INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
Reef Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Reef Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2006, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Reef Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2006, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

REEF SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2006

Note 1 - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Reef Securities, Inc., (the "Company"), was incorporated on February 18, 1993 in the State of Texas as a direct participation broker-dealer in securities. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD"). The Company operates under SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i).

The Company acts as a selling agent for related companies, Reef Exploration, Inc. and Reef Oil & Gas Partners LLC ("Reef") in the offering and selling of interests in oil and gas development programs. All of the Company's revenue is derived from this single activity.

Under a sales agreement, Reef agreed to provide the Company with office space, office furniture and computers, as well as secretarial help at no cost. In addition, Reef agreed to pay all telephone bills incurred by the Company in conjunction with its performance of services as selling agent for Reef at no cost. Reef also agreed to provide the Company all offering materials to be used in conjunction with the offer and sale of interest in Reef ventures at not cost. Had this agreement not been in place, the operating results and financial position of the Company might have been significantly different from that if the Company were autonomous.

Commissions revenue is recognized as follows:

Prior to the funding of programs reaching certain specified minimum amounts, all proceeds from investors are retained by an escrow agent. Upon minimum funding being achieved, the Company reflects commissions revenue for capital raised through that period.

After the funding of program minimums are met, the Company reflects commissions revenue for capital raised in the period received by the program sponsor.

Commissions expense is reflected when related commissions revenue is earned.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

REEF SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2006

Note 1 - Organization and Significant Accounting Policies, continued

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to temporary differences between financial and income tax reporting. The deferred tax asset or liability, as applicable, represents the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the asset or liability is recovered or settled. When applicable, deferred taxes are recognized for operating losses that are available to offset future taxable income.

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital of approximately $191,107 and net capital requirements of $6,147. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .48 to 1. The Securities and Exchange Commission permits a ratio of no greater than 15 to 1.

Note 3 - Possession or Control Requirements

The Company holds no customer funds or securities. There were no material inadequacies in the procedures followed in adhering to the exemptive provisions of (SEC) Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(i).

Note 4 - Income Taxes

The benefit for income taxes consists of the following:

Change in management estimate	$ (6,575)
Federal income taxes	48,279
State income taxes	2,744
Total	$ 44,448
Current	$ (1,250)
Deferred	45,698
Total	$ 44,448

REEF SECURITIES, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements

Note 4 - Income Taxes, continued

As of December 31, 2006, there was a deferred tax benefit of $24,694 as a result of state income tax loss carryforwards and the timing of deductions for compensation accruals payable to stockholder/employees.

Note 5 - Concentration Risk

At December 31, 2006, and at various times throughout the year, the Company had cash balances in excess of Federally insured limits of $100,000.

Independent Auditor's Report

On Internal Control

Required By SEC Rule 17a-5

For the Year Ended

December 31, 2006

CF & Co., L.L.P.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS
& CONSULTANTS

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL REQUIRED BY SEC RULE 17a-5

Board of Directors
Reef Securities, Inc.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental information of Reef Securities, Inc. (the "Company"), for the year ended December 31, 2006, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons
2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives.

Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2006, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and other regulatory agencies that rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
