CERTIFIED PUBLIC
ACCOUNTANTS

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Cutter & Company Brokerage, Inc. (a corporation) as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement presentation. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Cutter & Company Brokerage, Inc. as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the supplemental information located on pages 12 and 13 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

CUTTER & COMPANY BROKERAGE, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Years Ended December 31, 2006 and 2005

Note 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Business operations:

Cutter & Company Brokerage, Inc. is a broker/dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of various exchanges and the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD). The Company was formed for the purpose of trading and dealing in stocks, bonds and all other types of securities. The Company does not hold funds or securities for customers, or owe money for securities to customers and does not otherwise carry customer accounts. Accordingly, the Company is exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 under the K(2)(ii) exemption.

Accounting method:

The accrual method of accounting is utilized by recognizing income when earned and expenses when incurred. For income tax purposes, the Company reports under the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results inevitably will differ from those estimates, and such differences may be material to the financial statements.

Concentrations of credit risk:

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counter-parties primarily include banks and other financial institutions. In the event counter-parties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counter-party or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counter-party.

At times throughout the year, the Company may maintain certain bank accounts in excess of the FDIC insured limits.

Cash equivalents:

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Company had a non-cash transaction for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 consisting of the write-off of almost fully depreciated computer equipment for $-0- and $37,519 respectively.

Marketable Securities:

Marketable securities are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market. Market value and cost at December 31, 2006 and 2005 was as follows:

	2006	2005
Cost	$ 244,403	$ 258,736
Market Value	$ 82,345	$ 102,043

See Accountants' Report

CUTTER & COMPANY BROKERAGE, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Years Ended December 31, 2006 and 2005

Notes Receivable:

Notes receivable relates to promissory notes from an employee of the Company. The unsecured notes are payable in monthly installments of $7,500, with all unpaid principal and interest due on April 7, 2005. Interest is computed at 10% per annum. In 2005 the employment was terminated and this note receivable was written off to bad debt.

Accounts Receivable:

The Company has elected to use the reserve method in accounting for bad debts. Under this method, all uncollectible accounts are charged to the allowance account and the bad debt expense is determined by adjusting the balance in the allowance account to a reserve considered reasonable by management. No allowance for doubtful accounts was considered necessary at December 31, 2006 and 2005. The bad debt expense balance at December 31, 2006 and 2005 was $-0- and $78,303 respectively. The entire balance in bad debt for 2005 was due to write offs of advances deemed uncollectible for two brokers that terminated in 2005.

Property and Equipment:

Depreciation of property and equipment is provided for in the financial statements using the straight-line and accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Expenditures for major renewals and betterments that extend the useful lives of property and equipment are capitalized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Depreciation expense charged to operations for the year ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 was $26,604 and $25,984, respectively.

Property and equipment are summarized by the major classification as follows:

Classification	Useful Lives for Purposes of Depreciation	2006	2005
Furniture and Fixtures	5-7 years	$ 59,397	$ 58,497
Equipment	5-7 years	38,897	38,897

See Accountants' Report

CUTTER & COMPANY BROKERAGE, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Years Ended December 31, 2006 and 2005

The Company has not recorded depreciation in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The effects of this departure from generally accepted accounting principles are not material.

Income Taxes:

The Company has adopted SFAS 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, to account for deferred income taxes. Deferred taxes are computed based on the tax liability or benefit in future years of the reversal of temporary differences in the recognition of income or deduction of expenses between financial and tax reporting purposes. The difference between tax expense and taxes currently payable is reflected in the balance sheet as deferred taxes. The items resulting in deferred taxes are as follows:

	2006	2005
Depreciation	$(33,470)	$ (43,386)
Capital Loss Carryforward Expiring in 2007	2,561	3,208
Capital Loss Carryforward Expiring in 2006	-0-	4,974
Other Comprehensive Income attributable to Unrealized holding Losses on Securities	162,058	156,693
Total	$131,149	$ 121,489

Deferred tax assets and/or liabilities are classified as current and noncurrent based on the classification of the related asset or liability for financial reporting purposes, or based on the expected reversal date for deferred taxes that are not related to an asset or liability. At December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company had total current deferred tax assets of $34,570 and $34,624, respectively and total long-term deferred tax liabilities of $7,029 and $9,111, respectively.

NOTE 2: RETIREMENT PLAN

In 1999 the Company adopted a 401(k) Employee Pension for all employees meeting eligibility and electing to participate. The Company matches 10% on the first 6% of compensation an employee elects to defer. In addition, the Company has the discretion each year to elect to make a profit sharing plan contribution for all eligible employees. At the beginning of 2006, the Company elected to adopt a safe harbor plan for the Company match and still maintain the discretionary profit sharing plan contributions for all eligible employees. With this plan, the Company match changed to match 100% of the first 3% withheld and 50% of the next 4th and 5th percent elected to defer. At December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company elected to contribute an overall percentage of 7.8% and 7.2%, respectively to the profit sharing plan. The employer match and profit sharing plan contribution charged to operations for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 was $66,757 and $60,157, respectively.

NOTE 3: COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company has obligations under operating leases with initial non-cancelable terms in excess of one year. Future aggregate annual rental for office space at December 31, 2006 is approximately $61,693 for 2007. The lease on the office space expires July 30, 2007. Future aggregate minimum annual rentals for the copier equipment lease at December 31, 2006 are approximately $6,740 per year for 2007 and 2008 and $2,810 for 2009. The lease on the copier equipment is set to expire in June 2009. At that time, the Company has an option to extend the lease for an additional year.

Rent expense charged to operations for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 was $111,255 and $107,264, respectively.

In the normal course of business, the Company is party to litigation and arbitration actions involving their broker activities. It is management's opinion that sufficient reserves have been provided for the financial statements and that errors and omission insurance coverage is adequate to provide for any significant judgments resulting from said litigation or arbitration.

NOTE 4: NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Under the Rule, the Company's aggregate indebtedness to all other persons cannot exceed 1500 percent of net capital. The Rule also requires that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the Company's net capital would fail to exceed 120 percent of the minimum dollar amount required. At December 31, 2006 and 2005, the Company had the following allowable net capital of $286,461 and $287,700, respectively, which was $236,461 and $237,700 in excess of the minimum required. The percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital at December 31, 2006 and 2005 was 112% and 84%, respectively.

NOTE 5: PRIOR PERIOD ADJUSTMENT

Certain balance sheet accounts were reclassified so they were reported in the account type that more accurately reflects the nature of the item.

NOTE 6: RECRUITING AND LEAD EXPENSE

During 2006, the Company chose to increase their recruiting efforts in order to increase their client base.

The Board of Directors
Cutter & Company Brokerage, Inc.
Chesterfield, Missouri

In planning and performing our audit of the consolidated financial statements and supplemental schedules of Cutter & Company Brokerage, Inc. for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to the customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2006 and 2005, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, NASD and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1937 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
