REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Board of Directors of
Cathay Securities, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Cathay Securities, Inc., (the Company) as of December 31, 2006, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform and audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Cathay Securities, Inc. at December 31, 2006, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Focus Report is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2006

Note 1 - Organization

Cathay Securities, Inc. (the Company) was incorporated on November 2, 1987 under the laws of the State of New York.

The Company became a registered broker/dealer pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 on January 27, 1988, and a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. on March 28, 1988. The Company conducts all its businesses on a fully disclosed basis. All customer security accounts are carried by ADP Clearing and Outsourcing Services Inc.

Note 2 - Accounting Policies

The accounting policies and practices of the Company conform with generally accepted accounting principles. The significant policies are summarized below:

Revenue Recognition

Commissions on all securities transactions are recognized when services are performed.

Fixed Assets

Office furnishings are stated at costs and depreciated over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis for both financial and federal income tax reporting purposes. Leasehold Improvements are amortized over the term of the office lease.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes", which requires the recognition of deferred income taxes for differences between the basis of assets and liabilities for financial statement and income tax purposes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax consequence for those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

Use of Estimates in Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CATHAY SECURITIES, INC.

Note 2 - Accounting Policies (continued)

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

SFAS No. 107, "Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments", requires the Company to report the fair value of financial instruments, as defined. The Company's assets and liabilities are largely carried at fair value or contracted amounts, which approximate fair value. Assets consist of cash and receivables. Liabilities consist of accounts payable and accrued expenses.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all short-term debt securities purchased with maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Note 3 - Income Taxes

The Company has loss carryforward totaling $134,000 that may be offset against future taxable income. If not used, the carryforward will expire in 2024. The provision for income taxes for the year ended December 31, 2006 consists of the following:

Deferred Income Tax Benefit	$3,800
State and City Income Taxes	($644)

Note 4 - Capital Stock

As of December 31, 2006, the Company had 5,000 shares of no par value common stock authorized and 1,000 shares issued and outstanding.

Note 5 - Commitments

The Company had entered into a five-year office lease agreement expiring on June 30, 2010. The following is a schedule of future minimum rental payments required under the above lease as of December 31, 2006:

Year Ending December 31	Amount
2007	$72,293
2008	$72,293
2009	$72,293
2010	$36,147

CATHAY SECURITIES, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2006

Note 6 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires that aggregate indebtedness shall not exceed fifteen times net capital. In addition, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital of $50,000. At December 31, 2006, the Company's net capital was $109,508, which was $59,508 in excess of the required net capital, and the Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was 0.18 to 1.

There are no material differences between the amounts presented above, which are the amounts based on the accompanying audited financial statements, and the amounts reported in the Company's focus report filed in January, 2007.

Note 7 - Financial Instruments With Off-Balance Sheet Risk

The Company introduces all customer transactions in securities traded in U.S. securities markets to another New York Stock Exchange member firm on a fully disclosed basis. The agreement between the Company and its clearing broker provides that the Company is obligated to assume any exposure related to non-performance by customer or counterparties.

The Company's exposure to credit risk associated with the non-performance of customers and counterparties in fulfilling their contractual obligations pursuant to these securities transactions can be directly impacted by volatile trading markets, which may impair the customer's or counterparty's ability to satisfy their obligations to the Company.

In the event of non-performance the Company may be required to purchase or sell financial instruments at unfavorable market prices resulting in a loss to the Company. The Company does not anticipate non-performance by customers and counterparties in the above situations.

The Company seeks to control the aforementioned risks by requiring customers or counterparties to maintain collateral in compliance with regulatory requirements, the clearing broker's guidelines and industry standards. The Company monitors required margin levels daily and, pursuant to such guidelines, requires the customer to deposit additional collateral, or to reduce positions, when necessary. The Company also has a policy of reviewing the credit standing of each customer and counterparty with which it conducts business.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL STRUCTURE
REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

Board of Directors of
Cathay Securities, Inc.:

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Cathay Securities, Inc. (the Company), for the year ended December 31, 2006, we considered its internal control including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the consolidated financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T if the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

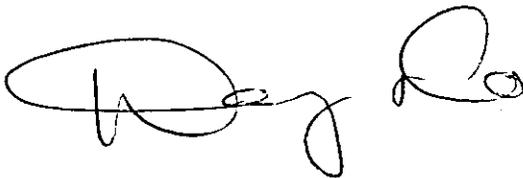

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices of procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that the practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2006, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the NASD and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
