54,524	53,608	2	54,524	53,608	2

Total distributions to Unitholders increased 2% for the second quarter and 5% year to date over 2004. The increases were based on large gains in pricing for oil and NGL and strong gas prices.

On a per Trust Unit basis, distributions were consistent in both periods at $0.69 for the quarter and $1.38 year to date. The increase in the number of Trust Units outstanding offset the higher cash flow. The Fund paid out 81% of its cash flow from the second quarter 2005, 83% year to date.

Quarterly fluctuations are primarily the result of production increases due to acquisitions, volumes added through the Fund's development drilling program and realized commodity prices which can be extremely volatile.

Volume increases from acquisitions occurred in second quarter 2003 through the acquisition of assets at Ferrier/O'Chiese and again, in second quarter 2004 with the acquisition of Birchill Resources Limited. The Fund's development drilling program strives to replace natural declines on the production base, with results fluctuating depending on field access for equipment and drilling success. Shiningbank's drilling success rate in 2005 has been 98%.

Natural gas prices remained strong and relatively consistent through the eight quarters. Oil prices increased substantially in late 2004. With oil playing a small role in Shiningbank's overall revenues and with increased capital programs absorbing the extra cash flow, there was no change in distributions.

COSTS OF ACQUISITIONS AND DEVELOPMENT

During the second quarter, Shiningbank spent $31.4 million on the acquisition of Outlook. This acquisition is expected to add 600 boe/d to production for the remainder of the year.

A total of $11.3 million was spent on drilling and new facilities during the second quarter and $25.7 million in the first half of 2005, compared with $9.6 million and $20.6 million, respectively for the same periods in 2004. Cash flow funded $8.7 million of the second quarter expenditures and $15.7 million of the year to date expenditures, with the balance funded by debt and proceeds from the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan. The capital program funded a successful development drilling and tie-in program concentrated in the Ferrier/O'Chiese area. While second quarter field operations were postponed due to wet weather, the Fund's drilling program will be more active in the summer and fall of 2005.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Shiningbank's ability to grow depends on access to bank lines of credit and periodic equity infusions. Smaller acquisitions through the course of a year are funded by bank debt. Equity is issued to fund single large acquisitions, or to pay down debt acquired following a number of smaller acquisitions. When the proceeds of an equity issue are greater than acquisition costs, the excess is used to reduce bank debt.

LONG TERM DEBT

The Fund has a $330 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of Canadian chartered banks of which $207.4 million was drawn at June 30, 2005. This facility was increased from $250 million as a result of the Blizzard acquisition. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006, at which time the facility reverts to a two-year term with principal payments, if necessary, commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $600 million floating charge debenture on all assets of Shiningbank together with supporting debentures and guarantees from the Fund's operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks' prime rate to the banks' prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the total debt to cash flow ratio or, at Shiningbank's option, the bankers' acceptance rate plus a stamping fee. At June 30, 2005 the debt to cash flow ratio was 1:1. Draw-downs under this facility were used to fund the Blizzard acquisition and, as a result, Shiningbank will have an approximate 1.3 times debt to cash flow ratio in the third quarter.

UNITHOLDERS' EQUITY

A total of 204,621 Trust Units were issued during the second quarter (383,737 year to date) under the Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan and under the Fund's Distribution Reinvestment Plan.

When equity is raised in a public equity issue, the intended use of proceeds is specified in the related prospectus. Each major equity issue has been undertaken to acquire properties or to reduce debt incurred from prior acquisitions. In all cases, the proceeds were used according to the purpose specified.

As of August 4, 2005, the Fund had 54,601,812 Trust Units, 263,482 non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares and 353,614 escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding. Exchangeable Shares held in escrow will be released over the next three years under the terms of two escrow agreements. Exchangeable Shares are not eligible for distributions until they are exchanged for Trust Units at the discretion of the holder. The exchange rate was initially one Trust Unit for each Exchangeable Share. The exchange rate increases with each distribution by an amount equal to the per unit distribution divided by the 10-day weighted average trading price of the Trust Units preceding the record date for that distribution. As of June 30, 2005, the exchange rate was 1 to 1.39023.

¹ The long term debt obligation assumes that the revolving credit line is not renewed in April 2006.

Shiningbank has on-going capital commitments in the ordinary course of business for development drilling, equipment and facilities. These are funded through a combination of cash flow, debt financing and periodic equity financing.

IMPACT OF NEW ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NON-CONTROLLING INTEREST

On March 8, 2005 and effective for second quarter 2005, the Emerging Issues Committee (EIC) of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants amended its position on the reporting of exchangeable securities issued by subsidiaries of income trusts. The amendment states that exchangeable securities issued by a subsidiary of an income trust should be reflected as either non-controlling interest or debt on the consolidated balance sheet unless they meet certain criteria. Shiningbank's Exchangeable Shares meet the specified criteria and therefore, the current treatment of reporting exchangeable securities as equity on the balance sheet continues to be appropriate.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The Fund makes numerous accounting estimates in its financial statements in order to provide timely information to users. A critical accounting estimate is one that requires management to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the estimate is made and, if a different estimate was used, financial results would be materially different. The following estimates are considered critical:

RESERVES

The Fund must estimate its reserves. Reserves are evaluated and reported on annually by independent petroleum reserve evaluators who use various subjective factors and assumptions, including forecasts of costs based on geological and engineering data, projected future rates of production, and timing and amounts of future development costs. Although reserves are estimated, management believes the estimates are reasonable based on information available at the time the estimates were prepared. Management, the Fund's internal engineers, and the Board's Environmental, Corporate Governance and Reserve Review Committee all review and approve the estimates reported by the independent reserve evaluators.

As new information becomes available, changes are made to the reserve estimates and future development cost estimates. Historically, the Fund has had no significant changes to these estimates, with the exception of adjusting reserves for acquisitions and divestitures and the results of new drilling. Future actual results could vary greatly from the estimates made, resulting in material changes to the depletion calculation and asset impairment test.

ASSET RETIREMENT OBLIGATION

The Fund's estimated asset retirement obligation is based on estimated timing and costs to abandon and restore properties.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the periods ended June 30, 2005 and 2004

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The interim consolidated financial statements of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (“Shiningbank” or the “Fund”) have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and follow the same accounting principles and methods of computation as the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 unless otherwise disclosed. The disclosures provided below are incremental to those included with the annual consolidated financial statements. The interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto in Shiningbank’s annual report for the year ended December 31, 2004.

2. LONG TERM DEBT

Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (the “Corporation”) has a $330 million revolving credit facility with a syndicate of Canadian chartered banks of which $207.4 million was drawn at June 30, 2005. The revolving period extends to April 27, 2006. If the revolving facility is not renewed on that date, it will revert to a two year term with principal payments commencing on July 28, 2006. The facility is secured by a $600 million floating charge debenture on all assets of the Corporation together with supporting debentures and guarantees from operating subsidiaries and affiliates. Borrowings under the facility bear interest at an annual rate ranging from the banks’ prime rate to the banks’ prime rate plus 0.95%, depending on the Fund’s total debt to cash flow ratio, or, at Shiningbank’s option, the bankers’ acceptance rate plus a stamping fee.

3. FIXED ASSETS

Acquisition of Outlook Energy Corp.

Effective June 21, 2005 the Corporation acquired 99.9% of the issued and outstanding common shares of Outlook Energy Corp. (“Outlook”) for $31.2 million. The transaction closed June 21, 2005. The acquisition was accounted for by the purchase method and the results of operations of Outlook are included in the accounts from the closing date. The following allocation of net assets acquired is a preliminary calculation which is subject to change with regards to closing adjustments and other items.

Cash consideration	$ 31,210
Related fees and expenses	150
Cost of acquisition	$ 31,360
Working capital deficiency	$ (496)
Future income taxes	(7,800)
Asset retirement obligation	(806)

(d) Trust Unit Rights Incentive Plan

At June 30, 2005, there were 1,937,734 (2004 – 1,578,335) rights outstanding, of which 620,234 (2004 – 503,335) were exercisable at a weighted average exercise price of $13.29 (2004 – $13.62).

The following table summarizes information about Trust Unit rights outstanding and exercisable at June 30, 2005:

Range of Exercise Prices	Rights Outstanding			Rights Exercisable
	Number Outstanding at June 30, 2005	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Life (Years)	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Number Exercisable at June 30, 2005	Weighted Average Exercise Price

$9.00 to $21.50	1,937,734	8.3	$ 16.92	620,234	$ 13.29

Shiningbank recorded Trust Unit incentive compensation expense of $1,222,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2005 (2004 – $602,000) and $607,000 for the quarter (2004 – $304,000) for rights issued between 2003 and 2005, and which vested in 2005.

During the first half of 2005, $408,000 (2004 – $211,000) of contributed surplus was transferred to Trust Unit equity in respect of rights exercised during the period. For the second quarter, $209,000 (2004 – $124,000) was transferred.

The following table reconciles the movement in the contributed surplus balance:

Contributed surplus	Amount (000s)
Balance, December 31, 2004	$ 1,416
Trust Unit incentive compensation	1,222
Net benefit on rights exercised ¹	(408)
Balance, June 30, 2005	$ 2,230

¹ Upon exercise, the net benefit is reflected as a reduction of contributed surplus and an increase to Unitholders' capital.

The $3.6 million fair value of the 767,500 rights issued during the first half of 2005 ($223,000 fair value of 50,000 rights issued during the quarter) was estimated using a Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 3.81 to 4.21% (3.81 to 4.14% for the quarter), volatility of 60%, life of 10 years, and a distribution yield rate of 10% representing the difference between the anticipated distribution and the anticipated drop in the strike price. Users are cautioned that the assumptions made are estimates of future events and actual results could differ materially from those estimated.

For rights issued in 2002, Shiningbank has elected to disclose the pro forma effect as if the amended accounting standard had been adopted January 1, 2002. The rights granted on January 1, 2002 fully vested on January 1, 2005 and therefore, no Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights would have been recorded during the quarter. For the six months ended June 30, 2004, Shiningbank's net income would have decreased by $254,000 ($127,000 for the quarter) due to additional Trust Unit incentive compensation expense related to those rights. Neither basic nor diluted per Trust Unit figures would have changed as a result of this additional expense.

(e) Per Trust Unit amounts

For the six months ended June 30, 2005, the weighted average number of Trust Units and non-escrowed Exchangeable Shares outstanding was 54,714,567 (2004 – 50,253,923) and for the three months ended June 30, 2005 was 54,813,864 (2004 – 53,569,521). In computing diluted net earnings per Trust Unit, the dilutive effect of Trust Unit rights and escrowed Exchangeable Shares added 677,306 Trust Units (2004 – 956,302) for the six months and 596,453 (2004 – 972,407) for the quarter, to the weighted average number of Trust Units outstanding.

7. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

The Fund, the Corporation and Blizzard Energy Inc. (“Blizzard”) entered into an arrangement agreement dated June 6, 2005, as amended and restated June 27, 2005. Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, the Fund will acquire the majority of Blizzard’s natural gas assets, while certain of Blizzard’s producing assets and undeveloped lands will be transferred to Zenas Energy Corp. As a result, pursuant to the Arrangement, Shiningbank issued 8,837,793 Trust Units and $46.6 million cash in exchange for all of the issued and outstanding shares of Blizzard and assumed debt and working capital deficiency of approximately $42.0 million. The Plan was approved by Blizzard Shareholders at a Special Meeting held on July 28, 2005.

Upon the above mentioned close, the Corporation’s revolving credit facility was increased from $250 million to $330 million.

OFFICE OF INVESTMENT
CORPORATE FINANCE

I, Bruce K. Gibson, Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer of Shiningbank Energy Ltd., administrator of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund, certify that:

1. I have reviewed the interim filings (as this term is defined in Multilateral Instrument 52-109 Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings) of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund, (the issuer) for the interim period ending June 30, 2005;
2. Based on my knowledge, the interim filings do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances under which it was made, with respect to the period covered by the interim filings; and
3. Based on my knowledge, the interim financial statements together with the other financial information included in the interim filings fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the issuer, as of the date and for the periods presented in the interim filings.

FORM 51-102F3

MATERIAL CHANGE REPORT

Item 1. Name and Address of Issuer:

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank")
1310, 111 - 5th Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta
T2P 3Y6

Item 2. Date of Material Change:

August 2, 2005

Item 3. News Release:

A press release was issued on August 2, 2005 via CNN Matthews Newswire.

Item 4. Summary of Material Change:

The previously announced plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement") involving Shiningbank and Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") was completed effective August 2, 2005. Immediately thereafter, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (Shiningbank's administrator corporation) amalgamated with its wholly-owned subsidiary, Outlook Energy Inc. and with Blizzard to continue as one corporation under the name "Shiningbank Energy Ltd." pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta).

Item 5. Full Description of Material Change:

The Arrangement involving Shiningbank and Blizzard was completed effective August 2, 2005. Immediately thereafter, Shiningbank Energy Ltd. (Shiningbank's administrator corporation) amalgamated with its wholly-owned subsidiary, Outlook Energy Inc. and with Blizzard to continue as one corporation under the name "Shiningbank Energy Ltd." pursuant to the provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta).

A report of reserves data and other oil and gas information as required under item 1 of section 2.1 of the Canadian Securities Administrators' National Instrument 51-101 – Standards of Disclosure for Oil and Gas Activities ("NI 51-101") for Shiningbank (the "Shiningbank 51-101 Report") was filed on SEDAR on March 29, 2005. The Shiningbank 51-101 Report includes information from the evaluations prepared by Paddock Lindstrom & Associates Ltd. and Sproule Associates Limited in accordance with NI 51-101 and the standards contained in the Canadian Oil and Gas Evaluation Handbook (the "COGE Handbook"), which evaluates the crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids reserves attributable to the properties of Shiningbank as of December 31, 2004. The Shiningbank 51-101 Report was included in the Renewal Annual Information Form dated March 21, 2005 (the "AIF") at pages 25 to 57 under the heading "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information". The AIF is available on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Pursuant to the Arrangement, Shiningbank acquired, through acquiring Blizzard, the crude oil, natural gas liquids and natural gas reserves of Blizzard less the reserves transfer to Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas"). A report of reserves data and other oil and gas information as required under item 1 of section 2.1 of NI 51-101 for Blizzard (the "Blizzard 51-101 Report") was included in the information circular of Blizzard Energy Inc. which was prepared in connection with the Arrangement (the "Information Circular"). The Blizzard 51-101 Report includes information from the evaluation prepared by Gilbert Laustsen Jung & Associates Ltd. in accordance with NI 51-101 and the standards contained in the COGE Handbook, which evaluates the crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids reserves attributable to the properties of Blizzard as of December 31, 2004. The Blizzard 51-101 Report is provided at pages F-5 to F-16 of the Information Circular under the heading "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information". The Information Circular is being filed on SEDAR as Shiningbank's Business Acquisition Report and is available at www.sedar.com.

A report of the crude oil, natural gas liquids and natural gas reserves transferred to Zenas and not acquired by Shiningbank prepared in accordance with NI 51-101 (the "Zenas 51-101 Report") was included in the Information Circular. The Zenas 51-101 Report includes information from the Blizzard 51-101 Report as at December 31, 2004 attributed to the properties transferred by Blizzard to Zenas (the "Zenas 2004 51-101 Report"). The Zenas 2004 51-101 Report is provide at pages E-3 to E-9 of the Information Circular under the heading "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information – Zenas 2004 Engineering Report").

Shiningbank's reasonable expectation of how the Arrangement, had it occurred immediately prior to December 31, 2004 (the effective date of the Shiningbank 51-101 Report), would have affected the reserves data or other information contained in the Shiningbank 51-101 Report is that: 1) the reserves and net present values thereof, the future development costs, the property descriptions, the producing and non-producing wells, the non-reserve land holdings and the abandonment and reclamation costs, would all be increased by the amount of such items in the Blizzard 51-101 Report less the amount of such items in the Zenas 2004 51-101 Report; 2) the constant product prices would become the weighed average product prices from the Shiningbank 51-101 Report and the Blizzard 51-101 Report; and 3) the reserves and net present values thereof from the Blizzard 51-101 Report (less those from the Zenas 2004 51-101 Report) would be added to the reconciliation of reserves and net present values thereof in the Shiningbank 51-101 Report under the acquisition category.

Blizzard Energy Inc.

June 28, 2005

Dear shareholders, optionholders and warrant holders:

You are invited to attend a special meeting of Blizzard shareholders ("Blizzard Shareholders"), optionholders and warrant holders (collectively, the "Blizzard Securityholders") to be held at the Westin Hotel, Nakiska Room, 320 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 2S6, at 8:00 a.m. (Calgary time) on July 28, 2005 (the "Meeting"). At the Meeting, you will be asked to consider a proposed arrangement (the "Arrangement") involving Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard"), Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund"), Shiningbank Energy Ltd. ("Shiningbank Energy"), Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas"), Zenas Finance Corp. ("Zenas Finco"), Blizzard Securityholders and securityholders of Zenas Finco .

The Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard entered into an arrangement agreement dated June 6, 2005, as amended and restated June 27, 2005, which was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of Blizzard and Shiningbank Energy, on its own behalf and on behalf of the Fund. Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement set out therein, the Fund will acquire the majority of Blizzard's natural gas assets, while certain of Blizzard's producing assets and undeveloped lands will be transferred to Zenas. Pursuant to the Arrangement, the Zenas Common Shares are effectively consolidated on a six-to-one basis. As a result, under the Arrangement, Blizzard Shareholders will receive, for each Blizzard common share held (the "Blizzard Shares"), 0.0777 of a trust unit of the Fund, $0.4097 cash, one-sixth (1/6) of a common share of Zenas ("Zenas Common Shares") and one warrant (a "Zenas Arrangement Warrant") for each whole Zenas Common Share issued pursuant to the Arrangement, each Zenas Arrangement Warrant entitling the holder to acquire, in accordance with the Arrangement, 0.211 of a Zenas Common Share at an effective exercise price of $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share (Zenas' current estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share after giving effect to the Arrangement).

The Fund is a Calgary-based, oil and gas royalty trust currently producing approximately 20,000 barrels of oil equivalent per day (boe/d). The Fund's operations are geographically concentrated in West Central Alberta and are characterized by long-life, natural gas-focused assets. Under the Arrangement, the Fund will acquire Blizzard's long-life natural gas properties concentrated in the Peace River Arch area near Grande Prairie, Alberta and the Sousa area of Northwestern Alberta. The majority of the properties are operated and are characterized by high working interests, low operating costs and high field netbacks. The current production of these properties is 4,600 boe/d, approximately 95% of which is natural gas. The addition of the Blizzard properties adds two new core areas to the Fund's operations including the Peace River Arch, which is a logical extension of the Fund's existing natural gas focused operations in West Central Alberta. Significant undeveloped acreage in the two key areas will provide substantial additional low-risk development opportunities over the next several years, which the Fund expects to exploit to enhance production volumes and reserves.

The Fund expects to maintain its current distributions payout of approximately 80% percent of cash flow and does not expect to alter the per unit level of its current cash distributions. However, distributions are based on commodity price outlooks and other factors and remain subject to change.

Trust units of the Fund are traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) under the symbol "SHN.UN".

Under the Arrangement, Zenas will acquire approximately 400 boe/d of production primarily within the Grande Prairie area of Alberta, along with approximately 16,355 net acres of undeveloped land. In addition, Zenas will acquire Blizzard's interest in a joint venture agreement with a major exploration and production company encompassing 160,000 acres in Northeast British Columbia. This past winter, a 40 square mile 3D seismic program was run over this area and several stratigraphic wells were drilled which confirmed a significant natural gas resource opportunity.

If you hold Blizzard Shares through a broker or other nominee, it is important that you act quickly and provide instructions to him or her as soon as possible to complete the Letter of Transmittal. By instructing your nominee, on a timely basis, you will also be in the best position to exercise the Zenas Arrangement Warrants at a price of $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share within the 30 day time frame.

Based primarily on independent reserve evaluations, internal land evaluations and a report prepared by Ross Smith Energy Group Ltd. ("Ross Smith"), Zenas will have a net asset value of $28.6 million or $1.50 per common share (on a post-consolidated basis) comprised of $14.9 million for reserves, $3.1 million for undeveloped land, $3.1 million for seismic and $7.5 million for the joint venture opportunity in Northeast British Columbia.

Zenas will be managed by the current executives of Blizzard and will be led by John Rooney as President and Chief Executive Officer, Mike Machalski as Chief Operating Officer and Hal Metcalfe as Chief Financial Officer. In addition to John Rooney, the Board of Directors will include Jim Artindale (Chairman), Larry Evans, Dave MacKenzie, George Watson, Frank Guidolin, Doug Manner and Bob Rooney.

At closing of the Arrangement, it is expected that Zenas will not have any debt and will be well positioned to aggressively pursue and expand its asset base and certain exploratory initiatives, which are currently underway. A capital expenditure program of $13 to $14 million is planned for the remainder of the year. Initial equity financing for Zenas, in the aggregate amount of $6 million, will be provided by a private placement to Zenas directors, officers and employees and an additional $6 million may be raised, at the same price as the private placement, through the exercise of Zenas Arrangement Warrants which are being issued to Blizzard Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement. Zenas also expects to have a bank credit facility in place prior to the effective date of the Arrangement.

The resolution approving the Arrangement and the other matters to be considered by the Blizzard Securityholders must be approved by 66 2/3% of the votes cast by Blizzard Securityholders, voting together as a single class either in person or by proxy at the Meeting, and a majority of the Blizzard Shareholders excluding directors and officers of Blizzard receiving Zenas Finco Common Shares under the private placement and their related parties. The Arrangement is also subject to the approval of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta and all necessary regulatory approvals.

Orion Securities Inc. ("Orion") has provided Blizzard's board of directors with an opinion that the consideration to be received by Blizzard Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Blizzard Shareholders. Waterous Securities Inc. ("Waterous") has provided Blizzard's board of directors with an opinion that the amount of $275 million, as the value of the consideration for the assets to be acquired by the Fund pursuant to the Arrangement, with $2.05 as the portion of that value (before accounting for assumed debt and other liabilities) to be received in respect of such assets by each Blizzard Shareholder for each Blizzard Share held (on a fully diluted basis), is fair, from a financial point of view. Our board, based upon its own investigations, including its consideration of the fairness opinion of each of Orion and Waterous, reviewing and assessing independent reserve and land valuations in respect of Blizzard's assets and the assets of Zenas and reviewing technical due diligence completed by Ross Smith in respect of the Fund, has unanimously concluded that the Arrangement is in the best interests of Blizzard as well as Blizzard Securityholders and recommends that Blizzard Securityholders vote in favour of the Arrangement. Our officers, directors and certain employees, who own approximately 14% of the fully diluted shares of Blizzard, have indicated that they intend to vote in favour of the Arrangement.

Canaccord Capital Corporation, GMP Securities Ltd. and Salman Partners Inc. are acting as strategic advisors to Blizzard and Zenas in connection with the Arrangement.

This information circular contains a detailed description of the Arrangement, as well as detailed information regarding each of Blizzard, the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas and Zenas Finco. Please give this material your careful consideration and, if you require assistance, consult your financial, tax or other professional advisors. If you are unable to attend the Meeting in person, please complete and deliver the form of proxy, which is enclosed, in order to ensure your representation at the meeting. You should also complete and submit the Letter of Transmittal, which is also enclosed, (or instruct your broker or nominee to complete the Letter of Transmittal on your behalf) as soon as possible to receive your trust units in the Fund, cash, Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants. The Zenas Arrangement Warrants expire 30 days after the effective date of the Arrangement. Failure to provide these instructions on a timely basis will jeopardize your ability to receive the full consideration being offered to you under the Arrangement.

On behalf of the directors of Blizzard, I would like to express our gratitude for the support our shareholders have demonstrated with respect to our decision to take the proposed Arrangement forward. We would also like to thank our employees, who have worked very hard assisting us with this task and for providing their support for the proposed Arrangement. We can assure you that the same high level of dedication demonstrated by the directors, management and employees of Blizzard in the past will continue in respect of Zenas should a favorable vote be obtained. We look forward to seeing you at the Meeting.

Yours very truly,

(signed) "John R. Rooney"

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING to be held July 28, 2005

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, pursuant to an order (the "Interim Order") of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta dated June 28, 2005, a special meeting (the "Meeting") of the holders of common shares ("Blizzard Shares") of Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard"), the holders of options to purchase Blizzard Shares ("Blizzard Options") and the holders of series A performance warrants and series B performance warrants (collectively, the "Blizzard Warrants") of Blizzard (collectively, the "Blizzard Securityholders") will be held at the Westin Hotel, Nakiska Room, 320 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 2S6, on July 28, 2005, at 8:00 a.m. (Calgary time) for the following purposes:

- (a) to consider, pursuant to the Interim Order and, if thought advisable, to pass, with or without variation, a special resolution (the "Arrangement Resolution"), the full text of which is set forth in Appendix A to the accompanying information circular and proxy statement dated June 28, 2005 (the "Information Circular"), to approve:
 - (i) a plan of arrangement under section 193 of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), all as more particularly described in the Information Circular (the "Plan of Arrangement");
 - (ii) a stock option plan for Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas"), as more particularly described in the Information Circular; and
 - (iii) an initial private placement of up to 4,000,000 common shares in the capital of Zenas Finance Corp. ("Zenas Finco") (the common shares of Zenas Finco to be exchanged on a one-for-one basis for common shares of Zenas pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement) to directors, officers and employees of Zenas, at the price and on the terms as more particularly described in the Information Circular; and
- (b) to transact such further and other business as may properly be brought before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Specific details of the matters to be put before the Meeting are set forth in the Information Circular.

The record date (the "Record Date") for determination of Blizzard Securityholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting is June 23, 2005. Only Blizzard Securityholders whose names have been entered in the registers of the Blizzard Securityholders on the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting, provided that, to the extent a holder of Blizzard Shares transfers the ownership of any Blizzard Shares after the Record Date and the transferee of those Blizzard Shares establishes ownership of such Blizzard Shares and demands, not later than 10 days before the Meeting, to be included in the list of holders of Blizzard Shares eligible to vote at the Meeting, such transferee will be entitled to vote those Blizzard Shares at the Meeting. Blizzard Shares issued after the Record Date pursuant to the exercise of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants prior to the Meeting cannot be voted at the Meeting.

A Blizzard Securityholder may attend the Meeting in person or may be represented by proxy. Blizzard Securityholders who are unable to attend the Meeting or any adjournment thereof in person are requested to date, sign and return the accompanying form of proxy for use at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. To be effective, the proxy must be received by Valiant Trust Company, 310, 606 – 4th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 1T1 not later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. The proxyholder has discretion under the accompanying form of proxy to vote on amendments or variations on matters identified in this Notice and other matters which may come before the Meeting. Blizzard Securityholders who are planning on returning the accompanying form of proxy are encouraged to review the Information Circular carefully before submitting the proxy form.

Registered holders of Blizzard Securities have the right to dissent with respect to the Arrangement Resolution and, if the Arrangement Resolution becomes effective, to be paid the fair value of their Blizzard Securities in accordance with the provisions of Section 191 of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), the Plan of Arrangement and the Interim Order. A Blizzard Securityholder's right to dissent is more particularly described in the Information Circular and the text of Section 191 of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) is set forth in Appendix I to the accompanying Information Circular. A dissenting Blizzard Securityholder must send to the President and Chief Executive Officer of Blizzard a written objection to the Arrangement Resolution, which written objection must be received by Blizzard, at its registered office, by 4:00 p.m. on the Business Day immediately preceding the date of the Meeting.

Failure to strictly comply with the requirements set forth in Section 191 of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), may result in the loss of any right to dissent. Persons who are beneficial owners of Blizzard Securities registered in the name of a broker, custodian, nominee or other intermediary who wish to dissent should be aware that only the registered holders of Blizzard Securities are entitled to dissent. Accordingly, a beneficial owner of Blizzard Securities desiring to exercise the right to dissent must make arrangements for the Blizzard Securities beneficially owned by such holder to be registered in the holder's name prior to the time the written objection to the Arrangement Resolution is required to be received by Blizzard or, alternatively, make arrangements for the registered holder of such Blizzard Securities to dissent on behalf of the holder.

Dated at the City of Calgary, in the Province of Alberta, this 28th day of June, 2005.

AND IN THE MATTER OF a Plan of Arrangement proposed by Blizzard Energy Inc. involving Blizzard Energy Inc., Shiningbank
Energy Income Fund, Shiningbank Energy Ltd., Zenas Energy Corp., Zenas Finance Corp., Blizzard Securityholders and Zenas Finance
Corp. Securityholders

NOTICE OF PETITION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a Petition (the "Petition") has been filed by Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") for approval of an arrangement (the "Arrangement") pursuant to Section 193 of the Business Corporations Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. B-9, as amended (the "ABCA"), involving Blizzard, holders (collectively, the "Blizzard Securityholders") of common shares in the capital of Blizzard ("Blizzard Shares"), options, whether or not vested, to acquire Blizzard Shares ("Blizzard Options") and series A performance warrants and series B performance warrants (collectively the "Blizzard Warrants"), whether or not vested, to acquire Blizzard Shares, Shiningbank Energy Income Fund, Shiningbank Energy Ltd., Zenas Energy Corp., Zenas Finance Corp. ("Zenas Finco"), Blizzard Securityholders and securityholders of Zenas Finco, which Arrangement is described in greater detail in the Information Circular of Blizzard dated June 28, 2005, which accompanies this Notice of Petition.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that the Petition will be heard before the presiding Justice in Chambers at the Court House, 611 – 4th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, on July 28, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. (Calgary time), or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard. At the hearing of the Petition, Blizzard intends to seek the following:

1. an order approving the Arrangement pursuant to the provisions of Section 193 of the ABCA; and
2. such other and further orders, declarations and directions as the Court may deem just.

Any Blizzard Securityholder or other interested party desiring to support or oppose the Petition may appear at the time of the hearing in person or by counsel for that purpose; provided that any Blizzard Securityholder or other interested party desiring to appear or be heard or present evidence at the hearing is required to file with the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, Judicial Centre of Calgary (the "Court") and serve upon Blizzard, on or before 12:00 noon (Calgary time) on July 22, 2005, a Notice of Intent to Appear including such securityholder's or other interested party's address for service, and indicating whether such securityholder or other interested party intends to support or oppose the application or make submissions thereat, together with a summary of the position that such holder or person intends to advance before the Court and any evidence or materials which are to be presented to the Court. Service on Blizzard is to be effected by delivery to the solicitors for Blizzard at the address set forth below.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that, at the hearing, subject to the foregoing, the Blizzard Securityholders and any other interested parties will be entitled to make representations as to, and the Court will be requested to consider, the fairness of the Arrangement. If you do not attend, either in person or by counsel, at that time, the Court may approve the terms and conditions of the Arrangement as presented, approve the Arrangement subject to such terms and conditions as the Court shall deem fit, or refuse to approve the Arrangement without any further notice to you.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that the Court, by an Interim Order dated June 28, 2005, has given directions as to the calling and holding of a special meeting of the Blizzard Securityholders for the purpose of such securityholders voting upon a special resolution to approve the Arrangement and, in particular, has directed that registered holders of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants shall have the right to dissent under the provisions of Section 191 of the ABCA upon compliance with the terms of the Interim Order.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that a copy of the Petition and other documents in the proceedings will be furnished to any Blizzard Securityholder or other interested party requesting the same by the undermentioned counsel for Blizzard upon written request delivered to such solicitors.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that the counsel for Blizzard is as follows:

INFORMATION CIRCULAR

Introduction

This Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by and on behalf of the management of Blizzard for use at the Meeting and any adjournment thereof. No Person has been authorized to give any information or make any representation in connection with the Arrangement or any other matters to be considered at the Meeting other than those contained in this Information Circular and, if given or made, any such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorized.

The information concerning Blizzard, Zenas and Zenas Finco contained in this Information Circular has been provided by Blizzard, Zenas and Zenas Finco, respectively.

The information concerning the Fund and Shiningbank Energy contained in this Information Circular has been provided by the Fund and Shiningbank Energy. Although Blizzard, Zenas and Zenas Finco have no knowledge that would indicate that any of such information is untrue or incomplete, Blizzard, Zenas and Zenas Finco do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of such information or the failure by the Fund and Shiningbank Energy to disclose events which may have occurred or may affect the completeness or accuracy of such information but which are unknown to Blizzard, Zenas and Zenas Finco.

All summaries of, and references to, the Arrangement in this Information Circular are qualified in their entirety by reference to the complete text of the Plan of Arrangement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A to the Arrangement Agreement, which is attached as Appendix C to this Information Circular. You are urged to carefully read the full text of the Plan of Arrangement.

All capitalized terms used in this Information Circular but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set forth under "Glossary of Terms". Information contained in this Information Circular is given as of June 28, 2005 unless otherwise specifically stated.

Forward-looking Statements

This Information Circular, including documents incorporated by reference herein, contains forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact contained in this Information Circular are forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding the future financial position, business strategy, proposed acquisitions, budgets, litigation, projected costs and plans and objectives of or involving Blizzard, the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas or Zenas Finco. Securityholders can identify many of these statements by looking for words such as "believes", "expects", "will", "intends", "projects", "anticipates", "estimates", "continues" or similar words or the negative thereof. These forward-looking statements include statements with respect to: amounts to be retained for growth capital expenditures; the amount and timing of the payment of the distributions of the Fund; production rates; the business plan and capitalization of Zenas; the timing of the Final Order and the Effective Date of the Arrangement; and the satisfaction of listing conditions. There can be no assurance that the plans, intentions or expectations upon which these forward-looking statements are based will occur. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including those discussed elsewhere in this Information Circular. Although Blizzard believes that the expectations represented in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, there can be no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. Some of the risks which could affect future results and could cause results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements contained herein include: the impact of general economic conditions, industry conditions, governmental regulation, volatility of commodity prices, currency fluctuations, imprecision of reserve estimates, environmental risks, competition from other industry participants, the lack of availability of qualified personnel or management, stock market volatility and ability to access sufficient capital from internal and external sources and the risk that actual results will vary from the results forecasted and such variations may be material.

The information contained in this Information Circular identifies additional factors that could affect the operating results and performance of Blizzard, the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Zenas. You should carefully consider those factors.

The forward-looking statements contained herein are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. The forward-looking statements included in this Information Circular are made as of the date of this Information Circular and Blizzard undertakes no obligation to publicly update such forward-looking statements to reflect new information, subsequent events or otherwise unless so required by applicable securities laws.

Advice to Beneficial Holders of Blizzard Shares

The information set forth in this section is very important to you if you do not hold Blizzard Shares in your own name. If you hold Blizzard Shares through a broker, financial institution, trustee, nominee or other intermediary or otherwise (referred to in this section as "Beneficial Holders"), you should note that only proxies deposited by persons whose names appear on the records of Blizzard as the registered holders of Blizzard Shares will be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting.

Blizzard Shares that are listed in an account statement provided to you by a broker are probably not registered in your own name on the records of Blizzard. Such Blizzard Shares are more likely to be registered in the name of your broker or an agent of that broker. In Canada, most such Blizzard Shares are registered in the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited, which acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms). Blizzard Shares held by brokers or other intermediaries on your behalf can only be voted (for or against resolutions) at your direction. Without specific instructions, brokers and other intermediaries are prohibited from voting Blizzard Shares for their clients. You should ensure that instructions regarding the voting of your Blizzard Shares are communicated to the appropriate person by the appropriate time.

Applicable regulatory policy in Canada requires brokers and other intermediaries to seek voting instructions from you in advance of shareholder meetings. Each broker or other intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions to clients. You should carefully follow these procedures and instructions to ensure that your Blizzard Shares are voted at the Meeting. In some cases, the form of proxy or voting instruction form provided to you by or on behalf of your broker or other intermediary is very similar, even identical, to the form of proxy being solicited by management of Blizzard. The purpose of the form of proxy or voting instruction form provided by or on behalf of a broker or other intermediary, however, is limited to instructing the registered holder (the broker or other intermediary, or an agent thereof) how to vote on your behalf. Most brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining voting instructions from clients to ADP Investor Communications ("ADP"). ADP typically supplies voting instruction forms, mails these forms to you and asks you to return the forms to ADP or follow specified telephone or internet-based voting procedures. ADP then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions regarding the voting of Blizzard Shares to be represented at the Meeting. If you receive a voting instruction form from ADP, you cannot use that form to vote your Blizzard Shares directly at the Meeting, but must instead return the voting instruction form to ADP or complete the telephone or internet-based voting procedures well in advance of the Meeting to have such Blizzard Shares voted at the Meeting on your behalf.

Although you may not be recognized directly at the Meeting for the purposes of voting Blizzard Shares registered in the name of your broker or other intermediary, you may attend at the Meeting as proxyholder for the registered holder and vote your Blizzard Shares in that capacity. If you wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote your own Blizzard Shares, you must do so as proxyholder for the registered holder. To do this, you should enter your own name in the blank space on the form of proxy or voting instruction form provided to you and return the document to your broker or other intermediary (or the agent of such broker or other intermediary) in accordance with the instructions provided by such broker, intermediary or agent well in advance of the Meeting.

YOU SHOULD ALSO INSTRUCT YOUR BROKER OR OTHER INTERMEDIARY TO COMPLETE THE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL REGARDING THE ARRANGEMENT WITH RESPECT TO YOUR BLIZZARD SHARES, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE IN ORDER TO RECEIVE YOUR TRUST UNITS, CASH, ZENAS COMMON SHARES AND THE ZENAS ARRANGEMENT WARRANTS. THE ZENAS ARRANGEMENT WARRANTS EXPIRE 30 DAYS AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE ARRANGEMENT. FAILURE TO PROVIDE THESE INSTRUCTIONS ON A TIMELY BASIS WILL JEOPARDIZE YOUR ABILITY TO RECEIVE THE FULL CONSIDERATION BEING OFFERED TO YOU UNDER THE ARRANGEMENT.

Information For U.S. Securityholders

None of the securities to be issued to U.S. Securityholders in exchange for their Blizzard Securities under the Arrangement have been registered under the 1933 Act and are being issued to U.S. Securityholders in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in section 3(a)(10) thereof. The solicitation of proxies for the Meeting is not subject to the requirements of section 14(a) of the 1934 Act. The Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants may ultimately be held by U.S. Securityholders and will not be listed for trading on any United States stock exchange. Accordingly, the solicitations and transactions contemplated in this Information Circular are made in the United States for securities of a Canadian issuer in accordance with Canadian corporate and securities laws, and this Information Circular has been prepared solely in accordance with disclosure requirements applicable in Canada. Blizzard Securityholders in the United States should be aware that such requirements are different from those of the United States applicable to registration statements under the 1933 Act and proxy statements under the 1934 Act. Specifically, information concerning the operations of Blizzard, the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas and Zenas Finco contained herein has been prepared in accordance with Canadian disclosure standards, which are not comparable in all respects to United States disclosure standards. The unaudited and audited pro forma and historical financial statements of the Fund, the unaudited and audited pro forma and historical financial and operating statements of Blizzard, and the unaudited and audited pro forma and historical financial and operating statements of Zenas included in or incorporated by reference in this Information Circular have been prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP and are subject to Canadian auditing and auditor independence standards, which differ from United States GAAP and auditing and auditor independence standards in certain material respects, and thus may not be comparable to financial statements of United States companies.

Tax considerations applicable to U.S. Securityholders have not been included in this Information Circular. There may be material United States tax issues for U.S. Securityholders as a result of the Arrangement, which may include, without limitation, the possibility that the Arrangement is a taxable transaction, in whole or in part, for United States Federal income tax purposes, and the possibility that one or more of Blizzard, the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas or Zenas Finco may be classified as a passive foreign investment company, which classification would subject holders to special, generally adverse tax consequences.

U.S. Securityholders are advised to consult their tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the Arrangement in light of their particular situation, as well as any tax consequences that may arise under the laws of any other relevant foreign, state, local, or other taxing jurisdiction.

The enforcement by investors of civil liabilities under the United States securities laws may be affected adversely by the fact that Blizzard, the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas and Zenas Finco are settled or organized, as applicable, under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the United States, that their officers, the directors and trustee, as applicable, are residents of countries other than the United States, that the experts named in this Information Circular are residents of countries other than the United States, and that all of the assets of Blizzard, the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas and Zenas Finco and such persons are located outside the United States.

Currency Exchange Rates

The financial statements included or incorporated by reference in this Information Circular are in Canadian dollars. The following table sets forth, for each period indicated, the high and low exchange rates, the average of such exchange rates on the last business day of each month during such period, and the exchange rate at the end of such period, based on the daily noon rate of exchange as reported by the Bank of Canada (the "noon exchange rate"). These rates are set forth as United States dollars per Cdn. $1.00 and are the inverse of the rates quoted by the Bank of Canada for Canadian dollars per US $1.00. On June 28, 2005, the noon exchange rate was Cdn. $1.00 to US $0.8122.

NONE OF THE SECURITIES TO BE ISSUED TO U.S. SECURITYHOLDERS HAVE BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR THE SECURITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITY IN ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES, NOR HAS THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR SUCH AUTHORITY PASSED ON THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THIS INFORMATION CIRCULAR. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENCE.

Supplementary Disclosure – Non GAAP Measures

This Information Circular contains references to terms commonly used in the oil and gas industry. Cash flow from operations and cash-on-cash yield are not defined by GAAP, and are referred to as non-GAAP measures. Cash flow from operations represents funds from operations as detailed on the financial statements included in this Information Circular. Cash-on-cash yield is a useful and widely used supplemental measure that provides investors with information on cash actually distributed relative to trading price. Investors are cautioned that cash flow from operations and cash-on-cash yield should not be construed as an alternate to net income as determined by Canadian GAAP and may not be comparable to similar measures disclosed for other issuers. Investors are also cautioned that cash-on-cash yield represents a blend of return of the investor's initial investment and a return on the investor's initial investment and is not comparable to traditional yield on debt instruments where investors are entitled to full return of the principal amount of debt on maturity in addition to a return on investment through interest payments.

SUMMARY INFORMATION

The following is a summary of certain information contained elsewhere in this Information Circular, including the Appendices hereto, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the more detailed information contained or referred to elsewhere in this Information Circular or in the Appendices hereto. Terms with initial capital letters used in this summary are defined in the "Glossary of Terms". In this summary, all dollar amounts are stated in Canadian dollars.

The Meeting

The Meeting will be held at the Westin Hotel, Nakiska Room, 320 – 4th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 2S6, on July 28, 2005, at 8:00 a.m. (Calgary time) for the purposes set forth in the accompanying applicable Notice of Special Meeting. The business of the Meeting will be to consider and vote upon the Arrangement Resolution. See "Effect of the Arrangement - Details of the Arrangement" and "Other Matters Considered in the Arrangement Resolution".

The Arrangement

General

The Fund is a Calgary-based, oil and gas royalty trust currently producing approximately 20,000 boe/d. The Fund's operations are geographically concentrated in West Central Alberta and are characterized by long-life, natural gas-focused assets. Under the Arrangement, the Fund will acquire Blizzard's long-life natural gas properties concentrated in the Peace River Arch area near Grande Prairie, Alberta and the Sousa area of Northwestern Alberta. The majority of the properties are operated and are characterized by high working interests, low operating costs and high field netbacks. The current production of these properties is 4,600 boe/d, approximately 95% of which is natural gas.

The Arrangement will result in the Fund acquiring the majority of Blizzard's natural gas assets, while certain of Blizzard's producing assets and undeveloped lands will be transferred to Zenas. Under the Arrangement, Blizzard Shareholders will receive, for each Blizzard Share held, 0.0777 of a Trust Unit, $0.4097 cash, one-sixth (1/6) of a Zenas Common Share and one Zenas Arrangement Warrant for each whole Zenas Common Share issued pursuant to the Arrangement, each Zenas Arrangement Warrant entitling the holder to acquire, in accordance with the Arrangement, 0.211 of a Zenas Common Share at an effective exercise price of $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share (Zenas' current estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share after giving effect to the Arrangement).

If you hold Blizzard Shares with a broker or other nominee, it is important that you act quickly and provide instructions to him or her as soon as possible to complete the Letter of Transmittal. By instructing your nominee, on a timely basis, you will also be in the best position to exercise the Zenas Arrangement Warrants within the 30 day time frame at $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share (Zenas' current estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share after giving effect to the Arrangement).

Blizzard Optionholders may choose to participate in the Arrangement by exercising their Blizzard Options and receiving the same consideration as Blizzard Shareholders. All unexercised Blizzard Options (other than Blizzard Options transferred to Blizzard by Dissenting Optionholders pursuant to the Arrangement) will be cancelled for no consideration.

Blizzard Warranholders may choose to participate in the Arrangement by exercising their Blizzard Warrants and receiving the same consideration as Blizzard Shareholders. All unexercised Blizzard Warrants (other than Blizzard Warrants transferred to Blizzard by Dissenting Warranholders pursuant to the Arrangement) will be cancelled for no consideration.

The Arrangement provides that any certificate representing the Blizzard Shares that are not validly deposited with the Depositary within ten years following the Effective Date shall cease to represent a claim or interest of any kind or nature in the Fund and/or Zenas, as applicable and the Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares, Zenas Arrangement Warrants and the Cash Consideration to which the holder of such certificate would have otherwise been entitled and such certificate shall be deemed to have been surrendered to the Fund, together with all entitlements to distributions, dividends and payments thereon held for the holder of such Blizzard Shares.

Post Arrangement Structure

Following the Effective Date of the Arrangement:

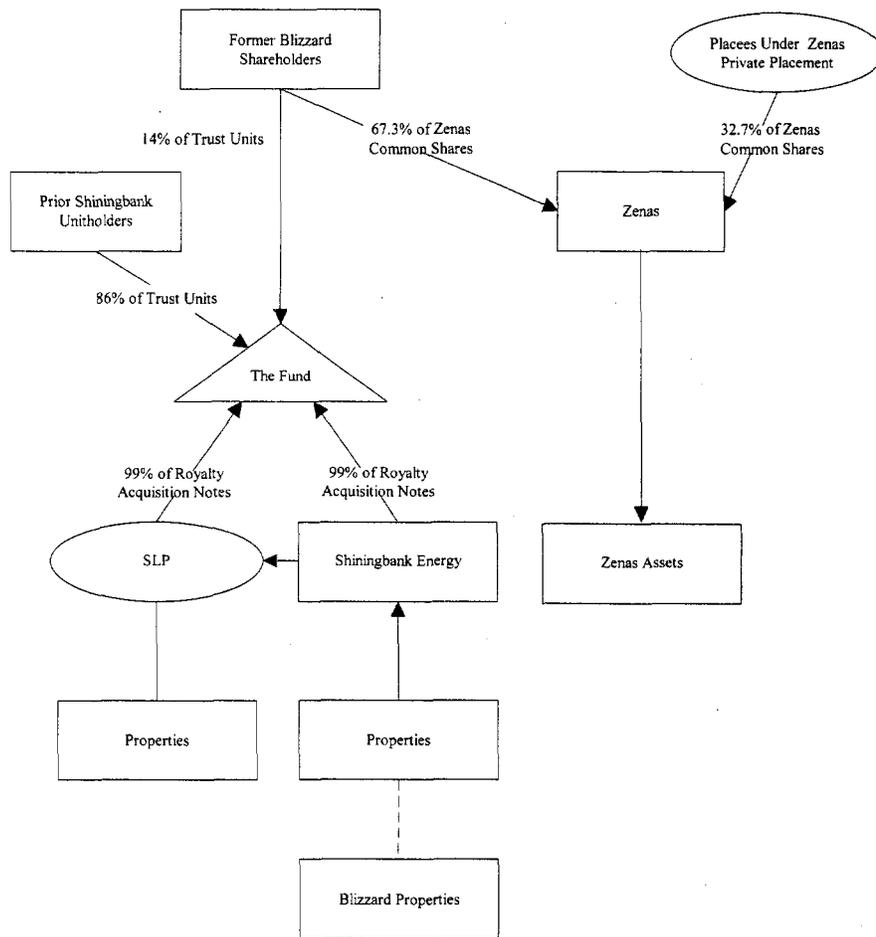

Blizzard Optionholders and Blizzard Warrantholders

- Blizzard Optionholders and Blizzard Warrantholders who exercised their Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants prior to the Effective Date will become Blizzard Shareholders and be treated on the same basis as Blizzard Shareholders; and
- all unexercised Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants (other than Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants transferred to Blizzard by Dissenting Optionholders or Dissenting Warrantholders, respectively) will be cancelled for no consideration.

Blizzard Shareholders

- As a result of the Arrangement, Blizzard Shareholders (other than Dissenting Shareholders) will receive, for each Blizzard Share held, 0.0777 of a Trust Unit, $0.4097 cash, one-sixth (1/6) of a Zenas Common Share and one Zenas Arrangement Warrant for each whole Zenas Common Share issued pursuant to the Arrangement, each Zenas Arrangement Warrant entitling the holder to acquire, in accordance with the Arrangement, 0.211 of a Zenas Common Share at an effective exercise price of $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share (Zenas' current estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share after giving effect to the Arrangement).
- Assuming the maximum subscription occurs under the Zenas Private Placement and the exercise of all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants into Zenas Common Shares in accordance with the terms of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants, placees of the Zenas Private Placement will own 32.7% of the Zenas Common Shares (including such number of Zenas Common Shares issued to such placees pursuant to the Arrangement) and Blizzard Shareholders (other than the placees under the Zenas Private Placement) will own 67.3% of the Zenas Common Shares.

The following diagram illustrates a simplified organizational structure of the Fund and Zenas following the completion of the Arrangement.

Note:

- (1) Assuming completion of the Arrangement (with no Dissent Rights exercised) and the exercise of all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants into Zenas Common Shares in accordance with the terms of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants. In the event that all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants are exercised, Blizzard Securityholders will hold 67.3% of the Zenas Common Shares and places under the Zenas Private Placement will hold 32.7% of the Zenas Common Shares.

See "The Arrangement", "Effect of the Arrangement", Appendix E "Information Concerning Zenas" and Appendix H "Information Concerning the Fund".

Background to and Reasons for the Arrangement

Management of Blizzard continually reviews all options available to them to ensure that the value of Blizzard Shares is being maximized. In March, 2005, the board of directors and management of Blizzard undertook an informal process to review various alternatives to maximize the value of Blizzard Shares. With the assistance of Waterous and Orion, Blizzard reviewed the market place and specifically considered the merits of disposing of certain assets with the intention that the remaining assets would be reorganized into an exploration focused exploration and production company. In April and May, 2005, Waterous and representatives from the board of directors and management of Blizzard had various discussions with select interested parties about the potential sale or merger of Blizzard. The discussions were, in general, focused around the merger of Blizzard with the various interested parties for the purpose of (i) combining the mature assets of each company to form a trust and "spinning out" one or more exploration companies and (ii) combining the mature assets of Blizzard with an existing trust and "spinning out" one or more exploration companies. Blizzard also considered the merits of Blizzard pursuing its business plan, completing a large property or corporate acquisition or selling Blizzard as a whole. Certain parties responded with an interest in pursuing a transaction with Blizzard. In May, 2005, the Fund and Blizzard entered into discussions about Blizzard selling to, or merging with, the Fund. The Fund conducted a due diligence investigation of Blizzard and a subsequent transaction proposal was submitted to Blizzard on May 12, 2005. Representatives of Blizzard and the Fund continued to negotiate the terms of a proposed transaction. Blizzard focused on crystallizing and enhancing value for Blizzard Shareholders in respect of a potential acquisition of Blizzard by Shiningbank.

The board of directors of Blizzard met on May 14, 2005 and May 29, 2005 to discuss the Fund's proposal and the status of negotiations and the transaction.

The board of directors of Blizzard received and reviewed presentations from Waterous and Orion, reviewed and assessed independent reserves and land valuations in respect of its assets and the assets of Zenas, considered technical due diligence completed by Ross Smith in respect of the Fund and were advised by Bennett Jones LLP, counsel for Blizzard. The board of directors of Blizzard retained independent counsel, Blake Cassels & Graydon LLP, to provide advice on process and fiduciary duties and retained Ross Smith to assess the market value of the joint venture opportunity to be transferred to Zenas.

Management of Blizzard continued to negotiate with the Fund from May 29 to June 5, 2005 to finalize the terms of the transaction and on June 5, 2005, the board of directors of Blizzard convened a formal meeting to consider the Arrangement.

At the June 5, 2005 meeting, the board of directors of Blizzard received advice from independent counsel and received presentations from its financial advisors. After considering: (i) advice of counsel; (ii) advice of Orion and Waterous; (iii) the Ross Smith Report; (iv) the Arrangement Agreement; and (iv) the terms of the Zenas Private Placement and the Zenas Option Plan, the board of directors of Blizzard approved the transaction with the Fund.

Canaccord Capital Corporation, GMP Securities Ltd. and Salman Partners Inc. are acting as strategic advisors to Blizzard and Zenas in connection with the Arrangement.

Blizzard entered into the Arrangement Agreement because it believes that the Arrangement will enhance value for Blizzard Shareholders through:

- equity participation in one of the premier natural gas weighted trusts in the oil and gas royalty trust sector, which will allow continuing participation in the strength of natural gas prices and will deliver an attractive stream of cash distributions;
- monetization of a portion of their investment in Blizzard at an attractive valuation; and
- participation in a high growth exploration-focused producer with a sizeable prospect inventory.

Approval of Securityholders Required for the Arrangement

Pursuant to the Interim Order, the number of votes required to pass the Arrangement Resolution shall be not less than two-thirds of the votes cast by Blizzard. Securityholders voting together as a single class, either in person or by proxy, at the Meeting. In addition, the Arrangement Resolution must be approved by a majority of the votes cast by the Blizzard Shareholders, after excluding the votes cast by directors and officers of Blizzard receiving Zenas Finco Common Shares under the Zenas Private Placement and their related parties as defined in Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501. See "General Proxy Matters".

Fairness Opinions

The board of directors of Blizzard retained Orion and Waterous to address the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by Blizzard. In connection with this mandate, Orion and Waterous have prepared the Blizzard Fairness Opinions. The Orion opinion states that, in its opinion, as of June 28, 2005, the consideration to be received by Blizzard Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Blizzard Shareholders. The Waterous opinion states that, in its opinion, as of June 28, 2005, the amount of $275 million, as the value of the consideration for the assets to be acquired by the Fund pursuant to the Arrangement, with $2.05 as the portion of that value (before accounting for assumed debt and other liabilities) to be received in respect of such assets by each Blizzard Shareholder for each Blizzard Share held (on a fully diluted basis), is fair, from a financial point of view. Both opinions are subject to the assumptions and limitations contained therein and should be read in their entirety. See "Effect of The Arrangement – Blizzard Fairness Opinions" and Appendix D "Blizzard Fairness Opinions".

Recommendations of the Boards of Directors

The Board of Directors of Blizzard determined that the Arrangement is fair to Blizzard Securityholders, is in the best interests of Blizzard and the Blizzard Securityholders and authorized the submission of the Arrangement for approval and to the Court for the Final Order. See "Effect of the Arrangement - Interests of Certain Persons or Companies in the Arrangement" and "Effect of the Arrangement - Recommendations of the Boards of Directors". Members of the board of directors, management and certain employees of Blizzard, holding an aggregate of 16,027,290 Blizzard Securities representing approximately 14% of the fully diluted shares of Blizzard, have agreed to vote their Blizzard Securities in favour of the Arrangement Resolution subject to the terms of the Blizzard Lock-Up Agreements.

Final Order

Implementation of the Arrangement requires the satisfaction of several conditions and the approval of the Court. See "Effect of the Arrangement – Procedure for the Arrangement Becoming Effective". An application for the Final Order approving the Arrangement is expected to be made on July 28, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. at the Court House, 611 – 4th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta. On the application, the Court will consider the fairness of the Arrangement.

