INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Governors
LarsonAllen Financial, LLC
Minneapolis, Minnesota

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of LarsonAllen Financial, LLC as of October 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related statements of net income, member's equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of LarsonAllen Financial, LLC as of October 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the schedule of net capital as of October 31, 2005, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
October 31, 2005 and 2004

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of Business

LarsonAllen Financial, LLC (the Company), a Minnesota limited liability company, was organized on February 15, 1995 for the purpose of registering with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and joining the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) as a broker/dealer. The Company is wholly owned by Larson, Allen, Weishair & Co., LLP. The Company is engaged in investment advisory, financial and estate planning, and other financial services primarily in the Midwest.

Effective October 27, 1995, the Company registered with the NASD as a broker/dealer.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from consulting and asset management services are recognized in the period the service is provided. Work in process represents unbilled amounts for services performed. Deferred revenue represents amounts collected in excess of services performed to date.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist principally of money market instruments having an original maturity of three months or less and bank accounts. At times such deposits may exceed federally insured limits.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable from customers relate to services provided. The Company does not customarily require collateral for providing such services. Trade accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to trade accounts receivable. Changes in the valuation allowance have not been material to the financial statements. The allowance for doubtful accounts at October 31, 2005 and 2004 was $15,000 and $10,000, respectively. At October 31, 2005, no single customer accounted for more than 10% of accounts receivable.

Depreciation

Property and equipment are depreciated over their estimated useful lives by use of the straight-line method.

Description of Useful Lives

The estimated useful lives of the property and equipment are as follows:

Equipment	3-10 Years
Software	3 Years

Income Taxes

A limited liability company is not a taxpaying entity for federal and state income tax purposes, thus no income tax expense has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements. Income from the company is taxed at the member level.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONTINUED)
October 31, 2005 and 2004

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising costs for the years ended October 31, 2005 and 2004 were $0 and $350, respectively.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 PROFIT SHARING PLAN

The company participates in the Larson, Allen, Weishair & Co., LLP Profit Sharing Plan and Trust. The plan is a defined contribution profit sharing plan established to provide retirement benefits to employees and principals who have met certain participation requirements. Each year the Company may, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, contribute to the plan a basic contribution and an integrated contribution. Participants may elect to make contributions through earnings reduction up to the annual deferral limit allowed under the Internal Revenue Code. The Company contributed $24,254 and $152,614 for the years ended October 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

NOTE 3 RELATED PARTY DISCLOSURES AND DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

The Company has an agreement with the member for the provision of services at a predetermined rate. For the years ended October 31, 2005 and 2004, charges for these services and operating expenses (net of service income) were $517,145 and $289,997, respectively. In addition, the Company had advanced $207,348 from its sole member as of October 31, 2005 and advanced $35,946 to its sole member as of October 31, 2004.

Effective October 31, 2004, the Company discontinued the operations of its benefits administration business segment which provided benefit planning and record keeping to its customers. The assets and liabilities related to this division were sold to its sole member. The sale of the following assets and liabilities were funded through $500,000 return of capital and a $20,837 receivable from member. No gain or loss was recorded as a result of the disposition of the business segment to the sole member.

Accounts Receivable and Work in Process	$ 546,787
Property and Equipment	58,480
Liabilities	(84,430)
Total	$ 520,837

Revenue from the discontinued operations for the year ended October 31, 2004 was $2,408,497. The results of operations for this business segment for the year ended October 31, 2004 are reflected as income from discontinued operations in the statements of net income.

October 31, 2005 and 2004

NOTE 4 NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c 3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At October 31, 2005, the Company had net capital of $465,789 as defined by Rule 15c3-1, which was $441,410 in excess of its required net capital of $24,379. The Company had indebtedness at October 31, 2005 in the amount of $365,509.

NOTE 5 OTHER INCOME (EXPENSE)

During the year ended October 31, 2005, the company entered into two agreements relating to the sale of customer lists.

The first agreement results in a gain of $196,610. All amounts owed relating to this sale were paid during the year ended October 31, 2005.

The second agreement contained both a fixed and contingent portion. The fixed portion of the contract called for a payment in October 2005 of $25,000. The balance of the fixed portion of the contract is due in three equal payments of $25,000 on April 30, 2006, October 30, 2006, and April 30, 2007. The contingent portion of the agreement calls for monthly payments for a period of two years with a maximum of $150,000 for each of the years. The contingent payments are recognized when determinable.

The gain recognized during the year relating to the second agreement was $100,000 for the fixed portion of the contract and $80,000 for the contingent portion of the contract.

The balance in contract receivable relating to the fixed and contingent portions of the contract are as follows:

	October 31, 2005		Total
	Fixed Contract	Contingent Contract

Board of Governors
LarsonAllen Financial, LLC
Minneapolis, Minnesota

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of LarsonAllen Financial, LLC for the year ended October 31, 2005, we considered its internal control, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

As required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by LarsonAllen Financial, LLC that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g), in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the reserve required by rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons,
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13, and
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. The objectives of the internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Because of the inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control that might be material weakness under standards by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control, including procedures for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purpose in accordance with Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at October 31, 2005, to meet the Commission's objectives in all material respects.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and other regulatory agencies which rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
