GLOBAL ALUMINIA ANNOUNCES EIIC INTENDS NOT TO PROCEED WITH SECOND TRANCHE UNDER ITS SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT
No Anticipated Impact On Project Completion or Planned Capital Expenditures

TORONTO, ON – June 2, 2006 – Global Alumina Corporation (TSX: GLA.U) announced today that Emirates International Investment Company LLC (EIIC) has advised that it does not intend to purchase the US$50 million principal amount, 10 per cent convertible debenture on the existing terms of its US$100 million subscription agreement with the company dated August 16, 2005, as amended September 26, 2005. The loss of this $50 million in financing is not expected to have an impact on the timetable for project completion or on planned 2006 capital expenditures. On October 21, 2005, Global Alumina closed the first tranche of the subscription agreement and issued 25 million common shares to EIIC at US$2.00 per share for an aggregate price of US$50 million. EIIC currently holds approximately 12.5% of the outstanding shares of Global Alumina.

“While we are disappointed with EIIC's decision, they remain an important and valued shareholder and we will continue discussing this matter with them,” stated Bruce Wrobel, CEO, Global Alumina. “Meanwhile, we also are continuing our discussions with other prospective strategic investors and remain excited about our progress to date in Guinea and our opportunities within the global aluminum industry.”