Right to Dissent

Pursuant to the Interim Order, Registered Holders have the right to dissent with respect to the Arrangement Resolution if the Dissenting Securityholder sends to Blizzard's counsel, Bennett Jones LLP, Attention H. Martin Kay, Q.C., 4500, 855-2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7, a written objection to the Arrangement Resolution, which written objection must be received by Bennett Jones LLP by 4:00 p.m. on the Business Day immediately preceding the date of the Meeting and be in compliance with Section 191 of the ABCA, as modified by the Plan of Arrangement and by the Interim Order. Provided the Arrangement becomes effective, each Dissenting Securityholder will be entitled to be paid the fair value of the Blizzard Securities in respect of which the holder dissents in accordance with Section 191 of the ABCA, as modified by the Plan of Arrangement and the Interim Order. See Appendices B and I for a copy of the Interim Order and the provisions of Section 191 of the ABCA, respectively.

The statutory provisions covering the right to dissent are technical and complex. Failure to strictly comply with the requirements set forth in Section 191 of the ABCA, as modified by the Plan of Arrangement and the Interim Order, may result in the loss of any right to dissent. Persons who are beneficial owners of Blizzard Securities registered in the name of a broker, custodian, nominee or other intermediary who wish to dissent, should be aware that only the Registered Holder is entitled to dissent. Accordingly, a beneficial owner of Blizzard Securities desiring to exercise the right to dissent must make arrangements for such Blizzard Securities beneficially owned to be registered in such holder's name prior to the time the written objection to the Arrangement Resolution is required to be received by Blizzard, or alternatively, make arrangements for the Registered Holder to dissent on such holder's behalf. Pursuant to the Interim Order, a Blizzard Securityholder may not exercise the right to dissent in respect of only a portion of such holder's Blizzard Securities. See "Effect of the Arrangement – Right to Dissent".

It is a condition to the Arrangement that Blizzard Securityholders holding not greater than 2% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities shall have exercised rights of dissent in respect to the Arrangement that have not been withdrawn as of the Effective Date. See "Effect of the Arrangement – Arrangement Agreement – Conditions Precedent to Arrangement".

The Fund

The Fund is an unincorporated open-ended investment trust created under the laws of the Province of Alberta and formed and governed by the Trust Indenture. The head and principal offices of the Fund are located at 1310, 111-5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3Y6. The registered office of the Fund is located at Suite 1200, 700-2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta. T2P 4V5.

The Fund's assets consist primarily of the Royalties granted by Shiningbank Energy and SLP, the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note. The Royalties entitle the Fund to receive Royalty Income. The Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note entitle the Fund to receive payments of principal and interest from Shiningbank Energy and from SLP in accordance with the terms of promissory notes arising at the time of acquisition of the shares of Raider, Ionic and Birchill.

Holders of Trust Units are the beneficiaries of the Fund. Unitholders indirectly receive the benefit of the Royalties consisting of the entitlement to receive an amount equal to the Royalty Income and also indirectly receive the benefit of the interest income on the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note received by the Fund from Shiningbank Energy and SLP.

As holders of Trust Units after the Arrangement, Unitholders will receive monthly distributions of the cash flow generated by the Fund. The Fund will employ a strategy to: (i) provide Unitholders with a competitive annual cash-on-cash yield by making monthly cash distributions to such Unitholders; (ii) provide that the Fund's assets are maintained efficiently at a sustainable level; and (iii) enable the Fund to continue to expand its business through development and acquisition opportunities that will provide long-term stable cash flows and be accretive to Unitholders.

The Fund permits individual Unitholders to participate in the cash flow from the business of Shiningbank Energy and SLP to the extent such cash flow is distributed by the Trustee. Each Trust Unit entitles the holder thereof to receive monthly cash distributions.

The Fund is managed by the management of Shiningbank Energy, which is led by David M. Fitzpatrick as President and Chief Executive Officer and Bruce K. Gibson as Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer.

See Appendix H "Information Concerning the Fund".

Zenas

Zenas is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the ABCA and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Blizzard. It is expected that Zenas will become a public corporation pursuant to the Arrangement.

Under the Arrangement, Zenas will acquire approximately 400 boe/d of production primarily within the Grande Prairie area of Alberta, along with approximately 16,355 net acres of undeveloped land. In addition, Zenas will acquire Blizzard's interest in a joint venture agreement with a major exploration and production company encompassing 160,000 acres in Northeast British Columbia. This past winter a 40 square mile 3D seismic program was run over this area and several stratigraphic wells were drilled which confirmed a significant natural gas resource opportunity.

Based primarily on independent reserve evaluations for 100% of the reserves, internal land evaluations and the Ross Smith Report, Zenas will have a net asset value of $28.6 million or $1.50 per Zenas Common Share (on a post-consolidated basis) comprised of $14.9 million for reserves, $3.1 million for undeveloped land, $3.1 million for seismic and $7.5 million for the joint venture opportunity in Northeast British Columbia.

Zenas will be managed by the current executives of Blizzard and will be led by John Rooney as President and Chief Executive Officer, Mike Machalski as Chief Operating Officer and Hal Metcalfe as Chief Financial Officer. In addition to John Rooney, the Board of Directors will include Jim Artindale (Chairman), Larry Evans, Dave MacKenzie, George Watson, Frank Guidolin, Doug Manner and Bob Rooney.

At closing of the Arrangement, it is expected that Zenas will not have any debt and will be well positioned to aggressively pursue and expand its asset base and certain exploratory initiatives, which are currently underway. A capital expenditure program of $13 to $14 million is planned for the remainder of the year. Initial equity financing for Zenas, in the aggregate amount of $6 million, will be provided by the Zenas Private Placement and up to an additional $6 million may be raised through the exercise of Zenas Arrangement Warrants, at the same price as the private placement, which are being issued to Blizzard Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement. Zenas also expects to have a bank credit facility in place prior to the Effective Date.

Following the Arrangement, the head and principal office of Zenas will be located at 305, 505 – 3rd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3E6 and its registered office will be located at 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7. See Appendix E "Information Concerning Zenas".

Stock Exchange Listing Approvals

It is a condition to the completion of the Arrangement that the TSX shall have approved the listing of the additional Trust Units to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Trust Units to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. Listing is subject to the Fund fulfilling all the requirements of the TSX on or before five days from the Effective Date. Application has been made for the listing of the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX. The listing of the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX will be subject to Zenas meeting the TSX's original listing requirements. If Zenas is not able to meet the original listing requirements of the TSX then Zenas will seek to list the Zenas Common Shares on another Canadian stock exchange. Conditional listing approval has not been obtained and there can be no assurance that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on the TSX or any other stock exchange. While Zenas intends to continue to seek a listing for the Zenas Common Shares if such shares are not listed on the TSX, delays in obtaining, or the inability to obtain, such listing will not be a condition of the parties to the completion of the Arrangement and Blizzard Securityholders may receive stock in a private company.

There can be no assurance that the necessary discretionary orders or exemptions will be granted by the applicable regulatory authorities or that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on any stock exchange. See "Effect of the Arrangement – Stock Exchange Listings".

Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations

The Canadian federal income tax consequences of the transactions comprising the Arrangement will generally result in a Resident Blizzard Shareholder realizing a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which the aggregate of the fair market value of the Trust Units and the cash payment received on completion of the Arrangement exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of such Shareholder's adjusted cost base of the portion of the Blizzard Shares effectively exchanged for the Trust Units and the cash payment and any reasonable costs of disposition. The portion of a Blizzard Shareholder's Blizzard Shares effectively exchanged for Zenas Common Shares will generally be effected on a tax-deferred basis. A Blizzard Shareholder who is a Non-Resident should generally not be subject to any Canadian tax in respect of the steps comprising the Arrangement.

A holder of a Trust Unit who is a Resident will be required to include in income each year the amount of the Fund's income which is paid or payable in the year to such holder during such year. Generally speaking, amounts paid to a holder of a Trust Unit in excess of the holder's proportionate share of the Fund's income will not be included in the holder's income but will reduce the adjusted cost base of such Trust Unit. To the extent that the adjusted cost base to a holder of a Trust Unit would otherwise be less than zero, such negative amount will generally be treated as capital gain from the disposition of such Trust Unit. A disposition of a Trust Unit will generally result in the holder realizing a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds of disposition received exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of the holder's adjusted cost base of the Trust Unit and reasonable costs of the disposition.

A Non-Resident holder of a Trust Unit will be subject to a Canadian withholding tax of 25% (as reduced by any applicable tax treaty) on the amount of the Fund's income which is paid or credited to such Non-Resident holder. In certain circumstances, a Non-Resident holder of a Trust Unit may be subject to a 15% withholding tax on distributions paid in excess of the Non-Resident holder's proportionate share of the Fund's income. Provided that the Fund qualifies as a mutual fund trust on the date of disposition, a Non-Resident holder will generally not be subject to any Canadian tax on the disposition of a Trust Unit.

The Information Circular contains a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to Residents and Non-Residents in respect of the steps comprising the Arrangement, and the above comments are qualified in their entirety by reference to such summary. See "Effect of the Arrangement - Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations".

Selected Pro Forma Financial and Operational Information for the Fund

The following is a summary of selected pro forma financial and operational information for the oil and natural gas assets owned on a consolidated basis by the Fund following the completion of the Arrangement, for the year ended December 31, 2004 and the three months ended March 31, 2005. Note:

- (1) NI 51-101 requires that issuers engaged in oil and gas activities report their reserves on a "gross" and "net" basis as those terms are defined in the COGE Handbook. Prior to 2004, Shiningbank Energy reported its reserves on a "Company Interest" basis which is Shiningbank Energy's working interest reserves before reduction for royalty obligations plus the Shiningbank royalty interests. For continuity and comparison purposes, reserves included in the table above are presented on a "Company Interest" basis.

Distribution Policy

The Fund distributes the net cash flow from its petroleum and natural gas properties to Unitholders on a monthly basis with a portion of this cash flow withheld to repay debt and fund capital expenditures. Although the level of cash retained for debt repayment varies, the Fund monitors its distribution policy with respect to forecasted cash flows, debt levels and spending plans. Management of the Fund adjusts the payout levels in an effort to balance desired distributions with actual cash flow and the Fund's requirement to maintain an appropriate and prudent capital structure.

For the year ended December 31, 2004, the Fund distributed $146.4 million ($2.76 per Trust Unit) which represented 84 percent of cash flow from operations. For the three months ended March 31, 2005, the Fund distributed $37.5 million ($0.69 per Trust Unit) which represented 84 percent of cash flow from operations.

Risk Factors

An investment in Zenas should be considered highly speculative due to the nature of its activities and the present stage of its development. The following is a list of certain risk factors relating to the activities of the Fund and Zenas and the ownership of Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants which prospective investors should carefully consider before making an investment decision relating to Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants:

- the lack of assurance that income tax laws will not be changed in a manner that affects Unitholders and the holders of Zenas Common Shares adversely;
- the lack of assurance that government incentive and/or legislative and regulatory programs relating to the oil and gas industry will not be changed in a manner that affects Unitholders and holders of Zenas Common Shares adversely;
- the lack of assurance that Zenas Common Shares will be listed on the TSX or any other Canadian stock exchange and the possibility that Blizzard Securityholders may receive stock in a private company;
- the possibility that the Fund may in the future fail to qualify as a mutual fund trust;
- actual production and ultimate reserves could be greater or lesser than the production forecasts and recoverable reserve estimates contained in the Blizzard Engineering Report, the Fund Engineering Reports, the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report;
- future reserves and production depend on success in exploiting the current reserves bases and acquiring or discovering additional reserves;
- availability of debt or equity financing to fund future acquisitions, exploration and development plans for either the Fund or Zenas;

- volatility of oil and natural gas prices and markets;
- operational hazards and other uncertainties;
- exploration, development and production risks;
- environmental risks;
- assumption of liabilities by Zenas;
- industry competition; and
- ability to attract key personnel.

The risk factors listed above are contained elsewhere in this Information Circular and in Appendix E "Information Concerning Zenas – Risk Factors", Appendix F "Information Concerning Blizzard – Risk Factors" and Appendix H "Information Concerning the Fund". Blizzard Securityholders should carefully consider all such risk factors.

THE ARRANGEMENT

Background to and Reasons for the Arrangement

Management of Blizzard continually reviews all options available to them to ensure that the value of Blizzard Shares is being maximized. In March, 2005, the board of directors and management of Blizzard undertook an informal process to review various alternatives to maximize the value of Blizzard Shares. With the assistance of Waterous and Orion, Blizzard reviewed the market place and specifically considered the merits of disposing of certain assets with the intention that the remaining assets would be reorganized into an exploration focused exploration and production company. In April and May, 2005, Waterous and representatives from the board of directors and management of Blizzard had various discussions with select interested parties about the potential sale or merger of Blizzard. The discussions were, in general, focused around the merger of Blizzard with the various interested parties for the purpose of (i) combining the mature assets of each company to form a trust and "spinning out" one or more exploration companies and (ii) combining the mature assets of Blizzard with an existing trust and "spinning out" one or more exploration companies. Blizzard also considered the merits of Blizzard pursuing its business plan, completing a large property or corporate acquisition or selling Blizzard as a whole. Certain parties responded with an interest in pursuing a transaction with Blizzard. In May, 2005, the Fund and Blizzard entered into discussions about Blizzard selling to, or merging with, the Fund. The Fund conducted a due diligence investigation of Blizzard and a subsequent transaction proposal was submitted to Blizzard on May 12, 2005. Representatives of Blizzard and the Fund continued to negotiate the terms of a proposed transaction. Blizzard focused on crystallizing and enhancing value for Blizzard Shareholders in respect of a potential acquisition of Blizzard by Shiningbank.

The board of directors of Blizzard met on May 14, 2005, and May 29, 2005, to discuss the Fund's proposal and the status of negotiations and the transaction.

The board of directors of Blizzard received and reviewed presentations from Waterous and Orion, reviewed and assessed independent reserves and land valuations in respect of its assets and the assets of Zenas, considered technical due diligence completed by Ross Smith in respect of the Fund and were advised by Bennett Jones LLP, counsel for Blizzard. The board of directors of Blizzard retained independent counsel, Blake Cassels & Graydon LLP, to provide advice on process and fiduciary duties and retained Ross Smith to assess the market value of the joint venture opportunity to be transferred to Zenas.

Management of Blizzard continued to negotiate with the Fund from May 29 to June 5, 2005, to finalize the terms of the transaction and on June 5, 2005, the board of directors of Blizzard convened a formal meeting to consider the Arrangement.

At the June 5, 2005, meeting, the board of directors of Blizzard received advice from independent counsel and received presentations from its financial advisors. After considering: (i) advice of counsel; (ii) advice of Orion and Waterous; (iii) advice of Ross Smith; (iv) the Arrangement Agreement; and (iv) the terms of the Zenas Private Placement and the Stock Option Plan, the board of directors of Blizzard approved the transaction with the Fund.

Canaccord Capital Corporation, GMP Securities Ltd. and Salman Partners Inc. are acting as strategic advisors to Blizzard and Zenas in connection with the Arrangement.

Blizzard entered into the Arrangement Agreement because it believes that the Arrangement will enhance value for Blizzard Shareholders through:

- equity participation in one of the premier natural gas weighted trusts in the oil and gas royalty trust sector, which will allow continuing participation in the strength of natural gas prices and will deliver an attractive stream of cash distributions;
- monetization of a portion of their investment in Blizzard at an attractive valuation; and
- participation in a high growth exploration-focused producer with a sizeable prospect inventory.

EFFECT OF THE ARRANGEMENT

General

Under the Arrangement, Blizzard Shareholders will receive, for each Blizzard Share held, 0.0777 of a Trust Unit, $0.4097 cash, one-sixth (1/6) of a Zenas Common Share and one Zenas Arrangement Warrant for each whole Zenas Common Share issued pursuant to the Arrangement, each Zenas Arrangement Warrant entitling the holder to acquire, in accordance with the Arrangement, 0.211 of a Zenas Common Share at an effective exercise price of $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share (Zenas' current estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share after giving effect to the Arrangement).

All unexercised Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants (other than Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants transferred to Blizzard by Dissenting Blizzard Optionholders and Blizzard Warrantholders) will be cancelled.

No fractional Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares or Zenas Arrangement Warrants will be issued pursuant to the Arrangement and to the extent that a fractional Trust Unit, Zenas Common Share or Zenas Arrangement Warrant would be issued such security will be rounded to the nearest whole number per registered holder.

On June 28, 2005 there were 108,774,500 Blizzard Shares outstanding. In addition, 4,572,000 Blizzard Shares are issuable pursuant to currently outstanding Blizzard Options and 396,000 Blizzard Shares are issuable pursuant to currently outstanding Blizzard Warrants.

After giving effect to the Arrangement, the current Blizzard Shareholders effectively will have exchanged their Blizzard Shares for: (i) Trust Units; (ii) Cash Consideration; (iii) Zenas Common Shares; and (iv) Zenas Arrangement Warrants. As a result of a Blizzard Shareholder's Blizzard Shares being exchanged for Zenas Common Shares and Trust Units pursuant to the Arrangement, the nature of a Blizzard Shareholder's investment will change. See Appendices E and H "Information Concerning Zenas", and "Information Concerning the Fund", respectively.

For details regarding the Zenas Common Shares, see Appendix E "Information Concerning Zenas". For details regarding the Trust Units, see Appendix H "Information Concerning the Fund".

Details of the Arrangement

Pre-Arrangement Steps

It is expected that Zenas Finco will complete the Zenas Private Placement prior to the Effective Date. See "Other Matters Considered in the Arrangement Resolution – Approval of Zenas Private Placement".

Arrangement Steps

The Arrangement involves a number of steps, including the following, which will be deemed to occur sequentially:

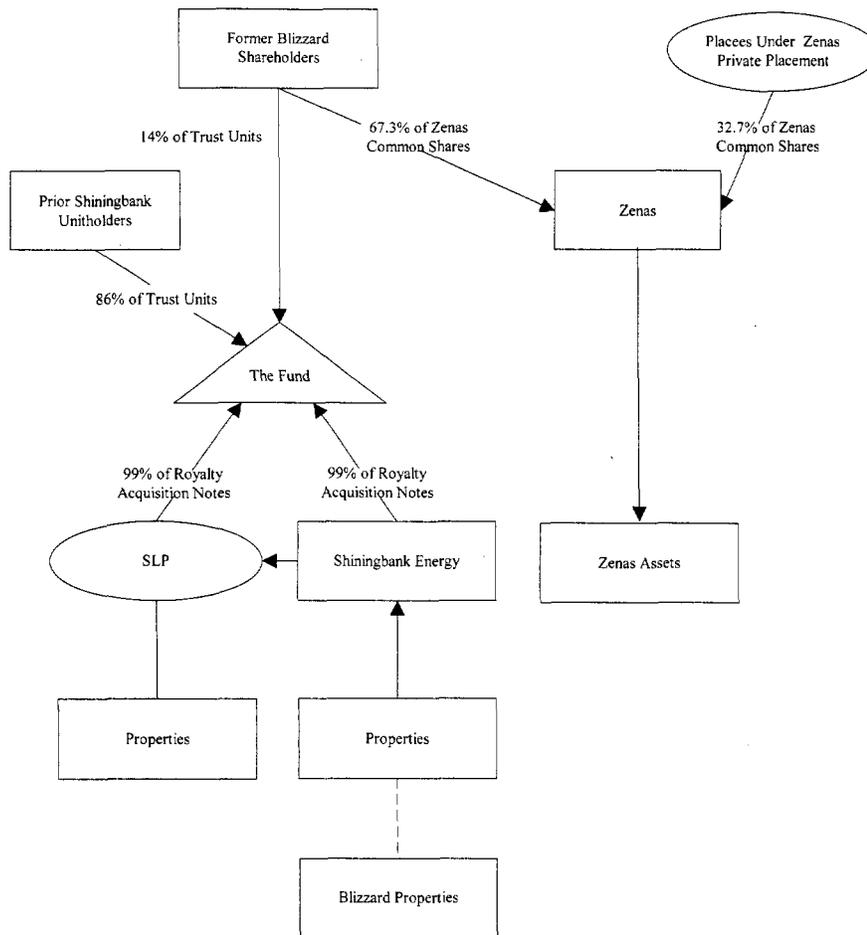

- (a) the Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants held by Dissenting Securityholders who have exercised Dissent Rights which remain valid immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, as of the Effective Time, be deemed to have been transferred to Blizzard (free of any claims) and be cancelled and cease to be outstanding, and as of the Effective Time, such Dissenting Securityholders shall cease to have any rights as securityholders of Blizzard other than the right to be paid the fair value of their Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrant, as the case may be, in accordance with Article 4 of the Plan of Arrangement;
- (b) each issued and outstanding Blizzard Share held by a Non-Resident shall be transferred to Zenas in exchange for one-sixth (1/6) of a Zenas Common Share and the right to receive (i) 0.0777 of a Trust Unit and (ii) a cash payment of $0.4097 for each Blizzard Share held by a Non-Resident Blizzard Shareholder;
- (c) the Blizzard New Common Shares and the Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be created as new classes of shares of Blizzard and each Blizzard Share held by a Blizzard Shareholder that is a Resident shall be exchanged pursuant to a reorganization of the capital of Blizzard for one (1) Blizzard New Common Share and one (1) Blizzard Preferred A Share and the stated capital of each:

- (i) Blizzard Preferred A Share shall be set at the paid-up capital of each Blizzard Share exchanged less the Blizzard New Common Share Stated Value; and
- (ii) Blizzard New Common Share shall initially be set at approximately $0.25 per share with the precise amount to be determined immediately prior to the Effective Time (the "Blizzard New Common Share Stated Value");
- (d) each issued and outstanding Blizzard Preferred A Share shall be transferred to Shiningbank Energy in exchange for 0.0777 of a Trust Unit and a cash payment of $0.4097 for each Blizzard Preferred A Share held by a Blizzard Shareholder;
- (e) Shiningbank Energy shall issue one (1.0) Note to Shiningbank with respect to the Trust Units required to be issued pursuant to (d) above in a principal amount equal to the Fund Trust Unit Weighted Average Trading Price multiplied by the number of such Trust Units;
- (f) Zenas shall deliver to each Non-Resident described in (b), (i) 0.0777 of a Trust Unit and (ii) a cash payment of $0.4097;
- (g) all unexercised Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants (other than Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants held by Dissenting Optionholders or Dissenting Warrantholders, respectively) shall be cancelled for no consideration;
- (h) the Zenas Conveyance shall become effective and Zenas shall deliver the Zenas Note in satisfaction of the purchase price contemplated by the Zenas Conveyance;
- (i) each Blizzard New Common Share (other than Blizzard New Common Shares held by Zenas) shall be transferred to Zenas in exchange for one-sixth (1/6th) of a Zenas Common Share;
- (j) the one (1.0) Zenas Common Share held by Blizzard shall be cancelled in consideration for a payment of $1.00;
- (k) each Blizzard New Common Share shall be transferred by Zenas to Shiningbank Energy in exchange for the Share Note;
- (l) that portion of the Zenas Note equal to the principal amount of the Share Note shall be transferred by Blizzard to Zenas in exchange for the Share Note held by Zenas and the Zenas Note shall be reduced by the amount of the Share Note;
- (m) Zenas shall settle any remaining unpaid principal amount of the Zenas Note by delivering to Blizzard payment in cash under the Zenas Conveyance, if any;
- (n) Zenas shall issue one (1.0) Zenas Arrangement Warrant to each holder of a Zenas Common Share; and
- (o) each Zenas Finco Common Share, if any, shall be transferred to Zenas in exchange for one (1.0) Zenas Common Share.

Post Arrangement Structure

The following diagram illustrates a simplified organizational structure of the Fund and Zenas following the completion of the Arrangement.

Notes:

- (1) Assuming completion of the Arrangement (with no Dissent Rights exercised) and the exercise of all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants into Zenas Common Shares in accordance with the terms of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants. In the event that all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants are exercised, Blizzard Securityholders will hold 67.3% of the Zenas Common Shares and places under the Zenas Private Placement will hold 32.7% of the Zenas Common Shares.

Arrangement Agreement

The Arrangement is being effected pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement. The Arrangement Agreement contains covenants, representations and warranties of and from each of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard and various conditions precedent, both mutual and with respect to each entity.

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the Arrangement Agreement. The Arrangement Agreement is attached as Appendix C to this Information Circular and reference is made thereto for the full text thereof.

Non-Solicitation

Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, Blizzard has agreed to not directly or indirectly, do or authorize or permit any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it to do, any of the following:

- (a) solicit, facilitate, initiate or encourage any Acquisition Proposal;
- (b) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion regarding an Acquisition Proposal, or furnish to any other person any information with respect to its business, properties, operations, prospects or conditions (financial or otherwise) in connection with an Acquisition Proposal or otherwise cooperate in any way with, or assist or participate in, facilitate or encourage, any effort or attempt of any other person to do or seek to do any of the foregoing;
- (c) waive, or otherwise forbear in the enforcement of, or enter into or participate in any discussions, negotiations or agreements to waive or otherwise forbear in respect of, any rights or other benefits under confidential information agreements, including, without limitation, any "standstill provisions" thereunder; or
- (d) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement an Acquisition Proposal, provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision hereof, Blizzard and its officers, directors and advisers may:

- (e) enter into or participate in discussions or negotiations regarding Zenas or the Zenas Assets, as applicable provided that no binding agreement regarding Zenas or the Zenas Assets, as applicable, is entered into until after the Effective Date;
- (f) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion with a third party which (without any solicitation, initiation or encouragement, directly or indirectly, after the date of this Agreement, by Blizzard or any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it) seeks to initiate such negotiations or discussions and, subject to execution of a confidentiality agreement substantially similar to the confidentiality agreement (provided that such confidentiality agreement shall provide for disclosure thereof (along with all information provided thereunder) to the Fund and Shiningbank Energy as set out below), may furnish to such third party information concerning Blizzard and its business, properties and assets, in each case if, and only to the extent that:
 - (i) the third party has first made a written bona fide Acquisition Proposal which the board of directors of Blizzard determines in good faith: (1) that funds or other consideration necessary for the Acquisition Proposal are or are likely to be available; (2) (after consultation with its financial advisor) would, if consummated in accordance with its terms, result in a transaction financially superior for securityholders of Blizzard as compared to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement; and (3) after receiving the advice of outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharge of its fiduciary duties under Applicable Laws (a "Superior Proposal"); and
 - (ii) prior to furnishing such information to or entering into or participating in any such negotiations or initiating any discussions with such third party, Blizzard provides prompt notice to the Fund and Shiningbank Energy to the effect that it is furnishing information to or entering into or participating in discussions or negotiations with such person or entity together with a copy of the confidentiality agreement referenced above and if not previously provided to the Fund or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such third party concurrently with the provision of such information to such third party, and provided further that, Blizzard shall notify the Fund and Shiningbank Energy orally and in writing of any inquiries, offers or proposals with respect to a Superior Proposal (which written notice shall include, without limitation, a summary of the details of such proposal (and any amendments or supplements thereto), the identity of the person making it (unless the Superior Proposal is an all cash offer), if not previously provided to the Fund or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such party and all other information reasonably requested by the Fund or Shiningbank Energy), within 24 hours of the receipt thereof, shall keep the Fund and Shiningbank Energy informed of the status and details of any such inquiry, offer or proposal and answer the Fund's and Shiningbank Energy's questions with respect thereto;

- (g) comply with Section 172 of the Securities Act (Alberta) and similar provisions under applicable Canadian securities laws relating to the provision of directors' circulars and make appropriate disclosure with respect thereto to its securityholders; and
- (h) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement a Superior Proposal from a third party, but only if prior to such acceptance, recommendation, approval or implementation, its board of directors shall have concluded in good faith, after considering all proposals to adjust the terms and conditions of this Agreement and after receiving the advice of financial advisors and outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharging its fiduciary duties under Applicable Laws and Blizzard complies with its obligations set forth in Section 3.4(c) of the Arrangement Agreement and terminates the Arrangement Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(d) of the Arrangement Agreement and concurrently therewith pays the amount required by Section 6.1 of the Arrangement Agreement.

Termination Fees

Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, Blizzard, the Fund and Shiningbank Energy have agreed that if at any time after the execution of the Arrangement Agreement:

- (a) the board of directors of Blizzard has withdrawn or changed any of its recommendations or determinations regarding the Arrangement in a manner adverse to the Fund or shall have resolved to do so prior to the Effective Date other than in certain circumstances provided for in the Arrangement Agreement;
- (b) a bona fide Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced, proposed, offered or made to the Blizzard shareholders or to Blizzard and: (i) the Blizzard Shareholders do not approve the Arrangement; and (ii) such Acquisition Proposal is consummated within six months of the date of the Arrangement Agreement;
- (c) Blizzard accepts, recommends, approves or enters into an agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement) to implement a Superior Proposal prior to the Effective Date or termination of the Arrangement Agreement;
- (d) Blizzard breaches any of its covenants in the Arrangement Agreement or wilfully breaches any other of its representations, warranties or covenants made in the Arrangement Agreement which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement; or
- (e) Blizzard breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in the Arrangement Agreement (other than a wilful breach referred to in (d) above), which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement

(each of the above being a "Shiningbank Damages Event"), then in the event of the termination of the Arrangement Agreement, Blizzard shall pay to the Fund $8.0 million (in the case of an event referred to in (a), (b), (c) or (d) above) or $1.0 million in the aggregate (in the case of an event referred to in (e) above) as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by the Fund and Shiningbank Energy within one business day after the first to occur of the events described above, and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, Blizzard shall be deemed to hold such fund in trust for the Fund. Blizzard shall only be obligated to pay a maximum of $8.0 million pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement.

If at any time after the execution of the Arrangement Agreement, the Fund or Shiningbank Energy breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in the Arrangement Agreement, which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement (being a "Blizzard Damages Event"), then in the event of termination of the Arrangement Agreement, the Fund shall pay to Blizzard $1.0 million, in aggregate, as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by Blizzard within one business day after the breach as described above and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, the Fund shall be deemed to hold such funds in trust for Blizzard.

Termination

The Arrangement Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Date:

- (a) by mutual written consent of the Fund and Blizzard;
- (b) as a result of the failure to satisfy any of the conditions set forth in the Arrangement Agreement;
- (c) by the Fund upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event, in certain circumstances, provided that in the event of a Shiningbank Damages Event, the Arrangement Agreement may not be terminated by the Fund unless Blizzard securityholders do not approve the Arrangement as required in the Interim Order or the Arrangement is not submitted for their approval;
- (d) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event, in certain circumstances, and the payment by Blizzard to the Fund of the applicable termination fee;
- (e) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Blizzard Damages Event.

In the event of any such termination, the Arrangement Agreement shall forthwith become void and neither party shall have any liability or further obligation to the other party under the Arrangement Agreement except with respect to the payment of the termination fee which shall survive such termination.

Conditions Precedent to the Arrangement

The respective obligations of the Parties to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, and in particular the Arrangement, are subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions, any of which may be waived by the mutual consent of such Parties without prejudice to their right to rely on any other of such conditions:

- (a) the Arrangement Resolution shall have been passed by the holders of Blizzard Securities, on or prior to August 15, 2005 in accordance with the Interim Order and in form and substance satisfactory to each of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (b) in the event that dissent rights are given to Blizzard Securityholders under the terms of the Interim Order, holders of not greater than 2% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities shall have exercised rights of dissent in respect of the Arrangement that have not been withdrawn as of the Effective Date;
- (c) on or prior to August 15, 2005, the Final Order shall have been granted in form and substance satisfactory to the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (d) the Articles of Arrangement to be filed with the Registrar in accordance with the Arrangement shall be in form and substance satisfactory to each of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;

- (e) the Arrangement shall have become effective on or prior to August 15, 2005;
- (f) the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard shall enter into written agreements effective as of the Effective Date satisfactory to Blizzard or Blizzard shall have evidence satisfactory to Blizzard, acting reasonably, pursuant to which Blizzard shall have arranged or the Fund and Shiningbank Energy shall agree or have agreed that, for a period of six years after the Effective Date, the Fund and/or Shiningbank Energy shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained (provided that the Fund or Shiningbank Energy may substitute therefor policies of at least the same change coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous) providing coverage on a "trailing" or "run-off" basis for all present and former directors and officers of Blizzard with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred before the Effective Date;
- (g) the TSX shall have conditionally listed all of the Fund's Trust Units issuable pursuant to the Arrangement;
- (h) the relevant waiting period in section 123 of the Competition Act shall have expired and: (i) an advance ruling certificate ("ARC") pursuant to section 102 of the Competition Act shall have been issued by the Commissioner of the Competition Bureau ("Commissioner") appointed under the Competition Act; or (ii) a "no action letter" satisfactory to each of the Fund and Blizzard, acting reasonably, indicating that the Commissioner has determined not to make an application for an order under section 92 of the Competition Act shall have been received from the Commissioner, and any terms and conditions attached to any such letter shall be acceptable to each of the Fund and Blizzard, acting reasonably; and in addition, in the event that the ARC or "no action" letter described in (i) or (ii) in the foregoing is issued, there shall be no threatened or actual application by the Commissioner for an order under section 92 or 100 of the Competition Act;
- (i) all requisite domestic and foreign regulatory approvals and consents required for completion of the Arrangement shall have been obtained on terms and conditions satisfactory to the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably, and all applicable domestic and foreign statutory or regulatory waiting periods to the transactions contemplated in the Arrangement shall have expired or been terminated, and no objection or opposition shall have been filed, initiated or made by any regulatory authority during any applicable statutory or regulatory waiting period; and
- (j) there shall be no action taken under any existing applicable law or regulation, nor any statute, rule, regulation or order which is enacted, enforced, promulgated or issued by any court, department, commission, board, regulatory body, government or governmental authority or similar agency, domestic or foreign, that:
 - (i) makes illegal or otherwise directly or indirectly restrains, enjoins or prohibits the Arrangement or any other transactions contemplated in the Arrangement Agreement; or
 - (ii) results in a judgment or assessment of material damages directly or indirectly relating to the Arrangement or any other transactions contemplated in the Arrangement Agreement.

The foregoing conditions are for the mutual benefit of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard and may be asserted by the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard regardless of the circumstances and may be waived by the Fund, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard in their sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which the Fund, Shiningbank Energy or Blizzard may have.

In addition to the mutual conditions precedent, the obligation of the Fund and Shiningbank Energy to consummate the transactions contemplated in the Arrangement Agreement is also subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions:

- (a) Blizzard shall have mailed the Blizzard Information Circular and other documentation required in connection with the Blizzard Meeting on or before July 15, 2005;

- (b) each of the acts and undertakings of Blizzard to be performed on or before the Effective Date pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement shall have been duly performed by Blizzard;
- (c) Blizzard shall have furnished the Fund and Shiningbank Energy with:
 - (i) certified copies of the resolutions duly passed by the boards of directors of Blizzard approving the Arrangement Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby; and
 - (ii) certified copies of the resolutions of Blizzard Securityholders, duly passed at the Blizzard Meeting, approving the Arrangement Resolution;
- (d) except as affected by the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, the representations and warranties of Blizzard contained in the Arrangement Agreement shall be true in all material respects as at the Effective Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such time and Blizzard shall have complied in all material respects with its covenants in the Arrangement Agreement and the Fund and Shiningbank Energy shall have received a certificate to that effect dated the Effective Date from the President and Chief Financial Officer of Blizzard and another senior officer thereof acceptable to the Fund and Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, acting solely on behalf of Blizzard and not in their personal capacity, to the best of his information and belief having made reasonable inquiry and the Fund and Shiningbank Energy will have no knowledge to the contrary;
- (e) there shall not have occurred any change after the date of the Arrangement Agreement or prior to the date of the Arrangement Agreement which has not been publicly disclosed prior to the date of the Arrangement Agreement or previously disclosed prior to the date of the Arrangement Agreement to the Fund or Shiningbank Energy in writing (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Blizzard and which, in the judgment of the Fund and Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, is materially adverse to Blizzard other than: (i) a change directly resulting from an action taken by Blizzard pursuant to Blizzard's May 26, 2005 budget as disclosed to the Fund or to which the Fund or Shiningbank Energy has consented to in writing; (ii) a change in Zenas Assets; (iii) a change resulting from conditions affecting the oil and gas industry in Canada including, without limitation, changes in commodity prices or taxes of any kind at any time; or (iv) the occurrence, development or coming into effect or existence of any event, action, state, condition, or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law, regulation, action, government regulation, enquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which materially adversely affects or involves the financial markets in Canada or the United States generally or the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of Blizzard; and
- (f) a third party to which Blizzard had issued a debenture shall have discharged or consented to the transfer of the debenture as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements such that it does not apply to Blizzard or any of its assets, other than the Zenas Assets.

The foregoing conditions are for the exclusive benefit of the Fund and Shiningbank Energy and may be asserted by the Fund and Shiningbank Energy regardless of the circumstances or may be waived by the Fund in its sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which the Fund and Shiningbank Energy may have.

In addition to the mutual conditions precedent, the obligation of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated in the Arrangement Agreement, is also subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions:

- (a) each of the acts and undertakings of the Fund or Shiningbank Energy to be performed on or before the Effective Date pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement shall have been duly performed by the Fund or Shiningbank Energy, as the case may be;

- (b) the Fund and Shiningbank Energy shall have furnished Blizzard with certified copies of the resolutions duly passed by the board of directors of Shiningbank Energy approving the Arrangement Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby;
- (c) except as affected by the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, the representations and warranties of the Fund and Shiningbank Energy contained in the Arrangement Agreement shall be true in all material respects as at the Effective Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such time and the Fund and Shiningbank Energy shall have complied in all material respects with its covenants in the Arrangement Agreement and Blizzard shall have received a certificate to that effect dated the Effective Date from the President of Shiningbank Energy and another senior officer thereof acceptable to Blizzard, acting reasonably, acting solely on behalf of the Fund and Shiningbank Energy and not in their personal capacity, to the best of his information and belief having made reasonable inquiry and Blizzard will have no knowledge to the contrary; and
- (d) there shall not have occurred any change after the date of the Arrangement Agreement or prior to the date of the Arrangement Agreement which has not been publicly disclosed prior to the date of the Arrangement Agreement or previously disclosed prior to the date of the Arrangement Agreement to Blizzard in writing (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of the Fund, taken as a whole, and which, in the judgment of Blizzard, acting reasonably, is materially adverse to the Fund, taken as a whole, other than: (i) a change directly resulting from an action taken by the Fund or Shiningbank Energy to which Blizzard has consented to in writing; (ii) a change resulting from conditions affecting the oil and gas industry in Canada including, without limitation, changes in commodity prices or taxes of any kind at any time; or (iii) the occurrence, development or coming into effect or existence of any event, action, state, condition, or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law, regulation, action, government regulation, enquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which materially adversely affects or involves the financial markets in Canada or the United States generally or the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of the Fund, taken as a whole.

The foregoing conditions are for the exclusive benefit of Blizzard and may be asserted by Blizzard regardless of the circumstances or may be waived by Blizzard in its sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which Blizzard may have.

Upon the foregoing conditions being fulfilled or waived, Blizzard intends to file a copy of the Final Order and the Articles of Arrangement with the Registrar under the ABCA, together with such other materials as may be required by the Registrar, in order to give effect to the Arrangement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Arrangement Resolution proposed for consideration by the Blizzard Securityholders authorizes the board of directors of Blizzard, without further notice to or approval of such Blizzard Securityholders, subject to the terms of the Arrangement, to amend the Arrangement, to decide not to proceed with the Arrangement and to revoke the Arrangement Resolution at any time prior to the Arrangement becoming effective pursuant to the provisions of the ABCA. The Arrangement Resolution is attached as Appendix A to this Information Circular.

Procedure for the Arrangement Becoming Effective

The Arrangement is proposed to be carried out pursuant to section 193 of the ABCA. The following procedural steps must be taken for the Arrangement to become effective:

- (a) the Arrangement must be approved by the Blizzard Securityholders voting at the Meeting in person or by proxy;
- (b) the Arrangement must be approved by the Court pursuant to the Final Order;

- (c) all conditions precedent to the Arrangement, including those set forth in the Arrangement Agreement, must be satisfied or waived by the appropriate Party; and
- (d) the Final Order, Articles of Arrangement and related documents, in the form prescribed by the ABCA, must be filed with the Registrar and the Certificate must be issued by the Registrar.

Securityholder Approvals

Pursuant to the Interim Order, the number of votes required to pass the Arrangement Resolution shall be not less than two-thirds of the votes cast by Blizzard Securityholders, voting together as a single class, either in person or by proxy, at the Meeting. In addition, the Arrangement Resolution must be approved by a majority of the votes cast by the Blizzard Shareholders, after excluding the votes cast by placees under the Zenas Private Placement and their related parties as defined in Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501. See "General Proxy Matters - Solicitation of Proxies", "General Proxy Matters - Voting of Proxies" and "General Proxy Matters - Procedure and Votes Required".

Court Approvals

Interim Order

On June 28, 2005, the Court granted the Interim Order facilitating the calling of the Meeting and prescribing the conduct of the Meeting and other matters. The Interim Order is attached as Appendix B to this Information Circular.

Final Order

The ABCA provides that an arrangement requires Court approval. Subject to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, and if the Arrangement Resolution is approved by Blizzard Securityholders at the Meeting in the manner required by the Interim Order, Blizzard will make application to the Court for the Final Order.

The application for the Final Order approving the Arrangement is scheduled for July 28, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. (Calgary time), or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, at the Court House, 611 – 4th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta. At the hearing, any Blizzard Securityholder and any other interested party who wishes to participate or to be represented or to present evidence or argument may do so, subject to filing with the Court and serving upon Blizzard a Notice of Intent to Appear together with any evidence or materials which such party intends to present to the Court on or before noon (Calgary time) on July 22, 2005. Service of such notice shall be effected by service upon the solicitors for Blizzard: Bennett Jones LLP 4500 Bankers Hall East, 855 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7 Attention: Martin H. Kay, Q.C. See "Notice of Petition".

The Zenas Common Shares, Zenas Arrangement Warrants and Trust Units to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement will not be registered under the 1933 Act, in reliance upon the exemption from registration provided by section 3(a)(10) thereof. The Court will be advised at the hearing of the application for the Final Order that if the terms and conditions of the Arrangement are approved by the Court, the securities issued pursuant to the Arrangement will not require registration under the 1933 Act.

Blizzard has been advised by their counsel, Bennett Jones LLP, that the Court has broad discretion under the ABCA when making orders with respect to the Arrangement and that the Court will consider, among other things, the fairness and reasonableness of the Arrangement, both from a substantive and a procedural point of view. The Court may approve the Arrangement, either as proposed or as amended, in any manner the Court may direct, subject to compliance with such terms and conditions, if any, as the Court thinks fit. Depending upon the nature of any required amendments, Blizzard and the Fund may determine not to proceed with the Arrangement.

Blizzard Fairness Opinions

The board of directors of Blizzard retained Orion and Waterous to address the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by Blizzard Shareholders. In connection with this mandate, Orion and Waterous have prepared the Blizzard Fairness Opinions. The Orion opinion states that, in Orion's opinion, as of June 28, 2005, the consideration to be received by Blizzard Shareholders pursuant to the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Blizzard Shareholders. The Waterous opinion states that, in Waterous opinion, as of June 28, 2005, the amount of $275 million, as the value of the consideration for the assets to be acquired by the Fund pursuant to the Arrangement, with $2.05 as the portion of that value (before accounting for assumed debt and other liabilities) to be received in respect of such assets by each Blizzard Shareholder for each Blizzard Share held (on a fully diluted basis), is fair, from a financial point of view. Both opinions are subject to the assumptions and limitations contained therein and should be read in their entirety. See Appendix D "Blizzard Fairness Opinions".

The board of directors of Blizzard concurs with the views of Orion and Waterous and such views were an important consideration in the board of directors' decision to proceed with the Arrangement.

Recommendations of the Board of Directors

The board of directors of Blizzard has unanimously concluded that the Arrangement is fair to Blizzard Securityholders, is in the best interests of Blizzard and the Blizzard Securityholders and authorized the submission of the Arrangement for approval and to the Court for the Final Order. Members of the board of directors, management and certain employees of Blizzard, holding an aggregate of 16,027,290 Blizzard Securities representing approximately 14% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities, have agreed to vote these Blizzard Securities in favour of the Arrangement and all other matters to be considered at the Meeting subject to the terms of the Blizzard Lock-Up Agreements. See "Effect of the Arrangement - Interests of Certain Persons or Companies in the Arrangement".

Timing

If the Meeting is held as scheduled and is not adjourned and the other necessary conditions at that point in time are satisfied or waived, Blizzard will apply for the Final Order approving the Arrangement. If the Final Order is obtained on July 28, 2005 in form and substance satisfactory to Blizzard and the Fund, and all other conditions set forth in the Arrangement Agreement are satisfied or waived, Blizzard and the Fund expect the Effective Date will be on or about August 2, 2005. It is not possible, however, to state with certainty when the Effective Date will occur.

The Arrangement will become effective upon the filing with the Registrar of the Articles of Arrangement and a copy of the Final Order, together with such other materials as may be required by the Registrar.

Blizzard's and the Fund's objective is to have the Effective Date occur on or as soon as practicable after August 2, 2005. The Effective Date could be delayed, however, for a number of reasons, including an objection before the Court at the hearing of the application for the Final Order on July 28, 2005.

Procedure for Exchange of Blizzard Shares

In order to receive their Trust Units, Cash Consideration, Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants, Blizzard Shareholders must deposit with the Depositary (at one of the addresses specified on the last page of the Letter of Transmittal) a duly completed Letter of Transmittal, together with the certificates representing the holder's Blizzard Shares.

Blizzard Shareholders whose shares are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee must contact their nominee to deposit their Blizzard Shares. If you hold Blizzard Shares with a broker or other nominee, it is important that you act quickly and provide instructions to him or her as soon as possible to complete the Letter of Transmittal. By instructing your nominee, on a timely basis, you will also be in the best position to exercise the Zenas Arrangement Warrants within the 30-day time frame.

The use of the mail to transmit certificates representing Blizzard Shares, as applicable, and the Letter of Transmittal is at each holder's risk. Blizzard recommends that such certificates and documents be delivered by hand to the Depository and a receipt therefor be obtained or that registered mail be used.

All signatures on: (i) the Letter of Transmittal; and (ii) any certificates representing Blizzard Shares, as applicable, must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution, unless otherwise provided.

Blizzard Shareholders will not receive Zenas Common Shares, Zenas Arrangement Warrants, Cash Consideration or Trust Units or distributions on the Trust Units after the Effective Date until they submit their certificate(s) in respect of the Blizzard Shares, as applicable, held by such holder to the Depository along with a duly completed Letter of Transmittal. In addition to the Cash Consideration to be paid pursuant to the Arrangement, a Blizzard Shareholder that provides a duly completed Letter of Transmittal will be issued certificates representing that number of Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants to which the Blizzard Shareholder is entitled pursuant to the Arrangement. The Zenas Arrangement Warrants issuable pursuant to the Arrangement are only exercisable for thirty (30) days after the Effective Date. A Blizzard Shareholder that does not provide a duly completed Letter of Transmittal to the Depository within such time period will not be able to exercise its Zenas Arrangement Warrants in accordance with the terms thereof and will lose all rights to acquire Zenas Common Shares at $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share, being the same price as offered to the private places under the Zenas Private Placement.

All distributions made by the Fund with respect to the Trust Units allotted and issued pursuant to the Arrangement but for which a duly completed Letter of Transmittal has not been received and the Trust Unit certificate has not been issued, shall be paid or delivered to the Depository to be held by the Depository in trust for the registered holder thereof. All monies received by the Depository shall be invested by it in a non-interest-bearing trust account upon such terms as the Depository may reasonably deem appropriate. The Depository shall pay and deliver to any such registered holder, as soon as reasonably practicable after application therefor is made by the registered holder to the Depository in such form as the Depository may reasonably require, such distributions to which such holder is entitled, net of applicable withholding and other taxes and without interest.

The Arrangement provides that any certificate representing the Blizzard Shares that are not validly deposited with the Depository within ten years following the Effective Date shall cease to represent a claim or interest of any kind or nature in the Fund and/or Zenas, as applicable and the Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares, Zenas Arrangement Warrants and the Cash Consideration to which the holder of such certificate would have otherwise been entitled and such certificate shall be deemed to have been surrendered to the Fund, together with all entitlements to distributions, dividends and payments thereon held for the holder of such Blizzard Shares.

Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations

In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel for Blizzard and Zenas ("Counsel"), the following is a fair and adequate summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations under the Tax Act in respect of the Arrangement generally applicable to Blizzard Shareholders who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and at all relevant times, hold Blizzard Shares, the Zenas Finco Common Shares and any securities acquired under the Arrangement as capital property (the "Securities") and deal at arm's length, and are not affiliated, with Blizzard, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas and the Fund. Generally, the Securities will be considered to be capital property of a holder unless they are held in the course of carrying on a business or in connection with an adventure or concern in the nature of trade. Certain holders resident in Canada whose Securities might not otherwise qualify as capital property may be entitled to make an irrevocable election in accordance with subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act to have certain of the Securities treated as capital property. Holders wishing to make such an election should contact their own tax advisors having regard to their own particular circumstances. This summary is not applicable to a Blizzard Shareholder that is a "financial institution", as defined in the Tax Act, for purposes of the mark-to-market rules, nor is it applicable to a Blizzard Shareholder, an interest in which would be a "tax shelter investment" under the Tax Act.

This summary is based upon the provisions of the Tax Act in force as of the date hereof, all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act that have been publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the "Proposed Amendments"), Counsel's understanding of the current published administrative and assessing policies of the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA") and representations as to certain factual matters provided to Counsel by management of the Fund and Blizzard. There can be no assurance that the Proposed Amendments will be enacted in their current form or at all.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to the Arrangement or the holding of the Securities and, except for the Proposed Amendments, does not take into account or anticipate any changes in the law, whether by legislative, regulatory or judicial action or changes in the administrative and assessing practices of the CRA. This summary does not take into account any provincial, territorial or foreign tax considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed herein.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be relied on as legal or tax advice or representations to any particular Blizzard Shareholder. Consequently, Blizzard Shareholders are urged to seek independent tax advice in respect of the consequences to them of the Arrangement having regard to their own particular circumstances.

This summary does not discuss the Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to Dissenting Securityholders. Dissenting Securityholders should contact their own tax advisors having regard to their own particular circumstances.

Residents of Canada

This portion of the summary is applicable to a Blizzard Shareholder that is resident or is deemed to be resident in Canada for purposes of the Tax Act.

Reorganization of the Capital of Blizzard to Create Blizzard Class A Preferred Shares and Blizzard New Common Shares

Subsection 86(1) of the Tax Act will generally apply to the reorganization of the capital of Blizzard with the result that:

- (a) the cost to a Blizzard Shareholder of each Blizzard Class A Preferred Share and each Blizzard New Common Share received will be equal to their pro-rata share (based on the relative fair market values of such securities) of the adjusted cost base of each holder's Blizzard Share immediately prior to the reorganization; and
- (b) the Blizzard Shareholder will be deemed to have disposed of each holder's Blizzard Share for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate of the cost of each Blizzard Class A Preferred Share and each Blizzard New Common Share.

As a result, no capital gain or capital loss should arise on the exchange.

Exchange of Blizzard Class A Preferred Shares for Trust Units and the Cash Payment

Under the Arrangement, Blizzard Shareholders will transfer each Blizzard Class A Preferred Share to Shiningbank Energy in exchange for 0.0777 of a Trust Unit and a cash payment of $0.4097. Such Blizzard Shareholder will generally realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) on the disposition of each Blizzard Class A Preferred Share equal to the amount by which the aggregate of (i) the fair market value of 0.0777 of a Trust Unit on the Effective Date and (ii) $0.4097 exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of such Blizzard Shareholder's adjusted cost base of the Blizzard Class A Preferred Share and reasonable disposition costs. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses" below.

The cost to the Blizzard Shareholder of the Trust Units acquired will be equal to their fair market value as of the Effective Date. The cost of the Trust Units acquired must generally be averaged with the adjusted cost base of any other Trust Units held by the Blizzard Shareholder to determine the adjusted cost base of all the Trust Units held at a particular time.

Cancellation of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants

The cancellation of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants for no consideration will not result in any material Canadian federal income tax consequences for holders of such Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants.

Blizzard New Common Shares Transferred to Zenas in Exchange for Zenas Common Shares

A Blizzard Shareholder will transfer Blizzard New Common Shares received on the reorganization of the capital of Blizzard to Zenas in exchange for Zenas Common Shares in a tax-deferred share-for-share exchange under section 85.1 of the Tax Act, unless the Blizzard Shareholder recognizes all or a portion of the capital gain or capital loss in income for the taxation year which includes the Arrangement. Subject to the comments below, a Blizzard Shareholder will be deemed to have disposed of such holder's Blizzard New Common Shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the adjusted cost base to the Blizzard Shareholder of such Blizzard New Common Shares determined immediately before the exchange. A Blizzard Shareholder will be deemed to have acquired the Zenas Common Shares at a cost equal to the adjusted cost base to the Blizzard Shareholder of the Blizzard New Common Shares determined immediately before the exchange. If a Blizzard Shareholder chooses to treat the disposition of such Blizzard New Common Shares for Zenas Common Shares as a taxable transaction, the holder will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the fair market value of the Zenas Common Shares exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base to the Blizzard Shareholder of such Blizzard New Common Shares determined immediately before the exchange and any reasonable costs of disposition. In this event, the cost to the holder of the Zenas Common Shares received will be equal to their fair market value as of the Effective Date. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses" below.

Issuance of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants

Blizzard Shareholders who receive the Zenas Arrangement Warrants pursuant to the Arrangement should not be subject to any tax pursuant to the Tax Act on the receipt of such warrants. A Blizzard Shareholder will not realize a gain or a loss upon the exercise of a Zenas Arrangement Warrant. For the purposes of the Tax Act, when a Zenas Arrangement Warrant is exercised, the Blizzard Shareholder's adjusted cost base of the Zenas Common Share acquired thereby will (subject to averaging) be the price paid on the exercise of the Zenas Arrangement Warrant. A disposition of a Zenas Arrangement Warrant (other than pursuant to the exercise thereof) will generally result in the holder thereof realizing a capital gain equal to the proceeds of disposition so received. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses" below.

Zenas Finco Common Shares Transferred to Zenas in Exchange for Zenas Common Shares

Certain holders will transfer their Zenas Finco Common Shares to Zenas in exchange for Zenas Common Shares in a tax-deferred share-for-share exchange under section 85.1 of the Tax Act, unless the holder recognizes all or a portion of the capital gain or capital loss in income for the taxation year which includes the Arrangement. Subject to the comments below, these holders will be deemed to have disposed of their Zenas Finco Common Shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the adjusted cost base to the holder of such shares immediately before the exchange. Such holders will be deemed to have acquired the Zenas Common Shares at a cost equal to the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Zenas Finco Common Shares immediately before the exchange. If a holder chooses to treat the disposition of such Zenas Finco Common Shares for Zenas Common Shares as a taxable transaction, the holder will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the fair market value of the Zenas Common Shares exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Zenas Finco Common Shares determined immediately before the exchange and any reasonable costs of disposition. In this event, the cost to the holder of the Zenas Common Shares received will be equal to their fair market value as of the Effective Date. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses" below.

Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses

Generally, one-half of any capital gain (a "taxable capital gain") realized by a Blizzard Shareholder in a taxation year must be included in the income of the Blizzard Shareholder for the year, and one-half of any capital loss (an "allowable capital loss") realized by a Blizzard Shareholder in a taxation year is required to be deducted from taxable capital gains realized by the Blizzard Shareholder in that year. Allowable capital losses for a taxation year in excess of taxable capital gains for that year generally may be carried back and deducted in any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward and deducted in any subsequent taxation year against net taxable capital gains realized in such years, to the extent and under the circumstances described in the Tax Act.

A Blizzard Shareholder that throughout the relevant taxation year is a "Canadian-controlled private corporation", as defined in the Tax Act, may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % on certain investment income, including taxable capital gains. Capital gains realized by a Blizzard Shareholder who is an individual may give rise to a liability for minimum tax.

Status of the Fund

Based on certain factual representations made by Shiningbank Energy, the Fund qualifies as a "unit trust" and a "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Tax Act. The Fund will continue to so qualify provided certain conditions under the Tax Act (relating principally to the number and residency of Unitholders, the fair market value of the Trust Units from time to time and the nature of the Fund's activities) are maintained. Except as otherwise indicated, this summary is based on the assumption that the Fund will at all material times qualify as a mutual fund trust for the purposes of the Tax Act.

