Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Board of Directors and Stockholder
Auto Club Funds, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Auto Club Funds, Inc. (the Company) as of December 31, 2006, and the related statements of income (loss), changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Auto Club Funds, Inc. at December 31, 2006, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplemental schedules is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

December 31, 2006

Note A--Organization

Auto Club Funds, Inc. (Funds) is registered as a broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Funds' transactions as a broker-dealer are limited to the sale of redeemable securities of registered investment companies and variable annuity contracts in the State of Michigan. Funds is subject to regulation, examination and supervision by the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD).

Funds is a wholly owned subsidiary of Auto Club Insurance Association (the parent company), a reciprocal insurance exchange.

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Such estimates and assumptions could change in the future, as more information becomes known which could impact the amounts reported and disclosed herein.

Note B--Significant Accounting Policies

Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are stated at fair value (approximating cost) and consist primarily of money market funds, which are highly liquid.

Commissions

Commission income is reflected as revenue as the underlying securities transactions occur.

Related Party Transactions

Effective January 1, 2006, Funds entered into a management services agreement with Auto Club Services, Inc. (ACS), a wholly owned subsidiary of The Auto Club Group (ACG). ACG is affiliated with the parent company. ACS provides management services to Funds, the parent company and other affiliated organizations. ACS receives a management fee equal to the services it provides.

Effective September 1, 2006, Auto Club Trust, FSB (Trust), a subsidiary of the parent company, became the investment manager for Funds. Trust manages all assets not designated to an external manager. For the services it provides, Trust receives a quarterly investment management fee established at 0.06% of the quarter end market value of the portfolio under management. Funds incurred investment management expenses of $70 in 2006 under this arrangement.

Securities Owned

The fair values for securities are based on quoted market prices, where available. For securities not actively traded, fair values are estimated using values obtained from independent pricing services or are estimated by discounting expected future cash flows using a current market rate applicable to the yield, credit quality and maturity of the investment.

Realized capital gains and losses are determined using the specific identification method. Unrealized gains and losses are shown as a separate line item on the Statement of Income.

At December 31, 2006, Funds owns one security, NASDAQ common stock, with a cost of $75,000, unrealized gains of $54,318 and a fair value of $129,318.

Note C--Federal Income Taxes

Funds is included within the consolidated federal income tax return filed by the parent company. Federal income taxes are computed based on Funds' separate taxable income using the parent company's consolidated tax rate. Taxable income differs from book income for items that are treated differently in the tax return and financial statements. Differences relate primarily to the timing of unrealized gains on securities. At December 31, 2006, Funds has net operating loss carryforwards of $87,252, which will begin to expire in 2025. In the consolidated return, Funds' net operating loss is used to offset the parent company's taxable income.

Auto Club Funds, Inc.

December 31, 2006

Deferred income taxes reflect the net effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of Funds' deferred tax asset and liabilities at December 31, 2006 are as follows:

Deferred tax asset
Net operating loss carryforward	$ 30,538
Deferred tax liabilities
Unrealized gains on securities	(19,011)
Other	(527)
Total deferred tax liabilities	(19,538)
Net deferred tax asset	11,000
Less: valuation allowance for deferred tax asset	(11,000)
Net deferred tax asset, net of valuation allowance	$ -

Funds recorded a valuation allowance of $11,000 at December 31, 2006 to recognize the uncertainty of realizing the net deferred tax asset.

A reconciliation of the federal income tax provision as of December 31, 2006 and the amount computed by applying the statutory federal income tax rate to loss before federal income tax benefit is as follows:

Tax benefit at U.S. statutory rate	$ (25,866)

Supplementary Report of Independent Auditors on Internal Control Required by Rule 17a-5

Board of Directors and Stockholder
Auto Club Funds, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Auto Club Funds, Inc. (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2006, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
3. Obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by rule 15c3-3

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls, and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a reportable condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements caused by error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, and its operation that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2006, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
