INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Triumph Securities Corporation

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Triumph Securities Corporation (a wholly owned subsidiary of Triumph Resources Corporation) as of June 30, 2007 and 2006 and the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Triumph Securities Corporation at June 30, 2007 and 2006 and the results of its operations, changes in stockholder's equity and cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements as a whole. The information contained on page 10 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedure applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material aspects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole and in conformity with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(a wholly owned subsidiary of
Triumph Resources Corporation)

NOTES TO STATEMENTS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

JUNE 30, 2007 AND 2006

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Organization

Triumph Securities Corporation (the Company) is a registered broker dealer in securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company was incorporated on May 20, 1981 to sell and distribute units in oil and gas limited partnerships, of which Triumph Resources Corporation, the Company's parent, is the general partner.

(b) Merger

On November 21, 1986, the parent company was involved in an acquisition by Prometheus, Inc. The transaction was treated as a reverse purchase acquisition, whereby stockholders of Triumph Resources Corporation received 90% of the common stock of the new parent company, Triumph Oil and Gas Corporation (Triumph) and stockholders of Prometheus, Inc. received 10% of Triumph. Triumph Securities Corporation remained a wholly owned subsidiary of Triumph Resources Corporation.

(c) Business Activity

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, the Company's business activity included the provision of financial advisory services and assistance in private placement financings.

(d) Basis of Accounting

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual basis of accounting where revenues are recognized when earned and expenses when incurred. This basis of accounting conforms to generally accepted accounting principles.

TRIUMPH SECURITIES CORPORATION

(a wholly owned subsidiary of
Triumph Resources Corporation)

NOTES TO STATEMENTS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION (continued)

JUNE 30, 2007 AND 2006

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Cont'd)

(e) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(f) Accounts Receivable

The Company utilizes the direct write-off method to account for bad debt expense. Recoveries of items previously charged off are recognized as income when received. Generally accepted accounting principles require the reserve method to be used to account for bad debts; however, the use of the method described above does not result in a material difference between that and the reserve method. There was no bad debt expense for the years ended June 30, 2007 and 2006.

(g) Investments

The Company's securities are classified as available-for-sale and, as such, are carried at fair value. Securities classified as available-for-sale may be sold in response to changes in interest rates, liquidity needs, and for other purposes. The Company does not currently have any held-to-maturity or trading securities.

TRIUMPH SECURITIES CORPORATION

(a wholly owned subsidiary of
Triumph Resources Corporation)

JUNE 30, 2007 AND 2006

(g) Investments

Unrealized holding gains and losses for available-for-sale securities are excluded from net income and reported as a separate component of stockholder's equity. Realized gains and losses for securities classified as available-for-sale are reported in earnings based upon the adjusted cost of the specific security sold.

NOTE 2 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1) which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn on cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At June 30, 2007, the Company had capital of $21,545 which was $16,545 in excess of its required capital of $5,000. Pursuant to SEC Rule 15C3-3, the Company is k(2)(i) exempt. The Company does not hold or maintain customer funds or securities.

NOTE 3 - TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

The Parent allocated rent and utility costs for shared office space to the Company in the amount of $31,818 and $12,627 for the years ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

JUNE 30, 2007 AND 2006

NOTE 4 - INVESTMENTS

An analysis of the Company's investments and their fair value as of June 30, 2007 and 2006 are as follows:

	2007
Type of Investment	Cost	Unrealized gains	Fair Value
Common Stock & warrants	$14,343	$25,137	$ 39,480
	2006
Common Stock & warrants	$40,509	$184,553	225,062

NOTE 5 - INCOME TAXES

The Company is included in the consolidated federal tax return of the parent company. State and local taxes are provided based upon separate return filings.

Federal income taxes were not provided during the Company's fiscal year ending June 30, 2007 and 2006 since the consolidated group had a net operating loss for both years.

A provision for state and local income taxes in the amount of $652 and $864 was established for fiscal years ending June 30, 2007 and June 30, 2006, respectively.

No material differences exist between the above computations of Net Capital and that filed with the Company's unaudited June 30, 2007 and 2006 FOCUS reports. The Company does not hold or maintain customer funds or securities. Pursuant to SEC Rule 15C3-3, the Company is k(2)(i) exempt.

See accompanying notes and auditors' report.

ACCOUNTANTS' SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of
Triumph Securities Corporation

We have examined the financial statements of Triumph Securities Corporation (the "Company") for the year ended June 30, 2007 and have issued our report thereon dated August 14, 2007. As part of our examination, we have reviewed and tested the system of internal accounting control for the year ended June 30, 2007 including the accounting system and practices and procedures established for making periodic computations of aggregate debits and net capital and for determining deposit requirements, if any, in a special reserve bank account for customers. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company (i) in obtaining and maintaining physical possession or control of fully paid securities of customers, (ii) in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons, and the recording of differences required by Rule 17a-13 or (iii) in complying with the requirements of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, because the Company does not handle cash or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities transactions.

Our review and tests of the system of internal accounting control were of the extent we considered necessary to evaluate the system for the purpose of establishing a basis for reliance thereon in determining the nature, timing and extent of other auditing procedures necessary for expressing our opinion on the financial statements under generally accepted auditing standards and to provide a basis for reporting material weaknesses in internal accounting control.

The objective of internal accounting control is to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance as to the safeguarding of assets against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and the reliability of financial records for preparing financial statements and maintaining accountability for assets. The concepts of reasonable assurance recognizes that the cost of a system of internal accounting control should not exceed the benefits derived and also recognizes that the evaluation of these factors necessarily requires estimates and judgments by management.

There are inherent limitations that should be recognized in considering the potential effectiveness of any system of internal accounting control. In the performance of most control procedures, errors can result from misunderstanding of instructions, mistakes of judgment, carelessness, or other personal factors. Control procedures whose effectiveness depends upon segregation of duties can be circumvented by collusion. Similarly, control procedures can be circumvented intentionally by management, with respect either to the execution and recording of transactions or with respect to the estimates and judgments required in the preparation of financial statements. Further, projection of any evaluation of internal accounting control to future periods is subject to the risk that the procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, and that the degree of compliance with the procedures may deteriorate.

Our review and tests of the system of internal accounting control were made for the purpose set forth in the second paragraph and would not necessarily disclose all weaknesses in the system which may have existed during the period under review. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the system of internal accounting control of Triumph Securities Corporation taken as a whole. However, our review and tests disclosed no conditions which we believe to be material weaknesses.