If the Fund was not at present or a future time to qualify as a mutual fund trust, the income tax considerations respecting the Fund and Unitholders may be materially different from those described in this summary, and in particular the following adverse income tax consequences may result:

- The Trust Units would cease to be qualified investments for registered retirement savings plans ("RRSPs"), registered retirement income funds ("RRIFs"), deferred profit sharing plans ("DPSPs") and registered education savings plans ("RESPs") (collectively referred to as "Exempt Plans"). Where at the end of any month an Exempt Plan holds non-qualified investments, the Exempt Plan may be obligated to pay, with respect to that month, tax equal to 1% of the fair market value of such investments at the time such investments were acquired by the Exempt Plan. Where a trust governed by an RRSP or an RRIF acquires investments that are not qualified investments, the beneficiary of that trust will be deemed to have received taxable income in an amount equal to the purchase price of such investments, and while it holds investments that are not qualified investments, that trust will be taxable on its income attributable to such investments. Where a trust governed by a DPSP acquires investments that are not qualified investments the trust is liable for tax in an amount equal to the fair market value of such investments at the time of their acquisition. Where a trust governed by an RESP acquires investments that are not qualified investments the registration of the RESP may be revoked and the RESP will cease to be exempt from tax.
- The Fund will be required to pay a tax under Part XII.1 of the Tax Act in respect of amounts distributed to non-resident persons. The payment of this tax by the Fund may have adverse income tax consequences for certain Unitholders, including non-resident persons and tax-exempt persons (including Exempt Plans) that acquire an interest in the Fund directly or indirectly from another Unitholder.
- The Fund will cease to be eligible for the capital gains refund mechanism available to mutual fund trusts.
- The Trust Units will constitute taxable Canadian property for Non-Residents and require the Non-Residents to comply with the withholding and clearance certificate requirements under section 116 of the Tax Act on the disposition of the Trust Units.

Taxation of the Fund

Income of the Fund

The Tax Act requires the Fund to compute its income or loss for a taxation year as though it were an individual resident in Canada. The Fund's taxation year is the calendar year.

The Fund will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year all net realized taxable capital gains, all amounts that become receivable or are received in that year in respect of Royalties and all interest on indebtedness held by the Fund that accrues to it to the end of the year, or becomes receivable or is received by it before the end of the year, except to the extent that such interest was included in computing its income for a preceding year.

The Fund will be entitled to deduct in computing its income for a taxation year, reasonable current expenses incurred in its ongoing operations, expenses incurred respecting the issuance of Trust Units on a five year, straight line basis, as well as annual deductions in respect of its cumulative Canadian oil and gas property expense account ("cumulative COGPE"), on a 10% declining balance basis.

Counsel is advised that all amounts paid by the Fund for the acquisition of the Royalties have been, and subsequent amounts paid or payable by the Fund for the Royalties will be, added to the Fund's cumulative COGPE in the taxation year of the Fund in which such acquisition occurs.

To the extent that the Fund has any income for a taxation year after the inclusions and deductions outlined above, the Fund will be permitted to deduct all amounts which are payable by it to Unitholders in the year. An amount will be considered to be payable to a Unitholder in a taxation year if it is paid in the year by the Fund or the Unitholder is entitled in the year to enforce payment of the amount. The Trust Indenture provides that the Fund's income for purposes of the Tax Act each year that has not otherwise been made payable to Unitholders will be deemed to become so payable on December 31 of such year, and that each Unitholder has the right to enforce payment of same on the date it becomes payable.

Counsel has been advised that the Fund intends to make payable to the Unitholders with respect to each taxation year an amount equal to all of the income of the Fund, including interest and royalty income of the Fund for such year, together with the taxable and non-taxable portion of any capital gains realized by the Fund in such year (excluding capital gains that may be realized by the Fund upon a distribution in specie of the property of the Fund in connection with a redemption of Trust Units) less the Fund's expenses and the amount, if any, required to be retained to pay the Fund's tax liability.

Counsel has been advised that for purposes of the Tax Act, the Fund intends to deduct in computing its income the full amount available in each year to the extent of its income that will be subject to tax, otherwise determined. Therefore, the Fund does not expect to be liable for a material amount of tax under the Tax Act. The Tax Act provides that the Fund may, at its discretion, claim a deduction in computing income for a taxation year in an amount less than its income for such year that becomes payable to Unitholders in such year. The Fund may wish to do so in order to utilize losses from prior taxation years.

Taxation of Unitholders

Income from Trust Units

Each Unitholder is required to include in computing income for a particular taxation year the Unitholder's pro rata share of the Fund's net income for tax purposes that was payable in that year by the Fund to that Unitholder whether the amount was actually paid to the Unitholder in that year. An amount will be considered to be payable to the Unitholders in a taxation year if it is paid in the year by the Fund or the Unitholder is entitled in that year to enforce payment of the amount.

Income of a Unitholder from the Trust Units will generally be considered to be income from property and not business income, dividend income or income from resource production for purposes of the Tax Act. Any loss of the Fund for purposes of the Tax Act cannot be allocated to and treated as a loss of the Unitholders. The amount of income for purposes of the Tax Act allocable to a Unitholder by the Fund may not be the same as the amount of cash paid by the Fund to such Unitholder as a result of the deduction by the Fund for purposes of determining income pursuant to the Tax Act of certain non-cash expenses, and the non-deductibility or deferred deductibility for the same purpose of certain Fund expenditures.

Provided that appropriate designations are made by the Fund, all income derived from the Fund's net taxable capital gains and taxable dividends as is paid or payable to a Unitholder will retain its character as taxable capital gains and taxable dividends, respectively, and shall be treated as such in the hands of the Unitholders for purposes of the Tax Act.

Amounts distributed by the Fund to a Unitholder in respect of a Trust Unit will reduce the Unitholder's adjusted cost base respecting such Trust Unit to the extent that the amounts distributed are in excess of such Unitholder's share of the Fund's income for the purposes of the Tax Act computed prior to any deduction for amounts distributed to Unitholders. To the extent that the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of a Trust Unit would otherwise be less than zero, the negative amount will be treated as a capital gain from the disposition of such Trust Units, and hence the adjusted cost base will not become negative.

Disposition of Trust Units

An actual or deemed disposition of Trust Units will give rise to a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the proceeds of disposition are greater than (or less than) the adjusted cost base to the holder of such Trust Units plus reasonable costs associated with the disposition. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses" above.

Eligibility for Exempt Plan Investment

Subject to the qualifications and assumptions set out above under the heading "Status of the Fund", and the terms of particular Exempt Plans, the Trust Units at the date of issue will be qualified investments for Exempt Plans. Exempt Plans are not generally subject to income tax on any distributions from the Fund or on any gains realized on the disposition of Trust Units.

Non-Residents of Canada

This portion of the summary is applicable to a Blizzard Shareholder who, for the purposes of the Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty, and at all relevant times is not resident in Canada and is not deemed to be resident in Canada, does not use or hold, and is not deemed to use or hold such holder's Securities in, or in the course of, carrying on business in Canada, and is not an insurer who carries on an insurance business in Canada and elsewhere (a "Non-Resident Holder" for the purposes of this section).

Disposition of Blizzard Shares, Zenas Common Shares, Trust Units or Zenas Arrangement Warrants

A Non-Resident Holder will be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of a disposition of Blizzard Shares, Zenas Common Shares, Trust Units or Zenas Arrangement Warrants (other than on the exercise thereof) only to the extent such securities constitute "taxable Canadian property" for purposes of the Tax Act and the Non-Resident Holder is not afforded relief under an applicable income tax treaty.

Blizzard Shares and Zenas Common Shares will normally not be taxable Canadian property at a particular time provided that: (i) the particular shares of the corporation were listed on a prescribed stock exchange (which includes the TSX) and the Non-Resident Holder, persons with whom the Non-Resident Holder does not deal at arm's length (within the meaning of the Tax Act), or the Non-Resident Holder together with such persons did not own 25% or more of the issued shares of any class or series of the respective corporation at any time during the 60-month period preceding the particular time; and (ii) such shares are not otherwise deemed to be taxable Canadian property.

Trust Units will normally not be taxable Canadian property at a particular time provided that: (i) the Non-Resident Holder, persons with whom the Non-Resident Holder does not deal at arm's length (within the meaning of the Tax Act), or the Non-Resident Holder together with such persons did not own 25% or more of the issued Trust Units at any time during the 60-month period preceding the particular time; (ii) the Fund is a mutual fund trust at the time of the disposition; and (iii) the Trust Units are not otherwise deemed to be taxable Canadian property.

The Zenas Arrangement Warrants will generally not constitute taxable Canadian property unless the Non-Resident-Holder owns Zenas Common Shares which at that time constitute taxable Canadian property to the Non-Resident-Holder (as described above).

In the event that a Non-Resident Holder's Blizzard Shares, Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares or Zenas Arrangement Warrants constitute taxable Canadian property and subject to any relief under an applicable income tax treaty, the disposition thereof will generally give rise to a capital gain (or capital loss) in the same manner as described above under the heading "Residents of Canada". A Non-Resident Holder is required to file a Canadian income tax return if such Non-Resident Holder disposes of taxable Canadian property or realizes a capital gain on the disposition of any other taxable Canadian property in connection with the Arrangement. Certain other Canadian tax filing requirements may also apply to Non-Resident-Holders who dispose of taxable Canadian property.

Income From Trust Units

Where the Fund makes distributions to a Non-Resident Holder, the same considerations as those discussed above with respect to a Unitholder who is resident in Canada will apply, except that any distribution of income paid or credited by the Fund to a Non-Resident Holder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the time such distribution is paid or credited at the rate of 25%, subject to reduction of such rate under an applicable income tax treaty. Non-Resident Holders who are resident in the United States for the purposes of the Canada-United States Income Tax Convention, 1980, are generally entitled to have such rate of withholding reduced to 15%. A Non-Resident Holder who for U.S. corporate law purposes is a limited liability company that is treated as a partnership for U.S. tax purposes is not entitled to any relief under the Canada-United States Income Tax Convention, 1980.

A 15% withholding tax is imposed on the non-taxable portion of the Fund's distributions made to Non-Residents. The 15% Canadian withholding tax will only apply if, at the time of the distribution, the Trust Units are listed on a prescribed stock exchange (which includes the TSX) and more than 50% of the value of the Trust Units is attributable to real property situated in Canada, Canadian resource property (which includes the Royalties), timber resource property, or a combination thereof. If a subsequent disposition of a Trust Unit results in a capital loss to a Non-Resident Holder, a refund of the 15% Canadian withholding tax is available in limited circumstances, subject to the filing of a special Canadian tax return.

A 25% withholding tax is imposed on distributions made to non-residents of Canada which are attributable to capital gains realized by the Fund after March 22, 2004 on the disposition of taxable Canadian property where the Fund has made certain designations on such capital gains with respect to its Unitholders. The 25% rate of Canadian withholding tax may be reduced pursuant to the terms of an applicable income tax treaty. It is not expected that this withholding tax will affect distributions made by the Fund since the Fund is not expected to realize capital gains from the disposition of taxable Canadian property.

Issuance of Zenas Arrangement Warrants

A Non-Resident Holder should not be subject to any tax pursuant to the Tax Act on the acquisition of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants nor on the exercise of a Zenas Arrangement Warrant and the acquisition of a Zenas Common Share. A Non-Resident Holder should not be subject to any tax under the Tax Act on the disposition of a Zenas Arrangement Warrant, provided that such warrants do not constitute taxable Canadian property to such holder. The Zenas Arrangement Warrants will generally not constitute taxable Canadian property to a Non-Resident Holder unless the holder owns Zenas Common Shares which at that time constitute taxable Canadian property to the holder (as described above).

Securityholders who are resident or are otherwise subject to tax in jurisdictions other than Canada should consult their tax advisors with respect to the tax implications of the Arrangement, including any associated filing requirements, in such jurisdictions. Blizzard Shareholders, Blizzard Warrantholders and Blizzard Optionholders who are not resident in Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act should contact their own tax advisors having regard to their own particular circumstances.

Right to Dissent

The following description of the right to dissent and appraisal to which registered Blizzard Securityholders are entitled is not a comprehensive statement of the procedures to be followed by a Dissenting Securityholder who seeks payment of the fair value of such Dissenting Securityholder's Blizzard Securities and is qualified in its entirety by the reference to the full text of the Interim Order, Plan of Arrangement, and Section 191 of the ABCA which are attached to this Information Circular as Appendices B, C and I, respectively. A Dissenting Securityholder who intends to exercise the right to dissent and appraisal should carefully consider and comply with the provisions of that section. Failure to strictly comply with the provisions of that Section 191 of the ABCA as modified by the Plan of Arrangement and by the Interim Order and to adhere to the procedures established therein may result in the loss of all rights thereunder.

Registered Blizzard Securityholders are entitled, in addition to any other right such holder may have, to dissent and to be paid by Blizzard, the fair value of the Blizzard Securities held by such holder in respect of which such holder dissents, determined as of the close of business on the last Business Day before the day on which the resolution from which such holder dissents was adopted. A registered Blizzard Securityholder may dissent only with respect to all of the Blizzard Securities held by such holder or on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the Dissenting Securityholder's name. Only registered Blizzard Securityholders may dissent. Persons who are beneficial owners of Blizzard Securities registered in the name of a broker, custodian, nominee or other intermediary who wish to dissent, should be aware that they may only do so through the registered owner of such securities. A Registered Holder, such as a broker, who holds Blizzard Securities as nominee for beneficial holders, some of whom wish to dissent, must exercise dissent rights on behalf of such beneficial owners with respect to the Blizzard Securities held for such beneficial owners. In such case, the demand for dissent should set forth the number of Blizzard Securities covered by it.

A Dissenting Securityholder must send to Blizzard's counsel, Bennett Jones LLP, Attention H. Martin Kay, Q.C., 4500, 855-2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7, a written objection to the Arrangement Resolution, which written objection must be received by Bennett Jones LLP by 4:00 p.m. on the Business Day immediately preceding the date of the Meeting.

A holder of Blizzard Securities, may not exercise the right to dissent in respect of only a portion of such holder's Blizzard Securities, but may dissent only with respect to all of the Blizzard Securities held by the holder. A Registered Holder wishing to exercise the right to dissent with respect to such holder's Blizzard Securities shall not vote such Blizzard Securities at the Meeting, either by the submission of a proxy or by personally voting, in favour of the Arrangement Resolution.

An application may be made to the Court by Blizzard or by a Dissenting Securityholder after the adoption of the Arrangement Resolution to fix the fair value of the Dissenting Securityholder's Securities. If such an application to the Court is made by Blizzard or a Dissenting Securityholder, Blizzard must, unless the Court otherwise orders, send to each Dissenting Securityholder a written offer to pay the Dissenting Securityholder an amount considered by the Blizzard board of directors to be the fair value of the Blizzard Securities, as applicable. The offer, unless the Court otherwise orders, will be sent to each Dissenting Securityholder at least 10 days before the date on which the application is returnable, if Blizzard is the applicant, or within 10 days after Blizzard is served with notice of the application, if a Dissenting Securityholder is the applicant. The offer will be made on the same terms to each Dissenting Securityholder of Blizzard Securities, as applicable, and will be accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined.

A Dissenting Securityholder may make an agreement with Blizzard for the purchase of such holder's Blizzard Securities in the amount of the offer made by Blizzard (or otherwise) at any time before the Court pronounces an order fixing the fair value of the Blizzard Securities.

A Dissenting Securityholder is not required to give security for costs in respect of an application and, except in special circumstances, will not be required to pay the costs of the application or appraisal. On the application, the Court will make an order fixing the fair value of the Blizzard Securities, as applicable, of all Dissenting Securityholders who are parties to the application, giving judgment in that amount against Blizzard and in favour of each of those Dissenting Securityholders, and fixing the time within which Blizzard must pay that amount payable to the Dissenting Securityholders. The Court may in its discretion allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each Dissenting Securityholder calculated from the date on which the Dissenting Securityholder ceases to have any rights as a Blizzard Securityholder, until the date of payment.

On the Arrangement becoming effective the Dissenting Securityholder will cease to have any rights as a Blizzard Securityholder other than the right to be paid the fair value of such holder's Blizzard Securities, in the amount agreed to between Blizzard and the Dissenting Securityholder or in the amount of the judgment, as the case may be.

Blizzard shall not make a payment to a Dissenting Securityholder under section 191 of the ABCA if there are reasonable grounds for believing that Blizzard is or would after the payment be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due, or that the realizable value of the assets of Blizzard would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities. In such event, Blizzard shall notify each Dissenting Securityholder that it is unable lawfully to pay Dissenting Securityholders for their securities, as applicable, in which case the Dissenting Securityholder retains status as a claimant against Blizzard to be paid as soon as Blizzard is lawfully entitled to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of Blizzard but in priority to its shareholders.

All Blizzard Securities held by Dissenting Securityholders who exercise their right to dissent will be deemed to be transferred to Blizzard and cancelled.

The above summary does not purport to provide a comprehensive statement of the procedures to be followed by a Dissenting Securityholder who seeks payment of the fair value of their Blizzard Securities. Section 191 of the ABCA requires adherence to the procedures established therein and failure to do so may result in the loss of all rights thereunder. Accordingly, each Dissenting Securityholder who might desire to exercise the right to dissent and appraisal should carefully consider and comply with the provisions of that section, the full text of which is set out in Appendix I to this Information Circular and consult their own legal advisor.

It is a condition to the completion of the Arrangement that holders of not greater than 2% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities shall have exercised Dissent Rights in respect of the Arrangement that have not been withdrawn as of the Effective Date.

Interests of Certain Persons or Companies in the Arrangement

Directors and officers of Blizzard own beneficially, directly or indirectly, or exercise control or direction over, an aggregate of approximately 16,368,255 Blizzard Securities (approximately 15% of the issued and outstanding Blizzard Securities), and 18,553,255 Blizzard Securities (approximately 16.3% on a fully diluted basis) assuming that such persons do not engage in any transfers of Blizzard Securities between the Record Date and the Effective Date. The directors, management and certain employees of Blizzard have agreed to vote the 16,027,290 Blizzard Securities (approximately 14% of the fully diluted Blizzard Securities) beneficially owned by them in favour of the Arrangement Resolution and all other matters to be considered at the Meeting pursuant to the Blizzard Lock-up Agreements. The Blizzard Lock-Up Agreements entered into by such directors, officers and certain employees permit the holders of such Blizzard Securities to sell a certain number of Blizzard Securities prior to the Effective Date.

Blizzard has entered into employment agreements with certain of its officers, which employment agreements have been disclosed in Blizzard's continuous disclosure documents. The employment agreements provide that upon a "change of control", and subject to certain conditions being met, these executives may receive a payment comprised of salary, bonus and other employment benefits. The completion of the Arrangement does constitute a "change of control" under such agreements.

Blizzard has agreed to cause all Blizzard Shares being held in trust for the Blizzard Founders to be released, as well as all unvested Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants to vest in order to give maximum flexibility to the Blizzard employees, Blizzard Optionholders and Blizzard Warrantholders with respect to the Arrangement.

Blizzard has retained Orion and Waterous to be the financial advisors to Blizzard and the board of directors of Blizzard with respect to the Arrangement. Orion and Waterous have received or will receive fees from Blizzard for services rendered.

The board of directors retained independent counsel, Blake, Cassels & Graydon, to provide advice on process and fiduciary duties relating to the Arrangement and the Zenas Private Placement.

Canaccord Capital Corporation, GMP Securities Ltd. and Salman Partners Inc. are acting as strategic advisors to Blizzard and Zenas in connection with the Arrangements.

Directors, officers and employees of Blizzard may participate in the Zenas Private Placement. See "Other Matters Considered in the Arrangement Resolution".

None of the principal holders of Blizzard Securities nor any director or officer of Blizzard, nor any associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing persons, has or had any material interest in any transaction in the last three years or any proposed transaction that materially affected, or will materially affect, Blizzard or any of its affiliates except as disclosed above or elsewhere in this Information Circular or the Appendices hereto.

Expenses of the Arrangement

The estimated costs to be incurred by Blizzard relating to the Arrangement including, without limitation, financial advisory, accounting and legal fees, the preparation and printing of this Information Circular are expected to aggregate approximately $5 million.

Stock Exchange Listings

It is a condition to the completion of the Arrangement that the TSX shall have approved the listing of the Trust Units. The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Trust Units to be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. Listing is subject to the Fund fulfilling all of the requirements of the TSX on or before five days from the Effective Date. Application has been made to list the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX. The listing of the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX will be subject to Zenas meeting the TSX's original listing requirements. If Zenas is not able to meet the original listing requirements of the TSX then Zenas will seek to list the Zenas Common Shares on another Canadian stock exchange. Conditional listing approval has not been obtained and there can be no assurance that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on the TSX or any other stock exchange. While Zenas intends to continue to seek a listing for the Zenas Common Shares if such shares are not listed on the TSX, delays in obtaining, or the inability to obtain, such listing will not be a condition of the parties to the completion of the Arrangement and Blizzard Securityholders may receive stock in a private company.

There can be no assurance that the necessary discretionary orders or exemptions will be granted by the applicable regulatory authorities or that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on any stock exchange.

Securities Law Matters

Canada

Securities to be issued under the Arrangement will be issued in reliance on exemptions from prospectus and registration requirements of applicable Canadian securities laws or on discretionary exemptions from such requirements to be obtained from applicable securities regulatory authorities in Canada, including the Autorité des marchés financiers, and the Trust Units and Zenas Common Shares will generally be "freely tradeable" (other than as a result of any "control block" restrictions which may arise by virtue of the ownership thereof) under applicable securities laws of the provinces of Canada. There is no guarantee that the requisite approvals will be granted on a timely basis or on condition satisfactory to the Fund, Blizzard or Zenas.

The Arrangement constitutes a "business combination" for purposes of Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501 requiring "minority approval". Pursuant to Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501, in determining whether minority approval for the Arrangement has been obtained, Blizzard is required to exclude the votes attaching to the Blizzard Shares beneficially owned by the directors and officers of Blizzard receiving Zenas Common Shares under the Zenas Private Placement and their related parties as defined in Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501. To the knowledge of Blizzard and its directors or senior officers, after reasonable inquiry, such persons currently hold, directly or indirectly, or exercise control or direction over approximately 16,368,255 Blizzard Shares, 1,510,000 Blizzard Options and 243,000 Blizzard Warrants and 432,000 founders' Blizzard Shares representing approximately 15% of the outstanding Blizzard Shares, approximately 33% of the outstanding Blizzard Options and approximately 61% of the outstanding Blizzard Warrants, respectively (and which together represent approximately 16.3% of the outstanding 113,742,500 Blizzard Securities).

The Zenas Private Placement may be considered a "related party transaction", "connected transaction" or a "collateral benefit" for the purposes of Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501. Since directors and officers of Blizzard are entitled to receive various benefits or payments in connection with the Arrangement and are expected to participate in the Zenas Private Placement, Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501 requires Blizzard to obtain a formal evaluation for the Arrangement unless an exemption from the valuation requirements is available. Such an exemption is available because the fair market value of benefits and payments to interested parties in the transactions in connection with the Zenas Private Placement do not exceed 25% of Blizzard's market capitalization. See "Effect of the Arrangement - Interests of Certain Persons or Companies in the Arrangement" and "Other Matters Considered in the Arrangement Resolutions - Approval of Zenas Private Placement".

Judicial Developments

The Plan of Arrangement will be implemented pursuant to Section 193 of the ABCA which provides that, where it is impracticable for a corporation to affect an arrangement under any other provisions of the ABCA, a corporation may apply to the Court for an order approving the arrangement proposed by such corporation. Pursuant to these sections of the ABCA, such an application will be made by Blizzard for approval of the Arrangement. See "Effect of the Arrangement - Procedure for the Arrangement Becoming Effective - Court Approvals - Final Order" above. Although there have been a number of judicial decisions considering this section and applications to various arrangements, there have not been, to the knowledge of Blizzard, any recent significant decisions which would apply in this instance. Blizzard Securityholders should consult their legal advisors with respect to the legal rights available to them in relation to the Arrangement.

United States

Securities to be issued to the Blizzard Securityholders will not be registered under the 1933 Act. Such securities will be issued in reliance upon the exemption from registration provided by Section 3(a)(10) of the 1933 Act. Section 3(a)(10) exempts securities issued in exchange for one or more outstanding securities from the general requirement of registration where the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of such securities have been approved by any court of competent jurisdiction, after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange at which all persons to whom the securities will be issued have the right to appear. The Court is authorized to conduct a hearing at which the fairness of the terms and conditions of the Arrangement will be considered. The Court entered the Interim Order on June 28, 2005 and, subject to the approval of the arrangement by Blizzard Securityholders, a hearing on the Arrangement will be held on July 28, 2005 by the Court. See "Effect of the Arrangement - Procedure for the Arrangement Becoming Effective - Court Approvals - Final Order" above.

The securities to be issued to former Blizzard Securityholders resident in the United States will be freely tradeable under U.S. federal securities laws, except by persons who are affiliates of Blizzard prior to the Arrangement or affiliates of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, or Zenas after the Arrangement. Securities held by such affiliates may be resold in compliance with the resale provisions of Rule 145(d)(1), (2), or (3) under the 1933 Act or as otherwise permitted under the 1933 Act. Rule 145(d)(1) generally provides that such affiliates may not sell the securities received pursuant to the Arrangement unless pursuant to an effective registration statement or in accordance with the volume, current public information and manner of sale limitations of Rule 144. These limitations generally require that any sales made by an affiliate in any three-month period not exceed the greater of 1% of the outstanding applicable securities of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy or Zenas or, if such securities are listed on a United States securities exchange or NASDAQ, the average weekly trading volume over the four calendar weeks preceding the placement of the sell order, and that sales be made in unsolicited, open market "broker transactions" at times when certain information specified by the Rule 144 is publicly available with respect to the Fund, Shiningbank Energy or Zenas, as applicable. Rules 145(d)(2) and (3) generally provide that these limitations lapse for non-affiliates of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy or Zenas after a period of one or two years, depending upon whether information continues to be publicly available with respect to such entity.

Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of an issuer generally include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with the issuer, and generally include executive officers and directors of the issuer.

Subject to certain limitations, all holders of the securities received in the Arrangement may immediately resell such securities outside the United States without registration under the 1933 Act pursuant to Regulation S under the 1933 Act. Generally, subject to certain limitations, holders of the securities following the Arrangement who are not affiliates of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy, or Zenas or who are affiliates of such entities solely by virtue of their status as an officer or director of such entity may, under the securities laws of the United States, resell their securities received in the Arrangement in an "offshore transaction" (which would include a sale through the TSX that is not pre-arranged with a U.S. buyer) if neither the seller nor any person acting on the seller's behalf engages in "directed selling efforts" in the United States and, in the case of a sale of securities received in the Arrangement by an officer or director who is an affiliate of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy or Zenas, as applicable, solely by virtue of holding such position, no selling commission, fee or other remuneration is paid in connection with such offer or sale other than a usual and customary broker's commission. For purposes of Regulation S, "directed selling efforts" means "any activity undertaken for the purpose of, or that could reasonably be expected to have the effect of, conditioning the market in the United States for any of the securities being offered" in the resale transaction. Additional restrictions are applicable to a holder of securities received in the Arrangement who will be an affiliate of the Fund, Shiningbank Energy or Zenas other than by virtue of his or her status as an officer or director of such entity.

The foregoing discussion is only a general overview of certain requirements of United States securities laws applicable to the securities received upon completion of the Arrangement. All holders of such securities are urged to consult with counsel to ensure that the resale of their securities complies with applicable securities legislation.

EXPERTS

Certain legal matters relating to the Arrangement are to be passed upon by Bennett Jones LLP, on behalf of Blizzard, Zenas, Zenas Finco and Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP, on behalf of the Fund and Shiningbank Energy. As at the date hereof, the partners and associates of Bennett Jones LLP beneficially own, directly or indirectly, approximately 1% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities. Robert R. Rooney, who is a partner at Bennett Jones LLP, and is a director and officer of Blizzard and will be a director of Zenas upon completion of the Arrangement. The partners and associates of Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP beneficially own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of the outstanding Trust Units as at the date hereof.

Ross Smith assisted the board of directors of Blizzard in completing technical due diligence on the Fund. As at the date hereof, the associates of Ross Smith own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities.

INFORMATION CONCERNING BLIZZARD

1022973 Alberta Ltd. was incorporated pursuant to the ABCA on December 19, 2002. By Certificate of Amendment dated February 27, 2003, 1022973 Alberta Ltd. changed its name to Blizzard Energy Inc. On December 12, 2003, Pre-Amalgamation Blizzard amalgamated with Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pre-Amalgamation Blizzard pursuant to the ABCA. The amalgamated corporation continued under the name Blizzard Energy Inc. On December 16, 2003, Blizzard filed Articles of Amendment to change the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the Blizzard Shares and the Blizzard Class A Shares.

Blizzard is a reporting issuer or the equivalent thereof in the provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Québec and the Blizzard Shares are listed and posted for trading on the TSX.

Blizzard's registered office is at 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4K7, and its head and principal office is at 305, 505-3rd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3E6.

Reference is made to Appendix F "Information Concerning Blizzard" for a detailed description of Blizzard and its assets.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE FUND

The Fund is an unincorporated open-ended investment trust created under the laws of the Province of Alberta and formed and governed by the Trust Indenture. The head and principal offices of the Fund are located at 1310, 111-5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3Y6. The registered office of the Fund is located at 1200, 700-2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta. T2P 4V5.

The Fund's assets consist primarily of the Royalties granted by Shiningbank Energy and SLP, the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note. The Royalties entitle the Fund to receive Royalty Income. The Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note entitle the Fund to receive payments of principal and interest from Shiningbank Energy and from SLP in accordance with the terms of promissory notes arising at the time of acquisition of the shares of Raider, Ionic and Birchill.

Holders of Trust Units are the beneficiaries of the Fund. Unitholders indirectly receive the benefit of the Royalties consisting of the entitlement to receive an amount equal to the Royalty Income and also indirectly receive the benefit of the interest income on the Raider Acquisition Notes, the Ionic Acquisition Notes and the Birchill Acquisition Note received by the Fund from Shiningbank Energy and SLP.

The Fund permits individual Unitholders to participate in the cash flow from the business of Shiningbank Energy and SLP to the extent such cash flow is distributed by the Trustee. Each Unit entitles the holder thereof to receive monthly cash distributions.

The Fund is managed by the management of Shiningbank Energy, which is led by David M. Fitzpatrick as President and Chief Executive Officer and Bruce K. Gibson as Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer.

The Fund's mandate is to generate monthly distributions to Unitholders by focusing on low cost operations and the active development of its property base. Prior to the acquisition of Blizzard, the Fund expected to have 2005 average production of approximately 19,500 to 20,000 boe/d. As at December 31, 2004 Paddock and Sproule estimated that the Fund's proved plus probable reserves are 70.1 MMboe, resulting in an effective RLI of approximately 9.8 years, based on expected 2005 production. These assets are characterized by high operating netbacks which, in 2004, amount to $25.96 per boe based on realized commodity prices of $43.14/bbl for oil and 7.06 /Mcf for natural gas and low operating costs of approximately $6.67 per boe. The Fund's high level of operatorship of over 65% is expected to ensure that this attractive cost structure is maintained.

At Closing, the Fund is expected to have approximately $300 million of net debt (subject to adjustment for capital spending to closing) and sufficient unused debt capacity to position the Fund to actively exploit its inventory of drill-ready low risk development opportunities.

The Fund is a reporting issuer in all Canadian provinces and is subject to the informational reporting requirements under the securities laws of such jurisdictions.

See Appendix H "Information Concerning the Fund". See also "Selected Pro Forma Financial and Operational Information for the Fund", "Distribution Policy" and "Distribution History" under the heading "Summary Information" at the front of this Information Circular.

INFORMATION CONCERNING ZENAS

Zenas

Zenas is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the ABCA and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Blizzard. It is expected that Zenas will become a public corporation pursuant to the Arrangement.

Under the Arrangement, Zenas will acquire approximately 400 boe/d of production primarily within the Grande Prairie area of Alberta, along with approximately 16,355 net acres of undeveloped land. In addition, Zenas will acquire Blizzard's interest in a joint venture agreement with a major exploration and production company encompassing 160,000 acres in Northeast British Columbia. This past winter a 40 square mile 3D seismic program was run over this area and several stratigraphic wells were drilled which confirmed a significant natural gas resource opportunity.

Based primarily on independent reserve evaluations for 100% of the reserves, internal evaluations as well as the Ross Smith Report, Zenas will have a net asset value of $28.6 million or $1.50 per Zenas Common Share (after giving effect to the Arrangement) comprised of $14.9 million for reserves, $3.1 million for undeveloped land, $3.1 million for seismic and $7.5 million for the joint venture opportunity in Northeast British Columbia.

Blizzard's existing management team will continue with Zenas with John Rooney as President and Chief Executive Officer, Mike Machalski as Chief Operating Officer and Hal Metcalfe as Chief Financial Officer. In addition to John Rooney, the Board of Directors will include Jim Artindale (Chairman), Larry Evans, Dave MacKenzie, George Watson, Frank Guidolin, Doug Manner and Bob Rooney.

Upon completion of the Arrangement, it is expected that Zenas will not have any debt and will be well positioned to aggressively pursue and expand its asset base and certain exploratory initiatives, which are currently underway. A capital expenditure program of $13 to $14 million is planned for the remainder of the year.

The Zenas Private Placement will be made available to the Blizzard directors, officers and employees raising maximum proceeds of $6 million, while up to an additional $6 million may be raised through the exercise of Zenas Arrangement Warrants which are being issued to Blizzard Shareholders, at the same price as the Zenas Private Placement, pursuant to the Arrangement. See "Approval of Zenas Private Placement" below.

Application has been made to list the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX. The listing of the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX will be subject to Zenas meeting the TSX's original listing requirements. If Zenas is not able to meet the original listing requirements of the TSX then Zenas will seek to list the Zenas Common Shares on another Canadian stock exchange. Conditional listing approval has not been obtained and there can be no assurance that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on the TSX or any other stock exchange. While Zenas intends to continue to seek a listing for the Zenas Common Shares if such shares are not listed on the TSX, delays in obtaining, or the inability to obtain, such listing will not be a condition of the parties to the completion of the Arrangement and Blizzard Securityholders may receive stock in a private company.

There can be no assurance that the necessary discretionary orders or exemptions will be granted by the applicable regulatory authorities or that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on any stock exchange. See "Effect of the Arrangement – Stock Exchange Listings" and "Security Laws Matters".

If Zenas becomes a reporting issuer it will become subject to the informational reporting requirements under the securities laws of such jurisdictions as a result of the Arrangement.

Reference is made to Appendix E "Information Concerning Zenas" for a detailed description of Zenas and its assets. See also "Selected Pro Forma Financial and Operational Information for Zenas" under the heading "Summary Information" at the front of this Information Circular.

INFORMATION CONCERNING ZENAS FINCO

Zenas Finco is a Canadian-controlled private corporation incorporated pursuant to the provisions of the ABCA for the purpose of participating in the Arrangement. The head and principal office of Zenas Finco is located at Suite 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4K7 and its registered office is located at Suite 4500, 855 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7. There is currently one issued and outstanding Zenas Finco Common Share which was issued to its sole director.

It is expected that Zenas Finco will complete the Zenas Private Placement and issue the Zenas Common Shares prior to the Effective Date. Upon the Arrangement becoming effective, the Zenas Finco Common Shares will be exchanged for Zenas Common Shares. See Appendix E "Information Concerning Zenas – Capitalization".

OTHER MATTERS CONSIDERED IN THE ARRANGEMENT RESOLUTION

Approval of the Zenas Stock Option Plan

Stock Option Plan

By approving the Arrangement Resolution, the Blizzard Securityholders will be approving the Zenas Stock Option Plan. Zenas will implement the Zenas Stock Option Plan, subject to regulatory approval, which will authorize the Zenas board of directors to issue stock options to Service Providers. The Stock Option Plan will be administered by the board of directors of Zenas. Under the terms of the Stock Option Plan, the board of directors will be authorized to provide for the granting, exercise, method of exercise and vesting of options to purchase Zenas Common Shares subject to the terms and conditions of the Stock Option Plan. A copy of the Stock Option Plan is set out in Appendix G to the Information Circular. The proposed Stock Option Plan is in accordance with the TSX's policies on listed company share incentive arrangements.

Zenas believes that the granting of stock options is an important part of the compensation structure for a company of its size and in its industry, not only to retain the services of existing employees, but also to attract qualified personnel to Zenas. Moreover, the Stock Option Plan is designed to (i) increase proprietary interests of Service Providers in Zenas; (ii) align interests of Services Providers with interests of Zenas's shareholders; (iii) encourage Service Providers to remain associated with Zenas; and (iv) furnish Services Providers with additional incentives in their efforts on behalf of Zenas.

Initially, the Stock Option Plan, assuming completion of the Arrangement, the Zenas Private Placement and the exercise of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants, will authorize Zenas's board of directors to have reserved for issuance a total of approximately 2,695,708 Zenas Common Shares (an amount to represent 10% of the outstanding Zenas Common Shares at such time and including the Zenas Common Shares issued pursuant to the exercise of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants). At any time, the number of Zenas Common Shares reserved or granted from time to time for options shall not be more than 10% of the aggregate number of then issued and outstanding Zenas Common Shares. The Zenas Common Shares in respect of which stock options are not exercised shall be available for subsequent stock option grants. The term of options granted shall be determined by the board of directors of Zenas in its discretion, to a maximum of 10 years from the date of the grant.

The aggregate number of Zenas Common Shares reserved for issuance to any one person under the Stock Option Plan, together with all other share compensation arrangements of Zenas, shall not exceed 5% of the outstanding issue of Zenas Common Shares (on a non diluted basis). In addition, no more than 10% of the outstanding issue of Zenas Common Shares (on a non-diluted basis), in the aggregate, may be reserved at any time for insiders under the Stock Option Plan. The Stock Option Plan also provides that the aggregate number of Zenas Common Shares issued to any one insider and such insider's associates pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, within a one year period, shall not exceed 5% of the outstanding issue of Zenas Common Shares.

The price per share at which Zenas Common Shares may be purchased under the Stock Option Plan (the "Option Price"), as may be adjusted pursuant to the provisions of the Stock Option Plan, shall be fixed by the board of directors of Zenas at the time of the grant but under no circumstances shall any Option Price at the time of the grant be lower than the market price per Zenas Common Share. For purposes of the Stock Option Plan, the market price means the volume weighted average trading price of the Zenas Common Shares on the stock exchange on which the Shares are traded for the five trading days immediately preceding the date of the grant. If the Zenas Common Shares are not listed on a stock exchange at the time of the grant, then the market price for the purposes of such grant shall be as determined by the board of directors of Zenas in its sole discretion.

Options are non-assignable and non-transferable by the person to whom they are granted except by will or the laws of descent and distribution. In the event the holder of stock options ceases to be employed by Zenas for any reason (except as a result of death or permanent disability), the holder's stock options shall be terminated on the earlier of the expiration of the option period and 90 days after the date of such termination. In the event of a holder's death or permanent disability, an option shall be exercisable until the earlier of the expiration period or the date that is 12 months after the date of death or permanent disability, whichever is earlier.

In the event of a "change of control" (as defined in the Stock Option Plan), all stock options shall immediately vest and be exercisable upon the earlier of the expiry date of the stock option and the date that is 90 days after the date of the sale or the change of control.

The board of directors of Zenas may, at any time, suspend or terminate the Stock Option Plan. The board of directors may amend or revise the terms of the Stock Option Plan, subject to the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, provided that no such amendment or revisions shall materially adversely affect the terms of any stock options granted under the Stock Option Plan. The board of directors of Zenas may grant stock options to Service Providers from time to time in accordance with the terms and the provisions of the Stock Option Plan.

Approval of Zenas Private Placement

By approving the Arrangement Resolution, the Blizzard Securityholders will be approving the Zenas Private Placement of up to 4,000,000 Zenas Finco Common Shares at a price of $1.50 for each Zenas Finco Common Share. Each Zenas Finco

Common Share will be exchanged pursuant to the Arrangement, on a one-for-one basis, for a Zenas Common Share. The purpose of the Zenas Private Placement is: (a) to allow Service Providers to increase their ownership position in Zenas, at a fair price and in a manner which encourages continued employment; (b) to align the interests of holders of Zenas Common Shares and Service Providers through the capital commitment being made under the Zenas Private Placement by Service Providers; (c) to allow Zenas to meet the challenges in retaining qualified personnel in a very competitive employment market; and (d) to provide additional capital to Zenas for use in its exploration and development program. The board of directors of Zenas believes that the Zenas Private Placement is important to Zenas to retain key Service Providers.

The price at which the Zenas Finco Common Shares will be sold is based on the Zenas Common Share net assets value which has been determined to be $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share based on the following factors: (a) the Zenas Engineering Reports evaluating the oil, NGL and natural gas interests forming part of the Zenas Assets being transferred to Zenas as part of the Arrangement (b) land evaluations and (c) the Ross Smith Report. See Appendix E "Information Concerning Zenas".

The Zenas Finco Common Shares will be issued at the net asset value of Zenas and will then be exchanged on a one-to-one basis for Zenas Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement. Historically, in transactions of this nature, securities issued pursuant to the private placement subsequently trade at a premium to the subscription price under the private placement which is often at a greater discount to the market price than the maximum allowable discount permitted by the TSX. Under the Arrangement, each Blizzard Shareholder will be entitled to Zenas Arrangement Warrants, each Zenas Arrangement Warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for 0.211 of a Zenas Common Share at an effective exercise price of $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share (Zenas's current estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share after giving effect and the Arrangement). There can be no assurances that Zenas Common Shares will trade at a premium to the estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share, if and when the Zenas Common Shares are listed on the TSX.

- (2) Undeveloped land of 8,542 net acres at January 1, 2005 and 16,355 net acres at June 30, 2005 is based on market value assumptions.
- (3) Value determined by Ross Smith on Northeastern British Columbia farm-in.
- (4) Represents the number of Blizzard Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time assuming all of the Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants are exercised.

The allocation of the private placement is subject to approval of the board of directors of Blizzard.

GENERAL PROXY MATTERS

Solicitation of Proxies

This Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of Blizzard to be used at the Meeting. Solicitations of proxies will be primarily by mail, but may also be by newspaper publication, in person or by telephone, fax or oral communication by directors, officers, employees or agents of Blizzard who will be specifically remunerated therefor. All costs of the solicitation for the Meeting will be borne by Blizzard. Blizzard has made the decision to engage Georgeson Shareholder Communications Canada Inc. ("Georgeson") to encourage the return of completed proxies and letters of transmittal by Blizzard Securityholders and to solicit proxies in favour of the Arrangement Resolution. The fees for the information agent and proxy solicited services provided by Georgeson is based on a flat program management fee, a communication fee (per contract) and success fees. Blizzard does not expect that the costs in respect of such services to exceed $50,000 which amount will be paid by Blizzard.

Appointment and Revocation of Proxies

Accompanying this Information Circular is a form of proxy for holders of Blizzard Securities.

The Persons named in the enclosed form of proxy are directors and officers of Blizzard. A Blizzard Securityholder desiring to appoint a Person (who need not be a Blizzard Securityholder) to represent such Blizzard Securityholder at a Meeting other than the Persons designated in the applicable accompanying form of proxy may do so either by inserting such Person's name in the blank space provided in the appropriate form of proxy or by completing another form of proxy and, in either case, sending or delivering the completed proxy to the offices of Valiant Trust Company, 310, 606-4th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 1T1. The form of proxy must be received by Valiant Trust Company within twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Failure to so deposit a form of proxy shall result in its invalidation.

A Blizzard Securityholder who has given a form of proxy may revoke it as to any matter on which a vote has not already been cast pursuant to its authority by an instrument in writing executed by such Blizzard Securityholder or by his attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the Blizzard Securityholder is a corporation, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized, and deposited either at the above mentioned office of Valiant Trust Company on or before the last Business Day preceding the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof or with the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

The date for determination of Blizzard Securityholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote is June 23, 2005 (the "Record Date"). Only Blizzard Securityholders whose names have been entered in the registers of the Blizzard Securityholders on the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Blizzard Meeting, provided that, to the extent a holder of Blizzard Shares transfers the ownership of any Blizzard Shares after the Record Date and the transferee of those Blizzard Shares establishes ownership of such Blizzard Shares and demands, not later than 10 days before the Meeting, to be included in the list of holders of Blizzard Shares, as the case may be, eligible to vote at the Meeting, such transferee will be entitled to vote those Blizzard Shares at the Meeting. Blizzard Shares issued after the Record Date pursuant to exercise of Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrants prior to the Meeting cannot be voted at the Blizzard Meeting.

Signature of Proxy

The form of proxy must be executed by the Blizzard Securityholder or his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if the Blizzard Securityholder is a corporation, the form of proxy should be signed in its corporate name under its corporate seal by an authorized officer whose title should be indicated. A proxy signed by a Person acting as attorney or in some other representative capacity should reflect such Person's capacity following his signature and should be accompanied by the appropriate instrument evidencing qualification and authority to act (unless such instrument has been previously filed with Blizzard).

Voting of Proxies

The Persons named in the accompanying form of proxy will vote the Blizzard Securities in respect of which they are appointed in accordance with the direction of the Blizzard Securityholder appointing them. In the absence of such direction, such Blizzard Securities will be voted FOR the approval of the Arrangement Resolution.

Exercise of Discretion of Proxy

The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the Persons named therein with respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the accompanying Notice of Meeting and this Information

Circular and with respect to other matters that may properly come before the Meeting. At the date of this Information Circular, management of Blizzard know of no amendments, variations or other matters to come before the Meeting other than the matters referred to in the Notice of Meeting.

Voting Securities and Principal Holders Thereof

As at June 28, 2005, there were 108,774,500 Blizzard Shares, 4,572,000 Blizzard Options and 396,000 Blizzard Warrants issued and outstanding. To the knowledge of the directors and officers of Blizzard, as at the date hereof, no person or company beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, or exercised control or direction, over more than 10% of the Blizzard Securities.

Procedure and Votes Required

Arrangement Resolution

The Interim Order provides that each holder of Blizzard Securities at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to receive notice of, to attend and to vote at the Meeting. Each such holder will be entitled to vote in accordance with the provisions set out below, provided that, to the extent that a Blizzard Shareholder transfers the ownership of any Blizzard Shares after the Record Date and the transferee of those Blizzard Shares establishes ownership of the Blizzard Shares and demands, not later than 10 days before the Meeting, to be included in the list of Blizzard Securityholders entitled to vote at the Meeting, such transferee will be entitled to vote those Blizzard Shares. Blizzard Shares issued pursuant to exercise of Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrants prior to the Meeting cannot be voted at the Meeting.

Pursuant to the Interim Order:

- (a) each Blizzard Shareholder will be entitled to one vote at the Meeting for each Blizzard Share held, each Blizzard Optionholder will be entitled to one vote at the Meeting for each Blizzard Share issuable upon the exercise of such Blizzard Option and each Blizzard Warrantholder will be entitled to one vote at the Meeting for each Blizzard Share issuable upon the exercise of such Blizzard Warrants;
- (b) the majority required to pass the Arrangement Resolution, shall be, subject to further order of the Court, not less than two-thirds of the votes cast, either in person or by proxy, at the Meeting by each of the Blizzard Shareholders, Blizzard Optionholders and Blizzard Warrantholders, voting together as a single class at the Meeting. In addition, the Arrangement Resolution must be approved by a majority of the votes cast by the Blizzard Shareholders after excluding the votes cast by directors and officers of Blizzard receiving Zenas Finco Shares under the Zenas Private Placement (which includes certain directors and officers of Blizzard) and their related parties as defined in Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501;
- (c) the quorum at the Meeting of the Blizzard Shareholders, Blizzard Optionholders and Blizzard Warrantholders will be two persons present in person or by proxy and holding or representing not less than 5% of the outstanding Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants entitled to be voted at the Meeting; and
- (d) if no quorum of Blizzard Shareholders, Blizzard Optionholders and Blizzard Warrantholders is present within 30 minutes of the appointed time of the Meeting a quorum is not present, the Meeting shall stand adjourned to a day which is not more than 30 days thereafter, as determined by the Chairman of the Meeting, and at such adjourned meeting, those persons present in person or by proxy, entitled to vote at such meeting, will constitute a quorum for the adjourned meeting.

Action No: 0501-09417

IN THE COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF ALBERTA JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF CALGARY

IN THE MATTER OF Section 193 of the Business Corporations Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. B-9, as amended;

AND IN THE MATTER OF a Plan of Arrangement proposed by Blizzard Energy Inc. involving Blizzard Energy Inc., Shiningbank Energy Income Fund, Shiningbank Energy Ltd., Zenas Energy Corp., Zenas Finance Corp., Blizzard Securityholders and Zenas Finance Corp. Securityholders.

BEFORE THE HONOURABLE) At the Court House, in the City of Calgary, JUSTICE B.E.C. ROMAINE) in the Province of Alberta, on Tuesday, the IN CHAMBERS) 28th day of June, 2005

INTERIM ORDER

UPON the application by Petition of Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") pursuant to Section 193 of the Business Corporations Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. B-9, as amended (the "ABCA");

AND UPON reading the Petition of Blizzard and the Affidavit of John R. Rooney, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Blizzard, sworn June 24, 2005, and the Exhibits thereto, filed (the "Affidavit");

AND UPON it appearing that notice of this application has been given to the Executive Director of the Alberta Securities Commission (the "Executive Director") as required by Section 193(8) of the ABCA;

AND UPON hearing counsel for Blizzard and upon it appearing that counsel to Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank") and Shiningbank Energy Ltd. ("Shiningbank Energy") is supportive of the application;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Blizzard may seek approval of a proposed plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement") involving Blizzard, Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy, Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas"), Zenas Finance Corp. ("Zenas Finco"), the holders of common shares, options and warrants of Blizzard (collectively, the "Securityholders") and the holders of securities of Zenas Finco ("Zenas Finco Securityholders"), a copy of which is annexed to the Arrangement Agreement dated June 6, 2005 among Blizzard, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy contained at Appendix C to Exhibit "A" to the Affidavit.

2. In order to seek approval of this Court, Blizzard shall call and conduct a special meeting (the "Meeting") of its Securityholders for the purpose of considering and, if thought advisable, passing, with or without variation, a special resolution in the form contained at Appendix A to Exhibit "A" to the Affidavit (the "Special Resolution") approving the Arrangement along with various items relating to the organization of Zenas.
3. The Meeting shall, subject to the express provisions of this Order, be called and conducted in accordance with the by-laws of Blizzard and the requirements of the ABCA other than in respect of the deadline for return of proxies which shall be twenty-four (24) hours before the time of the Meeting.
4. The Notice of Meeting, Notice of Petition and Information Circular, substantially in the form marked as Exhibit "A" to the Affidavit, with amendments thereto as counsel for Blizzard may determine to be necessary or desirable (provided that such amendments are not inconsistent with the terms of this Order), shall be mailed by prepaid ordinary mail at least 21 days prior to the date of the Meeting to Securityholders at the registered addresses as they may appear on the share, option and warrant registers, respectively, and as applicable, of Blizzard at the close of business on June 23, 2005 (the "Record Date"), to the directors and auditors of Blizzard and to the Executive Director. In calculating the 21-day period, the date of mailing shall be included and the date of the Meeting shall be excluded.
5. The accidental omission to give notice of the Meeting to or the non-receipt of the notice by one or more of the aforesaid persons shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceedings taken at the Meeting.
6. The Chairman of the Meeting shall be James S. Artindale, Chairman of Blizzard, or, in his absence, John R. Rooney, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Blizzard, or, in his absence any director of Blizzard who shall be appointed by the shareholders present at the Meeting for that purpose.
7. The quorum at the Meeting shall be two persons present in person or by proxy and holding or representing not less than 5% of the votes entitled to be voted at such Meeting, provided that if no quorum is present within 30 minutes of the appointed meeting time, the Meeting shall stand adjourned to a day which is not more than 30 days thereafter, as determined by the Chairman of the Meeting, and at such adjourned meeting, those persons present in person or by proxy, entitled to vote at such meeting, will constitute a quorum for the adjourned meeting.
8. In order for the Arrangement to become effective, the Special Resolution must be, subject to further order of this Court, approved by at least $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the votes cast by the Securityholders, voting together as a single class, present in person or by proxy at the Meeting provided that each holder of common shares in the capital of Blizzard ("Blizzard Shares") will be entitled to one vote at the Meeting for each Blizzard Share held, each holder of options ("Blizzard Options") to purchase Blizzard Shares, whether or not vested, will be entitled to one vote at the Meeting for each Blizzard Share obtainable upon the exercise of such Blizzard Options, each holder of series A performance warrants and series B performance warrants ("Blizzard Warrants"), as applicable, whether or not vested, exercisable for Blizzard Shares will be entitled to one vote at the Meeting for each Blizzard Share obtainable upon the exercise of such Blizzard Warrants. The votes cast at the Meeting shall be tabulated by the scrutineers of the Meeting so as to reflect how many votes were cast in the aggregate by holders of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants both as a single class and as individual classes of securities. In addition, the Special Resolution must be, subject to further order of this Court, approved by a simple majority of the votes cast by the holders of Blizzard Shares, after excluding the votes cast by directors and officers of Blizzard receiving common shares in the capital of Zenas Finco ("Zenas Finco Common Shares"), and their related parties as defined in and required pursuant to the provisions of Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501 – Insider Bids, Issuer Bids, Going Private Transactions and Related Party Transactions.

9. The registered holders of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants (collectively, the "Blizzard Securities") are accorded the right of dissent with respect to the Special Resolution approving the Arrangement and to receive from Blizzard, subject to the provisions of the ABCA as modified by the Arrangement and approved by this Court, the fair value of their Blizzard Securities. In order to exercise such right of dissent, a written objection must be sent to Blizzard by a dissenting Securityholder pursuant to subsection 191(5) of the ABCA and must be received by Blizzard c/o Bennett Jones LLP, Attention H. Martin Kay, Q.C., 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7 by 4:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on the business day immediately prior to the Meeting. A holder of Blizzard Securities shall not exercise the right to dissent in respect of only a portion of such holder's Blizzard Securities, but may dissent only with respect to all of the Blizzard Securities held by the holder. A registered holder of Blizzard Securities wishing to exercise the right to dissent with respect to such holder's Blizzard Securities shall not vote such Blizzard Securities at the Meeting, either by the submission of a proxy or by personally voting, in favour of the Special Resolution.
10. The only persons entitled to notice of the Meeting shall be the registered holders of the Blizzard Securities as at the close of business on the Record Date, and the directors and auditors of Blizzard, subject to the by-laws of Blizzard and provisions of the ABCA with respect to persons who become registered holders of Blizzard Shares outstanding on the Record Date after that date. Holders of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants who acquire Blizzard Shares through the exercise of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants, as applicable, after such date will only be entitled to votes in respect of the Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants, as applicable, held prior to such exercise.
11. Upon approval of the Arrangement at the Meeting in the manner set forth in this Order, Blizzard may proceed with an application before this Court for a final order for approval of the Arrangement on July 28, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. or so soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, at the Court House, in the City of Calgary, in the Province of Alberta.

12. The mailing of the Notice of Meeting, Notice of Petition and Information Circular referred to in paragraph 4 of this Order shall constitute good and sufficient service in respect of the Petition upon all persons who are entitled to receive such notice pursuant to this Order and no other form of service need be made and no other material need be served on such persons in respect of these proceedings, and service of the Petition and Affidavit is dispensed with.
13. Any Securityholder or other interested party desiring to appear and make submissions at the application on July 28, 2005 for the final order is required to file with this Court and serve upon Blizzard, on or before July 22, 2005, a Notice of Intent to Appear, together with any evidence or materials which such party intends to present to the Court, setting out such Securityholder's or interested party's address for service by ordinary mail and indicating whether such Securityholder or interested party intends to support or oppose the application or make submissions. Service of such notice on Blizzard shall be effected by service upon the solicitors for Blizzard, Bennett Jones LLP, 4500, 855 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4K7, Attention: H. Martin Kay, Q.C.
14. In the event that the application for final approval of the Arrangement on July 28, 2005 is adjourned, only those parties appearing before this Court for the final Application shall have notice of the adjourned date.
15. Blizzard may at any time, upon giving proper notice to any interested parties, seek leave to vary this Order.

