MOREY & COMPANY, LLC
Accountants and Advisors

To the Members
Hold Brothers Execution Services, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Hold Brothers Execution Services, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2006. This statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Hold Brothers Execution Services, LLC at December 31, 2006, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE A – ORGANIZATION

Nature of business

Hold Brothers Execution Services, LLC (the "Company") was organized in 2005 in the State of Delaware as a limited liability company. The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE").

The Company's business consists of routing customer and proprietary equity securities orders for execution on the New York Stock Exchange for the benefit of Hold Brothers On-Line Investment Services, LLC, a related company.

NOTE B – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and money market accounts.

Securities transactions:

Securities transactions and the related revenues and expenses are recorded in the financial statements on a trade date basis.

Income taxes:

A limited liability company is treated as a partnership for income tax purposes and is not subject to income taxes. The taxable income or loss of the Company is includible in the income tax returns of its members. Therefore, no provision for income tax has been provided.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE C – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has a trade execution agreement with Hold Brothers On-Line Investment Services, LLC, a related company. Receivable from related party represents $39,000 due from Hold Brothers On-Line Investment Services, LLC in connection with the agreement.

NOTE D – NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness, as defined, to net capital, shall not exceed 15 to 1.

At December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital of $745,010, which was $645,010 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .15 to 1.

Capital withdrawals are subject to certain notification and other provisions of the net capital rules of the SEC.

NOTE E – CREDIT AND MARKET RISK

At December 31, 2006, cash and cash equivalents were held on deposit at diversified U.S. financial institutions.
