Independent Auditors' Report

Members of
BRI Partners LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of BRI Partners LLC as of December 31, 2006 that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of BRI Partners LLC as of December 31, 2006 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

BRI Partners LLC

Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2006

Note 1 Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations—BRI Partners LLC (the "Company") is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the NASD. The Company is also registered as a commodity pool operator and a commodity trading advisor with the National Futures Association.

The Company acts as an investment advisor to one entity and a nondiscretionary subadvisor to another entity ("Investors") that invest in hedge funds. Pursuant to the respective agreements, the Company receives quarterly management fees based on net asset values, as defined, and quarterly incentive fees based on new profits, as defined, relating to the funds under management.

The Company's operating agreement provides, among other things, that the Company shall dissolve no later than December 31, 2050.

Use of Estimates—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents—Cash equivalents are all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less at the date of acquisition.

Certificate of Deposit—The certificate of deposit, which serves as a collateral on a line of credit at a bank, is reflected at fair value, provides for interest at 4.75 percent, and matures on April 22, 2007.

Investment in Limited Liability Company—The investment in limited liability company is reflected at fair value.

Income Recognition—Management, incentive and private equity fees are recognized when earned.

Income Taxes—The Company is taxed as a partnership under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and, accordingly, is not subject to federal income taxes. Instead, members are liable for federal income taxes on their respective shares of taxable income.

Note 2 Members' Equity

The Company's operating agreement provides that certain members are managers (the "Managers") responsible for the day to day operations of the Company. Managers may repurchase another Manager's interest upon that Manager's resignation or removal as a Manager.

The Company's operating agreement also provides that the Managers receive management fees plus certain benefits.

In addition, the Company's operating agreement provides that distributions of capital transactions proceeds, as defined, will first be made to members in proportion to their percentage interests, and any remainder in proportion to their unreturned capital contributions.

Note 3 Private Equity Fees

The private equity fees from one of the Investors represent approximately 83 percent of total fees earned for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2006

Note 4 Related-Party Transactions

Cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2006 include $757,059 on deposit with a broker-dealer affiliated through common ownership with one of the Company's members.

The Company's investment in a limited liability company represents an investment as a managing member in a hedge fund of funds. During the year ended December 31, 2006, the Company earned management fees from this entity. At December 31, 2006, fees receivable of $33,588 represents an amount due from this entity.

An entity affiliated through common ownership provides administrative support, office space, technologies, and other resources to the Company. At December 31, 2006, accounts payable and accrued expenses includes $1,000 due to this entity.

Note 5 Commitments

The Company has agreed to pay an introductory fee of $125,000 per year through the year ended December 31, 2009, or a lesser amount based on the operating results of one of the Investors.

Note 6 Employee Benefit Plan

The Company provides a 401(k) plan to all eligible employees. The Company may make discretionary contributions to the plan, subject to certain limitations as set forth in the plan agreement.

Note 7 Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains deposits at a bank and a broker-dealer affiliated with one of the Company's members through common ownership in excess of federally insured limits. The Company does not anticipate nonperformance by these counterparties and has a policy of monitoring, as considered necessary, the creditworthiness of these counterparties.

Note 8 Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1). Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain "net capital" equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6-2/3 percent of "aggregate indebtedness," as these terms are defined. Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change from day to day, but at December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of approximately $1,017,000 and $5,000, respectively. The net capital rule may effectively restrict distributions to the members.

Note 9 Subsequent Event

Subsequently to December 31, 2006, the Company distributed $13,700,000 to members.
