Tiomin Clarifies Lenders Position for the Kwale Project in Kenya

Toronto, Canada. February 14, 2007. Tiomin Resources Inc. ("Tiomin" or the "Company") (TSX: TIO) wishes to clarify Tiomin's February 9th press release regarding the status of the debt facility. The lenders to the Kwale mineral sands project (the "Project") have not formally withdrawn the US$155 million debt facility for the Project but have clearly indicated that the present economics and significant issues related to the Project prevent Tiomin from borrowing under the debt facility.

Under the present terms and conditions, the lenders are entitled to withdraw the debt facility. The parties have mutually agreed that Tiomin ceases paying future commitment fees related to maintaining the debt facility until the Project plan is updated and significant conditions precedent, including funding of forecast cost overruns, are either satisfied, or a suitable plan to satisfy them is presented. Tiomin anticipates paying additional financing and commitment fees related to future Project reviews and approvals necessary to obtain and utilize the debt facility.
