Appointment of Chief Financial Officer

Lonmin announces the appointment of Alan Ferguson as Chief Financial Officer and a Director of the Company with effect from 6 June 2007.

John Robinson, currently Chief Financial Officer will be resigning as a Director of Lonmin with effect from 6 June 2007 and retiring from the Company at the end of June 2007. John has been with the Lonmin group for 28 years the last 8 as Chief Financial Officer. Lonmin is pleased to announce that John has agreed to continue in a part time advisory role with the Group as the Chairman of the Lonmin Development Trust and as one of Lonmin's two representatives on the Incwala Resources Board replacing Sir John Craven.

Alan Ferguson was appointed as Group Finance Director of The BOC Group (BOC) in 2005 and will be leaving BOC following the acquisition of BOC by the Linde Group in late 2006. Before joining BOC, Alan worked for Inchcape plc for 22 years in a variety of roles including as Group Finance Director from 1999 until 2005. Alan is a Chartered Accountant.

Sir John Craven, Chairman of Lonmin said:

"I would like to thank John Robinson personally and on behalf of the Lonmin Board for his immense contribution to the success of Lonmin over his long career with the Company. He has been an integral part of the team which streamlined and redefined the Company to create the focussed international PGM mining company which Lonmin is today.

I am pleased to welcome Alan Ferguson to Lonmin. Alan had a long and distinguished career with Inchcape and more recently as the Finance Director of BOC. He will be a great addition to the Lonmin executive team and I look forward to working with him in the future."
