INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Director
Employee Benefits Investment Group, Inc.
Jacksonville, Florida

I have audited the balance sheet of Employee Benefits Investment Group, Inc. (the Company) as of December 31, 2006, and the related statements of income, cash flows and changes in shareholders' equity for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Employee Benefits Investment Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2005 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

My audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I (Schedules II, III and IV are not required for the Company) is presented for purposes on additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in my opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements and accompanying notes are prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The computation of net capital was prepared using allowable assets and aggregate indebtedness concepts as prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital rule.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Concentrations of risk with respect to sales income were moderately low in 2006. The Company's customer base during the year and the customers' dispersion across stable industries lessened the risk. Employee Benefits Investment Group, Inc. receives payment from large established mutual fund firms and credit worthy insurance companies within fifteen days after customer contracts are executed. Therefore, outstanding receivables were settled during the following month.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and disclosures. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions the Company may undertake in the future, actual results could differ from the estimates.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment items are stated at the lower of cost or fair value on the date usage began. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Improvements that extend the useful life of property and equipment are capitalized. Depreciation is computed using straight-line methods over useful lives of five years for furniture, fixtures, and equipment.

Income Taxes

Employee Benefits Investment Group, Inc. is a Sub-chapter S corporation; therefore there is no provision for income taxes. Income is passed through to the shareholder and taxes are paid at the appropriate individual taxpayer rates.

Note 6 – Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness (AI) to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed fifteen to one during the second year and each succeeding year in business. The Company's AI ratio to net capital was .35 to 1.00, or $26,833 in excess of that requirement. At December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital of $27,466, which was $22,466 in excess of the required net capital of $5,000.

Note 7 – Reconciliation of Net Capital to the FOCUS report

A reconciliation of the computation of Net Capital under Rule 15c3-3 between the audited financial statements and the required and submitted fourth quarter unaudited FOCUS report was performed. The audited computation was $193 more than the unaudited computation on the FOCUS, mainly due to the estimated accrued expenses that were paid in January 2006. The audited computation is presented in the supplementary information in Schedule I.

Note 8 – Exemption from rule 15c3-3

As explained in the independent auditor's report on Internal Control, the Company is claiming an Exemption from SEC Rule 15c3-3. ### INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Directors
Employee Benefits Investment Group, Inc.
Jacksonville, Florida

In planning and performing my audit of the financial statements of Employee Benefits Investment Group, Inc. (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2006, I considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing my opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that I considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, I did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examination, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

My consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. I noted no matters involving internal control that I consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

I understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on my study, I believe the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2006, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the NASD and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
