We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Security Research Company of New York as of September 30, 2006. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. SECURITY RESEARCH COMPANY OF NEW YORK

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

SEPTEMBER 30, 2006

Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

Security Research Company of New York (the Company) is a regional securities broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company is engaged in the trading and brokerage of investment company shares (mutual funds) and variable annuities only.

Basis of Accounting

Assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses are recognized on the accrual basis of accounting for financial statement purposes. For tax purposes the cash basis is used.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

The Company provides credit in the normal course of business to its customers and performs ongoing credit evaluations of those customers. Concentration of credit risk with respect to trade receivables is limited due to diversification of the Company's customer base, as well as the Company's collection policies. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on its trade receivables.

Deferred Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes arise from timing differences between cash basis tax reporting and accrual basis financial statement reporting.

Securities Transactions

Securities transactions and related commission revenue and expenses are recorded on a trade date basis, as securities transactions occur.

Accounts Receivable

The Company considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. Management reviews accounts annually and if amounts are considered uncollectible, they are charged to operations.

Property, Equipment and Depreciation

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Renewals and betterments of property are accounted for as additions to asset accounts. Repairs and maintenance charges are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is computed using straight-line and accelerated methods for financial reporting and income tax purposes. Estimated useful lives vary from 5 to 7 years for office equipment.

Note 2. Property and Equipment - Net

A schedule of property and equipment as of September 30, 2006 is as follows:

Office equipment	$ 2,303
Accumulated depreciation	(2,303)

Current	$ -
Deferred	-
Total federal	-
State:

Taxes Deferred

SFAS-109 requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. In addition, the accounting standard requires the recognition of future tax benefits, such as net operating loss carryforwards and investment tax credits to the extent that realization of such benefits is more likely than not. The tax effects of the temporary differences and carryforwards that give rise to the cumulative adjustment and deferred taxes are as follows and are calculated at a 22% effective tax rate.

Deferred tax assets:
Accrued expenses	$ 187

Note 4. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's "Net Capital Rule" which requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, as both are defined, shall not exceed fifteen to one. Net capital and the related net capital ratio fluctuate on a daily basis, however, as of September 30, 2006 the percentage of aggregate indebtedness $(1,050) to net capital $(9,663), both as defined, was approximately 11% (.11 to 1) and net capital exceeded the minimum capital requirement of $5,000 by $4,663.
