WestJet has applied for, and received, authority to provide scheduled air travel to Nassau, Bahamas. This is subject to receipt of government licence for operation.

Flights are available immediately for booking, with prices starting as low as $179 each way, plus tax, from Toronto to Nassau. Introductory fares will be available for sale until August 23, 2006 for travel until December 15, 2006.

In addition, WestJet Vacations, the recently launched subsidiary of WestJet, will offer vacation packages to this new sun destination in the near future.

Marking its tenth anniversary this year, WestJet is Canada's leading low-fare airline offering scheduled service throughout its 33-city North American network. Named Canada's most respected corporation for customer service in 2005, WestJet pioneered low-cost high-value flying in Canada. With increased legroom and leather seats on its modern fleet of Boeing Next-Generation 737 aircraft, and live seatback television provided by Bell ExpressVu on the majority of its fleet, WestJet strives to be the number one choice for travellers.
