INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
Carolina Capital Markets, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Carolina Capital Markets, Inc. as of September 30, 2006 that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Carolina Capital Markets, Inc. as of September 30, 2006, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

CAROLINA CAPITAL MARKETS, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2006

NOTE 1 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization - The Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of The North Carolina Company, was incorporated in the state of North Carolina on February 1, 1994. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Company's principal business activity is the sale of securities.

Securities Owned - Marketable securities are valued at market value and securities not readily marketable are valued at fair value as determined by the Board of Directors. The resulting difference between cost and market value (or fair value) is included in income.

Securities Transactions - Securities transactions of the Company, including commission revenue and related expense, are recorded on a trade date basis, which is the same business day as the transaction date.

Cash Equivalents - Cash equivalents are defined as certificates of deposit and U.S. government obligations with an original maturity date, when acquired by the Company, of less than 90 days, and those securities registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 which are comprised of cash and other short-term debt instruments and commonly referred to as "money market funds."

Concentration of Risk - Substantially all the Company's cash is on deposit at one financial institution and the balance at times may exceed the federally insured limit. Due to the strong credit rating of this financial institution, the Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk to cash.

Depreciation - Depreciation of office furniture and equipment was provided using the straight-line method over five and seven year periods.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 - OFF-BALANCE-SHEET RISK AND CLEARING AGREEMENT

The Company enters into various transactions involving derivatives and other off-balance sheet financial instruments. These financial instruments include mortgage-backed to-be-announced securities (TBAs) and securities purchased and sold on a when-issued basis (when-issued securities). TBAs and when-issued securities provide for the delayed delivery of the underlying instrument. These derivative financial instruments are used to meet the needs of customers and are subject to varying degrees of market and credit risk. In addition, the Company's customers may sell securities that they do not currently own and will therefore be obligated to purchase such securities at a future date.

Since the Company enters into the foregoing transactions involving derivatives and other off-balance sheet financial instruments solely for the benefit of its customers, the Company does not bear any of the credit or market risk of those customers, with the exception of the risk to the Company should its customers fail to honor their obligations related to the foregoing derivatives and other off-balance sheet financial instruments, as mentioned below.

In order to facilitate the aforementioned transactions, as well as other transactions on behalf of its customers, the Company maintains an agreement with another broker/dealer (Clearing Broker/dealer) whereby the Company forwards (introduces) customer securities transactions to the Clearing Broker/dealer, fully disclosing the customer name and other information. The processing and, if applicable, any financing pertaining to the introduced securities transactions are performed by the Clearing Broker/dealer. The customer account is therefore maintained and recorded in the books and records of the Clearing Broker/dealer on the Company's behalf. In consideration for introducing customers to the Clearing Broker/dealer, the Company receives commissions and other consideration, less the processing and other charges of the Clearing Broker/dealer. As part of the terms of the agreement between the Company and the Clearing Broker/dealer, the Company is held responsible for any losses arising when the customers introduced by the Company to the Clearing Broker/dealer fail to meet their contractual commitments pertaining to the purchase, sale and possible financing of securities transactions. The Company may therefore be exposed to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations and it is necessary for the Clearing Broker/dealer to purchase or sell the securities at a loss. The Company's exposure to risk would consist of the amount of the loss realized and any additional expenses incurred pertaining to the transaction or other customer activity.

In September, 2006 the aforementioned agreement was renewed for three years and may be automatically renewed for additional one year terms unless notification of termination by either party occurs. Under terms of the agreement the Company is required to maintain $1,000,000 blanket bond insurance coverage, and a $100,000 deposit with the Clearing Broker/dealer. The deposit is included in receivable from broker/dealers on the statement of financial condition. Also, included in the agreement are monthly minimum charges, net capital requirements and termination fees to be paid by the Company if this agreement is terminated by the Company prior to the end of the renewal term. The Company is also prohibited from entering into other similar agreements without prior written consent from Clearing Broker/Dealer.

NOTE 3 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregated indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 1500%. At September 30, 2006 the Company's net capital and required net capital were $158,667 and $100,000 respectively. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 108%.

NOTE 6 - RELATED PARTIES

As previously mentioned, the Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The North Carolina Company (the Parent).

Pursuant to an agreement with the Parent, the Company, during the year ended September 30, 2006, was required to pay the Parent $15,000, at the beginning of each month as reimbursement for certain overhead and operating expenses. Expenses incurred pursuant to this agreement, which total $180,000, are allocated as follows, in the statement of income:

Occupancy	$ 54,000
Communications	7,200
Business promotion	76,800
Management fees	6,000
Other operating expenses	36,000
	$ 180,000

The Company also incurred an additional $126,142 in management fees to Parent. At September 30, 2006, the Company owed the Parent $24,165.

On September 30, 2006 this agreement was amended reducing the monthly required payment to $12,000.

NOTE 7 - S CORPORATION

Both the Company and the Parent have elected S Corporation status for federal income tax purposes. Income taxes are therefore the responsibility of the individual shareholders of the Parent, The North Carolina Company.
