PRESS RELEASE

Counsels' closing speeches in Ceteco lawsuit: Hagemeyer deems Ceteco claim unfounded

On 16, 22, and 23 November 2006, counsels' closing speeches will be held in the Ceteco lawsuit before the Court of First Instance in Utrecht. This lawsuit is related to the bankruptcy of Ceteco and has been mentioned in Hagemeyer's Annual Report since 2003.

Since 1995, Hagemeyer held, directly and indirectly, approximately 65% of the shares in Ceteco N.V., which was declared bankrupt in May 2000. In October 2003, Ceteco's bankruptcy receivers filed a lawsuit against Hagemeyer, the managing and supervisory board members and the external accountant of Ceteco for the entire deficit in the bankruptcy, currently estimated by the receivers at € 160 million, excluding interest and expenses.

Hagemeyer remains fully confident that the receivers' claim will be dismissed. Examiners who have investigated the cause of Ceteco's bankruptcy on behalf of the receivers have concluded that Hagemeyer does not belong to those parties which can be held responsible for Ceteco's downfall. Hagemeyer has not established a specific provision for this claim.

It is expected that a judgment in this litigation will be given in a few months.

In the first nine months of 2006 Hagemeyer had net revenues of € 4.6 billion (FY 2005: € 5.6 billion) and employed approximately 17,600 employees. More than 90% of Hagemeyer's total revenue is generated by its core Professional Products and Services (PPS) business. PPS focuses on the value-added business-to-business distribution of electrical parts and supplies, safety and other Maintenance, Repair and Operations (MRO) products in some 25 countries across Europe, North America and Asia-Pacific. The remaining part of Hagemeyer's revenues is realised by its Agencies/Consumer Electronics (ACE) business, which distributes consumer electronics and branded products in the Netherlands and Australia and luxury goods in a number of countries in Asia. The Hagemeyer Group has its head office in Naarden, the Netherlands.

PERSBERICHT

Pleidooien in Ceteco-procedure: Hagemeyer acht claim ongegrond

Op 16, 22 en 23 november 2006 zullen bij de rechtbank van eerste aanleg in Utrecht pleidooien worden gehouden in de Ceteco-procedure. Deze procedure houdt verband met het faillissement van Ceteco en is door Hagemeyer sinds 2003 vermeld in haar jaarverslag.

Sinds 1995 hield Hagemeyer direct en indirect ongeveer 65% van de aandelen in Ceteco N.V., dat in mei 2000 failliet werd verklaard. In oktober 2003 is door de curatoren van Ceteco een rechtszaak aangespannen tegen Hagemeyer, de leden van de Raad van Bestuur en Raad van Commissarissen en de externe accountant van Ceteco voor het gehele tekort van de faillissementsboedel, op dit moment door de curatoren geschat op € 160 miljoen, exclusief rente en kosten.

Hagemeyer blijft de uitkomst van de procedure met vertrouwen tegemoet zien. Door de curatoren ingeschakelde onderzoekers hebben op basis van hun onderzoek naar de oorzaken van het faillissement van Ceteco geconcludeerd dat Hagemeyer niet behoort tot de voor de ondergang van Ceteco verantwoordelijke partijen. Hagemeyer heeft geen specifieke voorziening getroffen voor deze vordering.

Het zal naar verwachting nog enkele maanden duren voordat uitspraak in deze procedure wordt gedaan.

Over het eerste negen maanden van 2006 realiseerde Hagemeyer een netto omzet van € 4,6 miljard (gehele jaar 2005: € 5,6 miljard) en had circa 17.600 werknemers. Meer dan 90% van Hagemeyers totale omzet wordt door haar kernactiviteit Professional Products en Services (PPS) gegenereerd. PPS richt zich op hoogwaardige business-to-business distributie van elektrotechnische producten en materialen, veiligheidsproducten en andere Maintenance, Repair en Operations (MRO) producten in circa 25 landen in Europa, Noord-Amerika en Azië-Pacific. De overige omzet wordt gerealiseerd door de Agencies/Consumer Electronics (ACE) activiteiten, die in Nederland en Australië consumentenelektronica en merkproducten distribueren en luxe producten in een aantal landen in Azië. Het hoofdkantoor van Hagemeyer is gevestigd in Naarden, Nederland.
