Report of Independent Public Accountants

To the Board of Directors
Hunter Securities Corp.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Hunter Securities Corp. as of December 31, 2006, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Hunter Securities Corp. as of December 31, 2006, and its results of operations and cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedule I is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

HUNTER SECURITIES CORP.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Business and summary of significant accounting policies:

Business:

Hunter Securities Corp. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

The Company has an agreement with another broker-dealer (the "clearing broker") to clear transactions, carry customers' accounts on a fully-disclosed basis and perform record keeping functions and, consequently, operates under the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c3-3k(2)(ii). The Company's customer activities are transacted on a cash basis.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Securities transactions and valuations:

Securities transactions, commission income and related commission expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis.

The Company's positions in securities owned are concentrated in state and municipal obligations. Those securities positions and its deposits in money market accounts are valued at market and unrealized gains and losses are included in results of operations.

Cash equivalents:

Cash equivalents are investments in money market funds.

Furniture and equipment:

Furniture and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is provided using straight-line and accelerated methods.

Income taxes:

The Company, with the consent of its stockholders, has elected to be treated as an "S" Corporation under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. In general, corporate income or loss of an "S" Corporation is allocated to the stockholders for inclusion in their personal Federal income tax returns. Accordingly, there is no provision for Federal income tax in the accompanying financial statements.

The Company has also elected to be treated as an "S" Corporation for New Jersey state income tax purposes. However, the State of New Jersey does impose a tax on "S" Corporation income at a reduced rate.

Deferred state tax assets and liabilities were not material at December 31, 2006.

HUNTER SECURITIES CORP.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 2 - Securities owned:

Securities owned (other than money market account shares) represent positions in marketable securities taken primarily for trading purposes in the ordinary course of business. At December 31, 2006, securities owned includes marketable securities, at market value, consisting of state and municipal bonds, with a market value of $866,424.

Note 3 - Furniture and equipment:

The carrying value of furniture and equipment has been included in other assets as of December 31, 2006 and consists of the following:

	Estimated Useful Life	Amount
Furniture and fixtures	5-7 years	$ 38,036
Equipment and software	3-5 years	140,512
Vehicles	5 years	36,828
		215,376
Less accumulated depreciation		204,166
Total		$ 11,210

Note 4 - Payable to clearing organization:

The payable to clearing organization is primarily comprised of margin obligations, which are collateralized by securities owned by the Company.

Note 5 - Related party transactions:

Note payable - stockholder, which bears interest at 4.875% per annum, is due on demand. Related interest expense amounted to $1,265 for the year ended December 31, 2006.

The Company has advanced $40,000 to a stockholder. The advance is noninterest bearing and is due on demand.

HUNTER SECURITIES CORP.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 6 - Savings plan:

The Company maintains a profit-sharing plan pursuant to Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code under which all employees meeting eligibility requirements qualify for membership. The Company may make voluntary contributions at the discretion of the Board of Directors. There were no contributions made to the plan for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Note 7 - Commitments and contingencies:

Operating leases:

The Company leases its office space under an operating lease that expires in August 2009. The office lease requires the Company to pay real estate taxes and maintenance costs. Minimum future rental commitments under the lease in each of the years subsequent to December 31, 2006 are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	Amount
2007	$31,334
2008	32,272
2009	21,931
Total	$85,537

Rent expense under noncancelable operating leases was $30,576 in 2005.

Indemnifications:

In the normal course of its business, the Company indemnifies and guarantees certain service providers, such as clearing and custody agents, trustees and administrators, against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the Company or its affiliates. The Company also indemnifies some clients against potential losses incurred in the event specified third-party service providers, including subcustodians and third-party brokers, improperly execute transactions. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

HUNTER SECURITIES CORP.

Note 8 - Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and concentration of credit risk:

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash deposits with banks and brokers and receivables from other brokers. At times, such deposits exceed Federal or other applicable insurance limits. The Company reduces its exposure to credit risk by maintaining banking and brokerage relationships with major financial institutions and monitoring their credit ratings.

Securities sold but not yet purchased represent obligations of the Company to deliver the specified security at the contracted price and thereby create a liability to repurchase the security in the market at prevailing prices. Accordingly, these transactions result in off-balance-sheet risk as the Company's ultimate obligation to satisfy the sale of securities sold but not yet purchased may exceed the amount recognized in the statement of financial condition.

Additionally, the Company is exposed to off-balance-sheet risk of loss on transactions during the period from the trade date to the settlement date, which is generally three business days. If the customer fails to satisfy its contractual obligations to the clearing broker, the Company may have to purchase or sell financial instruments at prevailing market prices in order to fulfill the customer's obligations. Settlement of these transactions is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Note 9 - Net capital requirements:

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash distributions paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital of $208,867, which was $108,867 in excess of its minimum required net capital of $100,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 1.28 to 1.

Report of Independent Public Accountants on Internal Control

To the Board of Directors
Hunter Securities Corp.

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Hunter Securities Corp. (the "Company") as of and for the year ended December 31, 2006, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting ("internal control") as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11), and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that adversely affects the entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report financial data reliably in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America such that there is more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the entity's financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control. A material weakness is a significant deficiency, or combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected by the entity's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures as described in the second paragraph of this report were adequate at December 31, 2006 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
