Takeover offer for Qantas Airways Limited - Expert's Report on Management Rollover Offer

As foreshadowed in section 7.3.1 of Airline Partner's Australia's Bidder's Statement dated 2 February 2007, attached is a report prepared by PKF Corporate Advisory Services (NSW) Pty Ltd in relation to the Management Rollover Offer.

15 February 2007

The Board of Directors
Airline Partners Australia Limited
Level 60
Governor Phillip Tower
1 Farrer Place
Sydney NSW 2000

Dear Sirs

Management Rollover Offer

On 14 December 2006, Airline Partners Australia Limited ("APA") announced a takeover offer to acquire all of the shares in Qantas Airways Limited ("Qantas") for $5.60 cash per share ("Takeover Offer"). The subsequent announcement by Qantas on 8 February 2007 of a special dividend of 15 cents per share has adjusted the Takeover Offer to $5.45 cash per Qantas share.

In various sections, in particular 4.5.2 and 7.3, of its Bidder's Statement dated 2 February 2007, APA has disclosed that if the Takeover Offer is successful, then, after completion of the Takeover Offer, but prior to commencing compulsory acquisition, APA intends to make a separate offer to acquire Qantas Shares then held by certain senior members of Qantas management ("Management Rollover Offer").

We understand that, if the Management Rollover Offer is made, the consideration for the Qantas Shares held by the relevant manager will be 5.45 ordinary shares in APA for each Qantas share on issue prior to the record date for the 15 cent special dividend (being 5.6 APA shares adjusted for that dividend). Any Qantas Shares issued to management after that time (on conversion of Qantas Rights under the Qantas deferred share plan) will not receive the dividend but instead will receive additional consideration of 0.15 APA share per Qantas Share.

APA has not yet finally determined whether the Management Rollover Offer will be made or, if it is made, which members of Qantas senior management will receive the Management Rollover Offer. Any Management Rollover Offer would be separate from, and independent of, any potential allocation of APA shares to the Qantas management as part of any long term incentive plan. Further details of the form of the potential Management Rollover Offer are set out in section 7.3 of the Bidder's Statement.

Unless otherwise indicated, terms used in this report have the meaning given to them in the Bidder's Statement.

Opinion sought

APA values the consideration under the Management Rollover Offer at no more than the offer price under the Takeover Offer. APA has requested our opinion as to whether the Management Rollover Offer (if made) will be on terms that are no more favourable than the terms of the Takeover Offer made to other Qantas Shareholders.

Summary of Our Review Process

In forming the opinion stated below, PKFCA has:

- Considered the assessment of the Management Rollover Offer on the necessary assumptions that the Takeover Offer will achieve 90% acceptance and all other conditions are satisfied, and that APA therefore becomes funded as set out in Section 5 of the Bidder's Statement;

DX 10173 | Sydney Stock Exchange | New South Wales

- Assessed the terms of the Management Rollover Offer as at the time immediately following receipt of the Investor Group Funding and payment of the consideration for Qantas Shares under the Takeover Offer;
- Noted Section 7.3.3 of the Bidder's Statement that the APA shares to be offered as consideration under the Management Rollover Offer will have the same rights and limitations as those that will be owned by the Investor Group via the APA Fund, but will also be subject to customary provisions of employee share plans of non-stock exchange listed companies, including management participants being subject to share transfer restrictions and obligations and rights to retain equity which are linked to continued employment with Qantas;
- Reviewed the Bidder's Statement (dated 2 February 2007) and in particular, the details of the Management Rollover Offer in Sections 4.5, 4.7 and 7.3 of that document;
- Noted that some of the interests in shares subject to the Management Rollover Offer are rights to be allocated Qantas Shares. Section 11.1 of the Target's Statement discloses that the Qantas Board has exercised its power to convert Qantas Rights to Qantas Shares should the Takeover Offer become unconditional (and certain other conditions are met). The Management Rollover Offer includes an additional 0.15 APA shares for each Qantas Share which is issued on conversion of these Qantas Rights as those Qantas Shares will not have been issued at the record date (being 19 February 2007), and therefore will not qualify, for the special cash dividend announced by Qantas on 8 February 2007. The consideration under the Takeover Offer and the Management Rollover Offer may therefore be summarised as follows:

