7 November 2006Best ever TAB results on Emirates Melbourne Cup day

Victorians have set a new record for wagering on today's Melbourne Cup day.

Victorian TAB figures show:

- As at 6pm, $73.42 million was wagered on all meetings on the day, compared to $67.41 million at the same time last year.
- Turnover on today's Flemington meeting reached $62.23 million - an increase from $59.27 million last year.
- Turnover on the Melbourne Cup feature race alone was $35.02 million - compared to last year's $35.59 million figure when Makybe Diva won her third Melbourne Cup.

In addition TAB Sportsbet (fixed odds betting) held $6.7 million on the Melbourne Cup nationally.

Today's strong results continue a successful Spring Racing Carnival for Tabcorp and the racing industry and follows on from the record $31.19 million wagered on last Saturday's AAMI Victoria Derby Day meeting.

"Today's Emirates Melbourne Cup day turnover result is the best ever for the TAB," said Tabcorp's Managing Director of Racing and Media Robert Nason.

"Tabcorp's wagering system was robust on the busiest day of the year. The support of Tabcorp's on-course, agency and telephone betting staff helped deliver the record day.

"Victorians are supporting the Spring Racing Carnival in record numbers and with record levels of betting. We thank our customers for supporting racing and betting with us. We will continue to work hard to service our customers even better in the future."

In a record day for the TAB:

- By 6pm, Tabcorp's telephone betting services had taken 414,000 calls - 90,000 more calls than at the same time on last Saturday's Derby Day meeting.
- Just after the running of the Melbourne Cup, there were 42,000 concurrent users on the TAB website. By 3.30pm, more than 9 million page views had been served on the website.
- 620 people worked on-course at Flemington to sell bets to punters and further 75 were at the country race meetings at Bairnsdale, Echuca, Mansfield, Mildura and Wangaratta.
- Approximately 15,000 people worked in TAB outlets across NSW and Victoria.

Across NSW and Victoria, $130.32 million was bet on today's Flemington meeting, compared to $128.56 million in 2005.