1.9 Exhibits

The following exhibits attached hereto are incorporated into and form an integral part of this Agreement:

- A – Plan of Arrangement
- B – Intentionally deleted in the amended and restated Agreement
- C – Terms of ExploreCo Private Placement and ExploreCo Incentive Plans

ARTICLE 2
THE ARRANGEMENT

2.1 Plan of Arrangement

Blizzard will forthwith file, proceed with and diligently prosecute an application for an Interim Order providing for, among other things, the calling and holding of the Blizzard Meeting for the purpose of considering and, if deemed advisable, approving the Arrangement Resolution. Provided all necessary approvals for the Arrangement Resolution are obtained from the Blizzard Securityholders, Blizzard shall submit the Arrangement to the Court and apply for the Final Order. Upon issuance of the Final Order and subject to the conditions precedent in Article 5, Blizzard shall forthwith proceed to file the Articles of Arrangement, the Final Order and such other documents as may be required to give effect to the Arrangement with the Registrar pursuant to Subsection 193(9) of the ABCA, whereupon the transactions comprising the Arrangement shall occur and shall be deemed to have occurred in the order set out therein without any act or formality.

2.2 Interim Order

The Interim Order shall provide that:

- (a) the securities of Blizzard for which holders shall be entitled to vote on the Arrangement Resolution shall be the Blizzard Shares, the Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants;
- (b) the Blizzard Shareholders, the Blizzard Optionholders and the Blizzard Warranholders shall be entitled to vote on the Arrangement Resolution together as a single class, and not as separate classes, with each Blizzard Shareholder being entitled to one vote for each Blizzard Share held by such holder, each Blizzard Optionholder being entitled to one vote for each Blizzard Share issuable pursuant to the Blizzard Options held by such holder and each Blizzard Warranholder being entitled to one vote for each Blizzard Share issuable pursuant to the Blizzard Warrants held by such holder; and

- (c) the requisite majority for the approval of the Arrangement Resolution shall be: (i) 66 2/3% of the votes cast by the Blizzard Securityholders present in person or by proxy at the Blizzard Meeting, voting together as a single class, and not as separate classes; and (ii) a majority of the votes cast by the Blizzard Shareholders, after excluding the votes cast by those persons whose votes must be excluded pursuant to Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501 or similar rules in Quebec (Q-27).

2.3 Information Circulars and Meetings

As promptly as practicable following the execution of this Agreement and in compliance with the Interim Order and applicable corporate and securities laws:

- (a) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall prepare the Shiningbank Information for inclusion in the Blizzard Information Circular; and
- (b) Blizzard shall:
- (i) prepare the Blizzard Information Circular and cause such circular to be mailed to the Blizzard Securityholders and filed with applicable regulatory authorities and other governmental authorities in all jurisdictions where the same are required to be mailed and filed; and
 - (ii) convene the Blizzard Meeting.

2.4 Effective Time

The Arrangement shall become effective at the Effective Time.

2.5 ExploreCo

Prior to the mailing of the Blizzard Information Circular, Blizzard shall cause a new corporation to be incorporated under the ABCA or designate a company prior to the mailing of the Blizzard Information Circular to acquire the Exploreco assets.

2.6 ExploreCo Employees

ExploreCo shall make offers of employment to the ExploreCo Employees effective at the Effective Time. All such offers shall be conditional upon each such employee executing releases, in a form satisfactory to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, releasing Blizzard from all obligations to such employees whatsoever, other than: (a) Blizzard's obligations under written change of control agreements previously disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy; (b) Blizzard's obligations under retention arrangements or bonuses included in the amount specified in Section 3.2(e); (c) any right of indemnity under Blizzard's by-laws or indemnity agreements previously disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy; and (d) any right for directors and officers insurance currently in place or put in place pursuant to Section 5.1(g).

2.7 ExploreCo Private Placement and ExploreCo Incentive Plans

- (a) Subject to receipt of all necessary approvals, prior to the completion of the Arrangement, ExploreCo (or another newly incorporated company which shall become a subsidiary of ExploreCo pursuant to the Arrangement) may complete the ExploreCo Private Placement.
- (b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement and to receipt of all necessary approvals, ExploreCo may adopt the ExploreCo Incentive Plans.

2.8 Blizzard Shareholder Tax Election Forms

Shiningbank agrees to cause Blizzard or its successor to execute tax election forms T2057 or T2058 in respect of the Arrangement for Blizzard Shareholders provided that:

- (a) such Blizzard Shareholder notifies Blizzard at least five business days prior to the Effective Date that such Blizzard Shareholder wishes to file a T2057 or T2058 in respect of the Arrangement;
- (b) such forms are properly prepared and have all applicable sections of the applicable election forms duly and properly filled out;
- (c) such forms are hand delivered, couriered or sent via registered mail to Blizzard's registered office on or before the Effective Date; and
- (d) each such Blizzard Shareholder has signed a release in form satisfactory to Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, regarding the tax consequences of such election and has provided Blizzard such release by hand delivery, courier or registered mail at Blizzard's registered office on or prior to the Effective Date.

2.9 Completion of Transactions

Blizzard shall cause ExploreCo to complete the transactions contemplated herein and in the Plan of Arrangement.

ARTICLE 3 COVENANTS

3.1 Covenants of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy

From the date hereof until the Effective Date or termination of this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of Blizzard (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), and except as otherwise expressly permitted or specifically contemplated by this Agreement:

- (a) Shiningbank shall keep Blizzard apprised of all material developments relating to the ongoing business and affairs of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries;
- (b) Shiningbank shall not directly or indirectly do or permit to occur any of the following: (i) amend its constating documents (including the Trust Indenture) in a manner materially adverse to the consideration to be received by Blizzard Securityholders; (ii) declare, set aside or pay any distribution or payment (whether in cash, shares or property) in respect of its outstanding Shiningbank Units except in an amount not greater than in accordance with Shiningbank current distribution policy; (iii) split, combine or reclassify any of its Shiningbank Units unless the Arrangement is amended upon the same terms and conditions; (iv) adopt a plan of liquidation or resolutions providing for the liquidation, dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of Shiningbank; or (vii) enter into or modify any contract, agreement, commitment or arrangement with respect to any of the foregoing;
- (c) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall not take any action that would render, or may reasonably be expected to render, any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement untrue in any material respect at any time prior to completion of the Arrangement or termination of this Agreement, whichever first occurs;
- (d) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall promptly notify Blizzard in writing of any material change (actual, anticipated, contemplated or, to the knowledge of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy threatened, financial or otherwise) in its business, operations, affairs, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of

Shiningbank or of any change in any representation or warranty provided by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in this Agreement which change is or may be of such a nature to render any representation or warranty misleading or untrue in any material respect and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall in good faith discuss with Blizzard any change in circumstances (actual, anticipated, contemplated, or to the knowledge of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy threatened) which is of such a nature that there may be a reasonable question as to whether notice need to be given to Blizzard pursuant to this provision;

- (e) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall use their reasonable commercial efforts to satisfy or cause satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 5.1 and 5.3 as soon as reasonably possible to the extent that the satisfaction of the same is within the control of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy;
- (f) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will ensure that the Shiningbank Information provides Blizzard Securityholders with information in sufficient detail to permit them to form a reasoned judgment concerning the matters before them and shall include, without limitation, any financial statements in respect of prior acquisitions made by it that are required to be included therein in accordance with Applicable Laws;
- (g) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will assist Blizzard in the preparation of the Blizzard Information Circular and provide to Blizzard, in a timely and expeditious manner, all information as may be reasonably requested by Blizzard with respect to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy for inclusion in the Blizzard Information Circular and any amendments or supplements thereto, in each case complying in all material respects with all applicable legal requirements on the date of issue thereof;
- (h) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall indemnify and save harmless Blizzard and the directors, officers and agents of Blizzard from and against any and all liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses (excluding any loss of profits or consequential damages) to which Blizzard, or any director, officer or agent thereof, may be subject or which Blizzard, or any director, officer or agent thereof may suffer, whether under the provisions of any statute or otherwise, in any way caused by, or arising, directly or indirectly, from or in consequence of:
 - (i) any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation in the Shiningbank Information or in any material filed by or on behalf of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in compliance or intended compliance with any Applicable Laws;
 - (ii) any order made or any inquiry, investigation or proceeding by any securities commission or other competent authority based upon any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission of a material fact or any misrepresentation or any alleged misrepresentation in the Shiningbank Information or in any material filed by or on behalf of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in compliance or intended compliance with Applicable Laws, which prevents or restricts the trading in the Shiningbank Units; and
 - (iii) Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy not complying with any requirement of Applicable Laws in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement;

except that Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses arise out of or are based upon any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation of a material fact based solely on the Blizzard Information included in the Shiningbank Information or the negligence of Blizzard;

- (i) except for non-substantive communications, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will furnish promptly to Blizzard or Blizzard's counsel, a copy of each notice, report, schedule or other document delivered, filed or received by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in connection with: (i) the Arrangement; (ii) any filings under Applicable Laws; and (iii) any dealings with regulatory agencies in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby;

- (j) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will make all necessary filings and applications under Canadian federal and provincial and U.S. laws and regulations required to be made on the part of Shiningbank in connection with the transactions contemplated herein and shall take all reasonable action necessary to be in compliance with such laws and regulations;
- (k) subject to the specific provisions of this Agreement, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall take all necessary actions to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Arrangement; and
- (l) Shiningbank will take all necessary steps to maintain its status as a "mutual fund trust" for the purposes of Section 132 of the Tax Act.
- (m) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall not issue, agree to issue or announce intentions to issue additional Shiningbank Units at a price less than the ascribed price per unit offered to Blizzard Securityholders pursuant to the Arrangement other than pursuant to existing commitments disclosed in the Public Record of Shiningbank, pursuant to the distribution reinvestment plan of Shiningbank or pursuant to the trust unit rights incentive plan of Shiningbank.

3.2 Covenants of Blizzard

From the date hereof until the Effective Date or termination of this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), and except as otherwise expressly permitted or specifically contemplated by this Agreement:

- (a) Blizzard's business shall be conducted only in the usual and ordinary course of business consistent with past practices (for greater certainty, where it is an operator of any property, it shall operate and maintain such property in a proper and prudent manner in accordance with good industry practice and the agreements governing the ownership and operation of such property), Blizzard shall consult with Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in respect of the ongoing business and affairs of Blizzard and keep Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy apprised of all material developments relating thereto and Blizzard shall carry out its transitional capital spending program as set forth in its May 26, 2005 capital budget, a copy of which has been provided to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, in a diligent and timely manner consistent with past practices;
- (b) Blizzard shall not directly or indirectly do or permit to occur any of the following: (i) amend its constating documents; (ii) declare, set aside or pay any dividend or other distribution or payment (whether in cash, shares or property) in respect of its outstanding shares; (iii) issue (other than on exercise of currently outstanding Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants), grant, sell or pledge or agree to issue, grant, sell or pledge any shares of Blizzard, or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for, or otherwise evidencing a right to acquire, shares of Blizzard; (iv) redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire any of its outstanding shares or other securities, except as permitted pursuant to the terms thereof or as permitted in accordance with the terms hereunder; (v) split, combine or reclassify any of its shares; (vi) adopt a plan of liquidation or resolutions providing for the liquidation, dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of Blizzard; or (vii) enter into or modify any contract, agreement, commitment or arrangement with respect to any of the foregoing;
- (c) Blizzard will not, directly or indirectly, do any of the following other than pursuant to transactions contemplated herein or pursuant to commitments entered into prior to the date of this Agreement and disclosed to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in writing or otherwise without the prior consent of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld: (i) sell, pledge, dispose of or encumber any assets except for production in the ordinary course of business, for a consideration in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate; (ii) expend or commit to expend amounts in respect of capital or operating expenses in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate ($nil in respect of the ExploreCo Assets) excluding expenditures specified in Blizzard's May 26, 2005 budget as disclosed to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy which for greater certainty, shall not be subject to the foregoing covenant set forth in this Section 3.2(c); (iii) reorganize, amalgamate, merge or otherwise continue Blizzard with any other person, corporation, partnership or other business organization whatsoever; (iv) acquire (by merger, amalgamation, consolidation or acquisition of shares or assets) any corporation, partnership or other business organization or division thereof, or, except for investments in securities made in the ordinary course of business, make any investment either by purchase of shares or securities, contributions of capital (other than to subsidiaries), property transfer, or, except in the ordinary course of business, purchase of any property or assets of any other individual or entity, in each case having a value in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate ($nil in respect of the ExploreCo Assets); (v) incur any indebtedness for borrowed money or any other material liability or obligation or issue any debt securities or assume, guarantee, endorse or otherwise as an accommodation become responsible for, the obligation of any other individual or entity, or make any loans or advances, except in the ordinary course of business or otherwise in excess of $25,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate ($nil in respect of the ExploreCo Assets); (vi) pay, discharge or satisfy any material claims, liabilities or obligations other than as disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy prior to the entering into of this Agreement or reflected or reserved against in the Blizzard Financial Statements or otherwise in the ordinary course of business; (vii) enter into any hedges, swaps or other financial instruments or like transactions; (viii) enter into any agreements for the sale of production having a term of more than thirty (30) days; (ix) enter into any consulting or contract operating agreement that cannot be terminated on thirty (30) days or less notice without penalty; (x) terminate the employment of any employee; or (xi) authorize or propose any of the foregoing, or enter into or modify any contract, agreement, commitment or arrangement to do any of the foregoing, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Blizzard shall not be restricted from any such activities in an emergency situation involving health, safety or the environment and, in such circumstances, Blizzard shall provide notice to Shiningbank Energy of such activities as soon as reasonably practical;

- (d) Blizzard shall not adopt or amend or make any contribution to any bonus, profit sharing, option, pension, retirement, deferred compensation, insurance, incentive compensation, other compensation or other similar plan, agreement or arrangements for the benefit of employees, except as is necessary (i) to comply with the law or with respect to existing provisions or payment accruals of any such plans, programs, arrangements or agreements; (ii) to accelerate vesting of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants; or (iii) to accelerate release from trust of the founders' shares as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements;
- (e) Blizzard shall not grant any officer, director, employee or consultant an increase in compensation in any form or take any action with respect to the amendment or grant of any severance or termination pay policies or arrangements for any directors, officers, employees or consultants, nor adopt or amend (other than to permit accelerated vesting of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants or to accelerate release from trust of the founders' shares as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements) or make any contribution to any bonus, profit-sharing, option, pension, retirement, deferred compensation, insurance, incentive compensation, other compensation or other similar plan from a trust fund or arrangement for the benefit of directors, officers, employees or consultants, except as is necessary to comply with the law or with respect to provisions or payment accruals of any such plans, programs, arrangements or agreements or to accelerate vesting of Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants or to accelerate release from trust of the founders' shares as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements, which exceptions shall not exceed $2 million in the aggregate;
- (f) Blizzard shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to cause its current insurance (or re-insurance) policies not to be cancelled or terminated or any of the coverage thereunder to lapse, unless simultaneously with such termination, cancellation or lapse, replacement policies underwritten by insurance or re-insurance companies of nationally recognized standing providing coverage equal to or greater than the coverage under the cancelled, terminated or lapsed policies for substantially similar premiums are in full force and effect;
- (g) except to permit the early vesting of all Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants, no amendments shall be made to outstanding Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants without the prior written consent of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy;

- (h) Blizzard shall not take any action that would render, or may reasonably be expected to render, any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement untrue in any material respect at any time prior to completion of the Arrangement or termination of this Agreement, whichever first occurs;
- (i) Blizzard shall promptly notify Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in writing of any material change (actual, anticipated, contemplated or, to the knowledge of Blizzard threatened, financial or otherwise) in its business, operations, affairs, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Blizzard or of any change in any representation or warranty provided by Blizzard in this Agreement which change is or may be of such a nature as to render any representation or warranty misleading or untrue in any material respect and Blizzard shall in good faith discuss with Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy any change in circumstances (actual, anticipated, contemplated, or to the knowledge of Blizzard threatened) which is of such a nature that there may be a reasonable question as to whether notice need be given to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy pursuant to this provision;
- (j) Blizzard shall ensure that it has available funds under its lines of credit or other bank facilities to permit the payment of the amount which may be required by Section 6.1 having regard to its other liabilities and obligations, and shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that it maintains such availability to ensure that it is able to pay such amount when required;
- (k) Blizzard shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to obtain the consent of its bankers and any other third party consents required for the transactions contemplated hereby and provide the same to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy on or prior to the Effective Date;
- (l) Blizzard shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to satisfy or cause satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 5.1 and 5.2 as soon as reasonably possible to the extent that the satisfaction of the same is within the control of Blizzard;
- (m) Blizzard shall provide notice to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the Blizzard Meeting and allow Shiningbank's and Shiningbank Energy's representatives to attend such meeting;
- (n) Blizzard will ensure that the Blizzard Information Circular provides Blizzard Securityholders with information in sufficient detail to permit them to form a reasoned judgment concerning the matters before them, and will set out the Shiningbank Information in the Blizzard Information Circular in the form approved by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and shall include, without limitation; (i) any financial statements in respect of prior acquisitions made by it that are required to be included therein in accordance with Applicable Laws; and (ii) the unanimous determination of the members of the board of directors of Blizzard that the Arrangement is fair from a financial point of view to Blizzard Securityholders, is in the best interests of Blizzard and Blizzard Securityholders, and include the unanimous recommendation of the members of the board of directors of Blizzard that the Blizzard Securityholders vote in favour of the Arrangement Resolution, provided that, notwithstanding the covenants of Blizzard in this subsection, prior to the completion of the Arrangement, the board of directors of Blizzard may withdraw, modify or change the recommendation regarding the Arrangement if, in the opinion of such board of directors acting reasonably, having received the advice of its outside legal counsel which is reflected in minutes of the meeting of the board of directors, such withdrawal, modification or change is required to act in a manner consistent with the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of Blizzard and, if applicable, provided the board of directors shall have complied with the provisions of Sections 3.4 and 6.1;
- (o) Blizzard shall indemnify and save harmless Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and the directors, officers and agents of Shiningbank Energy from and against any and all liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses (excluding any loss of profits or consequential damages) to which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, or any director, officer or agent thereof, may be subject or which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, or any director, officer or agent thereof may suffer, whether under the provisions of any statute or otherwise, in any way caused by, or arising, directly or indirectly, from or in consequence of:

- (i) any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation in the Blizzard Information Circular or in any material filed in compliance or intended compliance with any Applicable Laws;
- (ii) any order made or any inquiry, investigation or proceeding by any securities commission or other competent authority based upon any untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission of a material fact or any misrepresentation or any alleged misrepresentation in the Blizzard Information Circular or in any material filed by or on behalf of Blizzard in compliance or intended compliance with Applicable Laws, which prevents or restricts the trading in the Blizzard Shares; and
- (iii) Blizzard not complying with any requirement of Applicable Laws in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement;

except that Blizzard shall not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such liabilities, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses arise out of or are based upon any misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation of a material fact based solely on the Shiningbank Information included in the Blizzard Information Circular or the negligence of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy;

- (p) except for proxies and other non-substantive communications with securityholders, Blizzard will furnish promptly to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or Shiningbank's counsel, a copy of each notice, report, schedule or other document delivered, filed or received by Blizzard from securityholders or regulatory agencies in connection with: (i) the Arrangement; (ii) the Blizzard Meeting; (iii) any filings under Applicable Laws; and (iv) any dealings with regulatory agencies in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby;
- (q) Blizzard shall solicit proxies to be voted at the Blizzard Meeting in favour of matters to be considered at the Blizzard Meeting, including the Arrangement Resolution;
- (r) Blizzard shall conduct the Blizzard Meeting in accordance with the by-laws of Blizzard and any instrument governing the Blizzard Meeting (including, without limitation, the Interim Order), as applicable, and as otherwise required by law;
- (s) Blizzard will make all necessary filings and applications under Canadian federal and provincial and U.S. laws and regulations required to be made on the part of Blizzard in connection with the transactions contemplated herein and shall take all reasonable action necessary to be in compliance with such laws and regulations;
- (t) in the event that dissent rights are given to Blizzard Securityholders under the terms of the Interim Order, Blizzard shall promptly advise Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the number of Blizzard Securities for which Blizzard receives notices of dissent or written objections to the Arrangement and provide Shiningbank with copies of such notices and written objections; and
- (u) subject to the specific provisions of this Agreement, Blizzard shall take all necessary actions to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Arrangement.

3.3 Mutual Covenants Regarding the Arrangement

From the date hereof until the Effective Date, each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard will use its reasonable commercial efforts to satisfy (or cause the satisfaction of) the conditions precedent to its obligations hereunder and to take, or cause to be taken, all other actions and to do, or cause to be done, all other things necessary, proper or advisable under Applicable Laws to complete the Arrangement, including using reasonable efforts:

- (a) to obtain all necessary waivers, consents and approvals required to be obtained by it from other parties to loan agreements, leases and other contracts;
- (b) to obtain all necessary consents, assignments, waivers and amendments to or terminations of any instruments and take such measures as may be appropriate to fulfill its obligations hereunder and to carry out the transactions contemplated hereby; and
- (c) to effect all necessary registrations and filings and submissions of information requested by governmental authorities required to be effected by it in connection with the Arrangement, and each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard will use its reasonable commercial efforts to cooperate with the other in connection with the performance by the other of their obligations under this Section 3.3 including, without limitation, continuing to provide reasonable access to information and to maintain ongoing communications as between representatives of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, subject in all cases to the Confidentiality Agreement.

3.4 Blizzard's Covenants Regarding Non-Solicitation

- (a) Blizzard shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions and negotiations (including, without limitation, through any advisors or other parties on its behalf), if any, with any parties conducted before the date of this Agreement with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and shall immediately request the return or destruction of all information provided to any third parties which have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such party relating to an Acquisition Proposal and shall use all reasonable commercial efforts to ensure that such requests are honoured.
- (b) Blizzard shall not, directly or indirectly, do or authorize or permit any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it to do, any of the following:
 - (i) solicit, facilitate, initiate or encourage any Acquisition Proposal;
 - (ii) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion regarding an Acquisition Proposal, or furnish to any other person any information with respect to its business, properties, operations, prospects or conditions (financial or otherwise) in connection with an Acquisition Proposal or otherwise cooperate in any way with, or assist or participate in, facilitate or encourage, any effort or attempt of any other person to do or seek to do any of the foregoing;
 - (iii) waive, or otherwise forbear in the enforcement of, or enter into or participate in any discussions, negotiations or agreements to waive or otherwise forbear in respect of, any rights or other benefits under confidential information agreements, including, without limitation, any "standstill provisions" thereunder; or
 - (iv) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement an Acquisition Proposal, provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision hereof, Blizzard and its officers, directors and advisers may:

 - (v) enter into or participate in discussions or negotiations regarding ExploreCo or the ExploreCo Assets provided that no binding agreement regarding ExploreCo or the ExploreCo Assets is entered into until after the Effective Date;
 - (vi) enter into or participate in any negotiations or initiate any discussion with a third party which (without any solicitation, initiation or encouragement, directly or indirectly, after the date of this Agreement, by Blizzard or any of its officers, directors or employees or any financial advisor, expert or other representative retained by it) seeks to initiate such negotiations or discussions and, subject to execution of a confidentiality agreement substantially similar to the Confidentiality

Agreement (provided that such confidentiality agreement shall provide for disclosure thereof (along with all information provided thereunder) to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy as set out below), may furnish to such third party information concerning Blizzard and its business, properties and assets, in each case if, and only to the extent that:

- (A) the third party has first made a written bona fide Acquisition Proposal which the board of directors of Blizzard determines in good faith: (1) that funds or other consideration necessary for the Acquisition Proposal are or are likely to be available; (2) (after consultation with its financial advisor) would, if consummated in accordance with its terms, result in a transaction financially superior for securityholders of Blizzard as compared to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement; and (3) after receiving the advice of outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharge of its fiduciary duties under Applicable Laws (a "Superior Proposal"); and
 - (B) prior to furnishing such information to or entering into or participating in any such negotiations or initiating any discussions with such third party, Blizzard provides prompt notice to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy to the effect that it is furnishing information to or entering into or participating in discussions or negotiations with such person or entity together with a copy of the confidentiality agreement referenced above and if not previously provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such third party concurrently with the provision of such information to such third party, and provided further that, Blizzard shall notify Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy orally and in writing of any inquiries, offers or proposals with respect to a Superior Proposal (which written notice shall include, without limitation, a summary of the details of such proposal (and any amendments or supplements thereto), the identity of the person making it (unless the Superior Proposal is an all cash offer), if not previously provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, copies of all information provided to such party and all other information reasonably requested by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy), within 24 hours of the receipt thereof, shall keep Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy informed of the status and details of any such inquiry, offer or proposal and answer Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy's questions with respect thereto;
 - (vii) comply with Section 172 of the Securities Act (Alberta) and similar provisions under applicable Canadian securities laws relating to the provision of directors' circulars and make appropriate disclosure with respect thereto to its securityholders; and
 - (viii) accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement a Superior Proposal from a third party, but only if prior to such acceptance, recommendation, approval or implementation, its board of directors shall have concluded in good faith, after considering all proposals to adjust the terms and conditions of this Agreement and after receiving the advice of financial advisors and outside counsel as reflected in minutes of the board of directors of Blizzard, that the taking of such action is necessary for the board of directors in discharging its fiduciary duties under Applicable Laws and Blizzard complies with its obligations set forth in Section 3.4(c) and terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(d) and concurrently therewith pays the amount required by Section 6.1.
- (c) If Blizzard receives a Superior Proposal it shall give Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, orally and in writing, at least two Business Days advance notice of any decision by its board of directors to accept, recommend, approve or enter into an agreement to implement a Superior Proposal, which notice shall include a summary of the details of the Superior Proposal including the identity of the third party making the Superior Proposal.

- (d) Each Party agrees that all information that may be provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy by Blizzard with respect to any Superior Proposal pursuant to this Section 3.4 shall be treated as if it were "Evaluation Material" as that term is defined in the Confidentiality Agreement and shall not be disclosed or used except in accordance with the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement or in order to enforce its rights under this Agreement in legal proceedings.
- (e) Each Party shall ensure that its officers, directors and employees and any investment bankers or other advisers or representatives retained by it are aware of the provisions of this Section 3.4. Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall be responsible for any breach of this Section 3.4 by its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, advisers or representatives, and Blizzard shall be responsible for any breach of this Section 3.4 by its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, advisers or representatives.

3.5 Access to Information

Subject to the Confidentiality Agreement and applicable law, upon reasonable notice, each Party shall (and shall cause each of its subsidiaries to) afford the other Party's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives and advisers access, during normal business hours from the date hereof and until the earlier of the Effective Date or the termination of this Agreement, to its properties, books, contracts and records as well as to its management personnel, and shall (and shall cause each of its subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to the other Party all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as the other Party may reasonably request.

ARTICLE 4 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

4.1 Representations and Warranties of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy

Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy hereby make the representations and warranties set forth in this Section 4.1 to and in favour of Blizzard and acknowledges that Blizzard is relying upon such representations and warranties in connection with the matters contemplated by this Agreement.

- (a) Shiningbank is a trust duly created and subsisting under the laws of the Province of Alberta and each of Shiningbank Energy and Shiningbank's other subsidiaries is a corporation duly incorporated or amalgamated or a partnership or trust duly created and validly subsisting under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation, amalgamation or creation and has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. Shiningbank and each of its subsidiaries, including Shiningbank Energy, is duly registered to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the character of its properties, owned or leased, or the nature of its activities make such registration necessary, except where the failure to be so registered or in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on Shiningbank and its subsidiaries taken as a whole.
- (b) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have the requisite trust and corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out their obligations hereunder. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by Shiningbank's board of directors and no other trust or corporate proceedings on the part of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy are or will be necessary to authorize this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy enforceable against Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity.

- (c) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, the consummation by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy of the transactions contemplated hereby nor compliance by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy with any of the provisions hereof will: (i) violate, conflict with, or result in a breach of any provision of, require any consent, approval or notice under, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) or result in a right of termination or acceleration under, or result in a creation of any lien, security interest, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (A) the trust indenture of Shiningbank or the articles or bylaws or other constating documents of Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries, or (B) any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, loan agreement, deed of trust, agreement, lien, contract or other instrument or obligation to which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy is a party or to which it, or its properties or assets, may be subject or by which Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries is bound; or (ii) subject to compliance with Applicable Laws, violate any judgment, ruling, order, writ, injunction, determination, award, decree, statute, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries (except, in the case of each of clauses (i) and (ii) above, for such violations, conflicts, breaches, defaults, terminations which, or any consents, approvals or notices which if not given or received, would not have any material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or on the ability of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby); or (iii) cause a suspension or revocation of any authorization for the consent, approval or license currently in effect which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and their subsidiaries taken as a whole.
- (d) Other than in connection with or in compliance with the provisions of Applicable Laws:
- (i) there is no legal impediment to Shiningbank's or Shiningbank Energy's consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and
 - (ii) no filing or registration with, or authorization, consent or approval of, any domestic or foreign public body or authority is necessary by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in connection with the consummation of the Arrangement, except for such filings or registrations which, if not made, or for such authorizations, consents or approvals, which, if not received, would not have any material adverse effect on the ability of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (e) Shiningbank is authorized to issue a maximum of 300,000,000 Shiningbank Units, of which as at June 3, 2005, Shiningbank has issued and outstanding: (i) 54,468,100 Shiningbank Units; and (ii) rights to acquire 1,962,734 Shiningbank Units pursuant to the trust unit rights incentive plan of Shiningbank. Shiningbank Holdings Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Shiningbank, owns all of the issued and outstanding shares of Shiningbank Energy and as at June 3, 2005, has 617,096 issued and outstanding exchangeable shares, exchangeable into Shiningbank Units. Except as aforesaid, there are no outstanding trust units of Shiningbank or shares of Shiningbank Energy or options, warrants, rights or conversion or exchange privileges or other securities entitling anyone to acquire any trust units of Shiningbank or shares of Shiningbank Energy or any other rights, agreements or commitments of any character whatsoever requiring the issuance, sale or transfer by Shiningbank of any trust units of Shiningbank or by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy of any shares of Shiningbank or any securities convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, or otherwise evidencing a right to acquire, any trust units of Shiningbank or shares of Shiningbank Energy. All outstanding Shiningbank Units have been duly authorized and validly issued pursuant to the Trust Indenture and are not subject to, nor have they been issued in violation of, any pre-emptive rights, and all Shiningbank Units issuable upon exercise or conversion of outstanding rights to purchase Shiningbank Units in accordance with their respective terms, will be duly authorized and validly issued pursuant to the Trust Indenture and will not be subject to any pre-emptive rights.

- (f) Since the date of the Shiningbank Financial Statements, except as disclosed in the Public Record:
- (i) there has been no material adverse change, (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change that could be materially adverse to Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospect, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;
 - (ii) each of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries has conducted its business only in the ordinary and normal course; and
 - (iii) no liability or obligation of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) material to Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries has been incurred other than in the ordinary and normal course of business.
- (g) The data and information in respect of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and their assets, reserves, liabilities, business and operations provided by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or their advisors to Blizzard or its advisors was and is accurate and correct in all material respects as at the respective dates thereof and, in respect of any information provided or requested, did not knowingly omit any material data or information necessary to make any data or information provided not misleading as at the respective dates thereof. Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have no knowledge of any material adverse change to the oil and gas reserves of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy from that disclosed in such data and information.
- (h) The information and statements set forth in the Public Record as at the date hereof, as relates to Shiningbank, are true, correct, and complete and did not contain any misrepresentation, as of the respective dates of such information or statements, and no material change has occurred in relation to Shiningbank which is not disclosed in the Public Record, and Shiningbank has not filed any confidential material change reports which continue to be confidential.
- (i) Except as disclosed in the Public Record or as otherwise disclosed in writing to Blizzard by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy prior to the date hereof, there are no outstanding or threatened claims, suits, actions or proceedings against Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy which, if determined adversely to Shiningbank, taken as a whole, would have a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business or operations of Shiningbank, taken as a whole, or on the ability of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (j) The Shiningbank Financial Statements fairly present, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada, consistently applied, the financial position and condition of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis at the dates thereof and the results of the operations of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis for the periods then ended and reflect all material assets, liabilities or obligations (absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of Shiningbank and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis as at the dates thereof.
- (k) Neither Shiningbank nor Shiningbank Energy has received notice of any material violation of or investigation relating to any federal, provincial or local law, regulation or ordinance with respect to its assets, business or operations and Shiningbank and its subsidiaries holds all permits, licenses and other authorizations which are required under federal, provincial or local laws relating to its assets, business or operations. The assets of Shiningbank, taken as a whole, are operated and maintained by it are in compliance with all terms and conditions of such laws, permits, licenses and authorizations in all material respects.
- (l) No securities commission or similar regulatory authority, or stock exchange in Canada or the United States has issued any order which is currently outstanding preventing or suspending trading in any securities of Shiningbank, no such proceeding is, to the knowledge of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, pending, contemplated or threatened and Shiningbank is not, to its knowledge, in default of any requirement of any securities laws, rules or policies applicable to Shiningbank or its securities.

- (m) The board of directors of Shiningbank has unanimously approved this Agreement.
- (n) Based on prevailing and anticipated commodity prices and industry and general economic conditions, as of the date hereof, Shiningbank has no current intention to vary its monthly distribution rate for the remainder of 2005.
- (o) The entering into of this Agreement and the consummation of the Arrangement will not trigger any rights to acquire trust units of Shiningbank under the Shiningbank unitholder rights plan or other securities of Shiningbank or rights, entitlements or privileges in favour of any person or, if the unitholder rights plan is triggered, the Board of Shiningbank Energy has waived the application of the plan under the existing provisions of the plan.
- (p) Shiningbank directly or indirectly beneficially owns all of the outstanding shares and other securities or interests of each of its subsidiaries (other than exchangeable shares referred to in Section 4.1(e)) and no person, firm, corporation or other entity holds any securities convertible or exchangeable into securities of such subsidiaries or has any agreement, warrant, option, right or privilege (whether pre-emptive or contractual) being or capable of becoming an agreement for the purchase or issuance of any shares or other securities of such subsidiary.
- (q) The trust and corporate records and minute books, books of account and other records of Shiningbank and each of its subsidiaries have (whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise) been maintained in accordance with, in all material respects, all applicable statutory requirements and prudent business practice and are complete and accurate in all material respects.
- (r) Shiningbank is a "reporting issuer" or equivalent in each province of Canada and the outstanding Shiningbank Units are listed and posted for trading on the TSX.
- (s) Computershare Trust Company of Canada, at its principal office in Toronto and Calgary is the duly appointed registrar and transfer agent of Shiningbank with respect to the Shiningbank Units.
- (t) All Returns required to be filed have been duly filed on a timely basis and all Taxes shown to be payable on the Returns or on subsequent assessments with respect thereto have been paid in full on a timely basis. Except for matters disclosed in the Shiningbank Financial Statements or otherwise disclosed to Blizzard that may give rise to the filing of amended Returns, the filed Returns are true, complete and correct in all material respects, and no other Taxes are payable by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or any of their subsidiaries with respect to items or periods covered by such Returns.
- (u) Except with respect to matters disclosed to Blizzard prior to the date hereof, Shiningbank has paid or provided adequate accruals in its financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2004 for Taxes, including income taxes and related future taxes, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable in Canada.
- (v) No material deficiencies exist or have been asserted with respect to Taxes. Neither Shiningbank nor any of its subsidiaries is a party to any action or proceeding for assessment or collection of Taxes, nor has such event been asserted or threatened against Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries or any of their respective assets. No waiver or extension of any statute of limitations is in effect with respect to Taxes or Returns. Except as disclosed to Blizzard prior to the date hereof, the Returns have never been audited by a government or taxing authority, nor is any such audit in process, pending or threatened which resulted in or could result in a reassessment of Taxes owing by Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries. Shiningbank and its subsidiaries have withheld any Taxes required to be withheld by the Applicable Laws and the Tax Act and has paid or remitted on a timely basis, the full amount of any Taxes which have been withheld to the applicable governmental authority.

- (w) No director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party to Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries (or any associate or affiliate thereof) has any right, title or interest in (or the right to acquire any right, title or interest in) any royalty interest, carried interest, participation interest or any other interest whatsoever which are based on production from or in respect of any properties of Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries that will be effective after the Effective Date.
- (x) Except as disclosed in the Public Record, no director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party is indebted to Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries.
- (y) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have provided to Blizzard copies of all management recommendation letters relating to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy or any of its subsidiaries received from Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy's current auditor or any previous auditor during the two years prior to the date hereof.
- (z) Acquiring the Blizzard Shares with Shiningbank's existing outstanding bank facilities will not create an event of acceleration or default under any of the Shiningbank bank facilities or Shiningbank has or will have sufficient available lines of credit, bank facilities or other financing arrangements confirmed to the satisfaction of Blizzard, acting reasonably, to pay the cash consideration to be delivered to Blizzard Securityholders under the Arrangement and to pay out the Blizzard bank facilities, debt and working capital deficiency on the Effective Date.
- (aa) To the knowledge of Shiningbank, Shiningbank has not exceeded the 49% non-resident ownership threshold in the Trust Indenture with respect to the Shiningbank Units.
- (bb) Shiningbank is a "mutual fund trust" for the purposes of Section 132 of the Tax Act and has no reason to believe that its status as a "mutual fund trust" will be challenged by the governmental authorities.
- (cc) To the knowledge of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy have not withheld from Blizzard any material information or documents concerning Shiningbank or any of its subsidiaries or their respective assets or liabilities during the course of Blizzard's review of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and their assets. No representation or warranty contained herein and no statement contained in any schedule or other disclosure document provided or to be provided to Blizzard by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy pursuant hereto contains or will contain an untrue statement of a material fact which is necessary to make the statements herein or therein not misleading.

4.2 Representations and Warranties of Blizzard

Blizzard hereby makes the representations and warranties set forth in this Section 4.2 to and in favour of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and acknowledges that Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy are relying upon such representations and warranties in connection with the matters contemplated by this Agreement.

- (a) Blizzard is a corporation duly amalgamated under the laws of the Province of Alberta and has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. Blizzard is duly registered to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the character of its properties, owned or leased, or the nature of its activities make such registration necessary, except where the failure to be so registered or in good standing would not have a material adverse effect on Blizzard.
- (b) Blizzard has the requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation by Blizzard of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by Blizzard's board of directors and, subject to obtaining shareholder approval, no other corporate proceedings on the part of Blizzard are or will be necessary to authorize this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Blizzard and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Blizzard enforceable against Blizzard in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity.

- (c) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Blizzard, the consummation by Blizzard of the transactions contemplated hereby nor compliance by Blizzard with any of the provisions hereof will: (i) violate, conflict with, or result in breach of any provision of, require any consent, approval or notice under, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) or result in a right of termination or acceleration under, or result in a creation of any lien, security interest, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of Blizzard under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (A) the articles, bylaws or other constating documents of Blizzard, or (B) any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, loan agreement, deed of trust, agreement, lien, contract or other instrument or obligation to which Blizzard is a party or to which it, or its properties or assets, may be subject or by which Blizzard is bound (subject to obtaining the consent of Blizzard's bankers, the consent of Blizzard's landlord under its office lease and, if applicable, the farmor with respect to the Farmout Agreement described in the ExploreCo Conveyance Agreement; or (ii) subject to compliance with Applicable Laws, violate any judgment, ruling, order, writ, injunction, determination, award, decree, statute, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to Blizzard (except for such violations, conflicts, breaches, defaults, terminations which, or any consents, approvals or notices which if not given or received, would not have any material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Blizzard or on the ability of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby); or (iii) cause a suspension or revocation of any authorization for the consent, approval or license currently in effect which would have a material adverse effect on the business, operations or financial condition of Blizzard.
- (d) Other than in connection with or in compliance with the provisions of Applicable Laws:
 - (i) there is no legal impediment to Blizzard's consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and
 - (ii) no filing or registration with, or authorization, consent or approval of, any domestic or foreign public body or authority is necessary by Blizzard in connection with the consummation of the Arrangement, except for such filings or registrations which, if not made, or for such authorizations, consents or approvals, which, if not received, would not have any material adverse effect on the ability of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (e) Blizzard is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Blizzard Shares, and unlimited number of class A common shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares of which, as at June 3, 2005, Blizzard has issued and outstanding 108,774,500 Blizzard Shares and no Class A common shares or preferred shares and, in addition, as at June 3, 2005 Blizzard has issued and outstanding 4,572,000 Blizzard Options to acquire 4,572,000 Blizzard Shares and Blizzard Warrants entitling the holders thereof to acquire 396,000 Blizzard Shares. Except as aforesaid, there are no outstanding shares of Blizzard or options, warrants, rights or conversion or exchange privileges or other securities entitling anyone to acquire any shares of Blizzard or any other rights, agreements or commitments of any character whatsoever requiring the issuance, sale or transfer by Blizzard of any shares of Blizzard (including Blizzard Shares) or any securities convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, or otherwise evidencing a right to acquire, any shares of Blizzard. All outstanding Blizzard Shares have been duly authorized and validly issued, and are fully paid and non-assessable and are not subject to, nor have they been issued in violation of, any pre-emptive rights, and all Blizzard Shares issuable upon exercise or conversion of outstanding Blizzard Options in accordance with their respective terms, will be duly authorized and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and will not be subject to any pre-emptive rights.
- (f) Since the date of the Blizzard Financial Statements, except as disclosed in the Public Record:
 - (i) there has been no material adverse change, (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change that could be materially adverse to Blizzard) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospect, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Blizzard and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;

- (ii) Blizzard has conducted its business only in the ordinary and normal course; and
 - (iii) no liability or obligation of any nature (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) material to Blizzard has been incurred other than in the ordinary and normal course of business or as disclosed to Shiningbank in writing prior to the execution of this Agreement.
- (g) The data and information in respect of Blizzard and its assets, reserves, liabilities, business and operations provided by Blizzard or its advisors to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or its advisors was and is accurate and correct in all material respects as at the respective dates thereof and, in respect of any information provided or requested, did not knowingly omit any material data or information necessary to make any data or information provided not misleading as at the respective dates thereof. Blizzard has no knowledge of any material adverse change to the oil and gas reserves of Blizzard from that disclosed in such data and information.
- (h) The information and statements set forth in the Public Record as at the date hereof, as relates to Blizzard, are true, correct, and complete and did not contain any misrepresentation, as of the respective dates of such information or statements, and no material change has occurred in relation to Blizzard which is not disclosed in the Public Record, and Blizzard has not filed any confidential material change reports which continue to be confidential.
- (i) Except as disclosed in the Public Record or as otherwise disclosed in writing to Shiningbank by Blizzard prior to the date hereof, there are no outstanding or threatened claims, suits, actions or proceedings against Blizzard which, if determined adversely to Blizzard, would have a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business or operations of Blizzard, or on the ability of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (j) The Blizzard Financial Statements fairly present, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada, consistently applied, the financial position and condition of Blizzard at the dates thereof and the results of the operations of Blizzard for the periods then ended and reflect all material assets, liabilities or obligations (absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise) of Blizzard as at the dates thereof.
- (k) Blizzard has not received notice of any material violation of or investigation relating to any federal, provincial or local law, regulation or ordinance with respect to its assets, business or operations and Blizzard holds all permits, licenses and other authorizations which are required under federal, provincial or local laws to be held by it relating to its assets, business or operations. The assets of Blizzard operated and maintained by it are in compliance with all terms and conditions of such laws, permits, licenses and authorizations in all material respects.
- (l) No securities commission or similar regulatory authority, or stock exchange in Canada or the United States has issued any order which is currently outstanding preventing or suspending trading in any securities of Blizzard, no such proceeding is, to the knowledge of Blizzard, pending, contemplated or threatened and Blizzard is not, to its knowledge, in default of any requirement of any securities laws, rules or policies applicable to Blizzard or its securities.
- (m) There are no payments to directors, officers and employees of Blizzard prior to the Effective Date under all contract settlements, bonus plans, retention arrangements, change of control agreements and severance obligations (whether resulting from termination or alteration of duties) other than the amounts payable pursuant to payments referenced in Section 3.2(e);
- (n) Blizzard has retained certain financial, legal and accounting advisors, brokers or consultants regarding this Agreement and the transactions referred to herein and fees to be paid to such advisors, brokers or consultants on account of this Agreement or the Arrangement and any transaction contemplated hereby or any transaction presently ongoing will not exceed $3 million;

- (o) The board of directors of Blizzard has unanimously endorsed the Arrangement and approved this Agreement, has unanimously determined that the Arrangement and this Agreement are in the best interests of Blizzard and the Blizzard Securityholders has unanimously determined that the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Blizzard Securityholders and has resolved to unanimously recommend approval of the Arrangement by Blizzard Securityholders.
- (p) Blizzard is not a party to and, prior to the Effective Date, Blizzard will not implement, a shareholder rights plan or any other form of plan, agreement, contract or instrument that will trigger any rights to acquire Blizzard Shares or other securities of Blizzard or rights, entitlements or privileges in favour of any person upon the entering into of this Agreement or the Arrangement.
- (q) Other than the Blizzard Lock-up Agreements, none of the Blizzard Securities are the subject of any voting trust or other similar agreement.
- (r) Blizzard does not have any outstanding obligations to incur and/or renounce any Canadian exploration expenditures or Canadian development expenditures to any purchaser of the shares of Blizzard that have not yet been fully expended and renounced and reflected in the Blizzard Financial Statements, other than as disclosed in writing to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy prior to the date hereof.
- (s) During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, Blizzard did not hold assets in the United States having an aggregate total value of US$25 million or more and did not have aggregate sales in or into the United States of US$25 million or more.
- (t) There is not (or are not):
 - (i) any order or directive from any regulatory authority which relates to environmental matters and which requires any material work, repairs, construction, or capital expenditures;
 - (ii) any demand or notice from any regulatory authority with respect to the material breach of any environmental, health or safety law applicable to Blizzard including, without limitation, any regulations respecting the use, storage, treatment, transportation, or disposition of environmental contaminants; or
 - (iii) any spills, releases, deposits or discharges of hazardous or toxic substances, contaminants or wastes, which have not been rectified, on any of the properties or assets owned or leased by Blizzard or in which it has an interest or over which it has control, except for any such spills, releases, deposits or discharges which, in aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of Blizzard.
- (u) Blizzard does not have any subsidiaries.
- (v) The corporate records and minute books, books of account and other records of Blizzard (whether of a financial or accounting nature or otherwise) have been maintained in accordance with, in all material respects, all applicable statutory requirements and prudent business practice and are complete and accurate in all material respects.
- (w) Blizzard is a "reporting issuer" or equivalent in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec and the outstanding Blizzard Shares are listed and posted for trading on the TSX.

- (x) Valiant Trust Company at its principal office in Calgary, Alberta, and through its co-agent, Equity Transfer Services Inc., at its principal office in Toronto, Ontario, is the duly appointed registrar and transfer agent of Blizzard with respect to the Blizzard Shares;
- (y) All Returns required to be filed have been duly filed on a timely basis and such Returns are true, complete and correct in all material respects and all Taxes shown to be payable on the Returns or on subsequent assessments with respect thereto have been paid in full on a timely basis, and no other Taxes are payable by Blizzard with respect to items or periods covered by such Returns, other than disclosed to or known by Shiningbank prior to the date hereof.
- (z) Blizzard has paid or provided adequate accruals in its Blizzard Financial Statements for the year ended dated December 31, 2004 for Taxes, including income taxes and related future taxes, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable in Canada, other than disclosed to or known by Shiningbank prior to the date hereof.
- (aa) No material deficiencies exist or have been asserted with respect to Taxes. Blizzard is not a party to any action or proceeding for assessment or collection of Taxes, nor has such event been asserted or threatened against Blizzard or any of its assets. No waiver or extension of any statute of limitations is in effect with respect to Taxes or Returns. Except as disclosed to Shiningbank prior to the date hereof, the Returns have never been audited by a government or taxing authority, nor is any such audit in process, pending or threatened which resulted in or could result in a reassessment of Taxes owing by Blizzard. Blizzard has withheld any Taxes required to be withheld by the Applicable Laws and the Tax Act and has paid or remitted on a timely basis, the full amount of any Taxes which have been withheld to the applicable governmental authority.
- (bb) No director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party to Blizzard (or any associate or affiliate thereof) has any right, title or interest in (or the right to acquire any right, title or interest in) any royalty interest, carried interest, participation interest or any other interest whatsoever which are based on production from or in respect of any properties of Blizzard that will be effective after the Effective Date.
- (cc) No director, officer, insider or other non-arm's length party of Blizzard is indebted to Blizzard.
- (dd) Except for indemnity agreements with its directors and officers, Blizzard is not a party to or bound by any agreement, guarantee, indemnification, or endorsement or like commitment of the obligations, liabilities (contingent or otherwise) or indebtedness of any person, firm or corporation.
- (ee) The policies of insurance in force at the date hereof naming Blizzard as an insured and as disclosed to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy prior to the date hereof to the knowledge of Blizzard, remain in force and effect and shall not be cancelled or otherwise terminated as a result of the transactions contemplated herein.
- (ff) Blizzard is not in default under its existing bank facility and, to Blizzard's knowledge, its banker is not contemplating any reduction in Blizzard's borrowing base, prior to giving effect to this transaction.
- (gg) Blizzard has provided to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy copies of all management recommendation letters relating to Blizzard received from Blizzard's current auditor or any previous auditor during the two years prior to the date hereof.
- (hh) To the knowledge of Blizzard, Blizzard has not withheld from Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy any material information or documents concerning Blizzard or its assets or liabilities during the course of Shiningbank's and Shiningbank Energy's review of Blizzard and its assets. No representation or warranty contained herein and no statement contained in any schedule or other disclosure document provided or to be provided to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy by Blizzard pursuant hereto contains or will contain any untrue statement or a material fact which is necessary in order to make the statements herein or therein not misleading.

- (ii) To the best of Blizzard's knowledge, immediately following the Effective Time, Blizzard will have tax pools of $130 million.
- (jj) Blizzard had $52.8 million of debt and working capital as at April 30, 2005, subject to adjustments, that arise due to actual financial results differing from accruals.

4.3 Privacy Issues

- (a) For the purposes of this Section 4.3, the following definitions shall apply:
 - (i) "applicable law" means, in relation to any person, transaction or event, all applicable provisions of laws, statutes, rules, regulations, official directives and orders of and the terms of all judgements, orders and decrees issued by any authorized authority by which such person is bound or having application to the transaction or event in question, including applicable privacy laws;
 - (ii) "applicable privacy laws" means any and all applicable laws relating to privacy and the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information in all applicable jurisdictions, including but not limited to the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (Canada) and/or any comparable provincial law including the Personal Information Protection Act (Alberta);
 - (iii) "authorized authority" means, in relation to any person, transaction or event, any (a) federal, provincial, municipal or local governmental body (whether administrative, legislative, executive or otherwise), both domestic and foreign, (b) agency, authority, commission, instrumentality, regulatory body, court, central bank or other entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, taxing, regulatory or administrative powers or functions of or pertaining to government, (c) court, arbitrator, commission or body exercising judicial, quasi-judicial, administrative or similar functions, and (d) other body or entity created under the authority of or otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of any of the foregoing, including any stock or other securities exchange, in each case having jurisdiction over such person, transaction or event; and
 - (iv) "Personal Information" means information about an individual.
- (b) The Parties hereto acknowledge that they are responsible for compliance at all times with applicable privacy laws which govern the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information acquired by or disclosed to either Party pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement (the "Disclosed Personal Information").
- (c) Neither Party shall use the Disclosed Personal Information for any purposes other than those related to the performance of this Agreement and the completion of the Arrangement.
- (d) Each Party acknowledges and confirms that the disclosure of the Disclosed Personal Information is necessary for the purposes of determining if the Parties shall proceed with the Arrangement, and that the disclosure of the Disclosed Personal Information relates solely to the carrying on of the business and the completion of the Arrangement.
- (e) Each Party acknowledges and confirms that it has and shall continue to employ appropriate technology and procedures in accordance with applicable law to prevent accidental loss or corruption of the Disclosed Personal Information, unauthorized input or access to the Disclosed Personal Information, or unauthorized or unlawful collection, storage, disclosure, recording, copying, alteration, removal, deletion, use or other processing of such Disclosed Personal Information.
- (f) Each Party shall at all times keep strictly confidential all Disclosed Personal Information provided to it, and shall instruct those employees or advisors responsible for processing such Disclosed Personal Information to protect the confidentiality of such information in a manner consistent with the Parties' obligations hereunder. Each Party shall ensure that access to the Disclosed Personal Information shall be restricted to those employees or advisors of the respective party who have a bona fide need to access to such information in order to complete the Arrangement.

- (g) Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party to this Agreement of all inquiries, complaints, requests for access, and claims of which the Party is made aware in connection with the Disclosed Personal Information. The Parties shall fully co-operate with one another, with the persons to whom the Personal Information relates, and any authorized authority charged with enforcement of applicable privacy laws, in responding to such inquiries, complaints, requests for access, and claims.
- (h) Upon the expiry or termination of this Agreement, or otherwise upon the reasonable request of either Party, the other Party shall forthwith cease all use of the Personal Information acquired by such Party in connection with this Agreement and will return to the first Party or, at such Party's request, destroy in a secure manner, the Disclosed Personal Information (and any copies).

ARTICLE 5 CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

5.1 Mutual Conditions Precedent

The respective obligations of the Parties to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and in particular the Arrangement, are subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions, any of which may be waived by the mutual consent of such Parties without prejudice to their right to rely on any other of such conditions:

- (a) on or prior to July 15, 2005, the Interim Order shall have been granted in form and substance satisfactory to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably, and such order shall not have been set aside or modified in a manner unacceptable to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably, on appeal or otherwise;
- (b) the Arrangement Resolution shall have been passed by the holders of Blizzard Securities, on or prior to August 15, 2005 in accordance with the Interim Order and in form and substance satisfactory to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (c) in the event that dissent rights are given to Blizzard Securityholders under the terms of the Interim Order, holders of not greater than 2% of the outstanding Blizzard Securities shall have exercised rights of dissent in respect of the Arrangement that have not been withdrawn as of the Effective Date;
- (d) on or prior to August 15, 2005, the Final Order shall have been granted in form and substance satisfactory to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (e) the Articles of Arrangement to be filed with the Registrar in accordance with the Arrangement shall be in form and substance satisfactory to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably;
- (f) the Arrangement shall have become effective on or prior to August 15, 2005;
- (g) Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard shall enter into written agreements effective as of the Effective Date satisfactory to Blizzard or Blizzard shall have evidence satisfactory to Blizzard, acting reasonably, pursuant to which Blizzard shall have arranged or Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall agree or have agreed that, for a period of six years after the Effective Date, Shiningbank and/or Shiningbank Energy shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained (provided that Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy may substitute therefor policies of at least the same change coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are no less advantageous) providing coverage on a "trailing" or "run-off" basis for all present and former directors and officers of Blizzard with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred before the Effective Date;

- (h) the TSX shall have conditionally listed all of the Shiningbank Units issuable pursuant to the Arrangement;
- (i) the relevant waiting period in section 123 of the Competition Act shall have expired and: (i) an advance ruling certificate ("ARC") pursuant to section 102 of the Competition Act shall have been issued by the Commissioner of the Competition Bureau ("Commissioner") appointed under the Competition Act; or (ii) a "no action letter" satisfactory to each of Shiningbank and Blizzard, acting reasonably, indicating that the Commissioner has determined not to make an application for an order under section 92 of the Competition Act shall have been received from the Commissioner, and any terms and conditions attached to any such letter shall be acceptable to each of Shiningbank and Blizzard, acting reasonably; and in addition, in the event that the ARC or "no action" letter described in (i) or (ii) in the foregoing is issued, there shall be no threatened or actual application by the Commissioner for an order under section 92 or 100 of the Competition Act;
- (j) all requisite domestic and foreign regulatory approvals and consents required for completion of the Arrangement shall have been obtained on terms and conditions satisfactory to Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard, acting reasonably, and all applicable domestic and foreign statutory or regulatory waiting periods to the transactions contemplated in the Arrangement shall have expired or been terminated, and no objection or opposition shall have been filed, initiated or made by any regulatory authority during any applicable statutory or regulatory waiting period; and
- (k) there shall be no action taken under any existing applicable law or regulation, nor any statute, rule, regulation or order which is enacted, enforced, promulgated or issued by any court, department, commission, board, regulatory body, government or governmental authority or similar agency, domestic or foreign, that:
 - (i) makes illegal or otherwise directly or indirectly restrains, enjoins or prohibits the Arrangement or any other transactions contemplated herein; or
 - (ii) results in a judgment or assessment of material damages directly or indirectly relating to the Arrangement or any other transactions contemplated herein.