Table 1: Offer Consideration Summary

Type of Consideration	For each Qantas share	For each existing Management Qantas share	For each new Management Qantas share issued on the conversion of Rights
Cash Takeover Offer:
Cash per Qantas Share	$5.45
Special dividend per Qantas Share	$0.15	$0.15
APA Management Rollover Offer:
APA shares per Qantas Share		5.45	5.45
APA shares issued to compensate for the non-receipt of the Special Dividend per Qantas Share			0.15

Source: Bidder's Statement, Target Statement, Management Rollover Offers

- Reviewed the agreed form of the APA Investment Deed (dated 15 December 2006), Investor Group Subscription Deed (dated 14 December 2006), APA Fund and APA Subscription Deed (dated 15 February 2007) and the APA constitution, in particular the rights and limitations of APA shares;
- Reviewed the Qantas Target's Statement (dated 12 February 2007) and the report of the Independent Expert accompanying that document; and
- Formed the view that the assessment of whether the Management Rollover Offer is on more favourable terms than the Takeover Offer should be made by comparing the value of the consideration offered for the Qantas Shares under both arrangements.

PKFCA Reasoning

- In our view, the comparison of consideration values is the appropriate method of assessment because the values attributed to the consideration represent the future prospects of the Qantas Shares at the time of the offers. The Management Rollover Offer will only be made if the Takeover Offer conditions, including that 90% of present Qantas shareholders accept the Takeover Offer, are met (or waived). Accordingly, the body of shareholders will have acknowledged, by their acceptance of the Takeover Offer, that $5.60 cash ($5.45 plus the $0.15 special dividend) is acceptable consideration for the benefits and risks of continuing to own their Qantas Shares as at the date of the offers.

- Under the terms of the APA Subscription Deed, the price at which the Investor Group, via the APA Fund, will subscribe for APA shares is $1.00 per APA share which, together with the special warrant subscription funds and senior debt facilities, will be sufficient to effect the Takeover Offer and ongoing investment in Qantas as set out in Section 7 of the Bidder's Statement.
- The Bidder's Statement indicates, at paragraph 2.2, that APA has and will, by the time of our assessment, have undertaken no business other than raising the funds and making the Takeover Offer. Accordingly, immediately following the payment of the consideration for the Takeover Offer, APA's debt and equity capital raised will be represented by the Qantas Shares acquired and the remaining cash.
- The value of Qantas Shares to be acquired at completion has been the subject of inquiry by the Independent Expert. We note the Independent Expert's conclusion that the Takeover Offer price falls within their range of assessed values for a controlling interest in Qantas. Further, per our assumption above, the body of Qantas shareholders will also have accepted the Takeover Offer consideration value. Accordingly, we have adopted the Takeover Offer consideration of $5.45 per Qantas share ($5.60 less the $0.15 special dividend paid prior to acquisition) as the value of those shares on a controlling interest basis.
- In broad terms, immediately following completion of the Takeover Offer, the subscribed funds to APA of $1 per share will have been preserved, being represented by the controlling interest acquired in Qantas shares and the remaining cash net of debt before any allowance for costs associated with making the Takeover Offer. However, the value of APA shares will reduce below $1 per share as a result of any costs incurred in making the Takeover Offer.
- Under the terms of the Management Rollover Offer, the relevant Qantas management would be invited to exchange each of their existing Qantas Shares for 5.45 APA shares (following adjustment for the $0.15 special dividend) and each of their new Qantas Shares issued on conversion of Qantas Rights (which will not have received the dividend) for a total of 5.6 APA shares. At $1 per APA share, this represents consideration equivalent to the $5.45 offered under the Takeover Offer plus the $0.15 special dividend, but less than such consideration when the expenditure of funds for costs of the takeover are deducted.
- In addition, any Qantas management team investment in APA under the Management Rollover Offer would represent only up to 1% of the economic interests and 1.4% of the voting interests in APA; it would not represent a controlling interest (as reflected in the price paid for Qantas Shares under the Takeover Offer as noted by the Independent Expert) and would be less liquid than the cash offered under the Takeover Offer. These factors would further potentially reduce the value of the Management Rollover Offer consideration in comparison to the cash Takeover Offer consideration.

Conclusion

Accordingly, in our opinion the Management Rollover Offer is on no more favourable terms than the Takeover Offer to all Qantas shareholders.

Yours faithfully
