To the Board of Directors of
Omnivest, Inc.
Denver, Colorado

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Omnivest, Inc. as of March 31, 2007 and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Omnivest, Inc. as of March 31, 2007 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information contained in the schedules on pages 8 through 10 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION

Nature of Business:

The Company is a registered broker/dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Act).

The Company operates pursuant to paragraph (k) (2) (B) of Rule 15c3-3 of the Act and does not carry customer accounts or clear customer transactions. Accordingly, all customer transactions are executed and cleared on behalf of the Company by other broker-dealers. As a result, the Company is exempt from the remaining provisions and requirements of Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(b) of the Act.

NOTE 2 - ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments, purchased with an original maturity of three months or less, to be cash equivalents.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Securities:

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis, which is the date a transaction is executed.

Furniture and Equipment:

Furniture and equipment is recorded at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets excluding salvage value. Normal repairs and maintenance expenses are charged to operations and major improvements are capitalized.

OMNIVEST, INC.
For the Year Ended March 31, 2007

---

Revenue Recognition:

Revenue is recognized when it is earned. Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a trade-date basis.

Concentrations of Credit Risk:

The Company is engaged in various trading and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty, or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

Income Taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes under SFAS No. 109, which requires the asset and liability approach to accounting for income taxes. Under this approach, deferred income taxes are determined based upon differences between the financial statement and tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities and operating loss carryforwards using enacted tax rates in effect for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are recognized if it is more likely than not that the future tax benefit will be realized.

NOTE 3 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is periodically involved in legal actions or administrative proceedings arising in the normal course of business. At March 31, 2007 management is not aware of any material claims against the Company, either actual or threatened.

NOTE 4 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Under SEC Rule 15c3-1(a)(2)vi, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital of $5,000, and shall not permit its aggregate indebtedness to all other persons to exceed 1,500% of its net capital. As of March 31, 2007 the Company had net capital of $27,663. This was an excess of its required net capital of $5,000 at March 31, 2007. The Company's net capital ratio was 2.52% as of March 31, 2007.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL REQUIRED BY RULE 17A-5 OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Board of Directors
Omnivest, Inc.
Denver, Colorado

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Omnivest, Inc. (the "Company") as of and for the year ended March 31, 2007, we considered its internal control, including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control.

We also made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13 or in complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal controls and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal controls would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal controls that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions.

However, we noted the following matter involving the control environment and its operations that we considered to be a material weakness as defined above. This condition was considered in determining the nature, timing and extent of the procedures to be performed in our audit of the financial statements of Omnivest, Inc. for the year ended March 31, 2007 and this report does not affect our report thereon dated May 29, 2007.

As a result of the Company's small size, the assignment of job responsibilities does not provide an adequate segregation of duties. Effective internal controls contemplate a segregation of duties so that no one individual processes a transaction from its inception to its completion. While we recognize that the Company is not large enough to permit adequate segregation of duties for an effective system of internal accounting control, it is important that you be aware of this condition.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at March 31, 2007 to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purpose.