The foregoing conditions are for the mutual benefit of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard and may be asserted by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard regardless of the circumstances and may be waived by Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard in their sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy or Blizzard may have.

5.2 Additional Conditions to Obligations of Shiningbank

The obligation of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and in particular the Arrangement, is subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions:

- (a) Blizzard shall have mailed the Blizzard Information Circular and other documentation required in connection with the Blizzard Meeting on or before July 15, 2005;
- (b) each of the acts and undertakings of Blizzard to be performed on or before the Effective Date pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall have been duly performed by Blizzard;
- (c) Blizzard shall have furnished Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy with:

- (i) certified copies of the resolutions duly passed by the boards of directors of Blizzard approving this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; and
 - (ii) certified copies of the resolutions of Blizzard Securityholders, duly passed at the Blizzard Meeting, approving the Arrangement Resolution;
- (d) except as affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the representations and warranties of Blizzard contained in Section 4.2 shall be true in all material respects as at the Effective Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such time and Blizzard shall have complied in all material respects with its covenants in this Agreement and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall have received a certificate to that effect dated the Effective Date from the President and Chief Financial Officer of Blizzard and another senior officer thereof acceptable to Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, acting solely on behalf of Blizzard and not in their personal capacity, to the best of his information and belief having made reasonable inquiry and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will have no knowledge to the contrary;
- (e) there shall not have occurred any change after the date hereof or prior to the date hereof which has not been publicly disclosed prior to the date hereof or previously disclosed prior to the date hereof to Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy in writing (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Blizzard and which, in the judgment of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy, acting reasonably, is materially adverse to Blizzard other than: (i) a change directly resulting from an action taken by Blizzard pursuant to Blizzard's May 26, 2005 budget as disclosed to Shiningbank or to which Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy has consented to in writing; (ii) a change in ExploreCo Assets; (iii) a change resulting from conditions affecting the oil and gas industry in Canada including, without limitation, changes in commodity prices or taxes of any kind at any time; or (iv) the occurrence, development or coming into effect or existence of any event, action, state, condition, or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law, regulation, action, government regulation, enquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which materially adversely affects or involves the financial markets in Canada or the United States generally or the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of Blizzard; and
- (f) EnCana shall have discharged or consented to the transfer of the Debenture as described in the Blizzard Financial Statements such that it does not apply to Blizzard or any of its assets, other than the Exploreco Assets.

The conditions in this Section 5.2 are for the exclusive benefit of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and may be asserted by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy regardless of the circumstances or may be waived by Shiningbank in its sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy may have.

5.3 Additional Conditions to Obligations of Blizzard

The obligation of Blizzard to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and in particular the Arrangement, is subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date or such other time specified, of the following conditions:

- (a) each of the acts and undertakings of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy to be performed on or before the Effective Date pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall have been duly performed by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy, as the case may be;
- (b) Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall have furnished Blizzard with certified copies of the resolutions duly passed by the board of directors of Shiningbank Energy approving this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby;

- (c) except as affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the representations and warranties of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy contained in Section 4.1 shall be true in all material respects as at the Effective Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such time and Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall have complied in all material respects with its covenants in this Agreement and Blizzard shall have received a certificate to that effect dated the Effective Date from the President of Shiningbank Energy and another senior officer thereof acceptable to Blizzard, acting reasonably, acting solely on behalf of Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy and not in their personal capacity, to the best of his information and belief having made reasonable inquiry and Blizzard will have no knowledge to the contrary; and
- (d) there shall not have occurred any change after the date hereof or prior to the date hereof which has not been publicly disclosed prior to the date hereof or previously disclosed prior to the date hereof to Blizzard in writing (or any condition, event or development involving a prospective change) in the business, affairs, operations, assets, capitalization, financial condition, prospects, licenses, permits, rights, privileges or liabilities, whether contractual or otherwise, of Shiningbank, taken as a whole, and which, in the judgment of Blizzard, acting reasonably, is materially adverse to Shiningbank, taken as a whole, other than: (i) a change directly resulting from an action taken by Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy to which Blizzard has consented to in writing; (ii) a change resulting from conditions affecting the oil and gas industry in Canada including, without limitation, changes in commodity prices or taxes of any kind at any time; or (iii) the occurrence, development or coming into effect or existence of any event, action, state, condition, or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law, regulation, action, government regulation, enquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which materially adversely affects or involves the financial markets in Canada or the United States generally or the financial condition, business, operations, assets, affairs or prospects of Shiningbank, taken as a whole.

The conditions in this Section 5.3 are for the exclusive benefit of Blizzard and may be asserted by Blizzard regardless of the circumstances or may be waived by Blizzard in its sole discretion, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time without prejudice to any other rights which Blizzard may have.

5.4 Notice and Effect of Failure to Comply with Conditions

- (a) Each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Blizzard shall give prompt notice to the other of the occurrence, or failure to occur, at any time from the date hereof to the Effective Date of any event or state of facts which occurrence or failure would, or would be likely to, (i) cause any of the representations or warranties of any Party contained herein to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect, or (ii) result in the failure to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by any party hereunder; provided, however, that no such notification will affect the representations or warranties of the Parties or the conditions to the obligations of the Parties hereunder.
- (b) If a Party intends to rely on a breach of a representation, warranty or covenant of the other Party to rescind or terminate this Agreement, such Party intending to rely thereon shall deliver a written notice to the other Party, specifying in reasonable detail all breaches of covenants, representations and warranties which the Party delivering such notice is asserting and provide the other Party 48 hours to rectify the breaches before the effective date of rescission of termination. More than one such notice may be delivered by a Party

5.5 Satisfaction of Conditions

The conditions set out in this Article 5 are conclusively deemed to have been satisfied, waived or released when, with the agreement of the Parties, Articles of Arrangement are filed under the ABCA to give effect to the Arrangement.

ARTICLE 6
AGREEMENT AS TO DAMAGES AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

6.1 Shiningbank Damages

If at any time after the execution of this Agreement:

- (a) the board of directors of Blizzard has withdrawn or changed any of its recommendations or determinations referred to in Section 3.2(n) and 4.2(o) in a manner adverse to Shiningbank or shall have resolved to do so prior to the Effective Date other than as a result of a Blizzard Damages Event or a change referred to in Section 5.3(d);
- (b) a bona fide Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced, proposed, offered or made to the Blizzard Shareholders or to Blizzard and: (i) the Blizzard Shareholders do not approve the Arrangement; and (ii) such Acquisition Proposal is consummated within 6 months of the date of this Agreement;
- (c) Blizzard accepts, recommends, approves or enters into an agreement (other than a confidentiality agreement) to implement a Superior Proposal prior to the Effective Date or termination of this Agreement;
- (d) Blizzard breaches any of its covenants in Section 3.4 or wilfully breaches any other of its representations, warranties or covenants made in this Agreement which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement; or
- (e) Blizzard breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in this Agreement (other than a wilful breach referred in Section 6.1(d)), which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement,

(each of the above being a "Shiningbank Damages Event"), then in the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or (d), Blizzard shall pay to Shiningbank $8 million (in the case of an event referred to in Section 6.1(a), (b), (c) or (d)) or $ 1 million in the aggregate (in the case of an event referred to in section 6.1(e)) as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy within one business day after the first to occur of the events described above, and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, Blizzard shall be deemed to hold such fund in trust for Shiningbank. Blizzard shall only be obligated to pay a maximum of $8 million pursuant to this Section 6.1.

6.2 Blizzard Damages

If at any time after the execution of this Agreement, Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy breaches any of its representations, warranties or covenants made in this Agreement, which breach individually or in the aggregate would materially impede a condition to the Arrangement being satisfied or the completion of the Arrangement (being a "Blizzard Damages Event"), then in the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(e), Shiningbank shall pay to Blizzard $1 million, in aggregate, as liquidated damages in immediately available funds to an account designated by Blizzard within one business day after the breach as described above and after such event but prior to payment of such amount, Shiningbank shall be deemed to hold such funds in trust for Blizzard.

6.3 Liquidated Damages

Each of Blizzard, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy acknowledge that all of the payment amounts set out in this Article 6 are payments of liquidated damages which are a genuine pre-estimate of the damages which Blizzard or Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy will suffer or incur as a result of the event giving rise to such damages and resultant termination of this Agreement and are not penalties. Each of Blizzard, Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy irrevocably waives any right it may have to raise as a defence that any such liquidated damages are excessive or punitive. For greater certainty, the Parties agree that the payment of the amount pursuant to this Article 6 is the sole monetary remedy of Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy or Blizzard in the event the transactions contemplated herein are not consummated. Nothing herein shall preclude Blizzard or Shiningbank or Shiningbank Energy from seeking injunctive relief to restrain any breach or threatened breach of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement or the Confidentiality Agreement or otherwise to obtain specific performance of any of such act, covenants or agreements, without the necessity of posting bond or security in connection therewith.

ARTICLE 7 AMENDMENT

7.1 Amendment

This Agreement may at any time and from time to time before or after the holding of the Blizzard Meeting be amended by written agreement of the Parties hereto without, subject to applicable law, further notice to or authorization on the part of their respective securityholders and any such amendment may, without limitation:

- (a) change the time for performance of any of the obligations or acts of the Parties;
- (b) waive any inaccuracies or modify any representation or warranty contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto;
- (c) waive compliance with or modify any of the covenants herein contained and waive or modify performance of any of the obligations of the Parties; or
- (d) waive compliance with or modify any other conditions precedent contained herein;

provided that no such amendment reduces or materially adversely affects the consideration to be received by a Blizzard Securityholder without approval by the Blizzard securityholders given in the same manner as required for the approval of the Arrangement or as may be ordered by the Court.

ARTICLE 8 TERMINATION

8.1 Termination

This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Date:

- (a) by mutual written consent of Shiningbank and Blizzard;
- (b) as provided in Sections 5.1, 5.2 and 5.3;
- (c) by Shiningbank upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event as provided in Section 6.1 provided that in the event of a Shiningbank Damages Event provided for in Section 6.1(a), this Agreement may not be terminated by Shiningbank unless Blizzard Securityholders do not approve the Arrangement as required in the Interim Order or the Arrangement is not submitted for their approval;
- (d) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Shiningbank Damages Event provided for in Sections 6.1(a),(b),(c) or (d) and the payment by Blizzard to Shiningbank of the amount required by Section 6.1; or
- (e) by Blizzard upon the occurrence of a Blizzard Damages Event as provided in Section 6.2.

In the event of the termination of this Agreement in the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and neither Party shall have any liability or further obligation to the other Party hereunder except with respect to the obligations set forth in or as otherwise specified in Article 6 which shall survive such termination.

ARTICLE 9

ARTICLE 10
GENERAL

10.1 Binding Effect

This Agreement shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the Parties hereto.

10.2 Assignment

No Party to this Agreement may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without prior written consent of the other Party.

10.3 Disclosure

Each Party shall receive the prior consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, of the other Party prior to issuing or permitting any director, officer, employee or agent to issue, any press release or other written statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if either Party is required by law or administrative regulation to make any disclosure relating to the transactions contemplated herein, such disclosure may be made, but that Party will consult with the other Party as to the wording of such disclosure prior to its being made.

10.4 Costs

Except as contemplated herein (including Section 6.1 and 6.2 hereof), each Party hereto covenants and agrees to bear its own costs and expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby. Shiningbank and Blizzard shall share equally any filing fees payable for applications made under the Competition Act in respect of the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement.

10.5 Severability

If any one or more of the provisions or parts thereof contained in this Agreement should be or become invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect in any jurisdiction, the remaining provisions or parts thereof contained herein shall be and shall be conclusively deemed to be, as to such jurisdiction, severable therefrom and:

- (a) the validity, legality or enforceability of such remaining provisions or parts thereof shall not in any way be affected or impaired by the severance of the provisions or parts thereof severed; and
- (b) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision or part thereof contained in this Agreement in any jurisdiction shall not affect or impair such provision or part thereof or any other provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

10.6 Further Assurances

Each Party hereto shall, from time to time and at all times hereafter, at the request of the other Party hereto, but without further consideration, do all such further acts, and execute and deliver all such further documents and instruments as may be reasonably required in order to fully perform and carry out the terms and intent hereof.

10.7 Time of Essence

Time shall be of the essence of this Agreement.

10.8 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the Parties hereto irrevocably atom to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Alberta.

10.9 Waiver

No waiver by any Party shall be effective unless in writing and any waiver shall affect only the matter, and the occurrence thereof, specifically identified and shall not extend to any other matter or occurrence.

10.10 Limitation on Trustees Liability

The parties hereto acknowledge that Shiningbank Energy is entering into this agreement behalf of Shiningbank and the obligations of Shiningbank hereunder shall not be personally binding upon the Computershare Trust Company of Canada or any of the unitholders of Shiningbank and that any recourse against Shiningbank or any unitholder in any manner in respect of any indebtedness, obligation or liability of Shiningbank arising hereunder or arising in connection herewith or from the matters to which this agreement relates, if any, including without limitation claims based on negligence or otherwise tortious behaviour, shall be limited to, and satisfied only out of, the Trust Fund as defined in the trust indenture, as amended from time to time.

10.11 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

1.2 The division of this Plan of Arrangement into articles and sections and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Plan of Arrangement.

1.3 Unless reference is specifically made to some other document or instrument, all references herein to articles and sections are to articles and sections of this Plan of Arrangement.

1.4 Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa; words importing any gender shall include all genders; and words importing persons shall include individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, funds, unincorporated organizations, governments, regulatory authorities, and other entities.

1.5 The following schedules to this Plan of Arrangement are incorporated by reference herein and form part of this Plan of Arrangement.

Schedule A – Terms of Notes
 Schedule B – Blizzard Preferred A Share Provisions
 Schedule C – Blizzard New Common Share Provisions

1.6 In the event that the date on which any action is required to be taken hereunder by any of the parties is not a business day in the place where the action is required to be taken, such action shall be required to be taken on the next succeeding day which is a business day in such place.

1.7 References in this Plan of Arrangement to any statute or sections thereof shall include such statute as amended or substituted and any regulations promulgated thereunder from time to time in effect.

ARTICLE 2 ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

2.1 This Plan of Arrangement is made pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement.

2.2 This Plan of Arrangement, upon the filing of the Articles of Arrangement and the issue of the Certificate, will become effective on, and be binding on and after, the Effective Time on: (i) the holders of Blizzard Shares; (ii) the holders of Blizzard Options; (iii) the holders of the Blizzard Warrants; (iv) Blizzard; (v) Shiningbank; (vi) Shiningbank Energy; (vii) Zenas; (viii) Zenas Finco; and (ix) the holders of the Zenas Finco Common Shares.

2.3 The Articles of Arrangement and Certificate shall be filed and issued, respectively, with respect to this Arrangement in its entirety. The Certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the Arrangement has become effective and that each of the provisions of Article 3 has become effective in the sequence and at the times set out therein.

ARTICLE 3 ARRANGEMENT

3.1 Commencing at the Effective Time, each of the events set out below shall occur and shall be deemed to occur in the following order without any further act or formality except as otherwise provided herein:

- (a) the Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants held by Dissenting Securityholders who have exercised Dissent Rights which remain valid immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, as of the Effective Time, be deemed to have been transferred to Blizzard (free of any claims) and be cancelled and cease to be outstanding, and as of the Effective Time, such Dissenting Securityholders shall cease to have any rights as securityholders of Blizzard other than the right to be paid the fair value of their Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrant, as the case may be, in accordance with Article 4;
- (b) each issued and outstanding Blizzard Share held by a Non-Resident shall be transferred to Zenas in exchange for one-sixth ($1/6^{\text{th}}$) of a Zenas Common Share and the right to receive (i) 0.0777 of a Trust Unit and (ii) a cash payment of \$0.4097 for each Blizzard Share held by a Non-Resident Blizzard Shareholder;

- (c) the Blizzard New Common Shares and the Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be created as new classes of shares of Blizzard and each Blizzard Share held by a Blizzard Shareholder that is a Resident shall be exchanged pursuant to a reorganization of the capital of Blizzard for one (1) Blizzard New Common Share and one (1) Blizzard Preferred A Share and the stated capital of each:
 - (i) Blizzard Preferred A Share shall be set at the paid-up capital of each Blizzard Share exchanged less the Blizzard New Common Share Stated Value; and
 - (ii) Blizzard New Common Share shall initially be set at approximately $0.25 per share with the precise amount to be determined immediately prior to the Effective Time (the "Blizzard New Common Share Stated Value");
- (d) each issued and outstanding Blizzard Preferred A Share shall be transferred to Shiningbank Energy in exchange for 0.0777 of a Trust Unit and a cash payment of $0.4097 for each Blizzard Preferred A Share held by a Blizzard Shareholder;
- (e) Shiningbank Energy shall issue one (1.0) Note to Shiningbank with respect to the Trust Units required to be issued pursuant to Section 3.1(d) in a principal amount equal to the Shiningbank Trust Unit Weighted Average Trading Price multiplied by the number of such Trust Units;
- (f) Zenas shall deliver to each Non-Resident described in Section 3.1(b), (i) 0.0777 of a Trust Unit and (ii) a cash payment of $0.4097;
- (g) all unexercised Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants (other than Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants held by Dissenting Optionholders or Dissenting Warrantholders, respectively) shall be cancelled for no consideration;
- (h) the Zenas Conveyance shall become effective and Zenas shall deliver the Zenas Note in satisfaction of the purchase price contemplated by the Zenas Conveyance;
- (i) each Blizzard New Common Share (other than Blizzard New Common Shares held by Zenas) shall be transferred to Zenas in exchange for one-sixth ($1/6^{\text{th}}$) of a Zenas Common Share;
- (j) the one (1.0) Zenas Common Share held by Blizzard shall be cancelled in consideration for a payment of $1.00;
- (k) each Blizzard New Common Share shall be transferred by Zenas to Shiningbank Energy in exchange for the Share Note;
- (l) that portion of the Zenas Note equal to the principal amount of the Share Note shall be transferred by Blizzard to Zenas in exchange for the Share Note held by Zenas and the Zenas Note shall be reduced by the amount of the Share Note;
- (m) Zenas shall settle any remaining unpaid principal amount of the Zenas Note by delivering to Blizzard payment in cash under the Zenas Conveyance, if any;
- (n) Zenas shall issue one (1.0) Zenas Arrangement Warrant to each holder of a Zenas Common Share; and
- (o) each Zenas Finco Common Share, if any, shall be transferred to Zenas in exchange for one (1.0) Zenas Common Share.

3.2 With respect to each holder of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants (other than a Dissenting Securityholder) at the Effective Time:

- (a) upon the exchange of Blizzard Shares for Zenas Common Shares pursuant to Section 3.1(b):
 - (i) such former holder of Blizzard Shares shall be added to the register of holders of Zenas Common Shares;
 - (ii) such holder shall cease to be a holder of the Blizzard Shares so exchanged and the name of such holder shall be removed from the register of holders of Blizzard Shares as it relates to the Blizzard Shares so exchanged;
 - (iii) Zenas shall become the holder of the Blizzard Shares so exchanged and shall be added to the register of holders of Blizzard Shares;
- (b) upon the exchange of Blizzard Shares for Blizzard New Common Shares and Blizzard Preferred A Shares pursuant to Section 3.1(c):
 - (i) such former holder of Blizzard Shares shall be added to the register of holders of Blizzard New Common Shares and the name of such holder shall be removed from the register of holders of Blizzard Shares as it relates to the Blizzard Shares so exchanged; and
 - (ii) such former holder of Blizzard Shares shall be added to the register of holders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares;
- (c) upon the exchange of Blizzard Preferred A Shares for Trust Units pursuant to Section 3.1(d):
 - (i) such former holder of Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be added to the register of holders of Trust Units;
 - (ii) such holder shall cease to be a holder of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares so exchanged and the name of such holder shall be removed from the register of holders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares as it relates to the Blizzard Preferred A Shares so exchanged;
 - (iii) Shiningbank Energy shall become the holder of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares so exchanged and shall be added to the register of holders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares;
- (d) upon the transfer of the Trust Units pursuant to Section 3.1(f):
 - (i) Zenas shall cease to be a holder of the Trust Units so transferred and shall be removed from the register of holders of Trust Units as it relates to the Trust Units so transferred; and
 - (ii) each Non-Resident former holder of Blizzard Shares shall become the registered holder of the Trust Units so transferred and be added to the register of holders of Trust Units;
- (e) upon the cancellation of all unexercised Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants pursuant to Section 3.1(g):
 - (i) such holder shall cease to be a holder of the Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants so cancelled and the name of such holder shall be removed from the register of holders of Blizzard Warrants and the agreements or certificates representing such Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants shall be terminated or cancelled;

- (f) upon the exchange of Blizzard New Common Shares for Zenas Common Shares pursuant to Section 3.1(i):
 - (i) such holder shall cease to be a holder of the Blizzard New Common Shares so exchanged and the name of such holder shall be removed from the register of holders of Blizzard New Common Shares as it relates to the Blizzard New Common Shares so exchanged;
 - (ii) Zenas shall become the holder of the Blizzard New Common Shares so exchanged and shall be added to the register of holders of Blizzard New Common Shares; and
 - (iii) Zenas shall allot and issue to such holder the number of Zenas Common Shares issuable to such holder on the basis set forth in Section 3.1(i) and the name of such holder shall be added to the register of holders of Zenas Common Shares;
- (g) upon the transfer of the Blizzard New Common Shares for the Share Note pursuant to Section 3.1(j):
 - (i) Zenas shall cease to be a holder of the Blizzard New Common Shares so exchanged and the name of Zenas shall be removed from the register of holders of the Blizzard New Common Shares as it relates to the Blizzard New Common Shares so exchanged;
 - (ii) Shiningbank Energy shall become the holder of the Blizzard New Common Shares to exchanged and shall be added to the register of holders of Blizzard New Common Shares; and
 - (iii) Shiningbank Energy shall issue the Share Note to Zenas;
- (h) upon the issuance of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants pursuant to Section 3.1(n):
 - (i) such holders entitled to the Zenas Arrangement Warrants shall become holders of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants and shall be added to the register of holders of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants.

ARTICLE 4 DISSENTING SECURITYHOLDERS

4.1 Each registered holder of Blizzard Shares, each registered holder of Blizzard Options and each registered holder of Blizzard Warrants shall have the right to dissent with respect to the Arrangement in accordance with the Interim Order. A Dissenting Shareholder, a Dissenting Optionholder or Dissenting Warrantholder (collectively, a "Dissenting Securityholder") shall, at the Effective Time, cease to have any rights as a holder of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrants, as the case may be, and shall only be entitled to be paid the fair value of the holder's Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrants, as applicable, by Blizzard. The fair value of the Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrants, as the case may be, shall be determined as of the close of business on the last business day before the day on which the Arrangement is approved by the holders of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Options and Blizzard Warrants at the Meeting; but in no event shall Blizzard or Shiningbank Energy be required to recognize such Dissenting Securityholder as shareholders or optionholders or warrantholders of Blizzard or Shiningbank Energy after the Effective Time and the names of such holders shall be removed from the applicable register of shareholders or optionholders or warrantholders as at the Effective Time. For greater certainty, in addition to any other restrictions in section 191 of the ABCA, no person who has voted in favour of the Arrangement shall be entitled to dissent with respect to the Arrangement.

ARTICLE 5
OUTSTANDING CERTIFICATES AND FRACTIONAL SECURITIES

5.1 From and after the Effective Time, certificates formerly representing Blizzard Shares acquired by Shiningbank Energy under the Arrangement shall represent only the right to receive the consideration to which the holders are entitled under the Arrangement, or as to those held by Dissenting Shareholders, other than those Dissenting Shareholders deemed to have participated in the Arrangement pursuant to Section 3.1, to receive the fair value of the Blizzard Shares represented by such certificates.

5.2 Shiningbank and Shiningbank Energy shall, as soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Date and the date of deposit by a former holder of Blizzard Shares acquired by Shiningbank Energy under the Arrangement of a duly completed Letter of Transmittal and the certificates representing such Blizzard Shares, either:

- (a) forward or cause to be forwarded by first class mail (postage prepaid) to such former holder at the address specified in the Letter of Transmittal; or
- (b) if requested by such holder in the Letter of Transmittal, make available or cause to be made available at the Depository for pickup by such holder, certificates representing the number of Trust Units, Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants issued to such holder under the Arrangement and the aggregate amount of cash that such holder is entitled to receive under the Arrangement.

5.3 If any certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented an interest in outstanding Blizzard Shares that were exchanged pursuant to Section 3.1 has been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such certificate to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Depository will issue and deliver in exchange for such lost stolen or destroyed certificate the consideration to which the holder is entitled pursuant to the Arrangement (and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto) as determined in accordance with the Arrangement. The person who is entitled to receive such consideration shall, as a condition precedent to the receipt thereof, give a bond to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Zenas and their respective transfer agents, which bond is in form and substance satisfactory to each of Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Zenas and their respective transfer agents, or shall otherwise indemnify Shiningbank, Shiningbank Energy and Zenas and their respective transfer agents against any claim that may be made against any of them with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

5.4 All distributions made with respect to any Trust Units allotted and issued pursuant to this Arrangement but for which a certificate has not been issued shall be paid or delivered to the Depository to be held by the Depository in trust for the registered holder thereof. The Depository shall pay and deliver to any such registered holder, as soon as reasonably practicable after application therefor is made by the registered holder to the Depository in such form as the Depository may reasonably require, such distributions to which such holder, is entitled, net of applicable withholding and other taxes.

5.5 Any certificate formerly representing Blizzard Shares that is not deposited with all other documents as required by this Plan of Arrangement on or before the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date shall cease to represent a right or claim of any kind or nature and the right of the holder of such Blizzard Shares to receive: (i) Trust Units; (ii) Zenas Common Shares; (iii) Zenas Arrangement Warrants; and (iv) the cash payment.

5.6 No certificates representing fractional Trust Units, Blizzard Preferred A Shares, Blizzard New Common Shares, Zenas Common Shares or Zenas Arrangement Warrants shall be issued under this Arrangement. In lieu of any fractional trust unit, share or warrant certificate, each registered Blizzard Shareholder, Blizzard Optionholder or Blizzard Warrantholder, as the case may be, otherwise entitled to a fractional interest in a trust unit, share or warrant certificate, will receive the nearest whole number of trust units, shares or warrants, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 6
AMENDMENTS

6.1 Shiningbank, Blizzard and Shiningbank Energy may amend, modify and/or supplement this Plan of Arrangement at any time and from time to time prior to the Effective Time, provided that each such amendment, modification and/or supplement must be: (i) set out in writing; (ii) approved by the other parties; (iii) filed with the Court and, if made following the Meeting, approved by the Court; and (iv) communicated to holders of Blizzard Shares or Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrants and holders of Zenas Finco Common Shares, if and as required by the Court.

6.2 Any amendment, modification or supplement to this Plan of Arrangement may be proposed by Shiningbank, Blizzard or Shiningbank Energy at any time prior to or at the Meeting (provided that the other parties shall have consented thereto) with or without any other prior notice or communication, and if so proposed and accepted by the persons voting at the Meeting (other than as may be required under the Interim Order), shall become part of this Plan of Arrangement for all purposes.

6.3 Any amendment, modification or supplement to this Plan of Arrangement that is approved by the Court following the Meeting shall be effective only if it is consented to by each of Shiningbank, Blizzard and Shiningbank Energy.

6.4 Any amendment, modification or supplement to this Plan of Arrangement may be made prior to or following the Effective Time unilaterally by Blizzard, provided that it concerns a matter which, in the reasonable opinion of Blizzard, is of an administrative nature required to better give effect to the implementation of this Plan of Arrangement and is not adverse to the financial or economic interests of Blizzard, or any former holder of Blizzard Shares or Blizzard Options or Blizzard Warrants.

SCHEDULE A
TERMS OF NOTES

1. Issuance

Under the Arrangement, Shiningbank Energy shall issue the Notes on the Effective Date to Shiningbank.

2. Unsecured Notes and Interest

The Notes shall be repayable on demand, unsecured and bear interest at a rate of interest per annum equal to the prime rate of interest plus one quarter of one percent announced from time to time by The Toronto-Dominion Bank for Canadian dollar loans made available in the City of Calgary, in the Province of Alberta, as well as before maturity, default and judgment, until paid.

SCHEDULE B
BLIZZARD PREFERRED A SHARE PROVISIONS

The unlimited number of Class A preferred shares ("Blizzard Preferred A Shares") of Blizzard (the "Corporation") shall have attached thereto the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

1. Stated Capital

The stated capital of each Blizzard Preferred A Share shall be set at the paid-up capital of each Blizzard Share determined immediately prior to the Effective Date less the Blizzard New Common Share Stated Value.

2. Notice and Voting

The holders of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be entitled to receive notice of, to attend and to one (1) vote per share held at any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation (other than meetings of a class or series of shares of the Corporation other than the Blizzard Preferred A Shares as such).

3. Dividends

The holders of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be entitled to rank ahead of holders of the Blizzard Common Shares and Blizzard New Common Shares as to dividends. The holders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be entitled to receive dividends as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation on the Blizzard Preferred A Shares as a class, subject to prior satisfaction of all preferential rights to dividends attached to shares of other classes of shares of the Corporation ranking in priority to the Blizzard Preferred A Shares in respect of dividends.

4. Liquidation

The holders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be entitled, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, and subject to prior satisfaction of all preferential rights to return of capital on dissolution attached to all shares of other classes of shares of the Corporation ranking in priority to the Blizzard Preferred A Shares in respect of return of capital on dissolution, to share rateably, together with the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation ranking equally with the Blizzard Preferred A Shares in respect of return of capital on dissolution, in such assets of the Corporation as are available for distribution up to the amount of the Redemption Price (as defined below) of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares in priority to the Blizzard Shares and Blizzard New Common Shares. The Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall not be entitled to share any further in the distribution of property or assets of the Corporation.

5. Redemption

(a) Subject to applicable law, the Corporation shall have the right to redeem, at any time all, or from time to time any part of, the then outstanding Blizzard Preferred A Shares at a price per share equal to the aggregate of (i) 0.0777 multiplied by the Shiningbank Trust Unit Weighted Average Trading Price and (ii) $0.4097 (the "Redemption Value"), together with all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon up to the date fixed for redemption (the whole amount being herein referred to as the "Redemption Price").

(b) In case only a part of the then outstanding Blizzard Preferred A Shares is at any time to be redeemed, the shares so to be redeemed shall be redeemed pro rata, excluding fractions, from the holdings of all shareholders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares or in such other manner as the board of directors of the Corporation deems reasonable.

- (c) On any redemption of Blizzard Preferred A Shares under this Section 5, the Corporation shall, subject to the unanimous waiver of notice by the registered holders thereof or if otherwise provided pursuant to a plan of arrangement ("Arrangement") pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), give at least 21 days before the date fixed for redemption (the "Redemption Date"), a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem Blizzard Preferred A Shares (the "Redemption Notice") to each person who at the date of giving of such notice is a registered holder of Blizzard Preferred A Shares to be redeemed. The Redemption Notice shall set out the calculation of the Redemption Price, the Redemption Date and, unless all the Blizzard Preferred A Shares held by the holder to whom it is addressed are to be redeemed, the number of such shares so held which are to be redeemed. If the redemption is pursuant to an Arrangement, no Redemption Notice shall be required and such redemption shall be pursuant to the terms of such Arrangement.
- (d) The Redemption Price (less any tax required to be withheld by the Corporation) shall be paid either: (i) in cash, by cheque payable in lawful money of Canada at par at any branch in Alberta of the Corporation's bankers for the time being; (ii) by way of a promissory note; or (iii) by such other reasonable means as the Corporation deems desirable. The mailing of such cheque or promissory note from the Corporation's registered office, or the payment by such other reasonable means as the Corporation deems desirable, on or before the Redemption Date shall be deemed to be payment of the Redemption Price represented thereby on the Redemption Date unless the cheque or note is not paid upon presentation or payment by such other means is not received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall be entitled to require at any time, and from time to time, that the Redemption Price be paid to holders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares only upon presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or at any other place or places in Alberta designated by the Redemption Notice of the certificate or certificates for such Blizzard Preferred A Shares to be redeemed.
- (e) If a part only of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares represented by any certificate are to be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation.
- (f) At any time after the Redemption Notice is given, the Corporation shall have the right to deposit the Redemption Price of any or all Blizzard Preferred A Shares to be redeemed with any chartered bank or banks or with any trust company or trust companies in Alberta named for such purpose in the Redemption Notice to the credit of a special account or accounts in trust for the respective holders of such shares, to be paid to them respectively upon surrender to such bank or banks or trust company or trust companies of the certificate or certificates representing the same. Upon such deposit or deposits being made or upon the Redemption Date, whichever is later, the shares in respect of which such deposit has been made shall be and be deemed to be redeemed and the rights of the holders of such shares shall be limited to receiving, without interest, the proportion of the amount so deposited applicable to their respective shares. Any interest allowed on such deposit or deposits shall accrue to the Corporation.
- (g) From and after the Redemption Date, the Blizzard Preferred A Shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of shareholders in respect thereof unless payment of the Redemption Price shall not be duly made by the Corporation, in which event the rights of such holders shall remain unaffected until the Redemption Price has been paid in full.
- (h) Blizzard Preferred A Shares which are redeemed or deemed to be redeemed in accordance with this Section 5 shall, subject to applicable law, be and be deemed to be returned to the authorized but unissued capital of the Corporation.
- (i) Subject to applicable law, the holders of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be entitled to require the Corporation to redeem or purchase at any time all or any of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares registered in the name of such holder on the books of the Corporation by tendering to the Corporation at its registered office the share certificate or certificates representing the Blizzard Preferred A Shares which the registered holder desires to have the Corporation redeem or purchase, together with the request in writing specifying that the registered holder desires to have the said Blizzard Preferred A Shares represented by such certificate or certificates redeemed or purchased by the Corporation, and stating the business day (hereinafter called the "Holder Redemption Date") on which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem or purchase such shares. Upon receipt of a share certificate or certificates representing the Blizzard Preferred A Shares which the registered holder desires to have the Corporation redeem or purchase, together with such a request, the Corporation shall, on the Holder Redemption Date, redeem or purchase such Blizzard Preferred A Shares by paying to the registered holder an amount equivalent to the Redemption Price, less any tax required to be withheld by the Corporation. Such payment (net of applicable withholdings) shall be made by cheque payable at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada. The said Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall be redeemed or purchased on the Holder Redemption Date and from and after that date such shares shall cease to be entitled to dividends, and the holders thereof shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of the holders of Blizzard Preferred A Shares in respect thereof unless payment of the Redemption Price is not paid on the Holder Redemption Date in which event the rights of the holders of the said Blizzard Preferred A Shares shall remain unaffected. If a part only of the Blizzard Preferred A Shares represented by any certificate are to be redeemed, a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation.

SCHEDULE C
BLIZZARD NEW COMMON SHARE PROVISIONS

The unlimited number of Class B common shares ("Blizzard New Common Shares") of Blizzard Energy Inc. (the "Corporation") shall have attached thereto the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

1. Stated Capital

The stated capital of each Blizzard New Common Share shall be set at the amount obtained (expressed as a dollar figure) when the net asset value of Zenas on the Effective Date is divided by the number of Blizzard Common Shares outstanding on Effective Date (the "Blizzard New Common Share Stated Value").

2. Notice and Voting

The holders of Blizzard New Common Shares shall be entitled to notice of, to attend and to one vote per share held at any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation (other than meetings of a class or series of shares of the Corporation other than the Blizzard New Common Shares as such).

3. Dividends

The holders of Blizzard New Common Shares shall be entitled to receive dividends as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation on the Blizzard New Common Shares as a class, subject to prior satisfaction of all preferential rights to dividends attached to the Blizzard Preferred A Shares and to all shares of other classes of shares of the Corporation ranking in priority to the Blizzard New Common Shares in respect of dividends.

4. Liquidation

The holders of Blizzard New Common Shares shall be entitled, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, and subject to prior satisfaction of all preferential rights to return of capital on dissolution attached to the Blizzard Preferred A Shares, to share rateably, together with the holders of Blizzard Shares and of shares of any other class of shares of the Corporation ranking equally with the Blizzard New Common Shares in respect of return of capital on dissolution, in such assets of the Corporation as are available for distribution.

EXHIBIT B

Intentionally deleted in the amended and restated Agreement.

EXHIBIT C

BLIZZARD FAIRNESS OPINIONS

SECURITIES INC.

1210, 335 – 8th Avenue SW
Calgary, Alberta T2P 1C9

June 28, 2005

The Board of Directors of:
Blizzard Energy Inc.
Suite 305, 505 - 3rd Street S.W.
Calgary, Alberta
T2P 3E6

Dear Sirs:

Orion Securities Inc. ("Orion") understands that Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank") and Shiningbank Energy Ltd. have entered into an agreement dated June 6, 2005, as amended and restated June 27, 2005 (the "Arrangement Agreement") with Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") to implement a statutory plan of arrangement (the "Blizzard Arrangement") to acquire all of the outstanding common shares (the "Blizzard Shares") of Blizzard on the basis of 0.0777 of a trust unit of Shiningbank (the "Shiningbank Units") and $0.4097 cash provided to holders of Blizzard Shares ("Blizzard Shareholders") for each Blizzard Share. In addition, the Blizzard Arrangement provides that Blizzard Shareholders will receive, for each Blizzard Share, one-sixth (1/6) of a share (an "ExploreCo Share") of a new exploration-focused company ("ExploreCo") and one warrant for each whole ExploreCo share issued pursuant to the Blizzard Arrangement ("ExploreCo Warrant"), each ExploreCo Warrant entitling the holder to acquire 0.211 of an ExploreCo Share at the current estimated net asset value of ExploreCo being approximately $1.50 for each whole ExploreCo Share for 30 days following the closing of the Blizzard Arrangement. The Blizzard Arrangement contains various terms and conditions and remains subject to shareholder, regulatory and court approval.

The terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement and the Blizzard Arrangement are more fully described in the Information Circular and Proxy Statement of Blizzard (the "Circular") in respect of the special meeting of Blizzard Shareholders to be held on July 28, 2005 to approve the Blizzard Arrangement (the "Special Meeting"). The Blizzard Arrangement is subject to a number of conditions which must be satisfied or waived in order for it to become effective.

To assist the Board of Directors of Blizzard (the "Board") in considering the terms and conditions of the Blizzard Arrangement, and in making its recommendations in respect thereof, the Board has engaged Orion to provide it with financial advice and our opinion (the "Opinion") as to whether the consideration to be received by Blizzard Shareholders under the Blizzard Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Blizzard Shareholders.

ENGAGEMENT OF ORION

Orion was engaged by Blizzard pursuant to an engagement agreement dated April 21, 2005 (the “Engagement Agreement”) to act as a financial advisor to the Board in respect of reviewing, and advising on, the Blizzard Arrangement. The scope of Orion’s engagement includes, but is not limited to, providing financial advice to the Board in respect of the Blizzard Arrangement, communicating to the Board the results of any analysis and review conducted by Orion and preparing this Opinion for delivery to the Board.

Pursuant to the terms of our engagement, we have not been engaged to prepare a formal valuation of any of the assets of Shiningbank, Blizzard, the Shiningbank Units or the Blizzard Shares, or to express an opinion with respect to the form of the Blizzard Arrangement itself and this Opinion should not be construed as such. However, Orion has performed financial analysis, which it considered to be appropriate and necessary in the circumstances to support the conclusions reached in this Opinion.

The Engagement Agreement provides for Orion to receive from Blizzard a fee for the provision of the Opinion, which is not contingent on the outcome of the Blizzard Arrangement, as well as reimbursement of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. The fees received by Orion in connection with the Engagement Agreement are not material to Orion. Blizzard has agreed to indemnify Orion from and against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of professional services rendered to Blizzard by Orion and its personnel under the Engagement Agreement.

QUALIFICATIONS OF ORION

Orion is an independent Canadian full-service, investment banking firm focused on providing advisory and capital market related services to companies in technology and resource-related industries. Orion is a member of the Investment Dealers Association of Canada and a member of the Toronto Stock Exchange and the TSX Venture Exchange. Orion’s services include investment research, trading and distribution of equity securities along with corporate advisory services in the areas of mergers, acquisitions, divestments, restructurings, valuations and fairness opinions.

The opinion expressed herein is Orion’s and has been approved by senior investment banking professionals of Orion, who have been involved in a number of transactions involving the merger, acquisition, divestiture and valuation of publicly traded Canadian issuers and in providing fairness opinions in respect of such transactions.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INTERESTED PARTIES

Neither Orion nor any of its affiliates is an insider, associate or affiliate (as those terms are defined in the Securities Act (Alberta)) of Blizzard, Shiningbank, or any of their respective associates or affiliates (collectively, the “Interested Parties”).

Orion acts as a trader and dealer, both as principal and agent, in major financial markets and, as such, may have and may in the future have positions in the securities of Blizzard, Shiningbank, ExploreCo and/or other Interested Parties and, from time to time, may have executed or may execute transactions on behalf of such companies or other clients for which it may have received or may receive compensation. As an investment dealer, Orion conducts research on securities and may, in the ordinary course of its business, provide research reports and investment advice to its clients on investment matters, including matters with respect to the Blizzard Arrangement, Blizzard, Shiningbank, or other Interested Parties. Orion has previously provided investment banking services to Blizzard and Shiningbank.

There are no understandings, agreements or commitments between Orion and Blizzard and Shiningbank with respect to any future business dealings. Orion may, in the future, in the ordinary course of its business, perform financial advisory or investment banking services for Blizzard, Shiningbank, ExploreCo or any other Interested Party.

SCOPE OF REVIEW CONDUCTED BY ORION

For the purpose of preparing this Opinion, we have recently analyzed publicly available and confidential financial, operational and other information relating to Blizzard and Shiningbank including information derived from discussions with the management of Blizzard. Orion has not conducted any independent investigations to verify the accuracy and completeness thereof.

In carrying out this engagement and in formulating our Opinion, we have reviewed and relied upon, among other things:

In the case of Blizzard:

- i. the Circular dated June 28, 2005 relating to the Special Meeting;
- ii. the Arrangement Agreement, as included in the Circular;
- iii. the audited financial statements of Blizzard as at and for the year ended December 31, 2004;
- iv. the 2004 Annual Report of Blizzard;
- v. the Final Long Form Prospectus of Blizzard dated May 18, 2004;
- vi. the Management Information Circular dated March 30, 2005, relating to the annual meeting of Blizzard Shareholders held on May 10, 2005;
- vii. the Annual Information Form of Blizzard for the year ended December 31, 2004;
- viii. all press releases issued by Blizzard since May 18, 2004;
- ix. the interim reports and the unaudited financial statements of Blizzard as at and for the periods ended June 30, 2004, September 30, 2004 and March 31, 2005;

- x. the annual budget and forecast for 2005 prepared by senior management of Blizzard including, but not limited to, schedules of estimated production and cash flow for the year ending December 31, 2005;
- xi. the evaluation of Blizzard's reserves effective December 31, 2004 prepared by Gilbert Laustsen Jung Associates Ltd. ("GLJ"), independent engineering consultants, (the "GLJ Report");
- xii. schedule of issued and outstanding shares of Blizzard, including a schedule of stock options outstanding;
- xiii. other public information relating to the business, operations, financial performance and stock trading history of Blizzard; and
- xiv. certain other confidential financial, operation, legal, corporate and other information prepared by Blizzard management.

In the case of Shiningbank:

- i. the audited financial statements of Shiningbank as at and for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003;
- ii. the Information Circular and Management Proxy Circulars dated March 21, 2005 and March 29, 2004 relating to the annual and special meetings of unitholders of Shiningbank held on May 10, 2005 and May 12, 2004, respectively;
- iii. the Annual Reports of Shiningbank for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003;
- iv. the Annual Information Forms of Shiningbank for the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003;
- v. all press releases issued by Shiningbank since January 1, 2003;
- vi. the interim reports and the unaudited financial statements of Shiningbank as at and for the periods ended September 30, 2004, June 30, 2004 and March 31, 2004;
- vii. other publicly available information relating to the business, operations, financial performance and stock trading history of Shiningbank; and
- viii. certain statements, schedules, reserve reports and documents provided to Blizzard by senior management of Shiningbank.

In addition to the information detailed above, Orion has further reviewed, considered and relied upon, among other things, the following:

- i. certain publicly available information pertaining to current and expected future oil and natural gas prices and other economic factors;
- ii. publicly available information and certain confidential information possessed by Orion with respect to recent transactions involving the sale of oil and gas companies and properties of a comparable nature and considered to be relevant by Orion in the circumstances;
- iii. publicly available information and certain confidential information possessed by Orion with respect to comparable metrics for publicly traded oil and gas companies and oil and gas royalty trusts; and
- iv. other publicly available information and documents filed by, or on behalf of, Blizzard and Shiningbank in compliance with or intended compliance with applicable securities laws.

We also conducted such other analyses, investigations, research and testing of assumptions as were deemed by us to be appropriate or necessary in the circumstances. We were granted access by Blizzard and Shiningbank to their respective management groups and, to our knowledge, we were not denied any information we requested.

KEY ASSUMPTIONS AND LIMITATIONS

Orion has relied upon, but in accordance with the terms of our engagement, has not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any of the materials, information, representations, reports and discussions referred to above and this Opinion is conditional upon such accuracy and completeness. Our assumptions, the procedures we adopted and the conclusions and opinions reached by us are dependent, in part, upon the accuracy, completeness and fairness of all such facts and information referred to above. In addition, representatives of Blizzard have represented to us that all information provided by or on behalf of Blizzard and in respect of the Blizzard Arrangement is true and correct in all material respects and contains no untrue statement of a material fact concerning Blizzard and the Blizzard Arrangement and does not omit to state a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made.

Our Opinion is rendered on the basis of securities markets, economic and general business and financial conditions prevailing as at the date hereof, and the condition and prospects, financial and otherwise of Blizzard and Shiningbank as they were reflected in the information and documents reviewed by us and as they were represented to us in our discussions with management of Blizzard. In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that there are no undisclosed material facts relating to Blizzard and Shiningbank and their business, operations, capital or future prospects. Any changes therein may affect our Opinion and, although we reserve the right to change or withdraw our Opinion in such event, we disclaim any obligation to advise any person of any change that may come to our attention or to update our Opinion after today.

We have with respect to all legal and tax matters relating to the Blizzard Arrangement and the implementation thereof relied on advice of legal and tax counsel to Blizzard and express no view thereon. The Blizzard Arrangement is subject to a number of conditions outside the control of Blizzard and we have assumed all conditions precedent to the completion of the Blizzard Arrangement can be satisfied in due course and all consents, permissions, exemptions or orders of relevant regulatory authorities will be obtained, without adverse conditions or qualification. In rendering this Opinion we express no view as to the likelihood that the conditions respecting the Blizzard Arrangement will be satisfied or waived or that the Blizzard Arrangement will be implemented within the time frame indicated in the Circular.

We have assumed that substantially all amounts which will be available for distribution to holders of Shiningbank trust units will be distributed to holders of such units. In addition, we have also assumed that no material amount of Shiningbank trust units will be redeemed by Shiningbank in the foreseeable future, that Shiningbank will qualify at all times as a "unit trust" and a "mutual fund trust", both as defined by the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act"), and that the Shiningbank trust units will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered education savings plans, registered retirement income funds and deferred profit sharing plans and will not be foreign property for such plans or for registered pension plans.

We believe that the analyses and factors considered in arriving at our Opinion are not necessarily amenable to partial analysis or summary description and that selecting portions of the analyses and the factors considered, without considering all factors and analyses together, could create a misleading view of the process employed and the conclusions reached. Any attempt to do so could lead to undue emphasis on any particular factor or analysis.

In our overall analysis, and in connection with the preparation of this Opinion, Orion made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Blizzard and Shiningbank. While in the opinion of Orion, the assumptions used in preparing this Opinion are appropriate in the circumstances, some or all of these assumptions may prove to be incorrect.

CONCLUSION AND OPINION

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, Orion is of the opinion that, as of June 28, 2005 the consideration to be received by Blizzard Shareholders pursuant to the Blizzard Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Blizzard Shareholders.

This Opinion may be relied upon by the Board for the purpose of considering the Blizzard Arrangement and its recommendation to the Blizzard Shareholders with respect to the Blizzard Arrangement, but may not be used, nor relied upon, by any other person without our express prior written consent. We consent to the description of, and the duplication and inclusion of this Opinion, in the Circular.

Yours truly,

To the Board of Directors:

Waterous Securities Inc. ("Waterous", "our", "we" or "us") understands that Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard" or the "Company"), Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank" or the "Trust") and Shiningbank Energy Ltd. ("SEL") have entered into an agreement dated as of June 6, 2005, as amended and restated June 27, 2005 (the "Arrangement Agreement"), which provides that the Trust will indirectly acquire a majority of Blizzard's natural gas assets (the "Trust Assets"), and certain Blizzard producing assets and undeveloped land will be transferred to a new exploration focused oil and gas producing company ("ExploreCo"), all pursuant to a court-approved plan of arrangement (the "Plan of Arrangement").

The Plan of Arrangement generally provides, among other things, that the holders of common shares of Blizzard ("Blizzard Shares") will be entitled to receive for each Blizzard Share held, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Arrangement Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement, (a) 0.0777 of a trust unit of Shiningbank ("Trust Units"), (b) $0.4097 cash, (c) one-sixth (1/6) of a common share of ExploreCo (the "ExploreCo Shares"), and (d) one warrant for each whole ExploreCo Share issued pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement (the "ExploreCo Warrants") each ExploreCo Warrant entitling the holder to acquire 0.211 of an ExploreCo Share at an effective exercise price of $1.50 per whole ExploreCo Share.

Blizzard has instructed us to provide an opinion with respect to the value specifically ascribed to the Trust Assets, as represented by the portion of the consideration to be received for each Blizzard Share that is comprised of Trust Units and cash.

For the purposes of this opinion (our analysis, assumptions, methodology and conclusions contained herein), we used $275 million as the value of the consideration for the Trust Assets, with $2.05 as the portion of that value ($275 million less $42 million for assumed debt and other liabilities divided by fully diluted shares outstanding which

The Plan of Arrangement is subject to a number of terms and conditions which must be either satisfied or waived in order for the Plan of Arrangement to become effective, including, among other things, the approval by at least two-thirds of the votes cast by the holders of Blizzard Shares attending in person or represented by proxy at a meeting of the holders of Blizzard Shares to be held to consider and, if appropriate, approve the Plan of Arrangement, and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals and consents.

Engagement of Waterous

The Board of Directors of Blizzard (the "Board of Directors") formally retained Waterous, through an advisory and agency engagement contract dated April 27, 2005 (the "Engagement Contract"), as financial advisor to provide advisory services and assistance to the Company and the Board of Directors. The Engagement Contract provides that Waterous will, if the Board of Directors so requests, prepare and deliver to the Board of Directors an opinion of Waterous as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable under any offer to purchase the Blizzard Shares made to the shareholders of the Company (a "Fairness Opinion"). The Engagement Contract also provides that Waterous is to be paid a fee for its services as financial advisor, including fees that are contingent on the successful completion of a transaction involving Blizzard. In addition, Waterous is to be reimbursed for certain out-of-pocket expenses and is to be indemnified by Blizzard in certain circumstances.

It should be noted that Waterous has not prepared a formal valuation of the Company, the Trust, SEL, Exploreco or any of their respective securities or assets and this Fairness Opinion should not be construed as such. However, Waterous has conducted such financial analyses as it considered to be appropriate and necessary to support the conclusions reached in this Fairness Opinion.

Qualifications of Waterous

Waterous, founded in 1987, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Waterous & Co. Limited, both of which are members of the Waterous & Co. group of companies ("Waterous & Co."). Waterous & Co. is an independent financial services group specializing in global oil and gas divestitures, mergers and acquisitions. The Canadian activities of Waterous & Co. are conducted through Waterous, which is registered with the Ontario Securities Commission.

Waterous & Co. has offices in Buenos Aires, Calgary, Denver, Gibraltar, Houston, London, and Singapore, and has developed one of the leading oil and gas divestiture practices in the world. Since January 2000, the firm has conducted over 140 asset and corporate divestiture assignments in Canada alone, representing over 800 separate properties and packages, for total proceeds of more than $15 billion.

This Fairness Opinion is the opinion of Waterous and the form and content of this Fairness Opinion have been approved for release by a committee of senior professionals of Waterous, each of whom is experienced in merger, acquisition, divestiture and valuation matters.

Relationship With Interested Parties

Neither Waterous nor any of its affiliates is an insider, associate or affiliate (as those terms are defined in the Securities Act (Alberta)) of the Company, the Trust, SEL, Exploreco or any of their respective associates or affiliates. Waterous has not been engaged to provide any financial advisory services to the Company, the Trust, SEL, Exploreco or any of their respective associates or affiliates in the past three years, other than the services provided under the Engagement Contract.

Other than acting as financial advisor to Blizzard pursuant to the Engagement Contract, there are no understandings, agreements or commitments between Waterous and the Company, the Trust, SEL, Exploreco or any of their respective associates or affiliates with respect to any future business dealings. Waterous and its affiliates may, in the future, in the ordinary course of business, perform financial advisory or investment banking services for the Company, the Trust, SEL, Exploreco or any of their respective associates or affiliates.

Scope of Review

For the purpose of preparing this Fairness Opinion, Waterous has reviewed certain publicly available and confidential information relating to Blizzard, including information derived from discussions with Company management. Except as expressly described herein, Waterous has not conducted any independent investigations to verify the accuracy and completeness of such information.

In particular, and in connection with this Fairness Opinion, Waterous has reviewed and relied upon or carried out, among other things, the following:

Transaction documents

1. an executed copy of the Arrangement Agreement;
2. the June 27, 2005 draft of the information circular and proxy statement (the "Circular") prepared by the Company and to be distributed to the holders of Blizzard Shares to assist those holders in their consideration of the Plan of Arrangement;

Blizzard documents

3. the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2004;
4. the unaudited interim report of the Company for the quarter ended March 31, 2005;
5. the annual report of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2004;
6. the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders and Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement of the Company dated March 30, 2005;
7. the Annual Information Form of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2004;
8. the evaluation of Blizzard's oil and gas reserves prepared by Gilbert Laustsen Jung Associates Ltd. dated effective December 31, 2004;
9. the estimate of Blizzard's oil and gas reserve additions based on Blizzard's Q1 2005 drilling program as prepared by Blizzard's management;
10. a summary of Blizzard's inventory of undeveloped land as prepared by Blizzard's management;

11. discussions with senior management of the Company and certain of the Company's advisors;
12. a reconciliation of Blizzard's share capital as at June 27, 2005;
13. a schedule of all of Blizzard's stock options granted and outstanding as at June 27, 2005;
14. a summary of the indebtedness and working capital position of Blizzard, at different points in time, as prepared by Blizzard's management;
15. a summary of the estimated tax pools of Blizzard prepared by Blizzard's management;
16. information compiled by Blizzard and contained in the data room used to facilitate a review of Blizzard by parties which had entered into confidentiality agreements with Blizzard who expressed interest in a transaction involving Blizzard;
17. the employment agreements to which Blizzard is a party and which contain change of control obligations, and summaries thereof, made available to Waterous by Blizzard's management;
18. representations contained in a certificate addressed to Waterous, dated as of June 22, 2005, from senior officers of the Company as to the completeness and accuracy of the information upon which this Fairness Opinion is based;

Market and Industry Information

19. public information relating to the business, operations, financial performance and stock trading history of the Company and other selected public companies considered by us to be comparable to the Company;
20. public information with respect to other transactions of a comparable nature considered by us to be relevant;
21. public information regarding the industry in which the Company operates; and
22. such other corporate, industry and financial market information, investigations and analyses as Waterous considered necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Waterous has not, to the best of its knowledge, been denied access by the Company to any information requested by Waterous.

