American Capital Partners, LLC
Notes to Financial Statement
Year Ended December 31, 2006

1. Organization and Nature of Business

American Capital Partners, LLC (the "Company") was organized in New York on December 21, 2001 as a limited liability company under Section 203 of the Limited Liability Company law. The Company is wholly owned by Century Management LLC ("Parent"), which is wholly owned by ACP Capital Holdings Corp. Effective July 5, 2002, the Company commenced operations as a broker-dealer and registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and became a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD").

The Company was formed to engage in broker-dealer activities involving a general securities business on an agency and riskless principal basis throughout the United States of America and Puerto Rico. The Company receives commissions for the purchase and sales of securities from its clearing broker. The Company also conducts proprietary trading activities for its own account through the clearing broker.

In August 2006, the Company received approval from the NASD to add market-making activities as a business line. The Company is authorized to make markets in one hundred fifty securities.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

No provision is required for federal and state taxes on the income of the Company. Under the Internal Revenue Code and similar state regulations, the Company is treated as a disregarded entity for tax purposes; accordingly, taxes are paid on the income of the Company by the member.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the uniform net capital requirements of rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, as amended, which requires a broker dealer to have at all times sufficient liquid assets to cover indebtedness. In accordance with the rule, the Company is required to maintain defined minimum net capital of the greater of $100,000 or 1/15 of aggregate indebtedness.

At December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital, as defined of $1,582,272, which exceeded the required minimum net capital of $183,118 by $1,399,154. Aggregate indebtedness at December 31, 2006 totaled $2,746,781. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 1.74 to 1.

4. Related Party Transactions

The Company has entered into a management and expense agreement with the Parent. The Company is responsible for payment of commissions, clearing charges and regulatory fees. The Parent is responsible for salaries, rent and operating expenses.

5. Deferred Income

The Company entered into an exclusive clearing contract at August 17, 2004 with RBC Dain Rauscher, Inc. through June 2010 for which it was paid $850,000. The deferred income represents the unearned portion of the $850,000.

6. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is subject to claims which arise in the ordinary course of business. Counsel believes the Company has meritorious defenses to such claims. It is the opinion of management that the disposition or ultimate resolution of such claims will not have a materially adverse effect on the financial position of the Company.

The Company settled certain arbitration proceedings approximating $96,000, inclusive of cost, which are accrued in the financial statements.

7. Off-Balance-Sheet Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company clears all transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker and promptly transmits all customers' funds and securities to the clearing broker who carries all of the accounts of such customers. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event that the customer and/or clearing broker is unable to fulfill its obligations. The Company does not maintain margin accounts for its customers and, therefore, there are no excess margin securities.

American Capital Partners, LLC
Notes to Financial Statement
Year Ended December 31, 2006

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into transactions in various financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk. These financial instruments include securities sold, not yet purchased, which represent obligations of the Company to deliver specified financial instruments at contracted prices, thereby creating a liability to purchase the financial instruments in the market at prevailing prices. Accordingly, these transactions result in off-balance-sheet risk, as the Company's ultimate obligation may exceed the amount recognized in the financial statement.

The Company transacts its business with customers located throughout the United States of America and Puerto Rico.

In the normal course of business, the Company may have cash at banks in excess of federally insured limits and is exposed to the credit risk resulting from this concentration of cash.

The Company's Statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2006 is available for examination at the office of the Company and at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors of
American Capital Partners, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of American Capital Partners, LLC (the "Company"), as of December 31, 2006, that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of American Capital Partners, LLC, as of December 31, 2006, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
