Report of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors
EAInvest Securities, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of EAInvest Securities, Inc., as of December 31, 2006. The statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the management of EAInvest Securities, Inc. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of financial condition, based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of EAInvest Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2006, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2006

Note 1 – Basis of presentation and summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

The accompanying statement of financial condition includes the accounts of EInvest Securities, Inc. (the "Company"). The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of BenefitStreet, Inc.

The Company was incorporated in Delaware on July 31, 2000, and is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD").

Nature of operations

The Company provides, through its website, tools and services for registered investment advisors. Through its clearing broker-dealer, the Company offers custodial services and an online brokerage platform, as well as a broad range of products available for investment advisors to use with their clients.

Basis of accounting

The statement of financial condition of the Company has been prepared under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and reflect the following significant policies.

Revenue recognition

Commissions and fees are earned by the Company through the sale of equities, bonds and mutual funds and are recorded on an accrual basis. Commissions are earned from trading equities, bonds and mutual funds. 12b-1 fees and mutual fund distributions are earned based on custodied assets. Investment income is recorded as earned.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of amounts on deposit with a financial institution in checking and money market accounts, all available on demand.

EALInvest Securities, Inc.
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2006

Note 1 – Basis of presentation and summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Fair value of financial instruments

Substantially all assets and liabilities carried at historical cost or contract value approximate fair value due to their relative short-term nature.

Advertising costs

Costs incurred for producing and communicating advertising are expensed when incurred.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the statement of financial condition in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and contingent liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2 – Transactions with parent company

The Company utilizes services and business facilities owned or leased by its parent company in conducting business activities. For the year ended December 31, 2006, the Company was charged a total of $184,300 as reimbursement for administrative, personnel and other support provided by the parent company.

Note 3 – Income taxes

The Company provides for income taxes for all transactions that have been recognized in the statement of financial condition, determined in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." As of December 31, 2006, the Company had a deferred tax asset that has been fully offset by a valuation allowance.

EAlvest Securities, Inc.
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Note 3 – Income taxes (continued)

The deferred tax asset consists principally of a net operating loss carryforward of approximately $885,000. The carryforward expires from 2022 and 2026, if not utilized. Utilization of the loss carryforward is subject to annual limitation in the event of an ownership change, as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 382. On October 22, 2002, an ownership change did occur. The annual limitation on the utilization of approximately $104,000 of the net operating loss carryforward has not yet been determined.

Note 4 – Net capital requirement

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 of the SEC (the "Rule"). The Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined under the Rule, equivalent to the greater of $5,000 or 12.5% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined under the Rule.

As of December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital, as defined under the Rule, of $106,031 which exceeded the minimum requirement of $5,000 by $101,031. The Company's aggregate indebtedness, as defined under the Rule, was 2% of its net capital.

Report of Independent Auditors on Internal Accounting Control
Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
EAInvest Securities, Inc.

We have audited the statement of financial condition of EAInvest Securities, Inc. at December 31, 2006, and have issued our report thereon dated February 12, 2007. As part of our audit, we made a study and evaluation of the Company's system of internal accounting control to the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system as required by generally accepted auditing standards. The purpose of our study and evaluation, which included obtaining an understanding of the accounting system, was to determine the nature, timing and extent of the auditing procedures necessary for expressing an opinion on the statement of financial condition.

We also studied the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedure for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. The objectives of a system and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use of disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of the statement of financial condition in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal accounting control procedures or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. In addition, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with them may deteriorate.

Our study and evaluation, made for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph, would not necessarily disclose all material weaknesses in the system. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of EAInvest Securities, Inc., taken as a whole. No condition that may be considered a material weakness came to our attention during our study and evaluation.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2006 to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the National Association of Securities Dealers and should not be used for any other purpose.