Market Solicitation Process

Waterous solicited interest from parties known to Waterous that would potentially be interested in a transaction involving Blizzard. A number of parties that expressed an interest in a transaction involving Blizzard entered into confidentiality agreements with Blizzard. Waterous considered the number of parties that were solicited, and the number of parties that entered into confidentiality agreements with Blizzard, as well as their comments as to the nature of the Company's assets and their comments as to the value of the Company, in reaching the conclusions set forth in this Fairness Opinion.

Assumptions and Limitations

Waterous has assumed and relied upon the completeness, accuracy and fair representation of all financial and other information, data, advice, opinions and representations (collectively, the "Information") obtained by Waterous from public sources or provided to us by Blizzard, its consultants and advisors or otherwise pursuant to our engagement, and this Fairness Opinion is conditional upon such completeness, accuracy and fairness. Subject to the exercise of professional judgement and except as expressly described herein, Waterous has not attempted to verify independently the accuracy or completeness of any of the Information. With respect to operating and financial forecasts and budgets provided to us and relied upon in our analysis, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the most reasonable assumptions, estimates and judgements of the management of Blizzard.

We have, with respect to all legal and tax matters relating to the Plan of Arrangement and the implementation thereof, relied upon the advice of legal and tax counsel, including, specifically, as disclosed in the Circular and discussed with us, and we do not express any opinion thereon. Without limitation, we have relied upon the advice of such counsel with respect to the tax consequences to Blizzard and the holders of Blizzard Shares with respect to the various taxable events which will occur with respect to the Plan of Arrangement.

This Fairness Opinion is rendered on the basis of securities market, economic and general business and financial conditions prevailing as at the date hereof and the condition and prospects, financial and otherwise, of the Company as reflected in the Information and as represented to Waterous in discussions with the management of Blizzard, the Trust, SEL and their respective consultants or advisors. In its analyses, and in preparing this Fairness Opinion, Waterous made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, market and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of any party involved in the Plan of Arrangement.

Senior management of Blizzard represented to Waterous, in a certificate addressed to Waterous and dated as of June 22, 2005, that, among other things, (i) the Information in respect of Blizzard, at the various times the Information in respect of Blizzard was provided to Waterous, was complete, true and correct in all material respects, and did not, and does not, contain any untrue statement of a material fact in respect of Blizzard, on a consolidated basis, and did not, and does not, omit to state a material fact in respect of Blizzard, on a consolidated basis, necessary to make the Information in respect of Blizzard not misleading in light of the circumstances under which the Information was made or provided; and (ii) since the date the Information in respect of Blizzard was provided, there has been no material change, financial or otherwise, in the position of Blizzard, or in its financial condition, assets, liabilities (contingent or otherwise), business, operations or prospects and no material change has occurred which would render the Information in respect of Blizzard provided by or on behalf of Blizzard, untrue or misleading in any material respect and which would have, or which would reasonably be expected to have, a material effect on any financial advice or opinions provided by Waterous to the Board of Directors in relation to the Plan of Arrangement.

In preparing this Fairness Opinion, Waterous has made several assumptions, including that all of the conditions required to implement the Plan of Arrangement will be met and that the Plan of Arrangement will be completed in a timely manner.

All figures expressed in this Fairness Opinion are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.

This Fairness Opinion is given as of the date hereof and Waterous disclaims any undertaking or obligation to: (i) advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting this Fairness Opinion which may come, or be brought, to Waterous' attention after the date hereof; or (ii) update this Fairness Opinion after the date hereof. Without limiting or qualifying the foregoing, in the event that there is any material change in any fact or matter affecting this Fairness Opinion after the date hereof, Waterous reserves the right to change, modify or withdraw this Fairness Opinion.

Waterous believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analyses or the factors considered by it, without considering all factors and analyses together, could create a misleading view of the process underlying this Fairness Opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and does not lend itself to partial analysis or summary description. Any attempt to do so could lead to undue emphasis on any particular factor or analysis. This Fairness Opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to enter into the Arrangement Agreement and is not to be construed as a recommendation to any holder of Blizzard Shares as to whether to vote its Blizzard Shares in favour of the Plan of Arrangement.

Fairness Conclusion

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and such other matters as we considered relevant, Waterous is of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the amount of $275 million as the value of the consideration for the Trust Assets, with $2.05 as the portion of that value ($275 million less $42 million for assumed debt and other liabilities divided by fully diluted shares outstanding which consists of 108,774,500 Blizzard shares outstanding plus 4,572,000 Blizzard Shares issuable pursuant to currently outstanding Blizzard Options plus 396,000 Blizzard Shares issuable pursuant to currently outstanding Blizzard Warrants) to be received on account of the Trust Assets by each holder of Blizzard Shares for each Blizzard Share held, is fair, from a financial point of view.

This Fairness Opinion has been provided for the exclusive use of the Board of Directors of Blizzard and may not be referred to, summarized, circulated, publicized or reproduced by Blizzard or disclosed to, used or relied upon by any other party without the express prior written consent of Waterous. The Board of Directors of Blizzard may rely on this Fairness Opinion for the purposes of considering the Plan of Arrangement and making a recommendation to the holders of Blizzard Shares with respect to the Plan of Arrangement. Waterous consents to the duplication and inclusion of this Fairness Opinion in the Circular.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) Waterous Securities Inc.

NOTICE TO READER

As at the date hereof, Zenas has not carried on any active business. Pursuant to the Arrangement, Zenas will acquire the Zenas Assets. Unless otherwise indicated, the disclosure in this Appendix has been prepared assuming that the Arrangement has been effected and that Zenas has acquired the Zenas Assets. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized words and phrases used in this Appendix have the meaning given to such words and phrases under the headings "Glossary of Terms" and "Abbreviations and Conversions" contained in the Information Circular.

INFORMATION CONCERNING ZENAS

General

Zenas was incorporated under the ABCA on June 28, 2005, as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Blizzard, under the name "Zenas Energy Corp". Zenas has not carried on any active business since incorporation and Zenas does not currently have any subsidiaries. Upon completion of the Arrangement, Zenas Finco will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Zenas.

The registered office of Zenas is located at 4500, 855 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4K7 and its head office will be located at Suite 305, 505 - 3rd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3E6.

Pursuant to the Arrangement, Blizzard Shareholders will receive, for each Blizzard Share held, 0.0777 of a Trust Unit, $0.4097 cash, one-sixth (1/6) of a Zenas Common Share and one Zenas Arrangement Warrant for each whole Zenas Common Share issued pursuant to the Arrangement, each Zenas Arrangement Warrant entitling the holder to acquire, in accordance with the Arrangement, 0.211 of a Zenas Common Share at an effective exercise price of $1.50 per whole Zenas Common Share (Zenas' current estimated net asset value per Zenas Common Share after giving effect to the Arrangement).

Zenas Following Completion of the Arrangement

Following the completion of the Arrangement, Zenas will be engaged in the exploration for, and the acquisition, development and production of, petroleum and natural gas reserves primarily in the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia. As part of the Arrangement, Zenas will receive (with an effective date of August 1, 2005) certain of Blizzard's producing assets and undeveloped lands totaling approximately 16,355 net acres in Alberta and Northeastern British Columbia. These interests are expected to produce approximately 500 boe/d in 2005 based on an initial capital program of $13 million to $14 million. As of June 30, 2005, Zenas is expected to have Proved plus Probable Reserves of 837 Mboe and production of approximately 400 boe/d. As of June 30, 2005, Zenas is expected to hold an inventory of approximately 20 drilling locations. Zenas will assume all abandonment, reclamation environmental obligations in respect of the Zenas Assets conveyed to it pursuant to the Arrangement. See "Statements of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information" in this Appendix.

The unaudited statements of net operating revenue for the Zenas Assets for the three months ended March 31, 2005, as reviewed by Ernst & Young LLP, and the audited statements of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets for each of the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, as audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, are contained in Schedule A to this Appendix. The unaudited pro forma financial statements of Zenas as at and for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 and related notes are contained in Schedule B to this Appendix. The following information should be read in conjunction with the statements of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets contained in Schedule A to this Appendix, including the notes thereto. These statements are summarized in the following table:

($000's)	Three Months Ended	Years Ended December 31,

Note:

- (1) Transportation expenses include all costs associated with the delivery of natural gas to the point where title to the product transfers to a third party.

The proposed Zenas management team, after giving effect to the Arrangement, will include John Rooney as President and Chief Executive Officer, Jim Artindale as Chairman, Mike Machalski as Chief Operating Officer and Hal Metcalfe as Chief Financial Officer and will be comprised of many of the employees that have contributed to the growth of Blizzard to date. The proposed Zenas board of directors, after giving effect to the Arrangement, will include John Rooney, Jim Artindale, Larry Evans, Dave Mackenzie, George Watson, Frank Guidolin, Doug Manner and Bob Rooney. See "Directors and Officers" in this Appendix.

Zenas will become a "reporting issuer" in certain Canadian jurisdictions and will become subject to the informational reporting requirements under the securities laws of such jurisdictions as a result of the Arrangement. Zenas has made application for the listing of the Zenas Common Shares to be issued in connection with the Arrangement. Listing of the Zenas Common Shares will be subject to Zenas meeting all of the original listing requirements of the TSX. If Zenas is not able to meet the original listing requirements of the TSX, then Zenas will seek to list the Zenas Common Shares on another Canadian stock exchange. Conditional listing approval has not been obtained and there can be no assurance that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on the TSX or any other stock exchange.

Following the completion of the Arrangement and the Zenas Private Placement, all of the Zenas Common Shares and Zenas Arrangement Warrants will be owned by the Blizzard Shareholders and the placees under the Zenas Private Placement. See "The Arrangement - Background to and Reasons for the Arrangement", "Effect Of The Arrangement - Details of the Arrangement", "Effect of the Arrangement - Interests of Certain Persons or Companies in the Arrangement" and "Other Matters Considered in the Arrangement Resolution - Approval of Zenas Private Placement" in the Information Circular.

Stated Business Objectives

The business objective of Zenas is to create a significant return to the investment made by its shareholders by identifying, securing and developing high quality assets within the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin.

Initially, Zenas will focus on the exploration and development potential in the Grande Prairie area and on the potential contained in the farm-in arrangement Zenas will have with a senior Canadian oil and gas producer in respect of the Northeastern British Columbia property following completion of the Arrangement. In addition, Zenas will actively assess other opportunities within the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin with an aim to add to Zenas's portfolio of opportunities.

In general, Zenas will follow the same disciplined methodology that was employed by Blizzard when evaluating new opportunities, which includes an assessment of the potential of the opportunity, the expected returns versus the cost of capital, and the ability of our professional staff to properly evaluate and manage the project.

Competitive Conditions

Companies operating in the petroleum industry must manage risks, which are beyond the direct control of company personnel. Among these risks are those associated with exploration, environmental damage, commodity prices, foreign exchange rates and interest rates.

The oil and natural gas industry is intensely competitive and Zenas will be required to compete with a substantial number of other corporations, which may have greater technical or financial resources. However, management believes that Zenas will be able to explore and develop new production and reserves with the objective of increasing its cash flow and reserve base.

Zenas will attempt to enhance its competitive position by operating in areas where its technical personnel are able to reduce some of the risks associated with exploration, production and marketing because they are familiar with the area.

See "Risk Factors" in this Appendix.

PROPERTIES OF ZENAS

The following is a description of Zenas's principal oil and natural gas properties on production or under development as at December 31, 2004 and June 30, 2005, respectively. Unless otherwise specified, gross and net acres and well count information are as at December 31, 2004 and June 30, 2005. Reserve amounts are stated, before deduction of royalties, at December 31, 2004 and June 30, 2005, respectively, based on forecast cost and price assumptions (gross) as evaluated in the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report, respectively (see "Statements of Reserves Data and Other Oil and Gas Information" in this Appendix). Information in respect of current production is average production, net to Zenas, for the month of May 2005, except where otherwise indicated.

The estimates of reserves and future net revenue for individual properties may not reflect the same confidence level as estimates of reserves and future net revenue for all properties, due to the effects of aggregation.

Grande Prairie, Alberta

Upon completion of the Arrangement, Zenas's producing property and initial development activities will be focused in the Grande Prairie area of Northwestern Alberta. Zenas plans to drill four to eight development wells in the Grande Prairie area before the end of 2005.

Northeastern British Columbia

Zenas will spend the month of August completing an evaluation, at the Northeastern British Columbia property, of a three-dimensional seismic program completed by the operator of the property this past winter. Following completion of the Arrangement, Zenas will have until August 31, 2005 to exercise the option granted to Blizzard under the Sierra Farm-in Agreement (as defined under "Information Concerning Blizzard – Development of Business" in Appendix F to the Information Circular) to commit to incur a minimum of $20.0 million in earning drilling expenditures on or before April 30, 2006 at Northeastern British Columbia. Zenas will acquire the option granted to Blizzard pursuant to the Zenas Conveyance Agreement. Zenas intends to elect to exercise such option and will commit to spend the entire $20.0 million.

STATEMENTS OF RESERVES DATA AND OTHER OIL AND GAS INFORMATION

The reserves data set forth below (the "Reserves Data") is based upon evaluations by GLJ of the reserves associated with the Zenas Assets in the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report, respectively. The Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report have each been prepared in accordance with the standards contained in the COGE Handbook and the reserves definitions contained in NI 51-101 and the COGE Handbook. The Reserves Data summarizes the oil, liquids and natural gas reserves of Zenas and the net present values of future net revenue for these reserves using constant prices and costs and forecast prices and costs as at December 31, 2004 and June 30, 2005, respectively. The Reserves Data conforms with the requirements of NI 51-101. Blizzard engaged GLJ to provide evaluations of Proved Reserves and Proved plus Probable Reserves. No attempt was made to evaluate possible reserves for the Zenas Assets.

All evaluations of future revenue are stated after the deduction of future income tax expenses (unless otherwise noted in the tables) royalties, development costs, production costs and well abandonment costs but before consideration of indirect costs such as administrative, overhead and other miscellaneous expenses. The estimated future net revenue contained in the following tables does not necessarily represent the fair market value of Zenas's reserves. There is no assurance that the forecast price and cost assumptions contained in the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report, respectively, will be attained and variances could be material. Other assumptions and qualifications relating to costs and other matters are summarized in the notes to the following tables. The recovery and reserves estimates for the Zenas Assets described herein are estimates only. The actual reserves for the Zenas Assets may be greater or less than those calculated.

Disclosure provided in this Appendix in respect of boe may be misleading, particularly if used in isolation. A boe conversion ratio of 6Mcf: 1bbl is based on an energy equivalency method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead.

In the following reserves disclosure, columns may not add due to rounding.

The Reports on Reserves Data by GLJ in Form 51-101F2 and the Reports of Management and Directors on Oil and Gas Disclosure in Form 51-101F3 are included in Schedule D to this Appendix.

All of Zenas's reserves are in Canada and, specifically, in the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia. Zenas does not have any heavy oil reserves.

Zenas 2004 Engineering Report

The statement of reserves data and other oil and gas information set forth below (the "2004 Statement") is dated June 28, 2005. The effective date of the 2004 Statement is December 31, 2004 and the preparation date of the 2004 Statement is June 20, 2005.

Notes:

(1) Amounts are presented on a before tax basis only as applicable taxes for the year ended December 31, 2004 were applied at the corporate level and were not apportioned to individual properties. As a result, after tax amounts are not available in respect of the Zenas Assets.

(2) "Gross" or "gross" means:

- (a) in relation to the interest in production or reserves to be acquired by Zenas pursuant to the Arrangement, the gross reserves to be acquired, which will be the working interest (operating or non-operating) share, before deduction of royalties and without including any royalty interests;
- (b) in relation to wells, the total number of wells in which Zenas will acquire an interest pursuant to the Arrangement; and
- (c) in relation to properties, the total area of properties in which Zenas will acquire an interest pursuant to the Arrangement;

"Net" or "net" means:

- (a) in relation to the interest in production or reserves to be acquired by Zenas pursuant to the Arrangement, the working interest (operating or non-operating) share after deduction of royalty obligations, plus the royalty interests in production or reserves, to be acquired;

- (b) in relation to the interest in wells Zenas will acquire pursuant to the Arrangement, the number of wells obtained by aggregating the working interest Zenas will acquire in each of the gross wells; and
- (c) in relation to the interest in a property to be acquired by Zenas pursuant to the Arrangement, the total area in which Zenas will acquire an interest multiplied by the working interest to be acquired by Zenas;

"reserves" are the estimated remaining quantities of oil and natural gas and related substances anticipated to be recoverable from known accumulations, from a given date forward, based on: analysis of drilling, geological, geophysical and engineering data; the use of established technology; and specified economic conditions, which are generally accepted as being reasonable. Reserves are classified according to the degree of certainty associated with the estimates.

"Proved plus Probable Reserves" means the aggregate of Proved Reserves and Probable Reserves, before deduction of royalties.

"Proved Reserves" are those reserves that can be estimated with a high degree of certainty to be recoverable. It is likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will exceed the estimated Proved Reserves. At least a 90% probability that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the estimated Proved Reserves is the targeted level of certainty.

"Probable Reserves" are those additional reserves that are less certain to be recovered than Proved Reserves. It is equally likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will be greater or less than the sum of the estimated Proved plus Probable Reserves. At least a 50% probability that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the sum of the estimated Proved plus Probable Reserves is the targeted level of certainty.

"Developed Reserves" are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from existing wells and installed facilities or, if facilities have not been installed, that would involve a low expenditure (e.g. when compared to the cost of drilling a well) to put the reserves on production. The developed category may be subdivided into producing and non-producing.

"Developed Producing Reserves" are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from completion intervals open at the time of the estimate. These reserves may be currently producing or, if shut-in, they must have previously been on production, and the date of resumption of production must be known with reasonable certainty.

"Developed Non-Producing Reserves" are those reserves that either have not been on production, or have previously been on production, but are shut-in, and the date of resumption of production is unknown.

"Undeveloped Reserves" are those reserves expected to be recovered from known accumulations where a significant expenditure (e.g., when compared to the cost of drilling a well) is required to render them capable of production. They must fully meet the requirements of the reserves classification (proved, probable, possible) to which they are assigned.

- (3) The forecast cost and price assumptions assume the continuance of current laws and regulations and increases in wellhead selling prices, and take into account inflation with respect to future operating and capital costs. In the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report, operating costs are assumed to escalate at 2% per annum. Oil and natural gas base case prices as forecast by GLJ effective January 1, 2005 are as follows:

- (4) The constant price assumptions assume the continuance of current laws, regulations and operating costs in effect on the date of the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report. Product prices were not escalated beyond December 31, 2004. In addition, operating and capital costs have not been increased on an inflationary basis.
- (5) Effective on January 1, 1995, the ARTC rate ranges from a maximum of 75% of $2,000,000 when the royalty tax credit reference is below $100/m³ to a minimum of 25% of $2,000,000 when the royalty tax credit reference is above $210/m³.
- (6) The extent and character of all factual data supplied to GLJ were accepted by GLJ as represented. The oil and natural gas reserve calculations and any projections upon which the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report is based were determined in accordance with generally accepted evaluation practices. No field inspection was conducted. Salvage values for facilities and lease reclamation costs have not been included in the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report (well abandonment costs associated with existing and future reserves wells have been included).
- (7) The royalties deducted from the reserves are based on the percentage royalty calculated by applying the applicable royalty rate or formula. In the case of Crown sliding scale royalties which are dependent on selling prices, the price forecasts for the individual properties in question have been employed.

Reconciliation of Reserves

The acquisition of the Zenas Assets pursuant to the Arrangement will be the initial property acquisition by Zenas. Zenas was not incorporated until June 28, 2005 and, prior to the completion of the Arrangement, will not hold any interest in oil and/or natural gas properties. See "Information Concerning Zenas – Zenas Following Completion of the Arrangement" in this Appendix. Consequently, it is not possible to provide reconciliation of changes in reserves and future net revenue from estimates for the preceding financial year because no reserves were attributable to Zenas during that year.

Zenas 2005 Engineering Report

The statement of reserves data and other oil and gas information set forth below (the "2005 Statement") is dated June 28, 2005. The effective date of the 2005 Statement is June 30, 2005 and the preparation date of the 2005 Statement is June 20, 2005.

Notes:

- (1) "Gross" or "gross" means:
- (a) in relation to the interest in production or reserves to be acquired by Zenas pursuant to the Arrangement, the gross reserves to be acquired, which will be the working interest (operating or non-operating) share, before deduction of royalties and without including any royalty interests;
 - (b) in relation to wells, the total number of wells in which Zenas will acquire an interest pursuant to the Arrangement; and
 - (c) in relation to properties, the total area of properties in which Zenas will acquire an interest pursuant to the Arrangement;
- "Net" or "net" means:
- (a) in relation to the interest in production or reserves to be acquired by Zenas pursuant to the Arrangement, the working interest (operating or non-operating) share after deduction of royalty obligations, plus the royalty interests in production or reserves, to be acquired;
 - (b) in relation to the interest in wells Zenas will acquire pursuant to the Arrangement, the number of wells obtained by aggregating the working interest Zenas will acquire in each of the gross wells; and
 - (c) in relation to the interest in a property to be acquired by Zenas pursuant to the Arrangement, the total area in which Zenas will acquire an interest multiplied by the working interest to be acquired by Zenas;

"reserves" are the estimated remaining quantities of oil and natural gas and related substances anticipated to be recoverable from known accumulations, from a given date forward, based on: analysis of drilling, geological, geophysical and engineering data; the use of established technology; and specified economic conditions, which are generally accepted as being reasonable. Reserves are classified according to the degree of certainty associated with the estimates.

"Proved plus Probable Reserves" means the aggregate of Proved Reserves and Probable Reserves, before deduction of royalties.

"Proved Reserves" are those reserves that can be estimated with a high degree of certainty to be recoverable. It is likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will exceed the estimated Proved Reserves. At least a 90% probability that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the estimated Proved Reserves is the targeted level of certainty.

"Probable Reserves" are those additional reserves that are less certain to be recovered than Proved Reserves. It is equally likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will be greater or less than the sum of the estimated Proved plus Probable Reserves. At least a 50% probability that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the sum of the estimated Proved plus Probable Reserves is the targeted level of certainty.

"Developed Reserves" are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from existing wells and installed facilities or, if facilities have not been installed, that would involve a low expenditure (e.g. when compared to the cost of drilling a well) to put the reserves on production. The developed category may be subdivided into producing and non-producing.

"Developed Producing Reserves" are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from completion intervals open at the time of the estimate. These reserves may be currently producing or, if shut-in, they must have previously been on production, and the date of resumption of production must be known with reasonable certainty.

"Developed Non-Producing Reserves" are those reserves that either have not been on production, or have previously been on production, but are shut-in, and the date of resumption of production is unknown.

"Undeveloped Reserves" are those reserves expected to be recovered from known accumulations where a significant expenditure (e.g., when compared to the cost of drilling a well) is required to render them capable of production. They must fully meet the requirements of the reserves classification (proved, probable, possible) to which they are assigned.

- (2) The forecast cost and price assumptions assume the continuance of current laws and regulations and increases in wellhead selling prices, and take into account inflation with respect to future operating and capital costs. In the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report, operating costs are assumed to escalate at 2% per annum. Oil and natural gas base case prices as forecast by GLJ effective April 1, 2005 are as follows:

- (3) The constant price assumptions assume the continuance of current laws, regulations and operating costs in effect on the date of the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report. Product prices were not escalated beyond March 31, 2005. In addition, operating and capital costs have not been increased on an inflationary basis.
- (4) Effective on January 1, 1995, the ARTC rate ranges from a maximum of 75% of $2,000,000 when the royalty tax credit reference is below $100/m³ to a minimum of 25% of $2,000,000 when the royalty tax credit reference is above $210/m³.
- (5) The extent and character of all factual data supplied to GLJ were accepted by GLJ as represented. The oil and natural gas reserve calculations and any projections upon which the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report is based were determined in accordance with generally accepted evaluation practices. No field inspection was conducted. Salvage values for facilities and lease reclamation costs have not been included in the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report (well abandonment costs associated with existing and future reserves wells have been included).
- (6) The royalties deducted from the reserves are based on the percentage royalty calculated by applying the applicable royalty rate or formula. In the case of Crown sliding scale royalties which are dependent on selling prices, the price forecasts for the individual properties in question have been employed.

Reconciliation of Reserves

The acquisition of the Zenas Assets pursuant to the Arrangement will be the initial property acquisition by Zenas.

Zenas was not incorporated until June 28, 2005 and, prior to the completion of the Arrangement, will not hold any interest in oil and/or natural gas properties. See "Information Concerning Zenas – Zenas Following Completion of the Arrangement" in this Appendix. Consequently, it is not possible to provide reconciliation of changes in reserves and future net revenue from estimates for the preceding financial year because no reserves were attributable to Zenas during that year.

Additional Information Relating to Reserves Data

Undeveloped Reserves

Based on the evaluation carried out by GLJ and reflected in the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report, Zenas attributed no volumes of oil, natural gas or NGL to Proved Undeveloped Reserves and 229 MMcf of natural gas, 97 Mbbls of light and medium oil and 4 Mbbls of NGL to Probable Undeveloped Reserves for the period ended June 30, 2005.

All of Zenas's Probable Undeveloped Reserves are attributable to the Grande Prairie and Northeastern British Columbia properties. Zenas expects to develop a significant portion of these Undeveloped Reserves in the fourth quarter of 2005.

Significant Factors or Uncertainties

The process of evaluating reserves is inherently complex. It requires significant judgments and decisions based on available geological, geophysical, engineering and economic data. These estimates may change substantially as additional data from ongoing development activities and production performance becomes available and as economic conditions impacting oil and gas prices and costs change. The reserves estimates contained herein are based on current production forecasts, geological evaluation, engineering data, prices and economic conditions. The reserves associated with the Zenas Assets have been evaluated by GLJ, an independent engineering firm. These factors and assumptions include among others: (i) historical production in the area compared with production rates from analogous producing areas; (ii) initial production rates; (iii) production decline rates; (iv) ultimate recovery of reserves; (v) success of future development activities; (vi) marketability of production; (vii) effects of government regulations; and (viii) other government levies imposed over the life of the reserves.

As circumstances change and additional data becomes available, reserves estimates also change. Estimates are reviewed and revised, either upward or downward, as warranted by the new information. Revisions are often required due to changes in well performance, prices, economic conditions and governmental restrictions. Revisions to reserves estimates can arise from changes in year-end prices, reservoir performance and geologic conditions or production. These revisions can be either positive or negative.

The evaluated oil and gas properties to be acquired by Zenas pursuant to the Arrangement are more difficult to evaluate than mere development properties due to the lack of industry-wide production history.

Future Development Costs

The following table describes Zenas's forecast for future development costs for the reserves categories noted below, calculated using no discount and a 10% discount:

Year	Constant Prices and Costs (M$)	Forecast Prices and Costs (M$)
	Proved Reserves	Proved Reserves	Proved Plus Probable Reserves
2005	100	100	100
2006	-	-	-
2007	-	-	-
2008	-	-	-
2009	-	-	-
Remainder	-	-	-
Total (Undiscounted).....	100	100	100
Total (Discounted at 10%).....	98	98	98

Future development costs are capital expenditures which will be required in the future for Zenas to convert proved Undeveloped Reserves and Probable Reserves to proved Developed Producing Reserves.

On an ongoing basis, Zenas currently intends to use internally generated cash flow from operations, debt (where deemed appropriate) and new equity issues (if available on favourable terms) to finance its capital expenditure program. When financing corporate acquisitions, Zenas may also assume certain future liabilities.

Other Oil and Gas Information

Landholdings

The following table sets forth the developed and undeveloped landholdings in which Zenas is expected to have a working interest upon completion of the Arrangement:

Location	Undeveloped ⁽¹⁾ (acres)		Developed (acres)		Total ⁽¹⁾ (acres)
	Gross	Net	Gross	Net	Gross	Net
Alberta	12,000	8,592	4,320	3,648	16,320	12,240
British Columbia	15,525	7,763	4,725	2,363	20,250	10,125
Total	27,525	16,355	9,045	6,011	36,570	22,365

Note:

- (1) Excludes farm-out acreage in Northeastern British Columbia totaling 140,337 (70,168 net).

Oil and Natural Gas Wells

The following table sets forth the number and status of wells in which Zenas is expected to have a working interest upon completion of the Arrangement which are producing or which Zenas considers to be capable of production:

Location	Producing Wells				Shut-in Wells ⁽¹⁾
	Oil		Natural Gas		Oil		Natural Gas
	Gross	Net	Gross	Net	Gross	Net	Gross	Net
Alberta	10	9.5	6	3.75	3	3	3	2
British Columbia	0	0	2	1	0	0	4	2
Total	10	9.5	8	4.75	3	3	7	4

Note:

- (1) "Shut-in" wells refers to wells that have encountered and are capable of producing crude oil or natural gas but which are not producing due to lack of available transportation facilities, available markets or other reasons. Shut-in wells in which Zenas has an interest are located no further than five kilometers from existing pipelines and have been non-producing since Blizzard acquired the Grande Prairie and Northeastern British Columbia properties.

Properties With No Attributable Reserves

The undeveloped land position with respect to the Zenas Assets as at the date hereof consisted of:

	Gross Acres	Net Acres
Alberta	12,000	8,592
British Columbia	15,525	7,763
Total	27,525	16,355

Forward Contracts

Zenas does not have any forward sales contracts in place.

Abandonment and Reclamation Costs

The following table discloses the abandonment and reclamation costs of the Zenas Assets anticipated as at the date hereof, calculated both undiscounted and at a 10% discount rate with a portion thereof anticipated to be paid in each of the next three years:

	Abandonment and Reclamation Costs Escalated at 1.5-2.0% Undiscounted (M$)	Abandonment and Reclamation Costs Escalated at 1.5-2.0% Discounted at 10% (M$)
Current total liability.....	902	597
Anticipated to be paid in 2005.....	-	-
Anticipated to be paid in 2006.....	-	-
Anticipated to be paid in 2007.....	-	-

Zenas will be liable for its share of ongoing environmental obligations and for the ultimate reclamation of the properties held by it upon abandonment. Ongoing environmental obligations are expected to be funded out of cash flow.

Blizzard estimated the costs to abandon and reclaim all Zenas's shut-in and producing wells, facilities, gas plants, pipelines, batteries and satellites. Blizzard's model for estimating the amount and timing of future abandonment and reclamation expenditures was done on an operating area level. Estimated expenditures for each operating area are based on the AEUB methodology which details the cost of abandonment and reclamation in each specific geographic region. Each region was assigned an average cost per well to abandon and reclaim the wells in that area. Abandonment and reclamation costs have been estimated over approximately a 12 year period. As at the Effective Date, Zenas is expected to assume the liability of reclamation and abandonment costs in respect of 28 gross (21.3 net) wells and associated facilities comprising the Zenas Assets.

Tax Horizon

The income taxes deducted in the calculation of future net revenue above assumes a blow-down scenario whereby Zenas produces out its existing reserves. Under this scenario, Zenas is not taxable in 2005.

Blizzard forecasted that Zenas's tax horizon assuming a continuing business model whereby it reinvests cash flow at historic capital efficiencies in order to achieve maximum production and reserve growth. Under this scenario, Zenas will not be in a taxable position. This result is dependent upon commodity prices and capital spending levels.

Costs Incurred

The following table outlines the costs incurred by Blizzard with respect to the Zenas Assets during the year ended December 31, 2004 and the three months ended March 31, 2005 for acquisitions, dispositions and capital expenditures:

Nature of Cost	Amount (M$)
	December 31, 2004	March 31, 2005
Property Acquisition Costs
Proved	16,667	-
Unproved	-	-
Exploration Costs	-	12,560
Development Costs	-	3,492
Total	16,667	16,052

Note:

- (1) The three month period ended March 31, 2005 is the latest period for which information regarding costs incurred in respect of the Zenas Assets is available.

Exploration and Development Activities

Blizzard did not participate in any exploration or development activities in respect of the Zenas Assets during the financial year ended December 31, 2004. The following table summarizes the results of exploration and development activities in respect of the Zenas Assets during the period ended June 28, 2005:

	Gross	Net

Note:

- (1) The three-month period ended March 31, 2005 is the latest period for which information regarding average daily production volumes, prices, royalties, production costs and netbacks in respect of the Grande Prairie property is available.

The production from the Zenas Assets for the year ended December 31, 2004 consisted of 68% light quality crude oil (38°API or greater), 24% natural gas and 8% NGL.

The production from the Zenas Assets for the three month period ended March 31, 2005 consisted of 66% light quality crude oil (38°API or greater), 38% natural gas and 6% NGL.

Marketing

Zenas will be subject to commodity price risks inherent in the products it produces and sells. Zenas's marketing philosophy will be to monetize products as and when they are produced. The board of directors of Zenas may authorize management to hedge its production to provide downside commodity price protection through the use of financial derivative structures and short term physical contracts. Zenas's management team plans to leave production unhedged but will consider this alternative when evaluating funding requirements for Zenas's capital program.

SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION AND MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

General

Included at Schedules A to C of this Appendix are an unaudited statement of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets for the three months ended March 31, 2005, audited statements of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, unaudited pro forma financial statements of Zenas, after giving effect to the acquisition of the Zenas Assets pursuant to the Arrangement, as at and for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004, and an audited balance sheet of Zenas as at June 28, 2005.

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and the related notes contained in Schedules A to C of this Appendix.

Zenas's activities relate to oil and natural gas exploration and development. Zenas follows the "full-cost" method of accounting for oil and natural gas operations whereby all exploration costs are capitalized until commencement of production. The costs are then amortized on a unit of production basis. The following tables are a summary of selected financial information for the Zenas Assets for the periods indicated.

Production Information

The following table summarizes the historical production from the Zenas Assets, before deduction of royalties, during the periods indicated:

Financial Information

Annual Information

The statements of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets for each of the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 have been audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and are contained in Schedule A to this Appendix. The following information should be read in conjunction with the statements of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets including the notes thereto contained in Schedule A to this Appendix and the unaudited pro forma statement of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets for the year ended December 31, 2004 contained in Schedule B to this Appendix. The statements are summarized in the following table:

Notes:

- (1) Transportation expenses include all costs associated with the delivery of natural gas and crude oil to the point where title to the product transfers to a third party.
- (2) Net operating revenue is a non-GAAP measure and is before general and administrative costs, interest, income or capital taxes or any provision related to depletion, depreciation and amortization and accretion.

Quarterly Information

The unaudited statement of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets for the three months ended March 31, 2005 has been reviewed by Ernst & Young LLP and is contained in Schedule A to this Appendix. The following information should be read in conjunction with the unaudited statement of net operating revenue including the notes thereto contained in Schedule A to this Appendix and the unaudited pro forma balance sheet and statement of net operating revenue of the Zenas Assets for the three months ended March 31, 2005 contained in Schedule B to this Appendix. The statements are summarized in the following table:

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Zenas's need for capital will be both short-term and long-term in nature. Short-term working capital will be required to finance accounts receivable, drilling deposits and other similar short-term assets, while the acquisition and development of oil and natural gas properties requires large amounts of long-term capital. There are essentially four methods of financing the capital needs of Zenas - internally generated cash flow, long-term debt, equity and farm-out arrangements.

Zenas expects to have a revolving demand loan facility of approximately $8.8 million in place prior to the Effective Date. Zenas will prudently use its bank credit facility to finance its operations as required. It is expected that this will be the case, particularly in respect of financing its exploration and development program.

In respect of equity financings, there is an active market for this form of financing for Canadian oil and natural gas companies. Zenas anticipates that it will make use of this form of financing for any significant expansion in its capital programs.

All of Zenas's expenditures are subject to the effects of inflation and prices received for the product sold are not readily adjustable to cover any increase in expenses resulting from inflation. Zenas has no control over government intervention or taxation levels in the oil and natural gas industry.

As at March 31, 2005, the recorded liability for asset retirement obligations for the Zenas Assets was approximately $596,690. Zenas intends to review the asset retirement costs annually. The liability is the fair value of the estimated future costs to abandon and reclaim Zenas Assets discounted at a credit adjusted risk free rate of 7%. The liability is adjusted each reporting period to reflect the passage of time, with the accretion charged to earnings, and for revisions to the estimated future cash flows.

Zenas intends to maintain an insurance program consistent with industry practice to protect against losses due to accidental destruction of assets, well blowouts, pollution and other business interruptions. Zenas understands that the Zenas Assets are in substantial compliance, in all material respects, with current environmental legislation and will work with governmental environmental agencies to maintain this level of compliance.

Although Zenas has no set policy, management of Zenas may use financial instruments to reduce corporate risk in certain situations.

Trends

Crude oil and natural gas prices are volatile and subject to a number of external factors. Prices are cyclical and fluctuate as a result of shifts in the balance between supply and demand for crude oil and natural gas, world and North American market forces, inventory and storage levels, OPEC policy, weather patterns and other factors. In early 2002, the industry initially saw a general weakening of prices for both oil and natural gas. In the second half of that year commodity prices increased above historical averages. In recent months prices have remained high for both crude oil and natural gas. Natural gas prices are greatly influenced by the economy in North America. Currently there is a shortage of natural gas production and natural gas storage levels are low.

The Canadian/U.S. currency exchange rate also influences commodity prices received by Canadian producers as oil and natural gas production is ultimately priced in U.S. dollars. The recent increased strength of the Canadian dollar has had a negative impact on Canadian oil and gas production revenue.

An additional trend relates to the size of companies in which investors are willing to invest. Larger market capitalization companies provide for greater liquidity and, as a result, appear to be more attractive, however, smaller companies may present potentially larger returns as they have not yet appreciated in value in relation to current commodity prices.

Royalty trusts have emerged as important participants in the oil and gas industry in Canada in recent years. Royalty trusts are generally focused on the development and exploitation of existing reserves with operating cash flow, subject to reinvestment requirements, being distributed to unitholders. High commodity prices and low interest rates have created a widespread following amongst investors for such vehicles, with the result that the cost of capital is generally lower than for conventional exploration and development companies. Availability of capital for exploration and development companies may also be affected, as is the ability to attract and compensate qualified staff. Royalty trusts are aggressive purchasers of producing properties, increasing competition for acquisitions.

A final trend appears to be the establishment of a number of start up companies with experienced management teams that are available as a result of the industry consolidation in recent years. This may also result in increased competition for many of the corporate and property acquisitions that will be available.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth the capitalization of Zenas as at June 28, 2005 and after giving effect to the completion of the Arrangement and the completion of the Zenas Private Placement. See also the unaudited pro forma financial statements of Zenas contained in Schedule B to this Appendix.

Notes:

- (1) Zenas was incorporated on June 28, 2005. One Zenas Common Share was issued to Blizzard to facilitate the organization of Zenas.
- (2) Assuming the distribution of 18,957,083 Zenas Common Shares and 18,957,083 Zenas Arrangement Warrants pursuant to the Arrangement. The actual number of Zenas Common Shares to be issued under the Arrangement will depend on the number of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Warrants, Blizzard Options and Zenas Arrangement Warrants outstanding as of the Effective Date.
- (3) Assuming the distribution of 18,957,083 Zenas Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement and 4,000,000 Zenas Common Shares pursuant to the Zenas Private Placement, and that 4,000,000 Zenas Common Shares are issued pursuant to the exercise of all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants. The actual number of Zenas Common Shares to be issued under the Arrangement will depend on the number of Blizzard Shares, Blizzard Warrants, Blizzard Options and Zenas Arrangement Warrants outstanding as of the Effective Date.
- (4) Assuming that all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants are exercised. 4,000,000 Zenas Common Shares are issuable pursuant to the terms of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants for additional proceeds of $6,000,000. All unexercised Zenas Arrangement Warrants expire 30 days following the Effective Date.
- (5) Zenas expects to have a revolving demand loan facility of approximately $8.8 million in place prior to the Effective Date, and no drawdown as a result of the Arrangement.

LISTING APPLICATION

Application has been made to list the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX. Listing of the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX will be subject to Zenas meeting the original listing requirements of the TSX. If Zenas is not able to meet the original listing requirements of the TSX, then Zenas will seek to list the Zenas Common Shares on another Canadian stock exchange. Conditional listing approval has not been obtained and there can be no assurance that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on the TSX or any other stock exchange. See "Risk Factors – Stock Exchange Listing" in this Appendix.

DESCRIPTION OF SHARE CAPITAL

Zenas is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Zenas Common Shares and an unlimited number of preferred shares issuable in series (the "Zenas Preferred Shares") without nominal or par value. The following is a summary of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the Zenas Common Shares and the Zenas Preferred Shares.

Zenas Common Shares

Zenas is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Zenas Common Shares. Holders of Zenas Common Shares are entitled to (a) receive notice of and attend any meetings of shareholders of Zenas and are entitled to one vote for each Common Share held, except meetings at which only holders of a specified class are entitled to vote, (b) the right to receive, subject to the prior rights and privileges attaching to any other class of shares of Zenas, any dividend declared by Zenas, and (c) the right to receive subject to the prior rights and privileges attaching to any other class of shares of Zenas, the remaining property and assets of Zenas upon dissolution. As at the date hereof, there is one Zenas Common Share issued and outstanding.

Zenas Preferred Shares

Zenas is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Zenas Preferred Shares. The Zenas Preferred Shares may at any time and from time to time be issued in one or more series, each series to consist of such number of shares as may, before the issue thereof, be determined by resolution of the Zenas board of directors. Subject to the provisions of the ABCA, the directors of Zenas may by resolution fix from time to time before the issue thereof the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to each series of the Zenas Preferred Shares. As at the date hereof, no Zenas Preferred Shares are issued or outstanding.

DIVIDEND RECORD AND POLICY

Zenas has not declared or paid any dividends on any shares since its incorporation, and does not foresee the declaration or payment of any dividends on the Zenas Common Shares in the near future. Any decision to pay dividends on the Zenas Common Shares will be made by the board of directors on the basis of Zenas's earnings, financial requirements and other conditions existing at such future time and which the Zenas directors consider appropriate in the circumstances. It is anticipated that any payment of dividends will require the prior approval of the bank pursuant to the revolving demand loan facility Zenas expects to have in place prior to the Effective Date.

PRIOR SALES

On June 28, 2005, Zenas issued one Zenas Common Share at a price of $1.00 to Blizzard to facilitate its organization.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The names, municipalities of residence of the proposed directors and executive officers of Zenas after giving effect to the Arrangement, their positions and offices to be held with Zenas and their principal occupations during the past five years are as follows:

Name and Municipality of Residence	Position⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾	Principal Occupation⁽³⁾

Michael Machalski Calgary, Alberta	Chief Operating Officer	Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Blizzard
Hal A. J. Metcalfe Calgary, Alberta	Chief Financial Officer	Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer of Blizzard

Notes:

- (1) Zenas will establish an Audit and Finance Committee, Technical Committee and Human Resources and Governance Committee prior to the completion of the Arrangement.
- (2) The term of office of all directors will expire on the date of the next annual meeting of holders of Zenas Common Shares.

- (3) Each of the foregoing directors and executive officers has been engaged in his principal occupation or in another capacity with the same entity over the past five years except for: James S. Artindale, who from October 2001 to January 2002 was the Managing Director of Tristone Capital, Inc. and from October 1998 to September 2001 was the VP Corporate Development of Ventus Energy Ltd.; Larry G. Evans, who from October 2001 to January 2004 was the President and Chief Executive Officer of Ice Energy Limited and from December 1997 to January 2001 was the President and Chief Executive Officer of Avalanche Energy Limited; David R. MacKenzie, who from May 1997 to January 2002 was the President of Gascan Resources Ltd.; Douglas G. Manner, who from September 2002 to January 2004 was the President and Chief Operating Officer of White Stone Energy, LLC, from May 2001 to July 2002 was the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Mission Resources Corp., from May 2000 to May 2001 was the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Bellwether Exploration Co. and prior thereto was the Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Gulf Canada Resources Limited; John R. Rooney, who from November 2001 to June 2002 was the President and Chief Executive Officer of Equatorial Energy Inc. and from 1999 to November 2001 was the Chief Financial Officer of Equatorial Energy Inc.; Michael Machalski, who from January 2001 to June 2002 was the Chief Operating Officer of Equatorial Energy Inc., from October 2000 to October 2003 was the President of Fish Creek Resources Inc. and prior thereto was an independent oil and gas consultant; and Hal A.J. Metcalfe, who from January 2003 to November 2003 was a financial consultant, from September 2000 to December 2002 was the Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer of Spire Energy Ltd. and from November 1998 to August 2000 was the Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer of Ventus Energy Ltd.

After giving effect to the Arrangement and assuming the Zenas Private Placement is completed for the maximum amount and all the Zenas Arrangement Warrants are exercised, the number of Zenas Common Shares beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by all of the directors, officers and senior management of Zenas will be approximately 32.8% of the issued and outstanding Zenas Common Shares.

Cease Trade Orders or Bankruptcies

No current or proposed director, officer or controlling shareholder of Zenas has, within the past ten years, been a director or officer of any other issuer that, while that person was acting in that capacity:

- (a) was the subject of a cease trade or similar order or an order that denied the issuer access to any statutory exemptions under Canadian securities legislation for a period of more than 30 consecutive days; or
- (b) became bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency or was subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors or had a receiver, receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold its assets.

Personal Bankruptcies

No current or proposed director, officer or controlling shareholder of Zenas or a personal holding company of any such person has, within the past ten years, become bankrupt, made a proposal under any legislation relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, or was subject to or instituted any proceedings, arrangement or compromise with creditors, or had a receiver manager or trustee appointed to hold such person's assets.

Penalties or Sanctions

No current or proposed director, officer or controlling shareholder of Zenas has been subject to any penalties or sanctions imposed by a court relating to Canadian securities legislation or by a Canadian securities regulatory authority or has entered into a settlement agreement with a Canadian securities regulatory authority or been subject to any other penalties or sanctions imposed by a court or regulatory body that would likely be considered important to a reasonable investor in making an investment decision.

Conflicts of Interest

There are potential conflicts of interest to which the directors and officers of Zenas will be subject to in connection with the operations of Zenas. In particular, certain of the directors and officers of Zenas are involved in managerial or director positions with other oil and gas companies whose operations may, from time to time, be in direct competition with those of Zenas or with entities which may, from time to time, provide financing to, or make equity investments in, competitors of Zenas. See "Directors and Officers". In accordance with the ABCA, directors who have a material interest or any person who is a party to a material contract or a proposed material contract with Zenas are required, subject to certain exceptions, to disclose that interest and generally abstain from voting on any resolution to approve the contract. In addition, the directors are required to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of Zenas. Certain of the directors of Zenas have either other employment or other business or time restrictions placed on them and accordingly, these directors of Zenas will only be able to devote part of their time to the affairs of Zenas.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

No compensation has been paid by Zenas to its executive officers or directors and none will be paid until after the Arrangement is completed. Following the completion of the Arrangement, it is anticipated that the executive officers of Zenas will be paid salaries at a level that is comparable to other oil and gas companies of similar size and character.

As of the date hereof, there are no employment contracts in place between Zenas and any of the executive officers of Zenas and there are no provisions for compensation of executive officers of Zenas in the event of termination of employment or change of responsibilities following a change of control. The board of directors of Zenas will consider whether employment contracts should be entered into with each of the executive officers of Zenas following the completion of the Arrangement.

Zenas has not established an annual retainer fee or attendance fee for directors. However, Zenas may establish directors' fees in the future and plans to reimburse directors for all reasonable expenses incurred in order to attend meetings. It is anticipated that directors will be compensated for their time and effort by granting them options to acquire Zenas Common Shares pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, which is expected to be in place assuming the approval of the Arrangement Resolution. The proposed directors of Zenas will also be entitled to participate in the Zenas Private Placement. See "Stock Option Plan" in this Appendix and "Other Matters Considered in the Arrangement Resolution – Approval of Zenas Private Placement" in the Information Circular.

PERSONNEL

As at the date of the Information Circular, Zenas had no employees. After giving effect to the Arrangement, Zenas will have approximately 17 full-time employees at its head office in Calgary.

INTERESTS OF MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Except for pursuant to the Zenas Private Placement and as disclosed elsewhere in the Information Circular, none of the current or proposed directors, officers or principal shareholders of Zenas and no associate or affiliate of any of them, has or has had any material interest, direct or indirect, in any transaction prior to the date hereof or any proposed transaction which materially affects Zenas or any of its affiliates other than their security holdings in Blizzard.

PRINCIPAL SHAREHOLDERS

Assuming, at the Effective Date, that the Blizzard Shareholders are the same as at the Record Date and after giving effect to the Arrangement and assuming that the Zenas Private Placement is completed for the maximum amount and all of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants are exercised, to the best of the knowledge of the proposed directors and officers of Zenas, no persons will own, directly or indirectly, or exercise control or discretion over Zenas Common Shares carrying more than 10% of the votes attached to all of the issued and outstanding Zenas Common Shares.

INDEBTEDNESS OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

As at the Effective Date, no director or officer or any associate of any such director or officer will be indebted to Zenas or to any other entity which is, or at any time since the beginning of the most recently completed financial year has been, the subject of a guarantee, support agreement, letter of credit or other similar arrangement or understanding provided by Zenas.

STOCK OPTION PLAN

By approving the Arrangement Resolution, the Blizzard Securityholders will be approving the Zenas Stock Option Plan. Zenas will implement the Zenas Stock Option Plan, subject to regulatory approval, which will authorize the Zenas board of directors to issue stock options to Service Providers. The Stock Option Plan will be administered by the board of directors of Zenas. Under the terms of the Stock Option Plan, the board of directors will be authorized to provide for the granting, exercise, method of exercise and vesting of options to purchase Zenas Common Shares subject to the terms and conditions of the Stock Option Plan. A copy of the Stock Option Plan is set out in Appendix G to the Information Circular. The proposed Stock Option Plan is in accordance with the TSX's policies on listed company share incentive arrangements.

Zenas believes that the granting of stock options is an important part of the compensation structure for a company of its size and in its industry, not only to retain the services of existing employees, but also to attract qualified personnel to Zenas. Moreover, the Stock Option Plan is designed to (i) increase proprietary interests of Service Providers in Zenas; (ii) align interests of Services Providers with interests of Zenas's shareholders; (iii) encourage Service Providers to remain associated with Zenas; and (iv) furnish Services Providers with additional incentives in their efforts on behalf of Zenas.

Initially, the Stock Option Plan, assuming completion of the Arrangement, the Zenas Private Placement and the exercise of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants, will authorize Zenas's board of directors to have reserved for issuance a total of approximately 2,695,708 Zenas Common Shares (an amount to represent 10% of the outstanding Zenas Common Shares at such time and including the Zenas Common Shares issued pursuant to the exercise of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants). At any time, the number of Zenas Common Shares reserved or granted from time to time for options shall not be more than 10% of the aggregate number of then issued and outstanding Zenas Common Shares. The Zenas Common Shares in respect of which stock options are not exercised shall be available for subsequent stock option grants. The term of options granted shall be determined by the board of directors of Zenas in its discretion, to a maximum of 10 years from the date of the grant.

The aggregate number of Zenas Common Shares reserved for issuance to any one person under the Stock Option Plan, together with all other share compensation arrangements of Zenas, shall not exceed 5% of the outstanding issue of Zenas Common Shares (on a non diluted basis). In addition, no more than 10% of the outstanding issue of Zenas Common Shares (on a non-diluted basis), in the aggregate, may be reserved at any time for insiders under the Stock Option Plan. The Stock Option Plan also provides that the aggregate number of Zenas Common Shares issued to any one insider and such insider's associates pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, within a one year period, shall not exceed 5% of the outstanding issue of Zenas Common Shares.

The price per share at which Zenas Common Shares may be purchased under the Stock Option Plan (the "Option Price"), as may be adjusted pursuant to the provisions of the Stock Option Plan, shall be fixed by the board of directors of Zenas at the time of the grant but under no circumstances shall any Option Price at the time of the grant be lower than the market price per Zenas Common Share. For purposes of the Stock Option Plan, the market price means the volume weighted average trading price of the Zenas Common Shares on the stock exchange on which the Shares are traded for the five trading days immediately preceding the date of the grant. If the Zenas Common Shares are not listed on a stock exchange at the time of the grant, then the market price for the purposes of such grant shall be as determined by the board of directors of Zenas in its sole discretion.

Options are non-assignable and non-transferable by the person to whom they are granted except by will or the laws of descent and distribution. In the event the holder of stock options ceases to be employed by Zenas for any reason (except as a result of death or permanent disability), the holder's stock options shall be terminated on the earlier of the expiration of the option period and 90 days after the date of such termination. In the event of a holder's death or permanent disability, an option shall be exercisable until the earlier of the expiration period or the date that is 12 months after the date of death or permanent disability, whichever is earlier.

In the event of a "change of control" (as defined in the Stock Option Plan), all stock options shall immediately vest and be exercisable upon the earlier of the expiry date of the stock option and the date that is 90 days after the date of the sale or the change of control.

The board of directors of Zenas may, at any time, suspend or terminate the Stock Option Plan. The board of directors may amend or revise the terms of the Stock Option Plan, subject to the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, provided that no such amendment or revisions shall materially adversely affect the terms of any stock options granted under the Stock Option Plan. The board of directors of Zenas may grant stock options to Service Providers from time to time in accordance with the terms and the provisions of the Stock Option Plan.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in Zenas should be considered highly speculative due to the nature of the activities of Zenas and the present stage of its development. The following is a summary of certain risk factors relating to the activities of Zenas and the ownership of Zenas Common Shares which should be carefully considered before making an investment decision relating to Zenas Common Shares.

Exploration, Development and Production Risks

Oil and natural gas operations involve many risks that even a combination of experience, knowledge and careful evaluation may not be able to overcome. The long-term commercial success of Zenas depends on its ability to find, acquire, develop and commercially produce oil and natural gas reserves. Without the continual addition of new reserves, any existing reserves Zenas may have at any particular time and the production therefrom will decline over time as such existing reserves are exploited. A future increase in Zenas's reserves will depend not only on its ability to explore and develop any properties it may have from time to time, but also on its ability to select and acquire suitable producing properties or prospects. No assurance can be given that Zenas will be able to continue to locate satisfactory properties for acquisition or participation. Moreover, if such acquisitions or participations are identified, Zenas may determine that current markets, terms of acquisition and participation or pricing conditions make such acquisitions or participations uneconomic. There is no assurance that further commercial quantities of oil and natural gas will be discovered or acquired by Zenas.

Future oil and natural gas exploration may involve unprofitable efforts, not only from dry wells, but from wells that are productive but do not produce sufficient net revenues to return a profit after drilling, operating and other costs. Completion of a well does not assure a profit on the investment or recovery of drilling, completion and operating costs. In addition, drilling hazards or environmental damage could greatly increase the cost of operations, and various field operating conditions may adversely affect the production from successful wells. These conditions include delays in obtaining governmental approvals or consents, shut-ins of connected wells resulting from extreme weather conditions, insufficient storage or transportation capacity or other geological and mechanical conditions. While diligent well supervision and effective maintenance operations can contribute to maximizing production rates over time, production delays and declines from normal field operating conditions cannot be eliminated and can be expected to adversely affect revenue and cash flow levels to varying degrees.

Oil and natural gas exploration, development and production operations are subject to all the risks and hazards typically associated with such operations, including hazards such as fire, explosion, blowouts, cratering, sour gas releases and spills, each of which could result in substantial damage to oil and natural gas wells, production facilities, other property and the environment or in personal injury. In accordance with industry practice, Zenas is not fully insured against all of these risks, nor are all such risks insurable. Although Zenas maintains liability insurance in an amount that it considers consistent with industry practice, the nature of these risks is such that liabilities could exceed policy limits, in which event Zenas could incur significant costs that could have a material adverse effect upon its financial condition. Oil and natural gas production operations are also subject to all the risks typically associated with such operations, including encountering unexpected formations or pressures, premature decline of reservoirs and the invasion of water into producing formations. Losses resulting from the occurrence of any of these risks could have a material adverse effect on future results of operations, liquidity and financial condition.

