To the Stockholder of
L.M. Kohn & Company

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of L.M. Kohn & Company (the "Company") as of September 30, 2006, and the related statements of earnings, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of L.M. Kohn & Company as of September 30, 2006, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained on page 8 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

L.M. KOHN & COMPANY
Notes to Financial Statements
September 30, 2006

Note A - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

L.M. Kohn & Company (the "Company"), an Ohio corporation, is a broker of security products and insurance. The Company is a registered securities broker-dealer under the examining authority of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

The Company derives revenue from investment advisory fees, servicing fees, and commissions by acting as a securities broker-dealer for independent investment representatives who place their securities orders through the Company.

The Company also derives revenues from providing private portfolio management and brokerage services to individuals and institutional investors in a variety of industries.

In its broker-dealer activities, the Company, on a fully disclosed basis, clears all customer transactions through unaffiliated broker-dealers who maintain customer accounts.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in bank accounts, investments in money market funds, and required broker-dealer deposits. The two broker-dealer deposits total $35,007. This amount is not freely withdrawable. The Company considers securities with maturities of three months or less, when purchased, to be cash equivalents.

The Company maintains its cash deposit account at a commercial bank. At times, the account balance may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses on this account, and management believes the Company is not exposed to any significant risk on its cash account.

Commissions, Advisory and Other Fees

Investment advisory fees and commissions are recognized as earned. The investment advisory fees are based upon a pre-determined percentage of the market value of assets under management. Servicing fees are based upon a quarter end market value.

Commission income is generated from securities transactions and insurance sales executed on behalf of the Company's clients. Such fees are shared between the Company and the Company's registered representatives.

Investment Securities

The Company accounts for investment securities in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 133 "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". SFAS NO. 133 requires that investments in debt and equity securities be categorized as held-to-maturity, trading, or available for sale. All securities held at September 30, 2006 are classified as "available for sale".

L.M. KOHN & COMPANY
Notes to Financial Statements
September 30, 2006

Note A - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies (Cont'd)

Investment Securities (Cont'd)

Investment securities designated as available for sale consist of the following:

	Fair Market Value	Cost	Unrealized Gain
1,800 shares NASD common stock	$54,432	$22,800	$31,632

The net unrealized gain has been included as a separate component of stockholder's equity.

Federal Tax Deposit

The Company has elected to be taxed as an S-Corporation. As an S-Corporation, the Company does not pay corporate federal and state income taxes on its taxable income; rather the stockholder is liable for income taxes. As of September 30, 2006, the Company maintains a tax deposit with the Internal Revenue Service of $60,747 assessed on income earned from October 1, 2005 through December 31, 2005. This deposit is necessary for the Company to maintain a fiscal year for tax reporting purposes.

Fixed Assets and Software

Fixed assets and software are carried at cost and include expenditures which extend the useful lives of existing assets. Maintenance, repairs and small purchases are expensed as incurred. For financial reporting, depreciation and amortization are provided on the straight-line and accelerated methods over the useful lives of the assets, estimated to be three to ten years. All fixed assets and software are fully depreciated/amortized as of September 30, 2006.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions in determining the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note B - Related Party Transactions

The Company leases office space from the President's spouse for $7,300 per month effective January 1, 2006. Total rent of $83,700 was paid in the fiscal year. The Company is obligated to pay rent of $7,300 per month through December 31, 2008. The rent charged approximates rent that would be charged by an unrelated party for similar space.

Notes to Financial Statements
September 30, 2006

Note C - 401(K) Plan

The company maintains a 401(K) plan to which all employees can elect to make contributions. The Company matches 10% of employee contributions without limitation. The Company made matching contributions of $6,340 in the year ended September 30, 2006.

Note D - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule, Rule 15c3-1 (the Rule), promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, which requires that the Company maintain a minimum net capital of $50,000 and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of not more than 15 to 1, as those terms are defined by the Rule. The Rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1.

At September 30, 2006, the Company's net capital, as defined, was $895,078, which was $845,078 in excess of the minimum net capital requirement, and its ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, as defined, was .55 to 1.

Independent Auditors' Supplemental Report on Internal Accounting Control

To the Stockholder of
L.M. Kohn and Company

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of L.M. Kohn and Company (the "Company") for the year ended September 30, 2006, we considered its internal control, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-3(a)(11). We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company, (i) in making the periodic computations of the reserve required by Rule 15c3-3(e), (ii) in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities of Section 8(b) of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; (iii) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13; and (iv) in obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by Rule 15c3-3, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control policies and procedures, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance the assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded property to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate. Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at September 30, 2006, to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers and should not be used for any other purpose.
