Re: GDER, Inc. Present and Future Growth

I would like to try to set an Informal Strategic Gathering to discuss existing and new growth for GDER for the balance of 2006 and 2007.

I am finding it vital that the internal workings be known to our shareholders in order to better explain the future movements before we hit the pinks again. As stated there has been a lot of down time because of the delays in GDER get back to the pinks. This meeting is not to discuss the past but to thoroughly discuss the present and future conditions of GDER.

At this gathering our business plan will be accessible on where everything is at present. It will expose projects and backup documentation on opportunities that need immediate attention. This plan will be open to invitees to review and get a better outlook on what this organization has been trying to achieve over the last 8 months, since the initially SEC halt.

Those of you that were part of GDER initially going public are invited to come to Las Vegas the week of July 11th and 12th, 2006 so we can all talk openly on corporate issues, existing projects / positive and negatives due to the delay of GDER being in gray for so long and the new developments that will need attention quickly so that we don't lose out on other huge opportunities for our future growth. And mostly to open the eyes of our other existing restricted investors that have invested into GDER. GDER has lost a lot of momentum these last 7 months since dealing with SEC conditions, so we are trying to treat this like a new day and bring this organization back to life!

Please email me back if you can make these dates. Your input is of value to this organization. Also if there are others that you feel are vital in such open discussions to better the organization and it's come back please email me directly at gdrphil@aol.com for approval.

Sincerely,
GDER, Inc.
Philip Pritchard