Competition

Oil and gas exploration is intensely competitive in all its phases and involves a high degree of risk. Zenas competes with numerous other participants in the search for, and the acquisition of, oil and natural gas properties and in the marketing of oil and natural gas. Zenas's competitors include oil and natural gas companies that have substantially greater financial resources, staff and facilities than those of Zenas. Zenas's ability to increase reserves in the future will depend not only on its ability to explore and develop its present properties, but also on its ability to select and acquire suitable producing properties or prospects for exploratory drilling. Competitive factors in the distribution and marketing of oil and natural gas include price and methods and reliability of delivery. Competition may also be presented by alternate fuel sources.

Regulatory

Oil and natural gas operations (exploration, production, pricing, marketing and transportation) are subject to extensive controls and regulations imposed by various levels of government that may be amended from time to time. (See "Industry Conditions" in this Appendix.) Zenas's operations may require licenses from various governmental authorities. There can be no assurance that Zenas will be able to obtain all necessary licenses and permits that may be required to carry out exploration and development at its projects. It is not expected that any of these controls or regulations will affect the operations of Zenas in a manner materially different than they would affect other oil and gas companies of similar size.

Kyoto Protocol

Canada is a signatory to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change and has ratified the Kyoto Protocol established thereunder to set legally binding targets to reduce nationwide emissions of carbon dioxide, methane, nitrous oxide and other so-called "greenhouse gases". Zenas's exploration and production facilities and other operations and activities emit a small amount of greenhouse gases which may subject Zenas to legislation regulating emissions of greenhouse gases. The Government of Canada has put forward a Climate Change Plan for Canada which suggests further legislation will set greenhouse gases emission reduction requirements for various industrial activities, including oil and gas exploration and production. Future federal legislation, together with provincial emission reduction requirements such as those proposed in Alberta's Climate Change and Emissions Management Act (partially in force), may require the reduction of emissions or emissions intensity produced by the Corporation's operations and facilities. The direct or indirect costs of these regulations may adversely affect the business of the Corporation.

Environmental

All phases of the oil and natural gas business present environmental risks and hazards and are subject to environmental regulation pursuant to a variety of federal, provincial and local laws and regulations. Environmental legislation provides for, among other things, restrictions and prohibitions on spills, releases or emissions of various substances produced in association with oil and natural gas operations. The legislation also requires that wells and facility sites be operated, maintained, abandoned and reclaimed to the satisfaction of applicable regulatory authorities. Compliance with such legislation can require significant expenditures and a breach may result in the imposition of fines and penalties, some of which may be material. Environmental legislation is evolving in a manner expected to result in stricter standards and enforcement, larger fines and liability and potentially increased capital expenditures and operating costs. The discharge of oil, natural gas or other pollutants into the air, soil or water may give rise to liabilities to governments and third parties and may require Zenas to incur costs to remedy such discharge. Although Zenas believes that it is in material compliance with current applicable environmental regulations, no assurance can be given that environmental laws will not result in a curtailment of production or a material increase in the costs of production, development or exploration activities or otherwise adversely affect Zenas's financial condition, results of operations or prospects. See "Industry Conditions – Environmental Regulation" in this Appendix.

Prices, Markets and Marketing

The marketability and price of oil and natural gas that may be acquired or discovered by Zenas will be affected by numerous factors beyond its control. Zenas's ability to market its natural gas may depend upon its ability to acquire space on pipelines that deliver natural gas to commercial markets. Zenas may also be affected by deliverability uncertainties related to the proximity of its reserves to pipelines and processing facilities, and related to operational problems with such pipelines and facilities as well as extensive government regulation relating to price, taxes, royalties, land tenure, allowable production, the export of oil and natural gas and many other aspects of the oil and natural gas business.

Zenas's revenues, profitability and future growth and the carrying value of its oil and gas properties are substantially dependent on prevailing prices of oil and gas. Zenas's ability to borrow and to obtain additional capital on attractive terms is also substantially dependent upon oil and gas prices. Prices for oil and gas are subject to large fluctuations in response to relatively minor changes in the supply of and demand for oil and gas, market uncertainty and a variety of additional factors beyond the control of Zenas. These factors include economic conditions, in the United States and Canada, the actions of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, governmental regulation, political stability in the Middle East and elsewhere, the foreign supply of oil and gas, the price of foreign imports and the availability of alternative fuel sources. Any substantial and extended decline in the price of oil and gas would have an adverse effect on Zenas's carrying value of its proved reserves, borrowing capacity, revenues, profitability and cash flows from operations.

Volatile oil and gas prices make it difficult to estimate the value of producing properties for acquisition and often cause disruption in the market for oil and gas producing properties, as buyers and sellers have difficulty agreeing on such value. Price volatility also makes it difficult to budget for and project the return on acquisitions and development and exploitation projects.

In addition, bank borrowings available to Zenas are in part determined by Zenas's borrowing base. A sustained material decline in prices from historical average prices could reduce Zenas's borrowing base, therefore reducing the bank credit available to Zenas which could require that a portion, or all, of Zenas's bank debt be repaid.

Substantial Capital Requirements

Zenas anticipates making substantial capital expenditures for the acquisition, exploration, development and production of oil and natural gas reserves in the future. If Zenas's revenues or reserves decline, it may have limited ability to expend the capital necessary to undertake or complete future drilling programs. There can be no assurance that debt or equity financing or cash generated by operations will be available or sufficient to meet these requirements or for other corporate purposes or, if debt or equity financing is available, that it will be on terms acceptable to Zenas. Moreover, future activities may require Zenas to alter its capitalization significantly. The inability of Zenas to access sufficient capital for its operations could have a material adverse effect on Zenas's financial condition, results of operations or prospects.

Stock Exchange Listing

The listing of the Zenas Common Shares on the TSX will be subject to Zenas meeting the TSX's original listing requirements. If Zenas is not able to meet the original listing requirements of the TSX, then Zenas will seek to list the Zenas Common Shares on another Canadian stock exchange. Conditional listing approval for the listing of the Zenas Common Shares has not yet been obtained and there can be no assurance that the Zenas Common Shares will be listed on the TSX or any other stock exchange. While Zenas intends to continue to seek a listing for the Zenas Common Share if such shares are not listed on the TSX, delays in obtaining, or the inability to obtain, such listing will not be a condition of the completion of the Arrangement and Blizzard Securityholders may receive stock in a private company.

Additional Funding Requirements

Zenas's cash flow from its reserves may not be sufficient to fund its ongoing activities at all times. From time to time, Zenas may require additional financing in order to carry out its oil and gas acquisition, exploration and development activities. Failure to obtain such financing on a timely basis could cause Zenas to forfeit its interest in certain properties, miss certain acquisition opportunities and reduce or terminate its operations. If Zenas's revenues from its reserves decrease as a result of lower oil and natural gas prices or otherwise, it will affect Zenas's ability to expend the necessary capital to replace its reserves or to maintain its production. If Zenas's cash flow from operations is not sufficient to satisfy its capital expenditure requirements, there can be no assurance that additional debt or equity financing will be available to meet these requirements or available on terms acceptable to Zenas.

Issuance of Debt

From time to time, Zenas may enter into transactions to acquire assets or the shares of other corporations. These transactions may be financed partially or wholly with debt, which may increase Zenas's debt levels above industry standards. Depending on future exploration and development plans, Zenas may require additional equity and/or debt financing that may not be available or, if available, may not be available on favourable terms. Neither Zenas's articles nor its by-laws limit the amount of indebtedness that Zenas may incur. The level of Zenas's indebtedness from time to time, could impair Zenas's ability to obtain additional financing in the future on a timely basis to take advantage of business opportunities that may arise.

Hedging

From time to time, Zenas may enter into agreements to receive fixed prices on its oil and natural gas production to offset the risk of revenue losses if commodity prices decline; however, if commodity prices increase beyond the levels set in such agreements, Zenas will not benefit from such increases. Similarly, from time to time, Zenas may enter into agreements to fix the exchange rate of Canadian to United States dollars in order to offset the risk of revenue losses if the Canadian dollar increases in value compared to the United States dollar; however, if the Canadian dollar declines in value compared to the United States dollar, Zenas will not benefit from the fluctuating exchange rate.

Availability of Drilling Equipment and Access

Oil and natural gas exploration and development activities are dependent on the availability of drilling and related equipment in the particular areas where such activities will be conducted. Demand for such limited equipment or access restrictions may affect the availability of such equipment to Zenas and may delay exploration and development activities. To the extent Zenas is not the operator of its oil and gas properties, Zenas will be dependent on such operators for the timing of activities related to such properties and will be largely unable to direct or control the activities of the operators.

Reserve Estimates

There are numerous uncertainties inherent in estimating quantities of oil, natural gas and NGL reserves and cash flows to be derived therefrom, including many factors beyond Zenas's control. The reserve and associated cash flow information set forth in this Appendix represents estimates only. In general, estimates of economically recoverable oil and natural gas reserves and the future net cash flows therefrom are based upon a number of variable factors and assumptions, such as historical production from the properties, production rates, ultimate reserve recovery, timing and amount of capital expenditures, marketability of oil and gas, royalty rates, the assumed effects of regulation by governmental agencies and future operating costs, all of which may vary from actual results. All such estimates are to some degree speculative, and classifications of reserves are only attempts to define the degree of speculation involved. For those reasons, estimates of the economically recoverable oil and natural gas reserves attributable to any particular group of properties, classification of such reserves based on risk of recovery and estimates of future net revenues expected therefrom prepared by different engineers, or by the same engineers at different times, may vary. Zenas's actual production, revenues, taxes and development and operating expenditures with respect to its reserves will vary from estimates thereof and such variations could be material.

Estimates of proved reserves that may be developed and produced in the future are often based upon volumetric calculations and upon analogy to similar types of reserves rather than actual production history. Estimates based on these methods are generally less reliable than those based on actual production history. Subsequent evaluation of the same reserves based upon production history and production practices will result in variations in the estimated reserves and such variations could be material.

In accordance with applicable securities laws, GLJ has used both constant and forecast price and cost estimates in calculating reserve quantities included in this Appendix. Actual future net revenue will be affected by other factors such as actual production levels, supply and demand for oil and natural gas, curtailments or increases in consumption by oil and natural gas purchasers, changes in governmental regulation or taxation and the impact of inflation on costs.

Actual production and revenues derived therefrom will vary from the estimates contained in the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report, and such variations could be material. The Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report are based in part on the assumed success of activities Zenas intends to undertake in future years. The reserves and estimated cash flows to be derived therefrom contained in the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report will be reduced to the extent that such activities do not achieve the level of success assumed in the Zenas 2004 Engineering Report and the Zenas 2005 Engineering Report.

Insurance

Zenas's involvement in the exploration for and development of oil and natural gas properties may result in Zenas becoming subject to liability for pollution, blow outs, property damage, personal injury or other hazards. Although prior to drilling Zenas will obtain insurance in accordance with industry standards to address certain of these risks, such insurance has limitations on liability that may not be sufficient to cover the full extent of such liabilities. In addition, such risks may not in all circumstances be insurable or, in certain circumstances, Zenas may elect not to obtain insurance to deal with specific risks due to the high premiums associated with such insurance or other reasons. The payment of such uninsured liabilities would reduce the funds available to Zenas. The occurrence of a significant event that Zenas is not fully insured against, or the insolvency of the insurer of such event, could have a material adverse effect on Zenas's financial position, results of operations or prospects.

Management of Growth

The Corporation may be subject to growth-related risks including capacity constraints and pressure on its internal systems and controls. The ability of Zenas to manage growth effectively will require it to continue to implement and improve its operational and financial systems and to expend, train and manage its employee base. The inability of Zenas to deal with this growth could have a material adverse impact on its business, operations and prospects.

Expiration of Licences and Leases

The Corporation's properties are held in the form of licences and leases and working interests in licences and leases. If the Corporation or the holder of the licence or lease fails to meet the specific requirement of a licence or lease, the licence or lease may terminate or expire. There can be no assurance that any of the obligations required to maintain each licence or lease will be met. The termination or expiration of the Corporation's licences or leases or the working interests relating to a licence or lease may have a material adverse effect on the Corporation's results of operations and business.

Uncertainty of Global Financial Markets

On September 11, 2001, the United States was the subject of terrorist attacks resulting in significant loss of life and property damage. The events of September 11, 2001 and the response of the United States and other nations have created an environment of uncertainty in global financial markets, the effect of which could have a material impact upon the Corporation, its business and its ability to finance operations.

Reliance on Operators and Key Personnel

To the extent Zenas is not the operator of its oil and gas properties, Zenas will be dependent on such operators for the timing of activities related to such properties and will largely be unable to direct or control the activities of the operators. In addition, Zenas's success will depend in large measure on certain key personnel. The loss of the services of such key personnel could have a material adverse affect on Zenas. Zenas does not have key person insurance in effect for management. The contributions of these individuals to the immediate operations of Zenas are likely to be of central importance. In addition, the competition for qualified personnel in the oil and natural gas industry is intense and there can be no assurance that Zenas will be able to continue to attract and retain all personnel necessary for the development and operation of its business. Investors must rely upon the ability, expertise, judgment, discretion, integrity and good faith of the management of Zenas.

Reserve Replacement

Zenas's future oil and natural gas reserves, production, and cash flows to be derived therefrom are highly dependent on Zenas successfully acquiring or discovering new reserves. Without the continual addition of new reserves, any existing reserves Zenas may have at any particular time and the production therefrom will decline over time as such existing reserves are exploited. A future increase in Zenas's reserves will depend not only on Zenas's ability to develop any properties it may have from time to time, but also on its ability to select and acquire suitable producing properties or prospects. There can be no assurance that Zenas's future exploration and development efforts will result in the discovery and development of additional commercial accumulations of oil and natural gas.

Corporate Matters

Zenas does not anticipate the payment of any dividends on the Zenas Common Shares for the foreseeable future. Certain of the directors and officers of Zenas are also directors and officers of other oil and gas companies involved in natural resource exploration and development, and conflicts of interest may arise between their duties as officers and directors of Zenas and as officers and directors of such other companies. Such conflicts must be disclosed in accordance with, and are subject to such other procedures and remedies as applicable under the ABCA.

Dilution

Zenas may make future acquisitions or enter into financing or other transactions involving the issuance of securities of Zenas which may be dilutive.

Title to Properties

Although title reviews will be done according to industry standards prior to the purchase of most oil and natural gas producing properties or the commencement of drilling wells, such reviews do not guarantee or certify that an unforeseen defect in the chain of title will not arise to defeat the claim of Zenas which could result in a reduction of the revenue received by Zenas.

Aboriginal Claims

Aboriginal peoples have claimed aboriginal title and rights to portions of western Canada. Zenas is not aware that any claims have been made in respect of the Zenas Assets, however, if a claim arose and was successful this could have an adverse effect on Zenas and its operations.

Delays in Business Operations

In addition to the usual delays in payments by purchasers of oil and natural gas to Zenas or to the operators, and the delays by operators in remitting payment to Zenas, payments between these parties may be delayed due to restrictions imposed by lenders, accounting delays, delays in the sale or delivery of products, delays in the connection of wells to a gathering system, adjustment for prior periods, or recovery by the operator of expenses incurred in the operation of the properties. Any of these delays could reduce the amount of cash flow available for the business of Zenas in a given period and expose Zenas to additional third party credit risks.

Changes in Legislation

The return on an investment in securities of Zenas is subject to changes in Canadian federal and provincial tax laws and government incentive programs and there can be no assurance that such laws or programs will not be changed in a manner that adversely affects Zenas or the holding and disposing of the securities of Zenas.

Seasonality

The level of activity in the Canadian oil and gas industry is influenced by seasonal weather patterns. Wet weather and spring thaw may make the ground unstable. Consequently, municipalities and provincial transportation departments enforce road bans that restrict the movement of rigs and other heavy equipment, thereby reducing activity levels. Also, certain oil and gas producing areas are located in areas that are inaccessible other than during the winter months because the ground surrounding the sites in these areas consists of swampy terrain. Seasonal factors and unexpected weather patterns may lead to declines in exploration and production activity and corresponding declines in the demand for the goods and services of Zenas.

Income Taxes

Zenas will file all required income tax returns and believes that it will be in full compliance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and all applicable provincial tax legislation. However, such returns are subject to reassessment by the applicable taxation authority. In the event of a successful reassessment of Zenas, whether by re-characterization of exploration and development expenditures or otherwise, such reassessment may have an impact on current and future taxes payable.

Assessments of Value of Acquisitions

Acquisitions of oil and gas issuers and oil and gas assets are typically based on engineering and economic assessments made by independent engineers and Zenas's own assessments. These assessments both will include a series of assumptions regarding such factors as recoverability and marketability of oil and gas, future prices of oil and gas and operating costs, future capital expenditures and royalties and other government levies which will be imposed over the producing life of the reserves. Many of these factors are subject to change and are beyond Zenas's control. In particular, the prices of and markets for oil and natural gas products may change from those anticipated at the time of making such assessment. In addition, all such assessments involve a measure of geologic and engineering uncertainty which could result in lower production and reserves than anticipated. Initial assessments of acquisitions may be based on reports by a firm of independent engineers that are not the same as the firm that Zenas uses for its year end reserve evaluations. Because each of these firms may have different evaluation methods and approaches, these initial assessments may differ significantly from the assessments of the firm used by Zenas. Any such instance may offset the return on and value of the Zenas Common Shares.

Borrowing

Zenas's lenders will be provided with security over substantially all of the assets of Zenas. If Zenas becomes unable to pay its debt service charges or otherwise commits an event of default, such as bankruptcy, these lenders may foreclose on or sell Zenas's properties. The proceeds of any such sale would be applied to satisfy amounts owed to Zenas's lenders and other creditors and only the remainder, if any, would be available to Zenas.

Third Party Credit Risk

Zenas is or may be exposed to third party credit risk through its contractual arrangements with its current or future joint venture partners, marketers of its petroleum and natural gas production and other parties. In the event such entities fail to meet their contractual obligations to Zenas, such failures could have a material adverse effect on Zenas and its cash flow from operations.

Zenas Conveyance Agreement

Pursuant to the Zenas Conveyance Agreement, Zenas will assume all liabilities, including environmental liabilities, relating to the Zenas Assets. Although Blizzard is not aware of any material liabilities relating to the Zenas Assets, it is possible that Zenas could become aware of certain liabilities after the completion of the Arrangement which could have a material adverse effect on Zenas.

INDUSTRY CONDITIONS

The oil and natural gas industry is subject to extensive controls and regulations governing its operations (including land tenure, exploration, development, production, refining, transportation and marketing) imposed by legislation enacted by various levels of government and, with respect to pricing and taxation of oil and natural gas, by agreements among the governments of Canada, Alberta, British Columbia and Saskatchewan, all of which should be carefully considered by investors in the oil and gas industry. It is not expected that any of these controls or regulations will affect the operations of Zenas in a manner materially different than they would affect other oil and gas companies of similar size. All current legislation is a matter of public record and Zenas is unable to predict what additional legislation or amendments may be enacted. Outlined below are some of the principal aspects of legislation, regulations and agreements governing the oil and gas industry.

Pricing and Marketing — Oil, Natural Gas and Associated Products

In the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia, oil, natural gas and associated products are generally sold at market index based prices. These indices are generated at various sales points depending on the commodity and are reflective of the current value of the commodity adjusted for quality and locational differentials. While these indices tend to track industry reference prices (ie. price of West Texas Intermediate crude oil at Cushing, Oklahoma or price of natural gas at Henry Hub, Louisiana), some variances can occur due to specific supply-demand imbalances. These differentials can change on a monthly or daily basis depending on the supply-demand fundamental at each location as well as other non-related changes such as the value of the Canadian dollar and the cost of transporting the commodity to the pricing point of the particular index.

The North American Free Trade Agreement

The North American Free Trade Agreement ("NAFTA") among the governments of Canada, United States of America and Mexico became effective on January 1, 1994. NAFTA carries forward most of the material energy terms that are contained in the Canada - United States Free Trade Agreement. Canada continues to remain free to determine whether exports of energy resources to the United States or Mexico will be allowed, provided that any export restrictions do not: (i) reduce the proportion of energy resources exported relative to domestic use (based upon the proportion prevailing in the most recent 36 month period); (ii) impose an export price higher than the domestic price; or (iii) disrupt normal channels of supply. All three countries are prohibited from imposing minimum export or import price requirements.

NAFTA contemplates the reduction of Mexican restrictive trade practices in the energy sector and prohibits discriminatory border restrictions and export taxes. The agreement also contemplates clearer disciplines on regulators to ensure fair implementation of any regulatory changes and to minimize disruption of contractual arrangements, which is important for Canadian natural gas exports.

Provincial Royalties and Incentives

In addition to federal regulation, each province has legislation and regulations which govern land tenure, royalties, production rates, environmental protection and other matters. The royalty regime is a significant factor in the profitability of crude oil, natural gas liquids, sulphur and natural gas production. Royalties payable on production from lands other than Crown lands are determined by negotiations between the mineral owner and the lessee, although production from such lands is subject to certain provincial taxes and royalties. Crown royalties are determined by governmental regulation and are generally calculated as a percentage of the value of the gross production. The rate of royalties payable generally depends in part on prescribed reference prices, well productivity, geographical location, field discovery date and the type or quality of the petroleum product produced.

From time to time the governments of the western Canadian provinces create incentive programs for exploration and development. Such programs often provide for royalty rate reductions, royalty holidays and tax credits, and are generally introduced when commodity prices are low. The programs are designed to encourage exploration and development activity by improving earnings and cash flow within the industry.

In the Province of Alberta, a producer of oil or natural gas is entitled to a credit against the royalties payable to the Crown by virtue of the Alberta royalty tax credit ("ARTC") program. The ARTC rate is based on a price sensitive formula and the ARTC rate varies between 75% at prices at and below $100 per m³ and 25% at prices at and above $210 per m³. The ARTC rate is applied to a maximum of $2,000,000 of Alberta Crown royalties payable for each producer or associated group of producers. Crown royalties on production from producing properties acquired from a corporation claiming maximum entitlement to ARTC will generally not be eligible for ARTC. The rate will be established quarterly based on the average "par price", as determined by the Alberta Department of Energy for the previous quarterly period.

Crude oil and natural gas royalty programs for specific wells and royalty reductions reduce the amount of Crown royalties paid by Zenas to the provincial governments. In general, the ARTC program provides a rebate on Alberta Crown royalties paid in respect of eligible producing properties.

Producers of oil and natural gas in British Columbia are also required to pay annual rental payments in respect of Crown leases and royalties and freehold production taxes in respect of oil and gas produced from Crown and freehold lands, respectively. The amount payable as a royalty in respect of oil depends on the vintage of the oil, the quantity of oil produced in a month and the value of the oil. Oil produced from newly discovered pools may be exempt from the payment of a royalty for the first 36 months of production. The royalty payable on natural gas is determined by a sliding scale based on a reference price which is the greater of the amount obtained by the producer and a prescribed minimum price. Gas produced in association with oil has a minimum royalty of 8% while the royalty in respect of other gas may not be less than 15%.

On May 30, 2003, the Ministry of Energy and Mines for British Columbia announced an Oil and Gas Development Strategy for the Heartlands (the "Strategy"). The Strategy is a comprehensive program to address road infrastructure, targeted royalties, and regulatory reduction and British Columbia service-sector opportunities.

The financial incentives provided for in the Strategy include:

- Royalty credits of up to $30 million annually towards the construction, upgrading and maintenance of road infrastructure in support of resource exploration and development. Funding will be contingent upon an equal contribution from industry.
- Changes to provincial royalties: new royalty rates for low-productivity natural gas to enhance marginally economic resources plays, royalty credits for deep gas exploration to locate new sources of natural gas, and royalty credits for summer drilling to expand the drilling season.

In November 2003, the Tax Act was amended to provide the following initiatives applicable to the oil and gas industry to be phased in over a five year period commencing in 2003 and ending in 2007: (i) a reduction of the federal statutory corporate income tax rate on income earned from resource activities from 28 to 21%, beginning with a one percentage point reduction effective January 1, 2003, and (ii) a deduction for federal income tax purposes of actual provincial and other Crown royalties and mining taxes paid and the elimination of the 25% resource allowance. In addition, the percentage of ARTC that Blizzard will be required to include in federal taxable income will be 5% in 2003; 12.5% in 2004; 17.5% in 2005; 32.5% in 2006; 50% in 2007; 60% in 2008; 70% in 2009; 80% in 2010; 90% in 2011, and 100% in 2012 and beyond.

Land Tenure

Crude oil and natural gas located in the Western Canada is owned predominantly by the respective provincial governments. Provincial governments grant rights to explore for and produce oil and natural gas pursuant to leases, licences and permits for varying terms from two years and on conditions set forth in provincial legislation including requirements to perform specific work or make payments. Oil and natural gas located in such provinces can also be privately owned and rights to explore for and produce such oil and natural gas on freehold lands are granted by lease on such terms and conditions as may be negotiated.

Environmental Regulation

The oil and natural industry is subject to environmental regulation pursuant to a variety of international conventions and Canadian federal, provincial and municipal laws, regulations, and guidelines. Such regulation provides for restrictions and prohibitions on the release or emission of various substances produced in association with certain oil and gas industry operations. In addition, such regulation requires that well and facility sites be abandoned and reclaimed to the satisfaction of provincial authorities. Compliance with such regulation can require significant expenditures and a breach of such requirements may result in suspension or revocation of necessary licenses and authorizations, civil liability for pollution damage and the imposition of material fines and penalties.

Environmental legislation in the Province of Alberta has been consolidated into the Alberta Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act (the "APEA"), which came into force on September 1, 1993. The APEA imposes strict environmental standards, requires stringent compliance, reporting and monitoring obligations and significant penalties. Zenas is committed to meeting its responsibilities to protect the environment wherever it operates and anticipates making increased expenditures of both a capital and an expense nature as a result of the increasingly stringent laws relating to the protection of the environment and will be taking such steps as required to ensure compliance with the APEA and similar legislation in other jurisdictions in which it operates. Zenas also believes that it is reasonably likely that the trend towards stricter standards in environmental legislation and regulation will continue.

EXPERTS

Certain legal matters in connection with the Arrangement will be passed upon on behalf of Zenas by Bennett Jones LLP. Based on securityholders as of the record date for the Meeting, the partners and associates of Bennett Jones LLP will hold approximately 1% of Zenas Common Shares on a fully diluted basis on the Effective Date. Certain information relating to Zenas's reserves has been prepared by GLJ and certain financial information relating to Zenas and the Zenas Assets has been prepared by Ernst & Young. As of the date hereof, none of the members of GLJ or Ernst & Young LLP own any of the outstanding Zenas Common Shares.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There are no outstanding legal proceedings involving Zenas or the Zenas Assets as of the date of the Information Circular which management of Zenas believes to be material to Zenas, nor are any such proceedings known by Zenas to be contemplated.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The only material contracts entered into, or to be entered into coincident with the Arrangement, by Zenas since incorporation, other than contracts in the ordinary course of business, are as follows:

1. Zenas Conveyance Agreement; and
2. Sierra Farm-in Agreement referred to under "Information Concerning Blizzard – Development of Business" in Appendix F to the Information Circular.

Copies of these agreements, when executed, can be inspected at the head office of Zenas at Suite 305, 505-3rd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3E6 or at the offices of Bennett Jones LLP at Suite 4500, 855 - 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7, during normal business hours from the date of the Information Circular until 30 days following completion of the Arrangement.

AUDITORS, REGISTRAR AND TRANSFER AGENT

The auditors of Zenas are Ernst & Young LLP, Chartered Accountants, Suite 1000, 440 – 2nd Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 5E9.

The registrar and transfer agent for the Zenas Common Shares is Valiant Trust Company of Canada at its principal office in Calgary, Alberta and sub-agency office in Toronto, Ontario.

ZENAS ENERGY CORP.

NOTES TO THE STATEMENT OF NET OPERATING REVENUE OF THE ASSETS TO BE TRANSFERRED TO ZENAS

For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2005 (unaudited).

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Pursuant to a plan of arrangement among Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard"), Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas"), Shiningbank Energy Income Fund, Shiningbank Energy Ltd., Zenas Finance Corp., Blizzard Securityholders and Zenas Finance Corp. Securityholders, Blizzard will transfer its interests in certain oil and natural gas properties to Zenas.

These statements have been derived from financial information provided by Blizzard and relate only to the working interests in the assets to be transferred to Zenas.

These statements include only the net operating revenues which are directly related to the assets to be transferred to Zenas, and do not include any expenses related to general and administrative costs, interest, income and capital taxes or any provisions related to depletion, depreciation and amortization and accretion.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Production revenue

Oil, natural gas and liquids sales are recorded when the commodities are sold. Revenues do not include any amounts from commodity price risk management activities using financial instruments.

Operating expenses

Operating expenses include all costs related to the lifting, gathering and processing of oil and natural gas and related products.

Auditors' Report

To the Directors of EnCana Corporation

At the request of EnCana Corporation, we have audited the Schedule of Revenues, Royalties and Expenses for the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 and the period ended December 22, 2004 for the Claire Property that Blizzard Energy Inc. acquired as of December 22, 2004. This financial information is the responsibility of management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial information based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial information is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial information. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial information presentation.

In our opinion, the Schedule of Revenues, Royalties and Operating Expenses presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues, royalties and operating expenses for the Claire Property for each of the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002 and the period ended December 22, 2004 in accordance with basis of accounting disclosed in note 1.

Claire Property

Notes to Schedule of Revenues, Royalties and Operating Expenses

For the Years Ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002
and the Period Ended December 22, 2004

1. Basis of presentation

The Schedule of Revenues, Royalties and Operating Expenses includes the operating results relating to the Claire property ("the Property") that Blizzard Energy Inc. acquired as of December 22, 2004. The results have been compiled on an activity month basis.

The Schedule of Revenues, Royalties and Operating Expenses for the Property does not include any provision for the depletion, depreciation and amortization, asset retirement costs, future capital costs, impairment of unevaluated properties, administrative costs and income taxes for the Property as these amounts are based on the consolidated operations of the vendor of which the Property forms only a part.

2. Significant accounting policies

(A) Joint Venture Operations

Substantially all of the Property is operated through joint ventures therefore the schedule reflects only the vendor's proportionate interest.

(B) Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recorded when the product is delivered. Gas revenues are recorded based on AECO reference pricing used for sales between operating divisions of EnCana Corporation and do not reflect ultimate marketing related activities. Oil revenues are recorded based on blended prices established between operating divisions of EnCana Corporation for similar quality product delivered to a common carrier.

(C) Royalties

Royalties are recorded at the time the product is produced and sold. Royalties are calculated in accordance with the applicable regulations and/or the terms of individual royalty agreements. Crown royalties for natural gas are based on the Alberta Government posted reference prices. Crown royalties for crude oil are taken in kind by the Alberta Petroleum Marketing Commission.

(D) Transportation

Transportation expenses represent the costs incurred to deliver the product to market.

(E) Operating Expenses

Operating expenses include amounts incurred on extraction of product to the surface, gathering, field processing, treating and field storage.

SCHEDULE B

PRO FORMA FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF ZENAS ENERGY CORP.

COMPILATION REPORT

To the Directors of Zenas Energy Corp.

We have read the accompanying unaudited pro forma balance sheet of Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas") as at March 31, 2005 and the unaudited pro forma statements of operations for the three months then ended and for the year ended December 31, 2004 (collectively, the "Pro Forma Statements"), and have performed the following procedures:

1. Compared the figures in the column captioned "Zenas" to the audited balance sheet of Zenas as at June 28, 2005 and found them to be in agreement.
2. Compared the figures in the column captioned "Transferred Assets" in the pro forma statements of operations to the unaudited Statement of Net Operating Revenue of the Assets to be transferred to Zenas for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and to the audited Schedule of Revenues, Royalties and Operating Expenses for the Claire Property for the year ended December 31, 2004, as appropriate, and found them to be in agreement.
3. Made enquiries of certain officials of Zenas who have responsibility for financial and accounting matters about:
 - (a) The basis for determination of the pro forma adjustments; and
 - (b) Whether the Pro Forma Statements comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable regulatory requirements of the Securities Acts of the various provinces of Canada.

The officials:

- (a) Described to us the basis for determination of the pro forma adjustments, and
 - (b) Stated that the Pro Forma Statements comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable regulatory requirements of the Securities Acts of the various provinces of Canada.
4. Read the notes to the Pro Forma Statements, and found them to be consistent with the basis described to us for determination of the pro forma adjustments.
 5. Recalculated the application of the pro forma adjustments to the aggregate of the amounts in the columns captioned "Zenas" as at March 31, 2005 and in the column captioned "Transferred Assets" for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004, as appropriate, and found the amounts in the columns captioned "Pro Forma Zenas" to be arithmetically correct.

The Pro Forma Statements are based on management assumptions and adjustments which are inherently subjective. The foregoing procedures are substantially less than either an audit or a review, the objective of which is the expression of assurance with respect to management's assumptions, the pro forma adjustments, and the application of the adjustments to the historical financial information. Accordingly, we express no such assurance. The foregoing procedures would not necessarily reveal matters of significance to the Pro Forma Statements, and we therefore make no representation about the sufficiency of the procedures for the purposes of a reader of such statements.

ZENAS
NOTES TO THE PRO FORMA FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2005 and the Year Ended December 31, 2004 (unaudited)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying pro forma balance sheet of Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas") as at March 31, 2005 and the pro forma statement of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 (the "pro forma financial statements") have been prepared to reflect the proposed plan of arrangement to reorganize Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard"). Under the terms of the proposed plan of arrangement, Shiningbank Energy Income Fund ("Shiningbank") will acquire the majority of Blizzard's assets. Certain Blizzard assets will be transferred to Zenas which will concentrate on oil and gas exploration and development.

The pro forma balance sheet includes the accounts of Zenas and a proportionate share of its interest in all joint ventures. The pro forma financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The pro forma balance sheet gives effect to the assumed transactions and assumptions described in note 2 as if they had occurred at the date of the balance sheet. The pro forma statements of operations give effect to the assumed transactions and assumptions described in note 2 as if they had occurred on January 1, 2004. The pro forma financial statements may not be indicative of the results that actually would have occurred if the events reflected therein had been in effect on the dates indicated or of the results which may be obtained in the future. In the opinion of management, the pro forma financial statements include all necessary adjustments for a fair presentation of the ongoing entity.

Accounting policies used in the preparation of the pro forma financial statements are consistent with those used in the audited financial statements of Blizzard as at December 31, 2004 and for the year then ended. The pro forma financial statements have been prepared from information derived from and should be read in conjunction with the Blizzard financial statements, the balance sheet of Zenas and the statements of revenues and operating expenses of the assets to be transferred to Zenas included elsewhere in this information circular.

2. ZENAS ASSUMPTIONS AND ADJUSTMENTS

The pro forma financial statements give effect to the following assumptions and adjustments:

- (a) Under the plan of arrangement, Blizzard Shareholders will exchange their shares of Blizzard for common shares of Zenas and units of Shiningbank Energy Income Fund. As the former Blizzard Shareholders will own Zenas, the oil and natural gas properties transferred from Blizzard to Zenas will be recorded at Blizzard's carrying value. Zenas's carrying value of the properties was determined based on the portion of the oil and natural gas future net revenue of the proved properties transferred to Zenas relative to the total future net revenue of all proved properties of Blizzard as evaluated at December 31, 2004. The asset retirement obligation for the assets transferred was estimated based on the assets transferred and assumptions as used in the Blizzard consolidated financial statements.

Oil and natural gas assets and equipment	26,656,000
Undeveloped lands	3,040,500
Office assets.....	308,337
Future income tax liability.....	(416,564)
Total assets transferred.....	29,588,273
Asset retirement obligation.....	(596,960)
Net assets received and common shares issued	28,991,313

The future income tax liability for $416,564 arises as the tax basis of the properties transferred is less than the net book value of the properties.

The above amounts are estimates, which were made by management in the preparation of the pro forma financial statements based on information available at the time. Amendments may be made to these amounts as estimates are finalized.

- (b) Cash has been increased by $6 million from the proceeds assumed to be received from the exercise of all the Zenas Arrangement Warrants.
- (c) Assuming that Zenas Finance Corp., a subsidiary of Zenas, is wound up at the date of the balance sheet instead of after the effective date of the proposed plan of arrangement.
- (d) Cash has been increased by $6 million from the proceeds assumed to be received from the acquisition of Zenas Finance Corp. which anticipates completion of an initial private placement of common shares and warrants.
- (e) Depreciation, depletion and amortization has been computed to reflect the application of the appropriate unit-of-production rate for the properties based on the estimated proved petroleum and natural gas reserves as determined by independent reserve engineers.
- (f) General and administrative expense has been estimated based on initial staff complement and related costs.
- (g) The provision for future income taxes and current income taxes has been calculated at an effective tax rate of 37.62% and 38.87% for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004, respectively.
- (h) The net income per share has been calculated using the number of common shares of Blizzard, assuming the exercise of all outstanding Blizzard options and warrants, the issuance of one share of Zenas for every six Blizzard Common Shares, and the issuance of 4 million (post-consolidation) Zenas Common Shares pursuant to the initial private placement and the issuance of 4 million (post-consolidated) Zenas Common Shares pursuant to the exercise of the Zenas Arrangement Warrants as though they had occurred at January 1, 2004.

	Common Shares
	Estimated	Equivalent
Blizzard fully diluted shares outstanding at the effective date of the arrangement .	113,742,500
Equivalent Zenas Common Shares at six for one		18,957,083
Exercise of Zenas Arrangement Warrants		4,000,000
Acquisition of Zenas Finance Corp.		4,000,000
		26,957,083

- (i) It is not anticipated that any stock options will be granted prior to the completion of the plan of arrangement.
- (j) No compensation expense has been recognized for the Zenas options.

BALANCE SHEET OF ZENAS ENERGY CORP.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Directors of Zenas Energy Corp.:

We have audited the balance sheet of Zenas Energy Corp. ("Zenas") as at June 28, 2005. This financial statement is the responsibility of the company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, this financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Zenas as at June 28, 2005 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

 - (b) (i) proved oil and gas reserves estimated as at December 31, 2004, using constant prices and costs; and
 - (ii) the related estimated future net revenue.
2. The reserves data are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the reserves data based on our evaluation.

We carried out our evaluation in accordance with standards set out in the Canadian Oil and Gas Evaluation Handbook (the "COGE Handbook") prepared jointly by the Society of Petroleum Evaluation Engineers (Calgary Chapter) and the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy & Petroleum (Petroleum Society).
3. Those standards require that we plan and perform an evaluation to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the reserves data are free of material misstatement. An evaluation also includes assessing whether the reserves data are in accordance with principles and definitions in the COGE Handbook.
4. The following table sets forth the estimated future net revenue (before deduction of income taxes) attributed to proved plus probable reserves, estimated using forecast prices and costs and calculated using a discount rate of 10 percent, included in the reserves data of the Company evaluated by us for the year ended December 31, 2004, and identifies the respective portions thereof that we have audited, evaluated and reviewed and reported on to the Company's board of directors:

		Audited	Evaluated	Reviewed	Total
February 28, 2005	Canada	-	$20,637M	-	$20,637M

5. In our opinion, the reserves and resources data respectively evaluated by us have, in all material respects, been determined and are in accordance with the COGE Handbook.
6. We have no responsibility to update this evaluation for events and circumstances occurring after the preparation dates.
7. Because the reserves data are based on judgments regarding future events, actual results will vary and the variations may be material.

REPORT OF MANAGEMENT AND DIRECTORS ON OIL AND GAS DISCLOSURE

Management of Blizzard Energy Inc. ("Blizzard") are responsible for the preparation and disclosure of information with respect to the oil and gas activities of Zenas Energy Corp. (the "Corporation") in accordance with securities regulatory requirements. This information includes reserves data, which consist of the following:

- (a) (i) proved and proved plus probable oil and gas reserves estimated as at December 31, 2004 using forecast prices and costs; and
- (ii) the related estimated future new revenue; and
- (b) (i) proved oil and gas reserves estimated as at December 31, 2004 using constant prices and costs; and
- (ii) the related estimated future net revenue.

An independent qualified reserves evaluator has evaluated the Corporation's reserves data. The report of the independent qualified reserves evaluator will be filed with securities regulatory authorities concurrently with this report.

The Technical Committee of the board of directors of Blizzard has

- (a) reviewed the Corporation's procedures for providing information to the independent qualified reserves evaluator;
- (b) met with the independent qualified reserves evaluator to determine whether any restrictions affected the ability of the independent qualified reserves evaluator to report without reservation; and
- (c) reviewed the reserves data with management and the independent qualified reserves evaluator.

The Technical Committee of the board of directors has reviewed the Corporation's procedures for assembling and reporting other information associated with oil and gas activities and has reviewed that information with management. The board of directors has, on the recommendation of the Technical Committee, approved

- (a) the content and filing with securities regulatory authorities of the reserves data and other oil and gas information;
- (b) the filing of the report of the independent qualified reserves evaluator on the reserves data; and
- (c) the content and filing of this report.

Because the reserves data are based on judgments regarding future events, actual results will vary and the variations may be material.

INFORMATION CONCERNING BLIZZARD

General

1022973 Alberta Ltd. was incorporated pursuant to the ABCA on December 19, 2002. By Certificate of Amendment dated February 27, 2003, 1022973 Alberta Ltd. changed its name to Blizzard Energy Inc. On December 12, 2003, Pre-Amalgamation Blizzard amalgamated with Blizzard Acquisition Corp. ("Acquisition Corp."), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pre-Amalgamation Blizzard, pursuant to the ABCA. The amalgamated corporation continued under the name Blizzard Energy Inc. On December 16, 2003, Blizzard filed Articles of Amendment to change the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the Blizzard Shares and the Blizzard Class A Shares.

Blizzard's head office is located at Suite 305, 505 – 3rd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3E6, and its registered office is located at Suite 4500, 855 – 2nd Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 4K7.

Blizzard owns 100% of the issued and outstanding securities of Zenas, a corporation incorporated under the ABCA.

Business and Strategy

Blizzard is an Alberta-based oil and natural gas company engaged in the exploration for, and the development and production of, natural gas and crude oil in the Western Canadian Sedimentary Basin in Alberta and in the Greater Sierra area of Northeastern British Columbia. As at December 31, 2004, Blizzard employed 15 people at its head office in Calgary, Alberta.

Blizzard's management has chosen a three-pronged growth strategy to acquire, exploit and explore as it strives to add value for the Blizzard Shareholders. Blizzard's two principal areas of focus are Sousa, Alberta and Grande Prairie, Alberta. See "Development of the Business" and "Properties of Blizzard" in this Appendix.

Development of the Business

The following is a summary of significant events in the development of Blizzard's business over the past three years:

2002

In December 2002, Pre-Amalgamation Blizzard issued 375,000 common shares in the capital of Pre-Amalgamation Blizzard (the "Pre-Amalgamation Shares") on a "flow-through" basis at a price of $1.00 per Pre-Amalgamation Share for aggregate proceeds of $375,000.

2003

In November 2003, Acquisition Corp. issued 8,000,000 common shares in the capital of Acquisition Corp. (the "Acquisition Shares") at a price of $0.0001 per Acquisition Share to certain directors and officers for aggregate proceeds of $800. Of the 8,000,000 Acquisition Shares issued, 6,600,000 were issued to the Blizzard Founders and 1,400,000 were held in trust for certain directors, officers and employees of Blizzard (the "Performance Shares"). As at the date hereof, 792,000 Performance Shares have been released from trust, with the balance to be released at the Closing Time assuming completion of the Arrangement. In the event that the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, and in particular the Arrangement, are not consummated, the balance of the Performance Shares will be released from trust over the next two years. Acquisition Corp. also issued 250,000 Acquisition Shares on a "flow-through" basis at a price of $1.00 per Acquisition Share to certain directors and officers for aggregate proceeds of $250,000.

On December 12, 2003, Pre-Amalgamation Blizzard amalgamated with Acquisition Corp. pursuant to the ABCA to form Blizzard Energy Inc. In connection with the Amalgamation, each Pre-Amalgamation Share and each Acquisition Share was exchanged for one Blizzard Class A Share.

Pursuant to an asset purchase agreement dated November 14, 2003, Blizzard acquired (the "2003 Acquisition"), from a large oil and gas company, an approximate 95% share of production and an average 91.5% working interest in 59 gross (54 net) producing natural gas wells in the Sousa, Larne, Negus and Evergreen areas of Northwest Alberta (collectively, the "Sousa Property") in consideration for $36.9 million in cash, the entering into of transitional operating arrangements with the vendor, and the entering into of a farm-out agreement with the vendor (the "Grande Prairie Farm-out Agreement") in respect of properties in the Grande Prairie area of Alberta (the "Grande Prairie Property"). The 2003 Acquisition closed on December 18, 2003. To secure Blizzard's obligations to the vendor under the transitional operating arrangements and the Grande Prairie Farm-out Agreement, Blizzard granted to the vendor a fixed and floating charge demand debenture in the amount of $30 million, reducing in tranches to $0 upon payment in full of Blizzard's obligations to the vendor under such arrangements.

In December 2003, Blizzard completed a private placement offering of 51,250,000 Blizzard Class A Shares at a price of $0.80 per Blizzard Class A Share for aggregate gross proceeds of $41.0 million. Approximately $36.9 million of the proceeds from the private placement offering were used to complete the 2003 Acquisition. The balance of the funds were used to fund a prepayment for the winter drilling program undertaken in the first quarter of 2004.

In May 2004, Blizzard completed an initial public offering (the "IPO") of 20,000,000 Blizzard Shares at a price of $1.25 per Blizzard Share in the Provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Québec. Blizzard granted to the underwriters of the IPO an option to acquire an additional 3,000,000 Blizzard Shares at a price of $1.25 per Blizzard Share on or before June 25, 2004 (the "Option"). The underwriters exercised the Option and Blizzard completed the issuance of an additional 3,000,000 Blizzard Shares on June 16, 2004. The gross proceeds from the IPO, including the Blizzard Shares issued upon exercise of the Option, were $28,750,000.

In connection with the IPO, the Blizzard Shares were listed on the TSX and trade under the symbol "BZZ".

Also in May 2004, all of the issued and outstanding Blizzard Class A Shares were converted into Blizzard Shares. The terms of the Blizzard Class A Shares provided that they were convertible into Blizzard Shares on a one-for-one basis at any time until 5:00 pm on the date occurring three days following the issuance of a receipt for the final prospectus of Blizzard qualifying for distribution the Blizzard Shares issuable upon conversion of the Blizzard Class A Shares (the "Expiry Time"). All Blizzard Class A Shares which were unconverted at the Expiry Time were deemed to be converted into Blizzard Shares. Accordingly, all of the 59,875,000 Blizzard Class A Shares outstanding at the Expiry Time were converted into Blizzard Shares.

In December 2004, Blizzard acquired from a senior Canadian oil and gas producer certain oil and natural gas producing properties in the Grande Prairie area of Alberta (the "2004 Properties"), related production facilities and undeveloped land for approximately $63.0 million (the "2004 Acquisition"). The 2004 Properties were producing approximately 1,300 boe/d, which included 4.8 MMcf/d of natural gas and 500 bbls/d of oil and NGL as of December 2004. As at December 2004, estimated production from the 2004 Properties was approximately 1,300 boe/d, consisting of 4.8 MMcf of natural gas and 500 boe/d of oil and NGL. Based on Blizzard's internal reserves estimates, as at December 2004, the 2004 Properties contained Proved Reserves (as defined below) of 10.3 bcf of natural gas and 756,000 boe of oil and NGL and the future net revenue (undiscounted) associated with such reserves is approximately $51.9 million for proved producing reserves and $86.8 million for total Proved Reserves (as defined below). In connection with the 2004 Acquisition, Blizzard also acquired approximately 92,000 gross (65,000 net) acres of undeveloped land in Grande Prairie, Alberta and 180,000 acres (gross and net) of undeveloped land in Sousa, Alberta.

The table below summarizes the historical production for the 2004 Properties for the periods indicated:

Production	Period Ended	Year Ended December 31,
	December 22, 2004	2004	2003	2002
Natural Gas (Mcf)	1,756,510	1,795,926	1,820,232	2,291,083
Oil (bbls)	142,780	145,425	174,935	232,022
NGL (bbls)	49,916	50,826	46,618	60,299
Oil Equivalent (boe)	458,448	495,572	524,925	674,168

In connection with the 2004 Acquisition, Blizzard entered into a farm-in agreement with the vendor in respect of the 2004 Properties in the Greater Sierra area of British Columbia (the "Sierra Farm-in Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Sierra Farm-in Agreement, Blizzard invested $16.0 million in the area prior to April 30, 2005 and paid 80% of gross capital investment in a number of projects (operated by the vendor), thereby earning a 50% interest in 20,250 gross acres. Under the Sierra Farm-in Agreement, Blizzard has the further right, at its option, to commit, on or before August 31, 2005, to incur a minimum $20.0 million in earning drilling expenditures on the farm-in lands on or before April 30, 2006 in order to earn an interest in up to 147,750 gross acres of additional farm-in lands. If Blizzard elects to exercise this option, Blizzard shall be responsible for 80% of exploration expenditures with respect to such additional projects to earn a 50% working interest in such farm-in lands from the vendor. Zenas will acquire all of Blizzard's right, title and interest to the Sierra Farm-in Agreement and assume all of Blizzard's obligations thereunder pursuant to the Zenas Conveyance Agreement. The 2004 Acquisition was completed on December 29, 2004 with an effective date of December 22, 2004.

The 2004 Acquisition also included the acquisition of the vendor's working interest in a number of the projects pursuant to the Grande Prairie Farm-out Agreement. This part of the acquisition increased Blizzard's total working interest in many of the wells in which Blizzard had earned an interest over the course of the past year. In addition, Blizzard acquired the vendor's mineral rights in much of the acreage subject to the Grande Prairie Farm-out Agreement that were not yet explored. Because Blizzard acquired these rights as part of the 2004 Acquisition, the Grand Prairie Farm-out Agreement became redundant and was terminated.

Schedules A and B attached to this Appendix set forth certain financial information relating to the 2004 Properties acquired pursuant to the 2004 Acquisition and pro forma financial information of Blizzard that gives effect to the 2004 Acquisition, respectively.

Also in December 2004, Blizzard completed a private placement offering of 18,000,000 Blizzard Shares at a price of $2.20 per Blizzard Share and 3,720,500 Blizzard Shares, issued on a "flow-through" basis, at a price of $2.80 per Blizzard Share for aggregate gross proceeds of $50,017,400. The proceeds from the offering were used to fund a portion of the 2004 Acquisition.

Arrangement

On June 6, 2005, Blizzard entered into the Arrangement Agreement, as amended and restated on June 27, 2005. See "The Arrangement" and "Effect of the Arrangement" in the Information Circular and the Arrangement Agreement attached as Appendix C to the Information Circular for further information regarding the Arrangement.

Business Cycle and Seasonality

Blizzard's business is generally cyclical. Revenue from light oil fluctuates with world supply and demand, while natural gas prices are influenced by levels of storage, estimates of current and forecast supply and weather expectations. Further, the exploration for and development of oil and natural gas reserves is dependent on access to areas where production is to be conducted. Seasonal weather variations, including freeze-up and break-up affect access to the Northeastern British Columbia property in certain circumstances.

Trends

Crude oil and natural gas prices are volatile and subject to a number of external factors. Prices are cyclical and fluctuate as a result of shifts in the balance between supply and demand for crude oil and natural gas, world and North American market forces, inventory and storage levels, OPEC policy, weather patterns and other factors. In early 2002, the industry initially saw a general weakening of prices for both oil and natural gas. In the second half of that year commodity prices increased above historical averages. In recent months prices have remained high for both crude oil and natural gas. Natural gas prices are greatly influenced by the economy in North America. Currently there is a shortage of natural gas production and natural gas storage levels are low.

The Canadian/U.S. currency exchange rate also influences commodity prices received by Canadian producers as oil and natural gas production is ultimately priced in U.S. dollars. The recent increased strength of the Canadian dollar has had a negative impact on Canadian oil and gas production revenue.

An additional trend relates to the size of companies in which investors are willing to invest. Larger market capitalization companies provide for greater liquidity and, as a result, appear to be more attractive, however, smaller companies may present potentially larger returns as they have not yet appreciated in value in relation to current commodity prices.

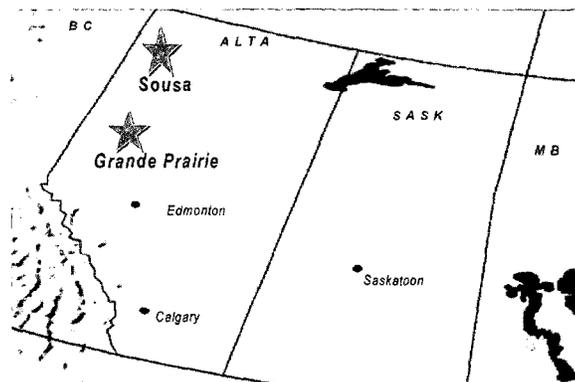

Royalty trusts have emerged as important participants in the oil and gas industry in Canada in recent years. Royalty trusts are generally focused on the development and exploitation of existing reserves with operating cash flow, subject to reinvestment requirements, being distributed to unitholders. High commodity prices and low interest rates have created a widespread following amongst investors for such vehicles, with the result that the cost of capital is generally lower than for conventional exploration and development companies. Availability of capital for exploration and development companies may also be affected, as is the ability to attract and compensate qualified staff. Royalty trusts are aggressive purchasers of producing properties, increasing competition for acquisitions.

A final trend appears to be the establishment of a number of start up companies with experienced management teams that are available as a result of the industry consolidation in recent years. This may also result in increased competition for many of the corporate and property acquisitions that will be available.

PROPERTIES OF BLIZZARD

The following is a description of Blizzard's principal oil and natural gas properties as of December 31, 2004. Unless otherwise specified, gross and net acres and well count information are as at December 31, 2004. Reserve amounts are stated, before the deduction of royalties, as at December 31, 2004 based on forecast cost and price assumptions as evaluated in the Blizzard Engineering Report. See "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Information" in this Appendix.

The estimates of reserves and future net revenue for individual properties may not reflect the same confidence level as estimates of reserves and future net revenue for all properties, due to the effects of aggregation.

Sousa, Alberta

The Sousa Property is located in Northwestern Alberta. Production from the Sousa Property is approximately 8.5 MMcf/d and is composed of sweet, dry natural gas from the Bluesky formation. As at December 31, 2004, Blizzard had a 100% working interest in approximately 90 producing natural gas wells and a 100% working interest in a natural gas plant with a capacity of 10 MMcf/d. Blizzard drilled 32 gross (32 net) shallow infill gas wells in the first quarter of 2004 which increased the production from 4.8 MMcf/d in December of 2003 to 8.5 MMcf/d in April of 2004. Blizzard added new compression to the facility and acquired the working interest of both its joint venture partners in the Sousa unit to bring Blizzard's working interest to 100% from 91% in the wells and facilities. Blizzard drilled another 97 gross (97 net) wells in this area during the winter of 2004/2005, and all of the wells drilled were completed and tied-in before May 1, 2005. Production peaked at 18 MMcf/d once all the wells were brought on stream and current production is approximately 16.5 MMcf/d. The Sousa Property will be retained by Blizzard following completion of the Arrangement.

Grande Prairie, Alberta

Blizzard acquired its initial interests in this area pursuant to the Grande Prairie Farm-out Agreement. Blizzard earned a working interest in 21 gross (13.9 net) wells pursuant to the Grande Prairie Farm-out Agreement, which included 13 gross (10.2 net) recompletions and 8 gross (3.7 net) new drills. A total of 8 gross (4.3 net) of these wells were on stream by December 31, 2004. With the completion of the 2004 Acquisition, Blizzard increased its working interest in these 21 gross (16.5 net) wells. Also as part of the 2004 Acquisition, Blizzard acquired a working interest in another 29 gross (22.6 net) producing oil and gas wells in a neighboring field within the Grande Prairie area. Current production in the greater Grande Prairie region is approximately 9.0 MMcf/d of natural gas and 650 bbls/d of oil and NGL, net to Blizzard. As at December 31, 2004, Blizzard had earned or purchased the mineral rights in approximately 91,000 gross (48,000 net) acres of land in the Grande Prairie area. Blizzard will retain the majority of the assets and production from the Grande Prairie area following completion of the Arrangement. Approximately 300 boe/d of production, consisting of 450 Mcf/d of natural gas, 200 bbls/d of oil and 25 bbls/d of NGL, and 8,592 acres of undeveloped land from the Grande Prairie area will be transferred to Zenas in connection with the Arrangement.

