INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
James T. Borello & Co.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of James T. Borello & Co. as of September 30, 2006 that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly in all material respects, the financial position of James T. Borello & Co. as of September 30, 2006, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2006

NOTE 1 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization - The Company was incorporated in the state of Illinois on February 14, 1990. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Company's principal business activities are the sale of securities and providing accounting and income tax preparation services.

Securities Transactions - Commission revenue and related expense arising from securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis, which is the same business day as the transaction date.

Cash Equivalents - Cash equivalents are defined as certificates of deposit and U.S. government obligations with a maturity date of less than 90 days, when acquired by the Company, and those securities registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 which are comprised of cash and other short-term debt instruments and are commonly referred to as "money market funds."

Depreciation - Depreciation of furniture, equipment and automobile is provided for using various accelerated and straight line methods over five, seven and ten year periods.

Concentration of Risk - Substantially all the Company's cash is on deposit at one financial institution and the balance at times may exceed the federally insured limit. Due to the strong credit rating of this financial institution, the Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk to cash.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 - RETIREMENT PLAN

Effective December 31, 2002 and for all subsequent plan years, the Company merged both its money purchase pension plan and a profit sharing plan into a single profit sharing plan. The plan now allows the Company to make discretionary contributions not exceeding 25% of eligible compensation. The profit sharing plan is integrated with social security. Employees may become participants in the plan after two years of service. Contributions to the plan for the year ended September 30, 2006 were $202,247.

NOTE 3 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

As a registered broker/dealer and member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 1500%. At September 30, 2006 the Company's net capital and required net capital were $342,480 and $25,000 respectively. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 11%.

NOTE 4 - RELATED PARTIES

During the year ended September 30, 2006, the Company paid $126,000 in rent for occupancy of its premises to the Company's sole shareholder. No written lease agreement exists between the Company and the shareholder.

In addition, this shareholder is also a registered representative of the Company and is responsible for over half of the Company's revenue. The shareholder is not compensated based on a percentage of the revenue produced, but receives a salary.

YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2006

NOTE 5 - S CORPORATION ELECTION

The Company has elected S Corporation status for federal income tax purposes. Income taxes are therefore the responsibility of the Company's sole shareholder.

NOTE 6 - CASH SEGREGATED UNDER FEDERAL AND OTHER REGULATIONS

The Company has a bank account designated as a Special Bank Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. At September 30, 2006, this special bank account had a $0 balance.