Northeastern British Columbia

In connection with the 2004 Acquisition, Blizzard entered into the Sierra Farm-in Agreement which gives Blizzard access to numerous production and reserves opportunities in over 160,000 acres of undeveloped land in Northeastern British Columbia. Under the terms of the Sierra Farm-in Agreement, Blizzard invested $16.0 million in Northeastern British Columbia prior to April 30, 2005 and paid 80% of gross capital investment in a number of projects (operated by the vendor), thereby earning a 50% working interest in 20,250 gross acres of the farm-in lands in this area. Current production in Northeastern British Columbia is approximately 600Mcf/d of natural gas. Blizzard has an option to invest an additional $20.0 million by April 30, 2006 in order to increase its interest in this area. All of the assets and production in this area and Blizzard's rights under the Sierra Farm-in Agreement will be transferred to Zenas in connection with the Arrangement.

STATEMENT OF RESERVES DATA AND OTHER INFORMATION

Disclosure of Reserves Data

The reserves data set forth below (the "Reserves Data") is based upon an evaluation by GLJ in the Blizzard Engineering Report which has an effective date of December 31, 2004 and a preparation date of February 28, 2005. The Blizzard Engineering Report has been prepared in accordance with the standards contained in the COGE Handbook and the reserves definitions contained in NI 51-101 and the COGE Handbook. The Reserves Data summarizes the oil, natural gas and NGL reserves of Blizzard and the net present values of future net revenue for these reserves using constant prices and costs and forecast prices and costs. The Reserves Data conforms with the requirements of NI 51-101. Blizzard engaged GLJ to provide an evaluation of the Proved Reserves and Proved plus Probable Reserves of Blizzard. No attempt was made to evaluate possible reserves.

All evaluations of future net revenue are stated after the deduction of future income tax expenses (unless otherwise noted in the tables), royalties, development costs, production costs and well abandonment costs, but before consideration of indirect costs such as administrative, overhead and other miscellaneous expenses. The estimated future net revenue contained in the following tables does not necessarily represent the fair market value of Blizzard's reserves. There is no assurance that the forecast price and cost assumptions contained in the Blizzard Engineering Report will be attained and variances could be material. Other assumptions and qualifications relating to costs and other matters are summarized in the notes to the following tables. The recovery and reserves estimates on Blizzard's properties herein are estimates only. The actual reserves on Blizzard's properties may be greater or less than those calculated.

Disclosure provided in this Appendix in respect of boe may be misleading, particularly if used in isolation. A boe conversion ratio of 6 Mcf: 1 bbl is based on an energy equivalency method primarily applicable at the burner tip and does not represent a value equivalency at the wellhead.

The Report on Reserves Data by GLJ in Form 51-101F2 and the Report of Management and Directors on Oil and Gas Disclosure in Form 51-101F3 are included in Schedule D to this Appendix.

Notes:

- (1) Columns may not add due to rounding.
- (2) "Gross" or "gross" means:
- in relation to Blizzard's interest in production or reserves, Blizzard's gross reserves, which are its working interest (operating or non-operating) share before deduction of royalties and without including any of Blizzard's royalty interests;
 - in relation to wells, the total number of wells in which Blizzard has an interest; and
 - in relation to properties, the total area of properties in which Blizzard has an interest;

"Net" or "net" means:

- in relation to Blizzard's interest in production or reserves, Blizzard's working interest (operating or non-operating) share after deduction of royalty obligations, plus Blizzard's royalty interests in production or reserves;
- in relation to Blizzard's interest in wells, the number of wells obtained by aggregating Blizzard's working interest in each of its gross wells; and
- in relation to Blizzard's interest in a property, the total area in which Blizzard has an interest multiplied by the working interest owned by Blizzard;

"reserves" are the estimated remaining quantities of oil and natural gas and related substances anticipated to be recoverable from known accumulations, from a given date forward, based on: analysis of drilling, geological, geophysical and engineering data; the use of established technology; and specified economic conditions, which are generally accepted as being reasonable. Reserves are classified according to the degree of certainty associated with the estimates.

"Proved plus Probable Reserves" means the aggregate of Proved Reserves and Probable Reserves, before deduction of royalties.

"Proved Reserves" are those reserves that can be estimated with a high degree of certainty to be recoverable. It is likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will exceed the estimated Proved Reserves. At least a 90% probability that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the estimated Proved Reserves is the targeted level of certainty.

"Probable Reserves" are those additional reserves that are less certain to be recovered than Proved Reserves. It is equally likely that the actual remaining quantities recovered will be greater or less than the sum of the estimated Proved plus Probable Reserves. At least a 50% probability that the quantities actually recovered will equal or exceed the sum of the estimated Proved plus Probable Reserves is the targeted level of certainty.

"Developed Reserves" are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from existing wells and installed facilities or, if facilities have not been installed, that would involve a low expenditure (e.g. when compared to the cost of drilling a well) to put the reserves on production. The developed category may be subdivided into producing and non-producing.

"Developed Producing Reserves" are those reserves that are expected to be recovered from completion intervals open at the time of the estimate. These reserves may be currently producing or, if shut-in, they must have previously been on production, and the date of resumption of production must be known with reasonable certainty.

"Developed Non-Producing Reserves" are those reserves that either have not been on production, or have previously been on production, but are shut-in, and the date of resumption of production is unknown.

"Undeveloped Reserves" are those reserves expected to be recovered from known accumulations where a significant expenditure (e.g., when compared to the cost of drilling a well) is required to render them capable of production. They must fully meet the requirements of the reserves classification (proved, probable, possible) to which they are assigned.

- (3) The forecast cost and price assumptions assume the continuance of current laws and regulations and increases in wellhead selling prices, and take into account inflation with respect to future operating and capital costs. In the Blizzard Engineering Report, operating costs are assumed to escalate at 2% per annum. Oil and natural gas base case prices as forecast by GLJ effective January 1, 2005 are as follows:

- (4) The constant price assumptions assume the continuance of current laws, regulations and operating costs in effect on the date of the Blizzard Engineering Report. Product prices were not escalated beyond December 31, 2004. In addition, operating and capital costs have not been increased on an inflationary basis.
- (5) Effective on January 1, 1995, the ARTC rate ranges from a maximum of 75% of $2,000,000 when the royalty tax credit reference is below $100/m³ to a minimum of 25% of $2,000,000 when the royalty tax credit reference is above $210/m³.
- (6) The extent and character of all factual data supplied to GLJ were accepted by GLJ as represented. The oil and natural gas reserve calculations and any projections upon which the Blizzard Engineering Report is based were determined in accordance with generally accepted evaluation practices. No field inspection was conducted. Salvage values for facilities and lease reclamation costs have not been included in the Blizzard Engineering Report (well abandonment costs associated with existing and future reserves wells have been included).
- (7) The royalties deducted from the reserves are based on the percentage royalty calculated by applying the applicable royalty rate or formula. In the case of Crown sliding scale royalties which are dependent on selling prices, the price forecasts for the individual properties in question have been employed.

Additional Information Relating to Reserves Data

Undeveloped Reserves

Based on the evaluation carried out by GLJ and reflected in the Blizzard Engineering Report, Blizzard attributed 10,266 MMcf of natural gas to Proved Undeveloped Reserves and 30,734 MMcf of natural gas to Probable Undeveloped Reserves for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Approximately 71% of Blizzard's Probable Undeveloped Reserves are attributable to the Sousa Property. Blizzard developed a significant portion of these Undeveloped Reserves in the first quarter of 2005. In the event that the Arrangement is not completed, Blizzard would expect to develop a further portion of these Undeveloped Reserves in the fourth quarter of 2005.

Significant Factors or Uncertainties

For details of significant economic factors or uncertainties affecting the reserves data of Blizzard, see "Risk Factors" and "Industry Conditions" in this Appendix.

Future Development Costs

The following table describes Blizzard's forecast for future development costs for the reserves categories noted below, calculated using no discount and a 10% discount:

Year	Constant Prices and Costs (M$)		Forecast Prices and Costs (M$)
	Proved Reserves		Proved Reserves	Proved Plus Probable Reserves
2005	24.1		24.1	29.2
2006	2.8		2.9	14.7
2009	0		0	0
Remainder	0		0	0
Total (Undiscounted).....	26.9		27.0	43.9
Total (Discounted at 10%).....	25.4		25.5	40.6

Future development costs will be funded primarily by cash flow generated from production at the Sousa Property and the Grande Prairie Property and, where there is a shortfall, additional funding is expected to be available within existing bank credit lines. Blizzard does not expect its reserves and future net revenue to be materially affected by the costs of funding future development expenditures.

Other Oil and Gas Information

Landholdings

Blizzard's developed and undeveloped landholdings as at December 31, 2004 are set forth in the following table:

Location	Undeveloped ⁽¹⁾ (acres)		Developed (acres)		Total ⁽¹⁾ (acres)
	Gross	Net	Gross	Net	Gross	Net
Alberta	503,973	403,419	146,717	124,140	650,690	527,559
Total	503,973	403,419	146,717	124,140	650,690	527,559

Note:

- (1) Excludes farm-out acreage in Northeast British Columbia totaling 160,587 gross (80,293 net) acres.

Oil and Natural Gas Wells

The following table summarizes Blizzard's interest as at December 31, 2004 in wells that are producing or which Blizzard considers to be capable of production:

Location	Producing Wells				Shut-in Wells ⁽¹⁾
	Oil		Natural Gas		Oil		Natural Gas
	Gross	Net	Gross	Net	Gross	Net	Gross	Net
Alberta.....	18	16.3	151	120.9	3	1.3	99	79.8
Total.....	18	16.3	151	120.9	3	1.3	99	79.8

Note:

- (1) "Shut-in Wells" refers to wells that have encountered and are capable of producing crude oil or natural gas but which are not producing due to lack of available transportation facilities, available markets or other reasons. Shut-in wells in which Blizzard has an interest are located no further than five kilometers from existing pipelines and have been non-producing since Blizzard acquired the Sousa Property and the Grande Prairie Property. These shut-in wells include 24 gross (24 net) natural gas wells that were tied-in in the first quarter of 2005.

Properties with No Attributed Reserves

Blizzard has an interest in 503,973 gross (403,419 net) acres in Alberta to which no reserves have been attributed. Approximately 77% of Blizzard's gross land holdings are considered undeveloped. Approximately 228,000 gross (214,000 net) acres or 45% of this undeveloped land is considered non-prospective and will be permitted to expire in 2005.

Forward Contracts

At December 31, 2004, Blizzard had no price hedging contracts in place.

Abandonment & Reclamation Costs

Abandonment costs for existing and future reserves wells have been estimated by GLJ based on data specific to Blizzard's operating areas as provided by the AEUB. Reclamation costs for leases have been estimated by Blizzard based on historical average costs as provided by the AEUB. This data and the procedures used for calculating abandonment liabilities is consistent with those endorsed by the AEUB using their "Licensee Liability Rating System".

The undiscounted abandonment liability, net of estimated salvage value, in respect of Blizzard's total Proved Reserves, as estimated in the Blizzard Engineering Report, is $4.8 million ($1.8 million at a 10% discount rate) using constant prices and costs. Blizzard does not expect total abandonment and reclamation costs to exceed the undiscounted abandonment liability of $4.8 million estimated in the Blizzard Engineering Report. The expected undiscounted cost over the next three years is $70,000. The total liability in respect of Blizzard's total Proved Reserves represents cost estimates in respect of 220 net wells.

Tax Horizon

Using natural gas price assumptions consistent with the Blizzard Engineering Report, Blizzard does not expect to pay cash income taxes for either 2005 or 2006, but may be subject to capital tax for such years.

Costs Incurred

The following table outlines the costs incurred by Blizzard during the financial year ended December 31, 2004 for acquisitions, dispositions and capital expenditures:

Nature of Cost	Amount (MMS)
Property Acquisition Costs
Proved	50.5
Unproved	13.0
Exploration Costs	5.1
Development Costs	30.6
Total	99.2

Exploration and Development Activities

The following table summarizes the results of exploration and development activities during the financial year ended December 31, 2004:

	Gross	Net
Development Wells
Gas	65	48.4
Oil	0	0.0
Service	0	0.0
Dry	3	1.6
Exploratory Wells
Gas	8	3.7
Oil	0	0.0
Service	0	0.0
Total Wells	76	53.7

Blizzard had planned a 2005 capital program with exploration and development expenditures budgeted at $86.0 million. Blizzard's total proposed capital program requires Blizzard's participation in the drilling of 111 (102 net) wells, primarily on the properties discussed under "Properties of Blizzard" in this Appendix. Blizzard incurred approximately $54.4 million in exploration and development expenditures during the first quarter of 2005.

Production Estimates

The following table summarizes the total estimated production of Blizzard for the year ended December 31, 2005 using constant and forecast prices and costs:

	Estimated Production

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations of Blizzard has been prepared by Blizzard and should be read in conjunction with the Blizzard Financial Statements set forth in Schedule C to this Appendix.

Three Months Ended March 31, 2005 to Three Months Ended March 31, 2004

This management's discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the unaudited comparative financial statements of Blizzard for the three months ended March 31, 2005, the December 31, 2004 audited annual financial statements contained in Schedule C of this Appendix and the December 31, 2004 management's discussion and analysis of Blizzard set forth below under "Management's Discussion and Analysis - Year Ended December 31, 2004 to Year Ended December 31, 2003".

Cash flow from operations and operating netback are not recognized measures under GAAP. Management of Blizzard believes that in addition to net earnings, cash flow from operations and operating netback are useful supplemental measures as they demonstrate Blizzard's ability to generate the cash necessary to repay debt or fund future growth through capital investment. Investors are cautioned, however, that these measures should not be construed as an alternative to net earnings determined in accordance with GAAP as an indication of Blizzard's performance. Blizzard's method of calculating these measures may differ from other entities, and accordingly, they may not be comparable to measures used by other entities. For these purposes, Blizzard defines cash flow from operations as cash provided by operations before changes in non-cash operating working capital and defines operating netback as revenue less royalties and operating expenses.

Overview

Blizzard experienced significant growth in the first quarter of 2005 primarily due to the 2004 Acquisition and the Sousa winter development program. Approximately 1,300 boe/d of production was acquired in December 2004 and was on stream for the entire first quarter. In addition, Blizzard drilled, completed and tied-in 97 wells at Sousa, upgraded the main facility, twinned the gathering system and installed new field compression. The winter program boosted production at Sousa by approximately 50% in March 2005 and more than doubled Sousa production when all the wells came on stream in April to approximately 18.5 MMcf/d.

Production and Revenue

Production revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2005 was $13,751,000 versus $2,847,000 for the first quarter of 2004. This 382% year-over-year improvement was a result of increases in production as well as higher commodity prices. Production in the first quarter of 2005 reached 3,559 boe/d compared to 875 boe/d recorded a year ago, with approximately 1,300 boe/d of this 307% increase resulting from production acquired and 1,384 boe/d being added through the drill bit. During the first quarter of 2005, wellhead prices for natural gas, crude oil and NGL averaged $6.85/Mcf, $59.41/bbl and $43.90/bbl, respectively, compared to $5.96/Mcf received for natural gas a year ago. Blizzard did not have any crude oil or NGL production during the comparable period in 2004. On a volumetric equivalent basis, 85% of Blizzard's 2005 first quarter production was derived from natural gas.

Approximately 16% of Blizzard's natural gas production is dedicated to a long-term sales contract with Pan Alberta Gas Ltd. The remainder of our natural gas production is sold into the spot market at a daily index price. The Pan Alberta price (net of pipeline transportation) for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 averaged $6.14/Mcf and $5.91/Mcf, respectively, which was 12% and 2% lower than the spot price at AECO.

Blizzard's crude oil and NGL production is sold under short-term contracts with two purchasers. Purchasers are selected through a competitive bid process. No price hedging contracts were in place during either the 2005 or 2004 three-month period and none are currently in place.

Royalty Expense

Total royalties (net of ARTC) for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 were $2,274,000 and $493,000, respectively. The average royalty rate (as a percentage of production revenue) has dropped modestly between the two periods from 17.3% to 16.5%. The breakdown of this rate into the components of Crown royalty expense, ARTC and gross overriding royalty expense is outlined in the table in this section. Crown royalty expense for the first quarter of 2005 was $2,362,000 compared to $421,000 for the same quarter a year ago. While this 461% increase is largely a function of higher production revenue, our average Crown royalty rate also increased 16% to 17.2% in 2005 from 14.8% in 2004 as a result of adding new production at Grande Prairie where initial production rates are much higher per well versus those at Sousa. The provincial Crown royalty rate formula is sensitive to well production rates such that more prolific wells attract a higher Crown royalty rate.

The ARTC amounts recorded in the financial statements are estimates and reflect expected rebates of Crown royalty expense paid on wells eligible for ARTC. Crown royalties on the base production acquired at Sousa in December 2003 are not eligible for ARTC because the previous property owner was an "above-limit company".

Overriding royalty expense as a percentage of revenue is trending downwards because a smaller percentage of new well production is not subject to overriding royalty burdens.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 were $1,601,000 and $522,000, respectively. On a unit of production basis, operating costs equaled $5.00/boe in 2005 versus $6.56/boe a year ago. Operating expenses per unit are decreasing in 2005 as a result of production increases in the Sousa area. The majority of operating costs in Sousa are fixed as opposed to variable, which serves to drop the average cost per unit of production as production rates increase. A portion of these efficiencies were offset by higher costs per unit at Grande Prairie, which are closer to $7.00/boe. The net result on a consolidated basis is a corporate average operating cost of $5.00/boe in the first quarter of 2005.

Stock-Based Compensation Expense

Stock-based compensation expense of $210,000 was recognized for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 compared with $136,000 for the first three months of 2004. These provisions were calculated using the fair value method of accounting for stock options, performance warrants and founders' shares. In addition, future stock-based compensation expense of $1,567,000 was calculated at March 31, 2005 ($1,300,592 at March 31, 2004), which will be recognized in future periods as the stock options, warrants and founders' shares vest.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses ("G&A") were $529,000 and $333,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively. On a per unit basis, this translates to $1.65/boe and $4.18/boe, respectively, for a 61% decrease in head office costs per boe. While G&A has increased in absolute terms, reflecting higher activity levels, the overall efficiency of Blizzard is improving dramatically on a unit of production basis. G&A expenses shown on the income statement are recorded net of a reclassification of costs attributed to exploration and development activities, which transfers a portion of costs from expense to property and equipment. These costs were $203,000 and $133,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The percentage of G&A capitalized has remained consistent at approximately 28% for both of the periods.

At March 31, 2005, Blizzard had 17 full-time employees.

Interest Expense

Interest expense of $272,000 and $90,000 was recorded for the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively. The interest recorded in the first quarter of 2005 includes $65,000 in financing fees paid to the bank for the increase in the bank line effective December 2004. Another $90,000 in financing fees is recorded in prepaid expenses at March 31, 2005, which will be expensed in the second quarter of 2005 to coincide with the renewal of the bank line scheduled on June 1, 2005. Excluding the impact of the financing fees, interest expense in the first quarter of 2005 was still higher than the comparable period in 2004 due to higher debt levels. Average interest rates between the two periods did not vary significantly. Higher debt levels were experienced during the first three months of 2005 as a result of the winter drilling activity this year, which amounted to more than three-times that encountered in the first quarter of 2004. Blizzard continues to fix the interest rate for most of its bank debt on a short-term basis by using bankers' acceptances (BAs), which can usually result in an effective borrowing rate below the bank's prime rate.

Depletion and Depreciation Expense

Depletion and depreciation ("D&D") expense totaled $4,154,000 or $12.97/boe produced for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 compared to $855,000 or $10.75/boe produced a year ago. D&D has been computed based on reserve estimates contained in the Blizzard Engineering Report and adjusted for changes that occurred in the first quarter of 2005, as determined by Blizzard management. Future development costs on proved undeveloped reserves of $4,957,000 are included in the determination of the asset base subject to depletion and depreciation at March 31, 2005 versus $1,736,000 at March 31, 2004. The D&D calculation at March 31, 2005 excludes $31,316,000 of costs related to unproved property versus $6,463,000 at March 31, 2004. This number has increased significantly, reflecting the addition of undeveloped land Blizzard acquired through the acquisition completed in December 2004 (estimated at $13,000,000) and investments made in Northeastern British Columbia in the 2005 first quarter, which had no reserve evaluation completed at March 31, 2005 (estimated at $11,140,000). In addition, the cost base being depleted at March 31, 2005 includes $4,356,000 (March 31, 2004 - 3,326,000) in costs associated with asset retirement obligations.

Income Tax Expense

Blizzard has not paid or incurred any current income taxes, other than large corporation taxes that have been estimated at $58,000 for the first quarter of 2005 and $nil for the comparable period in 2004. Future income taxes for the three months ended March 31, 2005 have been estimated at $1,516,000 versus $240,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2004. Future income taxes, as a percentage of earnings before income taxes, is approximately 33% for the first quarter of 2005. At March 31, 2005, Blizzard carried a future tax liability balance of $5,706,000 because the value of the tax pools available to Blizzard to shelter future income is below their book value.

Cash Flow from Operations and Net Earnings

Cash flow from operations for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 increased 522% to $9,026,000 or $0.08 per basic and diluted share versus $1,450,000 or $0.02 per basic and diluted share for the quarter ended March 31, 2004. This significant increase was a result of higher production, coupled with higher commodity prices and lower costs in a number of cost categories. Production increased as a result of new production added through the drill bit and the production acquisition that closed in December 2004.

Net earnings for the three months ended March 31, 2005 increased 1,489% to $3,067,000 or $0.03 per basic and diluted share versus $193,000 or $nil per basic and diluted share a year ago. Not unlike cash flow, the earnings increase was primarily due to higher production and lower per unit costs.

Net earnings on a unit of production basis (or "netback") reached a new Company record at $9.57/boe, which was 297% higher than the $2.41/boe recorded in the first quarter of 2004. Higher commodity prices had a positive effect on the results, while cost reductions for operating, administrative and interest expense further improved the cash flow netback. Reductions in stock-based compensation and accretion expense were essentially offset by increases in depletion, depreciation and future taxes. Overall, the corporate netbacks were significantly higher than any previous quarter.

Reserves

The financial statements for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 were prepared using the Blizzard Engineering Report, but adjusted for any changes that have occurred since the year-end, as determined by internal engineering staff. The evaluation of reserves conducted by GLJ was in accordance with the standards contained in the COGE Handbook and the reserves definitions contained in NI 51-101 and the COGE Handbook.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Blizzard invested $54,401,000 into capital activities during the first quarter of 2005 versus $17,054,000 for the same period in 2004. The allocation of these expenditures is set out in the following table:

Three Months Ended March 31,	2005	2004
(000s)	($)	($)
Land	302	63
Geological and geophysical	4,294	3
Drilling, completions and equipping	26,730	9,178
Facilities and gathering systems	23,053	5,538
Property acquisitions	--	2,030
Other	22	242
Total capital expenditures	54,401	17,054

Capital investments in the first quarter of 2005 included $34,036,000 of expenditures at Sousa, $5,013,000 at Grande Prairie and $15,352,000 at Northeastern British Columbia. At Sousa, 100% of the winter development program was completed by March 31, 2005 and included the drilling, completion and tie-in of 97 wells ahead of schedule. All of the gathering systems, new field compression and plant upgrades at the main facility were also installed early. At Grande Prairie, two wells were drilled, six wells were completed and a concentrated effort to tie-in all wells capable of production was ongoing. Our budget to spend $16,000,000 by April 30, 2005 under the farm-in at Northeastern British Columbia was close to completion by March 31, 2005, with spending in this area reaching $15,400,000. This program included a $4,200,000 seismic program with the balance directed towards drilling, completion, tie-in and pipeline installation. In fact, two wells were completed and producing by quarter-end. The capital expenditures program for the first quarter of 2005 was funded with cash flow from operations for the quarter and bank borrowing. At March 31, 2005, Blizzard had a cash and working capital deficiency of $54,994,000, which included bank debt of $35,633,000. Blizzard has access to a total of $60,000,000 in revolving term credit facilities with a Canadian chartered bank. Borrowing under the facilities revolves until May 31, 2005 with annual extension periods available at the request of Blizzard and subject to the bank's approval. This facility is subject to an annual review and re-determination of Blizzard's borrowing base by the bank with the next review to occur by May 31, 2005 (see subsequent event note 11 in the accompanying notes to financial statements).

Under the Sierra Farm-in Agreement, Blizzard has a commitment with a senior oil and gas producer to spend an aggregate of $16,000,000 in Northeastern British Columbia by April 30, 2005. Collateral pledged as security for the commitment consists of a $16,000,000 fixed and floating charge debenture over a portion of Blizzard's oil and gas properties, which is subordinated to the bank.

Blizzard's total capital budget for 2005 is approximately $86,000,000. This capital program will be funded through a combination of cash flow and bank debt. There are two primary risks that could affect Blizzard's cash flow: (i) the risk that Blizzard does not meet its production volume forecasts, and (ii) a significant drop in the price of natural gas and/or crude oil.

Critical Estimates

The proved natural gas reserves used in determining Blizzard's depletion rates, the borrowing base from its bank and the ceiling test are based on management's best estimates of reserves, which are subject to uncertainty. Through the use of geological, geophysical and engineering data, the accumulations of natural gas, crude oil and NGL are examined to determine quantities available for future production given existing operating conditions and technology. The evaluation of these reserves is an ongoing and dynamic process impacted by current production, development activities and changing economic conditions, and as a result, the reserves are estimates that are subject to variability.

Recent Financial Reporting Developments

New accounting guidelines were released regarding hedging activities and full cost accounting for oil and gas entities. The hedging guideline deals with identification, designation, documentation and effectiveness assessments associated with hedging relationships. The full cost guideline establishes new rules for assessing asset impairment, among other changes. In essence, the ceiling test incorporates future prices and costs in the determination of future cash flows as opposed to the previous requirement of using constant prices and costs. Neither of these two guidelines had an impact on Blizzard in 2004 or 2005.

Business Risks and Uncertainties

Blizzard is exposed to numerous risks and uncertainties associated with the exploration for and development and acquisition of crude oil and natural gas. Primary risks include the uncertainty associated with exploration drilling, changes in production practices, product pricing, industry competition and government regulations.

Drilling activities are subject to numerous technical risks and uncertainties of discovering commercially productive reservoirs. Blizzard attempts to offset exploration risk by utilizing trained professional staff and conducting extensive geological and geophysical analysis prior to drilling wells.

Blizzard monitors and complies with current government regulations that affect its activities, although operations may be adversely affected by changes in government policy, regulations or taxation. In addition, Blizzard maintains a level of liability, property and business interruption insurance that is believed to be adequate for Blizzard's size and activities, but is unable to obtain insurance to cover all risks within the business or in amounts to cover all possible claims.

Year Ended December 31, 2004 to Year Ended December 31, 2003

The following discussion and analysis has been prepared by management and reviewed and approved by the board of directors of Blizzard. The discussion and analysis is a review of the operational results of Blizzard with disclosure of oil and gas activities in accordance with NI 51-101 and a review of financial results of Blizzard based on GAAP. Its focus is primarily a comparison of the operational and financial performance for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of Blizzard for the year ended December 31, 2004 and accompanying notes contained in Schedule C of this Appendix.

Cash flow from operations and operating netback are not recognized measures under GAAP. Management believes that in addition to net earnings, cash flow from operations and operating netback are useful supplemental measures as they demonstrate Blizzard's ability to generate the cash necessary to repay debt or fund future growth through capital investment. Investors are cautioned, however, that these measures should not be construed as an alternative to net earnings determined in accordance with GAAP as an indication of Blizzard's performance. Blizzard's method of calculating these measures may differ from other entities, and accordingly, they may not be comparable to measures used by other entities. For these purposes, Blizzard defines cash flow from operations as cash provided by operations before changes in non-cash operating working capital and defines operating netback as revenue less royalties and operating expenses.

Certain information regarding Blizzard set forth in this document contains forward-looking statements that involve substantial known and unknown risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, certain of which are beyond Blizzard's control, including the impact of general economic conditions, industry conditions, volatility of commodity prices, currency fluctuations, imprecision of reserve estimates, environmental risks, competition from other oil and gas companies, the lack of availability of qualified personnel or management, stock market volatility and ability to access sufficient capital from both internal and external sources. Blizzard's actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements, and accordingly, no assurance can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur. Blizzard assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking information, except as required by law.

Overview

Corporate activities conducted throughout most of 2003 were focused on evaluating various investment opportunities, which led to the 2003 Acquisition. Production for Blizzard commenced immediately following closing of the 2003 Acquisition. Blizzard spent the first quarter of 2004 completing a 34-well capital program at Sousa, which is a winter-access only region. New production from this project commenced in increments throughout March with full production on stream by the beginning of April 2004. These production increases coupled with strong natural gas prices resulted in a significant improvement in cash flow and earnings for the second and third quarters of 2004. New compression was added to the Sousa facility in late June, which accounted for the majority of the production increase experienced in the third quarter. While natural gas prices did soften during the third quarter when compared to the second quarter, production increases were enough to result in cash flow that was slightly higher than that recorded in the second quarter. Fourth quarter activities were focused on further drilling at Grande Prairie, Alberta, planning and procurement for the 2004/2005 winter program at Sousa and a sizable production purchase in Grande Prairie.

Prior period comparatives are not meaningful because Blizzard had no operations prior to the 2003 Acquisition.

Production and Revenue

Production revenues for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004 were $6,614,000 and $18,977,000, respectively, with 91% of year-to-date revenues coming from natural gas production concentrated in the Sousa area. Total production averaged 10,778 Mcfe/d for the fourth quarter of 2004, representing a 26% increase over the third quarter average of 8,554 Mcfe/d. Average production for the year ended 2004 was 8,108 Mcfe/d. Product prices received by Blizzard for the fourth quarter averaged $6.67 per Mcfe, which was 10% higher than the $6.04 per Mcfe averaged during the third quarter of 2004. An average price of $6.40 per Mcfe was received for the year ended December 31, 2004. Approximately 39% of Blizzard's 2004 production was sold under a long-term sales contract with Pan Alberta Gas Ltd. with the remainder sold into the spot market at a daily index price. The Pan Alberta price (net of pipeline transportation) for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004 averaged $6.27 per Mcf and $6.05 per Mcf, respectively, which was 6% and 9% lower than the spot price at AECO. During 2004 and to date in 2005, no price hedging contracts have been in place.

Royalty Expense

Royalties (net of ARTC) for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004 were $323,000 and $2,240,000, respectively, consisting of Crown royalty expense and gross overriding royalty expense as outlined in the table below. Crown royalties (net of ARTC) for the fourth quarter of 2004 totaled $264,000 or 4.0% of revenue, while gross overriding royalties totaled $59,000 or 0.9% of revenue. Crown and overriding royalties for the year were $2,003,000 or 10.6% of revenue and $237,000 or 1.2% of revenue, respectively.

Crown royalty expense as a percentage of revenue dropped significantly in the fourth quarter of 2004 due to an adjustment to Blizzard's gas cost allowance ("GCA"). GCA totaling $678,000 and representing a full year of recoveries was recognized late in the fourth quarter. Under normal circumstances, only one-quarter of this adjustment would have been booked in the final three months of the year. The actual Crown royalty rate, net of one-quarter of this recovery, was 13.2% of revenue that more accurately reflects a normalized fourth quarter rate for Blizzard.

Overriding royalty expense as a percentage of revenue trended downwards because many of the new wells were not subject to overriding royalty burdens.

The ARTC amounts recorded in the financial statements are estimates and reflect expected rebates of Crown royalty expense paid on new wells only. Crown royalties on the base production acquired at Sousa in December 2003 are not eligible for ARTC because the previous property owner was an "above-limit" company.

Production Expenses

Production expenses for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004 were $656,000 and $1,755,000, respectively. On a unit of production basis, operating costs equaled $0.66 per Mcfe during the fourth quarter and $0.60 per Mcfe for the year ended 2004. Per unit operating costs trended up in the fourth quarter due to new production added in Grande Prairie, which experiences higher processing costs because the production goes through third party facilities.

Stock-Based Compensation Expense

Stock-based compensation expense of $437,000 was recognized for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 and $834,000 for the year. These provisions were calculated using the fair value method of accounting for stock options, performance warrants and founders' shares. In addition, future stock-based compensation expense of $1,745,000 was calculated at December 31, 2004, which will be recognized in future periods as the stock options, warrants and founders' shares vest.

General and Administrative Expenses

G&A expenses were $845,000 and $1,981,000 for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004, respectively. On a per unit basis, this translates to $0.85 per Mcfe and $0.67 per Mcfe, respectively. These rates were up from the $0.55 per Mcfe reported for the first nine months of the year because performance bonuses of $341,000 were paid and expensed in December 2004. G&A expenses shown on the income statement are recorded net of a reclassification of costs attributed to exploration and development activities, which effectively transfers a portion of costs from expense to property and equipment. These costs were $435,000 and $949,000 for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004, respectively. G&A expenses for the year ended 2003 were $374,000, which represented head office costs associated with the start-up of Blizzard.

At December 31, 2004, Blizzard had 15 full-time employees versus eight at December 31, 2003.

Interest Expense

Interest expense of $8,000 and $183,000 was recorded for the three months and year ended December 31, 2004, respectively. During the fourth quarter, Blizzard was debt free until December 22, 2004, at which time bank debt was used to partially finance a production acquisition. Interest on the bank loan is at the bank's prime rate. An option under this facility allows Blizzard to fix the interest rate for all or part of its bank debt on a short-term basis by using bankers' acceptances, which could result in an effective borrowing rate below the bank's prime rate.

Depletion and Depreciation Expense

D&D expense totaled $2,139,000 for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 or $2.16 per Mcfe produced. D&D expense was $6,454,000 for the year ended 2004 or $2.17 per Mcfe produced. D&D has been computed based on reserve estimates contained in the Blizzard Engineering Report. The D&D calculation for the period includes $21,836,000 of future development costs (to develop proved reserves) and excludes $27,442,000 of unproved property costs from the cost base used to calculate the expense. Furthermore, the cost base being depleted includes $4,356,000 in costs associated with asset retirement obligations. Blizzard's D&D rate per unit of production for the fourth quarter was down slightly from that recorded in the third quarter of 2004 because of reserve additions.

Income Tax Expense

At December 31, 2003, Blizzard carried a future tax asset balance of $345,000 because the value of the tax pools available to Blizzard to shelter future income exceeded their book value. At December 31, 2004, Blizzard recorded a future tax liability of $4,190,000 as it accumulated profits from the business and utilized its tax pools to eliminate paying current taxes.

Cash Flow from Operations and Net Earnings

Cash flow from operations for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 was $4,804,000 or $0.06 per basic and diluted share and $12,918,000 or $0.17 per basic and diluted share for the year. Fourth quarter cash flow was up from the 2004 third quarter due to production increases at Grande Prairie and nine days of production from the acquisition that was completed on December 22, 2004. During 2003, Blizzard recorded a fourth quarter cash loss of $43,000 and a cash loss of $117,000 for the year. These losses were incurred as a result of administration expenses required during the start-up phase of Blizzard.

Net earnings for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 were $1,233,000 or $0.01 per basic and diluted share, pushing net earnings for the year to $3,168,000 or $0.04 per basic and diluted share. Net losses for 2003 totaled $3,591,000 for the fourth quarter and $3,665,000 for the year due primarily to the recognition of stock-based compensation expense.

Net earnings on a unit of production basis improved approximately 15% to $1.14 per Mcfe in the fourth quarter of 2004 versus $0.99 per Mcfe posted for the first nine months of the year. This increase was due to an increase in natural gas prices and a reduction in Crown royalty expense.

Reserves

In the Blizzard Engineering Report, GLJ evaluated the crude oil, NGL and natural gas reserves of Blizzard as at December 31, 2004. GLJ based their evaluation on land data, well and geological information, reservoir studies, estimates of on stream dates, contract information, current hydrocarbon product prices, operating cost data, capital budget forecasts and future operating plans provided by Blizzard, and prepared their report in accordance with NI 51-101. The required disclosure of the reserve estimates and future net revenue of Blizzard as at December 31, 2004 based on forecast prices and costs, followed by similar information based on constant prices and costs, are outlined below along with the economic assumptions used in preparing those estimates. Please see "Statement of Reserves Data and Other Information" in this Appendix for additional information regarding the reserves of Blizzard as at December 31, 2004.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Blizzard invested $71,445,000 into capital activities during the fourth quarter of 2004, which brought Blizzard's total spending to $99,231,000 for the year. The allocation of these expenditures is set out in the following table:

Years Ended December 31,	2004	2003

The capital investments summarized above include the drilling, completion, equipping, and tie-in of 34 net wells at Sousa as well as the addition of booster compression at the facility. The drilling component of this program was completed in the first quarter of 2004, while the facility upgrade was completed during the second quarter for a total cost of approximately $15,000,000. In addition, Blizzard closed two small property acquisitions totaling $4,000,000 to increase its working interest in the Sousa unit from 91% to 100%. Subsequent to the 2004 first quarter, Blizzard invested approximately $13,100,000 at Grande Prairie resulting in new production of 3.0 MMcfe/d. Survey costs through the summer and an early start on the 97-well program at Sousa for the 2004/2005 winter program resulted in a further investment of $7,600,000 in 2004. Finally, Blizzard added to its land portfolio and production base through a major property acquisition late in the fourth quarter for $63,000,000. As part of this transaction, Blizzard disposed of certain undeveloped land that was a portion of this acquisition to a joint venture partner in the Grande Prairie region for sales proceeds of $3,500,000.

The capital expenditures program for the year was funded from three equity issues, cash flow from operations and short-term bank borrowing. At December 31, 2004, Blizzard had a cash and working capital surplus of $2,489,000 and bank debt of $12,099,000 resulting in net debt of $9,610,000. Blizzard has access to a total of $60,000,000 in revolving term credit facilities with a Canadian chartered bank. Borrowing under the facilities revolve until May 31, 2005 with annual extension periods available at the request of Blizzard and subject to the bank's approval. This facility is subject to an annual review and re-determination of Blizzard's borrowing base by the bank with the next review to occur by May 31, 2005.

Under the Sierra Farm-in Agreement, Blizzard has a drilling commitment with a senior oil and gas producer to spend an aggregate of $16,000,000 in Northeastern British Columbia by April 30, 2005. Collateral pledged as security for the commitment consists of a $16,000,000 fixed and floating charge debenture over a portion of Blizzard's oil and gas properties, which is subordinated to the bank.

Blizzard's total capital budget for 2005 is approximately $86,000,000. This capital program will be funded through a combination of cash flow and bank debt. There are two primary risks that could affect Blizzard's cash flow: (i) the risk that Blizzard does not meet its production volume forecasts, and (ii) a significant drop in the price of natural gas and/or crude oil.

Blizzard estimates that it had unused tax pool balances of approximately $130,000,000 as at December 31, 2004.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The proved natural gas reserves used in determining Blizzard's depletion rates, the borrowing base from its bank and the ceiling test are based on management's best estimates of reserves, which are subject to uncertainty. Through the use of geological, geophysical and engineering data, the accumulations of natural gas, crude oil and NGL are examined to determine quantities available for future production given existing operating conditions and technology. The evaluation of these reserves is an ongoing and dynamic process impacted by current production, development activities and changing economic conditions, and as a result, the reserves are estimates that are subject to variability.

Recent Financial Reporting Developments

A number of new accounting standards were released in Canada over the past year. Effective for fiscal years commencing on or after January 1, 2004, new Canadian standards have been implemented with respect to asset retirement obligations and stock-based compensation. Blizzard adopted both of these new standards early as reflected in the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003. The financial statements include accretion expense for $37,000 and $138,000 for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2004, respectively, with a corresponding increase in asset retirement obligations on the balance sheet. In addition, stock-based compensation expense totaling $437,000 and $834,000 has been recognized in the statement of earnings for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2004, respectively, with a corresponding increase in contributed surplus on the balance sheet.

New accounting guidelines were released regarding hedging activities and full cost accounting for oil and gas entities. The hedging guideline deals with identification, designation, documentation and effectiveness assessments associated with hedging relationships. The full cost guideline establishes new rules for assessing asset impairment, among other changes. In essence, the ceiling test incorporates future prices and costs in the determination of future cash flows as opposed to the previous requirement of using constant prices and costs. Neither of these two guidelines had an impact on Blizzard in 2004.

Business Risks and Uncertainties

Blizzard is exposed to numerous risks and uncertainties associated with the exploration for and development and acquisition of crude oil and natural gas. Primary risks include the uncertainty associated with exploration drilling, changes in production practices, product pricing, industry competition and government regulations.

Drilling activities are subject to numerous technical risks and uncertainties of discovering commercially productive reservoirs. Blizzard attempts to offset exploration risk by utilizing trained professional staff and conducting extensive geological and geophysical analysis prior to drilling wells.

Blizzard utilizes sound marketing practices in an attempt to partially offset the cyclical nature of commodity pricing, which is subject to external influences beyond Blizzard's control. Fluctuations in commodity pricing and foreign exchange rates may significantly impact Blizzard's revenue. The oil and natural gas industry is extremely competitive and success in competing with larger well-established competitors is not assured.

Blizzard monitors and complies with current government regulations that affect its activities, although operations may be adversely affected by changes in government policy, regulations or taxation. In addition, Blizzard maintains a level of liability, property and business interruption insurance that is believed to be adequate for Blizzard's size and activities, but is unable to obtain insurance to cover all risks within the business or in amounts to cover all possible claims.

Overview

This management's discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the comparative audited annual financial statements of Blizzard for the year ended December 31, 2003 contained in Schedule C to this Appendix.

Cash flow from operations and operating netback are not recognized measures under GAAP. Management believes that in addition to net income, cash flow from operations and operating netback are useful supplemental measures as they demonstrate Blizzard's ability to generate the cash necessary to repay debt or fund future growth through capital investment. Investors are cautioned, however, that these measures should not be construed as an alternative to net income determined in accordance with GAAP as an indication of Blizzard's performance. Blizzard's method of calculating these measures may differ from other entities and accordingly, they may not be comparable to measures used by other entities. For these purposes, Blizzard defines cash flow from operations as cash provided by operations before changes in non-cash operating working capital and defines operating netback as revenue less royalties and operating expenses.

During the first ten months of 2003, Blizzard was actively searching for an acquisition opportunity that would give Blizzard a stable production base from which to build. This process gathered some momentum in the fall and culminated in the closing of the 2003 Acquisition on December 18, 2003. As a result, the operations of Blizzard up to that point were primarily general and administrative in nature. Production commenced immediately following the closing, which amounted to 13 days before the end of the year. Therefore, the following discussion is limited to the short production period for revenue, royalties and operating expenses. In addition, there are no prior period comparatives, as Blizzard did not have any operations in 2002.

Production and Revenue

Gross revenue for the year ended December 31, 2003 was $361,989. All of this revenue resulted from the 2003 Acquisition, which closed December 18, 2003. As such, the revenue reflects 13 days of operations in 2003. No revenue was recorded prior to the 2003 Acquisition. The production volume associated with this revenue was all natural gas and averaged 4,825 Mcf/d for the 13-day period. Blizzard's average natural gas price over this period was $5.77 per Mcf.

Royalties and Expenses

Royalties totaled $69,426 for the 13 days ended December 31, 2003. This equated to 19% of gross revenue. Crown royalties amounted to $59,085, or 16.3% of gross revenue, while gross overriding royalties amounted to $10,341, or 2.9% of gross revenue. Crown royalties on all of the acquired production is not eligible for ARTC, because the vendor was an "above-limit company". Any production that results from new drilling will be eligible for ARTC up to the legislated maximum. Operating expenses for 2003 totaled $50,180, also reflecting 13 days of operations at Sousa. These expenses translated to $0.80 per Mcf, which is in line with expectations.

General and administrative expenses were incurred over the entire twelve months of the year, but no management salaries or benefits were drawn until November 1, 2003. Expenses were limited to essential start-up costs such as office rent, office maintenance, office supplies and consulting fees. General and administrative expenses for the year ended December 31, 2003 totaled $374,048. By the end of the year, Blizzard had hired eight full-time employees. Geological consulting fees of $33,991 were charged to property and equipment, as they related directly to exploration and development activities.

Interest expense of $10,804 was incurred for the 13-day period ended December 31, 2003 reflecting financing costs on bank debt required as a result of the 2003 Acquisition. Interest on the bank loan is at the bank's prime rate plus 12.5 basis points.

Stock based compensation expense of $3,492,142 was recognized for the year ended December 31, 2003 representing early adoption of the new CICA standards and guidelines found in Section 3870 of the CICA Handbook. This adjustment was calculated using the fair value method of accounting for options, performance warrants and founders shares. Additional stock based compensation expense of $1,410,559 has been calculated at December 31, 2003, which will be recognized in future periods as the Blizzard Options, Blizzard Series A Warrants, Blizzard Series B Warrants and Founders' Shares vest.

Depletion and depreciation expense totaled $103,628 for the 13-day period, or $1.65 per Mcf produced. Depletion has been computed based on estimates provided in the GLJ reserve report dated November 14, 2003 and effective October 1, 2003. The depletion and depreciation provision for the period includes $10,263,000 of future development costs (to develop proven reserves) and excludes $6,400,000 of unproved property costs from the cost base used to calculate the provision.

Blizzard's future income tax provision for the period reflects an expected tax recovery for the non-capital loss incurred in 2003 that may be used to reduce taxable income in the future.

Cash Flow and Earnings

Cash flow from operations was a loss of $115,936 (or $0.03 per share) for the year ended December 31, 2003. The cash out-flow resulted because Blizzard recognized only 13 days of operations from the Sousa Property, but a full year of general and administrative start-up expenses. Net loss for the year was $3,664,590 (or $1.03 per share). Non-cash stock based compensation expense of $3,492,142 and start-up expenses were the major contributing factors for the loss that was recognized in the income statement.

Reserves

The financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 were prepared using the GLJ reserve report dated November 14, 2003 and effective October 1, 2003 because the GLJ reserve report dated March 22, 2004 and effective December 31, 2003 (the "GLJ 2003 Report") was not available at the time they were prepared.

Subsequent to year end, GLJ prepared the GLJ 2003 Report, an evaluation of Blizzard's natural gas reserves and the present value of future net cash flows associated with those reserves effective December 31, 2003. The evaluation was conducted on the basis of GLJ's April 1, 2004 price forecast and in accordance with the standards contained in the COGE Handbook and the reserves definitions contained in NI 51-101 and the COGE Handbook.

All of the reserves were added as a result of the 2003 Acquisition.

Based on the GLJ 2003 Report (forecast price and cost assumptions), the present value (at a discount rate of 10%) of Blizzard's Proved Reserves amounted to $46.9 million of Proved plus Probable Reserves (discounted at 10%) amounted to $58.4 million.

Based on the GLJ 2003 Report's estimate of reserves and the December 2003 average production, Blizzard's proved reserve life index is approximately 15.0 years, indicating the significant reserve base available for future production growth.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Blizzard invested $37,430,881 in 2003, as set out in the following table.

	Year Ended December 31,
	2003	2002
	($ thousands)	($ thousands)
Land and seismic	-	Nil
Geological and geophysical	34	Nil
Drilling and completions	408	Nil
Facilities	20	Nil
Property acquisitions	36,922	Nil

Total	37,430	Nil

At December 31, 2003, Blizzard had a working capital surplus of $8,628,611 before bank debt ($2,708,983 after bank debt), which includes a prepayment of $8,727,154 to a contract operator for the winter drilling program to be undertaken in the first quarter of 2004. This prepayment, along with the capital expenditures for the year, were funded primarily by the private placement of 51,250,000 Blizzard Class A Shares that closed on December 16, 2003 for net proceeds of $39,630,000 (net of share issue expenses of $1,370,000) and the remainder by bank debt. Bank debt at December 31, 2003 was $5,919,628. Blizzard has a $15,425,000 extendible revolving term credit facility with a Canadian chartered bank. This facility bears interest at the bank's prime rate plus 12.5 basis points, payable monthly in arrears. Borrowing under the facility revolves until July 31, 2004 with annual extension periods available at the request of the borrower and subject to the bank's approval. This facility is subject to an annual review and re-determination of the Blizzard's borrowing base by the bank, with the next review to occur by June 30, 2004.

Under the Grande Prairie Farm-out Agreement, Blizzard has a drilling commitment with a senior oil and gas producer to spend an aggregate of $14,500,000 by April 30, 2005. Collateral pledged as security for the commitment consists of a $30,000,000 fixed and floating charge debenture over Blizzard's oil and gas properties, which is subordinated to the bank.

Blizzard's total capital budget for 2004 is approximately $25.7 million. This capital program will be funded through a combination of cash flow from operations and bank debt. There are two primary risks that could affect Blizzard's cash flow: (i) the risk that Blizzard does not meet its production volume forecasts and; (ii) a significant drop in the price of natural gas.

Blizzard estimates that it had unused tax balances of approximately $38 million as at December 31, 2003.

Recent Financial Reporting Developments

A number of new accounting standards were released in Canada over the past year. Effective for fiscal years commencing January 1, 2004, new Canadian standards will be implemented with respect to asset retirement obligations and stock based compensation. Blizzard has decided to adopt both of these new standards early. As a result the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 include recognition for asset retirement obligations on the balance sheet for $2,375,602 with a corresponding increase in property and equipment. In addition, stock based compensation expense totaling $3,492,142 has been recognized in the statement of loss for the year ended December 31, 2003 with a corresponding increase in contributed surplus on the balance sheet.

Business Risks and Uncertainties

Blizzard is exposed to numerous risks and uncertainties associated with the exploration for and development and acquisition of crude oil and natural gas. Primary risks include the uncertainty associated with exploration drilling, changes in production practices, product pricing, industry competition and government regulation.

See "Risk Factors" in this Appendix for additional information on the risk and uncertainties to which Blizzard is subject.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table outlines Blizzard's capitalization as at the dates noted.

Notes:

- (1) Blizzard is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Blizzard Shares and an unlimited number of Blizzard Preferred Shares issuable in series. There are currently no Blizzard Preferred Shares outstanding. See "Description of Share Capital" in this Appendix. There are also 4,572,000 Blizzard Shares issuable upon exercise of the Blizzard Options.
- (2) Each Blizzard Series A Warrant is exercisable for one Blizzard Share at a price of $0.001 per Blizzard Share. See "Description of Share Capital – Blizzard Series A Warrants".
- (3) Each Blizzard Series B Warrant is exercisable for one Blizzard Share at a price of $0.001 per Blizzard Share. See "Description of Share Capital – Blizzard Series B Warrants".
- (4) An additional 220,000 Blizzard Series A Warrants and 176,000 Blizzard Series B Warrants have been issued to the Blizzard Founders and may only be exercised if a corresponding number of Blizzard Series A Warrants or Blizzard Series B Warrants, as applicable, are cancelled.
- (5) Blizzard has a $52.0 million extendible revolving term credit facility from a Canadian chartered bank. This facility bears interest at the bank's prime rate, payable monthly in arrears. Blizzard may also borrow by way of bankers' acceptances which are subject to a stamping fee. The loan is a revolving facility until May 31, 2006 with annual extension periods available at the request of the borrower and subject to the bank's approval. This facility is subject to an annual review and re-determination of Blizzard's borrowing base by the bank, with the next review to occur by May 31, 2006. So long as the loan remains revolving and the borrowing base supports the facility outstanding, there are no repayment requirements. Under the terms of the loan agreement, Blizzard is subject to certain financial and non-financial covenants. Collateral pledged for the facility consists of a first floating charge demand debenture in the amount of $150 million over all of the property of Blizzard. Blizzard has a second facility with the same Canadian chartered bank for an additional $10.0 million, which is up for renewal at July 31, 2005.
- (6) Assumes all of the Blizzard Options and the Blizzard Warrants are exercised at the Effective Time and that the cash received is applied towards existing bank debt.

DESCRIPTION OF SHARE CAPITAL

Blizzard is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Blizzard Shares and Blizzard Preferred Shares, 2,500,000 Blizzard Series A Warrants and 2,000,000 Blizzard Series B Warrants. Pursuant to the Arrangement, the Blizzard New Common Shares and the Blizzard Preferred A Shares will be created. The following is a summary of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Blizzard Shares, the Blizzard Class A Shares, the Blizzard Preferred Shares, the Blizzard Series A Warrants and the Blizzard Series B Warrants. See the Arrangement Agreement attached as Schedule C to the Information Circular for the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Blizzard New Common Shares and the Blizzard Preferred A Shares.

Blizzard Shares

Blizzard is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Blizzard Shares. Holders of Blizzard Shares are entitled to one vote per Blizzard Share at meetings of shareholders of Blizzard and are entitled to dividends if, as and when declared by the board of directors of Blizzard, subject to prior satisfaction of rights to dividends attached to other shares ranking in priority to the Blizzard Shares. No dividend may be declared in respect of the Blizzard Class A Shares unless the same dividend is concurrently declared in respect of the Blizzard Shares. Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Blizzard, holders of Blizzard Shares will be entitled to receive, pro rata with the holders of Blizzard Class A Shares, the remaining property of Blizzard. As at the date hereof, there are 108,774,500 Blizzard Shares issued and outstanding.

Blizzard Class A Shares

Blizzard is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Blizzard Class A Shares. Holders of Blizzard Class A Shares are entitled to one vote per Blizzard Class A Share at meetings of shareholders of Blizzard and are entitled to dividends if, as and when declared by the board of directors of Blizzard subject to prior satisfaction of rights to dividends attached to other shares ranking in priority to the Blizzard Class A Shares. No dividend may be declared in respect of the Blizzard Shares unless the same dividend is concurrently declared in respect of the Blizzard Class A Shares. Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Blizzard, holders of Blizzard Class A Shares will be entitled to receive, pro rata with the holders of Blizzard Shares, the remaining property of Blizzard. As at the date hereof, no Blizzard Class A Shares are outstanding.

The Blizzard Class A Shares are convertible into Blizzard Shares on a one-for-one basis at any time until 5:00 p.m. (Calgary time) on the date that is three days after the date of issuance of a receipt for a final prospectus of Blizzard from the last of the securities regulatory authorities in the Provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Ontario qualifying for distribution the Blizzard Shares issuable upon conversion of the Blizzard Class A Shares (the "Expiry Time"). Any Blizzard Class A Shares remaining unconverted at the Expiry Time shall be deemed to be converted into Blizzard Shares. As a result of the IPO completed in May 2004, all of the 59,875,000 Blizzard Class A Shares outstanding at that time were converted into an equivalent number of Blizzard Shares.

Blizzard Preferred Shares

The Blizzard Preferred Shares are issuable in one or more series and will have such rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions as the board of directors of Blizzard may by resolution determine. As at the date hereof, no Blizzard Preferred Shares are outstanding.

Blizzard Series A Warrants

As at the date hereof, there are 220,000 Blizzard Series A Warrants outstanding, each of which entitles the holder thereof to acquire one Blizzard Share at a price of $0.001 per share. An additional 220,000 Blizzard Series A Warrants have been issued to the Blizzard Founders and may only be exercised if a corresponding number of Blizzard Series A Warrants issued to employees of Blizzard are cancelled. All outstanding Blizzard Series A Warrants have vested.

Blizzard Series B Warrants

As at the date hereof, there are 176,000 Blizzard Series B Warrants outstanding, each of which entitles the holder thereof to acquire one Blizzard Shares at a price of $0.001 per share. An additional 176,000 Blizzard Series B Warrants have been issued to the Founders and may only be exercised if a corresponding number of Blizzard Series B Warrants issued to employees of Blizzard are cancelled. All outstanding Blizzard Series B Warrants have vested.
